Corrections, Department of

SCDC the COVID virus is spreading like wildfire..our loved ones are demanding something be done! They are scared they are gonna die many of them were not given a death sentence! I know for fact if you had a loved one in this situation you would be doing all that you can to take control of the situation and help them out..it is a shame that 95% of this being spread could have been avoided but is all due to negligence and ignorance of the director and all the correction officers. Someone needs to step in and get a handle on all this..
