The Senate assembled at 12:00 Noon, the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Matthew 5:16

“Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven.”

Let us pray. Gracious God, every person in this Chamber is like a bright sign glowing in the darkness. For each person here is a public figure and communicates a message to anyone who is looking.

You, O God, have made it possible for people to design their own life sign. What that sign says is clear to those who remember us at our funeral but we will not be able to hear those words or change those words.

Therefore, guide us and direct us this day that our vocation and our deeds will paint a sign that clearly points others to You -- and may all that we say and do send a clear message of Your love, Your forgiveness and Your kindness. May our signs be like a beacon of light that guides those that know us to discover a safe place in Your grace. For it is in Your holy name that we pray, Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.
