Josh Baker is an inept bully. He has mismanaged the agency since he was appointed. His pet project, BabyNet is a COMPLETE disaster. The agency had to post almost weekly bulletins last summer due to the complete mishandling of the conversion of BabyNet providers. He also mismanaged the agency's response to remote working at the beginning of the COVID crisis. Staff were asked to apply for special dispensation if they met age or health criteria. The following week, when schools were closed, staff were asked to submit how many children they had and how many were under the age of 18--what micromanaging nonsense is this?
