- 18. Have you ever held judicial office? If so, list the periods of your service, the courts involved, and whether you were elected or appointed. Describe the jurisdiction of each of the courts and note any limitations on the jurisdiction of each court.

Yes. Family Court, Tenth Judicial Circuit, Seat One; May 6, 2024 – Current. I was elected by the General Assembly to this position on April 17, 2024. Family Court is a Court of limited jurisdiction as set out by statute. The Family Court general jurisdictional statute is found at S.C. Code Ann. § 63-3-530. Generally speaking, the Family Court hears matters pertaining to divorce, division of marital property, support, child custody, DSS actions, and DJJ actions.

19. If the answer to question 18 is yes, describe or list five of your most significant orders or opinions and give the citations if they were reported. Also, list citations to any appellate review of these orders or opinions.

As of the drafting of this application, I have only held court for twelve weeks. Three of those twelve weeks were sitting with other judges during training. Accordingly, the significance of any orders is very limited at this time.

- (a) Leggieri v. Cason; This was modification of custody action. It was a difficult trial by virtue of the fact that the testimony was conflicting. Ultimately, I decided that the Plaintiff did not meet their burden of proof to modify custody, but that she did meet her burden of proof to modify visitation.
 - (b) Johnson v. Weatherall; This was a divorce action where equitable division of the marital estate was at issue. This case presented unique issues of transmutation and special equity interests as to certain assets.
 - (c) Takacs v. Cruz; This was a custody action. This case presented issues of compliance as Mother rarely complied with prior temporary orders. A prior judge had held Mother in contempt, but held sanctions in abeyance for the trial judge. This allowed me to attempt to have Mother comply with the Final Order as I was able to condition sanctions upon compliance with the Final Order.
 - (d) Hammonds v. Hammonds; This was a divorce action involving custody of children and equitable division of property. I divided the marital estate, and issued a custody / visitation order.
 - (e) Capps v. Capps; This was a divorce action involving custody of children. It was a sad case because Mother had not seen or visited the children for over a year during the pendency of the case despite no court order preventing her from doing so.
20. List all courts in which you have been admitted to practice and list the dates of your admission. Give the same information for administrative bodies that require a special admission to practice.
- (a) South Carolina state courts, March 13, 2003
 - (b) US District Court for the District of SC, July 3, 2012
21. Have you taught law-related courses or lectured at bar association conferences, educational institutions, or continuing legal or judicial education programs? If so, briefly describe each course or lecture. Yes

I have thoroughly enjoyed my short time of being on the Family Court bench. It has been an absolute pleasure serving the citizens of our State. It is a challenging, but also fulfilling, job where I feel as though I am making a difference in people's lives. Every week, I have seen unique cases. I believe I have treated each litigant, lawyer, and staff member with courtesy and respect. I look forward to coming to work each and every day. It is my sincere hope that I will be able to continue to serve in this role for many years to come.

Prior to my election to the Family Court bench, I was a private practice attorney handling all types of family court cases. Those cases ranged from court-appointed cases involving DSS to divorces involving millions of dollars in assets. Additionally, I served as mediator on cases by agreement of counsel. I also handled a wide-range of cases in the Court of Common Pleas. I am well-versed in the procedural and substantive law that is often presented in the Family Court. I am also married to a wonderful spouse, and we are the parents of a middle schooler.

I am mindful of the fact that decisions in my courtroom can affect parents and children for years. I take those decisions seriously, and truly try my absolute best to rule in accordance with the facts as applied to the law.
