

MAJOR EVENTS HISTORY OF OFFICE OF THE ADJUTANT GENERAL

The agency provided the information below in the Program Evaluation Report it submitted on September 29, 2017.¹

- 1670
 - [SCNG, State Guard] On the first Wednesday of April, three ships from England and the Caribbean sailed into what is now known as Charleston Harbor. A militia, formed of all male inhabitants and free men of Carolina between the ages of 17 to 60, was called to bear arms. The SC National Guard and SC State Guard trace their lineages back to this early colonial militia.
- 1670-1903
 - [SCNG, State Guard] The units of the SC Militia participated in The American Revolution, the War of 1812, Creek War, the Second Seminole War, the Mexican-American War, the Civil War, and the Spanish-American War.
- 1779
 - [SCNG, State Guard] Major Pierce Butler was appointed as the first Adjutant General by Governor John Rutledge. An Irishman, he resigned his commission with the British Army in 1773 before settling in South Carolina. He was tasked with reorganizing the State's defenses. Though his official rank was Brigadier General, he asked to be referred to as Major as it was his highest combat rank held. He served as Adjutant General until 1791.
- 1792
 - [SCARNG, State Guard] Lawrence Manning was appointed as the Adjutant General. He served as Adjutant General from 1792 to 1804.
