

Session 110 - (1993-1994)

H 4399 General Bill, By J.J. Bailey and R.S. Corning

A Bill to amend Section 38-77-280, as amended, Code of Laws of South Carolina, 1976, relating to the requirement that automobile insurers make collision and comprehensive coverage available to any insured, so as to provide that an insurer is not required to write private passenger physical coverage for specified types of vehicles, to provide that a certain notice must be provided to applicants purchasing single interest collision coverage, to provide that in determining the premium rates to be charged on automobile insurance, it is unlawful to consider race, color, creed, religion, national origin, ancestry, location of residence, occupation, or economic status, to provide an insurer or its agent shall provide written notice to an insured of the reason he was not written at the base rate, and to provide that the Chief Insurance Commissioner annually shall compile a comparative statistical analysis of persons for whom physical damage coverages are written and of persons for whom physical damage coverages are denied.
