The House assembled at 2:00 p.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from James 4:8: "Come near to God and He will come near to you."

Let us pray. We give You thanks and praise for all Your mercies that You have provided for these people. We pray for Your continued guidance as we come together seeking answers that will be good for all we serve. Bless our defenders of freedom and first responders as they give of their lives for our sake. Bless each of these Representatives and staff as they go about the work to be done. Look in favor upon our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who give of their time and effort to this great cause. Heal the wounds, those seen and those hidden, of our women and men who suffer and sacrifice for our freedom. Lord, in Your Mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE.

Williams, Willis, Wooten and Yow: A HOUSE RESOLUTION TO CONGRATULATE

RICHARD L. PEARCE, LEGAL COUNSEL TO THE SOUTH CAROLINA HOUSE CLERK, ON RECEIVING THE PRESTIGIOUS LEGISLATIVE STAFF ACHIEVEMENT AWARD FOR 2021, PRESENTED BY THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF STATE LEGISLATURES' RESEARCH, EDITORIAL, LEGAL AND COMMITTEE STAFF ASSOCIATION.

Whereas, the members of the South Carolina House of Representatives are delighted and proud to learn that our own Richard Pearce, Legal Counsel to the South Carolina House Clerk, has won the highly coveted Legislative Staff Achievement Award for 2021, conferred by the Research, Editorial, Legal and Committee Staff Association (RELACS) of the National Conference of State Legislatures (NCSL); and

Whereas, a Legislative Staff Achievement Award is granted to legislative staff who have demonstrated excellence in supporting the work of a state legislature and in strengthening the legislative institution, excellence being defined as “top-quality,” “distinctive,” “of merit,” “outstanding,” “first-class,” or “expert.” The award carries added meaning in that it is bestowed by the recipient’s peers through each of the staff professional associations of the National Conference of State Legislatures; and

Whereas, a resident of Aiken, Richard Pearce has served for six years as Legal Counsel to the House Clerk. In addition to his duties assisting the House Clerk, Richard works tirelessly with those House members who seek him out to make use of his legal acumen, research and writing skills, and formidable organizational abilities in helping them succeed in their representational functions. In nominating him for this prestigious award, Representative Cal Forrest declared he is adept at creating “word pictures that boil down complex legislative issues in a very comprehensible and useful manner.” His engagement with NCSL has included participating in webinars and other training and, most recently, serving as a guest on NCSL’s Our American States podcast to discuss representative democracy during the American Revolution; and

Whereas, after a decade-plus in private practice, a decade-plus in criminal prosecution, and six years in local government administration, Richard discovered that the newly created position of Legal Counsel to the House Clerk would offer him endless opportunities for the pure practice of law. He is adept at practical problem solving and endeavors to help members make a positive impact on the lives of South Carolinians. In performing all of his duties, Richard exercises the qualities of willingness, readiness, and courtesy, virtues that have won for him the respect and affection of those for whom and with whom he works. As he goes about his duties, Richard makes plain that he understands the words duty and loyalty in their larger context and in their nobler adjuration: to listen quietly, counsel wisely, and keep confidences; and

Whereas, further, this master storyteller has had numerous opportunities to sit with South Carolinians and hear their stories—funny, interesting, poignant, inspirational, and educational—and then take away valuable life lessons that have served him well. The story well told has been a lifelong quest for him, and he has a vast repertoire of great stories his friends relish tapping into, whether over a fascinating lunch outing or a newly acquired bottle of bourbon he so graciously shares; and

Whereas, Richard finds strength for his labors in the loving support of his "happy and hilarious" family: his lovely and talented wife, Cindy, and their daughter, Mel; and

Whereas, the House of Representatives is grateful for the consistent commitment and excellence that makes Richard Pearce an exemplar of the high calling that is public service. Speaking on behalf of his many friends among the members, officers, and employees of the House of Representatives and across agencies in state government, the House takes great pleasure in saluting him on receiving so distinguished an honor as the Legislative Staff Achievement Award. Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives:

That the members of the South Carolina House of Representatives, by this resolution, congratulate Richard L. Pearce, Legal Counsel to the South Carolina House Clerk, on receiving the prestigious Legislative Staff Achievement Award for 2021, presented by the National Conference of State Legislatures' Research, Editorial, Legal and Committee Staff Association.

Be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be presented to Richard L. Pearce.

The Resolution was adopted.

Let us pray. Good and gracious God, we give You thanks for this day and for these, Your people, who give of their time and talents for the good of this State. Give us patience, Lord, to believe that Your way is the best way. Guide and keep our defenders and first responders safe. May Your will be done as we work together. Bless our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who labor in this vineyard. Heal the wounds, those seen and those hidden, of our women and men who suffer and sacrifice for our freedom. Lord, in Your Mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

RECORD FOR VOTING

The SC NAACP's House redistricting map adheres to a 2.5% population deviation as prescribed by the House Ad Hoc Redistricting Committee, even though federal case law has upheld deviation of up to 10%. Communities of Interest are recognized in the NAACP map unlike the House Judiciary map that splits Communities of Interest in the Upstate (Districts 6-9), Pee Dee (Districts 59, 60), Midlands (Districts 95, 70, 80, 93) and the Lowcountry (Districts 102, 103,111) thus marginalizing voters' opportunity to elect the candidates of their choice. The NAACP map provides 35 potential districts where Blacks have a viable electability opportunity. The House Judiciary map has fewer such districts and places minority incumbents in the same district, thus further eroding opportunities for representation, in direct conflict with an Ad Hoc Committee stated objective. There is no indication that the Ad Hoc Committee utilized any objective analysis of minority voting patterns. That analysis information was requested of the Committee but was not shared with the public.

Finally, the Ad Hoc Committee's reapportionment process strayed from acceptable standards of transparency previously utilized by the House Judiciary Election Laws Committee. The Committee's redistricting analysis was obscured from public scrutiny. None of the Ad Hoc Committee members have experience in state legislative reapportionment and that lack of experience has produced highly gerrymandered districts.

Rep. Wendy Brawley

Rep. BRAWLEY proposed the following Amendment No. 4 to H. 4493 (COUNCIL\AHB\4493C006.BH.AHB21), which was tabled:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by deleting SECTION 2 in its entirety and inserting:

RECORD FOR VOTING

The House District map submitted by the SC League of Women Voters utilizes the accepted federal case law of a 5% population deviation, up or down for each House District. The League's map did not give preference to protecting incumbents. Based on voting patterns analysis, the League's district map will most likely result in 77 Republican Districts but it does not pack or crack minority voting populations as does the gerrymandered House Judiciary map.

Rep. Wendy Brawley

RECORD FOR VOTING

I was temporarily out of the Chamber on constituent business during the vote on H. 4493. If I had been present, I would have voted in favor of the Bill.

Rep. Annie McDaniel

RECORD FOR VOTING

I withheld my vote for H. 4493, not because I objected to it in total, I objected to the committee's final plan for District 123. I object to the splitting of Hilton Head 1B voting precinct into two pieces and thus being represented by two Representatives. I offered an amendment to reverse the Committee's plan for District 123, however, unfortunately, it was unsuccessful.

Rep. Jeff Bradley

RECORD FOR VOTING

I had a long-standing doctor's appointment today that could not be changed that had me away from Columbia (State House) for the morning. When I arrived, the House had already given second reading to the redistricting Bill H. 4493. If I were here when second reading was given, I would have voted in favor of the plan. I understand that there was a roll call vote to adjourn for the day and I would have voted not to adjourn.

Rep. Brian White

STATEMENT BY REP. MURPHY

Rep. MURPHY gave notice of offering amendments on third reading if necessary, pursuant to Rule 9.2.

The House assembled at noon.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Psalm 107:28: “Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, and he brought them out from their distress.”

Let us pray. Almighty and merciful God, come to the aid of Your people as they strive to do the right thing for the right reasons. Guide them in all their work. Bless our defenders of freedom and first responders as they protect us. Bless our leaders as they work for the betterment of the people. Bless our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who labor in this vineyard. Heal the wounds, those seen and those hidden, of our brave warriors who suffer and sacrifice for our freedom. Lord, in Your Mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Smith, M. M. Smith, Stavrinakis, Stringer, Taylor, Tedder, Thayer, Thigpen, Trantham, Weeks, West, Wetmore, Wheeler, White, Whitmire, R. Williams, S. Williams, Willis, Wooten and Yow: A HOUSE RESOLUTION TO EXPRESS THE PROFOUND SORROW OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES UPON THE PASSING OF THE HONORABLE JIMMY C. BALES OF EASTOVER, TO CELEBRATE HIS LIFE AND ACHIEVEMENTS, AND TO EXTEND THE DEEPEST SYMPATHY TO HIS FAMILY AND MANY FRIENDS.

Whereas, many were deeply saddened by the passing of the Honorable Jimmy C. Bales, former member of the South Carolina House, on September 25, 2021, his eighty-sixth birthday; and

Whereas, born September 25, 1935, in Rose Hill, Virginia, Jimmy was the son of James and Ruth Bales. The Korean War brought Jimmy to Fort Jackson in 1955. After his honorable discharge, Jimmy received his bachelor’s degree from Columbia College, his master’s degree from East Tennessee State University, and his doctorate in education from the University of South Carolina; and

Whereas, he was a retired educator of thirty-three years, having served as a teacher, assistant principal, and principal at Lower Richland High School during desegregation, as well as director of career education for

Richland District One. In previous years, he also had served as a probation officer for Richland County Family Court, a residential home builder, and an Eastover farmer; and

Whereas, Jimmy Bales exemplified what it meant to be a public servant. He was politically involved with the Richland County Democratic Party dating back to 1955. His first political office was serving on Richland County Council from 1977 to 1984 and from 1986 to 1990; and

Whereas, in 1999, he was elected to the South Carolina House of Representatives. He considered himself privileged to serve the citizens of District 80 and the entire State for twenty-two years. From the beginning of his tenure as a House member, he was a leader, first serving as chair of the Freshman Caucus and then acting on many committees, including the Judiciary Committee; Labor, Commerce and Industry Committee; Invitations Committee (chair); and, most notably, the Ways and Means Committee, which further enabled him to champion the needs of his constituents; and

Whereas, Jimmy always understood that he needed to work across party lines to effectuate meaningful, positive change. Another of his many attributes was his tenacity, which served him well in reaching his goals as a public servant. While on Richland County Council, he was instrumental in implementing the first countywide zoning ordinance, garbage pickup, and fire service. While in the House of Representatives, he worked tirelessly in support of passing legislation to benefit District 80, which included securing funds for the Lower Richland Substation of the sheriff's department and for widening Leesburg Road, among many other projects; and

Whereas, in recognition of his service, he received the Order of the Palmetto, South Carolina's highest civilian honor. He also was honored to have the Shop Road Extension, for which he tenaciously worked, dedicated in his name; and

Whereas, a man of faith, Jimmy Bales was a founding member of Temple Baptist Church; and memory and carry on his legacy his wife of twenty-eight years, Helen Lynn Bales; two stepsons, Kevin Smith and Kris Smith; a daughter, Kristen Bales; six grandchildren; and ten great-grandchildren. He will be remembered as a humble public servant and beloved South Carolina leader, one who will be greatly missed. Now, therefore,

Williams, Willis, Wooten and Yow: A HOUSE RESOLUTION TO EXPRESS THE PROFOUND SORROW OF THE MEMBERS OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES UPON THE PASSING OF THE HONORABLE LUCILLE WHIPPER OF CHARLESTON, TO CELEBRATE HER LIFE AND ACHIEVEMENTS, AND TO EXTEND THE DEEPEST SYMPATHY TO HER FAMILY AND MANY FRIENDS.

Whereas, the South Carolina House of Representatives was deeply saddened by the passing of the Honorable Lucille Whipper of Charleston, former member of the South Carolina House of Representatives (1985-1995), on August 27, 2021. She was ninety-three; and

Whereas, Lucille Whipper credited her education at historically black institutions for instilling in her the will to make a difference wherever she found herself. In 1944, she was a student activist at her high school, the Avery Institute. Her graduating class sought to desegregate the College of Charleston, and later, while a student at Talladega College, she joined a movement to integrate student organizations. She continued her graduate education in political science at the University of Chicago and later earned a certificate in guidance and counseling at South Carolina State University; and

Whereas, in the late 1960s, Mrs. Whipper and others organized Operation Catch-Up, a high school tutorial program, for which she served as director. Operation Catch-Up was a forerunner of today's Upward Bound programs. In 1972, she became the College of Charleston's first African American administrator and developed the college's first affirmative action plan. While at the college, she was instrumental in organizing the Avery Institute of Afro-American History and Culture. With the support of members of the Charleston County delegation and the president of the college, the Avery Research Center at the College of Charleston was established. It is nationally recognized for its archival collections on African American history; and

Whereas, having served as vice chair of the Democratic Party Convention in 1972 and later as a member of the Charleston District 20 School Board, Mrs. Whipper in 1985 became the first African American female to serve as an elected state official from the Tri-County area. She served with distinction as a member of numerous committees and commissions on the local and state level and sponsored or co-sponsored important legislation dealing with medical, family, educational, health, and social issues; and

Whereas, as the wife of a distinguished pastor, the late Reverend Dr. Benjamin J. Whipper, Sr., she served her denomination as a faculty member of the National Congress of Christian Education and as immediate past president of the Women's Educational and Missionary Convention of South Carolina. Further, she was a former trustee for both Morris College and Benedict College; and

Whereas, Mrs. Whipper received numerous awards, including honorary doctorates from Morris College and the College of Charleston. She was inducted into the South Carolina Black Hall of Fame, was awarded the Order of the Palmetto, and was listed as one of "Charleston's One Hundred Most Influential since 1670" in Charleston Magazine. Most recently, she was featured in the 2021 South Carolina African American History Calendar; and

Whereas, Lucille Whipper leaves to cherish her memory her children, the Reverend B.J. Whipper, Jr., Rosmond Whipper-Black, former South Carolina House member Seth Whipper, Cheryl Whipper Hamilton, and D'Jaris Whipper-Lewis; grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and great-great-grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends. She will be remembered as a beloved public servant, one who will be greatly missed. Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives:

That the members of the South Carolina House of Representatives, by this resolution, express their profound sorrow upon the passing of the Honorable Lucille Whipper of Charleston, celebrate her life and achievements, and extend the deepest sympathy to her family and many friends.

Be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be presented to the Reverend B.J. Whipper, Jr., for the family.

The Resolution was adopted.

The House assembled at noon.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Psalm 94:17: "If the Lord had not been my help, my soul would soon have lived in the land of silence."

Let us pray. Dear God, help us to see Your healing and saving work in our daily life. We thank You for feeding us with the food that sustains us in this life. Make these Representatives and Staff strong in their belief for what they stand for today. Grant Your blessings upon each of these Representatives and Staff as they strive to do the right thing for the people of this State. Bless our defenders of freedom and first responders as they protect us. Bless our leaders as they work for the betterment of the people. Bless our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who labor in this vineyard. Heal the wounds, those seen and those hidden, of our brave warriors who suffer and sacrifice for our freedom. Lord, in Your Mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

HOUSE RESOLUTION

The following was introduced:

H. 4684 -- Rules Committee: A HOUSE RESOLUTION TO SET BY SPECIAL ORDER H. 4493, RELATING TO THE BILL TO ADOPT THE UNITED STATES CENSUS OF 2020 AS OFFICIAL AND TO ESTABLISH ELECTION DISTRICTS FROM WHICH THE MEMBERS OF THE SENATE AND THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES ARE ELECTED ACCORDINGLY, FOR CONCURRENCE IN SENATE AMENDMENTS ON THURSDAY, DECEMBER 9, 2021, IMMEDIATELY UPON ADOPTION OF THIS RESOLUTION; AND TO SET BY SPECIAL ORDER H. 3126, RELATING TO THE BILL TO PROHIBIT CERTAIN VACCINE MANDATES AND TO PROVIDE FOR FURTHER MATTERS RELATED TO FUNDING, FOR SECOND READING ON THURSDAY, DECEMBER 9, 2021, IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING CONCURRENCE ON H. 4493 AND CONTINUING ON THE NEXT LEGISLATIVE DAY IMMEDIATELY AFTER THE ROLL CALL UNTIL H. 3126 IS GIVEN THIRD READING OR OTHER DISPOSITION.

Rep. THAYER explained the House Resolution.

Rep. KING spoke against the House Resolution.

POINT OF ORDER

Rep. HART raised the Point of Order that Rule 8.10 stated that any member without debate may call for division of the question, if the Speaker determines the question is so distinct that it should be taken away. He stated that the Speaker had incorrectly responded to Rep. Weeks' question earlier when Rep. Weeks asked if a motion to divide the question was appropriate on H. 4684.

The SPEAKER stated that the House could only divide the question on amendments and that the last sentence of Rule 8.10 specifically stated that the House could not divide the question on the Bill. He overruled the Point of Order.

The Resolution was adopted.

SECTION 2. Chapter 15, Title 8 of the 1976 Code is amended by adding:

However, if a private employer believes it is subject to the forfeiture of federal funds due to a failure to require employees to receive a COVID-19 vaccination, the private employer may require an unvaccinated employee to undergo weekly COVID-19 testing.

RECORD FOR VOTING

Section 3(B) of H. 3126, as amended by Amendment No. 16, makes concessions to federal vaccine mandates for employees and encourages some industries to comply with mandating vaccines for their employees so as to not lose federal funding. Instead of making concessions to unconstitutional federal mandates and the deficit spending which funds them, South Carolina for the sake of its citizens should be asserting its rights under the Tenth Amendment of the United States Constitution and resisting the mandates.

Sections 3(C) and (D) of this Bill encourage employers to implement repetitive, unnecessary, and expensive testing of employees who may or may not be symptomatic. This is a wasteful use of the $20 million dollars that are appropriated in this Bill.

Furthermore, the explicit protections against private employer mandates was removed, and the primary enforcement mechanism was removed, so that employees who are harmed by employer vaccine mandates no longer have recourse in court.

I am compelled by my oath of office to "preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution of this State and of the United States."

For all of these reasons, I voted against this Bill as amended.

The House assembled at 10:00 a.m.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Romans 12:10: "Be devoted to one another in love. Be joyful in hope, patient in affliction, faithful in prayer."

Let us pray. Dear God, give us hearts that are grateful and minds to remember who You are and faithfulness in living our lives as we approach the season of love and giving, and the desire to appreciate one another. God of hope, when trials come, strengthen us. Watch over our defenders of freedom and first responders. Bless our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who labor in this vineyard. Heal the wounds, those seen and those hidden, of our brave warriors who suffer and sacrifice for our freedom. Lord, in Your Mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Smith, Stavrinakis, Taylor, Tedder, Thayer, Thigpen, Weeks, West, Wetmore, Wheeler, White, Whitmire, R. Williams, S. Williams, Willis, Wooten and Yow: A HOUSE RESOLUTION TO EXPRESS DEEP APPRECIATION FOR THE DEDICATED PUBLIC SERVICE OF LILLIAN "LIL" HAYES, RESEARCH ANALYST FOR THE SOUTH CAROLINA HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, TO CONGRATULATE HER ON THE OCCASION OF HER RETIREMENT FROM SERVICE TO THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA AFTER AN EXEMPLARY CAREER OF TWENTY-EIGHT YEARS, AND TO WISH FOR HER A FUTURE BLESSED WITH GOOD HEALTH AND MUCH JOY.

Whereas, on December 31, 2021, research analyst Lillian "Lil" Hayes of the South Carolina House of Representatives Education and Public Works Committee, will retire after nearly three decades of service to this great State; and

Whereas, during her career in South Carolina state government, Chapin resident Lil Hayes has staffed a myriad of issues from the legislative budgeting process for the Ports Authority and natural resources and executive agencies, to public employee retirement and health benefits budget and policy, to the legislation that created the South Carolina Education Lottery; and

Whereas, a Certified Public Manager®, Lil is currently assigned as research analyst for postsecondary education issues and public safety issues for the South Carolina House of Representatives Education and Public Works Committee. Some recent prominent issues she has staffed include securing fuller education benefits for veterans, increasing higher education accessibility for South Carolina's citizens, broadening education curriculum to professional health care students to prevent patient addiction to opioids, and improving transparency in institutional reporting of student organizations' conduct code violations (Tucker Hipps Act); and

Whereas, when Lil retires, a search will have to be instituted for another green-thumbed staff member. As Education and Public Works Chair Rita Allison observes, Lil is the "plant whisperer" of the office and nurtures about twenty-five plants therein. Compliments from visitors abound on Lil's skillful office gardening, which lifts everyone's spirits and helps keep everyone healthy. Further, people tend to listen carefully when this soft-spoken, unpretentious lady speaks, because she knows her job and demonstrates honesty, sincerity, and a caring spirit toward others; and

Whereas, Lillian Hayes believes strongly in active community involvement, and she puts her convictions into action by serving her community in various capacities. She is vice president of membership for the Chapin Junior Women's Club, a service organization dedicated to helping others in the community. She is also a tireless advocate for type 1 diabetes education and awareness, and she dreams of a cure. As a woman of faith, Lil is an active member of Our Lady of the Lake Catholic Church in Chapin; and

Whereas, on the home front, Lil finds strength for her labors in the firm support of her family: her husband, John Hayes, and Lil and John's two children, Jack and Caroline; and

Whereas, the members of the South Carolina House are grateful for the legacy of consistent commitment and excellence Lil Hayes has bestowed on the Palmetto State and wish her many years of enjoyment in her well-deserved retirement. Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives:

That the members of the South Carolina House of Representatives, by this resolution, express deep appreciation for the dedicated public service of Lillian "Lil" Hayes, research analyst for the South Carolina House of Representatives, congratulate her on the occasion of her retirement from service to the State of South Carolina after an exemplary career of twenty-eight years, and wish for her a future blessed with good health and much joy.

Smith, Stavrinakis, Stringer, Taylor, Tedder, Thayer, Thigpen, Trantham, Weeks, West, Wetmore, Wheeler, White, Whitmire, R. Williams, S. Williams, Willis, Wooten and Yow: A HOUSE RESOLUTION TO EXPRESS PROFOUND SORROW UPON THE PASSING OF MARTHA "LOIS" EARGLE, TO CELEBRATE HER LIFE AND ACHIEVEMENTS, AND TO EXTEND THE DEEPEST SYMPATHY TO HER FAMILY AND MANY FRIENDS.

Whereas, the members of the South Carolina House of Representatives were deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Martha “Lois” Eargle on Sunday, November 14, 2021, at the venerable age of eighty-five; and

Whereas, born June 24, 1936, in Sumter, Lois was the daughter of the late Manson LeRoy Grooms and Retus Elizabeth Hudson Grooms. She attended St. Leos College and Coastal Carolina University, and graduated from the Institute of Government from the University of South Carolina and Clemson University; and

Whereas, among her many notable accomplishments, some of her most distinguished were in service to the State and Horry County. She was elected to House Seat 105, winning her election against an eight-year incumbent and went on to serve multiple terms, taking great pride in the work she was able to accomplish, such as getting the new Socastee Bridge put in place ten years earlier than originally planned. She later held the position of Horry County Auditor for nearly thirty years, serving from 1993 until her retirement on June 30, 2021, where she worked to implement one of her crowning achievements the Out of State Tag Program. In addition to this service, Mrs. Eargle served as president of the South Carolina Association of Countywide Elected Executives, where she was voted Countywide Elected Official of the Year; and

Whereas, with a wide variety of activities to which she dedicated her time beyond civil service, Mrs. Eargle owned and operated various businesses in industries such as real estate, restaurant, consulting, and business office machines. She was also the president of the Business and Professional Women's Association, was the first woman to serve on the board of directors for Conway Chamber of Commerce, and was a member of the Myrtle Beach Steering Committee. She served with the Girl Scouts; Salvation Army; Red Cross; American Cancer Society; Horry County Heart Fund; Delta Kappa Gamma Sorority; SC Committee on Criminal Justice, Crime, Juvenile Delinquency, and Court Reform; March of Dimes; Mercy Hospice; and the Good News Club, along with a multitude of other organizations which worked to benefit the State and her local community; and

Whereas, deeply invested in a life serving with the Republican Party, Mrs. Eargle was a charter member of the Myrtle Beach Republican Women's Club, chairman emeritus of the Horry County Republican Party, and chairman of the Horry County Republican Party from 1984-89 and 1992-95. In addition, she was responsible for organizing the Myrtle Beach and Little River Republican Women's Club, the Teen-Age Republican Club at Socastee High School, the College Republican Club at Coastal Carolina University, and the Young Republicans. One of the highlights of her prestigious career was meeting with President Ronald Reagan on numerous occasions, as well as serving the Regan administration by appointment; and

Whereas, loved deeply by those who knew her, she leaves to cherish her memory her children, Stephen Hugh Eargle, Gwyn Eargle Porter, Lynn Eargle Kersey, and Susan Eargle Soucy; her siblings, Bob Grooms, Ronnie Grooms, and Christine McLeod; her fourteen grandchildren; twenty-six great-grandchildren; and a host of other family and friends. Having lived a vibrant and active life in service to others, her loss will be felt tremendously as she goes to join her husband, Jack Eargle. She will undoubtedly be missed by all who had the privilege and pleasure of knowing her. Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives:

That the members of the South Carolina House of Representatives, by this resolution express profound sorrow upon the passing of Martha "Lois" Eargle, celebrate her life and achievements, and extend the deepest sympathy to her family and many friends.

Be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be presented to the family of Martha "Lois" Eargle.

The Resolution was adopted.

Whereas, the members of the South Carolina House of Representatives find it necessary and appropriate to pause in their deliberations to recognize the esteemed Linda Anderson on the occasion of her retirement after fourteen years with the House Judiciary Committee. Linda will begin this well-earned retirement on December 8, 2021; and

Whereas, before beginning her career with the House of Representatives, Linda worked with the South Carolina Senate as the Administrative Assistant for the Senate Judiciary Committee. It was this experience that allowed her to hone her considerable skills from September 30, 1985, through June 2, 1994; and

Whereas, Linda joined the House Judiciary Committee on September 17, 2007, as the Executive Assistant. She quickly became an asset to a committee responsible for a wide range of legislation, working with many personalities with grace, kindness, and efficiency; and

Whereas, a reassuring constant of the committee, Linda has served under multiple chairmen including Jim Harrison, Greg Delleney, Peter McCoy, and Chris Murphy; and

Whereas, with many responsibilities, Linda has been the first point of contact for lobbyists and the general public. She also has managed the considerable page staff. Linda's career has been marked by her diligent efforts to complete her many duties with aplomb and professionalism; and

Whereas, Linda's life has been shared with her beloved husband Judge Ralph K. "Tripp" Anderson. Together they have two adored children, Katie and Brett. The family has continued to grow with the blessing of a granddaughter, Annelise; and

Whereas, as a devout Christian, Linda is a faithful member of Shandon Baptist Church; and

Whereas, the members of the House of Representatives are grateful for the years of commitment which Linda has shown the Judiciary Committee. Her friendly nature, expertise, and kindness will be irreplaceable, but the members wish her all the happiness in the world as she begins her new chapter. Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives:

That the members of the South Carolina House of Representatives, by this resolution, congratulate and honor Linda Anderson of the South Carolina House Judiciary Committee on the occasion of her retirement after fourteen years of dedicated service and wish her much enjoyment and relaxation in her days ahead.

Be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be presented to Linda Anderson.

The Resolution was adopted.

The House assembled at noon.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Psalm 129:8: "The blessing of the Lord be upon you! We bless you in the name of the Lord."

Let us pray. God has called us to this place to make a difference in the lives of those we serve. Lord give us the strength, courage, wisdom, and understanding as we go through this year. Keep us always in Your loving care and keep our families safe. Bless our defenders of freedom and first responders as they care for and protect us. Bless our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who give of their talents for the good of all. We can rest in Your presence and Your promise to supply whatever we need. Bless these brave men and women who serve and protect us. Lord, in Your Mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

RESIGNATION

The following was received:

December 21, 2021
The Honorable James H. Lucas
Speaker, South Carolina House of Representatives
506 Blatt Building
Columbia, SC 29201

Dear Mr. Speaker:

After prayerful consideration, I hereby resign from the South Carolina House of Representatives effective immediately. Serving South Carolina and the citizens of District 97 has been the honor of a lifetime. I am forever grateful to my fellow citizens that entrusted me with and elected me to this office. The first morning I stepped into the Chamber, I was in awe that I was standing and serving in a position that so many held before me. I have never lost sight of that feeling or the respect I have for this office.

I believe it is now time for me to focus on the practice of law and service to my local community. I have met some of the most wonderful people and made some lifelong friends while serving in the South Carolina House. I will forever be indebted to their friendship and guidance. I am most appreciative of the trust that you placed in me with my appointment to the House Judiciary Committee and your kindness and grace.

This has been a difficult decision to make, but I believe this to be the right decision for my family and me. I appreciate the opportunity to serve, and I look forward to continuing to serve the citizens of South Carolina in other ways.

Sincerely yours,
Mandy Kimmons
House District 97

RESIGNATION

The following was received:

January 5, 2022
The Honorable James H. Lucas
Speaker, South Carolina House of Representatives
506 Blatt Building
Columbia, SC 29201

Re: SC House District 18

Dear Mr. Speaker:

After careful consideration of my health and family circumstances, I find it necessary to resign from the South Carolina House of Representatives effective January 7, 2022. Many thanks to the citizens of Blue Ridge, Greer, and Taylors who have graciously allowed me to represent them for these past years. The opportunity to serve them has been the honor of a lifetime.

Thank you for your strong leadership of the House during some very difficult years for our State and for the leadership opportunities that you provided to me. Serving with you has been my privilege.

I leave you with a portion of a poem to reflect upon by John Gould Fletcher. He was a Southerner who attended Harvard, wrote poetry with Ezra Pound, won a Pulitzer, lived long in England and finally returned home to reconnect with his roots.

From Irradiations XXII

The morning is clean and blue and the wind blows up the clouds.
Now my thoughts gathered from afar
Once again in the patched armour, with rusty plumes
and blunted swords,
Move out to war.

Smoking our morning pipes we shall ride two and two
Through the woods.
For our old cause keeps us together,

And our hatred is so precious not death or defeat can break it.

God willing, we shall this day meet that old enemy
Who has given us so many a good beating.
Thank God we have a cause worth fighting for,
And a cause worth losing and a good song to sing.

I ask what cause then are we elected to defend - tyranny disguised as Social Justice or other fleeting notions of Progressivism? No. It is the eternal cause of individual liberty for all South Carolinians - a cause born in our old Commons House of Assembly long before we were a state and a cause that continnes to this day.

I will miss that certainty of purpose, of fighting for liberty, and my compatriots who are here no more. I will miss each of my constituents, colleagues and House staff members who deserve more thanks than they receive.

In the service of South Carolina,
Tommy Stringer

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk, Jr., as follows:

Our thought for today is from Ephesians 4:30: "Eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace."

Let us pray. Almighty God, whose ways are beyond our understanding, keep us in faith that we may know Your peace. Grant us a measure of Your Spirit that these Representatives and Staff may accept Your blessings which always come. Keep these men and women in Your care as they go about the business at hand. Bless our defenders of freedom and first responders. Let Your light and countenance shine upon our World, Nation, President, State, Governor, Speaker, Staff, and all who labor in these Halls of Government. Bless and keep those who suffer and sacrifice for our freedom. Lord, in Your Mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Dear Members of the General Assembly:

Enclosed is the Judicial Merit Selection Commission's Report of Candidate Qualifications. This Report is designed to assist you in determining how to cast your vote. The Commission is charged by law with ascertaining whether judicial candidates are qualified for service on the bench. In accordance with this mandate, the Commission has thoroughly investigated all judicial candidates for their suitability for judicial service.

The Commission's finding that a candidate is qualified means that the candidate satisfies both the constitutional criteria for judicial office and the Commission's evaluative criteria. The attached Report details each candidate's qualifications as they relate to the Commission's evaluative criteria.

Judicial candidates are prohibited from asking for your commitment until 12:00 Noon on Tuesday, January 18, 2022. Further, members of the General Assembly are not permitted to issue letters of introduction, announcements of candidacy, statements detailing a candidate's qualifications, or commitments to vote for a candidate until 12:00 Noon on Tuesday, January 18, 2022. In summary, no member of the General Assembly should, orally or in writing, communicate about a candidate's candidacy until this designated time after the release of the Judicial Merit Selection Commission's Report of Candidate Qualifications. If you find a candidate violating the pledging prohibitions or if you have questions about this report, please contact Erin B. Crawford, Chief Counsel to the Commission, at (803) 212-6689.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
Representative G. Murrell Smith, Jr.

Dear Fellow Members of the General Assembly:

This letter is written to call your attention to issues raised during the December 2003, Judicial Merit Selection hearings concerning a judicial candidate's contact with members of the General Assembly, as well as third parties contacting members on a candidate's behalf. It is also to remind you of these issues for the current screening.

Section 2-19-70(C) of the South Carolina Code contains strict prohibitions concerning candidates seeking or legislators giving their pledges of support or implied endorsement through an introduction prior to 48 hours after the release of the final report of the Judicial Merit Selection Commission ("Commission"). The purpose of this section is to ensure that members of the General Assembly have full access to the report prior to being asked by a candidate to pledge his or her support. The final sentence of Section 2-19-70(C) provides that "the prohibitions of this section do not extend to an announcement of candidacy by the candidate and statements by the candidate detailing the candidate's qualifications" (emphasis added). Candidates may not, however, contact members of the Commission regarding their candidacy. Please note that six members of the Commission are also legislators.

In April 2000, the Commission determined that Section 2-19-70(C) means no member of the General Assembly should engage in any form of communication, written or verbal, concerning a judicial candidate before the 48-hour period expires following the release of the Commission's report. The Commission would like to clarify and reiterate that until at least 48 hours have expired after the Commission has released its final report of candidate qualifications to the General Assembly, only candidates, and not members of the General Assembly, are permitted to issue letters of introduction, announcements of candidacy, or statements detailing the candidates' qualifications.

The Commission would again like to remind members of the General Assembly that a violation of the screening law is likely a disqualifying offense and must be considered when determining a candidate's fitness for judicial office. Further, the law requires the Commission to report any violations of the pledging rules by members of the General Assembly to the House or Senate Ethics Committee, as may be applicable.

Should you have any questions regarding this letter or any other matter pertaining to the judicial screening process, please do not hesitate to call Erin B. Crawford, Chief Counsel to the Commission, at (803) 212-6689.

Sincerely,
Representative G. Murrell Smith, Jr.
Chairman

INTRODUCTION

The Judicial Merit Selection Commission is charged by law to consider the qualifications of candidates for the judiciary. This report details the reasons for the Commission's findings, as well as each candidate's qualifications as they relate to the Commission's evaluative criteria. The Commission operates under the law that went into effect on July 1, 1997, as amended, and which dramatically changed the powers and duties of the Commission. One component of this law is that the Commission's finding of "qualified" or "not qualified" is binding on the General Assembly. The Commission is also cognizant of the need for members of the General Assembly to be able to differentiate between candidates and, therefore, has attempted to provide as detailed a report as possible.

The Judicial Merit Selection Commission is composed of ten members, four of whom are non-legislators. The Commission has continued the more in-depth screening format started in 1997. The Commission has asked candidates their views on issues peculiar to service on the court to which they seek election. These questions were posed in an effort to provide members of the General Assembly with more information about candidates and the candidates' thought processes on issues relevant to their candidacies. The Commission has also engaged in a more probing inquiry into the depth of a candidate's experience in areas of practice that are germane to the office he or she is seeking. The Commission feels that candidates should have familiarity with the subject matter of the courts for which they offer, and feels that candidates' responses should indicate their familiarity with most major areas of the law with which they will be confronted.

The Commission also used the Citizens Committees on Judicial Qualifications as an adjunct of the Commission. Since the decisions of our judiciary play such an important role in people's personal and professional lives, the Commission believes that all South Carolinians should have a voice in the selection of the state's judges. It was this desire for broad-based grassroots participation that led the Commission to create the Citizens Committees on Judicial Qualifications. These committees are composed of individuals who are both racially and gender diverse, and who also have a broad range of professional experiences (i.e., lawyers, teachers, businessmen, bankers, and advocates for various organizations). The committees were asked to advise the Commission on the judicial candidates in their regions. Each regional committee interviewed the candidates from its assigned area and also interviewed other individuals in that region who were familiar with the candidate either personally or professionally. Based on those interviews and its own investigation, each committee provided the Commission with a report on their assigned candidates based on the Commission's evaluative criteria. The Commission then used these reports as a tool for further investigation of the candidate if the committee's report so warranted. Summaries of these reports have also been included in the Commission's report for your review.

The Commission conducts a thorough investigation of each candidate's professional, personal, and financial affairs, and holds public hearings during which each candidate is questioned on a wide variety of issues. The Commission's investigation focuses on the following evaluative criteria: constitutional qualifications, ethical fitness, professional and academic ability, character, reputation, physical health, mental health, experience, and judicial temperament. The Commission's investigation includes the following:

(1) survey of the bench and bar through BallotBox online;
(2) SLED and FBI investigation;
(3) credit investigation;
(4) grievance investigation;
(5) study of application materials;
(6) verification of ethics compliance;
(7) search of newspaper articles;
(8) conflict of interest investigation;
(9) court schedule study;
(10) study of appellate record;
(11) court observation; and
(12) investigation of complaints.

While the law provides that the Commission must make findings as to qualifications, the Commission views its role as also including an obligation to consider candidates in the context of the judiciary on which they would serve and, to some degree, govern. To that end, the Commission inquires as to the quality of justice delivered in the courtrooms of South Carolina and seeks to impart, through its questioning, the view of the public as to matters of legal knowledge and ability, judicial temperament, and the absoluteness of the Judicial Canons of Conduct as to recusal for conflict of interest, prohibition of ex parte communication, and the disallowance of the acceptance of gifts. However, the Commission is not a forum for reviewing the individual decisions of the state's judicial system absent credible allegations of a candidate's violations of the Judicial Canons of Conduct, the Rules of Professional Conduct, or any of the Commission's nine evaluative criteria that would impact a candidate's fitness for judicial service.

The Commission expects each candidate to possess a basic level of legal knowledge and ability, to have experience that would be applicable to the office sought, and to exhibit a strong adherence to codes of ethical behavior. These expectations are all important, and excellence in one category does not make up for deficiencies in another.

Routine questions related to compliance with ethical Canons governing ethics and financial interests are now administered through a written questionnaire mailed to candidates and completed by them in advance of each candidate's staff interview. These issues are no longer automatically made a part of the public hearing process unless a concern or question was raised during the investigation of the candidate. The necessary public record of a candidate's pledge to uphold the Canons is his or her completed and sworn questionnaire.

This report is the culmination of lengthy, detailed investigatory work and public hearings. The Commission takes its responsibilities seriously, believing that the quality of justice delivered in South Carolina's courtrooms is directly affected by the thoroughness of its screening process. Please carefully consider the contents of this report, which we believe will help you make a more informed decision.

Please note that the candidates' responses included herein are restated verbatim from the documents that the candidates submitted as part of their application to the Judicial Merit Selection Commission. All candidates were informed that the Commission does not revise or alter the candidates' submissions, and thus, any errors or omissions in the information contained in this draft report existed in the original documents that the candidate submitted to the Commission.

This report conveys the Commission's findings as to the qualifications of all candidates currently offering for election to the South Carolina Court of Appeals, Circuit Court, Family Court, and Administrative Law Court.

SUPREME COURT
QUALIFIED AND NOMINATED

The Honorable Kaye G. Hearn
Supreme Court, Seat 4

Commission's Findings: QUALIFIED AND NOMINATED

(1) Constitutional Qualifications:
Based on the Commission's investigation, Justice Hearn meets the qualifications prescribed by law for judicial service as a Supreme Court Justice.

Justice Hearn was born in 1950. She is 71 years old and a resident of Conway, South Carolina. Justice Hearn provided in her application that she has been a resident of South Carolina for at least the immediate past five years and has been a licensed attorney in South Carolina since 1977.

(2) Ethical Fitness:
The Commission's investigation did not reveal any evidence of unethical conduct by Justice Hearn.

Justice Hearn demonstrated an understanding of the Canons of Judicial Conduct and other ethical considerations important to judges, particularly in the areas of ex parte communications, acceptance of gifts and ordinary hospitality, and recusal.

Justice Hearn reported that she has not made any campaign expenditures.

Justice Hearn testified she has not:

He gave the following account of his legal experience since graduation from law school:

(a) Hood Law Firm, LLC, Charleston, SC. Associate. September 2002 – January 2004. My primary area of practice was general civil litigation defense, beginning with initial pleadings and conducting discovery, all the way through mediation, as well as trial preparation/trial. I was not involved in any management position in this role, including management of trust accounts.
(b) Lanier & Burroughs, LLC, Orangeburg, SC. Non-equity member. February 2004 – Present. My areas of practice have always included personal injury litigation practice, including pretrial, trial preparation and trial, domestic litigation, criminal defense, workers compensation, as well as Social Security disability appeals and magistrate's Court civil and criminal litigation practice. Although I never managed the firm nor the trust accounts, I do oversee the trust account disbursements in cases that I personally handle.

Mr. McCutchen further reported regarding his experience with the Circuit Court practice area:

Over the past 5 years, and even prior, I have handled DUI/DUS cases, cases involving burglary and stolen goods, assault and battery, criminal domestic violence, various drug and firearm related charges, and also numerous traffic offenses. The usual issues presented in these cases pertained to probable cause or lack thereof, Miranda violations, failure of law enforcement to comply with South Carolina law, as well as mitigating facts and circumstances to be considered beyond just the charge(s) alone. The vast majority of my criminal cases concluded in negotiated plea agreements after concluding the rule 5 discovery process.

As far as civil matters, I frequently and routinely handle an array of cases including automobile accidents and premises liability cases, primarily. These typically involve issues of proximate causation, damages and especially on the premises liability side, foreseeability issues and issues of actual and constructive notice, in addition to the proximate cause and damages issues. Again, the vast majority of my civil cases ended in an agreed upon settlement, whether it be at mediation or before; however, a few cases that included issues of causation/liability coupled with issues of causally connected damages, ended up proceeding to trial. Most of my practice is spent representing Plaintiffs, but from time to time I do represent individual defendants who have been sued.

I certainly am aware that my practice has been primarily on the civil side; however, I believe that the Rules of Evidence apply across the board, in any type of case, and the practice of one type of law familiarizes you with those same rules to be applied in other areas. I believe there would be a swift learning curve on the criminal side if I were elected, as there are usually more General Sessions terms of court compared to Common Pleas terms. As criminal matters involve the potential loss of rights most sacred to our State and US Constitutions, I would most certainly ensure that I was well versed, by way of research and independent study, on any unfamiliar issue that may arise in a case before me. That would also hold true with civil matters, as I am a firm believer in proper preparation in all areas of the law, and beyond.

Mr. McCutchen reported the frequency of his court appearances during the past five years as follows:

(a) Federal: 5, or on average about 1 per year;
(b) State: 191 total, or on average about 38 times per year.

Mr. McCutchen reported the percentage of his practice involving civil, criminal, domestic and other matters during the past five years as follows:

(a) Civil: Including pre-suit civil matters, 57%. Including only filed civil matters 43%;
(b) Criminal: Including pre-suit civil matters, 5%. Including only filed civil matters, 6%;
(c) Domestic: Including pre-suit civil matters, 25%. Including only filed civil matters, 33%;
(d) Other: Including pre-suit civil matters, 13%. Including only filed civil matters, 18%.

Mr. McCutchen reported the percentage of his practice in trial court during the past five years as follows:

(a) Jury: 97%;
(b) Non-jury: 3%.

Mr. McCutchen provided that during the past five years he most often served as sole counsel.

The following is Mr. McCutchen's account of his five most significant litigated matters:

(a) Sandra Canty, indv. and as Guardian of Andrea Gulley, an Incapacitated Adult v. Orangeburg County EMS, Case # 2018-CP-38-01354.
This matter involved alleged breaches of the standard of care by EMS personnel in responding to a 911 call from the Plaintiff's daughter, which resulted in an anoxic brain injury. The case involved multiple experts in the areas of causation and damages, as well as issues surrounding protections under the SC Tort Claims Act. After discovery and expert preparation, the case was successfully mediated, wherein a substantial, yet limited recovery was obtained to assist in Ms. Gulley's lifelong care.

(b) Shawn Hale v. Locals Pub of Orangeburg, SC, etal., Case # 2017-CP-38-00005
This premises liability case involved injuries sustained by the owner of a security company who was shot while checking on staff at a night club providing security services. The Plaintiff had extensive medical treatment requiring a month long hospitalization, multiple skin grafts and was permanently limited in function as a result of his injuries. The issues litigated were the duties owed by the landowner, and imputed notice from tenant to the landlord, assumption of the risk doctrines, and criminal acts of third parties. After extensive investigation, numerous depositions and surviving a defense motion for summary judgment, the case was successfully mediated.

(c) William Rutland v. Hazel H. Fogle, Case # 2016-CP-38-01449
This automobile accident case was one where liability was admitted, partly because the Defendant later became incapacitated due to age. Also, the case contained issues of pre-existing medical problems, exacerbation of a prior condition, causally connected medical expenses, and UIM offset due to failure to exhaust liability limits. After lengthy discovery, treating physician deposition(s), and subsequent consulting independent medical examiner testimony, the case was mediated twice (liability and UIM) and ultimately resolved prior to trial.

(d) Shayeata Taylor v. Wal-Mart Stores East, LP, etal., Case # 2013-CP-38-0650
Suit was commenced in this matter due to the wrongful arrest and subsequent prosecution of the Plaintiff for shoplifting. Plaintiff was a single mother who lost her job because of her detention and arrest. Significantly, the case involved issues of computer forensics and data stored on a gaming console which assisted in proving the allegations of wrongful arrest and malicious prosecution. Further, past economic loss was a substantial portion of the damages in the case. After multiple pretrial motions hearings, requiring amendment of the complaint itself, the matter settled prior to trial, after it was previously mediated unsuccessfully.

(e) Walter Proctor v. Admon Louis Moran d/b/a Moran Stumping Company, etal., Case # 2010-CP-14-124
This case, along with the companion loss of consortium case, arose out of an accident between a private vehicle and a tractor trailer hauling pine tree stumps. From the beginning, this matter contained issues and violations of the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration regulations, conspicuity analysis, accident reconstruction, comparative negligence, as well as substantial physical injuries sustained by the Plaintiff and his wife. The case was unsuccessfully mediated, yet settled prior to trial

Mr. McCutchen reported he has not personally handled any civil or criminal appeals.

reputation, experience, and judicial temperament. The Committee stated in summary, "Although Mr. McCutchen has less criminal experience than civil, he has a good place to make up for his inexperience in this area."

Mr. McCutchen is married to Tara Lovelace McCutchen. He has two children.

Mr. McCutchen reported that he was a member of the following bar and professional associations:
(a) SC Bar Association
(b) Orangeburg County Bar Association, Treasurer 2008-Present.
(c) First Judicial Circuit Fee Dispute Resolutions Board
(d) SC Association of Justice, member.

Mr. McCutchen provided that he was a member of the following civic, charitable, educational, social, or fraternal organizations:
(a) Orangeburg County Community of Character, Board of Directors, 2014 -Present.
(b) 2018 Lawyer of the Year, as voted on by readers of the Times & Democrat Newspaper.
(c) City of Orangeburg Dixie Youth Baseball Coach, 2012-2020

Mr. McCutchen further reported:
I was born and raised in a small community a few miles north of Kingstree, South Carolina. Growing up, my parents and grandparents taught me the importance of diligence and hard work. More importantly, they taught me how to be a person of good character, which includes how to treat people. I never once witnessed my parents mistreat another human being, not so much as to raise their voice at them. The opposite was more true: my parents would inconvenience themselves and go out of their way to help their peers, indiscriminately. At age twelve, my father passed away, and I watched my mother work tirelessly to ensure our needs were met. Growing up, I held every job a teenager in rural Williamsburg County could possibly have: from country store clerk to farming or working the tobacco and gladiola fields, I did it all. I consider myself fortunate to have met so many people from various walks of life at such a young age. It keeps me grounded to this day. I have walked many miles in many different persons' shoes, and I believe this is extremely important when one day I may be asked to adjudicate matters involving those same people.

My humble beginnings in life have stayed with me throughout my career, and I believe that is partially what has prepared me to be a Judge. I pray that if I am ever fortunate enough to wear a black robe, I will be no different of a man then as I am today. No person is bigger than the system in which they operate, including the law. I have realized over my eighteen years of practice that any case I have handled, although all important regardless of size and type, is the most important case to 1 person: the client that hired you. When an individual places that much trust in another individual, it is a very humbling experience. It is even more humbling to fathom that one day I may have to preside over matters where there are two sides having their most important, and sometimes only experience, within the judicial system. That is a responsibility that I do not, and will not take lightly. Having to preside and render judgment over an individual's life or livelihood is a sobering, serious responsibility, and that is a responsibility that I will gladly and humbly assume.

Mr. Taylor appears to be mentally capable of performing the duties of the office he seeks.

(8) Experience:
Mr. Taylor was admitted to the South Carolina Bar in 1998.

He gave the following account of his legal experience since graduation from law school:

(a) In November of 1998, I became an associate in the firm now known as Moore Taylor Law Firm, PA in West Columbia, South Carolina and became a partner in 2000. Initially, I had a diverse practice which included automobile insurance defense, criminal defense, personal injury, domestic litigation, general civil litigation, workers' compensation and administrative law matters. By 2001, my practice became focused on criminal defense, with an emphasis on DUI defense, personal injury and workers' compensation. During my time at Moore Taylor, I served as an assistant prosecutor for the Town of Irmo. Additionally, I served as Associate Municipal Judge for the City of West Columbia from November 7, 2000 to December 3, 2002. As a partner, I was involved in administrative and financial management of the firm. I was not involved in the management of trust accounts.

(b) In September of 2006, I became a partner in the Taylor Law Firm LLC. My practice remained focused on criminal defense, with an emphasis on DUI defense, personal injury and workers' compensation. I also began handling more appellate cases and began representing business entities in matters before the administrative law court. I am a contract attorney for the Town of Springdale and represent indigent defendants in its municipal court and serve as the county attorney for Calhoun County. In July of 2017, I assumed management of administrative and financial matters for the firm including management of the firm's trust account. Additionally, during this time, I served as the South Carolina Senate Judiciary Chairman's designee to the South Carolina Sentencing Reform Oversight Committee from July 25, 2017 through January 2, 2019.

Mr. Taylor further reported regarding his experience with the Circuit Court Practice area:

In nearly 23 years of practice, I have handled virtually every type of criminal case ranging from routine traffic tickets to murder. Although civil in nature, I participated as second chair in the litigation of a capital murder post-conviction relief proceeding wherein co-counsel and I essentially relitigated the entire sentencing phase in which the defendant was sentenced to death. A significant portion of my practice includes defending persons accused of Driving under the Influence in both summary courts and the Court of General Sessions and I have represented numerous defendants accused of Felony Driving Under the Influence involving both death and great bodily injury. Additionally, I have substantial experience in cases involving property crimes, assault and battery, domestic violence, controlled substance offenses and criminal sexual conduct. Finally, I also have experience in representing criminal defendants in federal court in cases involving child pornography, counterfeiting, controlled substances and fraud against the government.

Throughout the course of my career, I have represented both plaintiffs and defendants in civil matters in magistrate's court, the Court of Common Pleas and federal court. I have represented individuals as well as business entities as plaintiff's counsel. While the bulk of my plaintiff's practice has involved representing plaintiffs in motor vehicle accidents, I have also represented plaintiffs in cases involving landlord-tenant matters, dram shop liability actions, medical negligence, construction defects, fraud, contract matters and business disputes. I am currently representing a plaintiff in an industrial accident which includes complex questions regarding negligence and South Carolina's statutory employer-employee doctrine.

Likewise, I have represented numerous individuals as well as business entities as defense counsel in civil cases. Representation of individual defendants include cases involving motor vehicle accidents, assault and battery, defamation, contract matters, fraud and property disputes. I have defended small businesses in general business litigation, construction cases, the Trade Secrets Act, the Unfair Trade Practices Act and matters in which injunctive relief was sought. I have also defended a large infrastructure construction company in a complex matter which required the use of and cross-examination of multiple expert witnesses.

Some of the experience cited above is beyond five years but has been included to demonstrate the breadth of my criminal and civil experience over the course of my legal career. It is impossible for me to state with certainty the frequency of my appearances before a Circuit Court judge over the past five years. Depending on my case load over different periods of time, the frequency could be as much as two to five times per week to as little as two to three times per month.

Mr. Taylor reported the frequency of his court appearances during the past five years as follows:

(a) Federal: one federal appearance per month;
(b) State: two to five appearances per week

Mr. Taylor reported the percentage of his practice involving civil, criminal, domestic and other matters during the past five years as follows:

(a)	Civil:	25%;
(b)	Criminal:	70%
(c)	Domestic:	0%
(d)	Other:	5%

Mr. Taylor reported the percentage of his practice in trial court during the past five years as follows:

(a)	Jury:	90%;
(b)	Non-jury:	10%

Mr. Taylor provided that during the past five years he most often served as sole counsel.

The following is Mr. Taylor 's account of his five most significant litigated matters:

(a) State v. Nehemiah Wayne Dixon, 2013-GS-32-02379, 02380 & 02381
Mr. Dixon was initially charged with Accessory After the Fact to Attempted Murder. He refused to cooperate with the State with regard to providing the name of the shooter in a drive by shooting and was indicted on charges of Attempted Murder, Possession of a Weapon During the Commission of a Violent Crime and Criminal Conspiracy. Mr. Dixon was alleged to have been present during the drive by shooting and the State prosecuted the case under the accomplice liability doctrine as no witness observed him possess or fire a gun. The case was tried to verdict and Mr. Dixon was acquitted on the charges of Attempted Murder, Possession of a Weapon During the Commission of a Violent Crime and found guilty of Criminal Conspiracy. He received a probationary sentence. This case is significant as it demonstrates my ability to litigate serious cases in General Sessions Court and my understanding of the relevant evidentiary and procedural rules in cases that often appear before Circuit Court judges.

(b) Stephen Corey Bryant v. State of South Carolina, 2011-CP-43-00901

case. The case is significant because it exposed me to capital litigation and the extraordinary demands capital cases place upon solicitors, defense counsel and judges.

Mr. Taylor further reported:

I have been fortunate to have been exposed to virtually every type of case that comes before Circuit Court judges. I understand the legal profession. I understand the lawyers that would appear before me. Most lawyers are conscientious and well-prepared. Some are not. Some relish a battle in the courtroom and some fear it.

I have felt the sinking feeling of moving from the bottom to the top of a Common Pleas roster and knowing my weekend would be spent preparing for trial. I have felt the exhilaration of a favorable jury verdict and crushing defeat of an unfavorable verdict after every ounce of effort and energy was poured into the case. I have made the lonely walk from the courtroom after a client received a lengthy sentence and felt the pride when a client conquered his or her drug habit. I have settled civil cases and received a verdict that changed lives. I have settled cases where no one was satisfied but it made sense to put everyone out of their misery. I understand that many private practitioners are also small business women and men. They have employees that depend on them and in lean times, are the last to get paid. Lawyers are real people and sometimes have real problems like those they represent. They have families and personal lives that demand their attention. Sometimes, they pay more attention to their clients and their businesses than themselves.

I also understand the citizens that would appear before me. Whether they admit it or not, most are scared. They are scared of a system they do not understand and intimidated by the bench and black robe. They need their lawyers to help them to navigate our system of justice. They depend on their lawyers to obtain whatever manner of justice they are seeking and deserve a fair and impartial judge. They are entitled to be treated with dignity and respect and an even-tempered, courteous judge helps alleviate the stress and emotion often present in our courtrooms.

I understand the practice of law and the clients for whom it exists. The lawyers that appear in Circuit Court and the citizens that depend on them deserve judges that understand them. I appreciate the gravity of the cases over which Circuit Court judges preside. I understand and appreciate the pressure and emotions the lawyers, litigants and victims experience in a courtroom setting. I have the experience and understanding of our judicial system and the people who comprise it to be an effective Circuit Court judge. I believe my exposure to the variety of cases that appear in Circuit Court as well as my experience in representing real people in real cases qualifies me to hold the office of a Circuit Court judge.
