Juvenile Justice, Department of

These people/employees are obviously spoon feeding your committee just what they want you to know. After watching the oversight committee, they must be talking about an exit interview for this PBS oral report. I am shocked that a PBS report would only be verbal. Is there something they are hiding. I believe they are sharing info that would make them look favorable. How many incidences has resulted in property damage and what is the cost to the public to repair these buildings? Are they taking care of their employees? How many employees are on leave/workman's comp due to injuries? The attorney seems to be answering questions that individuals who work directly with the program. How many raises has she given to those at the top versus those working directly with the juveniles? I say to the committee members to "trust but also verify".
