~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~
Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Galatians 5:22-23: "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self control; against such things there is no law."

Let us pray. Gracious Lord, strengthen our self control, that we might work in Your ways each day. Help us to be steadfast in the face of temptation. Guide and direct our defenders of freedom and first responders. We remember those who have gone before us and led the way for us to follow in serving this great State. Bless our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who serve in this vineyard. Keep us steadfast in Your word. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

MOTION ADOPTED

Rep. MCKNIGHT moved that when the House adjourns, it adjourn in memory of Jim Owens, which was agreed to.

SILENT PRAYER

Williams, Bradley and Erickson: A BILL TO AMEND THE CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976, TO TRANSFER FROM THE SOUTH CAROLINA MENTAL HEALTH COMMISSION THE AUTHORITY AND RESPONSIBILITY FOR ESTABLISHING VETERANS NURSING HOMES AND TO DEVOLVE THOSE SAME DUTIES, RESPONSIBILITIES, AND FUNCTIONS UPON THE DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS' AFFAIRS; BY ADDING ARTICLE 7 TO CHAPTER 11, TITLE 25 SO AS TO AUTHORIZE THE DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS' AFFAIRS TO ESTABLISH AND OPERATE VETERANS NURSING HOMES; TO AMEND SECTION 43-35-520, RELATING TO VULNERABLE ADULT FATALITY INVESTIGATIONS, SO AS TO MAKE CONFORMING CHANGES; AND TO REPEAL SECTIONS 44-11-30 AND 44-11-40 RELATING TO VETERANS NURSING HOMES ESTABLISHED BY THE SOUTH CAROLINA MENTAL HEALTH COMMISSION.

Rep. HERBKERSMAN proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 4997 (COUNCIL\VR\4997C002.CC.VR22):

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

/ SECTION 1. (A) On July 1, 2023, the responsibility and authority to establish and operate veterans nursing homes is transferred from the South Carolina Mental Health Commission, and these duties, responsibilities, and functions are devolved upon the Department of Veterans' Affairs.

(B)(1) The Department of Veterans' Affairs shall oversee the transition of the veterans nursing home program from the Department of Mental Health to the Department of Veterans Affairs.

(2) The Department of Mental and the Department of Veterans' Affairs shall work together at all stages of the process until the transition is complete.

(3) The Department of Mental Health shall immediately begin the reorganization of the veterans nursing home program consistent with any plans the Department of Veterans' Affairs may have in place.

(4) The Department of Mental Health and the Department of Veterans Affairs shall provide monthly reports to the Governor, the Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, and the Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee on the status of the transition through completion.

(C) The employees, authorized appropriations, and assets and liabilities of the South Carolina Mental Health Commission and the Department of Mental Health designated for the establishment and operation of veterans nursing homes are transferred to the Department of Veterans' Affairs. Classified or unclassified personnel employed by the South Carolina Mental Health Commission or the Department of Mental Health to perform duties related to establishment or operation of veterans nursing homes on the effective date of this act, either by contract or by employment at will, shall become employees of the Department of Veterans' Affairs with the same employment status, compensation, classification, and grade level as applicable.

(D) Applicable regulations promulgated by the South Carolina Mental Health Commission or the Department of Mental Health are continued and are considered to be promulgated by the Department of Veterans' Affairs.

(E) The Code Commissioner is directed to change or correct all references to the South Carolina Mental Health Commission and the Department of Mental Health relating to veterans nursing homes to the Department of Veterans' Affairs.

SECTION 2. Chapter 11, Title 25 of the 1976 Code is amended by adding:

"Article 7

South Carolina Veteran Homes

Section 25-11-710. The Department of Veterans' Affairs, in mutual agreement with the authorities of the United States Veterans Administration, may establish and operate South Carolina veterans homes on grounds owned by the Department of Veterans' Affairs to provide treatment for South Carolina veterans who require long-term nursing care. The Department of Veterans' Affairs is designated as the agency of the State to apply for and to accept gifts, grants, and other contributions from the federal government or from any other governmental unit for the operation and construction of South Carolina veterans homes.

Section 25-11-720. For purposes of this article, 'South Carolina veteran' means a South Carolina resident who served in the active military, naval, or air service, and who was discharged or released therefrom under conditions other than dishonorable. A reservist or member of the National Guard called to Federal active duty or disabled from a disease or injury incurred or aggravated in line of duty or while in training status also qualify as a veteran."

SECTION 3. A. Section 43-35-10(4) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(4) 'Facility' means a nursing care facility, community residential care facility, a psychiatric hospital, or any residential program operated or contracted for operation by the Department of Mental Health, the Department of Veterans' Affairs, or the Department of Disabilities and Special Needs.

B. Section 43-35-520 of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"Section 43-35-520. The Vulnerable Adults Investigations Unit of the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division, created pursuant to Section 23-3-810, shall, in addition to its investigation responsibilities under that section or Article 1, investigate cases of vulnerable adult fatalities in facilities operated or contracted for operation by the Department of Mental Health, the Department of Veterans' Affairs, or the Department of Disabilities and Special Needs. Provided, that in a nursing home, as defined in Section 44-7-130, contracted for operation by the Department of ~~Mental Health~~ Veterans' Affairs, the Vulnerable Adults Investigations Unit shall investigate those fatalities for which there is suspicion that the vulnerable adult died as a result of abuse or neglect, the death is suspicious in nature, or the death is referred by a coroner or medical examiner as provided in Section 43-35-35(A). In the event that a coroner rules that the death of an individual in a veterans' nursing home under the authority of the Department of ~~Mental Health~~ Veterans' Affairs results from natural causes, the State Law Enforcement Division is not required to conduct an investigation regarding the individual's death."

SECTION 4. Sections 44-11-30 and 44-11-40 of the 1976 Code are repealed.

SECTION 5. This act takes effect upon approval of the Governor. To ensure the efficient transition of the operation of veterans nursing homes from the Department to Mental Health to the Department of Veterans' Affairs upon the effective date of the act, the Department of Mental Health and the Department of Veterans' Affairs may begin completion of the tasks enumerated in SECTION 1. B. /

Reps. HIOTT and CHUMLEY proposed the following Amendment No. 2 to H. 4866 (COUNCIL\ZW\4866C001.AR.ZW22), which was adopted:

Amend the joint resolution, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting clause and inserting:

/ SECTION 1. (A) The State Board of Education, in conjunction with the Food Systems and Safety Program of the Clemson University Cooperative Extension Service (Clemson Extension Service), shall plan, develop, institute, and oversee a pilot program of three public school-based community canning sites where members of the general public may bring locally-grown produce to be canned for their personal use. The purpose of this program is to enable families to safely preserve and store food grown by them for personal consumption through the use of:

(1) research-based information, procedures, and instruction concerning canning food; and

(2) industrial grade equipment and related supplies that allow faster processing of fruits and vegetables on a larger scale than can be done at home.

(B) The State Board of Education and Clemson Extension Service shall cause the public school-based community canneries to be pilot tested in three selected school districts from 2023 through 2026, and shall provide community training programs for food preservation using canning. Use of the canning facilities and canning supplies must be provided to the community with limits on the amount available for each family as determined appropriate by the State Board of Education and Clemson Extension Service. Community members wishing to use the facilities must be required to sign an agreement stating that they will not sell any of the food that they can at the cannery. Each cannery must maintain schedules of times at which the canning facilities are available to the public and also shall maintain records related to the use of the facilities as the State Board of Education and the Clemson Extension Service considers appropriate.

(C) Before January 1, 2026, the State Board of Education and Clemson Extension Service shall report on the performance of each cannery and make recommendations regarding whether the program should be continued and expanded through the permanent enactment of legislation for that purpose.

SECTION 2. The provisions of this joint resolution only may be enforced when the General Assembly appropriates the necessary funding.

SECTION 3. This joint resolution takes effect upon the approval of the Governor. /

Renumber sections to conform.

Amend title to conform.

Rep. CHUMLEY explained the amendment.

HOUSE STANDS AT EASE

The House stood at ease subject to the call of the Chair.

THE HOUSE RESUMES

At 12:25 p.m. the House resumed, the SPEAKER in the Chair.

JOINT ASSEMBLY

At 12:30 p.m. the Senate appeared in the Hall of the House. The President of the Senate called the Joint Assembly to order and announced that it had convened under the terms of a Concurrent Resolution adopted by both Houses.

The Reading Clerk of the House read the following Concurrent Resolution:

S. 1101 -- Senator Alexander: A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION TO WELCOME THE NATIONAL COMMANDER OF THE AMERICAN LEGION, PAUL E. DILLARD, TO SOUTH CAROLINA, AND TO INVITE HIM TO ADDRESS THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN JOINT SESSION IN THE CHAMBER OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AT 12:30 P.M. ON WEDNESDAY, MARCH 9, 2022.

The Honorable Paul E. Dillard and distinguished party were escorted to the rostrum by Senators McElveen, Davis, K. Johnson, Gustafson and Corbin and Representatives R. WILLIAMS, T. MOORE, B. COX and HOSEY. The Lieutenant Governor recognized our special guests and then the National American Legion Commander addressed the General Assembly as follows:

Address by the Honorable Paul E. Dillard
National Commander of The American Legion
March 9, 2022

Ladies, Gentlemen, distinguished Members of this great Body. It's truly an honor to speak to such an esteemed audience in this historic State House.

Before I begin, please allow me a moment to introduce members of The American Legion Family who are with me today.

We have with us the Commander of the South Carolina American Legion, Ron Price of Monetta, National Executive Committeeman Michael D. Strauss of North Augusta, Joe Lysaught, Alternate NEC from Charleston, The Department Adjutant Nick Diener of Columbia , The American Legion Auxiliary Department of South Carolina President Pearl Mills of Camden, and the Sons of the American Legion South Carolina Detachment Commander Dan Rollins of Fort Mill.

I come before you during a time of great peril. The Russian invasion of Ukraine has wreaked havoc on the peace and stability that the European continent has largely experienced since the end of the Cold War.

South Carolina is home to approximately 400,000 military veterans. Many of these men and women trained for possible combat against the old Soviet Union. I, myself, went to war against a Soviet-aligned Communist regime in Vietnam. The current Russian leader has strongly signaled his desire to resurrect the old Soviet Union.

Without understating the seriousness of this threat, The American Legion agrees with the president's decision to not send U.S. troops into Ukraine. We do believe, however, that the international community must use every diplomatic and economic tool at its disposal to convince Russia to reverse course.

If the Russians were to invade Poland or any other NATO country, we would be obligated to militarily defend our allies. None of us would like to see another World War.

I'm going to share with you another crisis, and it's no less serious to us. More than 118,000 men and women who have served in our armed forces have taken their own lives since 2001. That's double the number of KIAs that we lost during the entire Vietnam War. I'm not here to give you statistics. One is too many! But stopping these needless deaths is a top priority for The American Legion. We have put an emphasis on "peer support" through a program that we call Buddy Checks. Veterans understand each other. We are diverse, represent all age groups, and may have served in different wars. But we understand the challenges of military life and the trauma that sometimes goes with it. We all served under the same flag and share many common experiences.

Our Buddy Checks have captured the attention of Congress, the VA, and the entire veterans community. We'd love to have every veteran join the Legion, but you don't have to be a Legionnaire to ask a fellow vet whether or not he or she is ok.

This Legislature is to be commended for a couple of bills that have passed in the House and are supported by The American Legion Department of South Carolina.

House Bill 3598 establishes a burial compensation fund for veterans organizations to provide honor guards. Legionnaires consider it a true honor to bring dignity to a veteran's funeral. Though it's a labor of love, most honor guard members dig into their pockets to perform these services. The cost to the taxpayers is relatively small but it does make a difference to these veterans who take time off from their jobs and other obligations in order to give their brothers and sisters-in-arms a proper farewell.

The other Bill is H. 3247, the Workforce and Military Recognition Act, which would eventually exempt all military pensions from state income tax. South Carolina is already what we call "veteran-friendly" but the exemption would provide yet another powerful incentive for military retirees to choose the Palmetto State as their new home once they hang up their uniforms. Most military retirees do seek second careers, which would generate additional revenue for this State.

Last year my predecessor, Bill Oxford, was unable to address this Legislature due to pandemic restrictions, though he was able to be here in 2020. Since that time, you have confirmed retired Major General Will Grimsley to serve as the first secretary of the South Carolina Department of Veterans Affairs.

Secretary Grimsley has a distinguished Army record, which includes a Distinguished Service Medal, Silver Star, multiple Bronze Stars, and the Purple Heart. We are proud to have him as a Legionnaire and are grateful for his continued service to veterans in this State.

There is someone else that I would like to acknowledge, though we all wish he were here in person. Sergeant First Class Christopher Celiz was born and raised in Summerville, South Carolina. He attended the Citadel and eventually became an Army Ranger. In 2018, during his fifth deployment to Afghanistan, he exposed himself to enemy machine gun fire as a larger force attacked his team. He retrieved and employed a heavy weapon system and used his body as a shield while a wounded team partner was medically evacuated by helicopter. Understanding the danger faced by the helicopter, he signaled the crew to leave. Sergeant First Class Celiz died so others could live. We must not only remember this hero, but also Sergeant Celiz's wife, Katie, and their young daughter.

Three months ago, on December 16th, President Biden presented a well-deserved Medal of Honor, our Nation's highest award, posthumously to Sergeant First Class Celiz. South Carolina - and the entire United States - should be proud to produce heroes of this caliber. It is our duty to always remember them.

Now, if you would allow me for one moment to call to the dais two Members of this distinguished Body who have proven that they are not only great lawmakers, but they are advocates for those who have served. They have been designated by The American Legion Department of South Carolina as the Outstanding Members of the Legislature for 2022. They are true friends of veterans and The American Legion.

Senator J. Thomas McElveen and Representative G. Murrell Smith, would you please join me? We appreciate all that you do on behalf of veterans. Thank you so much, South Carolina Legislature.

God Bless you and God Bless America.

JOINT ASSEMBLY RECEDES

The purposes of the Joint Assembly having been accomplished, the PRESIDENT announced that under the terms of the Concurrent Resolution the Joint Assembly would recede from business.

The Senate accordingly retired to its Chamber.

THE HOUSE RESUMES

At 12:42 p.m. the House resumed, the SPEAKER in the Chair.

Rep. HENDERSON-MYERS moved that the House do now adjourn, which was agreed to.

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~
Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Exodus 15:11: “Who is like you, O Lord, among the gods? Who is like you, majestic in holiness, awesome in glorious deeds, doing wonders?”

Let us pray. Almighty God, when problems threaten to overwhelm us, be our refuge and strength. Continue Your love and faithfulness to these Representatives, Staff, and all of Your people. Bless our defenders of freedom and first responders. Let Your face shine upon our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all those who suffer from wounds. Keep us always in Your love and care. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

H. 3509--DEBATE ADJOURNED

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 3509 -- Reps. Fry, Felder, Bernstein, Collins, Kimmons, Robinson, Haddon, V. S. Moss, Pope, Forrest, J. L. Johnson, W. Cox, Carter, Oremus, Henegan, Jefferson and R. Williams: A BILL TO AMEND THE CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976, BY ADDING ARTICLE 8 TO CHAPTER 7, TITLE 63 SO AS TO ESTABLISH AN EXTENDED FOSTER CARE PROGRAM AND RELATED PROCEDURES TO ENABLE CERTAIN CHILDREN IN THE CUSTODY OF THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL SERVICES ON THEIR EIGHTEENTH BIRTHDAY TO CONTINUE TO RECEIVE SERVICES AND SUPPORTS FROM THE DEPARTMENT UNTIL THE AGE OF TWENTY-ONE; TO DEFINE TERMS; TO PROVIDE FOR VOLUNTARY AND COURT-ORDERED EXTENDED FOSTER CARE; TO REQUIRE CASE REVIEW AND PERMANENCY PLANNING; AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES; AND TO AMEND SECTION 63-7-1700, RELATING TO PERMANENCY PLANNING HEARINGS, SO AS TO MAKE CONFORMING CHANGES.

The Committee on Judiciary proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3509 (COUNCIL\VR\3509C002.NBD.VR22):

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

/ SECTION 1. Chapter 7, Title 63 of the 1976 Code is amended by adding:

"Article 8

Extended Foster Care for Persons Age Eighteen to Twenty-one

Section 63-7-2700. The purpose of this article is to establish procedures for a child who is or was in the legal custody of the Department of Social Services on the child's eighteenth birthday and who has not attained age twenty-one to receive services and supports that promote emotional well-being, economic productivity, self-sufficiency, connection to family and community, and a successful transition to adulthood upon leaving the state's foster care system.

Section 63-7-2710. For purposes of this article:

(1) 'Administrative case review' means a review open to the child and if the child consents, the child's parents, conducted by a panel of appropriate persons. Although at least one member of the panel must be a person who is not responsible for the case management of or the delivery of services to the child or the child's parents, employees of the Department of Social Services are appropriate persons and may participate as panelist.

(2) 'Child' means a person who is or was in the legal custody of the department on the person's eighteenth birthday, who has not attained age twenty-one, and who meets at least one of the following requirements:

(a) is completing secondary education or a program leading to an equivalent credential;

(b) is enrolled in an institution which provides post-secondary or vocational education;

(c) is participating in a program or activity designed to promote or remove barriers to employment;

(d) is employed for at least eighty hours a month; or

(e) is incapable of doing any of the above-described activities due to a physical, intellectual, emotional, or psychiatric condition that limits participation, and the presence of the condition is supported by regularly updated information in the transition plan.

(3) 'Childcare institution' means a private childcare institution, or a public childcare institution which accommodates no more than twenty-five children, that is licensed by the department. 'Childcare institution' does not include wilderness camps or training schools, nor does it include any facility that exists primarily for the detention or correction of children.

(4) 'Court' means the family court.

(5) 'Department' means the Department of Social Services.

(6) 'Foster family home' means the private home of an individual or family that is licensed by the department and in which a child in foster care has been placed in the care of an individual who resides with the child; has been licensed by the department to be a foster parent that the department deems capable of adhering to the reasonable and prudent parent standard as defined in Section 63-7-20(24); provides twenty-four hour substitute care for children placed away from their parents or other caretakers; and provides care for children subject to capacity limitations set forth in Section 63-7-2400. This term also includes kinship, relative, and child-specific homes.

(7) 'Legal custody' means the right to the physical custody, care, and control of the child; the right to determine where the child shall live; the right and duty to provide protection, food, clothing, shelter, ordinary medical care, education, supervision, and discipline for a child and in an emergency to authorize surgery or other extraordinary care. The court may in its order place other rights and duties with the legal custodian.

(8) 'Placement and care responsibility' means the authority conveyed through the court, through written authorization prior to the child's eighteenth birthday, or through a voluntary placement agreement to provide supervision of the child and the child's placement.

(9) 'Supervised independent living setting' means any housing arrangement that is licensed or approved by the department and which makes support services for a successful transition to adulthood available to the child. Case management for the child must be provided by the department or a contracted provider. The child must reside in the setting voluntarily and the setting does not include wilderness camps or training schools, nor does it include any facility that exists primarily for the detention or correction of children.

(10) 'Transition plan' means a written case plan that is personalized, as detailed as the child may elect, and that includes specific options on housing, health insurance, education, local opportunities for mentors and for continuing support services, work force supports, and employment services. A transition plan also must include information about the importance of designating another individual to make health care treatment decisions on behalf of the child if the child becomes unable to participate in such decisions and the child does not have, or does not want, a relative who would otherwise be authorized to make such decisions, and provides the child with the option to execute a health care power of attorney or health care proxy.

(11) 'Voluntary placement agreement' means a written agreement, binding on the child and the department, which describes at a minimum, the legal status of the child, as well as the rights and obligations of the child and the department while the child is under the placement and care responsibility of the department.

Section 63-7-2720. There is created within the Department of Social Services an extended foster care program for eligible children, as the term 'child' is defined in Section 63-7-2710. An eligible child is under the placement and care responsibility of the department while participating in the program. The department must provide placement in a licensed foster family home, childcare institution, or in an approved or licensed supervised independent living setting. The department shall adopt rules and promulgate regulations as necessary to implement the extended foster care program.

Section 63-7-2730. (A) Before a child's eighteenth birthday, the child may provide written authorization to remain under the placement and care responsibility of the department after the child attains age eighteen and the court may conclude that it is in the child's best interests to remain under the placement and care responsibility of the department after the child's eighteenth birthday. In such cases, the court's jurisdiction shall continue until the court issues an order terminating its jurisdiction. In no case may the court's jurisdiction pursuant to this article continue beyond the child's twenty-first birthday.

(B) Subject to eligibility criteria established by the department, after attaining age eighteen, a child may enter into a voluntary placement agreement with the department to remain under or return to the placement and care responsibility of the department. The department must develop a transition plan for a child who remains in or returns to the placement and care responsibility of the department.

(C) A voluntary placement agreement terminates within one hundred eighty days after it is executed, unless the court determines that it is in the child's best interests to remain under the placement and care responsibility of the department.

Section 63-7-2740. (A) Within thirty days of entering a voluntary placement agreement, the department shall initiate proceedings for the review of the agreement by filing with the court a summons, petition, and supplemental report as outlined in Subsection (B). The summons, petition, and supplemental report must be served on the child and must include notice of the procedures to request counsel if the child desires representation at the proceedings. No responsive pleading is required. If the child does not have private representation, an attorney can be requested by the child and provided by the Commission on Indigent Defense under the Rule 608 contract program or Rule 608 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.

(B) The supplemental report must include the following:

(1) information necessary to support a determination that the child is eligible to remain under the placement and care responsibility of the department, that the child wants to remain under the placement and care responsibility of the department, and that remaining under the placement and care responsibility of the department is in the child's best interests;

(2) the voluntary placement agreement; and

(3) a transition plan which states specific, measurable goals and objectives.

(C) The court shall conduct a hearing on the petition within sixty days of the filing of the petition. The department must provide written notice of the hearing to the child at least ten days before the hearing and the child is entitled to be present for the hearing.

(D) The court shall include its findings and conclusions in a written order that addresses whether:

(1) the child wants to remain under the placement and care responsibility of the department;

(2) remaining under the placement and care responsibility of the department is in the best interests of the child;

(3) the services provided to the child improve placement;

(4) the services provided to the child further the child's educational or vocational goals, as applicable; and

(5) the department has made reasonable efforts to support the child's transition to living independently.

(E) Under no circumstances may a voluntary placement agreement exceed a child's twenty-first birthday.

Section 63-7-2750. (A) A child who is in the legal custody of the department on the child's eighteenth birthday and who, due to a physical, intellectual, emotional, or psychiatric impairment, cannot execute a voluntary placement agreement in accordance with Section 63-7-2730 (B), may remain in foster care beyond the child's eighteenth birthday and until the department has coordinated appropriate services for a successful transition to adulthood.

(B) Before the child's eighteenth birthday, at a hearing held pursuant to Section 63-7-700, 63-7-1660, 63-7-1680, or 63-7-1700, the court must determine that it is in the child's best interests to remain under the placement and care responsibility of the department beyond the child's eighteenth birthday due to a physical, intellectual, emotional, or psychiatric impairment and until the department has coordinated appropriate services for a successful transition to adulthood. The court shall continue to review the child's status annually pursuant to Section 63-7-1700.

(C) The child's guardian ad litem shall continue to serve as outlined in Section 63-11-510. If the child's guardian ad litem cannot continue to serve, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the child as outlined in Section 63-11-510.

(D) The jurisdiction of the court continues until the court determines the department has coordinated appropriate transitional services, but in no case may the court's jurisdiction pursuant to this article exceed the child's twenty-first birthday.

Section 63-7-2760. (A) The department shall establish a developmentally appropriate administrative process to review the case of a child who remains under the placement and care responsibility or in the legal custody of the department beyond the child's eighteenth birthday pursuant to Section 63-7-2730(B) or 63-7-2750.

(B) The department or a contracted provider must conduct an administrative case review no less frequently than once every six months to promote the development of a transition plan designed to help the child acquire the skills necessary to live independently or to promote the delivery of supportive services for the child who, due to physical, intellectual, emotional, or psychiatric impairment, cannot live independently.

(C) Administrative case reviews must include the child and if the child consents, the child's parents, and any other supportive adult identified by the child.

(D) The panel conducting the administrative case review shall present its findings and conclusions to all parties who are entitled to participate in the administrative case review in a written report on a form approved by the department.

Section. 63-7-2770. (A) If a child remains in the legal custody of the department in accordance with Section 63-7-2750, permanency planning hearings must be held annually and in accordance with Section 63-7-1700. The court shall review the status of the child, the child's transition plan, and the progress being made to coordinate supportive services for the child's successful transition to adulthood.

(B) If a child is under the placement and care responsibility of the department in accordance with Section 63-7-2730(B), upon motion filed by the department, the court shall conduct a permanency planning hearing. A permanency planning hearing must be held on an annual basis for as long as the child remains under the placement and care responsibility of the department. The department shall attach a supplemental report to the motion for permanency planning that includes the transition plan and the report of the administrative case review conducted pursuant to Section 63-7-2760. The motion, supplemental report, and notice of the hearing must be served upon the child at least ten days before the permanency planning hearing and the child is entitled to be present for the hearing. The notice of the hearing must inform the child of the procedures to request counsel if the child desires representation. No responsive pleading is required.

(C) The order issued as a result of a hearing pursuant to subsection (B) must make specific findings regarding progress being made toward the child's successful transition from the placement and care responsibility of the department and achieving independence, including whether:

(1) the child wants to remain under the placement and care responsibility of the department pursuant to a voluntary placement agreement;

(2) there is a transition plan that contains specific, measurable goals;

(3) the services being provided are designed to support the child's successful transition to living independently;

(4) the services being provided further the child's placement, vocational, or educational goals;

(5) additional services are necessary to support the child's successful transition to living independently; and

(6) the department has made reasonable efforts to support the child's transition to living independently.

(D) A permanency planning hearing held pursuant to this section meets the requirements of the case review required pursuant to Section 63-7-2760.

Section 63-7-2780. Upon motion of the child or the department at any time, the court may review the child's case to address progress being made toward meeting the child's goals as set forth in the transition plan. The department must provide notice at least ten days before a hearing held pursuant to this section, and the notice must advise the child of the procedures to request counsel if the child desires representation. The child is entitled to be present for the hearing. No responsive pleading is required.

Section 63-7-2790. (A) If the department denies, disqualifies, terminates, or suspends a child from participation in the extended foster care program created pursuant to this article, the department shall notify the child in writing of the right to appeal the adverse decision through the department's fair hearings procedures, unless there is a case pending before the family court that can dispose of the issue. Such notice must be served by certified mail. The notice must explain the fair hearings procedures and must inform the child that notice of intent to appeal must be submitted within thirty days of receipt of the adverse decision. If the department denies, disqualifies, terminates, or suspends a child from participation in the extended foster care program, that child is automatically entitled to representation by a South Carolina licensed attorney. If the child does not have private representation, an attorney can be requested by the child and provided by the Commission on Indigent Defense under the Rule 608 contract program or Rule 608 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.

(B) Judicial review of a final agency decision is in the family court. A child seeking judicial review shall file a petition in the family court within thirty days after the final decision of the department. The child shall serve a copy of the petition upon the department. The family court shall conduct a judicial review in accordance with the standards of review provided for in Section 1-23-380. The court may enter judgment upon the pleadings and a certified transcript of the record which must include the evidence upon which the findings and decisions appealed are based. The judgment must include a determination of whether the decision of the department to disqualify, terminate, or suspend the child from participation in the extended foster care program should be affirmed or reversed. The child is not entitled to a trial de novo in the family court."

SECTION 2. A. Section 63-7-1700(H)(8)-(10) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(8) whether the child has provided written authorization to remain in foster care after the child's eighteenth birthday and whether the court finds that it would be in the child's best interests to remain in foster care after the child's eighteenth birthday for a period not to exceed the child's twenty-first birthday pursuant to Article 8;

(9) whether the child's current placement is safe and appropriate;

~~(9)~~(10) whether the department has made reasonable efforts to assist the parents in remedying the causes of the child's placement or retention in foster care, unless the court has previously authorized the department to terminate or forego reasonable efforts pursuant to Section 63-7-1640; and

~~(10)~~(11) the steps the department is taking to promote and expedite the adoptive placement and to finalize the adoption of the child, including documentation of child specific recruitment efforts."

B. Section 63-7-1700(I)(5) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(5) If the child is retained in foster care pursuant to a plan other than one described in items (1) through (4), future permanency planning hearings must be held at least annually. If the child has provided written authorization to remain in foster care after the child's eighteenth birthday, the court shall specify whether it is in the child's best interests to remain in foster care for a period not to exceed the child's twenty-first birthday pursuant to Article 8."

SECTION 3. This act takes effect upon approval by the Governor. / Renumber sections to conform.

Amend title to conform.

S. 1090--AMENDED AND ORDERED TO THIRD READING

The following Bill was taken up:

S. 1090 -- Senator Massey: A BILL TO AMEND SECTION 41-35-40 OF THE 1976 CODE, RELATING TO AN INSURED WORKER'S WEEKLY BENEFIT AMOUNT, TO PROVIDE THAT THE DEPARTMENT OF EMPLOYMENT AND WORKFORCE MUST ANNUALLY ADJUST THE MAXIMUM WEEKLY BENEFIT AMOUNT BY AN AMOUNT BY THE RATE OF INFLATION AND TO RETROACTIVELY RATIFY AND AFFIRM THE DEPARTMENT OF EMPLOYMENT AND WORKFORCE'S INTERPRETATION AND EXECUTION OF SECTION 41-35-40 OF THE 1976 CODE.

The Committee on Labor, Commerce and Industry proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to S. 1090 (COUNCIL\WAB\1090C001.RT.WAB22), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all before the enacting words and inserting:

/ Whereas, pursuant to Section 41-27-40, the General Assembly has the right to amend or repeal all or any part of Chapters 27 through 41 of this Title at any time and there is no vested private right of any kind against such amendment or repeal; and

Whereas, the General Assembly intended to charge the department with the administration of Title 41, Chapters 27 through 41, which includes the enforcement, interpretation, and execution of Section 41-35-40; and

Whereas, the General Assembly has known of the department's enforcement, interpretation, and execution of Section 41-35-40 regarding the weekly maximum benefit amounts paid to claimants; and

Whereas, the General Assembly has continuously approved the decades long practice by the department and its predecessor, the Employment Security Commission, of exercising its discretion to set a weekly maximum amount of unemployment benefits that an individual may receive in a week for the legitimate legislative purpose of ensuring the solvency of the unemployment insurance trust fund and that there are adequate funds to pay unemployment insurance benefits to individuals unemployed through no fault of their own; and

Whereas the General Assembly believes that the department's enforcement, interpretation and execution of Section 41-35-40 has been and continues to be reasonable and consistent with the General Assembly's intent and charge to administer Section 41-35-40; and

Whereas, the General Assembly intends to explicitly reaffirm that the department has always had the discretion to establish a maximum amount of unemployment benefits an individual may receive each week; and

Whereas, the General Assembly intends for this act to apply retroactively and govern all claims for unemployment insurance filed on or after July 1, 2007, and to apply to all proceedings disputing the department's calculation of an unemployed individual's maximum weekly benefit amount pending on or commenced after the date the enactment of this act. Now, therefore, /

Amend the bill further, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

/ SECTION 1. A. Section 41-35-40 of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"Section 41-35-40. (A) An insured worker's weekly benefit amount is fifty percent of his weekly average wage, as defined in Section 41-27-140, and the weekly benefit amount, if not a multiple of one dollar, must be computed to the next lower multiple of one dollar. However, no insured worker's weekly benefit amount may be less than forty-two dollars nor greater than sixty-six and two-thirds percent of the statewide average weekly wage most recently computed before the beginning of the individual's benefit year.

(B) The maximum weekly benefit amount set each year by the department within the range established in subsection (A) must be published on the department's website.

(C) The procedure for reconsideration of determinations pursuant to Section 41-35-640 is the sole and exclusive procedure and remedy for disputing the department's determination of an insured worker's weekly benefit amount."

B. The General Assembly ratifies and affirms that the department has reasonably and faithfully interpreted, executed, and enforced the provisions contained in Section 41-35-40 in accordance with its charge of the administration of the statute and the General Assembly's intent. The provisions of this SECTION shall apply retroactively to govern all claims for unemployment insurance benefits on or after July 1, 2007, so that all such claims are subject to the maximum weekly benefit amount set by the department at the time the claim was filed.

SECTION 2. Section 41-31-60(A) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"Section 41-31-60. (A) If on the computation date upon which an employer's tax rate is to be computed as provided in Section 41-31-40 there is a delinquent report, the tax class twenty rate must be assigned to the employer ~~for the period to which the computation applies~~ until the next computation date or until all outstanding tax reports have been filed."

SECTION 3. If any section, subsection, paragraph, subparagraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional or invalid, such holding shall not affect the constitutionality or validity of the remaining portions of this act, the General Assembly hereby declaring that it would have passed this act, and each and every section, subsection, paragraph, subparagraph, sentence, clause, phrase, and word thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more other sections, subsections, paragraphs, subparagraphs, sentences, clauses, phrases, or words hereof may be declared to be unconstitutional, invalid, or otherwise ineffective.

SECTION 4. This act takes effect upon approval by the Governor. /

H. 4837--AMENDED AND ORDERED TO THIRD READING

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 4837 -- Reps. Elliott, B. Cox, Felder, B. Newton, Pope, Wooten, Caskey, Collins, Haddon, Gilliam, W. Cox, Atkinson, Jefferson, Forrest, R. Williams, Bryant, T. Moore, Hardee, McGinnis, Anderson, Thigpen, Hayes, Rutherford, Hyde, Daning, Bennett, Huggins, M. M. Smith, White, V. S. Moss, Blackwell, Taylor, Ballentine, Henegan and Matthews: A BILL TO AMEND SECTION 40-37-320, CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976, RELATING TO OPTOMETRY MOBILE UNITS, SO AS TO PROVIDE ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR THE OPERATION OF SUCH UNITS.

The Committee on Labor, Commerce and Industry proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 4837 (COUNCIL\WAB\ 4837C002.RT.WAB22), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

/ SECTION 1. Section 40-37-20 of the 1976 Code is amended by adding and item at the end to read:

"( ) 'Operator' means the licensed optometrist, optometric practice, or organization engaged in providing optometric services directly or through persons authorized by law to provide the services."

SECTION 2. Section 40-37-320(B) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(B)(1)Mobile units may be used~~; however, the optometrist shall obtain a registration~~ either by a licensed optometrist, optometric practice, or organization using a licensed optometrist to operate the mobile optometric facility if the operator files a permit for the mobile unit from the board and complies with the other provisions of this subsection. A mobile unit must be limited to visiting and providing services:

(a) to licensed health care facilities within this State; or

(b) on the site of a Title I public school to the students attending the school, provided the services must be rendered as part of a not-for-profit program.

(2) In order to operate a mobile clinic in this State, the operator shall submit a permit application and fee in the form and manner set forth by the board.

(3)(a) A mobile clinic permit only may be issued following an inspection of the mobile clinic by an authorized representative of the board. Upon the completion of a satisfactory inspection, the board shall issue the applicant a mobile clinic permit. The applicant must affix the permit in a prominent and conspicuous place within the mobile clinic.

(b) A mobile clinic permit issued under this subsection annually must be renewed upon the payment of a renewal fee and satisfactorily undergoing an annual inspection.

(c) In addition to the annual inspection, a mobile clinic authorized to operate under this subsection is subject to periodic unannounced inspections by an authorized representative of the board. If the mobile unit is a not-for-profit organization operating at a Title 1 school, the periodic unannounced inspection must be conducted after school hours.

(4)(a) The mobile clinic shall maintain and furnish to the board both an official business address of record, which may not be a post office box, and an official telephone number of record. A mailing address, if different than the business address and used on an official basis, also must be provided to the board.

(b) The board must be notified within thirty days of any change in the address or telephone number of record.

(c) All written or printed documents available from or issued by a mobile clinic must contain an official address and telephone number of record for the mobile clinic.

(d) All records must be maintained and available for inspection and copying upon request by the board, subject to HIPPA and FERPA privacy protections.

(5) The operator in charge of each mobile clinic, in addition to the other requirements of this subsection, shall ensure that:

(a) all services provided in the mobile clinic follow all statutes, regulations, and board policies that regulate the practice of optometry in this State;

(b) written procedures are implemented for emergency or follow-up care for patients treated in the mobile clinic, including making prior arrangements, as may be appropriate, for emergency or follow-up treatment in an optometric facility located in the geographic area where services are being provided;

(c) the mobile clinic complies with all applicable federal, state, and local laws, regulations, and ordinances dealing with flammability, construction, sanitation, zoning, infectious waste management, universal precautions, occupational safety, access by persons with disabilities, and federal Centers for Disease Control guidelines;

(d) the operator possesses all applicable county and city licenses or permits, including business licenses, to operate the unit at the location where services are being provided;

(e) the mobile clinic is at all times fitted with working carbon monoxide detection devices;

(f) no services are performed on minors without consent of their parent or guardian; and

(g) during or at the conclusion of each patient's visit to the mobile clinic, the patient is provided with an information sheet, and if the patient or their parent or guardian has provided consent to an institutional facility to assist in the patient's health records, the institutional facility is provided with a copy of the information sheet. An institutional facility includes, but is not limited to, a long-term care facility or school, and an information sheet must include the following:

(i) pertinent contact information as provided by this subsection;

(ii) the name of the optometrist, optician, and other staff who provided services and their license numbers, if applicable;

(iii) a description of the treatment rendered;

(iv) a description of any optometric needs diagnosed during the optometrist's examination; and

(v) a recommendation that the patient see another optometrist if the mobile clinic is unable to provide the follow-up treatment described in subsubitem (iv).

(6) A mobile clinic that accepts a patient and provides preventive treatment, including a screening, eye examination, or prescription for corrective lenses, but does not follow-up with treatment or a referral for treatment when such treatment is clearly indicated, is considered to have abandoned the patient. Appropriate arrangements must be made for treatment services within the patient's geographic area on a follow-up basis. Reasonable attempts to have follow-up treatment when a patient does not reappear for treatment or does not meet a scheduled appointment is not considered abandonment.

(7) In addition to the other requirements of this subsection, every mobile clinic must have:

(a) written procedures and necessary equipment to provide services provided to disabled persons; and

(b) access to an adequate supply of potable water, including hot water either at the clinic or available at locations served by the mobile unit;

(8)(a) All examinations conducted as part of the operation of a mobile clinic must be performed by an optometrist who is licensed to practice optometry in this State. All glasses fitted and dispensed as part of the operation of a mobile clinic must be fitted and dispensed by an optician licensed in this State.

(b) The operator of the mobile clinic shall identify and advise the board in writing within thirty days of any personnel change relative to all licensed optometrists associated with the mobile clinic by providing the full name, address, telephone numbers, and license numbers where applicable.

(c) The operator shall advise the board in writing within thirty days of any change in the written procedure for emergency follow-up care for patients treated in the mobile clinic.

(d) An optometrist providing services in the mobile clinic prominently shall display his license to practice in this State in plain view of patients.

(9)(a) An operator of a mobile clinic shall maintain a confidential written or electronic record detailing each location where services are provided, including:

(i) the street address of the service location;

(ii) the dates and times of each session; and

(iii) the number of patients served.

(b) All confidential written or electronic records required to be maintained by this chapter or applicable regulations shall be made available to the board within ten days of a request by the board, subject to HIPPA and FERPA privacy protections. Costs for such records must be covered by the mobile clinic operator.

(10) Optometric services provided on a mobile clinic must be in the charge of an optometrist licensed to practice optometry in this State at all times.

(11)(a) Upon cessation of operation by the mobile clinic, the operator shall notify the board in writing within thirty days of the last day of operations of the final disposition of patient records and charts.

(b) Upon choosing to discontinue a practice or services in a community, the operator of a mobile clinic shall:

(i) notify all of the operator's active patients in writing that the operator intends to discontinue the mobile clinic's practice in the community;

(ii) encourage the patients to seek the services of another optometrist; and

(iii) make reasonable arrangements with all active patients for the transfer of the patient's records to the patient or a succeeding practitioner.

(c) As used in this subsection, 'active patient' refers to a person whom the mobile clinic has examined, treated, cared for, or otherwise consulted with during the two-year period prior to discontinuation of practice, or moving from or leaving the community.

(12) The board shall adopt rules and regulations regarding the registration, administration, and operation of mobile clinics as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this subsection, and may amend, modify, and repeal any rules and regulations from time to time. Failure to comply with any statutes, regulations, or board policies governing the practice of optometry and the operation of a mobile clinic may subject the mobile clinic and any optometrists providing services through the mobile clinic to disciplinary action by the board, including suspension or revocation of the optometrist's license or revocation of the mobile clinic permit. However, a licensed optometrist providing services through a mobile unit shall not be subject to disciplinary action on the sole basis that the licensed optometrist has prescribed eyeglasses without dilating the patient's eye where the following provisions are satisfied:

(a) the operator of the mobile unit is a not-for-profit organization providing services at a Title 1 public school; and

(b) the optometrist practicing in the mobile unit shall:

(i) provide an appropriate eye examination prior to diagnosing, treating, and/or prescribing eyeglasses to the patient;

(ii) when providing an appropriate eye examination pursuant to this subsection that does not necessarily require dilation of the eye, employ technology sufficient to accurately study the health of the eye in order to prescribe eyeglasses to the patient, provided that the prescription for eyeglasses is not based solely on the refractive eye error of the human eye or is generated by a kiosk;

(iii) not prescribe eyeglasses to the patient and provide a referral to another licensed optometrist or opthamologist for follow-up care, if the eye examination reveals to the optometrist that a more comprehensive examination is necessary prior to prescribing eyeglasses. Any licensed optometrist or ophthalmologist performing a comprehensive eye examination of a patient referred under this subsection shall conduct a comprehensive eye exam, including dilation of the eyes; and

(iv) if a patient is referred to the optometrist or ophthalmologist with a prescription issued by another licensed optometrist or physician that has conducted a comprehensive eye examination of the patient, provide eyeglasses to the referred patient according to the prescription issued by the referring licensed optometrist or ophthalmologist."

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 3859 -- Reps. Jordan, Sandifer, Kirby and Cogswell: A BILL TO AMEND THE CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976, BY ADDING CHAPTER 77 TO TITLE 39 SO AS TO PROVIDE DEFINITIONS, TO PROVIDE THAT A PERSON WHO OWNS OR OPERATES A WEBSITE DEALING IN ELECTRONIC DISSEMINATION OF THIRD-PARTY COMMERCIAL RECORDINGS OR AUDIOVISUAL WORKS SHALL MAKE CERTAIN DISCLOSURES, TO PROVIDE FOR A PRIVATE CAUSE OF ACTION, TO PROVIDE THAT THIS CHAPTER IS SUPPLEMENTAL TO STATE AND FEDERAL CRIMINAL AND CIVIL LAW, AND TO PROVIDE THAT VIOLATIONS CONSTITUTE AN UNFAIR TRADE PRACTICE.

The Committee on Labor, Commerce and Industry proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3859 (COUNCIL\SA\3859C001.DF.SA22), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 1, by striking Section 39-77-20 and inserting:

/ Section 39-77-20. As used in this chapter:

(1) 'Audiovisual works' means works that consist of a series of related images which are intrinsically intended to be shown by the use of machines or devices such as projectors, viewers, or electronic equipment, together with accompanying sounds, if any, regardless of the nature of the material objects, such as films or tapes, in which the works are embodied.

(2) 'Commercial recording or audiovisual work' means a recording or audiovisual work whose owner, assignee, authorized agent, or licensee has disseminated or intends to disseminate such recording or audiovisual work for sale, for rental, or for performance or exhibition to the public, including under license, but does not include an excerpt consisting of less than substantially all of a recording or audiovisual work. A recording or audiovisual work may be commercial regardless of whether a person who electronically disseminates it seeks commercial advantage or private financial gain from the dissemination.

(3) 'Electronic dissemination' means initiating a transmission of, making available, or otherwise offering a commercial recording or audiovisual work for distribution, display, or performance through the Internet or other digital network, regardless of whether another person has previously electronically disseminated the same commercial recording or audiovisual work.

(4) 'Website' means a set of related web pages served from a single web domain. The term does not include a home page or channel page for the user account of a person who is not the owner or operator of the website upon which such user home page or channel page appears. /

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 3509 -- Reps. Fry, Felder, Bernstein, Collins, Kimmons, Robinson, Haddon, V. S. Moss, Pope, Forrest, J. L. Johnson, W. Cox, Carter, Oremus, Henegan, Jefferson and R. Williams: A BILL TO AMEND THE CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976, BY ADDING ARTICLE 8 TO CHAPTER 7, TITLE 63 SO AS TO ESTABLISH AN EXTENDED FOSTER CARE PROGRAM AND RELATED PROCEDURES TO ENABLE CERTAIN CHILDREN IN THE CUSTODY OF THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL SERVICES ON THEIR EIGHTEENTH BIRTHDAY TO CONTINUE TO RECEIVE SERVICES AND SUPPORTS FROM THE DEPARTMENT UNTIL THE AGE OF TWENTY-ONE; TO DEFINE TERMS; TO PROVIDE FOR VOLUNTARY AND COURT-ORDERED EXTENDED FOSTER CARE; TO REQUIRE CASE REVIEW AND PERMANENCY PLANNING; AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES; AND TO AMEND SECTION 63-7-1700, RELATING TO PERMANENCY PLANNING HEARINGS, SO AS TO MAKE CONFORMING CHANGES.

The Committee on Judiciary proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3509 (COUNCIL\VR\3509C002.NBD.VR22), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

/ SECTION 1. Chapter 7, Title 63 of the 1976 Code is amended by adding:

"Article 8

Extended Foster Care for Persons Age Eighteen to Twenty-one

Section 63-7-2700. The purpose of this article is to establish procedures for a child who is or was in the legal custody of the Department of Social Services on the child's eighteenth birthday and who has not attained age twenty-one to receive services and supports that promote emotional well-being, economic productivity, self-sufficiency, connection to family and community, and a successful transition to adulthood upon leaving the state's foster care system.

Section 63-7-2710. For purposes of this article:

(1) 'Administrative case review' means a review open to the child and if the child consents, the child's parents, conducted by a panel of appropriate persons. Although at least one member of the panel must be a person who is not responsible for the case management of or the delivery of services to the child or the child's parents, employees of the Department of Social Services are appropriate persons and may participate as panelist.

(2) 'Child' means a person who is or was in the legal custody of the department on the person's eighteenth birthday, who has not attained age twenty-one, and who meets at least one of the following requirements:

(a) is completing secondary education or a program leading to an equivalent credential;

(b) is enrolled in an institution which provides post-secondary or vocational education;

(c) is participating in a program or activity designed to promote or remove barriers to employment;

(d) is employed for at least eighty hours a month; or

(e) is incapable of doing any of the above-described activities due to a physical, intellectual, emotional, or psychiatric condition that limits participation, and the presence of the condition is supported by regularly updated information in the transition plan.

(3) 'Childcare institution' means a private childcare institution, or a public childcare institution which accommodates no more than twenty-five children, that is licensed by the department. 'Childcare institution' does not include wilderness camps or training schools, nor does it include any facility that exists primarily for the detention or correction of children.

(4) 'Court' means the family court.

(5) 'Department' means the Department of Social Services.

(6) 'Foster family home' means the private home of an individual or family that is licensed by the department and in which a child in foster care has been placed in the care of an individual who resides with the child; has been licensed by the department to be a foster parent that the department deems capable of adhering to the reasonable and prudent parent standard as defined in Section 63-7-20(24); provides twenty-four hour substitute care for children placed away from their parents or other caretakers; and provides care for children subject to capacity limitations set forth in Section 63-7-2400. This term also includes kinship, relative, and child-specific homes.

(7) 'Legal custody' means the right to the physical custody, care, and control of the child; the right to determine where the child shall live; the right and duty to provide protection, food, clothing, shelter, ordinary medical care, education, supervision, and discipline for a child and in an emergency to authorize surgery or other extraordinary care. The court may in its order place other rights and duties with the legal custodian.

(8) 'Placement and care responsibility' means the authority conveyed through the court, through written authorization prior to the child's eighteenth birthday, or through a voluntary placement agreement to provide supervision of the child and the child's placement.

(9) 'Supervised independent living setting' means any housing arrangement that is licensed or approved by the department and which makes support services for a successful transition to adulthood available to the child. Case management for the child must be provided by the department or a contracted provider. The child must reside in the setting voluntarily and the setting does not include wilderness camps or training schools, nor does it include any facility that exists primarily for the detention or correction of children.

(10) 'Transition plan' means a written case plan that is personalized, as detailed as the child may elect, and that includes specific options on housing, health insurance, education, local opportunities for mentors and for continuing support services, work force supports, and employment services. A transition plan also must include information about the importance of designating another individual to make health care treatment decisions on behalf of the child if the child becomes unable to participate in such decisions and the child does not have, or does not want, a relative who would otherwise be authorized to make such decisions, and provides the child with the option to execute a health care power of attorney or health care proxy.

(11) 'Voluntary placement agreement' means a written agreement, binding on the child and the department, which describes at a minimum, the legal status of the child, as well as the rights and obligations of the child and the department while the child is under the placement and care responsibility of the department.

Section 63-7-2720. There is created within the Department of Social Services an extended foster care program for eligible children, as the term 'child' is defined in Section 63-7-2710. An eligible child is under the placement and care responsibility of the department while participating in the program. The department must provide placement in a licensed foster family home, childcare institution, or in an approved or licensed supervised independent living setting. The department shall adopt rules and promulgate regulations as necessary to implement the extended foster care program.

Section 63-7-2730. (A) Before a child's eighteenth birthday, the child may provide written authorization to remain under the placement and care responsibility of the department after the child attains age eighteen and the court may conclude that it is in the child's best interests to remain under the placement and care responsibility of the department after the child's eighteenth birthday. In such cases, the court's jurisdiction shall continue until the court issues an order terminating its jurisdiction. In no case may the court's jurisdiction pursuant to this article continue beyond the child's twenty-first birthday.

(B) Subject to eligibility criteria established by the department, after attaining age eighteen, a child may enter into a voluntary placement agreement with the department to remain under or return to the placement and care responsibility of the department. The department must develop a transition plan for a child who remains in or returns to the placement and care responsibility of the department.

(C) A voluntary placement agreement terminates within one hundred eighty days after it is executed, unless the court determines that it is in the child's best interests to remain under the placement and care responsibility of the department.

Section 63-7-2740. (A) Within thirty days of entering a voluntary placement agreement, the department shall initiate proceedings for the review of the agreement by filing with the court a summons, petition, and supplemental report as outlined in Subsection (B). The summons, petition, and supplemental report must be served on the child and must include notice of the procedures to request counsel if the child desires representation at the proceedings. No responsive pleading is required. If the child does not have private representation, an attorney can be requested by the child and provided by the Commission on Indigent Defense under the Rule 608 contract program or Rule 608 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.

(B) The supplemental report must include the following:

(1) information necessary to support a determination that the child is eligible to remain under the placement and care responsibility of the department, that the child wants to remain under the placement and care responsibility of the department, and that remaining under the placement and care responsibility of the department is in the child's best interests;

(2) the voluntary placement agreement; and

(3) a transition plan which states specific, measurable goals and objectives.

(C) The court shall conduct a hearing on the petition within sixty days of the filing of the petition. The department must provide written notice of the hearing to the child at least ten days before the hearing and the child is entitled to be present for the hearing.

(D) The court shall include its findings and conclusions in a written order that addresses whether:

(1) the child wants to remain under the placement and care responsibility of the department;

(2) remaining under the placement and care responsibility of the department is in the best interests of the child;

(3) the services provided to the child improve placement;

(4) the services provided to the child further the child's educational or vocational goals, as applicable; and

(5) the department has made reasonable efforts to support the child's transition to living independently.

(E) Under no circumstances may a voluntary placement agreement exceed a child's twenty-first birthday.

Section 63-7-2750. (A) A child who is in the legal custody of the department on the child's eighteenth birthday and who, due to a physical, intellectual, emotional, or psychiatric impairment, cannot execute a voluntary placement agreement in accordance with Section 63-7-2730 (B), may remain in foster care beyond the child's eighteenth birthday and until the department has coordinated appropriate services for a successful transition to adulthood.

(B) Before the child's eighteenth birthday, at a hearing held pursuant to Section 63-7-700, 63-7-1660, 63-7-1680, or 63-7-1700, the court must determine that it is in the child's best interests to remain under the placement and care responsibility of the department beyond the child's eighteenth birthday due to a physical, intellectual, emotional, or psychiatric impairment and until the department has coordinated appropriate services for a successful transition to adulthood. The court shall continue to review the child's status annually pursuant to Section 63-7-1700.

(C) The child's guardian ad litem shall continue to serve as outlined in Section 63-11-510. If the child's guardian ad litem cannot continue to serve, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the child as outlined in Section 63-11-510.

(D) The jurisdiction of the court continues until the court determines the department has coordinated appropriate transitional services, but in no case may the court's jurisdiction pursuant to this article exceed the child's twenty-first birthday.

Section 63-7-2760. (A) The department shall establish a developmentally appropriate administrative process to review the case of a child who remains under the placement and care responsibility or in the legal custody of the department beyond the child's eighteenth birthday pursuant to Section 63-7-2730(B) or 63-7-2750.

(B) The department or a contracted provider must conduct an administrative case review no less frequently than once every six months to promote the development of a transition plan designed to help the child acquire the skills necessary to live independently or to promote the delivery of supportive services for the child who, due to physical, intellectual, emotional, or psychiatric impairment, cannot live independently.

(C) Administrative case reviews must include the child and if the child consents, the child's parents, and any other supportive adult identified by the child.

(D) The panel conducting the administrative case review shall present its findings and conclusions to all parties who are entitled to participate in the administrative case review in a written report on a form approved by the department.

Section 63-7-2770. (A) If a child remains in the legal custody of the department in accordance with Section 63-7-2750, permanency planning hearings must be held annually and in accordance with Section 63-7-1700. The court shall review the status of the child, the child's transition plan, and the progress being made to coordinate supportive services for the child's successful transition to adulthood.

(B) If a child is under the placement and care responsibility of the department in accordance with Section 63-7-2730(B), upon motion filed by the department, the court shall conduct a permanency planning hearing. A permanency planning hearing must be held on an annual basis for as long as the child remains under the placement and care responsibility of the department. The department shall attach a supplemental report to the motion for permanency planning that includes the transition plan and the report of the administrative case review conducted pursuant to Section 63-7-2760. The motion, supplemental report, and notice of the hearing must be served upon the child at least ten days before the permanency planning hearing and the child is entitled to be present for the hearing. The notice of the hearing must inform the child of the procedures to request counsel if the child desires representation. No responsive pleading is required.

(C) The order issued as a result of a hearing pursuant to subsection (B) must make specific findings regarding progress being made toward the child's successful transition from the placement and care responsibility of the department and achieving independence, including whether:

(1) the child wants to remain under the placement and care responsibility of the department pursuant to a voluntary placement agreement;

(2) there is a transition plan that contains specific, measurable goals;

(3) the services being provided are designed to support the child's successful transition to living independently;

(4) the services being provided further the child's placement, vocational, or educational goals;

(5) additional services are necessary to support the child's successful transition to living independently; and

(6) the department has made reasonable efforts to support the child's transition to living independently.

(D) A permanency planning hearing held pursuant to this section meets the requirements of the case review required pursuant to Section 63-7-2760.

Section 63-7-2780. Upon motion of the child or the department at any time, the court may review the child's case to address progress being made toward meeting the child's goals as set forth in the transition plan. The department must provide notice at least ten days before a hearing held pursuant to this section, and the notice must advise the child of the procedures to request counsel if the child desires representation. The child is entitled to be present for the hearing. No responsive pleading is required.

Section 63-7-2790. (A) If the department denies, disqualifies, terminates, or suspends a child from participation in the extended foster care program created pursuant to this article, the department shall notify the child in writing of the right to appeal the adverse decision through the department's fair hearings procedures, unless there is a case pending before the family court that can dispose of the issue. Such notice must be served by certified mail. The notice must explain the fair hearings procedures and must inform the child that notice of intent to appeal must be submitted within thirty days of receipt of the adverse decision. If the department denies, disqualifies, terminates, or suspends a child from participation in the extended foster care program, that child is automatically entitled to representation by a South Carolina licensed attorney. If the child does not have private representation, an attorney can be requested by the child and provided by the Commission on Indigent Defense under the Rule 608 contract program or Rule 608 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules.

(B) Judicial review of a final agency decision is in the family court. A child seeking judicial review shall file a petition in the family court within thirty days after the final decision of the department. The child shall serve a copy of the petition upon the department. The family court shall conduct a judicial review in accordance with the standards of review provided for in Section 1-23-380. The court may enter judgment upon the pleadings and a certified transcript of the record which must include the evidence upon which the findings and decisions appealed are based. The judgment must include a determination of whether the decision of the department to disqualify, terminate, or suspend the child from participation in the extended foster care program should be affirmed or reversed. The child is not entitled to a trial de novo in the family court."

SECTION 2. A. Section 63-7-1700(H)(8)-(10) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(8) whether the child has provided written authorization to remain in foster care after the child's eighteenth birthday and whether the court finds that it would be in the child's best interests to remain in foster care after the child's eighteenth birthday for a period not to exceed the child's twenty-first birthday pursuant to Article 8;

(9) whether the child's current placement is safe and appropriate;

~~(9)~~(10) whether the department has made reasonable efforts to assist the parents in remedying the causes of the child's placement or retention in foster care, unless the court has previously authorized the department to terminate or forego reasonable efforts pursuant to Section 63-7-1640; and

~~(10)~~(11) the steps the department is taking to promote and expedite the adoptive placement and to finalize the adoption of the child, including documentation of child specific recruitment efforts."

B. Section 63-7-1700(I)(5) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(5) If the child is retained in foster care pursuant to a plan other than one described in items (1) through (4), future permanency planning hearings must be held at least annually. If the child has provided written authorization to remain in foster care after the child's eighteenth birthday, the court shall specify whether it is in the child's best interests to remain in foster care for a period not to exceed the child's twenty-first birthday pursuant to Article 8."

On motion of Rep. J. E. JOHNSON, with unanimous consent, it was ordered that S. 973 be read the third time tomorrow.

H. 4534--AMENDED AND ORDERED TO THIRD READING

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 4534 -- Rep. Rutherford: A BILL TO AMEND SECTION 16-17-680, AS AMENDED, CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976, RELATING TO PERMITS TO PURCHASE NONFERROUS METALS, TRANSPORTATION AND SALE OF NONFERROUS METALS, AND VARIOUS OFFENSES ASSOCIATED WITH NONFERROUS METALS, SO AS TO RESTRUCTURE THE VARIOUS OFFENSES TO INCLUDE INTENT AND CLARIFY CERTAIN ASPECTS OF THE VIOLATIONS.

The Committee on Judiciary proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 4534 (COUNCIL\AHB\4534C001.BH.AHB22), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

/ SECTION 1. Section 16-17-680 of the 1976 Code, as last amended by Act 80 of 2021, is further amended to read:

"Section 16-17-680. (A) For purposes of this section:

(1) 'Coil' means a copper, aluminum, or aluminum-copper condensing coil or evaporation coil. The term includes, but is not limited to, coil from a commercial or residential heating or air-conditioning system. The term does not include coil from a window air-conditioning system, if the coil is contained within the system, or coil from an automobile condenser.

(2) 'Fixed site' means a site occupied by a secondary metals recycler as the owner of the site or as a lessee of the site under a lease or other rental agreement providing for occupation of the site by a secondary metals recycler for a total duration of not less than three hundred sixty-four days.

(3) 'Nonferrous metals' means metals not containing significant quantities of iron or steel~~,~~ including, but not limited to, copper wire, cooper clad steel wire, copper pipe, copper bars, copper sheeting, aluminum other than aluminum cans, a product that is a mixture of aluminum and copper, catalytic converters, lead-acid batteries, steel propane gas tanks, and stainless steel beer kegs or containers.

(4) 'Secondary metals recycler' means a person or entity who is engaged, from a fixed site or otherwise, in the business of paying compensation for nonferrous metals that have served their original economic purpose, whether or not the person is engaged in the business of performing the manufacturing process by which nonferrous metals are converted into raw material products consisting of prepared grades and having an existing or potential economic value.

(B)(1) A secondary metals recycler shall obtain a permit to purchase nonferrous metals. A secondary metals recycler's employee is not required to obtain a separate permit to purchase nonferrous metals provided that the employee is acting within the scope and duties of their employment with the secondary metals recycler. A secondary metals recycler's employee who intends to purchase nonferrous metals on behalf of the secondary metals recycler at a location other than a fixed site shall have a copy of the secondary metals recycler's permit readily available for inspection. There is a presumption that an employee or agent of a secondary metals recycler who violates the provisions of this section is engaging in activity outside the normal course and scope of his employment. A secondary metals recycler employer or owner may not be criminally charged under this subsection for illegal activities of an employee or agent absent evidence the secondary metals recycler employer or owner knew or should have known the employee or agent was conducting illegal activity to benefit the secondary metals recycler employer or owner.

(2) If a secondary metals recycler intends to purchase nonferrous metals at a fixed site or fixed sites, the secondary metals recycler shall obtain a permit from the sheriff of the county in which each of the secondary metals recycler's fixed sites are located. The sheriff ~~may~~ must issue the permit to the secondary metals recycler, if the secondary metals recycler:

(a) has a fixed site or fixed sites located in the sheriff's county;

(b) has not been convicted of a violation of Section 16-11-523 or this section; and

(c) declares on an application provided by the sheriff that the secondary metals recycler is informed of and will comply with the provisions of this section.

(3) If a secondary metals recycler intends to purchase nonferrous metals at a location other than a fixed site, the secondary metals recycler shall obtain a permit from the sheriff of each county in which the secondary metals recycler intends to purchase nonferrous metals. The sheriff ~~may~~ must issue the permit to the secondary metals recycler if the secondary metals recycler:

(a) ~~can sufficiently demonstrate to the sheriff the secondary metals recycler's ability to comply with the provisions of this section;~~

~~(b)~~ has not been convicted of a violation of Section 16-11-523 or this section; and

~~(c)~~(b) declares on an application provided by the sheriff that the secondary metals recycler is informed of and will comply with the provisions of this section.

(4) The South Carolina Law Enforcement Division shall develop the application and permit in consultation with the state's sheriffs and representatives from the secondary metals recyclers' industry.

(5) A sheriff may investigate a secondary metals recycler's background prior to issuing a permit for purposes of determining if the secondary metals recycler qualifies to be issued a permit.

(6) A sheriff may charge and retain a two hundred dollar fee for each permit.

(7) A sheriff shall keep a record of all permits issued containing, at a minimum, the date of issuance, and the name and address of the secondary metals recycler.

(8) A permit is valid for twenty-four months.

(9) A permit may be denied, suspended, or revoked at any time if a sheriff discovers that the information on an application is intentionally inaccurate, a secondary metals recycler does not comply with the requirements of this section, or a secondary metals recycler is convicted of a violation of Section 16-11-523 or this section.

(10) A sheriff shall issue permits during regular business hours.

(C)(1) A person or entity who wants to transport or sell nonferrous metals to a secondary metals recycler shall obtain a permit to transport and sell the nonferrous metals. An entity's employee is not required to obtain a separate permit to transport or sell nonferrous metals provided that the employee is acting within the scope and duties of their employment with the entity. An entity's employee who intends to transport and sell nonferrous metals on behalf of an entity shall have a copy of the entity's permit readily available for inspection. There is a presumption that an employee or agent of a secondary metals recycler who violates the provisions of this section is engaging in activity outside the normal course and scope of his employment. A secondary metals recycler employer or owner may not be criminally charged under this subsection for illegal activities of an employee or agent absent evidence the secondary metals recycler employer or owner knew or should have known the employee or agent was conducting illegal activity to benefit the secondary metals recycler employer or owner.

(2) If a person is a resident of South Carolina or an entity is located in South Carolina, the person or entity shall obtain a permit from the sheriff of the county in which the person resides or has a secondary residence or in which the entity is located or has a secondary business. The sheriff ~~may~~ must issue the permit to the person or entity if the:

(a) person resides or has a secondary residence or the entity is located or has a secondary business in the sheriff's county;

(b) person or entity has not been convicted of a violation of Section 16-11-523 or this section; and

(c) person or entity declares on an application provided by the sheriff that the person or entity is informed of and will comply with the provisions of this section.

(3) If a person is not a resident of South Carolina or an entity is not located in South Carolina, the person or entity shall obtain a permit from any sheriff of any county. The sheriff ~~may~~ must issue the permit to the person or entity if the:

(a) person is not a resident of South Carolina or the entity is not located in South Carolina;

(b) person or entity has not been convicted of a violation of Section 16-11-523 or this section; and

(c) person or entity declares on an application provided by the sheriff that the person or entity is informed of and will comply with the provisions of this section.

(4) The South Carolina Law Enforcement Division shall develop the application and permit in consultation with the state's sheriffs and representatives of the secondary metals recyclers' industry.

(5) A sheriff may investigate a person or entity's background prior to issuing a permit for purposes of determining if the person or entity qualifies to be issued a permit.

(6) A sheriff may not charge a fee for a permit. A sheriff may charge a ten dollar fee to replace a permit that has been lost or destroyed. If the original permit is later found by the person or entity, the person or entity must turn the original permit into the sheriff or destroy the original permit.

(7) A sheriff shall keep a record of all permits issued containing, at a minimum, the date of issuance, the name and address of the person or entity, a photocopy of the person's identification or of the employee's identification, and the person's photograph or the entity's employee's photograph.

(8) A permit is valid statewide and expires on the person's birth date on the second calendar year after the calendar year in which the permit is issued, or, if the permittee is an entity, the permit expires on the date of issuance on the second calendar year after the calendar year in which the permit is issued.

(9) A permit may be denied, suspended, or revoked at any time if a sheriff discovers that the information on an application is intentionally inaccurate, a person or entity does not comply with the requirements of this section, or a person or entity is convicted of a violation of Section 16-11-523 or this section.

(10)(a) It is unlawful for a person or entity to obtain a permit to transport and sell nonferrous metals for the purpose of transporting or selling stolen nonferrous metals.

(b) A person who violates a provision of this subitem is guilty of a felony~~,~~ and, upon conviction, must be fined in the discretion of the court or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both. The person or entity's permit must be revoked.

(11) A sheriff shall issue permits during regular business hours.

(D)(1) It is unlawful to purchase nonferrous metals in any amount for the purpose of recycling the nonferrous metals from a seller unless the purchaser is a secondary metals recycler who has a valid permit to purchase nonferrous metals issued pursuant to subsection (B) and the seller has a valid permit to transport and sell nonferrous metals issued pursuant to subsection (C). A secondary metals recycler may hold a seller's nonferrous metals while the seller obtains a permit to transport and sell nonferrous metals pursuant to subsection (C).

(2) A secondary metals recycler shall maintain a record containing, at a minimum, the date of purchase, the name and address of the seller, a photocopy of the seller's identification, a photocopy of the seller's permit to transport and sell nonferrous metals, if applicable, the license plate number of the seller's motor vehicle, if available, the seller's photograph, the weight and size or other description of the nonferrous metals purchased, the amount paid for the nonferrous metals, and a signed statement from the seller stating that the seller is the rightful owner or is entitled to sell the nonferrous metals being sold. If the secondary metals recycler has the seller's photograph on file, the secondary metals recycler may reference the photograph on file without making a photograph for each transaction; however, the secondary metals recycler shall update the seller's photograph on an annual basis. A secondary metals recycler may use a video of the seller in lieu of a photograph provided the secondary metals recycler maintains the video for at least one hundred twenty days. A secondary metals recycler may maintain a record in an electronic database provided that the information is legible and can be accessed by law enforcement upon request.

(3) All nonferrous metals that are purchased by and are in the possession of a secondary metals recycler and all records required to be kept by this section must be maintained and kept open for inspection by law enforcement officials or local and state governmental agencies upon twenty-four hours notice to the secondary metals recycler and during regular business hours. The records must be maintained for one year from the date of purchase. Failure to maintain documentation required by this section may result in suspension of the licensed metal recycler's permit for up to ten days for a first offense and up to thirty days for a second or subsequent offense. Failure to maintain documentation must not result in a criminal charge absent corroborating evidence that the secondary metals recycler is in possession of a used, detached catalytic converter or any nonferrous part of a used, detached catalytic converter in violation of applicable law.

(4) A secondary metals recycler shall not enter into a cash transaction in payment for the purchase of copper, catalytic converters, or beer kegs, which totals twenty-five dollars or more. Payment for the purchase of copper, catalytic converters, or beer kegs, which totals twenty-five dollars or more must be made by check alone issued and made payable to the seller. A secondary metals recycler shall neither cash a check issued pursuant to this item nor use an automated teller machine (ATM) or other cash card system in lieu of a check. A secondary metals recycler shall not enter into more than one cash transaction per day per seller in payment for the purchase of copper, catalytic converters, or beer kegs.

(5) A secondary metals recycler shall prominently display a twenty-inch by thirty-inch sign in the secondary metals recycler's fixed site that states: 'NO NONFERROUS METALS, INCLUDING COPPER, MAY BE PURCHASED BY A SECONDARY METALS RECYCLER FROM A SELLER UNLESS THE SELLER IS A HOLDER OF A RETAIL LICENSE, AN AUTHORIZED WHOLESALER, A CONTRACTOR LICENSED PURSUANT TO ARTICLE 1, CHAPTER 11, TITLE 40, CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976, A GAS, ELECTRIC, COMMUNICATIONS, WATER, PLUMBING, ELECTRICAL, OR CLIMATE CONDITIONING SERVICE PROVIDER, OR THE SELLER PRESENTS THE SELLER'S VALID PERMIT TO TRANSPORT AND SELL NONFERROUS METALS ISSUED PURSUANT TO SECTION 16-17-680, CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976.'

(6) A purchaser who violates a provision of this subsection:

(a) for a first offense, is guilty of a misdemeanor~~,~~ and, upon conviction, must be fined not less than two hundred dollars nor more than three hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days;

(b) for a second offense, is guilty of a misdemeanor~~,~~ and, upon conviction, must be fined not less than four hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than one year, or both; and

(c) for a third offense or subsequent offense, is guilty of a misdemeanor~~,~~ and, upon conviction, must be fined not more than one thousand dollars or imprisoned not more than three years, or both. For an offense to be considered a third or subsequent offense, only those offenses that occurred within a period of ten years, including and immediately preceding the date of the last offense, shall constitute a prior offense within the meaning of this subsection.

If the purchaser obtained a permit to purchase nonferrous metals pursuant to subsection (B), the permit must be revoked.

(E)(1)(a) It is unlawful to sell nonferrous metals in any amount to a secondary metals recycler unless the secondary metals recycler has a valid permit to purchase nonferrous metals issued pursuant to subsection (B) and the seller has a valid permit to transport and sell nonferrous metals issued pursuant to subsection (C).

(b) A seller who violates a provision of this subitem:

(i) for a first offense, is guilty of a misdemeanor~~,~~ and, upon conviction, must be fined in the discretion of the court or imprisoned not more than one year, or both;

(ii) for a second offense, is guilty of a misdemeanor~~,~~ and, upon conviction, must be fined not less than five hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than three years, or both; and

(iii) for a third or subsequent offense, is guilty of a felony~~,~~ and, upon conviction, must be fined not less than one thousand dollars or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

If the seller obtained a permit to transport and sell nonferrous metals pursuant to subsection (C), the permit must be revoked.

(2)(a) It is unlawful to purchase or otherwise acquire nonferrous metals in any amount from a seller who does not have a valid permit to transport and sell nonferrous metals issued pursuant to subsection (C) with the intent to resell the nonferrous metals in any amount to a secondary metals recycler using the purchaser's valid permit to transport and sell nonferrous metals issued pursuant to subsection (C).

(b) A purchaser who violates a provision of this subitem is guilty of a felony~~,~~ and, upon conviction, must be fined in the discretion of the court or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both. The purchaser's permit must be revoked.

(F)(1) When a law enforcement officer has reasonable cause to believe that any item of nonferrous metal in the possession of a secondary metals recycler has been stolen, the law enforcement officer may issue a hold notice to the secondary metals recycler. The hold notice must be in writing, be delivered to the secondary metals recycler, specifically identify those items of nonferrous metal that are believed to have been stolen and that are subject to the notice, and inform the secondary metals recycler of the information contained in this subsection. Upon receipt of the notice, the secondary metals recycler must not process or remove the items of nonferrous metal identified in the notice, or any portion thereof, from the secondary metal recycler's fixed site for fifteen calendar days after receipt of the notice unless released prior to the fifteen-day period by the law enforcement officer.

(2) No later than the expiration of the fifteen-day period, a law enforcement officer may issue a second hold notice to the secondary metals recycler, which shall be an extended hold notice. The extended hold notice must be in writing, be delivered to the secondary metals recycler, specifically identify those items of nonferrous metal that are believed to have been stolen and that are subject to the extended hold notice, and inform the secondary metals recycler of the information contained in this subsection. Upon receipt of the extended hold notice, the secondary metals recycler must not process or remove the items of nonferrous metal identified in the notice, or any portion thereof, from the secondary metals recycler's fixed site for thirty calendar days after receipt of the extended hold notice unless released prior to the thirty-day period by the law enforcement officer.

(3) At the expiration of the hold period or, if extended, at the expiration of the extended hold period, the hold is automatically released and the secondary metals recycler may dispose of the nonferrous metals unless other disposition has been ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(4) A secondary metals recycler who intentionally violates a provision of this subsection:

(a) for a first offense, is guilty of a misdemeanor~~,~~ and, upon conviction, must be fined not less than two hundred dollars nor more than three hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days;

(b) for a second offense, is guilty of a misdemeanor~~,~~ and, upon conviction, must be fined not less than four hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than one year, or both; and

(c) for a third or subsequent offense, is guilty of a misdemeanor~~,~~ and, upon conviction, must be fined not more than one thousand dollars or imprisoned not more than three years, or both. For an offense to be considered a third or subsequent offense, only those offenses that occurred within a period of ten years, including and immediately preceding the date of the last offense shall constitute a prior offense within the meaning of this subsection.

The secondary metals recycler's permit to purchase nonferrous metals issued pursuant to subsection (B) must be revoked.

(G)(1) It is unlawful to transport nonferrous metals in a vehicle or have nonferrous metals in a person's possession.

(2) Subsection (G)(1) does not apply if:

(a) the person can present a valid permit to transport and sell nonferrous metals issued pursuant to subsection (C); or

(b) the person can present a valid bill of sale for the nonferrous metals.

(3) If a law enforcement officer determines that one or more of the exceptions listed in subsection (G)(2) applies, or the law enforcement officer determines that the nonferrous metals are not stolen goods and are in the rightful possession of the person, the law enforcement officer shall not issue a citation for a violation of this subsection.

(4) A person who violates a provision of subsection (G)(1):

(a) for a first offense, is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, must be fined not more than two hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days;

(b) for a second offense, is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, must be fined not more than five hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than one year, or both; and

(c) for a third or subsequent offense, is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, must be fined not more than one thousand dollars or imprisoned not more than three years, or both. For an offense to be considered a third or subsequent offense, only those offenses that occurred within a period of ten years, including and immediately preceding the date of the last offense, shall constitute a prior offense within the meaning of this subsection.

(5) If a person transports nonferrous metals that the person knows are stolen in a vehicle or has in the person's possession nonferrous metals that the person knows are stolen, is operating a vehicle used in the ordinary course of business to transport nonferrous metals that the person knows are stolen, presents a valid or falsified permit to transport and sell nonferrous metals that the person knows are stolen, or presents a valid or falsified bill of sale for nonferrous metals that the person knows to be stolen, the person is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, must be fined in the discretion of the court or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both. If the person obtained a permit to transport and sell nonferrous metals pursuant to subsection (C), the permit must be revoked.

(H) For purposes of this section, the only acceptable identification is a valid:

(1) South Carolina driver's license issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles;

(2) South Carolina identification card issued by the Department of Motor Vehicles;

(3) driver's license from another state that contains the licensee's picture on the face of the license; or

(4) military identification card.

(I)(1) A secondary metals recycler shall not purchase or otherwise acquire:

(a) an iron or steel manhole cover;

(b) an iron or steel drainage grate; or

(c) a coil, unless the seller is an exempted entity pursuant to subsection (J)(1)(e) or the seller presents a bill of sale from a company licensed pursuant to Chapter 11, Title 40 indicating that the seller acquired the coil as the result of a unit replacement or repair. The bill of sale is sufficient proof of ownership and serves the same purpose as a permit to transport and sell nonferrous metals. A person who presents a falsified bill of sale is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, must be fined in the discretion of the court or imprisoned not more three years, or both.

(2)(a) It is unlawful for any individual or entity other than a permitted secondary metals recycler to purchase, or to attempt to purchase, a used, detached catalytic converter or any nonferrous part of a catalytic converter.

(b) ~~Except as otherwise provided in item (3)(a)(iii)(aa), (bb), and (cc) for those businesses delineated in item (3)(a)(ii),~~ It is unlawful for any individual or entity to possess, obtain or otherwise acquire, transport, or sell a used, detached catalytic converter or any nonferrous part of a catalytic converter without a permit and without providing the following documentation to law enforcement and/or a permitted secondary metals recycler:

(i) the name of the person or company that removed the catalytic converter;

(ii) the name of the person for whom the work was completed;

(iii) the make and model of the vehicle from which the catalytic converter was removed;

(iv) the vehicle identification number of the vehicle from which the catalytic converter was removed;

(v) the part number or other identifying number of the catalytic converter that was removed; and

(vi) the certificate of title or certificate of registration showing the seller's ownership interest in the vehicle.

(c) It is unlawful for a seller of a used, detached catalytic converter or any nonferrous part of a catalytic converter to intentionally provide ~~any~~ false, fraudulent, altered or counterfeit information or documentation as required by this subsection.

(d) An individual or entity who violates any provision of subsection (I)(2)~~, for a first offense, is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, must be fined in the discretion of the court or imprisoned not more than three years, or both; or for a second offense, is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, must be fined in the discretion of the court or imprisoned not more than five years, or both~~ is guilty of a:

(i) misdemeanor triable in magistrates or municipal court, notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 22-3-540, 22-3-545, 22-3-550, and 14-25-65, and, upon conviction, must be fined not more than one thousand dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days, or both, when the value of the prohibited items is less than two thousand dollars;

(ii) felony and, upon conviction, must be fined in the discretion of the court and imprisoned not more than five years if the value of the prohibited items is at least two thousand dollars but not more than ten thousand dollars;

(iii) felony and, upon conviction, must be fined in the discretion of the court and imprisoned not more than ten years if the value of the prohibited items is more than ten thousand dollars.

(e) ~~Each unlawfully obtained, possessed, or transported used, detached catalytic converter is a separate violation that subjects the individual or entity to a separate charge. Upon conviction, the court may order the individual or entity to pay restitution for the value of the repair and replacement of the catalytic converter or the individual or entity may be held liable as otherwise provided by law. A person in possession of a used, detached catalytic converter without identifying documentation is presumed to be in possession of contraband subject to forfeiture as otherwise provided by law.~~

~~(f)~~ For purposes of this section, a used, detached catalytic converter does not include a catalytic converter that has been tested, certified, and labeled for reuse in accordance with applicable U.S. Environmental Protection Agency Clean Air Act regulations, as may from time to time be amended.

(f) If a law enforcement officer determines that the used, detached catalytic converter or any nonferrous part of a used, detached catalytic converter are not stolen goods and are in the rightful possession of the person, the law enforcement officer shall not issue a citation for a violation of this subsection. Failure to maintain documentation required by this section must not result in a criminal charge absent corroborating evidence that the secondary metals recycler is in possession of a used, detached catalytic converter or any nonferrous part of a used, detached catalytic converter in violation of applicable law.

(g) There is a presumption that an employee or agent of a secondary metals recycler who violates the provisions of this section is engaging in activity outside the normal course and scope of his employment. A secondary metals recycler employer or owner may not be criminally charged under this subsection for illegal activities of an employee or agent absent evidence the secondary metals recycler employer or owner knew or should have known the employee or agent was conducting illegal activity to benefit the secondary metals recycler employer or owner.

(3)(a) It is unlawful for a secondary metals recycler to purchase a used, detached catalytic converter or any nonferrous part of a used catalytic converter unless the secondary metals recycler has a permit from the local sheriff's office, the sale occurs at the secondary metals recycler's fixed site or the sale occurs at the seller's fixed site but only if the seller is a licensed automotive repair service, a licensed demolisher, as defined in Section 56-5-5810, a licensed secondary metals recycler, or a licensed motor vehicle dealer and the purchase is made by a permitted secondary metals recycler who maintains a fixed site within the State, and the following requirements are followed:

(i) the catalytic converter or nonferrous part was purchased as part of a vehicle; or

(ii) the catalytic converter or nonferrous part was purchased from a secondary metals recycler, new or used motor vehicle dealer, automotive repair service, motor vehicle manufacturer, vehicle demolisher, or distributor of catalytic converters and a copy of the seller's valid business license is received and maintained by the purchaser at the time of the transaction; or

(iii) the business selling the catalytic converter or nonferrous part provides a record or receipt showing:

(aa) the repair order number, when applicable;

(bb) the date of repair or the date on which the catalytic converter was removed from a vehicle, including the identity of the individual or entity that removed the catalytic converter, when applicable; and

(cc) the vehicle identification number of the vehicle from which the catalytic converter was removed; or

(iv) the individual selling the catalytic converter or nonferrous part provides the secondary metals recycler with the following information for the motor vehicle that the catalytic converter was taken from to include all of the following:

(aa) the name of the person or company that removed the catalytic converter;

(bb) the name of the person for whom the work was completed;

(cc) the make and model of the vehicle from which the catalytic converter was removed;

(dd) the vehicle identification number of the vehicle from which the catalytic converter was removed;

(ee) the part number or other identifying number of the catalytic converter that was removed; and

(ff) the certificate of title or certificate of registration showing the seller's ownership interest in the vehicle.

Nothing in this item prevents an out-of-state secondary metals recycler who maintains a fixed site and who complies with all other provisions of this chapter from obtaining, purchasing, or otherwise acquiring a used, detached catalytic converter or any nonferrous part of a used catalytic converter.

(b) Before each purchase or acquisition of a used, detached catalytic converter, the secondary metals recycler, including an agent, employee, or representative of the secondary metals recycler, must:

(i) verify, with the applicable documentation that the person transferring or selling the used, detached catalytic converter acquired it legally and has the right to transfer or sell it; and

(ii) retain a record of the applicable verification and other information required pursuant to subsection (D)(2) and note in their records any obvious marking on the used, detached catalytic converter such as paint, labels, or engravings that would aid in the identification of the catalytic converter.

(c) A seller of used, detached catalytic converters or any nonferrous metal part of such is subject to the provisions of subsection (C) regarding the permitting of a person or entity to transport and sell nonferrous metals except for an automotive repair service who, in lieu of a permit, may produce a record or receipt showing:

(i) the repair order number, when applicable;

(ii) the date of repair or the date on which the catalytic converter was removed from a vehicle, including the identity of the individual or entity that removed the catalytic converter, when applicable; and

(iii) the vehicle identification number of the vehicle from which the catalytic converter was removed.

(d) It is unlawful for a secondary metals recycler to fail to collect ~~or retain~~ all required documentation from a seller of a used, detached catalytic converter or any nonferrous part of a catalytic converter as required by this subsection. A secondary metals recycler who obtains all documentation as required by this subsection is exempt from prosecution under this subsection unless they knew or had reason to believe that the documentation provided was false, fraudulent, altered or counterfeit, or knew or had reason to believe that the used, detached catalytic converter or any nonferrous part of a catalytic converter was stolen.

(e) A licensed secondary metals recycler, who is exempt from the provisions of subsection (I)(2), but who violates a provision of subsection (I)(3) is guilty of a:

(i) ~~for a first offense, is guilty of a~~ misdemeanor triable in magistrates or municipal court, notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 22-3-540, 22-3-545, 22-3-550, and 14-25-65, and, upon conviction, must be fined not more than ~~two hundred~~ one thousand dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days, or both, when the value of the prohibited items is less than two thousand dollars;

(ii) ~~for a second offense, is guilty of a misdemeanor~~ felony and, upon conviction, must be fined ~~not more than five hundred dollars or~~ in the discretion of the court and imprisoned not more than ~~one year, or both~~ five years if the value of the prohibited items is at least two thousand dollars but not more than ten thousand dollars; and

(iii) ~~for a third or subsequent offense, is guilty of a misdemeanor~~ felony and, upon conviction, must be fined ~~not more than one thousand dollars or~~ in the discretion of the court and imprisoned not more than ~~three~~ ten years~~, or both~~ if the value of the prohibited items is more than ten thousand dollars.

~~(iv) Each unlawfully obtained or possessed used, detached catalytic converter or part of a used catalytic converter is a separate violation and subjects the secondary metals recycler to a separate charge for each. Any unlawfully possessed used, detached catalytic converter is subject to forfeiture as otherwise provided for by law. Upon conviction, the court may order the secondary metals recycler to pay restitution for~~

~~the value of the repair and replacement of the catalytic converter or the secondary metals recycler may be held liable as otherwise provided for by law.~~

(f) If a law enforcement officer determines that the used, detached catalytic converter or any nonferrous part of a used, detached catalytic converter are not stolen goods and are in the rightful possession of the licensed metal recycler, the law enforcement officer shall not issue a citation for a violation of this subsection.

(g) There is a presumption that an employee or agent of a secondary metals recycler who violates the provisions of this section is engaging in activity outside the normal course and scope of his employment. A secondary metals recycler employer or owner may not be criminally charged under this subsection for illegal activities of an employee or agent absent evidence the secondary metals recycler employer or owner knew or should have known the employee or agent was conducting illegal activity to benefit the secondary metals recycler employer or owner.

(h) Failure to maintain documentation required by this section may result in suspension of the licensed metal recycler's permit for up to thirty days for a first offense and up to six months for a second offense. Failure to maintain documentation must not result in a criminal charge absent corroborating evidence that the secondary metals recycler is in possession of a used, detached catalytic converter or any nonferrous part of a used, detached catalytic converter in violation of applicable law.

(i) Law enforcement may inspect a permitted licensed metal recycler's documentation upon twenty-four hours notice to the licensed metal recycler unless law enforcement is in possession of a valid warrant or is acting upon a valid exception to the warrant requirement.

(J)(1) Except as provided in item (2), the provisions of this section do not apply to:

(a) the purchase or sale of aluminum cans;

(b) a transaction between a secondary metals recycler and another secondary metals recycler;

(c) a governmental entity;

(d) a manufacturing or industrial vendor that generates or sells regulated metals in the ordinary course of its business;

(e) a seller who is a holder of a retail license, an authorized wholesaler, an automobile demolisher as defined in Section 56-5-5810(d), a contractor licensed pursuant to Chapter 11, Title 40, a real estate broker or property manager licensed pursuant to Chapter 57, Title 40, a residential home builder licensed pursuant to Chapter 59, Title

40, a demolition contractor, a provider of gas service, electric service, communications service, water service, plumbing service, electrical service, climate conditioning service, appliance repair service, automotive repair service, or electronics repair service; or

(f) a seller that is an organization, a corporation, or an association registered with the State as a charitable organization or a nonprofit corporation.

(2) An exempted entity listed in item (1) is subject to the provisions of subsection (C)(10), subsection (G)(5), and subsection (I).

A secondary metals recycler shall maintain a record of transactions involving exempted entities listed in item (1) pursuant to subsection (D) ~~and is subject to the penalty provisions of subsection (D)(6)~~. Failure to maintain documentation required by this section may result in suspension of the licensed metal recycler's permit for up to thirty days for a first offense and up to six months for a second offense. Failure to maintain documentation must not result in a criminal charge absent corroborating evidence that the secondary metals recycler is in possession of a used, detached catalytic converter or any nonferrous part of a used, detached catalytic converter in violation of applicable law. Any item of nonferrous metals acquired from an exempted entity listed in item (1) is subject to a hold notice pursuant to subsection (F).

(K) This section preempts local ordinances and regulations governing the purchase, sale, or transportation of nonferrous metals in any amount, except to the extent that such ordinances pertain to zoning or business license fees. Political subdivisions of the State may not enact ordinances or regulations more restrictive than those contained in this section."

SECTION 2. The repeal or amendment by this act of any law, whether temporary or permanent or civil or criminal, does not affect pending actions, rights, duties, or liabilities founded thereon, or alter, discharge, release or extinguish any penalty, forfeiture, or liability incurred under the repealed or amended law, unless the repealed or amended provision shall so expressly provide. After the effective date of this act, all laws repealed or amended by this act must be taken and treated as remaining in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any pending or vested right, civil action, special proceeding, criminal prosecution, or appeal existing as of the effective date of this act, and for the enforcement of rights, duties, penalties, forfeitures, and liabilities as they stood under the repealed or amended laws.

SECTION 3. This act takes effect upon approval by the Governor. /

Rep. HIOTT moved to adjourn debate on the Bill, which was agreed to.

H. 3537--AMENDED AND ORDERED TO THIRD READING

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 3537 -- Reps. Bailey, McGarry, Fry, Bryant, Burns, Felder, Long, Pope, Gilliam, Caskey and Yow: A BILL TO AMEND SECTION 27-1-60, CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976, RELATING TO THE RIGHTS OF HOMEOWNERS OR TENANTS TO FLY THE UNITED STATES FLAG AT THEIR PREMISES, NOTWITHSTANDING THE PROVISIONS OF ANY HOMEOWNERS' ASSOCIATION GOVERNING DOCUMENTS, CONTRACTUAL PROVISIONS, OR DEED COVENANTS TO THE CONTRARY, SO AS TO PROVIDE THAT THIS RIGHT INCLUDES THE RIGHT TO DISPLAY THE FLAG ON A FLAGPOLE INSTALLED AT THE PREMISES FOR THIS PURPOSE.

The Committee on Medical, Military, Public and Municipal Affairs proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3537 (COUNCIL\SA\3537C001.DF.SA22), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 1, by striking Section 27-1-60(A) and (B) and inserting:

/ Section 27-1-60. (A) Regardless of any restrictive covenant, declaration, rule, contractual provision, or other requirement concerning flags or decorations found in a deed, contract, lease, rental agreement, or homeowners' association document, ~~any~~ a homeowner or tenant may display one portable, removable United States flag and one portable removable South Carolina flag in a respectful manner, consistent with 36 U.S.C. Sections 171-178, as amended, on the premises of the property of which he is entitled to use. The above referenced governing documents applicable to the premises, including the bylaws of the homeowners' association, also may not prohibit the installation of a flagpole for the display of the flag of the United States or South Carolina. However, the governing documents may include reasonable rules and regulations regarding the location and size of the flagpole.

(B)(1) ~~No~~ A homeowners' association document may not preclude the display of one portable, removable United States flag or one portable, removable South Carolina flag by homeowners and the use of a flagpole for displaying the flag as provided in subsection (A). However, the flag must be displayed in a respectful manner, consistent with 36 U.S.C. Sections 171-178, as amended.

(2) ~~No~~ A restrictive covenant in a deed may not preclude the display of one portable, removable United States flag or one portable, removable South Carolina flag on the property and the use of a flagpole for displaying the flag as provided in subsection (A). However, the flag must be displayed in a respectful manner, consistent with 36 U.S.C. Sections 171-178, as amended.

(3) ~~No~~ A rental agreement, lease, or contract may not preclude the display of one portable, removable United States flag or one portable, removable South Carolina flag on the premises of any tenant and the use of a flagpole for displaying the flag as provided in subsection (A). However, the flag must be displayed in a respectful manner, consistent with 36 U.S.C. Sections 171-178, as amended. /

H. 5086--AMENDED AND ADOPTED

The following House Resolution was taken up:

H. 5086 -- Rules Committee: A HOUSE RESOLUTION TO AMEND RULE 5.3B. OF THE RULES OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, RELATING TO THE GENERAL APPROPRIATIONS BILL AND SUPPLEMENTAL APPROPRIATIONS BILLS, SO AS TO FURTHER CLARIFY THE RULE REGARDING GERMANENESS AND AMENDMENTS, SET CERTAIN VOTING REQUIREMENTS, AND PROHIBIT THE ADDITION, AMENDMENT, REPEAL, OR ALTERATION OF A PORTION OF THE GENERAL, PERMANENT TAX LAWS OF THE STATE, AMONG OTHER THINGS.

Rep. G. M. SMITH proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 5086 (COUNCIL\AHB\5086C001.BH.AHB22), which was adopted:

Amend the House resolution, as and if amended, by striking all after the resolving clause and inserting:

/ That Rule 5.3 B. of the Rules of the House of Representatives is amended to read:

"B. Germaneness and Amendments: The General Appropriations Bill and Supplemental Appropriations Bills may include both temporary and permanent provisions of law.

1. The ~~substantial~~ principal effect of all temporary provisions of law and amendments thereto must be directly germane to the appropriation of funds, affecting revenue, or be rules, regulations, directives, or procedures relative to the appropriation of funds or affecting revenue for the fiscal year referred to in the bill.

2. The ~~substantial~~ principal effect of all permanent provisions of law and amendments thereto must be directly related to and expressly germane to the purpose of an appropriation being made or revenue provided ~~therein for the fiscal year referred to in the bill~~ and require a vote of three-fifths of the House members present and voting.

3. An amendment which has the effect of appropriating or reducing funds in excess of one million dollars during the fiscal year stated within the bill shall include within the amendment the corresponding appropriation reduction(s) and/or revenue increase(s) within the same section that shall fully fund the amendment's proposed appropriation(s) or revenue reductions(s) or have attached to it in writing an explanation of the specific appropriation reduction(s) and/or revenue increase(s) from the different section(s) that shall fully fund the amendment's proposed appropriation(s) or revenue reductions. Provided, if an amendment identifies unspent projected revenue or balance as the funding source, the Speaker must consult with the Office of Revenue and Fiscal Affairs and confirm the existence of sufficient unspent revenue or balance before the House may consider the amendment.

4. No amendments thereto may temporarily or permanently add, amend, repeal, or alter a portion of the general permanent tax laws of South Carolina.

5. Any part, section, or division of a conference report concerning the General Appropriations Bill or Supplemental Appropriations Bills must comply with the germaneness requirements of this rule. Provided, further, any part, section, or division of a conference report concerning the General Appropriations Bill or Supplemental Appropriations Bills which amends, adds, or repeals a portion of the general permanent laws of South Carolina may only be included in any conference report or concurred in as a Senate amendment by a vote of three-fifths of the House members present and voting.

6. Nothing in this paragraph prohibits the temporary suspension of any permanent law.

The provisions of this paragraph shall be narrowly and strictly construed with regard to all provisions of and amendments to the General Appropriations Bill and Supplemental Appropriations Bills." /

Renumber sections to conform.

Amend title to conform.

Rep. WHITE proposed the following Amendment No. 3 to H. 3958 (COUNCIL\HB\3958C002.NBD.HB22), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

/ SECTION 1. Article 3, Chapter 5, Title 17 of the 1976 Code is amended by adding:

"Section 17-5-135. A coroner or his designee may possess and administer an opioid antidote pursuant to the requirements of the South Carolina Overdose Prevention Act. The coroner must comply with all of the requirements of Section 44-130-60 and is entitled to immunity from civil or criminal liability or professional disciplinary action when administering an opioid antidote to a person he believes in good faith is experiencing an opioid overdose."

SECTION 2. Chapter 130, Title 44 of the 1976 Code is amended by adding:

"Section 44-130-70. (A) A coroner or coroner's designee may administer an opioid antidote if the coroner or coroner's designee believes in good faith that the person is experiencing an opioid overdose.

(B) The coroner or coroner's designee must comply with all applicable requirements for possession, administration, and disposal of the opioid antidote and administration device. The department may promulgate regulations to implement this section, including appropriate training for coroners or coroners' designees who carry or have access to an opioid antidote.

(C) A coroner, or coroner's designee who administers an opioid antidote in accordance with the provisions of this section to a person whom the coroner or coroner's designee believes in good faith is experiencing an opioid overdose is not by an act or omission subject to civil or criminal liability or to professional disciplinary action.

(D)(1) A coroner or coroner's designee who administers an opioid antidote as provided in this section shall report to the department's Bureau of Emergency Medical Services information regarding the opioid antidote administered for inclusion in the prescription monitoring program. The information submitted must include:

(a) date the opioid antidote was administered; and

(b) name, address, and date of birth of the person to whom the opioid antidote was administered, if available.

(2) A coroner or coroner's designee shall submit the information required pursuant to item (1) electronically or by facsimile to the Bureau of Emergency Services within thirty days of administration. The Bureau of Emergency Medical Services shall transmit the information to the department's Bureau of Drug Control.

(3)(a) If a coroner, or coroner's designee submits the name, address, and date of birth of a person to whom an opioid antidote was administered, Drug Control shall verify whether any prescription history of the person appears in the prescription monitoring program and, if prescription history exists, shall document for review by a practitioner or an authorized delegate the date on which the opioid antidote was administered to the person. If no history exists, then Drug Control shall confirm that the antidote was administered in response to a verified opioid overdose. If the antidote was administered in error, then Drug Control shall document the error.

(b) Drug Control also shall maintain data on the administering of opioid antidotes by coroners or coroners' designees including, but not limited to, the frequency with which coroners or coroners' designees administer opioid antidotes by geographic location, coroner or coroner's designee, and dispenser."

SECTION 3. Nothing in this act may be construed as creating or granting benefits in addition to those which a coroner or coroner's designee specifically may be entitled to by law.

SECTION 4. This act takes effect upon approval by the Governor. / Renumber sections to conform.

Rep. HERBKERSMAN proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 4997 (COUNCIL\VR\4997C002.CC.VR22), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

/ SECTION 1. (A) On July 1, 2023, the responsibility and authority to establish and operate veterans nursing homes is transferred from the South Carolina Mental Health Commission, and these duties, responsibilities, and functions are devolved upon the Department of Veterans' Affairs.

(B)(1) The Department of Veterans' Affairs shall oversee the transition of the veterans nursing home program from the Department of Mental Health to the Department of Veterans Affairs.

(2) The Department of Mental and the Department of Veterans' Affairs shall work together at all stages of the process until the transition is complete.

(3) The Department of Mental Health shall immediately begin the reorganization of the veterans nursing home program consistent with any plans the Department of Veterans' Affairs may have in place.

(4) The Department of Mental Health and the Department of Veterans Affairs shall provide monthly reports to the Governor, the Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, and the Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee on the status of the transition through completion.

(C) The employees, authorized appropriations, and assets and liabilities of the South Carolina Mental Health Commission and the Department of Mental Health designated for the establishment and operation of veterans nursing homes are transferred to the Department of Veterans' Affairs. Classified or unclassified personnel employed by the South Carolina Mental Health Commission or the Department of Mental Health to perform duties related to establishment or operation of veterans nursing homes on the effective date of this act, either by contract or by employment at will, shall become employees of the Department of Veterans' Affairs with the same employment status, compensation, classification, and grade level as applicable.

(D) Applicable regulations promulgated by the South Carolina Mental Health Commission or the Department of Mental Health are continued and are considered to be promulgated by the Department of Veterans' Affairs.

(E) The Code Commissioner is directed to change or correct all references to the South Carolina Mental Health Commission and the Department of Mental Health relating to veterans nursing homes to the Department of Veterans' Affairs.

SECTION 2. Chapter 11, Title 25 of the 1976 Code is amended by adding:

"Article 7

South Carolina Veteran Homes

Section 25-11-710. The Department of Veterans' Affairs, in mutual agreement with the authorities of the United States Veterans Administration, may establish and operate South Carolina veterans homes on grounds owned by the Department of Veterans' Affairs to provide treatment for South Carolina veterans who require long-term nursing care. The Department of Veterans' Affairs is designated as the agency of the State to apply for and to accept gifts, grants, and other contributions from the federal government or from any other governmental unit for the operation and construction of South Carolina veterans homes.

Section 25-11-720. For purposes of this article, 'South Carolina veteran' means a South Carolina resident who served in the active military, naval, or air service, and who was discharged or released therefrom under conditions other than dishonorable. A reservist or member of the National Guard called to Federal active duty or disabled from a disease or injury incurred or aggravated in line of duty or while in training status also qualify as a veteran."

SECTION 3. A. Section 43-35-10(4) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(4) 'Facility' means a nursing care facility, community residential care facility, a psychiatric hospital, or any residential program operated or contracted for operation by the Department of Mental Health, the Department of Veterans' Affairs, or the Department of Disabilities and Special Needs."

B. Section 43-35-520 of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"Section 43-35-520. The Vulnerable Adults Investigations Unit of the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division, created pursuant to Section 23-3-810, shall, in addition to its investigation responsibilities under that section or Article 1, investigate cases of vulnerable adult fatalities in facilities operated or contracted for operation by the Department of Mental Health, the Department of Veterans' Affairs, or the Department of Disabilities and Special Needs. Provided, that in a nursing home, as defined in Section 44-7-130, contracted for operation by the Department of ~~Mental Health~~ Veterans' Affairs, the Vulnerable Adults Investigations Unit shall investigate those fatalities for which there is suspicion that the vulnerable adult died as a result of abuse or neglect, the death is suspicious in nature, or the death is referred by a coroner or medical examiner as provided in Section 43-35-35(A). In the event that a coroner rules that the death of an individual in a veterans' nursing home under the authority of the Department of ~~Mental Health~~ Veterans' Affairs results from natural causes, the State Law Enforcement Division is not required to conduct an investigation regarding the individual's death."

SECTION 4. Sections 44-11-30 and 44-11-40 of the 1976 Code are repealed.

SECTION 5. This act takes effect upon approval of the Governor. To ensure the efficient transition of the operation of veterans nursing homes from the Department to Mental Health to the Department of Veterans' Affairs upon the effective date of the act, the Department of Mental Health and the Department of Veterans' Affairs may begin completion of the tasks enumerated in SECTION 1. B. /

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~
Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Psalm 31:5: “Into your hand I commit my spirit; You have redeemed me, O Lord, faithful God.”

Let us pray. Dear Heavenly Father, thank you for keeping us safe as we go through the perils of life. Be our guide and hold us in Your heart. Bless our defenders of freedom and first responders as they care for us. Keep these, Your people, who give of their time and talents safely in Your hands. Bless them with good times and keep them healthy and safe. Bless those who give of their life for our sake. Let Your blessings be upon our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all those who labor in this vineyard. Heal the wounds, those seen and those hidden, of our brave warriors who suffer and sacrifice for our freedom. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

The House assembled at 1:00 p.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Genesis 2:7: "Then the Lord God formed man from the dust of the ground and breathed in his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living being."

Let us pray. We give thanks and praise O Lord, that You have made us as living human beings and to fulfill the promises made for us as Your people. Guide us this week as we bring the budget before these Representatives and Staff. Give them strength and courage to endure and keep them in our minds and hearts. Bless our defenders of freedom and first responders. We remember before You our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who proclaim You as their Lord. Heal the wounds, those seen and those hidden, of our brave warriors who suffer and sacrifice for our freedom. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

RECORD FOR VOTING

As it pertains to my vote on Section 54, Part IB, Rural Infrastructure, the vote was inadvertantly "Nay" due to the heavy pages of the Budget. I would have voted "Yea", but time was limited (tight) for trying to change it back from "Yea"-"Nay"-"Yea" between votes.

SECTION 34--ADOPTED

Rep. MAGNUSON proposed the following Amendment No. 2 to H. 5150 (Doc Name h:\legwork\house\amend\h-wm\005\pro-life advertising.docx), which was tabled:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, Part IB, Section 34, DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH & ENVIRONMENTAL CONTROL, page 381, after line 6, by adding an appropriately numbered proviso to read:

/ "(DHEC: Pro-Life Advertising) Of the funds appropriated to the Department of Health and Environmental Control, the Department shall assess the total amount planned, designated, or currently utilized to advertise for the Covid-19 pandemic, including any funds currently utilized to inform the public that there is a Covid-19 vaccination available or to encourage individuals to receive such a vaccination. This assessment shall be completed no less than 30 days from the effective date of this provision. All funds found to be so planned, designated, or currently utilized shall be redirected to advertise the fact that abortion is the taking of a human life and is an ongoing public health crisis in South Carolina. Within 60 days, the Department must develop an advertising strategy for this purpose, which must include information on why science demonstrates life begins at conception, the number of unborn children killed in the past year during the public health crisis of abortion, the fact that current state law on the books endeavors to protect all human beings beginning at their first heartbeat, and examples of how and where alternatives to abortion may be found in a crisis pregnancy. The Department must provide a report to the General Assembly on the implementation of this advertising strategy within 180 days of the effective date of this provision." /

/ "(GP: Additional Employee Bonus) (A) There is appropriated $60,785,746 from the American Rescue Plan Act of 2021, to the Department of Administration who shall allocate to state agencies to provide for a one-time lump sum bonus, in addition to the $1,500 one-time lump sum bonus provided in proviso 118.19(2.1), to state employees who earn a base salary of $50,000 or less, and meet the requirements of subsection (B) of this provision, effective on the first pay date that occurs on or after October 17, 2022.

(B) permanent state employees, in a full-time equivalent position, who have been in continuous state service for at least six months prior to July 1, 2022, who earn a base salary of $50,000 or less, shall receive an $3,500 one-time lump sum payment. This payment is not a part of the state employee's base salary and is not earnable compensation for purposes of employer or employee contributions to respective retirement systems. This appropriation may be used for payments to employees only in the same ratio as the employee's base salary is paid from appropriated sources and the employing agency shall pay the bonus for federal and other funded full-time equivalent positions employees from federal or other funds available to the agency in the proportion that such funds are the source of the employee's salary. The earnings limitation on bonuses in Proviso 117.52 of this Act does not apply to this bonus. For institutions of higher education, the funds received for this bonus may be used without uniformity. ~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Psalm 99:9: "Extol the Lord our God, and worship at his holy mountain; for the Lord our God is Holy."

Let us pray. Righteous God, You judge all things that You have created. For Your justice and mercy, we sing Your praises. Help these Representatives to serve others with their minds, hands, and feet. Look in favor upon our defenders of freedom and first responders. Bless and keep in Your care our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who give of their time and effort for the good of all people. Bless and keep safe our men and women who suffer and sacrifice for our freedom. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

RECURRENCE TO THE MORNING HOUR

Rep. FORREST moved that the House recur to the morning hour.

R. 132, H. 4800--ORDERED PRINTED IN THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER ordered the following Veto printed in the Journal:

State of South Carolina
Office of the Governor

March 14, 2022
The Honorable James H. Lucas Speaker of the House
State House, Second Floor Columbia, South Carolina 29201

Dear Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

I am hereby vetoing and returning without my approval R-132, H. 4800, which seeks to amend Act No. 777 of 1988, establishing the Lancaster County School District, so as to provide that members of the Lancaster County School District's Board of Trustees ("Board") must be elected in partisan elections beginning in 2024. The bill also requires present members of the Board whose terms expire after 2024 to declare their political affiliation by affidavit filed with the Lancaster County Board of Voter Registration and Elections. Although I recognize and appreciate the importance of the underlying issue, for the reasons set forth below, I am compelled to veto H. 4800.

As the General Assembly is aware, like several of my predecessors, I have consistently vetoed unconstitutional local or special legislation. The South Carolina Constitution expressly prohibits the General Assembly from enacting legislation "for a specific county" and "where a general law can be made applicable." S.C. Const. art VIII, § 7; S.C. Const. art. III, § 34(IX). Yet, H. 4800 would apply to only a single county. Although our courts have held that greater deference is warranted in the context of public education, "legislation regarding education is not exempt from the requirements of Article III, § 34(IX)." Horry Cty. v. Horry Cty. Higher Educ. Comm'n, 306S.C. 416, 419, 412 S.E.2d 421, 423 (1991). Here, it appears that a general law could be made applicable, and the General Assembly has not established that a special law is necessary to "best meet the exigencies of [this] particular situation." Charleston Cty. Sch. Dist. v. Harrell, 393 S.C. 552, 559, 713 S.E.2d 604, 608 (2011). Accordingly, I am compelled to reiterate my longstanding concerns regarding the General Assembly's regular resort to local or special legislation, which has produced a patchwork of authorities governing South Carolina's schools and school districts.

This very issue illustrates the problems associated with governing via piecemeal, and often inconsistent, local legislation. Currently, numerous local acts require that boards of trustees of the various school districts be elected in nonpartisan elections. See, e.g., Act No. 613 of 1986 (requiring that elections for the Board of Trustees of Richland County School District Nos. 1 and 2 be nonpartisan); Act No. 287 of 1987 (requiring that elections for the Board of Trustees of Lexington County School District No. 5 be nonpartisan). Meanwhile, it is my understanding that only the Horry County School District Board of Trustees and the Lee County School District Board of Trustees are presently elected in partisan elections; yet, according to the South Carolina School Boards Association, apparently neither their legal counsel nor the legal counsel for these school districts has been able to locate or cite the local acts or policies authorizing or requiring partisan elections.

As our recent experience has made abundantly clear, school board elections are critically important. Thus, the manner in which these elections are conducted warrants scrutiny and debate, and the proposal to transition to partisan elections may have merit. However, given the importance of this issue, the General Assembly should address the matter on a statewide basis and consider general legislation that, for example, provides that all such elections should be conducted on a partisan basis or affords electors in the various districts the option to select the form of election in a referendum. Accordingly, while I commend the bill's sponsors for their attention to this important issue, because I am concerned that H. 4800 appears to violate the constitutional prohibition on local or special legislation, I am compelled to veto the same. Nevertheless, I would encourage the General Assembly to consider the underlying proposal on a statewide basis.

For the foregoing reasons, I am respectfully vetoing R-132, H. 4800 and returning the same without my signature.

Yours very truly,

Henry McMaster

The House assembled at noon.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Psalm 100:3: "Know that the Lord is God. It is He who made us, and we are His; We are His people, and the sheep of His pasture."

Let us pray. You are indeed Holy, O God. You surround us with Your glory and mercy, and in the splendor of Your heavenly light. You lead us through the darkness of this World. Grant Your blessings upon our defenders of freedom and first responders. May Your blessings be upon our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who serve in these Halls of Government. Bestow Your blessings upon our men and women who give of themselves for our safety. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of Tuesday, March 15, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

MOTION ADOPTED

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

The following was received:

Columbia, S.C., March 24, 2022
Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

The Senate respectfully invites your Honorable Body to attend in the Senate Chamber at a mutually convenient time for the purpose of ratifying Acts.

Very respectfully,
President

On motion of Rep. FELDER the invitation was accepted.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

The following was received:

Columbia, S.C., Wednesday, March 16, 2022
Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

The Senate respectfully informs your Honorable Body that it has overridden the Veto by the Governor on R. 127, S. 862 by a vote of 40 to 0.

(R. 127, S. 862) -- Senators Hutto and Matthews: AN ACT TO AMEND SECTION 5 OF ACT 184 OF 2020, RELATING TO THE CONSOLIDATION OF THE HAMPTON COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT, SO AS TO PROVIDE FOR THE MANNER IN WHICH THE DISTRICT RECEIVES FUNDS, AND TO VEST THE DISTRICT WITH TOTAL FISCAL AUTONOMY IN 2025.

Very respectfully,
President

R. 127, S. 862--ORDERED PRINTED IN THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER ordered the following Veto printed in the Journal:

State of South Carolina
Office of the Governor

March 14, 2022
The Honorable Thomas C. Alexander
President of the Senate
State House, Second Floor
Columbia, South Carolina 29201

Dear Mr. President and Members of the Senate:

I am hereby vetoing and returning without my approval R-127, S. 862, which seeks to amend Act No. 184 of 2020, consolidating the Hampton County School District ("District"), by vesting the District with total fiscal autonomy and altering the manner in which the District receives funds. For the reasons set forth below, I am compelled to veto S. 862.

As the General Assembly is aware, like several of my predecessors, I have consistently vetoed unconstitutional local or special legislation. The South Carolina Constitution expressly prohibits the General Assembly from enacting legislation "for a specific county" and "where a general law can be made applicable." S.C. Const. art VIII, § 7; S.C. Const. art. III, § 34(IX). Although our courts have held that greater deference is warranted in the context of public education, "legislation regarding education is not exempt from the requirements of Article III, § 34(IX)." Therefore, I carefully review and consider all such legislation presented to me and scrutinize the same in view of the governing law. Absent other issues or infirmities, I have, on occasion, signed local legislation that is not clearly unconstitutional, such as where a general law could not be made applicable or the General Assembly has established that a special law is necessary to "best meet the exigencies of [this] particular situation." Charleston Cty. Sch. Dist. v. Harrell, 393 S.C. 552, 559, 713 S.E.2d 604, 608 (2011). Regardless, I have consistently cautioned the General Assembly to avoid or limit the regular resort to this practice and encouraged legislators to address similar issues in the future by passing laws of uniform, statewide application.

Here, S. 862 plainly pertains to only Hampton County and does not appear to satisfy any recognized exception to the constitutional prohibition on local or special legislation. Although I approved Act No. 184 of 2020, which established the consolidated Hampton County School District, it was readily apparent that such legislation was necessary to "best meet the exigencies of [that] particular situation" and it was not clear that a general law could be made applicable. Id. However, now, less than two years later, the General Assembly seeks to tweak that enabling and consolidating legislation. Because the General Assembly has not demonstrated that this special legislation is necessary, I must respectfully veto the same. See Richardson v. McCutchen, 278 S.C. 117, 119, 292 S.E.2d 787, 788 (1982) (noting that "[t]he prohibition is applicable to . . . the amendment of prior special legislation").

To the extent S. 862 seeks to alter the manner in which the District receives funds, perhaps this proposal is borne of concerns previously raised regarding the Hampton County Treasurer and Hampton County's financial affairs more generally. However, the General Assembly has not established any such nexus or identified the requisite exigencies, as required by the South Carolina Supreme Court in other contexts. Nevertheless, even assuming these concerns prompted S. 862, they do more to bolster my argument that the General Assembly should expand the oversight and investigatory authority of the State Inspector General than they do to support this effort to expand the fiscal autonomy of the recently consolidated Hampton County School District. Accordingly, I am compelled to reiterate my longstanding concerns regarding the General Assembly's seemingly routine reliance on local or special legislation, which has produced a patchwork of authorities governing South Carolina's schools and school districts.

For the foregoing reasons, I am respectfully vetoing R-127, S. 862 and returning the same without my signature.

Yours very truly,
Henry McMaster

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

The following was received:

Columbia, S.C., Wednesday, March 16, 2022
Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

The Senate respectfully informs your Honorable Body that it has overridden the Veto by the Governor on R. 128, S. 912 by a vote of 40 to 0.

(R. 128, S. 912) -- Senator Stephens: AN ACT TO AMEND ACT 593 OF 1992, AS AMENDED, RELATING TO THE LIMIT ON CASH RESERVES THAT MAY BE MAINTAINED BY DORCHESTER COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICTS 2 AND 4, SO AS TO PROVIDE THAT THE LIMIT ON CASH RESERVES DOES NOT APPLY TO DORCHESTER COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT 4 IN FISCAL YEAR 2021-2022.

Very respectfully,
President

R. 128, S. 912--ORDERED PRINTED IN THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER ordered the following Veto printed in the Journal:

State of South Carolina
Office of the Governor

March 14, 2022
The Honorable Thomas C. Alexander
President of the Senate
State House, Second Floor
Columbia, South Carolina 29201

Dear Mr. President and Members of the Senate:

I am hereby vetoing and returning without my approval R-128, S. 912, which seeks to amend Act No. 593 of 1992, imposing limitations on the allowable amount of cash reserves for Dorchester County School District Nos. 2 and 4 (“Districts”), so as to increase the permissible amount of cash in reserves from 5% to 15% of the Districts’ total operating budgets.

The bill also seeks to exempt Dorchester County School District No. 4 from the increased limit for Fiscal Year 2021–2022. For the reasons set forth below, I am compelled to veto S. 912.

As the General Assembly is aware, like several of my predecessors, I have consistently vetoed unconstitutional local or special legislation. The South Carolina Constitution expressly prohibits the General Assembly from enacting legislation "for a specific county" and "where a general law can be made applicable." S.C. Const. art VIII, § 7; S.C. Const. art. III, § 34(IX). Although our courts have held that greater deference is warranted in the context of public education, "legislation regarding education is not exempt from the requirements of Article III, § 34(IX)." Therefore, I carefully review and consider all such legislation presented to me and scrutinize the same in view of the governing law. Absent other issues or infirmities, I have, on occasion, signed local legislation that is not clearly unconstitutional, such as where a general law could not be made applicable or the General Assembly has established that a special law is necessary to "best meet the exigencies of [this] particular situation." Charleston Cty. Sch. Dist. v. Harrell, 393 S.C. 552, 559, 713 S.E.2d 604, 608 (2011). Regardless, I have consistently cautioned the General Assembly to avoid or limit the regular resort to this practice and encouraged legislators to address similar issues in the future by passing laws of uniform, statewide application.

Here, S. 912 would apply to only a single county, and the General Assembly has not established that a special law is necessary to "best meet the exigencies of [this] particular situation." Id. Moreover, it appears that a general law could be made applicable. Indeed, given the significant federal funds currently available to school districts, whatever the concern is that prompted this bill, one can fairly presume that other school districts are facing the same or similar issue. Therefore, rather than micromanaging the operations of these Districts (and others) through piecemeal and inconsistent special legislation, this matter is likely worthy of consideration, and scrutiny, on a statewide basis. Accordingly, I am compelled to reiterate my longstanding concerns regarding the General Assembly's seemingly routine reliance on local or special legislation, which has produced a patchwork of authorities governing South Carolina's schools and school districts.

For the foregoing reasons, I am respectfully vetoing R-128, S. 912 and returning the same without my signature.

Yours very truly,
Henry McMaster

H. 5036--AMENDED AND ORDERED TO THIRD READING

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 5036 -- Reps. Sandifer, West, Thigpen, Hardee, Jordan, Anderson, Bailey, Gagnon, Simrill, Thayer, White and Atkinson: A BILL TO AMEND ARTICLE 3 OF CHAPTER 15, TITLE 31, CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976, RELATING TO BUILDINGS UNFIT FOR HABITATION IN COUNTIES, SO AS TO EXTEND THE PROVISIONS OF THE CHAPTER TO BUILDINGS UNFIT FOR OCCUPATION, TO ADD A CAUSE FOR WHICH POLICE POWERS MAY BE USED REGARDING RUBBISH, AND TO DELETE AN APPROVAL REQUIREMENT.

The Labor, Commerce and Industry Committee proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 5036 (COUNCIL\DG\5036C002. NBD.DG22), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

/ SECTION 1. Section 6-9-10 of the 1976 Code is amended by adding an appropriately lettered subsection to read:

"( )(1) Any action taken by a county pursuant to Sections 108, 109, or 110 of the International Property Maintenance Code on commercial or industrial property may be collected in a manner similar to property taxes. The county may enforce the lien in any manner provided by law, including utilizing Chapters 51 and 56, Title 12. However, the lien is due in five equal installments over five property tax years beginning with the property tax year in which the lien is effective. The provisions of Chapter 51, Title 12 can not be utilized until all five installments are due.

(2) This section does not authorize a county to use its authority under this section:

(a) on farmland or agricultural land; or

(b) on land containing a residential dwelling, which is any permanent building or structure, or part thereof, used and occupied for human habitation or intended to be so used and includes any outhouses and appurtenances belonging thereto or usually enjoyed therewith that is occupied by its owner may not be considered commercial or industrial for purposes of application of this Chapter; or

(c) solely for aesthetic purposes."

SECTION 2. This act takes effect upon approval by the Governor. / Renumber sections to conform.

Amend title to conform.

Rep. THAYER explained the amendment.

The amendment was then adopted.

Rep. W. COX proposed the following Amendment No. 2 to H. 5036 (COUNCIL\DG\5036C003.NBD.DG22), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 1, by striking Section 6-9-10( )(1) and inserting:

/ ( )(1)(a) Any action taken by a county pursuant to Sections 108, 109 or 110 of the International Property Maintenance Code on commercial or industrial property may be collected in a manner similar to property taxes. The county may enforce the lien in any manner provided by law, including utilizing Chapters 51 and 56, Title 12. However, the lien is due in five equal installments over five property tax years beginning with the property tax year in which the lien is effective.

(b) If the property is sold by the owner prior to all five installments becoming due, the entire balance of the lien is due and payable as property taxes at the time of sale or disposition of the property.

(c) If the property is sold or disposed of for the real property taxes owed, subject to the provisions of Chapter 51, Title 12, prior to all five installments becoming due, the lien and any outstanding real property tax owed must be collected in the same manner as property taxes at the time of sale or disposition under Chapter 51, Title 12. /

Renumber sections to conform.

Amend title to conform.

Rep. W. COX explained the amendment.

The amendment was then adopted.

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 3775 -- Reps. Robinson, Dillard, Elliott, Erickson, Parks, Martin, Fry, Matthews, V. S. Moss, G. R. Smith, Brawley, Rose, Stavrinakis and Hill: A BILL TO AMEND THE CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976, BY ADDING SECTION 38-71-144 SO AS TO PROVIDE DEFINITIONS AND THAT NO HEALTH BENEFIT PLAN MAY REQUIRE AN INSURED TO FAIL TO SUCCESSFULLY RESPOND TO A DRUG OR DRUGS FOR STAGE FOUR ADVANCED, METASTATIC CANCER PRIOR TO THE APPROVAL OF A DRUG PRESCRIBED BY HIS OR HER PHYSICIAN.

The Committee on Medical, Military, Public and Municipal Affairs proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3775 (COUNCIL\PH\3775C001.JN.PH22), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 1, by striking Section 38-71-144(B) and inserting:

/ (B) No health benefit plan issued, delivered, or renewed in this State that, as a provision of hospital, medical, or surgical services, directly or indirectly covers the treatment of stage four advanced, metastatic cancer may limit or exclude coverage for diagnostic imaging services for the diagnosis and treatment of the patient's stage four advanced, metastatic cancer if the National Comprehensive Cancer Network Clinical Practice Guidelines in Oncology provide a consensus that the diagnostic imaging service in question is appropriate and is supported by peer-reviewed literature. /

Renumber sections to conform.

Amend title to conform.

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~
Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Psalm 18:31-32: "For who is God except the Lord? And who is a rock besides our God? The God who girded me with strength and made my way safe."

Let us pray. Since we have such great hope in Your promises, O God we lift these people and all of our prayers to You in confidence and faith. Keep these women and men in this Assembly safe and in Your loving care. Protect our defenders of freedom and first responders. Let Your light shine upon our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who give of their time and energy. Bless and keep our men and women who suffer and sacrifice. Heal those who suffer from hidden wounds. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE ordered it confirmed.

MOTION ADOPTED

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

Mr. Speaker,

An education committee Bill was read across the desk entitled Academic “Transparency and Integrity”. There was no input from those voting ‘No’. While the Bill was discussed in committee, without a number, discussion was in the form of questions, but little regard to clarify sections of which questions were asked. Amendments were ignored and questions were disregarded; as well as, terms were not clearly defined. Thus, I request that the record reflect my objection to my name being reflected as a sponsor of this Bill.

Rep. Annie McDaniel
Member of the House Education and Public Works Committee

POINT OF ORDER

Rep. GOVAN raised the Point of Order that H. 5183 was out of order because a public hearing had not been held upon the legislation. Rep. GOVAN cited House Rule 4.4 in support of the Point of Order.

SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE POPE stated that H. 5183 was a committee Bill that was adopted by a two-thirds vote of the Education & Public Works Committee. He stated that nothing in Rule 4.4 required a public hearing upon the legislation. He overruled the Point of Order.

POINT OF ORDER

Rep. GOVAN raised the Point of Order that H. 5183 was improperly introduced to the Body. He stated it was improper for a Bill to not be referred to a committee.

SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE POPE stated that H. 5183 was a committee Bill that was adopted by a two-thirds vote of the Education & Public Works Committee. He stated that the Bill complied with the Rules of the House and that it was properly presented to the House and placed upon the Calendar. He overruled the Point of Order.

Rep. WHITE moved to adjourn debate on the Joint Resolution, which was agreed to.

H. 3958--AMENDED AND ORDERED TO THIRD READING

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 3958 -- Reps. McGarry, Yow, Dabney, B. Newton, Bennett, Bustos, Haddon, Erickson, McCabe, Bryant, Robinson, Huggins, Ott, Ballentine, Oremus, Anderson, T. Moore, Long, Pope, Felder, Ligon, B. Cox, Morgan, Lucas, McKnight, Simrill, J. L. Johnson, Matthews, Jones, Wheeler, Hyde, Murray, Daning, M. M. Smith and Davis: A BILL TO AMEND THE CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976, BY ADDING SECTION 17-5-135 SO AS TO PROVIDE THAT A CORONER MAY ACT AS A FIRST RESPONDER UNDER CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES; AND TO AMEND SECTION 44-130-20, AS AMENDED, RELATING TO DEFINITIONS APPLICABLE TO THE "SOUTH CAROLINA OVERDOSE PREVENTION ACT" SO AS TO INCLUDE A CORONER IN THE DEFINITION OF THE TERM "FIRST RESPONDER".

Rep. WHITE proposed the following Amendment No. 4 to H. 3958 (COUNCIL\AHB\3958C002.RT.AHB22), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

/ SECTION 1. Article 3, Chapter 5, Title 17 of the 1976 Code is amended by adding:

"Section 17-5-135. A coroner or his designee may possess and administer an opioid antidote pursuant to the requirements of the South Carolina Overdose Prevention Act. The coroner must comply with all of the requirements of Section 44-130-60 and is entitled to immunity from civil or criminal liability or professional disciplinary action when administering an opioid antidote to a person he believes in good faith is experiencing an opioid overdose."

SECTION 2. Chapter 130, Title 44 of the 1976 Code is amended by adding:

"Section 44-130-70. (A) A coroner or coroner's designee may administer an opioid antidote if the coroner or coroner's designee believes in good faith that the person is experiencing an opioid overdose.

(B) The coroner or coroner's designee must comply with all applicable requirements for possession, administration, and disposal of the opioid antidote and administration device. The department may promulgate regulations to implement this section, including appropriate training for coroners or coroners' designees who carry or have access to an opioid antidote.

(C) A coroner or coroner's designee who administers an opioid antidote in accordance with the provisions of this section to a person whom the coroner or coroner's designee believes in good faith is experiencing an opioid overdose is not by an act or omission subject to civil or criminal liability or to professional disciplinary action.

(D)(1) A coroner or coroner's designee who administers an opioid antidote as provided in this section shall report to the department's Bureau of Emergency Medical Services information regarding the opioid antidote administered for inclusion in the prescription monitoring program. The information submitted must include:

(a) date the opioid antidote was administered; and

(b) name, address, and date of birth of the person to whom the opioid antidote was administered, if available.

(2) A coroner or coroner's designee shall submit the information required pursuant to item (1) electronically or by facsimile to the Bureau of Emergency Services within thirty days of administration. The Bureau of Emergency Medical Services shall transmit the information to the department's Bureau of Drug Control.

(3)(a) If a coroner or coroner's designee submits the name, address, and date of birth of a person to whom an opioid antidote was administered, Drug Control shall verify whether any prescription history of the person appears in the prescription monitoring program and, if prescription history exists, shall document for review by a practitioner or an authorized delegate the date on which the opioid antidote was administered to the person. If no history exists, then Drug Control shall confirm that the antidote was administered in response to a verified opioid overdose. If the antidote was administered in error, then Drug Control shall document the error.

(b) Drug Control also shall maintain data on the administering of opioid antidotes by coroners or coroners' designees including, but not limited to, the frequency with which coroners or coroners' designees administer opioid antidotes by geographic location, coroner or coroner's designee, and dispenser."

SECTION 3. Section 17-5-510 of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"Section 17-5-510. In counties which have both a coroner and a medical examiner:

(1) the coroner has the ultimate responsibility for carrying out the duties required by this article;

(2) the medical examiner's duties must be specified in an annual written contract between the county governing body and the medical examiner; and

(3) a coroner is considered a public safety officer under 34 U.S.C. § 10281 et seq., if killed in the line of duty."

SECTION 4. Nothing in this act may be construed as creating or granting benefits in addition to those which a coroner or coroner's designee specifically may be entitled to by law.

SECTION 5. This act takes effect upon approval by the Governor. /

H. 4220--AMENDED AND ORDERED TO THIRD READING

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 4220 -- Reps. Sandifer and Hardee: A BILL TO AMEND THE CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976, BY ADDING SECTION 38-63-230 SO AS TO PROVIDE FOR MUTUAL RESCISSION OF INDIVIDUAL LIFE INSURANCE POLICIES; AND TO AMEND SECTION 38-6-220, RELATING TO REQUIRED INDIVIDUAL LIFE INSURANCE POLICY PROVISIONS, SO AS TO ALLOW FOR THE MUTUAL DECISION TO TERMINATE OR RESCIND A POLICY OF INSURANCE.

The Committee on Labor, Commerce and Industry proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 4220 (COUNCIL\PH\ 4220C002.JN.PH22), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting language and inserting:

/ SECTION 1. Article 3, Chapter 63, Title 38 of the 1976 Code is amended by adding:

"Section 38-63-230. (A) An insurer may rescind a life insurance policy within the two-year contestability period in Section 38-63-220(d) by:

(1) a mutual rescission agreement executed by all parties based on false statements included in the application; or

(2) proving a fraudulent or material misrepresentation by clear and convincing evidence in a court of competent jurisdiction.

(B) Mutual rescission of a policy may be accomplished by:

(1) mailing a certified letter to the last known address on record of the insured, policy owner or, if the owner is deceased, the beneficiary, notifying the insured, policy owner, or beneficiary that the insurer is seeking a mutual rescission of the policy. The letter must state the policy is being rescinded for false statements included in the application and include the important notice language set forth in subsection (C). The letter must also specify which statements in the application were false along with a brief explanation of the facts supporting the determination that the statements were false;

(2) including a check reimbursing the insured, policy owner, or beneficiary the premium paid to the insurer with language stamped on the back of the check that reads: 'I understand that cashing or depositing this check voids the policy and no benefits will be payable under the policy and am agreeing to the rescission of this policy'; and

(3) signing and cashing or depositing the premium reimbursement check by the insured, policyowner, or beneficiary, which will be deemed an acceptance of the proposed mutual rescission of the policy.

(C) Any certified letter proposing the rescission of a life insurance policy during the contestability period must include the following language in 12-point bold face type:

'IMPORTANT NOTICE:

You are the insured, owner, or beneficiary of an insurance policy the company proposes to rescind. This letter is notice the company seeks your consent to void and rescind the policy issued to you or that names you as a beneficiary based on false statements made in the application for insurance. If rescinded, the policy is void and no benefits will be payable under the policy. You do not have to agree to the rescission of this policy. If you do not agree, do not cash or deposit the enclosed check. Return it to the insurer or destroy it.

By cashing or depositing the enclosed premium reimbursement check, you are agreeing to rescind this policy. No benefits will be due or payable under the voided policy. If you do not agree to rescind this policy, the insurer has the right, in its sole discretion, to bring a court action to rescind the policy in accordance with South Carolina law.

You also have the right to bring an action in court if your policy is canceled or your claim for benefits is denied for material misrepresentation.

You may want to speak with an attorney about this notice. If you have any questions concerning this proposal, either you or your attorney may contact the insurer at the number listed in the letter.

Information regarding the specific misrepresentation that was made in your policy and a brief explanation of the insurer's determination that the representation is false is included with this letter.'

(D) Insurance policies that are guaranteed issue or are not underwritten are not subject to mutual rescission."

SECTION 2. Section 38-63-220(d) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(d) a provision that the policy and any rider or supplemental benefits attached to the policy are incontestable as to the truth of the application for insurance and to the representations of the insured individual after they have been in force during the lifetime of the insured for a period of two years from their date of issue. Any rider or supplemental benefits subsequently attached to the policy are incontestable as to the truth of the application for the rider or supplemental benefits and to the representations of the insured individual after they have been in force during the lifetime of the insured for a period of two years from their date of issue. If an insurer initiates a mutual rescission or institutes proceedings to vacate a policy on the ground of the falsity of the representations contained in the application for the policy, the proceedings or mutual rescission must commence within the time permitted in this subsection;"

ACTING SPEAKER HIOTT IN CHAIR

Rep. RUTHERFORD proposed the following Amendment No. 2 to H. 4998 (COUNCIL\DG\4998C002.NBD.DG22), which was tabled:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by adding an appropriately numbered SECTION to read:

/ SECTION ___. A.Section 61-6-4160 of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"Section 61-6-4160. (A) It is unlawful to sell alcoholic liquors ~~on Sunday except as authorized by law,~~ on Christmas Day~~,~~ or during periods proclaimed by the Governor in the interest of law and order or public morals and decorum. Full authority to proclaim these periods is conferred upon the Governor in addition to all his other powers. It is unlawful for a retail dealer to sell alcoholic liquors on Sunday except as authorized and provided for in subsections (B) and (C).

(B) The Department of Revenue may issue a permit to allow the sale of alcoholic liquors on Sunday by a licensed retail dealer in a county or municipality that authorizes the sale of alcoholic liquors on Sunday in the manner provided in subsection (C). The department shall charge a nonrefundable filing fee of one hundred dollars for processing each application. The department shall charge for an annual fifty-two week permit a nonrefundable fee of three thousand dollars per year. However, the fifty-two week permit must not extend beyond the expiration date of the biennial license issued pursuant to this chapter. If the expiration date is less than fifty-two weeks from the date of the application for the fifty-two week permit, the department must prorate the three thousand dollar fee on a monthly basis. The department in its sole discretion shall specify the terms and conditions of the permit. The filing and permit fees must be distributed by the State Treasurer to the municipality or county in which the retailer who paid the fee is located.

(C)(1) A permit authorized by this section may be issued only in those counties or municipalities where a majority of the qualified electors voting in a referendum vote in favor of the issuance of the permit. The county or municipal election commission, as the case may be, shall conduct a referendum upon petition of at least ten percent but not more than seven thousand five hundred qualified electors of the county or municipality, as the case may be. The petition form must be submitted to the election commission not less than one hundred twenty days before the date of the referendum. The names on the petition must be on the petition form provided to county election officials by the State Election Commission. The names on the petition must be certified by the election commission within sixty days after receiving the petition form. The referendum must be conducted at the next general election. The election commission shall cause a notice to be published in a newspaper circulated in the county or municipality, as the case may be, at least seven days before the referendum. The state election laws must apply to the referendum, mutatis mutandis. The election commission shall publish the results of the referendum and certify them to the South Carolina Department of Revenue. The question on the ballot must be:

'Shall the South Carolina Department of Revenue be authorized to issue permits to licensed retail dealers in this (county) (municipality) to allow for the sale of alcoholic liquors on Sunday in compliance with the provisions of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Act?'

(2) A referendum for this purpose may not be held more often than once in forty-eight months.

(3) The expenses for this purpose must be paid by the county or municipality conducting the referendum.

(4) In addition to the petition method of calling the referendum provided for in this subsection, a county or municipal governing body by ordinance also may call the referendum. Upon receipt of a copy of the ordinance filed with the county or municipal election commission at least sixty days before the date of the next general election, the commission shall conduct the referendum in the manner provided in this section at that general election. The provisions of this item are in addition to the authority of a municipal governing body to call for a referendum under the circumstances enumerated in subsection (C)(1).

(D)(1) The municipal governing body may order a referendum on the question of the issuance of permits to allow the sale of alcoholic liquors in the following circumstances:

(a) parts of the municipality are located in more than one county;

(b) as a result of a favorable vote in a county referendum held pursuant to this section, permits may be issued in only the parts of the municipality located in that county; and

(c) the proposed referendum would authorize issuance of permits in the remaining parts of the municipality.

(2) The method of ordering a referendum provided in this subsection is in addition to the petition method provided in subsection (C). An unfavorable vote in a municipal referendum does not affect the authority to issue these permits in the part of the municipality located in a county where these permits may be issued.

(3) Upon receipt of a copy of the ordinance filed with the municipal election commission at least sixty days before the date of the general election, the commission must conduct the referendum at the time of the general election and publish and certify its results in the same manner as provided in subsection (C).

(E) Permits issued by the Department of Revenue pursuant to this section may be issued in all parts of a municipality if any part of the municipality is located in a county where the issuance of these permits is allowed.

(F)(1) For purposes of referendums held pursuant to this section, 'general election' means a:

(a) municipal general election held at a time other than the first Tuesday following the first Monday in November of even-numbered years; or

(b) county general election held on the first Tuesday following the first Monday in November of even-numbered years.

(2) A municipality that does not have a municipal general election scheduled within the same calendar year as a county general election may call, by ordinance, for a referendum to be held on the same date as the county general election, provided that a copy of the ordinance has been filed with the county and municipal election commissions no later than the date required by Section 7-13-355. The expenses for a referendum ordered by a municipality must be paid by the municipality. When a municipal referendum is held at the time of a county general election, the referendum may be conducted by the municipal or county election commission as provided for by an agreement between the municipality and county.

(G) A person who violates a provision of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, must be punished as follows:

~~(a)~~(1) for a first offense, by a fine of two hundred dollars or imprisonment for sixty days;

~~(b)~~(2) for a second offense, by a fine of one thousand dollars or imprisonment for one year; and

~~(c)~~(3) for a third or subsequent offense, by a fine of two thousand dollars or imprisonment for two years."

B. This SECTION takes effect upon approval by the Governor. /

SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE IN CHAIR

Rep. RUTHERFORD proposed the following Amendment No. 3 to H. 4998 (COUNCIL\DG\4998C003.NBD.DG22), which was tabled:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by adding an appropriately numbered SECTION to read:

/ SECTION ___. A.Section 61-4-50(A) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(A) It is unlawful for a person to sell beer, ale, porter, wine, or other similar malt or fermented beverage to a person under ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen years of age. A person who makes a sale in violation of this section, upon conviction:

(1) for a first offense, must be fined not less than two hundred dollars nor more than three hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days, or both; and

(2) for a second or subsequent offense, must be fined not less than four hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days, or both."

B . Section 61-4-70 of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"Section 61-4-70. A person engaged in the business of selling at retail beer or wine must post in each location for which he has obtained a permit a sign with the following words printed thereon: 'The possession of beer, wine, or alcoholic liquors, by a person under ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen years of age is a criminal offense under the laws of this State, and it is also unlawful for a person to knowingly give false information concerning his age for the purpose of purchasing beer, wine, or liquor'. The department must prescribe by regulation the size of the lettering and the location of the sign on the seller's premises.

A retail seller of beer or wine who fails to display the sign required by this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, must be fined not more than one hundred dollars or imprisoned for not more than thirty days.

A person found guilty of a violation of Section 61-6-1530 and this section may not be sentenced under both sections for the same offense."

C. Section 61-4-90 of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"Section 61-4-90. (A) It is unlawful for a person to transfer or give to a person under the age of ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen years for the purpose of consumption of beer or wine in the State, unless the person under the age of ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen is recruited and authorized by a law enforcement agency to test a person's compliance with laws relating to the unlawful transfer or sale of beer and wine to a minor. A person who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction:

(1) for a first offense, must be fined not less than two hundred dollars nor more than three hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days, or both; and

(2) for a second or subsequent offense, must be fined not less than four hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days, or both.

(B) A person found guilty of a violation of Section 61-6-4070 and this section may not be sentenced under both sections for the same offense.

(C) The provisions of this section do not apply to a:

(1) spouse over the age of ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen giving beer or wine to his spouse under the age of ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen in their home;

(2) parent or guardian over the age of ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen giving beer or wine to his children or wards under the age of ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen in their home; or

(3) person giving beer or wine to another person under the age of ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen in conjunction with a religious ceremony or purpose if the beer or wine was lawfully purchased.

(D) A person eighteen years of age and over lawfully employed to serve or remove beer, wine, or alcoholic beverages in establishments licensed to sell these beverages are not considered to be in unlawful possession of the beverages during the course and scope of their duties as an employee. The provisions of this subsection do not affect the requirement that a bartender must be at least twenty-one years of age.

(E) This section does not apply to an employee lawfully engaged in the sale or delivery of these beverages in an unopened container.

(F) The provisions of this section do not apply to a student who:

(1) is eighteen years of age or older;

(2) is enrolled in an accredited college or university and a student in a culinary course that has been approved through review by the State Commission on Higher Education;

(3) is required to taste, but not consume or imbibe, any beer, ale, porter, wine, or other similar malt or fermented beverage as part of the required curriculum; and

(4) tastes a beverage pursuant to item (3) only for instructional purposes during classes that are part of the curriculum of the accredited college or university.

The beverage must remain at all times in the possession and control of an authorized instructor of the college or university who must be ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen years of age or older. Nothing in this subsection may be construed to allow a student under the age of ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen to receive any beer, ale, porter, wine, or other similar malt or fermented beverage unless the beverage is delivered as part of the student's required curriculum and the beverage is used only for instructional purposes during classes conducted pursuant to the curriculum."

D. Section 61-4-100(D) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(D) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (A) and (B), a person under the age of ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen may be recruited and authorized by a law enforcement agency to test an establishment's compliance with laws relating to the unlawful transfer or sale of beer or wine to a minor. The testing must be under the direct supervision of a law enforcement agency, and the agency must have the person's parental consent. If the requirements of this subsection are met, a person may be charged with a violation of Section 61-4-50 without the requirement that the minor also be charged."

E. Section 61-4-360 of the 1976 Code, as added by Act 161 of 2020, is amended to read:

"Section 61-4-360. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a producer or wholesaler may furnish or give a sample of wine to a retailer who has not purchased the brand from a producer or wholesaler in the past three hundred sixty-five days. For each retail establishment, a producer or wholesaler may not give more than three liters of any brand of wine annually. If a particular product is not available in a size within the quantity limitations of this section, a producer or wholesaler may furnish to a retailer the next larger size. Samples must be clearly marked 'Sample—Not for resale'. Nothing in this section allows for any sample to be sold or provided to any employees under the age of ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen or to a retailer's customers. The producer or wholesaler shall remove all bottles at the conclusion of the sampling. For purposes of this section, the term 'brand' is defined as provided under 27 C.F.R. Section 6.11."

F. Section 61-4-520(4) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(4) The applicant is ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen years of age or older."

G. Section 61-4-580(A)(1) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(1) sell beer or wine to a person under ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen years of age;"

H. Section 61-4-745 of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"Section 61-4-745. (A) Subject to the provisions of Section 61-4-747, a person who is at least ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen years of age and who is a legal resident of this State, may cause to be shipped or transported from a manufacturer of wine up to twenty-four bottles of wine each month for his own consumption or use, and not for resale, into and out of this State without the necessity of acquiring any permits or licenses or other forms of public or private authorization except for the payment of appropriate taxes.

(B) All containers of wine shipped directly to a resident in this State must be labeled conspicuously with the words 'CONTAINS ALCOHOL: SIGNATURE OF PERSON AGE ~~21~~ 18 OR OLDER REQUIRED FOR DELIVERY'."

I. Section 61-4-747(A) and (C)(2) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(A) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, rule, or regulation to the contrary, a manufacturer of wine located within this State or outside this State that holds a wine producer and blenders basic permit issued in accordance with the Federal Alcohol Administration Act and obtains an out-of-state shipper's license, as provided in this section, may ship up to twenty-four bottles of wine each month directly to a resident of this State who is at least ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen years of age for such resident's personal use and not for resale.

(2) ensure that all containers of wine shipped directly to a resident in this State are labeled conspicuously with the words 'CONTAINS ALCOHOL: SIGNATURE OF PERSON AGE ~~21~~ 18 OR OLDER REQUIRED FOR DELIVERY';"

J. Section 61-4-748(A)(14) of the 1976 Code, as added by Act 60 of 2021, is amended to read:

"(14) tastings and sales shall not be offered or made to, or allowed to be offered, made to, or consumed by an intoxicated person or a person who is under the age of ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen."

K. Section 61-4-960(A)(10) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(10) a sample shall not be offered to, or allowed to be consumed by, an intoxicated person or a person under the age of ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen years. A person tasting a sample may not be allowed to loiter on the store premises;"

L. Section 61-4-1515(A)(2) and (8) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(2) sales shall not be offered or made to, or allowed to be offered, made to, or consumed by an intoxicated person or a person who is under the age of ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen;

(8) a brewery must provide department or DAODAS approved alcohol enforcement training for the employees who serve beer on the permitted premises to consumers for on-premises consumption, so as to prevent and prohibit unlawful sales, transfer, transport, or consumption of beer by persons who are under the age of ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen or who are intoxicated; and"

M. Section 61-4-1920(A)(2) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(2) requiring the purchaser to sign a statement attesting to the accuracy of the purchaser's information, acknowledging that, unless otherwise permitted by law, it is unlawful to transfer beer to a person under the age of ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen, and that, unless otherwise permitted by law, the beer in the keg will not be consumed by a person under the age of ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen; and"

N. Section 17-22-520(C)(1) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(1) purchase or possession of beer or wine by a person under the age of ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen pursuant to Section 63-19-2440;"

O. Section 63-19-2440 of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"Section 63-19-2440. (A) It is unlawful for a person under the age of ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen to purchase, attempt to purchase, consume, or knowingly possess beer, ale, porter, wine, or other similar malt or fermented beverage. Possession is prima facie evidence that it was knowingly possessed. Notwithstanding another provision of law, if the law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that a person is under age ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen and has consumed alcohol, the law enforcement officer or the person may request that the person submit to any available alcohol screening test using a device approved by the State Law Enforcement Division. A person who violates the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, must be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than two hundred dollars or must be imprisoned for not more than thirty days, or both.

(B) A person who violates the provisions of this section also is required to successfully complete a DAODAS approved alcohol prevention education or intervention program. The program must be a minimum of eight hours and the cost to the person may not exceed one hundred fifty dollars.

(C) A person eighteen years of age and over lawfully employed to serve or remove beer, wine, or alcoholic beverages in establishments licensed to sell these beverages is not considered to be in unlawful possession of the beverages during the course and scope of his duties as an employee. The provisions of this subsection do not affect the requirement that a bartender must be at least ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen years of age.

(D) This section does not apply to an employee lawfully engaged in the sale or delivery of these beverages in an unopened container.

(E) The provisions of this section do not apply to a student who:

(1) ~~is eighteen years of age or older~~ Reserved;

(2) is enrolled in an accredited college or university and a student in a culinary course that has been approved through review by the State Commission on Higher Education;

(3) is required to taste, but not consume or imbibe, any beer, ale, porter, wine, or other similar malt or fermented beverage as part of the required curriculum; and

(4) tastes a beverage pursuant to item (3) only for instructional purposes during classes that are part of the curriculum of the accredited college or university.

The beverage must remain at all times in the possession and control of an authorized instructor of the college or university who must be ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen years of age or older. Nothing in this subsection may be construed to allow a student under the age of ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen to receive any beer, ale, porter, wine, or other similar malt or fermented beverage unless the beverage is delivered as part of the student's required curriculum and the beverage is used only for instructional purposes during classes conducted pursuant to the curriculum.

(F) The provisions of this section do not apply to a person under the age of ~~twenty-one~~ eighteen who is recruited and authorized by a law enforcement agency to test an establishment's compliance with laws relating to the unlawful transfer or sale of beer or wine to a minor. The testing must be under the direct supervision of a law enforcement agency, and the agency must have the person's parental consent."

H. 4776--AMENDED AND ORDERED TO THIRD READING

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 4776 -- Reps. Willis, McCravy, Thayer, Bailey, Wooten, B. Cox, McGarry, Magnuson, Pope, Taylor, G. R. Smith, Gilliam, Jones, M. M. Smith, Trantham, Erickson, Huggins, Long, Hiott, Burns, May, Haddon, Oremus, Bennett, Daning, T. Moore, Chumley, Nutt, Hyde, Dabney, McCabe, Bryant, Forrest, Hixon, J. E. Johnson, Lucas, Morgan and D. C. Moss: A BILL TO AMEND THE CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976, TO ENACT THE "MEDICAL ETHICS AND DIVERSITY ACT" BY ADDING CHAPTER 139 TO TITLE 44 SO AS TO SET FORTH FINDINGS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY REGARDING THE RIGHT OF CONSCIENCE IN THE HEALTH CARE INDUSTRY; TO DEFINE CERTAIN TERMS; TO AUTHORIZE MEDICAL PRACTITIONERS, HEALTH CARE INSTITUTIONS, AND HEALTH CARE PAYERS NOT TO PARTICIPATE IN HEALTH CARE SERVICES THAT VIOLATE

THE PRACTITIONER'S OR ENTITY'S CONSCIENCE AND TO PROTECT THESE INDIVIDUALS AND ENTITIES FROM CIVIL, CRIMINAL, OR ADMINISTRATIVE LIABILITY AND FROM DISCRIMINATION FOR EXERCISING THEIR PERSONAL RIGHT OF CONSCIENCE, WITH EXCEPTIONS; TO CREATE A PRIVATE RIGHT OF ACTION FOR MEDICAL PRACTITIONERS, HEALTH CARE INSTITUTIONS, AND HEALTH CARE PAYERS FOR VIOLATION OF THE CHAPTER; AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES.

The Committee on Judiciary proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 4776 (COUNCIL\VR\4776C001.CC.VR22), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

/ SECTION 1. This act may be known and cited as the "Medical Ethics and Diversity Act".

SECTION 2. Title 44 of the 1976 Code is amended by adding:

"CHAPTER 139

Medical Ethics and Diversity Act

Section 44-139-10. (A) The General Assembly finds that the right of conscience is a fundamental and unalienable right. It was central to the founding of the United States, has been deeply rooted in our Nation's history and tradition for centuries, and has been central to the practice of medicine, through the Hippocratic Oath, for millennia.

(B) Despite its preeminent importance, however, threats to the right of conscience of medical practitioners, health care institutions, and health care payers have become increasingly more common and severe in recent years. The swift pace of scientific advancement and the expansion of medical capabilities, along with the mistaken notion that medical practitioners, health care institutions, and health care payers are mere public utilities, promise only to make the current crisis worse, unless something is done to restore conscience to its rightful place.

(C) With this purpose in mind, the General Assembly declares that it is the public policy of the State of South Carolina to protect the right of conscience for medical practitioners, health care institutions, and health care payers.

(D) As the right of conscience is fundamental, no medical practitioner, health care institutions, and health care payers should be compelled to participate in or pay for any medical procedure or prescribe or pay for any medication to which the practitioner or entity objects on the basis of conscience, whether such conscience is informed by religious, moral, or ethical beliefs or principles.

(E) It is the purpose of this chapter to protect medical practitioners, health care institutions, and health care payers from discrimination, punishment, or retaliation as a result of any instance of conscientious medical objection.

Section 44-139-20. For the purposes of this chapter:

(1) 'Conscience' means the religious, moral, or ethical beliefs or principles held by any medical practitioner, health care institutions, and health care payers. Conscience with respect to institutional entities or corporate bodies, as opposed to individual persons, is determined by reference to that entity or body's governing documents including, but not limited to, any published religious, moral, or ethical guidelines or directives; mission statements; constitutions; articles of incorporation; bylaws; policies; or regulations.

(2) 'Disclosure' means a formal or informal communication or transmission, but does not include a communication or transmission concerning policy decisions that lawfully exercise discretionary authority unless the medical practitioner providing the disclosure or transmission reasonably believes that the disclosure or transmission evinces:

(a) any violation of any law, rule, or regulation;

(b) any violation of any standard of care or other ethical guidelines for the provision of any health care service; or

(c) gross mismanagement, a gross waste of funds, an abuse of authority, or a substantial and specific danger to public health or safety.

(3) 'Discrimination' means any adverse action taken against, or any threat of adverse action communicated to, any medical practitioner, health care institutions, and health care payers as a result of the practitioner's or entity's decision to decline to participate in a health care service on the basis of conscience. Discrimination includes, but is not limited to, termination of employment; demotion from current position; adverse administrative action; increased administrative duties; refusal of staff privileges; refusal of board certification; loss of career specialty; reduction of wages, benefits, or privileges; refusal to award a grant, contract, or other program; refusal to provide residency training opportunities; denial, deprivation, or disqualification of licensure; withholding or disqualifying from financial aid and other assistance; impediments to creating any health care institution or payer or expanding or improving said health care institution or payer; impediments to acquiring, associating with, or merging with any other health care institution or payer; the threat thereof with regard to any of the preceding; or any other penalty, disciplinary, or retaliatory action, whether executed or threatened. For the purposes of this chapter, 'discrimination' does not include reassignment to a comparable role for which the employee is duly qualified, if under the same working conditions and without pecuniary impact to the practitioner.

(4) 'Health care service' means medical care provided to any patient at any time over the entire course of treatment. This includes, but is not limited to, examination; testing; diagnosis; dispensing and/or administering any drug, medication, or device; psychological therapy or counseling; research; prognosis; therapy; any other care or necessary services performed or provided by any medical practitioner.

(5) 'Health care institution' means any public or private hospital, clinic, medical center, physician organization, professional association, ambulatory surgical center, private physician's office, pharmacy, nursing home, medical school, nursing school, medical training facility, or any other entity or location in which health care services are performed on behalf of any person. Health care institutions may include, but are not limited to, organizations, corporations, partnerships, associations, agencies, networks, sole proprietorships, joint ventures, or any other entity that provides health care services.

(6) 'Health care payer' means any employer, health plan, health maintenance organization, insurance company, management services organization, or any other entity that pays for, or arranges for the payment of, any health care service provided to any patient, whether that payment is made in whole or in part, and that either:

(a) is a heath care sharing ministry as defined in 26 U.S.C. Section 5000A(d)(2)(B)(ii); or

(b) holds itself out to the public as religious, states in its governing documents that it has a religious purpose or mission, and has internal operating policies or procedures that implement its religious beliefs.

(7) 'Medical practitioner' means any person or individual who may be or is asked to participate in any health care service. This includes, but is not limited to, doctors, nurse practitioners, physician's assistants, nurses, nurses' aides, allied health professionals, medical assistants, pharmacists, pharmacy technicians, medical school faculty and students, nursing school faculty and students, psychology and counseling faculty and students, medical researchers, laboratory technicians, counselors, or social workers.

(8) 'Participate' in a health care service means to provide, perform, assist with, facilitate, counsel for, advise with regard to, admit for the purposes of providing, or take part in providing, any health care service or any form of such service.

(9) 'Pay' or 'payment' means to pay for, contract for, arrange for the payment of (whether in whole or in part), reimburse, or remunerate.

Section 44-139-30. (A) A medical practitioner, health care institutions, and health care payers has the right not to participate in or pay for any health care service which violates the practitioner's or entity's conscience.

(B) No medical practitioner, health care institutions, and health care payers may be civilly, criminally, or administratively liable for exercising the practitioner's or entity's right of conscience with respect to a health care service. No health care institution may be civilly, criminally, or administratively liable for any claims related to or arising out of the exercise of conscience rights protected by this chapter by a medical practitioner employed, contracted, or granted admitting privileges by the health care institution.

(C) No medical practitioner, health care institutions, and health care payers may be discriminated against in any manner as a sole result of the practitioner's or entity's decision to decline to participate in a health care service on the basis of conscience.

(D) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter to the contrary, a religious medical practitioner, health care institutions, and health care payers that holds itself out to the public as religious, states in its governing documents that it has a religious purpose or mission, and has internal operating policies or procedures that implement its religious beliefs, has the right to make employment, staffing, contracting, and admitting privilege decisions consistent with its religious beliefs.

(E) Nothing in this chapter may be construed to override either the requirement to provide emergency medical treatment to all patients as set forth in 42 U.S.C. Section 1395dd or any other federal law or regulation.

(F) Exercise of the right of conscience is limited to conscience-based objections to a particular health care service. This section may not be construed to waive or modify any duty a health care practitioner, health care institutions, and health care payers may have to provide other medical services that do not violate the practitioner's, institution's, or payer's conscience.

(G) A medical practitioner exercising his right of conscience to abstain from providing certain health care services pursuant to this chapter may:

(1) refer the patient to;

(2) transfer the patient to; or

(3) provide information to the patient about other medical practitioners or health care institutions who they reasonably believe may offer the health care service that the medical practitioner or health care institution does not to permit, perform, or participate in because of a conscience-based objection to a health care service.

Section 44-139-40. (A) No medical practitioner may be discriminated against in any manner because the medical practitioner:

(1) provided, caused to be provided, or is about to provide or cause to be provided to the practitioner's employer, the Attorney General of South Carolina, the Department of Health and Environmental Control, the South Carolina Board of Medical Examiners, any state agency charged with protecting health care rights of conscience, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office of Civil Rights, or any other federal agency charged with protecting health care rights of conscience information relating to any violation of, or any act or omission the medical practitioner reasonably believes to be a violation of, any provision of this chapter;

(2) testified or is about to testify in a proceeding concerning such violation;

(3) assisted or participated, or is about to assist or participate, in such a proceeding; or

(4) refused to participate in an abortion.

(B) Unless the disclosure is specifically prohibited by law, no medical practitioner may be discriminated against in any manner because the medical practitioner disclosed any information that the medical practitioner reasonably believes evinces:

(1) any violation of any law, rule, or regulation;

(2) any violation of any standard of care or other ethical guidelines for the provision of any health care service; or

(3) gross mismanagement, a gross waste of funds, an abuse of authority, or a substantial and specific danger to public health or safety.

(C) A medical practitioner shall disclose his objection to a health care service to his employer and the entity where the health care service is to be performed within a reasonable amount of time from when he knew or should have known that such a service may be performed. A health care institution or employer shall make every reasonable effort to properly document the objection status of a disclosing practitioner.

(D) No provision of this chapter shall be construed as to limit an employer's or contractee's authority to make employment, staffing, contracting, disciplinary, credentialing, privileging, or other related decisions for reasons that are not directly related to individual expressions of conscience that are expressly protected by this chapter.

Section 44-139-50. (A) A medical practitioner or health care institution may, pursuant to Section 1-13-90, file a complaint with the State Human Affairs Commission for any alleged violation of any provision of this chapter.

(B) The State Human Affairs Commission must investigate reports of alleged violations of this chapter. If the State Human Affairs Commission finds that a respondent has engaged in an unlawful discriminatory practice pursuant to this chapter, the State Human Affairs Commission will assist respondent with appropriate corrective action. If, despite assistance, corrective action is not satisfactory, the State Human Affairs Commission shall consult other public officers as the Commission deems proper regarding options to overcome the effects of such violations. At a minimum, the State Human Affairs Commission must provide a copy of its report to:

(1) the Director of the Department of Health and Environmental Control, if the respondent is a health care facility;

(2) the Director of the Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation, if the respondent is a medical practitioner.

Section 44-139-60. The licensing and regulation of medical practitioners and the provision of health care services, as defined in Section 44-139-20, is expressly preempted by the State. A county, municipality, or other political subdivision may not adopt or enforce an ordinance, resolution, rule, or policy that restricts, limits, controls, directs, or otherwise interferes with the type and scope of health care services provided by a medical practitioner or the professional conduct and judgment of a medical practitioner when providing health care services.

Section 44-139-70. A health care practitioner may not be scheduled for or assigned to directly or indirectly perform, facilitate, or participate in an abortion unless the practitioner first affirmatively consents in writing to perform, facilitate, or participate in the abortion."

SECTION 3. Section 44-41-50 of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"Section 44-41-50. ~~(a)~~(A) No physician, nurse, technician, medical student, or other employee of a hospital, clinic or physician shall be required to recommend, perform or assist in the performance of an abortion if he advises the hospital, clinic or employing physician in writing that he objects to performing, assisting or otherwise participating in such procedures. Such notice will suffice without specification of the reason therefor.

~~(b)~~(B) No physician, nurse, technician, medical student, or other person who refuses to perform or assist in the performance of an abortion shall be liable to any person for damages allegedly arising from such refusal.

~~(c)~~(C) No physician, nurse, technician, medical student, or other person who refuses to perform or assist in the performance of an abortion shall because of that refusal be dismissed, suspended, demoted, or otherwise disciplined or discriminated against by the hospital or clinic with which he is affiliated or by which he is employed. A civil action for damages or reinstatement of employment, or both, may be prosecuted by any person whose employment or affiliation with a hospital or clinic has been altered or terminated in violation of this chapter.

SECTION 4. If any section, subsection, paragraph, subparagraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional or invalid, such holding shall not affect the constitutionality or validity of the remaining portions of this act, the General Assembly hereby declaring that it would have passed this act, and each and every section, subsection, paragraph, subparagraph, sentence, clause, phrase, and word thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more other sections, subsections, paragraphs, subparagraphs, sentences, clauses, phrases, or words hereof may be declared to be unconstitutional, invalid, or otherwise ineffective.

SECTION 5. The repeal or amendment by this act of any law, whether temporary or permanent or civil or criminal, does not affect pending actions, rights, duties, or liabilities founded thereon, or alter, discharge, release or extinguish any penalty, forfeiture, or liability incurred under the repealed or amended law, unless the repealed or amended provision shall so expressly provide. After the effective date of this act, all laws repealed or amended by this act must be taken and treated as remaining in full force and effect for the purpose of sustaining any pending or vested right, civil action, special proceeding, criminal prosecution, or appeal existing as of the effective date of this act, and for the enforcement of rights, duties, penalties, forfeitures, and liabilities as they stood under the repealed or amended laws.

SECTION 6. This act takes effect upon approval by the Governor. /

POINT OF ORDER

Rep. HART raised the Point of Order that the motion to commit H. 3682 to the Labor, Commerce and Industry Committee was out of order. He stated that the Labor, Commerce and Industry Committee did not have appropriate subject matter jurisdiction over of the Bill and that the motion to commit was improper.

SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE POPE stated that H. 3682 had originally been referred to the Medical Military Public and Municipal Affairs Committee, but the House had voted, pursuant to House Rule 4.8, to commit the Bill to the Labor, Commerce and Industry Committee. He stated that Rule 4.8 allowed the House to commit or recommit any Bill before final decision. He overruled the Point of Order.

RECURRENCE TO THE MORNING HOUR

Rep. BALLENTINE moved that the House recur to the morning hour, which was agreed to.

The Resolution was adopted.

STATEMENT FOR JOURNAL

On March 30, 2022, H. 5190, a House Resolution recognizing and honoring Amplify Action, was introduced and adopted by the Body. At the time it was read across the Desk, a motion was made to add the roll of the House which was not objected to. It has been brought to our attention that this organization is not a bipartisan organization as stated in the resolution and had we known this, we would have objected to the motion and our names would not have been added. Since this Resolution has already been adopted by the House, the Rules prohibit us from removing our names as co-sponsors at this time.

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~
Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Leviticus 19:37: "You shall keep all my statutes and all my ordinances, and observe them: I am the Lord."

Let us pray. Blessed be You, O Lord as You watch over these Representatives and Staff as they go about doing the business of the State. Keep them always in Your loving care while keeping them and their families safe and well. Remember our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who serve in these Halls of Government. Bless our defenders of freedom and first responders as they protect us. Heal the wounds, those seen and those unseen, of our brave warriors who suffer and sacrifice for our freedom. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

H. 3010--ORDERED TO BE READ THIRD TIME TOMORROW

On motion of Rep. J. E. JOHNSON, with unanimous consent, it was ordered that H. 3010 be read the third time tomorrow.

H. 5000--AMENDED AND ORDERED TO THIRD READING

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 5000 -- Reps. Matthews, Caskey, Wooten and May: A BILL TO AMEND SECTION 44-63-140, AS AMENDED, CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976, RELATING IN PART TO THE RIGHT OF ADULT ADOPTED PERSONS TO ACCESS THEIR ORIGINAL BIRTH CERTIFICATES IN CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES, SO AS TO APPLY RETROACTIVELY.

The Committee on Judiciary proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 5000 (COUNCIL\VR\5000C001.CC.VR22), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

/ SECTION 1. Section 44-63-140(1)(b), of the 1976 Code, as last amended by Act 241 of 2018, is further amended to read:

"(b)(i) The original birth certificate and the evidence of adoption are not subject to inspection, except upon order of a court of competent jurisdiction or as provided in this subitem. ~~However,~~

(ii) A person eighteen years of age or older who was born in the State of South Carolina and who has had his original certificate of birth sealed due to an adoption may, upon written request to the state registrar, receive a copy of his original birth certificate and any evidence of the adoption held with the original record, regardless of the date on which the adoption was finalized, if:

(A) ~~the~~ a biological parent has completed a form consenting to the release of the original birth certificate or has provided notarized written consent to the release of the original birth certificate; or

(B) the adoptee brings to the department a certification from the department or an office of vital records in another jurisdiction certifying that a biological parent is deceased.

This provision allows adoptees who have reached the age of eighteen to access a copy of their original birth certificate and accompanying evidence of adoption with the consent of a biological parent, or if a biological parent is deceased, and applies retroactively, regardless of the date on which the adoption was finalized.

(iii) The form referenced in subitem (b)(ii) also must allow for ~~the~~ a biological parent to indicate contact preference and to consent to release of medical history pursuant to item (1)(c). The copy of the original birth certificate must be in a form that clearly indicates it is not a certified copy and that it may not be used for legal purposes. All procedures, fees, and waiting periods applicable to nonadopted citizens born in the State of South Carolina seeking copies of certificates of birth apply.

(iv) Whenever an adoptee who has reached the age of eighteen applies for a copy of his original birth certificate and accompanying evidence of adoption, the department shall redact from the copy all information as to any biological parent that has not given consent in accordance with this section, unless certified as deceased."

SECTION 2. This act takes effect twelve months after approval by the Governor. /

Renumber sections to conform.

Amend title to conform.

Rep. W. COX explained the amendment.

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~
Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Psalm 99:5: "Proclaim the greatness of the Lord and fall down before God's footstool: God is the Holy One."

Let us pray. You are indeed Holy, O God. You surround us with Your glory and mercy. In the splendor of Your heavenly light, You lead us through the darkness of this World. Provide these, Your people, with all the tools to accomplish what is laid before them. Bless and keep our defenders of freedom. Bestow Your grace on these women and men and their families with a safe and healthy weekend. We remember before You those people around the world who suffer from war. Bless our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who serve in this vineyard. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~
Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at noon.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from 1 Corinthians 12:4-6: "Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but the same God who activates all of them in everyone."

Let us pray. Dear God, You provide for each of these Representatives and Staff the Word that will carry them through the trials and temptations of this life. May we use the gifts You have given to them to go forth to produce great things for this State. Bless our defenders of freedom and first responders as they protect us. Bless our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who serve in this vineyard. Heal the wounds, those seen and those hidden, of our brave men and women who suffer and sacrifice for our freedom. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of Friday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

MOTION ADOPTED

Rep. GILLIARD moved that when the House adjourns, it adjourn in memory of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., which was agreed to.

SILENT PRAYER

The House stood in silent prayer for the family and friends of Karen Allen.

SILENT PRAYER

The House stood in silent prayer for those affected by the tornadoes today.

H. 3252--REQUESTS FOR DEBATE

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 3252 -- Reps. White, Blackwell, Whitmire and W. Cox: A BILL TO AMEND SECTION 23-9-25, CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976, RELATING TO THE V-SAFE PROGRAM, SO AS TO SIMPLIFY THE DEFINITION OF FIRE DEPARTMENTS AND THE PROJECTS ON WHICH GRANT FUNDS MAY BE EXPENDED, TO INCREASE GRANT AMOUNTS, AND TO SPECIFY PROJECTS FOR WHICH GRANTS MAY BE AWARDED; TO AMEND SECTION 38-7-20, AS AMENDED, RELATING TO INSURANCE PREMIUM TAXES, SO AS TO DIRECT ADDITIONAL FUNDS TO THE V-SAFE PROGRAM; TO AMEND SECTION 12-37-935, RELATING TO THE ADDITIONAL DEPRECIATION REIMBURSEMENT, SO AS TO DIRECT A PERCENTAGE OF SUCH FUNDS TO THE V-SAFE PROGRAM; AND TO AMEND SECTION 11-11-150, RELATING TO DEDUCTIONS FROM THE ESTIMATE OF REVENUES, SO AS TO MAKE A CONFORMING CHANGE.

The Labor, Commerce and Industry Committee proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3252 (COUNCIL\DG\ 3252C004.NBD.DG22):

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

/ SECTION 1. Section 23-9-25 of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"Section 23-9-25. (A) It is the purpose of this section to create the 'Volunteer Strategic Assistance and Fire Equipment Program' (V-SAFE) within the Division of State Fire Marshal.

(B) This section is contingent upon the General Assembly appropriating funds for the offering of grants ~~of not more than thirty thousand dollars~~ to eligible volunteer and combination fire departments for the purpose of protecting local communities and regional response areas from incidents of fire, hazardous materials, terrorism, and to provide for the safety of volunteer firefighters.

(C)(1) As contained in this section:

(a) '~~chartered~~ Fire department' means a public or governmental sponsored organization providing fire suppression activities with a minimum of a Class 9 rating from the Insurance Services Office;

(b) '~~chartered~~ Volunteer fire department' means a fire department whose personnel serve for no compensation or are paid on a per-call basis; and

~~(~~c) '~~chartered~~ Combination fire department' means a fire department with both members who are paid and members who serve as volunteer firefighters.

(2) ~~Chartered~~ Volunteer fire departments and ~~chartered~~ combination fire departments with a staffing level that is at least fifty percent volunteer are eligible to receive grants pursuant to this section. A ~~chartered~~ fire department that receives a grant must comply with the firefighter registration provisions of Act 60 of 2001 and sign the statewide mutual aid agreement with the South Carolina Emergency Management Division.

(D) ~~The amount of the grants awarded shall not exceed thirty thousand dollars per year for each eligible chartered fire department, with no matching or in-kind money required. A chartered~~ An eligible fire department may be awarded only one grant ~~in a three year period~~ annually.

(E) The grant money received by a ~~chartered~~ fire department must be used for the following purposes:

(1) fire suppression equipment;

(2) self-contained breathing apparatus;

(3) portable air refilling systems;

(4) hazardous materials spill leak detection, repair, and recovery equipment;

(5) protective clothing and equipment;

(6) new and used fire apparatus;

(7) incident command vehicles;
(8) special operations vehicles;
(9) training;
(10) rescue equipment;
(11) medical equipment;
(12) decontamination equipment; ~~and~~
(13) safety equipment;
(14) real properties or improvements thereto including upgrades and rehabilitations; and
(15) communications equipment.

(2) The peer-review panel shall consist of nine voting members who shall serve without compensation. Seven members must be fire chiefs from each of the seven regions of the State as defined by the State Fire Marshal. The Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee shall appoint fire chiefs from Regions 1, 2, and 7. The Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee shall appoint fire chiefs from Regions 3, 4, and 6. The Governor shall appoint one fire chief from Region 5 and one fire chief from the State at large. The State Fire Marshal also shall serve as a member. The President of the South Carolina State Firefighters' Association shall serve as a nonvoting member and chairman of the committee. The peer-review panel shall act as an oversight panel and act to ensure compliance, relevance, and adherence to the prescribed intent of the grants as set forth in this section.

(3) An applicant for grant money must submit justification for their project that provides details regarding the project and the project's budget, ~~the benefits to be derived from the project, the applicant's financial need, and how the project would affect the applicant's daily operations in protecting lives and property within their community. Each application must be judged on its own merit. The panelists must consider all expenses budgeted, including administrative or indirect costs, as part of the cost-benefit review. An applicant may demonstrate cost-benefit by describing, as applicable, how the grant award will:~~

~~(a) enhance a regional approach that is consistent with current capabilities and requests of neighboring organizations or otherwise benefits other organizations in the region;~~

~~(b) implement interoperable communications capabilities with other local, state, and federal first responders and other organizations;~~

~~(c) allow first responder organizations to respond to all hazards, including incidents involving seismic, atmospheric, or technological events, or chemical, biological, radiological, nuclear, or explosive incidents, as well as fire prevention and suppression.~~

~~Applications that best address the grant funding priorities shall score higher than applications that are inconsistent with the priorities. During the panel review process, panelists shall provide a subjective but qualitative judgment on the merit of each request.~~

~~Panelists shall evaluate and score the proposed project's clarity, including the project's budget detail, the organization's financial need, the benefits that would result from an award relative to the cost, and the extent to which the grant would enhance daily operations or how the grant will positively impact an organization's ability to protect life and property. Each element shall be equally important for purposes of the panelists' scores. Panelists must review each application in its entirety and rate the application according to the evaluation criteria.~~

~~Applications shall be evaluated by the panelists relative to the critical infrastructure within the applicant's area of first due response. Critical infrastructure includes any system or asset that, if attacked or impacted by a hazardous event, would result in catastrophic loss of life or catastrophic economic loss. Critical infrastructure includes public water or power systems, major business centers, chemical facilities, nuclear power plants, major rail and highway bridges, petroleum and natural gas transmission pipelines or storage facilities, telecommunications facilities, or facilities that support large public gatherings such as sporting events or concerts. Panelists shall assess the infrastructure and the hazards confronting the community to determine the benefits to be realized from a grant to the applicant.~~

Applicants that falsify their application, or misrepresent their organization in any material manner, shall have their applications deemed ineligible and referred to the Attorney General for further action, as the Attorney General deems appropriate.

(4) The project period for any award grant shall be twelve months from the date of the award. Any equipment purchased with the grant must meet all mandatory regulatory requirements, as well as, all state, national, and Department of Homeland Security adopted standards.

Award recipients must agree to:

(a) perform, within the designated period of performance, all approved tasks as outlined in the application;

(b) retain grant files and supporting documentation for three years after the conclusion and close out of the grant or any audit subsequent to close out;

(c) ensure all procurement actions are conducted in a manner that provides, to the maximum extent possible, open and free competition. In doing so, the recipient must follow its established procurement law when purchasing vehicles, equipment, and services with the grant. If possible, the recipient must obtain at least two quotes or bids for the items being procured and document the process used in the grant files. Sole-source purchasing is not an acceptable procurement method except in circumstances allowed by law;

(d) submit a performance report to the peer-review panel six months after the grant is awarded. If a grant's period of performance is extended for any reason, the recipient must submit performance reports every six months until the grant is closed out. At grant closeout, the recipient must report how the grant funding was used and the benefits realized from the award in a detailed final report. An accounting of the funds also must be included; and

(e) Any fire department that fails to submit the required progress and close-out reports shall be deemed ineligible for future grants until the required reports are submitted and for a period of not less than one grant cycle. Any fire department that is found to have fraudulently expended funds or misrepresented how the funds were utilized will be referred to the Attorney General for further action.

(f) make grant files, books, and records available, if requested by any person, for inspection to ensure compliance with any requirement of the grant program.

(5) A recipient that completes the approved scope of work prior to the end of the performance period, and still has grant funds available, may:

(a) use the greater of one percent of their award amount or three hundred dollars to continue or expand, the activities for which they received the award without submitting an application to amend the grant request;

(b) use excess funds to create or expand, a fire or injury prevention program. Excess funds above the amounts discussed in subitem (a) must be used for fire or injury prevention activities or returned to the program. In order to use excess funds for fire or injury prevention activities, a recipient must submit an amendment to its grant. The amendment request must explain fire or injury prevention efforts currently underway within the organization, where the use of excess funds would fit within the existing efforts, the target audience for the fire or injury prevention project and how this audience was identified, and how the effectiveness of the requested fire or injury prevention project will be evaluated;

(c) use a combination of subitems (a) and (b); ~~or~~

(d) submit an application to the peer-review panel to amend the grant request to redirect funds to another eligible project; or

(e) return excess funds to the program. To return the excess funds, a recipient must close out its award and state in the final performance report that the remaining funds are not necessary for the fulfillment of grant obligations. The recipient also must indicate that it understands that the funds will be unavailable for future expenses.

(6) The State Fire Marshal shall:

(a) develop a grant application package utilizing the established guidelines;

(b) establish and market a written and electronic version of the grant application package;

(c) provide an annual report of all grant awards and corresponding chartered fire department purchases to the Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, the Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, and the Governor;

(d) provide all administrative support to the peer-review panel; ~~and~~

(e) provide a grants web page for electronic applications; and

(f) determine the annual maximum amount of grant funding an eligible fire department may receive based on the total amount of grant funding received divided by the total number of eligible fire departments.

(G) Two percent of these funds may be awarded to the South Carolina State Firefighters' Association annually for the express purpose of establishing and maintaining a recruitment and retention program for volunteer firefighters. The association must apply for the grant to the peer-review panel.

(H) Up to three percent of these funds must be retained by the State Fire Marshal for the express purpose of funding costs associated with the administration of the program.

(I) The State Fire Marshal has the authority to receive and distribute to eligible fire departments all grant funds according to this section.

(J) Grant funds that are not distributed may be carried forward to the next fiscal year to be used for the same purposes."

SECTION 2. Section 38-7-20(B)(2) of the 1976 Code, as last amended by Act 149 of 2020, is further amended to read:

"(2) ~~one~~ four percent must be transferred to the V-SAFE program pursuant to Section 23-9-25;"

SECTION 3. A. Section 12-37-935(B) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(B) Annually as provided in Section 11-11-150, there is credited to the Trust Fund for Tax Relief an amount sufficient to reimburse all local taxing entities the amount of revenue not collected as a result of the additional depreciation more than eighty percent allowed for manufacturer's machinery and equipment pursuant to this section; however, one percent of such funds must be credited to the V-SAFE program, established pursuant to Section 23-9-25. No reimbursement is allowed for any depreciation allowed in connection with custom molds and dies used in the conduct of manufacturing electronic interconnection component assembly devices for computers and computer peripherals and equipment used in the manufacture of tires by manufacturers who employ more than five thousand employees in this State and have over one billion dollars in capital investment in this State. Reimbursements must be paid from the fund in the manner provided in Section 12-37-270, mutatis mutandis."

B. Section 11-11-150(A)(3) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(3) Section 12-37-935(B) for manufacturer's additional depreciation, including such amounts credited to the V-SAFE program;"

SECTION 4. This act takes effect July 1, 2022. /

Renumber sections to conform.

SPEAKER IN CHAIR

POINT OF ORDER

Rep. SIMRILL raised the Point of Order under Rule 8.3 that Amendment Nos. 700 thru 904 were dilatory and out of order. He stated that Section 4 of each of the Amendments was the only difference in the Amendments and simply changed the name of the school referenced by each Amendment.

Rep. KING argued contra and claimed each Amendment would have a different fiscal impact because each school was substantially different from all other schools.

The SPEAKER cited precedents from 2010 and 2015 concerning dilatory Amendments. He stated that Amendment Nos. 700 thru 904 were substantially the same and despite the very minor differences were clearly presented to delay the process. He stated Amendment Nos. 700 thru 904 were dilatory and violated Rule 8.3. He sustained the Point of Order and ruled Amendments 700 thru 904 out of order.

Reps. KING and MCDANIEL proposed the following Amendment No. 61 to H. 4608 (COUNCIL\WAB\4608C163.RT.WAB22), which was rejected:

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~
Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Psalm 20:9: "Give victory to the king, O Lord; answer us when we call."

Let us pray. Almighty God we give thanks to You for all the benefits of life provided to these Representatives and Staff. When we call upon You, send Your blessings to these people. Especially we ask from You, O Lord for Your care and the safety of Your people of Ukraine. Keep them in Your loving care. Bless our defenders of freedom as they protect us. Bless our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who serve in these Halls of Government. Heal the wounds, those seen and those hidden, of our brave warriors who suffer and sacrifice for our freedom. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

MOTION ADOPTED

Rep. HENEGAN moved that when the House adjourns, it adjourn in memory of George Allan Lomax, Jr., brother of Representative Parks, which was agreed to.

SILENT PRAYER

The House stood in silent prayer for family and friends of those involved in the Tanglewood Middle School shooting.

H. 4775--AMENDED AND ORDERED TO THIRD READING

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 4775 -- Reps. Hiott, Bailey, Carter, Erickson and Bradley: A BILL TO AMEND CHAPTER 60, TITLE 48, CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976, RELATING TO MANUFACTURER RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE RECOVERY AND RECYCLING OF CERTAIN ELECTRONIC WASTE, SO AS TO ADD AND CHANGE DEFINITIONAL TERMS; TO REQUIRE MANUFACTURERS OF COVERED DEVICES TO OFFER AN ELECTRONIC WASTE RECOVERY PROGRAM AND TO ESTABLISH MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS OF SUCH RECOVERY PROGRAMS; TO ESTABLISH TELEVISION AND COMPUTER MONITOR COLLECTION SITE CONVENIENCE STANDARDS BASED ON COUNTY POPULATION; TO REQUIRE TELEVISION AND COMPUTER MONITOR MANUFACTURERS TO SUBMIT AN ANNUAL MANUFACTURER RECOVERY PLAN TO THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND ENVIRONMENTAL CONTROL

FOR REVIEW AND APPROVAL AND TO ESTABLISH MINIMUM PLAN REQUIREMENTS; TO ALLOW MANUFACTURER CLEARINGHOUSES, ACTING ON BEHALF OF CERTAIN MANUFACTURERS, TO COMPLY WITH THE CHAPTER'S PROVISIONS AND TO ESTABLISH CERTAIN REQUIREMENTS APPLICABLE TO MANUFACTURER CLEARINGHOUSES; TO SET FORTH POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND ENVIRONMENTAL CONTROL; TO CREATE AND CHANGE CERTAIN FEES AND PENALTIES; TO PROVIDE FOR PERIODIC REVIEW OF THE CHAPTER'S PROVISIONS BY A STAKEHOLDER GROUP; AND FOR OTHER PURPOSES; AND TO REPEAL SECTION 14 OF ACT 129 OF 2014, AS AMENDED, RELATING TO A SUNSET PROVISION.

The Committee on Agriculture, Natural Resources and Environmental Affairs proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 4775 (COUNCIL\VR\4775C002.NBD.VR22), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

/ SECTION 1. A. Chapter 60, Title 48 of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"CHAPTER 60

South Carolina Manufacturer Responsibility and Consumer Convenience Information Technology Equipment Collection and Recovery Act.

Section 48-60-05. This chapter may be cited as the 'South Carolina Manufacturer Responsibility and Consumer Convenience Information Technology Equipment Collection and Recovery Act'.

Section 48-60-10. The General Assembly finds:

(1) Televisions, computing, and printing devices are critical to the development of this state's economy and the promotion of the quality of life of the citizens of this State.

(2) Many of these televisions, computing, and printing devices can be refurbished and reused, or recycled.

(3) Developing and implementing a system for recovering televisions, computing, and printing devices promotes resource conservation, public health, public safety, and economic prosperity.

(4) In order to carry out these purposes, the State must establish a comprehensive and convenient recovery program for televisions, computing, and printing devices based on individual manufacturer responsibility and shared responsibility among consumers, retailers, and government, and that the program must ensure that end-of-life televisions, computing, and printing devices are disposed of in a manner that promote resource conservation through the development of an effective and efficient system for collection and recycling, and to encourage manufacturers to offer convenient collection and recycling service to consumers at no charge.

Section 48-60-20. As used in this chapter:

(1) 'Collect' or 'collection' means to facilitate the delivery of a ~~covered device~~ covered television device or covered computer monitor device to a collection site included in the manufacturer's program, and to transport the ~~covered device~~ covered television device or covered computer monitor device for recovery.

(2) 'Collector' means a person who collects a covered television device or covered computer monitor device at any program collection site or one-day collection event and prepares them for transport.

(3) 'Computer device', often referred to as a 'personal computer' or 'PC', means a desktop, notebook or tablet computer, or a printing device as further defined below and used only in a residence, but does not mean an automated typewriter, mobile telephone, portable hand-held calculator, portable digital assistant (PDA), MP3 player, or other similar device. 'Computer device' does not include computer peripherals, commonly known as cables, mouse, or keyboard. 'Computer device' is further defined as follows in this item:

(a) 'Desktop computer' means an electronic, magnetic, optical, electrochemical, or other high-speed data processing device performing logical, arithmetic, or storage functions for general purpose needs that are met through interaction with a number of software programs contained therein, and that is not designed to exclusively perform a specific type of logical, arithmetic, or storage function or other limited or specialized application. Human interface with a desktop computer is achieved through a stand-alone keyboard, stand-alone monitor, or other display unit, and a stand-alone mouse or other pointing device, and is designed for a single user. A desktop computer has a main unit that is intended to be persistently located in a single location, often on a desk or on the floor. A desktop computer is not designed for portability and generally utilizes an external monitor, keyboard, and mouse with an external or internal power supply for a power source. Desktop computer does not include an automated typewriter or typesetter.

(b) 'Notebook computer' means an electronic, magnetic, optical, electrochemical, or other high-speed data processing device performing logical, arithmetic, or storage functions for general purpose needs that are met through interaction with a number of software programs contained therein, and that is not designed to exclusively perform a specific type of logical, arithmetic, or storage function or other limited or specialized application. Human interface with a notebook computer is achieved through a keyboard, video display greater than four inches in size, and mouse or other pointing device, all of which are contained within the construction of the unit that comprises the notebook computer; supplemental stand-alone interface devices typically also can be attached to the notebook computer. Notebook computers can use external, internal, or batteries for a power source. Notebook computer does not include a portable hand-held calculator, or a portable digital assistant or similar specialized device. A notebook computer has an incorporated video display greater than four inches in size and can be carried as one unit by an individual. A notebook computer is sometimes referred to as a laptop computer.

(c) 'Tablet computer' means an electronic, magnetic, optical, electrochemical, or other high-speed data processing device performing logical, arithmetic, or storage functions for general purpose needs that are met through interaction with a number of software programs contained therein, and that is not designed to exclusively perform a specific type of logical, arithmetic, or storage function or other limited or specialized application. Human interface with a tablet computer is achieved through a touch screen and video display screen greater than six inches in size (all of which are contained within the unit that comprises the tablet computer). Tablet computers may use an external or internal power source. Tablet computer does not include a portable hand-held calculator, a portable digital assistant, or a similar specialized device.

(d) 'Printing device' means desktop printers, multifunction printer copiers, and printer/fax combinations taken out of service from a residence that are designed to reside on a work surface, and include various print technologies, including without limitation laser and LED (electrographic), ink jet, dot matrix, thermal, and digital sublimation, and 'multifunction' or 'all-in-one' devices that perform different tasks including, without limitation, copying, scanning, faxing, and printing. Printers do not include floor-standing printers, printers with optional floor stand, point of sale (POS) receipt printers, household printers such as a calculator with printing capabilities or label makers, or non-stand-alone printers that are embedded into products that are not covered devices.

(4) 'Computer manufacturer' means a person who:

(a) manufactures a covered computer device under its own brand for sale or without affixing a brand;

(b) sells in this State a covered computer device produced by another supplier under its own brand or label;

(c) imports covered computer devices; provided that if a company from which an importer purchases a covered computer device has a presence or assets in the United States, that company must be considered the manufacturer; or

(d) manufactures a covered computer device, supplies a covered computer device to a person within a distribution network that includes wholesalers or retailers in this State, and benefits from the sale of a covered device through that distribution network.

~~(3)~~(5) 'Computer monitor manufacturer' means a person who:

(a) manufactures a covered computer monitor device under its own brand for sale or without affixing a brand;

(b) sells in this State a covered computer monitor device produced by another supplier under its own brand or label;

(c) imports covered computer monitor devices; provided that if a company from which an importer purchases a covered computer monitor device has a presence or assets in the United States, that company must be considered the manufacturer; or

(d) manufactures a covered computer monitor device, supplies a covered computer monitor device to a person within a distribution network that includes wholesalers or retailers in this State, and benefits from the sale of a covered device through that distribution network.

~~(4)~~(6) 'Consumer' means an occupant of a single detached dwelling unit or a single unit of a multiple dwelling unit who has used a covered device primarily for personal or home business use.

~~(5) 'Consumer electronic device stewardship program' means a recycling effort established by the representative organization or manufacturer of a covered television device or covered computer monitor device.~~

~~(6)~~(7) 'Covered computer device' means a desktop, laptop or notebook computer or a printing device marketed and intended for use by a consumer, but does not include a covered television device or covered computer monitor device.

~~(7)~~(8) 'Covered computer monitor device' means ~~a display device typically manufactured without an internal tuner that can display pictures and sound and is designed for use with a desktop computer~~ an electronic device that is a cathode-ray tube or flat panel display primarily intended to display information from a computer and is used by a consumer.

~~(8)~~(9) 'Covered devices' means a covered computer device, covered computer monitor device, and a covered television device marketed and intended for use by a consumer. 'Covered device', 'covered computer device', 'covered computer monitor device', and 'covered television device' do not include:

(a) a covered device that is a part of a motor vehicle or a component part of a motor vehicle assembled by, or for, a vehicle manufacturer or franchised dealer, including replacement parts for use in a motor vehicle;

(b) a covered device that is functionally or physically a part of, or connected to, or integrated within equipment or a system designed and intended for use in an industrial, governmental, commercial, research and development, or medical setting including, but not limited to, diagnostic, monitoring, control or medical products as defined under the federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, or equipment used for security, sensing, monitoring, antiterrorism, or emergency services purposes or equipment designed and intended primarily for use by professional users;

(c) a covered device that is contained within a clothes washer, clothes dryer, refrigerator, refrigerator and freezer, microwave oven, conventional oven or range, dishwasher, room air conditioner, dehumidifier, air purifier, water heater, or exercise equipment;

(d) telephones of any type including, but not limited to, mobile telephones, a personal digital assistant (PDA), a global positioning system (GPS), or a hand-held gaming device; or

(e) a plastic, wood, or composite case that once held a covered device or was a subassembly of a covered device but is void of any electronics, leaded glass, or metal electronic components.

~~(9)~~(10) 'Covered television device' means an electronic device that contains a ~~tuner that locks on to a selected carrier frequency and is capable of receiving and displaying television or video programming via broadcast, cable, or satellite including, but not limited to, a direct view or projection television with a viewable screen of nine inches or larger whose display technology is based on cathode ray tube, plasma, liquid crystal display, digital light processing, liquid crystal on silicon, silicon crystal reflective display, light emitting diode, or similar technology marketed and intended for use by a consumer primarily for personal purposes. The term does not include a covered computer device~~ cathode-ray tube or flat panel screen the size of which is greater than four inches when measured diagonally and is intended to receive video programming via broadcast, cable, satellite, Internet, or other mode of video transmission or to receive video from surveillance or other similar cameras marketed and intended for use by a consumer primarily for personal purposes.

~~(10)~~(11) 'Department' means the South Carolina Department of Health and Environmental Control.

(12) 'Manufacturer clearinghouse' means an entity that prepares and submits a manufacturer electronic waste program plan to the department, and oversees the manufacturer electronic waste program, on behalf of a group of two or more manufacturers cooperating with one another to collectively establish and operate an electronic waste program for the purpose of complying with this chapter and that collectively represent at least fifty-one percent of the manufacturers' total obligations pursuant to this chapter for a program year.

(13) 'Manufacturer electronic waste program' means any program established, financed, and operated by a manufacturer, individually or collectively as part of a manufacturer clearinghouse, to transport and subsequently recycle, in accordance with the requirements of this act, covered televisions and computer monitor devices collected at program collection sites and one-day collection events.

~~(11)~~(14) 'Manufacture's brands' means a manufacturer's name, brand name either owned or licensed by the manufacturer, or brand logo for which the manufacturer otherwise has legal responsibility.

(15) 'One-day collection event' means a one-day event used as a substitute for a program collection site pursuant to Section 48-60-56.

~~(12)~~(16) 'Person' means an individual, business entity, partnership, limited liability company, corporation, not-for-profit corporation, association, government entity, public benefit corporation, or public authority.

~~(13) 'Program' means a consumer electronic device stewardship program.~~

(17) 'Program collection site' means a physical location that is included in a manufacturer electronic waste program and at which covered television devices or covered computer monitor devices are collected and prepared for transport by a collector during a program year in accordance with the requirements of this chapter. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, 'program collection site' does not include a retail collection site.

~~(14)~~(18) 'Program year' means the calendar year.

~~(15) 'Representative organization' means an organization created to develop and oversee implementation of a statewide plan consisting of one or more consumer electronic device stewardship programs, both in~~

~~the State and in other jurisdictions that authorize such a representative organization.~~

~~(16)~~(19) 'Recover' means to reuse or recycle.

~~(17)~~(20) 'Recoverer' means a person that reuses or recycles a covered device.

(21) 'Retail collection site' means a private sector collection site operated by a retailer collecting on behalf of a manufacturer.

~~(18)~~(22) 'Retail sale' means the sale of a new product through a sales outlet, the Internet, mail order, or otherwise, whether or not the seller has a physical presence in this State. A retail sale includes the sale of new products.

~~(19)~~(23) 'Retailer' means a person engaged in retail sales.

~~(20)~~(24) 'Sale' or 'sell' means a transfer for consideration of title including, but not limited to, transactions conducted through sales outlets, catalogs, or the Internet or any other similar electronic means, but does not mean leases.

~~(21)~~(25) 'Television' means an electronic device that contains a ~~tuner that locks on to a selected carrier frequency and is capable of receiving and displaying television or video programming via broadcast, cable, or satellite including, but not limited to, a direct view or projection television with a viewable screen of nine inches or larger whose display technology is based on cathode ray tube, plasma, liquid crystal display, digital light processing, liquid crystal on silicon, silicon crystal reflective display, light emitting diode, or similar technology marketed and intended for use by a consumer primarily for personal purposes. The term does not include a covered computer device~~ cathode-ray tube or flat panel screen the size of which is greater than four inches when measured diagonally and is intended to receive video programming via broadcast, cable, satellite, Internet, or other mode of video transmission or to receive video from surveillance or other similar cameras.

~~(22)~~(26) 'Television manufacturer' means a person who:

(a) manufactures covered television devices under a brand that it licenses or owns for sale in this State;

(b) manufactures covered television devices without affixing a brand for sale in this State;

(c) resells into this State a covered television device under a brand it owns or licenses produced by other suppliers, including retail establishments that sell covered television devices under a brand the retailer owns or licenses;

(d) imports covered television devices; provided that if a company from which an importer purchases a covered device has a presence or assets in the United States, that company must be considered the manufacturer;

(e) manufactures covered television devices, supplies them to a person or persons within a distribution network that includes wholesalers or retailers in this State and benefits from the sale in this State of those covered television devices through the distribution network; or

(f) assumes the responsibilities and obligations of a television manufacturer ~~under~~ pursuant to this chapter. If the television manufacturer is one who manufactures, sells, or resells under a brand it licenses, the licensor or brand owner of the brand must not be included in the definition of television manufacturer ~~under~~ pursuant to items (a) or (c).

Section 48-60-30. A computer, computer monitor, or television manufacturer may not sell or offer to sell a covered device unless a label indicating the computer, computer monitor, or television manufacturer's brand is permanently affixed to the covered device in a readily visible location.

Section 48-60-40. (A) A computer manufacturer may not sell or offer to sell in this State a covered computer device unless the computer manufacturer provides a recovery program at no charge ~~or provides a financial incentive of equal or greater value, such as a coupon~~. A recovery program must:

(1) require a computer manufacturer to offer to collect from a consumer a covered computer device bearing a label as provided in Section 48-60-30; and

(2) make the collection service as convenient to a consumer as the purchase of a covered computer device from a computer manufacturer as follows:

(a) A computer manufacturer may utilize a mail-back system in which a consumer can return an end-of-life covered device by mail, including a system in which a consumer can go online, print a prepaid shipping label, package the product, and affix the prepaid label to the package for deposit with the United States Postal Service or other carrier selected by the computer manufacturer.

(b) If the computer manufacturer does not provide a mail-back system, the computer manufacturer must provide collection sites or collection events, or both, that are centrally located in a county, region, or other locations based on population. Computer manufacturers shall work in coordination with the department to determine an appropriate number of collection sites or collection events, or both.

(B) A recovery program may use existing collection and consolidation infrastructure for collecting covered devices, including retailers, recyclers, and reuse organizations.

(C) Computer manufacturers may work collectively and cooperatively to offer collection services to consumers.

(D) A recovery program must be described on a computer manufacturer's Internet website if a manufacturer maintains an Internet website.

(E) Collection events under this section must accept any covered computer device.

Section 48-60-51. (A) For program year 2023 and each year thereafter, no television manufacturer or computer monitor manufacturer shall sell or offer for sale a covered television device or covered computer monitor device in this State unless the television manufacturer or computer monitor manufacturer offers a manufacturer electronic waste program to transport and recycle, consistent with the requirements of this chapter, covered television devices and covered computer monitor devices collected at, and prepared for transport from, the program collection sites, and one-day collection events included in the program during the program year.

(B) A manufacturer can satisfy the requirements of this section either individually or collectively as part of a manufacturer clearinghouse.

(C) Each manufacturer electronic waste program must ensure the following, at a minimum:

(1) satisfaction of the convenience standard described in Section 48-60-56;

(2) instructions for counties and solid authorities serving one or more counties to file notice to participate in the program;

(3) transportation and subsequent recycling of the covered television devices and covered computer monitor devices collected at, and prepared for transport from, the program collection sites and one-day collection events included in the program during the program year; and

(4) submission of a report to the department by March 1, 2024, and by March first each year thereafter, which reports:

(a) the total weight of all covered devices transported from program collection sites and one-day collection events statewide during the preceding program year by category of device;

(b) the total weight of all covered devices transported from program collection sites and one-day collection events in each county in the State during the preceding program year by category of device.

(D) Each manufacturer electronic waste program shall make the instructions required pursuant to subsection (C)(2) available on its website within thirty days of the effective date of the act or no later than July 1, 2022, and the program shall provide a hyperlink to the website to the department for posting on the department's website.

(E) Nothing in this chapter prevents a manufacturer from accepting, through its recovery program, covered television devices and covered computer monitor devices collected through a curbside or drop-off collection program that is operated pursuant to a residential collection agreement between a third party and a unit of local government located within a county or solid waste authority serving one or more counties that has elected to participate in a manufacturer electronic waste program.

(F) Manufacturers of covered television devices and covered computer monitor devices are not financially responsible for transporting and consolidating covered devices collected from a collection program's drop-off location. Any drop-off location operating in program year 2023 or in subsequent years must be identified by the county or solid waste authority serving one or more counties in the annual written notice of election to participate in a manufacturer electronic waste program in accordance with Section 48-60-57 to be eligible for the subsequent program year.

(G) As part of their annual registration, a television or computer monitor manufacturer shall provide to the department the total weight of the manufacturer's covered television devices or covered computer monitor devices sold at retail in the United States and the total weight of covered devices collected and recycled in the State during the previous program year. A manufacturer's weight sold data is proprietary information of the manufacturer and may be shared with a manufacture clearinghouse.

Section 48-60-55. (A) On January 1, 2015, and annually thereafter, a television manufacturer or computer monitor manufacturer shall either:

(1) join a representative organization created by manufacturers of covered electronic devices to establish fair and reasonable policies to be applied in the State and to provide a plan to the department in accordance with this section; or

(2) notify the department of its intent to fulfill its obligations under this chapter by implementing a program under subsection (K).

(B) A representative organization shall submit a plan for the operation of a statewide consumer electronic device stewardship program described in this section to the department for approval annually. The initial plan must be submitted to the department by September 3, 2014, and annually ninety days before the beginning of the program year in subsequent years. The plan must include details on how one or more eligible companies or covered electronic device stewardship programs operating within the plan will:

(1) provide for the recycling of all used covered television devices and used covered computer monitor devices collected by participating local governments specified in the plan based on the proportionate membership of the representative organization;

(2) work with a representative organization, the department, and local government recycling representatives to provide recycling services of covered television devices and covered computer monitor devices and to provide consumers with information and educational materials regarding the program to promote the recycling and reuse of used covered television devices and used covered computer monitor devices;

(3) achieve environmentally sound management for covered television devices and covered computer monitor devices that are collected for reuse and recycling; and

(4) incorporate economic arrangements that minimize costs to participating manufacturers, consistent with Section 48-60-170.

(C) The representative organization plan must:

(1) document how the collection component of the plan was developed with input from local government recycling representatives and other stakeholders interested in electronics recycling, especially recycling of used covered television devices and used covered computer monitor devices;

(2) identify each manufacturer and local government participating in the consumer electronic device stewardship programs included in the representative organization plan and the brands of consumer electronic devices sold in the State that are covered by the programs;

(3) provide a mechanism for making the most current list of participating manufacturers available to the department;

(4) include incentives to ensure convenient mechanisms to collect used consumer electronic devices throughout the State; and

(5) explain why a disruption of commercial activity that may arise from implementation of the plan is consistent with fulfilling the intent of this chapter and provide sufficient information to allow the department to confirm the consistency of the plan with this chapter by review of the plan's financial and operational elements.

(D) Representative organization's annual plans must include, but not be limited to, the following:

(1) a list of collection programs and locations available to consumers in the State;

(2) a description of the methods used to collect, transport, and process used consumer electronic devices in the State;

(3) the results of a survey of county and municipal recycling representatives concerning the availability of opportunities for consumers to recycle covered electronic devices;

(4) samples of information awareness and educational materials provided to consumers of consumer electronic devices to promote reuse and recycling and collection opportunities for used devices that are available in the State;

(5) a list of participating companies for the most recent program year and the upcoming year;

(6) a list of contacts from all participating local governments who may be contacted by the department to confirm that their recycling needs are being met by manufacturers participating in the representative organization;

(7) a report of the organization's prior year's activities, including the amount of electronics collected for recycling in the State and the number and location of collection locations used during the prior year;

(8) a description of services provided to each of the local government participants including, but not limited to, collection event services and logistical support for electronics pick-up; and

(9) a list of manufacturers, as determined by the representative organization, failing to meet their individual recycling obligation as assigned by the representative organization and any shortfall penalties, pursuant to Section 48-60-160(E)(3). A manufacturer so reported to the department may elect to account for the shortfall in the next program year but only may elect this option once every three years. This does not preclude a representative organization from developing and implementing participation requirements that may otherwise exclude manufacturers from participating in the representative organization for failing to meet those participation requirements.

(E)(1) Not later than thirty calendar days after submission of the plan pursuant to subsection (B), the department shall determine whether or not to approve the plan. The department shall approve the plan for the establishment of a consumer electronic device stewardship program by the submitting representative organization if it meets the requirements of subsections (B) and (C). If the department finds activities included in the plan that do not fulfill those requirements, it shall specify in writing what the department believes to be the plan's deficiencies, promptly meet with the representative organization to discuss the department's concerns, and allow the representative organization at least thirty calendar days after the denial notice to submit a revised plan. If a revised plan is submitted, the department shall review and approve or disapprove the plan within thirty calendar days of submission.

(2) If the department disapproves a plan submitted pursuant to item (1), and the representative organization chooses not to submit a revised plan or the department disapproves the revised plan, the representative organization shall have the right to appeal pursuant to Section 44-1-60.

(3) If the plan is disapproved on appeal, the representative organization may resubmit a plan pursuant to item (1) which conforms with the guidance of the appellate opinion or member companies may comply with subsection (K).

(F) After the representative organization's plan is approved, the representative organization is responsible for maintaining continuous service to local governments specified in the plan provided by the participating consumer electronic device stewardship programs. The representative organization shall establish fair and reasonable policies for administration and operation.

(G) Manufacturers of covered television devices or covered computer monitor devices that are participating in a plan submitted pursuant to this section and subject to a recycling assessment may choose to fulfill their recycling assessment using a consumer electronic device stewardship program that meets the elements set forth in the approved representative organization plan.

(H) The department shall maintain a list of the names of manufacturers and eligible programs complying with the requirement of this chapter and the brands of consumer electronic devices that are covered by the consumer electronic device stewardship program and post this list on its website.

(I) A representative organization and the department shall confer with stakeholders at least quarterly to address compliance, efficiency, and best practices of the stewardship programs that implement the representative organization's plan.

(J)(1) Local governments that receive recycling services from stewardship programs participating in the representative organization's plan to recycle covered television devices and covered computer monitor devices must not charge the manufacturer or the representative operating the stewardship program for collection costs and shall offer the manufacturer or its representative other covered devices collected by a participating local government at no cost. Provided, this item does not obligate a local government to offer other covered devices collected by a participating local government at no cost once the representative organization's obligation within its plan to recycle covered television devices and covered computer monitor devices has been met during a program year.

(2) A representative organization shall provide the department and each local government recycling representative a point of contact for the organization, including email and phone number, to ensure communication and coordination among local governments, participating manufacturers, consumer electronic device stewardship programs and the representative organization.

(K)(1) If a television manufacturer or computer monitor manufacturer does not participate in a representative organization, the manufacturer annually shall recycle or arrange for the recycling of covered television devices and covered computer monitor devices in the amount of eighty percent of the weight of the covered television devices and covered computer monitor devices sold by the manufacturer in the State during the previous program year.

(2) The department shall notify each television manufacturer or computer monitor manufacturer of its recycling obligation by March fifteenth of each program year. A television manufacturer or computer monitor manufacturer shall provide the department information noted in item (3) to be used by the department to calculate each television and computer monitor manufacturer's recycling obligation under this subsection.

(3) A television or computer monitor manufacturer shall report to the department the total weight of the manufacturer's covered television devices or covered computer monitor devices sold at retail in the United States or in this State, if the information is available, and the total weight of covered devices collected and recycled in the State during the previous program year. A manufacturer's weight sold data is proprietary information of the manufacturer.

(L) A manufacturer may fulfill the requirements of this section either individually, in participation with other manufacturers, or through a representative organization. A recovery program may use existing collection and consolidation infrastructure for collecting covered devices, including local governments, retailers, recyclers, and reuse organizations.

(M) A manufacturer shall provide the department with contact information for the manufacturer's designated agent or employee whom the department may contact concerning the manufacturer's compliance with the requirements of this section.

(N) Manufacturers not identified as participating in a representative organization plan pursuant to subsection (B) of this section shall comply with the requirements of subsection (K).

(O) As used in this section, 'representative organization' means an organization created to develop and oversee implementation of a statewide plan consisting of one or more consumer electronic device stewardship programs, both in the State and in other jurisdictions that authorize such a representative organization.

Section 48-60-56. (A) Beginning in program year 2023, each manufacturer electronic waste program must offer collection sites in accordance with the following convenience standards for each county or solid waste authority serving one or more counties that elects to participate in the manufacturer electronic waste program during a given program year:

(1) one collection site in each county that has a population of less than one hundred thousand inhabitants;

(2) two collection sites in each county that has a population of at least one hundred thousand inhabitants and less than two hundred thousand inhabitants;

(3) three collection sites in each county that has a population of at least two hundred thousand inhabitants.

(B) For purposes of this section, county population must be determined using the most recent federal decennial census.

(C) a designated representative of a county or a solid waste authority serving one or more counties pursuant to the provisions of Section 48-60-57, that elects to participate in a manufacturer electronic waste program may enter into a written agreement with the operator of a manufacturer electronic waste program in order to:

(1) reduce or increase the number of collection sites in the county for the program year; provided, however, the agreement must be included in the manufacturer electronic waste program as required pursuant to Section 48-60-57(A);

(2) substitute a collection site in the county for four one-day collection events or a different number of such events as provided for in the written agreement; provided, however, the agreement must be included in the manufacturer electronic waste program as required pursuant to Section 48-60-57(A);

(3) substitute the location of a collection site in the county for the manufacturer electronic waste program with another location;

(4) substitute the location of a one-day collection event in the county with another location; or

(5) with the agreement of the applicable retailer, use a retail collection site as a program collection site.

(D) Retail collection sites are not considered a collection site for the purposes of the convenience standards established pursuant to this section unless otherwise agreed to in writing by the retailer, operators of the manufacturer electronic waste program, and the applicable county or solid waste authority serving one or more counties. If retailers agree to participate in a program collection site, then the retailer collection site does not have to collect all covered devices or register as a collector.

(E) Nothing in this chapter prohibits a retailer from collecting a fee for each covered device collected.

(F) Manufacturers may use retail collection sites for satisfying some or all of their obligations pursuant to Sections 48-60-51, 48-60-56, and 48-60-57.

Section 48-60-57. (A) Beginning in program year 2023, the designee of a county, including but not limited to a representative of a solid waste authority serving one of more counties, may elect to participate in a manufacturer electronic waste program by filing a written notice of election to participate in the program with the manufacturer electronic waste program and the department, by August 1, 2022, and by May first each year thereafter for the upcoming program year.

(B) A municipality with a population of over 17,000, as determined using the most recent federal decennial census, located within a county or solid waste authority serving one or more counties that elects not to participate in a manufacturer electronic waste program may coordinate with any participating county or solid waste authority serving one or more counties for inclusion in the participating county or solid waste authority's written notice of election to participate in a manufacturer electronic waste program and must utilize collection sites located in the participating county or solid waste authority.

(C) Any municipality included in a participating county or solid waste authority's written notice of election must utilize the proposed collections sites enumerated in the plan and those sites must be located within in the participating county or solid waste authority.

(D) The written notice must include a list of proposed collection locations to support the program and may include locations already providing similar collection services. The written notice also may include a list of registered recoverers that the county would prefer using for its collection sites or one-day events.

Section 48-60-58. (A) By November 1, 2022, for program year 2023, and by September first each year thereafter, each computer monitor and television manufacturer shall, individually or through a manufacturer clearinghouse, submit to the department a manufacturer electronic waste plan, which includes at a minimum, the following:

(1) contact information for the individual who will serve as the point of contact for the manufacturer electronic waste program;

(2) a list of each county that has elected to participate in the manufacturer electronic waste program during the program year;

(3) for each county, the location of each program collection site and one-day collection event included in the manufacturer electronic waste program for the program year;

(4) the recoverers that the program plans to use to transport and subsequently recycle covered television devices and covered computer monitor devices, with the updated list of recoverers to be provided to the department no later than December first preceding each program year;

(5) an explanation of any deviation from the applicable convenience standard as described in Section 48-60-56 for the program year, along with copies of all written agreements or confirmed electronic correspondence made pursuant to Section 48-60-56(C)(1) or (2); and

(6) if two or more manufacturers are participating in a manufacturer clearinghouse, certification that the methodology used for allocating responsibility for the transportation and recycling of covered television devices and covered computer monitor devices by manufacturers participating in the manufacturer clearinghouse for the program year will be in compliance with the allocation methodology established pursuant to Section 48-60-61.

(B)(1) Within sixty days of receiving a manufacturer electronic waste program plan, the department shall review and approve or disapprove the plan.

(2) If the department approves the plan, the manufacturer or manufacturer clearinghouse shall provide written notice of approval to the designated contact person for the program, and the program must be published on the department's website.

(3) If the department disapproves the plan, the manufacturer or manufacturer clearinghouse shall provide written notice to the designated contact person for the program listing the reasons for the disapproval. Within thirty days after the date of disapproval, the manufacturer or manufacturer clearinghouse shall submit a revised recovery plan to address the insufficiencies in the department's disapproval.

(C) Every manufacturer shall assume financial responsibility for carrying out its recovery program plan including, but not limited to, financial responsibility for providing the packaging materials necessary to prepare shipments of collected covered television devices and covered computer monitor devices in compliance with federal, state, and local requirements, as well as financial responsibility for bulk transportation and recycling of collected covered television devices and covered computer monitor devices.

(D) A county or solid waste authority serving one or more counties, that receives recycling services from a manufacturer electronic waste plan to recycle covered television devices and covered computer monitor devices must not charge the manufacturer, the clearinghouse, or the representative operating the program for collection costs and shall offer the manufacturer, the clearinghouse, or its representative other covered devices collected by a participating local government at no cost.

Section 48-60-59. (A) A manufacturer electronic waste program plan submitted by a manufacturer clearinghouse may take into account and incorporate individual plans or operations of one or more manufacturers that are participating in the manufacturer clearinghouse.

(B) If a manufacturer clearinghouse allocates responsibility to manufacturers for manufacturers' transportation and recycling of covered television devices and covered computer monitor devices during a program year as part of a manufacturer electronic waste program plan, the manufacturer clearinghouse shall identify the allocation methodology in the manufacturer recovery plan submitted to the department pursuant to Section 48-60-58. Any allocation of responsibility among manufacturers for the collection of covered devices must be in accordance with the allocation methodology established pursuant to Section 48-60-61.

(C) A manufacturer clearinghouse has no authority to enforce manufacturer compliance with the requirements of this chapter, including compliance with the allocation methodology set forth in a manufacturer electronic waste plan, but, upon prior notice to the manufacturer, shall refer any potential noncompliance to the department.

A manufacturer clearinghouse may develop and implement policies and procedures that exclude from participation in the manufacturer clearinghouse any manufacturers found by the department or a court of competent jurisdiction to have failed to comply with this chapter.

(D) A manufacturer may request the department review a manufacturer electronic waste program plan proposed by the clearinghouse. The department shall consider all factors submitted in the request for review in making its determination in accordance with Section 48-60-58(B).

Section 48-60-60. A computer, computer monitor, or television manufacturer is not liable for damages arising from information stored on a covered device collected from a consumer under the manufacturer's ~~recovery programs of this chapter~~ electronic waste program.

Section 48-60-61. (A) As used in this section:

(1) 'Adjusted total proportional responsibility' means the percentage calculated for each participating manufacturer for a program year pursuant to subsection (F).

(2) 'Market share' means the percentage that results from dividing:

(a) the product of the total weight reported for a covered television device or covered computer monitor device by a manufacturer, for the calendar year two years before the applicable program year, pursuant to Section 48-60-51(G); by

(b) the product of the total weight reported for that covered television device or covered computer monitor device category by all manufacturers, for the calendar year 2 years before the applicable program year, pursuant to Section 48-60-51(G).

(3) 'Participating manufacturer' means a manufacturer that a manufacturer clearinghouse has listed, pursuant to subsection (C), as a participant in the manufacturer clearinghouse for a program year.

(4) 'Return share' means the percentage, by weight, of each covered television device or computer monitor device category that is returned to the program collection sites and one-day collection events operated by or on behalf of either a manufacturer clearinghouse or one or more of its participating manufacturers during the calendar year two years before the applicable program year, as reported to the department pursuant to Section 48-60-51; except that, for program years 2023 and 2024, 'return share' means the percentage, by weight, of each covered television device or computer monitor device category that is estimated by the manufacturer clearinghouse to be returned to those sites and events during the applicable program year, as reported to the department pursuant to subsection (B).

(5) 'Unadjusted total proportional responsibility' means the percentage calculated for each participating manufacturer pursuant to subsection.

(B) A manufacturer clearinghouse shall provide the department with a statement of the return share for each plan pursuant to Section 48-60-58.

(C) If a manufacturer clearinghouse submits to the department a manufacturer electronic waste program plan pursuant to Section 48-60-58, the manufacturer clearinghouse shall include in the plan a list of manufacturers that have agreed to participate in the manufacturer clearinghouse for the upcoming program year.

(D) For each program year, the department in collaboration with the manufacturer clearinghouse shall calculate the unadjusted total proportional responsibility of each participating manufacturer as follows:

(1) Multiplying the participating manufacturer's market share for the covered television device or covered computer monitor device category by the return share for the covered television device or covered computer monitor device category, to arrive at the category-specific proportional responsibility of the participating manufacturer for the covered television device or covered computer monitor device category.

(2) Then, for each participating manufacturer, add the category-specific proportional responsibilities of the participating manufacturer calculated pursuant to item (1), to arrive at the participating manufacturer's unadjusted total proportional responsibility.

(E) If the sum of all unadjusted total proportional responsibilities of a manufacturer clearinghouse's participating manufacturers for a program year accounts for less than one hundred percent of the return share for that year, the department shall divide the unallocated return share among participating manufacturers in proportion to their unadjusted total proportional responsibilities, to arrive at the adjusted total proportional responsibility for each participating manufacturer.

(F) A manufacturer may use retail collection sites to satisfy some or all of the manufacturer's responsibilities including, but not limited to, the manufacturer's transportation and recycling of collected covered television devices and covered computer monitor devices pursuant to any allocation methodology established by this chapter. Nothing in this chapter prevents a manufacturer from using retail collection sites to satisfy any percentage of the manufacturer's total responsibilities including, but not limited to, the manufacturer's transportation and recycling of collected covered television devices and covered computer monitor devices pursuant to any allocation methodology established by this chapter or by administrative regulation.

Section 48-60-62. Counties, solid waste authorities serving one or more counties, and municipalities that fully comply with the storage and packaging requirements of this chapter shall be exempt from liability upon the proper removal of covered devices from the solid waste facilities.

Section 48-60-70. (A) A retailer only may sell or offer to sell a covered device that:

(1) bears a manufacturer label as provided in Section 48-60-30; and

(2) is manufactured by a manufacturer that offers ~~a recovery~~ an electronic waste program as provided in Sections 48-60-40, ~~48-60-50, and~~ 48-60-55, and 48-60-51.

(B) The requirements of this section do not apply to a television sold by a retailer for less than one hundred dollars.

Section 48-60-80. A retailer may not be liable for damages arising from information stored on any covered device collected from a consumer under the manufacturer's ~~recovery~~ electronic waste program.

Section 48-60-90. (A) After July 1, 2011, a consumer must not knowingly place or discard a covered device or subassemblies of a covered device in a waste stream that is to be disposed of in a solid waste landfill.

(B) An owner or operator of a solid waste landfill must not, at the gate, knowingly accept, for disposal, loads containing more than an incidental amount of covered devices.

(C) The owner or operator of a solid waste landfill must post, in a conspicuous location at the landfill, a sign stating that covered devices or any components of covered devices are not accepted for disposal at the landfill.

(D) The owner or operator of a solid waste landfill must notify, in writing, all haulers delivering solid waste to the landfill that covered devices or any components of covered devices are not accepted for disposal at the landfill.

Section 48-60-100. The department shall provide information to the public on its Internet website regarding the provisions of the chapter and the prohibition on disposing of covered devices in a solid waste landfill. The department also shall provide information about ~~recovery~~ electronic waste programs available in the State on the department's Internet website. The website must include information about collection options available, the definition of covered devices, the proper methods for disposal of covered devices, the proper methods for disposal of noncovered devices, and links to relevant portions of computer or television manufacturer's Internet websites.

Section 48-60-110. The department may conduct audits and inspection of a computer or television manufacturer, retailer, or recoverer to determine compliance with this chapter's provisions, and may establish by regulation administrative fines for violations of this chapter.

Section 48-60-120. Financial and proprietary information submitted to the department pursuant to this ~~act~~ chapter is exempt from public disclosure.

Section 48-60-130. The department shall include in its annual solid waste report information provided by manufacturers on recovery programs offered pursuant to this chapter.

Section 48-60-140. (A) Covered devices must be recovered in a manner that complies with all applicable federal, state, and local requirements. Collection and storage of covered devices must be performed in accordance with best management practices.

(B) All recycling or reuse facilities used by recoverers of covered electronic devices must, at a minimum, achieve and maintain third-party accredited certification. Acceptable certification programs include the Responsible Recycling (R)(2) Practices and e-Stewards. Other certification programs recognized by the department or the United States Environmental Protection Agency also are acceptable. Manufacturers of covered electronic devices shall ensure that recycling or reuse facilities used as part of their recovery programs meet this requirement. Local governments and other consolidators of covered electronic devices shall ensure that the material they collect is transferred to a recycling or reuse facility that meets this requirement.

Section 48-60-141. (A) By November 1, 2022, and by November 1 of each year thereafter for that program year, a person acting as a collector under a manufacturer electronic waste program shall register with the department by completing and submitting to the department the registration form prescribed by the department. The registration form prescribed by the department must include, without limitation, the address of each location at which the collector accepts covered devices.

(B) The department may deny a registration under this section if the collector or any employee or officer of the collector has a history of:

(1) repeated violations of federal, state, or local laws, regulations, standards, or ordinances related to the collection, recovering, or other management of covered devices;

(2) conviction in this State or another state of any crime which is a felony under the laws of this State, or conviction of a felony in a federal court; or conviction in this State or another state or federal court of any of the following crimes: forgery, official misconduct, bribery, perjury, or knowingly submitting false information under any environmental law, regulation, or permit term or condition; or

(3) gross carelessness or incompetence in handling, storing, processing, transporting, disposing, or otherwise managing covered devices.

(C) The department shall post on the department's website a list of all registered collectors.

(D) Manufacturers and recoverers acting as collectors shall so indicate on their registration under Section 48-60-51 or Section 48-60-142 of this chapter.

(E) Each collector that operates a program collection site or one-day event shall ensure that the collected covered devices are sorted and loaded in compliance with local, State, and federal law. In addition, at a minimum, the collector shall also comply with the following requirements:

(1) Covered television devices and covered computer monitor devices must be accepted at program collection sites or one-day collection events unless otherwise provided in this chapter;

(2) Covered television devices and covered computer monitor devices must be kept separate from other material and must:

(a) be packaged in a manner to prevent breakage;

(b) be loaded onto pallets and secured with plastic wrap or in pallet-sized bulk containers prior to shipping; and

(c) weigh on average per collection site eighteen thousand pounds per shipment, and if not then the recoverer may charge the collector a prorated charge on the shortfall in weight, not to exceed six hundred dollars.

(3) Covered devices must be sorted into at least the following categories:

(a) covered computer monitor devices;

(b) covered television devices;

(c) all other covered devices that are part of the manufacturer program;

(d) any other covered device that is not part of the manufacturer program that the collector has arranged to have picked up with covered devices and for which a financial arrangement has been made to cover the recycling costs outside of the manufacturer program; and

(e) any other covered device that is not part of the manufacturer program that the collector has arranged to have picked up with covered devices and for which a financial arrangement has been made to cover the recycling costs outside of the manufacturer program.

(4) Containers holding the covered devices must be structurally sound for transportation.

(5) Each shipment of covered devices from a program collection site or one-day collection event must include a collector-prepared bill of lading or similar manifest, which describes the origin of the shipment and the number of pallets or bulk containers of covered devices in the shipment.

(F) Except as provided in subsection (G) of this Section, each collector that operates a program collection site or one-day collection event during a program year shall accept all covered television devices and computer monitor devices that are delivered to the program collection site or one-day collection event during the program year.

(G) No collector that operates a program collection site or one-day collection event shall:

(1) accept, at the program collection site or one-day collection event, more than seven covered devices from an individual at any one time;

(2) scrap, salvage, dismantle, or otherwise disassemble any covered devices collected at a program collection site or one-day collection event;

(3) deliver to a manufacturer electronic waste program, through its recoverer, any covered devices other than covered television devices and covered computer monitor devices, unless otherwise provided for in this chapter, collected at a program collection site or one-day collection event; or

(4) deliver to a person other than the manufacturer electronic waste program or its recoverer, covered television devices and covered computer monitor devices, unless otherwise provided for in this chapter, collected at a program collection site or one-day collection event.

(H) Beginning in program year 2023, registered collectors participating in a county or solid waste authority supervised collection programs may collect a fee for each desktop computer monitor or television accepted for recovering to cover costs for collection and preparation for bulk shipment or to cover costs associated with the requirements of subsection (E) of this section.

(I) Nothing in this chapter shall prevent a person from acting as a collector independently of a manufacturer electronic waste program.

(J) Any collector or recoverer operating a one-day collection event shall not deliver any collected devices to any county or solid waste authority operating in one or more counties without prior coordination and agreement.

Section 48-60-142. (A) All recoverers that store, consolidate, or process covered devices in the State must register with the department the locations of all storage and processing activities by submitting a $3,000 registration fee and completing and submitting a form as prescribed by the department by November 1, 2022, and by November first of each year thereafter for that program year.

(B) The department may deny a registration under this section if the recoverer or any employee or officer of the recoverer has a history of:

(1) repeated violations of federal, State, or local laws, regulations, standards, or ordinances related to the collection, recycling, or other management of covered devices;

(2) conviction in this State or another state of any crime which is a felony under the laws of this State, or conviction of a felony in a federal court; or conviction in this State or another state or federal court of any of the following crimes: forgery, official misconduct, bribery, perjury, or knowingly submitting false information under any environmental law, regulation, or permit term or condition; or

(3) gross carelessness or incompetence in handling, storing, processing, transporting, disposing, or otherwise managing covered devices.

(C) The department shall post on the department's website a list of all registered recoverers.

(D) Beginning in program year 2023, no person may act as a recoverer of consumer covered devices for a manufacturer's electronic waste program unless the recoverer is registered with the department as required under this Section.

(E) Beginning in program year 2023, recoverers must, as a part of their annual registration, certify compliance with all of the following requirements:

(1) Recoverers must comply with federal, State, and local laws and regulations, including federal and State minimum wage laws, specifically relevant to the handling, processing, and recycling of consumer covered devices and must have proper authorization by all appropriate governing authorities to perform the handling, processing, and recycling.

(2) Recoverers must implement the appropriate measures to safeguard occupational and environmental health and safety, through the following:

(a) environmental health and safety training of personnel, including training with regard to material and equipment handling, worker exposure, controlling releases, and safety and emergency procedures;

(b) an up-to-date, written plan for the identification and management of hazardous materials; and

(c) an up-to-date, written plan for reporting and responding to exceptional pollutant releases, including emergencies such as accidents, spills, fires, and explosions.

(3) Recoverers must maintain:

(a) commercial general liability insurance or the equivalent corporate guarantee for accidents and other emergencies with limits of not less than $1,000,000 per occurrence and $1,000,000 aggregate, and

(b) pollution legal liability insurance with limits not less than $1,000,000 per occurrence for companies engaged solely in the dismantling activities and $5,000,000 per occurrence for companies engaged in recycling.

(4) Recoverers must maintain on file documentation that demonstrates the completion of an environmental health and safety audit completed and certified by a competent internal and external auditor annually. A competent auditor is an individual who, through professional training or work experience, is appropriately qualified to evaluate the environmental health and safety conditions, practices, and procedures of the facility. Documentation of auditors' qualifications must be available for inspection by department officials and third-party auditors.

(5) Recoverers must maintain on file proof of workers' compensation and employers' liability insurance.

(6) Recoverers must provide adequate assurance, such as bonds or corporate guarantees, to cover environmental and other costs of the closure of the recoverer's facility, including cleanup of stockpiled equipment and materials. A recoverer must provide, for each storage, consolidation, or processing location, adequate financial assurance to cover third party removal of all covered devices or waste material from the facility. The financial assurance must be issued in favor of the department and an approved financial assurance mechanism must be submitted prior to beginning storage or processing operations. The registrant must provide continuous coverage for closure until released from financial assurance requirements by the department.

(7) Recoverers must apply due diligence principles to the selection of facilities to which components and materials, such as plastics, metals, and circuit boards, from consumer covered devices are sent for reuse and recycling.

(8) Recoverers must establish a documented environmental management system that is appropriate in level of detail and documentation to the scale and function of the facility, including documented regular self-audits or inspections of the recoverer's environmental compliance at the facility.

(9) Recoverers must use the appropriate equipment for the proper processing of incoming materials as well as controlling environmental releases to the environment. The dismantling operations and storage of consumer covered devices components that contain hazardous substances must be conducted indoors and over impervious floors. Storage areas must be adequate to hold all processed and unprocessed inventory. When heat is used to soften solder and when covered devices components are shredded, operations must be designed to control indoor and outdoor hazardous air emissions.

(10) Recoverers must establish a system for identifying and properly managing components, such as circuit boards, batteries, cathode-ray tubes, and mercury phosphor lamps, that are removed from consumer covered devices during disassembly. Recoverers must properly manage all hazardous and other components requiring special handling from consumer covered devices consistent with federal, State, and local laws and regulations. Recoverers must provide visible tracking, such as hazardous waste manifests or bills of lading, of hazardous components and materials from the facility to the destination facilities and documentation, such as contracts, stating how the destination facility processes the materials received. No recoverer may send, either directly or through intermediaries, hazardous wastes to solid non-hazardous waste landfills or to non-hazardous waste incinerators for disposal or energy recovery. For the purpose of these guidelines, smelting of hazardous wastes to recover metals for reuse in conformance with all applicable laws and regulations is not considered disposal or energy recovery.

(11) Recoverers must use a regularly implemented and documented monitoring and record-keeping program that tracks total inbound covered devices material weights and total subsequent outbound weights to each destination, injury and illness rates, and compliance with applicable permit parameters including monitoring of effluents and emissions. Recoverers must maintain contracts or other documents, such as sales receipts, suitable to demonstrate: (i) the reasonable expectation that there is a downstream market or uses for designated electronics, which may include recycling or reclamation processes such as smelting to recover metals for reuse; and (ii) that any residuals from recycling or reclamation processes, or both, are properly handled and managed to maximize reuse and recycling of materials to the extent practical.

(12) Recoverers must employ industry-accepted procedures for the destruction or sanitization of data on hard drives and other data storage devices. Acceptable guidelines for the destruction or sanitization of data are contained in the National Institute of Standards and Technology's Guidelines for Media Sanitation or those guidelines certified by the National Association for Information Destruction.

(F) Each recoverer shall, during each calendar year, transport from each site that the recoverer uses to manage consumer covered devices not less than 75% of the total weight of consumer covered devices present at the site during the preceding calendar year. Each recoverer shall maintain on-site records that demonstrate compliance with this requirement and shall make those records available to the department for inspection and copying.

(G) Nothing in this chapter shall prevent a person from acting as a recoverer independently of a manufacturer electronic waste program.

(H) Whenever the department determines that a person is in violation of a regulation promulgated pursuant to this section, the department may:

(1) issue an order requiring the person to comply with the regulation;

(2) bring a civil action for injunctive relief in the appropriate court; or

(3) request the Attorney General bring civil or criminal enforcement action pursuant to this section.

The department also may impose reasonable civil penalties not to exceed ten thousand dollars, for each day of violation. After exhaustion of administrative remedies, a person against whom a civil penalty is invoked by the department may appeal the decision of the department or board to the court of common pleas, pursuant to the Administrative Procedures Act.

(I) A person who wilfully violates a regulation promulgated pursuant to this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, must be fined not more than ten thousand dollars for each day of violation or imprisoned for not more than one year, or both. If the conviction is for a second or subsequent offense, the punishment must be a fine not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars for each day of violation or imprisonment not to exceed two years, or both. The provisions of the subsection do not apply to officials and employees of a local government owning or operating, or both, a municipal solid waste management facility or to officials and employees of a region, comprised of local governments, owning or operating, or both, a regional municipal solid waste management facility.

(J) Each day of noncompliance with an order issued pursuant to this section or noncompliance with a permit, regulation, standard, order, or requirement established pursuant to this section constitutes a separate offense.

Section 48-60-150. ~~The department shall promulgate regulations needed to implement this chapter's provisions, which must be submitted to the General Assembly pursuant to the Administrative Procedures Act.~~

(A) To carry out the purposes and provisions of this chapter, the department is authorized to:

(1) promulgate such regulations, procedures, or standards as are necessary to protect human health and safety or the environment from the adverse effects of improper, inadequate, or unsound management of covered devices;

(2) issue, deny, revoke, or modify permits, registrations, or orders under such conditions as the department may prescribe, pursuant to procedures consistent with the South Carolina Administrative Procedures Act, for the operation of facilities that recover covered devices;

(3) conduct inspections, conduct investigations, obtain samples, and conduct research regarding the operation and maintenance of any facility that recovers covered devices;

(4) enter into agreements, contracts, or cooperative arrangements, under such terms and conditions as the department determines appropriate, with other state, federal, or interstate agencies, counties, municipalities, educational institutions, other local governments, and local health departments, consistent with the purposes and provisions of this chapter; and

(5) cooperate with private organizations and with business and industry in carrying out the provisions of this chapter.

(B) Regulations promulgated to carry out the purposes and provisions of this chapter must be submitted to the General Assembly pursuant to the Administrative Procedures Act.

(C) The requirements of this chapter supersede all regulations, rules, standards, orders, or other actions of the department that are not consistent with this chapter.

Section 48-60-160. (A) A manufacturer subject to the requirements of this chapter shall pay the department an annual registration fee in the amount of three thousand five hundred dollars.

~~(B) A representative organization shall pay the department an annual registration fee in the amount of twenty thousand dollars for the department to pay the full costs of administering and enforcing the provisions of this chapter relating to representative organizations.~~

~~(C) Manufacturers participating in a representative organization are exempt from paying an annual registration fee.~~

~~(D)~~(B) A manufacturer that produces computer monitors, computers, or televisions is only required to pay one annual registration fee, if a fee is required.

~~(E)(1)~~(C) A manufacturer of a covered device that fails to comply with a requirement of this chapter~~, excluding recycling obligation shortfalls as provided for in this section,~~ is subject to a fine not to exceed ~~one~~ seven thousand dollars per violation.

~~(2) A manufacturer of a covered television device or covered computer monitor device participating in a plan pursuant to Section 48-60-50 or Section 48-60-55(K) that fails to meet its individual recycling obligation for the previous program year as outlined in this chapter may elect to:~~

~~(a) pay a shortfall fee as determined by the department; or~~

~~(b) account for the amount of the shortfall in the following year. A manufacturer electing to account for the amount of a shortfall in the following year only may elect this option once every three years.~~

~~(3) The shortfall fee provided for in this section must be calculated as follows:~~

~~(a) If the manufacturer of a covered television or computer monitor device recycles at least ninety percent, but less than one hundred percent of its individual recycling obligation, the shortfall fee is thirty cents multiplied by the number of additional pounds that should have been recycled in order for the manufacturer to have met its individual recycling obligation.~~

~~(b) If the manufacturer of a covered television or computer monitor device recycles at least fifty percent, but less than ninety percent of its individual recycling obligation, the shortfall fee is forty cents multiplied by the number of additional pounds that should have been recycled in order for the manufacturer to have met its individual recycling obligation.~~

~~(c) If the manufacturer of a covered television or computer monitor device recycles less than fifty percent of its individual recycling obligation, the shortfall fee is fifty cents multiplied by the number of additional pounds that should have been recycled in order for the manufacturer to have met its individual recycling obligation.~~

~~(F)~~(D) A manufacturer of a covered device that sells ~~five~~ one hundred or fewer such devices in the State per year is exempt from registration~~,~~ or penalty~~, or shortfall fees~~ proposed in this chapter.

~~(G) A television manufacturer participating in a representative organization with an approved consumer electronic device stewardship program that falls below seventy five percent of its allocation, as determined by a representative organization at the end of the program year, is ineligible to participate in the consumer electronic device stewardship program the following year and must participate in the plan enumerated in Section 48-60-55(K).~~

~~(H)~~(E) All fees and penalties collected by the department to administer and enforce this chapter must be deposited in a dedicated account and may be expended by the department to cover the department's costs to implement this chapter. ~~Shortfall fees must be used to assist local governments in recycling covered devices as required by this chapter.~~

Section 48-60-170. (A) The intent of this chapter is to implement programs and services that ensure the availability of adequate end-of-life electronic product handling for the benefit of citizens of the State, which fairly, effectively, and efficiently share the burdens of doing so among television manufacturers, computer manufacturers, and computer monitor manufacturers, regardless of the effect on competition of doing so, and which require the State to direct and supervise implementation of a statewide plan of one or more consumer electronic device stewardship programs. ~~Representative organizations~~ Manufacturer clearinghouses and persons participating in ~~representative organizations~~ manufacturer clearinghouses may not be held liable or prosecuted under federal or state antitrust ~~law~~, unfair trade, and competition laws and regulations.

(B) A manufacturer or manufacturer clearinghouse acting ~~in accordance with~~ pursuant to the provisions of this chapter may negotiate, enter into, or conduct business with ~~a representative organization, and the~~ each other and with any other entity developing, implementing, operating, participating in, or performing any other activities directly related to a manufacturer electronic waste program. No manufacturer, ~~representative organization~~ manufacturer clearinghouse, and eligible program ~~are not~~ shall be subject to damages, liability, enforcement actions, or scrutiny under federal or state antitrust ~~law~~, unfair trade, and competition laws and regulations, regardless of the effects of their actions on competition. It further is the intent and belief of the State that the supervisory activities described in this chapter are sufficient to confirm that activities of the manufacturer clearinghouse, manufacturers, eligible programs, and ~~recyclers~~ recoverers developing or participating in a plan that is approved pursuant to Section ~~48-60-55~~ 48-60-51 or 48-60-56 are authorized and actively supervised by the State.

Section 48-60-180. The department shall initiate a stakeholder group on June 1, 2026, and provide a report on its findings to the Chairman of the House Agriculture, Natural Resources and Environmental Affairs Committee and the Chairman of the Senate Agriculture and Natural Resources Committee by January 15, 2027. The stakeholder process shall explore opportunities to advance market-based solutions for the recycling of electronics, operational and financial impacts on local governments and manufacturers, alternatives to Section 48-60-90, and other concerns or recommendations identified by stakeholders and the department."

B. Section 14 of Act 129 of 2014, as amended by Act 82 of 2021, is repealed. Section 48-60-55 of the 1976 Code is repealed December 31, 2022. The remaining provisions of this chapter, except Section 48-60-90, are repealed December 31, 2029.

SECTION 2. If any section, subsection, paragraph, subparagraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional or invalid, such holding shall not affect the constitutionality or validity of the remaining portions of this act, the General Assembly hereby declaring that it would have passed this act, and each and every section, subsection, paragraph, subparagraph, sentence, clause, phrase, and word thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more other sections, subsections, paragraphs, subparagraphs, sentences, clauses, phrases, or words hereof may be declared to be unconstitutional, invalid, or otherwise ineffective.

H. 3340--AMENDED AND ORDERED TO THIRD READING

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 3340 -- Reps. Bailey, Hardee, Atkinson, Hayes, Brittain and Weeks: A BILL TO AMEND SECTION 12-20-105, AS AMENDED, CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976, RELATING TO STATE LICENSE TAX CREDITS ALLOWED CERTAIN TAXPAYERS FOR CONTRIBUTIONS TO QUALIFYING INFRASTRUCTURE AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT PROJECTS, SO AS TO INCREASE THE MAXIMUM ANNUAL CREDIT AMOUNT FROM FOUR HUNDRED THOUSAND TO SIX HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS, TO PROVIDE ADDITIONAL ANNUAL CREDIT AMOUNTS OF FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS, ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS, AND ONE HUNDRED FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS, RESPECTIVELY, FOR QUALIFYING PROJECTS LOCATED IN COUNTIES CLASSIFIED

FOR THE TARGETED JOBS TAX CREDIT AS TIER II, III, AND IV COUNTIES, TO PROVIDE ADDITIONAL ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS FOR THESE INCREASED CREDIT AMOUNTS, AND TO ALLOW UNUSED CREDITS TO BE CARRIED FORWARD TO THE THREE SUCCEEDING TAX YEARS.

The Committee on Ways and Means proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3340 (COUNCIL\DG\3340C003.NBD.DG22), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

/ SECTION 1. Section 12-20-105 of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"Section 12-20-105. (A) Any company subject to a license tax under Section 12-20-100 may claim a credit against its license tax liability for amounts paid in cash to provide infrastructure for an eligible project. A company may enter into a multi-year commitment to provide cash to provide infrastructure after the infrastructure has been completed. Where a company has entered into an agreement to pay cash to provide infrastructure for an eligible project, and the eligible project is not constructed by the end of the tax year, the company may provide cash in that or a future year to another eligible project and retain the credit.

(B)(1) To be considered an eligible project for purposes of this section, the project must qualify for income tax credits under Chapter 6, Title 12, withholding tax credit under Chapter 10, Title 12, income tax credits under Chapter 14, Title 12, or fees in lieu of property taxes under either Chapter 12, Title 4, Chapter 29, Title 4, or Chapter 44, Title 12.

(2) If a project is located in an office, business, commercial, or industrial park, or combination of these, and is used exclusively for economic development and is owned or constructed by a county, political subdivision, or agency of this State when the qualifying improvements are paid for, the project does not have to meet the qualifications of item (1) to be considered an eligible project. As provided in subsection (C)(4), the county or political subdivision may sell all or a portion of the business or industrial park.

(3) In a county in which at least five million dollars in state accommodations tax imposed pursuant to Section 12-36-920 has been collected in at least one fiscal year, a county or municipality-owned multiuse sports and recreational complex is considered an 'eligible project' promoting economic development for all purposes of the credit allowed pursuant to this section.

(C) For the purpose of this section, 'infrastructure' means improvements for water, wastewater, hydrogen fuel, sewer, gas, steam, electric energy, and communication services made to a building or land that are considered necessary, suitable, or useful to an eligible project. These improvements include, but are not limited to:

(1) improvements to both public or private water and sewer systems;

(2) improvements to both public or private electric, natural gas, and telecommunications systems including, but not limited to, ones owned or leased by an electric cooperative, electric utility, or electric supplier, as defined in Chapter 27, Title 58;

(3) fixed transportation facilities including highway, road, rail, water, and air;

(4) for a qualifying project under subsection (B)(2), infrastructure improvements include shell buildings, incubator buildings whose ownership is retained by the county, political subdivision, or agency of the State and the purchase of land for an office, business, commercial, or industrial park, or combination of these, used exclusively for economic development which is owned or constructed by a county, political subdivision, or agency of this State. The county, political subdivision, or agency may sell the shell building or all or a portion of the park at any time after the company has paid in cash to provide the infrastructure for an eligible project;

(5) for a qualifying project pursuant to subsection (B)(2), infrastructure improvements also include due diligence expenditures relating to environmental conditions made by a county or political subdivision after it has acquired contractual rights to an industrial park. Due diligence expenditures include such items as Phase I and II studies and environmental or archeological studies required by state or federal statutes or guidelines or similar lender requirements. Contractual rights include options to purchase real property or other similar contractual rights acquired before the county or political subdivision files a deed to the property with the Register of Mesne Conveyances; and

(6) for a qualifying project pursuant to subsection (B)(2), site preparation costs include, but are not limited to:

(a) clearing, grubbing, grading, and stormwater retention; and

(b) refurbishment of buildings that are owned or controlled by a county or municipality and are used exclusively for economic development purposes;

(7) for a qualifying project pursuant to subsection (B)(2), eligible expenditures include cash paid to a county, political subdivision, or agency of this state for purposes of defraying public debt incurred to pay for infrastructure on the project.

(D) A company is not allowed the credit provided by this section for actual expenses it incurs in the construction and operation of any building or infrastructure it owns, leases, manages, or operates.

(E)(1) The maximum aggregate credit that may be claimed in any tax year by a single company is ~~four~~ six hundred thousand dollars.

(2) Notwithstanding the annual credit limit provided pursuant to item (1), for a contribution for a qualifying project located in a county classified as a Tier II, III, or IV county pursuant to Section 12-6-3360(B), the maximum aggregate credit that may be claimed in a tax year by a taxpayer is increased by:

County Tier	Credit Amount Increase
Tier II County	Fifty thousand dollars
Tier III County	One hundred thousand dollars
Tier IV County	One hundred fifty thousand dollars.

(3) To be eligible for the increased credit amount provided in item (2), the total of the taxpayer's credit claim for the taxable year must be for a qualifying project located in a single Tier II, III, or IV county. If the single qualifying project extends across a county boundary, then for purposes of determining eligibility and the amount of the applicable increased credit, the qualifying project is considered to be located in the county with the lowest credit amount unless at least eighty percent of the total costs associated with the project are attributable to that portion of the project located in the county with the higher allowable credit amount.

(F) The credits allowed by this section may not reduce the license tax liability of the company below zero. If the applicable credit originally earned during a taxable year exceeds the liability and is otherwise allowable under subsection (D), the amount of the excess may be carried forward to the next taxable year.

(G) For South Carolina income tax and license purposes, a company that claims the credit allowed by this section is ineligible to claim the credit allowed by Section 12-6-3420.

(H) By March first of each year, the Department of Revenue shall issue a report to the Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, the Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, and the Secretary of the Department of Commerce outlining the history of the credit allowed pursuant to this section. The report shall include the amount of credit allowed pursuant to this section and the types of infrastructure provided to eligible projects.

(I) For the purposes of this section, for a qualifying project pursuant to subsection (B)(3), infrastructure includes all applicable provisions of subsection (C) applying to the development and construction of the sports and recreational complex and further includes costs of land acquisition and preparation, construction of facilities and venues in the complex, improvements and upgrades to existing facilities and venues, and any other capital costs incurred in the acquisition, construction, and operation of the complex, including debt payments on any loans or bonds issued to pay for such infrastructure."

SECTION 2. Upon approval of the Governor, this act applies for credits first claimed for taxable years beginning after 2021. /

H. 5075--AMENDED AND ORDERED TO THIRD READING

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 5075 -- Reps. G. M. Smith and West: A BILL TO AMEND SECTION 12-6-3795, CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976, RELATING TO THE SOUTH CAROLINA HOUSING TAX CREDIT, SO AS TO DEFINE TERMS AND LIMIT THE CREDIT; TO AMEND ARTICLE 3 OF CHAPTER 11, TITLE 1, RELATING TO THE ALLOCATION OF STATE CEILING ON ISSUANCE OF

PRIVATE ACTIVITY BONDS, SO AS TO REQUIRE THE STATE FISCAL ACCOUNTABILITY AUTHORITY TO DEVELOP A STATE CEILING ALLOCATION PLAN ANNUALLY, TO SPECIFY REQUIREMENTS OF THE PLAN, AND TO PROVIDE A PROCESS FOR PERIODIC ALLOCATIONS OF THE STATE CEILING; AND TO REPEAL SECTION 1-11-370 RELATING TO INDEBTEDNESS INCLUDED WITHIN ANY LIMITS ON PRIVATE ACTIVITY BONDS.

The Committee on Ways and Means proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 5075 (COUNCIL\DG\5075C001.NBD.DG22), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking SECTION 1 and inserting:

/ SECTION 1. A. Section 12-6-3795 of the 1976 Code, as added by Act 137 of 2020, is amended to read:

"Section 12-6-3795. (A) As used in this section:

(1) 'Eligibility statement' means a statement authorized and issued by the South Carolina State Housing and Finance Development Authority certifying that a given project qualifies for the South Carolina housing tax credit, including any preliminary determination thereof.

(2) 'Federal housing tax credit' means the federal tax credit as provided in Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

(3) 'Median income' means those incomes that are determined by the federal Department of Housing and Urban Development guidelines and adjusted for family size.

(4) 'Project' means a housing project that has restricted rents that do not exceed thirty percent of income for at least forty percent of its units occupied by persons or families having incomes of sixty percent or less of the median income, or at least twenty percent of the units occupied by persons or families having incomes of fifty percent or less of the median income.

(5) 'Qualified project' means a qualified low-income building as that term is defined in Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, that is located in South Carolina and receives approval for tax credits from the South Carolina Housing and Finance Development Authority provided pursuant to this section.

(6) 'Taxpayer' means a sole proprietor, partnership, corporation of any classification, limited liability company, or association taxable as a business entity that is subject to South Carolina taxes pursuant to Section 12-6-510, Section 12-6-530, Chapter 11, Title 12, or Chapter 7, Title 38.

(7) 'Federal 9 percent tax credit' means the federal housing tax credit described in Section 42(b)(1)(B)(i) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(8) 'Federal 4 percent tax credit' means the federal housing tax credit described in Section 42(b)(1)(B)(ii) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(9) 'Credit period' has the meaning defined in Section 42(f)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(10) 'State housing authority' means the South Carolina State Housing Finance and Development Authority.

(11) 'Department of Revenue' means the South Carolina Department of Revenue.

(B)(1) A state tax credit pursuant to this section may be claimed against income taxes imposed by Section 12-6-510 or 12-6-530, bank taxes imposed pursuant to Chapter 11, Title 12, corporate license fees imposed pursuant to Chapter 20, Title 12, and insurance premium and retaliatory taxes imposed pursuant to Chapter 7, Title 38, to be termed the South Carolina housing tax credit, and is allowed with respect to each qualified project placed in service after January 1, 2020, and before December 31, 2030, in an amount ~~equal~~ not to exceed the federal housing tax credit allowed with respect to such qualified project, subject to the limitations of item (5). In computing a tax payable by a taxpayer pursuant to Section 38-7-90, the credit allowed pursuant to this section must be treated as a premium tax paid pursuant to Section 38-7-20.

(2)(a) If under Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, a portion of any federal housing tax credit taken on a project is required to be recaptured, the taxpayer claiming any ~~state~~ South Carolina housing tax credit with respect to such project also is required to recapture a portion of any ~~state~~ South Carolina housing tax credit authorized by this section. The state recapture amount is equal to the proportion of the ~~state~~ South Carolina housing tax credit claimed by the taxpayer that equals the proportion the federal recapture amount bears to the original federal housing tax credit amount subject to recapture.

(b) In the event that recapture of any South Carolina housing tax credit is required, any ~~amended~~ return submitted to the Department of Revenue, as provided in this section, shall include the proportion of the ~~state~~ South Carolina housing tax credit required to be recaptured, the identity of each taxpayer subject to the recapture, and the amount of South Carolina housing tax credit previously allocated to such taxpayer. Any recapture of the South Carolina housing tax credit is reported in the same manner as any recapture of the federal housing tax credit.

(3) The total amount of the South Carolina housing tax credit allowed by this section for a taxable year may not exceed the taxpayer's income tax liability. Any unused South Carolina housing tax credit may be carried forward to apply to the taxpayer's next five succeeding years' tax liability. The taxpayer may not apply the credit against any prior tax years' tax liability.

(4) The South Carolina housing tax credit ~~allowed by this section,~~ and any recaptured tax credit, must be allocated among some or all of the partners, members, or shareholders of the entity owning the project in any manner agreed to by such persons, regardless of whether such persons are allocated or allowed any portion of the federal housing tax credit with respect to the project.

(5)(a) The South Carolina housing tax credit allowed for any project must supplement but not supplant the federal housing tax credit and must be limited to an amount necessary only to achieve financial feasibility of the project.

(b) The total amount of all South Carolina housing tax credits that may be allocated in any calendar year must not exceed fifteen million dollars, plus the total of all unallocated tax credits, if any, for any preceding years, and the total amount of any previously allocated tax credits that have been recaptured, revoked, canceled, or otherwise recovered but not otherwise reallocated.

(c) Of the dollar limitation prescribed in subitem (b), the total amount of South Carolina housing tax credits allocated to qualified projects utilizing the federal 9 percent tax credit must not exceed forty percent of the dollar limitation prescribed in subitem (b). Of the South Carolina housing tax credits allocated to qualified projects utilizing the federal 9 percent tax credit, not less than fifty percent of the South Carolina housing tax credits must be allocated to qualified projects located in an eligible rural area as designated by the United States Department of Agriculture, with the remainder allocated to (i) qualified projects serving older persons or persons with special needs, irrespective of rural eligibility criteria; (ii) qualified projects supporting workforce development as certified by the South Carolina Department of Commerce, irrespective of rural eligibility criteria; and (iii) other qualified projects, irrespective of rural eligibility criteria.

(d) Compliance with the dollar limitations of subitems (b) and (c) must be determined by the total amount of South Carolina housing tax credits allocated for one full-year of the credit period applicable to each qualified project, and not the total amount of South Carolina housing tax credits allocated for the entire credit period applicable to each qualified project. Compliance with the dollar limitations of subitems (b) and (c) must be determined within each calendar year at the time the state housing authority makes a preliminary determination of any qualified project's eligibility for the South Carolina housing tax credit.

(e) In addition to the dollar limitation of subitem (b), allocation of any South Carolina housing tax credit to any qualified project utilizing the federal 4 percent tax credit is conditioned on among other things availability and allocation to the extent necessary for the qualified project of any state ceiling made pursuant to Article 3, Chapter 11, Title 1.

(C)(1) The state housing authority shall promulgate rules establishing criteria upon which the eligibility statements are issued which must include consideration of evidence of local support for the project. The eligibility statement must specify the amount of the South Carolina housing tax credit allowed, and must include: (i) the annual amount of South Carolina housing tax credit allocated to the qualified project for each year of credit period; and (ii) the total amount of South Carolina housing tax credit allocated to the qualified project for the entire credit period.

(2) The state housing authority may not issue an eligibility statement until the taxpayer provides a report to the state housing authority detailing how the ~~state~~ South Carolina housing tax credit ~~authorized by this section~~ will benefit the tenants of the project, once placed in service, ~~including, but not limited to,~~ including without limitation reduced rent, ~~or~~ and why the ~~state~~ South Carolina housing tax credit ~~authorized by this section~~ is ~~necessary to undertake~~ essential to the financial feasibility of the project.

(3) The state housing authority must establish uniform criteria for allocating the South Carolina housing tax credit to eligible projects pursuant to a competitive process that promotes highest value and greatest public benefit. The state housing authority must establish the criteria required by this section as part of any qualified allocation plan adopted to administer the federal housing tax credit, which must include without limitation an opportunity for public comment at a public hearing conducted by the state housing authority. The criteria established pursuant to this section, and any qualified allocation plan are subject to the prior review and comment of the Joint Bond Review Committee.

(4) The state housing authority must furnish no later than January thirty-first of each year an annual report of South Carolina housing tax credits allocated pursuant to this section, which must include for the preceding calendar year the total amount of South Carolina housing tax credits allocated, and for each project, the project name and location, the amount of the South Carolina housing tax credits allocated to the project, project ownership, total number of units assisted, and the public benefit achieved by the project. The annual report must be furnished to the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, the Chairman of the House of Representatives Ways and Means Committee, the Joint Bond Review Committee, and the State Fiscal Accountability Authority.

(D) The Department of Revenue, in consultation with the ~~South Carolina State Housing Finance and Development Authority~~ state housing authority, may adopt rules and policies necessary to implement and administer the provisions of this section; provided, however, that the state housing authority has the responsibility for: (i) allocation and administration of the South Carolina housing tax credit; and (ii) ensuring that the limits prescribed by subsection (B)(5)(b) and (B)(5)(c) are not exceeded.

(E) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the provisions of this section and administration thereof are subject to the oversight, and review and comment as appropriate, of the Joint Bond Review Committee."

B. 1. Notwithstanding the limitations prescribed by Section 12-6-3795(B)(5)(b), (c), and (d) in SECTION 1. A., the General Assembly hereby provides a one-time authorization of South Carolina housing tax credits in an amount necessary but not exceeding one hundred million dollars for qualified projects approved before December 31, 2021, by the State Fiscal Accountability Authority or the South Carolina State Housing and Finance Development Authority, as applicable. Any allocations of South Carolina housing tax credits made pursuant to this provision are subject to the review and comment of the Joint Bond Review Committee. Not later than thirty days following enactment hereof, the South Carolina State Housing and Finance Development Authority must identify and report to the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, the Chairman of the House of Representatives Ways and Means Committee, the Joint Bond Review Committee, and the State Fiscal Accountability Authority all qualified projects to which this one-time authorization of South Carolina housing tax credits is proposed to apply. The report must be made in such form and substance as may be directed by the Joint Bond Review Committee.

Nothing in this provision grants any rights to, or in the processes used in the determination of, allocation of this one-time authorization of South Carolina housing tax credits. Decisions made pursuant to this provision are final and are not subject to judicial or administrative review.

2. This subsection B takes effect upon approval by the Governor.

C. This SECTION takes effect upon approval by the Governor and first applies to tax years beginning after 2021. /

Amend the bill further, SECTION 2, by striking Sections 1-11-520 and 1-11-530 and inserting:

/ Section 1-11-520. (A) ~~The private activity bond limit for all state government issuing authorities now or hereafter authorized to issue private activity bonds as defined in the act, to be known as the "state government pool", is forty percent of the state ceiling less any amount shifted to the local pool as described in subsection (B) of this section or plus any amount shifted from that pool~~ No later than September thirtieth of the year preceding the calendar year to which the state ceiling applies, and subject to review and comment by the Joint Bond Review Committee, the state authority must publish a State Ceiling Allocation Plan that assigns percentages of the state ceiling to categories of any of the permitted purposes prescribed by the Internal Revenue Code. Without limitation, categories of permitted purposes may include industrial and economic development bonds; single family housing bonds; multifamily housing bonds; student loan bonds; and any other bonds eligible for tax exemption as a private activity bond pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code. No initial assignment to any single category may exceed forty percent of the state ceiling, and no minimum assignment is required for any category.

(B) ~~The private activity bond limit for all issuing authorities other than state government agencies, to be known as the "local pool", is sixty percent of the state ceiling plus any amount shifted from the state government pool or less any amount shifted to that pool~~ Further, the allocation plan must provide for a process of periodic allocations of the state ceiling within each category, which for any period generally may not exceed an amount of the state ceiling allocated to that category equally divided among the number of periods in the year during which allocations are to be made; provided, however, that the state authority may, upon findings of exceptional and compelling circumstances, amend the annual allocation plan following review and comment by the committee.

(C) ~~The board, with review and comment by the Joint Bond Review Committee, may shift unallocated amounts from one pool to the~~

~~other at any time~~ Notwithstanding the assigned percentages set forth in the allocation plan, the state authority may but need not reassign any state ceiling unused in prior periods as a supplement to and means to address demand for ceiling allocation in a subsequent period. Such re-assignment may be made for any allocation category, notwithstanding its original assignment.

(D) Unless otherwise approved in writing by the state authority following justification and substantial findings of significance, no authorized request may receive an allocation of state ceiling applicable to that calendar year exceeding ten percent of the total state ceiling in the case of an industrial or economic development project, or five percent of the total state ceiling for any other allocation category.

(E) The allocation plan must establish competitive criteria for allocation of state ceiling to authorized requests. Competitive criteria may be unique to each category but must be uniform within each category and established to achieve highest value and greatest public benefit. Discussions of matters related to the periodic evaluation of authorized requests may be conducted in executive session. The state authority may utilize the services of the South Carolina Department of Commerce, the South Carolina State Housing Finance and Development Authority, any other state agency, and any other public or private resources to inform and provide services for the development of the allocation plan, including the evaluation and competitive criteria; and the periodic evaluation of authorized requests. The Department of Commerce and the State Housing Finance and Development Authority are directed to provide to the state authority such assistance as may be requested or required to accomplish the purposes of this article.

(F) Allocations of state ceiling to authorized requests must be made in accordance with the provisions of the allocation plan and policies and procedures adopted by the state authority.

(G) The state authority must determine the disposition of any remaining, unused state ceiling during the final period of the calendar year pursuant to a petition submitted in accordance with Section 1-11-530(D).

Section 1-11-530. (A) For private activity bonds proposed for issue by other than state government issuing authorities, an authorized request is a request included in a petition to the ~~board~~ state authority that a specific amount of the state ceiling be allocated to the bonds for which the petition is filed. The petition must be accompanied by: (i) a copy of the Inducement Contract, Inducement Resolution, or other comparable preliminary approval entered into or adopted by the issuing authority, if any, relating to the bonds~~. The board shall forward promptly to the committee a copy of each petition received~~, and (ii) such other supporting documentation as the state authority may by policy prescribe.

(B) For private activity bonds proposed for issue by any state government issuing authority, an authorized request is a request included in a petition to the ~~board~~ state authority that a specific amount of the state ceiling be allocated to the bonds for which the petition is filed. The petition must be accompanied by: (i) a bond resolution or comparable action by the issuing authority authorizing the issuance of the bonds~~. The board shall forward promptly to the committee a copy of each petition received~~, and (ii) such other supporting documentation as the state authority may by policy prescribe.

(C) Each authorized request must demonstrate that the allocation amount requested constitutes all of the private activity bond financing contemplated at the time for the project and any other facilities located at or used as a part of an integrated operation with the project.

(D) An issuing authority seeking an allocation of any remaining unused state ceiling for carry-forward designation must submit to the state authority a petition identifying the types of tax-exempt bonds to which the carryforward designation will apply. The petition must be accompanied by such other supporting documentation as the state authority may by policy prescribe. Such allocations are not subjected to the provisions of Section 1-11-520(D), (E), and (F).

(E) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, the state authority may disapprove, reduce, or defer any authorized request or petition for carry-forward.

(F) The state authority must periodically furnish to the Joint Bond Review Committee a report of petitions received, along with their dispositions. /

ABSTENTION FROM VOTING

April 6, 2022
Charles Reid
Clerk of the House of Representatives

Dear Mr. Reid,

I am notifying you that I will not participate in the debate or vote on H. 5075, which is a bill regarding SC Housing Tax Credits. In accordance with Section 8-13-700(B) of the SC Code, I recuse myself from voting on the Bill because of a potential conflict of interest due to an economic interest of myself, or the business with which I am associated may be affected. Please note this in the House Journal.

Sincerely,
Rep. West Cox

H. 4048--AMENDED AND ORDERED TO THIRD READING

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 4048 -- Rep. G. M. Smith: A BILL TO AMEND THE CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976, BY ADDING SECTION 1-11-445 SO AS PROVIDE THAT THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA MUST PROVIDE A LEGAL DEFENSE FOR AND INDEMNIFICATION TO A STATE AGENCY, DEPARTMENT, OR INSTRUMENTALITY AGAINST A CLAIM OR SUIT THAT ARISES OUT OF OR BY VIRTUE OF THE PERFORMANCE OF OFFICIAL DUTIES ON BEHALF OF A STATE AGENCY, DEPARTMENT, OR INSTRUMENTALITY, AND TO PROVIDE A SIMILAR DEFENSE AND INDEMNIFICATION TO BOARD MEMBERS AND EMPLOYEES, AND OFFICERS OF THE ENTITY; TO REPEAL SECTION 1-11-440 RELATING TO LEGAL DEFENSES AND INDEMNIFICATIONS PROVIDED TO MEMBERS OF THE FISCAL ACCOUNTABILITY AUTHORITY AND ITS DIRECTOR; AND TO REPEAL SECTION 12-4-325 RELATING TO LEGAL DEFENSES AND INDEMNIFICATION PROVIDED TO OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES OF THE DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE.

The Ways and Means Committee proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 4048 (COUNCIL\SA\4048C001.JN.SA22), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 1, by striking Section 1-11-445(A) and inserting:

/ Section 1-11-445. (A) The State of South Carolina, by and through the Insurance Reserve Fund, must defend a state agency, department, or instrumentality, and the members of a governing board of a state agency, department, or instrumentality, as applicable, against a claim or suit that arises out of or by virtue of the performance of official duties on behalf of the state agency, department, or instrumentality and must indemnify them for a loss or judgment incurred by them as a result of the claim or suit, without regard to whether the claim or suit is brought against them in their individual or official capacities, or both. The State also must defend officers and management employees of the entity, and legislative employees performing duties for the entity against a claim or suit that arises out of or by virtue of the performance of official duties unless the officer, management employee, or legislative employee was acting in bad faith and must indemnify these officers, management employees, and legislative employees for a loss or judgment incurred by them as a result of such claim or suit, without regard to whether the claim or suit is brought against them in their individual or official capacities, or both. This commitment to defend and indemnify extends to members of the entity, the entity's officers and management employees, the entity's director and officers and management employees, and legislative employees after they have left their employment with the entity, the General Assembly, or the entity, as applicable, if the claim or suit arises out of or by virtue of their performance of official duties on behalf of their employer. /

Rep. COBB-HUNTER explained the amendment.

The amendment was then adopted.

Rep. G. M. SMITH proposed the following Amendment No. 2 to H. 4048 (COUNCIL\SA\4048C002.JN.SA22), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 1, by striking Section 1-11-445(A) and inserting:

/ Section 1-11-445 (A) The State of South Carolina, by and through its agencies, departments, and instrumentalities, must defend the state agency, department, or instrumentality, and the members of a governing board of the state agency, department, or instrumentality, as applicable, against an uninsured claim or suit that arises out of or by virtue of the performance of official duties on behalf of the state agency, department, or instrumentality and must indemnify them for an uninsured loss or judgment incurred by them as a result of the claim or suit, without regard to whether the claim or suit is brought against them in their individual or official capacities, or both. The State also must defend officers and management employees of the entity, and legislative employees performing duties for the entity, against an uninsured claim or suit that arises out of or by virtue of the performance of official duties unless the officer, management employee, or legislative employee was acting in bad faith including, but not limited to, acting outside the scope of their official duties or that the actions constituted actual fraud, actual malice, intent to harm, or a crime involving moral turpitude. The State shall indemnify these officers, management employees, and legislative employees for a loss or judgment incurred by them as a result of such uninsured claim or suit, without regard to whether the claim or suit is brought against them in their individual or official capacities, or both.

This commitment to defend and indemnify extends to members of the entity, the entity's officers and management employees, the entity's director and officers and management employees, and legislative employees after they have left their employment with the entity, the General Assembly, or the entity, as applicable, if the uninsured claim or suit arises out of or by virtue of their performance of official duties on behalf of their employer. /

While there is no ethical conflict of interest, I abstained from the vote on H. 5198 to avoid even an appearance of impropriety. This is a Bill regarding revising the composition of the University of South Carolina Board of Trustees. My wife is a current trustee on the Board and my daughter, who was recently elected President of the USC Student Body Association, serves ex officio on the Board.

Rep. Wm. Weston Newton

Further proceedings were interrupted by expiration of time on the uncontested Calendar.

RECURRENCE TO THE MORNING HOUR

Rep. TAYLOR moved that the House recur to the morning hour, which was agreed to.

H. 3840--RULE 5.10 WAIVED PURSUANT TO RULE 5.15, REQUESTS FOR DEBATE, AMENDED AND ORDERED TO THIRD READING

Reps. HILL and MAY requested debate on the Bill.

The Committee on Medical, Military, Public and Municipal Affairs proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3840 (COUNCIL\PH\3840C001.JN.PH22), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 1, by striking Section 40-67-530(B) and inserting:

/ (B) In addition to other requirements established by law and for the purpose of determining an applicant's eligibility for an initial compact privilege, the department shall require a national criminal records check, supported by fingerprints, by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The results of this criminal records check must be reported to the department. The South Carolina Law Enforcement Division is authorized to retain the fingerprints for certification purposes and for notification of the department regarding criminal charges. Costs of conducting a criminal history background check must be borne by the applicant. The department shall keep information received pursuant to this section confidential, except that information relied upon in denying licensure may be disclosed as may be necessary to support the administrative action. The results of this criminal records check must not be shared outside the department. /

Amend the bill further, as and if amended, SECTION 1, by striking Section 40-67-530(F)(2) and inserting:

/ (2) complete a supervised clinical practicum experience from an accredited educational institution or its cooperating programs as required by the commission; /

Renumber sections to conform.
Amend title to conform.

Rep. HART explained the amendment.
The amendment was then adopted.

Reps. TEDDER and ERICKSON proposed the following Amendment No. 2 to H. 3840 (COUNCIL\HB\3840C002.NBD.HB22), which was ruled out of order:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by adding an appropriately numbered SECTIONS to read:

/ SECTION ___. Article 1, Chapter 75, Title 40 of the 1976 Code is amended by adding:

"Section 40-75-222. (A) In addition to the requirements of Section 40-75-220 and any other requirements of this chapter, an individual must meet the following criteria for licensure as an assistant behavior analyst:

(1) Educational requirements:

(a) obtain a bachelor's degree;

(b) complete undergraduate coursework from an Association of Behavior Analysis International-accredited undergraduate program or verified course sequence;

(c) complete one thousand three hundred hours of supervised fieldwork or one thousand hours of concentrated supervised fieldwork as defined by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board; and

(d) pass a nationally recognized certification exam issued by a nonprofit certifying body that manages certification programs accredited by the National Commission for Certifying Agencies.

(2) Continuing education requirements:

(a) obtain twenty continuing education units (CEUs) in each two-year cycle, including four CEUs in ethics and, for supervisors, three CEUs in supervision; and

(b) abide by the Ethics Code for Behavior Analysts published by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board.

(B) In addition to the requirements of Section 40-75-220 and any other requirements of this chapter, an individual must meet the following criteria for licensure as a behavior analyst:

(1) Educational requirements:

(a) obtain a graduate degree;

(b) complete graduate coursework from an Association of Behavior Analysis International-accredited graduate program or verified course sequence;

(c) complete two thousand hours of supervised fieldwork or one thousand five hundred hours of concentrated supervised fieldwork as defined by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board; and

(d) pass a nationally recognized certification exam issued by a nonprofit certifying body that manages certification programs accredited by the National Commission for Certifying Agencies.

(2) Continuing education requirements:

(a) obtain thirty two CEUs in each two-year cycle, including four CEUs in ethics and, for supervisors, three CEUs in supervision; and

(b) abide by the Ethics Code for Behavior Analysts published by the Behavior Analyst Certification Board."

SECTION __. A. Section 40-75-5 of the 1976 Code, as last amended by Act 249 of 2018, is further amended to read:

"Section 40-75-5. Unless otherwise provided for in this chapter, Article 1, Chapter 1, Title 40 applies to licensed professional counselors, licensed behavior analysts, licensed assistant behavior analysts, marriage and family therapists, addiction counselors, and psycho-educational specialists regulated by the Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation. If there is a conflict between this chapter and Article 1, Chapter 1, Title 40, the provisions of this chapter control."

B. Section 40-75-10 of the 1976 Code, as last amended by Act 249 of 2018, is further amended to read:

"Section 40-75-10. (A) There is created the Board of Examiners for the Licensure of Professional Counselors, Marriage and Family Therapists, Addiction Counselors, Behavior Analysts, and Psycho-Educational Specialists composed of ~~eleven~~ thirteen members appointed by the Governor. Of the ~~eleven~~ thirteen members, ~~nine~~ eleven must be professional members, with representation from each congressional district in the State. Of the professional members, three must be licensed professional counselors, two must be licensed behavior analysts, two must be licensed addiction counselors, three must be marriage and family therapists, and one must be a psycho-educational specialist. The remaining two members must be at large from the general public and must not be associated with, or financially interested in, the practice of professional counseling, marriage and family therapy, addiction counseling, behavior analysis, or psycho-educational services.

(B) The membership must be representative of race, ethnicity, and gender. The ~~eight~~ eleven professional members must have been actively engaged in the practice of their respective professions or in the education and training of professional counselors, marriage and family therapists, addiction counselors, behavior analysts, or psycho-educational specialists for at least five years prior to appointment. Members may be licensed as a licensed professional counselor, marriage and family therapist, addiction counselor, behavior analyst, or psycho-educational specialist. Members are eligible for reappointment. Vacancies must be filled in the same manner as the original appointment for the unexpired portion of the term. Each member shall receive per diem, subsistence, and mileage as allowed by law for members of state boards, commissions, and committees for each day actually engaged in the duties of the office, including a reasonable number of days, as determined by board regulation, for preparation and reviewing of applications and examinations in addition to time actually spent in conducting examinations."

C. Section 40-75-20 of the 1976 Code, as last amended by Act 249 of 2018, is further amended to read:

"Section 40-75-20. As used in this article:

(1) 'Addiction counselor' means a professional who practices individual, family, and group addiction counseling.

(2) 'Alcohol and drug counseling services' means those services offered for a fee as part of the treatment and rehabilitation of persons with a substance abuse disorder, at risk of developing a substance abuse disorder, or is negatively affected by someone with a substance abuse disorder. The purpose of alcohol and drug counseling services is to help individuals, families, and groups to address and resolve problems caused by substance abuse.

(3) 'Approved supervisor' means a licensee who has met the requirements for approval as a professional counselor supervisor, marriage and family therapy supervisor, or addiction counselor supervisor as provided in regulation.

(4) 'Assessment' in the practice of counseling and therapy means selecting, administering, scoring, and interpreting evaluative or standardized instruments; assessing, diagnosing, and treating, using standard diagnostic nomenclature, a client's attitudes, abilities, achievements, interests, personal characteristics, disabilities, and mental, emotional, and behavioral problems that are typical of the developmental life cycle; and the use of methods and techniques for understanding human behavior in relation to, coping with, adapting to, or changing life situations. A counselor may assess more serious problems as categorized in standard diagnostic nomenclature but only if the counselor has been specifically trained to assess and treat that particular problem. If a client presents with a problem which is beyond the counselor's training and competence, the counselor must refer that problem to a licensed professional who has been specifically trained to diagnose and treat the presenting problem. In all cases, ethical guidelines as established by the board must be followed.

(5) 'Associate' means an individual who has met the requirements for licensure as a professional counselor associate, marriage and family therapy associate, or addiction counselor associate under the provisions of this article and has been issued a license by the board.

(6) 'Behavior technician' means a paraprofessional who practices under the close, ongoing supervision of a licensed behavior analyst or licensed assistant behavior analyst following the completion of a criminal background check. A behavior technician does not design assessment or intervention plans or procedures but delivers services as assigned by the supervisor responsible for his work.

(7) 'Board' means the South Carolina Board of Licensed Professional Counselors, Marriage and Family Therapists, Addictions Counselors, Behavior Analysts, and Psycho-Educational Specialists.

~~(7)~~(8) 'Certifying entity' means the Behavior Analyst Certification Board or its successor.

(9) 'Client' means a person or patient, whether an individual or a member of a group, a group, an agency or an organization, who receives ~~in an office setting~~ any treatment or service that falls within the scope of practice of a licensed professional counselor, marriage and family therapist, addiction counselor, behavior analyst, or psycho-educational specialist.

~~(8)~~(10) 'Consulting' means the application of scientific principles and procedures in counseling and human development to provide assistance in understanding and solving current or potential problems that the client may have in relation to a third party, individuals, groups, and organizations.

~~(9)~~(11) 'Director' means the Director of the Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation.

~~(10)~~(12) 'Federally assisted program' means a program directly funded by the federal government, operated by the federal government, certified for Medicaid reimbursement, receiving federal block grant funds through a state or local government, licensed by the federal government, or exempt from paying taxes under a provision of the federal Internal Revenue Code.

~~(11)~~(13) 'License' means an authorization to practice counseling, marriage and family therapy, or behavior analysis, issued by the board pursuant to this article and includes an authorization to practice as a professional counselor associate, marriage and family therapy associate, behavior analyst, behavior analyst assistant, or addiction counselor associate.

~~(12)~~(14) 'Licensee' means an individual who has met the requirements for licensure under this article and has been issued a license to practice as a professional counselor or professional counselor associate, marriage and family therapist or marriage and family therapy associate, behavior analyst, behavior analyst assistant, or addiction counselor associate.

(15) 'Licensed assistant behavior analyst' means an individual who is certified by the certifying entity as a board-certified assistant behavior analyst and is licensed in this State to practice behavior analysis under the extended authority and supervision of a licensed behavior analyst who is approved as a supervisor by the certifying entity.

(16) 'Licensed behavior analyst' means an individual who is certified by the certifying entity as a board-certified behavior analyst or board-certified behavior analyst-doctoral and is licensed in this State to practice behavior analysis independently.

~~(13)~~(17) 'Licensed professional counselor' means an individual who practices professional counseling.

~~(14)~~(18) 'Marriage and family therapy' means the assessment and treatment of mental and emotional disorders, whether cognitive, affective, or behavioral, within the context of marriage and family systems. Marriage and family therapy involves the application of psycho-therapeutic and family systems theories and techniques in the delivery of services to individuals, couples, and families for the purpose of treating diagnosed emotional, mental, behavioral, or addictive disorders.

~~(15)~~(19) 'Person' means an individual, organization, or corporation, except that only individuals can be licensed under this article.

(20) 'Practice of behavior analysis' means the design, implementation, and evaluation of instructional and environmental modifications to produce socially significant improvements in human behavior. The practice of behavior analysis includes the empirical identification of functional relations between behavior and environmental factors, known as functional assessment and analysis. Applied behavior analysis interventions are based on scientific research and direct and indirect observation and measurement of behavior and environment. Behavior analysts uses contextual factors, motivating operations, antecedent stimuli, positive reinforcement, and other procedures to help individuals develop new behaviors, increase or decrease existing behaviors, and emit behaviors under specific environmental conditions. The practice of behavior analysis does not include diagnosis of disorders, psychological testing, psychotherapy, cognitive therapy, psychoanalysis, or counseling.

~~(16)~~(21) 'Practice of marriage and family therapy' means the rendering of marriage and family therapy services to individuals, couples, and families, singly or in groups, whether these services are offered directly to the general public or through organizations, either public or private.

~~(17)~~(22) 'Practice of professional counseling' means functioning as a psycho-therapist and may include, but is not limited to, providing individual therapy, family counseling, group therapy, marital counseling, play therapy, couples counseling, substance abuse counseling, vocational counseling, school counseling, rehabilitation counseling, intervention, human growth and development counseling, behavioral modification counseling, and hypnotherapy. The practice of professional counseling may include assessment, crisis intervention, guidance and counseling to facilitate normal growth and development, including educational and career development; utilization of functional assessment and counseling for persons requesting assistance in adjustment to a disability or handicapping condition; and consultation and research. The use of specific methods, techniques, or modalities within the practice of licensed professional counseling is restricted to professional counselors appropriately trained in the use of these methods, techniques, or modalities.

~~(18)~~(23) 'Practice of addiction counseling' means providing professional services that are delivered by a licensed addiction professional, designed to change substance use or addictive behavior, and involve specialized knowledge and skill related to addictions and addictive behaviors, including understanding addiction, knowledge of the treatment process, application to practice and professional readiness. The term includes:

(a) gathering information through structured interview screens using routine protocols;

(b) reviewing assessment findings to assist in the development of a plan individualized for treatment services and to coordinate services;

(c) referring for further assessment, diagnosis, evaluation and mental health therapy;

(d) providing client and family education related to addictions;

(e) providing information on social networks and community systems for referrals and discharge planning;

(f) participating in multidisciplinary treatment team meetings or consulting with clinical addiction professionals;

(g) counseling, through individual and group counseling, as well as group and family education, to treat addiction and substance use disorders in a variety of settings; and

(h) maintaining the highest level of professionalism and ethical responsibility.

~~(19)~~(24) 'Referral' means evaluating and identifying needs of a client to determine the advisability of referral to other specialists, informing the client of this determination, and communicating as requested or considered appropriate with these referral sources.

~~(20)~~(25) 'Supervision' means the supervision of clinical services in accordance with standards established by the board under the supervision of an approved supervisor."

C. Section 40-75-30 of the 1976 Code, as last amended by Act 249 of 2018, is further amended to read:

"Section 40-75-30. (A) It is unlawful for a person to practice as a professional counselor, a marriage and family therapist, a behavior analyst, assistant behavior analyst, or an addiction counselor in this State without being licensed in accordance with this article unless exempt pursuant to Section 40-75-285. A professional counselor associate may practice only under the direct supervision of a licensed professional counselor supervisor. A marriage and family therapy associate may practice only under the direct supervision of a licensed marriage and family therapist supervisor, as approved by the board. A licensed assistant behavior analyst only may work under the direct supervision of a licensed behavior analyst who is approved as a supervisor by the certifying entity. An addiction counselor associate only may work under a licensed addiction counselor supervisor or other approved board-licensed clinician as provided in regulation.

(B) A person is guilty of practicing without a license if the person represents himself or herself to be a marriage and family therapist by the use of any title or description of services which incorporates the words 'licensed marital and family therapist', 'licensed marriage and family therapist', 'marital and family therapist', 'marriage and family therapist', or 'marriage and family counselor' to describe a function or service performed without being licensed by the board. However, members of other professions licensed in this State including, but not limited to, attorneys, physicians, psychologists, registered nurses, or social workers performing duties consistent with the laws of this State, their training, and any code of ethics of their profession are not considered to be practicing without a license if they do not represent themselves as being licensed pursuant to this article.

(C) A person is guilty of practicing without a license if the person represents himself or herself to be a professional counselor by the use of any title or description of services which incorporates the words 'licensed professional counselor', 'professional counselor', or 'licensed counselor' without being licensed by the board. However, members of other professions licensed in this State including, but not limited to, attorneys, physicians, psychologists, registered nurses, or social workers performing duties consistent with the laws of this State, their training, and any code of ethics of their professions are not considered to be practicing without a license if they do not represent themselves as being licensed pursuant to this article.

(D) A person is guilty of practicing without a license if the person represents himself to be an addiction counselor by the use of any title or description of services which incorporates the words 'licensed addiction counselor' or 'addiction counselor' without being licensed by the board. However, members of other professions licensed in this State including, but not limited to, attorneys, physicians, psychologists, registered nurses, or social workers performing duties consistent with the laws of this State, their training, and any code of ethics of their professions are not considered to be practicing without a license if they do not represent themselves as being licensed pursuant to this article.

(E) A person is guilty of practicing without a license if he represents himself to be a behavior analyst by the use of any title or description of services that incorporates the words 'licensed behavior analyst' or 'licensed assistant behavior analyst' without being licensed by the board. However, members of other professions licensed in this State including, but not limited to, attorneys, physicians, psychologists, registered nurses, or social workers performing duties consistent with the laws of this State, their training, and any code of ethics of their professions are not considered to be practicing without a license if they do not represent themselves as being licensed pursuant to this article.

(F) A licensed professional counselor, a licensed marital and family therapist, a licensed behavior analyst, a licensed assistant behavior analyst, or a licensed addiction counselor may not use the title of 'psycho-therapist'."

D. Section 40-75-110(A) of the 1976 Code, as last amended by Act 249 of 2018, is further amended to read:

"(A) The board may revoke, suspend, publicly or privately reprimand, or restrict a licensee or otherwise discipline a licensee when it is established to the satisfaction of the board that a licensee has:

(1) uttered a false or fraudulent statement or forged a statement or document or committed or practiced a fraudulent, deceitful, or dishonest act in connection with license requirements;

(2) been convicted of a felony or other crime involving moral turpitude. Forfeiture of a bond or a plea of nolo contendere is the equivalent of a conviction;

(3) violated a regulation, directive, or order of the board;

(4) knowingly performed an act which substantially assists a person to practice counseling, marriage and family therapy, behavior analysis, or addiction counseling illegally;

(5) caused to be published or circulated directly or indirectly fraudulent, false, or misleading statements as to the skills or methods or practice of a license holder when malice is shown;

(6) failed to provide and maintain reasonable sanitary facilities;

(7) sustained physical or mental impairment or disability which renders practice dangerous to the public;

(8) violated the code of ethics adopted by the board in regulations;

(9) obtained fees or assisted in obtaining fees under deceptive, false, or fraudulent circumstances;

(10) used an intentionally false or fraudulent statement in a document connected with the practice of professional counseling, marriage and family therapy, behavior analysis, or addiction counseling;

(11) been found by the board to lack the professional competence to practice;

(12) practiced during the time his license has lapsed or been suspended or revoked;

(13) practiced the profession or occupation while under the influence of alcohol or drugs or uses alcohol or drugs to such a degree as to render him unfit to practice his profession or occupation."

E. Section 40-75-190(B) of the 1976 Code, as last amended by Act 249 of 2018, is further amended to read:

"(B) All communications between clients and their licensed professional counselor, marriage and family therapist, licensed behavior analyst, licensed assistant behavior analyst, or addiction counselor are considered privileged as provided in Section 19-11-95, protecting confidences between patients of mental illness or emotional condition and licensees under this chapter, and as provided in Section 19-11-100, providing limited protection for persons engaged in the gathering of information for journalistic or literary purposes. Additionally, a licensed professional counselor, a licensed marital and family therapist, a licensed behavior analyst, a licensed assistant behavior analyst, or addiction counselor must maintain privileged communications and patient confidentiality as required of psycho-therapists. All records of treatments maintained by a licensed professional counselor, marriage and family therapist, a licensed behavior analyst, a licensed assistant behavior analyst, or an addiction counselor are confidential and must not be disclosed except under the circumstances provided for in this subsection."

F. Section 40-75-200(A) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(A) A person who practices or offers to practice as a counselor, behavior analyst, assistant behavior analyst, or marriage and family therapist in this State in violation of this chapter or a regulation promulgated under this chapter or who knowingly submits false information to the board for the purpose of obtaining a license is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, must be fined not more than one thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than six months, or both."

G. Section 40-75-220 of the 1976 Code, as last amended by Act 249 of 2018, is further amended to read:

"Section 40-75-220. To be licensed by the board as a professional counselor, marriage and family therapist, behavior analyst, assistant behavior analyst, or addiction counselor, an individual must:

(1) pay the appropriate fees and pass an examination approved by the board;

(2) complete forms prescribed by the board; and

(3) complete the following educational requirements:

(a) for licensed professional counselor or marriage and family therapist, successfully complete a minimum of a master's degree or higher degree program and have been awarded a graduate degree as provided in regulation, provided all course work, including any additional core coursework, must be taken at a college or university accredited by a national educational accrediting body, or one that follows similar educational standards and by the Commission on the Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, one of its transferring regional associations, the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada, or a post-degree program accredited by the Commission on Accreditation for Marriage and Family Therapy Education, or a regionally accredited institution of higher learning subsequent to receiving the graduate degree; ~~or~~

(b) for licensed addiction counselor, successfully complete a minimum of a master's degree or higher degree program and have been awarded a graduate degree as provided in regulation, provided all course work, including any additional core coursework, must be taken at a college or university accredited by a national educational accrediting body, or one that follows similar standards and the Commission on the Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, one of its transferring regional associations, the Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada, the National Addiction Studies Accreditation Commission, other board-approved educational institution, or a regionally accredited institution of higher learning; or

(c) for licensed behavior analyst or licensed assistant behavior analyst, have current certification at the appropriate level verified with the certifying entity by the board and complete a criminal background check pursuant to regulation of the board. The cost of the criminal background check must be paid by the applicant. An applicant shall submit to the board two complete sets of fingerprints and a form, sworn to by the applicant, containing his name, date of birth, and Social Security number for completion of the criminal background check. The board shall submit the fingerprints and form to the State Law Enforcement Division to determine any state criminal history, a fingerprint-based background check to be conducted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation to determine any other criminal history, and a search of the National Crime Information Center National Sex Offender Registry and the state sex offender registry pursuant to Section 23-3-430. The board shall keep information received pursuant to this section confidential, except that any information received and relied upon in denying the issuance of a license in this State may be disclosed if necessary to support the denial. Behavior technicians also must complete a criminal background check consistent with this subsection."

H. Section 40-75-250(A) of the 1976 Code, as last amended by Act 249 of 2018, is further amended to read:

"(A) If an applicant satisfies all licensure requirements as provided for in this article, the board may issue a license to the applicant. A license is a personal right and not transferable, and the issuance of a license is evidence that the person is entitled to all rights and privileges of a licensed professional counselor, a marriage and family therapist, a licensed behavior analyst, licensed assistant behavior analyst, an addiction counselor, or of an associate, while the license remains current and unrestricted. However, the license is the property of the State and upon suspension or revocation immediately must be returned to the board."

I. Section 40-75-260 of the 1976 Code, as last amended by Act 249 of 2018, is further amended to read:

"Section 40-75-260. (A) The board may enter into a reciprocal agreement with a state that credentials professional counselors, marriage and family therapists, behavior analysts, assistant behavior analysts, or addiction counselors if the board finds that the state has substantially the same or higher licensure requirements.

(B)(1) The board may license an individual who is currently credentialed or meets the requirements of a licensed professional counselor, licensed marriage and family therapist, licensed behavior analysts, licensed assistant behavior analyst, or addiction counselor in another jurisdiction of the United States if the individual has met the standards defined in regulation.

(2) The board shall delineate in regulation procedures for verifying an applicant's credentials from another jurisdiction.

(3) The board may not license an applicant who is under investigation in this or another jurisdiction for an act that would constitute a violation of this chapter until the investigation is complete. When deciding a case, the board shall determine what, if any, rules or discipline apply.

(C) The board may grant a license to practice professional counseling, marriage and family therapy, behavior analysis, or addiction counseling to an applicant who has completed an educational program in a college or university in a foreign country if the applicant:

(1) meets all requirements of this article; ~~and~~

(2) complete a criminal background check pursuant to Section 40-75-220(4); and

(3) demonstrates to the satisfaction of the board that the applicant's experience, command of the English language, and completed academic program meet the standards of a relevant academic program of an accredited educational institution within the United States. If the requirements of this item are met, the applicant must be considered to have received the education from an accredited educational institution as required by this article."

J. Section 40-75-285 of the 1976 Code, as last amended by Act 249 of 2018, is further amended to read:

"Section 40-75-285. (A) This article is for the regulation of the practice of licensed professional counselors, marriage and family therapists, licensed behavior analysts, licensed assistant behavior analyst, and addiction counselors only and does not prevent human resource professionals, business consultants, and other persons from providing advice and counseling in their organizations or affiliated groups or to their companies and employees of their companies or from engaging in activities performed in the course of their employment.

(B) The following are exempt from licensure as behavior analysts or assistant behavior analysts:

(1) Behavior technicians who deliver applied behavior analysis services under the extended authority and direction of a licensed behavior analyst or a licensed assistant behavior analyst who is responsible for seeing that each technician they supervise completes a criminal background check. Behavior technicians must not represent themselves as professional behavior analysts, and must use titles that indicate their nonprofessional status, such as 'ABA technician', 'behavior technician', or 'tutor'.

(2) Caregivers of recipients of applied behavior analysis services who deliver those services to the recipients under the extended authority and direction of a licensed behavior analyst or a licensed assistant behavior analyst. Such individuals may not represent themselves as professional behavior analysts.

(3) Behavior analysts who practice with nonhumans, including applied animal behaviorists and animal trainers. Such individuals may use the title 'behavior analyst' but may not represent themselves as licensed behavior analysts or licensed assistant behavior analysts unless licensed under this chapter.

(4) Professionals who provide general applied behavior analysis services to organizations, so long as those services are for the benefit of the organizations and do not involve direct services to individual clients. Such professionals may use the title 'behavior analyst' but may not represent themselves as licensed behavior analysts or licensed assistant behavior analysts unless licensed under this chapter.

(5) Matriculated college or university students or postdoctoral fellows whose applied behavior analysis activities are part of a defined program of study, course, practicum, internship, or fellowship and are directly supervised by a licensed behavior analyst in this jurisdiction or a qualified faculty member. Such individuals must not represent themselves as professional behavior analysts and must use titles that clearly indicate their trainee status, such as 'student,' 'intern,' or 'trainee.'

(6) Unlicensed individuals pursuing experience in applied behavior analysis consistent with the experience requirements of the certifying entity, provided such experience be supervised in accordance with the requirements of the certifying entity.

(7) Individuals who teach behavior analysis or conduct behavior-analytic research, if such activities do not involve the direct delivery of applied behavior analysis services beyond the typical parameters of applied research. Such individuals may use the title 'behavior analyst' but may not represent themselves as licensed behavior analysts or licensed assistant behavior analysts unless licensed under this chapter.

(8) Individuals employed by a school board performing the duties of their positions. Such individuals may not represent themselves as licensed behavior analysts or licensed assistant behavior analysts unless licensed under this chapter, and may not offer applied behavior analysis services to any persons or entities other than their school employer or accept remuneration for providing applied behavior analysis services other than the remuneration they receive from their school employer.

(9) Unlicensed individuals who were approved as behavior support providers or as qualified providers of behavior analysis services by the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) prior to December 31, 2021, and only until December 31, 2026. Such individuals must not design, oversee, or provide applied behavior analysis services outside of their contracts with DHHS and must not represent themselves as licensed behavior analysts or licensed assistant behavior analysts unless licensed under this chapter. All such individuals must obtain a license under the terms of this chapter by December 31, 2026. This exemption includes any future derivative iterations of DHHS titles used for behavior support services or intensive behavioral interventions. The provisions of this item expire six years after the effective date of this act."

POINT OF ORDER

Rep. G. R SMITH raised the Point of Order under Rule 9.3 that Amendment No. 2 to H. 3840 was not germane to the Bill.

The SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE stated that he had to look at the substantial effect and impact of both the Bill and the Amendment to determine whether the amendment was germane. He stated that Amendment No. 2 went beyond the scope of the Bill's subject matter, and he sustained the Point of Order.

The question recurred to the passage of the Bill.

RECORD FOR VOTING

I was out of the Chamber during the vote on H. 4541. Had I been present, I would have voted in favor of this Bill.

Rep. Chip Huggins

H. 4948--AMENDED AND ORDERED TO THIRD READING

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 4948 -- Rep. Rutherford: A BILL TO AMEND SECTION 17-5-535, CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976, RELATING TO PERSONS AUTHORIZED TO VIEW PHOTOGRAPHS AND VIDEOS OF AN AUTOPSY, SO AS TO RESTRUCTURE THE CIRCUMSTANCES UNDER WHICH PHOTOGRAPHS AND VIDEOS OF AN AUTOPSY MAY BE DISSEMINATED.

The Committee on Medical, Military, Public and Municipal Affairs proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 4948 (COUNCIL\AHB\4948C001.BH.AHB22), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by deleting SECTION 1 and inserting:

/ SECTION 1. Section 17-5-535 of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"Section 17-5-535. (A) Photographs, videos, or other visual images and audio recordings of or related to the performance of an autopsy shall only be viewed by or disseminated to:

(1) the coroner or the medical examiner, or both, and their staff;

(2) members of law enforcement agencies, for official use only;

(3) ~~parents of the deceased, surviving spouse, children, guardian, personal representative next of kin, and any other person given permission or authorization to view or possess the visual images by the personal representative of the deceased's estate;~~

~~(4)~~ those involved in a judicial or administrative proceeding related to the death of the subject of the photograph, video, other visual image or audio recordings including, but not limited to:

(a) parties to a civil suit arising from, related to, or relevant to the death or autopsy of the subject of the photograph, video, other visual image or audio recordings, and the attorneys for the parties and the staff of the attorneys;

(b) a person charged with a crime arising from, related to or relevant to the death or autopsy of the subject of the photograph, video, other visual image or audio recordings, and the person's attorney and the staff of the attorney;

(c) staff of the prosecutor's office considering or prosecuting criminal charges arising from, related to or relevant to the death or autopsy of the subject of the photograph, video, other visual image or audio recordings;

(d) lay and expert witnesses conferred with, consulted or retained by a party or an attorney considering or involved in a legal or administrative proceeding arising from, related to or relevant to the death or autopsy of the subject of the photograph, video, other visual image or audio recordings;

(e) judges and administrative hearing officers, as well as their staff, involved in a judicial or administrative proceeding arising from, related to or relevant to the death or autopsy of the subject of the photograph, video, other visual image or audio recordings; and

(f) members of any jury, including grand juries, petit juries and coroner's juries, empanelled to hear or decide any issue arising from, related to or relevant to the death or autopsy of the subject of the photograph, video, other visual image or audio recordings;

~~(5)~~(4) physicians and other persons consulted by or supervising the physicians or persons who were involved in the performance of the autopsy of the subject of the photograph, video, other visual images, or audio recordings; and ~~(6)~~(5) a person who receives such photographs, videos, or other visual images pursuant to a validly issued court order, after notice and opportunity to object are provided to the personal representative of the deceased's estate.

These photographs and videos must be released and disseminated only as authorized by this section.

(B) Photographs, videos, or other visual images and audio recordings of or related to the performance of an autopsy are allowed to be viewed by and may be disseminated, at the discretion of the coroner, to parents of the deceased, surviving spouse, children, guardian, personal representative, next of kin, and any other person given permission or authorization to view or possess the visual images by the personal representative of the deceased's estate.

(C) Notwithstanding the provisions contained in subsection (A), a photograph, video, other visual image of an autopsy, or an audio recording of an autopsy, or a combination of each of these items, after all information immediately identifying the decedent has been redacted and after making facial recognition anonymous to the extent reasonably possible if lawfully obtained or possessed may be used for:

(1) legitimate medical scientific teaching or training purposes;

(2) legitimate teaching or training of law enforcement personnel;

(3) teaching or training of attorneys or other individuals with a professional need to use or understand forensic science or public health;

(4) conferring with medical or scientific experts in the field of forensic science or public health; or

(5) publication in a scientific or medical or legal journal or textbook.

~~(C)~~(D) A person who violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, must be fined not less than five thousand dollars nor more than fifty thousand dollars. Each violation under this section must be considered a separate offense.

(E) Nothing contained in this section may be construed to limit any victims' rights pursuant to the Constitution of this State or Article 15, Chapter 3, Title 16." /

RECURRENCE TO THE MORNING HOUR

Rep. COBB-HUNTER moved that the House recur to the morning hour, which was agreed to.

H. 4918--AMENDED AND ORDERED TO THIRD READING

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 4918 -- Reps. Thayer, Pope, White, Erickson, Gilliam, Long, Wooten, Atkinson, Magnuson, Haddon, T. Moore, Hyde, Allison, R. Williams, Jefferson, Yow, Forrest, B. Newton, W. Newton, Herbkersman and McGarry: A BILL TO AMEND SECTION 9-11-90, CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976, RELATING TO THE EARNINGS LIMITATION UPON RETURN TO COVERED EMPLOYMENT IN THE SOUTH CAROLINA POLICE OFFICERS RETIREMENT SYSTEM, SO AS TO INCREASE THE AMOUNT THAT MAY BE EARNED WITHOUT AFFECTING THE MONTHLY RETIREMENT ALLOWANCE FROM TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS TO FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR CERTAIN RETIRED MEMBERS.

The Ways and Means Committee proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 4918 (COUNCIL\SA\4918C001.DF.SA22), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

/ SECTION 1. Section 9-11-90(4)(a)(ii) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(ii) The earnings limitation imposed pursuant to this item does not apply if the member meets at least one of the following qualifications:

(A) the member retired before January 2, 2013;

(B) the member has attained the age of fifty-seven years at retirement; ~~or~~

(C) compensation received by the retired member from the covered employer is for service in a public office filled by the appointment of the Governor and with confirmation by the Senate, by appointment or election by the General Assembly, or by election of the qualified electors of the applicable jurisdiction;

(D) the member has not been engaged to perform services for a participating employer in the system or any other system provided in this title for compensation in any capacity, whether as an employee, independent contractor, leased employee, joint employee, or other classification of worker, for a period of at least twelve consecutive months subsequent to retirement. The exemption provided under this subitem does not apply unless the member first certifies to the system that he satisfies the requirements for the exemption. If a member inaccurately certifies that he satisfies the requirements for the exemption provided in this subitem, the member is responsible for reimbursing the system for any benefits wrongly paid to the member; or

(E) compensation received by the retired member from the covered employer is for employment in a critical needs law enforcement position as determined by the Law Enforcement Training Council. For the provisions of this subitem to apply, the Law Enforcement Training Council must review and approve, from the documentation provided by the covered employer, that no qualified, nonretired member is available for employment in the position, and that the member selected for employment meets the requirements of this subitem. No later than January 1, 2023, and each January first thereafter, the Law Enforcement Training Council must submit a report to the Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee and the Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee of the positions requested for inclusion in the earnings limitation exception under this subitem for the following fiscal year. Effective July 1, 2023, and each July first thereafter, the earnings limitation exception provided in this subitem only applies to those positions approved by action of the General Assembly for the fiscal year in response to the report submitted by the Law Enforcement Training Council. The Law Enforcement Training Council shall develop guidelines and curriculum for these officers to be recertified and may not require recertification through basic training for those that have been inactive for a year or more."

SECTION 2. Section 9-1-1790(A)(2) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(2) The earnings limitation imposed pursuant to this item does not apply if the member meets at least one of the following qualifications:

(a) the member retired before January 2, 2013;

(b) the member has attained the age of sixty-two years at retirement; ~~or~~

(d) the member has not been engaged to perform services for a participating employer in the system or any other system provided in this title for compensation in any capacity, whether as an employee, independent contractor, leased employee, joint employee, or other classification of worker, for a period of at least twelve consecutive months subsequent to retirement. The exemption provided under this subitem does not apply unless the member first certifies to the system that he satisfies the requirements for the exemption. If a member inaccurately certifies that he satisfies the requirements for the exemption provided in this subitem, the member is responsible for reimbursing the system for any benefits wrongly paid to the member."

H. 3252--AMENDED AND ORDERED TO THIRD READING

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 3252 -- Reps. White, Blackwell, Whitmire, W. Cox, McGarry and B. Newton: A BILL TO AMEND SECTION 23-9-25, CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976, RELATING TO THE V-SAFE PROGRAM, SO AS TO SIMPLIFY THE DEFINITION OF FIRE DEPARTMENTS AND THE PROJECTS ON WHICH GRANT FUNDS MAY BE EXPENDED, TO INCREASE GRANT AMOUNTS, AND TO SPECIFY PROJECTS FOR WHICH GRANTS MAY BE AWARDED; TO AMEND SECTION 38-7-20, AS AMENDED, RELATING TO INSURANCE PREMIUM TAXES, SO AS TO DIRECT ADDITIONAL FUNDS TO THE V-SAFE PROGRAM; TO AMEND SECTION 12-37-935, RELATING TO THE ADDITIONAL DEPRECIATION REIMBURSEMENT, SO AS TO DIRECT A PERCENTAGE OF SUCH FUNDS TO THE V-SAFE PROGRAM; AND TO AMEND SECTION 11-11-150, RELATING TO DEDUCTIONS FROM THE ESTIMATE OF REVENUES, SO AS TO MAKE A CONFORMING CHANGE.

The Labor, Commerce and Industry Committee proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3252 (COUNCIL\DG\ 3252C004.NBD.DG22), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

/ SECTION 1. Section 23-9-25 of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"Section 23-9-25. (A) It is the purpose of this section to create the 'Volunteer Strategic Assistance and Fire Equipment Program' (V-SAFE) within the Division of State Fire Marshal.

(B) This section is contingent upon the General Assembly appropriating funds for the offering of grants ~~of not more than thirty thousand dollars~~ to eligible volunteer and combination fire departments for the purpose of protecting local communities and regional response areas from incidents of fire, hazardous materials, terrorism, and to provide for the safety of volunteer firefighters.

(C)(1) As contained in this section:

(a) '~~chartered~~ Fire department' means a public or governmental sponsored organization providing fire suppression activities with a minimum of a Class 9 rating from the Insurance Services Office;

(b) '~~chartered~~ Volunteer fire department' means a fire department whose personnel serve for no compensation or are paid on a per-call basis; and

~~(~~c) '~~chartered~~ Combination fire department' means a fire department with both members who are paid and members who serve as volunteer firefighters.

(2) ~~Chartered~~ Volunteer fire departments and ~~chartered~~ combination fire departments with a staffing level that is at least fifty percent volunteer are eligible to receive grants pursuant to this section. A ~~chartered~~ fire department that receives a grant must comply with the firefighter registration provisions of Act 60 of 2001 and sign the statewide mutual aid agreement with the South Carolina Emergency Management Division.

(D) ~~The amount of the grants awarded shall not exceed thirty thousand dollars per year for each eligible chartered fire department, with no matching or in-kind money required. A chartered~~ An eligible fire department may be awarded only one grant ~~in a three-year period~~ annually.

(E) The grant money received by a ~~chartered~~ fire department must be used for the following purposes:

(1) fire suppression equipment;

(2) self-contained breathing apparatus;

(3) portable air refilling systems;

(4) hazardous materials spill leak detection, repair, and recovery equipment;

(5) protective clothing and equipment;

(6) new and used fire apparatus;

(7) incident command vehicles;

(8) special operations vehicles;

(9) training;

(10) rescue equipment;

(11) medical equipment;

(12) decontamination equipment; ~~and~~

(13) safety equipment;

(14) real properties or improvements thereto including upgrades and rehabilitations; and

(15) communications equipment.

(2) The peer-review panel shall consist of nine voting members who shall serve without compensation. Seven members must be fire chiefs from each of the seven regions of the State as defined by the State Fire Marshal. The Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee shall appoint fire chiefs from Regions 1, 2, and 7. The Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee shall appoint fire chiefs from Regions 3, 4, and 6. The Governor shall appoint one fire chief from Region 5 and one fire chief from the State at large. The State Fire Marshal also shall serve as a member. The President of the South Carolina State Firefighters' Association shall serve as a nonvoting member and chairman of the committee. The peer-review panel shall act as an oversight panel and act to ensure compliance, relevance, and adherence to the prescribed intent of the grants as set forth in this section.

(3) An applicant for grant money must submit justification for their project that provides details regarding the project and the project's budget, ~~the benefits to be derived from the project, the applicant's financial need, and how the project would affect the applicant's daily operations in protecting lives and property within their community. Each application must be judged on its own merit. The panelists must consider all expenses budgeted, including administrative or indirect costs, as part of the cost-benefit review. An applicant may demonstrate cost-benefit by describing, as applicable, how the grant award will:~~

~~(a) enhance a regional approach that is consistent with current capabilities and requests of neighboring organizations or otherwise benefits other organizations in the region;~~

~~(b) implement interoperable communications capabilities with other local, state, and federal first responders and other organizations;~~

~~(c) allow first responder organizations to respond to all hazards, including incidents involving seismic, atmospheric, or technological events, or chemical, biological, radiological, nuclear, or explosive incidents, as well as fire prevention and suppression.~~

~~Applications that best address the grant funding priorities shall score higher than applications that are inconsistent with the priorities. During the panel review process, panelists shall provide a subjective but qualitative judgment on the merit of each request.~~

~~Panelists shall evaluate and score the proposed project's clarity, including the project's budget detail, the organization's financial need, the benefits that would result from an award relative to the cost, and the extent to which the grant would enhance daily operations or how the grant will positively impact an organization's ability to protect life and property. Each element shall be equally important for purposes of the panelists' scores. Panelists must review each application in its entirety and rate the application according to the evaluation criteria.~~

~~Applications shall be evaluated by the panelists relative to the critical infrastructure within the applicant's area of first due response. Critical infrastructure includes any system or asset that, if attacked or impacted by a hazardous event, would result in catastrophic loss of life or catastrophic economic loss. Critical infrastructure includes public water or power systems, major business centers, chemical facilities, nuclear power plants, major rail and highway bridges, petroleum and natural gas transmission pipelines or storage facilities, telecommunications facilities, or facilities that support large public gatherings such as sporting events or concerts. Panelists shall assess the infrastructure and the hazards confronting the community to determine the benefits to be realized from a grant to the applicant.~~

Applicants that falsify their application, or misrepresent their organization in any material manner, shall have their applications deemed ineligible and referred to the Attorney General for further action, as the Attorney General deems appropriate.

(4) The project period for any award grant shall be twelve months from the date of the award. Any equipment purchased with the grant must meet all mandatory regulatory requirements, as well as, all state, national, and Department of Homeland Security adopted standards.

Award recipients must agree to:

(a) perform, within the designated period of performance, all approved tasks as outlined in the application;

(b) retain grant files and supporting documentation for three years after the conclusion and close out of the grant or any audit subsequent to close out;

(c) ensure all procurement actions are conducted in a manner that provides, to the maximum extent possible, open and free competition. In doing so, the recipient must follow its established procurement law when purchasing vehicles, equipment, and services with the grant. If possible, the recipient must obtain at least two quotes or bids for the items being procured and document the process used in the grant files. Sole-source purchasing is not an acceptable procurement method except in circumstances allowed by law;

(d) submit a performance report to the peer-review panel six months after the grant is awarded. If a grant's period of performance is extended for any reason, the recipient must submit performance reports every six months until the grant is closed out. At grant closeout, the recipient must report how the grant funding was used and the benefits realized from the award in a detailed final report. An accounting of the funds also must be included; and

(e) Any fire department that fails to submit the required progress and close-out reports shall be deemed ineligible for future grants until the required reports are submitted and for a period of not less than one grant cycle. Any fire department that is found to have fraudulently expended funds or misrepresented how the funds were utilized will be referred to the Attorney General for further action.

(f) make grant files, books, and records available, if requested by any person, for inspection to ensure compliance with any requirement of the grant program.

(5) A recipient that completes the approved scope of work prior to the end of the performance period, and still has grant funds available, may:

(a) use the greater of one percent of their award amount or three hundred dollars to continue or expand, the activities for which they received the award without submitting an application to amend the grant request;

(b) use excess funds to create or expand, a fire or injury prevention program. Excess funds above the amounts discussed in subitem (a) must be used for fire or injury prevention activities or returned to the program. In order to use excess funds for fire or injury prevention activities, a recipient must submit an amendment to its grant.

The amendment request must explain fire or injury prevention efforts currently underway within the organization, where the use of excess funds would fit within the existing efforts, the target audience for the fire or injury prevention project and how this audience was identified, and how the effectiveness of the requested fire or injury prevention project will be evaluated;

(c) use a combination of subitems (a) and (b); ~~or~~

(d) submit an application to the peer-review panel to amend the grant request to redirect funds to another eligible project; or

(e) return excess funds to the program. To return the excess funds, a recipient must close out its award and state in the final performance report that the remaining funds are not necessary for the fulfillment of grant obligations. The recipient also must indicate that it understands that the funds will be unavailable for future expenses.

(6) The State Fire Marshal shall:

(a) develop a grant application package utilizing the established guidelines;

(b) establish and market a written and electronic version of the grant application package;

(c) provide an annual report of all grant awards and corresponding chartered fire department purchases to the Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, the Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, and the Governor;

(d) provide all administrative support to the peer-review panel; ~~and~~

(e) provide a grants web page for electronic applications; and

(f) determine the annual maximum amount of grant funding an eligible fire department may receive based on the total amount of grant funding received divided by the total number of eligible fire departments.

(G) Two percent of these funds may be awarded to the South Carolina State Firefighters' Association annually for the express purpose of establishing and maintaining a recruitment and retention program for volunteer firefighters. The association must apply for the grant to the peer-review panel.

(H) Up to three percent of these funds must be retained by the State Fire Marshal for the express purpose of funding costs associated with the administration of the program.

(I) The State Fire Marshal has the authority to receive and distribute to eligible fire departments all grant funds according to this section.

(J) Grant funds that are not distributed may be carried forward to the next fiscal year to be used for the same purposes."

SECTION 2. Section 38-7-20(B)(2) of the 1976 Code, as last amended by Act 149 of 2020, is further amended to read:

"(2) ~~one~~ four percent must be transferred to the V-SAFE program pursuant to Section 23-9-25;"

SECTION 3. A. Section 12-37-935(B) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(B) Annually as provided in Section 11-11-150, there is credited to the Trust Fund for Tax Relief an amount sufficient to reimburse all local taxing entities the amount of revenue not collected as a result of the additional depreciation more than eighty percent allowed for manufacturer's machinery and equipment pursuant to this section; however, one percent of such funds must be credited to the V-SAFE program, established pursuant to Section 23-9-25. No reimbursement is allowed for any depreciation allowed in connection with custom molds and dies used in the conduct of manufacturing electronic interconnection component assembly devices for computers and computer peripherals and equipment used in the manufacture of tires by manufacturers who employ more than five thousand employees in this State and have over one billion dollars in capital investment in this State. Reimbursements must be paid from the fund in the manner provided in Section 12-37-270, mutatis mutandis."

B. Section 11-11-150(A)(3) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(3) Section 12-37-935(B) for manufacturer's additional depreciation, including such amounts credited to the V-SAFE program;"

The Ways and Means Committee proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3120 (COUNCIL\SA\3120C002.JN.SA22), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

/ SECTION 1. Chapter 6, Title 12 of the 1976 Code is amended by adding:

"Section 12-6-3810. (A) A taxpayer who encumbers his property with a perpetual recreational trail easement and right of way is allowed a one-time income tax credit equal to ten cents for each square foot of the property that is encumbered by the recreational trail easement.

(B) The easement and right of way must be held by a municipality or county within the State or by a Land Trust Alliance accredited land trust and must be recorded with the appropriate Register of Deeds. The easement must include an agreement with the municipality, county, or land trust to grant access to the general public and address improvements to the trail, which could include pavement or soft-surface trails and maintenance.

(C) To qualify for this tax credit, the trail must provide a connection between a trail within a municipality's or county's regional trail system plan in this State and a local or regional attraction or point of interest. User groups may include equestrians, pedestrians, bicyclists, and other non-motorized users. Local or regional points of interest include other trails, parks, waterways, or other recreational and open space attractions, retail centers, arts and cultural facilities, transportation facilities, residential concentrations, or similar destinations.

(D) If the credit exceeds the taxpayer's tax liability for the taxable year, the excess amount may be carried forward for credit against income taxes in the next five succeeding taxable years.

(E) To receive the credit the taxpayer shall claim the credit on his income tax or withholding return in a manner prescribed by the department. The department may require any information that it determines is necessary for the calculation of the credit provided by this section.

(F) The maximum amount of tax credits allowed to all qualifying taxpayers pursuant to this section may not exceed one million dollars for each calendar year."

SECTION 2. This act takes effect upon approval by the Governor and applies to income tax years beginning after 2020. This act is repealed on January 1, 2026 and is no longer effective for any income tax year after 2025. /

H. 4817--AMENDED AND ORDERED TO THIRD READING

The following Bill was taken up:

H. 4817 -- Reps. Ligon, Simrill, McGarry, B. Newton, Atkinson, R. Williams, Wheeler, Hardee, Gagnon, Hill, Huggins, Taylor and Blackwell: A BILL TO AMEND THE CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976, TO ENACT THE "SHORT LINE RAILROAD MODERNIZATION ACT" BY ADDING SECTION 12-6-3810 SO AS TO PROVIDE FOR AN INCOME TAX CREDIT EQUAL TO FIFTY PERCENT OF AN ELIGIBLE TAXPAYER'S QUALIFIED RAILROAD RECONSTRUCTION OR REPLACEMENT EXPENDITURES, AND TO PROVIDE FOR THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE TAX CREDIT.

The Ways and Means Committee proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 4817 (COUNCIL\DG\4817C001.NBD.DG22), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking SECTION 2 and inserting:

/ SECTION 2. Article 25, Chapter 6, Title 12 of the 1976 Code is amended by adding:

"Section 12-6-3810. (A) As used in this section:

(1) 'Department' means the South Carolina Department of Commerce.

(2) 'Eligible taxpayer' means any railroad owner located in this State that is classified by the United States Surface Transportation Board as a Class II or Class III railroad.

(3) 'Qualified railroad reconstruction or replacement expenditures' means gross expenditures for maintenance, reconstruction or replacement of railroad infrastructure, including track, roadbed, bridges, industrial leads and sidings, and track-related structures owned or leased by a Class II or Class III railroad located in this State.

(4) 'Eligible transferee' means any taxpayer subject to tax under Sections 12-6-510, 12-6-530, 12-11-20, or 38-7-20.

(B)(1) There is allowed a credit against the tax imposed pursuant to Sections 12-6-510, 12-6-530, 12-11-20, or 38-7-20 equal to fifty percent of an eligible taxpayer's qualified railroad reconstruction or replacement expenditures.

(2) For qualified railroad reconstruction or replacement expenditures the amount of the credit may not exceed five thousand dollars multiplied by the number of miles of railroad track owned or leased within this State by the eligible taxpayer as of the close of the taxable year.

(C)(1) Following the completion of qualified railroad reconstruction or replacement expenditures, the eligible taxpayer shall submit to the Department of Commerce a verification of qualified expenditures on a form provided for that purpose by the Department of Commerce. The verification must include a statement certifying:

(a) the status of the owner or lessee of the railroad as an eligible taxpayer;

(b) certification of the miles of railroad track owned or leased in this State;

(c) the qualified railroad reconstruction or replacement work completed; and

(d) a description of the amount of qualified railroad reconstruction or replacement expenditures paid or incurred.

Within thirty days after receipt and approval of the foregoing documentation from the eligible taxpayer, the department shall issue a tax credit certificate in an amount equivalent to the amount of the qualified railroad reconstruction or replacement expenditures incurred by the eligible taxpayer, not to exceed the amount of the tax credits reserved for the project.

(2) At the end of each year, the department shall furnish to the Department of Revenue a list of all eligible taxpayers who have qualified for the credit along with the amount of the credit authorized.

(3) Section 12-54-240 may not apply to any information exchanged between the Department of Commerce and the Department of Revenue relating to the credit allowed pursuant to this section.

(D) The department may adopt rules to implement and administer this section and to enable the certification of the income tax credit amount earned by each eligible taxpayer.

(E) In order to obtain a credit against any state income tax due, an eligible taxpayer shall file the tax credit certificate with the taxpayer's South Carolina state income tax return.

(F) Any tax credit generated pursuant to the provisions of this section, to the extent not used, may be carried forward for each of the five years following the year of qualification.

(G)(1) An eligible taxpayer may transfer any unused credit to any eligible transferee by written agreement, at any time during the five years following the tax year the qualified railroad reconstruction or replacement expenditures are incurred. Any eligible transferee is entitled to claim the credit only for any period remaining for the tax credit.

(2) The eligible taxpayer and the eligible transferee must file jointly a copy of the written transfer agreement with the Department of Revenue, within thirty days of the transfer. The written agreement must contain the name, address, and taxpayer identification number of the eligible taxpayer and the eligible transferee, the tax year the eligible taxpayer incurred the qualified railroad reconstruction or replacement expenditures, the amount of credit being transferred, and the tax year or years for which the credit maybe claimed.

(H) The department shall report to the Senate Finance Committee and the House Ways and Means Committee by July 1, 2025, and annually thereafter for the duration of the existence of this program, on the use of the credit, including the number of tax credits applied for and the number of tax credits granted from the qualified railroad reconstruction or replacement expenditures for which tax credits have been allowed." /

H. 4985 -- Reps. Hosey, Henegan, Clyburn, Rivers, Tedder, R. Williams, K. O. Johnson, Thigpen, Bamberg, Kirby, Govan, Cobb-Hunter, S. Williams, J. L. Johnson, Alexander, McKnight, Weeks, Murray and Gilliard: A BILL TO AMEND THE CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976, BY ADDING CHAPTER 54 TO TITLE 11 SO AS TO ESTABLISH THE "I-95 CORRIDOR AUTHORITY ACT" AND TO PROVIDE FOR THE COMPOSITION, DUTIES, AND POWERS OF THE AUTHORITY.

The Ways and Means Committee proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 4985 (COUNCIL\SA\4985C001.JN.SA22), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

/ SECTION 1. Title 11 of the 1976 Code is amended by adding:

"CHAPTER 54

I-95 Corridor Authority Act

Section 11-54-5. This chapter may be cited as the 'I-95 Corridor Authority Act'.

Section 11-54-10. There is established the I-95 Corridor Authority. The authority must:

(1) carry out economic development, health, and educational improvement activities which, in the opinion of the authority, will improve the economic conditions in its member counties and are located in a member county or an adjacent census tract.

(2) report to the General Assembly, at least annually, on the progress made related to its charge, any modification of the laws of this State needed to allow the authority to better fulfill its charge, programs, and operations.

Section 11-54-15. The authority is a public body, politic and corporate, and an agency of the State and may:

(1) adopt bylaws, procedures, and regulations for the directors, officers, and employees and for implementation and operation of the programs authorized by this act;

(2) sue and be sued in its own name;

(3) enter into contracts, agreements, and instruments and make offers to contract with persons, partnerships, firms, corporations, agencies, or entities, whether public or private, considered desirable in the furtherance of its purpose;

(4) acquire by purchase, donation, exchange, or otherwise, hold, improve, mortgage, pledge, or otherwise, encumber, manage, lease, convey, transfer, or dispose of any real or personal property, whether tangible or intangible, together with rights and privileges as may be incidental and appurtenant thereto. To the extent that administrative funds are involved, the authority must comply with the provisions of the South Carolina Consolidated Procurement Code. To the extent that the liability of the authority is limited to program funds, any acquisition or disposition may be pursuant to public or private sale upon terms and conditions as the authority may approve in accordance with prudent business practices;

(5) appoint officers, agents, employees, and consultants, prescribe their duties, and fix their compensation; and

(6) participate in and cooperate with any agency or instrumentality of the United States and with any agency or political subdivision of this State in the administration of any of the programs authorized by this act.

Section 11-54-20. The member counties of the authority consist of Allendale, Bamberg, Barnwell, Clarendon, Colleton, Darlington, Dillon, Hampton, Lee, Marion, Marlboro, Orangeburg, Sumter, and Williamsburg.

Section 11-54-25. (A) The authority is governed by a board of directors that is composed of thirteen members. The members must be appointed as follows:

(1) four members appointed by the senators whose districts include the member counties;

(2) four members appointed by the representatives whose districts include the member counties; and

(3) five members appointed by the Governor, one of whom is designated as chairperson.

No member may be a legislator or a member of a legislator's family. No two members designated in items (1) through (3) may reside in the same county. All members designated in items (1) through (3) must have sufficient experience in the fields of education, economic development, healthcare, or business management to deem them qualified as determined by the appointing senators, representatives, or chairman.

(B) Except as provided in subsection (C), members must serve a three-year term and must be limited to two terms. Any vacancy on the authority must be filled in the same manner as the original appointment. Members of the authority shall serve without mileage, per diem, and subsistence.

(C) Initial appointments to the authority pursuant to subsection (A)(3) must be made within sixty days of the enactment of this section. Appointments pursuant to subsections (A)(1) and (2) must be made from sixty to one hundred twenty days of the enactment of this section.

Four appointees shall serve for a one-year term and four appointees shall serve for a two-year term, all determined by lot at the first called meeting except for the chairman who shall serve a three-year term.

(D) The initial meeting of the authority shall be convened by the chairman as soon as practical after the initial appointments are made. Business of the authority only may be conducted when a quorum is present. A quorum consists of a majority of the members appointed pursuant to subsection (A)(1)-(3).

Section 11-54-30. (A) The authority shall receive state funds as appropriated by the General Assembly.

(B) In addition to funding sources listed in subsection (A), the authority is authorized to solicit and accept private and public donations, grants, gifts, and federal funds. All funds received by the authority, regardless of their source, are to be held and accounted for by the State Treasurer in a separate investment account to be known as the 'I-95 Corridor Authority Fund'. This fund is separate and distinct from all other funds. Earnings and interest on this fund must be credited to it and any balance in this fund at the end of a fiscal year carries forward in the fund in the succeeding fiscal year. Disbursements from the authority fund only must be made upon the signature of the chairmen of the board of directors, or a designee of the board, upon written warrants of the Comptroller General drawn on the State Treasurer to the payee designated in the requisition.

(C) The authority must distribute funds as loans or grants, in a manner which fulfills the charge in Section 11-54-10. The authority must create guidelines to govern the selection of recipients of grants or loans and the distribution of these funds.

(D) The authority must be audited annually by the State Auditor or by an independent certified public accounting firm approved by the State Auditor."

H. 3106--REQUESTS FOR DEBATE WITHDRAWN, AMENDED AND ORDERED TO THIRD READING

Upon the withdrawal of requests for debate by Reps. BAMBERG, ALEXANDER, BRAWLEY, KING, HOSEY, THIGPEN, J. L. JOHNSON and K. O. JOHNSON, the following Bill was taken up:

H. 3106 -- Reps. Bannister, G. R. Smith, Dillard, Elliott, Hosey and Willis: A BILL TO AMEND SECTIONS 9-1-1085 AND 9-11-225, CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976, BOTH RELATING TO EMPLOYER AND EMPLOYEE CONTRIBUTION RATES UNDER THE SOUTH CAROLINA RETIREMENT SYSTEM AND THE POLICE OFFICERS RETIREMENT SYSTEM RESPECTIVELY, SO AS TO PROVIDE THAT AN EMPLOYER, UP TO CERTAIN LIMITS, MAY ELECT TO PAY ALL OR A PORTION OF REQUIRED EMPLOYEE CONTRIBUTIONS DURING A FISCAL YEAR.

The Ways and Means Committee proposed the following Amendment No. 1 to H. 3106 (COUNCIL\SA\3106C002.NBD.SA21), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

/ SECTION 1. A. Section 9-1-1085 of the 1976 Code is amended by adding a new subsection (E) at the end to read:

"(E) In lieu of the deductions from compensation required by Sections 9-1-1020 and 9-1-1160, an employer may elect, no later than July first, to pick up all or a portion of the employee contributions required by this section for the following fiscal year without a reduction or offset from its employees' compensation. Employee contributions picked up without such reduction or offset from the employee's compensation must be treated as employer contributions in determining federal tax treatment under Section 414(h)(2) of the United States Internal Revenue Code, but must be credited as employee contributions for the purposes of the system. An employer making the election provided by this subsection is considered to have taken formal action to provide that the contributions on behalf of its employees, although designated as employee contributions, must be paid by the employer in lieu of employee contributions. The employer shall pay these employee contributions from the same source of funds which is used in paying earnings to the employee. The employee, however, may not be given any option of choosing to receive the contributed amount of the pick ups directly instead of having them paid by the employer to the retirement system. An employer's election to pick up contributions without a reduction or offset from its employees' compensation pursuant to this subsection may not be changed during the fiscal year, but may be changed for future fiscal years."

B. Section 9-11-225 of the 1976 Code is amended by adding a new subsection (E) at the end to read:

"(E) In lieu of the deductions from compensation required by Section 9-11-210, an employer may elect, no later than July first, to pick up all or a portion of the employee contributions required by this section for the following fiscal year without a reduction or offset from its employees' compensation. Employee contributions picked up without such reduction or offset from the employee's compensation must be treated as employer contributions in determining federal tax treatment under Section 414(h)(2) of the United States Internal Revenue Code, but must be credited as employee contributions for the purposes of the system. An employer making the election provided by this subsection is considered to have taken formal action to provide that the contributions on behalf of its employees, although designated as employee contributions, must be paid by the employer in lieu of employee contributions. The employer shall pay these employee contributions from the same source of funds which is used in paying earnings to the employee. The employee, however, may not be given any option of choosing to receive the contributed amount of the pick ups directly instead of having them paid by the employer to the retirement system. An employer's election to pick up contributions without a reduction or offset from its employees' compensation pursuant to this subsection may not be changed during the fiscal year, but may be changed for future fiscal years."

SECTION 2. A. Section 9-1-10(8) of the 1976 Code is amended by adding an appropriately lettered subitem at the end to read:

"( ) Employee contributions picked up by an employer pursuant to Section 9-1-1085(E) without a reduction or offset from the member's compensation are not earnable compensation for the purposes of the system."

B. Section 9-11-10(12) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(12) 'Compensation' means the total remuneration paid to a police officer for service rendered to an employer for his full normal working time; when compensation includes maintenance, fees and other things of value, the board shall fix the value of that part of the compensation not paid in money directly by the employer. Employee contributions picked up by an employer pursuant to Section 9-11-225(E) without a reduction or offset from the member's compensation are not compensation for the purposes of the system."

SECTION 3. A. Section 9-1-10(1) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(1) 'Accumulated contribution' means the sum of all the amounts either deducted from the compensation of a member or paid by the employer in lieu of employee contributions pursuant to Section 9-1-1085(E) and credited to the ~~members~~ member's individual account in the employee annuity savings fund, together with regular interest on the account, as provided in Article 9 of this chapter."

B. Section 9-11-10(2) and (6) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(2) 'Accumulated contributions' means the sum of all the amounts either deducted from the compensation of a member or paid by the employer in lieu of employee contributions pursuant to Section 9-11-225(E), and credited to the member's individual account in the employee annuity savings fund, together with regular interest on the account, as provided in this chapter.

(6) 'Aggregate contributions' means the sum of all the amounts either deducted from the compensation of a member or paid by the employer in lieu of employee contributions pursuant to Section 9-11-225(E), and credited to the member's individual account in the system, including any amounts transferred from another fund to the system as provided in Section 9-11-210(6)."

C. Section 9-11-260(2) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(2) The members' account shall be the account in which shall be held the contributions deducted from the compensation of members and amounts paid by the employer in lieu of employee contributions pursuant to Section 9-11-225(E), together with the interest credited thereon. Upon the retirement of a member, or upon the death of a member if an allowance is payable to his beneficiary pursuant to Section 9-11-130, the amount of his accumulated contributions shall be transferred to the accumulation account."

SECTION 4. A. The fourth undesignated paragraph of Section 9-1-1020 is amended to read:

"Each ~~department and political subdivision~~ employer shall pick up the employee contributions required by this section for all compensation paid on or after July 1, 1982, and the contributions so picked up shall be treated as employer contributions in determining federal tax treatment under Section 414(h)(2) of the United States Internal Revenue Code. For this purpose, ~~each department and political subdivision~~ employer is deemed to have taken formal action on or before January 1, 2009, to provide that the contributions on behalf of its employees, although designated as ~~employer~~ employee contributions, shall be paid by the employer in lieu of employee contributions. The ~~department and political subdivision~~ employer shall pay these employee contributions from the same source of funds which is used in paying earnings to the employee. The ~~department and political subdivision~~ employer may pick up these contributions by a reduction in the ~~cash salary of the employee~~ compensation or, if the employer makes an election authorized pursuant to Section 9-1-1085(E), it may pay the amount designated as an employee contribution without a reduction or offset from the employee's compensation."

B. Section 9-1-1160(B) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(B) Each ~~department and political subdivision~~ employer shall pick up the employee contributions required by this section for all compensation paid on or after July 1, 1982, and the contributions picked up must be treated as employer contributions in determining federal tax treatment under Section 414(h)(2) of the United States Internal Revenue Code. ~~Each department and political subdivision shall continue to withhold federal income taxes based upon these contributions until the Internal Revenue Service, or the federal courts, rule, pursuant to Section 414(h) of the United States Internal Revenue Code, that these contributions are not included as gross income of the employee until such time as they are distributed or made available.~~ For this purpose, each employer is considered to have taken formal action to provide that the contributions on behalf of its employees, although designated as employee contributions, must be paid by the employer in lieu of employee contributions. The ~~department and political subdivision~~ employer shall pay these employee contributions from the same source of funds which is used in paying earnings to the employee. The ~~department and political subdivision~~ employer may pick up these contributions by a reduction in the ~~cash salary~~ compensation of the employee or, if the employer makes an election authorized pursuant to Section 9-1-1085(E), it may pay the amount designated as an employee contribution without a reduction or offset from the employee's compensation. Employee contributions picked up must be ~~treated~~ administered for all purposes of this section in the same manner and to the extent as employee contributions made before the date picked up."

C. Section 9-11-210(11) of the 1976 Code is amended to read:

"(11) Each ~~department and political subdivision~~ employer shall pick up the employee contributions required by this section for all compensation paid on or after July 1, 1982, and the contributions so picked up shall be treated as employer contributions in determining federal tax treatment under Section 414(h)(2) of the United States Internal Revenue Code. For this purpose, each ~~department and political subdivision~~ employer is deemed to have taken formal action on or before January 1, 2009, to provide that the contributions on behalf of its employees, although designated as employer contributions, shall be paid by the employer in lieu of employee contributions. The ~~department and political subdivision~~ employer shall pay these employee contributions from the same source of funds which is used in paying earnings to the employee. The ~~department and political subdivision~~ employer may pick up these contributions by a reduction in the ~~cash salary~~ compensation of the employee or, if the employer makes an election authorized pursuant to Section 9-11-225(E), it may pay the amount designated as an employee contribution without a reduction or offset from the employee's compensation. The employee, however, must not be given ~~the~~ any option of choosing to receive the contributed amount of the pickups directly instead of having them paid by the employer to the retirement system. Employee contributions picked up shall be ~~treated~~ administered for all purposes of this section in the same manner and to the extent as employee contributions made prior to the date picked up."

Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Romans 18:8: "For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the glory that is to be revealed to us."

Let us pray. God be with us in our earthly sufferings so that we will focus on the glory that is to come. Heavenly Father, grant Your blessings on these Representatives and Staff. Give them strength, courage, faithfulness, and integrity to fulfill their duties set before them. Bless our defenders of freedom and first responders as they care for us. Continue Your blessings upon our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who labor in these Halls of Government. Protect our men and women who give of their time and lives to keep us safe. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Jeremiah 31:21: “Set up road markers for yourself, make yourself guideposts.”

Let us pray. Almighty God, You have called these Representatives and Staff to provide many avenues to fulfill the good things of life in their work. Bless and keep them in Your care. Bless our defenders of freedom and first responders as they care for us. Heavenly father, be our guide in everything we do for this State. Look in favor upon our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who labor in this vineyard. Bestow Your blessings on the people of Ukraine. Bring them peace. Bless our men and women who serve our country and keep them safe. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of yesterday, the SPEAKER ordered it confirmed.

ORDERED ENROLLED FOR RATIFICATION

The following Joint Resolution was read the third time, passed and, having received three readings in both Houses, it was ordered that the title be changed to that of an Act, and that it be enrolled for ratification:

S. 1132 -- Medical Affairs Committee: A JOINT RESOLUTION TO APPROVE REGULATIONS OF THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND ENVIRONMENTAL CONTROL, RELATING TO ONSITE WASTEWATER SYSTEMS, DESIGNATED AS REGULATION DOCUMENT NUMBER 5103, PURSUANT TO THE PROVISIONS OF ARTICLE 1, CHAPTER 23, TITLE 1 OF THE 1976 CODE.

SENT TO THE SENATE

The following Bill was taken up, read the third time, and ordered sent to the Senate:

H. 5097 -- Reps. Kirby, Jordan and Lowe: A BILL TO AMEND SECTION 4-11-290, CODE OF LAWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA, 1976, RELATING TO THE DISSOLUTION OF SPECIAL PURPOSE DISTRICTS, SO AS TO ALLOW A HOSPITAL DISTRICT THAT IS UNDERGOING DISSOLUTION TO TRANSFER ITS ASSETS TO AN AFFILIATED ORGANIZATION THAT IS EXEMPT FROM TAX UNDER SECTION 501(C)(3) OR (4) OF THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE OF 1986.

ADJOURNMENT

Columbia, South Carolina 29201

APPEARANCES:
Chairman:
William R. Whitmire
Senate Members:
Richard A. Harpootlian
Daniel B. Verdin
John L. Scott
Thomas C. Alexander
House Members:
John King
James H. Lucas
Kirkman Finlay
Committee Staff:
Macey Webb, Esquire

THE CHAIRMAN: We'll go ahead and call this meeting to order this morning. I'm Representative Bill Whitmire from Oconee County. I'm the temporary Chairman of the Screening Committee for Trustees for the Colleges and Universities. And I this is -- I pray that God continues to bless us all this day. Before we get started with our agenda, we have a couple of business items to take care of. First item of business is the election of the chairman.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Mr. Chairman?
THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, sir?
SPEAKER LUCAS: Because of your longstanding participation on this committee over the years, I'll nominate you, Representative Bill Whitmire to chair this committee.

SENATOR VERDIN: Second.
THE CHAIRMAN: There's a second. All those in favor, signify by saying Aye.
MEMBERS: Aye.
THE CHAIRMAN: Opposed? No. Thank you. Now, second item of business election of a vice chairman. Do I have a motion?
SENATOR VERDIN: Mr. Chairman?
THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, sir, Senator Verdin.
SENATOR VERDIN: Mr. Chairman, I'd like to place a nomination. Senator from Oconee, the President of the Senate, Senator Thomas Alexander as Vice Chairman of the Commission.
SENATOR SCOTT: Second.
THE CHAIRMAN: All those in favor, signify by saying aye.
MEMBERS: Aye.
THE CHAIRMAN: Opposed no. President Alexander will be here this afternoon. We'll screen him and he is giving me his proxy this morning. Thank you, Senator Verdin. Before we go any further, I'd like to introduce the committee members. On my right we have Senator Scott, we have Senator Verdin, and our newest member Senator Harpootlian. President Alexander will be sitting immediately to Senator Scott's left when he comes in. On my left we have Speaker Lucas. We also have Representative John R. King, and Representative Kirkman Finlay will be joining us tomorrow, I believe. And so -- also, I don't want to forget our newest lady to help us out is Macey Webb. She works for the education Committee in the House and she got this job at the last moment and she has done an outstanding job. I really appreciate her help. And also Julie Price is here somewhere who's given her expertise. She was on Senator Peeler's staff for many years and she also headed up this when he was chairman. So with that, we'll get started and so the first person we will have, if you will come forward please, is Patricia McAbee. First, if you just give us your full name.
MS. MCABEE: Thank you, --
THE CHAIRMAN: Go ahead.
MS. MCABEE: -- Mr. Chairman. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. My name is Patricia H. McAbee. I go by Patty.
THE CHAIRMAN: And if you would raise your right hand. PATRICIA H. MCABEE, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
THE CHAIRMAN: Okay. Would you like to make a brief statement on why you would like to continue to serve?

MS. MCABEE: Sir, ma'am, good morning to everybody. This morning it's truly my honor to serve as a candidate -- as an elected trustee for 29 years and now as a candidate, again, for re-election.
THE CHAIRMAN: Excuse me, can you speak -- come up a little bit closer to the mic? Speak up a little bit.
MS. MCABEE: Maybe I'll lower it a little bit. Is that better?
THE CHAIRMAN: Yes.
MS. MCABEE: Good. Thank you. It's truly my honor to be here today and to offer as a candidate for re- election to the Board of Trustees. It's just been an incredible honor and privilege to serve for the past 29 years at the pleasure of this body. I'm a lifelong resident of South Carolina and as such and as a citizen of this state, it's a -- the responsibility to serve Clemson University as one I take very seriously. The role to govern and lead this state supported school of excellence and to provide an affordable and meaningful education for students that contributes to the development of my state is a responsibility I take very seriously. I sincerely appreciate the trust you have placed in me and it's my humble honor to serve. Thank you for the privilege.
THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you, Ms. McAbee. Any questions or comments from members of the committee?
SENATOR SCOTT: Yes.
THE CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott?
SENATOR SCOTT: Mr. Chairman, thank you so much. Thank you, Ms. McAbee for your willingness to serve. Twenty-nine years on the Clemson Board is a long time. I remember a lot of the work you did to make sure that we had female representation on that board back in '93, '94.
MS. MCABEE: Thank you.
SENATOR SCOTT: Which brings us to, tell us a little bit about work that you've done with diversity since you've been there in the time span. I think about eight or nine years ago, I had the chance to meet and talk with you and some other members of the Board as you began to design a plan in moving Clemson forward and looking at some diversities -- diversity, along with probably even then, it was some resistance. Tell me a little about where the school has come, what are you doing, even maybe some of the accomplishments you've had since y'all started dealing with diversity.
MS. MCABEE: Thank you for that opportunity. Several years ago, the Board of Trustees adopted a set of values that guide and serve as our guide rails -- guardrails as we set policy and govern. One of those is diversity and I'm pleased to say that -- that I was strongly in favor of including that as a -- as a guiding principle and one of our values. Diversity is hard for us at Clemson because number one, we're located in a -- in a part of the state that has traditionally been settled by people who are the same. I call it the sameness of the upstate. And since most of our -- many -- majority of our student applications come from the upstate for in state applicants. So having a diversity in our student body has been a difficult uphill battle. But we -- we continue to reach out to schools in the upstate and throughout the state to encourage awareness of Clemson, bringing students to campus when they're in high school, fostering their ability to take college prep courses prepare for the college entrance exams. So we're engaged on the junior high and high school levels with students across the state, particularly in areas that have more minority populations. We have -- so we're trying to develop the students. Even though we're located in -- in an area of the state that's predominantly white, we tend to -- or we do institute programs such as Call Me MISTER. After they get to college, the Emerging Scholars program that we -- we offer in the schools. And other programs to bring minority students onto our campus to learn what it's like to enroll at Clemson. And then we -- of course, our standards are high and we expect students to be able to be accepted. We accept 87 percent of all South Carolina applications get acceptance into a Pathway to Clemson. So those are some of the things that we're doing for students. We also have on campus -- tried to make campus more inviting. Through the Gantt Multi Cultural Center, through -- I need to look at my notes to see the names of these various areas. I've outlined these things --

SENATOR SCOTT: Let me just -- let me slow you down. Diversity is a lot more than just students being enrolled.

MS. MCABEE: Exactly.

SENATOR SCOTT: You're a diversity officer. I'm pretty sure a diversity officer gives you a diverse plan for the school. Also, including Clemson with engineering being one of it's number one instruction --

MS. MCABEE: Right.

SENATOR SCOTT: -- professional -- preparing people for the professional world. So you're recruiting all across this country. You said 87 percent. What is your minority population and what is your in-state population as -- as it results at Clemson.

MS. MCABEE: So our -- the minority population -- the population of minority students at Clemson including all minorities is 25 percent.

SENATOR SCOTT: Students?

MS. MCABEE: Students. For all minorities. Now, African-Americans is, you know, a lower number than that.
SENATOR SCOTT: How low is it? I'm sorry.
MS. MCABEE: Minority -- African-American students at Clemson is right at 6 percent, 5.9 percent. So when -- when we look at that number, that's where we -- we really try to target. And we do look at the faculty and -- and the staff as well. Faculty is at 8 -- little over 8 percent. Staff is 14 1/2 percent minority. So we are -- we're implementing programs that will increase the diversity both from just a numbers of categories of students that are maybe called minorities or they are minorities because of the numbers. But through scholarships, special grants, learning resources, development resources -- those early development resources I was outlining, and just institutionally through division of inclusion and access and equity, the Gantt Center. These are all programs that are instituted in order to make Clemson more attractive and more accessible and friendly.
SENATOR SCOTT: So -- and I'm going to let somebody else have a chance to ask a question. I think y'all were 5 or 6 percent even before you began looking at a diversity plan. Here we are, 29 years later and I'm still getting the same thing in terms of the way we recruit. Don't you think something might be wrong with your diversity plan or the behavior of the school, if that's the case? Because you're selling a product and that's education.
MS. MCABEE: Absolutely.
SENATOR SCOTT: Some of the kids go to some of the best schools all across this country. Our goal is to keep South Carolina students here. And so don't you think we -- something else is going wrong on the intake system or the behavior of the school or the Board of Trustees?
MS. MCABEE: I agree the numbers are low and we want them higher. So -- so something can be fixed there. We're looking for the fix. We're not turning a blind eye to it. We haven't found the fix. but we continue to look.
SENATOR SCOTT: Ms. McAbee, I tell you, after 29 years, it's something major wrong y'all haven't figured out the fix. I'm looking at other schools. The College of Charleston was up here. They're numbers have just exploded. They also have high SAT scores. All the other schools around you. I just don't accept the fact that you're just telling me in terms of when you recruit, you recruit when you send your recruiters to bring kids in. Thank you. I'm hoping that -- to see y'all do a lot better than what you're reporting this morning. What's your percentage of out-of-state students?

MS. MCABEE: Overall in the student body --
SENATOR SCOTT: Yes.
MS. MCABEE: -- or minority. Yeah, overall. We -- we continue to target and stay in the 65/35 mix of in-state to out-of-state students. That may vary a percent or two year over year. I think this year we're at 63 percent in-state, 37 percent out-of-state. So there's -- there are variances year over year but our target for 20 years now has been 65 percent in-state, 35 percent out-of- state.
SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Representative King.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chair. Thank you for your service, Ms. McAbee.
MS. MCABEE: Thank you.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: I have a couple -- just about three questions for you. Do you know what the graduation rate is of African-American students at Clemson? Out of the six percent, what is the graduation rate?
MS. MCABEE: Senator King, I have the overall graduation rate of 87 percent but I don't have the actual minority -- REPRESENTATIVE KING: If you don't mind -- if you don't mind getting that.
MS. MCABEE: I will be happy to get that and send that back to you.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Within the Board of Trustees, who chairs on the Board, your diversity and inclusion committee? I would assume that the Board has a diversity and inclusion committee even though you may have a diversity person for the campus. I would assume that the Board is working as a board to also have diversity Committee. And do you all?
MS. MCABEE: We do not have a separate committee for diversity inclusion, access, and equity. We meet as a committee as the whole. We discuss those issues primarily in the executive committee of which we all attend. All Board members are invited to attend and we all do attend.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: So I've learned as a representative that represents the Rock Hill area in which Winthrop sits in part of the heart of my district and I've gotten so many phone calls in reference to the pathway for African-American instructors to have -- to receive tenure. What is the percentage of tenured African-American professors and do you all recruit for African- American instructors at Clemson?
MS. MCABEE: I'd like to get that information to you. I would -- I know that we do but that's not -- that's not a detailed enough answer. So I will get that information to you in detail.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: I appreciate it. My last question is how will the Board in -- in recent debate here, we are dealing with what we call Critical Race Theory. How will be the Board assure me and the African-American legislators in this state that the true history -- authentic history of slavery to present will not be eliminated as students will try to engage and find out more about the history of America?
MS. MCABEE: Several years ago we had the opportunity to address this very clearly and the Board of Trustees chose to -- to designate a part of our resources to thoroughly study and publicly print and declare the true history of the formation of Clemson University. And those people who worked and struggled and -- and committed their lives to build both the physical structures at Clemson, the -- and to serve the university in a lot of ways -- the college back then. Since then we have -- we have instituted a timeline that is continually updated on our website and within our -- our university so that the public is aware of details and they can -- they can click in and get more and more details. We've also erected new plaques and with tours around campus to illustrate examples of labor that was used early on in the formation of the college and where people lived, and also where people were buried. And we're honoring each of those types of history markers, if you will, that people can see and learn about it. And we're discovering new ways to tell the story every day. But it's our intention to keep the history alive through story and through visual remembrances.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you so very much.
MS. MCABEE: Thank you, Mr. King.
THE CHAIRMAN: Senator Harpootlian.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Ma'am, I'm new to this process. This my first meeting. Hopefully, the rest of these folks won't regret it. But I need to get some basic understanding of how you and the rest of the trustees, for not just Clemson, but for all the colleges are supposed to react and behave in the context of organization. For instance, you as a trustee, do you take it upon yourself to contact department heads or folks below the president other than maybe the -- well, folks below the president to communicate with them about issues you have, policies you think ought to be in place? Or do you go through the president? How does that work?
MS. MCABEE: It -- all of the above, Senator. I often contact the university through the Secretary of the Board's office --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Right.
MS. MCABEE: -- to make them aware of a contact I might make or might have made.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Give me an example. What would you contact the department head about?
MS. MCABEE: I'm trying to think of a more recent contact. The most recent contact I've had is with the Director of Athletics, who is new in the position, and regarding several issues that are involved with athletics and Clemson University. So I had a personal phone call into him. He returned my phone call personally, not through the President's office, and we had a very candid conversation about several topics that were facing Clemson University.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I guess what I'm saying is why would you, as a trustee, talk to a department head without taking it through the president -- I mean, -- I mean, were these issues about the kind of job he was doing? Were you critical? Were you seeking information? I'm trying to figure out how this is supposed to work.
MS. MCABEE: So -- so I was seeking information and I don't know how it works at other universities but at Clemson, we have a very -- very communicative structure. So that if I talk with the Athletic Director, I'm also going to talk with the President, I'm also going to talk with the Secretary of the Board, other trustees about whatever my thoughts are on a particular matter.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I mean, are you giving him -- that is, the Athletic Director, -- department director directions on what to do? Who to hire? Who to fire?
MS. MCABEE: No, not in any way.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Who to make what?
MS. MCABEE: It's to gain information. It's to gain information where -- where the athletic department might be on a certain capital project or where they might be on a certain --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Recruiting? Would you talk to him about who to recruit?
MS. MCABEE: I don't talk to them about recruiting. I don't talk to them about hiring. I don't talk to them about individual student athletes or individual coaches. I mean, unless that might be -- that might come up in conversation from -- from them but there are no -- no -- never a directive to a faculty member or a staff member.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I guess what I'm trying to find out is who runs the athletic department? The Athletic Director or individual members of the Board lobbying the Athletic Director? How does that work?
MS. MCABEE: The athletic department at Clemson is run by the Athletic Director and the President. And the trustees try to gain information -- trustees such as I try to gain information to inform a greater information for what we hear when we get a formal presentation. To get more information.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Do you communicate in emails or texts?
MS. MCABEE: Not often, no.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And do you -- do you communicate with other trustee members by text or email?
MS. MCABEE: Not often. It's generally over --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Have you ever used an encrypted email or text system like WhatsApp or one of those?
MS. MCABEE: No, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.
SENATOR SCOTT: Yes, ma'am. I'm going to do a follow- up on what Senator Harpootlian -- what Senator Harpootlian's asking about direct contact. I'm going to go back to the diversity officer. You know, diversity officer up here some four or five years ago when y'all were on fire trying to move forward with some diversity and I haven't heard anything else since then. Do you make contact directly to your diversity officer? Diversity officer appear before the Board with a plan, showing how much progress you've made if you've made any? It sounds like they haven't made very much of anything. That you're just kind of rubber stamping it with a person so it has the appearance that you're trying -- trying to create -- the reason why I'm asking these questions. I'm looking at all these other schools that come in here and some of the growth and development and I just can't accept the excuse because of my physical location we -- and the surrounding community, we can't do this. You're a state supported school and we expect a state supported school to have an open policy for these kids to be able to come in and recruit these to come in. So tell me a little bit about that plan and how you -- how you work with your diversity officer and whether or not y'all even pay the diversity officer any attention when that person brings a plan before you.
MS. MCABEE: The diversity officer makes regular reports -- formal reports to the full Board of Trustees and we -- we have the opportunity within a meeting to -- to communicate with the diversity officer. We see the diversity officer on campus and off campus at -- at meetings and -- and have an open invitation -- and to Senator Harpootlian's question, we're -- we're -- we have an open invitation to -- to meet with faculty members, members of the administrative team, and staff. But we get formal reports for them -- from them and we do have a diversity plan that is updated. We hear that. We receive that. We're concerned about that. We're concerned about how that plan is not translating into higher numbers. It's - it's my top concern. I feel like the biggest weakness for Clemson is that we haven't grown our diversity numbers. We -- we continually push for new and different ways to address the minority enrollment problem particularly and staff levels. So we -- we have that in place. We're very attentive to it. Every member of the Board of Trustees attends meetings where the diversity plan is discussed and presented and updated. It's not working. It hasn't worked. And you and I have had this discussion and I welcome it and appreciate it. We just are still searching for that --

SENATOR SCOTT: Well, let me say this to you and we'll move on with the process. The buck stops with y'all.

MS. MCABEE: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: Y'all are the Board of Trustees. I'll tell you year after year after year, I ask these same questions and get the same kind of answers but you expect the state to be very much supportive of the direction you're going in. And I'm just telling y'all you really need to get serious about your diversity at Clemson University. Thank you so much.

MS. MCABEE: Thank you, Senator Scott.

THE CHAIRMAN: Speaker Lucas.

SPEAKER LUCAS: Thank you, Chairman Whitmire. Ms. McAbee, thank you for your testimony. Sometimes I think the first individual who testifies is almost like the first bill of the judiciary committee. You spend a much longer amount of time on that. I just want to echo some things I've heard from Mr. King and Mr. Scott and I really want to pay Clemson a compliment because I really know of no other university in our state that does a better job at recruiting students. My university, the University of South Carolina, is often -- I won't say often, I'll say almost 100 percent of the time out recruited by Clemson because y'all outwork the other side and that's what I appreciate about Clemson. With that being said, I do get tired of hearing the same issues being brought up without solutions. So I don't intend to -- to ask this of the other Clemson trustee members who come up but I would ask but I would ask given how well y'all do recruit at Clemson and what -- and the effort that y'all do put into it, it would seem that those numbers would be going up or going up at some point in time. And at some point, it's going to ultimately affect, I know, my decision about trustees on this Board. Not necessarily today but I think it's something that needs to happen and needs to happen quickly.

MS. MCABEE: Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

THE CHAIRMAN: Any other questions? What's the desire of the committee? Yes, sir.
SENATOR VERDIN: I Move favorable report Ms. McAbee to the General Assembly.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Second.
THE CHAIRMAN: All those in favor, please raise your right hand. Opposed? Thank you, Ms. McAbee. Do not ask for any commitments from the House or Senate members until Macey gets in touch with you, okay?
MS. MCABEE: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: I want to be very specific about that. I know you know the rules. Maybe for some of the newer arrivals, that has not worked out in the past sometimes. So good luck to you.
MS. MCABEE: Thank you very much, Mr. Chairman.
THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you. Next up will be John Nicohls McCarter. Give us your full name, please.
MR. MCCARTER: John Nichols McCarter Junior.
THE CHAIRMAN: If you would raise your right hand, I'll swear you in. JOHN NICHOLS MCCARTER having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
THE CHAIRMAN: All right. I'll give you a chance to make a brief statement on why you'd like to continue to serve.
MR. MCCARTER: Okay. First of all, I'd like to thank the committee and staff for allowing us all to be here today. I'd also like to thank the whole General Assembly for allowing me to represent you and the population of South Carolina in representing Clemson University. It's an honor. I've said that before. And it's a commitment that I take very seriously. Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Staff, do you have any information to share with us on Mr. McCarter?
MS. WEBB: Good morning. There is no information that I have but, however, what I am going to request and I'm going to start with you then I'm going to request for each candidate thereafter. If you will please state your home address, your physical address that you reside at for the record.
MR. MCCARTER: 702 North Ocean Boulevard, North Myrtle Beach, South Carolina.
MS. WEBB: Thank you. And do you pay your four percent or six percent at this address?
MR. MCCARTER: Four percent.
MS. WEBB: Thank you, sir.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Mr. Chairman.
THE CHAIRMAN: Senator Harpootlian.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And, again, I'm new to this process. Are we going to swear these folks?
THE CHAIRMAN: Pardon?
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Are we going to swear them in?
THE CHAIRMAN: Going to swear them in? Yes. I'm sorry.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. I'm sorry I just -- it didn't come to mind until those specific questions were asked and I think they should be - - answers ought to be under oath. No offense to Mr. McCarter.
MR. MCCARTER: No, no.
THE CHAIRMAN: I just did swear him in. Yeah, I swore you in?
MR. MCCARTER: Yeah, he swore me. He did.
THE CHAIRMAN: You've got me second guessing myself.
MR. MCCARTER: And he did Patty also.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I apologize.
THE CHAIRMAN: Questions?
SENATOR SCOTT: Yes.
THE CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.
SENATOR SCOTT: Mr. McCarter.
MR. MCCARTER: Yes, sir.
SENATOR SCOTT: I want to pick up where I left off with Patty. You've been on this Board how long now?
MR. MCCARTER: May will be 14 years.
SENATOR SCOTT: Tell me a little bit about what you as a trustee, what the Board is doing in terms of improving its diversity. It looks like your numbers have not moved at all. You hired a diversity officer. You came up, met up with caucuses as well as presented them to the full General Assembly with a long plan, a lot of improvements the school was going to do, and it appears that you're still standing still. Give me a little more information than the previous trustee had in terms of what you're actually doing at Clemson on your diversity issue. Both staff, faculty, as well as students.
MR. MCCARTER: Number wise or you're not interested in the number wise?
SENATOR SCOTT: I want to know what you're actually doing because she's given number wise.
MR. MCCARTER: Okay.
SENATOR SCOTT: Number wise indicate not a whole lot.
MR. MCCARTER: Well, diversity is always -- is talked about at every board meeting. Different committee members, staff, diversity leader always comes and has a report at board meetings. They're public. It's the very foremost and front our president is very in tune and that's one of the goals to improve. I do -- I'll get the number but I'm pretty sure that we're accepting 88 percent -- 85 to 88 percent of all African- Americans in South Carolina that apply to Clemson. I think that's the correct number. If not, I'll certainly verify that. But we do recruit. We have people out recruiting, trying to raise more money for scholarships. Sometimes there's a problem because somewhere out-of-state people give more money and we're -- you know, we're not a big university but we are -- it's in the forefront of every meeting we go to is diversity. And we are trying. And we got a long way to go as I've told you many times in your office but I feel that there is progress being made. We are in the -- we have done Men of Color and several other things that I think that has helped get students to come to Clemson. But, you know, sometimes logistics -- you know, where we are is not --

SENATOR SCOTT: Please don't say logistics because you got kids coming all across this world --

MR. MCCARTER: Well, we do. We do have that but we have -- again, --

SENATOR SCOTT: –- going to school --

MR. MCCARTER: -- we accept about 88 percent of the -- African-Americans that apply in the state for Clemson.

SENATOR SCOTT: Your number one recruiting area in South Carolina, you've got 63 percent, as indicated a minute ago, in-state, 37 percent out- of-state. Which out-of-state number is pretty high for out-of-state -- out-of-state students. Where in South Carolina are you actually recruiting in those areas where you can attract those students? The last person talked to me you were recruiting in the immediate area of Clemson, which is small compared to the whole state if you're doing -- and not just upstate recruiting but all of South Carolina.

MR. MCCARTER: We are trying to recruit the whole state. I don't have the -- I don't know whose doing -- I don't know the names of the people. We have recruiters out trying to recruit the whole state. As I said earlier, it's got to get better and it's something that comes up at every Board meeting.

SENATOR SCOTT: Are y'all following the plan or supportive of the plan, the President, or actually helping to promote the plan as a whole?

MR. MCCARTER: Well, the President runs the university as we hire a president and set a vision, and he has a diversity leader and a team, our chief of staff is a minority. Also, it's a very up-front and it's on the top burner. We just -- we got to do better. It's that simple.

THE CHAIRMAN: Representative King.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you for your service, Trustee. I have a question in reference to pathway of tenure.
MR. MCCARTER: Of what?
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Pathway of tenure for African- American instructors and professors at Clemson. Do you know what the percentage of African- American instructors are? I know we have the percentage of students.
MR. MCCARTER: Of faculty? Faculty and staff?
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Instructors and administration.
MR. MCCARTER: Okay.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: And if you don't have it, you can get it to me.
MR. MCCARTER: I think I've got what you're asking for but let me -- let me make sure that -- on staff, the total minority is about 14 1/2 percent minority. African-American is running at 11 percent.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: In leadership roles -- do you have African-Americans in leadership roles and the administrative?
MR. MCCARTER: Chief of Staff is African-American.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Okay. If you don't mind getting me those numbers.
MR. MCCARTER: I'll be glad to.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: The number of staff members and number of African-Americans. I'd like a break down as to --
MR. MCCARTER: I can get you the total number of those people of the staff.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you again for your service.
MR. MCCARTER: Thank you for allowing me to serve.
THE CHAIRMAN: Any other questions? Senator Verdin.
SENATOR VERDIN: Chairman, I'd move favorable report forward on Mr. McCarter's nomination.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Second.
THE CHAIRMAN: There's a motion for approval and a second. All those in favor, signify by raising your right hand. Opposed?
SENATOR KING: Mr. Chair.
THE CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott, I'm sorry.
SENATOR KING: Mr. Chair, while I do support him, I'm going to abstain as there is a donation in the campaign.
THE CHAIRMAN: I got you. I also will abstain.
MR. MCCARTER: Sir?
THE CHAIRMAN: I will abstain.

MR. MCCARTER: Okay. All right. But there is a motion that was carried --
SENATOR SCOTT: I'm abstaining too.
THE CHAIRMAN: You're abstaining also? And I've got President Alexander's proxy for approval so that gives four approvals, okay. All right, I'll just remind you like I've done -- I will with every candidate. Do not ask for any commitments until Macey contacts you. Thank you, Mr. McCarter. Next up, we have Sharka Marie Prokes. If you would come up, please. If you will give us your full name.
MS. PROKES: Sharka Marie Prokes.
THE CHAIRMAN: If you would raise your right hand, let me swear you in. SHARKA MARIE PROKES, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you. Give a brief statement on why you'd like to serve on the Clemson Board of Trustees.
MS. PROKES: So I feel that education, especially STEM education, is really important. Not only to South Carolina but to the whole country. There have been a significant amount of science that has supported all our fields of study and so I feel that Clemson being a strong engineering school, I feel that I would really like to take part in helping to shape the future of Clemson. And perhaps some of my experience in the past 30 years in STEM and basic research for the DOD would be of help.
THE CHAIRMAN: Questions?
REPRESENTATIVE KING: I have questions.
THE CHAIRMAN: Representative King.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you for offering yourself. I have a question for you in reference to diversity. If elected as a member of the Board, what would be your plan in reference to taking before -- taking to the Board as a member in reference to increasing African-American students as well as diversity on campus when it comes to staff -- faculty and staff?
MS. PROKES: So in terms of students, in my 30 year career what we had working with universities was a science and engineer apprentice program. And that was basically bringing in high school students into different aspects of the university research effort and I myself participated strongly in this effort. I had about 35 high school students -- this is not undergrad. This is high school -- high school students. And about 50 percent of them were minorities. And, in fact, that can be a very successful program because it encourages minority students to understand what research is, what universities do, and how they can fit in. And I was very proud, one of my students -- high school students, in fact, went on to go and get a Ph.D. in physics at Stanford. And his name was King -- Dom King and he was an African-American.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Do you know of any of the programs that promote diversity at Clemson?
MS. PROKES: I have read -- yes, I've read online that there are about four or five diversity programs. There are specifically for African-Americans. They're also programs for in-state South Carolina allowing students to understand and apply to Clemson and to the university. So there are about four programs that I have seen.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Do you know what those programs are?
MS. PROKES: I have the names of them, if you want. I mean, I can read them to you.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: One of them that -- that you may know about or may not know about is the Call Me MISTER program. Do you know anything about that particular program?
MS. PROKES: No, I've not -- sorry, I have not -- I'm not aware of that one.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Well, I appreciate you offering yourself and I thank you for being here today.
MS. PROKES: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Other questions? Senator Scott.
SENATOR SCOTT: I thank you also so much for applying for this job. I've heard nothing this morning about we're recruiting within my home area. I see with your education background from Northwestern, Harvard --
MS. PROKES: Yes.
SENATOR SCOTT: -- at least you can explain to those in that area what's going on around the world because it appears they're just kind of caught in that little trap. What do you actually think you bring to the Board outside of STEM? Because I think -- what I'm getting, especially in terms of trying to grow the minority and to get an understanding you're in competition not with just South Carolina but with the rest of the world to get the best and brightest students to come.
MS. PROKES: Yes.
SENATOR SCOTT: And they come all walks of life, bring all type of intellect to really make some major changes at -- at the school. And so would you share in some -- either with your experience or your knowledge base what you think you can do to try to help that -- that Board move itself forward to understand what's going on outside of that little small world at Clemson?

MS. PROKES: Right. So the first thing, I mean, the - - the mantra sort of at universities and that students pay attention to are the rankings, right? And so that -- I mean, that's one are of interest for me. Since competing universities such as UNC-Chapel Hill, which I think Clemson can compete with, the rankings are not as good for Clemson. They're number 30. Chapel Hill is 5. So that is an aspect that is really important because students go by that and so do -- the other problem is also funders. It's a -- it's a -- it's a many body problem because in order to bring in good students, you have to bring in good faculty members. In order to bring in good faculty members, it really helps the standing of the university and it also helps that these faculty members can obtain funding and funding is not always easy. That -- that is from my experience. I'm run many DTRA, DARPA, many programs and I've been on many NSF panels and the funding one in ten. You're luck to get funding for one in ten. And you're constantly needing to write proposals. So that is an important aspect. Being able to bring up the quality or the ranking of the university, the funding, and that also attracts students -- high quality students. And I think also having outreach in the sense of getting to the high school student and seeing what high school students what they see -- what university research does. What the university does, especially in the STEM area. I found many students who had no idea when they came what we did and I set them up with small projects and they were very excited because they actually accomplished something and they were actually able to see how science gets done. So I think there are many aspects to this but I think all -- all of these need to be sort of implemented. And there isn't one answer.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you so much. I'm looking for you to be a new breath of fresh air in an area.

MS. PROKES: Well, I'd like to contribute to my new state.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you.

THE CHAIRMAN: Senator Verdin.

SENATOR VERDIN: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Dr. Prokes, I'm curious about -- well, I -- good morning and I appreciate the fact you're here with us and I would like to just get a cursory review of your history. Birthplace: Czech Republic?

MS. PROKES: Yes.

SENATOR VERDIN: So coming to America, was that -- what timeframe?

MS. PROKES: I was eight years old.

SENATOR VERDIN: Eight years old.

MS. PROKES: My parents escaped the Russian invasion.

SENATOR VERDIN: Then South Carolina.
MS. PROKES: So I lived in Maryland, of course, within reasonable commuting distance which is 70 miles round trip of Washington, D.C., which is where I worked. And that whole area is very busy. High taxes. It is not an area I chose to live in retirement. I took an early retirement. So South Carolina was the type of state I was looking for. It's got a very thriving economy. It's got manufacturing. It's got good universities. And it is a very pleasant place to live.
SENATOR VERDIN: Well, thank you for that testimonial. That lifts us up. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.
THE CHAIRMAN: Any other questions? Ms. Prokes, I'm showing my age but I do remember when the Russians invaded Czechoslovakia. It was a terrible time for folks over there. Unfortunately, it seems like they're doing the same thing now.
MS. PROKES: Apparently, yes, they are. So I was a little too young to understand but my mother talks about the tanks that went through the town -- the Russian tanks.
THE CHAIRMAN: I remember the young lady from Czechoslovakia at the Olympics that was the gymnast.
MS. PROKES: Right.
THE CHAIRMAN: Vera something.
MS. PROKES: Caslavska.
THE CHAIRMAN: Yeah.
MS. PROKES: Yeah.
THE CHAIRMAN: Anyway, she was protesting that. That was a good thing to see back then.
MS. PROKES: Yeah.
THE CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott has made a motion for approval. Is there a second?
MULTIPLE: Second.
THE CHAIRMAN: All those in favor signify by saying your right -- raising your right hand. Opposed? Just want to remind you since you're a new candidate, do not ask for any commitments until Macey contacts you, okay?
MS. PROKES: I understand.
THE CHAIRMAN: Good luck to you.
MS. PROKES: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Next up is Joseph Davis Swann.
MR. SWANN: Good morning.
THE CHAIRMAN: Please give us your full name.
MR. SWANN: Joseph Davis Swann.

THE CHAIRMAN: Raise your right hand and I'll swear you in. Joseph Davis Swann, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
THE CHAIRMAN: Make a brief statement on why you'd like to continue serving on the Board, please, sir.
MR. SWANN: And, Macey, would you like my address as well?
THE CHAIRMAN: We'll ask that in a second. Go ahead and make your statement.
MR. SWANN: Okay. I'm in my 32nd year of service thanks to -- to you all and it's been a labor of love. There's a lot of very positive things that have happened at Clemson and are continuing to happen. I have a list of some that I'd share with you but I'll wait for your questions for that. But I'm extremely proud of what we've done with the three things we're most responsible for which is education, public service, and research. The research has grown from 150 million in -- in 2011 to 240 million a year in 2021. And we -- we're involved in some outstanding projects with -- with the Department of Defense at ICAR. We had 40 million dollars of funding on the VIPER project. And that -- that's expected to grow -- that's expected to grow to 100 million dollars. The second -- second project is Ed Curi with the Department of Energy. You know, the grid system that we have and the testing of -- of wind -- wind power generators. That -- that is a -- a growing number. And then -- and then we're doing really good work in genetics in Greenwood. We're doing work in biomedical engineering at CUBE Inc. in Greenville. And we're doing work in Anderson with advanced materials. Those are the kind of things that -- that -- along with the fact that 84 percent of Clemson students as they graduate have jobs in their degree field within 6 months. I think that's, in the end, our job as a -- as a Board to make sure we're providing an education that -- that people that have jobs to be filled are looking for candidates for. I'll stop and answer your questions.
THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you, Mr. Swann. Staff, do you have any information to share with us on Mr. Swann?
MS. WEBB: I don't have any information or anything that I pulled but, if you would, for the record please confirm your address, your home address.
MR. SWANN: 22 Craigwood Court in Greenville.
MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And do you pay your four percent or six percent at this address?
MR. SWANN: Four percent.
MS. WEBB: Thank you. That's all the questions I have.
MR. SWANN: Thank you.

THE CHAIRMAN: Questions for Mr. Swann?
SENATOR SCOTT: Yes.
THE CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.
SENATOR SCOTT: Mr. Swann, thank you for your willingness to serve. I appreciate the fantastic numbers at Clemson and it's growing, especially with one of the ones that you did not mention is the joint venture between Clemson, USC, and SC State College. In terms of commitment, the state needs to give y'all in order to fulfill that endeavor. But at the same time with the growth and experience and dollars coming into Clemson, is also being able to allow students -- nontraditional students to be able to come to Clemson who may have the SAT scores and your SAT scores are higher than anybody else's in the state. For what reason, but that's y'all decision. My goal is to make sure that kids get the opportunity to come to school and that you actually recruit in those communities giving them the opportunity to do it. You say we educate 84 percent that comes in and whatever bring you, of course, it - it fits the mold and make sit easy to graduate. What I'm talking about -- there's 37 percent of out-of-state students who come in here too making it very easy to go back to other parts of the country to be able to get great jobs. That's good for Clemson. You can sell that. But what I'm not able to buy this morning is the continuous -- when I ask about diversity or how hiring a diversity officer, I want to make sure the diversity officer is getting the job done, not being interfered with, and there's support from the Board with the President to make sure it's moving. Based on the numbers, there's still some issues in terms of trying to get this to happen. I know you've been in the media since the last time you've been here about a number of issues. Building name and all kinds of other issues that you've had to deal with. But the number one can we recruit diverse folk to come to Clemson? My goal is to grow South Carolina not New York, not Washington, not Florida. But to improve the lives in South Carolina especially in rural communities. So will you share with me what you've been able to do in the 32 years you've been there and you've seen it -- 1963 graduate of Clemson undergraduate and 1969 Master's. So you were in a turbulent time of Clemson's history. So would you share with me coming out of turbulence to 2022 what you've been able to do to move the ball forward in terms of creating a more diverse Clemson University?
MR. SWANN: I would like to share the programs with you but, in the end, the numbers are the same.
SENATOR SCOTT: It doesn't matter. The question is what have you done to try to improve the numbers.

MR. SWANN: You know about the Men of Color Summit that we have. It brings a couple, 300 hundred people -- young people that, for the most part, have not been thinking about going to college and -- and we're helping them get an opportunity to understand that they can get into college and the -- and the kind of success they can have. I understand that we are losing our director of that Men of Color Summit. Our diversity director is taking at job at Louisville so we're in the process of looking for a replacement for that person. You know about the Men of Color Summit. Maybe -- maybe, Mr. King, it was you that asked that question but that's an exceptional program that's now trademarked and used by a lot of universities. Not just in South Carolina but across South Carolina. The Emerging Scholars Program is an exciting program where we're helping in school districts. I grew up in Marlboro County and -- and Marlboro County and the I-95 corridor is -- is being helped with students that come to Clemson every year, every summer, for an experience of what -- what going to college is like. They don't all -- they don't all go to Clemson but every -- every person that's gone through the Emerging Scholars Program has gone either into the Army or to some university and a growing number are now able to - - to come to Clemson. So I'm very excited about the programs that we're doing. I should also add that the Board of Visitors has programs in each of the -- each of the major towns and they're inviting every African-American student that has applied to Clemson from that town to come for a night of meeting members of the Board of Visitors and asking questions personally and talking about the experiences that they have at Clemson. So we're working very, very hard on -- on diversity and the numbers are -- are less any of us want them to be.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you, Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. First of all, let me start off by saying while I agree with my colleague, Senator Scott, in reference to the number of African-Americans that attend Clemson, I believe the number should reflect the population of South Carolina in reference to the demographics at all the institutions. However, I will say out of all the colleges and universities excluding South Carolina State, when the legislative black caucus has called on you all to come give us updates, you all are always available unlike USC.

MR. SWANN: Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: So I do appreciate that. I do appreciate the programs that you all are implementing. Even if you're, you know, if it's just, you know, you all are doing something to try to increase the numbers so I do appreciate that with your Men of Color Summit, you know, Call Me MISTER program, things like that. So I want to thank you for that. I have a question just in reference to like 4H. Is that up under you all -- your Board? The 4H programs that are across the state?

MR. SWANN: There's not a specific discussion about 4H within the Board unless there's a problem or an opportunity that -- that someone brings up for us to be involved with. I think it's under PSA. Maybe -- I think that's where it is housed.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: I couldn't remember. Okay, I wanted to, you know, while we talk about diversity and we have questions, Senator Scott and I, I do appreciate what you all are attempting to do and I appreciate you all being available to the members of the legislative black caucus when it comes to diversity and our issues. When we have called on other institutions, they are not always available to our concerns so thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Any other questions?
MR. SWANN: Mr. Chairman, may I comment to Senator Harpootlian's question to Ms. McAbee?
THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, sir.
MR. SWANN: I'd just -- I'd like to address the question that you asked her about contacts with people other than the president. We don't -- we don't -- or I don't and I don't believe very many of the Board members call deans and faculty to talk about problems that we are involved with and need to ask them about. We do -- we do have the executive secretary and we do have the Chief of Staff and the President so we are, for the most part, I mean, our job is to set policy and review how that policy is followed. The two people we hire are the president and the executive secretary and then the people that work for the president address us in -- in various ways based on what committees we are on. The people I would have personal contact with would be the person -- like I've -- I've headed up the research committee for a number of years of and so I -- the vice president of research and I have -- have a close working relationship in preparing for committee meetings and comments to the Board. But -- but we don't -- I don't call the -- the Dean of Architecture, Arts and Humanities or other -- or other people like that.
THE CHAIRMAN: Senator Harpootlian, you have a response?
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, I have a question. So I guess what I'm trying to -- there is a sort of chain of command, if you will, of how you -- if you have a question who you go to ask it to.
MR. SWANN: Yes, sir.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And I guess, more importantly, if for instance, you had strong feelings a hiring in the Athletic Department or a firing in the Athletic Department, would you go to directly to the Athletic Department Director or would you deal with that through this chain of command?
MR. SWANN: I have absolutely no authority or responsibility for hiring or firing anyone at Clemson and I try to keep my mouth shut about it.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Have you done a pretty good job of that?
MR. SWANN: I'm pretty successful at that.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Thank you.
MR. SWANN: Thank you, sir.
THE CHAIRMAN: What's the desire of the committee?
SENATOR VERDIN: Favorable report.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Second.
THE CHAIRMAN: Okay, all those in favor, signify by raising your right hand. Opposed? Okay.
MR. SWANN: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Swann, just a reminder. Don't ask for a commitment until the proper time.
MR. SWANN: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: All right, that concludes Clemson's screening. So we'll take up Lander at this time.
SENATOR VERDIN: Mr. Chairman?
THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, sir.
SENATOR VERDIN: You reckon you could let the junior senator from Richland do the swearing? He keeps asking me if done the swearing.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I can't hear.
SENATOR VERDIN: He's missing you.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Mr. Chairman, I'm so junior that I wear a hearing aid, okay? I can't hear. And with Senator Scott over here talking all the time, it's impossible for me to hear over his chatter.
SENATOR SCOTT: I'm going to remind you are the junior senator. The junior senator, remember, don't have privileges.
THE CHAIRMAN: I'll try to talk a little louder on that one.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You're going to have to talk a lot louder if Senator Scott's talking.
THE CHAIRMAN: Moving right along. Lander. All right, our first up is Robert A. Barber Junior. Could you give us your full name, please, sir?
MR. BARBER: Robert A. Barber Junior. Robert Archibald Barber Junior.

THE CHAIRMAN: Okay. Raise your right hand and I'll swear you in.
Robert Archibald Barber, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
THE CHAIRMAN: Give a brief statement on why you'd like to serve on the Lander Board.
MR. BARBER: Well, I from a young age got exposed to some outstanding Lander people who were educators of mine and I've always had a very high regard for Lander. I was a beneficiary of very good education myself in public schools and at Wofford College and a couple of other places and I would like to see young people in South Carolina having the same opportunities that I had. And I think Lander, to this day, does that. With my educational background and some professional and business experience, I feel like I do make a contribution to the Board at Lander. I had the good fortune -- I might have been one of Senator Verdin's constituents. I'm not sure where the line but I used to live in Waterloo and, at that time, I realized what an important role that Lander played in our -- our region over there around Greenwood and Laurens.
THE CHAIRMAN: Staff, do you have any information on Mr. Barber?
MS. WEBB: Hi, good morning. I don't have anything to point out from my review of your file. But if you could, just like everyone else, could you please state your home address for the record.
MR. BARBER: Yes. I live at 1883 Bowens Island Road, Charleston 29412.
MS. WEBB: Thank you. Do you pay your four percent or six percent at this residence?
MR. BARBER: Four percent.
MS. WEBB: Thank you.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Mr. Chairman, I have some questions.
THE CHAIRMAN: Representative King.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chair. I was looking at your packet and have a question in reference to you stated ways to improve Lander and one of the ways, you said we need to raise our admissions standards. What are your standards?
MR. BARBER: You know, we have -- we are not highly selective by any means. I think most young people who have been successful in high school in South Carolina will have a good opportunity to come to Lander. I can't tell you what the cut off score is -- are.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: And you say pay higher salaries to our faculty and staff. Would you not be, as a Board member, able to budget for that and, if so, why haven't you all?

MR. BARBER: Well, we have a president who's been there, I think, pushing five years and through that time, our enrollment has improved and gone up a very -- we're up around 3800 students now. Eight or 9 years ago, we were bumping along at about 27/2800. So increasing the enrollment would certainly be a help in raising salaries. But we were also a school that were sensitive to tuition rates and I think we were the first school to put a cap on raising the tuition. So it can be kind of a Catch 22 when you don't have more resources to -- to allot to faculty and staff. But I think that's something the Board members are well aware of and it is something we want to do when we feel like we can -- we've got the latitude to do it.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: As a Board member, when you think of diversity, what is your role in assuring diversity on your campus?

MR. BARBER: Well, we -- I think Lander does pretty -- pretty well.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Well, I -- I understand about Lander. I'm saying but what about your role as a Board member to ensure that diversity is on your campus?

MR. BARBER: We certainly can encourage our administration to be more aggressive about that if we feel like we're lagging. I mean, we've -- we've got -- we received a million dollar grant to help is in diversity -- in the diversity area and we've gotten a grant from the Self Foundation to help us fund our Call Me MISTER programs.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you.

MR. BARBER: Sure.

THE CHAIRMAN: Other questions? Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you. Good to see you again.

MR. BARBER: Thank you, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: We served together in the House before you retired.

MR. BARBER: Been a long time ago.

SENATOR SCOTT: It has been. Lander's been very progressive with its new president in terms of really doing a lot of things on its campus. Tell me a little bit about your recruitment program. I've looked at park of the areas in which you would like to recruit. You're right in the middle there of what we call the Gleamns country.

MR. BARBER: Yeah.

SENATOR SCOTT: How much of those students and you're bumping up against Anderson University, Clemson, and others. But tell me a little bit about what Lander's doing to bring those group of children in because in it's an area where there's a lot of loss in population in those particular areas.

MR. BARBER: Well, I -
SENATOR SCOTT: Maintaining those kids coming back, going back --
MR. BARBER: Right. In our area, I think our population reflects the general demographics of the area. I think we're pushing 33 percent, 32 percent or something like that.
SENATOR SCOTT: Right.
MR. BARBER: And we've -- you know, take it very seriously and are aggressive about attempting to recruit a diversity of students.
SENATOR SCOTT: Tell me what the Board is doing because what I'm getting is that some of these other Boards have not figured it out yet. Although you may be adjacent to them and you're recruiting somewhat in the same pockets, but you are able to get your diversity numbers up based on what your numbers are showing for these students.
MR. BARBER: Yeah. I don't -- I don't feel like the Board has had to push our administration doing that. I think it's -- it has come -- not naturally. It's been an -- been an effort but they've taken it very seriously.
SENATOR SCOTT: What are -- what are -- what are your numbers now of African-American students and staff?
MR. BARBER: I think the students -- minority students are 32 percent. Staff wise -- I think the senior staff wise it's around 24 percent and overall staff wise at the university it's 15 percent, I believe.
SENATOR SCOTT: Does it effect your graduation rate with your numbers going that large?
MR. BARBER: I think our retention rate has -- has been improving.
SENATOR SCOTT: Graduation rates as well?
MR. BARBER: Right.
SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: What's the desire of the committee?
SENATOR SCOTT: Favorable report.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Second.
THE CHAIRMAN: There has been a motion and a second for approval. All those in favor signify by raising your right hand. Okay, thank you, sir.
MR. BARBER: Thank you very much.
THE CHAIRMAN: As I'll tell you, wait until you hear from Macey on your commitments.
MR. BARBER: Yes, sir, thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: James Carl Shubert. State your full name, please, sir.
MR. SHUBERT: My full name is James Carl Shubert.

THE CHAIRMAN: If you would raise your right hand, I'll swear you in. James Carl Shubert, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
THE CHAIRMAN: And just give us a brief statement on why you'd like to serve on the Lander Board.
MR. SHUBERT: Well, I'm a relatively newcomer to the Lander Board just having coming on the Board a couple of years ago. It's been an outstanding experience thus far. Being an alumni of Lander College, at the time, -- telling my age a little bit, and seeing what Lander has done. Being a native of Greenwood, South Carolina, where Lander is in and seeing what Lander has done. And then being a resident of the upstate and seeing what Lander has done has been pretty -- pretty awesome to watch. So it's been a great honor for me to do it. I feel like my background as a former student, a businessman in this state, and I'm a leader within my field, I feel like I bring a lot to the university and I've been humbled by coming onto the Board and seeing the folks that are on the Board and what they're capable of bringing to my alma mater and what they have done. It's -- it's been pretty impressive. And so there's no wonder that Lander's doing fantastic. And so I'm just looking to serve -- serve my school at this point. There's not a I'm wanting to gain other than some intrinsic value of being part of the pretty nice institution.
THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you, sir. Staff, any information to share with us?
MS. WEBB: Good morning. No specific information that I have pulled from your file. But just as I've asked from everyone else, can you just please state your home address for the record.
MR. SHUBERT: Well, my home address just changed about two weeks ago. Luckily, I got to move. Now, I'm living out the in the country on 55 Corsillum Trail in Simpsonville, South Carolina. I finally convinced my wife to move out in the country and I got to buy a tractor so it's not bad.
MS. WEBB: Okay. What was your previous address when you originally filed?
MR. SHUBERT: 24 Sycamore Ridge Drive in Simpsonville.
MS. WEBB: And you still currently live in Simpsonville?
MR. SHUBERT: I do, yeah.
MS. WEBB: And do you, at the residence you now live at, do you pay your four or six percent?
MR. SHUBERT: Four percent.
MS. WEBB: And was it the same way for your previous address at 24 Sycamore?

MR. SHUBERT: It was.
MS. WEBB: Thank you.
MR. SHUBERT: Yep.
THE CHAIRMAN: Questions? Senator Verdin?
SENATOR VERDIN: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I'm particularly interested in nursing programs at some of our schools. I know you have a relatively new but expanding nursing program. What's the outlook? How are you looking?
MR. SHUBERT: Well, you know, some of the things you look at when you look at Lander, you try to figure out all right, are colleges really filling societal needs? Nursing is one of them. It's something I've done for 32 years being at hospitals on a daily basis. Our nurses right now are pretty well taxed and overrun due to the Covid pandemic and they were operating razor thin prior to that. Johnson & Johnson began probably about 15 years a program to recruit more nurses and nursing right now couldn't be more important. And so seeing what Lander's doing, especially with the appropriation it's been given being able to grow the knowledge base at Lander and putting out really good nurses has been pretty exciting. I can tell you when I'm in hospitals and operating rooms on a daily basis, Lander is a very well respected nursing program. Extremely well respected. And especially when you get into critical care medicine and you watch those nurses operate around nursing students from other universities, Lander really holds its own. It's a fantastic program and I think it's addressing a big need.
SENATOR VERDIN: That's good news. During the budget process, we hear from the public sector healthcare providers and the age old problem of competing in salary is always before us but we're starting to hear more and more now that there might be an interested and qualified pool of nursing students who may have more and more difficulty getting into the programs or having a hard time on the academic side. Just finding the qualified --
MR. SHUBERT: Sure.
SENATOR VERDIN: -- you know, academia to instruct these willing and able students. How would we address that on the rise -- it's one thing if you don't have nurses on the line -- on the front line but getting them trained and educated.
MR. SHUBERT: Right. Well, I think it's -- it's kind of a two-fold issue. I think if you look at what needs to be done in South Carolina public schools, we've got to make sure we're addressing the STEM side of education because that's -- those are the people who go into nursing, right, your science, technology, math students. And so I think when -- if we address that part of it, then you're going to naturally attract, you know, qualified or even over qualified nursing students. I think that having a pathway -- a career pathway for a nurse, she's just not going to become a nurse or he's not going to become a beside nurse or they're not just going to become, you know, in a one stop place where you just do general nursing for the rest of your career but you can progress through even into nurse practitioner type positions. I think that pathway becomes more attractive for our students when they're trying to consider what their career is going to be. And so I think we need to do a good job as we're recruiting of making sure that we explain to them you're not just going to -- you know, if you want to be a nurse, great but if you want to move forward with your career and grow, there's a lot of avenues. So I think we need to do that more.

SENATOR VERDIN: Right.

MR. SHUBERT: Relative to instructors, --

SENATOR VERDIN: Yeah, because that really is -- and when I was a child in Greenville, the focus was Greenville General.

MR. SHUBERT: Yeah.

SENATOR VERDIN: That's where the nursing center -- education of nursing was taking place was in the hospital setting.

MR. SHUBERT: Sure.

SENATOR VERDIN: I'm thinking that those of you in higher education may have to go back and reinvent this wheel where's there's a stronger degree of collaboration with your immediate hospital systems.

MR. SHUBERT: I mean, you bring up a good point but let me clarify one thing. No nursing student ever graduates without going through rotations.

SENATOR VERDIN: Sure, that rotation --

MR. SHUBERT: In a very strong sense.

SENATOR VERDIN: But the -- the lack -- the shortage of qualified, trained, certified, and credentialed instructors. You're competing -- if you're siloed in academia or siloed in the hospital system, I know you're snug but the numbers we're looking at over the next several decades demanding healthcare delivery from top to bottom salaries, recruitment of students, --

MR. SHUBERT: It's a challenge.

SENATOR VERDIN: -- and then with a mind towards academia. I know you've got a challenge there but it's just something that I -- after sitting through five budget subcommittees, every public sector committee coming before us talking about competing with the private sector, and then also it was born upon us that, you know, academia you've got to have -- you've got to have the instructors there and then they're competing for instructors with very high paying administrative jobs in hospital systems. So as -- as somebody whose fingers are getting stiff and blood pressure and everything else, I'm thinking more and more about as we all are and --

MR. SHUBERT: Yeah.
SENATOR VERDIN: -- it's just a challenge to our public sector universities. Hey, those of you who are offering nursing programs, where -- where can you -- where do you see us in the future? So I appreciate your particular attention to it.
MR. SHUBERT: Sure. As bad as it is now, 20 years ago, it was worse. So it has gotten better.
SENATOR VERDIN: Yes, sir. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.
THE CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.
SENATOR SCOTT: Motion for favorable.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Second.
THE CHAIRMAN: There's a motion for approval and a second. All those in favor, signify by raising your right hand. Thank you, sir.
MR. SHUBERT: Thank you very much.
THE CHAIRMAN: And as I've reminded everybody, please don't ask for the commitments until you've heard from Macey.
MR. SHUBERT: Correct. Thank you for your vote of confidence. Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Next up is Peggy McClinton Makins. I hope I'm pronouncing that correctly. Welcome. If you'd state your full name, please.
MS. MAKINS: It's Peggy Ann Makins.
THE CHAIRMAN: Raise your right hand and I'll swear you in. Peggy Ann Makins, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
THE CHAIRMAN: If you will give a brief statement why you'd like to serve, please.
MS. MAKINS: Well, I'm a graduate of Lander and I'm so honored to be a part of this Board. I never thought that as a student there I would be able to be in a position like this and it is -- has been enlightening and most fulfilling. I love Lander and I have to say that when I left, I not only left with a degree but I also left with a husband that has been great over the past 40 plus years. So Lander has a special place in my heart and I'm here to serve and just honored.
THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you, ma'am. Staff, any information to share with us?

MS. WEBB: Hi, good morning. I did not find anything in your file but just I've asked everyone else, can you please confirm for the record your home address?
MS. MAKINS: My home address is 823 (SIC) Lexington, South Carolina.
MS. WEBB: All right, an do you pay your four percent or six percent at this address?
MS. MAKINS: Four percent.
MS. WEBB: Thank you. That's all the questions.
THE CHAIRMAN: Questions? Senator Scott.
SENATOR SCOTT: Dr. Makins, let me first say how proud I am of you. Born in Abbeville to Piedmont Tech, the modern system that you took way back in '77 when you began and graduated in '79, we continue to tell these young people that actually works. Spent your two years at Piedmont Tech, went to Lander, the rest is history. Columbia University Masters and Ph.D. from Loyola. Unreal. And for you to be able to come back and share with some of those students that come out that same geographical area. And I guess that's why your recruitment's so big because you're probably bringing all those kids in from the Piedmont Tech school to some of these other schools could learn to really work with that articulation agreement and bringing these kids out of these immediate areas so we can continue to grow these communities. What do you see, if any, changes -- you're from the area, you were educated in two schools -- two major schools in the area. Spent a lot of time at Piedmont Tech working with them back in the mid-70s. When we had the Competence in Employment and Training Act, and Piedmont Tech had the only training program for young people, especially those who were unemployed, we sent them back to school. And you may have been a part of that region because it is probably part of the time when I was a field staffer. What do you see that they could do better to continue to recruit more kids out of what we call the GLEAMNS area? So these kids can come through that same system, to be able to get an educated -- it becomes a lot more affordable especially when you go the technical school route. I've heard previous questions about nursing -- the nursing program and I'm sure that's where you're recruiting a lot of your students from, getting them off the ground. By then, they then either should have improved in the STEMS program or begin to address some of those courses that they're going to need to take when they get to Lander. If you want to talk a little bit about that a little bit, I would greatly appreciate it.

MS. MAKINS: One -- one thing that I'm very proud that Lander's partnering with the technical system and we're making it an easier transition for the students coming through the technical colleges. The grading system -- we try to have everything set so the students won't have to miss out on this course or that course. We're trying to align everything so that it's a smooth transition. So I think that that bridge program is really going to afford a lot of students to transition on to a four year institution.
SENATOR SCOTT: Are there some things that you would improve on at Lander. I know you're growing very fast. A very aggressive president.
MS. MAKINS: Yes.
SENATOR SCOTT: I like his style.
MS. MAKINS: I do too.
SENATOR SCOTT: If you tell me some of the things that you think that, as a Board, y'all need to improve upon, share that with me please.
MS. MAKINS: I think -- I think that we're -- we're on the cusp of making some changes and we're actually actively working. One of the things that we're doing we try to be a part of the community. So we go into the elementary schools. We make ourselves known to children at an early age, kind of like Little League baseball. They scout those kids early on. So we are looking at kids as they come through these school systems. And we're doing the dual enrollment which I think is really helpful and just trying to get out there and let the kids -- let the children know that we're here for them and we're actively seeking to try to pull them in our direction.
SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you so much. Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Questions? What's the desire of the committee?
SENATOR SCOTT: Favorable.
THE CHAIRMAN: There's a motion for a favorable. Is there a second?
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Second.
THE CHAIRMAN: All those that are in favor, please signify by raising your right hand. Thank you, Dr. Makins, and good luck to you. And as I keep saying, please don't ask for commitments until you hear from Macey.
MS. MAKINS: Thank you all very much for your service.
THE CHAIRMAN: Next up is Donald H. Scott. If you would state your full name, please, sir.
MR. SCOTT: Donald Harold Scott.

THE CHAIRMAN: If you'll raise your right hand, I'll swear you in. Donald Harold Scott, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
THE CHAIRMAN: Okay. Give a brief statement on what you'd like to serve on the Lander Board.
MR. SCOTT: Well, like Peggy said she has a love for Lander. I graduated from Lander. My son and daughter graduated from Lander. My wife graduated from Lander. I have a total of ten people, including nieces and nephews, that all graduated from Lander. I served on the Alumni Board as a member and as president. I served on it for six years. And I served on the Foundation Board as a member and interim president for six years. And now I'm on the Board of Trustees and I think it's a real honor to, you know, work with the fine people there at Lander and our communities to see it grow and meet the needs of, you know, students. We have frozen the tuition for the past seven years, including this year because we try to want to -- we don't want to -- people be surprised by increases. They start their freshman year and by their senior year, they can't afford it.
THE CHAIRMAN: Staff, any information?
MS. WEBB: Good morning. I actually do have two questions for you. The first one you are currently the Chairman of the Board for Lander, is that correct?
MR. SCOTT: That's correct.
MS. WEBB: Thank you. And then on your application for the present employer, you it left blank. Do you currently work for someone or are you currently retired?
MR. SCOTT: Retired.
MS. WEBB: Thank you. And just as I've asked everyone else for the record, can you please state your home address for the record?
MR. SCOTT: 149 Ben Langford Road, Waterloo, South Carolina --
MS. WEBB: Thank you.
MR. SCOTT: -- 29384.
MS. WEBB: Yes, sir, thank you. And do you pay your four percent or six percent at this address?
MR. SCOTT: Four percent.
MS. WEBB: Thank you. That's all.
SENATOR VERDIN: Mister Chairman.
THE CHAIRMAN: All right.
SENATOR VERDIN: Don't you live kind of near Waterloo? The senator -- the senior senator for Richland just asked me where Waterloo was. He's over here with GLEAMNS and everything in western Carolinas. It's not some place in Iowa or Europe. I can tell you that. And I bet you know it based on the people that have found Waterloo. It blows my mind what is going on down there.

MR. SCOTT: Yeah, it's really growing. It's a nice community and it's growing and you've got the lake there so you have a lot of growth and so forth going on in Waterloo.
THE CHAIRMAN: Other questions? Senator Scott.
SENATOR SCOTT: Just real quick. Thank you so much, Mr. Chairman. I see you took -- also took that same route technical school and then to Lander.
MR. SCOTT: That's correct.
SENATOR SCOTT: Which is really strengthened when you begin to talk to young people about the easiest way and the least expensive way to get an education. So let me also applaud you on -- on that -- on that as well.
MR. SCOTT: Thank you.
SENATOR SCOTT: And then upon graduation, I'm still remaining in the rural portions of South Carolina trying to educate most of -- most of our kids. What do you contribute to the real growth at -- on the campus at Lander especially with chairman and money management has been a real issue with how fast you -- you guys have been able to grow.
MR. SCOTT: Well, we do have an excellent staff. Like you talked about our president. He's doing an excellent job of leading us. Ninety-one percent of our student population comes from the state of South Carolina. As has been stated, you know, we have the 32 percent diversity. And then another thing is we have 78 percent of the students that graduate from Lander stay in the state and contribute back.
SENATOR SCOTT: That's so important.
MR. SCOTT: Yes.
SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.
THE CHAIRMAN: Any other questions? What's the desire of the committee?
SENATOR VERDIN: Favorable.
SENATOR SCOTT: Second.
THE CHAIRMAN: We have second. All those in favor signify by raising your right hand. Opposed like sign. Congratulations, sir. Don't ask for a commitment until you hear from her.
MR. SCOTT: All right. Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: All right, before I call the next one, let me -- let me recognize Representative -- former Representative Alan Taylor. He's a colleague of mine and the speaker's. I'll tell you Lander folks he does an excellent job down here for you so you need to keep him employed. I'm sure he'll agree.

MR. TAYLOR: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.
THE CHAIRMAN: All right, next up is Dewitt Boyd Stone Junior. If you'll state your full name, please, sir.
MR. STONE: Dewitt Boyd Stone Junior.
THE CHAIRMAN: If you'll raise your right hand please. Dewitt Boyd Stone, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
THE CHAIRMAN: Okay. Give us a brief statement why you'd like to serve on the Lander Board.
MR. STONE: Lander and I both grew up in Williamston. My great-grandfather founded the college and it kind of grew up in Williamston and moved to Greenwood. I never lived in Williamston but I did get to spend some summers there and I think it's sort of like home but not exactly. In 1957, I went to college at Tennessee and I'm in my 65th year now of being either in or teaching at or administering at a university. And I'm loving it on the Lander Board. It's a great institution. We're doing very well in recent years.
THE CHAIRMAN: Staff, any information.
MS. WEBB: I don't have any questions based on your file but just as with everyone else, can you please state your home address for the record?
MR. STONE: 108 Poole, P - double o- l-e Lane Clemson, South Carolina.
MS. WEBB: Thank you. And do you pay your four percent or six percent? Can you please state it for the record?
MR. STONE: Four.
MS. WEBB: Thank you, sir.
MR. STONE: Yes.
THE CHAIRMAN: Questions? Senator Scott.
SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you so much for your willingness to serve. Are you currently serving as the chair or is that -- because I'm looking at both of y'all currently serving as the chair? That's a typo? Last year? You former -- you former chair?
MR. STONE: No.
SENATOR SCOTT: That's a typo?
MR. STONE: Don Scott's the chair.
SENATOR SCOTT: Okay, thank you. That's just a typo. I see you -- you retired from Clemson University.
MR. STONE: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: What did you teach at Clemson and how long were you there?
MR. STONE: My teaching was at the University of Tennessee. I came to Clemson as an administrator, actually to start a night program in Greenville for engineering students and that resulted in the University Center at Greenville a few years later. And I was moved back to Clemson to do various things including liaison with the Commission on Higher Education and I retired as Assistant Vice President for Academic Affairs.
SENATOR SCOTT: So with that in mind, what are y'all doing so different that your sister school that close to you is not doing? You guys are having a tremendous success in recruiting students and that's what you did. Enrolling academic -- so you get to check the box. Who comes and who does not come.
MR. STONE: Yes. Yes.
SENATOR SCOTT: Some kids may need another summer or maybe a course or something. So what are y'all doing different that you're -- that you're growing at the pace of 32 percent compared to your sister school that's adjacent to you is not doing?
MR. STONE: We have to give a lot of credit to our president. I joined the Board in 2014 and the search was actually underway at that time. So one of the first things I got to do at Lander was to help choose a president from three candidates who were -- who were chosen for us by a consulting firm. He brought a lot of talents and outreach in public relations was one of them. His strongest talent was he came to us as a Vice President for Academic Affairs at UNC-Pembroke. And we were not in very good financial shape at that point and it was a joint board/president decision to freeze tuition during his first year at Lander and I think that's had a lot to do with our ability to attract students.
SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.
THE CHAIRMAN: Any other questions? Desire of the committee?
SENATOR VERDIN: Favorable.
SENATOR SCOTT: Second.
THE CHAIRMAN: All of those in favor signify by raising your right hand. Opposed like sign. Thank you.
MR. STONE: Thank you, sir. Thank you all.
THE CHAIRMAN: Next up is Raymond Davis Hunt.  1:29:59.
MR. HUNT: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: If you'll give us your full name.
MR. HUNT: It's Raymond Davis Hunt.

THE CHAIRMAN: If you raise your right hand, I'll swear you in. Raymond Davis Hunt, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
THE CHAIRMAN: Brief statement on why you'd like to serve.
MR. HUNT: I've been fortunate enough to serve on the Lander University Board for 24 years now. It's where I met my wife similar to -- you've heard that from two or three other Board members so I don't know what's in the water there but it's the place where, I guess, we meet our spouses. I've been able to serve in the chairman capacity and other leadership roles on the Board. Two terms past chair. And would like to continue to see us grow and I would like to continue to give back and serve.
THE CHAIRMAN: Staff, any information?
MS. WEBB: I don't have anything based off of my review of your file but just as with everyone else, can you please state your home address for the record?
MR. HUNT: Sure. 2012 Amicks Ferry Road, Chapin, South Carolina 29036.
MS. WEBB: Perfect. Thank you. And do you pay your four percent or six percent?
MR. HUNT: Four percent.
MS. WEBB: Thank you. That's all.
THE CHAIRMAN: Questions? Senator Scott.
SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you. Thank you, Mr. Hunt, for your willingness to serve. You basically grew up on that Board.
MR. HUNT: It's easy for me to remember when I came on the Board because my daughter's 24 years and I was -- she was born right before I started so it's easy.
SENATOR SCOTT: You came as a youngster.
MR. HUNT: I did.
SENATOR SCOTT: Tell me a little bit about the growth of the Board from the time you got there --
MR. HUNT: The growth of the Board or the university?
SENATOR SCOTT: Boards effect the university.
MR. HUNT: Yeah.
SENATOR SCOTT: You can talk about both of them.
MR. HUNT: We've -- we've had growth on both.
SENATOR SCOTT: I'm going to finish the question --
MR. HUNT: Sure. Yes, sir.
SENATOR SCOTT: I know you want to get right on it.
MR. HUNT: Of course, you've --

SENATOR SCOTT: And where you think the university is growing -- is going with this growth and direction especially where you're physically located --
MR. HUNT: Right. Being physically located in Greenwood is a challenge in some ways because there's not a major interstate system to Greenwood. I used the to say the greatest thing about going to school there we were an hour and a half from Clemson, an hour and a half from Georgia, and an hour and a half for Carolina so if we want to go see good football, we could -- we have our choice. But we have seen great growth especially over the last four or five years. Dr. Cosentino has done an amazing job. We all, as a board, helped him with a strategic plan. We approved the strategic plan and we've been following that plan. And even through the pandemic we continued to see growth. And he's hired outstanding people. I've been fortunate to serve with three presidents of the university and this president what he did different was he brought in outside people. He didn't hire from within. And he added diversity. A good -- like you heard, 20 percent -- 24 percent of our senior staff is -- is minorities. And he brought in people from outside the state, inside the state, and he put the right people on the right seat on the right bus.
SENATOR SCOTT: Appreciate it. Thank you so much.
THE CHAIRMAN: Representative King.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chair. I have a question in reference to your answer to how can Lander improve. You said improve the communication with the Board of Trustees. Explain what you meant by that.
MR. HUNT: Sometimes I think universities can be pigeonholed and have their own little world and they forget sometimes to communicate every -- not every little thing but important matters to the university. As I believe, I stated on there, it has improved dramatically. Or improved over the last few years. Because it was hard for me to find a weakness of where we are when I look at our growth and I look at freezing tuition but that was the only thing I could think of.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: And my last question in reference to Senator Scott's question in reference to you said it's about 22 percent minority --
MR. HUNT: Twenty-four percent.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: -- 24 percent minority --
MR. HUNT: Yes.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: -- is that you said faculty? Staff?
MR. HUNT: That's senior staff.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Senior staff.

MR. HUNT: Yes.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: When you talk about minority are you talking about white women? Or are you --
MR. HUNT: Yes, that would include all minorities.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Any other questions? Desire of the committee?
SENATOR SCOTT: Favorable report.
SENATOR VERDIN: Second.
THE CHAIRMAN: There is a motion for our approval and a second. All those in favor, signify by raising your right hands. Thank you, sir. You know the rules.
MR. HUNT: Yes, sir. Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: All right. Last Lander candidate is John E. Craig Junior. If you would state your full name, please, sir.
MR. CRAIG: I'm John Edwin Craig Junior.
THE CHAIRMAN: If you raise your right hand, I'll swear you in. John Edwin Craig, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
THE CHAIRMAN: Okay. Give us a brief statement why you'd like to serve on the Board.
MR. CRAIG: Lander is a great university. That's why I'd like to serve on the Board. There's so many problems in higher education around the country. So many schools are not doing a great job in my view. There's real problems with quality. There are problems with costs. I'm a graduate of Davidson and of Princeton, elite schools. Costs are out of bounds. And frankly, those schools, and I love both of them, are too often are educating people for -- for lifestyles and not for productive work lives. That is a harsh judgement and that is fine. Lander, in contrast, is doing exactly in my view what colleges need to be doing in this country. We're bringing -- we have a great record on minority admissions and success. We have held tuition constant. We're affordable and we are teaching kids how to get -- go to work and lead productive lifestyles.
THE CHAIRMAN: I wish my two daughters had heard that before they went to college. All right, Staff, you have any information?
MS. WEBB: Yes. Good morning. Mr. Craig, on your application you did not disclose if you paid your four percent or six percent so I'm still going to do those same questions with you. Before you answer that question, can you please state what your home address is?
MR. CRAIG: Yes. 1859 -- 1859 Craig Farm Road Lancaster, South Carolina 29720.

MS. WEBB: Okay, thank you. And then do you pay four or six percent there?
MR. CRAIG: Four percent.
MS. WEBB: Four percent. All right, thank you. That's all I have.
THE CHAIRMAN: Questions?
SENATOR SCOTT: I have a question.
THE CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.
SENATOR SCOTT: I want to thank you, sir, for willingness to serve. One of the things I've noticed about the members of the Board of Trustees you guys have been exposed to so many different universities and -- in terms of where you've been educated, the schools you attend, not just everything right in South Carolina. What has it done for the Board members in terms of trying to reach some agreements in terms of best practice and policies because you have a lot of different knowledge based folk that's actually coming on -- that's on your Board. Which I -- which I applaud you. That's very healthy. So what do y'all do to try to reach some consensus or is some of the smaller stuff you don't get bogged down in?
MR. CRAIG: Well, you've put your finger on it. This Board is very diverse. It's a wide range of experiences and one of the reasons I like serving on this Board is that. That I learn from it too. We all need to listen to each other. We will have disagreements but we can all can gradually work to consensus. And we do bring substantial expertise to the Board -- to the university. For example, I did much of my career in managing large foundations and managing endowments. When I came on the Lander Board, I'm on the Lander Foundation Board as well, we needed to revamp our investment strategy there and I led that. So that's an example of the kind of expertise that our Board is able to bring to Lander.
SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you, sir.
THE CHAIRMAN: Representative King.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chair. I see that you're from Lancaster or live in Lancaster. I'm originally from Chester. I represent Rock Hill so next door to you.
MR. CRAIG: Yes.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: How is the recruitment from our area of the state in reference to going to Lander?
MR. CRAIG: You know, I wish it were more. We're -- let's face it, most of the students at Lander come from nearby so Lancaster is a bit too far away. I, myself, am doing my part. We've had some alumni gatherings there and so on. But -- and that is one of the aims. I'm on the Foundation Board, I work with the Vice President for Institutional Advancement which is all about annual giving and also very heavily involved in helping to recruit students. So it's an area we would like to do more.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: I see where your numbers for minorities are pretty good so I was just wondering about the outreach and trying to get more of that. But you probably do know my family in Lancaster. The Ruckers. Dr. Rucker.

MR. CRAIG: I certainly do, yes. Very fine family. A major family in Lancaster. And who have done so much for our city. You know, Lancaster we're near Chester -- Lancaster is really booming, folks. Particularly the north end but we're now really focusing on going -- revitalizing the town like Chester's doing.

SENATOR VERDIN: Favorable.

THE CHAIRMAN: Motion for approval. Is there a second?

SENATOR SCOTT: Second.

THE CHAIRMAN: All those in favor signify by raising your right hand. Opposed like sign. Congratulations, sir. Don't forget don't ask for commitments. I do want to state that we have one other Lander candidate. Marcia Hydrick could not be here today. She's out of state but she will be here tomorrow morning. We'll hear from her then. We've got one candidate for USC tomorrow too also. And the Wil Lou Gray folks. We're going to break for lunch. If I can ask all the members if they can be here at maybe ten minutes till 1:00. That gives us almost an hour. We'll try to start as soon as possible. Somehow I don't think this afternoon's going to go quite as fast.

SPEAKER LUCAS: Mr. Chairman, can I raise a procedural matter with the members on the committee?

THE CHAIRMAN: Sure.

SPEAKER LUCAS: We're about to get into the University of South Carolina and what I'd like to ask is that the committee delay taking votes on the six incumbent members of the University of South Carolina Board until the committee has had an opportunity to hear from each of them.

THE CHAIRMAN: Okay. We'll do a voice vote. All those in favor, signify by saying aye.

ALL: Aye.

THE CHAIRMAN: Those no? Ayes have it. You got it. We'll break it. See you a little bit before 1:00. (off the record)

THE CHAIRMAN: We'll go ahead and get started. My name is Bill Whitmire and I am chairman and I come from Oconee County. To my right is -- we're fortunate to have the president of the Senate, Thomas

Alexander; Senator Verdin and Senator Harpootlian. And Senator Scott will probably join us momentarily. To my left, I'm honored to be sitting next to the speaker of the house, Jay Lucas. And we have Representative King from Rock Hill and tomorrow we will have Representative Finlay from Columbia. This afternoon, we will be taking up first the University of South Carolina Trustees. So, when I call your name, if you would please come up to the well and give us your full name and then I'll swear you in. So, first up is Charles H. Williams, II. Will you give us your full name, please, sir?

MR. WILLIAMS: Charles Hiram Williams, II.

THE CHAIRMAN: Okay. If you'll raise your right hand, I'll swear you in. Charles Hiram Williams, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

THE CHAIRMAN: Okay. If you will give a brief statement why you're interested in staying on the USC Board.

MR. WILLIAMS: Well, my father -- my -- myself, I went to undergraduate school at the university and --

SENATOR SCOTT: Turn your mic on for us.

MR. WILLIAMS: What do I press -- All right. My father -- my father is an undergraduate and law school grad of University of South Carolina. I am an undergraduate and graduate of University of South Carolina Law School. My first wife was a graduate of USC Law School. My second wife, who is seated behind me, was a graduate of the University of South Carolina Law School. All four of my children are graduates of the University of South Carolina Law School. So, it goes without saying that it has meant a tremendous amount to my family that we've all been able to attend the University of South Carolina. I love the University of South Carolina. I've been on the board for 12 years. I've enjoyed it and I would like to continue to serve on the University of South Carolina Board.

THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you, sir. Staff have any information to share with us on Mr. Williams.

MS. WEBB: Yes. Good afternoon, Mr. Williams. In -- upon reviewing your packet that in initially submitted to the Board back in November, you've stated that you've listed that your property tax -- you currently pay six percent at your residence in Orangeburg. You also submitted, in addition with that, a letter explaining why your property is six percent in Orangeburg. And then you also stated, because your wife is currently listing the property in Charleston with the four percent. If you could just explain to the Commission a little more about that situation.

MR. WILLIAMS: This is both of our second marriages. My first wife, who is deceased, when I married McClaine, she had a house in Columbia. Shortly after we got married, she sold the house in Columbia, South Carolina and she bought a house in Charleston, South Carolina. She resides in Charleston the majority of the time. The first five years -- we've been married seven years. The first five years, I claimed the four percent residency. Unbeknownst to me, she decided that she was going to claim four percent in Charleston. When she did it, I -- she said it was only fair that she could claim it for five years if I claimed it five years. And I don't know how many of y'all are on your second marriages, but you tend to listen to your wife, and she claimed it. I immediately went to Orangeburg Tax Assessor's Office and explain to them what was going on and ask them could I continue to claim the four percent. They said I could not. I reckon the real issue is where I live. I've lived for 72 years on the same property that I live now. Anybody -- and a couple of y'all on the board -- I mean, on this committee know me. Nobody has ever claimed that I lived anywhere but Orangeburg. I own five different -- well, excuse me -- we own. But four -- the property in Charleston is solely in her name. I have four other properties; one in Maggie Valley, North Carolina, one at Lake Marion and one in Columbia, and I'm missing one. But anyway, I have a number of homes that are titled solely in my name. And, you know, I mean, there's no question where I live. I vote in Orangeburg. My law office is in Orangeburg. Although I say I'm semi-retired, I go to the law office three or four days a week. I still get paid by the law office. If you ride on the interstate, you'd see my photograph with my law partners. My two sons have taken over my law practice. But all my bills are in Orangeburg. I probably spend five or six days a year in Charleston, and that's only when I have -- my doctor's in Charleston, and it's only when I have a doctor's appointment. I'm not a big fan of Charleston. My wife loves Charleston. She goes to church there. Her voter registration's there, her driver's license is there. Her mail comes to Charleston. And I reckon we're a little unique, because while we're married, we do maintain separate households.

MS. WEBB: Yes, sir, thank you. And then just one final question from me and then I'm going to turn it over to members of the Commission, can you please, for the record, what your address in Orangeburg is?

MR. WILLIAMS: 2503 Five Chop Road, or either Marsha B. Williams Boulevard, Orangeburg, South Carolina 29115.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. That's all the questions that I have.

MR. WILLIAMS: Thank you.

THE CHAIRMAN: Representative King.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: I think this question may be for the Committee. In reference to residency, doesn't four percent that how we determine residency of what -- I'm not sure how we would determine --
THE CHAIRMAN: That is my understanding, that your residency should be the four percent. Now, that is -- he's now claiming six percent, so we've gone through that before, Representative King, with, I think, another USC member. He had to change his from six to four, so that's my understanding.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: And if that is the case, Mr. Chairman, the -- do we give that person time to make that adjustment on what do we do in reference to the four percent?
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Mr. Chairman.
THE CHAIRMAN: Who was the first one? Senator Hapootlian?
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: It's where he lives, not where his wife lives. And if she wants to declare Charleston her residence, that doesn't make him a resident of Charleston. The six percent, he can -- the couple can only take it one place. I would submit that if you are claiming four percent in more than one place -- and we've seen this happen -- you got a problem. If his voter registration, driver's license, all of those things are in Orangeburg, even if he doesn't declare that, you know, his residence for tax purposes, he's declared it for everything else, as long as he's not claiming four percent somewhere else. So -- and this issue has been litigated most recently in a school board member issue in -- I think, in my district, District 5, School District Richland/Lexington District 5. And it seems to me that's the correct legal position. Now, Mr. Chairman, I would -- either case, there are people who -- we're going to have another candidate in just a minute who doesn't take the four percent where he says he lives. So, I don't know if we ought to stick with a hard-and-fast rule of four percent being, you know, their residence. I think it's all the circumstances. He's testified under oath that he -- and let me clarify this. Where'd you spend last night?
MR. WILLIAMS: In Orangeburg.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And every 30 days or every month, where do you stay at night?
MR. WILLIAMS: I would say I spent 99 percent of my time -- now, I do have a condominium at the football stadium I spend a night every now and then in, but ninety- --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: During football season.
MR. WILLIAMS: Yeah.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Not --

MR. WILLIAMS: No, sir. But 98 percent of the time, I spend in Orangeburg.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And that's where you work.
MR. WILLIAMS: That's where I work.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And you -- you pay six percent on your residence in -- in Orangeburg; is that correct?
MR. WILLIAMS: Correct. When I went to the tax assessor and explained to them, they said you can have two primary residences, but you can only claim one.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Right, for tax purpose.
MR. WILLIAMS: For tax purposes.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I just think it's important to understand, in my understanding of the law, whole that is a factor we should look at. It is not the determining factor. Mr. Chairman.
THE CHAIRMAN: Speaker Lucas.
SPEAKER LUCAS: I agree with Senator Harpootlian and, obviously, it is a factor and it's a factor this committee should obviously look at on each occasion. But there are a number of different criteria that could be used to determine residence and I don't think that is the sole criteria we should look to.
THE CHAIRMAN: Who's next? President Alexander?
SENATOR ALEXANDER: I hear what is being discussed and I don't necessarily have an issue with that. But I -- as being the president of this committee, to take a different approach to that. And so, just for the record, I think we have to treat everybody the same. And so, if we're going to deviate that, then -- then I think we're going to have to afford that opportunity to others that have been impacted by that from other universities that was insisted upon by this committee that be treated differently. So --
THE CHAIRMAN: Well, Mr. President, if I remember right, that other candidate did have to change his six percent to four percent; is that not correct, if you remember? That's what I was thinking.
SENATOR ALEXANDER: That is correct.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, let me -- might I ask, Mr. Chairman, that would he be willing to change --
MR. WILLIAMS: Sure.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- and you and your wife work that out?
MR. WILLIAMS: Sure. I mean, she did it on her own. I -- don't get me wrong. I love my wife, but she didn't -- she just went down and did that. She said I'd done it for five years and she thought she ought to get a tax break. And it wasn't but about -- I think it's $3,000 difference, so it's -- me -- mine went from three thousand to eighty- five hundred and, I mean, I couldn't -- SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Do you need to ask her before you make this commitment?

MS. WILLIAMS: That's okay.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Sorry. Okay. Apparently, she's in agreement?
MR. WILLIAMS: So, yeah, I -- I'll be glad to change it.
THE CHAIRMAN: Okay. Other questions?
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I have another question.
THE CHAIRMAN: Go ahead.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Not about that, though.
THE CHAIRMAN: All right, go ahead.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So, Mr. Williams, how long have you been on the Board?
MR. WILLIAMS: Twelve years.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. And let me ask you this. Has it been your experience that you would go through the president -- and you've been through a couple of them, I think, during those 12 years, correct --
MR. WILLIAMS: Correct.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- to talk to department heads? Do you unilaterally go out and talk to department heads?
MR. WILLIAMS: No. Now, you know, if it's in a board meeting and a department head is talking about something, sure.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: That's what I'm talking about.
MR. WILLIAMS: No, not -- no, I never contact anybody --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Either emailing or picking up the phone and calling a department head?
MR. WILLIAMS: No.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And you understand the athletic department, Ray Tanner is a department head; is that correct?
MR. WILLIAMS: I understand.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And why don't you do that?
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, I mean, it's not our -- in our position to do it. I mean, we set policy. And like I say, if we have -- if we have a problem, usually we'll contact the president or wait till that person is at a meeting and address whatever issues we have.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And in your opinion, is that -- do you have any problem with the board, some of the board members unilaterally talking with department heads --

MR. WILLIAMS: Well --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- going around the president?
MR. WILLIAMS: -- I'm sure it happens a lot and -- but you don't know about it. I mean, you know, I don't think that a member of the board would tell you that they've been talking to a department head.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Would it surprise you I'm going to ask the incumbent board members today under oath whether they're done that or not?
MR. WILLIAMS: No, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. So, we'll deal with that in a little while. But let me -- let me move on with it. There's sort of an elephant in the room, if you will, is the presidency of General Caslen, and I'm trying to get my arms around how such a thing happened. Well, first of all, did - - you voted against hiring him; is that correct?
MR. WILLIAMS: That's correct.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And let's talk about how that process -- I'm trying to get a sense of how the board makes decisions.
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, it was poorly handled from the beginning. When -- when -- I don't remember whether it was three or four candidates and --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Speak into the microphone.
MR. WILLIAMS: I'm trying to recall, because it's been a little while, but -- but when it first came up, we would meet the candidates. Right before the meeting began, they sat a stack of paper about this high, which was from the faculty and from the students who had heard President Caslen, and their opinions and so forth. And, you know, you didn't have time to read them and I objected to that, that, you know, why would you put a stack of -- you know, five-inch stack of paper in front of me with opinions from students and faculty and expect me to have any idea. And they said, well, we can tell you that 80 percent of the faculty and 80 percent of the students oppose him being our next president.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Was he the only candidate you were looking at that day?
MR. WILLIAMS: No, there were three, three or four.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay.
MR. WILLIAMS: And --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Did you get that kind of input on all four or all three?
MR. WILLIAMS: Yeah.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay.

MR. WILLIAMS: And so, it started off rather raw and so we pretty much had an argument within the board, you know, and complaining about we needed more information. If we were going to elect the president, we needed to see what the reviews said, blah, blah, blah. And after heated discussion, we all agreed to continue the process, not to elect anybody on that day.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Now, did y'all decide to ask some of the interim presidents?
MR. WILLIAMS: I'm sure we must --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Upstate?
MR. WILLIAMS: Yeah, we did, we asked the chancellor at Upstate, who is a very good guy.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And did he agree to do that?
MR. WILLIAMS: He did.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Did he ever get to be the interim president?
MR. WILLIAMS: For just a short period of time.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Now, there is -- as I study the records from --
MR. WILLIAMS: I'm trying to -- you want me to go forward, because -- to the vote on Caslen?
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, I'm going to ask you some questions and then --
MR. WILLIAMS: All right.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- and then ask you to go forward. So, there was about a 30-day period between that meeting and the meeting at which Caslen was elected, correct?
MR. WILLIAMS: Correct.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. During that 30-day period, did anyone that -- to your knowledge, on the board go to Florida and meet with General Caslen?
MR. WILLIAMS: Yeah, some people went. I do not recall who and how many, but I was aware that some went. And I think that was after we elected Caslen that I found out about that. I didn't know that they had gone down there.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Did you know they went between - - in that 30-day period between the first vote and the second one?
MR. WILLIAMS: I believe it was.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And were you invited to go?
MR. WILLIAMS: No, sir.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Was there some sort of selection committee that had been picked?
MR. WILLIAMS: Not that I know of.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And so, they took the university plane, this three or four board members, who -- some of them are going to be testifying today. I'll ask them about it.
MR. WILLIAMS: That's my understanding, yes.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And they went and met with General Caslen?
MR. WILLIAMS: As far as I know, yes.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But not the other candidates.
MR. WILLIAMS: That's -- as far as I know, that's correct.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You don't know what they discussed.
MR. WILLIAMS: I have no idea.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Were they negotiating the contract?
MR. WILLIAMS: I have no idea. Never been privy to any of the that information.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Now, go ahead with your narrative as to what happened between that first meeting where you didn't pick him, you picked an interim.
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, the board was instructed -- I mean, we instructed for the search committee to continue. We were unhappy with the group they hired. We were supposed to hire a new group that did Clemson's search. And then, out of the blue, I got a call from the governor asking me to support Caslen.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And tell us the -- did he explain to you why?
MR. WILLIAMS: It was a very short conversation. I've known Henry -- I went to school with Henry.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay.
MR. WILLIAMS: And I said -- asked him, I said, "Henry, have you met the man?" And he said, "No." I said, "Well, then don't ask me to support him."
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: The governor indicated he never even met the guy?
MR. WILLIAMS: That's correct.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And this was about two or three weeks before he was picked as president?
MR. WILLIAMS: It was right before. It all -- SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And it was the governor or his chief of staff -- To your knowledge -- I know I got a call from the chief of staff. Was the governor or the chief of staff contacting all the board members?

MR. WILLIAMS: I have no idea. He just contacted me and, like I say, I know Henry well. Henry and I are friends and I -- you know, I just said, "Henry, have you met the guy?" Because I -- I thought, in his interview, he was not real good, in addition to not being able to know why the faculty or the students were so opposed to him. And when he said no, I told him, I said, "Well, no, I'm not going to support him."
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But in an interview -- you had an interview with Caslen here in Columbia?
MR. WILLIAMS: We had all the candidates. Whether it was three or four, I really can't remember.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Was one of those candidates the provost? MR. WILLIAMS: No.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: It was not.
MR. WILLIAMS: No.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Do you remember who the other candidates were?
MR. WILLIAMS: It was Tate and -- I think it was three, because I think we lost -- the lady was a finalist, and I think she went to University of Tennessee.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Uh-huh (affirmative).
MR. WILLIAMS: But William Tate was one and -- SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Now, who's William Tate?
MR. WILLIAMS: He was our provost, then he went down to be the president of LSU.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So, he was not hired here and he went to --
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, he was --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- being president of --
MR. WILLIAMS: -- eventually hired as our provost.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Right. But then he left here when he was not hired as president and went to LSU?
MR. WILLIAMS: That's correct.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Is he African-American?
MR. WILLIAMS: That's correct.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So, LSU hired him and we didn't.
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, we did hire him as our provost.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: As provost, but not as president.
MR. WILLIAMS: That's right. And he had -- you know, he had significant support on the board the first time around.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But then Caslen seemed to get -- well, on the vote was, what, 12 to 8?
MR. WILLIAMS: I think it was 11 -- we needed one more vote to continue the process. And that's what it was about. It wasn't about -- he was allowed to stay in the running. We just wanted to process - - we wanted a different group, the Clemson people, you know, that handled their search to look at the candidates and then bring us back the candidates. And there was no objection to him remaining as one of the candidates.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And that failed, that motion to do that? Or did that --
MR. WILLIAMS: No, that was -- that was what the board decided on. And then the governor --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And his process was ongoing.
MR. WILLIAMS: -- and then the governor got involved and called for a vote on Caslen.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And did y'all have a vote?
MR. WILLIAMS: We did.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Was there an effort to have a meeting and you stopped it?
MR. WILLIAMS: Yeah, I did.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Tell us about that.
MR. WILLIAMS: You have to give so many days' notice by statute and they were trying to do it quickly. And I raised the issue that we hadn't had sufficient time. I don't know whether it's five days, or whatever, that you have to declare before you have that meeting.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And so, you had to sue to stop them from having a meeting.
MR. WILLIAMS: That's correct.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I'm sort of intrigued by the fact that they didn't give enough -- didn't give the notice required by law. That seems to be a basic concept. Did you talk to the chairman of the board as to why he didn't do that?
MR. WILLIAMS: No, I did not.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And then, ultimately, there was a vote.
MR. WILLIAMS: And we lost by one vote. Not voting against Caslen, but people were voting to continue the process that the board agree to do.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And then y'all hired him.
MR. WILLIAMS: That's correct.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- voted to hire Caslen. Was that a mistake, hiring Caslen?
MR. WILLIAMS: You know, I mean, I hate to beat a dead horse. Actually, he did a very good job with the pandemic. It was just kind of an uphill fight. The faculty didn't think he had the credentials, the Ph.D. and the intellectual things that are required, so it was kind of hard sledding somewhat with the faculty.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I think, in a series of emails that's been reported between he and the president of South Carolina State, he was rather critical of the governing environment at Carolina. I think his words were, "It sucks." Does that sound accurate? Do you remember that quote?
MR. WILLIAMS: I remember that.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And he described the university as basically a dumpster fire on one occasion.
MR. WILLIAMS: I think that was his chief of staff.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: His chief of staff said that?
MR. WILLIAMS: Yeah.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. But so, was he doomed to fail, based on the lack of faculty support, based on the lack of --
MR. WILLIAMS: I don't think so. I mean, I took the guy deer hunting. I mean, once he's our president, he's our president. And, you know, I did everything I could do. I had no -- whereas I was against him originally, I mean, I tried to give him every bit of support, because he's our president. I wanted him to succeed.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And he gave a speech in which he used the words of another military officer it was discovered and, in university circles, that's called plagiarism.
MR. WILLIAMS: Correct.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And if you get caught plagiarizing a student, what happens to you?
MR. WILLIAMS: I reckon you'd go before whatever committee handles that and they could do anything. They could do anything from expulsion to -- SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But you could be expelled for that.
MR. WILLIAMS: Excuse me?
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You could be expelled for plagiarism.
MR. WILLIAMS: Yes, you could.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: It's frowned upon in academic circles.
MR. WILLIAMS: That's correct.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Now, he admitted that somebody wasn't checking it or he didn't check it, and he in fact did commit plagiarism, correct?
MR. WILLIAMS: correct.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Was there any official effort on the part of the board to look into that, to do anything about that?
MR. WILLIAMS: You know, I mean, you hear things, but I don't know how official -- official they were. I mean, I felt sorry for the man, to be honest with you.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, is your -- is your -- when you felt sorry for the man, I mean, is that the motivation for hiring or keeping somebody as the president of a -- a key flagship university?
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, he resigned. We didn't fire him.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And he tried to resign and the chairman of the board rejected that, is what I read; is that correct?
MR. WILLIAMS: Again, that's what I heard.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Does the chairman of the board have the authority to reject that?
MR. WILLIAMS: I'm not sure I know. I mean, I think the board should address that, but you know, I don't honestly know. I don't know what our bylaws say about that.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. I'm going to explore the Caslen matter further with some of the folks who actually were helping behind the scenes to make that happen that will be testifying this afternoon. Let me move on to another subject. The athletic department fired Coach Muschamp; is that correct?
MR. WILLIAMS: Correct.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And they did that with the knowledge they were going to have to negotiate a $12 million payout; is that correct?
MR. WILLIAMS: 12.9, I think.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: 12.9. Were you in favor of that?
MR. WILLIAMS: It never came before the board.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well -- it did not? MR. WILLIAMS: No.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Who was that -- who makes that decision?
MR. WILLIAMS: Athletic director.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Unilaterally, without approval.
MR. WILLIAMS: I would think he'd have to talk to the president, but I don't know that for a fact.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But not the board -- the board doesn't make that decision or enter into that decision.
MR. WILLIAMS: No, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Now, did the athletic department have the funds on hand to pay that $13 million buyout?
MR. WILLIAMS: I do not believe they did at the time.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And do they get an infusion of money from the university to do that?
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, you had COVID hitting us. So, you didn't -- you know, we had no attendance at football games.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Right.
MR. WILLIAMS: And I don't remember what the figure was, but it was 40-something million dollars we lost, including his buyout. In addition to his buyout, now, we had to pay off his assistants. So, the actual number, what it costs us is more than 16.9 million.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: 16.9 million?
MR. WILLIAMS: Just for him. No, excuse me, I'm sorry. It was more than 12.9. I don't know how -- I don't have the figure what we had to pay off his assistants.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So, the athletic department, because of COVID, didn't have the money to do that.
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, that and -- what happened then was we got 20-something million in advance from the SEC -- now, all SEC schools lost money. We weren't --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Right.
MR. WILLIAMS: -- we weren't just by ourselves. The COVID hit everybody. And so, I don't know what they -- out of the 40-something million, I'm not sure, but 20-something million, I think, I'm pretty sure, came from an advancement from the SEC on future TV contracts. And the university had to end up loaning the athletic department $10 million.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. And that's what I'm trying to get to. So, 10 million appropriated dollars, that would be for money -- state money was used to fund the Muschamp buyout.
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, it was used to fund Muschamp and the COVID problem, yes.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, I mean --
MR. WILLIAMS: I don't know if you could just say -- I mean, they were 40-something million in the hole, 20 million came from the SEC. You got another whatever, 20 million, which is made up of losses from COVID and the buyouts of these football coaches.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I guess what I'm saying, Mr. Williams, is this. Those of us that operate a private business, if we can't afford to do something, we delay it, we put it off, we negotiate a better deal. If the athletics department had to borrow money from the university to do this deal, did anybody raise the issue that maybe we shouldn't do this right now, we're $40 million in the hole. This is not --
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, it was done -- it was done before -- I mean, the board didn't know about it till -- just like y'all didn't know about it when we fired the coach. I mean, we just --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Who decided to loan them the money?
MR. WILLIAMS: The board.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. So, when you say the board didn't know about it --
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, I mean, it's after the fact.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So, the athletic director terminated Muschamp, negotiated the buyout, and didn't have the money to do it.
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, we had to loan them $10 million. I mean, I don't know, you know -- you know, it's a pool of money and it's a pool of loss and -- but I'm sure -- the money we had to pay the coach certainly made the debt much higher.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Yeah, I guess I'm just trying to figure out those of us that have to vote on a budget proposal to USC, y'all got an extra $10 million floating around you don't need and you just lend to the athletics department when they're in the hole --
MR. WILLIAMS: That's the first time in the history, I think, that the athletics department's ever needed money that they didn't have.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, once it enough, isn't it?
MR. WILLIAMS: I'm sorry?
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Once is enough.
MR. WILLIAMS: Absolutely. I mean, I've been a big opponent of these buyouts. If you see I voted against the last coach contract, because I said if we fire this coach next year, it cost $6 million. I mean, we paid Frank Martin $3 million. All we had to do is keep him one more year and we'd save $3 million. I mean, this -- some point in time in athletics, especially when you're in -- in the red, you can't keep doing this.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, and that's exactly what happened here. The board lent them the $10 million so they could terminate -- pay somebody almost $13 million not to work, right?
MR. WILLIAMS: Right.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And then they could spend -- they could get more money to spend on a new coach. I guess, if they did have the money, the had to commit it to the new coach, right?
MR. WILLIAMS: Yeah, they have money coming in all the time. Now, I can't -- you know, you'd have to ask the athletics department how his -- where his funds come from, and so forth, but --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Is there a committee -- athletics department committee on the board?
MR. WILLIAMS: No longer. They -- we had one and then they changed it into -- what's it called -- the committee that's in now, but it doesn't -- it's not -- I wouldn't say it's very active.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Did you ever talk to Ray Tanner about hiring and firing people, what the salaries ought to be? Do you do that?
MR. WILLIAMS: In board meetings.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: No, I'm talking about outside board meetings.
MR. WILLIAMS: No. But I had a very long discussion with him over this new coach and firing of Muschamp -- I mean, firing of -- SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Martin.
MR. WILLIAMS: -- Martin $3 million, and told him that the buyouts had to stop. I mean, this man came here -- I mean, common sense will tell you this. The man was making $250,000. We started him off at 2.2 million. We gave him a deal for five years; we'd pay 65 percent of the buyout. We're paying Chattanooga 450,000 for his buyout. And my question to Ray is, you know, "Why couldn't you hire this guy for less money? Why couldn't you get a better buyout?" "Well, I didn't have a buyout." I mean, the guy is coming from the Southern Conference. And, you know, I negotiate -- all my life I've practice law. I mean, I never made a deal that bad, and I just thought it was a bad deal and --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And what did Tanner say to you?
MR. WILLIAMS: -- and especially because of where we are with athletics trying to get back on their feet.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So, what did Tanner say?
MR. WILLIAMS: He said, "That's the market and you can't hire somebody without it."
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Who negotiates these deals? Do y'all have a lawyer you hire out of some professional sports group that negotiate deals?
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, they have agents, which, obviously, they --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, no, no, I know --

MR. WILLIAMS: -- their agents are a lot smarter than we are.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Do we have agents. Does the University of South Carolina have a professional who we use to negotiate these --
MR. WILLIAMS: They're supposed to have legal help and people over at the athletics department to look into these contracts.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: No, I'm talking about somebody outside their -- you and I both practice law. This is a very, very, very refined expert area. People that negotiate these contracts are sharks, right?
MR. WILLIAMS: Very sharp.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And so, to your knowledge, the University of South Carolina --
MR. WILLIAMS: Not to my knowledge.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. So -- and I don't want to belabor -- belabor this. Maybe I do, because I'm going to talk a lot about it this afternoon. There is this perception that the University of South Carolina Board of Trustees is not, as a group -- now, the individual members, specific individuals members -- but as a group, is not doing its duty to protect two things; one, the quality of education for kids to come in and we - - at the University of South Carolina. But more Importantly, the financial -- the $1.4 billion a year in revenue comes through the University of South Carolina. Does that sound about right to you?
MR. WILLIAMS: No, I think it's like 1.7.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: 1.7, I'm sorry. I didn't mean to underestimate it. Which makes it one of the largest state agencies in the sense of how much money it spends every year. You know, we went through a difficult time with the board at Santee Cooper, which is about the same expenditures per year, and it just seems to me that, you know, you're unopposed -- not that I'm trying to get you opposition, but most of these positions, I think all of the incumbent positions, are unopposed. Why is that? If -- if there's a perception y'all are doing a terrible job -- y'all, not you -- but collectively, if it's a dumpster fire, it should be, as President Caslen's executive assistant said -- and this place sucks, is what he said, all of that bad PR and not only that PR, but what faculty, some person looking to work in a major university that's qualified? I mean, that dampens the ability to get quality faculty, students. I mean, that entire mess cripples us. And then the athletics department is spending money like drunken sailors. And so, what's -- give me a solution here.
MR. WILLIAMS: All right. Well, let me --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I mean, other than not being --

MR. WILLIAMS: -- first backtrack a little bit. I disagree with you on academics. I think the University of South Carolina has outstanding academics. I think the faculty is outstanding. I do not see any problem with the academics whatsoever at the University of South Carolina. The athletics department, the problem I see in that is it's done before it comes to the board. I mean, you know, the AD goes out and commits to a contract of, well, fire somebody. It's all done before -- the board has no input in any of that.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So, he can -- that person can commit to University of South Carolina to spending money without getting board approval?
MR. WILLIAMS: He has to get it after. I mean, it's just like when -- SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Get it -- I'm sorry, get what after?
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, let's give you this example. The contract that they gave the new foot- -- basketball coach.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Yeah.
MR. WILLIAMS: You know, they said we're going to pay him 2.2 million and give him a hundred thousand dollars raise, five years, we're going to give him 65 percent buyout, we're going to pay 450,000 to Chattanooga, we'll give him a call or give him -- they cut that deal. And then they come to the board to get our approval. And --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But that deal's contingent on getting your approval.
MR. WILLIAMS: That deal is contingent.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And you voted no.
MR. WILLIAMS: And that's why I voted no against it.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So, in effect, you say after the deal. But the deal ain't the deal until the board -- the majority of the board votes to approve it. So, there's no "the athletics department cut a bad deal and we had to live with it," you don't have to live with anything the athletics department does contractually until you approve it, correct?
MR. WILLIAMS: That's why I voted no.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, on the Muschamp deal, you didn't have to approve that.
MR. WILLIAMS: No.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But you did.
MR. WILLIAMS: No.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You never voted on it.
MR. WILLIAMS: No.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You never voted on paying him --

MR. WILLIAMS: Never voted -- never voted on paying him, never voted on paying Frank Martin three million.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Really? Well, who committed that to him?
MR. WILLIAMS: That's in their -- that was in their contract.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: No, I think they negotiated. I know Muschamp negotiated something less.
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, it was very little. I think what he ended up doing was getting the actual cash value, as I understand it, of what the payments would've been if he'd have stayed the remainder of his contract. No, I don't think he got -- I don't think we got any kind of deal on that.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But -- but that couldn't have happened without y'all voting to give the athletics department $10 million bucks to fund it.
MR. WILLIAMS: I don't know if we could or not. I mean, you know, what they would've done, I have no idea. I know that when it was all over and done with, that they came and said that they were 20-something million, or whatever, and maybe they'd have paid them out of the money they had and then they would've been in the hole 20 million. I don't know that.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But you -- they asked y'all for $10 million to fund the deal?
MR. WILLIAMS: They did.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And y'all did that.
MR. WILLIAMS: We did. I mean, what you going to -- let them go bounce a check? I mean, you got to when it's at that point.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I want you to step back for just a second and think about this. You've been very successful in business and practicing law. This is really the way we want to run a $1.7 billion a year corporation?
MR. WILLIAMS: Mr. Harpootlian -- or Senator -- excuse me, Senator Harpootlian, I've been against all of this. I've raised hell about buyouts and firing Muschamp, firing Martin, new contracts, but --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And Caslen.
MR. WILLIAMS: And Caslen. I mean, I --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. You just happen to be the first one up.
MR. WILLIAMS: I understand. I understand. But I'm just telling you I -- you know, I just got one vote. But a lot of this stuff, I -- we don't even have any say in. Like firing, I think we ought to have a say -- I think the board ought to be able to say can we fire Muschamp, can we fire Martin. I mean, it's done, it's over. It comes to us and then we got to go find out they ain't got the money to pay. I mean, I think it's wrong. I think the board ought to be -- I think the coaching -- I mean, the athletics department ought to come to the board and give us an idea what kind of contract he's going to offer to see if we're amenable to it rather than -- like nobody wants to vote against our new coach. I mean, we don't want to come in there -- I mean, he's probably a great guy. I hope he does wonderful. I don't want to vote against him. And that's why I put everything in terms of the buyout. I don't -- it's no reflection on the coach. And, you know, you don't want to do that. I mean, you know, you people at Clemson, you don't want to vote against Dan -- I mean, Dabo, I mean, you know. And so, you want to be supportive, but you also sent a message to the administration and to athletics department, hey, y'all got to be a hell of a lot more financially smart on these deals. I mean, this just can't keep going on. And, you know, why can't we be the first one to stand up and say, "We're not going to have any more outlandish buyouts." You know, if this guy -- excuse me, again, and it's no reflection on the coach, but, you know, he was 87 and 71 at Chattanooga. I mean, it's not like you're hiring a coach -- an ACC, a Villanova's coach who's got a proven track record. I'd feel a little bit better about a buyout with somebody that had a proven record. But, I mean, this is an unknown quantity. And giving that kind of contract, to me, is irresponsible. But yet, at the same time, we want to support the guy. I mean, he's -- we got him for five years, now.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And you will be supporting him.

MR. WILLIAMS: Oh, absolutely.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So, let me just shift to one last question. There is a bill I'm sponsoring, which is going to get probably subcommittee hearing in a few weeks on restructuring the USC board. Are we just merely rearranging the deck chairs on the Titanic or would restructuring that board help -- making it smaller?

MR. WILLIAMS: Look, y'all put the members on the board. Whether you put 16 on there or whether you put 8, you know, I -- I mean, I love all the members on the board. I wish they were more vocal. I wish people would think seriously about what our obligation is financially. Again, I -- I'm going to tell you right now, academically, we are strong. We know -- we got so many number ones in the country, our business school, our nursing program. I mean, there's a lot of great things going. There's no problem with the academics. I perceive there's a problem with athletics and somehow we need to give it more direction from the board rather than just being thrown in our laps and there's nothing we can do about it.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But some board members actually do get involved in that process, do they not?
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, I -- you know, again, you got to ask that board member. I mean, you know, it's not like people come up and say, "I did this," or "I did that." I really -- I don't have knowledge of that. I mean - SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. Thank you, that's all I have.
THE CHAIRMAN: Speaker Lucas.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Mr. Williams, thank you for being here today and thank you for your testimony. I just have a few follow-up questions to Senator Harpootlian. And I guess my first one hits at the heart of the matter. If the board is as dysfunctional as you say it is, why in the world would we reelect any of the current members back to their current seat?
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, that's up to y'all. I mean, y'all are the ones that elect them and if you think the change should be made, then all you have to do is make it. You know, I think structurally, it needs to be changed, especially in regards to athletics. And, I mean, nobody wants to -- God knows, I don't want to micromanage. That's the last thing. I mean, I don't get paid enough in this job. We must meet 12 or 14 times a year up here. We on telephone calls. I don't know how anybody would ever want to be the chairman of the board. I mean, it's a full-time job. And, you know, how in the world do you keep up with $1.7 billion. I mean, and you try and do the best you can, but it's very difficult. But I will say I think the people on the board -- I mean, as far as their integrity, I don't doubt anybody's integrity on the board.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Yes, sir. And as Mr. Harpootlian was asking you questions, especially at the start, you can -- you said, "I don't know," "I don't know how that's done," "I don't know how that's done." But as I was reviewing for this testimony, I noticed that one of the newspapers called you a lightning rod in the Caslen search. What did they mean by that?
MR. WILLIAMS: Because I was opposed -- I mean, let me -- when 80 percent of these students and 80 percent of your faculty say "don't hire this guy," I mean, what am I going to do? I mean, I - - you know, he did not have a Ph.D. or what you'd normally expect in that. So, I mean, you know, I was against hiring him. I did not think he was a good fit for University of South Carolina.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Yes, sir. Let's explore the term "lighting rod" and what that means. What did you actually do with regard to the Caslen hire and not supporting that.

MR. WILLIAMS: Talked to other board members. I told them I thought it was a mistake. I thought process -- I expected better candidates than what I saw that we ended up with. Just thought the whole process had been -- the search committee had been poor.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Yeah. And there's no question that it was a poor search process. Did a lot of your communication with your fellow members on the board -- was it by text message?
MR. WILLIAMS: It was.
SPEAKER LUCAS: And you turned those text messages over --
MR. WILLIAMS: Turned every text message I had.
SPEAKER LUCAS: And --
MR. WILLIAMS: And was surprised to see text messages of fellow board members that told me they were thinking about it when they were talking with the governor and his chief of staff.
SPEAKER LUCAS: And in some of those text messages, some of the ways you described the board members that you say are good people and that you work with weren't very flattering, were they?
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, anytime you're opposed to somebody and you don't think they're being truthful with you, you'd probably get a little bit upset.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Okay. And some of the board members actually making referencing to you, and I was certainly offended to see that their comments about you weren't very flattering.
MR. WILLIAMS: Didn't see many of those. But there was one I remember and I even went and talked to him about it and he apologized.
SPEAKER LUCAS: And so, you paint this picture as a board working well together. Doesn't it put us in a position where it's almost impossible to work well together when you've had board members making these type of comments against each other? It'd certainly make it difficult for me, I would think.
MR. WILLIAMS: No, I mean, Lord knows, lawyers on the other side, we at each others' throats. But we'd go out and have a drink together. I mean, that's part of it. I mean, just because you got a different position than I got and, you know, that doesn't make me dislike you or not pay any attention to what you're position is. I'm going to listen to your position, but I'm going to try and get you to understand my position.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Sure. And Mr. Harpootlian and I have a bill and have had a bill that restructured the University of South Carolina Board of Trustees, I think, removing politicians from the appointment, also reducing the size of the board. Because what appeared to me, in going back and reading through these texts is you have you and others who were involved trying to galvanize support for either Caslen or not voting for Caslen, and that certainly can't be a healthy environment for the school.

MR. WILLIAMS: Well, it is. It is. And I think what those was not as much against Caslen as it was we voted on following the procedure, reopening it, letting Caslen stay in the race, and getting a different company to handle the selection. And that's what most the talk was about, the failure to follow what we, as a board, had voted on and agreed.

SPEAKER LUCAS: And I believe, in one of your texts talking about the search process -- and we all agree, and I'll agree with you that it was poor. And to follow up, you did not have any active involvement in the search process?

MR. WILLIAMS: None.

SPEAKER LUCAS: You say a group of people went down to Florida to speak with Caslen. Would that have been just a group of board members going on their own or would that have been the search committee who actually went down there?

MR. WILLIAMS: You know, I think -- you know, to tell you whether they were on the search committee, I do not know.

SPEAKER LUCAS: Okay.

MR. WILLIAMS: But I don't -- I don't think all of them were on the search committee.

SPEAKER LUCAS: All right. Did you -- did you ask about that or did you try to insert your objection to President Caslen in the search committee? Did you tell him why you objected to him?

MR. WILLIAMS: I'm not sure if I did. But if it says it in the text, it would explain it.

SPEAKER LUCAS: No, sir, I'm just asking that question. If your objections to Caslen were that high, wouldn't the proper way to handle it would have been to have gone to the search committee and say, "Hey, I don't think this is the guy. I think we need to go in another direction"?

MR. WILLIAMS: I think I -- I think I spoke to people on the search committee and told them that.

SPEAKER LUCAS: Okay. Who was on the search committee?

MR. WILLIAMS: Oh, me. I'm sure your former -- your law partner Gene Warr, I believe, was on there. And I talked with your law partner numerous times. In fact, he was in -- I believe, in Alaska when all this was going down.

SPEAKER LUCAS: Yeah.

MR. WILLIAMS: And I talked to him --

SPEAKER LUCAS: He receives my ire quite a bit.

MR. WILLIAMS: And I talked to him. Hugh Mobley was chairman of the committee. Dawn Smith was on there.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Are you sure it was Hugh Mobley who was --
MR. WILLIAMS: Chairman of the search committee?
SPEAKER LUCAS: -- who handled the search committee?
MR. WILLIAMS: Yeah.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Or was it Mr. Westbrook?
MR. WILLIAMS: Huh-uh, it was Hugh Mobley.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Mr. Mobley?
MR. WILLIAMS: Hugh -- Mr. Westbrook was this last time.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Okay. In response to a question from Mr. Harpootlian, you said that you thought the board needed to be given more power with regard to athletics.
MR. WILLIAMS: I think more oversight would be a better way of phrasing it.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Describe what you mean by that if you would.
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, I mean, I think we should have some kind of clue before an athletics director goes out and commits to a contract for a football coach. I think he ought to run it by the board to see if anybody has some strong objection to the amounts.
SPEAKER LUCAS: I will disagree with that. And I read in the newspaper all the time or I read on the football sites that I go to that the contracts are currently before the board to be approved. Are you telling me that these contracts are approved before the board can actual approve them?
MR. WILLIAMS: No. But let's take this example with our basketball coach. If you absolutely as a board don't want buyouts, then you got -- the athletic director's got to understand that when he goes and starts making a commitment to a contract. You know, so, I mean, and, you know, I would have questions about, "How much money do y'all have in the athletics department right now?" You know, "Can you afford to do this?" So, I mean, I just think there ought to be some kind of oversight before it comes to us, because, you know, you don't want to vote down the coach's contract, you know, if he's going to be your coach.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Yeah. Don't you think it's hard enough running the school and -- without having to have the added duties of negotiating contracts and talking to coach prospects? You're asking us to give the board more power and I'm struggling with why we should give you more power and not take power away from you.
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, you don't have to give it to us. Here's the problem. You're mad at the board because somebody had to pay $12.9 million to the Coach Muschamp because he was fired, plus what they had to pay the assistant coach. You're mad at the board because something had to pay Frank Martin $3 million plus his assistant coaches. We don't have any oversight over that. It's done deal. And so, why -- why get into these long- term contracts with these horrendous buyouts. Why can't the board have some oversight saying, look, you know, we're not going to go along with these big buyouts so the athletic director or whoever has got an idea of what he can go commit the University to.

SPEAKER LUCAS: Well, Mr. Williams, you do have oversight, because you hire a president; do you not?

MR. WILLIAMS: We do.

SPEAKER LUCAS: And the president hires the athletic director --

MR. WILLIAMS: He does.

SPEAKER LUCAS: -- is that correct?

MR. WILLIAMS: He does.

SPEAKER LUCAS: And if we make poor decisions in hiring the president, then we lose our ability to have oversight on athletics; wouldn't you agree with that?

MR. WILLIAMS: I agree a hundred percent.

SPEAKER LUCAS: So, would you want more authority than that? There's got to be a chain of command at the University of South Carolina. Somebody's got to answer to somebody else, and it's got to be in a straight line; do you agree with that?

MR. WILLIAMS: I agree with that.

SPEAKER LUCAS: And I thank you for telling me earlier that you didn't try and go talk to coaches on the side, because I know that's been a problem at USC and I've never heard where you have ever tried to do that before, because that's just not your job, is it?

MR. WILLIAMS: Oh, absolutely.

SPEAKER LUCAS: So, you did make the point that -- well, let me say, do you think the university board now is too large? When you have to text around to get commitments for the president, doesn't that symbolize the fact that it's grown too large to manage?

MR. WILLIAMS: All right. Well, I'm -- me personally, yes, I would like a smaller board.

SPEAKER LUCAS: But a smaller board it hurts places -- like we're from Darlington, Orangeburg --

MR. WILLIAMS: Oh, no question.

SPEAKER LUCAS: -- those types of places. We won't get board members anymore. But do you agree with me that that's something we may have to sacrifice in order to get a unified board at University of South Carolina?

MR. WILLIAMS: Well, I think Clemson's board is a great example of how a good board operates.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Because I was talking to Senator Harpootlian earlier and he knows a great deal about USC than I do, but he was going down and naming the college presidents that we have -- we've had to fire over the years, and that's certainly something that we don't want to be proud of, is it?
MR. WILLIAMS: You're not talking about University of South Carolina?
SPEAKER LUCAS: Yes, sir.
MR. WILLIAMS: No, I mean, Harris Pastides was great. Been there for 10 years and then came back, then he's been there 11 years. I don't know -- before him, was it Palms?
SPEAKER LUCAS: Yes, sir.
MR. WILLIAMS: I mean, we -- we haven't had a problem, I don't think, firing presidents.
SPEAKER LUCAS: So, it's a recent problem.
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, it was a problem with Caslen and that was it. And that was his own making. That wasn't from the board not supporting him or trying to help him.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Okay. So, let me go back to that again and I'll wrap up. There's no question you thought that it was a poor search process.
MR. WILLIAMS: Absolutely.
SPEAKER LUCAS: And -- and I believe, in looking through some of your text messages, you said it wasn't transparent, you said the process wasn't followed. To ask that, how was the process not followed that y'all set up?
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, when they came back, the majority of the people on the board agree they were not satisfied with the candidates and they agreed to continue the process, hire whoever Clemson had to conduct the search for the president. And then the governor got involved and demanded that they have an election on Caslen and one-by-one vote.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Okay. So, are you -- so, I'm talking about transparency, damaging the reputation of the school and the process, and you're talking about the governor being involved. So --
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, I don't think anybody --
SPEAKER LUCAS: -- which is it?

MR. WILLIAMS: I don't think anybody saw the search for that particular president as being transparent.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Okay. And why not?
MR. WILLIAMS: Because it was all done kind of behind the door. I mean, like people on the board going down after we agreed that we were going to continue to search and then people going down and meeting with Caslen in Florida on the state airplane -- or the college's airplane. That's not transparent.
SPEAKER LUCAS: But it did give you ample time to work board members to try to vote against Caslen. It wasn't something that was obviously rushed.
MR. WILLIAMS: The second vote was the following the process. Everybody -- nobody was voting up or down on Caslen. It was everybody saying we need to follow the process. We agreed on this process. We -- just because the governor gets involved, we shouldn't avoid the process the board agreed on.
SPEAKER LUCAS: And I'm not disagreeing with you. I think it was a horrible process. I'm just trying to find out why you think it was a horrible process, because you've stated a number of things in your text that would lead me to believe that. Politics, you're saying now, the governor being involved, but there were other things that you pointed to too along the way.
MR. WILLIAMS: Yeah. I mean, the people that were against going forward, let's say the minority on the vote for us to continue to search, they still continued to push for him. And they were texting back and forth with -- what's the guy's name that's the chief of staff --
SPEAKER LUCAS: Trey Walker.
MR. WILLIAMS: Trey Walker. I mean, there was all kind of stuff going on behind the door. I mean, it was -- it wasn't transparent by any stretch of the mean. There was a group on that that were for Caslen that continuously pursued it and it was anything but transparent. And let me just say about the dumpster fire. The dumpster fire comment was from Trey -- whatever his name is -- and said -- said, "We have taken the capital back from the Democrats." That was what he said with the dumpster fire. I mean, politics --
SPEAKER LUCAS: So, again --
MR. WILLIAMS: -- politics don't -- they just don't belong in the -- running a university. I mean, it just doesn't I -- you know, I -- y'all -- you know, you do your job. But when it gets into politics trying to tell a university what to do, I mean, it just shouldn't be political. We're supposed to go out and find the absolute best person for whatever job. We're supposed to give the best direction and policy. We don't need to get involved in micro-managing anything. But, you know, I was not a supporter of Caslen. But once he got the job, like I say, I would take him deer hunting. I would try and advise him. I tried to do everything I could to make him successful.

SPEAKER LUCAS: But at the end of the day, I think the biggest thing that was a detriment to the Caslen search was that it did turn political.

MR. WILLIAMS: Absolutely.

SPEAKER LUCAS: And it had people taking sides for or against a candidate to the detriment of the university that you and I went to.

MR. WILLIAMS: But it wasn't on a political basis. It was on a basis of whether you thought this person was qualified for the job and could do a good job as the president of the university.

SPEAKER LUCAS: All right. And I don't think I asked you this, but I had it down to ask you. What was -- what was the disqualifying factors for you for President Caslen? I know what they were for me, but --

MR. WILLIAMS: Yeah.

SPEAKER LUCAS: -- for you?

MR. WILLIAMS: But I think the bylaws required they have a terminal degree. I mean, I think they had to have Ph.D. You know, he came out of the third -- what I understand from the search committee is they had people they really wanted. That was in one class. They had people in the middle that were pretty good. And then they had a third class that was totally unqualified. And when the lady came -- went to Tennessee, the chairman of the search committee went into the unqualified and pulled Caslen as one of the finalists.

SPEAKER LUCAS: One of the things you said in your text, and I couldn't agree more, is that a house divided against itself will not stand. Do you still believe that?

MR. WILLIAMS: Absolutely. I do my very best to try and bring the board together. I quit my position and I tell why. And I think that it's just common sense. You know, I'm not going to ever support anything that I think is wrong. I'm going to do my absolute best to try and explain to other board members why I think it's a mistake. You know, and that's what I've done all my life and that's what I'm going to continue to do. My mama always said, "If you don't want to know what Charles thinks, for God's sake, don't ask him."

SPEAKER LUCAS: So -- so, these reports about you being a lightning rod with regard to this issue weren't true. You tried to bring the board together on it.

MR. WILLIAMS: I think I was somewhat of a lightning rod because when it came to the board voting to do a process and then switching up and doing a whole 180 and people calling trying to get you to support Caslen I thought was wrong. I still think it's wrong.
SPEAKER LUCAS: And I don't disagree with you. I think when you see wrong, you have to call wrong out.
MR. WILLIAMS: Absolutely.
SPEAKER LUCAS: And I appreciate that. I think sometimes it's just how you do it that shapes those relationships on the board and, certainly not criticizing you, but there's a lot of criticism to be spread around across all of the board for the way they handled this particular issue. Thank you for answering my questions, Mr. Williams.
THE CHAIRMAN: Representative King.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. And thank you for your service, Mr. Williams. Mr. Williams, I want to know what you're thinking, so I want the truth; and so, that's why I'm going to ask a couple of questions. Does the chair know about the contracts ahead of the entire board?
MR. WILLIAMS: I do not know that answer. I would -- I don't know.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: So, and my next question is the micromanagement part of board members micromanaging over at USC. Do you find that to happen?
MR. WILLIAMS: You know, if things like that happen, I wouldn't ever hear about it. I mean, that's the problem with that kind of thing. I mean, if somebody went and said something to whoever that might be, I mean, it wouldn't get back to me. You know, I've heard that there is some micromanaging going on but, you know, could I swear under oath that it was true? I don't know.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Did you also hear that a member of the board forced them to fire Frank Martin?
MR. WILLIAMS: You know, when I talked to Ray Tanner, I asked him why in the world would you fire somebody that's got some pretty good recruits coming in and we've got to pay out $3 million, and he just told me he was under extreme pressure. And, you know, that's all I know.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I couldn't hear you. What did he say?
MR. WILLIAMS: He said he was under extreme pressure. I did go to the president after the firing and I said -- I told Harris Pastides that I don't like -- I mean, I hate to talk about conversations you have with people, but I said, "Harris, did you okay firing the coach?" He said, "I told them I'm out of here in May. I don't have to live with it. But I thought the best thing is to let him stay another year and save $3 million."

REPRESENTATIVE KING: So, would you be surprised that I've gotten phone calls that a board member called and forced the firing of Frank Martin? My next question to you --
MR. WILLIAMS: No, I would not be surprised. But it certainly wasn't me.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Can you tell me who were the people who actually got on the state plane and flew to Florida?
MR. WILLIAMS: I really don't -- I mean, I don't want to say somebody's name and they not be on the plane, so I don't -- REPRESENTATIVE KING: Well, can you tell me why you were not invited?
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, I don't think anybody on the board was invited except those that got on the plane. And then the last person they would invite would've been me, I promise you.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: But -- but I'm asking were you invited?
MR. WILLIAMS: No.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Do you know why you were not invited?
MR. WILLIAMS: Yes, because that would've been a breach of what the board had approved was to continue the process.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: So, you're saying that the people who got on that plane breached the process.
MR. WILLIAMS: Yes, they did.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Also, can you tell me how --
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, I take that back. Unless they were there just to tell him that he could continue to be a candidate in the new search. I don't know what the conversations were, so I can't -- I really can't answer that.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Can you tell me in reference to the African-American candidate, why was he not selected?
MR. WILLIAMS: I voted for him. I mean, I said I was for him. But now, he had, like, six or seven -- it wasn't a vote, it was in session, but people were talking about who they really were impressed with and I was thoroughly impressed with Tate. In fact, I even committed to Caslen, when he hired him as our provost, because I thought he would be our president-in-waiting, and I was very disappointed that when he went to LSU and then, what, two weeks later, Caslen screws up and, you know -- you know the story on that. Because he was well liked by the faculty and by the students and, you know, he was a great guy.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Is there anywhere in the board bylaws in reference to members serving a certain amount of time as the chair?

MR. WILLIAMS: They can serve two terms and I don't know whether two years -- I think two-year terms.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: So, a total of --
MR. WILLIAMS: Four years, I believe.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: And then ask to switch over to another board member?
MR. WILLIAMS: Is that right, Eddie? Four years. Two, two-year terms.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: I read somewhere -- and I don't exactly where it is -- about the climate there and how women are treated. Can you address that? I heard that some women have been hollered at, at board meetings.
MR. WILLIAMS: Now, I -- I go to all the board meetings, but I really don't know anybody hollering at any women at a board meeting. If they did, I'd be the first one to call them down. But I -- no, I never remember any woman being either hollered at or some way spoken down to. I think it's very professional at our board meetings.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Now, I want to switch a little bit on reference to diversity. What have you done as a board member? And I think you have been on the board since 2008.
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, that's a very big thing for me, because I'm from Orangeburg. I served on the South Carolina State board for 23 years. And I was very disappointed we -- I think we were up to 9.5 percent African-American and talking to head of -- REPRESENTATIVE KING: I know that my other colleagues have questions. I just wanted to --
MR. WILLIAMS: Yeah, but head of --
REPRESENTATIVE KING: -- know what have you done to promote diversity and inclusion in your capacity?
MR. WILLIAMS: I've gone -- I've spoken to our head admission saying why haven't we got more, and his explanation is that we accept every single African-American that meets our qualifications. We've never turned down an African-American that doesn't meet it. In fact, I've given names of people from Orangeburg. They were applying to USC, of African-American descent, and asking is there any way you can help, you know, these guys and -- REPRESENTATIVE KING: I appreciate that. My next question -- because I -- we have a lot of candidates and --
MR. WILLIAMS: I understand.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: So, my next question to you --

MR. WILLIAMS: I wanted to say that we're in the top three percent of graduating African-Americans in the whole country.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: So, as the former chair of the South Carolina Legislative Black Caucus, I was oftentimes myself and Senator Scott would be meeting with black members of your faculty and staff there who felt that they had no pathway to growth. As well as many times they felt that they were belittled. Can you address that to me? And this is something that you all are aware of, because we met with -- many times with you all about that.
MR. WILLIAMS: Yeah.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: How has that culture changed?
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, I hope it's changing. If we got a lack of diversity, it's in our faculty. We've got like maybe five percent of our faculty is African-American. We've hired people to come in to help recruit people so that it gets up a lot higher than what it is. I think University of South Carolina is 23 percent African-American.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: How many -- and I know this answer, but I just want it for the record. How many African-Americans in -- and it's left up to us and to people who apply to be on the board, how many African-Americans are on the board of trustees?
MR. WILLIAMS: Two.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: On your diversity and inclusion -- or equity and inclusion, are there any black board members on your committee that you all have for the committee?
MR. WILLIAMS: I'm not sure.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: You want me to answer that for you? None.
MR. WILLIAMS: Yeah, okay. I don't -- I don't know.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: And --
MR. WILLIAMS: I know Leah Moody and Alex --
REPRESENTATIVE KING: –- It's not --
MR. WILLIAMS: No. Leah Moody and Alex are very aggressive toward us and done a good job and -- REPRESENTATIVE KING: Who makes those appointments.
MR. WILLIAMS: The chair.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you. Thank you for answering my questions.
THE CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.
SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you so much for your willingness to serve. I want to first commend USC for -- in its history, for hiring an African-American basketball coach. We had a lot of success with one coach. You made a comment earlier about the salary and I'm looking at SEC salaries to see whether or not that salary is in line. It doesn't matter where the coach comes from. And I'm pretty sure in their contract, it has a provision, if he doesn't perform, he's going to be gone. And it's up to the school to make sure if he's gone, of course, y'all figure out the compensation. And I was trying to figure out with a 2.2, because the man was making 250, why that was so out -- so out of line. And so, in terms of salaries, it didn't justify that. Then I looked at the schools y'all play, the SEC, the ACC, the Big Ten, the PACs, the Big 12s, the PAC-10s, and I look at those salary ranges. And with the top being 9.7 million at Duke; Kentucky, 8; Villanova, 6; Texas, 5; and comes right on down. And so, in terms of what the SEC pays compared to those schools, the true basketball schools -- that's where they spend all their money -- we're so far down the list in terms of being able -- if you're going to bring the kind of talent that you're talking, and all this, you're getting somebody that's coming from a smaller school, Division 1 school to come to USC, that's going to be pretty tough; especially given the turmoil in terms of where the school is and the big turnover that the school has had. What was Frank's salary when Frank Martin began; do you remember?

MR. WILLIAMS: I don't know. I believe --

SENATOR SCOTT: I think it was something like $2.2 million.

MR. WILLIAMS: Probably. Probably the same.

SENATOR SCOTT: And you've got the number one women's basketball coach in the country, and her salary was low compared to she could've gone anyplace in the country she wanted to as a coach. So --

MR. WILLIAMS: No, now, we paying -- we paying almost three million now.

SENATOR SCOTT: It's about time.

MR. WILLIAMS: Yeah.

SENATOR SCOTT: I mean, you can't -- you can't get the best talent and don't pay for it. And so, if you want good talent, you got to pay for it. I don't want to confuse what these coaches do with the mistake the boards and administration make. And I think that's so unfair to them to do that. Look at basketball coaches and the SEC football - - for football, the lowest -- one of the lowest paid. One of the lowest paid in the ACC, SEC, in terms of talent. But we want to win. And so, it's up to the board to get the contract situation worked out. I think it's policy at a school in terms of what comes first, what comes second, what comes third, because it's always -- in the contract, it always have the 24-hour period of time for negotiations, so it gets to the board to make those decisions. You can make it 48 hours. You can make it three days. I mean, that's up to the board. I don't want to confuse that. Because let me state what the messages says. It says that we look to get good talent and the African-American, we want to pay you less than anybody else. And I don't think you and I are going to be anywhere in agreement with that kind of attitude given trying to talk about having some diversity at the university. You want things good on one hand. But because the board is messing up on the other hand, then you penalize those coaches. I mean, if the coach is that good and a coach -- if you look at this guy's record, and I did, yes, that was his record. But since then, in the last three or four years, he's been a winning coach. It says he's ready to go to a bigger league to be -- to be able to win. So, I'm strongly suggesting -- and I hope you've got some feedback. The problem is not in these coaches who negotiate with you. The problem is in the board and the board has to make that correction, and it shouldn't have taken that long. And you went back to several contracts. And this happened way before the Muschamp contract, if we can just take you back deeper, and you know that. So, what do you plan to do to try to offset the policy? Because the board sets policy for the administration to follow, not the administration sets policy; the board, policy. Because $10 million has been suggested that the board did not have complete control over it, and I don't care if he makes it, 46 million or just the 13 million by itself, the board had absolutely no control of it. So, what do you plan to do, as a member of the board, if you're going back on the board, to fix that policy?

MR. WILLIAMS: Well, the first thing is talk to our new president coming in. And let me say --

SENATOR SCOTT: The president don't set the policy. Y'all set the policy of the board.

MR. WILLIAMS: I understand. Well, you know, I think Representative Lucas was right. I mean, I think we have to work with the athletic director. We have to go to our president and work down and talk to him about, you know, some of these things. But I want to back up to two things you said, and I want to bring out. Number one is nobody objected to the salary that our basketball coach. But the objection was to these buyouts that are --

SENATOR SCOTT: Your comment was -- let me correct you. Your comment was, "Why are we paying them 2.2 when he's only making 250 coming in." That's what's got my mind --

MR. WILLIAMS: Well, I misspoke if I did that. What I mean --

SENATOR SCOTT: That's what you said.

MR. WILLIAMS: Yeah, but what I mean was in terms of a buyout. If we're going to -- if a guy that's making 250,000 and you're paying 2.2, why can't you cut a better deal on these buyouts that are killing the university.

SENATOR SCOTT: But the comment I heard, a correction, why did we negotiate -- he was making 2. -- 250,000, why did we negotiate 2.2 and you said, "This is what the market bears." That was your comment.
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, I reckon I would look at it -- not because he was black. I -- if we were hiring a white coach or anybody else with similar -- I mean, I think this guy turned out being our sixth choice, is what I understand. And no reflection, I'm all for it. But anybody, when we got a financial problem at the athletics department, the first thing I'm going to look at is how do we save money. And, you know, with somebody -- you're right, the last year, he had a good year. But, you know, I just -- you know, we -- I'll give you an example. We paid --
SENATOR SCOTT: Well, I have --
MR. WILLIAMS: Let me say this. We're paying Dawn Staley almost $3 million. At the same time, we're losing about $6 million a year --
SENATOR SCOTT: But is it Dawn's --
MR. WILLIAMS: -- on women's basketball.
SENATOR SCOTT: But is it Dawn Stanley's problem or is that the board's problem? That's the issue -- that's the point I'm trying to make. It may not be a big issue to you, but it's a big issue to me when it comes to diversity of these colleges and universities.
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, we paid the --
SENATOR SCOTT: Especially when start making some history --
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, we --
SENATOR SCOTT: -- and there's no more open process at the school.
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, we paid it to Dawn Stanley, because we know she's a treasure, even though we're losing a bunch of money on women's basketball.
SENATOR SCOTT: Well, you're right, that works. You don't pay them, if somebody else is going to pay her, she's going to go.
MR. WILLIAMS: Oh, we -- we're going to keep Dawn Stanley. I don't think that's a problem. We have a seven-year contract.
SENATOR SCOTT: So, what happens in 2022 season if y'all are one or two in the SEC and in the east, you win the east division --
MR. WILLIAMS: Are we in football or basketball or what?
SENATOR SCOTT: Football.
MR. WILLIAMS: Okay.
SENATOR SCOTT: You only pay this guy $2.8 million in football, which is the lowest pay, then you got a deal.

MR. WILLIAMS: That's right. But that time hasn't come yet, because he hasn't proven himself.
SENATOR SCOTT: Yeah, but let me --
MR. WILLIAMS: And, you know, you got to prove yourself if you want to -- you're going to have all this money.
SENATOR SCOTT: I'm just telling you -- I'm just telling you those divisions, y'all are some of the lowest paying. The issue is, at the top in the negotiation buyouts, that's probably why you're getting such a bad deal, because you don't just --
MR. WILLIAMS: Well, but you're also -- you're also hiring unproven coaches.
SENATOR SCOTT: Well, you've been doing that because you don't pay a lot. These coaches will transfer. We've seen them transfer, coaches have left and went to LSU, wins the national championship, first and second year of the transfer. They'll transfer if you're going to pay them. But if you get talent that you're not going to pay for, you're going to have to build those coaches so those coaches can actually build the talent. Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Any other comments? First of all, we're looking forward to that four percent going to your Orangeburg residence.
MR. WILLIAMS: My county is going to miss that money I got -- I was paying them.
THE CHAIRMAN: And secondly, this morning on a motion of Speaker Lucas, we're going to hold over all Carolina candidates, not just you. And we will meet tomorrow morning and we'll decide whether we will approve or not at that time, or it could be later. So, thank you for --
MR. WILLIAMS: Thank you. Thank you for allowing me to appear before you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Well, good luck to you. All right. Our next one is Charlie Dorn Smith, III. Good afternoon, sir. If you would just tell us your name for the record, please.
MR. SMITH: Charlie Dorn Smith, III.
THE CHAIRMAN: All right. If you'll raise your hand, I'll swear you in. CHARLIE DORN SMITH, III, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
THE CHAIRMAN: Give us a brief statement on why you'd like to serve on the Carolina board.
MR. SMITH: Thank you so much for the privilege to be here this afternoon. In January of 2020, I was selected to the chair of the board's ad hoc advisory committee on governance. After notification by the University Accreditation Body, that the university was under review for the alleged external influence in the 2019 presidential search. The ad hoc committee completely reorganized the board's structure and implemented new governance policies, as well as new committees and in August of 2020, I was honored to be elected as chairman of the board. During my tenure as chairman, the university completed its review by the accrediting body and passed with flying colors. We were granted a ten-year reaffirmation of accreditation for the university. During this period of time, the board has also sought outside advice from experts in governance practice and in policies in an effort to improve our work as judiciaries. We were leaders in the detection and management of COVID during the pandemic. We thrived during that very trying times with the support of the legislature, we made available to the other colleges and universities our saliva-based testing for COVID as well. We elected a new president in -- this past month that is imminently qualified to lead the university into the 21st century and he will take office on July the 1st, and we're extremely excited about that. During my tenure, we had named a residence hall for Celia Dial Saxon. This is the first building at USC for an African-American and we have also approved statues to honor Robert G. Anderson, Henrie Monteith Treadwell, and James O. Solomon, Jr., who integrated the university in 1963. In addition to that, we have committed to diversity, equity and inclusion and continue to go forward with board training sessions and educational sessions as we continue to review opportunities to name other buildings for deserving individuals as well. We continue to be the leader in health education provide almost 50 percent of the nurses for the state of South Carolina and we continue to provide a quality education while not raising tuition for the last three years. We have had significant success and our future is bright. But obviously, there is much work to be done and we look forward to that hopefully having the opportunity to be able to do that. I thank you for this opportunity and I look forward to any questions you have, Mr. Chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you, Mr. Smith. The court reporter asked -- she's having a hard time sometimes when the senators or representatives are asking questions and it's back and forth. Sometimes they're speaking over each other and she would appreciate it if you would let the person speaking finish. Is that right?

COURT REPORTER: Yes, thank you.

THE CHAIRMAN: Okay. All right. At this time, does the staff have any information for us?

MS. WEBB: Good afternoon. I don't have any questions based off of your file that I reviewed. I will ask, like I've asked everyone else, for the record, can you please confirm your home address?
MR. SMITH: 2322 Burnt Branch Road, Lake City, South Carolina.
MS. WEBB: One more time.
MR. SMITH: 23- --
MS. WEBB: Sorry, you're still not on. Hold on.
MR. SMITH: I'm sorry. 2322 Burnt Branch Road, Lake City, South Carolina.
MS. WEBB: Perfect, thank you. And do you know if you're four percent or six percent at this address?
MR. SMITH: I do four percent.
MS. WEBB: Thank you, sir.
THE CHAIRMAN: Speaker Lucas.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Dr. Smith, good afternoon.
MR. SMITH: Hey, Mr. Speaker.
SPEAKER LUCAS: And thank you to your service to the University of South Carolina. I just have a few questions. I know there are more from the other members of the panel. But if you'd just indulge me for about five minutes. Did you serve as chairman of the board during the most recent presidential search that you had hired Dr. Amaritas.
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir, chairman of the board, not the search committee.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Okay. Prior to the selection of Dr. Amiridis, was the job offered to another candidate?
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir, it was.
SPEAKER LUCAS: All right. And could you tell me who that candidate was?
MR. SMITH: The gentleman's name is Dr. Mung Chiang. He was the dean for research at Purdue University.
SPEAKER LUCAS: And did that candidate accept?
MR. SMITH: He did, verbally.
SPEAKER LUCAS: All right. And obviously, he -- there must've been some -- don't want to say miscommunication, but a parting of the ways between the university and he, because he ultimately did not take the job; is that correct?
MR. SMITH: That is correct. He had personal family issues with his mother-in-law being sick.
SPEAKER LUCAS: And with all due respect to Dr. Amiridis, who I think is going to be a fine president of this school, do you think it was an ideal search process that first saw public purports that he was not going to be offered the job and saw another candidate come into focus, only to withdraw from the process, and a short time later, Dr. Amiridis being hired.

MR. SMITH: Well, the short answer to that is having presidential searches are like making sausage and legislature. There's a lot of things that go on behind the scenes that you don't necessarily want to see, but as long as the end result is good, then you're there. I believe, with all my heart, that we have an excellent incoming president who would be the first choice of a number of people out the get-go. And I think that the end result speaks for itself, Mr. Speaker.

SPEAKER LUCAS: Thank you, sir. But Dr. Smith, you would agree with me, if you would, that certainly the process we selected Dr. Amiridis was not as smooth as we would have liked it to have been given what happened with President Caslen.

MR. SMITH: Certainly, that's true.

SPEAKER LUCAS: Okay. Was the board divided this time with regard to the hiring of Dr. Amiridis?

MR. SMITH: It was an unanimous vote, sir.

SPEAKER LUCAS: Was it unanimous prior to the other individual withdrawing?

MR. SMITH: It was unanimous for -- of Dr. Chiang also.

SPEAKER LUCAS: What reason, I guess, and I'm searching here, would there have been for us publicly taking Dr. Amiridis out of the search after the individual from Purdue surfaced, and then adding him back into the search? That appeared to be a little disjointed to me.

MR. SMITH: I'm not -- would you clarify that, please, sir? I apologize. I'm not certain what you're asking.

SPEAKER LUCAS: Well, Dr. Amiridis, in the newspaper, from all account I could get, was disqualified as being a candidate. Once the candidate from Purdue ultimately turned us down, we turned back to Dr. Amiridis. I'm trying to figure out why that was.

MR. SMITH: Dr. Amiridis was never disqualified by the search committee or by the board to be president, sir.

SPEAKER LUCAS: So, any report in the paper that I would've seen about that would've been untrue.

MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.

SPEAKER LUCAS: Okay. Correct me if I'm wrong, you were -- you more directly led the search for only a short time that led us hiring President Caslen?

MR. SMITH: No, sir. I was not -- I was on the search committee, but I was not chairperson of that search committee.

SPEAKER LUCAS: All right. And again, you heard, from the prior testimony of Mr. Williams that the board was again closely divided on the issue of whether or not we were going to hire President Caslen.
MR. SMITH: It was a very tumultuous time.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Was there any appetite among the board to move away from President Caslen and to Dr. William Tate, who would have appeared to have been a more consensus candidate?
MR. SMITH: At what time, sir?
SPEAKER LUCAS: At the time that we were going through the Caslen search -- MR. SMITH: Oh.
SPEAKER LUCAS: -- and we were having these groups of folks lining up one side for Caslen --
MR. SMITH: Oh, yes, sir.
SPEAKER LUCAS: -- the other side against Caslen?
MR. SMITH: I mean, yeah -- I mean, the short answer was there were four -- there were four good candidates for that position at the time and there were two that were most popular. But General Caslen won the vote.
SPEAKER LUCAS: But winning the vote by a slim margin as opposed to being a consensus candidate would be two different things, would it not?
MR. SMITH: It is.
SPEAKER LUCAS: And I think Mr. Tate, if we would've gone to the number two candidate, may have become a consensus candidate as opposed to President Caslen who never became a consensus candidate from the search.
MR. SMITH: Potentially, the concern at that time was that, quite frankly, that Dr. Tate, who is a superstar, needed to check another box and be a provost somewhere. As it worked back, he became the provost here and bore that out, and was indeed. And then, of course, that opened the door for him to become president at LSU.
SPEAKER LUCAS: In my mind and in -- you know what they say about people who second guess, but in my mind, we missed the absolutely golden opportunity to hire Dr. Tate. But that's -- that's behind us now. And as I said, Dr. Amiridis is going to be a great president for University of South Carolina.
MR. SMITH: Thank you.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Thank you, Dr. Smith.
THE CHAIRMAN: Representative King.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chair. I have a question -- couple of questions for you.

MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Were you on the plane?
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir, I was.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Can you tell me what that conversation was that you had with -- once you all arrived in Florida, with Mr. Caslen?
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir. President Caslen was a nontraditional candidate and the chairman of the search committee asked me to get on the plane to fly to Florida to have a conversation with Caslen. Now, up close -- this was before the first vote, if you will, before Brendon Kelley became the interim, is when we went down. And we basically sat down and had a long raging discussion about his ability to lead, et cetera. It was nothing in particular other than the fact that we wanted more information. It was a very important hire.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Was he the only candidate you all flew to see?
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir, he was.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: And why was he the only candidate that you all --
MR. SMITH: He was the only one I was invited to go see.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: And why were -- do you know why the other members of the board were not invited?
MR. SMITH: No, sir, I do not.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Do you know -- or can you tell me, did you make any phone calls or request for the firing of Frank Martin?
MR. SMITH: No, sir.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: During your tenure, what were your efforts -- or did you make any efforts in reference to diversity, and please do not highlight your years as chair.
MR. SMITH: My efforts for diversity, equity, inclusion have been that we've worked very diligently. I am from a rural area. I'm from an area that both my representative and senator are African-American and I want to make certain that all the children of our area have the same opportunities regardless of their race. And I have been a huge proponent, in that community, of that.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: And I -- I appreciate that. And as the chair of the board, what training has the board had in diversity each year, and please quantify it in hours?
MR. SMITH: We had a three-hour session with a consultant that we brought in this past year. That was the first one. It is an ongoing process. And that was during my first year as chairman.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And how many years have you been the chair?
MR. SMITH: A year and a half, sir.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: According to the Accreditation Report, the board undertook restructuring for the committees. Since the restructuring of the board, have you created a committee on diversity, equity and inclusion?
MR. SMITH: No, sir, we have not, but that is being handled through the governance committee. That is in the charter of the governance committee of which we do have diversity on the governance committee.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Who leads that committee?
MR. SMITH: Leah Moody. Oh, the chairperson of that committee is Thad Westbrook. But Leah Moody is on that committee.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: My next question -- because I wanted to make sure I didn't ramble -- how many - - since you have been the chair, how many African-American members are on the board.
MR. SMITH: Two.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Do any of those African-American members chair any of the award appointments that you make?
MR. SMITH: They do.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Can you tell me which board appointments they chair?
MR. SMITH: Leah Moody is chairman of the systems board.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: And you do not have a diversity and equity committee as a --
MR. SMITH: We do not. And to clarify one thing, the committees elect their own chair people. The -- the appointments for the different committees are made and then that committee elects their own chairperson with the exception of the governance committee. The governance committee is made up of the chair people of each of the other committees and the vice chairman of the board is the chairperson of the governance committee.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: It has been said you are extremely unprofessional with administrative and faculty members as well as donors, including former President Caslen. Can you explain why that has been said?
MR. SMITH: No, sir.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: As a member of the board, you serve in a role of oversight. So, please explain why university officials under the presence characterize you -- your chairmanship as consistent interference with the day-to-day operations of the university.

MR. SMITH: I don't feel I interfere on a day-to-day basis with the university, and I was unaware of that criticism.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: What were your goals for improving the university and do you think that can be accomplished given the hostile of your chairmanship?
MR. SMITH: I didn't realize my chairmanship is hostile and I would take issue with that.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.
THE CHAIRMAN: Senator Harpootlian.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Mr. Smith, let me ask you some sort of basic questions before we get into details. You were asked on your Questionnaire -- and let make sure I don't misquote this -- you were asked, "Has a tax lien or collection producer ever been instituted against you personal by federal, state or local authorities. If so, please explain," and you said, "No." So, you've never had a tax lien instituted against you.
MR. SMITH: Yes, I'm sorry?
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You've never had a tax lien instituted against you.
MR. SMITH: Was your -- I can't hear you, sir. I apologize. I got hearing aids.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. And I've got hearing aids too, so here we go.
MR. SMITH: I apologize.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Question 23 on your Application, "Has a tax lien or collection procedure ever been instituted against you personally by federal, state or local authorities. If so, explain." And you said, "No." Is that accurate?
MR. SMITH: I believe it is, yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, we've been given -- I want to make sure that -- a copy of a South Carolina Department of Revenue Tax Lien listing for you and Debra Smith at 407 Seminole Avenue, indicating that you had a tax lien in 2006, which was satisfied; 2008, which was satisfied; 2011, which was satisfied; and 2014, all which were satisfied, but you did have tax liens instituted against you; did you not?
MR. SMITH: If it says that, but I do not recall that, and I'd be happy to look into that, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, I mean, are the rest of your answers based on what you recall or do you do a thorough check of your records? Because clearly, this is not accurate.
MR. SMITH: Senator, I apologize. I mean, I don't think that's --

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, I'm not asking for your apologies. I want to know why you did not make an accurate representation. Tax liens -- I mean, waiting until you have a tax lien indicates that you have taxes due, you were put on notice, you didn't pay your taxes. And then at some point, after they threatened to sell the property, you paid them.
MR. SMITH: It had to be a clerical error, sir. We pay our taxes.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Five years in a row.
MR. SMITH: Again, whatever the error was, sir, it was not -- it was not because we didn't pay our taxes.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Do you pay your bills?
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir, we do.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: We didn't do a credit check on you, I don't think.
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir. Well, you can.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But -- but my point is this. I mean, you didn't remember you had tax liens?
MR. SMITH: No, sir, because I've never had.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Pardon?
MR. SMITH: In my recollection, I never had, sir. I apologize.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: We didn't ask for --
MR. SMITH: May I ask Ms. Macey Webb to provide a copy of that for me?
THE CHAIRMAN: Excuse me, let's help the stenographer here. Let's let Senator Harpootlian finish his statement or question, then you can do it. Just don't interrupt.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: For the record, Mr. Chairman, this is a document furnished by the staff. It indicates tax liens through the South Carolina Department of Revenue. It indicates that they were satisfied, but they in fact were filed for five years in a row. Now, is this accurate?
MS. WEBB: Senator Harpootlian, yes, that is what was included in your SLED background check that we had received.
MR. SMITH: Okay.
MS. WEBB: Those tax liens were in fact included in that. If you would like, I do have your physical file here that does have that SLED background report.
MR. SMITH: Yes, ma'am.
MS. WEBB: And Senator Harpootlian did say -- in four of the five tax liens that were reported, he did state they all have been satisfied, which is what your record in the background check indicates.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Right. But my only point being that you would've gotten notice. And many of these years, you were actually living there, were you not? 2006?
MR. SMITH: 2006, yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay, 2008?
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So, this was your residence, Seminole Avenue in -- or Seminole Avenue in Florence, correct?
MR. SMITH: yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And so, I guess your position is that you just weren't aware of what was going on?
MR. SMITH: In my house, unfortunately, I -- I make the money and my wife disburses it. I apologize for that. I'm sure it's probably different than yours, but I -- if it comes up to my level. I would have never gotten anthrax when all that was going on and I will never get a love letter in the mail, because I don't open any mail between my house -- my home wife and my office wife, I never get to see anything until it rises to my level, Senator.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. Let's talk a little bit about that residence. When did you move to your Burnt Branch Street -- address?
MR. SMITH: 2009.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. So, any time after 2009, you would've indicated that was your address, not Seminole, correct?
MR. SMITH: That is correct.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Now, you're aware that we've been furnished with a copy of an incident report that occurred in 2013 in Lake City.
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And that would've been a physical altercation between you and your brother Andrew?
MR. SMITH: It was not a physical altercation.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: It says "he stated he was assaulted by his" -- okay, let me just read it for the record.
MR. SMITH: Sure.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: "Complainant A.B. Smith," that's Andrew Bethea Smith --
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- he's your biological brother.
MR. SMITH: He is.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- came to the Lake City Police and stated he was assaulted by his estranged brother of nine years. Upon speaking with victim complaint" -- and this is the Lake City Police Department -- "he stated he was approached by the subject C. D. Smith on Main Street after he observed his brother, subject C. D. Smith coming in the backdoor of the Downtown Bakery, where he was socializing with coworkers. Victim A. D. Smith stated he quickly grabbed us to go back, rushed out of the bakery before he contacted the subject C. D. Smith, exiting the front door. Victim complained A. D. Smith, subject, rushed in front of him, stopped, stepped in his path. Stated subject C. D. Smith was asking him, 'Why aren't you answering your emails, why won't you talk to him, where was he going?' He gave no response. Victim A. D. Smith, at that time, pulled out his cell phone. Subject C. D. Smith then asked if he was going to call 911 and have him arrested. A. D. Smith nodded yes. The subject, C. D. Smith walked away. Victim A. D. Smith stated C. D. Smith had approached him on two other times; at a funeral home and then one in Lake City and one in Georgetown." So, do you remember this incident?

MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And, now, this is -- he's called Andy, isn't he?

MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I spoke to him recently.

MR. SMITH: Good.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And he actually lives on Burnt Branch Road.

MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Is he your neighbor?

MR. SMITH: A half a mile away.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Half a mile away. Is this old family property?

MR. SMITH: It is.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And does anyone live with Mr. Andy Smith?

MR. SMITH: My mother.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Your mother. I spoke to her last night.

MR. SMITH: Okay.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So --

MR. SMITH: Could she hear you?

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: She could hear me, actually.

MR. SMITH: Good.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I spoke very loudly.

MR. SMITH: Good.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So, in this -- on this incident report when the police talked -- and they did talk to you, right?
MR. SMITH: No, sir, they never did.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, it came up -- your address is 411 Seminole Drive in Florence.
MR. SMITH: They never -- I never found out anything about it till years after the fact.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. Now, you and your brother are in some litigation; is that right?
MR. SMITH: There is -- well, actually, it's been settled. That lawsuit's been settled.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And that was over family property?
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Was it that piece of property down there or some other piece of property?
MR. SMITH: Another piece.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. So, how many nights a week do you spend on Burnt Branch Road?
MR. SMITH: It varies. I spent last night there, as a matter of fact.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. And that was a weekend.
MR. SMITH: It was.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: During the week, where do you work, primarily?
MR. SMITH: I work out of MUSC Florence in Florence.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. So, how far is the Seminole Drive, which is a residential home; is it not?
MR. SMITH: It is.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: How far is that from where you work?
MR. SMITH: About three miles.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. How far is the Lake City property?
MR. SMITH: Twenty-five miles.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. And so most nights, you go home to where?
MR. SMITH: I go home most nights to Burnt Branch.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Twenty-five miles.
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: As opposed to three miles.
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And why's that?
MR. SMITH: It's still my home. That's where I was born and raised.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. And if somebody had been watching you over the last month, you would've gone home to your Burnt Branch Road --
MR. SMITH: It depends whether or not I'm on call, Senator. I'm a cardiovascular surgeon and I'll have sick people in the hospital, then I tend to stay in Florence if there's someone critically ill in the ICU, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Now, if you did live in Florence, you'd have to be running against Eddie Floyd to be on the board, right? Eddie Floyd?
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir. Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. So, living in a different circuit, you don't have to run against Eddie Floyd; is that correct?
MR. SMITH: I would have to run with whoever else filed in the Third Judicial Circuit, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. And nobody has.
MR. SMITH: No, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And the first time you ran, did you have opposition?
MR. SMITH: I did.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And how long the second time?
MR. SMITH: No, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. So, this is your third time?
MR. SMITH: This is -- well, this is my fourth time, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Fourth time. So, you've had no opposition since that first time?
MR. SMITH: That's correct. And I'd also like to point out that I -- I've been investigated by SLED and the FBI for security clearance, and they concur that my address is 2322 Burnt Branch Road, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So you say. Let me move on to another area and that is your involvement with the athletic department.
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And I'll remind you you're under oath.
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Do you talk to athletic director -- the athletic director, Ray Tanner, of the University of South Carolina frequently, infrequently --
MR. SMITH: Whenever he calls, I talk to him.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You never call him.
MR. SMITH: Oh, I call him from time to time, yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: For what reason?

MR. SMITH: Most of the time, it's returning his call or to talk to him about tickets or facilities of trying to accommodate someone.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Did you ever talk to him about the hiring or firing of a coach?
MR. SMITH: I've talked to him about everything, yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So, did you talk to him about the termination of Mr. Muschamp?
MR. SMITH: He asked my opinion, yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So, now, as I understand it, that decision is his, correct?
MR. SMITH: It is, yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. And the board -- did you know, at the time that he was talking to you, that he didn't have the money to make the payoff?
MR. SMITH: The AD hires and fires the coaches, sir. The board hires and fires four individuals at the University of South Carolina. We hire and fire at the president. We hire and fire the board secretary. We hire and fire the interim auditor, and we hire and fire the treasurer. Other than that, we have no direct control over who is hired or fired.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I guess, but so why would he be asking you about whether or not he should terminate Coach Muschamp?
MR. SMITH: I'm not the only one who's ever talked to him.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, I'm not asking everyone. I'm asking you.
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Why would he talk to you? Why - - what -- if you have no weigh-in on it, why would he -- I mean, what's your background in athletics? Did you ever -- you played football?
MR. SMITH: Oh, yes, sir. Don't I look like a star?
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Did you play football?
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir, I did.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: At a university or high school?
MR. SMITH: Oh, no, high school; God, no.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. So -- and how long ago was that?
MR. SMITH: I graduated in '76.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So that's been a while.
MR. SMITH: Oh, yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And since then, your involvement with athletics --
MR. SMITH: I'm a fan.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: A fan. Okay. So, you've never coached.

MR. SMITH: No, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And so, why does Athletic Director Tanner care what you think? What's your opinion -- I mean, your opinion on the attributes of a football coach are based on what? ESPN?
MR. SMITH: Probably. I'm just a fan just like everybody else, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay, so why is he talking to you? Why are you giving him an opinion about who he should hire or fire?
MR. SMITH: I don't give him opinions. As a matter of fact, when he hired Coach Gates, which I was very supportive of, I didn't find out that he'd hired Coach Gates until Wednesday before the board meeting on Thursday.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But you voted for him.
MR. SMITH: No, sir, I didn't vote. The chairman doesn't vote. I conducted the meeting. The chairman only votes if there's a tie, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. Well, let's talk about the Muschamp buyout.
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: When he was talking to you, did he indicate that they'd have to pay him $13 million?
MR. SMITH: He did.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And did he indicate to you that the athletic department didn't have that money?
MR. SMITH: I don't recall that, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, did the board only vote to give the athletic department -- loan then $10 million?
MR. SMITH: After the fact, yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: After the fact, you terminated him.
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Do you think it's a good idea for the athletic director to terminate somebody and then incur a $13 million debt and not have the money to pay for it?
MR. SMITH: The short answer to that is, again, I come back to the governance structure of the board.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: No, I'm not asking you about the governance structure of the board. I'm talking about --
MR. SMITH: Well, it --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- is it a good idea that you fire the athletic director?
MR. SMITH: You've got to have a chain of command, Senator, and the coaches report to the AD, the AD reports to the president, the president reports to the board.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I've got all that, but I'm asking you was it a good idea for them to terminate Muschamp without having the money in the bank to pay -- to make the payoff?
MR. SMITH: The athletic director made that call. When we --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I'm not asking you --
MR. SMITH: When we approved --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- about the call. I'm asking you about your opinion. We're trying to decide whether your qualified to be reelected.
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And I want to know, your opinion, should Ray Tanner have terminated Muschamp without the money in the bank to pay him off.
MR. SMITH: The short answer is I don't like credit, obviously. I mean, I'd prefer --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So that would be a no?
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. So, matter of fact, y'all had to loan him the $10 million to make the payoff.
MR. SMITH: That's partially true, but as Mr. Williams said before me, that money goes into a pool. It was not money that was loaned directly to Ray to pay off Will Muschamp.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Made a pool for the athletic department.
MR. SMITH: That is correct, yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And I think, over the years, they -- you know, somebody has complained about the size of a coach's salary. The defense has been, well, the athletic department makes all the money. They don't -- they spend no general fund money. Isn't that correct?
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir, that is correct.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. But now, that's not true, because y'all gave the athletic department $10 million to cover --
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir, be we were all --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- the shortfall.
MR. SMITH: We were also going through a pandemic where it was unprecedented times. No one could've foreseen the COVID crisis that we had.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Yeah, but silly me, if you don't have the money, maybe you don't fire the guy. Maybe you just live with him until you don't have to pay any more money or you have enough money coming in in the athletic department to make the payment. Could you have kept him another year?

MR. SMITH: Certainly, but that was the athletic director's call.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. Do you think it was a bad call?
MR. SMITH: I think Coach Muschamp is a fine person. I think he was not a great head football coach.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, I guess what I'm asking is it's not the context of Muschamp being a winner or a loser. It's a question of if you don't have the money to pay the buyout, was that a bad decision?
MR. SMITH: Coach Tanner, I feel certain that he weighed in whether or not it was more advantageous to keep Coach Muschamp there for another year when the program was struggling and lose the potential for having people in the -- fans to give up on the team and not buy season tickets the next year, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And that economic -- and so, again, I'm just the fact at general -- money that we appropriate, it almost sends the message you don't need the $10 million we gave you because you had enough money laying around to blend into the athletic department. I mean, do you think the finance chairman, Senator Peeler or House Ways and Means chairman, and the speaker sitting right here, I mean, are we supposed to fund your every request when you've got $10 million you can loan to the athletic department?
MR. SMITH: No, sir, absolutely not. But by the same token, again, we were in very unprecedented times with the COVID crisis, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, we were all in unprecedented time. Some businesses went under. Some businesses -- you might find this shocking - - didn't spend money they planned to spend, the couldn't afford to spend, but the athletic department always had y'all to bail them out.
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. Now, let me -- let me move to another area, and that would be the hiring of General Caslen. While you were not chairman, you were on the selection committee.
MR. SMITH: I was.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And I understand there were four -- four finalists. He was one of them?
MR. SMITH: He was.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You said a moment ago -- let me make sure I don't misquote you -- that Tate, African-American, was an applicant and he was qualified, but needed to check a box. Is that what you said?

MR. SMITH: What I said was -- what I meant by that was that he was not quite -- had not done enough things to -- at that level, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Like what had he -- what -- I mean --
MR. SMITH: Well, he had not been a provost at a major university yet.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And Caslen had been a provost.
MR. SMITH: Caslen had not, but Caslen was a three- star general that has led men in combat and the - - from the purview of the search committee, that that was qualified; plus, he was CFO at Central Florida University at that time.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Central Florida.
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. Big school?
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir, it is.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. And he was -- how long had he had that job?
MR. SMITH: About a year.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. So, he had a year as provost -- provost?
MR. SMITH: He had, yes -- no, no. No, Caslen had been president -- the commandant at West Point, the superintendent at West Point, as well as he had been the CFO at Central Florida, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: CFO. So, Tate needed to check this box as being a provost somewhere, but Caslen, whose previous academic credentials included being the commandant at a military university --
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- where his word was law. There was no board. There was no -- I mean, he was the -- he was the general.
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So, there was no building of an -- of a faculty support, because if they -- I mean, those folks disagreed with him, they went. I mean, there was no -- so, it was a military school. You know that old saying about military justice is to justice as military music is to music? I mean, being the commandant at a military college is no - - nothing close to being the president of the University of South Carolina, is it?
MR. SMITH: I think if you look at his track record for what he did with diversity, equity, inclusion, what he did with -- to elevate females and protect them from assaults and things of that nature at West Point, I think his record will speak for itself there, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: He didn't have a post-graduate degree, did he? But did he have a doctorate?

MR. SMITH: He had a master's.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But did not have a doctorate.
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir, but a master's can be considered a terminal degree also, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But, I mean, when you're comparing these other folks like Tate and others, they -- they had experience and administrative positions at liberal arts colleges, right?
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: They had a -- they had experience at liberal arts colleges --
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- in terms of administration.
MR. SMITH: Sure.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And their academic backgrounds were far more significant than Caslen's, right?
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir. It was -- as I said earlier, he was a nontraditional candidate. As it turned out, it turned out to be a big win. He came in and was --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I'm sorry, did you say that was -- that hiring Caslen was a big win?
MR. SMITH: What I said was that during his term as president here, he was the perfect person to -- to navigate the COVID crisis at the university, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, let me ask you this. Did you support a mask mandate at USC?
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. And when the attorney general wrote a letter indicating that the President Pastides, even though the court had ruled on a lawsuit I brought, that they could mandate masks, is it your testimony you supported that or did you contact President Pastides and ask him not to do that?
MR. SMITH: I don't recall that conversation. I remember Harris called me and asked me about my opinion. And I said, "Harris, I want to whatever the healthcare professionals say is the right thing to do."
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You did not tell him, politically, not to do it.
MR. SMITH: No, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. Then Harris and I had miscommunication, then.
MR. SMITH: Okay.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So, let me get back to the hiring of Caslen, but let's understand this process. You were on the selection committee.
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Were there originally four approved that didn't include Caslen?
MR. SMITH: No, sir, there were never -- the -- there were four that were approved coming out of Atlanta that included Caslen.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. And of those four, one was Tate, right?
MR. SMITH: That's correct.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Who were the others?
MR. SMITH: Dr. Walsh from Indiana and I'm blanking on the other gentleman's name. I apologize.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. Now, you and who went on that airplane ride down to Florida to meet with the president?
MR. SMITH: If I recall correctly, it was myself, Hugh Mobley, who organized it. It was Gene Warr, and I think it was Dr. Eddie Floyd.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Now, this guy up in Indiana, did y'all fly up to see him?
MR. SMITH: No, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Did you fly to see anybody else?
MR. SMITH: No, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Did you meet with anybody else?
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, what was so special about going to Florida and meeting with Caslen?
MR. SMITH: He was -- he was a nontraditional candidate and the -- Hugh Mobley asked me to go because he thought that he had some leadership qualities and some things that we needed to look at.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You'd met with him before, though, hadn't you?
MR. SMITH: The chairman of the search committee -- sir?
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You'd met with him before, hadn't you?
MR. SMITH: I had not met with him individually. I had met with him in a room like this.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Yeah, but I mean, he was in the room. You could ask him questions.
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. So, you -- and you took the university plane.

MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You didn't fly commercial.
MR. SMITH: No, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Why?
MR. SMITH: I was asked to go on the trip, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, I mean, it cost several thousand dollars to fly to Florida and back. It was -- I mean, y'all couldn't fly commercial?
MR. SMITH: We could have, but it was a direct flight and, as you know, getting from Columbia to anywhere is not as convenient as a direct flight, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So, you, as a member of the board of trustees of Carolina, can't be inconvenienced like the rest of us when we have to fly to Columbia? Where were you going? Jacksonville?
MR. SMITH: No, sir, we -- it was -- gosh, what beach was it. I'll have to look it up. It was south of Jacksonville, but I don't remember. Pompano Beach.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Many of us drive down there. Many of us fly commercial from -- drive to Charlotte, probably a straight shot.
MR. SMITH: It was a seven-hour -- it was a seven-hour car drive versus an hour.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, y'all could bond.
MR. SMITH: Sir?
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Y'all could bond, couldn't you?
MR. SMITH: There you go. Absolutely.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But instead, you spent -- what do you think it cost to fly? What'd you fly? King-Air or a jet?
MR. SMITH: It was a King-Air, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. So, what's that? A $20,000 round trip?
MR. SMITH: I'm not certain, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You don't know how much money, state money, university money you spent so that you could fly down there private?
MR. SMITH: No, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I mean, you understand that $20,000 is a lot of money to most people --
MR. SMITH: I do, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- including your students and the parents paying that tuition.
MR. SMITH: I do, sir.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And that when y'all spend money, do you think it was necessary for you to fly down there? How about Zoom? You couldn't do a Zoom meeting with him?
MR. SMITH: We've done tons of Zoom calls for lots of things. And my personal opinion is you lose something in an internet interview as opposed to in-face based, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You couldn't ask him to come up here?
MR. SMITH: We could have, yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But you didn't.
MR. SMITH: The chairman of the search committee request that I go. I was asked to go and I went.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And the chairman of the search committee was Mr. Mobley?
MR. SMITH: That's correct.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. So, you went down there and what was it -- well, let me ask you this before we get all the way to the end.
MR. SMITH: Uh-huh.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Was hiring him a mistake?
MR. SMITH: Not in my opinion.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So, that was a success?
MR. SMITH: I think when -- in the grand scheme of things, when you look at the way he handled the COVID crisis, I think it was a win, yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: We ended up Harris Pastides took over. He's an epidemiologist. Any indication he wouldn't have handled it as well?
MR. SMITH: There's no indication of that. But at the time, Dr. Pastides had indicated -- well, he's already resigned, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Right. So, I guess he saved us from COVID, but in the process, huge, huge conflict about hiring in the beginning with, right?
MR. SMITH: yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Barely not elected. Was that good to not have -- to have the kind of split in the board?
MR. SMITH: No, sir, it's never good. But it's never good for us to agree on everything either, Senator. If I ask your opinion on something, I don't want you to tell me -- and you never would, obviously, tell me how smart I am or how handsome I am --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: No.

MR. SMITH: -- or something like that. I want to hear your honest opinion or difference of opinion from that standpoint, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But here's my point. There's a difference -- and we heard from Mr. Williams a moment ago -- a difference between an honest exchange of opinion that's working towards a consensus and then there's just external forces weight in to get it done. And you would admit the governor did weight in, correct?
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And he talked to you.
MR. SMITH: He called me, but he didn't influence my vote, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Pardon me?
MR. SMITH: He did not influence my vote.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You were already committed to Caslen.
MR. SMITH: I had, yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So, he couldn't influence you.
MR. SMITH: That's right.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But other folks, he did. He did talk to, did he not?
MR. SMITH: He did, but if you look before -- there were two votes, if you will, the one that didn't happen and the second one, we actually lost votes between the first vote and the second vote.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And that's why you needed that second vote quickly. And I believe -- and Mr. Williams had to sue to stop y'all from doing it, did he not?
MR. SMITH: That was a -- that was a tactical error on -- from the standpoint of whoever called for the meeting within five days. The bylaws required that the board members have to have five days. It was a mistake. It was corrected.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, who called the meeting?
MR. SMITH: The chairman of the search committee.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Which is Mr. Mobley.
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And he called the meeting without giving the appropriate legal notice. Was he in a hurry?
MR. SMITH: You'll have to ask him that, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. Well, you know, Chairman Smith, you act as if you never talked to these people. I mean, you flew -- wasn't that flight down to meet with President Caslen, how long did that take, an hour?
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. And then y'all had lunch while you were down there?
MR. SMITH: No, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You just flew down, met with him, got on the plane and flew back.
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And in those two hours or hour and a half to get there and hour and a half to get back y'all never talked about anything?
MR. SMITH: We talked about a variety of things, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Did you talk about him? Did you talk about we got to get this guy elected?
MR. SMITH: We didn't -- Senator, we talked about a thousand things on that plane. What we talked about exactly, I don't remember, sir. That's been three years ago.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. So, in terms of the vote for Caslen, you today -- you would stick by that vote and if you had to do it again, you'd vote for him again?
MR. SMITH: Hindsight is always 20/20. Are we talking about voting in 2019 or are we talking about voting in 2022, sir?
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Right now.
MR. SMITH: Right now?
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Would you vote for him again?
MR. SMITH: I'm happy with our new president as it is, Michael Amiridis.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And I asked -- I'm going to ask you would you vote for him again?
MR. SMITH: Knowing -- if I were back -- if you wound the clock back three years ago, yes, sir, I would have.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So, his comments about South Carolina sucks, that South Carolina is a horrible place, that South Carolina is dysfunctional, nobody ought to come to work here, all of that would not influence you in any way.
MR. SMITH: Again, we're talking about voting for him prior to all that, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: No, I'm asking right now, if you were faced with the prospect of voting for him again, would you vote for him?
MR. SMITH: I would vote for Michael Amiridis to be president today, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Let's say it's not Michael Amiridis. It's him --

MR. SMITH: Yeah.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- versus anybody.
MR. SMITH: Well, there would've been other candidates out there. Knowing what you know now, if -- you know, again, that if someone says that and says they don't want the job, absolutely no, you're not going -- you don't want someone that doesn't want to be here.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, why did he -- why was he so critical of the board in his public comment saying they didn't support him, they didn't have his back? Matter of fact, he indicated -- I believe that he called -- was it you he called and tendered his resignation?
MR. SMITH: He did not tender his resignation to me until the night he actually resigned. There is a difference between tendering a resignation, sir, and you saying, "I will resign if I have lost the confidence of the board."
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And at that point, what did you tell him?
MR. SMITH: What I told him was that we -- I -- I could not accept that, because I didn't know that he had lost he confidence of the board.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Did you have the authority to accept his resignation?
MR. SMITH: I accepted it when he resigned. I did have the authority to accept his resignation 48 hours later.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Did you tell the --
MR. SMITH: But there's a difference.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- rest of the board that he had communicated with you that he was thinking about resigning?
MR. SMITH: I did.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Mr. Williams didn't seen to know about it.
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir, I called Charles Williams.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. So, Speaker Lucas asked Mr. Williams about -- do you think the board's too big?
MR. SMITH: No, sir. And the reason I don't think the board's too big is -- is it sometimes unwieldy, yes. But without a board of our size, you're going to completely cut out rural South Carolina.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Why do you say that?
MR. SMITH: Because everything will gravitate towards Hilton Head, Charleston, Columbia, Myrtle Beach, Greenville, Spartanburg, Rock Hill. And places like Lamar and places like Turbeville, they won't have any representation on the board, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I mean, that's your theory.
MR. SMITH: That's my opinion.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Your opinion. And your -- again, you're not an expert on football. Are you an expert on electoral politics?
MR. SMITH: I have no desire to serve in any political role other than this, and I only do it for the love and adoration of the fans.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, and it does give you some authority, correct, being chairman of the board at USC?
MR. SMITH: That authority is I serve at the pleasure of the board, sir. And before I became chairman, there was not a way to remove a chairman. One of the first things I did as -- even before I became chairman, that we put in place where the board has the authority and the mechanism to remove me or anyone else that they deem is not doing a good job, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I guess I come back to this. You don't think it's too big. I mean, between the Caslen debacle and the buyout of Muschamp, I mean, this didn't really create a lot of confidence in y'all's competency. Do you understand how that perspective --
MR. SMITH: I do.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And you just basically say water under the bridge, over the dam, let's move on, we got new policies, we got new procedures?
MR. SMITH: No, sir. The things that you haven't seen are the things that have happened since all of that. Again, I come back to the changes in our governance structure, the reorganization of the committees. Believe it or not, there are lots of things that -- behind the scenes that are not readily evident. But quite frankly, the search - - this last presidential search really was a quality search, sir. We had really top quality candidates.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, the Speaker -- the Speaker just a moment ago commented on that and I got the sense there may have been some bumps in the road on that. I mean, isn't it time that we do more that just rearrange the deck chairs on the Titanic? I mean, this university has had its ups and downs -- I mean, as long as I've lived in Columbia - - I don't know whether you remember Tom Jones, your president back in the '70s.
MR. SMITH: I don't -- I remember him, but I was too young to know that, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, I wasn't. I was in law school and he was asked to leave. And of course, Jim Holderman --
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- a disaster, correct?
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. And I know that because I prosecuted him. So, and the board, at that point, was interesting because whatever Jim Holderman wanted, Jim Holderman got.
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Le se fairre. They had no -- no input. Most of them were more concerned about who the football coach was going to be than what the president did. And a president could bring the pope or bring all these stars to Columbia was just wonderful. But since then, I'm not convinced there's been any dramatic change in the -- in the attitude of the board. I just -- I got to tell you that Caslen process was a humiliation, him -- how he was hired and how he left. A humiliation of the people. The university's in my district. Many of the people that work at the university live in my district and they were embarrassed and humiliated by what y'all did with Caslen both, bringing him in and the way he left.
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Do you understand that?
MR. SMITH: I do, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So, if we take the position that maybe we need new folks to do this, it wouldn't bother you, would it?
MR. SMITH: The short answer to -- well, the board does not define who I am. But I came on the board for the one goal of trying to make the University of South Carolina and my home state of South Carolina a better place.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, if -- if you look at Caslen as a loss, certainly you can't look at it as a win. And you look at the Muschamp buyout as a loss, y'all don't really have a winning record. Shouldn't we fire y'all like we -- like y'all did to Muschamp and like y'all did to Frank Martin? And the buyout's a lot cheaper.
MR. SMITH: That's your prerogative, sir. I mean, I defer to you, obviously.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, thank you. That's all I have.
THE CHAIRMAN: Who's next? Senator Scott.
SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you, sir. Thank you, sir, Doctor, for your willingness to serve. I want to go back to a visitor on the campus, Angela Davis. Tell me exactly what happened. You probably were chairman around that time, Angela Davis invitation to come to USC?
MR. SMITH: I'm not aware of that, Senator Scott. I apologize.
SENATOR SCOTT: You're not aware of Angela Davis -- the Angela Davis, historian --
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir, I know Angela --

SENATOR SCOTT: -- professor who -- there was an invitation sent to her to come to USC. There was a lot of mixed emotions on that campus.
MR. SMITH: I didn't have anything to do -- that's -- that never came to the level of the board, sir.
SENATOR SCOTT: Well, tell me a little bit about what are you doing on that campus actually to actually promote diversity on the campus.
MR. SMITH: Again, what we have done --
SENATOR SCOTT: Not we, you.
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir, me.
SENATOR SCOTT: What are you doing?
MR. SMITH: All right.
SENATOR SCOTT: You've been there a long time. You've been --
MR. SMITH: I've been there 12 years, yes, sir.
SENATOR SCOTT: Yes, and tell me what you're doing to promote diversity on the campus.
MR. SMITH: During my chairmanship, that our first -- our first vice president for diversity was hired, Julian Williams. In addition to that, we continued to work to try to build the civil rights center that should -- will continue to --
SENATOR SCOTT: I understand about that.
MR. SMITH: I'm sorry?
SENATOR SCOTT: I understand about the building the center. I'm talking about what are you doing in terms of working with your colleagues on the board; now, you've got two African-Americans on the board.
MR. SMITH: Again -- again, we have done diversity training to try to make everyone aware and make the university a more open place for access for all, sir.
SENATOR SCOTT: What are you doing?
MR. SMITH: That's what I'm doing.
SENATOR SCOTT: You've told me what the -- you've told me what the board is doing.
MR. SMITH: That is what --
SENATOR SCOTT: What have you actually been --
MR. SMITH: That has been part of my agenda as chairman, sir.
SENATOR SCOTT: Okay. Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Senator from Laurens.
SENATOR VERDIN: Mr. Chairman, I'd like to ask a question of the -- there you go. Dr. Smith, you have indicated that expanding the nursing program is of great significance to you. President Alexander chairs the major budget right subcommittee for finance of the senate that hears from the public sector healthcare delivery agencies. And those directors and board members have been before his committee, which I serve as well, with an incessant call of concern about the insufficient availability of healthcare delivery workers, nurses, et cetera. Of course, in the public sector, we try to remedy that as best we can with salary and try and stay competitive with private sector, which is where they apparently all gravitate to based on that very economic factor. Until just -- we heard from the sixth agency, whose director told us from the high school level recruitment into the various public and private colleges and universities in the state, there's really not a shortage yet of young people desiring to enter this vocation or profession. The real problem -- and it's going to be even more exacerbated in the future, is the ability to train them, to have the proper level of academia/administrative professionals in place to bring this next generation along. I'm curious -- because you're obviously in practice, you're in a hospital setting, a surgical setting; and as your role here with U of SC School of Medicine and other affiliations, is it possible that we can go back and rediscover the model that I grew up as a child, having numerous family members that receive their nursing training at old Greenville General. And then, of course, you had expanded degrees beyond RN, you had the expansion of higher-end nursing programs. Can we not see that as a proper blending of -- since your highest capabilities gravitate to academia or administration in the hospital settings, could we not capitalize in the future with more schools/hospital, participate not just rotations, but true collaboration in the program in its entirety?

MR. SMITH: Yes.

SENATOR VERDIN: I'm anxious for your thoughts.

MR. SMITH: Yes, sir. No question, it's a huge crisis and needs to continue the work on. There -- it's actually a two-pronged attack, Senator Verdin. Prong number one is what you alluded to. Unfortunately, we do not have enough teachers right now, master's, Ph.D., preceptors and even preceptor sites for all of the young ladies and gentlemen to go into nursing. And that's what one of the focus of the University of South Carolina on the Columbia campus is. About half of those individuals that enroll in nursing, they are not going to be bedside nurses per se, but they're going to be the ones to train the nurses, the nurse practitioners, the nurse anesthetists, if you will. The other prong of that is the bedside nurses, the floor nurses, the one that would change the bedpan, the one that would start the IV and, with that, and you've got to attack both areas simultaneously. But you -- but in order -- the bottleneck is to have the preceptors and the instructors to be able to expand the second portion of that also, sir. Does that make sense?

SENATOR VERDIN: Yes, sir, I appreciate you bringing it back to even some preceptorship. Yeah, it's - - well, it's been a growing -- the crescendo is getting louder and the alarm bells --
MR. SMITH: And we want to continue to expand our nursing programs in Upstate, at Aiken, all over the state. I mean, it's just mandatory. One of the things that I see the university doing is being able to provide the healthcare. The University of South Carolina School of Medicine provides more primary care physicians for rural South Carolina than any other school in the country. In addition to that, we also produce physician's assistants and nurse practitioners, which to some degree are replacing family practitioners in places like Turbeville or Lamar or Olanta, if you will. And -- but they also have to have the nurses as well. And we have great leadership in that role. Jimmy Stallworth runs the P.A. program. Jeanette Andrews leads the nursing program. She is a fabulous leader and role model for our state.
SENATOR VERDIN: I'll take Olanta, if you will, because I have a truck at Warren Coker's farm every week bringing --
MR. SMITH: You're four miles from me, sir.
SENATOR VERDIN: Yeah. I've brought 40,000 square bales of hay out of there in the last calendar year.
MR. SMITH: I'll tell Warren to give you a discount, sir.
SENATOR VERDIN: Thank you. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Mr. Chairman?
THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: A couple other matters that come to mind when Senator Scott was talking about diversity that I've got.
THE CHAIRMAN: Okay, come up.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. We all saw the news reports and I spoke to Lou Kennedy about y'all's problem, if you will. And as I understand it, she was appointed to a committee that, pursuant to your new rules, would participate in helping pick the next president of University of South Carolina; is that correct?
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And what was that committee?
MR. SMITH: It was the presidential search committee and I'm the one who appointed her, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. And during that process, apparently, she indicated -- and I talked to her yesterday to confirm this -- that you were short with her, wagged your finger in her face and told her that she was basically irrelevant. I think the word used was "irrelevant." Is her depiction of that meeting correct.

MR. SMITH: No, sir, it's not.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So, she is not telling the truth.
MR. SMITH: I think her interpretation of the events are different than mine, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, she used the word "misogynist," that you did not appreciate the opinion of women, especially strong women. Do you think that's accurate?
MR. SMITH: No, sir. I've been surrounded by strong women my whole life.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, let me ask you this. And these are -- hold on one second, let me make sure this is correct -- Have your privileges at the hospital ever been suspended or have you ever had to leave a hospital because of complaints?
MR. SMITH: No, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You've never had complaints from female employees.
MR. SMITH: No, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Never.
MR. SMITH: Not that I -- if there's something filed, I'm unaware of that, Senator.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Have you ever had your privileges suspended at any hospital?
MR. SMITH: Never.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Have you had to give up your privileges at any hospital?
MR. SMITH: Never.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. And you're indicating that Lou Kennedy misinterpreted your finger wagging.
MR. SMITH: My comment to Ms. Kennedy was at the end of the meeting when it was over with and we were -- she was giving advice to the board on how to handle the presidential search. And what I pointed out was that we had had voting and nonvoting members on the board -- not on the board, on the committee. And during that period of time, I said, "Lou, you know, golly gee, thank you all for your service." And we basically have had -- we appreciate it. I said, "I'd like to point out that there were voting and nonvoting members, but we let everybody vote to give their opinion on who should be recommended to the" -- "back to the board to determine that." And as a courtesy for everyone's hard work, even the nonvoting members were granted their right to say their -- their say, sir.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, why'd she get angry?
MR. SMITH: She felt that -- she felt that I was saying to her that her opinion didn't count. I think she misunderstood my statement.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Did you wag your finger in her face?
MR. SMITH: If I did, I don't recall it, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You don't recall it.
MR. SMITH: And in addition to that, I flew home with her on her plane that night and rode with her in the car back to the airport. And just for the record, I apologized to her just for any miscommunication. That was obvious she was upset with me. And she accepted my apology on the plane. She even poured champagne for everyone and celebrated on the way back, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And then she pulled $20 million of a pledge that she made to the University of South Carolina; is that correct?
MR. SMITH: I was not aware of a $20 million pledge pull, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, she pledged 30 and put 10 in and pulled the other 20.
MR. SMITH: I was not aware of that.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Still not aware of that?
MR. SMITH: I am now.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. So, obviously, she was upset about something.
MR. SMITH: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And you don't know what that was.
MR. SMITH: I just told you my recollection of the story, sir, and I would ask the other people there that can verify that.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So, she's just hysterical?
MR. SMITH: I do not know. I have utmost respect for her. She is a valued member of our community. She's a very successful businesswoman and I am so sorry that I offended her in any way.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And the same would go for Darla Moore?
MR. SMITH: Darla Moore is a wonderful lady and a treasure of this state, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And she's pulled all her funding for Carolina.
MR. SMITH: Darla Moore is a wonderful person.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: There seems to be a pattern there. Both of them indicate that the reason they pulled their funding was the treatment from you, tens of millions -- well, tens of billions of dollars, under -- maybe a hundred million, maybe more. You don't understand why that would happen? I mean, there's you're totally clueless.

MR. SMITH: We had -- we had a disagreement, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: "We" being who?
MR. SMITH: Myself and Ms. Kennedy.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But y'all apparently made up, drank champagne, kissed and hugged?
MR. SMITH: On the plane on the way home, yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. You flew there with her?
MR. SMITH: I did.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. So, she could either leave you there or you could fly back with her?
MR. SMITH: That's correct.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I'm shocked she didn't leave you. That's all I have.
THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you, Dr. Smith. As you know, we are not going to approve any USC candidates today.
MR. SMITH: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Maybe sometime in the future. Thank you.
MR. SMITH Thank you, sir.
THE CHAIRMAN: Next up is Alexander English. Welcome. If you would state for the record your full name, please.
MR. ENGLISH: Alexander English.
THE CHAIRMAN: If you would raise your right hand, I'll swear you in. Alexander English, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
THE CHAIRMAN: Give a brief statement of why you would like to continue on the board.
MR. ENGLISH: Well, first of all, I'd like to thank y'all for having me here today and to say that I am honored to have served this past year and a half as representing the Fifth District. I have gotten to be a part of some of the history making decision, including the negative ones that you all were just speaking about, including the vote to move forward with our Bull Street project, which is a health science campus, which I think is going to be revolutionary for the City of Columbia and our university as well as the state in regards to providing healthcare and for our research here in this state. Also, the west campus, which is over on Wheeler Hill, which will bring our campus back to the modern day era as far as housing and being able to have the proper Wi-Fi and all that. Also, approving -- been a part of approving the contracts of Dawn

Staley, Coach Shane Beamer and recently Coach Lamont Paris, as well there's a lot of other positive things that have happened to this university. I am honored to have been a part of that. I also serve on the history group implementation committee, and that's been very rewarding because it deals with our diversity, equity and inclusion on our campus. So, thank you all for having me.
THE CHAIRMAN: staff, do you have any information you want to share with you us, Mr. English?
MS. WEBB: Hi, good afternoon, Mr. English. Upon reviewing your application back when you submitted this in November, on the blank for the four or six percent, you just put, yes, so I'm going to do this two part.
MR. ENGLISH: Okay.
MS. WEBB: First, can you confirm for me on record what is your home address?
MR. ENGLISH: 596 Rimer Pond Road, Blythewood, South Carolina.
MS. WEBB: Thank you, sir. And do you pay your four percent or six percent at that address?
MR. ENGLISH: Six percent.
MS. WEBB: Six percent?
MR. ENGLISH: Yes.
MS. WEBB: Okay. Thank you. That's all that I have.
MR. ENGLISH: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Well, I've got a question.
MR. ENGLISH: Yes, sir.
THE CHAIRMAN: Why is it six percent instead of four percent where you're currently located?
MR. ENGLISH: Well, I guess it's the cost, or maybe I misunderstood. Six percent based on --
MS. WEBB: So for your property tax, the percentage that you're paying, is it four percent that's your personal home residence or the greater at six percent?
MR. ENGLISH: I pay four percent. I pay, because I do have -- I do grow a farm tax on that as well.
SENATOR ALEXANDER: Mr. Chairman, can I do a follow-up?
THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, sir, go ahead.
SENATOR ALEXANDER: So do you have -- the residence that you have on your application is the residence that you live in? Do you have another home other than that location, or is that your --
MR. ENGLISH: That's the only place I've lived in Columbia the last 30 years.
SENATOR ALEXANDER: Thank you, sir. I think that clarifies it.

THE CHAIRMAN: Okay. I just think you misspoke. You meant four percent.
MR. ENGLISH: Okay.
MS. WEBB: So four percent it is. I would just let the record reflect that he has stated it's four percent and not six percent at his Blythewood residence.
THE CHAIRMAN: Okay. Questions for Mr. English? Senator Scott.
SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you, Mr. English, for your willingness to serve.
MR. ENGLISH: Thank you.
SENATOR SCOTT: A lot has happened in the year and a half since you came.
MR. ENGLISH: Yes, it has.
SENATOR SCOTT: Has it been difficult, heavy lifting to get them to finally move in the direction of trying to make those kind of diverse commitments you now under -- it's the third president here shortly in that very short period of time. What is the attitude of the board with the kinds of things that we're actually talking about, diversity, identifying those who have made tremendous contribution to the school and your willingness to work with the two African American members of the board and others who share the same kind of concern moving that board forward?
MR. ENGLISH: Well, I think we have made progress. You know, I mentioned I served on the history committee implementation group, and, you know, that -- SENATOR SCOTT: You chair it?
MR. ENGLISH: I chaired it.
SENATOR SCOTT: Yeah, go ahead.
MR. ENGLISH: And we have moved forward. We were unable to name the Celia Dial Saxon building down on Park Street. We've got a bunch of other things that we are still working on as far as trying to educate people about the history of this university as it pertains to the African American people that contributed to it. And we are still working on those. We have moved forward on putting statutes of the first three African American students on our campus. We haven't come up with a place yet, but we are doing that, and I'm very proud of that as well.
SENATOR SCOTT: This is after how many years those first African American students were on the campus?
MR. ENGLISH: It's been a long time.
SENATOR SCOTT: A long time?
MR. ENGLISH: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: So what do you see as any push back in terms of trying to move the school forward with your faculty, staff, students? You know, when I look at some of the other campuses around South Carolina, USC, they're doing a lot better than the downtown Columbia campus in terms of students --

MR. ENGLISH: Well, like I said, we've got this group. We've got this list of things that we will bring before the board and hopefully will get approved, like walking tours, like education on all the different buildings on campus having a plaque that talks about why the building is named that and giving a little history on it. Then, you know, those are the things that we've got on the board that we've got to get through the board, got to get past, and, you know, until we get those things done, you know, I think our job isn't done.

SENATOR SCOTT: You played basketball at USC in '72 until about '76. What does this new basketball coach mean to the university? I'm talking about the boys basketball -- mean to the university, especially just in the overall case of high schools and around South Carolina in terms of he won't even consider coming to the university given this is the first time in history that has ever occurred?

MR. ENGLISH: Well, I think being this is the first time in the history of this university we've had an African American head basketball coach is going to mean a lot. I think he will get the opportunity to recruit, you know, in the City of Columbia and a lot of the other surrounding cities as well as the state. And, you know, it gives the young player a different perspective, not that Coach Martin wasn't that person that embraced athletes, but I think that having an African American coach will mean that when the player talks to him or looks at that person, they will feel that they've got someone who may be able to relate to the lives that they've lived as an athlete.

SENATOR SCOTT: Since you're likely dealing in the basketball community, we had some parents to make comments or talk about their kids, rethinking where they want to go, looking at staying at home rather than leaving the state. My goal is to keep my kids here. We've got a lot to offer them here, especially if we give them what they need to grow.

MR. ENGLISH: Well, the only player that I've spoken to, and I did this at the behest of Coach Martin, is a young kid from Columbia who's one of the top athletes in the state who hadn't decided whether he's going to leave or not --

SENATOR SCOTT: I saw that.

MR. ENGLISH: I just impressed upon him what it was like for me being a Columbia resident and staying home and how invaluable that was to me. And at that time, he was very positive. His parents were very positive. Whether he will stay, I don't know, but I think just from speaking with Coach Paris only once, I like what he sounds like, what he intends to do, and hopefully he's going to do a great job for this university.

SENATOR SCOTT: Has there been much push back from the other board members with this new decision to bring -- make that kind of change --

MR. ENGLISH: Well, you heard Mr. Williams.

SENATOR SCOTT: Yeah, I did. That was troubling.

MR. ENGLISH: Yeah. He was probably the biggest push back. I think with buyouts we discussed that in our board conference call, and everybody, you know, was a little concerned, but, you know, we ended up voting for Mr. Paris' contract, and I had to add to it is that -- what you've already spoken about is that, you know, you bring in a person that's going to be on the lowest end of the totem pole when it comes to SEC coaches. He's going to be the least amount -- make the least amount of money.

SENATOR SCOTT: You're correct.

MR. ENGLISH: So, you know, I don't think that that should be something that we hold against Ray Tanner yet, but I'm sure he's got the opportunity -- Coach Paris has got the opportunity to earn money, to increase his salary.

SENATOR SCOTT: I hope if you remain on this board, you continue to educate your board and colleagues on the board, you get what you pay for --

MR. ENGLISH: And I agree with that. I agree with that, and, you know, I feel that, you know, it's important to have that diversity on the board so that you can get another perspective, you know, of what your stakeholders may think and what your stakeholders may be looking for. And I think I offer some of the perspective. We've got one other African American board member, and that's Lea Moody, who's also very much into representing all students, but making sure that we make that point that we have to represent all of our stakeholders, and we have to be concerned with everybody.

SENATOR SCOTT: In looking at what coaches get paid in the SEC, the top was Kentucky at 8.6. It ranges to about three million dollars, for those who have not done their homework. And the bottom -- last on the list was the 2.2. And I hope as time progresses on we at least pay coaches what coaches make in the SEC. Now there are other schools. When you add the other teams I have mentioned pay a whole lot more than that. And so if you're going to get winning coaches, I hope you will continue to educate them, and you've had a chance to play college ball, professional ball just like a professional ballplayer. If I'm good, you don't pay me, I'm leaving and going some place else -- some place else to be paid. No stacking in the bleachers. You've got to pay the coaches, especially if they bring recruits. Thank you so much for your willingness. I've seen in the last year and a half some movement than I've seen at the university before. Thank you.

MR. ENGLISH: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Speaker Lucas.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Mr. English, thank you for being here today.
MR. ENGLISH: Yes, sir.
SPEAKER LUCAS: I brag all the time that you and I were in Bates House together at USC.
MR. ENGLISH: We're getting ready to get rid of it.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Oh, my gosh.
MR. ENGLISH: Yes.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Just a few questions to kind of clarify some earlier testimony. You serve on the board, and the board elects the president; is that correct?
MR. ENGLISH: Yes, sir.
SPEAKER LUCAS: And the president appoints or hires an athletic director; is that correct?
MR. ENGLISH: Yes, sir.
SPEAKER LUCAS: And when there are contracts involving coaches, the athletic director brings those contracts to the board for approval; is that the way it goes?
MR. ENGLISH: Yes.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Okay. So the athletic director doesn't approve the contract and then show them to the board. He actually has to have board approval of the contract, I believe, over a certain amount; is that correct?
MR. ENGLISH: Yes, but the -- I guess the athletic director bases the contract on what else is in the SEC, what other coaches make and kind of, I guess, sets the price or sets the salary and brings it to the board, yes.
SPEAKER LUCAS: If you have a buyout in the contract, the buyout usually comes into play when the coach fails; would that be right?
MR. ENGLISH: Usually.
SPEAKER LUCAS: And Coach Paris it looks like to me may not have to worry about that buyout because he's incredibly talented, and I think he's going to do good things at USC.
MR. ENGLISH: Yes, sir, I am hoping he will.

SPEAKER LUCAS: Thank you, Mr. English.
MR. ENGLISH: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Representative King?
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chairman and thank you for your service, Mr. English. How long have you been on the board?
MR. ENGLISH: I think it's about a year and a half now. I was before y'all about a year ago.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Okay. I just wanted to make sure our information was correct, yes, sir.
MR. ENGLISH: Uh-huh.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: I thought you were fairly new. I want to go back and ask you a question. Senator Harpootlian asked the Chairman a couple of questions, but I want to ask you something in reference to maybe your presence at maybe an event. Were you present in Atlanta with Lou Kennedy?
MR. ENGLISH: Yes.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Did you witness the episode between the Chairman and Ms. Kennedy?
MR. ENGLISH: Kind of glancing. You know, it was at the end of our meeting, and everybody was moving around, but, yes.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Was Ms. Kennedy's interpretation incorrect?
MR. ENGLISH: Not incorrect. You know, it was --
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Do you think she overreacted?
MR. ENGLISH: I think she was very -- you know, she was very concerned, you know, to be -- you know, she felt like she was mistreated, and, you know, that's what she felt, so --
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you for answering those. My next question to you, being one of two African Americans on the board, do you think that the board has done or is doing a decent job, a good job or great job when it comes to diversity and inclusion and equity? And if not, or if they are, where can we do better?
MR. ENGLISH: Well, in most instances I think we've done pretty good. You know, one of the things that I was concerned about was making sure that when we hire people we make sure that we've got, you know, minorities included in the pool. And, you know, with Ray Tanner handling -- giving the job to Mr. Paris, I feel comfortable about that. I still feel that there are instances where, you know, we have to be more focused when it comes to -- not just focus but understanding -- and we've got to be more focused and understanding when it comes to the rules.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: I know a lot of talk today has been about the athletic department, but let's talk about senior level positions.
MR. ENGLISH: Uh-huh.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: The administration. What percentage of senior level positions are African American?
MR. ENGLISH: I couldn't tell you that, sir.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Do you know of any senior level positions, and if so, how many can you think of that are held by African Americans?
MR. ENGLISH: Well, I know V.P. Julian Williams, who is the head of our diversity, equity and inclusion, and Larry -- yes, Larry Thomas is our communications. Those are senior level positions that I think are very important.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: What bothers me is that we have to think, because there's only two.
MR. ENGLISH: And that, too, is a big improvement over the last few years.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Hopefully y'all will do better things.
MR. ENGLISH: Thank you, sir.
THE CHAIRMAN: Senator Harpootlian.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Mr. English, thank you for your service on the board.
MR. ENGLISH: Thank you.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: April the 3rd, today and prior to today. It's obviously not an easy job. I'm intrigued by the fact you were present during the Lou Kennedy, Chairman Smith discussion, and I'm not quite sure that Representative King asked you the ultimate question, which is, she was upset?
MR. ENGLISH: Yes.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Did you see why she was upset:
MR. ENGLISH: Yes. You know, she was --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. Well, tell me what you saw.
MR. ENGLISH: Well, she was upset with the interchange between --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Yeah, but what was the interchange?
MR. ENGLISH: The interchange I know that Chairman Smith had mentioned, you know, something to her about the committee, and, you know, and I guess, you know, in his voice -- it was raised, and she felt, you know, that it wasn't necessary.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Was it dismissive, the tone, dismissive?
MR. ENGLISH: I think she felt that way.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Did you feel that way?

MR. ENGLISH: Like I said, I was at the end of the meeting, and I was moving around, and I noticed, you know, that it was happening, and, you know, she had -- I think she had a reason and a right to feel that she was being, not necessarily dismissed, but I think she felt --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Disregarded?
MR. ENGLISH: I think that's the way she felt.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And Chairman Smith indicates it was basically -- did you fly back on the plane with them?
MR. ENGLISH: No, I didn't.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: They didn't ask you on the plane?
MR. ENGLISH: I don't like flying on small planes.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Smart. So if you had been invited to go on that Caslen trip, you would have driven?
MR. ENGLISH: Probably.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Yeah. But you believe based on what you saw, Lou Kennedy had every right to be offended?
MR. ENGLISH: I think so.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay, thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you, Mr. English. We're not approving any candidates of USC now.
MR. ENGLISH: Thank you, sir.
THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you for your service. All right. Next we've got David Benjamin Graves.
MR. GRAVES: Thank you, Mr. Chairman.
THE CHAIRMAN: If you'll just state for the record your full name.
MR. GRAVES: David Benjamin Graves.
THE CHAIRMAN: Raise your right hand. We'll hear a brief statement of why you'd like to serve. Daniel Benjamin Graves, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
MR. GRAVES: Thank you so much for letting me be here. I have served proudly on the development foundation board for USC for four years. I served on the USC commission on higher education for Spartanburg County prior to that. I graduated from South Carolina Honors College in 1996, and the USC School of Law in 2000. I've been in private practice as an attorney and then got into the real estate development business where I ran one of the largest family offices for a very successful entrepreneur in South Carolina, and then started my own development company four years ago that's enjoyed rapid growth. And I'm frankly here -- I'm soon to be a third generation Gamecock with my son as an incoming freshman. You know, I just believe in throwing my hat in the ring if I feel like I can be helpful frankly. And in this case, I've enjoyed the service there to the commission on higher education in Spartanburg and the development foundation board, primarily involved in the property committee, helping to grow the physical campus and hopefully bring a business pragmatism, you know, a responsibility of how you manage a P&L for a company that I'm responsible for solely and would offer myself for service if you think I'd be a good candidate.

THE CHAIRMAN: Okay, thank you. Staff, any information to share with us?
MS. WEBB: I do not have anything based off the file that you submitted, but I will do the same with you. Can you please state your home address for the record?
MR. GRAVES: That's 109 Coleman Hill Drive, Spartanburg, South Carolina.
MS. WEBB: Thank you. And you pay a four percent or six percent yearly?
MR. GRAVES: Four percent.
MS. WEBB: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Questions? Senator Scott.
SENATOR SCOTT: Yes, sir. Thank you for your willingness to serve. You've had four years to make some observations in terms of what's going on proves you actually see that encouraged you to want to be on this board, and what do you think you actually bring to this board during a time it's having a lot of questions spending, diversity issues, growing and making historic changes --
MR. GRAVES: Yes, sir.
SENATOR SCOTT: And you said you're a developer, so tell me a little bit about how you think all this is going -- and an attorney -- that's going to fit into the growing changes at the university.
MR. GRAVES: Well, it's been very educational to see the things we could do to help with growth to the campus. The development foundation board actually developed the 650 Lincoln property that was recently renamed for Ms. Saxon. We're very proud of the role we played in that. We're also looking at student housing opportunities we can do to help facilitate growth for the campus and provide, you know, a larger nest egg to grow the endowment. We're also involved in parts of putting together the puzzle, if you will, for the health science campus. So those roles have been the places that I've had the most impact, but it's allowed me to, you know, interact with people like Ed Walton, who is the CFO of the USC enterprise altogether and learn about growth and things that I think can allow me to be more effective.

SENATOR SCOTT: What about diversity? I mean, you're going to be faced with those issues. Do you have any background, training, understand how that process actually works?
MR. GRAVES: I've served on nonprofit boards in Spartanburg. I've had some informal training in that regard. I would say I'm a conscientious student in that regard, enjoy learning --
SENATOR SCOTT: So you've got a lot to learn is what you're saying?
MR. GRAVES: I would say I have a lot to learn. I think in a lot of cases folks in my position have a lot to learn.
SENATOR SCOTT: Okay, thank you, Mr. Graves.
THE CHAIRMAN: Senator Harpootlian.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So on the development -- tell me what the development board is. What is it you do over there?
MR. GRAVES: Sure. Well, we have -- it's tied into the educational foundation, Senator Harpootlian. You know, we can actually move forward with purchasing property and facilitating growth with our own funds, you know, tied to the educational foundation endowment. So it provides a vehicle to move quickly and pick up property in the path of progress, work with the university, fulfill its mission.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Did y'all own the property on Wheeler Hill that was recently conveyed to a private developer in developing that?
MR. GRAVES: That's correct, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. Now I know what y'all do. Well, let me ask you this. How long have you been on the development board?
MR. GRAVES: This is my second term, approximately four years.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And so, do you have interaction -- you said Ed Walton, but do you have interaction with any other member of the USC community?
MR. GRAVES: We've had -- the president comes and speaks to us about twice a year I would say. So, you know, we had had interaction that way. We've also talked to Derrick Renner, the USC architect, about some of the facilities issues that we've dealt with.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So let me ask you this. And you sat here and listened to our discussions?
MR. GRAVES: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And you've read about the Caslen -- I would call a disaster --
MR. GRAVES: Of course.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- perhaps some of us would rather put lipstick on a pig and the issue about Muschamp being fired and paying him 13 million dollars not to work. Do you have any opinions about, first of all, Muschamp, paying him 13 million not to work? Is that a good thing?

MR. GRAVES: No, it's not a good thing. And I live in a world where we have to be responsible for our decisions, and I -- you know, the idea of paying someone not to do a good job, unfortunately, is something that I would strongly disagree with.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So if a contract came before you on the board, and of course what they're going to tell you is this is what happens in the SEC, you've got to pay this money to get a decent coach, and that's the athletic department representing that. I mean, are you going to ask further questions, are you going to delve into this, or are you just going to do whatever you're told the athletic department says is that's what everybody else does?
MR. GRAVES: No, sir, I'm not here to maintain the status quo. I would definitely investigate that. It's something to where I -- I believe in alignment of interests and meritocracy in pay. And so if you do a good job, and we can provide an incentive for you to get paid more for doing a good job, I am all in favor of that. I am absolutely not in favor of the reciprocal.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Which is paying somebody to do a bad job?
MR. GRAVES: Correct.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And let's talk about Caslen for just a moment. You've heard more today than probably most people know --
MR. GRAVES: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- the fact that the decision of hiring him was so fractured to begin with, the faculty and the students opposed to it. It was a one vote margin by the board. Was that a good thing? Was that something you would want to participate in?
MR. GRAVES: You know, it was very interesting to sit here and listen to that, right. And it's always -- you know, there is perfect clarity from hindsight looking back at that, but, no, I would say you certainly want to build, you know, continuity and a super majority of belief in the direction the university's headed.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Do you serve on any boards of directors?
MR. GRAVES: No.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. Have you been around any corporate boards of directors?
MR. GRAVES: Yes.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Do they operate like this?

MR. GRAVES: No.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So this would not be tolerated in the private sector?
MR. GRAVES: It would not.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Thank you. I have no further questions.
THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you, sir.
MR. GRAVES: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: We will make a decision on approval at a later date.
MR. GRAVES: Thank you, sir.
THE CHAIRMAN: Next we have Henry Levy Jolly, Jr. Will you state for the record your full name?
MR. JOLLY: My name's Henry Levy Jolly, Jr.
THE CHAIRMAN: And if you'll raise your right hand, I'll swear you in. Henry Levy Jolly, Jr, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
THE CHAIRMAN: Okay. Just make a brief statement on why you would like to be elected to the USC board.
MR. JOLLY: Well, first off, I'd like to thank y'all for allowing this opportunity for me to be here. I live in Gaffney. I'm in the Seventh Judicial Circuit, which is Cherokee and Spartanburg. I have been on the USC board of visitors. I've also served as a trustee at Limestone College, now Limestone University. And I was just appointed to the Spartanburg County Commission of Higher Education as the Cherokee County representative, but I'd like to serve the university that gave so much to me. So that's the reason I'm here.
THE CHAIRMAN: All right. Staff, have any information for us?
MS. WEBB: Hi, good afternoon, Mr. Jolly. I don't have anything based off of your file, but just as we have previously done, can you please state your home address for the record?
MR. JOLLY: It's 312 Silver Circle, Gaffney, South Carolina.
MS. WEBB: Thank you. And do you pay your four percent of six percent?
MR. JOLLY: Four percent.
MS. WEBB: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Questions of Mr. Jolly? No questions. All right. Thank you, sir.
MR. JOLLY: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: We'll let you know at the appropriate time.
MR. JOLLY: Appreciate it.
THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, sir. Next up we have John C. Von Lehe, Jr. Welcome, sir. If you'll state your full name, and I'll swear you in.

MR. VON LEHE: Thank you. John Christopher Von Lehe, Jr.
THE CHAIRMAN: If you'll raise your right hand. Give us a brief statement of why you'd like to continue. John C. Von Lehe, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
MR. VON LEHE: Thank you. If I may, I'll read it. It is brief. I left my home in St. George in 1961 to go to the University of South Carolina. We just called it the university back then. I never left it. Seven years of education, ten years of teaching in the business school as an adjunct professor, then I was elected to the board in 1998. I was the chairman from 2016 through 2020. I hope to be able to serve another term as chairman emeritus. I think the institutional knowledge that I've gained during my tenure is important to governing of the institution. I hope to have been a credit to the board in both good times and bad. Yes, we faced obstacles over the presidential search, but we now have a great tried and true president in Michael Amiridis, with whom I've worked closely before. For example, in the establishment of the Greenville Medical School, which while I was chairman of the health affairs committee. By the way, as you know, the Greenville school has no state funding. It's probably unique in that regard in a medical school that I've ever heard of. I know the university is in good shape, both academically and financially, so I'm humbly proud of my service to my alma mater, and I'd like to continue that service. I would like to mention one thing in my application. Reading back over it and double checking a couple of facts, in number 9 I said that online education was roughly the same tuition expense as being present at the university. That's not accurate. Per semester tuition at university for a student who personally attends is $6,344.00. If instead you are online, and you don't actually attend the university, not physically, then it's about $1,000.00 cheaper or somewhere around $5,344.00.
THE CHAIRMAN: Staff, any information?
MS. WEBB: Good afternoon, Mr. Lee. I didn't find anything based off of your file that I would have any questions to ask you about, but the same that we have done, can you please confirm your home address for the record?
MR. VON LEHE: 331 Banfield Drive, Mt. Pleasant.
MS. WEBB: Thank you, sir. And is this your four percent or six percent address?
MR. VON LEHE: Four percent.
MS. WEBB: Thank you, sir.
THE CHAIRMAN: Questions? Senator Harpootlian.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So you were the chairman of the board during the selection of Caslen; is that correct?
MR. VON LEHE: That is correct.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And I'm trying to understand, and I haven't quite gotten a clear understanding on how that process worked or didn't work. Did you go on that airplane trip to Florida?
MR. VON LEHE: I did not, and the reason for that, if I may.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Sure.
MR. VON LEHE: I was not on the presidential search committee. It was the policy of the board up until that time not to allow the chairman of the board to be on the presidential search committee. That's been changed, I think, quite correctly, but that was the policy, so I was not a member of that committee. I did not attend any of the committee meetings because I wasn't a member of the committee.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So there was a presentation of four finalists; am I correct on that?
MR. VON LEHE: Yes, correct.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And Caslen was one of them?
MR. VON LEHE: Yes.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And Mr. Tate was one of them?
MR. VON LEHE: He was.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And there was a -- I think from everything I've read in the press indicates that Eddie Floyd from Florence was unwilling to go forward at that point. He wanted to get more of a consensus, thought they were too divided; is that accurate?
MR. VON LEHE: I think that's generally accurate. I think most of the board felt the same way.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And so was it a decision to hire an interim president?
MR. VON LEHE: There was.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And y'all offered the job to the president of the upstate campus?
MR. VON LEHE: That's correct.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And he accepted?
MR. VON LEHE: That's correct, Brendon Kelly.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And Mr. Kelly started a couple weeks later?
MR. VON LEHE: That's correct.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And I think he even bought a house here, do you know?

MR. VON LEHE: Was not aware of that, but I'm not surprised. That would have been what I would have expected or get a lease or rent.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And within 30 days -- actually it was 34 days after that, after you offered the job to him, y'all offered the job to General Caslen; is that correct?
MR. VON LEHE: That sounds about right.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So I guess what I'm trying to figure out is, what happened in that 34 days from we need to take more time and, you know, executing the decision to hire Caslen. Now let me back up for a second. Did y'all not also decide to hire a company that participated in a presidential search for Clemson?
MR. VON LEHE: Yes. The one that we had, we didn't feel that they had fulfilled what we needed. We were going to hire a second presidential search committee, but I don't think that ever happened.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So what was it about that original group that you said didn't fulfill their obligation? What was it they hadn't done?
MR. VON LEHE: Well, they didn't have a woman candidate for one thing.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Yeah, that didn't get corrected. What else?
MR. VON LEHE: They -- the methodology that they used, which has been successful in some schools, wasn't successful for us, and that's bring everybody to town, introduce them to everybody, faculty, students, community leaders. A lot of people won't do that because they're afraid they will lose the job where they currently are. So that type of a search, I don't think, is a good one.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, the second time -- well, y'all did more recently, you offered the job to - - I forget the gentleman's name -
MR. VON LEHE: Amiridis.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: No, no, before him.
MR. VON LEHE: Yes, Mung Chiang, I believe it's pronounced.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Right. And once it became public, he decided not to come, correct?
MR. VON LEHE: Yeah. It was said a little bit earlier today, which is quite accurate, he wanted to come, but his family situation was such that he couldn't do it.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, he didn't know that before he accepted? MR. VON LEHE: No.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Huh.
MR. VON LEHE: Apparently. I certainly think not.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So based on what I've read in the press, it was like three or four days after he accepted, and then he reproved; is that --
MR. VON LEHE: Something like that. His mother in law was sick. I remember that. She was --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Was she not sick when he accepted it?
MR. VON LEHE: Unknown to me. Unknown to me.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But it certainly was embarrassing, was it not?
MR. VON LEHE: Well, no. I wasn't embarrassed about it. I mean, we thought he was the better candidate. We voted to hire him. Said he wanted the job, and then he changed his mind because he had a family situation, so I wasn't embarrassed about it.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But let's go back to Caslen. I mean, with Caslen, you brought all four of those folks to Columbia, everybody that was approved, and made them available to the faculty and the students and to the board to talk to --
MR. VON LEHE: We did.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: The four were publicly known, were they not?
MR. VON LEHE: Well, they -- it was publicly known, yes. They met with large groups of people.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I mean, at some point a number of faculty and students objected -- before you narrowed it down, objected to General Caslen, correct?
MR. VON LEHE: Yes. It was something like the night before the -- that April 29, I think it was, the first election of those candidates. It was something like the day before -- Charles Williams testified to this accurately a little earlier today -- something like the day before or something like that that this search firm gave us all of these questionnaires, and I remember the night before that failed election attempt, when it didn't -- when there was no election -- I remember through that stuff the night before.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And that was the meeting at which y'all decided to look further?
MR. VON LEHE: Postpone, yes, to get an interim, yes.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Right. They took the 34 days, the 30 days plus.
MR. VON LEHE: Yes, that's correct.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. And during that period of time student and faculty opposition did not collapse. As a matter of fact, it got worse, did it not?
MR. VON LEHE: I think it would have, yes, yes.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And so did you receive a call from the governor at the governor's office?
MR. VON LEHE: I did not receive a call from him. I was invited to come to his office, which I did.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Who did you meet with there?
MR. VON LEHE: I met with the governor, his chief of staff, Gene Warr and three trustees.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And the purpose of the meeting was for the governor to convince you that Caslen would be a great president?
MR. VON LEHE: I would agree with that.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: That that's why he had you there, to convince you of that?
MR. VON LEHE: That was what he proposed when we were there. That's what he believed.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And --
MR. VON LEHE: He was chair -- if I may, he was chairman of the board. That's the way it's set up. The governor is chairman of the board of trustees of the University of South Carolina.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: He's ex officio?
MR. VON LEHE: Ex officio chairman of the board.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But you were the chairman of the board?
MR. VON LEHE: I was indeed.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So who's chairman of the board, him or you?
MR. VON LEHE: Well, that was a good question.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: That's why I'm asking it.
MR. VON LEHE: I asked our lawyer that --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Yeah.
MR. VON LEHE: -- and he said if the governor comes to a meeting, he's chairman of the board, you get out of that chair, and I said, okay.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Did the governor come to a meeting?
MR. VON LEHE: Did he come, no.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: No.
MR. VON LEHE: But I did ask --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So --
MR. VON LEHE: -- but I did ask, but I did ask, because I mean --

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But he had no authority unless he showed up, correct?
MR. VON LEHE: That's correct.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So -- and he wanted y'all to do his bidding. He didn't want to come do it, right?
MR. VON LEHE: I wouldn't say that. He didn't come. I'm glad he didn't, because as was pointed out earlier today, which is certainly true, the accreditation committee looks very poorly on any political involvement.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Now --
MR. VON LEHE: Sachs is the name, the Southeastern Accreditation.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So do you ultimately end up voting for Caslen?
MR. VON LEHE: Did I?
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Yes.
MR. VON LEHE: Yes, I did.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And was that -- I mean, you didn't go to Florida. Did you meet with him any other time other than that initial --
MR. VON LEHE: Yes. I had a meeting with him when the group was brought to town. I met with Dr. Bill Tate, who was the other candidate who has been mentioned, who was another one of the -- there were two basically who were above the others in the estimation of those other trustees. One of them was Professor Bill Tate, who was at Washington University at that time, and as you know, he's now president of -- I think it's Tennessee. No. Anyhow, it doesn't matter right now, but I did meet with both of them, yes.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And what was it about General Caslen that convinced you in not having any real academic background except being a commandant at West Point -- what convinced you that he could run a liberal arts mega university after having run a very small military school?
MR. VON LEHE: Well, academically, I believe he was qualified. That's where I disagree with many of the faculty members, because the bylaws say Ph.D. or other terminal degree. For example, a law degree is a terminal degree. A medical degree is a terminal degree, and he had an MBA, masters in business administration. And that is commonly referred to as a terminal degree.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Where was that MBA from?
MR. VON LEHE: I can't remember. I don't remember.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So you decided he was more qualified than other candidates who did have Ph.D.'s, who had a background in dealing in managing liberal arts colleges, right?
MR. VON LEHE: I did. Bill Tate was a great candidate, obviously, from where he is now today. He was a great candidate. He was head of the graduate school at Washington University in St. Louis, so called Harvard of the West, so it's a good school.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Yeah.
MR. VON LEHE: And he was head of the graduate school there. So I mean, I think he was qualified, but he had never been a president of a major university, and he had never been a provost. So I felt General Caslen was more qualified.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Was hiring him a mistake?
MR. VON LEHE: Again, that depends on the times, you know, it --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And I'm talking about as you look back on it -- I mean, I've made all kinds of mistakes in my life.
MR. VON LEHE: If I knew what I know today, I wouldn't, and he wouldn't take the job either. So this is --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Looking back on it, the very close split decision of the trustees -- I mean, that was the reason y'all didn't have the vote 30 days earlier, because you were trying to get a consensus --
MR. VON LEHE: That is true.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- and it never happened, correct?
MR. VON LEHE: That is true.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And what was the hurry?
MR. VON LEHE: I'll tell you what it was. The governor told us that President Caslen had been offered another job and that he had to make a decision on whether or not to take that job or not. I then called President Caslen, and I asked him about this, not that I didn't believe what the governor said, I just thought it was my responsibility. And he said, yes, that he had until a certain time, which was something like about a week or something like that away, in order to accept that job or not accept it. And I said, okay, thank you. And so that was the hurry. It was either -- it was either vote for him or let him go. It wasn't a question of, look, if you postpone this, he'll still be in the pool, and you can look for other people. It was either hire him or not hire him. So we had a board meeting and --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So a one vote margin was just fine to land this whale, right?
MR. VON LEHE: Yes.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And that was, in your opinion, not a mistake?
MR. VON LEHE: Again, if I --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I'm talking about what you knew then.
MR. VON LEHE: At that time, it was not a mistake.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And the governor's expertise in hiring a president of the university -- how many university presidents has he participated in the hiring of?
MR. VON LEHE: I hope just one.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: We hope to keep it there anyway, right?
MR. VON LEHE: I'm sure today, you know, things wouldn't be done the same way --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Were you talking --
MR. VON LEHE: -- I guarantee that for myself.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- were you talking to Trey Walker at all?
MR. VON LEHE: He was there that day.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Did he indicate to you any political motivation?
MR. VON LEHE: He did not.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: He didn't indicate to you that if you -- there was email between him and Mark Westbrook in which he talked about Beto O'Rourke and our friends on the left, all kinds of political things. He never did that with you?
MR. VON LEHE: He did not.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, I mean, do you now admit that the hiring of Caslen and how it went was a disaster, not good for the university.
MR. VON LEHE: And in some ways it was good for the university, and I'll tell you how. It's been mentioned today that President Caslen really was the right man at the right time during Covid. He did a great job. The faculty embraced him. I mean, I was with him almost -- I wouldn't say daily, but just about every other day we would have some conversation about something. So I thought he did an excellent job during that difficult, difficult period, and then it sort of all went up in smoke with that graduation and that plagiarism and all problem. It was one of the worst days of my life and certainly as far as the university's concerned, but I thought President Caslen did a great job.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Really?
MR. VON LEHE: I certainly did.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Other than Covid, what else did he do?

MR. VON LEHE: Well, he united. He united the university for one thing. He was well liked by the faculty. By the time all of this happened, he had "won the faculty over." He was well liked by faculty and the students.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: That didn't appear to be the remarks that we read in the paper from faculty members about plagiarism, because plagiarism typically is awarded with expulsion at an institution of higher learning, is it not?
MR. VON LEHE: That's what happened to him, basically.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, he didn't get expelled. He left on his own steam.
MR. VON LEHE: Well, that's a major different certainly, but nevertheless he left. He left because of the plagiarism.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And his comments about the university were just horrible, were they not?
MR. VON LEHE: Most unfortunate.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: What was unfortunate about them?
MR. VON LEHE: Well, for one thing, I lived through those years with him, and I worked with him hand in hand and saw people come around to support him during all of these times, and --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: He didn't think so.
MR. VON LEHE: No, he didn't, but I had a different outlook on that.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, but he was the guy that would have been the beneficiary of that, and his attitude was -- I mean, he did -- email he sent to the president of S.C. State pulled no punches whatsoever, horrible place. I don't know why anybody would ever come here. The board of trustees, the students, the faculty were all not supportive of me. I mean, that's what he said in candid conversations with the president of S.C. State, right? You read all that.
MR. VON LEHE: I did not read that. I read probably worse, but I don't happen to agree with that. That's the way -- if that -- I was not aware he felt like that during the time that I spent with him. Let's put it like that.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You're aware of it now.
MR. VON LEHE: Pardon?
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Are you aware of it now?
MR. VON LEHE: Yes.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So obviously --
MR. VON LEHE: Well, that's what he said. That's what he said.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Do you think he was right?
MR. VON LEHE: That's what he believes.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, his belief is based on his experience. His experience, you know, to quote him, it sucked. That was his --
MR. VON LEHE: My --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- that's an exact quote.
MR. VON LEHE: But it was a hard road. I certainly will admit that. I was a very hard road, especially at first, especially at first.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So you'd do exactly what you did back then, knowing only what you knew back then. You'd hire him again --
MR. VON LEHE: Yes, I would.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- by a one vote margin? You'd do that?
MR. VON LEHE: Yes, I would.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. Let me move on to one other area. I'm going to be brief on this. We have talked about the Muschamp buyout.
MR. VON LEHE: Yes.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: What we don't -- were you on the board when you approved that contract to begin with?
MR. VON LEHE: I was.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And that contract could have entitled him to an 18 million dollar buyout, right, the year before, right?
MR. VON LEHE: I don't recall that. I don't know the answer to that.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well --
MR. VON LEHE: It could well be right. It could --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- it was significantly more than the 13 you paid?
MR. VON LEHE: Yes.
SENATOR SCOTT: 15.3.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. 15.3, I'm corrected by Senator Scott. So y'all kept him on for another year. Things didn't get any better, and you decided or the -- I'm trying to figure this out - - the athletic director decided time for him to go. It was worth 13 million dollars to pay him not to work; is that correct?
MR. VON LEHE: That's correct.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And then the university board made ten million dollars available to the athletic department, which facilitated that buyout?
MR. VON LEHE: That's my understanding, yes.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. And that ten million dollars was appropriated dollars or tuition dollars?

MR. VON LEHE: You know, the thing about it is this. Generally speaking, even though we keep a separate set of books for the athletic department, there are no athletic department funds. Every dime at that university belongs to the University of South Carolina, and that includes the athletic department.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, I thought that one of the things that I've been told over the years in the legislature is that the money you spend on a coach, if it's 15 or the one we just signed at 12.5 or whatever, those funds are money generated by the athletic department through ticket sales, TV, all the sort of outside sources. It's not appropriated funds. Am I wrong about that?
MR. VON LEHE: Well, I'd say the appropriated funds go into all the buckets. In other words, there's one big bucket. They all go in the same bucket, the University of South Carolina, but -- SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So we as the legislature can limit you on what you pay a coach? We -- we could have a budget provided for this year?
MR. VON LEHE: Oh, yes, yes.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Would that be helpful?
MR. VON LEHE: No, I -- no, thank you. I think it's better that we handle it ourselves, even though in this particular case it wasn't handled well.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. So the Muschamp buyout was not handled well?
MR. VON LEHE: I don't think it was. I think it -- I think that buyout was -- the extension of his contract -- you know, we had a good year. We extended his contract. I think we extended it too far.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But the board voted to do that.
MR. VON LEHE: Optimistic, yes.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: The board voted, so that was a mistake?
MR. VON LEHE: I think it was. I wouldn't have extended it. If we -- again --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Did you vote to extend it?
MR. VON LEHE: Yes.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. That's all I have.
THE CHAIRMAN: President Alexander?
SENATOR ALEXANDER: Good afternoon.
MR. VON LEHE: Good afternoon.
SENATOR ALEXANDER: Good to see you. In listening to the dialogue of the senator from Richland, you mentioned the firm, and you didn't think that you got the value or the results from that firm that y'all had contracted with.

MR. VON LEHE: That's true.
SENATOR ALEXANDER: Did I hear that correctly?
MR. VON LEHE: You did, that's true.
SENATOR ALEXANDER: So did they get paid?
MR. VON LEHE: They did. It was $138,000.00, I think. They were paid.
SENATOR ALEXANDER: So there was no way to preclude that if you were not pleased with the results?
MR. VON LEHE: No. No, it wasn't. It wasn't a contingency that was -- they were paid that.
SENATOR ALEXANDER: Okay. Further, just for the record, in your documentation you've noted here that some of your law partners not only are registered, but that your firm that you're affiliated with, does work at USC --
MR. VON LEHE: Yes.
SENATOR ALEXANDER: -- but that's done by normal bidding processes that you're not involved with, correct?
MR. VON LEHE: That would be correct.
SENATOR ALEXANDER: And you don't do any work for the University of South Carolina yourself, correct?
MR. VON LEHE: That is correct.
SENATOR ALEXANDER: Just for the record. Thank you.
MR. VON LEHE: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Representative King.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. My question, it was strange to me that you could remember Dr. Tate's credentials but could not remember Caslen's. Why is that?
MR. VON LEHE: Well, I do remember Caslen's credentials. I don't remember where he got his MBA. My reason with Dr. Tate is because I am also a graduate of Washington University in St. Louis where -- so I had a particular interest in looking at his resume. And when I saw he was head of the graduate school there, I said, well, that's strong, but I do not remember where President Caslen then General Caslen -- don't remember where he got his MBA.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Were you present in Atlanta?
MR. VON LEHE: I was not.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Under your leadership as the chair and as a board member, not what the board has done, but what diversity things have you done to promote diversity on campus yourself as a chair, as a board member?

MR. VON LEHE: Well, I've done some, not a whole lot, but I've done some. The school of social work, which has a large number of African American students, that has been the school that I have been most closely associated with that I've endowed a scholarship there. I specify that it go to an African American student. That is -- that's about -- if you want to single out something, which I would like to be able to single out more, but that's certainly the more specific and prominent thing that I've done.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: My last question. I've heard most of the incumbents today say that they were happy that Caslen was there during the pandemic.
MR. VON LEHE: Yes.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: And that was a bright spot of his presence there. What makes you think that one of the other candidates could have not handled Covid?
MR. VON LEHE: Nothing.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Speaker Lucas.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Mr. Von Lehe, we thank you.
MR. VON LEHE: Thank you.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Thank you for your service on the board, and we thank you for being the stand up guy in taking these questions, and when asked about it, taking responsibility for your decisions --
MR. VON LEHE: Thank you.
SPEAKER LUCAS: -- I appreciate that.
MR. VON LEHE: There was no where to hide, but thank you very much.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Yes, sir. It's been very rare today when somebody's not pointing at somebody else for something that happened, and you didn't do that. You stood up there, and you told us why you made a decision, and I appreciate that.
MR. VON LEHE: Thank you.
SPEAKER LUCAS: And that's why I hate to ask some of these questions, but I feel like I have to anyway --
MR. VON LEHE: Sure.
SPEAKER LUCAS: -- so I hope you understand that. And I hope you understand that I do have the utmost respect for you, but you were the chairman of the board at the time Mr. Caslen was elected president of the university; that is correct?
MR. VON LEHE: That is correct.

SPEAKER LUCAS: Okay. And going through the search process, you could tell at the time it was not going well. I believe there was a text attributed to you that said that we as a board are looking awful; do you remember that?
MR. VON LEHE: I do not remember that.
SPEAKER LUCAS: You don't remember that?
MR. VON LEHE: Also, I do not text.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Okay. Well, it probably didn't come from you then.
MR. VON LEHE: Well, probably not.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Regardless of that fact, would you agree that the search did lack for a good bit of continuity, for lack of a better word?
MR. VON LEHE: I would agree.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Yes, sir. And the board was clearly divided on who to select, some wanting President Caslen, some not wanting President Caslen. As chairman of the board, do you bear any responsibility for that?
MR. VON LEHE: I don't bear responsibility for the fact that it was a narrow election. That's up to each individual trustee to vote what they think is best.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Yes, sir.
MR. VON LEHE: And if 11 of them wanted him, which they did and which is what it takes, a majority of the 20 votes -- if 11 of them wanted him, which included me, then as far as I'm concerned his election was proper.
SPEAKER LUCAS: As chair, did it ever occur to you that this level of division may be bad for the university?
MR. VON LEHE: Yes, it occurred to me, I believe sometimes you just have to make a decision and do something, and that time had come.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Did it occur to you that this level of division may have been bad for President Caslen and his future at the University of South Carolina?
MR. VON LEHE: I knew he had a tough road. I thought he could handle it, which quite frankly he did.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Okay. And so as chairman, why would you press ahead with such obvious and open division on the board and try to seek President Caslen as opposed to going to an alternative candidate?
MR. VON LEHE: Well, again, I think we had a good candidate. Well, I think we had an excellent candidate, and I wanted him as president. And I did not know what the board wanted until the vote, but that was it.

SPEAKER LUCAS: Do you think the board was too large? Do you think it was too --
MR. VON LEHE: I do not. I do not.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Tell me why not.
MR. VON LEHE: Well, because if we were to narrow the size -- first of all, the board's 55,000 students. If it were to be narrowed down to one of the proposals I looked at -- that would give us the smallest board of any institution of higher learning, even though we're like, you know, two or three times bigger than any other. So it just -- proportionately, I think it's a bad idea. I think what would happen is if this board were narrowed down, I think it would decrease diversity. Yes, we only have two African Americans on the board, but, who knows, if -- I mean, of course, they could -- you know, they could lose an election anyhow. I understand that, but the bigger the population group is, the less change you have of having an African American elected in a state which is primarily white.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Yes.
MR. VON LEHE: It's just a fact.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Finally, there were some issues about notification for the meeting that President Caslen was elected on?
MR. VON LEHE: Yes, yes.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Could you tell me about your responsibility with regard to notification of meetings?
MR. VON LEHE: Yes, I can. I called for a meeting of the board. Charles brought a -- Charles Williams brought a lawsuit saying that, look, it's got to be ten days. I turned to our lawyer, Terry Parham. I said, Terry, we've never known anything about ten days notice to have a board meeting. He said, yes, there's a special statute that applies only to the University of South Carolina. He was not aware of it. Here's a guy who's an excellent lawyer. If he were standing here with me, he would say the same thing. He had been the head of our legal department for at least 30 years at that particular time. He'd never heard of this statute, but it exists. Charles found it. He brought a lawsuit, so we postponed the board hearing.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Yes. Thank you, Mr. Von Lehe for your testimony.
MR. VON LEHE: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.
SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you so much in your willingness to serve. I want to just concentrate a little bit more on what I've heard, about all the different buyouts. And I've been kind of searching to see what some of the other schools were doing. There's all kinds of contractual relationships that are out there. I kind of -- as I looked further I kind a see that y'all have low salaries, but you have longer contracts, and the percentage of the buyouts in many cases may be higher, such as your new coach, 12 million, five years with a 65 percent buyout of eight million dollars. Have you considered in your contract relationships, since -- depending upon where these coaches go, and they take new jobs just like professional contracts, and you take it but it reduces what your buyout is. What I'm watching you doing that I think is creating the heartburn is that they're getting cash buyouts with 15.3 million left in the Muschamp contract. They negotiated down to 12.9. So I guess that was the remaining years or piece of a year to come to the 12.9, and then he took another job at Georgia, I think, making two million, which brings him back to where he needed to be because he negotiated down. But if you get those contracts, it would reduce your obligation, because instead of Georgia two years, three years making two million, you obligation will continue to come down, like professional contracts. According to the SEC there was no written rules in going and looking at all these contracts across the country. All those contracts were very unique, but it may be something that you may want to consider if you're going to continue that practice in the folk not having long tenure at the university.

MR. VON LEHE: We have considered that, Senator, and we have it in many of the contracts. It is in the new -- in Lamont Paris' contract. If he were -- let's say next year he gets us into the Final Four or something like that. All of a sudden he'll be offered a lot of money --

SENATOR SCOTT: Right.

MR. VON LEHE: -- from people, and they're going to have to pay -- if they do -- if he does take that job, they're going to have to pay us. He does, but they will of course step in to take care of that obligation. I did check on Frank Martin's contract. There is no such clause in there since it was renegotiated last year.

SENATOR SCOTT: All right. When you -- no, I don't want to get into all the things with Frank that - - he took a buyout too, because if not, I think that contract would have went to 2024, which that's the six million dollars if he had stayed a little while longer. I think it went into the extension clause, but I'm more concerned -- and I'm not sure all of these contracts. I'm just giving you what I've kind of read and thought I understood. I want to also look at the attitudes of members of the board. You've had a chance to serve as chairman of the board.

MR. VON LEHE: Yes.

SENATOR SCOTT: And trying to move an aggressive agenda forward. I happen to like your previous president. I thought he did a very good job in bringing members of the General Assembly together, and he did on more than one occasion, really getting to know him. And he was one of the first presidents who reached out and talked about diversity and how important diversity was to the university and was a leader in the community in talking about diversity. I really hated to see him go, but those things do happen. And I'm also looking for to the new president, which I've not had the chance to meet that new president yet to also take on a more positive role to diversity. And I do know from some of the comments I've gotten since I have been on this committee -- I think some eight years now. It's enough for somebody to be able to rotate a couple of times to come. It was not erased very well with another member of your board. So how is it doing now? And I know they come here and they tell us what they think we want to hear, not thinking we've got enough sense to do homework and talk to other people to really find out their attitude in terms of moving a diverse agenda forward. I know some of them did not like the fact the previous president was talking about wanting a diverse USC and everybody trying to maintain the status quo. When you begin to look at a lot of different members beyond members of the General Assembly, especially in the State Senate who would vote reducing your board, leave it the same or even making other kinds of changes on the board. We all have different issues and ideas in terms of how South Carolina should run their flagship university. We expect more out of you than other universities. And so where is the board now with attitudes and personalities and trying to move an aggressive agenda toward having a more diverse University of South Carolina and trying to attract more minorities, both student and faculties, to the university. And I'm not talking about your Buford Chandlers and your Columbia candidate --

MR. VON LEHE: Understood.

SENATOR SCOTT: -- where your large percentage of minority population is.

MR. VON LEHE: Well, I think everybody would like to see an increase in minority representation. And when I saw minority representation, I'm talking about African American.

SENATOR SCOTT: Correct.

MR. VON LEHE: I mean, I'm not talking about women. I'm not talking about Asians, because I looked at all those numbers also in getting prepared for this, but I think the members of the board would like to see that increased, certainly in the hiring and the things that the president does, but still we certainly involved in to some extent. I think we've done a good job in that recently. A couple of examples, and perhaps they were mentioned earlier, we've got two vice presidents who are African Americans. We've got Larry Thomas, who's head of our communications and Julian Williams, who is head of diversity, because one would assume that he would be a minority, but not necessarily.

SENATOR SCOTT: When did those two come on board?
MR. VON LEHE: Fairly recently. I think Julian Williams got there about two years ago. Larry Thomas was last year. We've also hired --
SENATOR SCOTT: Came under the previous president?
MR. VON LEHE: It came under Harris Pastides.
SENATOR SCOTT: Okay.
MR. VON LEHE: We also have two of our chancellors at two of the comprehensive, meaning four year schools. We've got Al Pernot, who you may know down in Beaufort. You may have met him. And a new chancellor, Bennie Harris. He'll be inducted next month. We'll go up to that, and he's head of Upstate.
SENATOR SCOTT: Would you say that 50 percent of your board, 60 percent of your board, 70 percent of your board is progressive in pushing diversity, or is it less than that?
MR. VON LEHE: I think they all are.
SENATOR SCOTT: Okay. Thank you, sir.
MR. VON LEHE: I certainly hope so.
THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you, Mr. Von Lehe. We're done with you. Thank you.
MR. VON LEHE: Thank you. Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: All right. Next is Thad H. Westbrook. State your full name for the record.
MR. WESTBROOK: Thad H. Westbrook.
THE CHAIRMAN: If you'll raise your right hand, I'll swear you in.
Thad H. Westbrook, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
THE CHAIRMAN: Give us a brief reason why you want to be on the board.
MR. WESTBROOK: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Thank you to members of the committee, and thank you to the General Assembly for giving me the opportunity to serve on the board of trustees. I'll keep this brief. I know you've been here all day, but, you know, when I first ran for the USC board, I told this committee that I'm committed to help to make the university successful, and I fully support its mission, which is "to educate the state's diverse citizens through teaching, research and creative activity and service." I remain committed to that purpose and look forward to what the university will continue to do to serve our state. I do have other things I could share, but I know it's been a long day.

THE CHAIRMAN: Yeah, thank you. All right. Staff?
MS. WEBB: Mr. Westbrook, I don't have anything based on review of your file. I will have you do the same as everyone else. Can you please state your home address for the record?
MR. WESTBROOK: 107 Ashworth Drive, Lexington, South Carolina 29072.
MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And is this your four percent or six percent?
MR. WESTBROOK: Four percent.
MS. WEBB: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Representative King.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Westbrook.
MR. WESTBROOK: Yes, sir.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: What year is this for you on the board.
MR. WESTBROOK: I'm in my 12th year.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: I think you have been before the committee since I have been on it.
MR. WESTBROOK: Yes, we've spoken before.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: So you know my line of questions.
MR. WESTBROOK: Sure.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: I would like to know what have you done since the last time we met in reference to diversity, you and not the actual board --
MR. WESTBROOK: Board as a whole? Yeah, I've got a few things I would like to mention. I was chair of the strategic planning committee with our new plan, Priority Four, as our diversity equity inclusion priority is one that I advocated for, and it's one that I've continued to monitor to make sure we're seeing growth in African American enrollment. We've had a three percent growth in our freshman class of African Americans this past year, three percent of Hispanic students enrollment in freshman class this past year. We're also putting an emphasis on hiring additional African American minority faculty members. I think it's important that the student body see a faculty that's reflective of them, and so that's an area of emphasis there. More specific to me, we each have an appointment to the board of visitors. I appointed an African American female, Ms. Candice Jackson Shiver, Pastor Jackson's daughter. She's a leader in our community, and she's an outstanding board member. I've also had the opportunity to speak to the collaborative on race. They had a seminar a little over a year ago, and I thought it was important I was invited, and along with Ms. Moody, I thought it was important to have board presence to be there to speak the collection of individuals that were there attending that conference supported by the collaborative. I had also, previous to Dr. Williams being hired -- I had advocated with Dr. Pastides to elevate the V.P. for diversity to be a direct report previously to Dr. Williams. It was a report to the provost office, and I think that was something important to raise the profile of that office throughout the entire university. An additional thing, as chair of the governor's committee, which I am vice chairman of the board and because of that I'm also chair of the diversity committee. I did shepherd an effort to make sure we have diversity training for our board. The governance committee is responsible for continuing education of the board, and that is under our new bylaws, and diversity falls within that committee's responsibilities. And one of the things I was helping with was making sure we had diversity training as part of the continuing education. We've had about 12 sessions of continuing education. Diversity training was one of those. We had two different presentations. One was a three hour presentation in January. We had another presentation earlier in 2020 from Julian Williams, and part of my involvement was interviewing and talking to the facilitators who came in and who did that diversity training.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And if I have anymore questions in reference to diversity and what y'all are doing, what you are doing, I'll get with you later on. Question, were you also or were you not in Atlanta?

MR. WESTBROOK: I was in Atlanta. I was chair of the search committee that led to the hire of Dr. Amiridis.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Can you tell my your recollection of those events with Ms. Kennedy and the chairman?

MR. WESTBROOK: Yeah. I wouldn't dispute what Ms. Kennedy shared in the paper. It was a difficult exchange. I spoke to the chairman after that and thought he should apologize. He had already decided that he was going to apologize at that point and that it was appropriate that there be an apology. I could understand why she was upset, and so, you know, so Bill and Lou Kennedy are very important parts of the university community. They have been generous to the university, and so I wouldn't dispute her recollection of the events.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: What is the morale of the board under the present leadership, and we would love to have your honest opinion.

MR. WESTBROOK: Yeah. It is better than it was with the Caslen hire. We got through a search process where we did have strong conversation in the room about candidates, but we had an unanimous vote, and part of my commitment and pledge to the board in leading the search was to make sure we had a search process that was transparent and inclusive of the entire board, that they were kept abreast of developments in the search, which I did. In addition, I would notify the search committee of what we were doing at the board level to make sure they understood where the board was coming from. The board works together better now under our new structure and our new organization. We still have our tense moments, but it's nothing like a few years ago with President Caslen.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And this is my last question on this. The General Assembly back in 2016 made it very clear -- at least the House did -- we would debate on the floor on the budget, which I think I may hit an amendment that dealt with diversity and ensuring diversity, and I appreciate what you have done in your efforts. Why has it taken so long to realize what needs to happen when it comes to diversity at USC? Is it because we need new board members that can envision a university that reflects South Carolina, that reflects a global economy? Could you have people who are from all over the world that comes to this school? What do we have to do different?

MR. WESTBROOK: I think you have a board that's certainly supports DEI measures, and we're making a greater budget commitment to Priority Four, which is the DEI priority of the strategic plan. I believe you have a board that is supportive. I thought what Senator Scott shared earlier about President Caslen was accurate. He was much more vocal about African American enrollment and --

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Well, I want to be very clear.

MR. WESTBROOK: Sure.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: As Senator Scott has stated, I was really impressed with Caslen's diversity and what he did over there, but what have y'all done since then, and had he not been there -- like you said, others said had he not been there because of Covid, y'all would have probably not had the results that you had. As an African American in this state, had he not been there would we have had the results that we have in reference to diversity. From my understanding y'all have not even established a diversity committee on your board. Why are we still -- or why do we not have that?

MR. WESTBROOK: I think that's a fair question. Yeah, we have not done that. We do have DEI with the governance committee. That committee is formed with the members of the board who were committee chairs, and so they are the ones who have the most insight of what's going on throughout the board and the committee work. During -- REPRESENTATIVE KING: And on that committee is Mr. English or --

MR. WESTBROOK: Ms. Moody is -- REPRESENTATIVE KING: -- and Ms. Moody is on there.
MR. WESTBROOK: -- as a committee chair, she is on it.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: She is on it.
MR. WESTBROOK: Ms. Newton is also on it as a committee chair. I would mention, in January our diversity consultants that came and spoke to us did bring the idea of having a separate diversity committee, and that is an issue that is part of the work plan that the governance committee will be looking at. So that is an issue that the governance committee will be looking at in, I would say, later this year.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Well, I can say this. If this is a continuance of how -- or the questionings that myself and Senator Scott has to continue to ask, I can't support people who just can't get it moving forward.
MR. WESTBROOK: Sure.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: So I expect that when y'all come back before us, y'all have a plan that addresses diversity and the numbers have changed from the administrative standpoint as well as the student body.
MR. WESTBROOK: Well, I appreciate that. You know, the work that went into the growth that we had in the African American, Hispanic student enrollment this past year is ongoing. I would expect it to continue as well, and would expect our numbers to continue to go up.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you.
MR. WESTBROOK: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Speaker Lucas.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Mr. Westbrook, good evening. How are you?
MR. WESTBROOK: I'm good, Mr. Speaker.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Thank you for service on the board. Rather than go through a number of emails and other things, I just want to ask you a few general questions; is that okay, since the evening is growing long?
MR. WESTBROOK: Sure.
SPEAKER LUCAS: I want to turn to the selection of William Caslen as president. Tell me what your role was during the search.
MR. WESTBROOK: I did not have a role during the search. I was not on the search committee.

SPEAKER LUCAS: Okay. Did you have a constituency to develop during the search to try to in any way use you to affect the outcome?
MR. WESTBROOK: I did -- you're probably referring to the emails and text message communications I had with the governor's office. And there was at that time -- I think you heard it earlier -- you know, we considered the governor to be a part of the board. He's under state statute listed as the ex officio chairman. He's listed in all the materials, on the website as a chairman, but, you know, we also had a review with our accreditor, SACSCOC after that search. And, you know, Dr. Bell Wheelan, who leads our accrediting body, told us that, you know, they looked at it, and they've taken a position that if the governor has a designee on the board, that the governor should not be involved in board activities. Now if the governor wants to sit on the board under state statute, then the governor can do that, and that's their view. So a couple of things came from that. One is in our new presidential candidate search committee policy --
SPEAKER LUCAS: You've changed some of those, haven't you?
MR. WESTBROOK: -- we did. The governor's appointees are not allowed to be on the search committee. You have to be a legislative trustee, legislative elected trustee. We also adopted a new policy. Policy 1.13 is a policy to protect the university from external influences. That policy was incorporated as part of the search policy for this most recent search, and it's one that requires -- you know, under our most recent search, it requires you to disclose any efforts to -- outside efforts to influence the search, the independent decision making of the body. And as far as the search committee goes, if you fail to report an effort to influence, then you could be removed either as chair of the committee or as a member of the search committee. The communications with the governor's office is something that I've come to regret. I don't think there should be anything political involved in a search. Having led a search process now, one that did not have any political involvement, you know, there should be none. I actually had the opportunity to address the entire board and express my regret personally for my involvement in that, and particularly the divisiveness that we had as a board. We had a body that went into their separate corners rather than communicating well. And, you know, you see for the most recent search, we did communicate well. We got through that process with a unanimous decision. We had the one balk with Dr. Chiang that people have mentioned, but as far as the search committee's work and the search itself, it went very well. So, you know, I think it was important that I had addressed the board about my previous conduct, and it was something that I pledged to them in the most recent search would not happen, and it didn't.

SPEAKER LUCAS: Yes, sir. In looking at all the data, I'm not just focusing on yours. They tend to focus more on external factors more than they did the qualifications of the candidates, and, you know, having spent nine years at the University of South Carolina, obviously I would have rather seen texts talking about the candidates and their strengths and weaknesses and those types of things as opposed to other political type things; would you agree with that?

MR. WESTBROOK: I would. You know, that search was a mess, and there are come choppy or flippant messages in there, and it's really not something that we need to have in a search. We didn't this most recent time. We had a very smooth search and I think very frank but professional conversations among the board members as we, you know, came to a result of who would be elected.

SPEAKER LUCAS: Yeah. And you understood at the time of the vote the deep division within the board as the search unfolded?

MR. WESTBROOK: I did, and that's unhealthy.

SPEAKER LUCAS: And as you stated, and I think you stated it well, those divisions have kind of shaped your decisions going forward about how you approach this?

MR. WESTBROOK: It did, and when I was selected as chair of the search committee, I had an opportunity to speak to the faculty Senate, and I acknowledged to them that mistakes were made last time and pledged to them that we would follow our new policy to a T, and we did, and that something we have to own and we have to be very candid about.

SPEAKER LUCAS: I've got legislation pending in the House. Senator Harpootlian has legislation pending in the Senate which performs the board and makes it smaller given what we've seen in the Caslen search. I'd just like to get your opinion on whether or not you think we need a smaller board at the University of South Carolina and that would help us avoid some of these problems that we've encountered?

MR. WESTBROOK: Well, Mr. Speaker, you're asking me about your piece of legislation, so I'll be very careful, but I --

SPEAKER LUCAS: I'll ask you about Senator Harpootlian.

MR. WESTBROOK: Well, okay. Well, then we go to Senator Harpootlian's. No, Speaker, I don't know that it's the size of the board. We do a lot of committee work, and so to put all that work on a fewer number of people would be quite a load. It is a large operation, and there is a lot of work to be done. I would echo the comments earlier -- I can't remember who made it -- there may be a question about, you know, those individuals who are on the board, where they come from. Do they come from the urban centers where you have delegations that are able to elect people they know in their area as opposed to the rural area? That's a theory. I don't know. That's just a thought I've had, but, yeah, I think with what we're doing now under our new governance structure, and with the continuing education that we have -- we also adopted and oath and a code of conduct for the board members as well, and, you know, what we're doing now -- and you saw in action those developments and that progress we've made in the last search. And what we're doing now I think will eliminate the kind of concerns that we had last time. We're addressing those ourselves.

SPEAKER LUCAS: It was a perfect search for President Amiridis, who I think is going to be a great president here. We actually -- I thought that we discounted him in the newspaper. Somebody said I may have been wrong to look at another individual who took the job and later --

MR. WESTBROOK: Yes. That gave me a lot of heartburn. Those were a tough couple of days. We were a few days away from announcing Dr. Chiang Has his name not been leaked to the media, he would have simply withdrawn, and we would have moved on, and we would have gone a different direction. Dr. Amiridis was never out of it, and so he was always available and in the picture, but that was a moment that I had a lot of heartburn.

SPEAKER LUCAS: Thank you, Mr. Westbrook.

THE CHAIRMAN: Senator Harpootlian.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Mr. Westbrook.

MR. WESTBROOK: Yes, sir.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You know, I appreciate the fact y'all performed the process. I appreciate the fact that you have redesigned how it's supposed to work, but like Speaker Lucas, I'm a little concerned that this new selection process wasn't exactly error free, but let's talk about -- you know, I'm a guy who spent his life in the judicial system as a prosecutor and a defense attorney, and even when people turn a new leaf or go in a different direction, there should be consequences for conduct prior to that. I mean, I understand y'all have seen the light, or at least you say you've seen the light, but when I read about how this went down for Caslen, I've got to tell you, these emails between you and Trey Walker were purely political, were they not?

MR. WESTBROOK: They're a couple in there that are text messages. They're a couple in there that were political in nature. I don't know that my comments were political --

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You didn't push back.

MR. WESTBROOK: -- but I received -- I didn't push back, no. I had probably a flippant response back on a couple of them.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, I mean -- and again, I understand that Trey Walker and the governor are the Republicans. On July 11, 2019, Walker tells you that former Democratic presidential candidate Beto O'Rourke has criticized McMaster's involvement in the presidential search. You text back, perfect.
MR. WESTBROOK: Yeah, yeah.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: What was perfect about that?
MR. WESTBROOK: That was a flippant response. I mean --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, I understand it's a reprisal. What was perfect about --
MR. WESTBROOK: There was nothing perfect about that. That's just --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So -- I mean, at the time you thought it was perfect. Today you don't think it's perfect?
MR. WESTBROOK: Oh, no, no. Looking back on it, yeah, it was just a flippant response, and --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But you understand your involvement at that level with the governor was encouraging them to get politically involved in this process; don't you realize that?
MR. WESTBROOK: Well, what I was communicating with them about was, at the time I considered the governor a part of the board. I know our accreditors had said differently, and we've handled it differently since then, but we were trying to -- SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I'm not talking since then. I'm talking about back then.
MR. WESTBROOK: I know, right. And so we were trying to, you know, gather up votes for President Caslen, who I did support. I did vote for him, and that was an effort within the board to, you know, figure out, you know, who's going to vote for President Caslen.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But this wasn't -- I mean, this was a -- we're going to use the Beto O'Rourke endorsement or criticism as a way to help galvanize folks, correct?
MR. WESTBROOK: I don't know that --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: That's when you said --
MR. WESTBROOK: -- I don't know if anybody used that. I don't know if anybody communicated that to a board member. I certainly did not.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: In a separate string of messages, Walker said, our friends on the left played their part publicly regarding protests against the 2019 presidential search. In response you said, these legislative and statewide officer endorsements will all help. The opposition did us a favor by moving too early. Who's the opposition here?

MR. WESTBROOK: On the board, the people who opposed President Caslen. That was -- SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: They're the opposition?
MR. WESTBROOK: Well, and like I said, that was not healthy for the board. We were not healthy at the time. We were in our separate corners, and that was not a -- and that's why I spoke to the entire board and addressed it with them.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But I mean, you're referring to people on the board that disagreed with you as the opposition?
MR. WESTBROOK: Yeah, that's --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: That was very unhealthy, was it not?
MR. WESTBROOK: That was, I agree. That was an unhealthy time, and that's I addressed it to the board, and I apologized to the board.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But you created that unhealthy time, did you not, or at least you're participating in it?
MR. WESTBROOK: I was part of the divisive discussion back and forth.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And that's just a few of them. I don't need to go through all of them, but that process, you would agree, was flawed from a number of different standpoints, correct?
MR. WESTBROOK: I agree, I agree.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And not only did it ultimately damage the board because of the way that it happened. It damaged the university, did it not?
MR. WESTBROOK: I think it had more -- it did more damage to the board, and it did lead to reforms that were needed, but as far as the university, academically we're very strong. Financially we're very strong. And so as the university fulfilling our mission, we're doing that, and we did throughout that entire time. We continue to fulfill our mission.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, when you went to elect a president, you dropped the ball. You fumbled it, did you not?
MR. WESTBROOK: It was a messy process, I agree.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, not just a messy process. The guy within two years is gone, forcing you to go --
MR. WESTBROOK: Oh, yeah.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- and hire for another president, right?

MR. WESTBROOK: That's exactly right. And, you know, what was mentioned earlier about the Covid response, that was very strong. His response to addressing DEI issues was very strong. He did gain support among the faculty, but I don't know that he was ever accepted, because he didn't have the Ph.D., and he didn't have the research background.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, when you read what he said --
MR. WESTBROOK: Oh, my gosh, yeah.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- his perception, he says to S.C. State University President James Clark on May 9th, this place sucks so bad. I don't know how anyone can stand it. At some point you have to ask why you put up with this stuff. It is insane. I don't know how you can stand living here.
MR. WESTBROOK: Yeah. I didn't know he felt that way. I know --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You didn't?
MR. WESTBROOK: I'm sorry.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You didn't know he felt that way?
MR. WESTBROOK: Oh, I did not know he felt that way.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, maybe you weren't talking to him?
MR. WESTBROOK: I would have talked to him about university business, but I would not have been talking to him asking how he felt. I think May the 9 would have probably been after the speech, the commencement speech --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Yeah.
MR. WESTBROOK: -- and he was getting a bunch of backlash at that time, so I imagine it was a very heated moment as well, but I hate hearing those comments, and I did not know he felt that way.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: He said, there's a degree of respect and professionalism that exists in those communities. He's talking about West Point and other places he's been, but USC was different. That does not exist at the University of South Carolina, because just -- I want to do whatever is necessary to tear you down, and I do that. Now when he's elected by one vote, that's not predictable. The faculty and students are lobbying against him. I mean, Covid happened. I get it. He may have performed well, but when you elect somebody by one vote, isn't that predictable that what's going to happen is that somebody -- he's going to stumble, and somebody's going to tear him down?
MR. WESTBROOK: I am surprised that he felt that way, because he did work on a strategic plan in a collaborative way that involved a lot of faculty input. I heard faculty members say that he was more inclusive of the faculty in decision making than previous administrations. And so that is a surprise to me, that his comments were like that.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: That's not what they said after the plagiarism accusation? That's not what they said after the --
MR. WESTBROOK: The plagiarism -- sorry, Senator.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But after the University of Southern California comment, they were on him like a pack of dogs, weren't they?
MR. WESTBROOK: I understood he was receiving very aggressive messages.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Yes. So is -- again, if somebody's elected by acclimation by the board, or somebody that's not viewed as divisive, this sort of stuff, even if he had stumbled, would have been forgiven, but y'all put him in an impossible position, did you not?
MR. WESTBROOK: Well, with this new search -- I'll answer your question -- with this new search, we learned from that lesson, because we saw that he was behind as far as credibility with the faculty when he started, and he was in a tough spot. With this new search, we made sure we were following a process. You know, we actually spent -- we had 29 meetings with stakeholders at the university to get feedback about what they wanted to see in the next president before we actually did a position profile to search for the president. And part of that effort was because of what happened before, but also we made sure we wanted to elect a president that would start on the strongest footing as possible, and that's what we have. I think Dr. Amiridis has been very well received and it's been very positive the response he's gotten from the faculty and the university community so far.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, I mean, I guess what I'm saying to you is, y'all went to school on our dime. There's no question the university was harmed by what happened with Caslen, his reputation, anyway; is that correct?
MR. WESTBROOK: I think the brand did suffer.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So let's move on to the Muschamp buyout. Were you on the board when they approved the contract?
MR. WESTBROOK: Yeah. So there was a contract, and then there would have been an extension of this contract.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Did you approve the extension, too?
MR. WESTBROOK: Yeah, the whole board did.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And how much more did that extension cost us in terms of buyout?
MR. WESTBROOK: I don't know. I think it was a two year extension, but I don't know how much the dollar -- what the dollar figures would be.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Several million dollars?

MR. WESTBROOK: Sure.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So we've heard the decision to terminate is Tanner's decision, not the board's?
MR. WESTBROOK: Correct.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And --
MR. WESTBROOK: In consultation with the president, I assume.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I'm sorry?
MR. WESTBROOK: I assume in consultation with the president.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: The president, right, but did you ever talk to Ray Tanner about Muschamp, either personally, on the phone or by text message?
MR. WESTBROOK: I would have had a -- there was a conversation where he briefed the president, the board chairman and me about the decision to terminate Coach Muschamp. In that --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Why you?
MR. WESTBROOK: What's that?
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Why were you included in that?
MR. WESTBROOK: Because I was vice chairman of the board --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay.
MR. WESTBROOK: -- I was invited.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay, to brief y'all.
MR. WESTBROOK: Yeah. And my understanding, there's been discussion about the buyout. My understanding of the contract was that we were obligated to continue to pay him month to month under the contract for the remainder of the contract, and that Coach Tanner had negotiated a lower buyout as a lump sum.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Lump sum, okay.
MR. WESTBROOK: So this discussion about whether or not the athletic department had money for it, my understanding was cash flow, they had it, because they could pay it monthly, and then they -- and I thought they had about 17 million in reserve, which is the excess of the buyout, and they had the money that they needed. Now later that year, that budget year, with Covid and the buyout, the university did loan money to the athletic department, and it's my expectation the athletic department is paying the university back.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Again, if there were cash flow issues when they negotiated -- I mean, if they just said, fine, we're going to pay you month to month, it would have cost more for the long term --
MR. WESTBROOK: Right.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- but the university wouldn't have needed to loan them ten million dollars.

MR. WESTBROOK: They had -- I thought the athletic department had the cash reserves to pay the lump sum. It was a combination of buyout and Covid as far as the loan to get them through was my understanding.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: The buyout was part of it?
MR. WESTBROOK: That was part of it. That's my understanding of the loan.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Was that contract extension a mistake? Do you regret voting for it?
MR. WESTBROOK: Oh, with the two years?
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Yeah.
MR. WESTBROOK: Yeah, it was. I mean, you know, I don't like the buyouts. I agree with Charles Williams. I don't like buyouts. The buyout that we have for Coach Paris is the same that Coach Beamer has, the same percentage. We are told -- you know, I'm not an athletic director. I'm not an expert in athletics. We are told by our attorney and by the athletic department and by the president that that's the nature of the beast. If you go to, you know, Clemson, if you go to Georgia Tech, if you go anywhere else in the SEC, ACC, they all have buyouts. They're all a percentage. I think Coach Sweeney's is tens of millions of dollars if he were fired right now. Obviously he won't be, but it is the nature of the beast is what we are told. I would love to be in a position where we're talking about buyouts.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But you admit that the vote to extend Muschamp's --
MR. WESTBROOK: In retrospect --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- was a mistake?
MR. WESTBROOK: -- retrospect, he -- the program fell off.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Right. Well, I mean, and the process we did with Caslen was a mistake. You admit it was far too contentious, politically charged, right?
MR. WESTBROOK: That's correct. And --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And so, I guess I'm sitting here hearing you admit that y'all have made mistakes, consequential mistakes, and wondering why we ought to reappoint you.
MR. WESTBROOK: Sure. Well, I think you would look at the -- not only the reforms, but also our actions in carrying out those reforms and how the board is operating right now. So I think you look at those things, and there have been corrections that have been made. And I think, you know, historically there have been cultural things. I mean, I'm still the youngest on the board. I've been there for 12 years, and, you know, culturally there are things that have developed over time that have been changed and have been corrected in this last set of reforms.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Thank you.
MR. WESTBROOK: Thank you, Senator.
THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you, Mr. Westbrook.
MR. WESTBROOK: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Next we have C. Edward Floyd. Mr. Floyd, if you would give us your full name, please.
MR. FLOYD: I'm Cecil Edward Floyd.
THE CHAIRMAN: If you'd raise your right hand, I'll swear you in. Cecil Edward Floyd, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
THE CHAIRMAN: Give us a brief statement of why you'd like to serve.
MR. FLOYD: You, know, I love the University of South Carolina. My three children went there, seven grandchildren, and I would like to make a statement in contrast to what's been said about our board of trustees, if that's possible.
THE CHAIRMAN: Sure.
MR. FLOYD: You know, years ago I was elected chairman of the board. excuse me, I'm getting a little hoarse. But at that time -- this was over 20 years ago -- the University of South Carolina could not fill a freshman class of 2,000. I was elected chairman. We took a retreat to Pawley's Island. The reason we went to Pawley's Island was we could house all the board of trustees. We didn't want to spend any money much. We sat down at that meeting, and we planned for the next about 20 years, the board of trustees for the next 20 years and what we were going to do. What we were going to do is this. We were not going to spend our money on administrative buildings. We were going to put money in students, housing, things for our students and to beef up everything. And we came back. The first project the administration wanted to do was an administrative building. We blocked that. We went out, and we worked our fanny off to try to make the university something better. We pushed over the years to buy the property where the new law school is. We bought the hotel. One of our trustees had been on the bankruptcy of the property where the old hotel was up here, a full city block. The trustees negotiated it. We bought that for three and a half million dollars, a full city block with a hotel. The legislature ended up renting two floors a few years later when they redid the Statehouse. We got a lot of money back. Administration wanted to put a welcome center in an old building where the Strom Thurmond Fitness Center is. We blocked that. Under Chairman Hubbard's next leadership they built a Strom Thurmond Fitness. The administration hated fraternities. They didn't want to put the Greek village in. We told them we weren't going to build anymore until we go ahead and build a Greek village. So we advanced all of that. We ended up working to get the new Colonial Life Arena. We built the Colonial Life Arena for -- after everything was said and done, built the Colonial Life Arena with the university putting in 20 million dollars and getting all the property from the City we got. We ended up -- the trustees negotiated over the years -- personally I did a lot of it. When we got the Farmer's Market. We ended up buying the Farmer's Market, and you see what's been done there. You go back, and I want to tell you one of the recent acquisitions that we did. Dr. Smith and myself, the administration was going to buy a property off the old -- where the State Hospital was. They were negotiating to sell our wedge property and get four acres of the property. So anyway, I knew Bob Hughes. I saw Bob Hughes and told him I wanted to negotiate. First I called Dr. Smith, and I said, Dr. Smith, I want to -- I'd like to ask for 20 acres of land for the wedge. He said, you're not going to get that. If we can settle it for 15 acres. So I called back. We negotiated with him, got 20 acres for the wedge. And then he said he didn't -- we talked him out of the wedge. So he just gave us the 20 acres. I mean, the trustees have done a lot for this university. And, you know, we probably made a mistake with Caslen. I made a serious error with it. I was all the way for -- I was all for Caslen, but we had the board meeting, and I saw all the issues. I saw the board fighting with each other, and I had never seen that before in my life. And it upset the hell out of me. And so my recommendation -- well, let's back off this, and why don't we ask William Hubbard to be the interim president. And, you know, the board thought that maybe it would look awful for us to have sitting trustee to be the interim president. And so they settled on our chancellor, and it was a mistake. The votes were there for Caslen to be. If we had gone ahead and voted at that time, it would have saved us a lot of trouble, and I take the blame for that, because I shouldn't have gotten up and done that, but at the present time our university has grown from less than 2,000 freshmen students until we have close to 6,500 in our freshman class. We've got 35,000 students here in Columbia. We've got 52,000 students overall, and we teach a good education. And sure we've made some mistakes, but I do not think our trustees have done that bad. Thank you.

THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you, Dr. Floyd. Staff, any information for us?

MS. WEBB: Dr. Floyd, upon review of your file, I didn't have anything that I saw, but I would ask you to do the same. Can you please confirm your home address for me?
MR. FLOYD: 518 Rosewood Drive.
MS. WEBB: Perfect, thank you. And is this your four percent of six percent?
MR. FLOYD: Four percent.
MS. WEBB: Thank you, sir.
THE CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.
SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you, Dr. Floyd for your willingness to serve. How long have you been on the board?
MR. FLOYD: Since 1982.
SENATOR SCOTT: And you are how old now?
MR. FLOYD: Huh?
SENATOR SCOTT: How old are you now?
MR. FLOYD: I am 87 years old.
SENATOR SCOTT: How much real change have you seen in the board, not necessarily brick and mortar, but actually in the aggressive to move toward being more inclusive of all the South Carolina children that go to the school?
MR. FLOYD: I certainly do. And, you know, I think one thing that goes back in things that happened since I've been there that I think changed a lot -- after I followed -- after you listened to what I said about the chronology, our board was all together. And then after about 15, 16, 17 years, we got real successful, and we started bringing in more and more students. We had a disagreement on the board, and at that time we always came back together. It didn't show like it did with Caslen, but we had three board members, Darla Moore, Mack Whittle, William Hubbard, who wanted to limit the student body. Mr. Wright, myself and a few others wanted to grow our enrollment, thinking full well -- thinking full well that the purpose of the university was for the people of the State of South Carolina. We need to educate the people of the State of South Carolina. We wanted to increase the enrollment, and I think that was a big factor, because if we cut the student body down, it probably -- it'd be probably harder to get more minority students, but as it turned out -- and we got in financial trouble with the -- the country and all got in financial trouble, and our budget got cut. This is the thing that saved the university from really having to cut everything out.
SENATOR SCOTT: You've been on that campus since 1952, graduated in '56.
MR. FLOYD: Right.

SENATOR SCOTT: So you've had a chance to see a lot of different things change on that campus. How much would you say during that tenured time and coming back in '82 -- I think I came over here in '90. I do remember moving across the street in a hotel because we were renovating the Statehouse at the time.
MR. FLOYD: Uh-huh.
SENATOR SCOTT: And you'll remember attitudes and changes and a whole lot of things than my 32 years over here. How much have you really embraced for actually making changes? You've got students who have a really open door policy for all those students to be able to come, along with faculty and staff. Listen, we are recruiting verified 1,000 manufacturing corporates here, coming from every walk of life and from all over the world. We've got to be able to make sure we're a very diverse population, we can meet those needs, not like it was 40 years ago.
MR. FLOYD: I agree.
SENATOR SCOTT: You know, obviously a lot -- you're a bit older than I am, but I been traveling the state since 1975, and I've seen in a lot of cases very little change, change has stalled on these colleges and universities. How much of it would actually say has really changed, and you've been supportive of pushing those changes, because you understand the importance of those changes, not what your beliefs are, but where we are as South Carolina.
MR. FLOYD: You know -- as you know, I'm from Florence, and, you know, I've always -- I've always had a very strong relation with the minority, my minority community in Florence. And I've told you this before. When I came to Florence, we had three hospitals in Florence. My uncles were there, and I was there. In our hospital, we were the only hospital that would give privileges to the only black doctor in Florence, Dr. Beck. He was my friend. He came up here to campaign for me, and we put a statue in front of the medical building in Florence. I'm chairman of the Dr. Bruce and Lee Foundation, and we gave seven and a half million dollars, and one of the requests was they put the statue of Dr. Beck in front of that building. It's still there to this day. And Jim Clyburn -- he was one of Jim Clyburn's mentors. He kind of controlled the Sixth Congressional District. He named the post office after Dr. Beck, and Jim Clyburn sent me the proclamation of naming the post office to me, and it's my office at this time. And I've been on board to make all the changes that I can, and I will pledge to you that I will do even more.
SENATOR SCOTT: And those new changes that --

MR. FLOYD: But I'll have to say, when you're 87 years old, changes are hard --
SENATOR SCOTT: I understand.
MR. FLOYD: -- I mean, I don't text, and I don't email. So, anyway --
SENATOR SCOTT: That's why I asked this. You know, sometime we want things to change and not quite sure how it needs to change, and --
MR. FLOYD: And it's hard -- it's hard sometime.
SENATOR SCOTT: I know it. A more aggressive approach to getting it changed -- you know, sometime you may be standing in the way of change, because you won't change with the times to make those changes.
MR. FLOYD: Well, one thing I want done, and I'm going to push this -- I'm going to push this as hard as I can -- I want a building named on our campus for Jim Clyburn.
SENATOR SCOTT: Y'all can do that. You know, this is something --
MR. FLOYD: No, I'm saying, I hope the Civil Rights building will be named for Jim Clyburn, and I will contribute. I will do whatever's necessary to get it done.
SENATOR SCOTT: You've got other members, though -- and I commend you for that -- you've got other members of the USC family who have been movers and shakers to make things happen. I heard about Dr. Jim Solomon, which was a neighbor of mine --
MR. FLOYD: Right.
SENATOR SCOTT: -- I think y'all are probably close in age. He might be a year or two older than you are and some others. What do you think has taken so long to embrace identifying the Monteiths, which is also part of my district along with Jim Solomon, which is also part, and the other name that was mentioned -- what do you think took so long to embrace those changes at the university?
MR. FLOYD: You know, it's awful, but change --
SENATOR SCOTT: It's the world.
MR. FLOYD: -- and getting things through most bodies takes too long.
SENATOR SCOTT: You know, lots of times when you're changing things, people don't like change, and you don't get to be the one that everybody rally around, but you know what's good for the future generation, and you have to embrace those changes. And I get for the people to like you. You're here to get things done and to move forward. And so I'm just looking for a more progressive board. I know when the previous president was there he talked more about diversity than any president I ever heard coming out of the university, and I saw more things happen. Where were you in those conversations supportive of where you wanted to go, and how did you respond to it? Caslen talked about diversity.

MR. FLOYD: I was supportive of what he did. I thought, you know, we -- we say we got a black guy. I mean, we had a problem when he was elected, and I'll take credit for part of the problem, because we should -- when it came up to the vote to start with, we should have voted it to start with, and it wouldn't have been a problem. And part of that was my problem, but I supported him. I thought he did -- we were lucky, because, I mean, they brought people from Washington to see how we handled the pandemic. I mean, it was a model for how it was managed under him. He also was putting together a cyber security network. Now I don't know if it's going to work without him. South Carolina will get millions of dollars for this. He put it together because that was part of what he was doing. He was working with the government and the Army and so forth for a great cyber security network for that State of South Carolina. Clemson would have been involved, South Carolina State.
SENATOR SCOTT: That's that 115 million dollars y'all needed --
MR. FLOYD: Yeah.
SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you. I'm looking for more and more work --
MR. FLOYD: Thank you.
SENATOR SCOTT: You're there. You're the leadership of that group. They listen to you. If you're progressive, they're going to be progressive.
MR. FLOYD: Thank you, thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Senator Harpootlian.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Dr. Floyd, good to see you again.
MR. FLOYD: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So it is an impressive array of construction projects that you've listed that have defined the physical plan of USC. I'm concerned, not with your construction projects, but with the decisions being made by the board, and I think you're admitted the hiring of Caslen was a mistake; is that correct?
MR. FLOYD: No, I didn't say that. I said the way we handled it was a mistake.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Before you hired him or after you hired him?
MR. FLOYD: No. My point is this. The first time we had the board meeting, we went around, and we were going to vote -- we were going to vote for the next president. Caslen had the votes, more votes than the one vote that you say were lacking -- we won by. I got up in the meeting, and I had never seen the board act like it did at that time, and it upset the hell out of me.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Contentious?
MR. FLOYD: Huh?
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Divided, contentious in the body?
MR. FLOYD: It was contentious. Good word. And I think we should have voted right at that time for him as president. We did him a disservice to go through what we did.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Did you fly to Florida on that plane?
MR. FLOYD: Yes.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And you met with them down there?
MR. FLOYD: Yes.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But you didn't meet with any other candidate like that, did you?
MR. FLOYD: No, I didn't. I was -- I've never been -- I've always avoided being on the search committee of any president.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So why did you go to Florida?
MR. FLOYD: They asked me to go.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Who's they?
MR. FLOYD: The chairman of the search committee asked me to go, and I didn't question.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But you weren't on the search committee?
MR. FLOYD: I was not on the search committee.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Had you met Caslen before?
MR. FLOYD: No.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Had the governor called you about Caslen?
MR. FLOYD: Not at that time.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But he did?
MR. FLOYD: He did.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And why did he think Caslen would be a good president?
MR. FLOYD: Well, he thought he'd be a good president, but, you know, I was for him. I mean, it wasn't -- I mean, he didn't convince me.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And so you ultimately asked that the matter be put off and you hire the interim guy from Upstate? That was your --
MR. FLOYD: Well, I mean, now that was not my recommendation.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: What was your recommendation?

MR. FLOYD: My recommendation was when I did that was -- my recommendation was that we appoint or elect William Hubbard, Dean Hubbard now, as the interim president.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And that didn't happen?
MR. FLOYD: That did not happen.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But they did put the selection process off?
MR. FLOYD: It was put to -- the selection process, and then we asked our chancellor of Upstate -- we asked our chancellor of the Upstate to -- SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. And so as a result of what you did it was put off another 30 days?
MR. FLOYD: Right. Yes.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. And then there was a vote held -- well, first of all, the chairman scheduled a meeting. Charles Williams sued him because he didn't meet the legal requirements to have the meeting, and then --
MR. FLOYD: Well, I was not privy to all of that.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You were not involved in all that?
MR. FLOYD: Yeah.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. When you voted, and I mean, all I'm seeing is a one vote margin in the newspaper reports -- maybe it was two votes, but it was a very divided board; was it not?
MR. FLOYD: Yes.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Did you ever see a board in your 40 years on the board that divided?
MR. FLOYD: No, but you say he won by one vote. You have a sitting president on a major university right now sitting there with one vote, and he's very popular.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Who is that?
MR. FLOYD: Huh?
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Who are you talking about?
MR. FLOYD: Your president of the Medical University was elected by their board by one vote.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Really?
MR. FLOYD: Really.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I was not aware of that. He's still there?
MR. FLOYD: He's still there.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Not like Caslen.
MR. FLOYD: Huh?
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Caslen's gone.
MR. FLOYD: I didn't say he was -- I know he's gone. I'm just saying -

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: He's gone because it was divided --
MR. FLOYD: -- the president --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- but you would concede there was a divided campus, the students, the faculty, even the board was divided about him. And as he said -- let me quote him, "this place sucks." That's your presidential pick, right?
MR. FLOYD: That was my presidential pick.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. Mistake?
MR. FLOYD: Mistake.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. Let me move on to something else then.
MR. FLOYD: But I admit -- you know, I was a problem. I mean, I did -- SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: What?
MR. FLOYD: No. I said, I will admit that I made a mistake. I should have let the vote go through at that time and not --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Picking him was not a mistake?
MR. FLOYD: In retrospect, yes.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. So let's move on to something else.
MR. FLOYD: Okay.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I'm fascinated by this process where -- the athletic director negotiates an extension for a contract for a coach. And I guess when you're voting on something like that, and y'all did that for Muschamp, are you relying totally on the athletic director's opinion that, you know, we give this guy an extension, you know, it's going to be a great thing for the university? I mean, who -- I mean, I know that when I drive by the stadium I see you and your wife's name on a big facility down there, so I imagine with the kind of money you put into it, you keep up with athletics?
MR. FLOYD: Yeah, sure I do.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You're probably an expert on coaches?
MR. FLOYD: No, I'm not an expert.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But what do you look at other than Ray Tanner's recommendation?
MR. FLOYD: Well, you know, you've got a coach's record. You've got all that. Now there's a little misconception. I want to tell you my -- they tell us in small groups about the thing. You have a chance to -- they get a feel for the board's feelings about a contract or anything. I mean, Ray Tanner makes the thing, but I mean, he knows where the board kind of stands. He's not going to put up a contract that most of the board would --

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, does he meet with the board in small groups before he negotiates a contract?
MR. FLOYD: Yeah, yes. Not before. I mean, after they've worked the thing out. I mean, he's not going to bring something that's totally outrageous to the board.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, how does he know what's outrageous?
MR. FLOYD: Well, what he proposes I may think is outrageous.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I'm trying to understand the process. He brings his Muschamp's negotiated extension --
MR. FLOYD: Right.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- that costs several million dollars --
MR. FLOYD: Right.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: -- and ultimately we had to pay that, because he was terminated, but I guess I'm trying to figure out who other than Ray Tanner evaluates -- does the president evaluate that? Does the president recommend the extension? How does --
MR. FLOYD: Now he would have to get the president's approval, probably -- he would, yes, I would think.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And he meets with trustee members?
MR. FLOYD: He would call and let you know what's coming up, and he would get a sense of what the board feels about it.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: By talking to them individually?
MR. FLOYD: Yeah.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I mean, you talk to Ray Tanner from time to time?
MR. FLOYD: Yes.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Do you call him or he calls you?
MR. FLOYD: Half and half probably.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Now he is a department head, right.
MR. FLOYD: Right.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Do you call the head of the chemistry department?
MR. FLOYD: I would if I thought it was necessary.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, what would make calling the head of the chemistry department necessary?
MR. FLOYD: Well, okay, let me give you a good example.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I want one.

MR. FLOYD: We've got a really good lawyer in Florence, and his daddy was a KA with me at the university. He called me and said, my son has been turned down in law school. This has been years ago. And this guy is a guy smart as hell. He had been president of Boy's Nation, all kind of credentials. And I called the dean of the law school.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: William Hubbard?
MR. FLOYD: No.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Prior to William?
MR. FLOYD: Much prior to William.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay.
MR. FLOYD: And I got a call back from the dean in about two weeks, and he said, Dr. Floyd, I really made a big mistake.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: He let him in?
MR. FLOYD: He let him in.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And this was a personal friend of yours?
MR. FLOYD: Yes.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And you called the dean of the law school to help his son out. Do you do that a lot?
MR. FLOYD: To find out. Well, I feel like if you elect me to the board of trustees, I'm a representative with the University of South Carolina for the Sixteenth Judicial Circuit, and I feel like if anybody has a complaint or want me to help their kids any way, I feel like it's my responsibility to help them the best I can.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Even if they objectively couldn't get in, you use your influence to get them in?
MR. FLOYD: I would if I thought they were qualified to do.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Even though their SAT scores and rankings in their high school class didn't qualify them? If you felt that they should get in, they should get in, correct?
MR. FLOYD: Well, I find out -- first thing -- first thing is you've got to check to find out what they tell you is the truth --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, assume that they --
MR. FLOYD: -- and if their parents call you, the majority of time it's not exactly what the facts are, but I've got a secretary that I hire full time that does university things.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: That does what, now? University what?
MR. FLOYD: Things. I mean, you know --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Oh, yeah, okay. I guess what I'm saying is, you get a call from somebody, you know the family, good family, comes from a good background, the kid got turned down by USC law school or undergraduate school, you do what you can to get them in.

MR. FLOYD: I do what -- yes.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Yes, okay. That's all. Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you, Dr. Floyd. Appreciate you hanging around for quite a while.
MR. FLOYD: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Next up is D. Hollis Felkel. If you would just state your full name, please.
MR. FELKEL: Yes, sir. Dal Hollis Felkel II.
THE CHAIRMAN: Just raise your right hand, and I'll swear you in. Dal Hollis Felkel, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
THE CHAIRMAN: Just give us a brief statement on why you're running.
MR. FELKEL: Yes, sir. Thank you. I know it's late in the afternoon, but I have a few comments. First of all, thanks for the opportunity to be with you today. My name's Hollis Felkel, but for those of you have known me for years, it's Chip. You now know that my real name is Hollis, and you know what people who usually call the house to sell me something know, because that's usually the only people that refer to me that way. I'm a 1986 graduate of USC and a son of a 1950 graduate, who's ring I proudly wear. I'm the father of a current student, graduating in May who has been accepted to law school here in the fall and of a daughter who most likely will be attending here in the fall of 2023. So you can imagine that the issue of tuition would be near and dear to my heart as well. I'm an active member and supporter of both the Gamecock Club and Alumni Association, and I've served as both a member and chairman of the board of visitors. I'm seeking to serve from the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit where I have lived for almost three decades, but I am originally a native of Kingstree in Williamsburg County. And I understand the importance of making the opportunity of higher ed available and affordable to all South Carolinians. I'm the owner of two company, a public affairs consultancy founded in 1998. It focuses on communications and messaging, and a software company that focuses in the same arena. My decision to seek this position comes from a genuine concern and a lifelong love, loyalty and appreciation for the university that has shaped me into who I am today. I offer a unique and much needed perspective in the area of communications, messaging, governmental and public affairs as well as crisis management areas where the board and university have struggled. It's my hope that if given the opportunity to serve, I'll be able to offer my 35 years of experience in national politics and working with Fortune 100s and national organizations in dealing with high stakes, high profile issues and decisions that come before this university. I'm glad to be here today, and I look forward to your questions.

THE CHAIRMAN: Staff, any information for us.
MS. WEBB: Mr. Felkel, I don't have anything for you other than can you please state your home address for the record?
MR. FELKEL: 109 Land Grant Drive in Simpsonville, and that is four percent, as that's the only house I've got.
MS. WEBB: Perfect, thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Any questions?
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: One brief. One brief question.
THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, sir, go ahead.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Have you been listening today?
MR. FELKEL: All day, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you, Mr. Felkel. I don't think they've got -- I don't think there's anybody left much to give you a question.
MR. FELKEL: Thank you very much.
THE CHAIRMAN: All right. Next is -- Mr. Carl Brodie Glenn was supposed to be next, but he had leave, so we're going to work him in tomorrow morning. So next we'll go to Reed Thomas Sherard; is that correct?
MR. SHERARD: Close enough. It's Sherard.
THE CHAIRMAN: All right, Sherard, okay. My fault. If you would just for the record state your name, full name.
MR. SHERARD: I am Reed Thomas Sherard.
THE CHAIRMAN: Raise your right hand. Reed Thomas Sherard, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
THE CHAIRMAN: A brief statement, please.
MR. SHERARD: Good afternoon, Chairman Whitmire, Speaker Lucas. Senator Verdin, Senator Harpootlian. Thank y'all for allowing me the privilege to be here. My name is Reed Sherard, and I'm running because I'm the best candidate to help the university fulfill its potential. I'm an experienced lawyer and a dedicated community servant. In addition to leading a team of lawyers and staff at work, I've led the boards in multiple organizations. I know the value of strategic decision making, anticipating the best case, worst case and likely case scenarios, how to allocate limited resources to solve complex problems and how to handle sensitive matters and competing concerns. I focus on solutions to meet priorities, and I build consensus. I am energized by the possibility of serving in this important role. I can bring a fresh perspective to the critical issues facing the university, such as providing an attainable education to South Carolina residents, ensuring a strong financial position in the face of increasing expenses and potentially decrease enrollment in the years to come, increasing diversity and rejecting complacency. I have a diligent work ethic, and I lead by example. If I am fortunate to be elected at 44, I will be the youngest person of a 21 person board. I will be the only board member to have a degree in a year that starts with a two. I finished the honors college in the year 2000 and law school in 2004. I'll be one of only two board members to have a child of elementary school age or younger, and I have two of those. Saving for college and the future of the university is a real thing in the Sherard household. I've been preparing for the opportunity for more than 25 years through my involvement as an undergrad and at law school and as alumni in my service as the head of the Greenville area Alumni Club as well as on the university's board of visitors. It's a privilege to be here today, and I look forward to your questions.

THE CHAIRMAN: Staff, any information for us?

MS. WEBB: No, Mr. Chair, based off review of the package he submitted I don't have anything other than can you please state your home address for the record?

MR. CHERARD: It's Number 19 Southland Avenue in Greenville, and I do receive the four percent residence tax rate at that residence, because like Mr. Felkel said, it's my only residence.

MS. WEBB: Perfect, thank you.

THE CHAIRMAN: Questions?

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: One brief one. Have you been listening today?

MR. SHERARD: I've been here since 10:00 a.m., yes, sir.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Thank you.

THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you, sir.

MR. SHERARD: Thank y'all.

THE CHAIRMAN: Good luck to you. That's it for the University of South Carolina today. We've got two members we'll hear from tomorrow morning. So we will -- our apologies to the Citadel folks. You have been around for a long time, so we'll get you guys now. So first up is Benjamin -- I think I'm pronouncing this -- Dottara (ph) Dixon. For the record, give us your name.

MR. DIXON: Benjamin Dixon.

THE CHAIRMAN: If you raise your right hand, sir, I'll swear you in.

Benjamin Dottara Dixon, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

THE CHAIRMAN: All right, give us a brief statement.
MR. DIXON: Good afternoon and thank you for your time and attention today. I consider it an honor to have an opportunity to be a part of this system as a Board member for the Citadel. While I do appreciate the rich history of the Citadel, I feel that one of the most important missions of the Board of Visitors is to adopt regulations for the organization and good government of the college. I feel this is paramount to the continued success of the Citadel as an educational institution as well as an environment for our next generation to thrive, whether they plan to serve in the military or in the business world. After graduation from the Citadel and prior to my entrance on active duty in 1990, I had the opportunity to work at the Citadel development office on the Mark Clark capital campaign fund. During the three months of active campaigning, the cadet callers that I worked with 4 nights a week raised over 25 million dollars in donations and pledges because of the connection they made with the alumni each night on the phone. I feel this gives me a unique insight into the possibilities available for fund-raising at the Citadel should the need arise. After leaving active duty, I served in the Army Reserve for over 20 years, which I feel gives me a personal understanding of the rigors that accompany the balance of military life with civilian requirements just as cadets must balance their academic and military requirements every day at the Citadel. I feel this is important because whatever decisions we make as leaders of the Citadel must take both of these requirements into account because cadets are never just students nor are they ever just military cadets. They are both all the time.
THE CHAIRMAN: Staff, any information for us?
MS. WEBB: I actually do. So, Mr. Dixon, through your home address you listed originally when you submitted this application as 1688 Lonnie Taylor Lane. However, you also indicated that you pay six percent property tax there. In an addendum to your application, though you state you're in the process of building a home at this address but you're currently residing at 8032 Russell Creek Road in Edisto Island. You did not state exactly what percentage of the property tax was there so can you just clarify for the Commission where you currently are residing, in fact, and what percentage is being paid there?
MR. DIXON: Yes, and my apologies for that. I was over thinking the process. We sold the house on John's Island last year. We are renting on Edisto right now. I bought a piece of property on Wadmalaw that I'm paying six percent and that's where we're going to be building a house.
MS. WEBB: So what is your current address that you reside at?
MR. DIXON: The 8032 Russell Creek Road, Edisto Island.

MS. WEBB: And what percentage do you pay there?
MR. DIXON: We're renting.
MS. WEBB: You're renting?
MR. DIXON: Yes.
THE CHAIRMAN: So you will be -- you will be paying four percent once you build your house?
MR. DIXON: Yes, sir, but currently I'm paying six percent on that right now because that's just --
THE CHAIRMAN: Okay. Questions? He's not here let's go ahead. All right.
SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: All right, thank you, Mr. Dixon.
MR. DIXON: Yes, sir.
THE CHAIRMAN: Good luck to you. Next is Dylan Ward Goff, I believe.
MR. GOFF: Yes, sir, that's me.
THE CHAIRMAN: Okay. If you'll just give us your full name for the record.
MR. GOFF: Good afternoon, sir. I'm Dylan Ward Goff.
THE CHAIRMAN: Okay. Raise your right hand. Dylan Ward Goff, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
THE CHAIRMAN: Okay. Give us a brief statement why you'd like to continue serving.
MR. GOFF: Thank you, sir, and I will be brief. I'm in my twelfth year here on the Citadel Board. I'm the current chairman. And it's a time of renewal and energy at the Citadel. We're building -- just finished building our new school of -- of business and we're building our largest academic building. We're rebuilding Capers Hall. So it's the first time we've had any building going on our campus in a very long time. It's a exciting time. And, Chairman Whitmire, I'm sure you'll appreciate we're going through our SACS reaccreditation. I know you know a little bit about that process. We just celebrated our 179th anniversary this past weekend. For the tenth year, we've been chosen as a top public college in the south. We're the number one college for veterans. We have the 16th engineering program in the country. Top 20 engineering program at a school of our size that's absolutely amazing. We have students from all 50 states, from 23 countries. We have an employment rate of 80 percent before graduation. So before they graduate, 80 percent of our cadets have jobs. Ninety percent of them are employed within 6 months of graduation. And these are -- these are high -- high paying jobs. And I know all of y'all hear the Citadel talk all the time about our four year graduation rate. We have the best graduation -- four year graduation rate in the state. So this is an exciting time to be at the Citadel and it's certainly been an honor and a privilege to serve these last -- these last 12 years. As a personal note for my class, the class of 2002, we were seniors when we watched the twin towers come down on September 11th and, of course, I served in the Army and the Army Reserves and the South Carolina National Guard. And we watched -- all watched Afghanistan come to a conclusion this past year. The young man -- I say he's a young man, he's 42-43 like me, Lieutenant Colonel Eric Cutt who flew the last mission out of Afghanistan evacuating Afghans was my classmate, a Citadel man. Unfortunately, the first person killed in Iraq was also my classmate, First Lieutenant Shane Childers. So I couldn't be more proud to be involved with the Citadel. It certainly is a privilege of a lifetime to serve on this Board and certainly to have my fellow Board members elect me as chairman is incredibly humbling and it's a great opportunity. I really would appreciate the opportunity to serve for another 6 years. I'd like to finish out my time as chairman and I won't be up here running for another 6 years after that. That's 18 years. God bless these people who, I've heard, serve 30, 40 years on these boards. But I believe it's time for someone else to take a -- take a chance. Take a turn. I want to finish out my time as chairman.

THE CHAIRMAN: Staff, any --

MS. WEBB: Mr. Goff, based off your application, I don't have any questions for you. But just same as everyone else, can you please state your home address for me?

MR. GOFF: Yes, ma'am. It's 203 South Wacamaw Columbia, South Carolina 29205. It's four percent. It's the only property I own.

MS. WEBB: Perfect. Thank you.

THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Goff, from one old Army man to a much younger Army man, thank you for your service to our country.

MR. GOFF: Thank you, sir, and same to you.

THE CHAIRMAN: We're very fortunate and to a lot of your other Citadel guys too.

MR. GOFF: Yes, sir.

THE CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: One quick question. As chairman, what are you -- what -- what's going on? The chairman getting that much opposition? What's going on?

MR. GOFF: Yeah, I'll let my opponents speak to that. I think it's just my lot in life, Senator Scott. I've run -- this is my third time running. The first time I had 14 running against me.

SENATOR SCOTT: Right.
MR. GOFF: Second time I had one or two. And this time I drew some opponents as well. But, you know, it's a free country and certainly we don't anything for granted.
SENATOR SCOTT: Something you said or you tried to take the Citadel in another direction?
MR. GOFF: No, sir, I don't --
SENATOR SCOTT: The last chairman we had, last time they got rid of that chairman. So is it every time you become chairman, you know, --
MR. GOFF: I hope not.
SENATOR SCOTT: -- they want to chop you up or something?
MR. GOFF: I hope not. I'll certainly let them answer that but I don't think it's that, no, sir.
SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you.
MR. GOFF: Yes, sir. Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Speaker Lucas.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Mr. Goff, it may be the fact that VMI is starting to beat y'all in football regularly. You think that might be it?
MR. GOFF: It may very well be that. It may very well be that. I had chance with our head coach this weekend and I think we're going to fix that.
THE CHAIRMAN: Senator Verdin, did you have a question?
SENATOR VERDIN: No.
THE CHAIRMAN: All right, thank you, sir.
MR. GOFF: Thank y'all. I appreciate it.
THE CHAIRMAN: All right. We've got one more for the Citadel. That is Kara Irvin. Welcome and if you'll just give your full name for the record.
MS. IRVIN: Kara Michelle Irvin.
THE CHAIRMAN: Okay, raise your right hand. Kara Michelle Irvin, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
THE CHAIRMAN: Why don't you give us a brief statement on why you'd like to be at Citadel.
MS. IRVIN: Sure. Thank you so much for this opportunity. I am 38 years old. I've lived most of my life in Charleston. I'm the proud daughter of a Vietnam Vet. I graduated from the Citadel in 2005 with a major in English and when I graduated, I always knew I wanted to give back. I didn't know how that would be. I knew, I wanted to, you know, do some monetary giving back but something else. So when I saw this seat open up in November, it kind of called my name. Looking into, you know, a little bit more, there is no female alumni from the Corps on the Board of Visitors, which to me, I think is very important to have a female on the Board that went through it, the whole system. You know, I think that that would be a big diversity and push towards, you know, giving more diversity to the school.

THE CHAIRMAN: Staff, any information on Ms. Irvin?
MS. WEBB: I have just one question for you. So upon reviewing your application, part of the credit report check that we did, there was a debt collection for a medical treatment and it stated that you disputed that and the balance owed was 200. Otherwise, your credit report was good. Do you know if that has been clarified since or if that is --
MS. IRVIN: It has not yet. It's still up for debate.
MS. WEBB: It's still in dispute?
MS. IRVIN: Yeah.
MS. WEBB: Okay. That's all I have. And the only other thing is if you could please state your address for the record.
MS. IRVIN: Yep. 3272 Starlit Avenue, North Charleston 29420.
MS. WEBB: Perfect. And do you pay your four percent at this?
MS. IRVIN: I do.
MS. WEBB: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Questions for Ms. Irvin? Senator Scott.
SENATOR SCOTT: Just one quick question. Why did you decide to run? I know about the female part and run against the seated chairman? What's that all about?
MS. IRVIN: You know, I wanted -- I think that I can - - I think I have a lot to give to this school. I think that, you know, -- pretty much when I graduated from the Citadel, I went into the civilian workforce and have worked at the same law firm for 17 years. I think my life experiences along with the Citadel and everything that's come from that can pretty much prepare me to handle anything.
SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you.
SENATOR VERDIN: Mr. Chairman.
THE CHAIRMAN: Senator Verdin?
SENATOR VERDIN: would you entertain a motion for favorable report on all three candidacies?
THE CHAIRMAN: I certainly would. There's with motion to for favorable report for all three.
SENATOR SCOTT: Second.
THE CHAIRMAN: There's a second. Did you have a question?
SENATOR SCOTT: Second.

THE CHAIRMAN: Second, okay. All those in favor, signify by raising your right hand. Okay. All of you heard, favorable. Okay, tomorrow morning 10:00, we've got one Lander, two USC.
MS. WEBB: One Lander, two USC.
THE CHAIRMAN: And Wil Lou Gray which shouldn't be any problem at all. Then we may have to talk about some issues.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So we're going to start at 10:00?
THE CHAIRMAN: Yeah. You think that's enough time? We can come earlier.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: No. I mean we've got -- we've got caucus at 11:00 but --
THE CHAIRMAN: Let's start at 9:30. Is that all right?
SENATOR SCOTT: Ten's fine.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You going to drive back?
SENATOR VERDIN: I've got a 7:30 appointment in Laurens.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Ten's fine.
THE CHAIRMAN: 10:00? That okay? Thank you, guys.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Thank you. (There being no further questions, the deposition concluded at 6:00 p.m.)

COLLEGE AND UNIVERSITY TRUSTEE SCREENING COMMISSION

Time: 10:09 A.M.
Location: 110 Blatt Building
1105 Pendleton Street
Columbia, South Carolina 29201

APPEARANCES:
Chairman: William R. Whitmire
Senate Members:
Richard A. Harpootlian
Daniel B. Verdin
John L. Scott
Thomas C. Alexander
House Members:

John King
James H. Lucas
Kirkman Finlay

Committee Staff:
Macey Webb, Esquire

THE CHAIRMAN: Welcome to the College and Trustee Screening Committee's meeting this morning. We've had several people who could not be here yesterday and we had to carry some over some others. So we'll try to get to these as quickly as possible. The first person up is from Lander University, Marcia T. Hydrick. If you'll come up on to the well please. And when you get there, just give us your -- for the record, your full name.
MS. HYDRICK: My name is Marcia Thrift Hydrick.
THE CHAIRMAN: All right, if you would raise your right hand. Let me swear you in. Marcia Thrift Hydrick, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows;
THE CHAIRMAN: If you'll give us a brief statement on why you'd like to continue serving on the Lander Board.
MS. HYDRICK: Okay. Well, first of all, I'd like to thank you for being here another day.
THE CHAIRMAN: Could you get up little closer there?
MS. HYDRICK: Yes. Is that good?
COURT REPORTER: Yes, ma'am.
MS. HYDRICK: Thank you for being here another day. I apologize for not being able to attend yesterday due to my schedule. Like I say, I'm from Oconee County. I live in Seneca, South Carolina. It's been a privilege for me to serve on the Board of Trustees for almost eight years now. I am a Lander alumni. I graduated in 1981 and kept in touch with many of my friends. And it's just an honor for me to give back the educational part of things to the university. As far as being in private business, I feel like I've been able to bring about the area of -- in the private business area of what it takes to run a college and I feel like that is like running a business. It takes hard work ethics, accountability and those are things I really admire in the president that we have at Lander. He's really grown our university since 2015 and almost like drinking out of a fire hose, it's happened so -- so quickly. But a blessing for many students that have crossed over for graduation and so forth. So thank you for allowing me to be here and to serve.

THE CHAIRMAN: Staff, do you have any information about Ms. Hydrick?
MS. WEBB: Good morning, Ms. Hydrick. Upon review of your file, I don't have any questions for you but as we did yesterday, I'm going to ask for the record, can you please confirm what your home address is?
MS. HYDRICK: Yes, ma'am. It's 114 Sunnyview Drive, Seneca, South Carolina.
MS. WEBB: Perfect. Thank you. And do you pay your four percent or six percent property tax at this address?
MS. HYDRICK: Four percent.
MS. WEBB: Thank you, ma'am.
MS. HYDRICK: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Any questions by our committee members? Senator Scott.
SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you so much for your willingness to serve. I'm impressed with the president of Thrift Brothers. Tell me a little bit about that company. Are you the founder of that company or your spouse?
MS. HYDRICK: Well, I'll give you the cliff notes version.
SENATOR SCOTT: Okay.
MS. HYDRICK: My father and his twin brother started this company 60 plus years ago and I had the privilege of working beside them for 38 years.
SENATOR SCOTT: Okay. Thank you. Tell me what -- what y'all --
MS. HYDRICK: We are general contractors. Thrift Brothers, Incorporated, does commercial and we were road builders until 2003. We did federal and state highway work. And I worked alongside with my father in the bidding process and building of those roads in -- in the upstate.
SENATOR SCOTT: We appreciate your willingness to serve. Your college is doing very well. Business people like yourself brings that -- that wealth of knowledge and experience that makes a college grow. Thank you so much.
MS. HYDRICK: Thank you, Senator Scott.
THE CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott, let me echo something about Thrift Brothers. They have been an outstanding company, not only in Oconee County, but throughout the upstate -- actually, the state. And just a side note, I'm a member of St. Luke Methodist Church in Walhalla. About 12 years ago, our church burned to the ground and it was a real mess, I mean. And her dad came up there at very reasonably, just at his cost, cleared the whole thing for us. Thrift Brothers did that for a lot of different people up there. So I have nothing but the highest regard for the company.

MS. HYDRICK: Those are very large shoes that -- that we could never fill. We miss them greatly. They both have since passed.
THE CHAIRMAN: I remember I had a meeting at a restaurant in Seneca and it was -- it was a coffee club and I got there about 6:30 in the morning. Which was early, I thought. And I saw your dad and his brother sitting there. They'd already been there an hour and they said yep, we're used to getting up about 4:00 in the morning or something. So they -- they were go- getters and very successful.
MS. HYDRICK: Well, thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Any other questions?
REPRESENTATIVE KING: I have one, yes.
THE CHAIRMAN: Representative King.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Just a quick question. I noticed that you all have done a pretty good job in reference to diversity --
MS. HYDRICK: Yes, sir.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: -- of your campus and your students. What do you think you need to do further to build upon that as a board member in your capacity?
MS. HYDRICK: You know, we do have a diversity advisory committee that is made up of students, faculty, staff, board members, and some people from the local community. I feel like that communication is huge. Education is huge. I think it's a wide spectrum of components that need to be continuously addressed. And shared not only out of that group of that committee but to bring back to the administration the pros and the cons that exists and where we need to go for the future.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you.
MS. HYDRICK: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Any other questions. Senator Scott.
SENATOR SCOTT: Motion.
THE CHAIRMAN: Oh, motion. Senator Scott for makes a motion for approval. Is there a second?
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Second.
THE CHAIRMAN: All those in favor, please raise your right hand. Okay, and I have proxy for President Alexander. He made me make sure that he said aye also.
MS. HYDRICK: Okay. Thank you all so much. I do appreciate your time.
THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you for your service.

MS. HYDRICK: Thank you. It's an honor.
THE CHAIRMAN: All right, next up is from the University of South Carolina. J. Patrick Anderson. And if you would, for the record, give us your full name.
MR. ANDERSON: Yes, sir. Joseph Patrick Anderson.
THE CHAIRMAN: If you would raise your right hand, I'll swear you in. J. Patrick Anderson, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
THE CHAIRMAN: Give us a brief statement why you'd like to serve on the USC board.
MR. ANDERSON: Yes, sir. First, Mr. Chairman and members of the committee, I want to thank you folks for accommodating me. I had a court hearing yesterday and I know it's like herding cats to probably get everyone here today but I'm appreciative of that. In the pack that I submitted, I used the word formative to describe my experience at the University of South Carolina. I meant that in the broadest sense. I met my wife at Columbia, or USC rather. She's a graduate, as well, just like me. And the education that I obtained at the university has literally served as the springboard by which I'm able to go to work everyday, go to my law practice everyday, provide for my family, my wife and my two young boys. And in the simplest terms I am thankful for that education. So, you know, my simple thought on the matter is if I can help in any way, shape, or form I'm willing to do it and that's why I'm here.
THE CHAIRMAN: Staff, any information on Mr. Anderson?
MS. WEBB: Good morning, Mr. Anderson. Upon reviewing your file, I don't have any specific questions for you. But just as with everyone else, can you please confirm your home address for the record?
MR. ANDERSON: Absolutely. It's 98 Pennell Drive Spartanburg, South Carolina.
MS. WEBB: Okay. And do you pay your four percent or six percent property taxes at this address?
MR. ANDERSON: Four percent.
MS. WEBB: Thank you.
MR. ANDERSON: You're welcome.
THE CHAIRMAN: Any questions? Senator Harpootlian.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Sir, tell me why you're running for the Board of USC. What -- what prompted you to do this? Have you ever run before?
MR. ANDERSON: I have not. I have not.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So why -- why now?

MR. ANDERSON: It's funny how these things can start. You, you know, go have a drink with some friends or just in conversation or wherever you may be and something like this comes up. People start talking about vacancies and who might run and who might not run. And then it seems that someone -- well, at least in my instance, suggested my name. I'd never given it a passing though. You know, I've grown up around the university my entire life going back to when I was a little kid going to games and just being involved, you know, for a very long time. So someone said to me you should consider running. I thought about it. I hemmed and hawed for quite a while and at the end of the day, I said why not? If I can help, I'm there.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Did you watch any of the -- or were you here yesterday for any of the testimony by the incumbent members of the voice?
MR. ANDERSON: No, sir, I was in my office but I was listening to the audio.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Do you have any opinions about what we heard yesterday?
MR. ANDERSON: It was enlightening. I'll say that much.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Enlightening?
MR. ANDERSON: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. In a good way or a bad way?
MR. ANDERSON: Well, I would say in a good way. I mean, one thought I've had throughout this process is, you know, whether I'm successful or whether I go down in flames, it's going to be a learning experience. And I think anyone who comes into this position or seeking this position has to have an open mind and understand that you're going to learn and you're going to have to learn, and you're going to have to always keep an open mind. So that certainly holds true for me yesterday when listening to all of this.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Thank you.
MR. ANDERSON: You're welcome.
THE CHAIRMAN: Speaker Lucas.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Mr. Anderson, thank you for being here today. Thank you for willingness to serve on the Board of Trustees. Tell me, if you would, what your belief is for a proper role of a trustee at on the University of South Carolina Board?
MR. ANDERSON: Yes, sir. And, you know, the packet asked a similar question, I believe. And, a lawyer -- I would say an honest lawyer admits if he doesn't know the answer to something, he looks it up. So it's essentially to implement policy - - implement, if I can say that word. I don't believe it extends to be involved in or interfere in the day-to-day operation of the university. That's up to the president, and the staff, and the other employees but, essentially, to implement policy to guide as needed and to further the mission of the university. Continue with the growth and all the positive -- positive changes that we have seen.

SPEAKER LUCAS: Thank you.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: I have a question.
MR. ANDERSON: Yes, sir
THE CHAIRMAN: Representative King.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. My line of questioning has been the same in reference to diversity.
MR. ANDERSON: Yes, sir.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: What would you as a board member do to promote diversity, not only in the student body, but in the senior administrates at the campus -- at the college.
MR. ANDERSON: Yes, sir. I would say first the diversity is essential and the way I've thought about it always is that if I was only raised and around folks who look like me, talk like me, sounded like me, from similar backgrounds, I would not be the person I am today. Which is to say, I would be pretty ignorant. Maybe I am pretty ignorant. I don't know. But you have to take that into consideration and implement policies that promote inclusiveness and continue that mission forward. You know, I don't think it's ever a done job. You have to always continue pushing forward and improve on where you already have gotten. And just move forward in the best way you can.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you.
MR. ANDERSON: Yes, sir.
THE CHAIRMAN: Representative Finlay.
REPRESENTATIVE FINLAY: You know, I heard your -- your answer to the question the Board's role and I want to make sure that you understand the history that Representative King and I have been discussing. The University of South Carolina currently on campus has, roughly, the same number of African American students that it did 20, 30 years. But please understand that what you said is nice but it was decision by the Board to grow the school and to specifically grow the school with out-of-state students. It has increased the size of the school while, in essence, capping in- state African-American attendees. So what I think the struggle that the Board is getting ready to engage is how do you increase African- American participation when you've, in essence, become hooked on a revenue stream from out-of- state students. Only half of them are paying full boat. So while those are all good words, it is going to be policy from the Board that is going to require -- that is going to be required to make those changes. And understand that that policy is also going to involve controlling costs because the whole point of bringing in out-of- state students paying full fare was to drive revenue. Well, 75 to 80 percent of your cost is HR. Payroll. Benefits. So the question very quickly is going to become are you willing to control those costs because without that, you never can balance your budget. Now what we've seen is a university that has not been willing to do that. I'd love to hear your thoughts on that. I mean, it's -- it's pretty simple.

MR. ANDERSON: And I would agree. I mean, everyone has to balance their checkbook, right. You know, we run a small shop. I have a law partner and we have a couple of staff members but within the last two weeks -- I know this is a small example but the logic still applies -- we had to get a roof. And we have to look at numbers on a continuing, regular basis. Senator Harpootlian asked if I was here yesterday and, of course, I said I listened but I was a bit shocked not being in the know about the numbers and the math involved about well, the Muschamp buyout, as a very over-the-top example. I don't see how any organization can expect to progress if they're not willing to look at the basic numbers and the math.

THE CHAIRMAN: Any others?

REPRESENTATIVE FINLAY: One more if you don't mind.

THE CHAIRMAN: Oh, you have another question?

REPRESENTATIVE FINLAY: I think it was reference made yesterday to buy-outs of president's staff. There was -- there was coaching but I also think maybe there was reference made to the staff in the president's office.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Unclear.

REPRESENTATIVE FINLAY: Unclear. If you're a Board member, would that be something that you would condone? In other words, creating a system where top administrators have buy-outs in their contracts?

MR. ANDERSON: I look at it from my perspective as an attorney and, of course, you have to kind of rewind the clock to think about how those contracts were approved in the first place. And if I'm advocating for and looking after the best interest of the university, I would not have been a fan of those, no.

REPRESENTATIVE FINLAY: So that's no?

MR. ANDERSON: Correct.

REPRESENTATIVE FINLAY: Thank you.

THE CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.
SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you so much for your willingness to serve.
MR. ANDERSON: Yes, sir.
SENATOR SCOTT: I see for a while you were in the Seventh Circuit Solicitor's Office.
MR. ANDERSON: I was.
SENATOR SCOTT: From 2008 to 2011.
MR. ANDERSON: Yes, sir.
SENATOR SCOTT: How diverse was that -- was that group in the Solicitor's office?
MR. ANDERSON: I would say it was --
SENATOR SCOTT: That's Spartanburg, right?
MR. ANDERSON: Yes, sir. Yes, sir. And I would say it was very diverse. Solicitor Gowdy, as I still call him, --
SENATOR SCOTT: Trey, I know Trey.
MR. ANDERSON: Yes, sir. Yes, sir. I think he did a great job and honestly, loved the job. I considered staying longer but with a young family and student loans, and this is not Trey's fault, but, --
SENATOR SCOTT: Right.
MR. ANDERSON: -- you know, we didn't quite have the budget to get me where I needed to get.
SENATOR SCOTT: Did you learn anything in terms of working within the group of a diverse population that transferred to your knowledge base especially looking at an operation that's over a billion dollar operation at USC. Something you carried, for example, -- you said -- you mentioned earlier you work for a -- your firm is a very small firm.
MR. ANDERSON: Yes, sir.
SENATOR SCOTT: So I don't know if it's diverse or not but you've had a chance to work in a very diverse population. Is there any transferable knowledge you learned from that office you think that will -- will assist you in doing -- if you're elected to the Board?
MR. ANDERSON: Absolutely.
SENATOR SCOTT: Share it with us, please.
MR. ANDERSON: Yes, sir. The entire experience was, obviously, a learning experience, and I was a very young attorney almost freshly out of law school. I clerked for Judge Mark Hayes prior to that but I have absolutely no regrets starting out as a young solicitor because of, you know, the fact that you're going to hit the ground running. And Trey told me that -- he came down and actually interviewed me. It was kind of funny. I called him, I said just following up. I'd love to work for you. He said I'll come to you and then three minutes later, he was in my office in Judge Hayes' chambers. But he said if you don't want to be in a courtroom, if you don't want to learn, if you don't want to be around a bunch of folks who are willing to help you, it's essentially a family, then this is not the job for you. But you're going to hit the ground running 100 miles an hour. You're going to be in a courtroom. You're going to try cases. You're going to learn things. I think I used the word growth earlier but during my tenure there, I very much grew in all respects.

SENATOR SCOTT: Did y'all have any African American lawyers in--
MR. ANDERSON: We did, yeah.
SENATOR SCOTT: Okay. And your relationship with them?
MR. ANDERSON: It was great. I still see some of them. A lot of folks have moved on. You know, you have sort of career prosecutors or lifers and then some folks there are for a couple of years, maybe five or six. Almost everyone has moved on but I still see those folks around the courthouse. Good relationships. I mean, I can honestly say that there was not a negative relationship that I had while working there.
SENATOR SCOTT: Thanks.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Mr. Chairman.
THE CHAIRMAN: Senator Harpootlian.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I just have to ask this because it's apparently a theme of our guests today. Did you play high school athletics?
MR. ANDERSON: I did.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: What did you play?
MR. ANDERSON: I played baseball and football.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And football?
MR. ANDERSON: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: College did you play either one of those?
MR. ANDERSON: No, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So your experience with football, baseball is based on your high school experience?
MR. ANDERSON: That's correct.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Do you feel you're qualified to advise the athletic director on who a good coach would be for any of those sports?
MR. ANDERSON: The honest answer is no.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Do you have any plans to -- to educate yourself so to become an expert in the hiring or firing of football or baseball coaches?
MR. ANDERSON: I believe that would be very specialized and I do not foresee that in my future, no.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So would you defer to the athletic director?
MR. ANDERSON: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: If he called you and said what do you think about Coach so and so -- and we've heard testimony yesterday. What's your response to that?
MR. ANDERSON: I suppose I would give him my thoughts on --
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well, how would you know?
MR. ANDERSON: Probably just -- just based on what I've read.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Read in the newspaper?
MR. ANDERSON: Yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Or maybe you would restrain and just say it's your call, Mr. Tanner.
MR. ANDERSON: That's possible too, yeah.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Wouldn't that be the best thing to do?
MR. ANDERSON: To defer to his expertise, yes, sir.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Right. Okay, thank you.
MR. ANDERSON: You're welcome.
THE CHAIRMAN: What's the desire of the committee?
SENATOR SCOTT: Favorable.
THE CHAIRMAN: Approval. Is there a second?
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Second.
THE CHAIRMAN: All those in favor, please signify by raising your -- SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Hold, hold, hold --
THE CHAIRMAN: We've got -- You've got another one?
SENATOR SCOTT: USC had a motion to hold on it.
THE CHAIRMAN: That's right.
SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: I erred there. Let me hold off on USC.
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Right. Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you, sir.
MR. ANDERSON: Thank y'all.
THE CHAIRMAN: We'll take you up at a later date. All right, the next one is C. Brody Glenn. If you'll give your first -- full name for the record, please, sir.
MR. GLENN: All right. Yes, sir, I'm Carl Brody Glenn.
THE CHAIRMAN: If you'll raise your right hand, I'll swear you in.
Carl Brody Glenn having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
THE CHAIRMAN: Give a brief statement why you'd like to serve on the Board.

MR. GLENN: First of all, I'd like to thank y'all for accommodating my schedule. I was here yesterday but had a commitment with my daughter in Greenville at 7:00 so I had to leave early. As far as serving on the Board for the University of South Carolina, I had the opportunity to be Chairman of the City of Greenville Planning Commission for -- for many years. It was something that was very beneficial to me but also, I was able to see how I could help and bring my knowledge as a real estate developer and try to approve my hometown. I served on the board for over ten years. I was Chairman of the Planning Commission for over ten years. And I feel like that was something that now looking back my guidance helped Greenville to what it is. Certainly, it was a whole team effort but it was something that I had to play some role in. I'd like to do the same for the University of South Carolina that gave me so much.
THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you, sir. Staff, any information?
MS. WEBB: Good morning, Mr. Glenn. Upon review of your file, I don't have any specific questions for you but, just as everyone else, can you please state your home address for the record?
MR. GLENN: Of course. 12 Woodland Way Circle Greenville, South Carolina. And I pay four percent.
MS. WEBB: Perfect. Thank you.
MR. GLENN: You got it.
THE CHAIRMAN: Questions? Representative Finlay.
REPRESENTATIVE FINLAY: I hear you say that you're a developer. Is that correct?
MR. GLENN: Yes, sir.
REPRESENTATIVE FINLAY: Do you think the university has a role in development or should that be left more to private developers and things like capital leases be involved versus attempting to put state's credit?
MR. GLENN: So I think there's a way to do things that does not put the -- I think that's one of the things that I can really help is you don't have to put the state's credit involved as far as finding a way to make a real estate development as risk adverse as possible. And if the university is involved, the university is -- is bringing the students, they're bringing the income, they're bringing all that. And therefore, they're risk tolerance should be different than a developer. The developer is the one that should -- the private sector should take that risk and it's all how you structure that deal. So how do you find a way to structure the deal so that the state, the university's credit is not involved? And at times it may be using the Foundation or using some other element that the university still has that income through an endowment or the Foundation. But it's all how you structure the deal and all how you finance it.

REPRESENTATIVE FINLAY: Did I hear -- I heard you mention you wanted to make -- you'd watched Greenville develop. Do you think Greenville would have developed as well if it had as much property off property tax roles because of the Foundation's and university's avaricious gobbling of the property and immediately taking it off the tax roles? Because it seems to me as I hear you discuss putting stuff into the Foundation, that immediately in many regards becomes non taxed. So you have a city attempting to provide services for the university, and I'm not denying that the university does a lot for USC but it immediately destroys another huge part of the tax base.

MR. GLENN: Right. So when I say using the Foundation, I'm talking about using the credit -- making sure the university's credit's not involved. And so in Greenville what we did -- I was the developer for the baseball stadium. I was also the developer for Camp -- the new Camper down right across from the Peace Center. We developed many of the buildings up there. We did a lot of public private partnerships and the goal was not to take stuff off the tax role. The goal was to create income for the tax role. And if we hadn't created income for the tax role, then we wouldn't have had money to put back into downtown to have -- to help downtown prosper.

REPRESENTATIVE FINLAY: So what I've noticed -- I served on the city council here and I've lived here my whole life is that --

MR. GLENN: For the city of Columbia?

REPRESENTATIVE FINLAY: Yes, sir.

MR. GLENN: Great.

REPRESENTATIVE FINLAY: Unfortunately, what we discuss as public private, quite frequently is that the private makes the profit.

MR. GLENN: Right.

REPRESENTATIVE FINLAY: And the public takes the hit.

MR. GLENN: Right. And it should not be that way. I mean, it should be -- the university is a great driver of income -- should be a great driver of income for Columbia and it's how do you structure those deals. In Greenville what we did is we took all the buildings and made all the buildings private. Therefore, we created income for the city. And we took all the parking garages and most of the parking garages are public. And that's how we'd structure a lot of the public private stuff. Most of my development is out of the state of South Carolina. We've got 30 projects going throughout the country all the way Arizona, Nevada and dealing with every jurisdiction is different and trying to figure out what each jurisdiction's goals are is different.

THE CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.
SENATOR SCOTT: It sounds like you run a pretty large organization in terms of what you're doing. I've been in -- I've been in Greenville and y'all are just growing so rapidly. How diverse is your company?
MR. GLENN: So our -- you know, surprisingly, people think that we have a large company. So we only have nine employees.
SENATOR SCOTT: You're subcontracting all your work out?
MR. GLENN: We subcontract a lot of work out. Of course, we do not build it but we hire consultants from architects, engineers. So our group --
SENATOR SCOTT: And in that process are you using diverse and contract relationships with minority participation. Since you're doing that volume of work, how diverse has that been in terms of your policy?
MR. GLENN: So as far as our consultants, our consultants we take on -- on the road with us when we go outside of Greenville. We do not have the diversity -- really, the consultants we've been working with, I've been working with for 20 years or so and it's up to those guys who they hire. From a diversity standpoint, in our business I'd like to see more diversity.
SENATOR SCOTT: So necessary, there's no diversity blueprint in terms of your policy because you're the president and I guess president see over the operations. In terms of you writing contracts, you can make indication in contract what -- what you're actually looking for. Because I'm looking for some diverse experience because you'll be operating a billion some odd dollar industry --
MR. GLENN: All right --
SENATOR SCOTT: -- where diversity's very important. Having some knowledge and footprint and having some kind of feel of how important that is, you know, to continue to grow.
MR. GLENN: Absolutely. So I'll tell you something. My -- my partner. We're doing a big self-storage platform throughout the country. My partner is an African-American and somebody that I deal with and talk with everyday. He is a leader in diversity. He's creating different programs throughout. He's a guy out of Atlanta. Very successful business guy. And I lean on him lots of times with that. Like I said, we don't have a diversity program in place. Diversity is something that is extremely important and it starts at the foundation, especially in education. How do you -- you know, from listening to the conversations yesterday, if I remember correctly 10.5 percent of our students are African-American, 5.5 percent of our faculty --

SENATOR SCOTT: That's if you look at all of the schools that you have. But look at the Columbia campus, which has been the main focus, I think five percent or six percent.

MR. GLENN: Right. Which -- so, you know, the private sector we set goals. So this is a goal that's clear. We need to try to educate and make sure we educate more African-Americans. And so in my opinion -- I'm friends with a lot of people on different university boards throughout the country, and it's going looking at what's succeeded. How have you succeeded in doing this and trying to take different examples of what's worked. I mean, it might be going all the way into grade school and high school to try to help build the foundation to have more people come. And the faculty is pretty simple. You know, it's the hiring and firing of policies and how we're going to deal with that. But really and truly, like we had in the City of Greenville, you have to have a long view. And so the long view is this is what our goal is and this is what we're going to do in the short term. But this is how we're going to try to help in the long term. And like I said, it's the Foundation. It's going back to make sure we're getting the right students, we're recruiting --

SENATOR SCOTT: Mr. Glenn, if you look at Clemson, they're noted for engineering, ICAD, UCat. USC's Darla Moore School of Business, Business and Development. And these are some of the best and brightest minds you're up here trying to attract into a business school and looking at business people going on that Board what impact will they have in terms of decision making, the best way the grow the Donald School of Business? Is it to be just a local School of Business? A national School of Business? An international School of Business? I think you're looking more global, international. The behavior of the direction that the School of Business is going into is very important and somebody's got to set the tone in terms of are we going to meet the needs of the industry, especially with all these corporations coming and looking for us to develop the players that go to it, we've got to make sure that our emphasis are where they need to be it. It's not. Other schools -- University of Georgia, North Carolina they're going to take those people and they're going to put them -- become your competitor to come back to the same jobs you're going out of state to try to get.

MR. GLENN: Right. And I went to University of Georgia and got my MBA. But yeah, I mean, the - - there's a lot -- education is important. Also who we surround students with is important because students learn from each other and having the purpose of having a diverse background is not just for the African-American student. It's also -- that benefits everybody else because that's who you're going to deal with in society.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you, sir.
THE CHAIRMAN: Anyone else? What's the desire of the committee for approval?
SENATOR SCOTT: No. No. Thank you.
MR. GLENN: Thank y'all.
THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you. So used to saying that. All right, Wil Lou Gray Opportunity School. First is J. Blake Lindsey. You can come on up. For the record, give your name -- full name, please, sir.
MR. LINDSEY: My name is Jeffery Blake Lindsey.
THE CHAIRMAN: If you'll raise your right hand. Jeffrey Blake Lindsey, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:
THE CHAIRMAN: All right. If you'll give a brief statement why you'd like to serve on the Wil Lou Gray.
MR. LINDSEY: Well, my pleasure to be here this morning, first of all and I thank you for the opportunity to do so. This is my first time to ever apply for a Board position and you could probably understand my little bit of apprehension in standing before you gentlemen. My experience from Wil Lou Gray, basically, what I would call in the trenches. I worked at -- not worked but I was a volunteer at Wil Lou Gray for three and a half years and I became very involved in the lives of the young people that were part of that school situation. And it became incumbent on me as my thoughts toward this increased and increased. That I would love to be involved in helping this nitch school because that's what it is. It fills a nitch. And to me, my -- the opportunity for me as I continue to work with these young people, specifically, is that I would hope to have that opportunity and I explored that opportunity, and as a result, found out about the opening and applied accordingly. And that is my hope that it be the pleasure of the Board to allow me to serve with this group.
THE CHAIRMAN: Questions? Senator Scott.
SENATOR SCOTT: I'm looking at your -- your resume or your information you sent us. Risk Consultant, Inc. Tell me a little bit about that operation.
MR. LINDSEY: Which one is it now?
SENATOR SCOTT: Past employment history. Risk Consultants, Inc.
MR. LINDSEY: Yes, sir. I --
SENATOR SCOTT: Ten years.

MR. LINDSEY: Yes, sir. I was a safety and risk consultant. They were based out of Atlanta. I worked remotely and I traveled the country doing safety and risk control audits for various and sundry types of businesses from manufacturing to construction to schools. My specific involvement with schools was both property and general liability coverage exposures. So that's what -- principally what my involvement was there.

SENATOR SCOTT: Tell me about Midlands Technical College. You seem to be very bright and pretty sharp and especially to get your insurance license. I know how difficult that was even back when you took the exam. I mean, what happened you decided that Midlands -- Midlands Technical College criminal just was the degree -- you decided it was too slow for you? Something else a little more aggressive?

MR. LINDSEY: Well, at the time, I was married and had some small children and my career in the area of law enforcement, I started there but because of just demands of the family --

SENATOR SCOTT: Right.

MR. LINDSEY: -- it preempted that and so I was not able to complete that. I wish I would have but time did not afford me that accordingly.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you. Thank you, Mr. Chairman, thank you.

MR. LINDSEY: Thank you, sir.

THE CHAIRMAN: Anybody else. Well, I finally get to say it. What's the desire of the committee?

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Motion to approve.

THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE FINLAY: Second.

THE CHAIRMAN: All those in favor, signify by aye. Congratulations. Let me tell you, don't ask for any commitments from any legislator until you hear from Macey.

MR. LINDSEY: Very good, sir.

THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you.

MR. LINDSEY: Thank you.

THE CHAIRMAN: And our last person for Wil Lou Gray is Marilyn E. Taylor. Good morning, and for the record, if you'd give your full name, please.

MS. TAYLOR: Good morning. Marilyn Edwards Taylor.

THE CHAIRMAN: If you'll raise your right hand, I'll swear you in. Marilyn Edwards Taylor, having been first duly sworn, was examined and testified as follows:

THE CHAIRMAN: Brief statement on why you'd like to serve for Wil Lou Gray.
MS. TAYLOR: Well, I have been on the Board for a number of years and my motivation to continue has not changed and it's strictly because of the mission of the school and Dr. Gray. It's a very simple mission but it has been very impactful to a lot -- a lot of students. Her goal was to help at risk kids. Kids who have made mistakes, who have had some obstacles and really encourage these kids that, you know, you can make mistakes. You can have obstacles. But if you can move past it, there's some other -- other opportunities on the other side that often times can allow you to be successful. And for over 100 years, she has been able to, you know, leave her mark and allow the school to perform in that kind of excellence and who wouldn't want to be a part of that and continue to be a part of that? So that is my main reason for pursuing the Board.
THE CHAIRMAN: Questions? Senator Scott.
SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you so much for your willingness to serve. I also noticed that you not only have an undergraduate degree but a Master's degree. In talking with young people and trying to get them to pursue other degrees or even technical schools, four year, how successful has that been for those at-risk kids that have turned their lives around? Even going into the military when you have those conversations?
MS. TAYLOR: I'm sorry. Could you repeat that for me again?
SENATOR SCOTT: Youngsters -- young people who come through -- mostly trying to get a GED get out and when we get the statutory language for tech schools, they can go to tech school. How successful have you been in getting them to go through that process, to the technical school and then talking about the four year institutions and other types of degrees and certificates to move to the job market.
MS. TAYLOR: Okay.
SENATOR SCOTT: How successful have you been with -- doing that?
MS. TAYLOR: Well, I think --
SENATOR SCOTT: How successful have you been doing that during your tenure on the board.
MS. TAYLOR: I think the -- the school has been extremely successful in allowing that to happen. In fact, it was sort of funny and it's actually on the website currently and it looks at a lot of the -- the folks who have been a part of the Wil Lou Gray program and it's amazing to see a lot of the success that has actually been in place with a lot of graduates. You know, you have graduates who have attended Wil Lou Gray who are doctors. You have graduates who are in high profile positions in the military. And they have wide array of success so that, basically, sort of shows you how Wil Lou Gray has been so impactful in allowing, not only for you to complete your GED, but also pursue further education.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Representative King.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you. I just want to first just thank you for your service to our state. I noticed that you are a member of Delta Sigma Theta sorority.
MS. TAYLOR: Yes, I am.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: My mother and all my sisters and my dear friend was visiting with me today from Georgia former representative Dee Dawkins-Haigler is a Delta as well. I just want to make sure that you all met.
MS. TAYLOR: How are you, Sir?
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you for your service.
MS. TAYLOR: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Ms. Taylor, let me say thank you for having such a wonderful school. I chair the subcommittee that funds Wil Lou Gray on the House side. I've listened to the presentations for the six years I chaired and every year, it's a success story.
MS. TAYLOR: Absolutely.
THE CHAIRMAN: So I just thank you for your service and I thank Wil Lou Gray for giving some young people a chance that probably would have fallen through the cracks if you hadn't been there.
MS. TAYLOR: Absolutely. Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Do I have a motion?
SENATOR SCOTT: Motion to approve.
THE CHAIRMAN: There's motion for approval.
REPRESENTATIVE FINLAY: Second.
THE CHAIRMAN: I have a second. All those in favor, signify by saying your right -– raising your right hand. Than you, ma'am.
MS. TAYLOR: Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Please do not ask for any commitments, although you don't need them but before -- before Macey lets you know.
MS. TAYLOR: Okay. Thank you. I appreciate it.
THE CHAIRMAN: Thank you. All right, at this time we're going to revisit the -- we carried over quite a number of folks yesterday so, at this time, I'll recognize Representative Finlay. I'll call out first, I'm sorry. First one is Charles H. Williams of Orangeburg. Now, Representative Finlay.

REPRESENTATIVE FINLAY: Move to carry Charles H. Williams over.
THE CHAIRMAN: There's motion to carry over Charles H. Williams. All those in favor, signify by saying Aye.
ALL: Aye.
THE CHAIRMAN: Opposed. Mr. Williams is carried over. Next is C. Dorn Smith the Third.
REPRESENTATIVE FINLAY: Mr. Chairman, I move that we - - I move that we carry him over.
THE CHAIRMAN: There's a motion --

THE CHAIRMAN: Second. All those in favor, signify by saying aye.
ALL: Aye.
THE CHAIRMAN: No? All right. Next Alexander English.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Move for approval.
SENATOR SCOTT: Second.
THE CHAIRMAN: There's a move for approval and a second for Alexander English. All those in favor, please signify by raising your right hand. Alexander English is approved and I hope you can get in touch with him and tell him that he doesn't ask for any commitments since he's not here this morning. Next is D. Benjamin Graves of Spartanburg. Speaker Lucas.
SPEAKER LUCAS: Move to approve.
THE CHAIRMAN: Motion to approve.
SENATOR SCOTT: Second.
THE CHAIRMAN: There's a second. All those in favor, please signify by raising your right hand. Opposed? No. D. Benjamin Graves is approved. Henry L. Jolly Junior of Gaffney.
SENATOR SCOTT: Move to approve.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Second.
THE CHAIRMAN: Move to approve and a second. All those in favor signify by raising your right hand. Approval is there. Next we have John C. Von Lehe. Representative Finlay.
REPRESENTATIVE FINLAY: Move to carry over.
SENATOR SCOTT: Second.
THE CHAIRMAN: There's a motion to carry over Von Lehe. All those in favor, signify by saying aye.
ALL: Aye.

THE CHAIRMAN: The ayes have it. We will carry over Mr. Von Lehe. Next is Thad H. Westbrook. Representative Finlay.
REPRESENTATIVE FINLAY: Move to carry over.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Second.
THE CHAIRMAN: There's a motion to carry over Mr. Westbrook. All those in favor signify by saying aye.
ALL: Aye.
THE CHAIRMAN: The ayes have it. Next we have C. Edward Floyd.
SENATOR SCOTT: Move to -- move to carry over.
THE CHAIRMAN: Move to carry over by Representative - - I mean, excuse me, Senator Scott.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Second.
THE CHAIRMAN: All those in favor -- I put you back in the House.
SENATOR SCOTT: You see I looked at you. Please don't.
THE CHAIRMAN: Please don't.
SENATOR SCOTT: Please don't.
THE CHAIRMAN: They're recording this. We got to be good now. All those in favor, signify by saying aye.
ALL: Aye.
THE CHAIRMAN: The ayes have it. All right, C. Edward Floyd is carried over. Next we have D. Hollis Felkel, the Second. Is there a motion?
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Motion to approve.
THE CHAIRMAN: Motion to approve.
REPRESENTATIVE FINLAY: Second.
THE CHAIRMAN: Second. All those in favor, please signify by raising your right hand. D. Hollis Felkel is approved. Next C. Brody Glenn.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Move to approve.
SENATOR SCOTT: Second.
THE CHAIRMAN: And a second. All those in favor, signify by raising your right hand. C. Brody Glenn is approved. Reed T. Sherard. I think I got that right.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Move to approve.
THE CHAIRMAN: For approval. Is there a second?
SENATOR SCOTT: Second.
THE CHAIRMAN: All those in favor, signify by raising your right hand. He is -- Mr. Sherard is approved. We have two more. J. Patrick Anderson this morning. Is there a motion?
SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Move to approve.
MULTIPLE: Second.

THE CHAIRMAN: All those in favor, signify by raising your right hand. Mr. Anderson is approved. And last C. Brody Glenn. Is there a motion?
SENATOR SCOTT: Approved.
REPRESENTATIVE FINLAY: Second.
THE CHAIRMAN: All those in favor, signify by raising your right hand.
REPRESENTATIVE FINLAY: Move to adjourn, Mr. Chairman.
THE CHAIRMAN: And there's a move to adjourn and I assume -- before we adjourn, is there any comments or questions from the committee?
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Mr. Chair?
THE CHAIRMAN: Yes, sir.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Just -- just for -- do you know if we're going to be having any more meetings or are we done?
THE CHAIRMAN: Well, we've got these five carry overs.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Okay.
THE CHAIRMAN: So I'm sure some time in the future, we will make a decision whether to approve them or not.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Has a date been set --
THE CHAIRMAN: No.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: -- for the election of Board members?
THE CHAIRMAN: What date is that? May --
MS. WEBB: Tentatively we have May 5th.
REPRESENTATIVE KING: Okay. Thank you.
THE CHAIRMAN: Any other? Thank you. Committee, thanks for your hard work yesterday. It was a long day but I think we got a lot of answers we needed to hear. (There being no further questions, the deposition concluded at 10:56 a.m.)

R. 149, H. 5138--ORDERED PRINTED IN THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE ordered the following Veto printed in the Journal:

April 13, 2022
The Honorable James H. Lucas
Speaker of the House
State House, Second Floor
Columbia, South Carolina 29201

Dear Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

I am hereby vetoing and returning without my approval R-149, H. 5138, which seeks to amend Act No. 105 of 2021, providing for the consolidation of Barnwell County School District No. 19 and Barnwell County School District No. 29 into the Barnwell County Consolidated School District, so as to make minor modifications to account for the transitional period. For the reasons detailed further below, and principally because this legislation appears to be identical to another bill I have already signed into law, I am compelled to veto H. 5138.

By way of background, Act No. 105 of 2021 provides*, inter alia*, that effective July 1, 2022, the terms of the members of the present school districts' boards of trustees will expire and the powers and duties of the present school districts' boards of trustees must be devolved on the Barnwell County Consolidated School District Board of Trustees ("Board"). To provide a mechanism to maintain fully constituted boards of trustees during the so-called transitional period, from the effective date of Act No. 105 of 2021 until July 1, 2022, this legislation would allow the Barnwell County Legislative Delegation to reappoint an incumbent member of either of the two present boards of trustees to a truncated term to expire on July 1, 2022, if the term of the incumbent member expires during the transitional period.

As the General Assembly is aware, like several of my predecessors, I have consistently vetoed unconstitutional local or special legislation. The South Carolina Constitution expressly prohibits the General Assembly from enacting legislation "for a specific county" and "where a general law can be made applicable." S.C. Const. art VIII, § 7; S.C. Const. art. III, § 34(IX). Although our courts have held that greater deference is warranted in the context of public education, "legislation regarding education is not exempt from the requirements of Article III, § 34(IX)." Horry Cty. v. Horry Cty. Higher Educ. Comm'n, 306 S.C. 416, 419, 412 S.E.2d 421, 423 (1991). Therefore, I carefully review and consider all such legislation presented to me and scrutinize the same in view of the governing law. Here, H. 5138 would apply to only a single county, but it appears that a general law could not be made applicable, and the General Assembly has established that a special law is necessary to "best meet the exigencies of [this] particular situation." Charleston Cty. Sch. Dist. v. Harrell, 393 S.C. 552, 559, 713 S.E.2d 604, 608 (2011).

Although H. 5138 is unlikely to violate the constitutional prohibition against local or special legislation, it nonetheless illustrates my longstanding concerns regarding the General Assembly's regular resort to local or special legislation, which has produced a patchwork of authorities governing South Carolina's schools and school districts. Here, H. 5138 appears to be identical to an earlier bill, R-139, S. 1157, which the General Assembly ratified the same day as this legislation, and which I have already signed into law. Accordingly, while I commend the bill's sponsors for their attention to the underlying issue, because I have signed an identical bill into law, and in the interest of avoiding redundancy, I am compelled to veto H. 5138.

For the foregoing reasons, I am respectfully vetoing R-149, H. 5138 and returning the same without my signature.

Yours very truly,
Henry McMaster
