Recently many of our clients who requested their 2017 individual income tax overpayments be carried forward to 2018 estimated payments instead received refund checks. They were told it was an by their preparer. They called and complained to us, and said SCDOR told them we don't know what we are doing. We called and received three different explanations. But in the end, we and our clients have to take additional actions because SCDOR can't seem to properly process a return.

This agency is primed for an age discrimination suit. If you are over forty and work at DOR, expect to stay in your same position for the rest of your career. The hiring and promotion practices need to get reviewed. If you are below forty and lack experience, you will get promotions. A young supervisor spoke up in a meeting that she is the youngest in the section and felt uncomfortable. Even they are feeling awkward.

This agency is a disgrace to the State of South Carolina. The Legislative Oversight Committee has the opportunity, if not the obligation, to look into the hi-jinx that goes on at the Department of Revenue. Why are high level management positions created for friends, regardless of qualifications or competency? Why did management appoint a man with fewer than 2 years revenue office experience, as the Statewide RO Manager ? Why did management appoint a woman, who has NEVER worked as a TAO, as the Statewide TAO Manager? Why are there so many layers of management in this fiscally conservative state? Why isn't anyone concerned about what is happening at the Department of Revenue?
