The Senate assembled at 2:00 P.M., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Jeremiah 29:12

“Then you will call on me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you.”

Let us pray. Almighty God, since the founding of our great country, You have called upon great people to lead us. Most of them are gone now but their words about faith and prayer live on to inspire us. Abraham Lincoln, whose birthday was this past Sunday said, “I have been driven many times upon my knees by the overwhelming conviction that I had nowhere to go but prayer. My own wisdom and that of all about me, seemed insufficient for the day.”

O God, as we begin this week, we confess that, no matter what our position, our rank or our station -- our wisdom is insufficient for the day unless we turn to You in prayer. Grant that we might open the inner most recesses of our hearts to the power of Your holy spirit for us this day. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.
