Special Retirement Subcommittee To Hold Public Hearing

(Columbia, SC) The South Carolina Senate Finance Committee's Special Subcommittee on Retirement will host a round of public hearings, beginning October 5, 2011 in Clemson, SC at the Madren Center - BellSouth Auditorium, located at 230 Madren Center Drive, Clemson. The hearing will begin promptly at 5:00 p.m and the general public is invited to attend and participate in this hearing.

The subcommittee co-chaired by Senators Greg Ryberg and Thomas Alexander, also includes Sens. Nikki Setzler, Phil Leventis, Darryl Jackson and Danny Verdin.

During the subcommittee's work, they will be tasked with reviewing each retirement system, studying both the short and long term issues of each system and ultimately creating a system which ensures balance for all interested parties.

If you wish to participate by making public comments during the hearing, please register prior to the event. To do so, please contact Whitney Moon with the South Carolina Senate at 803-212-6640 or by emailing whitneymoon@scsenate.gov.

Following the subcommittee's hearing in Clemson, they will host sessions for public input in West Columbia, Aiken and Florence.
