(a) The prior MIE resigned his position at the end of 2023 leaving an unexpired term. I effectively took over that position, acting as Special Referee for dozens of cases, between January, 2024 and my election in April and during qualification, swearing and education on the CMS protocol for judges. The “education” on that platform was really non-existent and I had to work through the process myself with the help of Judge Spence in Lexington, my assistant and the Kershaw County Clerk’s office. I have now learned the platform and believe that I have handled the matters before me in an appropriate and well thought out manner. I have heard matters involving foreclosures, heirs property quiet title, supplemental proceedings as well as an auto accident damages hearing. All have been satisfactorily resolved and I am looking forward to many more.
