15. Please answer the following (if you are a judge and are not seeking a different type of judgeship, this question is inapplicable):

(a) If you are a candidate for Family Court, please provide a brief written description of your experience within each of the following Family Court practice areas: divorce and equitable division of property, child custody, adoption, abuse and neglect, and juvenile justice. Include information about cases you have handled in each of these practice areas, or if you have not practiced in an area, describe how your background and procedural knowledge has prepared you to preside over such matters as a Family Court Judge. Please also indicate the frequency of your appearances before a Family Court Judge within the past five years.

Divorce: Almost 100% of my practice involves divorce. The few that do not usually are because a Decree of Separate Maintenance and Support is sought or the action involves a modification of alimony; support; custody or visitation. I have had a great deal of experience in all of the fault ground pleadings and proof required at trial. Now most cases settle in mediation so the necessity of having fault is not as useful as it may have been in the past.

Equitable division: Over the course of my practice I have worked on a plethora of equitable division matters ranging from multi-million dollar marital estates to a case involving only a family Bible and a quilt. During the years of the real estate recession, much of my practice in the coastal areas demanded division of negative equity, which is a challenge. I am well versed in the language of business valuations and have worked often with tax and valuation experts.

Child custody: My practice consists of the complex custodial matters which range from special needs physical challenges to severe psychological impairments of either a child or a parent. I have worked assisting military members who have suffered traumatic brain injuries or severe PTSD with finding ways to have meaningful relationships with their children. I have a great deal of experience as a Guardian representing the best interests of minor children. I often work with expert psychologists and therapists in my cases.

Adoption: My practice has consisted of handling mostly step-parent adoptions and guardianships for school purposes. I will have to become more familiar with private and agency related adoption law.

Abuse and neglect, and juvenile justice: My only experience with abuse and neglect cases comes from being appointed to represent parents in DSS cases. I have only handled one or two juvenile cases over the years and those were very early in my practice. I have been studying the code for the juvenile requirements of the Bench and feel that I will be able to appropriately handle juvenile matters.

I appear in front of the Family Court Bench very frequently and have over the last 5 years. I do not try as many cases as I used to since I am most often able to resolve my cases in mediation. I have appeared most often lately pursuant to Rules regarding contempt, motions for temporary relief and procedural motions.

- (b) If you are a candidate for Circuit Court, please provide a brief written description of your experience in criminal matters, including any cases handled over the past five years and include a brief description of the issues involved. Further, please provide a brief written description of your experience in civil matters, including any cases handled over the past five years and include a brief description of the types of matters handled, issues involved, and procedural history. Please include information such as the primary areas in civil court in which you practice, whether you represent plaintiffs or defendants, or both. You may go back further than five years if you feel it would assist the Commission with its assessment of your experience. If you lack experience in an area, describe how your background and procedural knowledge has prepared you to preside over such matters as a Circuit Court Judge, or how you would compensate for your lack of experience in this area. Please also indicate the frequency of your appearances before a Circuit Court Judge within the past five years. N/A
- (c) If you are a candidate for Master-In-Equity, please provide a brief written description of your experience in the Master's court, including any cases handled over the past five years and include a brief description of the issues involved. Please include the frequency of your appearances before a Master-In-Equity or a Circuit Court Judge within the past five years. N/A
- (d) If you are a candidate for Administrative Law Court, please provide a brief written description of your experience before an Administrative Law Judge, including any issues discussed and the frequency of your appearances before the Administrative Law or Circuit Court within the past five years. N/A

* Justices/judges applying for re-election to their current position may omit Questions 17–22. If you are a judge seeking a judgeship different than your current position, Questions 17-22 should be answered based on your experience prior to serving on the bench.

17. What was the frequency of your court appearances during the past five years or in the five years prior to your election to the bench?

- (a) federal: 0
- (b) state: 100%

18. What percentage of your practice involved civil, criminal, domestic, and other matters during the past five years or in the five years prior to your election to the bench?

- (a) civil:
- (b) criminal:
- (c) domestic: 100%
- (d) other:

19. What percentage of your practice in trial court during the past five years or in the five years prior to your election to the bench involved matters that went to a jury, including those that settled prior to trial?

- (a) jury:
- (b) non-jury: 100%

Did you most often serve as sole counsel, chief counsel, or associate counsel in these matters? Sole counsel

20. List five of the most significant litigated matters you have personally handled in either trial or appellate court or before a state or federal agency. Give citations if the cases were reported and describe why these matters were significant.

- a) I was appointed to represent a young woman in a DSS case who had had her children taken from her for neglect. The neglect sprang from her leaving a home wherein she was being physically abused and the children were with a babysitter. My client ran because of an outstanding probation violation charge that she knew would put her in prison. She was arrested eventually. I was appointed while she was in prison. The children were placed with the paternal Aunt. Once my client got out of jail, she tried diligently to complete the safety plan and the requirements that DSS had set out for her. The problem was that the treatment plan was grossly beyond the scope of a finding of neglect. To further compound the problem, DSS failed to make the necessary referrals. My client, with my guidance, completed all of the requirements on a private basis. The GAL never visited my client's home or met with her outside of monitoring a visitation. I filed a Motion for the Judicial Review hearing to be scheduled and was able to get a day certain. At the conclusion of the trial, the Court ordered the minor children returned to my client, that very day. I have never had that happen before and haven't again. I watched my client grow from being an insecure victim with mental health problems, and no real parenting or employment skills, to a confident, assertive, adult who was in charge of her own life and her own children. She went to work, secured housing and got her life back on track. I was very proud to have aided this young woman in putting her life back together with her children.

- b) Most of my cases involve assisting individuals in putting their lives back together after a very traumatic and emotional event. I take a great deal of personal pride in seeing my clients leave me ready to experience and cope with the new "normal" in their lives. While I wouldn't say my cases are insignificant, there are none really responsive to this question except as set out above.
21. List up to five civil appeals you have personally handled. Give the case name, the court, the date of decision, and the citation if the case was reported. N/A

 25. Have you ever held public office other than judicial office? If so, list the periods of your service, the office or offices involved, and whether you were elected or appointed. Also, state whether or not you have timely filed your report with the State Ethics Commission during the period you held public office. If not, were you ever subject to a penalty? If so, give details, including dates. No
 26. List all employment you had while serving as a judge (whether full-time or part-time, contractual or at will, consulting or otherwise) other than elected judicial office. Specify your dates of employment, employer, major job responsibilities, and supervisor. N/A
 27. Have you ever been an unsuccessful candidate for elective, judicial, or other public office? If so, give details, including dates. No

28. Have you ever been engaged in any occupation, business, or profession other than the practice of law, teaching of law, or holding judicial or other public office? If so, give details, including a description of your occupation, business, or profession, the dates of your employment, and the name of your business or employer.

My first job was at the age of 13, and I served breakfast and lunch at a little hotel on the Myrtle Beach Boardwalk called, "The Wee Blue Inn". This was the summer of the Watergate hearings. I worked at Cape Craft Pine which was a gift store in Myrtle Beach for one or two summers.

I worked in the food service industry every summer after that at various places until the late 1980's. I was either a bartender or a waitress. I worked as a waitress at an Italian restaurant in Myrtle Beach called Raimondo's. I worked as a waitress at Cagney's Old Place in Myrtle Beach, which is no longer open, in 1977 and 1978. I worked as a waitress at the East Bay Trading Company, which is no longer open, in 1978 and a few more years, in downtown Charleston. I worked as a bartender at Captain Cocktails in Mt. Pleasant, SC in the early to mid-1980s, which is no longer open. I worked at a little luncheon diner in Mt. Pleasant but I don't remember the name.

I worked both at Wild Dunes in the catering department and then worked for a private catering company called Caterer's Extraordinaire in Charleston. This would probably be from the mid 1980's until I left for paralegal school in 1989. Wild Dunes has changed hands several times since I was there and Caterer's Extraordinaire is no longer open.

I worked as a domestic and criminal trial paralegal for James W. Hancock, Jr., from 1990 until graduating from law school, in Rock Hill, South Carolina. Mr. Hancock died in 2015.

29. Are you now an officer or director or involved in the management of any business enterprise? Explain the nature of the business, your duties, and the term of your service.
Other than my law practice, none. In my practice I handle the hiring and the payroll information; the application of the benefit programs in place for the staff; I monitor the collections and the accounts receivable on a weekly basis. I oversee and monitor the escrow account reconciliation on a monthly basis.
30. Please explain why you think you meet the professional and academic ability criteria for the seat you seek.
I have practiced family law all over the state of South Carolina for 16 years. I love the Family Court and the practice of family law. I know the law. I know the rules of evidence and of civil procedure. I have seen the impact of the family court on families.
31. Provide, as a separate attachment, a complete, current financial net worth statement that itemizes in detail:

- (a) the identity and value of all financial assets held, directly or indirectly, including, but not limited to, bank accounts, real estate, securities, trusts, investments, and other financial holdings; and
- (b) the identity and amount of each liability owed, directly or indirectly, which is in excess of $1,000, including, but not limited to, debts, mortgages, loans, and other financial obligations.

(A net worth statement is provided with this questionnaire and you must use this format for submission of your financial statement.)

NOTE: The Commission may require written confirmation that financial obligations have been satisfied or that the parties have agreed upon a payment schedule.

32. Describe any financial arrangements or business relationships you have, or have had in the past, that could constitute or result in a possible conflict of interest in the position you seek or currently hold. Explain how you would resolve any potential conflict of interest. None

33. Have you ever been arrested, charged, or held by federal, state, or other law enforcement authorities for violation or for suspicion of violation of any federal law or regulation, state law or regulation, or county or municipal law, regulation, or ordinance, or any other law, including another country's law? If so, give details but do not include traffic violations which are subject to a penalty of $125 or less. You must include any and all arrests, including, but not limited to, offenses for driving under the influence or similar traffic offenses. Include all arrests that resulted in expungement, which will be redacted. If you have questions regarding whether to include an offense, please contact the Commission.

[All answers have been received and considered by the Commission, and as noted above, any expunged matters are redacted from the record.]

I believe I was arrested at some time right after college because of having a suspended license. I was not aware of the suspension and very quickly got it straightened out. I do not remember the year.

34. Have you, to your knowledge, ever been under federal, state, or local investigation for possible violation of a criminal statute? If yes, explain.

[All answers have been received and considered by the Commission, and as noted above, any expunged matters are redacted from the record.]

35. Has a tax lien or other collection procedure ever been instituted against you by federal, state, or local authorities? Have you ever defaulted on a student loan? Have you ever filed for bankruptcy? If so, give details.

In the process of gathering material for this application I became aware of a 2003 SC state tax lien against a home I sold when I got married, which apparently was satisfied in September 2003. I have no knowledge of this except for what is stated herein.

36. Have you ever been sued by a client? Have you ever been a named party (personally or professionally) in or had a pecuniary interest in any civil or criminal proceedings? If so, give details, including, but not limited to, dates, and resolutions.

I have never been sued by a client.

While in High School in Myrtle Beach, I got in a wreck. I was hit in the driver's side while pulling out on to Highway 17. I remember there was a court date and a trial. I do not believe I was a named litigant. It is possible that it was my insurance company. I attended but did not testify. This would have been in 1976 or earlier.

Right after college I worked for a catering company and when the company disbanded there was argument as to what was owed to me as commission. I had an attorney and negotiations were held. I do not believe any action was filed but I am not positive. This would have been in 1981 or 1982.

37. Have you ever, in South Carolina or any other jurisdiction, as a lawyer, judge, or other professional, been sanctioned or disciplined for lawyer, judicial, or other professional misconduct or has any jurisdiction found that you committed any misconduct? If so, give the details and describe any final disposition. Include any and all confidential and public sanction, discipline, or finding of misconduct of any kind.

[Yes and no responses are redacted for all candidates unless there is a public discipline.]

38. Have you ever been investigated by the Department of Social Services? If so, give the details and the resolution. Has your name ever been enrolled on the Central Registry of Child Abuse and Neglect? If so, give the details. No

39. If you are in private practice, are you covered by malpractice insurance and, if so, how long have you carried malpractice insurance? If applicable, have you ever been covered by a tail policy? If so, please explain when you were covered by a tail policy. Also, if applicable, indicate your coverage and deductible for your current malpractice policy.

I have had malpractice liability insurance the entire life of my practice. Now I have the entire firm covered through the Hanover Group. Prior to switching to Hanover in 2013, I had our coverage through ALPS. I have never been covered by a tail policy.

40. Are you active on or a member of a social media or Internet site or have you, to your knowledge, been featured or depicted on a social media or Internet site, such as, Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter, etc.? If so, how would your use of social media or other similar types of Internet sites be affected if you were serving in a judicial capacity?

I am not on Facebook but have been in the past

I have a profile on LinkedIn

I have an Instagram account.

Once on the Bench, I would shut down the LinkedIn but would continue using the Instagram account as I do now. I share pictures of my daughter, my family and my dogs.

No. I have been the Convention Vice Chairman of the South Carolina Association for Justice for several years. My responsibilities include assisting with the scheduling and organization of the August Convention in Hilton Head, South Carolina each year. Because of this position, I am provided a room at the Westin during the convention. In the process of gathering information for this application, I have been told the value each year is approximately $1466.50. If I am elected to serve as a Judge, I will resign this position.
43. Itemize (by amount, type, and date) all expenditures, other than those for travel and room and board, made by you, or on your behalf in furtherance of your candidacy for the position you seek. If you have spent over $100, have you reported your expenditures to the House and Senate Ethics Committees?
I had CV cards printed at a cost of $ 89.00 from the Copy Shop
44. List the recipient and amount of all contributions made by you, a member of your immediate family, or by a business with whom you are associated, to members of the General Assembly within the past four years.

Describe the campaigning you have done for this election and include a list of those individuals you have asked to campaign on your behalf and, to the best of your knowledge, those who have campaigned for you on their own initiative. I have mentioned to friends and to family that I intended to run for a family court judicial seat but have not requested nor have I knowledge of any requests for contact made on my behalf. I have not asked anyone to campaign for me nor have I knowledge of anyone else asking for that on my behalf.

47. Are you familiar with the 48-hour rule, which prohibits a candidate from seeking pledges until after the draft report becomes final, which occurs on the day and time specified on the Commission's published screening schedule? Yes
