(a) Staff Attorney, South Carolina Supreme Court (1978-1981)
Reviewed and researched civil and criminal appeals; Recommended disposition by Court; supervised junior Staff Attorneys. Assisted at settlement conferences; Drafted Court Rules.
(b) Law Clerk, South Carolina Supreme Court Justice George T. Gregory, Jr. (1981-1982)
Reviewed and researched civil and criminal appeals and motions; Drafted opinions, rules, and Orders for Justice Gregory; Assisted at hearings on Extraordinary Writs such as Mandamus and Supersedeas; reviewed Attorney Disciplinary proceedings.
(c) Assistant Attorney General, State of South Carolina (1982-1986)
Researched and wrote more than 200 appellate briefs and argued more than 80 appeals before S. C. Supreme Court, S. C. Court of Appeals, and U. S. Supreme Court; Coordinated appeals with Solicitors; Prosecuted Medical Board and other licensing board cases. Wrote opinions as directed by the Attorney General; Represented State Agencies; Coordinated Continuing Legal Education Seminars; Chaired first Law Enforcement Leadership Conference.
(d) Counsel, South Carolina House of Representatives Judiciary Committee, David H. Wilkins, Chairman (1986-1988)
Managed research and drafting of Legislation and amendments for all Legislation referred to Judiciary Committee. Coordinated legislative efforts with Governor's Office, Legislative staff, and state agencies. Supervised staff attorneys and law clerks.

(h) Partner, Nelson Mullins Riley & Scarborough (1988-1996)

Administrative practice before State agencies such as DHEC, Department of Insurance, and Public Service Commission; Governmental Relations; Appellate practice.

(i) Partner, Woodward Cothran & Herndon (1996-1998)

Commercial Litigation; Appellate and Administrative Law practice before state agencies, including DHEC, Insurance Commission, and PSC. State and Federal Governmental Relations.

(j) Carolyn C. Matthews, Attorney and Counselor at Law (December 1998 May, 1999)

Administrative and Appellate Law Practice; State and Federal Governmental Relations

(k) Administrative Law Judge, Seat #3 (June 2, 1999-present; reelected February 9, 2000; reelected February 2, 2005)

Appeals from 49 Licensing Boards of LLR and DSS, HHS, DOC, OMVH, and DOC Contested Cases from State Agencies, including: DHEC, DOR, DNR, Department of Insurance, DHHS, DOT, DSS, OCRM, SLED, County Auditors and Assessors

Regulatory Hearings from State agencies governed by a single director; Injunctions, Petitions for Stay, and other procedural Motions.

If you are a judge and are not seeking a different type of judgeship, the following questions are inapplicable:

15. What is your rating in Martindale-Hubbell? AV

Retired judges/justices and judges/justices applying for reelection to their current position may omit Questions 16-21. If a candidate is seeking a judgeship different than his or her current position, Questions 16-21 should be answered based on experience prior to serving on the bench.

16. What was the frequency of your court appearances during the last five years?

- (a) federal: 6-8 times per year;
(b) state: 6-8 times per year.

17. What percentage of your practice involved civil, criminal, and domestic matters during the last five years?

- (a) civil: 90%;
(b) criminal: 10%;
(c) domestic: 0%.

18. What percentage of your practice in trial court during the last five years involved matters that went to a jury, including those that settled prior to trial?

- (a) jury: 5%;
(b) non-jury: 95%.

Did you most often serve as sole counsel, chief counsel, or associate counsel in these matters? Sole counsel

19. List five of the most significant litigated matters you have personally handled in either trial or appellate court or before a state or federal agency. Give citations if the cases were reported and describe why these matters were significant.
- (a) State v. Donald Henry "Pee Wee" Gaskins, 284 S.C. 105, 326 S.E.2d 132(1985):
Sole Counsel representing State of South Carolina in Death Penalty Appeal to SC Supreme Court. The case involved a 10,000 page transcript, more than 200 pages of briefs, on 19 issues, including (1) the scope of the 4th Amendment's prohibition on unlawful searches and seizures in a jail cell; and (2) whether the admission into evidence at the sentencing phase of Gaskins' confession to 7 prior murders forced him to testify against himself.
In favorem vitae [in favor of life] review required that I be prepared at oral argument not only on the briefed issues, but also to address any other issues which might be raised by the Supreme Court during argument, of which there were several. "Pee Wee" Gaskins was the most notorious serial killer in South Carolina history. [His seven prior death sentences had been commuted when South Carolina's death penalty statute was declared unconstitutional.] The South Carolina and U. S. Supreme Courts upheld his conviction and death sentence.
- (b) Grand Strand Water & Sewer Authority v. Water Resources Commission(1989)
Sole Attorney in obtaining first Interbasin Transfer Permit from the S. C. Water Resources Commission This new permit was required in order for Grand Strand Water & Sewer Authority to transfer more than one million gallons of water per day from the Waccamaw Basin to the Little Pee Dee Basin.
The permit was critical to the continued operation of one of the largest water systems in the state, which provides water and sewer service to more than 200,000 people in Horry County, the City of Myrtle Beach, North Myrtle Beach, Aynor, and upper Georgetown County. It was also a significant step toward increased usage of surface water rather than groundwater.
- (c) Alexander S. v. Boyd, et.al., U.S.D.C, District of South Carolina, Civil Action No. 3:90-3062-17: [1990-2003]
This 13-year long Federal litigation involved numerous alleged violations of Constitutional Rights of Juveniles incarcerated at DJJ. It was a landmark case in the area of Prison Overcrowding, which involved numerous Federal Hearings, Mediations, Orders, Opinions, and Appeals. I represented the Department of Juvenile Justice in Federal Court, including at the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals, for three years
- (d) In re: Stucco Litigation, U. S. District Court, Eastern District of North Carolina, Civil action No. 5:96-CV-287-BR(2):

Numerous individual cases and preliminary orders and opinions; On behalf of my client, I traveled to several states for depositions and pretrial hearings, argued Motions and wrote Pretrial Briefs. These cases involved the alleged failure of EIFS [Exterior Insulated Finish Systems], or "fake stucco" in home construction. Plaintiffs had joined manufacturers, distributors, general contractors, and installers, and were attempting to certify the class in North Carolina. The judge refused to certify the class; thus, each claim was litigated individually.

(e) Public Hearing Report of the Administrative Law Judge, No. 98-ALJ-11-0609-RH July 28, 1999)

I represented the S. C. Association of Marriage and Family Therapists at this hearing on the "need and reasonableness of "these regulations before the Administrative Law Judge Division in January, 1999. The regulations, as promulgated, were opposed by Clinical Psychologists, who attempted to impose upon Marriage and Family Counselors and Licensed Professional Counselors rigid undergraduate and graduate course requirements, including that counselors possess a Doctoral degree before counseling a client with a "serious" problem.

After the hearing, the ALJ issued an order which did not require a Doctoral degree for all Counselors, and remanded the regulation to the Board to establish reasonable criteria. The regulations which were ultimately approved by the General Assembly both protected the public health and welfare, and were reasonable for these highly-trained professionals.

20. List up to five civil appeals you have personally handled. Give the case name, the court, the date of decision, and the citation if the case was reported. If you are a candidate for an appellate court judgeship (please attach one copy of briefs filed by you in each matter).

(a) City of Aiken v. Aiken Electric Cooperative, 305 S.C. 466, 409 S.E.2d 403 (1991)

This brief and this appeal were the result of a collaborative effort on behalf of Aiken Electric Cooperative, Inc., S. C. Public Service Authority [Santee Cooper], and Central Electric Power Cooperative, Inc. I drafted the brief, and worked extensively on the final product. The City of Aiken had brought an action for declaratory and injunctive relief when SCE&G attempted to extend its power lines to annexed areas of the city. The Trial Judge granted Summary Judgment in favor of the City. The Supreme Court affirmed, holding that the City of Aiken acted within its Constitutional authority to designate the electric supplier for new customers in the annexed areas.

(b) Alexander S. et. al. v. Flora Brooks Boyd, et.al., 113 F.3d 1373 (C.A.4 1997), cert. den. 118 S.Ct. 880, 139 L.Ed.2d 869 (1998):

Lead counsel on brief and sole counsel on oral argument to the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals on case of first impression– the retroactive application of the Prison Litigation Reform Act's limitations on Attorneys

Fee Awards in Juvenile Prison Litigation under Section 1983. I also wrote the Petition for Writ of Certiorari to the U. S. Supreme Court; that Petition was denied.

(c) Designer Showrooms, Inc. v. Kelley, 304 S.C. 478, 405 S.E.2d 417 (S.C.App.1991)

I served as Counsel to the S. C. Association of Realtors in writing an Amicus brief on behalf of the National Association of Realtors at the Court of Appeals. The issue was whether by affirming a contract which it was induced to enter by fraud, Designer Showrooms waived its right to sue in tort. The Court held that if fraud gives rise to a breach of promise or warranty, the party induced by fraud may elect to affirm the contract and later bring a tort action.

21. List up to five criminal appeals that you have personally handled. Give the case name, the court, the date of decision and the citation if the case was reported. If you are a candidate for an appellate court judgeship (please attach one copy of briefs filed by you in each matter).

[Note: The Attorney General's practice from 1982-1986, when I was an Assistant Attorney General, was to list on the State's briefs the names of (1) Attorney General Travis Medlock; (2) Harold M. Coombs, Jr., head of the Criminal Appeals Division, (3) the Solicitor who had tried the case, and (4) the Assistant Attorney General who actually wrote the brief and argued the case. My name at that time was Carolyn Matthews Adams.

I wrote all of the following briefs without any assistance or supervision from any of the attorneys whose names are also on the cover of the briefs. I also argued solo each of the following criminal cases before the S. C. Supreme Court:

(a) State v. Donald Henry "Pee Wee" Gaskins, 284 S.C. 105, 326 S.E.2d 132 (1985):

Sole Counsel representing State of South Carolina in Death Penalty Appeal to SC Supreme Court. The case involved a 10,000 page transcript, more than 200 pages of briefs, and many issues of first impression under South Carolina's Death Penalty statute. In favorem vitae review required that I be prepared at oral argument not only on the briefed issues, but also any other issues which might be raised by the Supreme Court.

(b) State v. Kiser, 288 S.C. 441, 343 S.E.2d 292 (1986)

Sole Counsel representing State of South Carolina in case of first impression-- the constitutionality of South Carolina's newly-enacted Drug Trafficking Statute, which imposed the strictest penalties of any state in the United States. Affirmed Per Curiam after argument.

(c) State v. Brantley, 279 S.C. 215, 305 S.E.2d 234 (1983)

Sole Counsel for the State of South Carolina in briefing and arguing the Constitutional issue of the scope of a Circuit Judge's contempt power.

The Supreme Court affirmed the Circuit Court's inherent ability to punish for constructive contempt; even outside the Judicial Circuit.

(c) State v. McLellan, 283 S.C.389, 323 S.E.2d772 (1984)

Sole counsel for State on brief and at argument on several issues of first impression under Criminal Sexual Conduct statute: (1) Whether trial judge properly denied Motion for Mistrial based on the testimony of two sisters regarding evidence of prior abuse under the "common scheme" test of State v. Lyle; (2) whether the trial judge properly exercised his discretion in admitting evidence of Defendant's use and sale of marijuana; and (3) whether the trial judge's admitting opinion testimony by a lay witness constituted reversible error. The Supreme Court affirmed the Circuit Judge on all issues.

(e) In the Matter of Harry C., 280 S.C. 308, 313 S.E.2d (S.C. 1984)

This case, tried in Family Court because of the age of the minor, dealt with the novel issue of whether entering a home through a door which was ajar constituted a "breaking" sufficient to convict a Juvenile of the crime of "housebreaking". It also involved the scope of Judicial Notice; i.e., of whether "tidy oil" was an Aromatic Hydrocarbon within the Legislature's definition of that term. The Supreme Court affirmed on both issues.

22. Have you ever held judicial office? Yes. If so, list the periods of your service, the courts involved, and whether you were elected or appointed. Describe the jurisdiction of each of the courts and note any limitations on the jurisdiction of each court.

Administrative Law Judge, Seat #3, Elected June 2, 1999; reelected February 9, 2000; Reelected February 2, 2005

By statute, the Administrative Law Court has jurisdiction over (1) Contested Cases from State Agencies [including DHEC, DOR, DOT, DHHS, DSS, Department of Insurance, DNR, and SLED]; (2) Appeals from the 50 Licensing Boards of LLR and other agencies [including Medicaid Appeals, State Fire Marshal appeals; Appeals of Day care and Foster home license revocations] and (3) Hearings regarding the need for and reasonableness of Regulations promulgated by agencies governed by a single director, such as the Department of Insurance and LLR.

By Supreme Court case law, Al-Shabazz v. State, 338 S.C. 354, 527 S.E.2d 742(2000), the ALC was given jurisdiction over inmates' appeals of non-collateral sentencing matters or administrative matters from the Department of Corrections.

The Supreme Court of South Carolina has held that the ALC does not have jurisdiction to rule on the constitutionality of statutes or regulations. Administrative Law Judges have jurisdiction to rule only on whether a statute or regulation has been unconstitutionally applied.

23. If the answer to question 22 is yes, describe or list five of your most significant orders or opinions and give the citations if they were reported. Also list citations to any appellate review of these orders or opinions.

(a) Heath Hill v. S. C. DHEC and SCE&G [08-ALJ-07-0183-CC, July 10, 2008]

This procedural order granted a Motion to Lift Automatic Stay under S. C. Code §1-23-600(H)(4), which became effective only 9 days before the hearing on this Motion. It is significant because it demonstrates the magnitude of the decisions entrusted to the Administrative Law Court—whether SCE&G would be allowed to proceed with construction of a landfill to dispose of byproducts of coal combustion during the pendency of the contested case. The new statute required me to hold a hearing within 30 days after the Motion To Lift Stay was filed, and to issue an Order within 15 days after the four-hour hearing on the motion.

I ruled that SCE&G had satisfied the statutory standard for lifting the stay; i.e. “..for good cause shown or if no irreparable harm will occur...” Moreover, If the legislature imposes a statutory time frame, Administrative Law Judges are required to comply with it. I am the only Administrative Law Judge who has ruled on a Motion to Lift Stay since the statute was revised. [Copy attached]

(b) Sonoco Products Company v. S. C Department of Revenue
[03-ALJ-17-0440-CC, August 30, 2005], aff’d. Op. No. 26502
(S. C. Sup. Ct., filed 6/9/08)

In this property assessment case, the DOR assessed three of Sonoco’s corporate office buildings, located across a public street and a railroad from its manufacturing plant, at a 10.5% ratio as Manufacturing-related property.

Sonoco contended that the office buildings were not “contiguous” to the plant within the meaning of S. C. Code Ann. §12-43-220(a), and should be assessed at a 6.5% ratio.

I affirmed the DOR, ruling that the buildings were contiguous to the Plant. The Circuit Court reversed; the S. C. Supreme Court reversed the Circuit Court and affirmed my Order.

This Order is significant because it addresses the primary rule of statutory construction--ascertaining the intent of the Legislature. [Copy attached]

(c) Charleston County Public Works v. Office of Coastal Resource Management, DHEC [02-ALJ-07-0262-CC, August 3, 2003]

OCRM , although ostensibly granting a permit to build a causeway, instead required Charleston County to build a bridge, which was outside the scope of the permit application. I reversed OCRM’s decision on the grounds that (1) its action constituted an “unwarranted exercise of discretion” under S. C. Code Ann.§1-23-380(A)(6) and (2) the public was denied sue process of law when OCRM failed to give notice of permit conditions which radically altered the original application.

This Order is significant because it affirms the public's right to valid notice of agency environmental permitting decisions, and because it deals with the rare issue of "unwarranted exercise of discretion." [Copy attached]

- (d) Oncology and Hematology Associates of SC, LLC d/b/a Cancer Centers of the Carolinas v. S. C. DHEC and Spartanburg Regional Medical Center [03-ALJ-07-0158-CC, June 24, 2004]; DHEC Board affirmed; Circuit Court affirmed; appealed to Court of Appeals; Supreme Court granted certiorari.

This Order demonstrates the intricacy and complexity of the review accorded DHEC contested cases for Certificates of Need for hospitals. This case was tried for only one week, but with the intensive discovery which has become standard in CON cases, they are now requiring 3-4 weeks to try.

The Order includes extensive fact-finding and detailed analysis of the law. [Copy attached]

- (e) Anonymous No. 1, Registered Dental Hygienist, and Anon. No. 2, RDH v.S. C. Department of Labor, Licensing, and Regulation [06-ALJ-11-0562-AP, And 06-ALJ-11-0563-AP, October 25, 2007; on appeal to Court of Appeals]

Two Dental Hygienists were disciplined by the Board of Dentistry for failing to meet the standard of care in placing sealants on children's teeth in a school setting. This Order is an example of the Administrative Law Court's Legislative duty to review sanctions imposed by more than 40 Licensing Boards, including those who regulate Doctors, Nurses, Realtors, and Cosmetologists in order to protect the public health and welfare. An Appeal to the Administrative Law Court is vital to give the licensees and the licensing boards an opportunity to be fully heard.[Copy attached]

24. Have you ever held public office other than judicial office? No. If so, list the periods of your service, the office or offices involved, and whether you were elected or appointed. Also, state whether or not you have timely filed your report with the State Ethics Commission during the period you held public office. Yes. If not, were you ever subject to a penalty?
25. List all employment you had while serving as a judge (whether full-time or part-time, contractual or at will, consulting or otherwise) other than elected judicial office. Specify your dates of employment, employer, major job responsibilities, and supervisor. N/A
26. Have you ever been an unsuccessful candidate for elective, judicial, or other public office? I was a candidate for Circuit Court in 1995, but withdrew when it became apparent I could not win. I was a candidate for the Court of Appeals, Seat #1 in 2004. I was found "Qualified, but not nominated" by the Judicial Merit Selection Commission. The Honorable Paul Short won that election.

27. Have you ever been engaged in any occupation, business, or profession other than the practice of law, teaching of law, or holding judicial or other public office? No.
28. Are you now an officer or director or involved in the management of any business enterprise? No.
29. A current, complete financial net worth statement was provided to the Commission.
30. Describe any financial arrangements or business relationships you have, or have had in the past, that could constitute or result in a possible conflict of interest in the position you seek. Explain how you would resolve any potential conflict of interest.
If any party, attorney, or subject matter appeared to create a possible conflict of interest, I would inform all parties, allow them to discuss it out of my presence, and, if they requested it, recuse myself from the case consistent with the Code of Judicial Conduct.
31. Have you ever been arrested, charged, or held by federal, state, or other law enforcement authorities for violation or for suspicion of violation of any federal law or regulation, state law or regulation, or county or municipal law, regulation, or ordinance, or any other law, including another country's law? No.
32. Have you, to your knowledge, ever been under federal, state, or local investigation for possible violation of a criminal statute? No
33. Has a tax lien or other collection procedure ever been instituted against you by federal, state, or local authorities? No. Have you ever defaulted on a student loan? No. Have you ever filed for bankruptcy? No..
34. Have you ever been sued, either personally or professionally, that is, have you ever been named as defendant or respondent in any court of law? No.
36. Are you now or have you ever been employed as a "lobbyist," as defined by S.C. Code § 2-17-10(13), or have you acted in the capacity of a "lobbyist's principal," as defined by S.C. Code § 2-17-10(14)? Yes.

48. Provide any other information that may reflect positively or negatively on your candidacy, or which you believe should be disclosed in connection with consideration of you for nomination for the position you seek.

The General Assembly of South Carolina has conferred on me the privilege of serving the State as an Administrative Law Judge for the past ten years.

Because Administrative Law Judges hear contested cases from many state agencies, including DHEC, the Department of Revenue, and the Department of Transportation, we are affording due process and an opportunity to be heard to many citizens of South Carolina who have no other forum.

Contested cases involve matters as diverse as Certificates of Need for Hospitals, Designations as a Minority Business Enterprise, Environmental permitting and penalties,

Property Tax Assessment Appeals from every county in the state, and permits for bridges and docks in the eight coastal counties. We also hear appeals from the 49 Licensing Boards of LLR, including doctors, dentists, nurses, realtors, and general contractors who have been disciplined by their respective Boards, as well as appeals from other state agencies. Our orders affect the livelihood of these individuals and protect the public welfare and safety.

In my legal career, I have been fortunate to serve as Staff Attorney at the S. C. Supreme Court, as Law Clerk to the late Chief Justice George T. Gregory, Jr., and as an Assistant Attorney General for the State of South Carolina.

During my tenure with the Attorney General's Office, I was assigned to the Criminal Appeals Division, and worked closely with the Solicitors in reviewing transcripts, writing more than 200 appellate briefs, and arguing more than 80 appeals solo before the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals in upholding criminal convictions. I also prosecuted licensees on behalf of the Medical Board and several other Boards, and handled the Boards' appeals.

I have also served as Counsel to the House Judiciary Committee. In that position, I worked with all members of the General Assembly in drafting legislation and amendments, reviewing legislation and regulations, and being a part of the process of statutory enactment. While serving as attorney to the Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, I received a true understanding of the fundamental principle of statutory construction; that is, that the Legislature's intent is paramount.

In ten years of private practice, I concentrated on administrative and appellate law and governmental relations. I represented clients before state agencies, including the Department of Insurance, DHEC, OCRM, and the Public Service Commission. I also participated in complex civil and federal court litigation. I became a partner at the State's largest law firm

I am fortunate to have been born in South Carolina, to parents who instilled in me and my three sisters many values. We were taught to treat all persons equally, and to "do unto others as we would have them do unto us." I saw my parents and all my relatives treating people of all classes, races, and creeds with equal compassion, humility, and dignity. We were taught that we could achieve anything through education, hard work, and perseverance. I was divorced when my daughter was only 5 years old, and, as a single parent, I had to work very long hours as a Assistant Attorney General, House Judiciary Committee Counsel, and to become a partner at the largest law firm in the state [I was the only single parent in the firm of more than 200 lawyers at that time.] I understand the demands of the private practice of law; wherever possible, I try to accommodate attorneys' schedules, and will never embarrass an attorney in the courtroom.

I am one of the few attorneys in the state who has worked for all three branches of state government— Judicial, Legislative, and Executive— providing a unique perspective and fundamental understanding of the Separation of Powers Doctrine. I have practiced law for 31 years and have tried, heard, and appealed a wide variety of cases. My legal experience is extremely broad and diverse. I am 58 years old and believe I have the experience and maturity to be the Chief Judge of the Administrative Law Court.

Subject: Amendment to PDQ Form, Question #34

I would like to amend my answer on the PDQ Form, Question #34 to add the following 2 cases:

I was not aware of either case, and there is no proof of service on me in the Federal Case.

On October 15, 2001, Inmate Gerald Brown filed a civil complaint against me in Richland County Court. That complaint was dismissed on January 18, 2002 [2001-CP-40-04363].

6:02-CV-04027 is a prison condition case. William C. McKinney [prisoner] v. Jon E. Ozmint, Governor Jim Hodges, Attorney General Charles Condon, NFN McKie (General Counsel Office); Warden Rickie Harrison, and Carolyn Matthews.

On September 3, 2004, the 4th Circuit Court of Appeals denied a petition for rehearing.

Thank you for adding this to my file.

JUDICIAL MERIT SELECTION COMMISSION
Sworn Statement to be included in Transcript of Public Hearings

Administrative Law Court, Chief Judge
(New Candidate)

Full Name: Carolyn Cason Matthews
Business Address: Administrative Law Court
1205 Pendleton Street, Suite 204
Columbia, S. C. 29201
Business Telephone: 803-734-0550

1. Do you plan to serve your full term if elected? Yes
2. Do you have any plans to return to private practice one day? No.
3. Have you met the Constitutional requirements for this position regarding age, residence, and years of practice? Yes.
4. What is your philosophy regarding ex parte communications? Are there circumstances under which you could envision ex parte communications being tolerated?

My philosophy is identical to that contained in the Code of Judicial Conduct. Canon 3B(7) prohibits ex parte communications. Ex parte communications are allowed only in very limited circumstances; for example, if there is an emergency procedural matter which will not give any party a tactical advantage, and if immediate notice and an opportunity to be heard is given to the other parties.

As an Administrative Law Judge, I instruct my Law Clerk and the staff to screen telephone calls to ensure that neither a lawyer nor a pro se litigant is calling me without all parties being represented. Attorneys are aware of the prohibition on ex parte communications, and normally do not attempt to communicate with me regarding a pending case. Ex parte communications are permitted only in emergency situations, a judge may make an ex parte ruling only when it involves a procedural matter which will not afford either party a tactical advantage. Ex parte rulings must be immediately communicated to all parties, and all parties must be given an opportunity to respond.

5. What is your philosophy on recusal, especially in situations in which lawyer-legislators, former associates, or law partners are to appear before you?

The Canons of Judicial Conduct require recusal if there is the possibility or the appearance of impropriety or bias, or if a party requests it. My practice is to notify the attorneys and parties as soon as a case is assigned to me if there is any possibility of the appearance of impropriety or bias; for example, if there is a case in which a prior client is a party. I recuse myself any time a party requests it. There is no reason for potential bias of a Judge to be an issue on appeal.

With respect to lawyer-legislators, former associates and former law partners, recusal is not automatically necessary under the Code of Judicial Conduct. My practice is to disclose the relationship to all parties, leave the courtroom and give them a chance to discuss it, and if they agree that they want me to hear the case, to put that agreement on the record. Because South Carolina elects Judges by vote of the General Assembly, no lawyer-legislator would be able to appear before any Judge if automatic recusal were required. Thus, I treat lawyer-legislators as I treat all other attorneys.

6. If you disclosed something that had the appearance of bias, but you believed it would not actually prejudice your impartiality, what deference would you give a party that requested your recusal? Would you grant such a motion?

Yes. I would recuse myself if a party requested it, even if I did not believe that my impartiality was compromised.

7. If elected, what standards would you set for yourself regarding the acceptance of gifts or social hospitality?

In accordance with the Canons, I accept ordinary social hospitality. I would also accept a gift of nominal value, such as a book or a plaque as a "thank you" gift for giving a speech, for example.

8. How would you handle a situation in which you became aware of misconduct of a lawyer or of a fellow judge?

The same standards apply to misconduct by a lawyer or a judge. If I became aware of a violation of the Rules of Professional Responsibility, I would take appropriate action. Depending on the magnitude of the misconduct, I would talk with the lawyer or judge and caution them against such conduct in the future, or refer the matter to either the Commission on Lawyer Conduct or the Commission on Judicial Standards. If a criminal matter were involved, I would refer it to state or federal prosecutors.

9. Are you affiliated with any political parties, boards or commissions that, if you are elected, would need to be re-evaluated? No.

10. Have you engaged in any fund-raising activities with any political, social, community, or religious organizations? No.

11. How would you handle the drafting of orders? If the case is a routine one, or one in which one party is not represented by Counsel, I ask my Law Clerk to draft a routine order, and then I edit it and discuss it with my Clerk before signing a final Order. In Department of Revenue Licensing cases, the only issue is often the proposed location. I usually prepare a draft order before the hearing, and can provide the parties a final order that day or no later than the day after the hearing.

Complex cases, such as Environmental Permitting or Certificate of Need Cases, can require trials ranging from a full day to several weeks. I ask the attorneys for each party to submit proposed orders with Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, as required by the Code. Depending on the quality of those proposed orders, I incorporate portions of their Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law in a draft order, which I review with my Law Clerk. In some instances, I find the proposed Orders totally unsuitable, and do not incorporate any of their proposed language in my final order.

12. What method would you use to ensure that you and your staff meet deadlines? The only real "deadline" with respect to issuing orders in the S. C. Code is found in S. C. Code Ann. §1-23-600(H)(4), which requires that Administrative Law Judges must hold a hearing on a Motion to Lift Stay within 30 days after the Motion is filed, and must issue an Order within 15 business days after the hearing. When complex Motions [e.g., Motions to Compel Discovery, Motions in Limine, or Motions for Summary Judgment] are argued, my policy is to rule from the Bench whenever possible, and to provide the parties with a written Order no later than one week after the Motion hearing.

Other deadlines are self-imposed, in order to keep the Docket moving. As soon as all briefs in the Al-Shabazz Department of Corrections cases are filed [a total of 95 days after the case is assigned to an ALJ], I review them to see if they can be dismissed on a procedural ground. For the ones which require review on the merits, I issue an order within two weeks.

When proposed orders are received, I attempt to issue those Orders no more than 30 days after receipt of the proposed orders.

13. What is your philosophy on "judicial activism," and what effect should judges have in setting or promoting public policy?

The "separation of powers" doctrine is fundamental to our system of government. The Legislature enacts the laws; the Courts of the Judicial Branch interpret those laws, and the Executive Branch enforces them. Ascertaining legislative intent is the fundamental principle of statutory construction. Judicial activism is not within the purview of the courts of South Carolina.

14. Canon 4 allows a judge to engage in activities to improve the law, legal system, and administration of justice. What activities would you plan to undertake to further this improvement of the legal system?

I have been involved since 1978 in activities to improve the law and the administration of justice, including the S. C. Bar, The Richland County Bar, the S.C. Women Lawyers Association, the National Association of Women Lawyers, the National Association of Administrative Law Judges; and the State Administrative and Regulatory Law Association. I have attended conferences of the Central Panel Courts—those with broad jurisdiction similar to that of South Carolina’s Administrative Law Court. I have served on numerous boards, committees, and in leadership positions. I enjoy public speaking, and am honored that the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court has asked me to speak on “Administrative Law” to the younglawyers taking the “Bridge the Gap” seminars twice each year since I was elected to the bench in 1999. I am a frequent speaker on topics ranging from “Professionalism” and “Ethics” to “Administrative Law” and “Order Writing.”

15. Do you feel that the pressure of serving as a judge will strain personal relationships (i.e. spouse, children, friends, or relatives)? No. How would you plan to address this?

I do not expect any problems. My daughter is 30 years old, living in Charleston, South Carolina. She graduated in the first class of The Charleston School of Law, and works for Charleston County as an Assistant County Attorney. She is married and lives on James Island.

I was a single parent for 17 years. During that time I worked for the Supreme Court, the Attorney General, the House of Representatives Judiciary Committee, and became a partner at the largest law firm in the state. I was in private practice for ten years, and have been a Judge for the past ten years. I’ve been very blessed. I have remarried since I was elected, to Johnny McAllister, originally of Mt. Carmel, SC. My three sisters and their families live in South Carolina, and I try to stay involved in their lives and those of my closest friends.

16. Are you involved in any active investments from which you derive additional income that might impair your appearance of impartiality? No.
17. Would you hear a case where you or a member of your family held a de minimis financial interest in a party involved? Because a de minimus interest is so insignificant that it could not be used to reasonably question my impartiality, I could hear such a case.
18. Do you belong to any organizations that discriminate based on race, religion, or gender? No.
19. Have you met the mandatory minimum hours requirement for continuing legal education courses? I have met or exceeded the requirements every year since I was admitted to the Bar in 1978.
20. What percentage of your legal experience has dealt with cases that appear before the Administrative Law Court? Please describe to the Commission your experience in these areas. Approximately 85% of my legal experience from 1978 until I was elected a Judge in 1999 has involved cases which are ALC cases or developed skills which are invaluable to a Judge.

S. C. Supreme Court Staff Attorney and Law Clerk:As a Staff Attorney and Law Clerk, I drafted many opinions for Supreme Court

Judges. I read many civil and criminal briefs, and acquired a working knowledge of crafting findings of fact and conclusions of law.

Contested Cases: In private practice, I participated in matters involving Dock permitting from DHEC/OCRM, Environmental Permitting and Environmental Fines at DHEC, and Certificates of Need for Hospitals. I participated in drafting and advocating legislation relating to the Beachfront Management Act, the Solid Waste Management and Policy Act, amendments to the Certificate of Need Act and the Hazardous Waste Management Act. I also represented clients before the ABC Commission [now the DOR].

Appeals: As an Assistant Attorney General, I wrote more than 200 appellate briefs and argued more than 80 cases solo before the S. C. Supreme Court and Court of Appeals. I prosecuted for the Board of Medical Examiners, the Cosmetology Board, and other Boards. The ALC hears appeals from all Licensing Boards of LLR, so I was thoroughly familiar with hearing procedures and the Licensing Statutes before I became a Judge. I have represented the Medical Board in Circuit Court before the Administrative Law Court was created. I wrote many opinions for the Attorney General's signature.

In private practice, I represented Insurance agents whose Licenses had been revoked by the Board. I also represented one client in obtaining a pardon from the Probation, Pardon, and Parole Board [whose appeals now come to the ALC.]

Regulations: In private practice, I assisted in drafting regulations for clients, and represented clients in Regulatory hearings before the Administrative Law Court. I monitored the progress of Regulations at the General Assembly and represented clients at DHEC Public Hearings during the promulgation process.

21. What do you feel is the appropriate demeanor for a judge? Canon III makes it clear that a Judge is supposed to be unbiased, courteous, patient, and dignified with everyone, not just litigants and lawyers. Judges must act accordingly with respect to staff and all members of the public.
22. Would the rules that you expressed in your previous answer apply only while you are on the bench or in chambers, or would these rules apply seven days a week, twenty-four hours a day? The rules always apply.
23. Do you feel that it is ever appropriate to be angry with a member of the public who would appear before you? No. Is anger ever appropriate in dealing with attorneys or a pro se litigant? No. Sternness may be appropriate, but never anger.
24. How much money have you spent on your campaign? $48.60 If it is over $100, has that amount been reported to the House and Senate Ethics Committees? N/A

25. If you are a sitting judge, have you used judicial letterhead or the services of your staff while campaigning for this office? No.
26. Have you sought or received the pledge of any legislator prior to this date? No.
27. Have you sought or been offered a conditional pledge of support by any legislator pending the outcome of your screening? No.
28. Have you asked any third parties to contact members of the General Assembly on your behalf before the final and formal screening report has been released? No. Are you aware of any friends or colleagues contacting members of the General Assembly on your behalf? No.
29. Have you contacted any members of the Judicial Merit Selection Commission? No.
30. Are you familiar with the 48-hour rule, which prohibits a candidate from seeking pledges for 48 hours after the draft report has been submitted? Yes.

I HEREBY CERTIFY THAT THE ANSWERS TO THE ABOVE QUESTIONS ARE TRUE AND COMPLETE TO THE BEST OF MY KNOWLEDGE.
