The Senate assembled at 2:00 P.M., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Isaiah 57:19-21

“ ‘Peace, peace, to the far and the near, says the Lord, and I will heal them.’ But the wicked are like the tossing sea that cannot keep still; its waters toss up mire and mud. ‘There is no peace, says my God, for the wicked.’ ”

Let us pray. Almighty God, the world has never been able to sustain peace. Throughout time, an insatiable thirst for power has consumed so many and we continue to make the same mistakes. Yet You, in Your infinite wisdom, beckon us back to peace.

Now faced with impending dangers all around the globe, we honor and pray for those who are willing to serve and protect our great nation from those that would do us harm. Strengthen and protect the men and women of our military that bravely preserve the freedoms we enjoy each day.

Empower our leaders, O God, with the wisdom to forge policies that will ultimately set us on a path to peace and healing for generations to come. We pray this in Your holy name, O Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

Remarks by Senator SCOTT

Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT, members of the Senate. I wish to thank each and every one of you as my colleagues here in the Senate during the passing of my father. I thank you for your prayers, flowers and other condolences you sent. Thank you for being at the wake and many of you were at the wake as well as at the funeral.

My father who passed on April 22 and was funeralized this past Thursday. Most important of all, during my absence here, I thank the leadership for the role it played in making sure that this Roads Bill passed. As I watched on the internet, and watched the work that you were getting done. I know some of you were asking during that time why I was here on that Tuesday before that Thursday. You see, my father was this kind of guy -- he didn't believe in wasting time. He believed in getting things done. My father was also interested in making sure that all his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren were educated. He was also a man who believed in growing wealth. But most important of all, he believed in family. My father in one of the last few conversations that we had together, asked me one important thing, "When are you going to fix my roads?" That's why I was here Tuesday. And I say to you in him leaving on Thursday and us getting this Roads Bill on Thursday, I think we are headed down the road to getting the roads fixed. He would constantly talk to my good friend Leon Howard who is on the House side. They would sometimes meet up for lunch and Leon would jokingly say to him, "Do you need a new Senator?" and he would respond, "Yes." This Senator I got, my son, if he don't get my roads done, I will get you a new Senator. That was always their joke about getting the roads fixed. But on a very, very serious note, I thank all of you for your support. I don't know how I would have gotten through all of it if I had not received the kind of support, the overwhelming support from the members of the Senate, members of the House, and overwhelming support I got from the community, and especially from churches all across this State. Again, thank you. Thank you so much.

On motion of Senator SETZLER, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator SCOTT, were ordered printed in the Journal.
