

Resources

Employees

The size of the agency, in terms of FTEs, has remained relatively static over its history, with no more than two FTEs since its inception. Notably, the agency's previous director was a part-time employee. Additionally, the SCTIB reported to the Committee it "outsources several of its functions, like financial management, information technology, and legal services, in order to remain efficient."

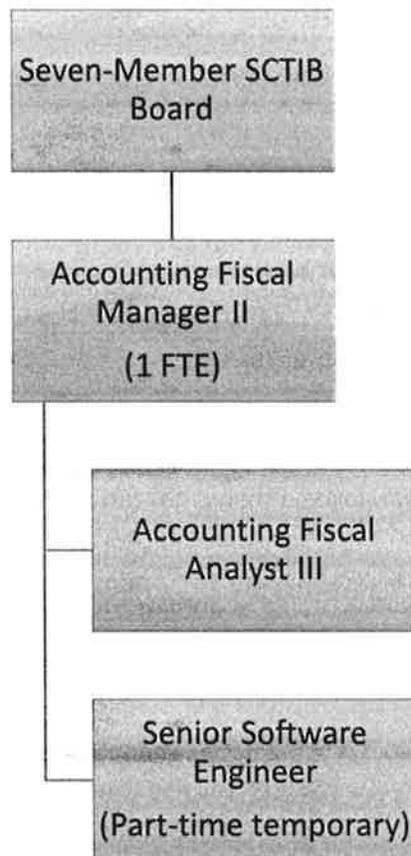

Figure 6. Agency's current organizational chart.⁶⁶