DJJ PROCESS

1. Most juveniles enter the juvenile justice system in South Carolina when they are taken into custody by law enforcement and referred to DJJ. Juveniles may also be referred to DJJ by a Circuit Solicitor, parent, or a school.
2. Most juveniles are released to their parents by law enforcement pending referral to DJJ. Law enforcement might also elect to send a juvenile to a SC juvenile detention center, pending a hearing. DJJ conducts intake interviews with juveniles and their parents.
3. DJJ makes recommendations to the Circuit Solicitor's Office regarding the case.
Juvenile at County Detention Center or JDC (This last statement is not accurate. Juveniles can be placed in a number of places including STAP placements or remain at home. In FY 2015-2016 of the 15,429 cases to the solicitor only 3,262 were referred to JDC.)
4. Solicitor chooses to (A) dismiss case entirely; (B) divert a juvenile to a community program (such as a drug court or juvenile arbitration program); (C) require the juvenile to make restitution for the offense; or (D) proceed with prosecution:
Juvenile at County Detention Center or DJJ Juvenile Detention Center while Solicitor makes a decision. Juveniles can also be placed in a other locations including STAP placements or remain at home. Most children remain at home.
5. If a Solicitor chooses to prosecute, the case proceeds to Court.
6. The Family Court Judge finds the juvenile "not delinquent" (not guilty) or "delinquent" (guilty) after a plea or a trial.
A judge may request a DJJ evaluation of the child before making his final dispositional (or sentencing) decision. This involves psychological, social, and educational evaluations conducted either in the community or at one of DJJ's three Evaluation Centers:
Juvenile at Juvenile Detention Center or Secure Evaluation Center while awaiting, and during, trial and sentencing.
Juveniles can also be placed in a number of places including STAP placements or remain at home. Also, if they are not referred to JDC, they can be placed in a STAP placement.
7. If the juvenile is "adjudicated delinquent" (found guilty), the judge may (A) put the juvenile on probation; (B) give a "determinate" (fixed amount of time) commitment; or (C) give an "indeterminate" commitment.
If on probation, Juvenile remains in the community either in placement or at home
If determinate or indeterminate commitment, Juvenile goes to Admissions at one of the three Evaluation Centers
8. Indeterminate commitment is when a juvenile is held for a indefinite period of time, up to age 21. Upon commitment, a juvenile will be given a time range or "guideline," determined by the state Board of Juvenile Parole (for all felonies and select misdemeanors) or DJJ's release authority (for most misdemeanors and all status offenses). This range is based on the severity of the juvenile's offense and his history of previous offenses. These guidelines can run anywhere from 1-3 months up to 36-54 months.
9. Juveniles may be (A) paroled prior to their minimum guideline for exceptional behavior and progress; (B) granted unconditional release; or (C) granted a conditional release which might involve requiring the juvenile to complete a local aftercare program or program at a wilderness camp or group home. A conditional release also involves a period of parole

Incident also refers to situations of environmental risk, such as broken glass, blocked emergency exits, etc. Some incidents may be resolved without injury to staff or residents. This includes minor injuries such as scratches or swelling, injuries from assaults/fights, accidental injuries from playing sports or other environmental hazards, cases where a youth or staff member is injured during the application of restraints.

Isolation can occur in locked or unlocked rooms but cannot occur in large dormitories. For the purposes of PbS data collection, this does not include protective isolation (for injured youths or youths whose safety is threatened), does not include youth in medical isolation, routine isolation at the time of the youth's admission, or isolation that is requested by the youth. (See Room Confinement)
Juvenile Room Confinement/Isolation Record Sheet and Cell Check Log form	DJJ	A form used by DJJ staff in Hardware secure facilities to document the visual checks of juveniles placed in isolation or room confinement. Juveniles on room confinement or isolation are required to be assessed by staff at least every 15 minutes until all calm, cooperative and safe criteria are met. Mechanical restraint	PbS	Mechanical devices used to prevent an uncontrollable youth from injuring him or herself or others. Mechanical restraints may only be used for short periods of time and must be used under medical supervision. Restraints should never be used as punishment for misconduct. Mechanical restraints used for the routine transport or movement of youth should not be included in PbS data collections. However, mechanical restraints used for transporting a youth from a housing unit to isolation in either an individual room or isolation unit should be counted.
Officer to Juvenile Ratio	DJJ	DJJ has adopted the PREA Juvenile Facility Standard 115.313. Under these standards, secure juvenile facilities are required to maintain staff ratios of a minimum of 1:8 during resident waking hours and 1:16 during resident sleeping hours, except during limited and discrete exigent circumstances. DJJ is working to meet this standard. However, due to staffing shortages, DJJ is currently operating at a 1:10 average juvenile to staff ratio at the Broad River Road Complex (BRRRC) and a 1:20 juvenile to staff ratio average at the Evaluation Centers. The Juvenile Detention Center operates within the 1:8 juvenile to staff ratio average on a frequent basis, except in extenuating circumstances.

Probation	DJJ	A court disposition that does not involve confinement, but imposes conditions on and supervision of a juvenile adjudicated delinquent for one or more offense. In South Carolina, juvenile probation can last up until the juvenile's 18 th birthday. Juveniles who are on probation remain under the authority of the family court and will be "violated" for failing to abide by the terms and conditions of their probation orders. Probation violations are contempt actions and may result in new and/or stricter sanctions for the juvenile found to be in violation of his or her prior court order. DJJ provides juveniles with three levels of community based supervision according to need and risk: standard supervision, moderate supervision and intensive supervision.
