Recommendations

The Subcommittee has seven recommendations arising from its study of the agency. The recommendations are to ETV and the House Legislative Oversight Committee. They address marketing, feedback, procurement, interagency collaboration, the agency’s relationship with the ETV Endowment of South Carolina (hereinafter, “endowment”), and modernizing state law.

Table 1. Summary of recommendations arising from the study process.

Topic		Recommendation
Marketing and Communications Plan		1.) ETV should (a) develop or revamp the agency’s marketing and communications plan, and (b) create a related strategy for implementation.
Anonymous Feedback		2.) ETV should develop a plan to receive anonymous employee and customer feedback for use in strategic planning and evaluation.
Procurement Exemption		3.) ETV should seek a procurement exemption for purchase of industry-specific services and goods through the existing process with the State Fiscal Accountability Authority.
Collaboration	Agency Funding	4.) The House Legislative Oversight Committee should inquire about the efforts of each agency under study to collaborate with other agencies to seek funding.
	Scope of Service	5.) ETV should collaborate with the state Department of Education as to the potential need to revise language in S.C. Code Ann. § 59-32-30(4) in a way that would not conflict with provisions of the South Carolina Comprehensive Health Education Act.
Agreement with Endowment		6.) ETV should work with the ETV Endowment to create a memorandum of agreement or understanding which dictates the parameters in which the two entities operate.
State Law		7.) The General Assembly should update Title 59, Chapter 7 of the S.C. Code of Laws to reflect ETV’s current roles and responsibilities.

There are no specific recommendations with regards to continuance or elimination of agency programs.

Internal Changes Implemented by Agency Related to Study Process

During the study process, the agency implements five internal changes directly related to participation in the study process.

Throughout the study process, ETV staff provide updates to the Subcommittee regarding agency changes made as a result of the oversight process. The agency begins implementation of Subcommittee recommendations one (marketing and communications plan) and two (anonymous customer and employee feedback) during the process. While not a recommendation, agency staff note Subcommittee questioning reveals deficiencies in the agency’s data about the advisory council. Also, prior to beginning the study process, the agency researches options for reorganization. Completing the self-analysis required in the PER helps the agency finalize its structure going forward. The self-analysis also helps agency staff conclude there is a need to update the state statutes governing the agency’s operations.

AGENCY OVERVIEW

History

ETV provides the Committee an overview of the agency's history.⁴ In addition, Committee staff confirms the accuracy of assertions of legislative actions.

1958 - The General Assembly passes a concurrent resolution calling for a study of the use of television in public schools.⁵ The study committee recommends funding a pilot project. A studio is built at Dreher High School in Columbia, and the first telecast is transmitted, via closed-circuit, on September 8, 1958. R. Lynn Kalmbach is selected as project director and Henry J. Cauthen is selected as technical director. Each would later serve as an ETV president.

1960 - The General Assembly establishes the Educational Television Commission of South Carolina.⁶ R. Lynn Kalmbach serves as General Manager of the new state agency. Dr. George E. Bair serves as Education Director, and Henry J. Cauthen serves as Director of Production and Engineering. An empty grocery store at 2712 Millwood Avenue in Columbia is turned into the ETV studio and broadcast center. The agency remains there, expanding into 23 buildings up and down the street, until 1996. Classes, though still live, are also recorded using then four-year-old video-tape technology.

1961 - ETV closed-circuit educational programming reaches 31 schools in 11 counties.

1962 - Expansion of the closed-circuit system allows state agencies and public school teachers to use ETV for continuing professional education and post-graduate medical education. The closed-circuit network is extended to all counties, reaching 155 public high schools, 36 elementary schools, most state colleges, university extension centers, and 10 hospitals.

1963 - WNTV-TV 29, in Greenville signs on air as an ETV regional television station, making ETV a broadcast entity.

1964 - WITV-TV 7 in Charleston signs on air.

1965 - Henry J. Cauthen is named Director of Administration and Dr. George Bair is named Director of Education after the death of R. Lynn Kalmbach. Crime to Court, a monthly training video and booklet for judges and law enforcement officers, begins production. It lasts for nearly three decades and, at its height, trains 6,500 police officers, judges, and magistrates nationally.

1966 - WRLK-TV 35 in Columbia, named for R. Lynn Kalmbach, signs on air. The first ETV program magazine (ETV Guide) is published, providing the broadcast schedule for National Educational Television from New York City as well as local productions and classes. ETV's first weekly public affairs program Off the Cuff is broadcast.

1967 - The Public Broadcasting Act is signed into law, paving the way for the Corporation for Public Broadcasting, Public Broadcasting Service (PBS), and National Public Radio (NPR).⁷ ETV is given one of the pens used by President Lyndon Johnson to sign the legislation into law. It is a difficult year for ETV funding, and the ETV Guide is temporarily discontinued. Color broadcasting is delayed. Despite the setbacks, WJPM in Florence (named for James Pierce Mazingo, III) and WEBA in Allendale (named for Edgar Allen Brown) begin broadcasting.

1970 - Cable television begins to expand ETV's reach into homes. New ETV television courses allow students to earn their Master's Degree in Business Administration (MBA) from the University of South Carolina at their local technical college. During the courses, the students can talk back to the TV presenter via telephone.

1971 - ETV becomes the presenting station for William F. Buckley's public affairs show, Firing Line. The series runs until 1999. Color studio production begins. The General Assembly approves $3.6 million in bonds to extend ETV broadcasts to the entire state.⁸ Henry J. Cauthen is elected to the PBS Board of Directors.

1972 - The South Carolina Educational Radio Network (SCERN, later ETV Radio and then SCPR) is born. WEPR-FM 90.1 in Greenville (via Clemson studios) goes on the air, broadcasting the NPR Classical News format. All Things Considered is the first program aired. The radio network service includes specialized "radio for the blind" broadcasts. Transmitted on a special sub-frequency to those with special radio receivers, the broadcast includes volunteers reading local newspapers aloud.

1974 - WSCI-FM 89.3 in Charleston joins SCERN.

1975 - WRJA in Sumter (TV and radio) and WJWJ (TV) in Beaufort begin transmitting. WRJA is named for legislator R. J. Aycock; WJWJ for legislator W. James Waddell, Jr. Educational Radio for the Blind moves to SCERN's Columbia studios.

1976 - WLTR-FM 91.3 in Columbia signs on air. Because of ETV's tower network, South Carolina becomes the second state in the nation to use the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's (NOAA) new weather radio system.

1977 - The ETV Endowment is created as the non-profit entity that supports the educational programs of ETV and SCERN. Elaine Freeman serves as the founding executive director of the Endowment. As a part of a seven-nation live broadcast, ETV originates the U.S. portion of Christmas Around the World from Columbia Mall. ETV's Spoletto: Festival of Two Worlds airs on PBS.

1978 - WNSC in Rock Hill signs on with radio and TV service. In a special Firing Line produced in Columbia, William F. Buckley is joined by Ronald Reagan. The ETV production of Spoletto Festival opera The Consul is presented on PBS's Great Performances. ETV provides nightly coverage of the Spoleto Festival from Charleston. ETV joins the PBS satellite system.

1980 - WRTS-TV 49 in Spartanburg signs on air. It is later renamed WRET-TV for Rickard E. Tukey. Radio service is added to TV service in Beaufort as WJWJ-FM 89.9. SCERN's first instructional radio series, Catch On, debuts. Closed captioning begins.

1981 - WHMC-FM 90.1 in Conway signs on air. ETV is selected as the National Center for Instructional Television to transmit programming by satellite to public schools nationwide. ETV receives the Elizabeth O'Neill Verner Award for Government Body, South Carolina's highest honor for support of the arts presented by the S.C. Arts Commission.

1984 - WNEH in Greenwood signs on.

1986 - NatureScene is broadcast nationally.

1988 - ETV broadcasts The Black History Teleconference, connecting South Carolina with communities in Detroit, Atlanta, and Washington, D.C. The teleconference becomes a yearly event for nearly a quarter of a century. The 18-state Satellite Educational Resources Consortium, under ETV President Cauthen's leadership, receives a $5.6 million grant from the U.S. Department of Education to implement the Star Schools project, providing live, interactive instruction via satellite in math, foreign language and science.

1989 - WLJK-FM in Aiken signs on air.

1990 - The Charleston TV service is restored after it is destroyed by Hurricane Hugo in 1989. Windswept Hearts, a live call-in simulcast for radio and TV, helps South Carolinians deal with the emotional aftermath of the storm. Via the Star Schools project, ETV transmits teachers live to over 10,000 classrooms, teaching Russian (with native Russian teachers), Advanced Placement (A.P.) Economics, and A.P. Calculus. President Henry Cauthen is nominated to the Corporation for Public Broadcasting board by President George H.W. Bush.

1992 - With a $2.4 million grant, ETV launches The Early Childhood Professional Development Network, a national initiative that delivers live interactive training seminars to over 1,000 Head Start teachers in isolated rural areas across the United States. The staff begins the move to the new ETV office headquarters on George Rogers Boulevard, in Columbia, previously the home of The State and The Columbia Record newspapers. In a first, The Corporation for Public Broadcasting holds its annual meeting at ETV. ETV's mascot Lindsay the Leopard, transforms into Smart Cat.

1993 - ETV upgrades to a digital satellite system that allows 20 channels of two-way video and audio to schools, state government, and higher education institutions, including the Medical University of South Carolina and Richland Memorial Hospital.

1994 - ETV begins construction of a new studio building at George Rogers Boulevard across the street from the ETV office building. The ETV Endowment raises in excess of $4 million to purchase the property, which it later sells to the state for $1.

1995 - ETV installs satellite dishes on every middle, high, and vocational school in the state; begins Teacher Training Institutes statewide which provides information on new technologies and teaching; and introduces its first world wide web site. ETV's Learning Link begins internet service to middle school teachers. Budget cuts cause the release of the staff of Charleston radio station WSCI, which remains only as a transmitter.

1996 - Community advisory committees around the state are created to involve more communities with ETV.

1997 - ETV begins broadcasting and producing from its new studio facilities at 1041 George Rogers Boulevard. President Henry Cauthen announces his retirement and receives the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Corporation for Public Broadcasting.

1998 - Paul Amos takes the helm as ETV's third president. The READY TO LEARN service is launched to help meet the state's challenge of preparing South Carolina's children for first grade.

2000 - SCERN starts broadcasting multiple formats, using either NPR News or NPR Classical/News formats. President Paul Amos passes away.

2001 - Maurice "Moss" Bresnahan joins ETV as the new president. KnowItAll.org, ETV's web-based instructional service to schools, is launched.

2003 - The South Carolina Channel, ETV's first digital channel, launches at the State Fair. ETV consists of the following eight divisions reporting to the agency president: broadcasting, development, administrative services, school services, engineering, production, communications and government relations, and continuing education.

2004 - ETV launches StreamlineSC, an educational technology resource that makes over 10,000 educational videos and corresponding lesson plans and quizzes available to every public, private, and home school in the state.

2006 - StreamlineSC reaches its one millionth hit.

2008 - David Crouch becomes interim president of ETV. ETV Endowment Founding Executive Director Elaine Freeman retires. The agency consists of the following seven divisions reporting to the ETV president: administrative services, engineering, education, content, radio and programming, development and communications, and legislative relations.

2009 - ETV ends its analog television broadcasting service. Coby Hennecy is named the Executive Director of the ETV Endowment. The agency consists of the following seven divisions reporting to the president: national development/radio, engineering, education, content, fundraising and programming, human resources, and administration and financial operations.

2010 - Linda O'Bryon is named President and Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of ETV. The agency consists of the following seven divisions reporting to the ETV President: national programming/radio, engineering, education, content, development and programming, administration/HR, and financial operations.

2011 - Following a successful ETV Endowment capital campaign, ETV Radio moves into a new $1.5 million facility funded by corporate underwriters and over 1,000 ETV Endowment donors. The agency consists of the following seven divisions reporting to the ETV president: ETV radio and TV programming, engineering, education, content, underwriting and business enterprises, administration/HR, and financial operations.

2012 - Linda O'Bryon is named to the PBS board. ETV's administration building is sold to the University of South Carolina; the proceeds will be used to renovate and build out unfinished areas of ETV's Telecommunications Center (TCC-headquarters). ETV's Rapid Response Studio begins operation. This special studio links local newsworthy guests to national TV news programs with long interview formats. ETV Radio marks its 40th anniversary. Rowland Alston retires as host of Making It Grow and receives The Order of the Palmetto, the State's highest award. Regular contributor Amanda McNulty becomes the new host.

2015 - ETV Radio is renamed South Carolina Public Radio (SCPR). The agency consists of the following eight divisions reporting to the ETV President: radio and TV Programming, engineering, education, content, communications, underwriting, administration/HR/information technology and financial & procurement.

2016 - ETV and SCPR launch their own application for mobile devices. President and CEO Linda O'Bryon announces her retirement.

2017 - Anthony Padgett is selected as ETV's President and CEO. The ETV Endowment celebrates 40 years. Smart Cat, the ETV mascot, turns 25. The 2017 solar eclipse passes directly over Columbia (and the State Museum's telescope), which provides a vantage point for a live national program and webcast for homes and schools during the event. SCPR launches its first high-definition (HD) radio signal in Charleston.

FY 2018-19 Budget Provisos

ETV is included in General Appropriations Act provisos directing the agency to receive/expend spectrum auction funds, coordinate tower and antenna operations within South Carolina state government, and delineate the agency's funding by line item. While ETV receives a relatively small amount of general funds directly, the agency receives state funding through provisos directing other agencies to transfer funds to ETV.¹⁰

Mission and Vision

Mission

The agency's mission is "to enrich lives by educating children, informing and connecting citizens, celebrating our culture, and instilling the joy of learning."¹¹

Vision

The agency's vision is "SCETV will be recognized as a center of excellence for our region and the nation, providing indispensable information and education to the communities we serve."¹²

Agency Organization

Governing Body

The South Carolina ETV Commission (commission) is created in 1960 in Section 21-60 (now Section 59-7-10) of the S.C. Code of Laws. The commission is charged with developing a statewide educational communications system to serve the needs of the people of South Carolina. The current commission is comprised of nine members (one member from each congressional district, a chairman from the state-at-large, and the State Superintendent of Education) who are reimbursed mileage and receive a $35 per diem.

There are no statutory term limits for members of the commission. Members are appointed by the Governor and serve six-year, staggered terms. The Superintendent of Education serves as an ex-officio member. A member continues to serve at the end of his term until he is either replaced, reappointed, or resigns.¹³

The commission meets at the call of the chair, and typically meets every other month.¹⁴

Agency Organizational Units

Every agency has an organization or hierarchy that is reflected in the agency’s organizational chart. Within the organization are separate units. An agency may refer to these units as departments, divisions, functional areas, cost centers, etc. Each unit is responsible for contributing to the agency’s ability to provide services and products.

During the study process the Committee asks the agency about its organization and major operating programs.¹⁶ At the time it submits its Program Evaluation Report in August 2018, ETV is comprised of nine organizational units: (1) Office of the President/CEO; (2) Administration/HR; (3) SCPR and ETV Programming; (4) Education; (5) Content; (6) Engineering; (7) Communications; (8) Underwriting; and (9) Finance/Procurement. However, the agency has since reorganized to reduce the number of divisions. Figure 6 reflects the original and re-organized divisions (see the Organizational Chart section).

The Office of the President/CEO organizational unit provides strategic direction and vision for the organization to include managing agency resources and providing services for education, government, business, and viewers. Table 3 provides additional information about the unit.

Organizational Chart

During the study, ETV management reorganizes the agency to decrease the number of divisions from to five, not including the office of the CEO/President; combine similar operating functions and reporting structures; increase agility and ability to adapt and respond to market demands; and support agency objectives and technologies. Both organizational charts are below.¹⁷

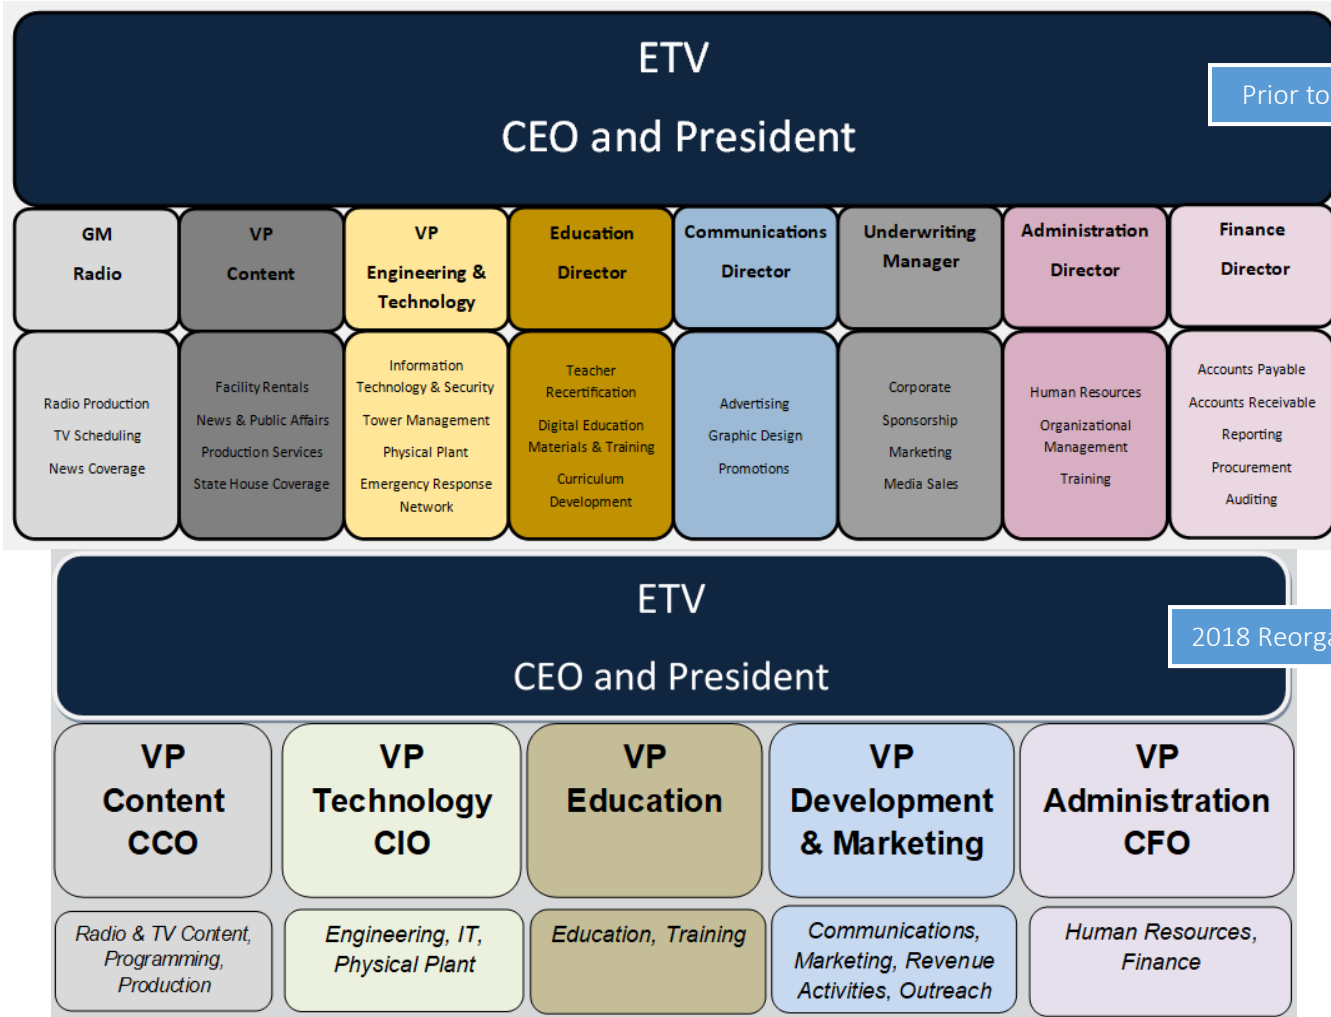

Figure 6. Organizational charts provided by the agency (current as of October 3, 2018).¹⁸

Internal Audit Process

In the Program Evaluation Report (PER), the Committee asks the agency to provide information about its internal audit process, if it has one. The agency's response is summarized below.¹⁹ For a complete description of the agency's risk management procedures, see its PER on the Committee's website.

ETV does not have an internal auditor. However, each department has internal processes in place that ensure financial and transparency requirements are met to mitigate risk associated with its business functions. These processes are a mixture of manual and automated checks to prevent misuse of state resources. ETV is also audited by external sources regularly as required in its business or contractual relationships in addition to those mandated by state entities. The audits include ones performed for the Corporation for Public Broadcasting and the State Auditor. In addition, there is self-audited data that is submitted to the Department of Administration Division of Technology. The results of these audits are posted to ETV's "Insider" website and are accessible to all employees, except records that cannot be included for privacy reasons. Records from previous audits are kept available for access.

The Insider site contains approved policies, standards, and procedures associated with areas such as physical security, workplace safety, procurement, and acceptable use policies for technology, among others. Information on how to report suspected fraud, waste, or abuse is available both on ETV's Insider page and is posted prominently in break areas around the organization in order to help ensure ETV is serving the best interest of its constituents.

Products, Services, and Customers

In its PER, the agency provides the Committee with a list of deliverables, information about the customers of each deliverable, and options for the General Assembly to ensure the deliverable is accomplished.²⁰ For all deliverables, the agency asserts "[t]here is currently no other agency which has the licensing ability and infrastructure to complete this deliverable." Some of the agency's deliverables are listed below.

- Provide media for instructional, educational, and cultural purposes through public broadcasting;
- Encourage the growth and development of nonbroadcast telecommunications technologies for the delivery of public telecommunications services;
- Purchase, lease or acquire and operate educational television, radio, and related equipment and facilities;
- Approve and monitor all leases for antenna placement on state-owned towers and buildings;
- Provide and encourage use of technology in public schools; and
- Work with the Department of Education to expand the engagement of stakeholders.

According to the PER, the agency performs outcome evaluations, has knowledge of the annual number of potential and served customers, evaluates customer satisfaction, and has knowledge of the cost it incurs per unit for each deliverable. Appendix B contains further details about each deliverable, including agency recommendations for how the General Assembly can help avoid the harm that could occur should the deliverable not be provided.

AVAILABLE RESOURCES

Financial Resources

The South Carolina Revenue and Fiscal Affairs Office provides summary funding data for all agencies. Table 12 includes ETV's FY 2015-16 and FY 2016-17 appropriations. Figure 5 provides the historical trend of ETV's general and total funds.

Human Resources

The Department of Administration's Division of State Human Resources provides the number of authorized, actual, and filled full time equivalent (FTE) positions for the last five fiscal years. Tables 13, 14, and 15 provide that information for ETV. The authorized total FTE positions is as of July 1 of the fiscal year, as stated in the Appropriations Act. The actual total FTE positions is the sum of filled FTE positions and vacant FTE positions, based on what the agency has entered in the South Carolina Enterprise Information System (SCEIS) and is as of June 30. If actual is more than authorized, it may be because during the course of the year, the Executive Budget Office authorizes interim FTE positions. If actual is less than authorized, it is because the agency has not set up all of the authorized positions in SCEIS yet. Filled FTE positions are those the agency has set up in SCEIS in which someone is actually working, as of June 30.

STRATEGIC RESOURCE ALLOCATION AND PERFORMANCE

Annually, each agency submits a strategic plan. Of interest in the oversight process are the total resources available to an agency and how the agency allocates human and financial resources across the agency's strategic plan. Tables 16, 17, 18, and 19 illustrate the agency's allocation of its financial and human resources among its goals and strategies in fiscal years 2016-17 and 2017-18. Also of interest during the study process is how the agency measures its performance in implementing the strategies of its strategic plan. Table 20 shows the agency's performance.

Goal 1 - Works toward creating a more entrepreneurial agency through administrative efforts such as revenue generation, state fund development, marketing, developing employees to be successful in this new environment.

Goal 2 - Produce, convene, distribute, and market educational resources for South Carolina's Pre K-12 administrators, teachers, staff and students; using current educational content tools, technology, networks, and teaching practices that can be replicated throughout the state; combine these efforts with teacher training and credited recertification courses to meet the goals of the Profile of the South Carolina Graduate.

Goal 3 - Grow agency services with quality media and programming. Transparency services to legislature and government to provide citizens with an understanding of how government works.

STUDY PROCESS

Agency Selection

ETV is an agency subject to legislative oversight.²¹ On December 19, 2017, during the 122nd General Assembly, the Committee prioritizes the agency for study.²²

As the Committee encourages collaboration in its legislative oversight process, the Committee notifies the following individuals about the agency study: Speaker of the House, standing committee chairs in the House, members of the House, Clerk of the Senate, and Governor.

Subcommittee Membership

The Education and Cultural Subcommittee of the House Legislative Oversight Committee studies the agency during the 122nd General Assembly.²³ Throughout the study, the Honorable Joseph H. Jefferson, Jr., serves as chair. Other Subcommittee Members include:

- The Honorable Chandra E. Dillard;
- The Honorable Tommy M. Stringer; and
- The Honorable John Taliaferro “Jay” West, IV.

Agency Reports to Legislative Oversight Committee

During the legislative oversight process, the Committee asks the agency to conduct self-analysis by requiring it to complete and submit annual Restructuring Reports, a Seven-Year Plan for cost savings and increased efficiencies, and a Program Evaluation Report. The Committee posts each report on the agency page of the Committee’s website.

Restructuring Report

The Annual Restructuring Report fulfills the requirement in S.C. Code Ann. § 1-30-10(G)(1) that annually each agency report to the General Assembly “detailed and comprehensive recommendations for the purposes of merging or eliminating duplicative or unnecessary divisions, programs, or personnel within each department to provide a more efficient administration of government services.” The report, at a minimum, includes information in the following areas - history, mission and vision, laws strategic plan, human and financial resources, performance measures, and restructuring recommendations.

ETV submits its Annual Restructuring Reports on February 27, 2015, and January 12, 2016.²⁴ The agency’s 2016-17 Annual Accountability Report to the Governor and General Assembly, which it submits in September 2017, serves as its 2018 Annual Restructuring Report.²⁵

Seven-Year Plan for Cost Savings and Increased Efficiencies

S.C. Code Ann. § 1-30-10 requires agencies to submit “a seven year plan that provides initiatives and/or planned actions that implement cost savings and increased efficiencies of services and responsibilities within the projected seven-year period.”²⁶ ETV submits its plan on February 27, 2015.²⁷

Program Evaluation Report

When an agency is selected for study, the Committee may acquire evidence or information by any lawful means, including, but not limited to, "requiring the agency to prepare and submit to the investigating committee a program evaluation report by a date specified by the investigating committee." S.C. Code Ann. § 2-2-60 outlines what an investigating committee's request for a program evaluation report must contain. Also it provides a list of information an investigating committee may request. The Committee sends guidelines for ETV's Program Evaluation Report (PER) on January 23, 2018. The agency submits its report on April 18, 2018. The agency submits an amended report on August 3, 2018.²⁸

The PER includes information in the following areas - agency snapshot, agency legal directives, strategic plan and resources, performance, agency ideas/recommendations, and additional documents. The Program Evaluation Report serves as the base document for the Subcommittee's study of the agency.

Information from the Public

Public input is a cornerstone of the House Legislative Oversight Committee's process. There are a variety of opportunities for public input during the legislative oversight process. Members of the public have an opportunity to participate anonymously in a public survey, provide comments anonymously via a link on the Committee's website, and appear in person before the Committee.²⁹ During the study, media articles related to the agency are compiled for member review.

Public Survey

From January 23 - March 1, 2018, the Committee posts an online survey to solicit comments from the public about ETV and five other agencies. The Committee sends information about this survey to all House members to forward to their constituents. Additionally, in an effort to communicate this public input opportunity widely, the Committee issues a statewide media release.³⁰

There are 501 responses to the survey, with 166 of these relating to ETV. The responses relating to the agency come from 18 of South Carolina's 46 counties.³¹ These comments are not considered testimony.³² As the survey notes, “input and observations from those citizens who [chose] to provide responses are very important . . . because they may help direct the Committee to potential areas for improvement with these agencies.”³³ The Committee posts the survey results on the Committee's website. The public is informed it may continue to submit written comments about agencies online after the public survey closes.³⁴

Less than ten percent of survey respondents report a negative opinion of ETV.

Over half of respondents report basing their opinions about ETV on personal or business experience with the agency, while nearly a quarter state that media coverage most significantly affects their opinions. A majority of those responding about ETV indicate they are state employees. Responses include comments on educational services, programming type, and agency personnel policies. These comments are posted verbatim to the Committee’s website, but they are not the comment or expression of the House Legislative Oversight Committee, any of its Subcommittees, or the House of Representatives.³⁵

Public Input via Committee Website

Throughout the course of the study, people are able to submit comments anonymously on the Committee website. No comments are submitted in this manner during the course of the ETV study.

Public Input via In-Person Testimony

During the study, the Committee offers the opportunity for the public to appear and provide sworn testimony.³⁶ A press release announcing this opportunity is sent to media outlets statewide on February 9, 2018.³⁷ The Committee holds a meeting dedicated to public input about ETV and other agencies on April 26, 2018. No one chooses to provide in-person testimony about ETV.³⁸

Meetings Regarding the Agency

The Committee meets with, or about, the agency on two occasions, and the Subcommittee meets with, or about, the agency on four occasions. All meetings are open to the public and stream live online; also, the videos are archived and the minutes are available online. A timeline of meetings is set forth in Figure 2 on page 7.

Study Process Completion

Pursuant to Committee Standard Practice 12.4, Subcommittee members may provide a separate written statement for inclusion with the Subcommittee's Study report. After receipt of any written statements, the Subcommittee Chair, pursuant to Committee Standard Practice 12.5, notifies the Committee Chair in writing that a Subcommittee Study is available for consideration by the full Committee.

Once the Committee Chair receives written notice from the Subcommittee Chair, the Committee Chair, pursuant to Committee Standard Practice 13.1, includes the Subcommittee Study on the agenda for a full committee meeting. During a full Committee meeting at which the Subcommittee Study is discussed, the Committee may vote, pursuant to Committee Standard Practice 13.2, to (1) refer the study and investigation back to the Subcommittee for further evaluation; (2) approve the Subcommittee's study; or (3) further evaluate the agency as a full Committee, utilizing any of the resources of legislative oversight available.

When the Committee approves a study, any member of the Committee may provide a written statement for inclusion with the study. The study, and written statements, are published online and the agency, as well as all House Standing Committees, receive a copy. The Committee shall offer at least one briefing to members of the House about the contents of the final oversight study approved by the Committee.⁴⁶ The Committee Chair may provide briefings to the public about the final oversight study.⁴⁷

To support the Committee's ongoing oversight by maintaining current information about the agency, the agency may receive an annual Request for Information.

RECOMMENDATIONS

The following recommendations include areas the Subcommittee identifies for potential improvement. The Subcommittee recognizes these recommendations will not satisfy everyone nor address every issue or potential area of improvement at the agency. These recommendations are based on the agency’s self-analysis requested by the Committee, discussions with the agency during multiple meetings, and analysis of the information obtained by the Subcommittee. This information, including, but not limited to, the Program Evaluation Report, Accountability Report, Restructuring Report and videos of meetings with the agency, is available on the Committee’s website.

Continue

The Subcommittee does not have any specific recommendations with regards to continuance of agency programs.

Revise

The Subcommittee has six recommendations for revisions. The Subcommittee recommendations are adopted at three meetings during the study.⁴⁸ The recommendations are to ETV and the House Legislative Oversight Committee. They address marketing, feedback, procurement, interagency cooperation, the agency’s relationship with the endowment, and modernizing state law. An overview of these recommendations is provided in Table 1 on page 8.

Marketing and Communications Plan

The Subcommittee has one recommendation related to ETV marketing and communications, and a summary is set forth in Table 21.

Table 21. Marketing recommendation to ETV.

Recommendation to ETV
Marketing and Communications Plan	1.) ETV should (a) develop or revamp the agency’s marketing and communications plan, and (b) create a related strategy for implementation.

Early in the study, Subcommittee members ask ETV staff how the agency’s services are marketed to different audiences. President Padgett testifies the agency has started conversations about revamping marketing and communications, as a part of its strategic visioning going forward.⁴⁹ He provides an example of the agency’s typical marketing activities — “promos” promoting the agency’s activities and programming broadcast on ETV or South Carolina Public Radio. He notes the only people experiencing those “promos” are already a part of their audience. An alternative is to invest in advertising on networks with related programs, like buying space on Home and Garden Television to advertise ETV’s “Making it Grow.” The agency is researching cost and return on investment, “because as [ETV] grows viewers [ETV] also grow potential engagement opportunities, potential revenue opportunities, and also more importantly audience and impact opportunities.”⁵⁰

Employee and Customer Feedback

The Subcommittee has one recommendation related to ETV employee and agency feedback, and a summary is set forth in Table 22.

Table 22. Employee and customer feedback recommendation to ETV.

Recommendation to ETV
Anonymous Feedback	2.) ETV should develop a plan to receive anonymous employee and customer feedback for use in strategic planning and evaluation.

During the study, subcommittee members inquire about the agency’s methods to obtain feedback from customers and employees. They also ask how the agency uses the feedback. Table 23 provides information on the agency’s current methods of obtaining feedback.

Table 23. ETV methods for obtaining feedback.

Source of Feedback	Description	Utilization
Teachers, Administrators, and Staff	Annual educational products survey about how the materials help engage the students, if use of them results in improvement, and if the materials supports the profile of the South Carolina graduate. The survey is not anonymous.	Determine which products to produce ⁵¹
Employees	“Who Are We” roundtable series with goal of determining staff opinions of who the agency is as an organization, how people view the agency, and how employees view the agency. Staff meetings are also a method of obtaining employee feedback. ⁵²	Compile and present to employees, along with additional information on how used. ⁵³
General Public	Ratings data (e.g., Nielson ratings) provides insight into who is watching, who is listening, when they are watching, what they are watching, and how they’re watching. Google analytics and Passport (ETV online platform) real-time usage patterns provide information about online platform use. ⁵⁴ Donation patterns can fluctuate based on the programming. ⁵⁵	Determine future programming purchase or production

Following the Subcommittee’s recommendation that the agency investigate methods to obtain anonymous employee feedback, the agency identifies the Incogneato software program. Per the company’s website, Incogneato (formerly Corpell Anonymous Box) is an online feedback collection and communication tool that helps businesses, organizations, or individuals anonymously collect feedback, and then communicate with their respondents. Each box is given a unique web address. Box creators are automatically notified when feedback is received, and can view it securely online. If respondents choose to leave an anonymous e-mail address, box creators can communicate with them via a secure dashboard. Even this communication is anonymous as the Incogneato software acts as an intermediary sending messages back and forth.

The annual cost to ETV will be $400.⁵⁶ The agency is conducting tests and expects to have a complete roll-out in December of 2018.⁵⁷ The agency is also developing internal processes for how to route and utilize feedback once it is received.

Procurement Exemption

The Subcommittee has one recommendation related to ETV procurement flexibility, and a summary is set forth in Table 24.

Table 24. Procurement recommendation to ETV.

Recommendation to ETV
Procurement Exemption	3.) ETV should seek a procurement exemption for purchase of industry-specific services and goods through the existing process with the State Fiscal Accountability Authority.

There are two ways agencies are exempted from the processes prescribed by the state’s Consolidated Procurement Code: (1) through legislative action (i.e., statute or proviso), or (2) through an exemption from the board of the State Fiscal Accountability Authority (SFAA - formerly the Budget and Control Board). S.C. Code Ann. § 11-35-710 delineates exemptions to the procurement code, and authorizes the SFAA board to grant exemptions to the Consolidated Procurement Code. SFAA provides most of the specific exemptions.⁵⁸

During the study ETV staff members highlight challenges related to complying with the procurement code for some industry-specific items. According to agency staff, the process slows down the ability to acquire technology and at times increases the amount the agency pays because of the delay.⁵⁹

In its third recommendation, the Subcommittee recommends the agency seek procurement flexibility for purchase of industry-specific services and goods, such as annually-acquired programming or tower-climbing. A similar, but less broad, exemption has been granted by the former Budget and Control Board on May 5, 1994, for “the procurement of copyrighted educational films, filmstrips, slides transparencies, CD ROM documents, data bases, computer assisted instructional materials interactive video programs and other related materials made available by information technology that can only be obtained from the company providing the information or service.”⁶⁰

Collaboration

The Subcommittee has two recommendations related to agency collaboration, and a summary is set forth in Table 25.

Table 25. Agency collaboration recommendations to ETV and House Legislative Oversight Committee.

Recommendation to the House Legislative Oversight Committee
Agency Funding Collaboration	4.) The House Legislative Oversight Committee should inquire about the efforts of each agency under study to collaborate with other agencies to seek funding.
Recommendation to ETV
Scope of Service	5.) ETV should collaborate with the state Department of Education as to the potential need to revise language in S.C. Code Ann. § 59-32-30(4) in a way that would not conflict with provisions of the South Carolina Comprehensive Health Education Act.

Subcommittee members ask how the agency collaborates with other state agencies, both to accomplish agency goals and to obtain mutually beneficial funding. An example of a collaboration opportunity, provided by the agency, is the potential for joint applications with the Emergency Management Division of the Adjutant General’s Office for nationally-available funding. This type of funding would support the communications backbone for the state’s emergency management system.⁶¹ In its fourth recommendation, the Subcommittee recommends every study include inquiry into interagency collaboration to receive funding, as collaboration could increase chances of being awarded funding, reduce redundant requests from the same state, and demonstrate an innovative means to fulfill the agency’s mission.

The agency proposes the Subcommittee consider recommending broadening the language of S.C. Code Ann. § 59-32-30(4). This section is a part of the Comprehensive Health Education Act, specifically the guidelines and restrictions on each local school board’s comprehensive health education program. The agency’s proposal removes the last two sentences in an effort to broadly state how the agency can assist the Department of Education.

SECTION 59-32-30. Local school boards to implement comprehensive health education program; guidelines and restrictions.

(A) Pursuant to guidelines developed by the board, each local school board shall implement the following program of instruction:

(4) The South Carolina Educational Television Commission shall work with the department in developing instructional programs and materials that may be available to the school districts. ~~Films and other materials may be designed for the purpose of explaining bodily functions or the human reproductive process. These materials may not contain actual or simulated portrayals of sexual activities or sexual intercourse.~~

However, as this section is within the Comprehensive Health Education Act, the recommended change would only direct the agency to work with the Department on items related to the Act. In addition, the removal of this clause could conflict with the intent of the guidelines and restrictions section.

As a result, in its fifth recommendation the Subcommittee recommends ETV and the Department work together to devise language that broadly reflects ETV’s ability to produce instructional programs and materials and does not conflict with S.C. Code Ann. § 59-32-30.

Endowment Relationship

The Subcommittee has one recommendation related to ETV’s relationship with the ETV Endowment, and a summary is set forth in Table 26.

Table 26. Endowment relationship recommendation to ETV.

Recommendation to ETV
Agreement with Endowment	6.) ETV should work with the ETV Endowment to create a memorandum of agreement or understanding which dictates the parameters in which the two entities operate.

The ETV Endowment of South Carolina is a charitable nonprofit (501(c)(3)) organization founded “to support and promote South Carolina educational public broadcasting activities.”⁶² During the 2017-18 fiscal year, ETV receives $3.6M from the endowment. This represents slightly more than 10% of the agency’s authorization for the year.⁶³ However, neither the endowment nor the ETV Commission’s governing documents specify the relationship, beyond general support.⁶⁴

ETV staff provide the following explanation of the process by which a determination is made on the amount of funding the Endowment provides to the agency:

The funds [the agency] receives from the ETV Endowment are derived from revenue generated from a combination of donor solicitation activities including pledge drives, direct mail, online appeals, newsletters, telemarketing, car donations, and planned giving. The Endowment is governed by an independent, self-perpetuating Board of Trustees.

The Endowment’s Executive Director and Financial Officer develop the Endowment’s annual budget, the majority of which is allocated to support television and radio programming broadcast by ETV and South Carolina Public Radio (“ETV”). The budgeted program support is based on anticipated purchase and production costs of programming and program-related requests from ETV.

Annually, the Endowment’s Finance and Investment Committee reviews the budget and submits it as a recommendation to the Endowment’s Board of Trustees for approval. The Board of Trustees votes annually to approve the budget at its May Board meeting.⁶⁵

During the study, agency staff testify the agency provides input by projecting what the programming costs might be for the year and then providing that information to the Endowment to support the budget process. Then the agency invoices the Endowment throughout the year based on the approved budget. Agency staff also testify that for specific projects, the Endowment and agency enter into memoranda of understanding.⁶⁶ In its sixth recommendation, the Subcommittee suggests the agency seek an overarching formalized agreement about the process with the Endowment.

Modernize State Law

The Subcommittee has one recommendation related to modernizing state law to reflect the scope of the agency’s current roles and responsibilities, and a summary is set forth in Table 27.

Table 27. Modernize state law recommendation to General Assembly.

Recommendation to General Assembly
State Law	7.) The General Assembly should update Title 59, Chapter 7 of the S.C. Code of Laws to reflect ETV’s current roles and responsibilities.

The section of the South Carolina Code of Laws establishing the ETV Commission does not reflect ETV’s current and potential roles. Chapter 7 of Title 59 is last substantively updated in 1962, when ETV is intended to be a closed-circuit educational service.⁶⁷ Presently, ETV provides a wider variety of programming, across multiple platforms, including broadcast television, radio, and the internet. ETV also provides other services, including emergency management support, Department of Education certified teacher training, and management of all towers on state-owned property.⁶⁸ Modernizing Chapter 7 of Title 59 provides ETV with the General Assembly’s current intent for the agency.

Eliminate

The Subcommittee does not have any specific recommendations with regards to elimination of agency programs.

INTERNAL CHANGES IMPLEMENTED BY AGENCY RELATED TO STUDY PROCESS

Throughout the study process, ETV staff provide updates to the Subcommittee regarding agency changes made as a result of the oversight process. The agency begins implementation of Subcommittee recommendations one (marketing and communications plan) and two (anonymous customer and employee feedback) during the process. While not a recommendation, agency staff note Subcommittee questioning reveals deficiencies in the agency's data about the advisory council. Also, prior to beginning the study process, the agency researches options for reorganization. Completing the self-analysis required in the Program Evaluation Report (PER) helps the agency finalize its structure going forward. The self-analysis also helps agency staff conclude there is a need to update the state statutes governing the agency's operations.
