This bill adds Section 4-9-32, which upon request by a member of the county legislative delegation, requires county councils of all forms of county government, except the board of commissioners form, to provide office space and funds for the operation of the county legislative delegation. This includes the compensation of personnel and office supplies and equipment. The appropriation amount must be determined by the legislative delegation and be included in the annual county budget. The delegation is responsible for the employment, supervision, and discharge of all personnel in the delegation office.
