I have served as an Administrative Law Court Judge from January 2022 to the present. I was elected by the General Assembly in February of 2021.

The Administrative Law Court is an agency and court of record within the executive branch of state government. The Court was created by the South Carolina General Assembly by Act No. 181 of 1993, to provide an independent forum for hearing the contested cases of state agencies. Previously, citizens desiring an evidentiary hearing to challenge the action of a state agency were heard by hearing officers employed by that particular agency.

The Court's jurisdiction is statutory in nature. Because the Court is an agency within the executive branch of state government, its power to hear a particular type of case from a particular agency is derived exclusively from the legislative branch of state government, the General Assembly.

I was a shareholder of Haynsworth, Sinkler, Boyd, P.A. from October of 2017 until December 31, 2021. Certain members of this firm appear before the Administrative Law Court. Upon taking the bench, I elected to be repaid my partnership contribution immediately in a lump sum and have no financial connection to the firm.

Additionally, the Committee on Codes of Judicial Conduct for the federal judiciary recommends that a new judge automatically recuse himself or herself from cases involving the former firm for a period of two years. I have followed this recommendation.

Going forward, I will carefully analyze situations in which I am assigned cases involving my former firm to determine whether my participation would create any appearance of impropriety. I have not been sued by a client. In connection with this application, I performed an internet search for my name. This search revealed to me that I was a named defendant in Guy v. Office of General Counsel, et al. filed in federal court with case number 1:2023cv03889. The plaintiff, Frederick Guy, is an inmate whose appeal I decided adversely to him. The suit was dismissed before it was served upon me. I had no knowledge of the existence of the suit until after it was dismissed.

If so, give details.

No.

52. Have you requested any third parties to contact members of the General Assembly on your behalf before the final and formal screening report has been released? Describe the campaigning you have done for this election and include a list of those individuals you have asked to campaign on your behalf and, to the best of your knowledge, those who have campaigned for you on their own initiative.
