

Session 109 - (1991-1992)

H 4250 General Bill, By I.K. Rudnick, A.W. Byrd, B.H. Harwell, Kirsh, A.C. McGinnis, R. Smith, J.J. Snow, J.B. Wilder and D. Williams

A Bill to provide that an insured under a policy of automobile insurance with an otherwise clean driving record who violates for the first time any of the State's motor vehicle laws, for which violation points are assessed, is subject to only a one-time surcharge or increase in recoupment fee, based on the assessment of points, assessment of points, of one hundred dollars for that violation, and to provide that no surcharge or increase in recoupment fee, based on the assessment of points, shall be applied to or assessed against an insured after the date on which such points are removed or are required to be removed from the insured's driving record with respect to any violation of the State's motor vehicle laws.

01/22/92 House Introduced and read first time HJ-10

01/22/92 House Referred to Committee on Labor, Commerce and Industry HJ-11