Page 2: About Agencies Scheduled for Study

Q1 Please share any comments, suggestions or concerns you may have about these agencies, including any observations about the way the agency shares information online. Please note your responses will be posted online and may be included in a Committee report.

All Agencies	Streamline agencies and abolish boards where possible. Taxpayers overpay for duplicate resources.
Corrections, Department of	Raise pay of these state employees, who are law enforcement officers.
Education, Department of	Portions of their website have not been updated in years. Employees rarely respond to emails. Cease SLO requirement for teachers. Little wonder people leave the profession. Spearman is the best SOE we've had in recent memory. Read to Succeed Act will not be the magic bullet fir college and career readiness. What the public doesn't know is high schoolers do NOT read or write.
Employment & Workforce, Department of	Other states sponsor job rehabilitation for disabilities. Does S.C.?
SCETV Commission	Always does so much with so little!
State Library	Bump up awareness of Discus resources, especially among general public and legislators.
Lt. Governor's Office on Aging	Heard about this when Andre Bauer served. Since then, nit much.
Motor Vehicles, Department of	Local facilities in the upstate have improved dramatically in service. Staff is pleasant! In the same building since the 1970s.
Retirement System Investment Commission	Inform the public about what improvements are made. Stop paying exorbitant fees to consultants.
