(5) “Participant” means a person, ordered by the court or as a condition of bond to wear or possess an approved electronic monitoring device.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12, 2023

(B)(1) The court, in its discretion, may, for a person charged with a violation of criminal offense under the jurisdiction of the court of General Sessions or any offense where the court finds sufficient evidence of a concern for the victim's safety or the safety of any member of the public, order that the person be placed on surveillance via an approved active electronic monitoring device which must be worn or possessed at all times for the duration specified by the court, either in lieu of setting or requiring the posting of bond or as an additional condition of the release on bond.

(2) For pre-trial bond consideration, the judge is not limited to nonviolent offenses, but must take into consideration all concerns relating to the setting of an appropriate bond under Section 22-5-510, Sections 17-15-10 et seq., and Section 16-25-120. The device must be capable of recording the person's location at all times. If the court orders a device, before the participant is allowed to leave custody, the detention facility where the defendant is located, in coordination with the approved monitoring agency, must ensure the participant is fitted with an approved active electronic monitoring device, and that all appropriate bond paperwork, including the agreement with the bonding and electronic monitoring companies acknowledging the terms and restrictions of the bond, is completed.

(3) (a) The participant who is ordered on supervision must wear an approved device at all times to verify his compliance with the conditions of his detention or if the device is not body worn, must maintain possession of his approved device on or near his person at all times for the duration of the detention and must verify his identity and location at any time required by the order of the court and must maintain the monitoring device on or near his person at all times for the duration of the detention, subject to the order of the court and reasonable orders of an agent or employee of the monitoring agency in order to effectuate the conditions of the monitoring order. For purposes of this subsection, "near" means within hearing distance of the device's notification or call alerts but not farther than thirty feet. In areas of the State where cellular coverage requires the use of an alternate device, the approved electronic monitoring company may use an alternate approved device with approval of the court;

(b) must charge and maintain the monitoring device in working order and must report any damage, destruction, or noticeable malfunction of the active monitoring device, whether the incident was accidental or intentional, and including the device having a dead battery, to at least one of the following parties within two hours of the incident:

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12, 2023

the monitoring agency, the appropriate law enforcement agency with jurisdiction over the underlying offense, or any other party specified in the order;

(c) must abide by other terms and conditions set forth by the approved electronic monitoring agency with regard to the monitoring device and electronic monitoring program;

(d) must turn himself in to custody of the appropriate detention facility upon the order of the monitoring agency, or the appropriate law enforcement agency with jurisdiction over the offense;

(e) must pay for the cost of the approved active electronic monitoring device and the operation of the monitoring device for the duration of the time the person is required to be electronically monitored, subject to an order of indigency by the court. The summary court or circuit court has jurisdiction upon motion of the defendant to consider exempting a person from the payment of a part or all of the cost during a part or all of the duration of the time the person is required to be electronically monitored, if it is determined that exceptional circumstances exist such that these payments cause a severe hardship to the person who is deemed indigent. If the indigency hearing is held at a time and date separate from the initial bond hearing, the defense must notify the prosecutor, the bondsman, and the monitoring agency of the date, time, and location of the hearing subject to the notice requirements of the court.

The payment of the cost must be a condition of supervision of the person and a delinquency of two weeks or more in making payments may operate as a violation of a term or condition of the electronic monitoring and bond. No person shall be denied the privilege of electronic monitoring under this statute based on inability to pay upon a finding by the court that the defendant meets the qualifications for indigency. The State shall allocate funds to be housed in an indigency fund under the control of the Department of Public Safety to be distributed to the monitoring companies as appropriate to cover the cost of indigent participants.

(C) A participant ordered by the court to be monitored under the provisions of this section, who fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section or who fails to comply with any additional condition of the court order including location restrictions, may have his bond revoked or may be punished for contempt at the discretion of the court.

(D) It is unlawful for any person, knowingly and without authority, to remove, tamper with, damage, destroy, shield the signal from, or otherwise circumvent an active electronic monitoring device, or to aid or assist a person ordered by the court to be electronically monitored under the provisions of this section to remove, tamper with, damage, destroy, shield the signal from, or otherwise circumvent a monitoring device, and upon conviction, the person must be punished under the provisions of Section 24-13-425. This subsection does not apply to a person or agent of the electronic monitoring agency or bonding company, or a member of law enforcement acting under the authority of and with compliance to the court order.

(E)(1) Upon violation of any of these requirements and a showing by affidavit and supporting records by the electronic monitoring company on a domestic violence bond or general sessions bond or where emergency circumstances exist on any other bond, the approved electronic monitoring company may approach a summary court judge for a bench warrant if one is not already provided for in the bond paperwork or other court order. Law enforcement shall immediately attempt to locate and incarcerate the defendant upon notice of the bench warrant. After incarceration, the prosecutor must be notified and the defendant must be brought before a summary court judge within three calendar days or before a circuit court judge within three business days, whichever has jurisdiction of the underlying charge, to determine whether the bond is to be reconsidered or bond conditions amended. The prosecution must provide the defense with any relevant evidence regarding the alleged violation within a reasonable time before the hearing and the hearing may be continued for cause.

(2) Nothing in this section shall reduce any duty of the bondsman to pick up the offending bailee and immediately incarcerate him for violation of bond conditions. Failure to do so may lead to bond estreatment for failure to enforce bond conditions by the bondsman and possible other administrative or criminal action.

(3) Nothing in this section may be used to hold the electronic monitoring agency civilly liable for any criminal acts of the defendant committed while being monitored.

SECTION X. Chapter 15, Title 17 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 17-15-37. (A) The South Carolina Law Enforcement Division may promulgate regulations to effectuate the intent of Section 17-15-35 and this section, develop standards for the use and approval of active electronic monitoring devices, and shall certify electronic monitoring agencies, including law enforcement agencies, electronic monitoring companies, and bondsmen and bonding companies. SLED must keep a public list of those companies that are certified.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12, 2023

(B) The approved electronic monitoring agency must:

(1) provide active electronic monitoring devices or mobile phone applications approved by SLED that must provide verifiable identity and location information at regular and random intervals throughout the day, and that timely record and report the person's presence near or within a prohibited area or the person's departure from a specified geographic location;

(2) allow any law enforcement agency, including the prosecutor's office, to have access to real-time monitoring, if possible, and any reports requested by law enforcement or the prosecution must be provided within twenty-four hours of the request;

(3) notify the solicitor having jurisdiction over the participant and the bondsman within forty-eight hours when he becomes aware or should have become aware that the participant has violated any provision of the court's order for electronic monitoring, or the participant has been surrendered to the custody of law enforcement; and

(4) immediately notify local law enforcement and make reasonable attempts to immediately notify the victim if the participant violates any exclusion zones related to the victim.

(C) Failure of the electronic monitoring agency to maintain compliance with regulations established by SLED, the order of the court, or any applicable statute shall be reported to SLED by the solicitor for administrative action. SLED may impose a fine, or suspend or revoke the certification for any approved agency who demonstrates a failure to maintain the standards and reporting requirements set forth under the regulations and appropriate statutes.

SECTION X. Section 24-13-425 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 24-13-425. (A) For the purposes of this section:

—(1) "Electronic monitoring device" includes any device ordered by a court or pursuant to any statute that is utilized to track the location of a person.

—(2) ~~"Person" includes any public or private agency or entity providing electronic monitoring services.~~

(B) It is unlawful for any person to knowingly and without authority remove, destroy, or circumvent the operation of an electronic monitoring device which is being used for the purpose of monitoring a person who is:

(1) complying with the Home Detention Act as set forth in Article 15, Title 24;

(2) wearing an electronic monitoring device as a condition of bond or pretrial release;

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12, 2023

(3) wearing an electronic monitoring device as a condition of probation, parole, or community supervision; or

(4) wearing an electronic monitoring device as required by any other provision of law.

(C) It shall be unlawful for any person to knowingly and without authority request or solicit any other person to remove, destroy, or circumvent the operation of an electronic monitoring device which is being used for the purposes described in subsection (B).

(D) This section does not apply to an employee or agent of the electronic monitoring company, bonding company, or law enforcement entity who removes or replaces an active electronic monitoring device in order to perform maintenance and repair on the device, who removes and replaces a non-working device, who removes the device once the person is placed into secure custody or if the underlying charges have been dismissed, or who otherwise is acting under the authority of the court order.

(E) Any person who violates the provisions of this section shall be guilty of the misdemeanor offense of tampering with the operation of an electronic monitoring device and shall be imprisoned for not more than three years, or fined up to three thousand dollars, or both.

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 3, by striking Section 17-15-55(A)(2) and inserting:

(2) After a circuit court judge has heard and ruled upon a defendant's motion to reconsider a bond set by a summary court judge, further defense motions to reconsider may be heard by the circuit court only upon the defendant's prima facie showing of a material change in circumstances which relate to the factors provided in Section 17-15-30, and which have arisen since the prior motion to reconsider. In addition, the circuit court may hear further defense motions to reconsider based on the length of time the defendant has been held for trial after six months. The chief judge shall schedule a hearing or if such showing is not set forth in the written motion, deny the motion for failure to make a prima facie showing of a material change in circumstances. A defendant shall be advised of his right to a speedy trial. Information regarding the defendant's guilt or innocence does not qualify as a change in circumstances for purposes of reconsidering bond absent the solicitor's consent. Notwithstanding another provision of law, nothing prevents a solicitor or the defendant from filing a motion for a speedy trial or requesting the court to set a date certain for trial based on the facts and circumstances in the case. If either party fails to comply with the terms of an order granting a speedy trial, the court may reconsider the terms of the defendant's bond, may consider sanctions and may grant other just and proper relief as the court determines.

Amendment No. 1

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by deleting SECTION 1.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 2, by striking Section 17-15-15(D) and inserting:

(D) The provisions of this section do not apply if the defendant is charged with a violent offense, as defined by Section 16-1-60, or any felony offense involving a firearm while out on bond or other pretrial release. If the court, pursuant to the limitations of Section 17-15-30, finds that such defendant may be released pending trial, bond must be set at the full United States currency cash bond to the exclusion of all other forms of bond whether the bond is posted by the defendant or with a bondsman. After the defendant fulfills the conditions of the bond, the clerk shall return the cash bond amount paid to the defendant. However, in the event the defendant is required by the court to make restitution to the victim of his crime, the cash bond may be used for the purpose of such restitution.

Any currency cash bond must be conditioned on the person charged personally appearing before the court specified to answer the charge or indictment and to do and receive what is enjoined by the court, and not to leave the State, and be of good behavior toward all the citizens of the State, or especially toward a person or persons specified by the court. Additionally, the court may impose any other conditions allowed under Chapter 15 of Title 17 and other law.

Amend the bill further, by adding an appropriately numbered SECTION to read:

SECTION X. Section 17-15-30 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 17-15-30. (A) In determining conditions of release that will reasonably assure appearance, or if release would constitute an unreasonable danger to the community or an individual, a court may, on the basis of the following information, consider the nature and circumstances of an offense charged and the charged person's:

- (1) family ties;
- (2) employment;
- (3) financial resources;
- (4) character and mental condition;
- (5) length of residence in the community;
- (6) record of convictions; and
- (7) record of flight to avoid prosecution or failure to appear at other court proceedings.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12, 2023

(B) A court ~~shall~~ must consider:

- (1) a person's criminal record;
- (2) any current charges pending against a person and any prior charges against a person at the time release is requested;
- (3) all incident reports generated as a result of an offense charged;
- (4) whether a person is an alien unlawfully present in the United States, and poses a substantial flight risk due to this status; ~~and~~
- (5) whether the charged person appears in the state gang database maintained at the State Law Enforcement Division; and
- (6) whether a person is currently out on bond for another offense.

(C)(1) Prior to or at the time of a hearing, the arresting law enforcement agency shall provide the court with the following information:

- (a) a person's criminal record;
- (b) any charges pending against a person at the time release is requested;
- (c) all incident reports generated as a result of the offense charged; and
- (d) any other information that will assist the court in determining conditions of release.

(2) The arresting law enforcement agency shall inform the court if any of the information is not available at the time of the hearing and the reason the information is not available. Failure on the part of the law enforcement agency to provide the court with the information does not constitute grounds for the postponement or delay of the person's hearing. Notwithstanding the provisions of this item, when a person is charged with a violation of Chapter 25, Title 16, the bond hearing may not proceed without the person's criminal record and incident report or the presence of the arresting officer. The bond hearing for a violation of Chapter 25, Title 16 must occur within twenty-four hours after the arrest.

(D) A court hearing these matters has contempt powers to enforce the provisions of this section.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 3, by striking Section 17-15-55(C), (D), and (E) and inserting:

(C) If a person commits a violent ~~crime~~ offense, as defined in Section 16-1-60, or any felony offense involving a firearm, which was committed when the person was already out on bond for a previous violent ~~crime~~ offense or any felony offense involving a firearm and the subsequent ~~violent crime~~ offense did not arise out of the same series of events as the previous ~~violent crime~~ offense, then:

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12, 2023

(1) the bond hearing for the subsequent violent crime original offense must be revoked and a hearing for the subsequent violent offense or any felony offense involving a firearm must be held in the circuit court within thirty days;

(2) during the bond hearing for the subsequent violent offense or felony offense involving a firearm, the court must issue findings of fact and conclusions of law addressing the revocation of bond for the original offense, whether a new bond is issued for the previous offense as well as if bond is appropriate for the subsequent violent offense or felony offense involving a firearm.

(3) if the court finds that certain conditions of release on bond will ensure that the person is unlikely to flee or pose a danger to any other person or the community and the person will abide by the terms of release on bond, the judge shall consider bond in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and set or amend bond accordingly. Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 17-15-15, any bond set for a violent offense or felony offense involving a firearm committed when the person was already out on bond for a previous violent offense or felony offense involving a firearm must be deposited to the court in cash or its equivalent in full, notwithstanding if posted by the person, his representative, or by a bond surety. If a secondary bond is posted by a bond surety, the surety must certify to the court that all costs and fees required by the contract or agreement with the defendant were paid in full at the time of the bonding and that no future payments, fees, or interest are due from the defendant. A failure by the defendant to make payments or to pay fees or interest to a bond surety after the release from custody for any contract or agreement made in violation of this subsection shall not be enforceable in any court;

(4) if the court finds no such conditions will ensure that the person is unlikely to flee or not pose a danger to the community, the court shall not set a bond for the instant offense and must revoke all previously set bonds; and-

(D)-(5) if a person commits a violent offensecrime, as defined in Section 16-1-60, or felony offense involving a firearm which was committed when the person was already out on bond for a previous violent crimeoffense or felony offense involving a firearm, and the subsequent violent crimeoffense did not arise out of the same series of events as the previous offenseviolent crime, then the arresting law enforcement agency must transmit notice of the second arrest, implicating this subsection-(C), to the solicitor of the circuit in which the crime-offense was committed and the administrative chief judge of the circuit in which the ~~crime-offense~~ was committed. The prosecuting agency must notify any victims of the initial or subsequent ~~crimes offenses~~ pursuant to Chapter 3, Title 16 of any bond hearings.

(D) If a person commits a violent offense, as defined in Section 16-1-60, or felony offense involving a firearm which was committed when the person was already out on bond for two or more previous separate violent offenses or felony offenses involving a firearm for which separate bonds were set, and the subsequent offense did not arise out of the same series of events as the two or more previous separate offenses, and the court determines that under the totality of the circumstances the previous bonds should not be revoked and another bond should be set, any bond set by the court must be deposited in full and may not be posted by any bond surety company.

(E) For the purpose of bond revocation only, a summary court has concurrent jurisdiction with the circuit court for ~~ten-thirty~~ days from the date bond is first set on a charge by the summary court or the date of the grand jury indictment whichever occurs first to determine if bond should be revoked.

Amend the bill further, by adding appropriately numbered SECTIONS to read:

SECTION X. Section 22-5-510 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 22-5-510. (A) Magistrates may admit to bail a person charged with an offense, the punishment of which is not death or imprisonment for life; provided, however, with respect to violent offenses as defined by the General Assembly pursuant to Section 15, Article I of the Constitution of South Carolina, 1895, magistrates may deny bail giving due weight to the evidence and to the nature and circumstances of the event including, but not limited to, any charges pending against the person requesting bail. "Violent offenses" as used in this section mean the offenses contained in Section 16-1-60. If a person under lawful arrest on a charge not bailable is brought before a magistrate, the magistrate shall commit the person to jail. If the offense charged is bailable, the magistrate shall take recognizance with sufficient surety, if it is offered, in default whereof the person must be incarcerated.

(B) A person charged with a bailable offense must have a bond hearing within twenty-four hours of his arrest and must be released within a reasonable time, not to exceed four hours, after the bond is delivered to the incarcerating facility.

(C) In determining conditions of release that will reasonably assure appearance, or if release would constitute an unreasonable danger to the community or an individual, a court, on the basis of the following information, may consider the nature and circumstances of an offense charged and the charged person's:

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12, 2023

- (1) family ties;
- (2) employment;
- (3) financial resources;
- (4) character and mental condition;
- (5) length of residence in the community;
- (6) record of convictions; and
- (7) record of flight to avoid prosecution or failure to appear at other court proceedings.

(D) A court ~~shall~~ must consider:

- (1) a person's criminal record;
- (2) any charges pending against a person at the time release is requested;

(3) all incident reports generated as a result of an offense charged;

(4) whether a person is an alien unlawfully present in the United States, and poses a substantial flight risk due to this status; ~~and~~

(5) whether the charged person appears in the state gang database maintained at the State Law Enforcement Division; and

(6) whether a person is currently out on bond for another offense.

(E) Prior to or at the time of the bond hearing, the arresting law enforcement agency ~~shall~~ must provide the court with the following information:

(1) the person's criminal record;

(2) any charges pending against the person at the time release is requested;

(3) all incident reports generated as a result of the offense charged; and

(4) any other information that will assist the court in determining conditions of release.

(F) The arresting law enforcement agency shall inform the court if any of the information required in subsections (C), (D), and (E) is not available at the time of the hearing and the reason the information is not available. Failure on the part of the law enforcement agency to provide the court with the information does not constitute grounds for the postponement or delay of the person's bond hearing. Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection, when a person is charged with a violation of Chapter 25, Title 16, the bond hearing may not proceed without the person's criminal record and incident report or the presence of the arresting officer. The bond hearing for a violation of Chapter 25, Title 16 must occur within twenty-four hours after the arrest.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12, 2023

(G) A court hearing this matter has contempt powers to enforce these provisions.

SECTION X. Section 24-13-40 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 24-13-40. The computation of the time served by prisoners under sentences imposed by the courts of this State must be calculated from the date of the imposition of the sentence. However, when (a) a prisoner shall have given notice of intention to appeal, (b) the commencement of the service of the sentence follows the revocation of probation, or (c) the court shall have designated a specific time for the commencement of the service of the sentence, the computation of the time served must be calculated from the date of the commencement of the service of the sentence. In every case in computing the time served by a prisoner, full credit against the sentence must be given for time served prior to trial and sentencing, and may be given for any time spent under monitored house arrest. Provided, however, that credit for time served prior to trial and sentencing shall not be given: (1) when the prisoner at the time he was imprisoned prior to trial was an escapee from another penal institution; ~~or~~ (2) when the prisoner is serving a sentence for one offense and is awaiting trial and sentence for a second offense in which case he shall not receive credit for time served prior to trial in a reduction of his sentence for the second offense; (3) when the prisoner commits a subsequent crime while out on bond; or (4) has bond revoked on any charge prior to trial or plea.

Amendment No. 19

Senators ADAMS, HUTTO and MALLOY proposed the following amendment (SJ-3532.MB0078S), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by adding appropriately numbered SECTIONS to read:

SECTION X. Section 38-53-10(12) of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

(12) "Surety bondsman" means any person who is approved by and licensed by the director or his designee as ~~an~~ a property and casualty insurance agent, appointed by an insurer by power of attorney to execute or countersign bail bonds for the insurer in connection with judicial proceedings, and receives or is promised money or other things of value for the execution or countersignature.

SECTION X. Section 38-53-10 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

(15) "Electronic monitoring" means monitoring a person by the use of a device which records or transmits oral or wire communications or an auditory sound, visual images, or information regarding the person's activities.

SECTION X. Section 38-53-50(B) of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

(B) If the circumstances warrant immediate incarceration of the defendant to prevent imminent violation of one of the specific terms of the bail bond, or if the defendant has violated one of the specific terms of the bond, the surety may take the defendant to the appropriate detention facility for holding until the court orders that the surety be relieved. The surety, within three business days following recommitment, must file with the detention facility and the court an affidavit clocked in with the clerk of court on a form provided by the Division of Court Administration stating the facts to support the surrender of the defendant for good cause. Nonpayment of premium fees alone is not sufficient cause to warrant immediate incarceration of the defendant. When the defendant and the affidavit are presented at the appropriate detention facility, the facility shall take custody of the defendant. When the affidavit is filed with the court, the surety also shall file a motion to be relieved on the bond pursuant to subsection (A). A surety who surrenders a defendant and files an affidavit which does not show good cause is subject to penalties imposed for perjury as provided for in Article 1, Chapter 9, Title 16.

SECTION X. Section 38-53-70 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 38-53-70. If a defendant ~~fails to appear at a court proceeding to which he has been summoned~~ violates the conditions of release on bond, the court shall issue a bench warrant for the defendant. The court ~~shall must make available for pickup by the surety or the representative of the surety who executed the bond on their behalf, a true copy provide~~ written or electronic notice of the issuance of the bench warrant within seventy days of its issuance at the clerk of court's office to every party bound in the recognizance. If the surety fails to surrender the defendant or place a hold on the defendant's release from incarceration, commitment, or institutionalization within ninety days of the issuance of the bench warrant, the bond is forfeited. At any time before execution is issued on a judgment of forfeiture against a defendant or his surety, the court may direct that the judgment be remitted in whole or in part, upon conditions as the court may impose, if it appears that justice requires the remission of part or all of the judgment. In making a determination as to remission of the judgment, the court shall consider the costs to the State or a county or municipality resulting from the necessity to continue or terminate the defendant's trial and the efforts of law enforcement officers or agencies to locate the defendant. The court, in its discretion, may permit the surety to pay the estreatment in installments for a period of up to six months; however, the surety shall pay a handling fee to the court in an amount equal to four percent of the value of the bond. If at any time during the period in which installments are to be paid the defendant is surrendered to the appropriate detention facility and the surety complies with the recommitment procedures, the surety is relieved of further liability.

SECTION X. Chapter 53, Title 38 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 38-53-83. No person may engage in electronic monitoring of a defendant released by a court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to a bail bond unless that person is employed by any electronic monitoring company that is approved by a licensed bail bondsman or qualified and licensed as a professional bondsman, surety bondsman, or runner pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. This section does not apply to any agent or agency of the State, any agent or agency of any county or municipal government in South Carolina, or any agent or agency, department, or division of the federal government.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12, 2023

SECTION X. Chapter 53, Title 38 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 38-53-84. (A) A person engaged in electronic monitoring of a defendant must, within forty-eight hours, notify the solicitor having jurisdiction over the defendant when he becomes aware or should have become aware that the defendant has violated any provision of the court's order for electronic monitoring. Failure of a defendant to timely pay the bondsman the full monthly electronic monitoring fee associated with the cost of the electronic monitoring device and the associated cost of the monitoring service, shall, in and of itself, constitute good cause for the bondsman to file a motion to be relieved on the bond and to surrender the defendant to the custody of the appropriate detention facility pursuant to Section 38-53-50.

(B) Failure of the bondsman to maintain compliance with the reporting requirement of subsection (A) shall be reported to the South Carolina Department of Insurance by the solicitor for administrative action whereby the bondsman's license may be fined, suspended, or revoked.

SECTION X. Section 38-53-170(e) and (f) of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

(e) accept anything of value from a principal except the premium, which may not exceed fifteen percent of the face amount of the bond, with a minimum fee of ~~twenty five~~ one hundred dollars or ten percent of the bond, whichever is greater, that must be charged and collected by the bondsman before the execution of the bond. Conditions of the bond which expressly or implicitly require payment of monies in excess of the premium, as a cost of satisfying the condition of the bond, shall not be considered part of the bondsman's premium, and are not affected by this code provision. The bondsman may collect these fees from the defendant and is not limited by any language requirements of this code provision.

However, the bondsman is permitted to enter into a payment agreement by attaching a statement of bondsman to the bond proceeding form and this agreement shall require the principal on the bail bond or any indemnitor to make a minimum down payment of one hundred dollars. This payment agreement may not be altered and must not exceed eighteen months after the date on which the bond was executed. If the payment has not been made for two consecutive months, the bondsman must send a certified notice to the last known address of the principal and indemnitor demanding payment be made within ten days to bring the agreement current. If no payment is received by the end of the notice period, the bondsman must surrender the principal to the proper detention facility for holding and file a motion to be relieved as provided in Section 38-53-50(A) or (B), at which time the agreement must be accelerated, and the balance paid in full, before or at the motion hearing for the principal to be rereleased on bond. The bondsman may accept collateral security or other indemnity from the principal which must be returned ~~upon~~ within ten days after final termination of liability on the bond unless a bench warrant has been issued. The bondsman shall identify who is paying the premium and shall represent that the collateral security or other indemnity has not been obtained from any person who has a greater interest in the principal's disappearance than appearance for trial. The collateral security or other indemnity required by the bondsman must be reasonable in relation to the amount of the bond. If the bond is forfeited, a bondsman may not convert collateral described in the collateral receipt to cash until he has provided a ten-day notice of this pending conversion to the depositor. This notice must be sent by certified mail to the last know address of the depositor. After the conversion, the bondsman must disclose the actual amount received to the depositor and must return any amount received that exceeds the final judgement or consent amount, less any reasonable expenses. These reasonable expenses include apprehension and legal costs incurred as a result of the violation of the bond. The bondsman must provide the depositor copies of all receipts and, if applicable, the overage money with three days after settlement;

(f) solicit business in any of the courts or on the premises of any of the courts of this State, in the office of any magistrate, or in or about any place where prisoners are confined. Law enforcement officers and jailers shall report any violations of this provision to the court. Any action taken pursuant to this provision resulting in a conviction, guilty plea, or plea of nolo contendere pursuant to Section 38-53-340 must be reported to the director or his designee by the court within thirty days; or

SECTION X. Section 38-53-310 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 38-53-310. (A) Each professional bondsman shall by the fifteenth of each month file with the clerk of court of the county of his principal place of business and any other county where he is doing business a written report in a form prescribed by the director or his designee regarding all bail bonds on which he is liable as of the first day of each month ~~showing:~~

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12, 2023

(B) Each surety bondsman shall, within thirty days of executing a bail bond, file with their respective insurance provider a written or electronic report in a form approved by the director or his designee detailing all bail bonds on which he has cause to be executed.

(C) The reports referenced in subsections (A) and (B) shall include the following:

- ~~(a)~~(1) each individual bonded;
- ~~(b)~~(2) the date the bond was given;
- ~~(c)~~(3) the principal sum of the bond;
- ~~(d)~~(4) the state or local official with whom the bond was filed;
- ~~(e)~~(5) the fee charged for the bonding service in each instance; ~~and~~
- ~~(f)~~(6) all pending bonds; and
- (7) any current data on monies to be collected and retained as an express condition of the bond, whether for electronic monitoring or otherwise.

(D) In lieu of the monthly submission of a written report to the clerk of court, the bondsman may utilize a data management software system, which contains the above required current information, and is capable of providing the appropriate clerk of court or his designee with real-time access to the data management system through a portal, website, or other data access system through which the clerk of court can confirm he has access to the required information.

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The Senate assembled at 11:00 A.M., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Isaiah 12:2

Isaiah the prophet tells us: "Surely God is my salvation; I will trust and will not be afraid, for the Lord God is my strength and my might; he has become my salvation."

Bow with me as we pray, please: It never fails, O Lord, as these Senators know so very well -- from all sides -- often at every hour of the day -- people call, wanting this, seeking that, complaining about goodness only knows. And at times it all surely can be too much. Even tried and true legislators speak to that reality. So we pray that You will embrace these leaders in Your loving care, dear God. Grant them all not just the stamina to get through every new day of public service, but also the wisdom and grace to carry on, assisting the people of our State while each Senator and aide at the same time trusts in Your strength and Your might while they faithfully serve others. In Your loving name we pray, Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

Section 40-1-77.(A) The purpose of this section is to expand economic opportunities and build a skilled workforce according to industry standards by allowing a worker to earn a paycheck while he fulfills applicable licensing requirements.

(B) For purposes of this section:

THURSDAY, APRIL 13, 2023

(1) “Apprenticeship” means a United States Department of Labor-approved and registered apprenticeship or an industry recognized apprenticeship for an occupation or profession licensed by a South Carolina regulatory board or commission under the South Carolina Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation, as approved by the applicable licensing board.

(2) “Board” means a board, commission, or panel under the South Carolina Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation that regulates a profession or occupation and issues a license to an individual. This definition of “board” does not include boards and commissions established and operating pursuant to Chapter 15, Title 54.

(3) “License” means a license, certificate, registration, permit, or other evidence that an individual is qualified to engage in an occupation or profession before that person may engage in or represent himself as a member of an occupation or profession.

(4) “Scope of practice” means the procedures, actions, processes, and work that a person may perform pursuant to a license issued by an occupation’s or profession’s regulatory board.

(C) A board shall issue an initial license pursuant to this section to an applicant, if the applicant:

(1) completes an apprenticeship in an occupation or profession that has a similar scope of practice, as determined by the board, to an occupation or profession regulated by this State through license requirements;

(2) successfully passes requisite examinations;

(3) submits a completed application and pays all applicable fees;

(4) is not otherwise disqualified from licensure because of an applicable criminal conviction; and

A board shall not require an applicant pursuant to this section to complete requirements that exceed the requirements of other license applicants for initial licensure.

(D) If a board denies a license to an applicant under this section, then the board shall:

(1) provide the applicant with a denial in writing; and

(2) explain the reason for the denial in the written decision, such as whether the licensing entity determined that the applicant’s apprenticeship program does not correspond to the profession or occupation or level of license for which the applicant applied.

THURSDAY, APRIL 13, 2023

(E) A license issued pursuant to this section is subject to the same provisions of law governing a license for the occupation or profession.

(F) A board shall not require an applicant pursuant to this section to complete an apprenticeship for a greater duration of time than that which is required pursuant to federal law.

(G) A board may require an applicant pursuant to this section to successfully pass an examination only if the board imposes the same examination requirement on other license applicants. A board shall not require an applicant pursuant to this section to receive a higher score on an examination than the score required of other license applicants.

(H) A board may require an applicant pursuant to this section to pay a licensing fee only if the board imposes a licensing fee on other license applicants. A board shall not impose on an applicant pursuant to this section a licensing fee greater than the licensing fee imposed on other applicants.

(I) A board may promulgate regulations necessary for the implementation of this act.

(J) This section does not apply to:

Indicates New Matter

The Senate assembled at 12:00 Noon, the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Joshua 24:15

Joshua challenged his people, saying to them:

“ ‘ . . . choose this day whom you will serve. . . ’ and then he declared, ‘as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord.’ ”

Let us pray: Most Holy Lord, likely few of us consciously think each day about how many times we have to make choices. A great deal of those decisions, naturally, are about lightweight, minor things. Yet others truly are about major issues which demand serious, wise, and caring thought. So, we pray, dear God, that You will unfailingly lead each one of these forty-six Senators as they make those decisions which frequently impact the people and the institutions of South Carolina in truly significant ways. And as they guide and hopefully bring blessings to the people of our State, may these servant leaders also bring great blessings upon You, dear Lord. So we pray in Your loving name. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

MR. CHAIRMAN: We're convening the Commission and at this time I will recognize President Alexander.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. I would move that we go into Executive Session pursuant to Code Section dealing with personal information.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All those in favor say aye. (Ayes are heard.) MR. Opposed, no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right. We are now going into Executive Session so anybody except these two (indicating) I guess you've got to leave. EXECUTIVE SESSION

MR. CHAIRMAN: We'll go ahead and get started this afternoon. Thanks for putting up with the short meeting we had. There was no action taken during the Executive Session we just had. At this time I'd like introduce the committee members to my right. President Alexander and Senator Scott, Senator Verdin, and Senator Harpootlian. On my left is Representative King, Representative McGinnis, Representative Rose and I am representative Whitmire I am the chairman from Oconee County. Macey Webb is our analyst and she is will be handling all the leg work for us. At this time I'll recognize Macey.

MS. WEBB: Hi, good afternoon. Just to clarify for the record for College of Charleston and SC State pertaining to the 1st Congressional District, which is what we were meeting about during Executive Session, just to clarify, under the law for the 1st Congressional District we are unfortunately not going to be able to screen those seats today. So when those candidates had applied for the 1st Congressional District that have new been drawn out they will continue to serve in their positions until we are able to reopen those seats and screen and put someone else in that position at that time. We will proceed with screening, just for everyone else. Just for the clarification for the record.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Sure. Come on up.

COLLEGE OF CHARLESTON:

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. BURKE: Hi, I'm Beth Burke. You can probably hear me. I'm one of the 1st Congressional District candidates so I have you all here I'd like to ask, understand that I'll be able to --

MR. CHAIRMAN: I don't think your mic is on.

MS. BURKE: Okay. Thank you all for giving me just a moment to talk with you. I am Beth Burke. I'm serving in the 1st Congressional District and I understand that I'll continue to run in my seat until you're able to reopen my seat and so others could run for it. Well I have an opportunity to run for a seat that I now qualify for. I was living in the 1st Congressional District until the lines changed and now I'm qualified for the 6th or an at-large seat. So my question is will another seat that I could run for be opened? That's all. If you know, and you may not know.

MR. CHAIRMAN: We don't know at this time, we'll get back with you.

MS. BURKE: All right, thank you so much, good luck today I hope y'all are out of here before 10:00 o'clock.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Hope so too.

MS. BURKE: And I can make carpool line, headed back to Charleston.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right. First up for the College of Charleston screening will be the 1st Congressional District that was you. So now we'll go 2nd Congressional District, Derrick Williams. If you'll come up and let me -- if you'd raise your right hand and let me swear you in? DERRICK WILLIAMS, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'll just state your name and give us a brief statement on why you're running.

MR. WILLIAMS: Thank you, Derrick Williams. I live in Columbia, South Carolina. All right, can you hear me? I live in Columbia South, Carolina. I'm a 1990 grad of the College of Charleston, also graduated from honors college there. Married, have two wonderful daughters, have served on various boards but still serve on the alumni board now as the Past Alumni President for the College of Charleston until last May and happy to be here today.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Questions from the Committee? Okay. Go ahead. I'll recognize Macey, she's got four questions for you.

MR. WILLIAMS: Yes, sir.

MS. WEBB: Yes and just so everyone's aware I'll ask these standard, you know, few questions to each candidate that comes forward today. So, for the record, can you please state your first and last name?

MR. WILLIAMS: Yes, Derrick Williams.

MS. WEBB: All right and then can you please tell me the address that you live at?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. WILLIAMS: Sure. 3800 Trenholm Road, Columbia South Carolina 29206.

MS. WEBB: Thank you and is this where you pay your four percent property tax?

MR. WILLIAMS: That's correct.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And then since submitting your application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you are aware of?

MR. WILLIAMS: No, none that I'm aware of.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And then since submitting your application, are there any changes that you feel the Commission needs to know about?

MR. WILLIAMS: One change and I believe I submitted a letter, I was previously employed at a law firm named Mickle and Bass. I started my own law firm on January 4th, it's now Williams and Roche. So I get to pay even more taxes in all. But still I'm practicing here in the Columbia area.

MS. WEBB: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Any questions? Hearing none, what's the desire of the committee. You have a question?

SENATOR SCOTT: Motion for favor.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Motion for favor. All those in favor signify by saying aye? Do we need to raise our hands? (Ayes are heard.)

MS. WEBB: Well you can say aye.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Nos? (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Ayes have it. Congratulations.

MR. WILLIAMS: Thank you, sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you for your willingness to serve.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right next up is -- find my place here. That's it. 3rd Congressional District Shawn Holland. You'll raise your right hand let me swear you in. SHAWN HOLLAND, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: State your name and give a brief statement why you're running.

MR. HOLLAND: All right. Shawn Holland from Anderson, South Carolina. I look back, it's been an honor to serve on this board for the last four years and I look forward to continue working with these folks behind me. I'm very fortunate to have the support of my family to do this, my wife and my family. I'm raising two boys, Beckett and Chapel. I've got home life support, very important. As long as work I have the support of my employees that allowed me to make our business down in Charleston, hop on conference calls and hold on and operate City Glass Company in downtown Anderson. It's a commercial glass company we operate about a hundred miles around Anderson, Oconee County, Greenville County, Anderson County. I'm very proud to be on this board. We've accomplished a bunch over the last four years under President Hsu's leadership and just very proud to be a part of it and I look forward to continue to serve and thank you all for allowing me to be here.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And can you please state your name for the record?

MR. HOLLAND: Shawn Holland.

MS. WEBB: All right. And then where is the address that you live?

MR. HOLLAND: 2906 Dobbins Bridge Road, Anderson, South Carolina, 29626.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And is this where you pay your four percent property tax?

MR. HOLLAND: It is. I do.

MS. WEBB: All right. And since submitting your application are there any new campaign contributions that you have made to any members of the General Assembly that you're aware of?

MR. HOLLAND: No, ma'am.

MS. WEBB: All right and are there any changes to your application that you would like the commission to be aware of? MR. HOLLAND: No.

MS. WEBB: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Questions for Mr. Holland? Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you. Mr. Holland, you mentioned something that was -- that's very important. You said y'all have accomplished a lot under the president, which I'm very impressed with. Tell me a little bit about that four years and some of the things that make up lot that y'all have accomplished that you seem to be so excited about.

MR. HOLLAND: Well we're excited to, one, bring president Hsu on board. You know, when we first -- some of us just when we first started as our first task in hiring a president and due diligence and committees and listen to the campus. And that was our first task, hiring President Hsu. And that's was probably the number one thing. And then, you know, battling life with covid you know so we -- but we shared the number of calls how to operate, how to keep the students best interests in mind, strategic plans, you know but we've -- we develop our students strategic plan under President Hsu with his vision and leadership. And our support, we're moving forward. It's kind of what Dabo says, the best is yet to come that's why I look forward to the next four years, you know. Kind of keep doing the right direction.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you.

MR. HOLLAND: Yes, sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Mr. President?

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: One -- and thank you for your service and your willingness to continue to serve and I see that you are a graduate of 2002. Since we -- I was just curious briefly, since being on the board what has been the biggest positive surprise or experience you had compared to when you were there on campus?

MR. HOLLAND: Good question. Just seeing life as an adult versus being a college student. You know, maybe realizing some things that I didn't realize when I was an 18, 20 year old boy running around campus. Campus is -- it's beautiful and as a student you probably don't realize it, how beautiful it was. But definitely know, you know -- we got Patriots Point's baseball field, we got TD arena now. And we didn't have all that I went out of there so you know, we -- it's great to see it grow.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative King?

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chair. I have a couple questions for you. What do you think you all have to do as a board to make students feel safe and welcomed on campus regardless of what their backgrounds may be?

MR. HOLLAND: Well, it's a constant communication. And it's a communication with our student affairs folks, it's having people on campus with programs that where we're allotting out and it's making sure these students know they've got someone to go to in a time of need.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: What are you all doing to help students who have gone through the covid pandemic that we've gone through and other things that we have faced in reference to mental health and their mental health well being?

MR. HOLLAND: We have an on-site therapist full time, Alicia Cadell in the student affairs department has constantly got her door open. And the constant communication with faculty and staff and in our incoming freshmen so along with tenured students.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: How do you -- how important is the diversity, equity and inclusion, something that we debated doing the budget, how important is that to exist on your campus and having a DEI officer on campus?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. HOLLAND: I -- it's very important and it's something that President Hsu and us take very seriously. You know, me having the baseball background I knew the importance of having a diverse baseball team from different spectrums of the world and things like that. I know the importance of that, you learn from them. You know, we got to -- Courtney Howard is our new DI, uh --

REPRESENTATIVE: DEI.

MR. HOLLAND: Yeah, sorry. On board with us. She's six months new so I know she's constantly working, relaying information to us. And it's ongoing conversation and it will be.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Do you all take DEI training as board members and have conversations as board members like do like a retreat on it or what do you all --

MR. HOLLAND: I don't know if we had a retreat on it but we did have some -- I have taken a course. And a lot of us did an on-site course after meeting.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Other questions? Desire of the committee for approval. All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations.

MR. HOLLAND: Thank y'all.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you for your willingness to serve.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right. Next is 4th Congressional District, Matthew Klein. Come on up and raise your right hand, let me swear you in MATTHEW C. KLEIN, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: Would you state your name and a brief statement of why you'd like to serve -- continue serving on the board.

MR. KLEIN: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Matthew Klein, and members of the Committee. I graduated from the College of Charleston and have benefitted immensely from the liberal arts education in my personal and professional life. My wife is also a graduate. I'm confident my academic background and business experience will help my fellow board members and provide a unique perspective. In the past, I've served on the advisory board for the center for entrepreneurship. And I've served as a guest lecturer for the classes in the college - - school of business, excuse me. And so the combination of these past experiences has reinforced my commitment to serving on the board of trustees. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Questions? Oh, yeah. She's got four questions.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: Sorry. And just bear with me, this is just for clarification for the record and since it's been a while since we did these applications. Can you please state your name for the record?

MR. KLEIN: Matthew Klein.

MS. WEBB: All right. And what is your address?

MR. KLEIN: 116 Crescent Avenue in Greenville, South Carolina 29605.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And is this where you pay your four percent property tax?

MR. KLEIN: Four percent, yes.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And have you made any new campaign contributions to any member since submitting your application that you're aware of? MR. KLEIN: No.

MS. WEBB: All right. And are there any changes with your application that you would like the Commission to know about?

MR. KLEIN: No changes.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you.

MR. KLEIN: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right. Now, questions. Senator Harpootlian.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I notice you are a lecturer at Clemson; is that correct?

MR. KLEIN: That's correct.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And tell me about that, please.

MR. KLEIN: Sure. So I have a doctorate from Georgia State University and I teach in the MBA program at Clemson University in downtown Greenville and I've been doing that for the past decade.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And you are have a background in -- you're a managing partner Red Rock Capital; is that correct?

MR. KLEIN: Yes.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So tell me about what it is you do? I'm sort of fascinated by this.

MR. KLEIN: Sure. After graduation from College of Charleston I was in the software industry and worked for Blackbaud and Benefit Focus, two software companies you're probably aware of. And then Red Rock Capital is another software company I have started with another individual here in South Carolina and we're basically a finance company that works with structured products.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: What's a structured product?

MR. KLEIN: Tax liens and other types of investment vehicles.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay. Not that I understood any of that, but thank you.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. CHAIRMAN: It's nice to know, though.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: It is, I'm just fascinated by these.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Other questions? Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you for your willingness to serve. What has been your experience in being on the board that you want to share with us that makes your school so unique? I see that you've served on research authorities, advisory, pretty strong in the business community, a lecturer, a lot of things at the same time you were a professor at another university. Transfer some of one university behavior to the other. Tell me how that -- you made all that gel.

MR. KLEIN: Sure. I've never served on the board of trustees for the College of Charleston, just wanted to -- yeah.

SENATOR SCOTT: So it's --

MR. KLEIN: Yeah so this is new. I think there's a lot of cross-pollinations and best practices that can be shared across different boards. And so hopefully I can bring those perspectives to the College of Charleston. As well as my experience being a faculty member at Clemson.

SENATOR SCOTT: So how do you -- how do you make sure that students at one school don't live in fear because of a broken environment in the other school.

MR. KLEIN: In terms of conflicts?

SENATOR SCOTT: Well not just on the conflicts. Each president has his own plan that he sells to the board and what he's -- some plans are new, have never been tested, and some have been. And as one who's been on the education committee for so long and also on the body itself. Help to make it gel.

MR. KLEIN: Uh-huh. Well I think you have to look at each one individually.

SENATOR SCOTT: Okay.

MR. KLEIN: And everyone has a unique perspective on where they're at and what their strategy is. I mean, I teach strategy to MBA students and so I do finance. And so you have to look at it, at the entity that you're with, and how best to serve that entity.

SENATOR SCOTT: One is -- one is strategy, the other is practicality.

MR. KLEIN: Correct.

SENATOR SCOTT: Just to want to make sure the two come together better and stronger in university.

MR. KLEIN: I agree.

SENATOR SCOTT: Just want to go to put that with you because I'm sure there's going to be some times it's going to be very questionable in terms of your methodology and in terms of what you hired the president for and your knowledge base.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. KLEIN: Understood. Thank you Senator.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chair. Just one quick question. What commitment -- I know that you will be a new board member. What commitment do you feel financially a board member should make to the college?

MR. KLEIN: I believe a board member should contribute to the college, yes. A financial commitment as well.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Any other questions?

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Move for favorable.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Move for favorable. All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed, no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Ayes have it. Congratulations, Mr. Klein. I know you'll serve the College of Charleston well.

MR. KLEIN: Thank you, sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Next up is the 5th Congressional District, Henry ---

MR. FUTCH: Futch.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Futch.

MR. FUTCH: Yes, sir. HENRY A. FUTCH, JR., being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'll just give your name and a brief statement on why you would like to serve.

MR. FUTCH: Okay, yes. My name is Henry Futch, Jr. I've enjoyed my last four years as a board member. It's been very rewarding. I think the best thing that we did was hire president Hsu he really, really created the road map I think for our future success. Increased the classification on the Carnegie scale. So -- but it's been very rewarding. I'm married to Nolie, Nolie Spencer Futch. She worked at the College of Charleston, we met there years ago. We now have two kids. My daughter Spencer is a freshman at the College of Charleston so it's been very rewarding to see the policies that we vote on, the policies that we've, you know, that we approve to actually see in those doing the practice. And I witnessed it first hand with my daughter. And my son's looking -- he's got another year and he'll be a senior next year in high school but already eyeing the College of Charleston. So you never know, may have two in there within the next couple of years. But we've done some great work just raising the bar, trying to raise the level of higher education at the College of

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

Charleston and, you know, it's just been very rewarding to help improve the lives of our students and the staff at the College of Charleston.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey?

MS. WEBB: Thank you. For the record, can you please state your name?

MR. FUTCH: Yes, Henry Futch, Jr.

MS. WEBB: And what is your address?

MR. FUTCH: 335 College Avenue, Rock Hill 29730.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And is this where you pay your four percent property tax?

MR. FUTCH: Yes.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And since submitting this application are there any new campaign contributions that you have made to any members of the General Assembly? MR. FUTCH: No.

MS. WEBB: All right. And are there any changes to your application that you would like for the commission to be aware of? MR. FUTCH: No.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Questions? Senator Harpootlian.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Thank you for your willingness to serve. I'm sort of intrigued by the -- some of your responses. A current in state tuition is $12,518 undergraduate $13,770 graduate. Out of state is $33,978 undergraduate and $37,376 graduate. That's a pretty big disparity. And the other thing you say is that you have an enrollment of 10,400 you want to increase enrollment by another thousand students. The magic number would be closer to 12,000 students, depending on availability. So what's the magic number -- why is that number magic? Why do you have a specific number of students as a goal?

MR. FUTCH: Well we're doing our best to obviously it's a -- you know, it's a business, you know. So there -- knowing that there are some pretty turbulent waters ahead with enrollment declining we're doing everything that we can to try and increase enrollment, increase applications, so that we can -- and we're also trying to grow. We're trying to become more of a, you know, a you know being that doctorate of professional studies so. There are a lot of powers graded out don't know exactly why that's this number has to be whatever the numbers are what they are. But we are doing everything in our power to make sure that we are inclusive of, you know, of all students and trying to give -- especially in- state students. I know it's -- you know we've had some record enrollment. We had a record enrollment year last year. Or a record number of applicants but it's -- you know, can't always hold the hand, can't always make people come to the College of Charleston. Some of them would rather go to a larger university. So we're trying to make it as appealing as we can and then provide services for ...

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But you said you run it like a business and an out-of-state student pays three times the amount of an in-state student.

MR. FUTCH: Yes, sir.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And of course we're concerned about educating our students, not Pennsylvania's or New York's.

MR. FUTCH: Right.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: So how do you -- is there a quota on how many in-state students you're going to take?

MR. FUTCH: I don't know if there is a quota know that, you know, we certainly -- we've done everything we can to minimize the increase in tuition for in-state students. So we feel like we're --

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: But if you limit -- and bravo for doing that, but you've got a business to run and you need more money, correct?

MR. FUTCH: Correct.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You're not funded adequately, are you?

MR. FUTCH: Excuse me?

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Are you getting enough money?

MR. FUTCH: Well, you know. Probably never get enough money, you know how that -- SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: The shortfall is made up by this tremendous difference in in-state and out-of- state tuition, right?

MR. FUTCH: Yes.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: I mean you're not -- I'm suggesting College of Charleston the only one that does that. I'm just sort of intrigued as to whether we're here to educate the students from New York, New Jersey, California, wherever.

MR. FUTCH: Right.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Or whether we're here to educate our kids.

MR. FUTCH: Well we would -- we would want to educate our kids in South Carolina, as many of them that want to come to the College of Charleston. We are committed to. But it is also I think we like to make the -- it's a college, you know, and we try to increase the standards and make the College of Charleston as good of a college as it can be for the state. So it's -- I guess you can look at the numbers and it may look like the college is, you know, has some room, a lot of a room for improvement. But I could assure you that all of those -- all those metrics are being met, you know. We meet them head on, you know, throughout the year. And we're doing it -- we're up for any suggestions, too, to -- how to balance that -- how to balance bringing in more students and also maintaining the integrity of the state institution.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: You indicated that you recognize there's going to be a demographic change in the number of kids able -- I mean, let's say able to align to go to college. I mean the number of college age kids is decreasing; is that correct? The so-called waterfall.

MR. FUTCH: Yes, sir. Yes, sir. That's coming.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And so it's coming, 25', 26' is what they're talking about.

MR. FUTCH: Yes, sir. True.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And I'm just wondering how you meet that shortfall given fixed -- you have fixed cost, right?

MR. FUTCH: Yes.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Whether you've got a hundred students or ten thousand students. Right?

MR. FUTCH: Right, yes, sir.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And do you just take more out- of-state students?

MR. FUTCH: Well, I guess that's one way to do it.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Okay, well that's -- let me suggest this to you. I'm not sure that the legislature's interested in you educating the kids from New Jersey at the cost of the kids from Greenville.

MR. FUTCH: Okay.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Laurens, or Columbia.

MR. FUTCH: Fair enough, yes, sir.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And I'm not scolding you. I'm just saying as y'all make those decisions understand we're concerned about that.

MR. FUTCH: Yes, sir.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Thank you.

MR. FUTCH: We are too.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Other questions? Senator Scott?

SENATOR SCOTT: Favorable report.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Favorable, okay. All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations.

MR. FUTCH: Thank you very much.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. CHAIRMAN: Continue your good service on the board.

MR. FUTCH: Yes, sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Next up is the 6th Congressional District. We had two candidates originally and the first was Demetria Clemons withdrew on March 24th. The other is Darryl Fyall, I believe that's correct. If you'll come on up. DARRYL J. FYALL, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: State your name and brief statement why you'd like to serve, please, sir.

MR. FYALL: Yes, sir. Good afternoon my name is Darryl Fyall. I'm a native Charlestonian born and raised right downtown in Charleston. Graduated from the College of Charleston in 2001 with a degree in economics. After graduation, I stayed involved. I served on the alumni board for about five years, two as vice president. Also recently served on the econ board for the school of business. I started school -- I finished up at the College of Charleston at age 36 is when I started so I took a non-traditional path. And really appreciated how they treated me and the care that they took to make sure that I graduated. And so that's why I want to serve.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey?

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And for the record again can you please state your first and last name?

MR. FYALL: Darryl Fyall.

MS. WEBB: All right. And what is your address?

MR. FYALL: I have a dual address, 15 Bogard and 3204 Claudia Place in Atlanta, or Peach Tree Corners.

MS. WEBB: Okay and which is the address that you pay your four percent property tax at?

MR. FYALL: In South Carolina I'm technically a renter. I pay property taxes in Georgia.

MS. WEBB: Okay. Okay. So when you filled out your application you put that your home address is 15 Bogard Street Charleston, South Carolina 29403?

MR. FYALL: Correct.

MS. WEBB: Do you recall?

MR. FYALL: That's where I stay most of the year.

MS. WEBB: Okay. And do you own that home?

MR. FYALL: No. It's owned by my sister.

MS. WEBB: Okay. So do you live -- for purposes of residency, do you live in the state of South Carolina?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. FYALL: I do. I do. I'm in South Carolina about three weeks out of the month and then I go to Georgia one week out of the month. My wife and I have a business out there.

MS. WEBB: Do you pay our four percent property tax anywhere in the state of South Carolina?

MR. FYALL: I used to at the time of the application, I had a property in Myrtle Beach, but that has since been sold.

MS. WEBB: So you do not currently pay any property tax in the state of South Carolina?

MR. FYALL: Not on real property, no.

MS. WEBB: Okay. If you'll just please give us one second.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Are you registered to vote in South Carolina?

MR. FYALL: Yes.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Do you have a South Carolina driver's license?

MR. FYALL: I do, yes, sir.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And what is the address on the drivers license?

MR. FYALL: 15 Bogard Street.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And then since submitting the application are there any new campaign contributions that you have made to members of the General Assembly that you're aware of?

MR. FYALL: No. No.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And are there any changes to your application that you would like for the Commission to be aware of since the time of filing this application?

MR. FYALL: Just the sale of the Myrtle Beach property since I submitted. I disclosed that I had property in Myrtle Beach, that's since been sold.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chair. When you did your application there was a question about ways to improve the College of Charleston and you spoke about the percentage of students graduating from diverse ethnic groups can improve. Can you elaborate on what you meant by that?

MR. FYALL: Yeah, I think we have an opportunity to do a better job on recruitment. And one of the things that I want to do put forth suggestions and strategies to improve the enrollment across the board. Black, white -- Asian or black, Asian, Hispanic, etcetera.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And you've answered the questions for our president as well as myself in reference to being a registered voter in South Carolina and your driver's license. So how long have you been a registered voter in South Carolina?

MR. FYALL: So military 18 up until -- actually when I moved back 1999 is when I registered to vote here in South Carolina.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you.

MR. FYALL: I have to had then.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Other questions? We're going to ask you to pause for a second, we've got we're checking on your residency just to make sure. We don't want to report you out if there's some question if you don't mind.

MR. FYALL: Okay.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Sure. President Alexander.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And good afternoon. And thank you for your willingness to serve and so if I understood you correctly, three weeks out of the month basically you're in South Carolina. One month -- one week out of the month in Georgia.

MR. FYALL: One week out of the month, yes, sir. Typically in Georgia.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And have you looked at board meetings you'd be able to work around your schedule I guessed of ten would that be any impact on your ability to --

MR. FYALL: That won't be a problem. My schedule is flexible. I'm basically self employed so I set my own hours.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Just wanted to have that for the record. Thank you, sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Other questions? All right we're going to pause for a minute and we've never had this situation come up before. (Off the Record)

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right come on back up. Well you confused us.

MR. FYALL: Sorry.

MR. CHAIRMAN: I talked to the members of the Commission and I'll recognize Senator Scott first and then we'll take a vote.

SENATOR SCOTT: One quick question. Do you pay South Carolina income tax?

MR. FYALL: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: How long have you been paying South Carolina income tax?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. FYALL: Since '99, when I moved back home.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Okay. Is there a motion by the committee?

SENATOR SCOTT: Favorable.

MR. CHAIRMAN: There is a motion for favorable. All those in favor signify by saying aye. Those no. Congratulations. Next up is the 7th Congressional District, Henrietta Golding HENRIETTA U. GOLDING, having been duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: Just state your name and why you're -- a brief statement why you're running for the college.

MS. GOLDING: Thank you. I'm Henrietta Golding. I live in Horry County. I'm a Myrtle Beach resident. I'm a graduate of the College of Charleston in 1974. I went to law school University of South Carolina in 1977 and at that point in time I was fortunate to find a job in Horry County with the Bellamy Law Firm. Subsequently, 20 years later, I became a partner with McNair law firm. I served on the college board of foundation in 1990s for approximately eight years. Since 2013 I have been a member of the College of Charleston board of trustees. I sincerely believe in the College of Charleston. I know that the College of Charleston, were it not for the education I received and the personal guidance I received, I would not have been as successful a human being as I am. I want to be to continue to be part of an active, fully engaged board of trustees for the college and see the college grow every year. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey.

MS. WEBB: I thank you. Once again for the record, can you please state your name?

MS. GOLDING: Henrietta Golding.

MS. WEBB: Thank you and what is your address.

MS. GOLDING: 3801 Hasty Point, Myrtle Beach, South Carolina.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And do you pay your four percent -- or do you pay your four percent property tax at that address?

MS. GOLDING: I do.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And then since submitting this application have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you are aware of?

MS. GOLDING: I have not, I have not.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And then since submitting your application, are there any changes that you would like for the commission to be aware of?

MS. GOLDING: No changes.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Questions? Mr. President.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: So you've been on the board for since what?

MS. GOLDING: 2013.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: So to ask maybe the same questions, in that years of service what has been the most interesting concept of what you've seen compared to when you were there as a student?

MS. GOLDING: Well, I graduated 1974.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Yes, ma'am.

MS. GOLDING: My freshman class was 400, right. This year it's in the thousands. So there's a significant difference when I became a freshman in 1970 the College of Charleston just became state supported. So President Stern was our president, he was the one that guided the college from a private institution to a state-supported institution. And needless to say the campus is completely different, but all to the better.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you, ma'am.

MS. GOLDING: Yes, sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Anybody else? Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you so very much, Mr. Chair, and thank you for your willingness to serve. Can you tell me your take on diversity inclusion, equity and inclusion and the importance that it has on the campus?

MS. GOLDING: We have a board committee, one of our standing board committees that is called access, equity and inclusion. And I think that probably we were the first in the state of South Carolina to have that board committee. And it's responsibility is to present and go forward with diversity. Now diversity is something that means to me acceptance and opportunity. And we take that step. I think someone earlier asked questions about South Carolina students. Every South Carolina senior who wants to come to the College of Charleston, who is eligible, can come to the College of Charleston. While there are other institutions in this state, you know, that we have to vie for, Clemson, University of South Carolina. But we make it our mission to have diversity, we seek diversity, and we actually have a committee that reports at every one of our committee meetings and every one of our board meetings on our equity and diversity programs.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you so much for your willingness to serve. What is your percentage of minorities, minority students? If you know off the top of your head.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. GOLDING: We have -- I believe the percentage is. with respect to the student body, it's nineteen percent of minority.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Any others? Desire of the committee for favorable. All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed no. Congratulations. (No reply is heard.)

MS. GOLDING: Thank you very much.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you for your willingness to serve. By the way, my two kids graduated from College of Charleston. There was no room 20 years ago down there, not any now. All right. Next page. Okay. I'm sorry it was on another page, is Ashley Nance here? Then we'll skip over and go to at-large seat 15. Renee Romberger. RENEE B. ROMBERGER, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations, and just tell me who you are and your -- a brief statement.

MS. ROMBERGER: Sure. My name is Renee Buyck Romberger I have been on the board since 2013, I am a proud graduate of the College of Charleston and a lifelong resident of South Carolina. I am serving on the board and wish to continue serving on the board because I love this state. I love my alma mater and I love higher education and I feel like the skills and the professional experience that I have allow me to make an effective contribution to the College of Charleston. And I would love to continue serving because I can think of no better way than to use my skills to make a difference for people in this state. So I appreciate the opportunity that you've given me and I hope to continue having that opportunity, thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. For the record once again, can you please state your first and last name?

MS. ROMBERGER: Renee Buyck Romberger.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And what is the -- what is your address?

MS. WEBB: 225 Dataw Drive, Saint Helena Island, South Carolina.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And have you had any new campaign contributions to members since submitting your application that you are aware of?

MS. ROMBERGER: I believe that I have. I believe at his request I made a contribution to our former basketball star Jermaine Johnson in his election.

MS. WEBB: Okay. I would just ask that you send me an email.

MS. ROMBERGER: Okay.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: That states that you contributed to his campaign and what it was that you -- the financial amount that you.

MS. ROMBERGER: Happy to do that, thank you.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And are there any changes to your application that you would like the Commission to be aware of since your submittal?

MS. ROMBERGER: Yes. I was widowed for some time and recently this past summer got married and so I'm now married to Kevin Hennick and we are living in Beaufort. So I've moved from Greenville to Beaufort.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Boy are you senators in trouble on that softball game. Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chair. Back to -- I guess it relates back to Senator Harpootlian's questions in reference to out-of-state students. One of the weaknesses that you've said in your application was the lack of scholarships for -- and support and financial aid for students. What percentage of scholarships do you think are going to out-of-state students and if there are many how could we remedy that to increase the number of scholarships that go to in-state students to make sure -- ensure that in state students have those priority scholarships?

MS. ROMBERGER: Well I think that's a great question. Often times our scholarships are driven by the donors. So the donor has a specific direction that he wants -- he or she wants to use as far as allocating those funds and so we can't always contribute to that. But for example, we right now are focusing on how can we increase the number of dollars that are available to minority students and so our foundation and our philanthropic office has a focused approach of reaching out to minorities who have means to say would you be willing to. Or people who have an interest in seeing a more diverse campus help us build our scholarship program. We have something called a 1967 legacy program of which funding is being used to support minorities.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: So, Ms. Romberger, I know you know my questions have always been asked about minorities.

MS. ROMBERGER: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: But unfortunately my question this time is how do we increase the number of South Carolinians through scholarships?

MS. ROMBERGER: Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Granted, I do know that you know we want to increase the number of minorities and African Americans at the college but South Carolina is first and foremost my focus in reference to this question.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. ROMBERGER: Sure.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: As to how do we foster a -- or how do we get more South Carolinians with scholarships to go to the College of Charleston?

MS. ROMBERGER: Well one of the things we're focusing on is not only trying to attract more dollars to the College of Charleston but more undesignated dollars. And so we know that we are losing -- when you talk about the minorities in South Carolina and why our yield rate is so low but our acceptance rate is so high, we have a higher acceptance rate than we've ever had from minority students yet we're missing out on the yield and I think it is because we don't have enough dollars to supplement that -- the tuition. And so we are trying to increase the number of undesignated dollars and move those into need-based scholarships. The second thing we're doing it's indirectly in response to your question but it's not enough to just get a kid to come to the college. One of my big concerns is that we tend to -- our retention rate is not as high as we'd like to see it. And to me the worst thing is to get a kid excited about coming the College of Charleston and see them leave a year later. I think we own responsibility when a kid leaves the College of Charleston. I think maybe we haven't done our job well enough and so one of the big programs that we're starting to focus on through our strategic plan now is to increase the amount of resources we're putting into the area of advising and counseling. We're developing more affinity groups so that people feel more accepted and included and more connected. If people haven't picked a major then we want to make sure that we have resources there to help them explore opportunities because kids leave when they don't feel accepted or they don't feel like they're part of the group. If they leave because of financial means, I think that's even worse.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: My last question is what percentage of your students are South Carolinians and what percentage is out-of-state students?

MS. ROMBERGER: Right now we're sixty-five/thirty-five overall as a college. For our freshmen coming in this year we're fifty/fifty. So what you typically see is in second and third year you have more in state students transferring to the college and out of state students leaving the college. So that's why it balances out. But I do agree with Senator Harpootlian earlier when he said I think our first responsibility is to the kids in South Carolina. We want to see our South Carolina students educated. Out-of-state students do pay a higher tuition. The cost of going to the college is about seventeen five, and so our in-state students are paying twelve five in tuition and the out-of-state students help subsidize that. But we are very sensitive to not wanting to make sure that we become an out-of- state school in an in-state college.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: President Alexander.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: No, I'm good.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Oh, you're good? Any other questions. All right. Representative McGinnis.

REPRESENTATIVE MCGINNIS: Thank you and thank you for serving. My question is just real quick one of the priorities of, you know, I think some of the leadership in our house and around the state in education is getting people to work and workforce ready.

MS. ROMBERGER: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE MCGINNIS: And I know that the College of Charleston offers, you know, a lot of degrees that aren't necessarily going to go into the work force and that's fine. But is there any kind of emphasis that is being put on having students who may be undecided trying to push them into workforce ready degrees and how do you view a college's mission when it comes down to being able to supply the companies who want to come here jobs?

MS. ROMBERGER: I think that's a huge priority for us. We want to make sure that as a South Carolina university that we are serving South Carolina industry. And so we have brought on a gentleman named Knudt Flor who is a former CEO of BMW. And he is serving as our senior vice president. I ruin title all the time. But he's something like senior vice president. But what he's trying to do is help us better connect with the industry leaders in South Carolina. We want to know what they need and then we find it our responsibility to produce those kids. I think one of the coolest things about the College of Charleston as a large public arts/liberal arts school is that we're taking a liberal arts approach to business and industry. So when you take that liberal arts mind set and then you marry that with engineering or management or marketing or any of those kinds of tools we think it helps them be adaptable and adjustable in an ever changing environment. So Knudt is helping lead that effort for us to make sure we're in touch with industry and secondly we are, through our strategic plan, focusing on not only innovation but interdisciplinary studies so these kids are getting a background of science with art, or English with math. Because we know that that critical thinking is important in business, it helps translate in business. And lastly we're focusing on increasing the amount of experiential learning that each one of our students has. Our goal is that the majority of our students will have an experiential learning experience and that needs to start in the industries in the Charleston area on the coast of South Carolina.

REPRESENTATIVE MCGINNIS: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Anyone else?

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Move for favorable.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Favorable is the motion. All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations.

MS. ROMBERGER: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: On your willingness to serve. I've just been informed that Ashley Nance was rear-ended right outside, I think, the Senate office building so I don't know who hit him but I think he'll be here in about twenty minutes so we'll go ahead and hear from our at-large seat seventeen Steve Swanson first and then we'll pick up Mr. Nance after that. STEVE D. SWANSON, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'll state your name and a brief statement of why you are serving.

MR. SWANSON: My name is Steve Swanson. I'm a graduate of the College of Charleston from 1989, graduated mathematics and in the honors program. Directly after graduation I started a company called Automated Trading Desk. And we built that company throughout the 80s and 90s and into the 2000's and ultimately sold it to Citigroup in 2007. Since then I stayed with Citigroup for several years but have involved with a number of different startups throughout the community and today I'm happy to be retired and focused on philanthropic efforts throughout our community. The College of Charleston changed my life quite frankly. It positioned me to be a leader of my company. And when we were growing as an organization, we hired several people from the College of Charleston and it worked out wonderfully over the years. I have also served on the board of South Carolina State when we were going through the transition there. And today I can report that with President Hsu in place the college is in as good a position as I think it's ever been since I've been involved with it. And I appreciate the time here with you today.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: Thank you. Once again, for the record, can you please state your first and last name?

MR. CHAIRMAN: Steven Swanson.

MS. WEBB: All right thank you. And what is your address?

MR. SWANSON: It is 615 Pitt Street, Mount Pleasant, South Carolina 29464.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And do you pay your four percent property tax at that address?

MR. SWANSON: We do.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And since submitting your application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members that you are aware of?

MR. SWANSON: I have. I have also made a contribution to Representative Jermaine Johnson.

MS. WEBB: Okay. So I would just ask the same of you, if you can send a statement to me just an email saying that the amount that was given.

MR. SWANSON: I will.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And then have there been any other changes to your application that you would like for the Commission to be aware of?

MR. SWANSON: None to report.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Questions? Mr. President.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you, Mr. Chairman and you -- and again thank you for your service. And you made the comment that College of Charleston certainly changed your life and I hear that and what you did but also I see that the College of Charleston gave you an honorary degree in 2015; is that correct?

MR. SWANSON: It did.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And was that in a specific process involvement for the college?

MR. SWANSON: Probably I spent thirteen years on the foundation board and my wife and I made significant contributions to scholarships. I was a full scholarship recipient of the college so we love giving back to the college, both through scholarships and other mechanisms at the school.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And I believe from that standpoint I've seen where y'all were involved in a fund foundation effort and you raised a hundred total raised a hundred and thirty five million dollars for the college?

MR. SWANSON: Yes, sir.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Outstanding.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. SWANSON: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: How many students currently attend the college?

MR. SWANSON: Just shy of eleven thousand when you include both undergrad and graduate.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Has that been pretty steady throughout the years or are you growing?

MR. SWANSON: I mean if you looked if you went back prior to President Hsu coming on board we were actually in decline. So we had -- we were losing I would say several hundred students, a hundred or so students a year. So it wasn't so much that it was dramatically changing but we were steadily losing students. And so as he came onboard he really did focus on admissions and getting our applications back up and getting, you know, in the past two years we've had two of the largest classes, freshman classes, coming in. So I definitely feel like we have changed that tide and are certainly well positioned for the admissions cliff that we're going to see over the course of the next several years.

MR. CHAIRMAN: I mentioned this earlier. Is there any way that you can grow your campus out or are you just stuck?

MR. SWANSON: I mean, you could always do branch campuses but I think the idea really is to first of all we need more housing. I mean, that's right now we're very much harnessed by how many beds we have frankly in the downtown area to accommodate students so I think in coming years we probably will do more to build more housing for our students and possibly then consider increasing the size of the school. But right now we're pretty much harnessed to downtown Charleston.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Your school is -- really has a tougher, you know. Like I'm near Clemson, they can expand out.

MR. SWANSON: Absolutely.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And a lot of others can to, but you guys can't, so.

MR. SWANSON: And land is very, very expensive down town.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Oh yes, oh yes.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Question from Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chair. I was reading your answer in reference to diversity on campus. You said that racial diversity also continues to be low. Today it's seven percent of the school is African American. Why do you feel that the numbers are low? Are you all trying to recruit, or what are your recruiting efforts like?

MR. SWANSON: Sure. Every year we're trying something different, something new. You know, several years ago we were trying to do the top ten percent so we basically would accept every student that was within the top ten percent of every single school and while it improved our minority admissions slightly it did have far less reach than we had hoped. And I think these past couple of years I think we have -- I think we have frankly been outperformed by USC and Clemson. And we're refocusing on making sure that we're having dollars allocated towards minority students coming in. I think -- you know, that I think is the biggest thing that we have to do in coming years.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Yeah. I know Winthrop is even doing a lot better than what you all are doing. Would think that Charleston would be more enticing.

MR. SWANSON: I -- you know I guess I would also say our -- you know, quite frankly the history of the college is not particularly positive. And I -- you know, memories last long and you know we went private as an organization basically to stop integration. And so I think there's a lot of history there that we have to overcome. And, you know, we're working on it all the time. You've heard other board members, this is something that is discussed at every single board meeting and it is a priority for us.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you for your service to the college and your giving back to the college.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you so much for your willingness to serve. I became even more excited when I heard what the foundation had raised in terms of dollars and cents and how difficult it is for colleges to raise money. What is to bear to that success, the foundation being able to raise those kinds of dollars?

MR. SWANSON: You know at the end of the day it's building a -- if you go back, you know, several different presidents ago, I mean, our development team was minuscule. And you know today there's a, you know, professional development team in place.

SENATOR SCOTT: Outside corporations coming in and raising money for you?

MR. SWANSON: You know I'm going to say that's probably any area that we have not succeeded in as much yet and so actually that's a huge opportunity. I mean, I guess I always see, you know, deficiencies as opportunities and we had a lot of opportunities to you know -- corporate donations, you know, different family trusts, those kind of things. There's a lot of opportunities that we have actually not really broken into. This past fundraising campaign was really focused on engaging alumni. And so before the campaign if you looked at where our dollars were coming from, our parents were actually our biggest source of contributions. Today I'm happy to report that alumni are consistently the biggest source of donations to the College of Charleston.

SENATOR SCOTT: More of a capital side or just over a fund raiser?

MR. SWANSON: Yes.

SENATOR SCOTT: Is it over the capital side or just where?

MR. SWANSON: Kind of across the board.

SENATOR SCOTT: Okay. Thank you, sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Anyone else? What's the desire of the Commission? Desire is favorable, all those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed, no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations.

MR. SWANSON: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: We have finished College of Charleston except for Mr. Nance and we will give him some leeway since he was in the wreck and we'll either take him up today or tomorrow if that's okay with the Commission. All right. We were going to take a break but we're slightly ahead if it's okay with the Commission we'll move forward and pick up part of Francis Marion since they're here, if that's all right. And first up 1st Congressional District Mark Moore.

FRANCIS MARION: MARK S. MOORE, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'll state your name and a brief statement of why you would like to serve with Francis Marion, please, sir.

MR. MOORE: My name is Mark Moore and I want to first start off by thanking all of you for the opportunity to serve previously this is my tenth year on the board. I think Francis Marion is an extremely special place as far as public institutions in South Carolina go, I think Francis Marion is doing exactly what a public institution should do. Our enrollment is ninety- six percent South Carolina residents, forty-eight percent of those are minorities, and most importantly over forty percent of those are first in their family to go to college. I think that the university does a really good job of coordinating with the community, with the local political leadership, the business and industry in the area, and providing programs that will eventually lead to those students having opportunities and staying in the area and contributing back to the Pee Dee. So I think that overall it's a very important institution within the Pee Dee and I'm proud to be a part of that and a part of that team and I'd like to continue on should the Commission see fit.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: I thank you. And once again, for the record, can you just please state your first and last name?

MR. MOORE: Mark Moore.

MS. WEBB: All right. And what is your address?

MR. MOORE: 612 Salty Alley.

MS. WEBB: In Mount Pleasant?

MR. MOORE: In Mount Pleasant I believe that's -- I believe it's still in the 1st District.

MS. WEBB: It is, it is. I double checked. All right and then since submitting your application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you are aware of?

MR. MOORE: No, I have not.

MS. WEBB: All right. And are there any changes to your application that you would like for the Commission to be made aware of today?

MR. MOORE: No, there are not.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Any questions? Representative McGinnis.

REPRESENTATIVE MCGINNIS: Thank you and thank you for your willingness to serve.

MR. MOORE: Thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE MCGINNIS: And I know Francis Marion has been kind of suffering from decreased enrollment as of late. What are some things you think the board should be looking at to try to -- the trustees should be doing to try to get enrollment up? And I know you reference in here that, you know, you face a struggle of the poverty within the area and a lot of students can't -- don't have the access to this type of education, but where can you be looking to try to increase your enrollment?

MR. MOORE: Well I think -- I think right now enrollment is steady around four thousand. Long term, obviously we've introduced a lot of new programs there at the university, a lot of stuff geared towards engineering, health sciences. Again, going back to what I talked about earlier some of that focus is areas that we know are going to be areas of need in Pee Dee in the future. So again growing those programs, making more opportunities available for students to stay in the Pee Dee and have access to that opportunity I think will help to grow. And again I think long term that things will continue to be stable in the area and I think there's a lot of growth potential in Pee Dee.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Other questions? I have to congratulate Francis Marion on keeping our South Carolina young people in state. This has always been a pet peeve of mine with some of our other institutions that they have so many out-of-state students and they don't stick around. And some of them are foreign students. They go right back where they came from and, you know, I feel like we need to keep these people in state and I want to congratulate Francis Marion on that. You do an excellent job.

MR. MOORE: I can't take the credit for it. Obviously all these people in the room and specifically the administration, the faculty and staff there are really doing the load there and we're very proud to be associated with it.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Well I was in education myself and I really appreciate the fact that you're letting young people who would not otherwise have a chance to get a higher education degree given -- they're able to do that at Francis Marion so.

MR. MOORE: I know we all appreciate that from you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Anyone else? Is there a motion for approval.

REPRESENTATIVE MCGINNIS: Motion.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed, no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you sir.

MR. MOORE: Thank you all.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right next is 2nd Congressional seat, Beth Bauknight. BETH G. BAUKNIGHT, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MS. BAUKNIGHT: I do.

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you would state your name and a brief statement of why you would like to serve.

MS. BAUKNIGHT: Sure. My name's Beth Bauknight and I am born and raised in Florence and I went to school at Francis Marion, I was a graduate of 1991, my father was the first and first graduating class of the university. My brother also went to the school. And without that education I would not have had the successful years I've had for the past 30 years. I'm a partner in a local accounting firm, the largest in the midlands. I run the tax department of that firm and I give all that credit back to the education I had at the university.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And for the record once again can you please state your first and last name?

MS. BAUKNIGHT: Beth Bauknight.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And what is your address?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. BAUKNIGHT: 225 Laurent Way, Irmo.

MS. WEBB: All right thank you and do you pay your four percent at that address?

MS. BAUKNIGHT: Yes.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And then since completing this application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you are aware of?

MS. BAUKNIGHT: I have not.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And are there any changes to your application since submitting that you would like for the Commission to be made aware of?

MS. BAUKNIGHT: There have been none.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And I would just like to clarify, too, that this was a vacant seat so if you look on your agenda you'll see for Beth Bauknight that her term will expire June 30th of 2024. I am sorry we are a little behind as we have said and -- but I just wanted to make that clarification for the record that you are June the 30th of 2024, whereas these others are 2026 because it was a vacancy.

MS. BAUKNIGHT: All right.

MS. WEBB: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Question? Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: So what you have on the sheet is wrong?

MS. WEBB: No, what I have on the sheet is right.

MR. CHAIRMAN: It's right there.

MS. WEBB: Yeah, it's on the agenda.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Look right here.

MS. WEBB: The agenda here.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Okay.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Any other questions? There a motion?

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: I move favorable.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Somebody said aye. Opposed, no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations.

MS. BAUKNIGHT: All right. Thank you very much.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right. Next up is H. Paul Dove, Jr. from Winnsboro. That's the 5th Congressional District. H. PAUL DOVE, JR., being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'll state your name and a brief statement why you'd like to continue serving.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. DOVE: My full name is Herbert Paul Dove, Jr., but if you call me and ask for Herbert I will assume you are a telemarketer and I will say, "he's not available." Please, I go by Paul. My address is 274 Old Harden Road in Winnsboro, South Carolina.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey?

MS. WEBB: Okay. All right, thank you. And then for the record, once again, can you please state our address that you live at?

MR. DOVE: 274 Old Harden Road in Winnsboro, South Carolina.

MS. WEBB: All right. And do you pay your four percent property tax there?

MR. DOVE: Yes, ma'am.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And then since submitting this application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you are aware of? MR. DOVE: No.

MS. WEBB: All right. And are there any changes to your application that you would like for the Commission to be made aware of?

MR. DOVE: I have been accused of being too technical. I reviewed my application. It says 178 pounds, I now weigh 200.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you, sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN: We won't hold that against you, a few of us have that problem. Any questions? Is there a motion?

REPRESENTATIVE KING: I move favorable.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Vote for favorable, all those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed, no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations, sir.

MR. DOVE: Thank you very much. And may I express appreciation to the Legislature for the support that you give our university. It is a wonderful place to be associated with and you're doing a great job of supporting us and I appreciate that.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you, sir. We're not -- 6th Congressional District is Floyd Keels here now? (No reply is heard.) Okay. The at-large seat eight, Robert Lee, come on up. ROBERT E. LEE, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: State your name and a brief statement why you'd like to serve, sir.

MR. LEE: My name is Robert E. Lee, 1998 I graduate -- I mean I -- as a graduate -- seems like it's the twinkling of any eye, 25 years later, I've been on the board and nine of which years I've served as chair of the board. I think Francis Marion serves the goal it was established to serve. It serves the people it's established to serve and it still has more to do. And I believe that I can continue to contribute both the board and to the leadership of the board as we go forward and help the children of the Pee Dee and serve as a window to upper mobility.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Questions -- oh, Macey.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And once again for the record, can you please state your first and last name?

MR. LEE: Robert Eugene Lee.

MS. WEBB: All right. And what is your address?

MR. LEE: 49 Ocean Creek Drive, Myrtle Beach, South Carolina 29571.

MS. WEBB: All right and do you pay your four percent or six percent at that address?

MR. LEE: I don't pay four percent either place I own. They are both owned by LLCs I own so I don't pay four percent either place.

MS. WEBB: Okay. So in an email that I have for you, you stated that you own a house in Marion that is your four percent residence; do you recall?

MR. LEE: I have -- I went to try to register and when the auditor and I got done I just said I'd leave it -- it's an LLC, I said I'd just pay the six percent. So I own a house 115 Whitfielder Drive, Marion which is beside my law office.

MS. WEBB: Okay.

MR. LEE: And then I own a house at the beach. Both of which are owned by LLCs, neither of which I pay four percent at.

MS. WEBB: Okay so you don't pay four percent on either of those properties?

MR. LEE: I don't pay four percent on either of them.

MS. WEBB: Okay.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative Rose.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Sir, Mr. Lee this isn't a question it's more of a comment. I was driving to court. I'm an attorney myself. I was headed to Myrtle Beach and you have some very good billboard coverage on the way there. Just wanted to make that comment. You and Jeff Johnson are battling it out I see.

MR. LEE: Well people at my office -- the girls at my office wanted that and so I told them I said no jingles, nothing cute. And so people ask me, say, "do ever get any business from it?" And I said, no. What happens is my friends drive by and they call me and say I've been meaning to call you, I saw that billboard. So, you know, I'm not sure what it does other than make the people in my office happy which is, for lawyers, the most important thing.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. CHAIRMAN: One more thing, Macey.

MS. WEBB: Sorry. And then since submitting your application have you made any new campaign contributions to any members that you are aware of?

MR. LEE: No. Senator Williams and Representative Atkinson have not been by the office lately.

MS. WEBB: And are there any changes to your application that you would like for the commission to be made aware of?

MR. LEE: Not that I know of, although I'm looking through all these cases that I'm supposed to be a defendant in and finding ones that I don't remember Ralph McCullough ever suing me in Anderson as I've never made an appearance in federal court there. But other than those, which I've been a guardian of some way appointed by the court, sued by a sovereign citizen or by a former prisoner who didn't like that he had killed somebody and had to go to prison for life. But other than that we're okay.

MS. WEBB: Yes, sir. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Any other questions? Is there a motion?

SENATOR VERDIN: Favorable.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed, no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you, sir. And Kenneth Jackson is he here? That is the at-large seat ten. KENNETH W. JACKSON, having been duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you. State your name and brief statement of why you're running.

MR. JACKSON: My name's Kenneth W. Jackson and I have I'm a 1984 graduate of Francis Marion. I've been involved in one form or another since that time. I've been very actively involved in participating events on campus. I've been a trustee for a number of years and proud of what's been accomplished during that time and I'd like to continue for one more term, if you see fit.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey?

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And for the record once again, can you please state your first and last name?

MR. JACKSON: Kenneth W. Jackson.

MS. WEBB: All right, and what is your address?

MR. JACKSON: 1904 Grandview Court, Mount Pleasant.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you.

MR. JACKSON: And I also maintain a residence in Florence.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: Okay. And what is your address in Florence?

MR. JACKSON: 130-B Courthouse Square.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And then at your 1904 Grandview Court address do you pay your four percent or six percent?

MR. JACKSON: Four percent.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And have you made any new campaign contributions to any members since submitting this application that you are aware of? MR. JACKSON: No.

MS. WEBB: No. Okay, thank you. And are there any changes to your application that you would like for the Commission to be made aware of?

MR. JACKSON: Yes. I would like to take exception to the last five pages, I think there's some court cases and that -- those are not me.

MS. WEBB: Okay. And just for clarification, so that would be this SLED background check report. When SLED runs these background checks they just type in your name and if your name pops in the system it might not necessarily be you, it could be someone that has happens to have the same name as you. When I reviewed your SLED background report I did not find anything that was of concern to bring to the Commission.

MR. CHAIRMAN: You know, we need to make sure that doesn't happen again because that's very embarrassing to someone who has not have history, so yeah. We'll work on that. All right, any questions? Is there -- what's the desire, favorable? All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: All opposed no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you, sir.

MR. JACKSON: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: At-large seat twelve, W. Edward Gunn, is he here? Come on up.

MR. GUNN: Sir. W. EDWARD GUNN, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you would state your name and a brief statement of why you are running.

MR. GUNN: Mr. Chairman, members of the Committee, I'm Eddie Gunn, William E. Gunn, I am seeking reelection to the Francis Marion University Board of Trustees. I grew up in Florence as a child and graduated from high school over there and saw the evolution of Francis Marion. It started out, as many of you may know, in the basement of the Florence Public Library as the Francis University of South Carolina. Yeah. It was small at the time. In the early 70s, Governor

McNair and others pushed the idea to have a college, a four year college, which it did and then later on became a university. I'm serving because this is a great school. Under-served population out there, 48 percent minority, 95 percent from in- state South Carolina from the Pee Dee get a quality education, a superb education. At's very diverse. I think Dr. Carter and his staff have chosen the right fields to expand into. Health sciences, nursing and many others has been just tremendous and I'd like to continue to support it that way.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. Once again for the record, can you please state your first and last name?

MR. GUNN: William E. Gunn.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And what is your address?

MR. GUNN: 213 Rosebank Drive in Columbia.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And do you pay your four percent property tax there?

MR. GUNN: Yes, ma'am.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And since submitting your application, are there any new campaign contributions that you have made to any members of the General Assembly?

MR. GUNN: Yes, ma'am, I did. I had one when I was preparing my taxes this weekend that I had not reported and that as Representative Jay Jordan in Florence.

MS. WEBB: Okay. So I would just ask you to send me an email that says that you've made a campaign contribution to Representative Jordan.

MR. GUNN: Certainly.

MS. WEBB: And put the amount on there so I can have that for your file.

MR. GUNN: I'd be happy to.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And then other than that, are there any changes to your application that you would like for the commission to be made aware of?

MR. GUNN: No, ma'am.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Questions? Senator Harpootlian.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: More of a comment than a question. I've known Eddie since he's --

MR. GUNN: A long time.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Maybe fifty years ago, forty -- well, when Carol Campbell was governor I think we met.

MR. GUNN: That's right.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: He's been head of several different state agencies, extraordinarily committed to making this a better state and I whole heartedly endorse his reelection and they were very lucky to have him on their board.

MR. GUNN: Thank you, Senator. I appreciate that very much.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Sounds like Francis Marion is very lucky to have a lot of folks on that board. Well represented. Is there a motion?

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Motion for approval.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you, sir, for your willingness to serve.

MR. GUNN: Appreciate it.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Patricia Hartung from at-large seat 13. I'm sorry? Come on up.

AUDIENCE MEMBER: Excuse me, Representative Whitmire, I just wanted you to know I just received a text for Ashley Nance and he's coming up now.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Okay. Is Patricia Hartung here?

AUDIENCE MEMBER: Mr. Chairman, she is not. Mr. Keels had we checked with him and he's fixed on the time you had him to be here so that's when he's - - he lives in Lake City.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Yeah.

AUDIENCE MEMBER: And Patricia should be here any time soon.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Okay. Well we'll pick her up when she comes in. Why don't we take a five-minute break right now and we'll wait for Mr. Nance to come in and we'll try to fix these other people up. (A short break was taken at this time.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right we'll go ahead and get started. We're going to hear from Ashley Nance first, I assume. Sorry to hear about your misfortune earlier.

MR. NANCE: Mr. Chairman, thank you so much for your patience. I was sorry to hear about it, too. My wife and I uh literally right outside the building making a right turn and got rear ended so as fate would have it that's what happens.

MR. CHAIRMAN: There was a rumor you got hit by a Senator; is that right?

MR. NANCE: No, uh, I haven't figured that out yet but if so we'll get to the bottom of it. I know a good attorney. I know a real good attorney, so.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. CHAIRMAN: We got several here. All right if you'll raise your right hand I'll swear you in.

MR. NANCE: Yes, sir. ASHLEY B. NANCE, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'll give me your name and a brief statement of why you'd like to serve.

MR. NANCE: Sure. Thank you Mr. Chairman, and other distinguished members of the Trustee Screening Commission. Good afternoon. My name is Ashley Nance and this is the first time that I have had the opportunity to appear before the Trustee Screening Commission. As you all may know from reviewing my application and the supporting paperwork that I have submitted, I'm a trial lawyer. And so I love openings and I love having the opportunity to speak. And so I do want to give you a little bit of a brief statement as to why I have filed a letter and notice of intent to run for the College of Charleston Board of Trustees. My wife is here with me, sitting right behind me. I'm married to Danielle Nance and have two young children, Blaker who is six years old and Eloise who is four. I practice with the law firm of King, Love, Hupfer & Nance in Florence. I'm a trial lawyer. And Florence is also where I grew up. I was born and raised in Florence. I went to the college of Charleston. Graduated in 2002. And I graduated from the Charleston School of Law in 2009. Outside of my brief stint in Charleston I have been in Florence all of my life. I'm heavily involved in the college. I love my alma mater. I am the founder, one of the founders of the Pee Dee alumni club for the college of Charleston and have served as it's president for the last five years. In addition to this role, I help to fund and establish a scholarship for our alumni club. Each year a student from the Pee Dee is able to have a scholarship to attend the college of Charleston. I'm very proud to say that I was a founder of that scholarship. I also helped fund it and I can also say it's the only scholarship of it's kind. We are the only alumni club in the entire college of Charleston network that actually offers a scholarship for a local student to attend the college. In addition to serving that role as the president of the alumni club in our area, I'm also on the board of directors for the College of Charleston alumni association. In that role I've been on the board for about three years but I served in the Get Involved Committee. And I think that fits me pretty well. It's a good hat because I am pretty well involved in a lot of different things. Over the years I've stayed involved in the college. I love taking my family down there and allowing my children to see the college and really how special of a place it is down there in Charleston. As you all are probably aware the College of Charleston was founded in 1770, making it the thirteenth oldest college in the nation. It's the oldest municipal college in the country. The colleges founders were also members of the General Assembly. College was chartered by the General Assembly in 1785 and the area that was provided for development was approximately ten acres in the heart of downtown Charleston. That heart is still our campus and is the heart of the College of Charleston campus. The Board of Trustees was established for the College of Charleston in 1795. The College of Charleston has a long history, not only in Charleston, but to the entire state of South Carolina and the people that it serves and the students that it serves. College of Charleston recently celebrated it's 253rd birthday and in -- we have, you know, a lot of involvement with that with the alumni clubs obviously in celebrating that. Most recently, if you follow sports, I'm very excited to you know congratulate the basketball team. You know, had a heck of a season under coach Pat Kelsey, finished thirty-one and four, winning the Colonial Athletic Association Championship and competing against a very good San Diego State team in the NCAA tournament and unfortunately coming up just short. Few things I want to talk about the trajectory and then I'll you know let the committee members get into the questioning. But I believe the College of Charleston is on upward trajectory. And it all starts with the leadership of the school. President Andrew Hsu is undoubtedly one of the most interesting, qualified presidents that I've ever seen and he is such a unique personality and a great leader for the College of Charleston. He took the helm at 2019 as the 23rd president of the College of Charleston. And as soon as he was in that role he was welcomed by one of the biggest crises that we've ever had, and that was Covid 19. I think our colleges and universities all had very, very difficult decisions that they had to make in getting us through those trying times, but he did it well. And I think the college is under great leadership. He's now helped to create the engineering program at the college of Charleston, which has taken the College of Charleston I think to an entirely different level for what it's able to offer students. So in short I stand before you today because I'm excited to be a part of it.

MS. WEBB: Hi, thank you, once again for the record can you please state your first and last name?

MR. NANCE: Ashley Nance.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And what is your address?

MR. NANCE: My address is 1215 Wisteria Drive, Florence, South Carolina 29501.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And do you pay your four percent property tax there?

MR. NANCE: I do.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And since submitting this application have you made any new campaign contributions to any members that you are aware of?

MR. NANCE: Not that I am aware of, no.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And then are there any changes to your application that you would like for any Commission members to know?

MR. NANCE: The only change which I think I know before you was we did purchase a new house. And we intend to move into that house, you know, once the seller has completed their lease term back to us. They leased back from us for a few months while they were getting their affairs in order but we intend to move into that house as soon as that time is up.

MS. WEBB: Yes, perfect, thank you. And I do have that letter that you submitted included in y'all's binders so thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Questions? Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: First, let me thank you for your willingness to serve. I noticed you gathered a lot of information. You're going to make a true great ambassador when they send you out to do all the talking for recruiting young people, getting them in, getting them to know about the College of Charleston. What would you really like to see change especially on the capital side, program side, policy side, or have you had a chance to think about that, really feel the excitement?

MR. NANCE: Senator thank you for the question, that's a great question. I'll tell you being that College of Charleston is a liberal arts school the offering of an engineering school is a very, very big step for the College of Charleston. And so, you know, when you're looking at the college landscape College of Charleston has now made itself more appealing and offers a much more diversified portfolio when someone can major in something like engineering and also minor in a language which is what you may be required to do. Personally I do have my own goals that I would like to see in serving on the board. Being that I'm an alumni -- you know, a president of an alumni club, served on the board of directs for the alumni association, alumni engagement is a very big deal to me. I happen to spend a lot of time around Clemson and USC folks and go to football games, things like that. The alumni engagement for those schools is, I mean as you all know, it's as best as it gets in South Carolina. College of Charleston is working to achieve that. And I think with the various alumni clubs that have been formed, you're now reaching into the community. You're now reaching to the alumni to get that message out. The Pee Dee has approximately 2,500 alumni living in that area and I think these are, you know, for the most part, the Pee Dee and some of these other rural areas in the state, you know, College of Charleston is probably not the first college that maybe jumps off to some of these prospective students. And I think having these alumni clubs is working to change that. So my goal is to increase alumni involvement, increase that dialogue between some of these rural areas and College of Charleston. And to get that College of Charleston name out there.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Mr. President?

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you and thank you for your willingness to serve and I'm glad you're with us today. Your economic interest was filled out back in November '21 and you have the Florence County Voter Registration Election Commission.

MR. NANCE: Yes, sir.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Is that correct?

MR. NANCE: Yes, sir.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: In what capacity are you affiliated there?

MR. NANCE: So I am no longer on the commission. In fact, when I sought to file my letter of intent to run for the College of Charleston of Board of Trustees, before filing my letter of intent, I resigned from that position. But I served as the chairman of the Florence County Voter Registration Election Board for roughly three, almost four years. But I served on the board for approximately almost ten years.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you.

MR. NANCE: You're welcome.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Desire of the Committee? Moving for approval? All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed, no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Okay. Thank you, sir.

MR. NANCE: Thank you. Appreciate your time today and thank you for allowing me the leeway to get up here and talk today and present to you, thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Okay. Floyd Keels? He hasn't -- not here yet? Okay. Patricia Hartung, at-large seat thirteen. Yeah he was College of Charleston, you're Francis Marion again. PATRICIA C. HARTUNG, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'll state your name and just tell us a brief statement. A little briefer than the last one.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. HARTUNG: I was contemplating that. But I don't know if I can. My name is Patricia Hartung, and I am a resident of Greenville South Carolina. And thank you for the opportunity to express my desire today to continue serving as a trustee for France Marion University. My role as a trustee has spanned nearly 23 years and I would consider it an honor to continue serving in that capacity. During this time I've worked closely with my fellow trustees, the president, faculty, staff and others to assure that the university remains a leader in our state in academic excellence, innovation, and community engagement and service. The strength I bring to the university and the board is directly tied to my career experience and the practical skills I've developed in my field. I serve as the executive director of a six-county regional planning and development agency, the Upper Savannah Council of Government. And through my work there I experienced first hand the needs of our state, our communities, our citizens and our work force in real time. I work on a regular basis with thirty local government agencies in my region as well as the state and federal governments and this interaction with government and other organizations affords me the knowledge of understanding and working with regulatory and governing institutions in a cross section of fields, particularly in helping me understanding accrediting and regulatory agencies associated with higher education. Through my office's, programs, and aging workforce and economic development, community development, local government assistance as well as interacting with our local regional educational consortium, I can focus on real world problems and I can bring this link to the table in many aspects of my role as a trustee. Through this, I see how critical it is to have college programs and graduates who focus on developing employable workforce skills. Which in turn translates into jobs that address the needs of the citizens of our state. I also understand how our businesses and companies in this state need qualified employees. Many companies in our area come to us on a regular basis asking us what are the workforce programs that our universities and our schools are engaging in to develop these skills and these students. I work with many groups also in the areas of natural resources and I know which environmental issues are relevant to our state right now and those that will continue to be in the future. And I see the struggles also through my work with upper Savannah and how our senior population and their families are experiencing great difficulties in learning how to survive and thrive after retirement. Given this background, I can make informed decisions in my role as a trustee. Whether it be in university strategic planning or curriculum development. I understand the value and significance of a diverse and inclusive environment that encourages participation from all stakeholders, including students, faculty, staff and alumni. I believe it is only through the shared vision and a commitment to working together that we can achieve our goals for the university. And I am committed to continuing to work with my fellow trustees, faculty, staff and students to ensure that our institution remains at the forefront of academic excellence and innovation. And it would be an honor for me to continue serving as a trustee and contributing to the continued success and growth of Francis Marion University.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey?

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And then I'll go through these same questions with you so once again for the record can you please state your first and last name?

MS. HARTUNG: Patricia Hartung.

MS. WEBB: All right. And what is your address?

MS. HARTUNG: 214 Welling Circle, Greenville, South Carolina.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And do you pay your four percent property tax at that address?

MS. HARTUNG: I do.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And then since submitting this application have you had any -- have made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly?

MS. HARTUNG: I have not.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And then since submitting this application, are there are any changes that you would like for the members of the Commission to know about?

MS. HARTUNG: Since the application, no change whatsoever.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Senator Verdin.

SENATOR VERDIN: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. To my chagrin, I have not kept up with you but you have kept up with me and I knew it, had forgotten it, and now through your resume am reminded of your duration at Upper Savannah. It's just remarkable. And I can assure you of those thirty communities I interact with many and your service and your team is invaluable to the -- cannot be valued just as I'm sure that you and your colleagues that served as incumbents and even those that are looking to join, we are here to screen, we're here to vet, but still, even in this short time, it's still impossible to measure all of the service that you and your colleagues bring with these boards and conditions so, thank you for your past service. And Mr. Chairman I would do a favorable report for Ms. Hartung for continued service on the board of Francis Marion.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you senator. All others in favor signify by saying aye? (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed, no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations, and thank you again.

MS. HARTUNG: Thank you all.

MR. PRESIDENT: Good to see you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: We've got one more Francis Marion and he hasn't made it I don't think. Right. All right, we'll go ahead and go to Lander we've got one for Lander if that persons here that's 1st Congressional District Mark Taylor to come on up.

LANDER: MARK W. TAYLOR, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: Just tell us your name once again and why you -- a brief statement.

MR. TAYLOR: I'll be brief. My name is Mark Taylor I'm in Charleston, South Carolina. My educational background is that I attended Fur man University, went to medical school at the Medical University of South Carolina and then I went to law school at Emory university. The reason I would like to serve at Lander is quite simple, I met President Cosentino a few years back. We had a pleasant dinner one evening. I like what he's doing at Lander. Turns out I have a family affiliation, my grandmother attended Lander in the 1920s, kind of a long time ago. And I grew up near Lander. But frankly the reason I want to serve is because he asked me. And he said he could use me, the biggest challenge to Lander for the next generation, I think, is managing their real estate and property growth, their physical plant. The students are growing very fast, they -- there are 3800 students now and a decade ago there were less than 3000, so.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey?

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And once again for the record can you please state your first and last name?

MR. TAYLOR: Mark Taylor.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And what is your address?

MR. TAYLOR: 4906 Sound View Drive in Mount Pleasant, South Carolina.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And do you pay your four percent property tax at that address?

MR. TAYLOR: Every year.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And since filing this application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly?

MR. TAYLOR: I don't recall. My application is about two years old because I got caught in the covid thing, I can't recall any additional.

MS. WEBB: Okay. All right, thank you. And then are there any changes to your application that you would like for any of the commission members to know?

MR. TAYLOR: Nothing that I know of.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Anyone? Have a motion?

SENATOR VERDIN: Yes, sir, Mr. Chairman.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Yes, sir. Senator Verdin.

SENATOR VERDIN: In making this motion I would say that I just got a text from Adam Taylor that he wishes he was related to Mark but that he is not.

MR. TAYLOR: The feeling's mutual.

SENATOR VERDIN: Mr. Chairman, move in favor.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Where is Adam? He should be sitting here shouldn't he?

SENATOR VERDIN: Oh, he's --

MR. CHAIRMAN: He's watching, huh?

SENATOR VERDIN: He's catching every second, I'm sure. He told me he was on campus on Lander expecting me to come up later.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Okay. There's a motion for approval, all those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Nos no. Congratulations. (No reply is heard.)

MR. TAYLOR: I'd like to say -- note a personal hello to Mr. Harpootlian, haven't seen you in a while, good to see you again.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Been a while, good to see you again.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Mr. Keels here now? Come on up, sir. This is back to Francis Marion and this is the 6th Congressional District and this is Floyd Keels from Lake City. If you'll raise your right hand and I'll swear you in, sir.

MR. KEELS: Yes, sir. FLOYD L. KEELS, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'd just give us your name and a brief statement of why you would like to serve on the board.

MR. KEELS: Yes, sir. Good evening everyone. My name is Floyd L. Keels and I would love to serve on the board. I've been a part of the Pee Dee for some time and Francis Marion University is a great school. I'd just love to be a part of something that's going to promote the better well being of our citizens in the Pee Dee community.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And once again for the record, can you please state your first and last name?

MR. KEELS: Yes. My first name is Floyd, F-L-O-Y-D and my last name is Keels, K-E-E-L-S.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you Mr. Keels. And what is your address?

MR. KEELS: My home address is 101 Derby, as in Kentucky, Derby Lane, Lake City, South Carolina 29560.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And do you pay your four percent property tax at that address?

MR. KEELS: Yes, ma'am, I do.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And since submitting this application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you are aware of.

MR. KEELS: No, ma'am. I have not.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And since submitting this application are there any changes to your application that you would like for any of the commission members to know about?

MR. KEELS: No, ma'am. No changes that I'm aware of.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Mr. President.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you, good afternoon.

MR. KEELS: Good afternoon, sir, how are you?

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Doing great, hope you are.

MR. KEELS: Yes, sir. I am, thank you.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Great, great, thank you for being with us today. I was just seeing your -- you're retired now, correct?

MR. KEELS: Yes, sir.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And you were with Carolina Power and Light and Santee Electric Cooperatives?

MR. KEELS: Yes, sir. I split both places, I spent half my career at Carolina Power and Light and the remaining half at Santee Electric Cooperative.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And -- and from what I see here that you've been on the board there since what 2013. What has been -- what you would envision as, say, the highlight of that service of being involved on the board there at Francis Marion?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. KEELS: The highlight of serving on the board at Francis Marion is witnessing the growth of education throughout the Pee Dee and it's close to the people who live within the region.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Great. Thank you sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Mr. Keels, first let me thank you for your willingness to serve.

MR. KEELS: Thank you, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: With the new expansion and addition South Carolina electrical vehicles, working with cooperatives, gas companies and others. And I know looking at some of the curriculums that Francis Marion should have the knowledge and industry is going to pay dividends. Have you had a chance to think about how that's going to work in terms of what you would actually bring to the table and the board when you begin, really looking forward with electrical charging stations and getting young people more involved in that process and especially with your military background?

MR. KEELS: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: If you can elaborate a little bit on that.

MR. KEELS: Yes, sir. And thank you for that question. That's the question that we all should be asking ourselves every single day and that is how to promote energy savings for the greater community and electrical vehicles will do that. I think right now we are all -- a number of us have hybrids vehicles and we know that in states around the country are quickly moving towards abandoning the use of gasoline vehicles. So it's going to be a big thing. A big help to people as they travel, and it's going to save money for the greater good.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you so much.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Motion?

SENATOR SCOTT: Favorable.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Favorable, all those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Nos no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations sir.

MR. KEELS: Thank you all so much.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Wish you luck.

MR. KEELS: Appreciate it, thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right that closes out Francis Marion, correct?

MS. WEBB: Yes.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right we're done with Lander so now we're moving on to the Medical University of South Carolina. Now I'll let these people leave. First up is Donald Johnson. The 1st Congressional District. Come on up. Are you able to -- can you raise your right or not? Okay.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MEDICAL UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA: DONALD R. JOHNSON, II, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you, sir. Just tell us your name and a brief statement why you'd like to continue serving.

DR. JOHNSON: Sure. My name is Donald Johnson. And by way of background I'm from Summerville, went to the College of Charleston. MUSC, did an orthopedic residency at MUSC and then spent two years traveling Texas, San Francisco, University of Hong Kong, and came back to South Carolina in 1991 as the first spine surgeon in the state. I set up a private practice called the Southeastern Spine Institute, which has grown fairly large over the years, and was lucky enough to be elected for my first term at MUSC in 1994. I'm currently the longest serving board member at MUSC and have been honored to be asked to be the chairman on four separate occasions. I very much would like to continue my service.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey?

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And once again for the record can you please state your first and last name?

DR. JOHNSON: Donald Johnson.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And Mr. Johnson, what is your address?

DR. JOHNSON: Number 41 25th Avenue, Isle of Palms 29451.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And do you pay your four percent property tax at that address?

DR. JOHNSON: I do.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And since submitting this application, have you made any campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you are aware of? DR. JOHNSON: No.

MS. WEBB: All right. And then since submitting this application are there any changes that have been made to your application that you would like for members of the Commission to be made aware of? DR. JOHNSON: No.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chair. Thank you for your service on MUSC. Have a question for you in reference to diversity of the student body in the medical program. I've noticed that the number of African Americans are not equivalent to what our state population is and what I typically like to see. What are you all doing to increase the numbers of African Americans entering into medical school?

DR. JOHNSON: So I would say that our program has been actually one of the best in the country if you would look at the history of what we've done at MUSC, we've actually been given national awards for that. We take that as a -- as a need. It's something that we focused on significantly. We look at it from admissions all the way through. I think we've done great. I don't think the job is over but I think we've done great jobs, particularly with the under-representative minorities getting into medical school. I agree with your concerns but we'll tell you it is an area of emphasis for the university.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And what are your recruitment efforts? What are you all doing to recruit or do you have like a bridge program?

DR. JOHNSON: We do. We have a bridge program that involves the College of Charleston, actually. We've had that for a number of years. We actually go recruit for the under -- the URM's if you will. And our numbers, as I said, have gone up dramatically particularly over the last ten years or so.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And my last question, are -- is there any effort to have a bridge program with any of the HBCUs in this state? Especially South Carolina State University.

DR. JOHNSON: I'm unaware of that. But I think that's a great thought and one that I'll bring back to the university. I think that would be a perfect bridge. I think it's been done for College of Charleston historically because there's a lot of cross pollination, if you will, between the teachers, the curriculum and whatnot. So that's where it was initially set up. But I think you make a very good point there.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: The reason why I ask that question is the College of Charleston is not even performing in my opinion with the number of African Americans. They have one of the lowest African American populations on their campus. And the reason why I asked about the HBCUs is because that's where you're going to find the higher concentration of African American students that are in college. And so that's why I was asking would you all consider -- because I heard you say you're the board chair.

DR. JOHNSON: I have been on four occasions.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Four occasions.

DR. JOHNSON: Currently. I have a better job now than the I'm the board chair.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Well I will hope that you all would consider, you know, partnering with some HBCUs.

DR. JOHNSON: Sure.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And especially our public institution of South Carolina State.

DR. JOHNSON: And I'm sorry I think may I confuse you when said a bridge program. This is a program where students come in from across the state. And it's felt that they need to have a year preparing the life sciences. So they could be from South Carolina State or from any other university. And that program which is housed over at the College of Charleston is what I'm referring to as a bridge program. It's not specifically part of the College of Charleston.

DR. CHAIRMAN: Other questions? Yes, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Good afternoon.

DR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: It's good to see you. What's the biggest challenge that the Medical University is facing today?

DR. JOHNSON: I think digesting the large number of hospitals that we have either taken over as ownership or have equity ownership over the last two to three years. As I've said, I've been on the board for a long time, I've been the chairman for a long time. And this activity which has been involves now sixteen to seventeen different facilities. I think our biggest challenge going forward now is to take a break or take a rest would be my opinion and try to digest and make sure that, you know, that we run all these facilities that we've that we've become involved in more intimately to the standards that we've like to have them run.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And I guess that's where I was going. The number of hospitals and health care facilities that y'all have taken over, did y'all go seeking those or did most of those come seeking you?

DR. JOHNSON: Most of them came to seek us.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And was that because they were making so much money they wanted to share that money with MUSC?

DR. JOHNSON: I don't think so, no, sir.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: No, sir. So were most of them in financial distress to some extent?

DR. JOHNSON: I think many of them were, yes, sir.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: So how have y'all been able to accomplish being able to address that aspect of those? Are you making them be on a standalone, each one having to stand on their own or are you doing them collectively?

DR. JOHNSON: I will tell you they are -- we are making them be stand alone. In fact it was one of the emphatic points that our board had. We don't want to bleed from Charleston to support these other systems. And so we've actually as you know we've -- we had them segregated with separate CEOs that we purposely try to make sure and they have thus far anyway stand on their own. And how do they do that? Which was your question, well, to be real blunt with you the first step would be if you're a not for profit regardless of what your business is and you take over a for profit, you've already got some savings on the bottom line, correct?

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Yes, sir.

DR. JOHNSON: And secondly from there the reimbursement systems, the way insurance is set up across the country, the more bargaining power that you have, the higher your rates are that you're able to get. As an example, in private practice even with the practice as big as Southeastern Spine and private practice myself and my doctors we could never get the reimbursements that we could if we were members of the MUSC. That speaks to the bargaining power of having more physicians, a bigger system and whatnot. So and third I think would be the management. We are very good managers, health care managers, and so I think there is some -- there's always some savings and efficiencies that can be attained if your management is better.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: So are you aware are there other pending -- I won't say takeover. Relationships that you're envisioning that MUSC to be entering into over the short term or long term?

DR. JOHNSON: There is not. And if -- if there was one or more than one that came to the board again my thoughts would be that we need to sit where we are right now.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

MR. JOHNSON: Represent -- excuse me, Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you, Dr. Johnson, for your willingness to serve.

DR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: As much as I would like to be in agreement with you about hospital systems, real hospital systems, you take those systems over you take a different type challenges.

DR. JOHNSON: For sure.

SENATOR SCOTT: Most of the funding is through some type of federal help aid or assistance, or state aid or assistance. And given what MUSC has done through tele-medicine, looking at working with these rural hospitals so we don't get a real closure outside of -- you know, glad you did say managed system. Because sometimes managed systems don't work without financial systems until you get it stronger. But there are some systems that you do have in place that also looking at additional staff to be able to staff those hospitals and understanding the growth trend and if you looked at that, especially with rejected growth trends. Have you looked at it yet?

DR. JOHNSON: We have. And thank you for mentioning tele-health. You probably know we one of two of the best tele-health systems in the country and that's thanks to all of y'all and this financial support you've given us.

SENATOR SCOTT: So I want to make sure that those things are inclusive as we look at Charleston's system which is part of the Prisma system, the Horry County system, I think is a whole other kind of system, and coming into the Richland System there's three different hospitals here all working hopefully for the same good. Not just for the hospital but for the clients. And so how do you foresee with additional health care needs that have not been met in the state? And especially coming into the Richland system, like in Providence, downtown hospital and Northeast Hospital and they're also in Fairfield County. Make sure don't want to misunderstand your words "stand still." Does that mean you improve those systems that are there? Providing what the data shows in terms of getting patient care and need and being able to utilize that hospital more?

DR. JOHNSON: Yes, certainly. First of all I -- you know, I would say I don't want to say that anything that I've said is an absolute. If there was something that the medical university had to do of course we would do it. But we're now part of I know sixteen hospitals.

SENATOR SCOTT: Correct.

DR. JOHNSON: It's over a very short period of time. You know, we are not deaf, we understand there's some controversy involved in that. A senator has been kind enough to come talk to us very bluntly about that on several occasions. And I got to tell you I always agree with you. And we do need to sit tight and kind of get our arms around what we are now and where we are. And there's some great benefits to the state I'll just give you -- there could be many but I'll give you one. All our students need clinical rotations. And the clinical rotations are just not available in tri- county area, downtown. So, you know, we -- this gives us an opportunity to have medical students, to have nurses, physical therapists, pharmacists, doing clinical rotations in all these hospitals across the state. And when you do that, when you -- as a hospital when you bring students in it brings the game up for everybody. Medical education you know requires that everybody that touches those students actually become better at what they're doing. So that's one of the many things that, you know, that the statewide push that we've done for the most part I agree with it but it's been a lot and as I've said multiple times, I think we need to just stop and digest what we have right now.

SENATOR SCOTT: Private dollars come in with private insurance -- I think the private dollars are private insurance and that's what driving the pay, especially to subsidize those who get other type of federal assistance for insurance. I think that's going to be very key to it.

DR. JOHNSON: I agree with you.

SENATOR SCOTT: Especially with the hospital so -- I don't know if you could say you got a system that you can say a hospital standalone in the system, just depend upon where we put industry, the economic development part of it. So as you move through your concept of let's wait and see let's also make sure we ask the dimensions to it such as private companies come in. Use Allendale as a good example. I'm pretty sure coming back into Charleston y'all would provide some services. Thousand of jobs is going to change the whole game plan, especially with hospital service and patients.

DR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: Just want to make sure you don't lock yourself in and you say well, you know, we just going to just wait and see because the service doesn't quite work that way. Thank you chair.

MR. CHAIRMAN: You're welcome. Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Quick question something we would be dealing with is certificate of need. Give me your take on the certificate of need?

DR. JOHNSON: I'm sorry. I have to smile because I have for years probably had a contrary view on certificate of need. And probably that comes from thirty plus years in a large private practice. Also used it as a board chairman and to me quite simply what it's been is anti-competition for the hospitals against any entity that's not a hospital. Hospitals like to use it to prevent competition of medical services but then they use it and I've been part of using it. But they use it as kind of chips and cards that they pass back and forth to one another. You know, I won't oppose your this if you don't oppose my that. And we've all seen hospital systems that didn't do that and then we went through ten to twelve years of litigation, not getting a hospital bill, not good for the medical community. I know the hospital association historically of course has supported CON in some shape and degree and it's morphed and changed a little bit as there's been more and more pressure I think to eliminate it. But if you're asking my personal opinion, I don't think it's been helpful for our state.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Anyone else? Is there a motion, move for approval? All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Nos, no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you, Dr. Johnson.

DR. JOHNSON: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: You're very fortunate to have MUSC. Dr. Lemon is not here yet so we will move on to Terri Barnes, would you come on up please. TERRI R. BARNES, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: Give us your name and a brief statement.

MS. BARNES: My name is Terri Barnes. I live Rock Hill South Carolina, born in South Carolina and served on the board of the medical university since 2014. Considered it an honor, would like to be able to serve again. Dr. Johnson -- when I was first was on the board Dr. Johnson had been there a long time I said to him wow this place is big it's going to take at least a year to learn it and he's like oh, no, no, no it's going to take many years and he's right. It's been a ride. It's been a lot of information a lot of growth and a lot of success. And so it's an honor to serve the Medical University of South Carolina, it's an honor to serve you all and to serve with this great board that you have.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey?

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And for the record once again, can you just please state your first and last name?

DR. BARNES: Terri Barnes.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And what is your address?

DR. BARNES: 1502 Jackaway Drive, Rock Hill, South Carolina 29732.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And do you pay your four percent property tax at that address?

DR. BARNES: I do.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And since submitting this application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly?

MS. BARNES: I don't think so.

MS. WEBB: Okay. All right, thank you. And then are there any changes to your application that you would like members of the Commission to be made aware of?

MS. BARNES: I don't think so.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. CHAIRMAN: Mr. President?

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Good afternoon.

MS. BARNES: Good afternoon.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And thank you for your service - -

MS. BARNES: Thank for allowing it.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: -- on the board. Just a couple of questions. Since being there and being in the lay category, lay seat for the 5th district, what -- other than the size of MUSC what has stood out to you, briefly, as a pro or a con?

MS. BARNES: Well I would say a pro would be that the growth we've seen around the state and being able to serve people everywhere where they are in their place and their time of need and especially right here in our -- in my area and Representative King's area with Lancaster Hospital and to see the growth it's had and what it's doing there and you know we're doing kidney transplants there so -- kidney transplants, in Lancaster, South Carolina is a great thing. And it's nice that people everywhere can get good treatment not just the ones that can travel to Charleston because it's a tough drive.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: So I guess that brings on then - - do you support -- the hospital authority is different than the medical university. Do you support it continuing to grow throughout South Carolina?

MS. BARNES: I do. I'm like Dr. Johnson. I think it's time to perfect what we have right now and to let it get stronger and better and financially secure in all the areas. But I do think that growth is good, but not too fast.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: So with MUSC having taxing over -- benefits over a for profit for other hospitals do you think it's appropriate for the hospital authority to go into areas that have various hospitals versus a rural area that is in need of the healthcare to compete with those hospital systems is already in the area?

MS. BARNES: I mean, I don't really like the idea of competing with hospital systems in the area but I think a lot of the places we've been the hospitals were in need and it's made a difference where we are. But I do believe in healthcare for rural systems as well. And I think we could be better with that.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Okay. So would you agree with the statement that the hospitals have come to y'all asking y'all to take them over and that they've had financial burdens?

MS. BARNES: I would say most of the time, yes.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And you think that's the appropriate course of action going forward?

MS. BARNES: At times, yes.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: At times. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: How you doing?

MS. BARNES: Good, how are you?

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Doing well. I want to say just thank you all for your presence in our area, especially in Chester, where the hospital system would have been closed had it not been for MUSC and I know that work that you all do over in Lancaster. I guess my question is in reference to diversity, diversity of the students at MUSC. Can you tell me what your take is? Pretty much the same question I asked.

MS. BARNES: Yeah, I know. And him being a medical student is he answered probably a lot better than I would but you know I'm a woman -- I'm part of a woman-owned company so diversity and inclusion is very important to me. And I can promise it's very important to the medical university. It's such a big word now diversity and equity and inclusion. It means so much and I think we can always do better and I know that Dr. Cole and our leadership is always trying to do better. We talk about diversity inclusion all the time. We look at the statistics, we look at how many students if we're talking about students how many students have applied and of those that applied how many students were qualified when you have to be qualified, too. And we try to be as fair and equitable as we can and make sure everybody has an opportunity to that same education but I do think we can do better. And we're working on that. We're working an interview process that's not being so -- not having so much on the interview but more on the qualifications to make sure everybody has an equal chance to get that medical education they so need in South Carolina. I would like to see us do better and I agree with you that we can and we will. So I would invite you to come talk to our diversity and inclusion office. They're great and they would love to talk to you and show you the kind of things we're doing for recruiting, and education. And a lot of that I think is with communication and education, educating everybody at MUSC that has a part in any kind of decision making and that's constantly being done. I've gone through it myself when I was on interview panels making sure we don't have any kind of bias, unconscious bias, and those kind of things. So it's a big deal, it's a big thing, and we want everybody to have a fair chance but we can do better.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And my next question for you is are you familiar with the Rena Grant Sickle Cell program that you all have at MUSC?

MS. BARNES: I am.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Can you tell me a little bit about that, and if you know anything about it?

MS. BARNES: I don't know that much about it I do serve on the research committee and we do talk about that a lot but I don't really know exactly but I can find out and I'll get back to you.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Yeah, I would love to know what how that MUSC sickle cell -- Rena Grant Sickle Cell Stuff.

MS. BARNES: I will, I'll find out more about that.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you.

MS. BARNES: I'll get it to you. Sorry about that.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Anyone else? Motion. For favorable, all those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Nos no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations again.

MS. BARNES: Thank you for continuing to allow us.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Melvin Brown is not here, will be here when? About 5:30 so we'll skip over him. We do have James Battle here so we'll ask him to come on up. Good to see you again Jim.

MR. BATTLE: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. JAMES A. BATTLE, JR., being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: State your name and a brief statement on why you're serving.

MR. BATTLE: My name is Jim Battle. I live in Nichols, South Carolina which is in Marion County. First let me thank you for what you do. People do not understand how difficult it is to be a legislator. You work very hard, there are no simple problems or easy answers and you do that. Secondly, let me thank you for allowing me to serve you and the people of South Carolina at MUSC for the last nine, almost ten, years now. I take this job very seriously. I'm very proud of it, and I would like to serve for at least one more term. A little bit about my background. I graduated from the Citadel 1964, went into the army, served in Vietnam, got an MBA from University of South Carolina in 1967. Went to work for a large bank in North Carolina back then you couldn't bank across state lines. It was Wachovia. We were the largest in the southeast at the time. I left them and went with Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Smith, who's in New York, a while back in Charlotte. I was with Merrill Lynch when it was still a partnership. I was there when we got some of the initial offering when they -- when we went public. Thank goodness I sold it back when I was a kid. I moved home in the early 1970s, back then back into Marion County Representative Johnny Waller and Senator Ralph Ghasque asked me to serve on the hospital board. Y'all remember Johnny Waller later became a supreme court justice but I served on that rural hospital board for about twenty years. Got off and resigned from that board, ran for the South Carolina House of Representatives. I was fortunate enough to get elected, served for sixteen years. My last eight years was on Ways and Means. I am serving -- or ran for the board at MUSC because I live in and represent a rural area and it's very difficult for schools and healthcare in these rural areas. So I wanted to do something the rural and under served areas of South Carolina, and it has been very rewarding.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And for the record, once again, can you please state your first and last name?

MR. BATTLE: James A Battle, Jr.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And what is your home address?

MR. BATTLE: 503 South Nichols Street, Nichols, South Carolina 29581.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And do you pay your four percent property tax at that address?

MR. BATTLE: I do.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And then since submitting this application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members?

MR. BATTLE: I have not.

MS. WEBB: You have not?

MR. BATTLE: I have not.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And then since submitting this application are there any changes to your application?

MR. BATTLE: No changes.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Mr. President.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Mr. Battle, good to see you this afternoon.

MR. BATTLE: Good to see you, sir.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you and thank you for your service to our country as well. I was just curious first your it says your current employer is Safe Marketing, is that right, LLC?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. BATTLE: Safe Marketing -- Safe Marketing was a tobacco warehouse. We are -- JR Battle and Company was started in 1911 we have not let any of our children come back and I'm third generation. We're not letting any of our children come back into our business because it's tobacco. When we were in the tobacco business Safe Marketing was RJ Reynolds and Carolina Tobacco Exchange was Phillip Mars. We sort of had a corner on the marketing of tobacco in South Carolina. There was a rule that said that the same family couldn't be in both businesses. So I gave up my stock in JR Battle and Company and created Safe Marketing so that I would be separated from the rest of my family in representing RJ Reynolds while they represented Phillip Morris. That's why there was Safe Marketing, it was all a Battle organization.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: I got you. And you mentioned rural areas and how important it is and couldn't agree with you more to have health care in the rural area. But the continuing point have had the discussion with the other two that are on the medical university board, help me understand where y'all are and where you think you're going as far as health care in the state of South Carolina?

MR. BATTLE: Well let me just start off by saying that MUSC is a state entity which means that MUSC is owned by the people of South Carolina. Everybody in South Carolina deserves -- or is entitled to quality healthcare. And that is why we have done what we have done. We have moved into areas where we already had clients that were -- not clients, patients, that were coming to Charleston. So by doing what we've done so far we have gotten close to where our patients are for ordinary, regular healthcare which frees up rooms in Charleston. In Charleston our marquis hospital is for high specialty complex tertiary care businesses. That opens up beds in Charleston and gets us referrals back to there. So to accomplish our mission of serving the people in South Carolina we have done the things that we have done as the opportunities have come available. Like everybody else, as a small businessperson I understand what growth -- how much -- what a financial strain growth can be. It's not how much -- just how much you pay for the facility or the equipment. You also have additional expenses like your overhead, the accounts receivable, inventory and those things. It takes a lot of cash. So we have to be very careful, financially, when we're making these kinds of --

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: These operations that are stand alone, are they making money?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. BATTLE: They are -- they are meeting the budget that we set. We did not expect -- some of them are cash flowing already. In the Midlands we are still not to the point of breaking even yet but we expect to be in this calendar year.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Does Chester break even?

MR. BATTLE: They are going to be stand alone. We went into these and they're already generating cash and revenue and we hope with our name brand, our brand name, and new physicians and promotion that we're going to be able to have these all cash flowing before this calendar year is out.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: So if I heard you earlier say that you are going to where your patients come from -- I mean you've got patients from Oconee County does that mean you're looking to come into Oconee County?

MR. BATTLE: No, we are serving them with the hospitals that we already have. No we're not going to every single county, we're not trying to --

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: How many counties are you in now?

MR. BATTLE: Say that again?

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: How many counties are you in now?

MR. BATTLE: We've got sixteen hospitals. We have patients in every county in the state and at times every state in the union. So we're not trying to -- and I want to make it clear, our competition are not local hospitals. Our competition are the other regional academic health cares. In the places like Duke or UNC, Emory, Atrium, that's who our competition is.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Well wouldn't that be for your Charleston campus? Do you -- I mean, man, I'm going to get in a long discussion here I mean.

MR. BATTLE: We were serving our patients in the state, that's what I was saying. And we are getting to where they are. And, you know, we are doing what any business would do. We're not trying to compete with any local hospital. We're trying to serve the patients we already have. By serving them where they are allows beds in Charleston to free up for the complicated, complex healthcare.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: So how much debt does MUSC have today?

MR. BATTLE: The debt the hospital has is like 1.2 billion.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Excuse me?

MR. BATTLE: One point two billion.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: The hospital authority?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. BATTLE: The hospital where our debt service is 171 million that's what we pay every year. Our debt capacity is four point eight million -- billion. So we are nowhere near -- we're not even at fifty percent of our capacity.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Well, are you trying to get there?

MR. BATTLE: No. Like everybody else, we feel like we're serving the majority of the people in South Carolina now and unless of course you ask us to because we serve you -- unless you ask us to, we're going to absorb and digest what we've got at this point in time.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Well, I mean, again and if I can I'll finish up but MUSC I mean it's a great university and doing a great job and the authority has expanded, would you not agree, extremely fast over the last several years? And you don't agree with that?

MR. BATTLE: You know most of the growth has been since I've been there. And as I told you as a business person it is something that we watch very closely. I especially was nervous about the growth that we were doing from a financial standpoint but it has ---

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Once final question then. How many of these hospitals that y'all have taken over were making money when you took them over?

MR. BATTLE: They -- except for Midlands they all were making money, they were all cash flowing.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Okay. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you.

MR. BATTLE: I take that back, the one that we most recently got involved in, in Orangeburg, may not have been making a profit at that time. That slipped my mind because that just happened.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: No problem.

SENATOR SCOTT: I want to jump right in with Senator Alexander left off because in looking in hospitals who were part of your system, I also look at potential growth. And given where the new growth is going to occur if you follow the economic trend you're going to follow the growth. And I think in terms of coming into the Midlands it's going to probably be one of the biggest cash cows before it's all over with. Given that having taken over Providence Hospital right in the middle of '19 where you're getting ready to hit four thousand to eight thousand jobs is going to be very, very beneficial in the midlands. However you are surrounded by two other hospitals. And I appreciate the Senator talking about the upstate. Providence is truly in the upstate and y'all are outperforming them a little bit smaller than what they are because you've made some very good decisions. Would you agree upon that?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. BATTLE: Yes.

SENATOR SCOTT: And if you look at Horry County, having y'all come in and taking over Marion, Marion County Hospital, would you believe it or not the projected growth for 2035 Horry County would be the second largest county in the state. And so the amount of overflow in the next twelve years is going to be unbelievable because of the MUSC system being that close to Horry County.

MR. BATTLE: I did not know that.

SENATOR SCOTT: So is that -- I study those trends and look at where the growth and possible growth are.

MR. BATTLE: We all know that South Carolina is one of the fastest growing states in the nation. And we know the areas that it is growing in but eventually it's going to expand. I live in Nichols and the beach - I live 45 miles from North Myrtle Beach and it is probably 15 to 20 miles outside of Nichols in Horry County coming our way. So much of Marion's business comes out of Horry County, western Horry County, which is not the beach but where the farmland is and so forth. That is being developed left and right. People are just looking for places.

SENATOR SCOTT: Twenty-two I think that's where you're going to see all that new growth that's going to come.

MR. BATTLE: We want to be set when the time comes.

SENATOR SCOTT: And looking at the Orangeburg hospitals, glad you mentioned that --

MR. BATTLE: He mentioned it.

SENATOR SCOTT: -- or he mentioned it on the tail end of it. It became of a regional hospital after the I think it was Allendale Hospital and the Bamberg Hospital closing everybody stopped coming to the Orangeburg hospital where it needs some assistance and -- but it's projected also to be one of the next large growth areas that's going to give you some -- and on top of that you've got a school down there of being able to get nurses and other health care professionals out there at Claflin. So I wonder who's making those decisions. But I think they're looking at just outside monies profitable now, the projection for long term. And as I projected in the end there'll be five hospitals. The others will not sustain the system. You're going to have some strong hospitals and you're going to have some hospitals not so strong. Would you believe that our biggest concern is not the large urban areas, the Charleston, the Richland, the Greenville but it's rural counties and what we can do and I would like to some of -- from your experience, especially because of

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

Marion County, what we can do to begin to look at how we fix that using -- probably Orangeburg would become the model moving from just a county hospital to more of a regional hospital concept.

MR. BATTLE: We need to get comfortable where we are. We need to establish a comfort zone for you, the people of South Carolina, and you know I feel very -- I personally feel very comfortable about where we are now. So we're going to sit tight for a while and see where we are and then we'll do what's right.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Hello Jim, how you doing?

MR. BATTLE: Doing fine, thank you.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Always a pleasure to serve with you.

MR. BATTLE: I remember. Served with a lot of you.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Question for you in reference to one of the same questions I asked earlier. Certificate of need and with you all opening up multiple locations. If the certificate of need was repealed and there's no need for a certificate of need in South Carolina how would it affect what you all are doing here in the state?

MR. BATTLE: My thoughts on the CON is a little different than Don Johnson's. We're on the same team moving in the same direction. When I was with Marion County Hospital for the 20 years before I was in the General Assembly, the CON protected us a lot of times. If we were going to invest money, we wanted to make sure that somebody would look at it before private practice would come in and duplicate what we were doing. So there was a need for CONs. I think MUSC is in favor of amending the current CON process now. There should be a distinction between hospital's and doctors' practices and so forth. I'm a lay member and I don't know all of the details there. But I know that we are not opposed to amendments or changing the way the CON is handled now. It has served its purpose in the past because hospitals could have gotten into such competition with each other that they both went broke and nobody was being served. But I don't think that's the case in this point in time.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: I know what you all -- the model that you have over in Chester now in reference to inmates being housed there. Has that started yet, have you all received any inmates in Chester?

MR. BATTLE: It has. We were very fortunate to get that contract and that's putting that hospital on the map. It's -- it is a good win-win situation for the state of South Carolina and for the Chester Hospital. But yeah that has been done.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And also do you all foresee over in the Chester location bringing back to where babies can be delivered in Chester? Because I know right now most of them are going over to Rock Hill or Charlotte or to Lancaster. I know that they do not deliver in Chester.

MR. BATTLE: You know I couldn't -- I know that for hospitals to succeed we have to be able to do that in Marion and Chester and all the other places. It's not -- it is difficult getting doctors to move into rural areas. And that sometimes becomes a problem. And I do not know whether Chester is scheduled or an attempt is being made to provide that service there. I can find out for you and will let you know.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And my last question is what -- how do you feel about the diversity of the college, of the medical school?

MR. BATTLE: We -- you know that's something we have to work on all the time as you know. When I was in the General Assembly I represented a majority/minority district and I think I served our population well and so I feel very close to that. We are not diverse enough. We are working on it. We need to improve not just with the student body but with administration, the doctors, and everything. Efforts are being made. It's something that we talk about often. When I first went with MUSC, Antoine Gunn, who was a House member with us, was the -- one of the diversity officers. He was good but he left us. But we have an equity department that works with human resources to make sure that we are working toward getting that problem straightened out.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you Mr. Chairman.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Any others? What's the desire? For favorable? All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Nos no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations Jim.

MR. BATTLE: I appreciate it, I'll make you proud.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Jim, uh, Nichols how has it recovered from the flooding?

MR. BATTLE: Two, flooded two times the only board meeting I ever missed was right after one of the floods. And it wasn't just Nichols it was fifteen or twenty miles around for two weeks we couldn't get out. But we went from a population of four, five hundred down to fifty and went back up to around a hundred now. They were thousand year floods but we had two in three years.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Wow.

MR. BATTLE: But thank you for asking. We're recovering.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. CHAIRMAN: I go through that Nichols every time I go to the beach, so it's just ---

MR. BATTLE: We're getting better, thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right, thanks. All right, Dr. Lemon has showed up so if you'd come on up please, sir. JAMES LEMON, having been duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'll give us your name and a brief statement why you're serve -- want to serve on the board.

DR. LEMON: James Lemon. And I'm pleased to have the opportunity to serve the people of South Carolina in a health care capacity. I'm a native of South Carolina and I believe that MUSC is making an endeavor to reach out to the Medical University of South Carolina and take care of people, taking inroads into rural areas. I'm from a small town where the hospital had closed and so it's sort of near and dear to my heart to try to provide healthcare not only to metropolitan areas and to the larger towns but to the entire state. And so I am honored and gratified to be doing that in this capacity.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey.

MS. WEBB: I thank you. Just for the record can you please state your first and last name again?

DR. LEMON: James Lemon.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And what is your home address?

DR. LEMON: It's 3407 Overcreek Road. I moved Monday.

MS. WEBB: You moved on Monday?

DR. LEMON: It was 4111 Ivy Hall.

MS. WEBB: Was your previous address?

DR. LEMON: Yes. Columbia, 2920 -- they were the same, 29206.

MS. WEBB: All right. And do you still live in Columbia?

DR. LEMON: I do.

MS. WEBB: Okay. Can you please state that address one more time for me?

DR. LEMON: 3407 Overcreek Road, 29206.

MS. WEBB: Okay. And I would just ask if you can send me that in an email?

DR. LEMON: Certainly.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And then since submitting this application have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you are aware of?

DR. LEMON: I have.

MS. WEBB: You have. Do you know who those are or would you need to look through your records and email those to me?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

DR. LEMON: I know of speaker Merle Smith, $250.

MS. WEBB: Okay. I would just request that if there are additional ones when you email your new address just to state that you have moved, this is your new address. And you are paying your four percent of that address in Columbia, correct?

DR. LEMON: Yes.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. Just include that in your email if you did make any contributions to any other members.

DR. LEMON: Certainly.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you. And then other than your address change and the contribution to Speaker Smith, are there any other changes to your application that you would like the members of the commission to be made aware of? DR. LEMON: No.

MS. WEBB: All right, thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Questions? Mr. President.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Good afternoon, doctor. And I hear you're loud and clear that it is a South Carolina system and do you think it's always been that way?

DR. LEMON: I think the emphasis now has changed. I do believe that the schools always -- the Medical University of South Carolina providing education, healthcare I don't think that we were providing the scope of care for the rural areas in the past as we are doing now. And I don't think that hospitals were failing in years prior. I think that this is something that's been brought about by a need.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: So Providence is in a rural area? Providence Hospital?

DR. LEMON: No, sir, it is not.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Now, I know that. But he said rural area I just was wanting to know you didn't mention the metropolitan area.

Dr. LEMON: Well, we have a shortage and a need for graduate medical education. We've been hearing that there are discussions about opening up new medical schools in our state. And at this point in time, if a physician finishes school and does not have a residency he can not practice. And we are matching at about one-to-one with maybe one or two not able to match in the year. We opened up a new medical school and did not have graduate medical education then we would not be able to have those doctors be able to work. So one of the initiatives that we're looking at in these areas is bringing in and educating residents.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: So I heard you -- or did I hear you say earlier that you envisioned MUSC being a statewide hospital system?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

DR. LEMON: Not by hospital system, sir. And I think that's a matter of definition. I think that we would serve the state in it's entirety. I don't know that the word hospital system statewide is quite appropriate. It may be, I'm not certain I understand.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: I was -- I didn't make a note of what you said so I guess my thought is -- question is to you from the standpoint do you envision -- is it your goal that MUSC locate additional hospitals in South Carolina?

DR. LEMON: No, sir. At this point we have no plans on any new developing hospitals past Orangeburg that we've dealt with and also in Bluffton there's a possible partnership. But other than that we are as -- Mr. Battle said in a holding pattern, we're staying where we are. My opinion is that we feel like in except for Columbia in some of those areas where that opportunity arose we've been asked to come in and help out and do those areas for failing hospitals and rural areas that needed healthcare.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Okay. One last question, I notice here or at least on your form it says part time with the prison system -- you do some work with the prison system?

DR. LEMON: No, I do not. We have a -- well let me rephrase that. We have prisoners that come to our office. So we do take care of the prisoners from the local prison systems and they're brought to us for consultations and treatment with.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: That's not the facility that y'all manage or that MUSC manages?

DR. LEMON: No, sir. No, sir.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: That's just coming into your regular office?

DR. LEMON: That's my private practice.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Okay. Thank you for that, thank you. It's good to see you.

DR. LEMON: Yes, sir. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you doctor. I guess my questions are similar to everybody else's. I would love to hear your take on certificate of need.

DR. LEMON: Certificate of need is -- in my opinion, needs to be amended so that the thresholds are different in terms of dollars that it doesn't need to be taken up on a day-to-day basis with a certain lower threshold. I think it's necessary to prevent large Atrium type companies to come in and build large hospitals to compete for our tertiary and quaternary care, the complex care, that is required by the Medical University of South Carolina to survive. We do more kidney transplants than anyone in the southeast in the past year. If some of the hospitals would come in without any certificate of need requirements, I think that we would have a problem with outside -- outside of our state, people coming in.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And you mentioned Atrium. What services do you all provide to my constituency in York County that would need those services that could get to the MUSC Charleston versus an Atrium?

DR. LEMON: Kidney transplants, liver transplants, heart transplants, pediatric cardiovascular care, pediatric neurosurgery.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: So, York County, where I live an Atrium would be a competition to you?

DR. LEMON: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: It would be?

DR. LEMON: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And certificate of need would hurt the hospitals that you all the -- service areas that you all service?

DR. LEMON: I do not think certificate of need would hurt them, I think that --

REPRESENTATIVE KING: I mean, if we did not have the certificate of need is what I'm asking.

DR. LEMON: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And I see that you are the chair of the board?

DR. LEMON: I am.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: What have you done as the chair of the board to increase the number of African Americans that enter MUSC medical school?

DR. LEMON: What my opinion is, is that if we don't have under-represented minority positions that we will continue to have discrepancies in healthcare outcomes which are known to be true and that under represented minorities feel better if they're face-to-face with someone that looks more like them. That's a preface to saying that we're constantly looking at ways to increase the numbers of under-represented minorities working on processes in our DEI where we seek to encourage all people to apply including the under-represented minorities. And that it is so important that we bring the percentages up more to what the percentages of our state reveal. We're not there. And our board understands that. And we understand that this is part of what I think is our fiber, to try to rectify that and we've not been able to do that thus far.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Have you all -- and I -- this is my last question, looked at doing some type of bridge program? I know that they mentioned something in reference to the College of Charleston. And it didn't necessarily mean that it was students from College of Charleston I understood that. But a bridge program with some of the HBCUs and especially like South Carolina State since it is a state supported school?

DR. LEMON: We have not -- we have not accomplished that. We have talked about that. One of our biggest shortages is nursing. And that would be a great avenue for us to garner nurses. And that is something that's been discussed but I don't, at this point in time, know where that stands.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And I know that the state of South Carolina, the General Assembly, invested quite a bit of money in the sickle cell program, supports the sickle cell program throughout the state and I know that you all have done a great job at doing some sickle cell stuff. I would love to learn more and I think they're going to get me some information on the Rena Grant Sickle Cell program that you all have going on at MUSC.

DR. LEMON: Right.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott. I'm sorry -- Harpootlian.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Doctor, thank you for being here today and I want to first of all say that during the pandemic MUSC did an extraordinary job around here of getting folks vaccinated, so I wanted to thank y'all for that. I do want to probe a little bit on since we're getting ready to have to consider the CON legislation I'm a little bit confused. I mean, we had a bill that would have done away with CONs that didn't pass. Now there is some sort of threshold, can you explain that to me what do you mean by threshold?

DR. LEMON: Well if so many beds it would be how -- and I'm not certain what the CON requirements are now, to come to the threshold of having to file the CON. But it involves a certain amount of money, certain amount of beds, certain different types of equipment, MRI, things of that nature. And I don't know the exact thing but I think that if they raised the threshold it would decrease the number of CON applications required. It would stop the amount of cost that CON have where you have two sides with attorneys spending money that tends to come to the same --

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: There's nothing wrong with attorneys spending money. You might want to take a different tack on this.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

DR. LEMON: I forgot to whom I was speaking there. But anyway, I -- as a health care person, I saw that it's something that could be eliminated to some extent or at least decreased because I think that there's -- there was too much of it from my perspective. And this is a limited perspective because I'm an oral surgeon who practices here, but when I talk to the people that are working with me they think that if we take these thresholds up it will decrease the amount of cost to our school to do certain things like an MRI facility over here or a mental health facility here and it will not come to the threshold of requiring that legal system.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Sort of what prompted me to vote for that bill, which was unsuccessful, was anecdotally a story about some doctors that wanted to open a clinic in Orangeburg that would compete for outpatient surgery with the facility you now own, you being the medical university. And the explanation was, most of those folks were going to Lexington to get service anyway, they weren't getting it in Orangeburg. I mean, again I don't know the dynamics of that, you probably know better than I do. Would thresholds solve that problem? Those folks wanted to open a limited outpatient surgery facility would compete with Orangeburg for a certain segment of population that wasn't coming there anyway.

DR. LEMON: You're correct, they were -- they were going to Lexington and that was a problem and we think the best health care is local. That's one of the mantras of Dr. Cole, that the best health care is local. And I think that if the limit had passed and that would maybe raise the threshold up so that that facility could be made there but I don't know the thresholds and I don't know the exact details.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well that bill is still percolating around somewhere. I'd be interested in getting the medical university's position on that before we have to vote on it again. I think Senator Verdin has probably get a better grasp on this than I do. I don't have much of a grasp on this.

SENATOR VERDIN: Mr. Chairman?

MR. CHAIRMAN: Yes, sir.

SENATOR VERDIN: I'm not going to argue, dispute with anyone that's presenting and I have utmost respect for Dr. Lemon and others that have offered counter. Even lay members that are still here that have offered counter perspectives to what Dr. Don Johnson presented but I'm in with him lock, stock and barrel to answer the senator from Richland.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Well that answered that. Thank you very much and I move for --

MR. CHAIRMAN: Ah, Senator Scott, do you got a question?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

SENATOR SCOTT: No, you're good.

MR. CHAIRMAN: No, you if you want, go ahead.

SENATOR SCOTT: No, you're fine.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Okay. They want to get you out of here. All those in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: And opposed no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you, sir. All right. Right now Dr. Brown will not be here until 5:30. I think everybody else will be here hopefully by 6:00. So we'll take about a fifteen, twenty minute break and then we'll come back and hopefully knock the rest of these out. (A short break was taken at this time.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: MUSC, the 6th Congressional District to be heard, that's Dr. Brown. Come on up, please sir? DR. BROWN, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'll just state your name and give us a brief statement on why you want to serve on the MUSC board.

DR. BROWN: My name is William Melvin Brown, III and I am a emergency medicine doctor by trade. And a graduate of the Medical University of South Carolina. Also a retired naval officer, who is a native Charlestonian. And I wish to serve on the board of my alma mater, because the perspectives I've gained in the military, as well as the work in the emergency department, makes me want to have a more active role in delivering health to South Carolinians.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey?

MS. WEBB: Thank you, sir. For the record, just one more time, can you please state your first and last name?

DR. BROWN: William Brown.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And what is your home address?

DR. BROWN: 324 President Street in Charleston, South Carolina 29403.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And at that address do you pay your four percent property tax?

DR. BROWN: Yes, I do.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And since submitting your application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you are aware of?

DR. BROWN: Yes. Merle Smith.

MS. WEBB: All right. I would just ask, whenever you finish, if you could just go back through your records and just double check, so if you have made a contribution to Merle Smith, to Speaker Smith, if you would just please send me that information in an email, so I can update your file accordingly?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

DR. BROWN: I will.

MS. WEBB: All right. And then other than that, are there any changes to your application that you would like the Commission to be made aware of?

DR. BROWN: There are none.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Mr. President? You have question.

SENATOR SCOTT: I have question.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: I will yield.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you, Mr. Brown, for your willingness to serve. I get real excited when I see members of the Armed Forces, especially the Navy, especially the combination of combining the groups of Navy, Army and others together. How long did you serve in the Navy and having attended the Navy Academy?

DR. BROWN: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: Not very many get the chance to be part of the Naval Academy and less known, a Navy seal. How long did you serve in the Navy?

DR. BROWN: About 20 years, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: So, tell me a little bit about that experience in the Navy. Because I see then you came home to the Citadel, which you came back home to Charleston. Now, also the medical university, so you're very familiar with your home county, Charleston. And I can see you as a good fit to understand some of the struggles that go on in some of the other questions that we ask, especially about getting young people more involved in the school of medicine at MUSC. Talk about that experience and what drove you to the Navy then that transitioned you back to where you are now?

DR. BROWN: Oh, what drove me to the Navy was my interest in world travel. Also, my interest in wanting to serve, and that fit in both of those boxes. I did grow up in Charleston, as mentioned earlier. And I felt the Navy offered the most opportunity to see the world. And having had that experience, it made me have an affinity for our hometown, but at the same time, feel like there are a lot of things that I could bring back to my hometown to make this a better place. My first six years was as an engineer on warships. And I did participate on a lot of operations in the Mediterranean, the Black Sea and the aftermath of the Soviet Union experiment falling. So, that was quite an experience. After that I did make a decision, after that experience, to serve my fellow man as a physician. And that's what brought me back to Charleston. I wanted to teach and I did that at the Citadel in the ROTC setting. And I wanted to work at night school to get my pre-reqs for med school, was able to go to MUSC. And enjoyed my naval service so went back into the Navy to finish out my career. And 14 years I've lived in two foreign countries and throughout the entire experience, I always knew I was coming back home to Charleston because that was where my heart was. And after getting home, I was in private practice for about two years. And the seat came open on the Board and I had always considered getting more involved in the city, municipal politics, but this was a chance to get involved in the state, on a state level. I jumped at the opportunity, because again, being an emergency medicine doctor, you get to still learn a lot about public health. And I thought this was a great means to impact public health in South Carolina.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Mr. President.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. And good afternoon.

DR. BROWN: Senator.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And thank you for your military service and your service on the board. And being in medicine, yourself, from that standpoint, what is the biggest challenge you think is facing the Medical University of South Carolina?

DR. BROWN: The biggest challenge in my opinion and I understand, Senator, this is from my medical perspective --

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Yes, sir

DR. BROWN: -- is capacity. In the emergency department, we see up close and personal the challenges and managing an aging population. And I say capacity because one of the toughest challenges of being an emergency doctor is the what I'll call boarding, where I have to have many patients who've been admitted to the hospital staying down in the emergency department. It's stressful to the patient, stressful to the families. So, in my opinion, the biggest challenge is having enough hospital beds to take care of our population.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: So, is the expansion across the state of South Carolina by MUSC, impacting the focus of making sure that there's enough beds for there at the facility that's a flagship facility there at MUSC?

DR. BROWN: Yes, Senator, is my hope that it is positively impacting and it is also allowing people to be hospitalized in their communities without losing there local hospitals.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: So, then my question is, is that having an impact on the MUSC not having enough beds, there at the campus there in Charleston?

DR. BROWN: Yes, Senator, it does. If a person is admitted to a hospital, in one of the satellite campuses of the medical university, then that means that they don't have to be brought to Charleston for all treatments.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chair. You have a very impressive resume. I just noticed one error on here and that was the fraternity in which you pledged. You might could have made a better decision but we'll talk about that personally. But no, I have a question in reference to you being an African-American doctor. So many people don't know about sickle cell.

DR. BROWN: Yes, sir.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: I have two nieces that suffered with sickle cell that this General Assembly made it a very important issue to the point that we have worked along side of MUSC to establish the Rena Grant Sickle Cell that you all have there. Where do you see, in the educational component of the students that matriculate through the medical school, where there can be something that focuses on, that every student that goes through learns something about sickle cell?

DR. BROWN: Where are the curriculums, sir?

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Yes. Do you think it's possible to have that in the curriculum?

DR. BROWN: Oh, yes.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: And the reason why I ask that is because I find that there is a shortage of doctors that deal with sickle cell patients.

DR. BROWN: I do think that is available at different points throughout the curriculum. As a student, when you're rotating through different departments, I think that one can get a great indoctrination into sickle cell. And no pun intended, crisis on the pediatrics rotations, which is a standard rotation for all the undergraduates. I also do feel that they should also be involved in rotations for most of your medicine doctors as residents. Any opportunity, again, presents itself in pediatrics, as well as in the hematology/oncology suite, as well. And then it can also be taught in the classes where you're physical diagnosis. Because when in physical diagnosis, you have to learn about pain management. And pain management is essential to treatment of sickle cell patients.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

REPRESENTATIVE KING: My last question and it also deals with sickle cell. How do you facilitate patients that do come to the ER and are now being identified as drug seekers, but the Governor did sign it into law last year, the Rena Grant Sickle Cell Registry. Have you seen it work? Is it up and running or do you know anything about it?

DR. BROWN: I do. Again, being an emergency doctor and I hope I don't sound like a broken record, we are the front lines of seeing this. And as a testimonial to what we've done as a state in the seven years I've been practicing emergency medicine, I've seen a decrease in emergency -- in the emergency department use in the Charleston tri-county area for sickle cell patients. One, more captured in the clinics to take care of these folks and they have better access to the clinics. But two, as far as pain management, the registry has helped us in managing that. There are some very small numbers of minor abuses. For the most part, in addition to have this registry it has increased the education. The South Carolina Medical Association has increased the education. I think that now the stigma and misunderstanding of the amount of pain medication required to manage someone on sickle cell has improved. I hope that answers your question.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: You did and thank you so much.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Ready for favorable? All those in favor signify by saying aye? (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed, no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you Dr. Brown for your service. Thank you for your service in the military.

DR. BROWN: Thank you for your time and thank you for your service.

MR. CHAIRMAN: And that got all of MUSC. Now, we're up to SC State. The 5th Congressional District, seat five. We have three candidates. The first one is Abigail Busby Webb, come on up, please.

SC STATE: ABIGAIL BUSBY WEBB, duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: Just state your name and a brief statement why you'd like to serve on the SC State Board.

MS. WEBB: I'm Abigail Busby Webb. Good evening Chairman Whitmire, other members of the screening committee. I would like to thank you for allowing me the opportunity to stand before you today to briefly share with you why I believe that I could be of a major service to South Carolina State University, boldly, which is my alma mater. I am a native of Orangeburg County. I still attend church there, the Antioch Baptist Church; however, I currently reside in Sumter, South Carolina, where my husband and I raised our three daughters. I was a retired educator until, I guess, January 2022. I recently retired in June 2020. And then I was asked to come back to serve a purpose, at that time, at the adult education level. Since then I have moved from that temporary position to the position of coordinator for instruction and professional development. I received my master's degree and my -- bachelor's degree and my masters degree from South Carolina State University. And I hold that institution, it's students, and it's faculty and staff, to be very dear to my heart. I believe that it has a mission to educate and advance our students, the ones that they are serving, to be able to move into the dynamic global arena that we now live and work in every day of our lives. And they need to have the best skills possible, be highly academically achieve and be able to live, communicate and operate in this society on that level. I have a very strong and dedicated work ethic. And I look forward to helping President Conyers, the faculty staff and the cabinet move that institution to the height and the capacity that I truly believe it can be. Along with contending to be a positive recruiter for the college, I believe that I can help boost that enrollment and ensure that the enrollment moves to the level that that the faculty and staff can actually accommodate and work with. I realize that the enrollment currently is down, but I truly believe that it has the capacity to move forward. And with that enrollment moving forward we also would concentrate on retention. Because once we get them there, we need to be able to keep them there, at least for the three or four years of their program. Again, I thank you for this opportunity to stand before the screening commission and I ask that I receive your affirmative to move forward in the process.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey?

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And once again for the record, can you please state your first and last name?

MS. WEBB: Abigail Busby Webb.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And what is your home address?

MS. WEBB: 710 Windrow Drive, Sumter, South Carolina 29150.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And is this where you pay your four percent property tax?

MS. WEBB: That is correct.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And since submitting this application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you are aware of?

MS. WEBB: No, I have not.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And are there any change to your application that you would like for any members of the Commission to know about?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: The only change was that work situation, moving from retirement status to being working full-time again.

MS. WEBB: Yes, ma'am. Thank you. And I have your letter that you submitted to me and that's included in everyone's binders.

MS. WEBB: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Ms. Webb, thank you so much. I'm very impressed with your resume. I see that the amount of time you've spent with the university really has some kind of ideas, in terms of what's going on at the university level, yes, on the staff level. Transitioning from the staff level to the Board level, some of your thoughts, in terms of things that you want to achieve with the board, given the new blueprint that the school now has.

MS. WEBB: I would think first and foremost, I would certainly like to support the current vision to move the university forward. I know that President Conyers has not been in that position very long, definitely not as long as the president that I attended under, which was just President Nance. However; I do believe that with the support of the Board members, that he and his cabinet would be able to move the university forward, ensure that we build enrollment that we actually need in order that, that university can operate at full capacity. Get them there and retain them and also concentrate on our faculty and staff, their commitment, taking care of them and ensuring that we have the diverse and qualified staff that will help us get to the next level. And be a competitive university that I'm certain we can be.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you so much.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Anyone else? What's the --

SENATOR SCOTT: Move for a favorable report.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Favorable report. All those in favor, signify by saying aye? (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Against, no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations and good luck.

MS. WEBB: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Next up is Darrel Johnson, Dr. Johnson.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Mr. Chair, I want to ask a question before we start Dr. Johnson's questions.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Okay. Hold on one second.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: When will, would all the candidates that we've interviewed today be notified as to when they can start asking for commitments and stuff because I don't want -- some of these new people that are coming in may not realize that they cannot ask for commitments.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: Yes, thank you for bringing that point up, Representative King. At the end of this, since we are live streaming, I was going to make a broadcast for everyone, just an announcement that, yes, you will be hearing from me after this. So, everyone that received a favorable report, I will let you know at that time when you're able to start getting your vote commitments from members. Until you hear from me, you are not to ask for any vote commitments from any members at this time. I will officially release you, you'll be letting -- I will make you aware ahead of time so you'll be able to claim your schedule. And you'll have, hopefully, about two weeks to get your vote commitments and then move forward in the process to a Joint Assembly on the floor. Either the last week of April or the first week of May. We're trying to set a final Joint Assembly date still.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right, Dr. Johnson, come on up. DARREL JOHNSON, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you just state your name and a brief statement on why you're running for the board.

DR. JOHNSON: My name is Darrel Johnson, I'm running for the board of trustees for one reason. I want to help restore the prominence of South Carolina State University. As a product of the projects of Clover, South Carolina, attending South Carolina State in 1980 as a freshman class senator, not be able to go back, didn't give up. I worked hard earning three degrees from Winthrop University, a bachelor's, master's and special degrees from Winthrop. Worked hard in education more than 32 years. I was a high school English teacher at Rock Hill High for two years -- excuse me, high school English teacher at Clover High School for two years. Language arts/journalism teacher at Clover Middle School for two years, assistant principal of Rock Hill High for two years. Then Sunset Park an elementary principal for a year. And then two years as elementary principal. And then back to Rock Hill to the district office for several years. And then went to Greenwood, South Carolina and I became the superintendent there, where I stayed for 13 consecutive years. I retired, went home relaxing, enjoying myself and got a call back, to come out of retirement and become the superintendent of Orangeburg Consolidated School District for a year. Worked with them to get through the pandemic. And I planned to just relax and I do a little coaching of executive administrative across the country. I was a college basketball official for 25 plus years. So, March Madness was my time. And I decided to sit down, but some people talked to me and made me realize that I have something to give back. Education afforded me an opportunity to do some things that a country boy from the projects wouldn't get to do without a sound, solid education. SC State provided that foundation for me. And I reflected back on my first year as a freshman out of Orangeburg, South Carolina. Grandmother got me home, had no way to get back. But I found a way to get back. Went to Washington D.C. marching, to save that university. And now, more than 30 years later I have an opportunity to get back and be a part of a group and restore it to prominence. I'm a team player. I believe in all students. And I just feel like being on this board, given an opportunity to give back to the university that gave me so much, that's why I intend to run for this seat.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. Once again for the record, would you just please state your first and last name?

DR. JOHNSON: Darrel Johnson.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And can you please tell me what your home address is?

DR. JOHNSON: 732 Guinn Street, Clover, South Carolina.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And do you pay your four percent property tax at that address?

DR. JOHNSON: Yes, I do.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And since submitting this application, have you may any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly?

DR. JOHNSON: I have not.

MS. WEBB: All right. And are there any changes to your application that you would like for the commission to be made aware of?

DR. JOHNSON: None, other than just doing consultant for a couple different groups, but other than that, it's the same.

MS. WEBB: Okay. Thank you.

DR. JOHNSON: Okay.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chair, and thank you Dr. Johnson. I've known you for some years now. I'm still upset that you didn't go to Chester to be the superintendent in Chester when we were looking for a superintendent over there. You know I don't represent Chester, that's my hometown. So, tell me, I understand your commitment to South Carolina State. What do you envision in reference to -- I think that the administration is doing an amazing job with what they're doing now. But in reference to the facilities there, I know that that has been an issue and as a board member, how would you tackle that issue?

DR. JOHNSON: As a board member, I would tackle it the same way. I know the president has been there just a short amount of time. But my first year in Greenwood as school superintendent, I had never built anything in my life. But the first as superintendent, we embarked upon a $150,000,000 building program in Greenwood School District 50. It was tough. It was hard. But I learned right then through teamwork with a group of people working together, you can accomplish numerous goals. It's amazing how much can be accomplished when no one cares who gets the credit. Infrastructure's very, very, important. And I support the president of the university for what they're doing right now. I was on the campus last Thursday, I rode back through on my way somewhere else. I thought about, if I was going to go, what would I do to work with this group, help them get to the next level. But work as part of the team and to help them continue the progress they've already started, would be my goal, to get in for as much as I possibly can and work as part of the team with the understanding that everyone brings something to the table.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Let me thank you again for your willingness to serve. I see that all the time you spent at Winthrop why South Carolina State -- Winthrop you went freshman year and you got the Bull Dog bite and then it's kind of hard to turn. But then you went to Winthrop, which is a teaching school.

DR. JOHNSON: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: And then you did quite well in your teaching career, but you ended up back at South Carolina State to get your doctorate. But why South Carolina State board rather than Winthrop board right now?

DR. JOHNSON: Well, when you've been raised in the projects with your grandmother and that's your only means of support, you go where the dollars allow you to go. So, I transferred from SC State back to Winthrop, that was closer to home. And Winthrop was a great institution and I learned so much there, attained three degrees. But my father, my aunts, my cousins, a lot of my relatives went to SC State. And although I was not an SC State graduate at that time, I still supported the university, going to the games, enjoying the mystic of being there at that university. And I'll never forget how it felt my freshman year being there, on the grounds, sitting in the crowd, with all the stuff that was going on around me. That's the feeling I'll never forget. And I had no plans on going into education, in the profession. Actually, I just wanted to go to school and have an opportunity. And I found out with education that opened up so many doors for me. So, SC State is where I started and that's where I finished.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you. Favorable report.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Put in for a favorable report. All in favor signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed? (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations and good luck to you.

DR. JOHNSON: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Next is Thomas Thompson. THOMAS THOMPSON, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'll just give your name and a brief statement why you're running for the SC Board.

MR. THOMPSON: Okay. And name's Thomas Thompson, my name. I came to South Carolina in 1982 from the midwest. Prior to that time I heard almost nothing about historically black colleges and institutions. I knew of maybe Tennessee State and Fisk because they were nationally known, but other than that, I had very little knowledge. But as I began to talk with people around South Carolina, invariably would they talk about their experiences at South Carolina State. And I was amazed at how proud they were of the experiences that they gained and their support for that institution. I probably bring a little different perspective than the other folks. I was part of the South Carolina State Administration from 2004 to 2006 until 2010 as dean of the college of graduate, graduate studies. I got a chance to witness first hand the pride coming from the students and other faculty members. As a result, I would be honored to be able to share my knowledge and experience of college administration through the Board on South Carolina State University. And help it to restore or help to restore it to one of the premier institutions in South Carolina.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you, sir. And for the record just one more time, can you please state your first and last name?

MR. THOMPSON: Thomas Thompson.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. And what is your home address?

MR. THOMPSON: 831 MacArthur Street, Rock Hill 29730.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And is that the address that you pay your four percent property tax at?

MR. THOMPSON: It is.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And since submitting this application, have you made any new contributions to any members of the General Assembly?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. THOMPSON: I have not.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And are there any changes to your application that you would like to make the Commission aware of?

MR. THOMPSON: There aren't.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Any questions? Mr. President?

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Good afternoon.

MR. THOMPSON: Good afternoon.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: So, you mentioned your service and work there as the chair of the department of education and leadership at South Carolina State; is that correct?

MR. THOMPSON: That is correct. I also served as dean of the school of graduate studies.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Okay. So, I just curious, how do you -- how would you be able to utilize that time as a -- having been in those capacities, how do you see that impacting or helping, hurting with your service on the board of trustees?

MR. THOMPSON: I think it will help my service on the board of trustees. I also worked at the University of South Carolina, as a faculty member. I've worked for Walden University, an online institution, as a coordinator of their Ph.D. program, and also Albany State University as dean of the college of education. So, I have an understanding of college administration. I know that the President, Conyers has a great vision for the school. And I think that I can utilize the experience that -- knowledge and experience that I have of how institutions work to help the Board and the administration to view, to tell the realistic view of where we can go as an institution.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you, sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you so much for your willingness to serve. For many, many years it's been a real struggle on the campus separation or responsibility as a power.

MR. THOMPSON: Uh-huh.

SENATOR SCOTT: Staff overstepping into the administrative part.

MR. THOMPSON: Uh-huh.

SENATOR SCOTT: Then creating more conflict as it reached the boards. How do you plan to be able to create those relationships on the staff side, so it doesn't interfere with board policies and the board actually being sound to be able to carry those policies out?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. THOMPSON: I think that what helps in those situations is strong board support for the president and his or her vision. And maintaining communication with faculty members, whatever the grievances are, you have to let them know that they're not being ignored. And to work within the resolution of those kinds of grievances.

SENATOR SCOTT: That's a very thin line.

MR. THOMPSON: True, it is. It is.

SENATOR SCOTT: When they ignored and deemed what they consider to be overpowering to make the decision for direction when the Board and the president is trying to take the school it's been a big, big issue. So make sure especially when these folks have been a part of the previous administration and their roles, understand their responsibility. You get great friends and other relationships down there. So, part is making the tough decisions.

MR. THOMPSON: That is correct.

SENATOR SCOTT: And it's been an issue before. And so, I'm just kind of a little concerned, when I see someone whose been administration and having to deal with staffing and now are going to the board and being able to really when the board makes a decision, that decision's not undermined. That give me some great heartburn, those decision undermined. Because there are things that -- and cases that the staff doesn't know about, in terms of getting to the key point where you can make some real tough decisions. What the school has done for the school. All information is not privileged here but about --

MR. THOMPSON: That's correct.

SENATOR SCOTT: -- it's board information what makes this a tough decision. What's your thought on that?

MR. THOMPSON: I have no ulterior motives, other than to help the institution return to the reputation I've know that -- that it's had over the years. And to help it become, as I said before, one of the premier institutions in the state of South Carolina.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you so much.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Favorable? All those in favor of a favorable report, signify by saying aye (Ayes were heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed, no. (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Good luck to you, sir.

MR. THOMPSON: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Next up is at-large, seat nine. Rodney C. Jenkins.

RODNEY C. JENKINS, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you state your name and give us a brief statement why you're running for the SC State Board.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. JENKINS: Rodney C. or Rodney Clay Jenkins.

MS. WEBB: And a brief statement as to why you'd like to serve.

MR. JENKINS: I'm returning, seeking a return seat. I've been, I've served on the board now for the last four and a half years, a little more now. I came in 2018. I want to come, doing the same as I did before. I came bringing love and passion to the university, being a former -- a student and graduate of South Carolina State. Getting ready to celebrate my 50th class anniversary this year. So, we'll be in reunion for our golden class reunion this year. Been serving on the board as for the last four and a half years, you know, we believe that a lot of things have happened. And we've been able to get some things moving at the university that had gotten a little stagnated. And since that time we've been able to make some things happen and I want to be able to remain on board to continue the good work that has been started along with the help of this legislature, we've been able to, you know, acquire additional funds and to do some things that, not only through the state, but through federal dollars to help us move the university physically and with our enrollment throughout. So, I would like to remain to help with that process as we go forward.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you, sir. And just one more time for the record, can you please state your first and last name?

MR. JENKINS: Rodney Clay Jenkins.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And what is your home address?

MR. JENKINS: 8208 Hunt Club Road, Columbia, South Carolina 29223.

MS. WEBB: Sorry, thank you. And is this the address that you pay your four percent property tax at?

MR. JENKINS: Yes.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And since submitting this application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly?

MR. JENKINS: No, I haven't.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And are there any changes to your application that you would like any members of the Commission to know?

MR. JENKINS: Yes. I've been and I've just looked at this again in the last few days. When I wrote -- when the application was re-submitted, I was the chair of the Board. And at this point, I am just a board member. I'm no longer the chair. I was the chair for three years.

MS. WEBB: Thank you, sir.

MR. JENKINS: Okay.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you so much for your willingness to serve. I tell you as a new board member coming in, becoming the chair, I had to hold my breath there for a little while. You really gave me a whole lot of time to make that adjustment, transitional board coming off was, you still had a transitional board. Old president going out, new president coming in, president selection, change in policy, which some members not doing what they supposed to do, in terms of following policies and procedures. New growth and a new plan. Talk to me a little bit about that, you the one in the hot seat to get it all done, to move that transition to where it is now. As we move forward from those plans to the new plan of where we're going. Just elaborate a little bit, start at any point you want to because you're the one who had it all to get it done as the chair.

MR. JENKINS: It's a long story, but it's a good story. And it starts with common sense, practicability. You call on the professionals, AGB, Association of Governing Rules. We really, based on what we came in after, we did not want to be tripped up with governance being a problem. We didn't dip into administration. We would -- I would err on the sound of caution. And I would ask the board members to do likewise. And quite frankly, I talked to board members that were there before because the transition board did hold it together. But we had to come in as the new board and really try to make things happen. Getting in such a seat, the big issue was remaining and knowing that we were doing the work of SACSCOC, making sure that we were in doing our governments role, and not stepping into administration knowing where it might have opinion, but knowing that wasn't our road. I had communications with the President of SACSCOC, Dr. Belle Wheelan, made sure that we were doing the, being the straight and narrow. Once I called her -- and she said I'm glad you called me because I didn't want to have to beat you over the head later. So, we stayed the course. And thus far, that's where we are. It's a longer story, but that is the highlights.

SENATOR SCOTT: I know that your request is a tremendous request. You want to move on the university forward, capital projects that we probably should have taken care of a long time ago. And even the commitment from the school itself to go into a fundraising mode to be able to pay some of that cost that came with the dormitories and others that are out there. I know that in many cases, some of the conversation between you and others, such as myself, until these things appear to be moving in the right direction and before to be given back to the board, could be some kind of problematic. Share a little input on that, because everybody information -- all the information not for everybody. Talk a little bit about that and where it put you as the leader, the chair on the board -- budgeting and those kinds of issues and trying to turn the corner. And also trying to change that environment of the school.

MR. JENKINS: Well, one of the things that the president came to us with was he needed to make certain that he got a good physical person. I'm a retired CFO from a state agency. I didn't have a bad audit for 28 years. So being in a leadership role there, I wasn't going to do that either at South Carolina State. But when the president came and said these are the things we need to do, these are the priorities and here's how we might do it. We just gave him all the support. We shared our opinions. I shared mine. In a -- again, in a governance role. But from -- and for the dollars that we were requesting, you know, we you have a process and we've started talking to folks about the public/private partnership. So, with that we believe that we can truly build dormitories through that process, but needing the General Assembly to help us with classrooms. We have the oldest buildings of public schools in the state. So, we're really in need of such. So, with that, itself, you know, those are the pieces that will help us attract new students and put us in a place where we can take care of students, that probably wouldn't get a chance to go school elsewhere.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you Mr. Jenkins.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Mr. President

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And thank you for what you've been doing at SC State. I would just -- well, I guess when you were before us last. Because it looks like you're here now, the owner of a consulting company; is that right?

MR. JENKINS: Yes.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: And that's been from 2009 and that continues to do that aspect?

MR. THOMPSON: I still have it. I do very little work in it now. I'm sort of retiring, retiring.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: There's nothing there -- or is there anything there that you do that directly or indirectly involved SC State?

MR. THOMPSON: Nothing

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Okay. Just wanted to get that on the record.

MR. JENKINS: Thank you, sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Favorable? All those in favor, signify by saying aye for favorable. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Against, none? (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. JENKINS: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thanks for your service.

MR. JENKINS: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Now, we're up to at-large, seat 11, Robert S. Reese. Welcome, sir. ROBERT S. REESE, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: Just give us your name and a brief statement why you're running.

MR. REESE: Okay. Good evening everyone on the board, Screening Commission. My name is Robert Reese. I was born and raised in Charleston, South Carolina. On October in 2019, I retired from the College of Charleston, Department of Public Safety, Campus Law Enforcement. Also served in the Marine Corp for eight years, and also with that Infantry Unit there. Why I want to serve, is basically I've been -- my mom is from Orangeburg area, it's a town called Bowman, South Carolina. So, it's a rural area, raised on a farm. So, I know about hard work. But she also instilled in us that it's good to have a college education. And I want to give back, with that in mind. And I think I want to start at South Carolina State because I heard good things, not only this evening, but what I've heard from the past about South Carolina State, it's a great institution. My wife used to be the general counsel there. Her name is Mercedes Pinckney Reese. So, I know a little bit about South Carolina State. And I know -- just to get -- I guess I'm the youngest one here. I graduated from Starr High School, graduated in 1984, so what I know about South Carolina State, they had a pretty good football team and they continue to have a football team, but I would see they grow a little beyond that. Also, I have a daughter who is in graduate school there, so I definitely have a vested interest in that. And also have a cousin, who's a freshman at South Carolina State. So, based on my 31 years serving at the College of Charleston, I have a little bit of background how a college works, how it runs. So, I want to give back, with that experience. Working at the College of Charleston, I think I can contribute a lot to South Carolina State.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey.

MS. WEBB: Thank you, sir. And once again for the record, can you please state your first and last name?

MR. REESE: First name is Robert, middle name is S. Reese.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And what is your mailing address, what is your home address?

MR. REESE: Mailing address is 313 Brickline Drive, Summerville, South Carolina 29483.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you, sir. And when you had initially applied -- so you submitted this original application back in 2021.

MR. REESE: Yes, ma'am.

MS. WEBB: Did you have your address as 427 Elliston Street in Summerville, South Carolina?

MR. REESE: Yes, just following up, I did update that with you, I submitted that, and my new address is at 313 Brickline Drive, Summerville. And also, since then, I come out of retirement, also part-time with the Federal Courthouse in Charleston, with the federal side of the walled-in security there in Charleston, South Carolina.

MS. WEBB: Okay. So, I have your email stating that you did update your address. I don't have any documentation about your current employment. If you could just send me an email with your employers information?

MR. REESE: Yes.

MS. WEBB: Just at some point, that would be very helpful. I do have the updated address as 313 Brickline Drive, Summerville, South Carolina and that is correct?

MR. REESE: Yes.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And do you pay your four percent property tax at that new address?

MR. REESE: Yes, I do.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And since submitting this application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you are aware of?

MR. REESE: No, ma'am.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And besides the changes that we just went over, are there any changes to your application that you would like the Commission to be made aware of?

MR. REESE: No, ma'am.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you, Mr. Reese for your willingness to serve.

MR. REESE: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: After 31 years at the College of Charleston, why South Carolina State? And a alumnus of Southern Western University, why not that board for South Carolina State?

MR. REESE: Well, like I said earlier, I've got a vested interest at South Carolina State in my daughter, China Rae Reese, attends graduate school there. Also, again, a freshman, my cousin attends there also. But my mom graduated from Claflin, so I have a little background in HBCU, so that's why it kind of draw me back to there.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

SENATOR SCOTT: South Carolina State is a whole different experience. Whole different experience than cousin, friends and others go, become a part of the Bulldog experience.

MR. REESE: Looking forward to that, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: So, I wish you well on it. I'm more than sure that once you complete working there, it's a transformation change, in terms of how South Carolina State college does things.

MR. REESE: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Mr. President.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you. Good afternoon.

MR. REESE: Good afternoon, sir.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Thank you for being here with us and for your year's of service in law enforcement. Where does your wife work?

MR. REESE: My wife currently is not working right now. Just -- I forgot to add one more thing. It's not that important, but my wife, we just had a brand new baby boy on Saturday.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Congratulations.

MR. REESE: Thank you very much, so right now she's attending -- taking care of my daughter right now.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Am I reading this correct, had she worked at South Carolina State?

MR. REESE: She has worked at South Carolina State.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: What was her employment?

MR. REESE: She was the general counsel for South Carolina State.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Okay. And when did she terminate in that position?

MR. REESE: In 2000 -- I think 2020. She moved and got a job at the US Air Force Academy when she left South Carolina State.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Okay. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All those in favor for a favorable report, signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Against? (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations and I do want to thank you for your service in the Marine Corp, eight years, that's a long time with the Marines.

MR. REESE: Yes, sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN: For sure. Army's the best I could do.

MR. REESE: Thank you, sir.

WINTHROP:

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right. Thank you. All right. That takes care of SC State. We're up to Winthrop, the 3rd Congressional District Seat 3. Rhonda S. Grant had applied from Seneca. She withdrew as of March 8th of this year. So, we will open that one back up whenever we do our next round of hearings. Now, up is the 4th Congressional District Seat 4. Edward R. Driggers, if you'll come on up. EDWARD R. DRIGGERS, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'll give me your name and a brief statement why you're wanting to be on the Winthrop report?

MR. DRIGGERS: Edward R. Driggers. I go by Ed. I have spent a career in public service. And as a result of that, I retired a few years ago and have had the opportunity to consider reappointment to the board of trustees at Winthrop, and have had enjoyed my time and my work with the university and believe that I continue to have something to offer to that institution. I am a lifelong resident of South Carolina. My wife is an undergraduate and graduate student of -- a graduate program, graduate in education. Spent 31 years in a public school system. I did my undergraduate work at the University of South Carolina. But I did my graduate work at Winthrop University in their executive MBA program while I was working full-time and entered into that program. It's been a joy. It's been my pleasure to serve. And with your consideration I would be honored to continue to serve.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey.

MS. WEBB: Thank you. Once again for the record, could you just please state your first and last name?

MR. DRIGGERS: Edward R. Driggers.

MS. WEBB: All right. And what is your home address?

MR. DRIGGERS: 5202 Edward Mosley Way, Greer.

MS. WEBB: And when you had initially submitted this application, which was back in 2021, your address was 522 Silver Ridge Drive in Greer, South Carolina?

MR. DRIGGERS: That is correct. I moved about five miles away, certainly still within the 4th Congressional District. But my wife and I decided to downsize, after our children had moved out. And we are in temporary housing at 5202, while we are looking for a permanent residence in the Greer community.

MS. WEBB: Okay. So, are you renting at that 5202?

MR. DRIGGERS: We are renting.

MS. WEBB: Okay. All right. Thank you for that clarification. And since filling out this application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you are aware of? MR. DRIGGERS: No.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MS. WEBB: All right. And are there any changes to your application, other than what we just discussed about your residence that you would like for members of the Commission to know about?

MR. DRIGGERS: I'm not positive at that time if I identified that I was beginning to do work as a consultant with Parker Poe Consulting, but I am doing that currently.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And just for the record, you did have your present employer as Parker Poe Consulting.

MR. DRIGGERS: Okay.

MS. WEBB: So, thank you for that.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Questions? Senator Scott.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you Mr. Driggers for your willingness to serve. We had a chance to meet through the new president. Part of that conversation was about branding or making some other kind of changes, in terms of, what's your thought? Winthrop's always been noted for being the school for teachers. There was a time when the status was to supplement teachers shortages. My conversation with him was very brief, why? Especially given the track record y'all have had to continue to grow teachers in South Carolina. Whether you were challenging us to help y'all to fulfill that capacity.

MR. DRIGGERS: Well, I certainly believe as a trustee of the university that would continue to be a priority of mine. As I stated earlier my wife did both her undergraduate and graduate work there to learn how and to improve being a teacher. It's a rich tradition of this state. Many people in my family and families across this state learned to be educators at that university. And I think that will continue to be a priority. I think what our president understands is that diversification is going to be absolutely necessary for us to continue in a new marketplace. And so, we have to look at new program areas as well. But there has been no discussion of diminishing our role of the responsibility as a university --

SENATOR SCOTT: I hope I'm not indicating that that's what's going to happen. I'm more concerned about loss of student population, those kinds of issues. Where do you see Winthrop going, in terms of getting the population back, increasing the amount of teachers, the teacher shortage? You know, what I'm simply saying, tell me how Winthrop becomes the star player for colleges in South Carolina in creating more teachers, especially teachers in the more diverse communities?

MR. DRIGGERS: I think one of the great advantages that Winthrop has is that we currently are funded for, at the federal level, funding for programs on understanding the systemic issue of teacher shortages, why are students not entering into the field. Why are students not -- why are teachers not being retained in the field? So, we are on the research side of that trying very desperately to understand what's happening out there in the marketplace for teachers? And with a 31-year teacher in my household, I've heard it all. I know the challenges that educators have in the classroom. But I know that they are committed. They're absolutely committed to the jobs that they do each and every day. And so, we have to understand this marketplace. Our new, our younger students, who are coming through today, what attracts them to certain professions. How can we encourage that, happily and incentivize that, if that's necessary. I think Winthrop has to be a leader in that because of the role that we've traditionally held in this state. And my personal belief is, I think that's how our trustees feel. And I certainly believe that our new president will become more aware and understanding of --

SENATOR SCOTT: We just need to know what tools we need to equip you with, so we can get that moving, because that's a big conversation piece.

MR. DRIGGERS: And it needs to be.

SENATOR SCOTT: Right. Your family is like my family, I come from a generation of teachers. And so, we've got schools that have had a setting, curriculum for teachers and we need to know what we can do to tool Winthrop and any other schools so we can continue to get young people at an early age to commit to going to the teaching field. And so, we're open to that. So, you got some thoughts about that? I'm really, really, interested in hearing those thoughts.

MR. DRIGGERS: Well, what we are learning is that, yes, attracting folks to the field is absolutely paramount. But one of our larger issues is the retention, is we are able to get students in and we're able to educate and train them to be classroom teachers. They get to the classroom and you lose them within that first to third year. And so, strategies have to be developed and whether those are economic strategies, whether those are mentoring type strategies, you know, how do we provide the support to those young teachers to get them over that hump? It's the hump that really is affecting us. Yeah, we get more students in our business administration program today than we get in our college of education. That's students making decisions about what they would like to do. And so, we have to provide various programs for them. But we get and we understand that this commitment to education has to be there. And we've just got to, we've got to be innovative. And innovation doesn't necessarily come from a single trustee or from a single president or from a single professor, that innovation has to come from current students and former students. We've got to reach out and have conversations with our young people about, you know, if this was not a choice, if you changed your major midway, help us understand why and what can we do to make some modifications in our programming, so that we can attract and retain.

SENATOR SCOTT: So, as a member of the Board, I'm looking to hear back on those answers, the rest of the Board is going in. You cannot school of teachers and education is getting a little tough. Thank you, so much.

MR. DRIGGERS: Yes, sir.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative Rose.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Mr. Driggers, good afternoon. Mr. Driggers, I had an experience with Winthrop. I mean, you were on the Board back in 2020, correct?

MR. DRIGGERS: Correct.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: And I -- you don't know this about me, but I actually grew up playing tennis. I came to the University of South Carolina on a tennis scholarship. And I didn't know much about Winthrop when I first began my tennis career. But we had played Winthrop, you had star player from Brazil named Clayton Almeida, who was great guy. We battled on the tennis courts. But one thing that always struck me about Winthrop is that you guys had a legendary tennis program. In fact, one of the most decorated programs in the big south, your athletic conference, is history. And so, I started getting, you know, phone calls from former players that I knew from competition in the NCAA, that were saying, listen, Winthrop is cutting their men's and women's tennis programs. And they were coming to me for assistance or for some type of answers. And so, I had had no interaction with the Winthrop Board whatsoever. And but for this happening, I wouldn't have any interaction. But I reached out, specifically, you know -- the June -- there was a June 19, 2020 board meeting and that is actually the board meeting where the vote was taken. As I looked into this and had conversations, it was concerning to me that actually the day before, the board even voted, before you even voted. On June 18th, the athletic director told the tennis programs and all these student athletes that they were being cut and they needed to make decisions on where to go, that you would honor their scholarships or they could leave. I guess, can you tell me how -- I mean, you would agree that the board itself must vote to take action, correct?

MR. DRIGGERS: Absolutely.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: And so, can you explain to me how a day before you guys vote, the athletic department, that the athletic director has been instructed and has notified coaches and players that they've already been eliminated without a board vote. How would that happen?

MR. DRIGGERS: Well, I can say it shouldn't have. I could say, obviously, prior to us taking a vote an ultimate vote on that issue, This is something that the Board had been engaged in for some time. It was not an issue that was taken lightly. There were many, many factors to consider in that particular issue. It was a recommendation that was coming to us from our interim president. There was buy-in from the athletic director, that we were informed that the athletic director supported that decision. So, the interim president and the athletic director were making a recommendation. It was being discussed and evaluated at the committee level of the board. And what occurred, actually on that date was a final vote. No, no one would have been authorized by the Board to have made any type of announcements relative to that because going into that meeting, that decision, the outcome could have been different REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: What materials, I mean, I was surprised to learn, as I looked into this that no materials were actually on the agenda. I noticed in your resume you served in local government. I, prior to being here, served in local government. We would have agendas that thick, with a lot of materials, background information. I was shocked to learn, as I was looking into this, that there was no materials provided to the board. Were you aware of any materials at this June 19th board meeting that you were given?

MR. DRIGGERS: I was -- well, not particularly at that meeting, but I certainly was provided material prior to when it was presented to the committee. I probably received more information from constituency of the university that was not in support of that ultimate decision. And that material did not always balance with that, that we were receiving from the university. And there were a great deal of questions that needed to be asked in that. There was enormous amount of emotion in that -- in the arena of that discussion of what was taking place. So while that meeting was the conclusion and there was a final vote, there was indeed financial information. There was information provided to us relative to our program. And I can only say, this was, it was not an easy decision. When a university is faced with making financial cuts, we do have an obligation and a responsibility to look in many areas. And we have made cuts in many other areas.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: So you aren't aware that the executive committee, which I understand is the president -- Let me ask you this, were you on the executive committee?

MR. DRIGGERS: No, sir.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Okay. So, you aren't aware that the executive committee, which is the president and the subcommittee chairs, had already -- had made a decision prior to sending this to the sports committee to cut the men's and women's tennis program?

MR. DRIGGERS: No, sir. I'm not.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: You weren't aware of that? But you would agree that the sports committee would be the proper place to vent that, would you not?

MR. DRIGGERS: Yes, sir.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: But yet that wasn't done.

MR. DRIGGERS: It was discussed in the sports committee, the athletic committee, but I'm not aware that there was other discussion or any action taken by the executive committee.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Well, let me ask you this, you're aware of a group of tennis alumni --

MR. DRIGGERS: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Who started a massive campaign when this came to light, they found out, you know, I guess this really came out in June 18th, when the athletic director announced this, prior to the board vote. And they started this massive fundraising campaign, were you aware that they had secured close to $800,000 in donations?

MR. DRIGGERS: I was advised that there were commitments made, but there was not verification of the commitments. That's the communication I received.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: And you were aware that, for example, the United States Tennis Association was willing to give a $500,000 grant for the upkeep of tennis courts. You weren't made aware of that?

MR. DRIGGERS: I was never advised, in my capacity as a member of that board of trustees, that there was a $500,000 commitment by a specific organization with that purpose.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: But you were aware at the September Board meeting there was a tennis alumni who's an attorney, who now lives in Charlotte, Julie Busha, I'm maybe mispronouncing her name. But she was the -- she spoke at your September meeting and implored the board to allow the opportunity for them to present their plan, to present their findings. And you were present for that meeting, correct?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. DRIGGERS: I was.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Why wouldn't the board, and here's the things. I actually was involved in this process where I was simply asking for these former student athletes to have the opportunity to come to their alma mater's board and present. I was told that they could only have two minutes to speak to the board. And these are individuals who have raised close to $800,000 and could have presented to you and made you aware of this information that you were unaware of. I specifically made the request that they be given five minutes. I was wanting 10 minutes, give them 10 minutes to present a plan, they are raising money. And essentially was told no, these student athletes were told no. And so, you could, I hope you can understand my frustration --

MR. DRIGGERS: Absolutely.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: -- when there are people that care deeply about Winthrop athletics and have a degree that they have framed and put on the wall. And they are asking our elective board to just have the simple dignity to say, let us tell you about this grant that we have. Let us tell about these donors that are willing to contribute. And they were told no, unanimously by the board.

MR. DRIGGERS: Well, the no was a decision by the chair of the board.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: So, you as an individual member do not have the ability to make a motion to allow for simple -- or you have no means whatsoever to put something on the agenda?

MR. DRIGGERS: No, we do have the means to place on the agenda and I do believe we would have the ability to make either a statement or a motion to allow additional time. The question is, did I do that, no, sir, I did not.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: The you can understand -- let me ask you this, why would a board not want to know that a tennis alumni were raising and had grants upwards to $800,000 and be able to ask questions and ascertain that. Why would they not want to do that? I mean, is that good governance?

MR. DRIGGERS: Well, I can't speak for the other 14 members of the board, obviously.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Look, let me ask you this. Were you ever made aware that the president -- I guess he's now the former president. The president's office, through board members, actually came to these tennis alumni and told them they must take down their, Go Fund me page. They were acting as if they were Winthrop to which they replied, we were making it very clear we're not Winthrop, we are saying Winthrop tennis. Were you made aware of that?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. DRIGGERS: I was aware of that, but not through the Board. I was made aware of that by Ms. Bouchard.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Ms. Bouchard.

MR. DRIGGERS: Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Did you do anything to kind of step in and say, hey, why will we not let tennis alumni raise money for their own program? I mean, did you do anything to --

MR. DRIGGERS: I did. I questioned that. I distinctly remember asking what is there that we don't know? There was concern on my individual part, as an individual trustee of the board. There was concern on my part of not all information making it to the entire board. I concur with you. I believe that there was more information at the executive committee level than there was at the full board level. But this was a time that I, individually, supported the recommendation of our president and of our athletic director that they had vetted this issue and I trusted that to be accurate.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Are you aware of -- you know, one of the things that was presented was the cost of upkeep of tennis courts. Are you aware that no where was there quotes, specific quotes from companies or entities that came out and actually gave a physical quote, there was just a number given but no actual -- were you ever handed a document from somebody who does tennis courts that said, here's what it will cost?

MR. DRIGGERS: No, that number was provided to us by the administration.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: And you would be surprised to know that that number was never supported by an actual document. You never saw a document, correct?

MR. DRIGGERS: Never saw a document that supported that.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Are there nice -- let me ask you this, are there nice tennis facilities public in Rock Hill? There are some nice tennis facilities, correct?

MR. DRIGGERS: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: So, do you think as a former -- being in local government, do you think your local government, it was their approach by Winthrop, who does a lot, I'm sure locally, economy of their students and the impact you have on the community. Do you think that local government would have allowed Winthrop for a year, or two years, or three years, or four years to have varsity tennis matches, NCAA tennis matches at their facilities? Do you think that would have been fruitful? Do you think, did the board ever ask local government or the parks to be able to use the tennis courts for this program?

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. DRIGGERS: I am not aware if that question was asked.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Would that have been something prudent to save money, rather fix up the courts?

MR. DRIGGERS: I certainly think so.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: And that wasn't ever analyzed?

MR. DRIGGERS: Not to my knowledge.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Compounding my frustration, please understand that I got into this, I was getting calls for help. And I honestly, am baffled that I am here having to say that we couldn't allow tennis alumni -- I asked for 10 minutes, then I went down to five. I mean, the simple dignity that could have been extended by this board to allow people the opportunity to speak, these alumni to speak and present, and the lack of due diligence that was done to see if there was means to save this program, to me is quite shocking. This was all compounded by the fact that there were a key individuals that wanted to speak. Let me ask you this, are there board members that live out of state in Winthrop? MR. DRIGGERS: No.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Are there board members -- let me ask you this. Are -- by your rules, this is in 2020, especially, but by your rules can board members attend virtually?

MR. DRIGGERS: We did have virtual meetings during Covid.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Okay. And so you would agree, we're talking, right now, we're in 2020, so that was the height of the pandemic, correct? I was shocked to find out, there was a request and I have the email request, because I was cc'd on it. Again, I'm asking for a simple things from the board -- like letting people be heard and speak. But there is a gentleman, there was an email sent asking for tennis alumni to be able to address the Board virtually or at least be put on speaker. And individuals such as a former tennis player by the name of Keriyon Vall. Keriyon Vall is a former Winthrop student body president. Captain of the men's tennis team in 1997. He was voted the keynote speaker for Winthrop graduation in 2012. He lives in London, he's a very successful lawyer. He wanted the opportunity -- now, we know board members have the ability to attend virtually but he wanted the opportunity to be able to speak to the board. And he was rebuffed the opportunity. We were told, in writing, that he would have to present in person or he would not be able to be heard. I mean, do you think that's -- is that a good policy or is that fair in the midst of a pandemic?

MR. DRIGGERS: I was not involved in that decision, but no, I agree.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: You didn't make a motion or anything to try to alleviate this --

MR. DRIGGERS: It was brought to the fore that that request was made.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Oh, but there was a speaker, in person, that mentioned that, Julie Busha, she was able to -- she lives in Charlotte, she attended, and actually brought these concerns, did she not?

MR. DRIGGERS: I believe she brought her concerns during her remarks at the time of the meeting.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: I just -- I won't belabor the point at this point in time, you know. This isn't -- I just am shocked by the way the board treated alumni through this. I'm shocked by the lack of due diligence that was done in making this decision. And as I said, when I first started getting the phone calls, I didn't expect to encounter that. Had I dived into this and found that due diligence had been done, that we've explored all other alternatives using facilities, local facilities, getting quotes, hearing out a group of alumni who have raised close to a million dollars, asking those questions, not even allowing them to speak at these meetings or present their plan. I just felt it was really bad governance and that's my comments today.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chair. Thank you, Mr. Driggers for being here. And Representative Rose, please don't feel slighted by no means. I've been elected since 2008 and Winthrop has been in my district the entire time. And I've been on that campus with other members of my delegation and they don't even recognize me. And Winthrop is -- the main campus is solely in my district. Mr. Driggers, I met with some students at Winthrop a few months ago. And their concerns, some African- American students and some LGBTQ+ students, and they do not feel safe on campus. They do feel safe because of the board has not made them safe. Can you elaborate on the relationship that the board has with the students, the African-American students, as well as the LGBTQ+ community?

MR. DRIGGERS: As a board, we don't typically interact with our students. It could be perceived in a negative way. Others may believe that that is absolutely essential, but I don't -- I, as an individual member, do not interact with the students on campus. Now, that doesn't mean that when I'm there, that I don't stop and talk with folks and ask them how they're doing and those types of things. But I don't survey the students to that degree. Information is funneled to us, through various means, typically through our dean of students of issues and concerns that are happening at our campus community. We are made aware. We believe we are made aware of all of those incidents that there could be any concern about, you know, a student feeling safe and secure, I would be the first to say, absolutely. I had two daughters that attended, you know, university campuses and I would have never wanted my children to feel unsafe on a university campus, whether it's a private university or a state supported university, in- state, out-of-state, no matter where it is. Students need to feel safe. I know that there have been changes to staff positions, to help with that. That some of the concerns of those students were being addressed more as an individual of the campus community. And changes were made in regard to who that was, and who that reporting, and who had administration was being handled by. And so, yes, we were aware that there were some concerns. And we have attempted to make modifications and changes to address those concerns. Has every student -- is where we would like for them to be. I would have to imagine not. When our former president made a decision to leave the university, we had students that were very upset with the Board of Trustees that, that was happening. I mean, we, it is not unusual in a campus environment that decision-makers get cast for blame, when decisions are made that one doesn't individually support or they do not agree with. For us, that comes with our territory. But we do, very much, try to be sensitive to those issues and concerns. If I were to ever be informed that someone says, you know, I've reported an incident, it has not been handled. I would be a trustee that would be inquiring through our administration, what is the status of this, what's happening, has it been looked into. I may not go so far as to say I agree or I disagree with the action. But I certainly would be one that would say, please let me know that this has been addressed.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: My next question is, the relationship that the college should have with the local delegation. What is your take on the relationship that the college should have with their local delegation or legislative delegation?

MR. DRIGGERS: It is a -- it has been a point of conversation with our new president, who arrived in July. There is a list that we've provided that says these are constituencies of our university that we need to make sure that there's some face-time with, with the president of the university and what's happening. I can assure you I doubled checked that. Our legislative delegation is a part of that. And that will be happening. You should have received an invitation to the inauguration of our new president on April 14th. I inquired about that personally and I was assured that those invitations were sent to our delegation.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Well, I will say up under the leadership of former Representative Gary Simrill, I have now been included. I'm the only African-American legislator that represents York County. I solely represent the campus, the main campus of Winthrop. And I, in the time that I've been there, as a representative, I have totally been disrespected. And I've gone to the board, made them aware. I've been at functions where I am sitting beside my other members of the delegation and I will be the only one that would not be recognized. And so, I've worked and fought for Winthrop down here at the General Assembly, but I feel like I've been disrespected. But I digress, I mean, but ...

MR. DRIGGERS: May I say, may I invite you to be my personal guest?

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Sure.

MR. DRIGGERS: At my next visit to campus, I would be honored. If you and I could meet on that campus?

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Most definitely, I have no problem with that, Mr. Driggers. But I do still have an issue when I have students. I met with about 50 students, they invited me. I didn't know anything about it, that they felt unsafe. And I would love to have more conversations with you about that personally. That's if you have the time?

MR. DRIGGERS: I would welcome. I would welcome that opportunity.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Mr. Chair, I don't know if others have questions.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Let me see, any other questions? Representative King.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Mr. Chair, I would like to make a motion that -- to give us a little more time to make a motion to carry it over.

MR. CHAIRMAN: There's a motion to carry it over.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Second.

MR. CHAIRMAN: There's a second. All those in favor, we need to raise our hands. All in favor of carrying over, please raise your hands?
(Hands are raised)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Okay. All right. We will carry this over, Macey.

MS. WEBB: The hands carried it over.

MR. CHAIRMAN: I think it was, yes. Macey, explain to Representative.

MS. WEBB: All right. Just for clarification for the court reporter and for the record. We have now just made a unanimous motion to carry you over. So, this the similar situation that we had with the USC Trustees during the last screening. So, with you being an incumbent, you continue to serve in your seat until we call you back to appear. And you don't have to physically come in and appear the Commission at that time. At sometime later, the Commission will decide.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. DRIGGERS: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you. All right. That ends our proceedings tonight. Tomorrow morning at 10:30 we have three candidates; is that correct?

MS. WEBB: Yes, three candidates for tomorrow morning. And just for clarification, also for anyone who still might be tuning in, please do not get any vote commitments or solicit any commitments until you have been released from me, which will definitely be a few days from now.

MR. CHAIRMAN: I want to personally thank the Commission for your service. A long day, but I feel like we got a lot accomplished and so I'll see you tomorrow, hopefully a little before 10:30. We're adjourned. (There being nothing further, proceeding was adjourned at 7:40 p.m.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Good morning, we're going to get started this morning. The Senators and the President have meetings at 11:00, so we need to be fairly quick with this. So, we'll do our best. First up is the Medical University of South Carolina, 3rd Congressional District. Richard M. Christian, if you come on up, I'll swear you in. Good morning, sir.

MEDICAL UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA:

MR. CHRISTIAN: Good morning.

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'll raise your right hand? RICHARD M. CHRISTIAN, JR., being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: If you'll state your name and a brief statement, why you're running for the Board.

MR. CHRISTIAN: I'm Richard M. Christian. I'm from Greenwood. I practice orthopedic surgery for the last 30 years there, born and raised there. I took Dr. Stanley Baker's seat on the board and I've been on the board since 2018. It's my pleasure to be in front of you and I appreciate the opportunity to be on the Board.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey?

MS. WEBB: All right. And thank you and for the record, once again, can you please state your first and last name?

MR. CHRISTIAN: Richard Christian.

MS. WEBB: All right. And what is your home address?

MR. CHRISTIAN: 512 Sparrow Road, Greenwood.

MS. WEBB: Thank you and do you pay your four percent personal property tax at that address?

MR. CHRISTIAN: I do.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And since submitting your application, have you made any new campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you're aware of?

MR. CHRISTIAN: I have not.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And are there any changes to your application that you would like for any of the Commission members to be made aware of? MR. CHRISTIAN: No.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative King?

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Thank you, Mr. Chair. Can you give me what is the biggest weakness of the institution?

MR. CHRISTIAN: Well, I'm not sure that I think that we have a single weakness. I think anybody that does as much business as we do, there are definitely issues that we have and that try to amend. But as far as any weakness I think, you know, being a proponent of the school, I'm not going to say that I think that we have any true weaknesses.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Well, I would say that you do have a weakness there that I have acknowledged throughout this hearing, is the number of African-Americans students that you all accept into your program. And I've spoken about this, pretty much, with all of the members of the board. But I'm interested in seeing what you all would do to work with into bridge programs with some of the HBCUs in this state, especially South Carolina State, who is of a public HBCU.

MR. CHRISTIAN: I think that the accreditations of the schools are very stringent on what we can do and what we can't do. So, I think we are 10 percent African-Americans --

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Are you telling me that the accreditations says you can only have 10 percent African-Americans?

MR. CHRISTIAN: Well, they -- no. I'm telling you that they have to go through a process of, you know, how well they have done in college and how well they've done on other scores, what they've done outside of the school. And then what they're interview is like. So, I think we follow the laws of the accrediting schools that we have to. And I think it has to do with the number of applications that we have. If we have, you know, 10 percent African-Americans that give us applications, then we, you know -- I just think, I know that there's a, you know, 4,000 applications for 160 spots. We have, I always --

REPRESENTATIVE KING: I appreciate your answer.

MR. CHRISTIAN: We always acknowledge, I mean, we have the highest male rate, you know, that we have in medical school.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Well, I appreciate your answer. We just disagree on -- I think the college could do more in reference to, and you being a board member could be my voice there to say in the recruiting process to recruit at some of the HBCUs to start a bridge program without, I'm not going to prolong my questions. I think you may have questions from other people. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Senator Scott?

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you for your willingness to serve. I want to make sure I understand your answer.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. CHRISTIAN: Okay.

SENATOR SCOTT: And I know that the MUSC does have a bridge program. And I think -- and I can't speak for other people, but I think the goal is to keep some of the best and brightest home. But also having a very diverse community. Because at the same time MUSC is really changing. You're no longer a school who operates in the large urban area of Charleston. You are now also operating in rural communities of South Carolina, Fairfield County, Marion County, just to name a few. The goal too, also, is to make sure that we are able to get some of these young people to come back and serve in some of the rural communities. They attend med school, either through your bridge program, which says they've met the minimum qualification. The goal is not to educate the large percentage of folk from outside of South Carolina. Those days of, are gone as we compete with those in the health care industry. I kind of think that's the direction that we're moving into, especially if you get the schools that operate in the sixteen different counties, to be able to maintain, not only just doctors and also nurses and other health care providers. Right there at the base, you've got Claflin College, who's called TITAN, The Institute of Teaching and Nursing, as y'all coming to Orangeburg. So, just want you to be a lot more aware of what is surrounding you, as you come into these communities, not in Columbia. So, you're a big competitive market in Columbia. And so, the question is, do I educate these young folk and they come in large urban and then they leave me to go some place else. So, we poured a lot of resources in there, of course, they spent their dollars to do it too. But the human resource, knowledge base of the community, we can help make it more healthy. I think that's the real conversation, not just to open competitiveness. We got 4,000 applications, but it's all in how you sort through those applicants in order for them be a part of your school.

MR. CHRISTIAN: And I totally agree. There's lot of times that I have students from the PA school, here in Charleston to come up. They're mentoring other people. And you know that these people would be great doctors, but they can't qualify or they can't test well enough to get into medical school and it is an issue. But we're held by the board to be able to find the best people that we can find. And I'm totally with you. I think one of the things that we do here in South Carolina, especially with the Medical University, is we try and get people in the rural areas. And 75 percent of the people that -- or 75 percent of the students that get their GME, we retain in the state. I think Greenwood is a rural area. I'm glad I don't live in Columbia, you know. I had to drive in, you know. I wouldn't want to do that. So, if I have anybody that I can talk into saying, I think Greenwood is a great area, you know, it has everything. It's an hour from Columbia. It's an hour from Greenville. And I do think that we need all these bridge programs. I mean, we have a huge nursing shortage. And we've done everything that we can entice these people. In Greenwood, we have a bridge program with Lander. So, we have assumed taking over their tuition and we're letting them work now in the hospital, hoping that we can retain some of these people. So, we're trying to do everything that we can do. I mean, our goal is to take care of the people of South Carolina. And the only way that we can take care of the people of South Carolina is to have the areas that we can cover, so we can know what's needed in that area. And we are statewide. And we're statewide because we feel like that we can provide care in that area. And it's not something that we're trying to take over the state, but I would think that, you know, we have a crunch in Charleston for beds. We need other places to be able to put -- you know, we take, we try to take care of the sickest of the sickest in Charleston because that's where the nationally ranked specialists are. So, we have to have these other areas that we can, you know, help the people and, you know, 50 percent of the sickest people in South Carolina are taken care of in Charleston. And I totally agree. I mean health has changed completely in the thirty- something years that I've been doing it. And it's a hard, you have a hard time getting people to -- I mean, trying to recruit a young orthopedist to come to Greenwood is a hard thing. They all want to go to Greenville. They all want to work from 9:00 to 5:00 or whatever, which is not how it works. And so, I'm for any way that we can entice people, you know. All we want is the most qualified, best applicants that we can have.

SENATOR SCOTT: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Anybody else? Is there a motion?

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Mr. Chairman, I would move that favorable. I have questions, but I think that for the second time I will do that in another time. So, I would move for favorable.

MR. CHAIRMAN: There's a motion for favorable. All those in favor signify by saying aye? (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed, no? (A hand is raised.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: One no is noted. You're reported out favorable. Next up is the 4th Congressional District, Thomas L. Stevenson. You come on up, sir and welcome, if you'll raise your right hand, I'll swear you in. THOMAS L. STEPHENSON, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: Just give your name and a brief statement.

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

MR. STEPHENSON: Thomas L. Stevenson. I am a semi- retired lawyer in Greenville. Went to high school in Greenville, went to college down here. And spent my entire career in Greenville. And my privilege to serve on the Board of MUSC, which I think is perhaps the best agency in the state.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Macey?

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And once again for the record, can you please state your first and last name?

MR. STEPHENSON: Thomas Stevenson.

MS. WEBB: All right. And what is your home address?

MR. STEPHENSON: 305 Crescent Avenue in Greenville.

MS. WEBB: All right. And do you pay your four percent property tax there?

MR. STEPHENSON: I do.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And since submitting this application, have you made any campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you're aware of?

MR. STEPHENSON: I was asked that yesterday. I don't recall any. I usually give to Senator Turner, who's my senator and Representative Bannister, who's my House Representative.

MS. WEBB: Okay.

MR. STEPHENSON: I could have.

MS. WEBB: Okay. All right. And then are there any other changes with your application that you like for the members of the Commission to be made aware of?

MR. STEPHENSON: None.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Questions? None?

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Mr. Chairman, again for the sake of time, I've got questions about their expansions and things, but I'm going to withhold those. And be a contact person that would --

MR. STEPHENSON: Y'all going to let me off easy, huh?

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Tommy, you want some questions?

SENATOR SCOTT: Well, since you're there.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Move for favorable, all those in favor, signify by saying aye. (Ayes are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Opposed? (No reply is heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Congratulations.

MR. STEPHENSON: Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Because the Senators are on a real short schedule, we're going to take up the issue we had last night with Mr. --

TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 2023

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Can we finish this last one, this last one?

SC STATE:

MR. CHAIRMAN: You want to do it real quick? Okay. I'll just, we'll do it. All right. SC State, 7th Congressional District, Starlee, I hope I'm pronouncing that right, Alexander. Welcome, if you'll raise your right, I'll swear you in. STARLEE ALEXANDER, being duly sworn, testifies as follows:

MR. CHAIRMAN: Welcome and give your name and a brief statement.

MS. ALEXANDER: My name is Starlee Alexander. It's a pleasure to be here with you today, after being delayed in the airport last night until 12:00 o'clock, but I'm here. I have served on the Board of Trustees since 2018. I'm a proud graduate of Florida A&M University. And I have a State Farm Insurance Agency in Florence, South Carolina. I'm honored to be on the board and would like to continue to serve on the board to help with the underscoring and the recent accomplishments and achievements that the university has started. And I would like to be a part of that. I feel that the HBCUs and South Carolina State is a special institution with regard to carrying on family legacies and the quality of education for our students. I am proud and I would like to accomplish more this term with the school and the university to continue the great achievements. Thank you.

MS. WEBB: I thank you and once again for the record, will you please state your first and last name?

MS. ALEXANDER: Starlee Alexander.

MS. ALEXANDER: 1646 Harris Court, Florence, South Carolina.

MS. WEBB: All right. And do you pay your four percent property tax there?

MS. ALEXANDER: Yes, I do.

MS. WEBB: All right. Thank you. And since submitting this application, have you made any campaign contributions to any members of the General Assembly that you are aware of?

MS. ALEXANDER: No, I have not.

MS. WEBB: All right. And are there any changes to your application that you would like for members of the Commission to be made aware of?

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Mr. Chairman?

MR. CHAIRMAN: Yes, sir.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: I think the dialog last night was helpful, that and carrying it over. But I think with further consideration I would move that Mr. Edward Driggers for the 4th District, for the seat at Winthrop, would be found qualified.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Okay. We will take a, raising our hands for the -- since there's probably some folks that may have an issue on that. So, all those in favor for a favorable, please raise your right hand? (Hands are raised.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Five, is that correct? All those against? (Hands are raised.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Two. Okay. So Edward Driggers is reported out favorable with a minority decision on that. That is all we have. I thank you members of the Commission for your hard work. And I appreciate you coming in on Monday. So, I guess we are done until next year, maybe, I don't -- no commitments by anybody yet. So, stay safe.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: I have a question.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Because I was asked by one of the candidates, they can, you know, acknowledge that they are running, they just can't get any commitments, am I correct?

MS. WEBB: They can give out, like, information and say, yes, I am running for the seat.

REPRESENTATIVE KING: Correct. Okay.

Indicates New Matter

The Senate assembled at 12:00 Noon, the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Jonah 2:1

In the Book of Jonah we read: "Then Jonah prayed to the Lord his God from the belly of the fish."

Friends, join me as we bow in prayer: Most merciful God, we honestly believe that not one of us does not realize the absolute power bound up in heartfelt prayer. It doesn't matter what our faith background might have been, nor how active we might be or might not be in organized religion today. Every single one of us has had -- and surely will have -- moments when, like Jonah, we are humbled by our very humanness and know our sole recourse is to turn to You in prayer. Especially in a world like ours today, we thank You for walking along with us, Lord, for assuring us that You are ever ready to hear our pleas for assurance, as well as our prayers of praise. And may it be that every South Carolinian always finds comfort and hope in knowing that these leaders indeed pray. In Your loving name we ask this, Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

The Senate assembled at 1:00 P.M., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Psalm 9:1

The Psalmist proclaims: "I will praise you, O Lord, with all my heart; I will tell of all your wonders."

Let us pray: O gracious God, amid all of the issues and pressures and conflicts which often confront them, may these Senators and aides, like the Psalmist, never fail to cherish the wonders You have created. For indeed, the glory of creation is on full display everywhere we turn. So, loving Lord, let us all routinely praise You for the natural beauty that surrounds us -- from the foothills to the sea. Truly, no matter what debates or controversies unfold, may no one ever stop caring for and protecting the incredible but fragile world You have given us. Further, grant that these leaders likewise do all they can to bring rich and marvelous blessings to each and every one of our citizens, as well. And as always, to You be the glory, O Lord. Amen.

The Senate proceeded to a consideration of the Bill.

Senator CASH spoke on the Bill.

Point of Order

Senator HUTTO raised a Point of Order that the Senator speaking on the Bill was being tedious and superfluous.

The PRESIDENT took the Point of Order under advisement.

Remarks by Senator CASH

Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT. I believe the Bible teaches that we are to speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves. And that's what I'm going to do today. If there is anyone who cannot speak for themselves, it is the unborn baby in the womb. Any advocacy for the unborn child must be made by those who can speak. I have been involved with the issue of the killing of unborn children all my adult life, and I have always believed in until this day that the discussion should begin properly with trying to answer the question, when does a human life begin? When does a human life begin? And I don't think it is any great mystery as to when a human life begins. Science is clear that when the sperm and the ovum unite, a new living organism of the species homo sapiens is created with its own unique DNA -- the beginning of a new individual human life.

Now, I know there have been attempts among the scientists who politically support abortion to actually try to redefine the beginning of human life, maybe to the point of implantation. But I would submit to you that that is simply a position of convenience; it is not a position rooted in science. And that we should be at least honest enough to just deal with when does a human life begin -- no matter how you feel that we're going to either protect that life or not protect that life from that point forward. Professor Emeritus of Human Embryology at the University of Arizona School of Medicine, Dr. Ward Kischer, affirms every human embryologist worldwide states that the life of the new individual human being begins at fertilization. That's a pretty incredible statement -- that every human embryologist worldwide agrees that the life of a new individual is at the point of fertilization. There are lots of quotes I could read to you from people who appeared before the United States Congress testifying about life. Dr. Jerome Lejeune, Professor of Genetics at the University of Descartes in Paris was to discover the chromosome pattern of Down Syndrome. He testified to the Judiciary subcommittee after fertilization is taken place, a new human being has come into being. Each individual has a very neat beginning at conception.

The first point in the discussion is when does a human life begin? Not what do you think about whether a woman has a right to have an abortion, when does a human life begin? We can get on to the other discussion presently about whether that human life in its earliest stages has any rights whatsoever. I would hope we could agree in this Body that the point of fertilization, however, is the beginning of new human life. By way of common sense, and not in any way meaning to be crude about it, why do those who employ the condom method of contraception use that method? To prevent the sperm and the egg from uniting contraception. Because everybody knows once that takes place, unless something interrupts that life, nine months later there is going to be a newborn baby in this world. A completely different individual from anyone that has ever existed before -- begins at that point in time.

So that brings us to another central question which is, "When should a human life receive legal protection?" A life begins at conception when does it deserve legal protection? I'll make just a few references to our founding documents. The quote from the Declaration about unalienable rights -- the foremost of which is the right to life. We know by common sense if you don't have the right to life none of the other rights that we believe are attributed to humans make any difference whatsoever. Constitutional principles call for equal protection of the laws for all persons -- due process of the law. So now we get to the question in our Constitution that to have protection of the Constitution under the 5th and 14th Amendments, you have to be recognized as a person. We all know that our Nation had an imperfect founding. People who were slaves when this Nation was founded, were not considered to be persons, constitutionally, other than for purposes of apportionment. It was an imperfect beginning, but we are by no means the only Nation in the world to go through periods where people who are human beings are declassified or never classified as persons. You can look as recently as the last century -- the gradual depersonalization of the Jewish people in Hitler's Germany. Because if you can stigmatize a group of people as somehow less than human, less than deserving of personhood, well then anything at that moment in time becomes possible. Personhood, something I have long argued for in application to the unborn child.

I once looked up the definition of person in the dictionary and guess what it said -- A human being. If you are a human being, you are a person, if you are a person, you are a human being. I understand this is not a Personhood Bill. But we are discussing a similar concept of protecting the unborn child from that point in time to which pregnancy is clinically diagnosable and so we wrestle with this weighty question, "Is the unborn child worthy of protection, and, if so, at what point in time?"

I do not believe that the founding documents are the only important guidance that we have. This Nation has a Judeo-Christian heritage -- primary sacred text of our Nation has always been the Bible -- the Old and the New Testaments. If I were to ask for a show of hands, a great majority of the Senators in this Body would say that they are church members and regular churchgoers. The Bible has throughout the centuries shaped our culture -- shaped our worldview -- worldview is just a fancy way of saying the lens, the perspective from which you look upon life. And by the way, everybody has a worldview. Some people are more conscious of their worldview than others, but everybody has one.

So, I do think the biblical texts are instructive. And I will begin with the one that's most foundational, which is thou shalt not murder. The Bible prohibits the intentional killing of an innocent person. It is a blanket prohibition. Why? Why is the Bible insistent upon that? It has something to do with the concept, and I'm no Latin scholar, but the Latin of which is Imago Dei, in the image of God. Genesis 1 tells us God created mankind in his own image, in the image of God He created him male and female. He created them. We don't find anywhere else in the Scripture, any other part of the creation, any other -- any animal, any anything, that bears the image of God. Only mankind bears the image of God. The Bible is full of a lot of beautiful poetry, Psalms 8 says, "O Lord, our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! Who displayed thy splendor above the heavens. From the mouths of infants and nursing babes thou established strength to make the enemies and the vengeful cease. When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon, and the stars, which thou hast ordained; what is man, that thou take thought of him? Or the son of man, that thou care for him? Yet thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and majesty. Thou hast make him to rule over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet: all sheep and oxen, and also the beasts of the field; the birds of the heavens and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas. O Lord, our Lord, how majestic is thy name in all the earth!" Thou hath made him a little lower than the angels. Mankind was created a little lower than the angels and higher than the animals. Mankind occupies that unique place in creation -- being the image bearer of God. You are all familiar with Psalms 139, which speaks of God's omniscience, and God's creation -- again, some majestic poetry, "Without its form, inward parts, weave me in my mother's womb. I will give thanks to thee, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made." I can find no point in time from the initiation of human life until old age at which I can reflect upon the scriptures and find therein any principle that would suggest that it is okay to intentionally kill a baby in a mother's womb. I will simply say I don't believe in euthanasia -- at the beginning of life. I don't believe in euthanasia at the end of life. God has not given us that authority. From the New Testament I will simply quote John 10, verse 10, "The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I have come that they might have life and have it abundantly." I cannot think of a more fitting description of abortion than this description about what the enemy has come to do -- to steal, to kill and to destroy. The place where the baby should be the safest -- by the way, anyone wants to see fetal models of what a baby looks like at a month or two or three months or four months -- you are welcome to wander over there and look at them -- little models there of the baby nestled in the womb -- place of safeness, place of nurturing, the place of life.

I'm going to move on to statistics. Over the past 50 years, we have killed 65 million unborn babies in this Nation. Approximately 420,000 inside South Carolina alone. There is a famous, infamous quote actually attributed to Stalin. He said, "The death of one man is a tragedy. The death of a million is a statistic." That is where we have arrived in America 2023. Say 65 million human beings killed in the womb and the number just goes right over our head -- makes no impression on most people. 420,000 unborn babies at least have been killed in South Carolina. Did you know that the Civil War attributes 18,000 deaths in South Carolina -- soldiers killed in battle -- 18,000. In all the Civil War, north and south, the best estimate is 620,000 deaths. Yet 420,000 unborn babies have been killed in this State over the past 50 years. So, I've got another display on my desk. It is a little box filled with forty-six little baby models -- forty-six little baby models. Forty-six is about the number of babies that are going to die today in South Carolina because of abortion. Forty-six is about the number that are going to die tomorrow and the number that are going to die the day after that -- forty-six -- five days a week. Approximately a thousand a month. Again, we've become numb to these numbers -- absolutely numb. We talk about being pro-life. We talk about in the Republican Party how we value the life of that baby in the womb. We get a little agitated when people want to talk about that too much. Would we be agitated if there were a school shooting and forty-six people were killed today? We would be. If forty-six were killed tomorrow and the day after that, everything in this State would come to a stop until we did something.

The Roe v. Wade decision in 1973 had the result that within five years of Roe v. Wade, we had surpassed over a million abortions a year in this country. Within five years by 1978, we were committing a million abortions in this country every year. In 1980, Ronald Reagan became the first openly, proudly pro-life Republican president. In 1980, the Republican Party endorsed the Human Life Amendment at the federal level which should have amended the United States Constitution to protect human life. The protection of innocent human life has been part in parcel of the Republican Party platform since that time. Every four years we'd have an election and among Republicans one of the things that was always being considered and weighed by pro-life voters was whether or not this candidate would appoint people to the bench who were, what we would call, strict constructionists. People who would not read into the Constitution what they wanted to be there. So, it went one election after another. Until in the providence of God, Donald Trump was elected and appointed three people to the bench who became part of the majority that struck down Roe v. Wade and the Dobbs Decision in 2022 -- which is what kicked off all this activity last summer.

Last June when that decision came down, for the first time in almost 50 years, states were put back in charge of writing the law on the killing of unborn babies. So, we had a special session. And the Senate most definitely deferred to the House to write the Bill. There is no doubt about that. The Senate wanted the House to write the Bill and the House wrote the Bill. It came to us last September. I'm just going to tell you a few honest facts about what happened last year. The first one I will tell you, I'm shocked, shocked to this day that we could not pass the House Bill last September. When we began the special session, I and probably many of you, thought the debate in this Chamber would center around and hinge upon the exceptions that were going to be put into the Bill or not put into the Bill. I have been here six years, going on seven years, so I have been through some of these abortion Bills. We always end up discussing that. What has seemed to be implied from the Republican side of the aisle is, you know, this is an uncomfortable topic. But we can be a little more comfortable passing a law if it has exceptions in it. But the way things unfolded, the House Bill got to the floor and was filibustered in a Body of thirty republicans in a process that only takes twenty-six people to end the filibuster. We could not end the filibuster. Quite honestly, we didn't try very hard. We didn't try very hard. I think it was about fifteen minutes-- maybe thirty tops -- where we took votes and said that is all we are going to do on that. Let's pass this language that might hopefully fix the Heartbeat Bill. So, we had several votes after that -- a vote in October, a vote or two in November. After that initial attempt was filibustered the language was never something the Republicans in this Body were willing to accept because the exceptions language and other issues like the definition of rape were not satisfactory for enough members. So, at the end of the day we could not come to any agreement with the House and the Bill was not passed.

At the beginning of this year the Senate drafted another Heartbeat Bill. The House drafted another Human Life Protection Act and the approach of the House when they drafted their Bill was to say, let's write our Bill to satisfy all the exception language that seem to be causing problems and hangups in the Senate. The author of that Bill was not happy to do that by any means. He was simply trying to give the Senate a Bill with exceptions in it for rape, incest and fatal fetal anomaly with the definition of rape -- that was thought had to be changed. The idea from the House sponsor and those who assisted him was to compromise with the Senate on a Human Life Protection Act that would have all the exceptions and language in it that would satisfy the Senators. That is the Bill we have before us. So, is it far from a perfect Bill? Is it a Bill I will support and vote for? It is. Does it violate some of the very scriptural principles I have articulated? It does. It grieves me that the Republican Party has said this is the best we can do. Although, we believe life begins at conception, everybody has an inalienable right to life. This is the best we can do. But that is the Bill we have before us. From the time of Ronald Reagan until now the GOP has been largely a pro-life party. People might have argued and taken different stands on the exception, but it has been the GOP platform to protect human life from conception. My entire adult life I have never heard a Republican candidate run for office saying, I'm running on a pro-life platform. Given the chance, I will protect life from the first trimester forward, or after the first trimester, or after the first six or eight weeks -- never heard that spoken. It's always been understood that Republican Party candidates say I'm pro-life and believe life begins at conception. At the very least minimally, they might say with a few exceptions that politically we have to have. I challenge anyone to find any rhetoric, any writings anywhere from the GOP since 1980 that would say oh, it is the platform of our party to protect life after six weeks -- after eight weeks -- after twelve weeks. What we are engaged in here is this -- to use a sports analogy, there are people in the Republican Party who are trying to move the goal posts. They are trying to say, I'm pro-life but in the Republican Party that I represent that means we are going to protect life after six weeks or eight weeks or twelve weeks. Well, folks, I got news for y'all. They're pro-life too. They just picked a different point in time.

I've read the Bill by Senator HUTTO. He wants to protect life after twenty weeks. We are going to do that; we don't need any Bill at all. We are already doing that, right? It is just a matter of where you are picking the point, is it not? I'm not willing to sit by and let the goal post be moved on what it means to be pro-life in the Republican Party. This Bill in and of itself is a compromise. I have compromised what I believe -- even think of supporting and voting for this Bill. I certainly have no intention of compromising further. I'm not going to take questions right now, thank you. So my position is I support this Bill -- I will vote for this Bill, and colleagues, we have an obligation for those who are pro-life to wave the Republican Party banner for their pro-life platform because we have an obligation to try to pass this Bill. I have no intention of simply going through the motions, so we can kick the ball back across the hall in the House and wash our hands of it and say now it's up to them to do something. That's not my intention. My intention is to try to pass the Bill. I'm not intending to filibuster the Bill; I think there is a group that's going to filibuster the Bill. So, I'll just say if you're going to filibuster the Bill, I'm happy to stay here as long as you want to talk -- night and day starting now if you want to filibuster the Bill. I'm happy to fight any motion for adjournment starting now. The Bill deserves a vote. The Republican Party should pass the Bill. Any move to adjourn this Body because of a filibuster at this time or tonight or tomorrow is simply premature. It's up to us to try to pass the Bill to bring to an end any filibuster that might be coming to protect life in the womb in South Carolina. Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT.

Remarks by Senator SHEALY

For the record, I don't plan on filibustering the Bill, just thought I would tell you all that. It's been said that doing the same thing over and over again -- y'all have heard this -- and expecting a different result is a sign of insanity. How many times is this now? You can change what you call it, but it is still the same. This time we are calling it the Human Life Protection Act, before it was Personhood. It's been called the Heartbeat Bill, it's been called a lot of things. The biggest proponents of the Human Life Protection Act are also the same proponents of constitutional carry, school choice, parental rights, and regulating vaccines for everyone, especially children. These are the folks that don't want the government regulating masks or licensing any business. They all think the government should leave our property alone. All these things are clear human rights, rights to privacy. I believe, in most of these cases, they are right. They should leave them alone.

But when it comes to a woman's body, when she becomes pregnant, she suddenly belongs to the government. Once somebody rapes her or she becomes a victim of incest, she would now belong to the government. Once a woman became pregnant for any reason, she would now become property of the State of South Carolina. If the Human Life Protection Act were to come into law, she could no longer make decisions on her own or at the advice of her well-trained doctor. Every female, regardless of her age, would suddenly become subject to the power of a code book regarding her health.

Maybe I'm confused about this Legislation or maybe the men who wrote it know more about pregnancy than the women in this Chamber or across this State or the country who can actually get pregnant and give birth. Women don't want to get raped. They don't want to get pregnant from living in the horror of an incestuous family. Women don't have sex just so they can go have an abortion. Just like men, I don't think they have sex to get pregnant every time. They don't want to go out every night and have sex just to get a woman pregnant, maybe, I don't know. If the House of Representatives wants to cut the number of abortions happening in this State, they have Legislation we sent them earlier this year that gives a ban on abortions after a fetus heartbeat is detected. That is the same thing this Bill is doing. I hate to break it to y'all, actually this gives a time certain. If you are saying you can tell when a fetus is detectable or you can tell when it is viable, it is not going to be until there is a heartbeat. This is giving a time certain of six weeks.

The House doesn't want to save lives, the House just wants to prove a point. One of their very own loudest advocates has said, and I heard it so I'm not making this up, if a house were on fire and there are six children on the first floor and four on the second and they knew they could only save those on the first floor, they would have to let all the children burn up because they couldn't save them all. That is exactly what they are doing. They don't care about the children. They care about a victory, if they were to receive it. Say this passes and a thousand more babies are born a year in South Carolina, or maybe two thousand, they will forget about them after they are born. They will not want to feed them or educate them or fill their needs in foster care if a mother or family cannot care for them. Once they are no longer the unborn and are the born, they will walk away unless let's just say, except those waiting in line to adopt a newborn, yes, only a newborn will do. You must be a newborn. Even though there are hundreds of children up for adoption in South Carolina right now, only a newborn will do.

I went to the zoo this year with the heart gallery. If y'all haven't done that, you need to do it. I walked around with some children who were looking for their forever home through DSS. All they want is a loving family, but no one wants to adopt them because they aren't a newborn. I walked around with three little boys, they are all brothers, one looked at me and said, "Lady, all I want is a dad. I just want a dad but nobody wants me because I'm too old."

Last week I was given a spine by one of these lobbying groups, one of the organizations pushing this Bill. I found that to be an inspiration to stand up in support of all issues that have no huge lobbying groups to support them. Lobbying groups for foster care, lobbying groups for free lunch and lobbying groups for children who were abducted by human trafficking. The kids I support don't threaten you if you don't support them. They don't send you hate filled letters or protest in front of your church calling you nasty names in front of your family. They don't send gifts, because they can't afford that. They look at you with sad eyes or heart felt hope for a better day when maybe, just maybe they can have a dad -- a dad to walk around with them, a dad who can play baseball with them, a dad who can throw them the football. They are not a newborn though. They want a day when somebody will want them, not just a newborn. Just stop and look at what you are doing. Don't call me a baby killer. That is the worst insult anybody's ever said to me. It's been said to me many times when I walk up and get off the escalator and someone stands there and calls me a baby killer. Call me a child saver, I have worked with and saved more lives my eleven years here than most of you could do in a lifetime just by working with DSS, DJJ and the disabled or the underserved. You just want to have a newborn for a friend or a family member to adopt. God, that is a great thing. Adoption is wonderful. People want to do it and I'm thankful for those people who want to. Remember the House Bill, as the House right now has a Bill to save lives that we sent over that possibly could get past the Supreme Court. They could have already saved over 2,500 lives if they had passed that Bill in February. H. 3774 will have no chance of standing up before the courts and once again, they will make us look like the whipping posts for the House in the lobby. This Bill will be just another kick of the mule. That mule is starting to hurt, thank you.

On motion of Senator MARTIN, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator SHEALY were ordered printed in the Journal.

Senator GUSTAFSON spoke on the Bill.

Remarks by Senator GUSTAFSON

Here we are again for the third time discussing how to restrict abortions in South Carolina. Both the South Carolina House and Senate have offered multiple Bills, but all of them died due to restrictions on some level. I would like to usually start whatever I am saying with some consensus building so we can at least start on some basic agreement on some things. So, I am an optimist, I usually focus on the positive. I will start with that.

I think everyone can acknowledge the fact that overnight South Carolina has become a destination abortion state. You may not like that term and that is fine, but it is happening in scary numbers. Over half of the people who have gotten an abortion since are not from our State, which is where the destination part comes from. From what I heard from Senator MASSEY, we are tracking about 12,000 or more abortions taking us back to numbers we saw in 1990s, that is over 30 years ago. We can agree on things as Republicans or Democrats. We can agree on things as women and men. We can also agree that there are too many unwanted pregnancies today. We can agree that adoption law sometimes inhibits procedures, we can agree that this is an extremely difficult topic, but one we must come to some conclusion to as a South Carolina Legislature. That is our job, and we must do it. Emotions run high and political companies are built upon major concerns such as these. Unfortunately, some of these considerations have turned very personal. I have been disappointed. I have to say this. I have been disappointed in the attacks, the mailers, and the attitudes of those so entrenched in their stances that they no longer listen to anything.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 26, 2023

Even at this point, I am still listening, but I must admit that part is challenging for me too. So, what I'm going to try to do so I don't tune anybody out or make anyone mad from the get-go and divide the room immediately, I'm going to try to frame my statement in a nondevisive, nonjudgmental manner. With that I must say I respect our colleagues, I respect our constituents, and I respect our God too. As our Senate Majority Leader pointed out yesterday, yes, I agree. I think we do have a responsibility as Christians to restrict abortions, but we are Legislators. Most of us are not preachers, so we legislate. Whereas I am one of the few nonlawyers in this Body, in this Chamber. I can fully embrace the possibility that this Legislation can and will be challenged in South Carolina Supreme Court, just like S. 1, and we thought S. 1 was a good solid Bill. I voted for that. I voted for the Senate Bill we passed six or eight weeks ago. I voted for that one too. So, what we need to do -- needs to be strong for the State and needs to be strong legally. First, I am going to talk about the basics. Let us get beyond abortion or let us look behind abortion because all we hear is abortion, abortion, abortion -- kill a baby, let the baby live. It is a very black and white kind of remark, so this may seem elementary to some of you, but we all know fewer pregnancies prevent abortions. The only thing that leads to abortion is a pregnancy. Three things can affect and prevent pregnancy. I am going to go through this and be incredibly detailed in my remarks. I am not filibustering; I am speaking to the Bill and fully explaining how I feel. I did not do this on S. 1 when I was first elected. I deferred to female legislators; I do not think I spoke at all the first time.

This is daunting for all of you out there, this is not easy, but this is what I was elected to do, and this is what we are here to do. I am going to talk about some things. What can prevent pregnancies -- contraception, access to contraception, and education. Not the kind of education that promotes to certain sexual persuasion but about biology. There are two kinds of birth control -- reversible and permanent. Reversible birth control includes long-acting birth control such as an IUD. I know there are people who have no idea what an IUD is. It is made of copper and plastic, the copper in it is the spermicide that prevents pregnancy. Women can get an implantable rod that contains the hormone progestin, and it is put under the skin just underneath the upper arm. It keeps ovaries from releasing eggs, because you must have an egg to be fertilized. Then, there are shots we could get -- injections of progestin about every three months. I have never used any of those personally. Another kind of reversible birth control includes a short-acting birth control, where hormones are used. This is what people know about most. We have the birth control pill; those contain either estrogen and progestin or just progestin. I was on birth control pills for decades. There is also a birth control patch a woman can wear; it is used in a four-week cycle -- wear for three weeks and comes off for a week. Then there is something called a vaginal ring, a small flexible plastic ring placed in a woman's body. There are barrier methods, these are also reversible.

I finally get to talk about a male, there is a male condom. There is a diaphragm and a cervical cap, there are also female condoms, and there is a sponge with spermicide. So, those are reversible and temporary types of birth control. There's permanent birth control too including tubal ligation, which is when your tubes are tied, so to speak. Except when I went to school with a Dr. Charlie Monteith, he was a brilliant boy in high school, now a brilliant doctor because he can reverse a tubal ligation. One of the few in the United States that can do that, so I am not so sure that is permanent. There are vasectomies too, which is cutting or tying or blocking the vas deferens, the two tubes that carry sperm to the penis. I have described twelve ways to prevent pregnancy and there are a few more, so I will add those to the list. Abstinence. The only 100% effective way to protect against pregnancy. This is the number one thing we should be preaching and teaching to our teenagers and preteens. Abstinence is the best choice if you do not want to be pregnant. There is also natural family planning and fertility awareness, lactational amenorrhea method, and withdrawal. Now, that makes sixteen ways to prevent a pregnancy. Only three of those sixteen even involve a man. So, it is on us, it really is on us. We have skipped the part about talking about what pregnancy means to a woman's body.

There might be somebody out there who does not really know this stuff. Somebody would learn something new today. Maybe, I can change a mind or two and persuade them to see things as I see them. First, I just want to dispel the myth that we know we are pregnant the second we get pregnant. There is something where all the women in this Chamber go, "Oh, no!" Some women are pregnant for six months and do not know, that is a fact. We are not making that up. We do not know when we are pregnant when we get pregnant. Even when we are planning to get pregnant with a loving partner, we still do not know. I want to describe a normal, average, good pregnancy. First trimester there is an amazing transformation that happens, but it is invisible. It is physical and emotional. The first signs of pregnancy are tender and swollen breasts, which is from hormonal changes. Women miss periods but a lot of women do not have regular periods so they would not miss it. Nausea with or without vomiting, increased urination, fatigue, food cravings, aversions, heartburn and constipation.

I have had one baby vaginally. My husband and I have three children together, my husband's ex-wife who cared for twins, God bless her. I had a wonderful pregnancy. I was happy, healthy, and my baby was healthy. On these first signs of pregnancy, I will tell you what I saw; tender, swollen breasts, missed period, nausea, fatigue, weird food cravings, heartburn, and constipation, so I got it all. Emotionally women are happy, exhilarated, exhausted, and emotionally stressed out, balancing the demands of family and career often time, there are mood swings and they must adjust to the idea of parenthood, either alone or with support. Women need prenatal care, treatment, education and assurance. A lot of people either cannot get it, cannot afford it, or do not know they need it. Doctors are there to assess your overall health, identify risk factors and determine the baby's gestational age. The first thirty weeks we go to checkups about once a month, so things are going along well. The good news is most of that nausea I talked about for most people has passed, there is a renewed sense of well-being and a growing belly. This can be good or not good, depending on who the lady is. The breasts are growing, and the uterus expands, that is an internal organ expanding inside a woman's body on its own. At this point a woman might experience Braxton Hicks' contractions, if you have heard of them and do not know what they are, I will explain.

They are mild, irregular contractions. It feels like a tightness in the abdomen, it usually happens at night, after physical activity or sex. If it becomes regular, the person could have preterm labor. So, if the woman starts having contractions and they are irregular, that is okay; but if these contractions are very regular, you need a doctor and you might be in preterm labor, which is extremely dangerous. Our skin changes because of the hormones. Melanin in our skin produces brown patching. A lot of times there is a dark line that forms down the abdomen, and the sun can aggravate these patches. I do not know about you all, but I have a lot of stretch marks. I had a huge baby. Purple lines where the skin has stretched fast, usually occur on a woman's thighs, buttocks or breasts. In the second trimester women have nasal problems because of hormone increases where the body makes more blood, so there is swelling and bleeding in the mucus membranes, and the nose bleeds. I had two of those, I believe. Sometimes there are dental issues because our gums become sensitive and there is minor bleeding. If a woman has a problem with nausea and vomiting, it might affect her tooth enamel -- dizziness, because there are so many changes in our circulation. They tell us to lie down on one side if we are feeling that way -- leg cramps are quite common at night, so we are told to stretch before bed and wear comfortable shoes -- vaginal discharge, some of that is normal but it can become sticky, clear or white and strong smelling. Sometimes there are UTI's, they are common. you will feel a common and extraordinarily strong urge to urinate, when you do it is extremely painful. Sometimes there's fever and a backache along with that but if untreated a UTI can lead to kidney infection and stronger things. In the second trimester we have caught up on our rest -- a little less tired. People a lot of times start taking baby classes, finding a doctor and trying to manage their anxiety. As far as prenatal care is concerned, again, appointments will focus on the baby's growth, hearing the baby's heartbeat and finding out what the baby's sex is. This is also the time when a lot of tests are done on the pregnancy to determine various problems with the baby.

If you are so blessed to make it to a third trimester -- first, let me just say, my mother would reassure me, this is not a permanent condition, you will have the baby. I worked every single day of my pregnancy, in fact, I worked up until my due date. On my due date, I was working. I finally said, okay, I need to go home and wait for this baby. The third trimester is the most physically and emotionally draining time. It is extremely hard for a woman to get comfortable. The due date might come and go and that brings on a special kind of anxiety, I cannot even explain. My son's due date was in November, my child William, did not want to be born. I do not know what the deal was, but I stayed pregnant, and it was three weeks after the due date. He was fine. My doctor finally said, okay, we need to induce pregnancy and you are going to have to have a C-Section and go to the hospital. So, it was planned, at 11:30 the night before I went into labor, I had my baby by 6:32 a.m. the next morning, so I did not have to have a C-Section. I went into natural labor, and I had my wonderful, beautiful, perfect baby. It is exciting during the third trimester because they have these 3-D cameras now where you can see babies' movements, you can see their sensations, and see them reacting in the womb. It is phenomenal. Braxton Hicks' contractions may continue. I had Braxton Hicks' contractions for four months and it drove me crazy. I finally ignored them because they were not regular. Emotions are all over the map, hormones are running wild, there's anticipation, fear and wondering how long the pregnancy will last and coping with that anxiety. Again, some of these women are alone, some of them are not. Thankfully, I was not alone, I had a loving husband at the time. During the third trimester, some women develop gestational diabetes. My grandmother almost died from that. All those physical changes and all those hormonal changes in our bodies -- let us talk about labor for a minute, too. So, we have labor and delivery and postpartum care. Labor can be natural, can be unique, people do it in, like, baby tubs. It truly is a test of a mother's physical and emotional stamina. The first stage of labor, you get persistent contractions. Then the cervix dilates, which means it opens and it softens and shortens so the baby can move through the birth canal. It is a natural, physical thing that happens to women to give childbirth. God made us this way. It is the longest stage of labor and can last from hours to days -- days. I know people who were in the hospital for days in labor, then finally active labor. The cervix will dilate from six centimeters to ten centimeters. I did not bring a measuring stick or a ruler because I thought that would be a little much. Most of you know what ten centimeters look like. Right? The body adjusts and gets ready for the baby. We are not allowed to eat anything, because if we have a C-Section -- you are not allowed to eat if there is a possibility of surgery. So, we get ice chips and clear liquids, and popsicles. There is not much we get, so there is no eating involved. The last part of active labor is what you see on T.V. with the screaming ladies, and I must tell you, I do not think I screamed. I did not have any breath to scream, but the last part of active labor is a very intense and very painful. The contractions are lasting sixty to ninety seconds, a minute to a minute and a half of intense pain. There's pressure on the lower back and on the rectum, but you cannot push too soon, and you will want to do that, that is the natural response to all this. If you push too soon, the cervix can swell and then mess up the vaginal birth. So, this is when the doctors tell you to pant and blow. This transition lasts about fifteen minutes to an hour and then we have the baby. It just takes a few minutes to a few hours. You push, and your baby is here, and it is over. Except it is not over, there is more. Many people do not understand, or know that after the birth of the baby, they must do a second birth. They must deliver the placenta. This is a natural, biological thing that a doctor does, it takes about thirty minutes to an hour to do this. During this time, the uterus magically and immediately starts to contract back to its normal size.

If there was no anesthesia used, this is the time a doctor might use anesthetic because sometimes the perineum is torn, and stitches are needed. The perineum is that space between the vagina and the rectum. Now, everything I just described is a smooth pregnancy, labor, and delivery in childbirth with no problems whatsoever, not even one complication. You are going to get all that. The woman's body goes through all of that -- postpartum, even after all that is done, sometimes there are hemorrhages; there's severe vaginal bleeding. I have heard of cases like this many times. The woman goes home, and the stitches do not hold, and they could bleed to death. It can kill the mother. This can happen up to twelve weeks postpartum. more than half of the pregnancy-related deaths happen after childbirth. I will say that because I am sure many people do not know that. More than half of the pregnancy-related deaths happen after childbirth, and those numbers are going up. According to the C.D.C., as much as you trust them, this is what I have learned from their online statistics. In 2014, there were eighteen deaths per hundred thousand live births. To me, that is a lot. And not only that, but for a mortality ratio, black women have three times higher frequency than white women of dying. I am not going to discuss that; I am just stating a fact. So, there's fatigue and discomfort, perineal pain, and uterine contractions, but as many as forty percent of these women who have a baby, do not go back for any postpartum visits, usually because, again, of limited resources.

I have described the physical and emotional nature of typical pregnancies and deliveries. All of that, to me, is real sex education. If teenage girls really knew what they were risking and facing, if they really knew all of this, I think there would be less prom night sex. I do not know if anybody learned anything new in the Chamber today and obviously, women have much more to consider in a pregnancy than any man on the planet. That is just fact, which is not judgmental. Switching gears for just a moment here, something else we can all agree upon is that the fear of the unknown can be gripping. Pregnancy is the unknown because nobody knows what is going to happen to their bodies when they get pregnant. I have seen and known plenty of healthy women. They work out, they lead healthy lifestyles, they do not drink or smoke, and then they have these harsh pregnancies. You think, why them? They have really taken care of themselves. My grandmother was as healthy as a horse, and she developed all these problems when she was pregnant. Back then, there were not a lot of remedies, but I remember as a young girl her telling me about it. It takes a lot of work to grow a spine inside of a woman who has a spine. It is a lot of work to grow a baby which has a spine in it. It is challenging work. There has been a lot of preaching in this building. I certainly understand that, I just must point this out, some of it has sounded condescending, demeaning, cold and judgmental. No matter what the intent is of these people who are preaching, not just speaking to the Bill, but really going beyond that, I think -- no matter the intent, there are millions of women in this State who feel like they've been personally addressed in this Legislation. There are millions of women who feel like they have not been heard, and that is why I am standing up here this long, and I have never done this before. I have never spoken this long to any Bill. I would like to end with a sacred genuine word of hope, words of love and words of action. I am an optimist, I believe in resolution, I believe in reconciliation, I believe in forgiveness and I believe in empathy. Sometimes I believe in tough love when that is needed, too.

Matthew 7:1 says, "Judge not, that ye be not judged." My husband, Todd, is starring in a show called Godspell. I do not know if you all have heard about it. It is a musical, it is a story that is told through parables and hymns about the story of Jesus. May 5th through 7th and 12th through 14th at Wood Auditorium Arts Center of Kershaw County. He is in this musical and he came to me this morning -- I am going to tell you my husband does not give suggestions to me. Now, we do talk about a lot, but he does not in any way tell me how to do my job. He knows me, and he knows my heart and he thought he could add something to this conversation. So, his parable is about a woman who is caught in an adulterous relationship. I am going to read his lines. These are actual lines he says during the show. He says, "Master, this woman was caught in the act of adultery, and in the law, Moses laid down such women are to be stoned." And what does Jesus say? We all know. People who aren't even religious probably know what Jesus said, "That one of you that is faultless cast the first stone." As we discussed -- and judge women who have unwanted pregnancies, all of us make mistakes, but a lot of times men's mistakes don't look like a bowling ball in front of their bodies. They are unseen. Then Jesus says, "Go now and leave your life of sin, leave it behind." He does not condone the behavior. He does not condone what the woman had done. Jesus does not reject the law directly, but He criticizes those who are applying it mechanically.

The law should be interpreted considering God's mercy for sinners, and we are not doing that. If we are approaching this strictly from a religious basis, as many in this Body are, we are not doing that. John 8:15, "The judgment of the pharisees was limited and worldly." Jesus made it clear that He did not judge at all, in the proper sense, of course, He did judge. I believe that we are judged. We are judged for breaking God's law and going against what he wants for us, part of that might be admittedly promiscuity, reckless sex; but, I am not going to stone those women. We have come to an impasse on these abortion Bills. We are here again, and I don't like it. We need to do something, so I would suggest to our colleagues in the South Carolina House to please, as soon as possible, take up the Senate Bill which is the six-week, basically Fetal Heartbeat Bill, this is a complete ban on abortion. It leaves no room for empathy, reality or graciousness. So, as Legislators, and that is what we are, we are not preachers, but as a Legislator, I am to protect and uphold security. Safety and security are the number one thing we can do for our State, for our country. We need to protect the unborn and we need to protect women. I have heard this is not an anti-woman Bill but clearly in some circumstances, it is. I would really appreciate it for all the ones who are currently a "yes" on this Bill, H. 3774, to respectfully not pass it, for all the reasons I have said, and I do believe I am pro-life. I am not going to be labeled that way, but I am. We must take care of each other. The way I can do that is through Legislation. That means we restrict abortions, so we are not a destiny state. Nobody wants an abortion. I do not think there is anybody in this building who wants to allow abortion at four months, at five months. So, we must do this thing. I beg you to reconsider your vote and think about what I have said about pregnancy, and all that the woman goes through. It is not simple to get an abortion. That is all. Thank you.

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The Senate assembled at 11:00 A.M., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

I Corinthians 13:1

The Apostle Paul writes: "If I speak in the tongues of mortals, and of angels, but do not have love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal."

Bow with me, please: O God of Grace, we implore You to never allow us -- any of us -- to become casual about caring for the people of South Carolina. And what an especially horrendous trap it might be for any of us to fall into: to be so caught up in projects, or budgets, or some selfish political agenda, that we fail to consider the true well-being and needs of the many women, men, young people and children who look to this Senate for caring leadership. Political realities are one thing. But to be blasé -- or even worse, absolutely uncaring -- about the heartfelt needs of our citizens, that should never be what this Senate is all about. So, Lord, touch the hearts of each of these leaders. May their love for all of the people of this State never falter. In Your name we pray, O Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

Remarks by Senator KIMBRELL

Good morning colleagues. I know we are getting close to the end of session, and this is probably the last time I come up here on any kind of point this year, but I wanted to say thank you for the leadership of Chairman PEELER in the Senate Finance Committee. We worked together this week to get on the floor S. 634, which I recognize is contested and like most of us, whenever you are not going to have a chance to hear something out on the floor during the session, you get a chance to speak about it here.

One of the things I have tried to do since I have been in the Senate, and I hope I have done well -- maybe Senator SETZLER can tell me later if I have -- is to have a point, make your point, but also be agreeable where you can be. I've probably been the loudest guy in the room this year about this ESG idea, and S. 634 -- which I put forward with about ten other colleagues -- was trying to get at this notion of making sure we do targeted tax incentives; we do economic development and we're mindful of this growing agenda that I'm concerned about as it pertains to the culture of our State.

Our former Governor and Ambassador Nikki Haley this week got into a pretty public spar with the Governor of Florida over the issue of ESG's.

THURSDAY, APRIL 27, 2023

She said she wanted to move, and I respect Governor Haley a lot, but she said she wanted to move Disney to Charleston. I think our Charleston Delegation may not like the congestion in Charleston if Disney were to move there. We will let you make that decision, Senator KIMPSON, but I will tell you that I would not be supporting a targeted tax package to move Disney from Florida to South Carolina. I don't think they are going to move, but the point is, economic development needs to be done without a side of politics, and I've been very clear that I'm worried about that. I tried during the budget debates not to mess anything up. Chairman PEELER put forward a great budget this year. I think it addresses the needs of the State in a conservative and fiscally responsible fashion and I want to be sure we move that along quickly.

During the discussion over Scout, I respect what Mayor Rickenmann here in Columbia said, and that is, the Upstate has a car manufacturing facility, the Low Country has planes and cars, and we need to give the Midlands a chance. Therefore, I pulled down an amendment I had offered about ESG's, even on targeted tax incentives for Scout -- for Volkswagen. I will say now, I think it is good to give fair warning, if we can't get some form of resolution in the Senate going forward next year--saying we will not give this agenda of ESG's a lot of life while we are doing economic development. I will offer amendments going forward on pretty much every economic incentives package to be sure that we are not holding our subcontractors accountable or to a standard they don't want to have to live up to.

In Spartanburg, I have given this story in committee and subcommittee, and I'll tell it here on the floor. A business in Spartanburg -- a large contractor -- very experienced -- has been in business for forty years with one thousand employees -- tried to do some business with a company that moved to Spartanburg under a targeted tax incentives plan. When they applied to be a subcontractor, they had to fill out a one hundred page questionnaire that had little to do with their bonding and insurance requirements -- had little to do with their ability to perform the job, but had everything to do with where they stood on everything from climate change, to LGBT recruitment, and a whole range of things that I really don't think had anything to do with their ability to perform the job. We are using our tax money -- their tax money -- to bring these businesses in, and the idea is we are going to have a multiplier effect, and we are going to do economic growth and development. And, if we are using tax money collected from the businesses that are here, then those businesses ought to be able to benefit from that economic development without being forced to change their culture, values or positions to bow down to an agenda they don't agree with.

So, I will just say I appreciate, Mr. Chairman, S. 634 going through the Finance Committee. I appreciate that it is on the floor. I recognize it goes nowhere this year, but going forward I will be pretty aggressive on making sure we adopt -- if we can't get a Sense of the Senate on this sometime next year -- I will probably argue on every incentive package that we make sure our subcontractors are not forced to bow to this agenda in order to be successful.

On motion of Senator FANNING, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator KIMBRELL were ordered printed in the Journal.

Point of Quorum

At 11:55 A.M., Senator MATTHEWS made the point that a quorum was not present. It was ascertained that a quorum was present. The Senate resumed.

Senator McLEOD resumed speaking on the Bill.

Remarks by Senator McLEOD

Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT. This is day three of the debate on a total abortion ban. And I want to take a minute before I get started to thank the women of the Senate -- my sister Senators who have always led and continue to lead on this extremely important issue. I also want to thank our male colleagues on both sides of the isle who have supported us every single time, as well as those who take time off from their jobs and time away from their families just to come to the State House year after year, time after time to let us know that they stand in solidarity with us.

THURSDAY, APRIL 27, 2023

You have already heard from my sister Senators SHEALY, GUSTAFSON and SENN. And while our approaches and experiences and deliveries may be different, all five of us are united on this issue. Maybe that's because only five of us in this Chamber are capable of giving birth. You have already heard some statistics so I won't reiterate. You have heard some constitutional arguments and a proposed constitutional amendment. We have talked briefly about the fiscal impact of this war on women. So, you should question those who describe themselves as fiscally conservative in one breath while still demanding that we debate and pass Bills like this and the other, knowing that we'll expend an extraordinary amount of time, money, energy and resources on the legal challenges.

You've heard a very detailed account of a colleague's childbirth experience, some of you probably wondered why she chose to disclose intimate details and I certainly can't speak for her. But as she was sharing, I was reminded of a special session during the height of the pandemic before vaccines were available. When we reconvened to debate yet another abortion Bill, it was my first time back in this Chamber after the pandemic began and I was wearing a mask. I was suited up. I had gloves -- the whole nine yards. But I was still nervous about putting my life and health on the line just to be here. It was then that I stood at this well and disclosed for the first time publicly that I was raped. My seatmate Senator SABB, yesterday leaned over and shared with me how unfortunate it is that the women of this Body often feel that we have to share intimate details of our lived experiences to enlighten and engage our male colleagues on issues that are unique to us. And he is right, it is unfortunate! But to sit idly by while forty-one men determine what is right for us, and our constituents, is not an option. The reason I chose to disclose that then, and to talk about it now here, wasn't because I believed my disclosure would change any of my male colleagues' minds. And it didn't. I shared my truth for the first time publicly so that women and girls across our State would know and understand that they have someone in this Chamber who sees them, who hears them, who gets them, who understands their plight and their pain and will continue to fight for them.

Despite what we heard and saw yesterday, this issue is not about rubber babies or any other offensive props. It is about real people with real lives who face real challenges that require them to make real decisions that are best for them and their families. Reproductive rights are human rights and are deserving of equal protection.

THURSDAY, APRIL 27, 2023

The total ban that is being debated here today clearly places the rights of a fetus over the rights of the women and girls who will be forced by our male-dominated Legislature to carry that fetus to term. There is no concern, no compassion and obviously no protection for women like me who live with a chronic health condition and are considered high risk for life threatening complications during pregnancy and beyond pregnancy. No equal protections for sexual assault survivors like me who will be forced by politicians to carry the seed of their rapist to term regardless of whether she has the means, the resources or the support to care for herself or a baby. No empathy for the ten-year-old victim of rape or incest who is still a child herself. Because if this Bill passes, a baby will be forced to carry and deliver another baby, even if it costs her life.

The proponents of this Bill want you to believe that the rights of a fetus are absolute, and far outweigh the rights of the women and girls who are forced to carry that fetus. Please, make that make sense. So, they're not just attacking our constitutional rights. They are attacking our God-given rights. I said it many times before but I'll say it again. God in his infinite wisdom entrusted these most important decisions, his most precious creations, his most magnificent assignments, to women and only women. Don't get mad at us, God did that. The same God that some of us purport to serve.

It's hard to have to come back to this well every session, and sometimes like this, multiple times a session. And since our male-dominated Legislature can't control God, they've made it their life's mission to control us -- using his name to carry out their own personal political agendas. Quickly, unapologetically and selectively perverting scripture to describe their own views and when all else fails they have got a ram in the bush because serving in the Legislature allows them to play God on every legislative Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Quite often it is abortion bans on Tuesdays, I think the House has coined the phrase wicked Wednesdays. Sometimes on Wednesdays it is firing squads and on Thursdays permitless carry. Make no mistake, the arrogance, the ignorance, the flagrant hypocrisy of these men has always been on display for women and girls across South Carolina to see. And as our colleague read from scripture yesterday, we are fearfully and wonderfully made. And we are, by God, not man, for those in the back. So, it was God who decided that women and only women are capable of giving birth. If he wanted our male-dominated Legislature to make that decision, he would have given them the biological ability and equipment. Earlier this week we heard from several men right here in this Body who refused to answer certain questions -- pertinent questions from their female colleagues. Why? Well, one big reason is because they can't. Another reason is because a misogynistic mindset is a terrible thing to waste. Especially when you have the political power to ignore those of us who are directly impacted while you dictate what's best for us. What happened on Tuesday was never about the Senate PRESIDENT. All of us respect and appreciate him -- it's just that some of us respectfully disagreed with his interpretation only to discover that overriding the Senate PRESIDENT isn't allowed if initiated by a woman in this Chamber. Yet our rights, our decisions, our interpretations are overridden every time we debate this issue. As we say in my neck of the woods, the men in this Chamber and the one across the hall ain't got nothing on it. No money. No uterus. No firsthand knowledge or experience. No support, and no respect, or consideration for those of us who have to live with the consequences of their actions. To be blunt, the majority has no frame of reference, since only five of us in this Body have actually given birth. Yet they still try to speak with authority since they can't speak from experience. I don't come to the well often but I've never been one to mince words. So today, I'm just going to call it like I see it. Just as rape is about power and control, so is this total ban. Those who continue to push legislation like this are raping us again with their indifference. Violating us again with their righteous indignation. Taunting us again with their insatiable need to play God while they continue to pass laws that are ungodly. If God wanted men to make these decisions, he would have given them the ability to carry a baby and give birth. But he didn't. So now they've decided to take it by force. Tell me where in the Bible it says your will, not God's be done? Tell me where it says men have the right to control women and girls but no duty or responsibility to provide resources and support? Tell me where it says doctors and medical providers should be criminalized for treating their patients or refusing to violate HIPPA? What kind of world do we live in when members of the General Assembly are more focused on incarcerating and punishing victims of rape than holding their rapist accountable? Do we really want to live in a State where survivors of rape are forced to carry the seed of our rapist to term and be saddled with a life sentence for a crime that was committed against us, not by us?

Earlier this week we had a real opportunity to show the people of South Carolina that their voices matter. That we have confidence in their ability to decide for themselves by simply putting the question on the ballot. Surprisingly, it was an amendment that one of our male republican colleagues sponsored. And what happened? It morphed into a heated debate about the Senate rules and the dangerous precedent that would be set if we override the Senate PRESIDENT's interpretation. We were reminded that the Senate is a Body of rules. Maybe it was at one point. But I'm resigned that if this Senate was a Body of rules it was long before I got here. Perhaps that was the case when it was a Body of forty-six men and there were no women's voices in this Chamber. Maybe it was a Body of rules when my sister Senator, Senator SHEALY first got here. But it's definitely not that way now. I said it before and I'll say it again, in case you missed it. I've been a member of the Rules Committee for almost four years. And so far to my knowledge that committee has never met. I've never gotten one committee meeting notice, not one. But somehow the rules keep changing right here on the floor. And those special order slots that are designated as Rules Committee slots keep being used, should I say abused. More evidence that the rules are made for us, not by us.

Just last week, SC GOP Congresswoman Nancy Mace tried to warn her party that banning abortion is a losing strategy and even with more pressing issues the majority party keeps prioritizing this one without any concern, compassion, empathy or support. As I was saying, Congresswoman Nancy Mace reminded her party this is a losing strategy, this total abortion ban and we do have more pressing issues. But the majority party keeps prioritizing this one without any compassion -- without any concern, empathy or support for the women and girls who will be impacted. And isn't it ironic that the same folks who insist that life begins at conception, don't seem the least bit concerned about the living? One of the most heinous hate crimes in South Carolina history took the life of one of our very own, one of our very own colleagues, yet we're still prioritizing everything but hate crimes. Yesterday our colleague just closed his remarks by saying, this Bill deserves a debate. Well, with all due respect, so does the Hate Crimes Bill that he and his two other colleagues put their names on to ensure that we won't have an opportunity to debate it before session ends just like they did last year.

The hypocrisy, the audacity, the tone deafness by some in this Chamber is staggering. We claim we care about the living but we continue to pay hardworking South Carolinians $7.25 an hour knowing that they can't live or survive on those wages, let alone take care of their maternal health or the expenses of raising a baby to adulthood. We pass firing squad Bills and shield laws for companies that make lethal injection drugs and now we are on track to prioritize permitless carry knowing that it means more people who look like me will be targeted, and more young black men and women will die as a result. So, it makes me wonder whose lives we're really protecting. Not mine. Not my son's.

THURSDAY, APRIL 27, 2023

And if you didn't know that South Carolina has been losing its best and brightest young people for decades, you should know that we are. I talked a little bit about that yesterday when Senator SENN was at the well. Because of Bills like this, we're not only losing nurses and doctors and medical practitioners, we'll continue to lose our best and brightest young people who are engaged especially when it comes to their reproductive rights and freedoms and the reproductive rights and freedoms of those they love. So, we will be in a position very soon where we won't have to always talk about losing teachers in this State. We are and we will continue -- we can just stop after saying that we are losing -- South Carolina is losing period because of Bills just like this one.

I come from a rural community. I come from Marlboro County, Bennettsville, South Carolina. The challenges that we already face in finding doctors, nurses and other health care providers -- I can't even begin to articulate the impact it's having on rural communities just like my hometown. There is definitely a lack of access to quality affordable health care in this State. And yet we have consistently refused to even expand Medicaid. But we care about the living, right? We can't find medical students or residents who want to stay here. So I wonder who's going to deliver all these babies or care for moms and babies who have life-altering or life-threatening complications.

Since we want to wear the Bible belt, it seems, like a badge of honor, shouldn't some of our actions reflect it? I am guided by my faith, in every aspect of my life. And I know that the God I serve can't be pleased when the majority of us claim to be Christians in one breath, and deliberately defy his very essence in the next. Too many legislative decisions are calculated, self-serving and, yes, hypocritical. We want to separate church and state but only when it's politically expedient. We push notions of justice, truth, fairness, equity -- in public, and yet privately hide behind our self-righteous, self-proclaimed Christian labels to push our own partisan political agendas. Think about it. The General Assembly loves to protect fetuses in the womb. But there's nothing protective or pretty about our refusal to protect or help support those same lives after birth. Apparently when the umbilical cord is cut, so is the concern and the compassion. Funny how we go from God's chosen to society's forgotten simply by passing through the birth canal.

I'm not going to talk much longer. I know many of you are aware that back in 2016 I was in the House. It was the same year I got elected to the Senate but at the time I was in the South Carolina House. And I was so sick and tired of spending every moment of my summer listening to testimony on a committee. I was appointed by the Speaker to serve on a committee that I thought was about women's maternal health. Turned out it wasn't. It was a committee that was formed to listen to testimony all summer about how to defund Planned Parenthood. And as I listened intently, I became much more angry about how we had chosen to spend our time or how we were forced to spend our time. And so, I went back and looked at the statute and learned a lot about the hoops and hurdles that women and girls had to jump through just to exercise their reproductive rights and freedoms. I went home and I thought about what that would look like for men and I introduced the Viagra Bill.

I learned a lot about Viagra, surprisingly. I didn't know that it was originally developed to address heart conditions. Erections were simply a side effect of the medicine. I won't go into it like I did when I introduced the Bill but I was floored by the fact that the Viagra Bill I introduced back in 2016, when this was again a priority for the majority in this State -- what I discovered from the introduction of that Bill you know, I was simply trying to show, trying to expose the hypocrisy, the double standard that exists around these conversations that nobody seems to want to have. But that Bill and the excitement around the Bill went viral. It got national and international media attention. And it let me know that although South Carolina is unique and we are different here, our struggles are the same for women and girls across South Carolina. So, I really appreciate the support and the concern and the consideration and the compassion for those of us who are speaking from firsthand experience, firsthand knowledge about issues like pregnancy and childbirth. I notice that I didn't start to get a lot of questions and comments from my colleagues until I brought up the Viagra Bill that I introduced in 2016, but I should have expected that!

I want to close by saying despite what you may think or what you have heard, I'm not anti-men. I'm not anti-Viagra. But I am anti-hypocrisy, and I am anti-double standard. And frankly, I don't believe that Senators or Representatives need to be focused on abortion or erectile dysfunction. In fact, our State has much bigger issues and much more pressing challenges that are more deserving of our time and attention. I haven't revived the Viagra Bill yet, but I do believe that if we are going to insist upon governing any of it, I'm going to insist that we govern all of it.

We have a real opportunity here today to send a message not only to the proponents of this total ban but to send a message to the women and girls who make up 55% of our state's electorate and to let them know that there are five of us in here who look like them -- in many ways who act like them -- who hear them, who understand them, who appreciate them. We won't stop fighting so that their voices, and our voices, can be heard.

The Senate assembled at 12:00 Noon, the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Psalm 23:1

As most of you recall, the familiar opening to Psalm 23 is: “The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.”

Join me as we bow in prayer: I am confident, O Lord, that virtually no one hearing my voice does not recall how much every one of us needs to have You as our shepherd. In ways so very typical for all of us, without Your caring and loving guidance we are prone to wander off course, to head in directions and to make decisions that are far from those You would have us choose. That is why we pray today, dear God, that each Senator and every staff member will turn to You, follow Your teachings, and honor You as they in turn strive to do what is best for all of the people of South Carolina. And may these Senate leaders feel that special closeness to You, O Lord, for which we all yearn. In Your loving name we pray. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

Indicates New Matter

The Senate assembled at 11:45 A.M., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Isaiah 26:4

We read in Isaiah: "Trust in the Lord forever, for the Lord, the Lord is the Rock eternal."

Let us pray: O loving Lord, we turn to You today in absolute sorrow for the world around us. Tragedies unfold as routinely it seems as sunrises and sunsets: mass shootings across our land and even here in our State, warfare in Ukraine and Sudan and skirmishes elsewhere, deadly storms plaguing fellow citizens. The litany has become almost commonplace; the reality of it all overwhelming. All the more, dear Lord, do we all find ourselves knowing that we must turn to You. To that end we ask that You give each of these Senators as well as our other leaders across this land the courage and the faith to face head-on the challenges they must deal with. And in every way, O God, may the trust we all have in You continue to be rock solid -- always. In Your hopeful name we pray, dear Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

JOINT ASSEMBLY

At 12:00 Noon, the Senate appeared in the Hall of the House.

The PRESIDENT of the Senate called the Joint Assembly to order and announced that it had convened under the terms of H. 4235, a Concurrent Resolution adopted by both Houses.

H. 4235 -- Rep. G.M. Smith: A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION TO HONOR DAVID M. BEASLEY ON THE OCCASION OF THE CONCLUSION OF HIS SERVICE AS EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF THE UNITED NATIONS WORLD FOOD PROGRAMME, AND TO INVITE HIM TO ADDRESS THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN JOINT SESSION IN THE CHAMBER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AT 12:00 P.M. ON WEDNESDAY, MAY 3, 2023.

The Honorable David M. Beasley was escorted to the rostrum by Senators GROOMS, CROMER, SHEALY, MALLOY and SCOTT and Representatives Hiott, Alexander, Wooten, Davis and Pope.

The PRESIDENT introduced the Honorable David M. Beasley.

The Honorable David M. Beasley addressed the Joint Assembly as follows.

The Honorable Governor David M. Beasley,
Executive Director of the United Nations World Food Programme
Wednesday, May 3, 2023

Mr. PRESIDENT, Mr. Speaker, colleagues, and brothers and sisters, I mean I would really rather be down there because I feel like we are family. This is where I got my political start from, and of course you don't ever get to places like this without incredible family. Before I get started, many of you remember my wife, Mary Wood. Everybody loves Mary Wood, and she looks just as young today as she did when I left being Governor in 1998. And so, Mary Wood and our daughter, Mary Hunter, as she was just a few years old, she is now practicing law in Greenville. Her husband, Tommy Tomlinson and then Ross, he is now a police officer in Florence, S.C. Other family members and friends that are here, we are so grateful to be here with you. Mary Wood, Mary Hunter, Tommy, and Ross stand up.

I was thinking about the first time that I walked on the floor of this House of Representatives. You know when you get elected, it is such a great honor. But when you walk on the floor, there is so much pride. You remember that first day. And I remember my dad had served in the House of Representatives, but I was like three-, four-, five-years old, so I did not remember much at all. And my dad had told me to respect the elders that are in that institution, but there is a particular man, called “Speaker Sol Blatt”. He was like a legend. Stories had it that he was the longest, continuously elected official in the World at the time. I don’t know, but he was a legend. And he said, “Whatever you do, get to know him because he can teach you the ropes.” So, I’m so excited. I’m so fired up. I’m a 21-year-old college student, junior at Clemson University, getting elected. And you can image the articles are written about the young versus the old. I was loving it. Of course, the old guard was like “Who is this little whippersnapper? You know we are going to teach him a lesson.” He says, “Make sure you get to know Speaker Blatt.” So, here I am walking through those doors, the first antechamber doors. And I am thinking wow they are opening for me. And then the next doors, the Chamber doors open, and guess who is standing right there, Speaker Sol Blatt. And I am thinking this is destiny, God had opened up these doors for me and there is Speaker Blatt. So, I go to put my hand to speak to him and he says, “Son go and get me a cup of coffee.” I am a 21-year-old, he thought I was a Page. So, I’ve got two choices, right there. One, I can say, “you know who I am” or “you like it black, sugar, cream?” So, the whole House, all the Pages, everyone is frozen in time. He says black. So, I turn and everyone is like...I don’t even know where the coffee machine is. And I look and the Page points to the coffee room. So, I go and get the coffee and come back and hand it to him. So, if I was a Page, I would then go off. But since I was not a Page, but I was a Member of the House. He did not know that. And so, he’s looking at me like son why are you still standing here. And I say, “Mr. Speaker I am David Beasley.” And he says, “Son, I am so sorry!” It is not natural to humble yourself sometimes, particularly, in political office, but when we do humble ourselves and show a servants’ heart, amazing things happen. He took me under his arms, his wings, and taught me the ropes. Everything that I have learned, as Abraham Lincoln said when he was getting on that train, that it is from this place, these people, that I owe everything. These are values, the South Carolina values, that I have taken with me. The fights that we have had on these floors, the love, the compassion, the issues that I took with me all around the World. And I can’t thank you enough. Because that spirit is here.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 3, 2023

When I got the phone call about taking this role, my first response was that I was not looking for a job and I said, “No.” But it was interesting that two nights before my wife had said that the World is in trouble and needs leaders like you, don't say No without praying about whatever it is. And so, this friend had called me about taking this role and I immediately said, "No." And I remembered what my wife had said, and I said, "let me call a friend of mine." And I called a prayer partner of mine, a Democrat, former Congressman named Tony Hall from Ohio. He had been the Ambassador to the World Food Programme. I said, "Tony to tell me about the World Food Programme." He said, "oh my God, if there is ever God's work on the earth." I said, "the United Nations World Food Programme," and he laughed. He said, "no it is an incredible program." I wasn't looking for a job. I was doing peace work, quietly around the World, and a group of Republican and Democrat Senators in Washington said you've got to take this role. You are the only one that can reverse the Trump Administration's thinking about zeroing out strategic international aid. Then I said, "let me work on that, I don't want a job." Well anyways, six years later...

So, when I took the role, there were only 80 million people. And I want to give you a sense of the reality of what we are facing globally right now. There were 80 million people we would save out of the planet population, at that time of 7.6 billion. Now it is about 8 billion. There were 80 million people that were marching to starvation, not know where that next meal was coming from. So, I am thinking, wow. Being a former Governor, we set goals and objectives, and we execute. I was thinking that I could put the World Food Programme out of business, because we no longer need it because we have ended severe food insecurities around the World. Little did I know what was storm, upon storm that was coming, globally. Literally, within two years, the number went from 80 million to 135 million and so the simple question, would be, why did that happen? And the simple answer was man made conflict and climate shocks. Now, this is before COVID.

COVID comes along, economic devastation, supply chain disruption all over the World and the number goes from 135 million to 276 million people, literally, marching to starvation, not knowing where the next meal is coming from. This is before Ukraine, Afghanistan, and Ethiopia. Afghanistan and Ethiopia is in itself problematic, but then comes the breadbasket of the World, Ukraine, a nation that grows enough food to feed 400 million people. All of sudden the longest bread lines in the World. The number went from 276 million people to 350 million people, marching to starvation. And within that, 45 nations and 45 million people on famines door. If you want to know which nations will have famines, starvation, destabilization of the nations, political unrest because of hunger and starvation, as well as mass migration, you can start with those

45 nations. Compounded by fuel costs, the war that has gone on, disrupting supply chains, fertilizers, and fuels. As you well know, right here in South Carolina, people are struggling to make ends meet. As the price of bread, milk, protein, and beef is going up and up. And I can only tell you that it is not going to get any better any time soon. It's not like we are building better furniture at the World Food Programme. If we don't raise the money, we can't buy a better couch. We're talking about people dying. These aren't just numbers, these are people with real names, these are children, little boys and little girls. Eighty percent of our operation is in war zones and areas of conflict. This is where I was going, day in and day out, over approximately 1,000 flights in six years. Raising the awareness of the World. And I remember that distinct day that I was in Niger. And I was in intense negotiations with the military and the President because we had ISIS and Al Qaeda ten or fifteen miles to the North and to the South. And if we don't get the access we need, they block the access and use food as a weapon of war, by depriving access. Then they bring in food and recruit. I've had more mothers tell me my son or husband did not want to join ISIS or Al Qaeda, but we hadn't feed out little girl in two weeks. Mr. Beasley what were we supposed to do? It's not like they could jump in a car and drive from Greenville to Spartanburg. And so, I was just demanding that we get the protection and security we needed to reach these people, so they weren't vulnerable where there's a climate shock or extremist group. And while I am sitting there pounding someone busts through the room and I'm looking like what are you doing busting into this room. That is what I'm thinking. They say, "Nobel Peace Prize." And I am like, oh yeah, oh yeah. Who won it? You did, we did. I mean what a day! You don't get that phone call often at all. Well, when you get a phone call like that, who are you going to call first? Your wife. Well, Mary Wood that day, happened to be back in the United States. A six-to-seven-hour difference. I did not know this, but she had had a dream the night before that I was killed in Niger. So, I don't know this, but you know when you are a dad or mom and you get a phone call in the middle of the night you know it is not good. It is either someone has gotten locked up or someone has gotten killed. So, she answers the phone, and of course, I am ready to just explode with such emotion, that I can't say anything. I'm so emotional, so choked up. So, she is hearing her husband choked up on the phone. And having the dream that I had been killed in Niger, so she is thinking oh my God he is dying on the phone right there. And finally, I was able to say in about fifteen seconds, Nobel Peace Prize. What a Day!

WEDNESDAY, MAY 3, 2023

That prize gave us the opportunity to take the awareness around the World. I can assure you that if it were not for our friends, our Democrats and Republicans friends in the US House and US Senate, I called it the miracle on Pennsylvania Avenue, when they don't agree on anything, it seems at all. Nothing. When I would go to Washington, they would lay aside their differences, come together, and our appropriations from the United States government, from the American people, went from 1.9 billion, and instead of down, under the Trump administration, of course, I was nominated by the Trump Administration, then nominated by the Biden Administration. The incredible spirit that food, bringing people together, the miracle on Pennsylvania Ave., seeing both ends of Pennsylvania Ave., seeing Republicans and Democrats, coming together. An incredible thing. And our funding from the United States went from 1.9 billion to last year 7.4 billion dollars. Yes, we raised 55 billion dollars in six years. Last year, we raised 39.4 million dollars, per day, seven days a week. Where I sit on a plane, how fast I moved into the meetings, what I do, where I go, how I do it, you have to say "no" to a lot of friends you want to sit and chit chat with, because lives are at stake. No, we did not put the World Food Programme out of business. But, what we did, was by the funds that we raised, the awareness that took place, we kept 100's of millions. We fed 160 million people last year, alone. Not one time, that's day in and day out, all year long, depending on the season and place. We averted famine, starvation, mass migration, destabilization of nations. The cost of that, oh my gosh. I can give you anecdotal experiential evidence. It would be like you have leaking water lines in the ceiling. You say I don't have 100 dollars to fix the leak. Then after about a month later, you have to replace all the furniture, all the carpet, the flooring. And guess what? When you feed 160 million people, you survey them all the time. I'm talking to them all the time. None of them want to leave home. They don't want to leave home. But if they have no hope, have no food, have no peace, they will do what any dad or mom will do. I can tell you that worldwide we are all the same. Each and every one of us, children of God. I remember, and I don't know how many of you saw this particular story by Scott Pelley on 60 Minutes. It was a brutal story. I was fighting, pretty tough, on the coalition to have a blockade, not to get into the details of that, but Scott Pelley was so moved by the interview of what the World Food Programme, what we were doing on the ground, in harms way, trying to save the lives of people, where 90 percent of their food came from the outside. And Scott, at the end we are de-micing and he says you've got the greatest job in the World, saving the lives of millions of people. And

WEDNESDAY, MAY 3, 2023

I said, “Scott I do, I really do, but I am going to say something to you that you have not thought of, and it is going to bother you.” And he looked at me like what could that be. And I said Scott, “I don’t go to bed at night thinking about the children that I have saved. I go to bed at night heartbroken over the children that I could not reach.” And I said, “when we don’t have enough money, we have to choose which children eat and don’t eat, which children live and which children die. How would you like that job, Scott?” And he looked at me, like I had not thought of it like that. Then I said, “well we don’t have a choice every day, and you know what really upsets me? When there are 430 trillion dollars of wealth on planet earth, there should not be a single child on the face of this planet that goes to bed hungry, much less dies. Nowhere.”

Whether you believe that that should happen through government or not, we should all agree that it should not happen. No matter your walk in life. And so, the biggest question that I would get, and it is the most troubling question, is how could I stay positive, amidst all the suffering, devastation, and death. As you can imagine, probably no one on the planet has seen as much devastation and suffering as me and my teams. But when you are out there, it could be in a torn rubble village in Syria or Ukraine or Chad or Sudan, and you will see a little child come from behind that rubble, it is a spark of life. That little boy, that little girl, made in the image of God, my brother, my sister, my child, that I’m not going to give up hope on that child. That’s the South Carolina motto, “While I breathe, I hope.” That’s the spirit that gives me hope. This spirit in humanity, that dwells within the State of South Carolina, that I took with me, so you honor me, but you honor that which we stand for today. I’m just a messenger.

But friends around the World are worried about America. We seem to be getting so divided. Two hundred years ago, 95 percent of the people on the planet were in extreme poverty. Ninety to ninety-five percent. Today less than 10 percent. So, what we don’t want to do is tear down the systems and programs that have allowed us to reach the 90 percent, but we can’t be happy and content there. We still have got 10 percent that we are not reaching around the World and including America. So, we must strive with all our heart and mind, and so to reach that 10 percent and let them experience, the hope, the dreams that we so believe in. Because those people are our brothers and sisters, made in the image of God. When Jesus said, “When I was hungry and you did not feed me, when I was thirsty you did not give me drink, and when I was in prison you did not visit me, and when I was without clothes and sick.” Well, they said Lord, when were you like that and we did not visit you. And he said that when we didn't do it to the least of these. You see the least of these is the image of God. If you want to love God, love God's creation. Those little boys and those little girls out there are the image of God. And that's the inspiration that I and you will not give up on any of these children around the World, including the children of South Carolina. We may have a different path to get there. And this is what I would challenge you--my best friends -- on the floor of this House of Representatives, where sometimes my biggest enemies were at that podium. We would just fight it out, but we would vote, and we would walk off that floor, arm-in-arm, hand-in-hand, go have dinner and laugh, be brothers and sisters and friends, respecting our differences. Imagine that spirit. I used to tell my friends in the United States Senate, could you imagine, if Schumer and Mitch McConnell, on a Friday afternoon said you know we go to the American people and hold a press conference together and say you know we're taking up abortion next week in the Senate. Chuck is not going to change my view and I am not going to change Chuck's views; we differ but we love each other and respect this Institution. And we are going to deliberate next week on those controversial issues, but we love each other and respect each other and are not going to say much of anything that is going to change the American people or the people of South Carolina on that issue. But what would be the takeaway from that press conference? The beauty of the love of one another, in spite of the incredible difference on an issue. Hope, love -- all the darkness in the world cannot put the out the light of one little match. And I believe that South Carolina, is that shining city on a hill, that South Carolina can be that light that the rest of the nation needs at a time like this. That we can have our differences, but respect and love each other.

I remember, so distinctly, of course, it was one of the Washington columnists that said after my election, that I was one of the last living casualties of the Civil War, with the flag and the whole nine yards. I had to think about that for a second. And the flag issue came up again. In 2015, you remember what happened in Charleston at Emmanuel A.M.E. A good friend of ours, a brother of ours, that served in this Body. And I remember talking with Clemente who came to me because he knew that I had been elected when I was 21 years of age, and he wanted some advice and guidance. But brutally shot by this racist kid. You remember that story. You remember what happened three days later, a few days later, a few weeks later. The family forgave that young man. I had friends of mine from all over the world, from Atheists, to Catholics, to Protestants, to Muslim, the Hindus calling me and said, wow. Amidst all that darkness, the beauty of pure unconditional love impacted them so amazingly. But what you don't remember was what happened a month or two months earlier. That was June of 2015 and in April of 2015, a man was shot in the back in the North Charleston area. You remember the story. But what you don't remember though is that CNN, Cooper Anderson was doing an interview with Jackie Scott, the mother. And let me paraphrase, but he was kind of going in at her to say racism, racism and she said I know that I should be bitter, I know I should be full of rage, but God is a God of forgiveness. A God of love and I forgive that man. I forgive you. That went viral in Charleston, South Carolina. Seeds were planted in the hearts of people in Charleston, South Carolina because of Jackie Scott, just pure simple unconditional love, with no motivation, no tweetering, no social media, just the simplicity of a loving God and forgiving a brutal situation. So that only two months later, who would know, an absolute catastrophe of Dylan Roof walking into a church. And you saw the power of love and forgiveness.

Our Nation, we need this love. It is this spirit that resonates in South Carolina. It's this spirit that our Nation needs again. It is up to me and you to model that spirit. So, I could go on and on but let me assure you that things are going to get worse around the world. Hunger will get worse. But I have hope. I believe in You, my friends, my brothers, my sisters, and I love South Carolina. I have seen the World, the good, the bad, and the ugly. And I still believe in this Nation, but we are moving in the wrong direction. But we can change that course, with the heart and spirit that we have in this room. Our State, let's go forward. With that motto that clearly says, "While I breathe, I hope." Within that we will achieve the greatest commandment known to mankind, "Love your neighbor." Blessings to all.

The purposes of the Joint Assembly having been accomplished, the PRESIDENT declared it adjourned, whereupon the Senate returned to its Chamber and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

At 12:34 P.M., by prior motion of Senator MASSEY, the Senate recessed until 1:48 P.M.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 3, 2023

Remarks by Senator KEVIN JOHNSON

Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT. I just want to stand for a few minutes to clarify my position and make sure that I was not misunderstood. Yesterday, we were on the Critical Race Theory Bill, but somehow, we ended up talking about Hate Crime Legislation, and some comments were made that I would like to take this time to clear up.

I never implied, indicated or stated that the Hate Crime Legislation would deter people from committing crimes. If we could pass Bills to deter people from committing crimes, we wouldn't have any crime. So, what I was really trying to point out was that if we had Hate Crime Legislation, then those who commit crimes -- as they are doing all over the place now -- and if the crime was determined to be the result of hate, then the law would allow for more harsh penalties. I always tell people, don't come to me with an argument for a Bill by saying well, these many states have passed it. North Carolina has passed it, or Georgia has passed it; however, we have Hate Crime Legislation in forty-eight other states.

Clearly, someone thinks it is an important piece of Legislation, because the South Carolina House of Representatives has tried to pass Hate Crime Legislation twice. So, somebody thinks that it is worthy to at least be voted on, and that's all we've asked for. We didn't ask for anyone to vote for the Bill. We just asked to debate the Bill and get a vote on it. A comment was made that, "If you want to have the authority to decide which Bills go on to Special Order and those types of things go out, work hard and win some elections." It's true that the party that has the majority does control the calendar. I thought more about that. Including my service in the House, I have been in the General Assembly for twelve years, not nearly as long as some others have been. I will say even in my twelve years, there were times when the opinions, interests and concerns of the minority party mattered, and we could put some ideas forth to at least vote on them without being told you can't do it unless you win elections.

So, I just wanted to clarify my position on that. Also, we were debating the Critical Race Theory Bill yesterday as I said -- I still call it Critical Race Theory, though I think it is some kind of transparency in the education Bill. Now, the reason why I say I thought that other Bills were more important than that Bill is because there are some things in that Bill that are not an issue in South Carolina yet, and as I said yesterday -- hate is an issue now. The other thing about the Critical Race Theory Bill is that there are a lot of things in it that I think are best handled by school boards. I served on the school board for twelve years and we made a lot of very important decisions, and the vast majority of school boards are going to do what they think is right as it relates to students. I know that we don't like to have mandates coming down on us, like when the federal government says you will or will not do this. I often ask myself why we have a school board if now we're trying to get involved in what their responsibilities should be.

I'm going to tell you what's going to happen. This Bill will probably pass and for lack of a better term -- we have a lot of crazies out there -- for some reason, their number one target is school boards and school districts, and when this Bill passes, we're going to really see how crazy they are. We now have people making all kinds of fuss about books that should not be available to students, but from what I'm told a lot of these folks that are making the fuss haven't even read the books, and now we want to tell libraries and librarians what books they can or cannot have in the library. I'm going to tell you, I have three children, and they're all grown, but anything that these kids want to have access to, they're going to have access to. So, I think we should leave education to the librarians, the schools, the school districts and the school boards. I don't know how things are going in other parts of the State; however, in Clarendon County I like the fact that those are local decisions that can be made by local elected officials.

I wanted to get up here and just clarify my points. I'm not naive enough to think by passing a Bill it would keep people from committing crimes. I think the evidence behind the Bill is that when you commit crimes, you face a tougher penalty. We all learned that the punishment should meet the crime. We just talked about the Bonds Bill and spoke about these folks committing all these crimes and getting bailed out and then going and committing more crimes. There's a reason for that. We'll look at it and we'll see how it goes, but I would like to end as I started. We have forty-eight states with Hate Crime Legislation, along with the South Carolina House of Representatives that thinks we should have Hate Crime Legislation in our State. I know nothing at all about Wyoming but if I were a betting person, I would be willing to bet that at some point Wyoming will pass Hate Crime Legislation and then we'll be sitting here in South Carolina as the only group of people who don't think that Hate Crime Legislation is important, not the South Carolina General Assembly, but the South Carolina Senate. Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT.

Expression of Personal Interest

Senator SABB rose for an Expression of Personal Interest.

Remarks by Senator SABB

Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT and thank you members. I wanted to take a couple of moments to talk about hate crimes and where I think perhaps, we might be. You know, if there is one thing I've lived long enough, and served long enough in this Body to appreciate, is that the passions often times run high. I think that's just a part of the nature of who we are. I think it is a part of the body of politics that we are part of. I had the pleasure and the honor of being the subcommittee chair for the Hate Crimes Legislation. I wanted the Body to know that I've had a lot of conversation in the Chamber. I've tried to talk to every Senator that we have, those who agree with me and those who disagree with me. I'm appreciative of the fact that those who don't agree with me are kind enough to tell me why, because it gives us an opportunity to have intellectual discussion on the matter. I did not want yesterday's discussion to leave the impression that we are not communicating and that we are not advancing. Therefore, I think we are making progress. Will we get there? I don't know. I'm hopeful and I'm optimistic but I don't know.

I would like to specifically address one of the concerns that I heard yesterday, and that's on the idea of treating people differently. The question is as to whether the Hate Crime Bill itself promotes that. The concern is treating people differently if the Legislation does that, then perhaps the Legislation is not good. Well, that's worthy of examination because who are the people involved? On the one hand, you've got the individual who the evidence shows committed a crime based on hate. To the extent that the Legislation deals with that animus, then that is appropriate, is it not? For the individual to be dealt with, as opposed to somebody who simply commits a crime without that particular element involved. Then you examine it from the defendant's perspective, and I say it is warranted. Then the only other perspective you examine it from is a victim's perspective. Does the person who is attacked -- injured because of their race, because of their religion -- does that person want to be treated differently? No, I would say that person wants to be treated the same but would not have a problem with us trying to deal with the idea of hate. To the extent that penalties are part of the deterrent, then once again, it seems appropriate. I've got a deep appreciation for what we are allowed to experience as Legislators. I thought it was interesting that Governor Beasley talked in a manner, in which there are differences yet a spirit of cooperation and highlighted the fact so many of us see things the same way. The question is whether there are other things that interfere with our ability to be able to come together and fashion a solution that's beneficial to our great State. I'm finished, but I thought it was important that we at least walk away with an understanding that there are conversations going on in this Body. In my opinion, we're making some progress. Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT.

Senator MALLOY rose for an Expression of Personal Interest.

Senator JACKSON rose for an Expression of Personal Interest.

Remarks by Senator JACKSON

Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT. To Senator MALLOY, thank you, so much for your words. I thank you for reminding us of the words that Governor Beasley spoke, unfortunately, I was not able to make it, but certainly heard about those words. Members of the Senate, I want just for a few moments, to just stand and just respond a little bit about what happened yesterday and to talk about hate crimes, perhaps from a different perspective. Everyone can rest easy. I'm not going to be a firestone, not showing any shade on anyone, but I want to talk about the better angles that Senator MALLOY talked about and just share with you why that matters so much to me. And to so many others.

South Carolina, again, and by the way, as long as we do not have hate crimes, I will be doing this over and over and over again. This year, next year, and if I'm fortunate to come back after that -- any time after that because I think we do need to be reminded that we are one of two states that does not have hate crimes. And we have been told that it is feel-good Legislation, we know that oftentimes a lot of things we do here consist of feel good Legislation. Here is the thing that I want to share one -- that I thought about last night as I was driving home -- and I want to share it as a Point of Personal Interest. There are groups in this country who share the opinion that South Carolina does not need hate crimes. And I am in a process of passing out some information for you. I just want you to hear this. Okay? And then we decide if we are proud to be lumped with these groups, antisemitism groups, and anti-hate groups -- groups that promote and groups that boldly and publicly promote hate, vision and tearing us apart. Those groups say as perhaps some say in this Body, that there is no need for hate crimes. So, my question to us is that are we proud of the fact that we agree with the Argan Nation? Are we proud of the fact that we agree with the official KKK's position? This is their official position that there is no need for hate crimes, in fact, there is a group that espouses white supremacist and boldly say death to Jews and others. That group, at one of their meetings said, "We are, proud of the state that have not bent and bowed to political correctness and adopted hate crimes" -- only two states, Wyoming and South Carolina. Are we proud to be the favorite State of hate groups? Groups that shout death to Jews? Are we proud to be one of the favorite states of the official KKK's -- KKK's organization? That's all I'm asking. And we hear this over and over and over again.

I think all of us know how this will eventually end. One day hopefully we will pass hate crimes. But we can avoid all of this, we can avoid all of this, last year. As I wrap this up, I went to some members and said give us the most benign version that you think is possible. The version of hate crimes that offends the least number of people. The version of hate crimes that's super feel good. But at least we have a Hate Crimes Bill. Because you know what? I don't want my sons, I don't want people I know, to say we are the favorite group of the KKK. I do not want people to say that white supremacist are giving us a high five and say we are proud South Carolina has not bought to political correctness and wokeness and they're standing up of with a we believe is the question, I don't think you are either. I don't think there is anyone in this Body that wants to be identified with those groups. But I will tell you this, as long as we are one of two states -- without that, we are identifying with those groups. Look at the handout that I'm passing around. I have more to come. More handouts that would be even more specific about what hate groups are saying, and I will leave you with this, as some of you know, I had the honor to replace the late Senator Isadore Lourie -- one of the greatest honors of my life to replace the Senator Isadore Lourie. When I ran for the Senate in my early 30's, young man, Senator Lourie took me on his wings, he and his lovely wife took me to their house, and he began to tell me about why it is so important to fight for what is right. So as many of you know, we served with the Senator's son Joel, one of my absolute best friends, but one of the things that his father said to me, and he also said to Joel is this: he said that it is important for us to fight for what is right even when it looks like you will not prevail. He said keep fighting for it. Don't ever give up the fight for what is right, so I say to the members of this Body, you would be hearing a lot more from me and others, because all we are asking for is a vote. That is it -- a vote. And if this Body votes it down, I promise you this. This is a promise. If this Body votes down hate crimes, I will never get up to this well again.

So, I say to you that we need to pass it. Because you have done what I've asked, you've done what most of us have asked -- is just to have a simple vote on hate crimes. We are here to vote on CRT. We are talking about feel good Legislation. We're about to vote on some other things. But for some reason, we cannot have a simple vote for hate crimes. I leave with the words of the late Isadore Lourie -- keep fighting even if you know you're not going to prevail, because the fight is important. Thank you, members of the Senate. With that, I would like to ask unanimous consent to pass out some materials.

On motion of Senator McLEOD, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator JACKSON were ordered printed in the Journal.

Expression of Personal Interest

Senator SENN rose for an Expression of Personal Interest.

Remarks by Senator SENN

Thank you. Since we only have five minutes, I wanted to hop right into it. We learned just today that as a result of our communication during the abortion debate -- and we spoke of the Handmaiden's Tale -- that the library in Anderson County has decided that they are going to be pulling the Handmaiden's Tale -- which is a forty-year-old book -- from its shelves and this is something that simply should not be tolerated.

It is interesting that we are here discussing now critical race theory type Bills when here we are -- now we're having something pulled from the shelves just because of our discussion. Girls did y'all know that we were that powerful? I mean, I just did not know. You may have seen that we have gained national attention and we were all kind of shocked by it, but apparently the interest is they did not think that Republican women would join with Independent and then Democratic women, as well as several other of our Republican Senators, and object to what we see as some oppressive abortion bans. They just did not expect it, but I was always confused because really there's always been a debate about abortion and I went and looked up the history of it.

So, one of the things I did was look up the very first time that abortion was added to the Republican Party platform. That was done in 1976 and it was a result of Roe vs. Wade. Gerald Ford was President then and it has carried on ever since. It has always fallen very low in the platform, usually seventh, eighth or ninth, but now we have a Republican National Chairwoman asking for it to be brought up with every presidential candidate in our party and I think that is going to hurt us. But what was very interesting to me is how it got on the platform to begin with. And how it got on the platform is that there were twenty-eight delegates who were female in 1976 and opposed that it got put on the platform and they struck a deal. The deal was the Republican party would support the Equal Rights Amendment and would not withdraw its support and that was the trade-off. So, they did not make a big problem out of it, but equal rights was supposed to be pushed in exchange for abortion being a part of the platform. You see how the equal rights thing worked out for us. We didn't do so well, certainly not in our State. However, what was really interesting to me, and this is what I hope my fellow Republicans will listen to -- and I know it's something that Senator HEMBREE would agree with. What they said back then is that they recognized there was a vast discrepancy. They said that abortion is one of the most difficult and controversial issues of our time, undoubtedly a moral and personal issue, but it also involves complex questions relating to medical science and criminal justice. There are those in our party who favor complete support of the Supreme Court decision, which permits abortion on demand. There are others who share convictions that the Supreme Court's decision must be changed by a constitutional amendment prohibiting all abortion. Others have yet to take a position, or they have assumed a stance somewhere in between the polar positions. So, this has been going on for a very, very long time and what we have done is -- we all have differing opinions, but it's still something that has been around -- it wasn't our brainchild, it's just something that we all felt. But here is the beautiful part -- what the party ultimately recommended is that there be a referendum on the issue of abortion. Our own party -- national party -- in 1976 recommended a referendum on abortion. I hope maybe we can pop back to 1976 -- take one of those fast cars back to the future or however that goes.

But the point being that now here we are as a result of our work somehow or another and we have extremists who are trying to take away a book. I read it for the first time right after law school. It's been around forever. What are you going to do, stop Netflix? I mean, that same book is the genesis for the very popular series that's now going into its sixth and final season. The more you tell our kids they can't read something, shoot, they are going to get it. We all do that. When somebody tells us we can't do something; what do we want to do? We want to go do it.

I submit that we are going down the wrong path with respect to abortion. I think we are going down the wrong path with respect to trying to censor things and we just all wanted to make that point and say let's do exactly what Governor Beasley said -- let's try to find some common ground in the middle. I would like to do that. I think we should. We have become contentious. But I looked at that man -- Governor Beasley -- he never looked at notes, he didn't have a teleprompter and he never once misspoke. I wish I could be like that. But what he had to say was very powerful coming from a former Republican governor who underwent some controversy and here he is now still trying to bring us all together. I appreciate that and I appreciate your attention.

(2) Regulations promulgated pursuant to this section must not alter public notice requirements for permits, certifications, or licenses issued by the Department of Environmental Services.

(C) Until the Department of Health and Environmental Control promulgated regulations pursuant to subsection (B)(1), it was directed to conduct a pilot expedited review program to determine the most environmentally sound, cost efficient, and economically beneficial process for implementation of a statewide expedited review program and to determine which permit programs, or subcomponents of a program, to include in the pilot program and also was authorized to establish pilot program expedited process application fees.

The department may include increments of progress applicable in each year of the schedule established under this subsection, and may shorten the period of compliance as necessary to prevent an imminent threat to the public health and environment. The department may extend a permittee's compliance schedule under this section beyond five years upon written application by the permittee only if the department determines that circumstances reasonably require such an extension, and the extension of time would pose no threat to public health or the environment.

Department of Environmental Services. Emergency actions taken by the Department of Environmental Services pursuant to an applicable statute or regulation are not subject to the provisions of this subsection.

~~(2)(a) A request for a contested case hearing for an agency order stays the order. A request for a contested case hearing for an order to revoke or suspend a license stays the revocation or suspension. A request for a contested case hearing for a decision to renew a license for an ongoing activity stays the renewed license, the previous license remaining in effect pending completion of administrative review. A request for a contested case hearing for a decision to issue a new license stays all actions for which the license is a prerequisite; however, matters not affected by the request may not be stayed by the filing of the request. A party seeking to stay a decision of the Department of Environmental Services during the pendency of contested case proceedings must request a stay with the request for a contested case hearing. The request shall automatically stay the decision until a hearing on the stay is heard and ruled upon by the Administrative Law Court. If the request is filed for a decision is concerning a subsequent license related to issues substantially similar to those considered in a previously licensed matter, then the license may is not be automatically stayed by the filing of the request. If the requesting party asserts in the request that the issues are not substantially similar to those considered in a previously licensed matter, then the license must be stayed until further order of the Administrative Law Court. Requests for contested case hearings challenging only the amount of fines or penalties must be considered not to affect those portions of such orders imposing substantive requirements.~~

(b) Notwithstanding subitem (a), a request for a contested case hearing to challenge a non-emergency enforcement action or a new license or permit concerning hazardous waste automatically stay those decisions, regardless of whether a request for a stay is filed with the request for a contested case hearing. The automatic stay for those decisions must not be lifted until all judicial review is concluded and a final judicial decision is issued on the matter.

~~— (3) The general rule of item (2) does not stay emergency actions taken by an agency pursuant to an applicable statute or regulation.~~ hearing, then a hearing on the request for an automatic stay must be held within thirty-sixty days after any party files a motion with the court and serves the motion upon the parties the request for a contested case hearing is filed. The automatic stay shall remain in effect until the Administrative Law Court makes a determination about whether to continue the automatic stay. The court shall lift-continue the automatic stay unless-if the moving party shows that requested a contested case hearing proves: (i) the likelihood of irreparable harm if the automatic stay is lifted, (ii) the substantial likelihood that the moving party requesting the contested case and stay will succeed on the merits of the case, (iii) the balance of equities weigh in favor of continuing the automatic stay, and (iv) continuing the automatic stay serves the public interest. The judge must issue an order no later than ~~fifteen-thirty~~ business days after the hearing is concluded. If the automatic stay is lifted, action undertaken by the permittee or licensee does not moot and is not otherwise considered an adjudication of the issues raised by the request for a contested case hearing. Notwithstanding the provisions of this item, the process to lift a stay as provided in this item does not apply to a contested case concerning a new permit or license involving hazardous waste as defined in Section 44-56-20(6),), and a stay in such a contested case must not be lifted until the contested case is concluded and the Administrative Law Court has filed its final order in the matter.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in a contested case arising under this subsection, the Administrative Law Court shall file a final decision on the merits of the case no later than twelve months after the contested case is filed with the Clerk of the Administrative Law Court, unless all parties to the contested case consent to an extension or the court finds substantial cause otherwise.

~~(5)(4)~~ A final decision issued by the Administrative Law Court in a contested case may not be stayed except by order of the Administrative Law Court or the Court of Appeals or the Supreme Court.

~~(6)(5)~~ Nothing contained in this subsection constitutes a limitation on the authority of the Administrative Law Court to impose a stay as otherwise provided by statute or by rule of court.

The amendment was laid on the table.

Remarks by Senator KIMPSON

I want to go to amendment number four, sometimes the Spirit moves you. I was moved by the Spirit. And the spirit moves in mysterious ways. Something told me about amendment number four. I just said I have to go to amendment four. I'm not going to be long; I know there is angst. We have a lot of Bills to talk about tonight. I have passed out a graphic, and seriously, I want everybody to take a moment to review the graphic. I quoted a local principal earlier, and I think it was as I was bantering with Senator FANNING, and he was asking me questions about local power. What happened in this area -- and I don't want to single out the area -- because then we're going to have Legislation to target that local representative. They noticed that kids were bringing all kind of vape machines to class. And that's what is going on. You all walk outside, you see people smoking these machines. They are part of this nicotine delivery system. We talked about that earlier. We got a nicotine delivery system that's killing -- killing our children. Why we are talking about rolling over for big tobacco escapes me. I read the data and I'm not going to belabor the point, but I based my decisions on the data. But these are packages, and my understanding, Senator MARTIN, is that in three days the local government official collected all of these nicotine delivery systems. Now, I don't know what you call them -- but we read out many of the flavors, and that's what this amendment does. If we, Senator VERDIN, want to do something big to protect children -- this amendment is something big. It bans flavored products in the State of South Carolina. We say we want state regulation. If we're going to protect children, let's ban these flavors. This is how the nicotine delivery system hooks kids.

We talked about the National Master Settlement Agreement of 1998. That was why the tobacco case was fought. Because we saw an escalating level of addiction, starting with adults, but what all the tobacco companies did is shift their focus to children. I read some of the quotes. I just want to quickly read another one. "Evidence is now available to indicate that the fourteen to eighteen year old group is an increasing segment of the smoking population." Think about that for a minute. Now, this is a RJ Reynolds executive. "We must soon establish a successful brand in this market if our position in the industry is to be maintained in the long term." That is big tobacco saying, look, we have to target the children. How do we target the children? We design a product to entice the children. This amendment gets to how they plan to target the children. With all due respect to Senator HUTTO, they are not going to be deterred by that weak amendment. I'm just saying, that's a fact. I read out the market capitalization, if big tobacco can pay, they are rejoicing in the halls of D.C. That's going to be Exhibit A. This amendment, sponsored by the Minority Leader, Senator HUTTO, is going to be Exhibit A in legislatures all across the country to get this Legislation passed in other states. I take my colleague at his good word. This is a bad Bill that he is trying to make better. But, you can't put lipstick on a pig. It is still a pig. You can put it on there, but it is still a pig. Even the milk man knows that it is still a pig. If you all want to really do something to protect our children, my amendment is bold stuff. I've studied the issue, and I've heard the debate. By the way, we only started debating this Bill today. This is a major sweeping piece of Legislation. We are doing major heavy lifting in one night. You all have been talking about it in caucus. But we haven't had robust debate. We are fooling ourselves. I know some of you are saying, Senator KIMPSON, we got to go home. We can't tie up the Senate's time with hearing substantive amendments on the Bill. We got our marching orders. We got to get this done. Why do you have to get it done? We are talking about a nicotine delivery system that's killing our children. I don't know what a cigarillo is, but I've read a lot of the products, and what I'm saying is the tobacco companies claim that they have stopped intentionally marketing to kids and targeting youth, but their actions speak louder than their words. And all you got to do is look at the data. This is what was collected. I don't want little Marleigh and, I don't want little Marlon trying to be cool by smoking these nicotine devices. I've brought with me today, ads, and I brought plenty of them. Hey, kids, Elmo says to be cool, you got to hit the Juul. (Shows graphic) -- look, nicotine delivery system. What are we doing? This is how sophomores look at their Juul when it is almost out of juice. (Shows graphic) We just put $11 million in our coffers from suing big tobacco. This year, we took in $80 billion. We still have $2 billion coming in 2025 from suing big tobacco. Why did we sue them? To prevent them from addicting not only our children but our adults. You all on Senate Finance, you all get the financials. Why we going to kowtow? That's what we are doing. We are kowtowing? I mean, you all laugh. But, you know, I'm not going to be here much longer. And I don't know what is going to happen next year. Senator McELVEEN, will be here, and I'm going to tell you, I'm going to send all of you an email when big tobacco starts to rollback the weak Legislation that Senator HUTTO proposed. Because they are coming back for weaker Legislation -- Senator HUTTO did his best to tighten the Legislation and send a message. The State will now regulate, without local ordinances, nicotine delivery. Next they will come back to repeal smoking bans. Those were locally passed ordinances, and I don't know about you but I don't enjoy going into a restaurant or going into an establishment and coming out smelling like a nicotine stack. I went to Las Vegas, two weeks ago, and in Las Vegas, you can smoke inside. I had not been to Las Vegas since the COVID pandemic. I had forgotten that you can smoke inside. My whole suitcase smelled like nicotine. All we're doing, by passing this Legislation, it is called preemption -- you can say the municipalities can preserve their power. The nature of the Bill is to take -- we're taking their tools. You've said that the municipalities aren't doing anything. If the Legislation isn't doing anything, why does big tobacco want it? We have to use our collective minds to deduce the fact that this is favorable to the industry. As I said, at the outset, this is one of the most lethal, most potent, deadly drugs in a delivery system and it is a gateway system to using more dangerous drugs -- just like opioids, just like many other drugs. I won't say marijuana, because I'm a supporter of medical marijuana for its stated purposes, and I think the record bears that out, but what I am saying is most of these people started with nicotine. That's just a fact. I haven't researched it, but I believe that to be true. Here is another ad, you got the teacher, and you got the students all together smoking that nicotine. (Shows graphic) -- smoking that nicotine. I don't smoke, and I don't want to smell like smoke, and I don't want my children subjected to the smoke. So, Mr. PRESIDENT, I move that we adopt after questions.

On motion of Senator SABB, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator KIMPSON were ordered printed in the Journal.

Motion Adopted

On motion of Senator MASSEY, the Senate agreed to stand adjourned.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 3, 2023

MOTION ADOPTED

On motion of Senator CLIMER, with unanimous consent, the Senate stood adjourned out of respect to the memory of Mr. James Phillip Land of Rock Hill, S.C. Phil was a beloved former Senate staff Research Director for the Ethics Committee. Phil was a marine who served his country in Vietnam. He worked for Rock Hill National Bank and as the state Director of Victim's Assistance before retirement. He was an active member of Oakland Baptist Church and enjoyed community service in the Kiwanis Club, Salvation Army and the American Cancer Society to mention a few. Phil was a loving husband, devoted father and doting grandfather who will be dearly missed.

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The Senate assembled at 11:00 A.M., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

II Samuel 6:14a

We read in II Samuel that David, officiating as a priest, “. . . danced before the Lord with all his might. . . ”

Once again, bow with me as we pray: Most holy and blessed Lord, today this Senate will conclude its work with only one additional week left in this 1st Regular Session of the 125th South Carolina General Assembly. And there certainly is thought given to following David’s lead and to break into wild, celebrative dancing when that last official week has concluded. Indeed, for these Senators and their aides to dance a bit would be an appropriate reward at the conclusion of a tough, challenging year laboring on behalf of the good people of our State. But no one should put on his or her dancing shoes yet; there is still a great deal that needs to be done, work that cries out for completion. So strengthen these servants, dear Lord, that for a bit longer they might continue doing all they can and must. In Your loving name we pray, Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

Remarks by Senator SCOTT

Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT and members of the Senate. I guess I would sum it up, since the last two weeks have been two weeks of reflection -- two weeks of concern and two weeks of deciding on new directions -- I want to go back and review a situation that happened in Senate District 19 during a two-week period of time. I have a lot of different questions that are still unanswered as I watched the public safety community point fingers at each other. And even to the point where some have not said anything at all. I want to first isolate the situation before going directly to the point that I want to make as it relates to a situation.

This past Saturday morning, early, early Saturday morning somewhere between 12:30 and 1:30 on Beckman Road in Meadowlake Park, some I'm told, one hundred to two hundred young people gathered. Eleven individuals, young people of various ages were injured. I asked a couple of questions, and I didn't say any particular public safety agency because the mental health part belonged to several agencies. With the parking, the only portion of county property that's in that park. I remember a conversation with Governor Sanford, when there was a request to extend the City of Columbia into that park for the purpose of saving on water and sewer in the park. That extension means that when you expand the water and sewer, that portion of the park is then annexed into the City of Columbia. I asked myself the question, as I reviewed that time frame, where was that group -- also looked at the Department of Mental Health who controls that park, because it is a state agency, both the major roads that run through that park. And they have a separate security portion of that agency that is responsible for that park. And I ask the question again, "Where were these security people between the hours of 12:30 and 1:30, shall I say 1:00 and 2:00." Two blocks away from that park is Manning Correction Institute, who also has security. That security is responsible for everything on that property, and anything that could create crime adjacent to that property. And I ask the question again, "Where was the security then?" Then it's SLED who is both by Broad River State Law Enforcement Division -- who is responsible for dealing with suspect criminal matters only for law enforcement agencies, and I tell you three or four different sets of law enforcement agencies. We have made some adjustments in District 19. And an adjustment is not to injure someone or to create an embarrassment but to bring more awareness to what's going on around us. All these agencies I'm told are involved in the social media of what's going on with young people in South Carolina. Traditionally, we don't have that kind of activity. We have a number of high schools in that area. And so, these young people are going to have activity outside of the control of a school district.

It is important for these public safety communities to know exactly what the early intent is with young people. Young people are making contact through the social media part. There is no excuse for the social media part to have not picked up, monitored or reviewed where these folks told these young people to come out and to meet. I know there's another agenda in terms of the court system. But when you design that system, it is a system for the peer group and not a system to load again the court system where a number of small law firms earned their income and families are damaged.

Also, I stood at this podium some ten years ago or more -- thank you, I'm not going to prolong it. But I would say to you, "Wake up." There's not that many guns taken from cars that our high school and young people have the opportunity to have that many weapons available. We have a black market, and folks, when I stood here some ten years ago and warned you that we would be facing guns and violence with our young people, we ignored it. I can't relive that. I can only say to you, let's get serious about how we save our young people going forward. The system is so designed that that weight is not just on one part of the system -- that weight is a preventive, and once you do as much as you can to prevent it, then you prosecute it. I think for too long -- for too long we have ignored it and I'm not against anybody's second amendment. I'm just saying we have put those guns in hands of young people. Let's try to figure out how we make our schools safe. Just yesterday, in London, some little kid went to school, a thirteen-year old, and killed eight of his classmates. We've not had to face that yet in our schools. Let's become proactive and try to figure out how we get these guns out of the hands of young people. Let's not back ourselves into a corner that no one wants to serve, and everyone is looking for a scapegoat on a situation such as when this happens. Thank you very much.

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The Senate assembled at 3:00 P.M., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Isaiah 52:7

The prophet Isaiah writes: “How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of the messenger who announces peace, who brings good news.”

Friends, join me as we bow in prayer: Glorious Lord God, the image Isaiah presents is one we can clearly envision: that of a runner, a messenger, who arrives bringing good news to the people. And that image leads us right away to wonder about the “news” this Senate might bring to the people of South Carolina today, or even at the close of this week? How will this Body’s actions and decisions affect the lives of the women and men and children these Senators have been called to serve? We do, of course, ask that You, dear Lord, guide each of these servants and their aides to do finally whatever is the very best for all of our citizens, and not simply for a few. And may the resulting blessings bring You ever greater praise, dear God. In Your loving name we pray. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

Remarks by Senator JACKSON

Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT and members of the Senate. I passed out an article about Matthew Shepard. For the next two days I'm going to take my five minutes to give a Point of Personal Interest as it relates to hate crimes. I want to say it is not my intent to be hostile, not my intent to be confrontational -- I just want to share information concerning why it is so important. I have also resisted any calls I have received from the national press to actually talk about South Carolina and why we do not have a Hate Crimes Bill. However, I think over the next several months there will be lots of opportunities to really talk about it. Again, I am not here to make it personal -- not here to be hostile about it -- just to share because I think it is so important.

Matthew Shepherd is where many say this really began. In order for you to understand perhaps why hate crimes are so important -- and I will tell you particularly to this Senator it is because of this case, Matthew Shepherd's case. I was in the State Senate at the time as a young minister, so it wasn't something that was on my radar. I had a lot of conversations with a lot of ministers as they had their doubts about it but when I shared the Shepherd story it changed the minds, a lot of minds, of my colleagues. I want to briefly share it and I will take my seat. Matthew Shepherd was twenty-one years old when he was brutally murdered. He was born December 31, 1976, and grew up in Casper, Wyoming. How ironic, one of only two states that does not have a Hate Crimes Bill.

TUESDAY, MAY 9, 2023

Matthew Shepherd then moved with his family to Saudi Arabia and went to school there. In both high schools in Wyoming and Saudi Arabia he was a leader that was elected as a peer leader, counselor, was voted on - - nominated as one of the most friendly people in his class. After college, his career took him back to Wyoming where he studied political science and foreign relations; but on October 7, 1998, at twenty-one years old, Matthew Shepherd was brutally abducted, beaten and murdered. He was left on a fence post stripped naked -- pistol whipped to death so much so that when those who found him saw him. They thought he was a scarecrow. Perhaps his only thought was he had come out and said he was gay and because he did there was some who could not take that. This is where there was a paradigm shift to some of my colleagues in the ministerial field. I think they began to see people for who they are -- not what labels that were cast on him. Matthew Shepherd was found eighteen hours later by a bicyclist who I said earlier thought he was a scarecrow.

Here is how it impacted my life. Because at that time I had two young sons. I thought how I would feel if this had been one of my sons for whatever choices they made in their life. So, we introduced a Hate Crimes Bill in the South Carolina Senate. To the credit of this Senate that Bill passed on March 18, 1999. There were other ministers that were in here. There were other people that were in here. I had friends of mine from across the country who called. They said we have changed our position. I'm a graduate of CIU University, one of the most conservative theological schools in the country. Some of my dear friends are missionaries all across the country. I'll never forget I had one call me. He had tears in his eyes and he said, "I have never seen anything more brutal than this." This young man at twenty-one years, if he had lived -- he would be forty-six today. Matthew Shepherd's case is the case that initiated Federal Hate Crime Laws all across the State. The South Carolina Senate was commended and it was said that we had the courage to do what others had not done. No other state in the southeast had a Hate Crimes Bill. Now listen to this. Every state in the southeast with exception of South Carolina -- Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi, Alabama, Mississippi. Alabama, Mississippi both have Hate Crimes laws but not South Carolina.

It would be my intent, Mr. PRESIDENT and members of the Senate, for the next two days and perhaps every day in next year's session to take my five minutes and share with you why I think it is so important that we not be one of two states joining Wyoming, where Matthew Shepherd lived and where he died not to have a hate crimes law. Thank you for your time. I look forward to talking with you more tomorrow. Thank you.

On motion of Senator FANNING, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator JACKSON were ordered printed in the Journal.

Expression of Personal Interest

Senator K. JOHNSON rose for an Expression of Personal Interest.

(a) comply with applicable provisions of the federal Electronic Fund Transfer Act and its implementing regulations;

(b) reimburse the consumer for the full amount of any overdraft or non-sufficient funds fees imposed on a consumer by the consumer's depository institution that were caused by the provider attempting to seek payment of any outstanding proceeds, fees, or other payments, in connection with the activities covered by this article, including voluntary tips, gratuities, or other donations, on a date before, or in an incorrect amount from, the date or amount disclosed to the consumer; and

(6) report a consumer's payment or failed repayment of outstanding proceeds to a consumer credit reporting agency or a debt collector;

(7) require a credit score to determine a consumer's eligibility for earned wage access services;

(8) advertise, display, distribute, broadcast, televise, or cause or permit to be advertised, displayed, distributed, broadcasted, or televised in any manner whatsoever any false, misleading or deceptive statement or representation regarding the conditions of the earned wage access services offered and provided by the provider;

(9) compel or attempt to compel payment by a consumer of outstanding proceeds, fees, voluntary tips, gratuities, or other donations to the provider through any of the following means:

(a) a suit against the consumer in a court of competent jurisdiction;

(b) use of a third party to pursue collection from the consumer on the provider's behalf; or

(c) sale of outstanding amounts to a third-party collector or debt buyer for collection from the consumer.

However, the limitations in this item shall not preclude the use by a provider of any of these methods to compel payment of outstanding amounts or fees incurred by a consumer through fraudulent or other unlawful means, nor shall they preclude a provider from pursuing an employer for breach of its contractual obligations to the provider.

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The Senate assembled at 10:00 A.M., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

I Kings 9:4a, 5a

The Lord God made clear to Solomon what he expected of him, saying: “ ‘As for you, if you walk before me in integrity of heart and uprightness, as David your Father did... I will establish your royal throne...’ ”

Let us pray: We are reminded, O God, how Solomon -- early on filled with hopefulness and talent -- was sadly not able to become the leader he was expected to be. Yet Solomon’s story is not really such a unique one. For surely, Lord, complex and difficult issues confront each person in this Senate, too. Plus, no one can say that the challenges before this Body are any less formidable than those were in the past. Therefore, O God, we pray that, here near the end of this regular Legislative Session, You will grant to each Senator and every aide all of the loving wisdom and thoughtful determination they need to bring about great good for all of the people of South Carolina. In Your loving name we humbly pray, dear Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 10, 2023

(7) require a credit score to determine a consumer's eligibility for earned wage access services;

(8) advertise, display, distribute, broadcast, televise, or cause or permit to be advertised, displayed, distributed, broadcasted, or televised in any manner whatsoever any false, misleading, or deceptive statement or representation regarding the conditions of the earned wage access services offered and provided by the provider;

WEDNESDAY, MAY 10, 2023

- (b) use of a third party to pursue collection from the consumer on the provider's behalf; or

SECTION 1. Section 56-1-286 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 56-1-286. (A) The Department of Motor Vehicles shall suspend the driver's license, permit, or nonresident operating privilege of, or deny the issuance of a license or permit to a person under the age of twenty-one who drives a motor vehicle and has an alcohol concentration of two one-hundredths of one percent or more. In cases in which a law enforcement officer initiates suspension proceedings for a violation of this section, the officer has elected to pursue a violation of this section and is subsequently prohibited from prosecuting the person for a violation of Section 63-19-2440, 63-19-2450, 56-5-2930, or 56-5-2933, arising from the same incident.

(B) A person under the age of twenty-one who drives a motor vehicle in this State is considered to have given consent to chemical tests of the person's breath or blood for the purpose of determining the presence of alcohol.

(C)(1) A law enforcement officer who has arrested a person under the age of twenty-one for a violation of Chapter 5 of this title (Uniform Act Regulating Traffic on Highways), or any other traffic offense established by a political subdivision of this State, and has reasonable suspicion that the person under the age of twenty-one has consumed alcoholic beverages and driven a motor vehicle may order the testing of the person arrested to determine the person's alcohol concentration.

(2) A law enforcement officer may detain and order the testing of a person to determine the person's alcohol concentration if the officer has reasonable suspicion that a motor vehicle is being driven by a person under the age of twenty-one who has consumed alcoholic beverages.

(D)(1) A test must be administered at the direction of the primary investigating law enforcement officer. At the officer's direction, the person first must be offered a breath test to determine the person's alcohol concentration. If the person physically is unable to provide an acceptable breath sample because the person has an injured mouth or is unconscious or dead, or for any other reason considered acceptable by licensed medical personnel, a blood sample may be taken. The breath test must be administered by a person trained and certified by the South Carolina Criminal Justice Academy, pursuant to the State Law Enforcement Division's policies. The primary investigating officer may administer the test. Blood samples must be obtained by physicians licensed by the State Board of Medical Examiners, registered nurses licensed by the State Board of Nursing, or other medical personnel trained to obtain these samples in a licensed medical facility. Blood samples must be obtained and handled in accordance with procedures approved by the division. The division shall administer the provisions of this subsection and shall promulgate regulations necessary to carry out the subsection's provisions. The costs of the tests administered at the officer's direction must be paid from the state's general fund. However, if the person is subsequently convicted of violating Section 56-5-2930, 56-5-2933, or 56-5-2945, then, upon conviction, the person shall pay twenty-five dollars for the costs of the tests. The twenty-five dollars must be placed by the Comptroller General into a special restricted account to be used by the State Law Enforcement Division to offset the costs of administration of the breath testing devices, breath testing site video program, and toxicology laboratory.

(2) The person tested or giving samples for testing may have a qualified person of the person's choice conduct additional tests at the person's expense and must be notified in writing of that right. A person's request or failure to request additional blood tests is not admissible against the person in any proceeding. The person's failure or inability to obtain additional tests does not preclude the admission of evidence relating to the tests or samples taken at the officer's direction. The officer shall provide affirmative assistance to the person to contact a qualified person to conduct and obtain additional tests. Affirmative assistance shall, at a minimum, include providing transportation for the person to the nearest medical facility which provides blood tests to determine a person's alcohol concentration. If the medical facility obtains the blood sample but refuses or fails to test the blood to determine the person's alcohol concentration, the State Law Enforcement Division shall test the blood and provide the result to the person and to the officer. Failure to provide affirmative assistance upon request to obtain additional tests bars the admissibility of the breath test result in a judicial or administrative proceeding.

(E) A qualified person and the person's employer who obtain samples or administer the tests or assist in obtaining samples or administering of tests at the primary investigating officer's direction are immune from civil and criminal liability unless the obtaining of samples or the administering of tests is performed in a negligent, reckless, or fraudulent manner. A person may not be required by the officer ordering the tests to obtain or take any sample of blood or urine.

(F) If a person refuses upon the primary investigating officer's request to submit to chemical tests as provided in subsection (C), the department shall suspend the person's license, permit, or nonresident operating privilege, or deny the issuance of a license or permit to the person for:

(1) six months; or

WEDNESDAY, MAY 10, 2023

(2) one year, if the person, within the three years preceding the violation of this section, has been previously convicted of violating Section 56-5-2930, 56-5-2933, 56-5-2945, or a law of another state that prohibits a person from driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or other drugs, or the person has had a previous suspension imposed pursuant to Section 56-1-286, 56-5-2951, or 56-5-2990.

(G) If a person submits to a chemical test and the test result indicates an alcohol concentration of two one-hundredths of one percent or more, the department shall suspend the person's license, permit, or nonresident operating privilege, or deny the issuance of a license or permit to the person for:

(1) three months; or

(2) six months, if the person, within the three years preceding the violation of this section, has been previously convicted of violating Section 56-5-2930, 56-5-2933, 56-5-2945, or a law of another state that prohibits a person from driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or other drugs, or the person has had a previous suspension imposed pursuant to Section 56-1-286, 56-5-2951, or 56-5-2990.

(H)(1) In lieu of serving the remainder of a suspension or denial of the issuance of a license or permit, a person may enroll in the Ignition Interlock Device Program pursuant to Section 56-5-2941, end the suspension or denial of the issuance of a license or permit, and obtain an ignition interlock restricted license pursuant to Section 56-1-400. The ignition interlock device is required to be affixed to the motor vehicle equal to the length of time remaining on the person's suspension or denial of the issuance of a license or permit. If the length of time remaining is less than three months, the ignition interlock device is required to be affixed to the motor vehicle for three months.

(2) The person must receive credit for the number of days the person maintained an ignition interlock restriction on the temporary alcohol license.

(3) Once a person has enrolled in the Ignition Interlock Device Program and obtained an ignition interlock restricted license, the person is subject to Section 56-5-2941 and cannot subsequently choose to serve the suspension.

(I) A person's driver's license, permit, or nonresident operating privilege must be restored when the person's period of suspension or ignition interlock restricted license requirement pursuant to subsection (F) or (G) has concluded, even if the person has not yet completed the Alcohol and Drug Safety Action Program in which the person is enrolled. After the person's driving privilege is restored, the person shall continue ~~to participate in the services of~~ the Alcohol and Drug Safety Action Program ~~in which the person is enrolled~~. If the person withdraws from or in any way stops making satisfactory progress toward the completion of the Alcohol and Drug Safety Action Program, the person's license must be suspended until ~~the person completes~~ completion of the Alcohol and Drug Safety Action Program. A person shall be attending or have completed an Alcohol and Drug Safety Action Program pursuant to Section 56-5-2990 before the person's driving privilege ~~may~~ can be restored at the conclusion of the suspension period or ignition interlock restricted license requirement.

~~(4)(J)~~(1) A test may not be administered or samples taken unless, upon activation of the video recording equipment and prior to the commencement of the testing procedure, the person has been given a written copy of and verbally informed that:

~~(1)~~(a) the person does not have to take the test or give the samples but that the person's privilege to drive must be suspended or denied for at least six months if the person refuses to submit to the tests, and that the person's refusal may be used against the person in court;

~~(2)~~(b) the person's privilege to drive must be suspended for at least three months if the person takes the test or gives the samples and has an alcohol concentration of two one-hundredths of one percent or more;

~~(3)~~(c) the person has the right to have a qualified person of the person's own choosing conduct additional independent tests at the person's expense;

~~(4)~~(d) the person has the right to request a contested case hearing within thirty days of the issuance of the notice of suspension; and

~~(5)~~(e) the person shall enroll in an Alcohol and Drug Safety Action Program within thirty days of the issuance of the notice of suspension if the person does not request a contested case hearing or within thirty days of the issuance of notice that the suspension has been upheld at the contested case hearing.

(2) The primary investigating officer promptly shall notify the department of a person's refusal to submit to a test requested pursuant to this section as well as the test result of a person who submits to a test pursuant to this section and registers an alcohol concentration of two one-hundredths of one percent or more. The notification must be in a manner prescribed by the department.

~~(4)~~(K) If the test registers an alcohol concentration of two one-hundredths of one percent or more or if the person refuses to be tested, the primary investigating officer shall issue a notice of suspension, and the suspension is effective beginning on the date of the alleged violation of this section. The person, within thirty days of the issuance of the notice of suspension, shall enroll in an Alcohol and Drug Safety Action Program pursuant to Section 56-5-2990 if the person does not request an administrative hearing. If the person does not request an administrative hearing and does not enroll in an Alcohol and Drug Safety Action Program within thirty days, the suspension remains in effect, and a temporary alcohol license must not be issued. If the person drives a motor vehicle during the period of suspension without a temporary alcohol license, the person must be penalized for driving while the person's license is suspended pursuant to Section 56-1-460.

~~(K)(L)~~(1) Within thirty days of the issuance of the notice of suspension the person may:

~~(c) obtain a temporary alcohol license by filing with an ignition interlock restriction pursuant to Section 56-1-400 from the Department of Motor Vehicles a form for this purpose. A one hundred dollar fee must be assessed for obtaining a temporary alcohol license. Twenty-five dollars of the fee collected by the Department of Motor Vehicles must be distributed to the Department of Public Safety for supplying and maintaining all necessary vehicle videotaping equipment. The remaining seventy-five dollars must be placed by the Comptroller General into the State Highway Fund as established by Section 57-11-20, to be distributed as provided in Section 11-43-167. The temporary alcohol license allows the person to drive a motor vehicle without any restrictive conditions pending the outcome of the contested case hearing provided for in this section or the final decision or disposition of the matter; and.~~

~~(2) request a contested case hearing before the Office of Motor Vehicle Hearings pursuant to its rules of procedure. The ignition interlock restriction must be maintained on the temporary alcohol license for three months. If the contested case hearing has not reached a final disposition by the time the ignition interlock restriction has been removed, then the person can obtain a temporary alcohol license without an ignition interlock restriction.~~

~~(3) At the contested case hearing if:~~

~~(a) the suspension is upheld, the person shall enroll in an Alcohol and Drug Safety Action Program and the person's driver's license, permit, or nonresident operating privilege must be suspended or the~~ ~~(N)~~(O) The notice of suspension must advise the person of the requirement to enroll in an Alcohol and Drug Safety Action Program and of the person's right to obtain a temporary alcohol license and to request a contested case hearing. The notice of suspension also must advise the person that, if the person does not request a contested case hearing within thirty days of the issuance of the notice of suspension, the person shall enroll in an Alcohol and Drug Safety Action Program, and the person waives the person's right to the contested case hearing, and the suspension continues for the periods provided for in subsections (F) and (G).

~~(O)~~(P) A contested case hearing must be held after the request for the hearing is received by the Office of Motor Vehicle Hearings.

~~(d)~~(iv) the machine was operating properly.

(2) Nothing in this section prohibits the introduction of evidence at the contested case hearing on the issue of the accuracy of the breath test result.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 10, 2023

(3) The Department of Motor Vehicles and the arresting officer shall have the burden of proof in contested case hearings conducted pursuant to this section. If neither the Department of Motor Vehicles nor the arresting officer appears at the contested case hearing, the hearing officer shall rescind the suspension of the person's license, permit, or nonresident's operating privilege regardless of whether the person requesting the contested case hearing or the person's attorney appears at the contested case hearing.

(4) A written order must be issued to all parties either reversing or upholding the suspension of the person's license, permit, or nonresident's operating privilege, or denying the issuance of a license or permit. If the suspension is upheld, the person must receive credit for the number of days the person's license was suspended before the person received a temporary alcohol license and requested the contested case hearing and must receive credit for the number of days the person maintained an ignition interlock restriction on the temporary alcohol license.

~~(P)~~(Q) A contested case hearing is a contested proceeding under the Administrative Procedures Act, and a person has a right to appeal the decision of the hearing officer pursuant to that act to the Administrative Law Court in accordance with its appellate rules. The filing of an appeal shall stay the suspension until a final decision is issued.

~~(Q)~~(R) A person who is unconscious or otherwise in a condition rendering him incapable of refusal is considered to be informed and not to have withdrawn the consent provided for in subsection (B) of this section.

~~(U)~~(V) The department shall administer the provisions of this section, not including subsection (D), and shall promulgate regulations necessary to carry out its provisions.

~~(V)~~(W) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no suspension imposed pursuant to this section is counted as a demerit or result in any insurance penalty for automobile insurance purposes if at the time the person was stopped, the person whose license is suspended had an alcohol concentration that was less than eight one-hundredths of one percent.

SECTION 2. Section 56-1-385(A) of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

(A) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a person whose driver's license or privilege to operate a motor vehicle has been revoked permanently pursuant to Section 56-5-2990 for an offense that occurred prior to October 1, 2014, excluding persons convicted of felony driving under the influence of alcohol or another controlled substance under Section 56-5-2945, may petition the circuit court in the county of his residence for reinstatement of his driver's license and shall serve a copy of the petition upon the solicitor of the circuit. The solicitor or his designee within thirty days may respond to the petition and demand a hearing on the merits of the petition. If the solicitor or his designee does not demand a hearing, the circuit court shall consider any affidavit submitted by the petitioner and the solicitor or his designee when determining whether the conditions required for driving privilege reinstatement have been met by the petitioner. The court may order the reinstatement of the person's driver's license upon the following conditions:

(1) the person must not have been convicted in this State or any other state of an alcohol or drug violation during the previous seven-year period;

(2) the person must not have been convicted of or have charges pending in this State or another state for a violation of driving while his license is canceled, suspended, or revoked during the previous seven-year period;

(3) the person must have completed successfully an alcohol or drug assessment and treatment program provided by the South Carolina Department of Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse Services or an equivalent program designated by that agency; and

(4) the person's overall driving record, attitude, habits, character, and driving ability would make it safe to grant him the privilege to operate a motor vehicle.

SECTION 3. Section 56-1-400 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

WEDNESDAY, MAY 10, 2023

Section 56-1-400. (A)(1) The Department of Motor Vehicles, upon suspending or revoking a license, shall require that the license be surrendered to the department. At the end of the suspension period, other than a suspension for reckless driving, driving under the influence of intoxicants, driving with an unlawful alcohol concentration, felony driving under the influence of intoxicants, or pursuant to the point system, the department shall issue a new license to the person.

(2) If the person has not held a license within the previous nine months, the department shall not issue or restore a license which has been suspended for reckless driving, driving under the influence of intoxicants, driving with an unlawful alcohol concentration, felony driving under the influence of intoxicants, or for violations under the point system, until the person has filed an application for a new license, submitted to an examination as upon an original application, and satisfied the department, after an investigation of the person's driving ability, that it would be safe to grant the person the privilege of driving a motor vehicle on the public highways. The department, in the department's discretion, where the suspension is for a violation under the point system, may waive the examination, application, and investigation. A record of the suspension must be endorsed on the license issued to the person, showing the grounds of the suspension.

(B) If a person is permitted to operate a motor vehicle only with an ignition interlock device installed pursuant to Section 56-5-2941, the restriction on the license issued to the person must conspicuously identify the person as a person who only may drive a motor vehicle with an ignition interlock device installed, and the restriction must be maintained on the license for the duration of the period for which the ignition interlock device must be maintained pursuant to ~~Sections~~ Section 56-1-286; 56-1-1090; 56-5-2945; and 56-5-2947 except if the conviction was for Section 56-5-750, 56-5-2951; or 56-5-2990; or 56-5-2947, except if the conviction was for Section 56-5-750.

(C) For purposes of Title 56, the license must be referred to as an ignition interlock restricted license. The fee for an ignition interlock restricted license is one hundred dollars, which shall be placed by the Comptroller General into the State Highway Fund as established by Section 57-11-20, to be distributed as provided in Section 11-43-167.

(D) Unless the person establishes that the person is entitled to the exemption set forth in subsection ~~(B)~~(G), no ignition interlock restricted license may be issued by the department without written notification from the authorized ignition interlock service provider that the ignition interlock device has been installed and confirmed to be in working order.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 10, 2023

(E) If a person chooses to not have an ignition interlock device installed when required by law, the license will remain suspended indefinitely. If the person subsequently decides to have the ignition interlock device installed, the device must be installed for the length of time set forth in ~~Sections 56-1-286, 56-5-2945, and 56-5-2947~~ except if the conviction was for Section 56-5-750, 56-5-2951, or 56-5-2990 subsection (B).

(F) This provision does not affect nor bar the reckoning of prior offenses for reckless driving and driving under the influence of intoxicating liquor or narcotic drugs, as provided in Article 23, Chapter 5 of this title.

~~(B)~~(G)(1) A person who does not own a vehicle, as shown in the Department of Motor Vehicles' records, and who certifies that the person:

(a) cannot obtain a vehicle owner's permission to have an ignition interlock device installed on a vehicle;

(b) will not be driving a vehicle other than a vehicle owned by the person's employer; and

(c) will not own a vehicle during the ignition interlock period, may petition the department, on a form provided by the department, for issuance of an ignition interlock restricted license that permits the person to operate a vehicle specified by the employee according to the employer's needs as contained in the employer's statement during the days and hours specified in the employer's statement without having to show that an ignition interlock device has been installed.

(2) The form must contain:

(a) identifying information about the employer's noncommercial vehicles that the person will be operating;

(b) a statement that explains the circumstances in which the person will be operating the employer's vehicles; and

(c) the notarized signature of the person's employer.

(3) This subsection does not apply to:

(a) a person convicted of a second or subsequent violation of Section 56-5-2930, 56-5-2933, 56-5-2945, or a law of another state that prohibits a person from driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or other drugs, unless the person's driving privileges have been suspended for not less than one year or the person has had an ignition interlock device installed for not less than one year on each of the motor vehicles owned or operated, or both, by the person;

(b) a person who is self-employed or to a person who is employed by a business owned in whole or in part by the person or a member of the person's household or immediate family unless during the defense of a criminal charge, the court finds that the vehicle's ownership by the business serves a legitimate business purpose and that titling and registration of the vehicle by the business was not done to circumvent the intent of this section; or

WEDNESDAY, MAY 10, 2023

(c) a person participating in the Ignition Interlock Device Program as an habitual offender as provided for in Section 56-1-1090(A).

(4) Whenever the person operates the employer's vehicle pursuant to this subsection, the person shall have with the person a copy of the form specified by this subsection.

(5) The determination of eligibility for the waiver is subject to periodic review at the discretion of the department. The department shall revoke a waiver issued pursuant to this exemption if the department determines that the person has been driving a vehicle other than the vehicle owned by the person's employer or has been operating the person's employer's vehicle outside the locations, days, or hours specified by the employer in the department's records. The person may seek relief from the department's determination by filing a request for a contested case hearing with the Office of Motor Vehicle Hearings pursuant to the Administrative Procedures Act and the rules of procedure for the Office of Motor Vehicle Hearings.

~~(C) A person whose license has been suspended or revoked for an offense within the jurisdiction of the court of general sessions shall provide the department with proof that the fine owed by the person has been paid before the department may issue the person a license. Proof that the fine has been paid may be a receipt from the clerk of court of the county in which the conviction occurred stating that the fine has been paid in full.~~

SECTION 4. Section 56-1-1090(A) of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

(A) No license to operate motor vehicles in this State may be issued to an habitual offender nor shall a nonresident habitual offender operate a motor vehicle in this State for a period of five years from the date of a determination by the Department of Motor Vehicles that a person is an habitual offender unless the period is reduced to two years as permitted in item (1) or (2) or the person has enrolled in the Ignition Interlock Device Program pursuant to Section 56-5-2941 and has obtained a license with an ignition interlock restriction pursuant to Section 56-1-400. The ignition interlock device is required to be affixed to the motor vehicle equal to the length of time remaining on the person's suspension or denial of the issuance of a license or permit. If the length of time remaining is less than three months, the ignition interlock device is required to be affixed to the motor vehicle for three months. Once a person has enrolled in the Ignition Interlock Device Program and obtained an ignition interlock restricted license, the person is subject to Section 56-5-2941 and cannot subsequently choose to serve the suspension.

(1)(a) Upon request to the department on a form prescribed by it, the department may restore to the person the privilege to operate a motor vehicle in this State subject to other provisions of law relating to the issuance of drivers' licenses. The request permitted by this item may be filed after two years have expired from the beginning date of the habitual offender suspension and if the following conditions are met:

~~(a)~~(i) the person must not have had a previous habitual offender suspension in this or another state;

~~(b)~~(ii) the person must not have driven a motor vehicle during the habitual offender suspension period;

~~(c)~~(iii) the person must not have been convicted of or have charges pending for any alcohol or drug violations committed during the habitual offender suspension period;

~~(d)~~(iv) the person must not have been convicted of or have charges pending for any offense listed in Section 56-1-1020 committed during the habitual offender suspension period; and

~~(e)~~(v) the person must not have any other mandatory driver's license suspension that has not yet reached its end date.

(b) The department will issue its decision within thirty days after receipt of the request.

(2) If the department denies the request referenced in item (1), the person may seek relief from the department's determination by filing a request for a de novo contested case hearing with the Office of Motor Vehicle Hearings pursuant to the Administrative Procedures Act and the rules of procedure for the Office of Motor Vehicle Hearings. For good cause shown, the Office of Motor Vehicle Hearings may restore to the person the privilege to operate a motor vehicle in this State subject to other provisions of law relating to the issuance of driver's licenses. The provisions of item (1) shall not be construed to limit the discretion or authority of the Office of Motor Vehicle Hearings in considering the person's request for a reduction of the five-year suspension period; however, those provisions may be used as guidelines for determinations of good cause for relief from the normal five-year suspension period.

SECTION 5. Section 56-1-1320(A) of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

(A) A person with a South Carolina driver's license, a person who had a South Carolina driver's license at the time of the offense referenced below, or a person exempted from the licensing requirements by Section 56-1-30, who is or has been convicted of a first offense violation of a law of this State that prohibits a person from operating a vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, drugs, or narcotics, including Sections 56-5-2930 and 56-5-2933, ~~and~~ whose license is not presently suspended for any other reason, and whose offense date is prior to the effective date of this section, may apply to the Department of Motor Vehicles to obtain a provisional driver's license of a design to be determined by the department to operate a motor vehicle. The person shall enter an Alcohol and Drug Safety Action Program pursuant to Section 56-1-1330, and shall pay to the department a fee of one hundred dollars for the provisional driver's license. The provisional driver's license is not valid for more than six months from the date of issue shown on the license. The determination of whether or not a provisional driver's license may be issued pursuant to the provisions of this article as well as reviews of cancellations or suspensions under Sections 56-1-370 and 56-1-820 must be made by the director of the department or his designee.

SECTION 6. Section 56-1-1340 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 56-1-1340. The applicant shall have a provisional driver's license in his possession at all times while driving a motor vehicle, and the issuance of such license and the violation convictions shall be entered in the records of the Department of Motor Vehicles for a period of ten years as required by Sections ~~56-5-2940~~ 56-5-2930, 56-5-2933, and 56-5-2990 ~~of the 1976 Code~~.

SECTION 7. Section 56-5-2941 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 56-5-2941. (A)(1) The Department of Motor Vehicles shall require a person who ~~is a resident of this State and who~~ is convicted of violating the provisions of Sections 56-5-2930, 56-5-2933, 56-5-2945, 56-5-2947 except if the conviction was for Section 56-5-750, or a law of another state that prohibits a person from driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or other drugs, or who is issued a temporary alcohol license pursuant to Section 56-1-286 or 56-5-2951, to have installed on any motor vehicle the person drives, except a moped or motorcycle, an ignition interlock device designed to prevent driving of the motor vehicle if the person has consumed alcoholic beverages. ~~This section does not apply to a person convicted of a first offense violation of Section 56-5-2930 or 56-5-2933, unless the person~~

WEDNESDAY, MAY 10, 2023

~~submitted to a breath test pursuant to Section 56-5-2950 and had an alcohol concentration of fifteen one hundredths of one percent or more.~~

(2) The department may waive the requirements of this section if the department determines that the person has a medical condition that makes the person incapable of properly operating the installed device. If the department grants a medical waiver, the department shall suspend the person's driver's license for the length of time that the person would have been required to hold an ignition interlock restricted license. The department may withdraw the waiver at any time that the department becomes aware that the person's medical condition has improved to the extent that the person has become capable of properly operating an installed device.

(3) The department also shall require a person who has enrolled in the Ignition Interlock Device Program in lieu of the remainder of a driver's license suspension, denial of license to operate a vehicle as an habitual offender pursuant to Section 56-1-1090, or denial of the issuance of a driver's license or permit to have an ignition interlock device installed on any motor vehicle the person drives, except a moped or motorcycle.

(4) The length of time that a device is required to be affixed to a motor vehicle as is set forth in Sections Section 56-1-286; 56-1-1090; 56-5-2945; 56-5-2947 except if the conviction was for Sections 56-5-750, 56-5-2951, and 56-5-2990; or 56-5-2947, except if the conviction was for Section 56-5-750.

(B) Notwithstanding the pleadings, for purposes of a second or a subsequent offense, the specified length of time that a device is required to be affixed to a motor vehicle is based on the Department of Motor Vehicle's records for offenses pursuant to Section 56-1-286; 56-1-1090; 56-5-2930; 56-5-2933; 56-5-2945; 56-5-2947 except if the conviction was for Sections 56-5-750, 56-5-2950; or 56-5-2951; or 56-5-2947, except if the conviction was for Section 56-5-750.

(C) If a resident of this State is convicted of violating a law of another state that prohibits a person from driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or other drugs, and, as a result of the conviction, the person is subject to an ignition interlock device requirement in the other state, the person is subject to the requirements of this section for the length of time that would have been required for an offense committed in South Carolina, or for the length of time that is required by the other state, whichever is longer.

(D) If a person from another state becomes a resident of South Carolina while subject to an ignition interlock device requirement in another state, the person only may obtain a South Carolina driver's license if the person enrolls in the South Carolina Ignition Interlock Device Program pursuant to this section. The person is subject to the requirements of this section for the length of time that would have been required for an offense committed in South Carolina, or for the length of time that is required by the other state, whichever is longer.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 10, 2023

(E) The person must be subject to an Ignition Interlock Device Point System managed by the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services. A person accumulating a total of:

(1) two points or more, but less than three points, must have the length of time that the device is required extended by two months;

(2) three points or more, but less than four points, must have the length of time that the device is required extended by four months, shall submit to a substance abuse assessment pursuant to Section 56-5-2990, and shall successfully complete the plan of education and treatment, or both, as recommended by the certified substance abuse program. Should the person not complete the recommended plan, or not make progress toward completing the plan, the Department of Motor Vehicles shall suspend the person's ignition interlock restricted license until the plan is completed or progress is being made toward completing the plan;

(3) four points or more must have the person's ignition interlock restricted license suspended for a period of six months, shall submit to a substance abuse assessment pursuant to Section 56-5-2990, and successfully shall complete the plan of education and treatment, or both, as recommended by the certified substance abuse program. Should the person not complete the recommended plan or not make progress toward completing the plan, the Department of Motor Vehicles shall leave the person's ignition interlock restricted license in suspended status, or, if the license has already been reinstated following the six-month suspension, shall resuspend the person's ignition interlock restricted license until the plan is completed or progress is being made toward completing the plan. The Department of Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse Services is responsible for notifying the Department of Motor Vehicles of a person's completion and compliance with education and treatment programs. Upon reinstatement of driving privileges following the six-month suspension, the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services shall reset the person's point total to zero points, and the person shall complete the remaining period of time on the ignition interlock device.

(F) The cost of the device must be borne by the person. However, unless a person is participating in the Interlock Ignition Device Program as an habitual offender pursuant to Section 56-1-1090(A), if the person is indigent and cannot afford the cost of the device, the person may submit an affidavit of indigency to the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services for a determination of indigency as it pertains to the cost of the device. The affidavit of indigency form must be made publicly accessible on the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services' internet website. If the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services determines that the person is indigent as it pertains to the device, the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services may authorize a device to be affixed to the motor vehicle and the cost of the initial installation and standard use of the device to be paid for by the Ignition Interlock Device Fund managed by the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services. Funds remitted to the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services for the Ignition Interlock Device Fund also may be used by the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services to support the Ignition Interlock Device Program. For purposes of this section, a person is indigent if the person is financially unable to afford the cost of the ignition interlock device. In making a determination whether a person is indigent, all factors concerning the person's financial conditions should be considered including, but not limited to, income, debts, assets, number of dependents claimed for tax purposes, living expenses, and family situation. A presumption that the person is indigent is created if the person's net family income is less than or equal to the poverty guidelines established and revised annually by the United States Department of Health and Human Services published in the Federal Register. "Net income" means gross income minus deductions required by law. The determination of indigency is subject to periodic review at the discretion of the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services.

(G) The ignition interlock service provider shall collect and remit monthly to the Ignition Interlock Device Fund a fee as determined by the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services not to exceed thirty dollars per month for each month the person is required to drive a vehicle with a device. A service provider who fails to properly remit funds to the Ignition Interlock Device Fund may be decertified as a service provider by the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services. If a service provider is decertified for failing to remit funds to the Ignition Interlock Device Fund, the cost for removal and replacement of a device must be borne by the service provider.

(H)(1) The person shall have the device inspected every sixty days to verify that the device is affixed to the motor vehicle and properly operating, and to allow for the preparation of an ignition interlock device inspection report by the service provider indicating the person's alcohol content at each attempt to start and running retest during each sixty-day period. Failure of the person to have the interlock device inspected every sixty days must result in one ignition interlock device point.

(2) Only a service provider authorized by the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services to perform inspections on ignition interlock devices may conduct inspections. The service provider immediately shall report devices that fail inspection to the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services. The report must contain the person's name, identify the vehicle upon which the failed device is installed, and the reason for the failed inspection.

(3) If the inspection report reflects that the person has failed to complete a running retest, the person must be assessed one ignition interlock device point.

(4) If any inspection report or any photographic images collected by the device shows that the person has violated subsection (M), (O), or (P), the person must be assessed one and one-half ignition interlock device points.

(5) The inspection report must indicate the person's alcohol content at each attempt to start and running retest during each sixty-day period. If the report reflects that the person violated a running retest by having an alcohol concentration of:

(a) two one-hundredths of one percent or more but less than four one-hundredths of one percent, the person must be assessed one-half ignition interlock device point;

(b) four one-hundredths of one percent or more but less than fifteen one-hundredths of one percent, the person must be assessed one ignition interlock device point; or

(c) fifteen one-hundredths of one percent or more, the person must be assessed two ignition interlock device points.

(6) A person may appeal less than four ignition interlock device points received to an administrative hearing officer with the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services through a process established by the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services. The administrative hearing officer's decision on appeal is final and no appeal from such decision is allowed.

(I)(1) If a person's license is suspended due to the accumulation of four or more ignition interlock device points, the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services must provide a notice of assessment of ignition interlock points which must advise the person of his right to request a contested case hearing before the Office of Motor Vehicle Hearings. The notice of assessment of ignition interlock points also must advise the person that, if he does not request a contested case hearing within thirty days of the issuance of the notice of assessment of ignition interlock points, he waives his right to the administrative hearing and the person's driver's license is suspended pursuant to subsection (E).

(2) The person may seek relief from the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services' determination that a person's license is suspended due to the accumulation of four or more ignition interlock device points by filing a request for a contested case hearing with the Office of Motor Vehicle Hearings pursuant to the Administrative Procedures Act. The filing of the request for a contested case hearing will stay the driver's license suspension pending the outcome of the hearing. However, the filing of the request for a contested case hearing will not stay the requirements of the person having the ignition interlock device.

(3) At the contested case hearing:

(a) the assessment of driver's license suspension can be upheld;
(b) the driver's license suspension can be overturned, or any or all of the contested ignition interlock points included in the device inspection report that results in the contested suspension can be overturned, and the penalties as specified pursuant to subsection (E) will then be imposed accordingly.

(4) A contested case hearing must be held after the request for the hearing is received by the Office of Motor Vehicle Hearings. Nothing in this section prohibits the introduction of evidence at the contested case hearing on the issue of the accuracy of the ignition interlock device. However, if the ignition interlock device is found to not be in working order due to failure of regular maintenance and upkeep by the person challenging the accumulation of ignition interlock points pursuant to the requirement of the ignition interlock program, such allegation cannot serve as a basis to overturn point accumulations.

(5) A written order must be issued by the Office of Motor Vehicle Hearings to all parties either reversing or upholding the assessment of ignition interlock points.

(6) A contested case hearing is governed by the Administrative Procedures Act, and a person has a right to appeal the decision of the hearing officer pursuant to that act to the Administrative Law Court in accordance with its appellate rules. The filing of an appeal does not stay the ignition interlock requirement.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 10, 2023

(J) Five years from the date of the person's driver's license reinstatement and every five years thereafter, a fourth or subsequent offender whose license has been reinstated pursuant to Section 56-1-385, or a person with a lifetime ignition interlock requirement due to a conviction on or after October 1, 2014, may apply to the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services for removal of the ignition interlock device and the removal of the restriction from the person's driver's license. The Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services may, for good cause shown, notify the Department of Motor Vehicles that the person is eligible to have the restriction removed from the person's license.

(K)(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, it is unlawful for a person who is subject to the provisions of this section to drive a motor vehicle that is not equipped with a properly operating, certified ignition interlock device. A person who violates this subsection:

(a) for a first offense, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, must be fined not less than one thousand dollars or imprisoned not more than one year. The person must have the length of time that the ignition interlock device is required extended by six months;

(b) for a second offense, is guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction, must be fined not less than five thousand dollars or imprisoned not more than three years. The person must have the length of time that the ignition interlock device is required extended by one year; and

(c) for a third or subsequent offense, is guilty of a felony, and, upon conviction, must be fined not less than ten thousand dollars or imprisoned not more than ten years. The person must have the length of time that the ignition interlock device is required extended by three years.

(2) No portion of the minimum sentence imposed pursuant to this subsection may be suspended.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a first or second offense punishable pursuant to this subsection may be tried in summary court.

(4) Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to prevent a person who is participating in the Ignition Interlock Device Program pursuant to Section 56-1-1090(A) and who drives a motor vehicle that is not equipped with a properly operating, certified ignition interlock device from being charged with a violation of Section 56-1-1100.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 10, 2023

(L)(1) A person who is required in the course and scope of the person's employment to drive a motor vehicle owned by the person's employer may drive the employer's motor vehicle without installation of an ignition interlock device, provided that the person's use of the employer's motor vehicle is solely for the employer's business purposes.

(2) This subsection does not apply to:

(a) a person convicted of a second or subsequent violation of Section 56-5-2930, 56-5-2933, 56-5-2945, or a law of another state that prohibits a person from driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or other drugs, unless the person's driving privileges have been suspended for not less than one year or the person has had an ignition interlock device installed for not less than one year on each of the motor vehicles owned or operated, or both, by the person;

(b) a person who is self-employed or to a person who is employed by a business owned in whole or in part by the person or a member of the person's household or immediate family unless during the defense of a criminal charge, the court finds that the vehicle's ownership by the business serves a legitimate business purpose and that titling and registration of the vehicle by the business was not done to circumvent the intent of this section; or

(c) a person participating in the Ignition Interlock Device Program as an habitual offender pursuant to Section 56-1-1090(A).

(3) Whenever the person operates the employer's vehicle pursuant to this subsection, the person shall have with the person a copy of the Department of Motor Vehicles' form specified by Section 56-1-400(B).

(4) This subsection will be construed in parallel with the requirements of Section 56-1-400(B). A waiver issued pursuant to this subsection will be subject to the same review and revocation as described in Section 56-1-400(B).

(M) It is unlawful for a person to tamper with or disable, or attempt to tamper with or disable, an ignition interlock device installed on a motor vehicle pursuant to this section. Obstructing or obscuring the camera lens of an ignition interlock device constitutes tampering. A person who violates this subsection is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, must be fined not more than five hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days, or both.

(N) It is unlawful for a person to knowingly rent, lease, or otherwise provide a person who is subject to this section with a motor vehicle without a properly operating, certified ignition interlock device. This subsection does not apply if the person began the lease contract period for the motor vehicle prior to the person's arrest for a first offense violation of Section 56-5-2930 or 56-5-2933 or prior to a person who is participating in the Ignition Interlock Device Program as an habitual offender pursuant to Section 56-1-1090(A) receiving his license with an ignition interlock restriction. A person who violates this subsection is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, must be fined not more than five hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days, or both.

(O) It is unlawful for a person who is subject to the provisions of this section to solicit or request another person, or for a person to solicit or request another person on behalf of a person who is subject to the provisions of this section, to engage an ignition interlock device to start a motor vehicle with a device installed pursuant to this section or to conduct a running retest while the vehicle is in operation. A person who violates this subsection is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, must be fined not more than five hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days, or both.

(P) It is unlawful for another person on behalf of a person subject to the provisions of this section to engage an ignition interlock device to start a motor vehicle with a device installed pursuant to this section or to conduct a running retest while that vehicle is in operation. A person who violates this subsection is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, must be fined not more than five hundred dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days, or both.

(Q) Only ignition interlock devices certified by the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services may be used to fulfill the requirements of this section.

(1) The Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services shall certify whether a device meets the accuracy requirements and specifications provided in guidelines or regulations adopted by the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, as amended from time to time. Manufacturers of ignition interlock devices shall apply to the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services for certification of devices provided to South Carolina drivers who are subject to the ignition interlock restriction. The Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services may charge an initial annual fee on the manufacturer's application for certification of each device, and a subsequent fee for every year the manufacturer continues to provide the certified device to South Carolina drivers. This fee shall be remitted to the Ignition Interlock Device Fund for use by the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services in support of the Ignition Interlock Device Program.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 10, 2023

(2) All devices certified to be used in South Carolina must be set to prohibit the starting of a motor vehicle when an alcohol concentration of two one-hundredths of one percent or more is measured and all running retests must record violations of an alcohol concentration of two one-hundredths of one percent or more, and must capture a photographic image of the driver as the driver is operating the ignition interlock device. The photographic images recorded by the ignition interlock device may be used by the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services to aid in the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services' management of the Ignition Interlock Device Program; however, neither the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services, the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services' employees, nor any other political subdivision of this State may be held liable for any injury caused by a driver or other person who operates a motor vehicle after the use or attempted use of an ignition interlock device.

~~(2)~~(3) The Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services shall maintain a current list of certified ignition interlock devices and manufacturers. The list must be updated at least quarterly. If a particular certified device fails to continue to meet federal requirements, the device must be decertified, may not be used until it is compliant with federal requirements, and must be replaced with a device that meets federal requirements. The cost for removal and replacement must be borne by the manufacturer of the noncertified device.

~~(3)~~(4) Only ignition interlock installers certified by the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services may install and service ignition interlock devices required pursuant to this section. The Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services shall maintain a current list of vendors that are certified to install the devices.

(R) In addition to availability under the Freedom of Information Act, any Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services policy concerning ignition interlock devices must be made publicly accessible on the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services' internet website. The information regarding a person's participation in the Ignition Interlock Device Program recorded by the ignition interlock device is collected at the direction of the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services and is a record of the department. Information obtained by the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services and ignition interlock service providers regarding a person's participation in the Ignition Interlock Device Program is to be used for internal purposes only and is not subject to the Freedom of Information Act. A person participating in the Ignition Interlock Device Program or the person's family member may request that the Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services provide the person or family member with information obtained by the department and ignition interlock service providers. The Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services may release the information to the person or family member at the department's discretion. The Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services and ignition interlock service providers must purge all photographic images collected by the device no later than twelve months from the date of the person's completion of the Ignition Interlock Device Program. The Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services may retain the images past twelve months if there are any pending appeals or contested case hearings involved with that person, and at their conclusion must purge the images. The Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services and ignition interlock service providers must purge all personal information regarding a person's participation in the Ignition Interlock Device Program no later than twelve months from the date of the person's completion of the Ignition Interlock Device Program except for that information which is relevant for pending legal matters.

(S) The Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services shall develop policies including, but not limited to, the certification, use, maintenance, and operation of ignition interlock devices and the Ignition Interlock Device Fund.

(T) This section shall apply retroactively to any person currently serving a suspension or denial of the issuance of a license or permit due to a suspension listed in subsection (A).

SECTION 8. Section 56-5-2951 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 56-5-2951. (A) The Department of Motor Vehicles shall suspend the driver's license, permit, or nonresident operating privilege of, or deny the issuance of a license or permit to, a person who drives a motor vehicle and refuses to submit to a test provided for in Section 56-5-2950 or has an alcohol concentration of fifteen one-hundredths of one percent or more. The arresting officer shall issue a notice of suspension which is effective beginning on the date of the alleged violation of Section 56-5-2930, 56-5-2933, or 56-5-2945.

(B)(1) Within thirty days of the issuance of the notice of suspension, the person may:

(a) request a contested case hearing before the Office of Motor Vehicle Hearings pursuant to its rules of procedure;

(b) enroll in the Ignition Interlock Device Program pursuant to Section 56-5-2941; and

WEDNESDAY, MAY 10, 2023

~~(H)~~(c) obtain a temporary alcohol license with an ignition interlock device restriction pursuant to Section 56-1-400 from the Department of Motor Vehicles. A one hundred dollar fee must be assessed for obtaining a temporary alcohol license and such fee must be held in trust by the Department of Motor Vehicles until final disposition of any contested case hearing. Should the temporary suspension provided for in this subsection be upheld during the contested case hearing, Twenty twenty-five dollars of the fee must be distributed by the Department of Motor Vehicles to the Department of Public Safety for supplying and maintaining all necessary vehicle videotaping equipment, while ~~The~~ the remaining seventy-five dollars must be placed by the Comptroller General into the State Highway Fund as established by Section 57-11-20, to be distributed as provided in Section 11-43-167. The temporary alcohol license allows the person to drive without any restrictive conditions pending the outcome of the contested case hearing provided for in subsection (F), this section or the final decision or disposition of the matter. If the suspension is upheld at the contested case hearing, the temporary alcohol license remains in effect until the Office of Motor Vehicle Hearings issues the hearing officer's decision and the Department of Motor Vehicles sends notice to the person that the person is eligible to receive a restricted license pursuant to subsection (H); and

(2) request a contested case hearing before the Office of Motor Vehicle Hearings in accordance with the Office of Motor Vehicle Hearings' rules of procedure. The ignition interlock restriction must be maintained on the temporary alcohol license for three months. If the contested case hearing has not reached a final disposition by the time the ignition interlock restriction has been removed, the person can obtain a temporary alcohol license without an ignition interlock restriction.

(3) At the contested case hearing, if:

(a) the suspension is upheld, the person's driver's license, permit, or nonresident operating privilege must be suspended or the person must be denied the issuance of a license or permit for the remainder of the suspension period provided for in subsection (I). Within thirty days of the issuance of the notice that the suspension has been upheld, the person shall enroll in an Alcohol and Drug Safety Action Program pursuant to Section 56-5-2990;

(b) the suspension is overturned, the person must have the person's driver's license, permit, or nonresident operating privilege reinstated and the person must be reimbursed by the Department of Motor Vehicles in the amount of the fees provided for in subsection (B)(1)(c).

WEDNESDAY, MAY 10, 2023

(4) The provisions of this subsection do not affect the trial for a violation of Section 56-5-2930, 56-5-2933, or 56-5-2945.

(C) The period of suspension provided for in subsection (I) begins on the day the notice of suspension is issued, or at the expiration of any other suspensions, and continues until the person applies for a temporary alcohol license and requests a contested case hearing.

(D) If a person does not request a contested case hearing, the person waives the person's right to the hearing, and the person's suspension must not be stayed but continues for the period provided for in subsection (I).

(E) The notice of suspension must advise the person:

(1) of the person's right to obtain a temporary alcohol driver's license and to request a contested case hearing before the Office of Motor Vehicle Hearings;

~~(2) the notice of suspension also must advise the person~~ that, if the person does not request a contested case hearing within thirty days of the issuance of the notice of suspension, the person waives the person's right to the contested case hearing, and the suspension continues for the period provided for in subsection (I); and

~~(3) the notice of suspension also must advise the person~~ that, if the suspension is upheld at the contested case hearing or the person does not request a contested case hearing, the person shall enroll in an Alcohol and Drug Safety Action Program.

(F)(1) A contested case hearing must be held after the request for the hearing is received by the Office of Motor Vehicle Hearings. The scope of the hearing is limited to whether the person:

~~(1)~~(a) was lawfully arrested or detained;

~~(2)~~(b) was given a written copy of and verbally informed of the rights enumerated in Section 56-5-2950;

~~(3)~~(c) refused to submit to a test pursuant to Section 56-5-2950;

(2) Nothing in this section prohibits the introduction of evidence at the contested case hearing on the issue of the accuracy of the breath test result.

(3) A written order must be issued to all parties either reversing or upholding the suspension of the person's license, permit, or nonresident's operating privilege, or denying the issuance of a license or permit. If the suspension is upheld, the person must receive credit for the number of days the person's license was suspended before the person received a temporary alcohol license and requested the contested case hearing and must receive credit for the number of days, if any, the person maintained an ignition interlock restriction on the temporary alcohol license.

(4) The Department of Motor Vehicles and the arresting officer shall have the burden of proof in contested case hearings conducted pursuant to this section. If neither the Department of Motor Vehicles nor the arresting officer appears at the contested case hearing, the hearing officer shall rescind the suspension of the person's license, permit, or nonresident's operating privilege regardless of whether the person requesting the contested case hearing or the person's attorney appears at the contested case hearing.

(G) A contested case hearing is governed by the Administrative Procedures Act, and a person has a right to appeal the decision of the hearing officer pursuant to that act to the Administrative Law Court in accordance with the Administrative Law Court's appellate rules. The filing of an appeal stays the suspension until a final decision is issued on appeal.

~~(H)(1) If the person did not request a contested case hearing or the suspension is upheld at the contested case hearing, the person shall enroll in an Alcohol and Drug Safety Action Program pursuant to Section 56-5-2990, and may apply for a restricted license if the person is employed or enrolled in a college or university. The restricted license permits the person to drive only to and from work and the person's place of education and in the course of the person's employment or education during the period of suspension. The restricted license also permits the person to drive to and from the Alcohol Drug Safety Action Program classes or to a court ordered drug program. The department may issue the restricted license only upon showing by the person that the person is employed or enrolled in a college or university, that the person lives further than one mile from the person's place of employment, place of education, or location of the person's Alcohol and Drug Safety Action Program classes, or the location of the person's court ordered drug~~

~~(2) If the department issues a restricted license pursuant to this subsection, the department shall designate reasonable restrictions on the times during which and routes on which the person may drive a motor vehicle. A change in the employment hours, place of employment, status as a student, status of attendance of Alcohol and Drug Safety Action Program classes, status of attendance of the person's court-ordered drug program, or residence must be reported immediately to the department by the person.~~

~~(3) The fee for a restricted license is one hundred dollars, but no additional fee may be charged because of changes in the place and hours of employment, education, or residence. Twenty dollars of this fee must be deposited in the state's general fund, and eighty dollars must be placed by the Comptroller General into the State Highway Fund as established by Section 57-11-20, to be distributed as provided in Section 11-43-167.~~

~~(4) Driving a motor vehicle outside the time limits and route imposed by a restricted license is a violation of Section 56-1-460.~~

(I)(1) Except as provided in item (3), the period of a driver's license, permit, or nonresident operating privilege suspension for, or denial of issuance of a license or permit to, an arrested person who has no previous convictions for violating Section 56-5-2930, 56-5-2933, or 56-5-2945, or a law of another state that prohibits a person from driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or other drugs within the ten years preceding a violation of this section, and who has had no previous suspension imposed pursuant to Section 56-1-286, 56-5-2951, or 56-5-2990, within the ten years preceding a violation of this section is:

(b) for a third offense, twelve months if the person refuses to submit to a test pursuant to Section 56-5-2950, or three months if the person takes a test pursuant to Section 56-5-2950 and has an alcohol concentration of fifteen one-hundredths of one percent or more; and

(3)(a) In lieu of serving the remainder of a suspension or denial of the issuance of a license or permit, a person may enroll in the Ignition Interlock Device Program pursuant to Section 56-5-2941, end the suspension or denial of the issuance of a license or permit, and obtain an ignition interlock restricted license pursuant to Section 56-1-400. The ignition interlock device is required to be affixed to the motor vehicle equal to the length of time remaining on the person's suspension or denial of the issuance of a license or permit. If the length of time remaining is less than three months, the ignition interlock device is required to be affixed to the motor vehicle for three months.

(b) The person must receive credit for the number of days the person maintained an ignition interlock restriction on the temporary alcohol license.

(c) Once a person has enrolled in the Ignition Interlock Device Program and obtained an ignition interlock restricted license, the person is subject to Section 56-5-2941 and cannot subsequently choose to serve the suspension.

(J) A person's driver's license, permit, or nonresident operating privilege must be restored when the person's period of suspension or ignition interlock restricted license requirement pursuant to subsection (I) has concluded, even if the person has not yet completed the Alcohol and Drug Safety Action Program. After the person's driving privilege is restored, the person shall continue the services of the Alcohol and Drug Safety Action Program. If the person withdraws from or in any way stops making satisfactory progress toward the completion of the Alcohol and Drug Safety Action Program, the person's license must be suspended

A person shall be attending or have completed an Alcohol and Drug Safety Action Program pursuant to Section 56-5-2990 before the person's driving privilege can be restored at the conclusion of the suspension period or ignition interlock restricted license requirement.

(K) When a nonresident's privilege to drive a motor vehicle in this State has been suspended pursuant to the provisions of this section, the department shall give written notice of the action taken to the motor vehicle administrator of the state of the person's residence and of any state in which the person has a license or permit.

(L) The department shall not suspend the privilege to drive of a person under the age of twenty-one pursuant to Section 56-1-286, if the person's privilege to drive has been suspended pursuant to this section arising from the same incident.

(M) A person whose driver's license or permit is suspended pursuant to this section is not required to file proof of financial responsibility.

(N) An insurer shall not increase premiums on, add surcharges to, or cancel the automobile insurance of a person charged with a violation of Section 56-1-286, 56-5-2930, 56-5-2933, 56-5-2945, or a law of another state that prohibits a person from driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol or other drugs based solely on the violation unless the person is convicted of the violation.

(O) The department shall administer the provisions of this section.

~~(P) If a person does not request a contested case hearing within the thirty-day period as authorized pursuant to this section, the person may file with the department a form after enrolling in a certified Alcohol and Drug Safety Action Program to apply for a restricted license. The restricted license permits him to drive only to and from work and his place of education and in the course of his employment or education during the period of suspension. The restricted license also permits him to drive to and from Alcohol and Drug Safety Action Program classes or a court-ordered drug program. The department may issue the restricted license at any time following the suspension upon a showing by the individual that he is employed or enrolled in a college or university, that he lives further than one mile from his place of employment, place of education, the location of his Alcohol and Drug Safety Action Program classes, or the location of his court-ordered drug program, and that there is no adequate public transportation between his residence and his place of employment, his place of education, the location of his Alcohol and Drug Safety Action Program classes, or the location of his court-ordered drug program. The route restrictions, requirements, and fees imposed by the department for the issuance of the restricted license issued pursuant to this item are the same as those provided in this section had the person requested a contested case hearing. A restricted license is valid until the person successfully completes a certified Alcohol and Drug Safety Action Program, unless the person fails to complete or make satisfactory progress to complete the program. Nothing in this section shall prevent the prosecuting authority from waiving or dismissing the charge.~~

SECTION X. Section 16-23-500 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 16-23-500. (A) Except as provided in subsection (F), it is unlawful for a person who has been convicted of a violent crime, as defined by Section 16-1-60, that is classified as a felony offense, crime punishable by a maximum term of imprisonment of more than one year to possess a firearm or ammunition within this State.

(B) A person who violates the provisions of this section is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, ~~must be fined not more than two thousand dollars or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.:~~

(1) for a first offense, must be imprisoned not more than five years;

(2) for a second offense, must be imprisoned for a mandatory minimum of five years, but not more than twenty years; and

(3) for a third or subsequent offense, must be imprisoned for a mandatory minimum of ten years, but not more than thirty years.

(C)(1) In addition to the penalty provided in this section, the firearm or ammunition involved in the violation of this section must be confiscated. The firearm or ammunition must be delivered to the chief of police of the municipality or to the sheriff of the county if the violation occurred outside the corporate limits of a municipality. The law enforcement agency that receives the confiscated firearm or ammunition may use it within the agency, transfer it to another law enforcement agency for the lawful use of that agency, trade it with a retail dealer licensed to sell firearms or ammunition in this State for a firearm, ammunition, or any other equipment approved by the agency, or destroy it. A firearm or ammunition must not be disposed of in any manner until the results of any legal proceeding in which it may be involved are finally determined. If the State Law Enforcement Division seized the firearm or ammunition, the division may keep the firearm or ammunition for use by its forensic laboratory. Records must be kept of all confiscated firearms or ammunition received by the law enforcement agencies under the provisions of this section.

(2) A law enforcement agency that receives a firearm or ammunition pursuant to this section shall administratively release the firearm or ammunition to an innocent owner. The firearm or ammunition must not be released to the innocent owner until the results of any legal proceedings in which the firearm or ammunition may be involved are finally determined. Before the firearm or ammunition may be released, the innocent owner shall provide the law enforcement agency with proof of ownership and shall certify that the innocent owner will not release the firearm or ammunition to the person who has been charged with a violation of this section which resulted in the confiscation of the firearm or ammunition. The law enforcement agency shall notify the innocent owner when the firearm or ammunition is available for release. If the innocent owner fails to recover the firearm or ammunition within thirty days after notification of the release, the law enforcement agency may maintain or dispose of the firearm or ammunition as otherwise provided in this section.

(D) The judge that hears the case involving the violent court with jurisdiction over an offense, as defined by Section 16-1-60, that is classified as a felony offense, punishable by imprisonment for more than one year, as provided in subsection (A), shall make a specific finding on the record that the offense is a violent offense, as defined by Section 16-1-60, and is classified as a felony offense subject to the provisions of this section. Amend the bill further, by adding an appropriately numbered SECTION to read:

SECTION X. ~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The Senate assembled at 10:00 A.M., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Romans 12:3

Addressing those he loved in Rome, Paul wrote: "Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought, but rather think of yourself with sober judgment, in accordance with the measure of faith God has given you."

Please bow with me as we pray: It is so incredibly easy, O God, to stumble and find ourselves falling into the clutches of pride and self-love. None of us can side-step such pitfalls; they sadly go along with human nature. So here at the close of this official "last day" of this legislative term, the temptation for each of us is to pat ourselves on the back, to smile smugly and to go out this evening and celebrate. And then we think of the many things that this Senate has not gotten done this term, how we could have -- and likely should have -- done even more for the people we are called to serve. That is when we promise, Lord, to work against being victims of self-pride, to look ahead to those times when we will be able to redeem ourselves as true servants of the people, thereby bringing ever-greater honor to You. This we pray in Your loving name, O Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

Motion to Ratify Adopted

At 10:12 A.M., Senator MASSEY asked unanimous consent to make a motion to invite the House of Representatives to attend the Senate Chamber for the purpose of ratifying Acts at a mutually convenient time.

There was no objection and a message was sent to the House accordingly.

Doctor of the Day

Senator PEELER introduced Dr. Jasjot Bhullar of Spartanburg, S.C., Doctor of the Day.

Expression of Personal Interest

Senator JACKSON rose for an Expression of Personal Interest.

Remarks by Senator JACKSON

Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT, members of the Senate. This is the last day of regular session. And I have one more Point of Personal Interest that I would like to make in this regular session and then when we come back -- we will continue sharing thoughts and insights for you. I have shared with you in a handout Senator CAMPSSEN a quote from one of your favorites, Sir Edmond Burke -- at least it is attributed to Sir Edmond Burke. I've also passed out an article that was published on March 13, 2016, in Open Culture. For those of you who are pure historians, there is a lot of debate whether Sir Edmond Burke said the quote or not. I know enough to quote the source. The source said he may or may not have said it, but it is a wonderful, wonderful quote that simply says this, "The only thing necessary for triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing." I was a college student at Benedict College and had a professor by the name of Dr. Gorgay from Hungary. He fled his country from Hitler -- lost his entire family. He was one of the most brilliant individuals I ever met. I was totally fascinated by him, although I could barely understand what he was saying. But he would have his quote on his wall, Senator CAMPSSEN. He would say to me, "Young Jackson, put it in your mind, write it down, put it somewhere." And when I would see him because I was a political science major he would say, do you know the quote? I said, "Yes, sir." He said, "Where have you written the quote?" I said, "On my desk." He said to write it everywhere. And he would say to me again, "The only thing necessary for triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing."

THURSDAY, MAY 11, 2023

And I leave that with you because I contend that all of you are good people. I am honored and I am very -- it is indeed an honor to serve in this Body with forty-five other really good people. And I sincerely mean that. People ask me, how do you all get along in the Senate? And I say I really do enjoy my colleagues. I don't agree with them all, okay and at times we have fights, but I had two brothers and two sisters, and we fought all the time. My sister was the toughest of all of them and I still love them. And would I say this to you that I sincerely believe that the people you represent if given the choice of should we have Hate Crime Legislation, will say yes. Because I have faith in the people we represent -- if they are from Anderson, Beaufort, Charleston or Spartanburg -- I sincerely believe that given the choice, looking at this Bill which only enhances penalties, they would say yes. Last night we heard it was said that the Bill we were debating represented the sentiments of the people of South Carolina. That may or may not be true. I believe when it's all said and done, we will get this Bill. And those of you who, like me, have survived the whole confederate flag incident remember those speeches on that. We eventually got there. It was painful, however. The last thing that someone said to me is this Bill perhaps has a better chance of passing if we take out the sexual identity part. And my answer is tell that to the parents of Matthew Shepherd. If you have a son or a daughter tell that to your son and daughter if they came to you and say I'm gay, and someone harasses and threatens them. Tell that to the parents of that young man who hung on that fence post for twelve days looking like a scarecrow. I just refuse to believe that the good people in this Body would be willing to do that.

On motion of Senator STEPHENS, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator JACKSON were ordered printed in the Journal.

Expression of Personal Interest

Senator SABB rose for an Expression of Personal Interest.

Remarks by Senator SABB

Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT and members. Today is an historical day because it is the day after my experience last night. My grandmother always talked to us about occurrences -- the things that happen. One of the things that she made sure that we appreciated was the fact that it's not always what you do. It's not always what is done. Quite often, what's more important is the manner it's done. I like, Senator HARPOOTLIAN who spoke so eloquently a moment ago -- who has nothing but appreciation for the opportunity to be a part of discussions in this Chamber. One of the things that I did when I came into the Body in the House, and I tried to do the same as I came into the Senate -- I sat in silence observing how the Body moves -- the dynamics of the Body. The high-level qualities of its members and essentially how she functions. Never have I seen in my eight plus years what occurred with me last night. There's never been an instance that I know about where there's no forewarning that the trigger is getting ready to be pulled -- never. I just believe that as a manner of courtesy, it should have been extended and that's the second time for me. The first time, quite frankly, I took it on the chin. I tried to take the position that when somebody goes low, I can go high. However, last night was the straw that broke the camel's back as far as I'm concerned. I believe that common courtesy is important, and that was not displayed nor extended last night. I don't believe in holding stuff like that in. I believe in saying it in such a fashion that my position is clear. I realize -- and my daughter spoke to a class and one of the things that I didn't realize that she shared with the class was that 10% is what we do and the other 90% is how we react to what others do.

THURSDAY, MAY 11, 2023

It's always been my hope that my reaction is such that I sleep well at night. Dr. Charles Edward Murray said that one of the quintessentials of a good speech is having something to say. That's why when I come up here -- I don't come up here haphazardly -- it is a result of me studying an issue and finding out what the deal is. I believe advocacy matters; I believe it makes a difference. If I had thought for a moment that what Senator TALLEY talked about last night couldn't be handled in the law, without us passing the law, I would have voted for it although I was against it. Just because it was conduct that we needed to address. That's where I stand.

Now, I didn't get a chance to say it in the debate, but context to me is important. When you think in terms of the Legislation that was passed last night, that whole notion began with an Executive Order from the President of the United States. It occurred around the time when the upheaval happened in America because of what happened with George Floyd. A part of the reaction to that was an Executive Order that contained a lot of what is in this Bill. Contextually, that is important. Contextually, that should have been a part of this debate. I'm reminded of what happened during that time in our society. I witnessed women in the WNBA step forward and speak out. I witnessed men in the NBA step forward and speak out. Why? It is because they want us to have a more perfect Union. They felt that there was a need to deal with a kind of conduct that gives rise to that kind of a crime. It is important. Do you know what the reaction was to the men in the NBA that spoke out? They told them shut up and dribble -- shut up and dribble. The reaction that came to them was shut up and dribble. In other words, you can play basketball, we admire your talent, and we cheer for you, but how dare you weigh in on an issue of social significance in our Country? You know what the response was? Their voice got louder -- their voice got louder. A lot of good things occurred because of that conversation that America was forced to engage in. That is the origin of this critical race theory discussion.

Now, I'm finished with that. Let me conclude by sharing the words that the Senate began with today where a scripture was shared with us written by Paul addressing those he loved in Rome. It simply said, "Do not think of yourself more highly than you ought to. But rather, think of yourself with sober judgment, in accordance with the measure of faith God has given you." We are South Carolina Senators -- not Republicans or maybe we are -- not Democrats, well, maybe we are. However, there's a level above how we're classified. There is a level above Republicanism and there's a level above being a Democrat. The question fundamentally in my mind is, will we rise to that level when it comes to common courtesy? I submit that we ought to demand it of each other. I submit we ought to adhere to it. It's not always what is done, often, it is the manner in which it is done. Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT.

On motion of Senator STEPHENS, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator SABB were ordered printed in the Journal.

Remarks by Senator KIMPSON

Senator KIMPSON rose to make brief remarks regarding his service in the Senate.

Remarks by Senator KIMPSON

I rise today to say thank you to the people of Senate District 42 for electing me to serve in this august Body for almost a decade now. When I first was sworn in this Chamber, I brought with me my little baby Marleigh who was not yet one year old. She'll be ten years old next month. Little Marlon wasn't even born and he will be six years old this weekend. They are truly blessed kids who have two dedicated parents but what I've learned the last ten years is my kids aren't impressed with my professional achievements -- they measure love by how much time I spend with them. To them, love equals time.

THURSDAY, MAY 11, 2023

As y'all know, I've been appointed by President Biden to serve as a White House appointee to the Advisory Committee for Trade Policy and Negotiations. While this committee is not a full-time job, I can't put this new role on top of my Senate position, maintain a full-time robust law practice and spend quality time with my children. Love equals time. And that's why I'm giving this farewell address. At the outset of this journey, I pledged to the people of District 42 that I would come up here to work hard for them every day. That I would not cower in the face of adversity but stand resolute to make sure that every child could get a good public education, breathe clean air and taste clean water and that every citizen in this State would have the opportunity to live the American dream. That's what I said then when I gave my speech in January of 2014 and that's what I did while I was in the Senate. God puts people in place at the right time. I was here at the right time. Not long after I was sworn in, an unarmed motorist was pulled over in North Charleston, in my district, for a traffic violation. His name was Walter Scott, Jr. In fear that he was going back to jail for some unpaid child support, Walter ran on foot and was shot in the back multiple times by a police officer. When you read the officer's affidavit, you would have thought he deserved the Order of the Palmetto, but we found out it was totally unsupported by the facts. And but for a cell phone video which captured the incident on tape, he might have gotten a promotion. This Body understood that the best evidence is by video, and together -- both Democrats and Republicans -- we passed the Body Camera Act and became the first State in the Nation to do so.

About sixty days after that, the world witnessed one of the most heinous crimes ever imagined: the cold-blooded murder of nine parishioners, including one of our own, Senator Clemente Pinckney. We banded together to remove the Confederate flag in front of the State House in a solid move to show solidarity, unity and rid this State of a polarizing symbol that continued to divide us.

While I was here, we fought big ag, big chicken and big tobacco. We fought for marketplace fairness for our mom-and-pop stores who compete against big companies on the internet by forcing those out-of-state internet sellers to collect sales tax. This allows our mom-and-pop stores who employ our citizens, pay local taxes, sponsor local baseball teams and contribute to our State not to be at a competitive disadvantage. To date, that Legislation has generated more than 1.5 billion dollars for the State of South Carolina -- transformative economic Legislation for our citizens. We fought for children who work more than the American work week while practicing, training and competing on Saturday on the football fields and basketball courts at our two flagship universities and now these young student-athletes can profit from their own names, likeness, and images.

We've done a lot of great things but there is so much more to do. If we can marshal our efforts to pass a Bill to give German-owned Scout Motors two billion dollars in a matter of weeks -- without much debate-- we can certainly raise the minimum wage, pass Hate Crime Legislation and expand Medicaid for the working-class people of South Carolina. A quote from Nelson Mandela states, "There is no passion to be found playing small -- in settling for a life that is less than the one you are capable of living." But going forward it will be up to y'all -- each and every one of you. Now while I won't be here, I'm going to be generous and leave with you the next best thing. I am going to continue to grace your presence by leaving you all with Marlon #2! He doesn't have quite the personality, if I must say so myself, but hopefully he will be a constant reminder of my charge to each of you -- you are never wrong for doing the right thing. Go do great things for all the people of this great State. I suspect you will all miss me greatly and just know that you can have one of these in your office, to receive my wise counsel daily, for a mere $42.90. $42.00 symbolizing Senate District 42 and 90 cents because I have been re-elected by 90% of the votes -- in an unopposed race. Seriously folks -- in closing, there's a hymn we sang while I was growing up at St. John Baptist Church when I was a little boy in the choir. Don't worry, I'm not going to sing it, but the words are "May the work, I've done speak for me." Colleagues, I hope the work I've done speaks volumes. It's been an honor of a lifetime to serve in the South Carolina Senate. Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT.

Expression of Personal Interest

Senator CAMPSSEN rose for an Expression of Personal Interest.

Remarks by Senator CAMPSSEN

Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT. This is an important Resolution. Robert Smalls was a transformative figure we should respect and venerate. Originally from Beaufort, he was enslaved in Charleston, yet a trusted crew member of the cargo vessel CSS Planter. I have a painting in my Charleston office of the Planter underway off High Battery, with Robert Smalls at the helm, as he and his family make their escape from slavery.

THURSDAY, MAY 11, 2023

Robert Smalls was a trusted and well-respected sailor. He was afforded great latitude to maintain and operate the Planter on behalf of its owner, John Ferguson. One of my passenger boats in Charleston is similar in appearance to the Planter, a sidewheeler with paddlewheels port and starboard.

In November 1861 Federal troops captured Beaufort, Port Royal and surrounding sea islands. Robert Smalls received word that slaves, including his mother, were freed and allowed to farm. He developed a plan for him, six other crewmen and their families to use the Planter to escape from slavery in Charleston to freedom in Beaufort.

Small's plan was a dangerous one. He would have to navigate a labyrinth of Confederate vessels and batteries in Charleston Harbor undetected, or he would be fired upon by Confederates. Once off the shore of Charleston, Union blockade ships posed a similar threat because the CSS Planter was a Confederate vessel. His plan was to surrender the commandeered vessel to Union blockaders. But if the blockaders were not convinced it had been commandeered by escaping slaves, they would likely fire upon the Planter.

Smalls successfully delivered the Planter to Union forces. He proceeded to supply detailed knowledge of Charleston's defenses that contributed to the capture of Coles Island on the Folly River shortly after his escape. During the war Smalls became the pilot of the Union ship USS Crusader, and later captain of the Planter that was put into service for the Union navy. After the war, Smalls returned to Beaufort and purchased his former owner's home. He was elected to the South Carolina House of Representatives, South Carolina Senate and U. S. House of Representatives. Smalls died in 1915 from malaria and diabetes. His perseverance, competency and courage has inspired generations.

On motion of Senator JACKSON, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator CAMPSER were ordered printed in the Journal.

THURSDAY, MAY 11, 2023

(4) "Potentially hazardous foods" means:

(a) an animal food that is raw or heat treated, a plant food that is heat treated or consists of raw seed sprouts, cut melons, cut leafy greens, cut tomatoes, or mixtures of cut tomatoes not modified to prevent microorganism growth or toxin formation, or garlic in oil mixtures not modified to prevent microorganism growth or toxin formation;

(b) certain foods that are designated as Product Assessment Required (PA) because of the interaction of the pH and Aw values in these foods. Below is a table indicating the interaction of pH and Aw for control of spores in food heat treated to destroy vegetative cells and subsequently packaged:

Aw values		pH values
	4.6 or less	> 4.6 - 5.6	> 5.6
(1)	< 0.92	non-PHF	non-PHF
(2)	> 0.92 - 0.95	non-PHF	PHF
(3)	> 0.95	PHF	PHF

Foods in item (2) with a pH value greater than 5.6 and foods in item (3) with a pH value greater than 4.6 are considered potentially hazardous unless a product assessment is conducted pursuant to the 2009 Federal Food Administration Food Code.

(B) The operator of the home-based food production operation must take all reasonable steps to protect food items intended for sale from contamination while preparing, processing, packaging, storing, and distributing the items including, but not limited to:

EXECUTIVE ORDER No. 2023-13

WHEREAS, on May 11, 2023, the regular annual session of the General Assembly of the State of South Carolina adjourned sine die in accordance with Section 2-1-180 of the South Carolina Code of Laws, as amended; and

TUESDAY, MAY 16, 2023

WHEREAS, the General Assembly passed Legislation to address various important matters before adjourning sine die, and such Legislation has been presented to the undersigned, or will be presented to the undersigned upon ratification, for review and consideration as to whether to approve said Legislation or return the same with objections; and

WHEREAS, notwithstanding the foregoing, although the General Assembly has reached agreement on numerous budget-related matters and appointed a conference committee on H. 4300 (General Appropriations Bill), the General Assembly did not adopt, enroll or ratify a General Appropriations Act for the 2023–2024 fiscal year, or pass a continuing resolution to otherwise provide for the continued operation of state government after the end of the current fiscal year, in advance of sine die adjournment; and

WHEREAS, because “[m]oney shall be drawn from the treasury of the State or the treasury of any of its political subdivisions only in pursuance of appropriations made by law,” S.C. Const. Art. X, § 8, the absence of a General Appropriations Act for the upcoming fiscal year is a matter that requires the immediate attention of, and action by, the General Assembly prior to its next regular session; and

WHEREAS, while the General Assembly also made commendable progress in advancing some critical measures, Legislation to enhance penalties for illegal gun possession, S. 474 (Fetal Heartbeat and Protection from Abortion Act), H. 3532 (Bond Reform), and other matters of significant public importance remain unresolved and did not achieve consensus prior to sine die adjournment; and

WHEREAS, the undersigned has concluded that Tuesday, May 16, 2023, is the earliest practicable opportunity to convene the General Assembly in extra session, and the undersigned does not anticipate that timely consideration and resolution of the aforementioned matters will require the General Assembly to remain in extra session beyond May 31, 2023.

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Governor of the State of South Carolina and pursuant to the Constitution and Laws of this State and the powers conferred upon me therein, I hereby call an extra session of the General Assembly of the State of South Carolina to convene at the State House in Columbia, commencing at noon on Tuesday, May 16, 2023. ATTEST:

MARK HAMMOND
Secretary of State

The Senate assembled at 12:00 Noon, the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Exodus 40:33

Near the end of the Book of Exodus, we read that: “Then Moses set up the courtyard around the tabernacle and altar and put up the curtain at the entrance to the courtyard. And so Moses finished the work.”

Let us pray: O Lord, how wonderful it is to finish one’s work and to be able to catch one’s breath after weeks and even months of challenging effort. That clearly is where Moses found himself ages ago. The tabernacle had been completed, we read; his labor on that project was done. And even though this Senate officially wrapped things up last Thursday, the members of this Body know clearly that more is expected of them now -- that they still have considerable work to do for the people of South Carolina. So today, O God, we ask You to bless all that these faithful servants and their aides have already done, and that You will continue to guide them as they tackle matters that are yet to be completed. And through it all, Lord, bless each one of these leaders as they strive consciously and faithfully to do their very best for all. In Your loving name we pray, O Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

Motion to Ratify Adopted

Indicates New Matter

The Extraordinary Session of the General Assembly of the State of South Carolina, begun and holden at Columbia on the fourth Tuesday in May, being the 23rd day of the month.

The Senate assembled at 12:00 Noon, the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Exodus 3:11, 12a

Returning again to Exodus, we read: “But Moses said to God, ‘Who am I that I shall go to Pharaoh?’ And God said, ‘I will be with you.’”

Please bow with me as we pray: Gracious and ever-loving Lord, everyone in this Senate Chamber today is acutely aware of why we are here. There remain for these leaders issues still unresolved, problems crying out for resolution, concerns which simply cannot be ignored. And so these Senators and aides are back again to tackle as much as possible for the common good. And perhaps more than ever, O God, these leaders need Your assurance that You are with them, as You were with Moses, offering Your guidance as they strive to do what is right and just and needful. Truly, embrace these servants in Your care, Lord, and give them peace of heart and mind as they offer their genuine best efforts on behalf of every woman, man, and child in this State. So we pray in Your loving name, O Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

Remarks by Senator JACKSON

Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT, members of the Senate, I said every day last week that I would return to share some information on hate crimes. I'm back, unfortunately -- we are back but as long as we are back you will hear from me on that. As you know, we are one of only two states that do not have hate crimes Legislation. Yesterday I saw the news report of Senator Tim Scott's announcement in North Charleston. And regardless of how you feel about his politics we all must be proud of his accomplishments and what he has achieved. But I could not help but wonder what is going to happen in January, when the national media comes to South Carolina. They asked Senator Scott -- they asked former Governor Haley, "Why is it your State is only one of two states without hate crimes?" Perhaps they would have gone to ask the question of both Senator Scott and Governor Haley, "Do you support the Republican Senate's position?" I want to be clear on this. Do you support the Republican Senate's position? Because that has not been the House's position. It's not the position of the Democrats in the Senate not to even entertain hate crimes last year or this year -- think it's going to make for an interesting dialogue at some point. We know it will. We know that it is coming. We know that those questions, Senator GROOMS, will be asked of good people like Senator Scott, Governor Haley and others. And I'm sure it is going to put them in an unusual position to have to defend the position or disassociate themselves with the position. And we remain, again, one of only two states without hate crimes.

As I did last week, I want to share with you a quick handout that we all have heard at some point in our career. One that has given great inspiration to those who came out of genetics Naziism -- came out against Adolf Hitler -- is a quote by a pastor who originally was a Nazi supporter but eventually became a staunch supporter of Jews and what they went through. And the reading is entitled "First They Came", by pastor Martin Neimaller. First, they came for the communists, and I did not speak out because I was not a communist. Then they came for the socialists, I did not speak out because I was not a socialist. Then they came for the unionist, I was not a unionist, then they came out for the Jews, I was not a Jew. Then they came out for me and there was no one left to speak out for me.

My brothers and sisters, we have reached a point where I think we, at least, owe it to the citizens of South Carolina and to the country and to the leaders of South Carolina to have a debate on hate crimes. If there are some amendments that you would like to put up to take some things out, we can't get there without taking up the Bill. I leave you with what my former baseball coach said to one of my best friends who was not a particularly good hitter, but he was fast. Senator CAMPSSEN, he was the fastest guy on the team. And he often would brag, he would say, "Coach, put me in because I can steal second." And the coach said, "The problem is, you can't get on first. And the only way you can steal second is that you have to get on first." I would tell you, the only way you can take up your concerns on hate crimes -- take up what amendments that you may have -- you have to at least allow us the opportunity to get on first base. Thank you, members of the Senate.

On motion of Senator FANNING, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator JACKSON were ordered printed in the Journal.

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by adding an appropriately numbered SECTION to read:

SECTION X. Chapter 53, Title 44 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 44-53-379. (A) It is unlawful for a person who has been convicted of possession with intent to distribute, distribution or delivery of, manufacturing of, or trafficking in a controlled substance as defined in Sections 44-53-370 and 44-53-375, to possess a firearm or ammunition within this State.

(B) A person who violates the provisions of this section is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, must be fined not more than two thousand dollars or imprisoned not more than five years, or both.

(C)(1) In addition to the penalty provided in this section, the firearm or ammunition involved in the violation of this section must be confiscated. The firearm or ammunition must be delivered to the chief of police of the municipality or to the sheriff of the county if the violation occurred outside the corporate limits of a municipality. The law enforcement agency that receives the confiscated firearm or ammunition may use it within the agency, transfer it to another law enforcement agency for the lawful use of that agency, trade it with a retail dealer licensed to sell firearms or ammunition in this State for a firearm, ammunition, or any other equipment approved by the agency, or destroy it. A firearm or ammunition must not be disposed of in any manner until the results of any legal proceeding in which it may be involved are finally determined. If the State Law Enforcement Division seized the firearm or ammunition, the division may keep the firearm or ammunition for use by its forensic laboratory. Records must be kept of all confiscated firearms or ammunition received by the law enforcement agencies under the provisions of this section.

(2) A law enforcement agency that receives a firearm or ammunition pursuant to this section shall administratively release the firearm or ammunition to an innocent owner. The firearm or ammunition must not be released to the innocent owner until the results of any legal proceedings in which the firearm or ammunition may be involved are finally determined. Before the firearm or ammunition may be released, the innocent owner shall provide the law enforcement agency with proof of ownership and shall certify that the innocent owner will not release the firearm or ammunition to the person who has been charged with a violation of this section which resulted in the confiscation of the firearm or ammunition. The law enforcement agency shall notify the innocent owner when the firearm or ammunition is available for release. If the innocent owner fails to recover the firearm or ammunition within thirty days after notification of the release, the law enforcement agency may maintain or dispose of the firearm or ammunition as otherwise provided in this section.

(D) The court with jurisdiction over an offense, as defined by subsections (A) or (B), shall make a specific finding on the record that the conviction is for possession with intent to distribute, distribution or delivery of, manufacturing of, or trafficking in a controlled substance as defined in Sections 44-53-370 and 44-53-375, and the person would be subject to the prohibitions of this section. A judge's failure to make a specific finding on the record does not bar or otherwise affect prosecution pursuant to this subsection and does not constitute a defense to prosecution pursuant to this subsection.

May 22, 2023

The Honorable Thomas C. Alexander
President of the Senate
State House, Second Floor
Columbia, South Carolina 29201

Dear Mr. President and Members of the Senate:

I am hereby vetoing and returning without my approval R.63, S. 31, which seeks to amend several provisions of existing law so as to relax annual financial reporting requirements for municipalities and to authorize the State Treasurer to extend the deadline for a county to submit an independent annual audit of its financial records and transactions. Although I do not doubt that this is a well-intentioned effort to address what may be an onerous reporting requirement for smaller municipalities and to provide flexibility to counties under certain circumstances, because I believe current law does not afford the State sufficient oversight over local governments' fiscal affairs, I cannot support Legislation that risks reducing rather than enhancing transparency and accountability. Accordingly, for the reasons detailed further below, I must veto S. 31 and return the same without my signature.

As I have noted in previous State of the State addresses, the public should know -- and, indeed, has a right to know -- whether officials are properly spending tax dollars entrusted to their care and control. This is particularly true for local governments, which have, for far too long, operated without adequate oversight or sufficient accountability. While the public can, and should, hold public officials accountable for their actions or inactions on election day, allegations of waste, fraud, mismanagement, or other misconduct involving public officials, employees, or resources must be identified, investigated, and addressed in real time. Transparency is a critical component of ensuring trust and confidence in government, particularly on an issue as significant as a government's financial status. Yet, as a general rule, while certain state agencies and officials are authorized to inspect or review discreet aspects of a county's or municipality's financial records, no state official or agency has the specific jurisdiction or express legal authority to conduct a comprehensive audit of a local government's fiscal affairs and transactions in most instances or to otherwise exercise oversight or local elected officials. Thus, I have repeatedly urged the General Assembly to expand the State Inspector General's investigative jurisdiction to include local governments.

In view of these considerations, I am concerned that this Legislation risks significantly, albeit perhaps unintentionally, weakening the state's ability to detect financial irregularities and deter mismanagement and misconduct by local government officials and employees. Specifically, S. 31 would alter existing law to allow municipalities with less than $500,000 in total revenues to provide a compilation of financial statements instead of an independent audit of all of the municipality's financial records and transactions. This Bill would also seemingly relax the audit requirements for municipalities above the aforementioned revenue threshold, allowing a larger municipality to submit an annual audit of financial statements in lieu of an independent yearly audit of "all financial records and transactions of the municipality and any agency funded in whole by municipal funds." S.C. Code Ann. § 5-7-240. In attempting to incorporate the above-referenced changes to the statute governing fines collected by a municipal court, it appears S. 31 would also eliminate the specific statutory requirement that a municipality's "annual independent external audit . . . must include a review of the accounting controls over the collection, reporting, and distribution of fines and assessments from the point of collection to the point of distribution." Compare S. 31, § 2, with S.C. Code Ann. § 14-1-208(E). Finally, S. 31 seeks to amend the statute requiring counties to submit independent annual audits so as to require counties to file those audits with the Treasurer rather than the Comptroller General and to allow the Treasurer to grant a 90-day extension for a county to file the required audit. Although this last proposed change to current law appears reasonable, the remaining provisions of S. 31 would seemingly reduce rather than enhance the state's existing, and already limited, means of providing oversight and accountability with respect to local governments' financial affairs.

For the foregoing reasons, I am respectfully vetoing R.63, S. 31 and returning the same without my signature.

Yours very truly,
Henry McMaster

In the event that the preservation of the woman's mental health is certified as the reason for the abortion, an additional certification shall be required from a consulting psychiatrist who shall not be related to or engaged in private practice with the attending physician. SECTION 3. Section 44-41-30(D) of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

SECTION 7. This act takes effect upon approval by the Governor.

Renumber sections to conform.

Amend title to conform.

Senator SHEALY explained the amendment.

Remarks by Senator SHEALY

Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT. What we have here, and I hope you have it on your screens, is an amendment. It is actually an amendment that's been thought through. It really has been thought through. It's been thought through a lot. We can thank the House for that because they have given us so long to think about it. It is not what the House chamber has decided we want or what we need, it is really a compromise -- a real compromise. I want to thank them for giving me so much time to read. I've gotten a lot of books in the mail the last couple of weeks -- time to hear what women across South Carolina really think about this issue -- what some women think when their husbands aren't telling them what to think. This is not a feel good amendment and by that I mean an amendment that men here think will make us feel good, but a real compromise. We should all know by now, at least those of us listening for the last eight months about the progression of a pregnancy -- if you stayed in your seat and listened to Senators GUSTAFSON, SENN, MATTHEWS and McLEOD, you know exactly how a woman gets pregnant and how she feels during pregnancy the entire nine months. Thank you, Senators. You know how a baby is born. You know how she feels afterwards. You even know about postpartum depression. If you didn't listen, we can give you a refresher course later today. What we didn't discuss was the exact size of a zygote, fetus, a baby, child, whichever noun the House chooses to call it as it grows inside a woman's womb and when we expect her to know she is pregnant.

TUESDAY, MAY 23, 2023

Earlier, I passed out some reading material. We will get to that as I go along. It's been a while since we have been here, but in the first four weeks a fetus is the size of a poppy seed. I know y'all have all seen poppy seeds. They are on top of bread and all those things. Five weeks -- a sesame seed -- we get those in our Chinese food. Senator KIMPSON is not back there, but he likes Chinese food -- six weeks is the size of a lentil -- seven weeks, a blueberry, eight weeks, a raspberry and by nine weeks, a grape and so on and so on. Y'all can read these. It is very colorful. Mason did good making my chart for me. By twelve weeks it is the size of a lime. We are now about the size of those rubber babies we have all had the opportunity to have passed around but were not nearly as well formed. I don't want anybody to leave, y'all might miss some good information I've got here.

We have been misled by those in the lobby who want us to believe different. All of you listening to me that have daughters and granddaughters -- some of us are a lot older -- I want you to stop and think about the laws that you're making for their future. Have you talked to them? Why don't you text them right now, if you haven't talked to them. Why don't you ask them how they feel about having you and the State of South Carolina being in their bedroom, at the dinner table, in the doctor's office and in the labor room with them. You might even have to go to the police department to tell them if they have an abortion for some unfortunate reason to help give all their medical history to go in a permanent file. What happened to HIPAA? My doctor can't even share my information with my family because of HIPAA, but he can be forced to give it to the sheriff. Some people don't want to wear masks or take a vaccine, but you want your personal medical history taken to the police department, where the guy could call the guy you reported it to because he is his friend or buddy or doesn't like him. What kind of law is it if it is against your wives, daughters and granddaughters? Surely, we are confused. I think these are basic human rights.

TUESDAY, MAY 23, 2023

This amendment I have before you will change the six weeks to twelve weeks. Twelve weeks gives a woman, her family and her doctor time to find out if she is pregnant. When my mom was pregnant with me, yes, way back in the stone ages, back before they had all those fancy ultrasound machines and those devices to find out things, Dr. Mathias over in West Columbia -- Senator SETZLER I'm sure you remember Dr. Mathias. He thought I was a tumor because my mom was predisposed to cancer and her family has a strong history of cancer. The doctor had talked to my mom and dad about having surgery. But my dad and mom got together and talked about it. They said, "Let's wait." They didn't come ask the South Carolina Legislature. As much as my sister wanted to trade me in for a blueberry pie, and y'all might have wished they had too before this is over, it was still their decision. It wasn't a bunch of men in stuffy suits telling my mom and dad what to do. They were smart enough to decide by themselves whether to keep me, have me taken out or trade me in for a blueberry pie. This amendment gives twenty weeks for rape and incest victims and protects health care for fatal fetal anomalies and the life of the mother. This amendment really is a compromise. This amendment actually has a chance of getting past the Supreme Court. Whatever we do, six weeks, twelve weeks or twenty -- you know there are those that will continue to bring this Legislation up - - so why not pass something that has a chance to withstand a Supreme Court ruling? Why? Because that makes sense. It still invades privacy, but it also gives a woman more of a chance to know she is pregnant and make an informed choice.

I have been very disappointed that we failed in so many ways this year. We need reform in our judicial system. We need stronger bond reform. We need reform in our juvenile justice system. We need drug courts, and the fentanyl drug issue is killing people every day, every hour and every few minutes. What about human trafficking and child abuse? What about helping veterans, the disabled and the poor? Do you really think there aren't other problems? What about that fourteen year old little girl trafficked and murdered last Friday in Dorchester County? What about her? Don't we think we need to do something about those issues? But many of these issues haven't even been touched because we don't have time. We've debated abortion four times in eight months. We've had to stop what we were doing to make sure we get adoption laws passed faster, because we are going to have so many more babies once we stop abortions. Some of the adoption Bills even want a policy so we can return babies -- a return policy. I guess babies are going to be like puppies now once they are born. Once they are no longer the unborn. We can just bring them back if they cry too much, or their hair turned red or they ended up not being that perfect child. They might even want to return them once they get older because they didn't realize how difficult it was going to be. You can just take them back. If you take back your children now, we call that abandonment.

As of this morning we have three thousand seven hundred sixty-eight children in foster care, and five hundred forty-nine that are legally ready to adopt. That is just today. If you want to adopt -- and you have to adopt that child, though, with a no return policy -- I passed out a list this morning of six children. You have their names so I'm not going to read them to you. Six children that you can go right now today and adopt them. I mean one's sixteen, fifteen, thirteen and a twelve year old and thirteen year old brother. You can go right now and adopt these children. We have five hundred forty-nine children who are legally free, that are up for adoption and one hundred sixty-seven of those are legally free and have no one out there that's holding them up. There is nothing holding them up to be adopted. Seven of them are zero-to-one. Those of y'all that want babies -- there are babies. Ten of them are two to three. Nine of them are four to five. You get more when you get older. Ages six to nine, there are nineteen. Ten to twelve, there's thirty-seven and eighty-five are thirteen to seventeen but nobody wants to adopt them.

We did send a Bill over to the House in February and had the House not wanted to make this an election issue, they would have passed that Bill. They would have kept South Carolina from being that abortion destination state we all like to call it. But that is not what they wanted. They wanted it their way or no way. Well, we are not backpedaling now. The House wants to be the upper chamber. By God, we keep proving they are. In the last few years, we have turned tail and run every time they tell us to. They already tell us who the judges are going to be. They make decisions and we can't make decisions without getting their permission. Just once, just once, can't we do the right thing? I have had a lot of time to think this over. Maybe you've given me too much time, or maybe just enough time. I have been put on a guilt trip. That is the trip where, you know -- that is not what you are supposed to believe. You have to take care of babies or you are a baby killer. First, how does anybody know what I'm supposed to believe. I think I can think and act for myself, or so something you have given me to read says. Second, I take care of babies -- lots of babies. I take care of toddlers, small children, middle schoolers, tweens -- I even send kids to college. I'm certainly not a baby killer. I would never harm any child. I have been told, you know, this isn't good for you politically. Well, how is that? I have now polled my district twice. The State has been polled. The caucus sent out a mailer. No one believes what is being pushed on the citizens of South Carolina, but those of you that are here just for the next election or where you want to go from here. So shame on you. You should be here for the people you serve now -- especially for the women.

Now here is a fun fact. Men, y'all might not like this. Did you know, well, not each of you individually, but men are one hundred percent responsible for pregnancy? Yes, gentlemen, that is right. Women are only fertile two days or actually, only twenty-four hours a month in a six or seven day window. Men are fertile one hundred percent of the time. So, it is time for men in this Chamber and ones across the hall and across the State of South Carolina to take some ejaculation responsibility. I don't mean that joke of that amendment about child support at conception is responsibility. That is about as funny as getting child support paid now. Just last year DSS had to fight to collect over $202 million in child support. That was just a portion of the over $350 million owed last year. And just a fraction of the $1.2 billion in total unpaid child support that is due right now. So you can just take that ridiculousness right out of here. You are not going to get it. Women will just be left to do it all once again because of that one hundred percent responsibility men forget about. Remember, men can leave that woman after rape, incest, one-night stands, or just a bad relationship never to be seen again. They don't have the responsibility of carrying the baby for nine months. They don't have the responsibility of raising a toddler or a preschooler. They don't care about the preteen who is acting out in school or the teenager who needs to learn to drive, get a car, get insurance or graduate from high school unless they want to.

You see, they didn't have the baby. All the laws that you make -- that we can make in here -- can't make them show up and support that son or daughter. All the laws we make can't make them a two parent family. That little boy who just wants a dad, you can't put that into a law. It just doesn't work that way. All the laws you make can't make people love them or protect the woman that was traumatized by rape or incest. You can put them in jail for rape and incest but jailhouse salaries don't support a child. They don't give them the daddy they need just to love them. Men have a whole different look at how this works. Men have an entirely different makeup -- a different hormonal makeup. I don't know any man in this Chamber who has been pregnant or gone through the hormonal changes a woman goes through when a woman finds out she is pregnant. This can be the most exciting time in her life if this is what she had planned. It took me two years and lots of doctor's visits to get pregnant, so I was excited when I got the news, but it can also be the worst thing ever if she is not ready -- if you were raped, and ashamed to tell anyone, then find out you are pregnant -- if you are in a home where you are abused by a family member and seriously your life depends on not talking about it, or if you are a teenager with a deadbeat boyfriend -- every young girl doesn't come from a good home. Every woman doesn't have a great relationship like I'm sure all of your wives do. Some are abused. You say why don't you just leave them. Well, maybe you should read just a little more about domestic violence and how many women and families are murdered every year just for trying to leave.

We in the South Carolina Legislature are not God. We do not know what is going on in someone's life. We do not have the right to make decisions for someone else. If you listened to members in the other chamber the other day, they feel it is their right to make decisions for women. It amazes me. I shuddered at some of the words I heard come out of some House members' mouths and their lack of concern for women. They do not want anyone telling them what to do with their property or own personal business, but when it comes to women they want to be in your business from the bedroom to the delivery room.

Here is the one thing I ask you to do. Support this amendment to give women and children a chance. A woman who wants to have a baby will be a good mother and love her baby and nurture it even if there isn't a dad in the picture. A woman who has the chance to make this decision on her own and not mandated by the government to make a decision will make the right decision. Don't force women into making a decision in six weeks for something they may not even know is happening. If you pass this amendment, South Carolina will not be a destination state and there will be fewer South Carolina women having abortions because you are giving them the chance to decide on their own, and not forcing them to make a quick six-week decision. Have faith in people, they will do the right thing. Remember we are not the morality police. You cannot be someone else's conscience. We must let people make these decisions for themselves. I'd like to move for passage of this amendment.

Remarks by Senator CASH

Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT. So what we have before us of course is the Fetal Heartbeat Bill that we sent over to the House and they have now sent back to us. What the amendment before us does is move it from a Fetal Heartbeat Bill to Abortion-on-demand through the first twelve weeks of pregnancy. That is what this amendment does. There's always been two central questions in this debate. One question is when does a human life begin? The second question is when is a human life deserving of legal protection? Those are the fundamental questions you can't get away from.

Now we have before us a piece of paper showing the relative size of a developing human being compared to fruit. Let me just say, I don't take offense at it. My youngest daughter recently delivered a baby and when she went to her appointment at one point she came back and said the baby is now the size of a raspberry. From that point on that little baby was known as Razzzy or Baby Razz. For months we referred to it as Baby Razz. Babies don't come fully formed by the storm. Babies begin with the union of the sperm and the ova. That is how God designed it. But if at any point in the process you destroy that human organism, that living being, then you have destroyed a unique person. If you had taken Baby Razz at the size of a raspberry and performed an abortion, then today there would not be a Peter Dietrich born. Because we understand Baby Raz and Peter Dietrich are actually one and the same person -- one is simply in an earlier stage of human development -- development in utero. It is still not an adult when it comes out. It is going to go through many stages of development before it reaches the adult stage. So, on what basis do we say we are going to write a law and draw a line by a majority vote in which we can kill that human being? That is what this debate is all about.

I'll be the first to say it is a terribly flawed Bill that we are going to vote on -- this Fetal Heartbeat Bill filled with inconsistencies and exceptions. It fails to protect human life from the beginning but it's certainly much better than this amendment that has been offered. It is certainly protecting an individual human being at a much earlier point in time and I'm all in favor of that, but let's be clear -- this is a human rights issue. It is a human rights issue. There are two human rights at stake here -- competing rights at stake here. Which brings us back to first principles, all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their creator with certain inalienable rights, and among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. When anything overtakes that first right, that right to life, we've got things upside down. So, we are going to vote on this amendment. Eventually, hopefully we will vote on and pass this Bill.

I've got some people who want me to introduce amendments to change the Bill -- to get votes on different aspects that are faulty. I don't intend to do that. I intend to vote to table all the amendments that are offered. So, we can pass this Bill and send it on to the Governor. We know it's been a long and contentious process since last summer and I don't disagree that we are not through it. It is a fundamental human rights issue that is not going away -- certainly not in our lifetime. The Fetal Heartbeat Bill is not a perfect Bill -- certainly, much better than we have now, which is twenty weeks -- certainly, will save half the 1,000 or more unborn babies being aborted, whether through chemical abortions by pills or sucked out of their mother's wombs by a vacuum cleaner. It will save half those babies -- it is a start -- it is a step in the right direction.

Mr. PRESIDENT, I'm not going to take questions. So, that's it. I'm not going to be long. I urge this amendment be tabled and all subsequent amendments. Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT.

On motion of Senator RICE, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator CASH were ordered printed in the Journal.

Senator SENN spoke on the amendment.

Senator GUSTAFSON spoke on the amendment.

Senator REICHENBACH spoke on the amendment.

Remarks by Senator REICHENBACH

Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT. Number forty-six is obviously the number I wear. So, I am newest to the Senate. I don't come to the well often -- usually for introductions. I have sat here and listened to this and have so much respect for the Senators who have spoken on the amendments and on the Bill. I respect the passion, the intensity and the emotion. I especially appreciate the balance between dueling needs, dueling positions.

Obviously, the women have a lot to say. My wife is here most days. After twenty-seven years, there is no one I hold in higher regard. I have a daughter, my mom and my sister. I love and I appreciate -- I respect and revere women. I have heard men be brought up. We are there. They are in the impregnation process. We help get you pregnant so we have an interest in this as well. We don't carry the babies but I respect that men have a need here. The men have a position. As Senators we have positions. The one position I don't hear talked about often, though, is the baby's. I'm going to briefly -- because I'm not going to be here long. I'm going to speak for the baby because as someone who was adopted -- adopted after being born to a fourteen year-old girl who was scared to death. For those that will ask, how do you know how she felt? It is a longer story for another day.

When I was eighteen, just through pure God's providence and wild life, I met her, unexpectedly. It came out of nowhere, but I met her. I talked with her. I know how she felt. She shared with me. A very quick summary, she was fourteen, had sex with her fifteen year-old boyfriend, got pregnant and neither expected it. In 1971, at the time -- 1971 abortion was not legal in the state of Ohio. She got pregnant and was scared -- scared out of her mind. She had three options. The first was give birth to the baby but she was told by her parents, you will not bring a baby home to this house. The second option was keep the baby and try to make it work with her boyfriend, but that was quickly taken off the table because he left and wanted no part of that. The third option was to try to find an abortion. Abortion wasn't legal. In talking to her after the fact, eighteen years later, she said it was the hardest decision she ever made, but she had one goal in mind, which was to give that baby in her stomach a chance -- an opportunity. She had no clue how it was going to turn out. She said for eighteen years she struggled with the questions of, "Did he have a good life, did he have a bad life, was he happy, unhappy, did he resent me for birthing him and giving him up." So many questions. I really do believe it was God's grace that allowed her to meet me and ask me how I felt about it. But in talking to her, realizing the one voice she listened to, she didn't discount her voice or how hard it would be to be fourteen. She said the one person she wanted to consider was that child she birthed and was never able to hold because she said she wanted me to have a chance.

Now I don't expect my story to convince anyone. I understand that for the most part we're probably entrenched in what we are going to do and how we are going to vote so I respect that. I'm not trying to impugn anyone's decision on how we are going to vote or trying to convince anyone. The law that made abortion illegal in 1971 is probably why I'm here. She said, you know, there were friends that said I could find an abortion. It was dangerous but probably could find someone. She said she knew it was illegal. That helped her mindset to say, if it is illegal and I want this child to have a chance, I'm going to go ahead and have this baby. Now from there my life wasn't perfect but I had the opportunity.

When constituents have reached out and said what about the mother, what about the mother? I respond to hopefully every constituent I see, I care about the mother. I really do. But I also care about the snuffed out opportunity that could be that young man or that young woman. Doesn't mean life is going to be great but don't they deserve the same opportunity that I received? When I tell the constituents that I vote for pro-life legislation, it is in no way an indictment or demeaning or taking away or trying to disparage the challenging position that women are in when they are pregnant and have an unwanted pregnancy. I simply am here to advocate on behalf of that child because they have an opportunity if they are given birth. They have an opportunity to become something wonderful in life. As I vote pro-life, I ask those here in the Chamber to also consider the opportunity of that child because they are a component we are not talking about enough in my opinion.

Having received the necessary vote, the motion under Rule 15A was adopted.

Senator McLEOD spoke on Amendment 2A.

Remarks by Senator McLEOD

Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT. Colleagues, you know, we've talked about a lot in a very limited, very small amount of time today. I've heard some things that really just bother me. One is that we've got folks who are more interested in protecting a fetus or an embryo that is not even viable but don't seem to be concerned about protecting the women and the girls who are carrying that fetus. So, Senator CASH said that one of the key questions in this debate is when is a life worthy of legal protection by the State? If I were able to ask questions from the well, I would ask the very same question about my life, about the lives of other women and girls across our State. When will we be protected?

We just celebrated Mother's Day a couple of weeks ago. This year, you know, it hit me a little differently. I miss my mom every day. So it wasn't -- it wasn't just that. Being a mom to two of the most amazing human beings on this planet is one of the greatest joys of my life every day. So, it wasn't that either. After debating and defeating a total abortion ban, I found myself thinking more about the women and girls across our State who will be forced to give birth if this Bill passes. I'm going to get to the amendment, as well. Because it made me think about the fact that will be the case, regardless of whether they're mentally, physically, emotionally or financially able to do that. I thought about how many more women and girls will lose their lives trying, like my friend, and sorority sister, Denise Humphreys Huff also from Anderson County, Senator CASH. She died giving birth, leaving her daughter and her husband to raise their children by himself. Denise was relatively healthy but had some chronic health conditions that put her at extremely high risk for complications, life threatening complications, during her pregnancies. When she died during childbirth, while giving birth to her second child, where was the support from the State? Where was it for her husband who struggled for years to be mom and dad to their two children, and handle all of the responsibilities that come with child rearing. He had to handle them by himself. So what's up with all of these empty promises and all of the love and the support for the women and the men who are left behind? Women and girls do die, especially in this State during childbirth.

These are issues that real people are struggling with. Real people trying to keep a roof over their heads -- food on their tables. I thought about this kind of political power and control in our male dominated legislatures. Why it is our priority every year, as it has been multiple times, just this year. I'm reminded that these are the same folks, the same folks who call themselves pro-life, but prove time after time, year after year, they don't seem to care about the living. In the height of the pandemic, they are the same ones who said COVID was a hoax -- adamantly opposed mask mandates, temporary shut-downs, and later even vaccinations. They are the same ones who continued to push people back to work before it was safe -- for slave wages knowing that nobody can live on and certainly shouldn't have to die or lose their life for $7.25 an hour. They are the same ones who pushed for and prioritized getting the lethal injection drugs and concealing the identities of the companies that make those drugs. They are the ones who added firing squads as another option to make sure that no one on death row escapes capital punishment in this State. Even if the State kills innocent men, and women, in the process like it did to George Stinney, Jr. The ones who want guns in the hands of even reckless South Carolinians, without any training or concern about those who they know will do with those guns. The same thing Dylann Roof did when he walked into Mother Emmanuel AME Church and shot nine people to death in cold blood just because of the color of their skin. One was a man who served with many of the men who were blocking us from even debating the Hate Crimes Bill for the second year in a row. How can we call ourselves pro-life, because I'm pro-life. For those of you who may not realize it, because I care about the living. My sister Senators, all of us, are pro-life -- we prove that every single day inside and outside of this Chamber. How can we call ourselves pro-life as a Body if we're not outraged when yet another young, unarmed black man, or woman, is gunned down here or across the country? Where is the concern for women who are already working multiple minimum wage jobs and still struggling to make ends meet?

TUESDAY, MAY 23, 2023

Where is the accountability for the men who impregnate these women and girls? Some consensually, others by force. I know that there may be others who want to speak but I stand here today as a woman, as a mother, as a Senator, who is only one of five in this Body who can personally attest to what it takes to give birth and to raise a child in this State. And yet, I've got colleagues who I respect, and serve with who have admitted they're not doctors. They don't understand. I was over six weeks when I found out that I was pregnant with my first-born son. If my memory serves me correctly, I don't think I could even get an appointment with my ob/gyn until I was at least six-weeks pregnant.

The ridiculousness that we are debating yet again here today is utterly unconscionable. We know that you cannot legislate morality. We also know that we are not God. And yet we love playing God on every legislative Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and even come back after the session is supposedly officially over just to make sure that what the Supreme Court -- that had one woman justice on it at the time, what they deemed unconstitutional. The proponents of the six-week ban have made sure that they get another opportunity to send us back to send this back to the Supreme Court -- their all male Supreme Court.

So before I take my seat, I just want to say to all of the women and girls who are watching -- who are listening, many of whom are here. We thank you. We see you. And when I say we, I'm speaking for at least the five of us in here who understand, have firsthand knowledge about what it takes to carry a child to term, to carry a baby to term, to love that baby in the womb, to take care and to have the means to take care of ourselves in the process.

I can remember going to my doctor when I was much younger and living at home. I was sick and in and out of hospitals as a child, and wasn't diagnosed with sickle cell anemia until my freshman year at USC. My pediatrician, when I went back home, advised me that if I ever planned to have children, I should have them before or by the time I was 30. I never thought that advice, that medical advice, would hit me so deeply, but it is something I never forgot. I wondered why he said that. I remember asking, and he said, because the older you get, the more likely you are to have complications during and beyond pregnancy. Guess what, I was blessed to be able to have my first son at 25, which was very young. I was actually in law school -- my second son at 30 because what he said stuck with me. What we haven't said much from this well today is that every person who has spoken and given and shared a story about a constituent or family member or friend, or themselves, guess what -- the woman or girl who is at the center of those stories had one thing in common. It is called a choice. They had a choice. That's all we're asking. That's all we're asking. For the women and girls across South Carolina to have a meaningful choice. To make these decisions for themselves, like every other woman and girl has had. Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT.

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 2, Section 44-41-610, by adding a subsection to read:

(15) "Multifetal pregnancy" means a pregnancy in which there exists two or more fetuses.

(F) It is not a violation of Section 44-41-630 if an abortion is performed or induced on a pregnant woman who has a multifetal pregnancy, and in reasonable medical judgement, reducing the total number of fetuses by one or more is necessary to reduce the risk of maternal or perinatal morbidity or mortality.

Amend title to conform.

Senator GUSTAFSON spoke in favor of the amendment.

Senator GROOMS spoke against the amendment.

Remarks by Senator GROOMS

Men and women of the South Carolina Senate, very few issues divide like this one. There are many men and women in this Chamber I have great respect for, that see things differently on this issue than I do. There are men and women in my district that I know, love and respect that see this issue differently than I do.

In our nation's birth certificate, Jefferson speaks about certain rights: "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal." We "are endowed by our creator with certain unalienable rights, that among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." Here comes the important part: "To secure these rights, governments are instituted among men." The whole purpose of government, the reason we exist, the reason why we are in this Chamber, is stamped there on our nation's birth certificate: governments are instituted for a particular purpose and that is to secure the rights that God has blessed each of us with. Among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Notice the order in which they are listed: Life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. If this debate was only about the rights, the liberty of women, there's no question that we wouldn't be having this debate. But it is more than the liberty and rights of women. It is about the right to life. The right for little unborn girls to be born. The right for little unborn boys to be born -- to have a life, to be able to have rights. We have heard that it is about a choice. Human beings shouldn't be choices for someone to decide whether they live or die. We've heard about how we don't take care of those that are born, so the answer is death. If our social system is not what we would hope it would be, if family court is not what we hope it to be, if foster care is not what we hope it to be, the answer certainly isn't death.

We have a culture of life. We should be insisting on a culture that values life. This debate is about life -- if you order the rights as listed in our declaration statement: life, then liberty, then pursuit of happiness. If we don't preserve life, if we don't protect life, then the rest doesn't matter if someone can decide you are an inconvenience and you could just go away. Your life could then be aborted so it doesn't inconvenience us, it doesn't hurt us or harm us and it doesn't take away my opportunity for whatever in life. If you could be exterminated for convenience and the purpose of others, then what are we about? What are we doing? Life is important, life is the most important thing, because without life, nothing else matters.

On motion of Senator CROMER, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator GROOMS were ordered printed in the Journal.

The question then was the adoption of the amendment.

The amendment is not adopted.

Amendment No. 19

Senators HUTTO and SHEALY proposed the following amendment (SR-474.JG1204S), which was not adopted:

Amend the bill, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:
SECTION 1. Section 44-41-10 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 44-41-10. As used in this chapter:

(a)(1) "Abortion" means the use of an instrument, medicine, drug, or other substance or device with intent to terminate the pregnancy of a woman known to be pregnant for reasons other than to increase the probability of a live birth, to preserve the life or health of the child after live birth, or to remove a dead fetus.

TUESDAY, MAY 23, 2023

~~(b)~~(2) “Physician” means a person licensed to practice medicine in this State.

~~(c)~~(3) “Department” means the South Carolina Department of Health and Environmental Control.

~~(d)~~(4) “Hospital” means those institutions licensed for hospital operation by the department in accordance with Article 3, Chapter 7 of this title and which have also been certified by the department to be suitable facilities for the performance of abortions.

~~(e)~~(5) “Clinic” shall mean any facility other than a hospital as defined in subsection (d) which has been licensed by the department, and which has also been certified by the department to be suitable for the performance of abortions.

~~(f)~~(6) “Pregnancy” means the condition of a woman carrying a fetus or embryo within her body as the result of conception.

~~(g)~~(7) “Conception” means the fecundation of the ovum by the spermatozoa.

~~(h)~~(8) “Consent” means a signed and witnessed voluntary agreement to the performance of an abortion.

~~(i)~~(9) “First trimester of pregnancy” means the first twelve weeks of pregnancy commencing with conception rather than computed on the basis of the menstrual cycle.

~~(j)~~ “Second trimester of pregnancy” means that portion of a pregnancy following the twelfth week and extending through the twenty-fourth week of gestation.

~~(k)~~ “Third trimester of pregnancy” means that portion of a pregnancy beginning with the twenty-fifth week of gestation.

~~(l)~~(10) “Viability” means that stage of human development when the fetus is potentially able to live outside of the mother’s womb with or without the aid of artificial life support systems. For the purposes of this chapter, a legal presumption is hereby created that viability occurs no sooner than the twenty-fourth week of pregnancy.

~~(m)~~(11) “Minor” means a female under the age of seventeen.

~~(n)~~(12) “Emancipated minor” means a minor who is or has been married or has by court order been freed from the care, custody, and control of her parents.

~~(o)~~(13) “In loco parentis” means any person over the age of eighteen who has placed himself or herself in the position of a lawful parent by assuming obligations which are incidental to the parental relationship and has so served for a period of sixty days.

TUESDAY, MAY 23, 2023

(14) "Medical Emergency" means a condition that, in reasonable medical judgment, a condition exists that has complicated the pregnant woman's medical condition and necessitates an abortion to prevent death or a serious risk of a substantial and irreversible physical impairment of a major bodily function, not including psychological or emotional conditions. A condition must not be considered a medical emergency if based on a claim or diagnosis that a woman will engage in conduct that she intends to result in her death or in a substantial and irreversible physical impairment of a major bodily function.

(15) "Fatal fetal anomaly" means that, in reasonable medical judgment, the unborn child has a profound and irremediable congenital or chromosomal anomaly that, with or without the provision of life-preserving treatment, would be incompatible with sustaining life after birth.

(16) "Gestational Age" means the age of an unborn child as calculated from the first day of the last menstrual period of a pregnant woman.

(17) "Spontaneous miscarriage" means the natural or accidental termination of pregnancy and the expulsion of the human fetus, typically caused by genetic defects in the human fetus or physical abnormalities in the pregnant woman.

SECTION 2. Section 44-41-20 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 44-41-20. ~~(A) Abortion shall be a criminal act except when performed under the following circumstances:~~ It is unlawful to perform or induce an abortion if the probable gestational age of the child is more than twelve weeks.

~~—(a) During the first trimester of pregnancy the abortion is performed with the pregnant woman's consent by her attending physician pursuant to his professional medical judgment.~~

~~—(b) During the second trimester of pregnancy the abortion is performed with the pregnant woman's consent by her attending physician in a hospital or clinic certified by the Department.~~ (B) The prohibition on abortions performed or induced on a pregnant woman after the probable gestational age of the child is more than twelve weeks contained in subsection (A) do not apply if:

(1) the pregnancy is the result of an act of criminal sexual conduct, regardless of the degree of criminal sexual conduct, and the probable gestational age of the child is not more than twenty weeks;

(2) the pregnancy is the result of incest, and the probable gestational age of the child is not more than twenty weeks;

(3) there exists a fatal fetal anomaly; or

(4) there exists a medical emergency.

TUESDAY, MAY 23, 2023

~~—(c) During the third trimester of pregnancy, the abortion is performed with the pregnant woman's consent, and if married and living with her husband the consent of her husband, in a certified hospital, and only if the attending physician and one additional consulting physician, who shall not be related to or engaged in private practice with the attending physician, certify in writing to the hospital in which the abortion is to be performed that the abortion is necessary based upon their best medical judgment to preserve the life or health of the woman. In the event that the preservation of the woman's mental health is certified as the reason for the abortion, an additional certification shall be required from a consulting psychiatrist who shall not be related to or engaged in private practice with the attending physician. All facts and reasons supporting such certification shall be set forth by the attending physician in writing and attached to such certificate.~~

SECTION 3. Section 44-41-30(D) of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

(D) In cases of incest or criminal sexual conduct that result in pregnancy, the physician performing the abortion shall report the alleged incest or criminal sexual conduct to the local county department of social services or to a law enforcement agency in the county where the child resides or is found pursuant to Section 63-7-410. ~~Failure to report is a violation punishable under the child abuse laws of this State.~~

SECTION 4. Section 44-41-80 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 44-41-80. ~~(a)~~ Any person, except as permitted by this chapter, who provides, supplies, prescribes or administers any drug, medicine, prescription or substance to any woman or uses or employs any device, instrument or other means upon any woman, with the intent to ~~produce~~ perform or induce an abortion shall be deemed guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, shall be punished by imprisonment for a term of not less than two nor more than five years or fined not more than five thousand dollars, or both. Remarks by Senator HUTTO

I would like to thank the women of South Carolina who have come out over and over to tell us they do not want this abortion ban to pass, even though the majority in the Legislature will not listen to them. Thank you for what you have done for yourselves, your sisters and your daughters. You have let us know where you stand and, by and large, you have been ignored.

I want you to remember, there were five sister Senators who stood for you repeatedly. There was a solid Democratic Caucus who stood for the women of South Carolina and for the doctors of South Carolina. As time goes forward and you look back on this day -- when you reflect on those who took away your rights and who do not trust you to make decisions -- it was the Republicans who said that to you. They do not trust you. Democrats trust you to make decisions, and we will continue this fight as we go forward.

I heard the Republicans state that they are for life, but every single one voted for abortion to be legal up to six weeks. How is that? How can you possibly vote for that, then tell us you are for life? I surmise, it is okay if you do it fast enough.

TUESDAY, MAY 23, 2023

When you wake up, when your daughters wake up, when your sisters wake up and they want to know who took away their rights, it was the Republicans. The five sister Senators did not. The Democrats did not.

On motion of Senator MALLOY, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator HUTTO were ordered printed in the Journal.

Senator SENN spoke in favor of the amendment.

Senator MALLOY spoke in favor of the amendment.

The question then was the adoption of the amendment.

The amendment was not adopted.

Amendment No. 7A

Senator MATTHEWS proposed the following amendment (SR-474.JG1208S), which was not adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 2, by striking Section 44-41-610(14) and inserting:

(14) "Unborn child" means an individual organism of the species homo sapiens from fertilization until live birth.

Remarks by Senator MATTHEWS

A lot of you do not know it, but I like country music. I like all sorts of music that I can understand the lyrics and words to. "Sometimes you got to know when to hold 'em and know when to fold 'em, got to know when to walk away, and know when to run." I have heard from the floor of this Senate so many great speeches. People pouring out their souls. But I sit back, and I look at the people that they are pouring it out to -- standing over in the corners, talking, ignoring them, walking away, doing what they have to do, not paying any attention. You know there are a lot of things we all could be doing, but I do know one thing, 100,000 people per Senator voted on us and you won't give them the respect to listen to your co-Senators -- you won't give them the respect to hear or to consider. I understand it; it is what it is.

TUESDAY, MAY 23, 2023

I hear so many things from this lectern. One of those things is, "Oh, you know, government involvement, church and state, all sorts of things." You know, Jefferson's words, my God, I just came from my daughter's graduation at the University of Virginia and that is all they talked about... Jefferson's words. They talked about those words, but you know it is all in your point of reference of what life, liberty and pursuit of happiness is. You weren't worried about that life, liberty and pursuit of happiness when my ancestors were being used. Life, liberty and pursuit of happiness -- you aren't so worried about it when you talk about what a woman's life, liberty and pursuit of happiness might be. What is your point of reference? Everybody has a different point of reference of what equality is. What living out their pursuit of happiness is. When you, the man, impregnate a woman, it is her liberty that is affected and it depends upon where she is in her life on whether or not that child will be born and how she will deal with that pregnancy. Do you know what? I also agree, as has been said, that there is a balancing act. That balancing act is one of when is that child going to be viable? When is that mother in the state of mind that she could nurture a healthy child? If you truly care about that child, you need that mother to be able to nurture a child. We do not even care. Everybody walks away every time we talk about it -- in the State of South Carolina that we are number four in infant mortality. We have sixteen counties with no OB/GYNs, but do you care? No.

Life, liberty, pursuit of happiness -- we have asked you if you really want to do your jobs and if you are so right -- as you sit and ignore me -- if you are so right and you care about the 51% of women in South Carolina, what do you have to lose? Put it as a referendum -- put this issue as a referendum. Let the women decide. Otherwise, you've done what you've always done, ignored women. How many of you have women in your family -- mothers? I hope you do -- daughters, granddaughters, sisters? I know they are telling you something. When you start talking about this Constitution, I want the people of South Carolina to know the same people who are advocating as pro-life -- they are really just pro-birth. They are the same people that are supported by NRA and they're playing politics with your children, with your daughters, with your sisters -- they are playing politics. These are the same people that talk about the involvement of government. These are the same people that talk about their second amendment right, the right to bear arms. These are the same people who use that Constitution only when they want to. These are the same people who ignore the fact that the First Amendment says, "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment or religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof.” In other words, the people have religious liberty, and the government cannot establish an official religion that favors one over another or even favors nonreligion over another.

On motion of Senator FANNING, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senators MATTHEWS were ordered printed in the Journal.

Senator SHEALY spoke against the amendment.

The question then was the adoption of the amendment.

The amendment was not adopted.

The question then being concurrence in the House amendments.

The Senate concurred in the House amendments and a message was sent to the House accordingly. Ordered that the title be changed to that of an Act and the Act enrolled for Ratification.

Statement by Senators SETZLER and WILLIAMS

I voted for Amendment No. 2A by Senator SHEALY, which was an amendment that did not allow for abortion after twelve weeks, except when necessary to save the life of the mother or if a fatal fetal anomaly is detected. I voted not to concur on the House amendment because it is basically the same law that the South Carolina Supreme Court recently ruled was unconstitutional.

Statement by Senator McELVEEN

I did not vote in support of S. 474 for the same reasons stated previously in my note in the January 27, 2021, Senate Journal as it related at that time to S. 1, a Bill that passed and became a law that was subsequently ruled unconstitutional by the South Carolina Supreme Court.

I represent many rural areas, some with few to no resident physicians and with limited access to health care. As such, I remain concerned about the criminal prosecution of physicians which is included in S. 474. This will not only conflict, frustrate, and clash with a doctor's ability to treat his or her patients, but will also adversely affect our state's ability to recruit and retain doctors -- especially in underserved areas.

The South Carolina Supreme Court struck down S. 1 on grounds that the law violated a state constitutional right to privacy, yet S. 474 completely ignores that January 5, 2023, opinion from our state's highest court by requiring that a woman's private health information must be reported to law enforcement in certain instances -- even when it is against the woman's wishes.

I previously supported H. 3114, the S.C. Pain-Capable Unborn Protection Act, or the "20-week abortion ban" in 2015 and 2016, which was ultimately passed and signed into law.

On today's date, I voted in favor of Senator SHEALY's amendment to S. 474 which sought to move the effective date of the Bill from six weeks of pregnancy to after the first trimester of pregnancy (or twelve weeks), and which also included the exceptions of rape, incest, fetal anomaly, and medical emergency, without further caveats or qualifiers.

Had Senator SHEALY's amendment to the Legislation been adopted, I would have voted in favor of S. 474.

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The Extraordinary Session of the General Assembly of the State of South Carolina, begun and holden at Columbia on the second Wednesday in June, being the 14th day of the month.

The Senate assembled at 12:00 Noon, the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Matthew 25:40

We read in Matthew's Gospel: "The King will answer them, 'Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.' "

Please bow with me as we pray: Most gracious and loving God, You have given huge responsibility to each of these leaders who yet again gather in this Chamber to labor on behalf of the residents of our State. Truly, every woman, man and child in South Carolina is counting on these Senators and their aides to achieve results that are absolutely fair and worthy of praise. Therefore, we fervently pray that You, O God, will bless and direct each one of these servants to do just that: to work diligently toward securing a bold and meaningful future for every single one of our citizens. And in addition, as always, we pray that You will bless our women and men in uniform wherever they happen to serve as they strive to bring peace to this battle-weary world. All of this, dear Lord, we humbly pray in Your loving name. Amen.

Remarks by Senator McELVEEN

Mr. PRESIDENT, thank you. I have a great group of young men and women who have been patiently waiting introduction but before we get to that, Mr. PRESIDENT, I thought it would be appropriate to take a quick minute -- I heard Senator MALLOY talking about one of our own -- our great, late friend Senator Pinckney, and I think it's important we take time to recognize those among us who are doing great things.

I want to take a minute today to talk about a Senator who is currently serving but today he is not here. This person is a graduate, accomplished businessman, outstanding attorney, a dedicated father and husband as well as a friend to many. If you don't know who I'm talking about -- I'm talking about Senator GOLDFINCH. Senator GOLDFINCH came into the South Carolina House of Representatives when I came into the Senate. He joined us in 2016 after the retirement of our great friend Senator Cleary. In those eleven years, my family has become great friends with Senator GOLDFINCH's family in Georgetown. Senator CAMPSER, I won't call him the greatest outdoorsman in the South Carolina Senate, but I put him in the top five -- I think you probably would agree. For those of us who have known him and have served with him I think everyone would probably agree that he is someone who is definitely not afraid to stand by his convictions. He's someone who does the right thing even when it's unpopular sometimes. What he's doing right now is nothing short of extraordinary -- because he doesn't have to do it.

I know that all of you know that quite some time ago he joined the JAG Corps of the Army National Guard and he's been gone a bit during this session because he's been in officer training. Many of you know tomorrow is the day he deploys. He is undoubtedly going to an area of the world for quite a long period of time that has a lot of instability, a lot of turmoil. I just stand today to recognize him. The Senator is obviously taking leave today, and he's exactly where he needs to be right now -- with his family as he gets ready to leave tomorrow. Mr. PRESIDENT, I would just ask the members of the Body to please remember the Goldfinch family in your prayers every day. I know my family will. Mr. PRESIDENT, if it's appropriate I would ask unanimous consent when the Senate adjourns today that it does so in honor of Senator GOLDFINCH. I also ask that we give him a big round of applause to send him off.

On motion of Senator CAMPSSEN, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator McELVEEN were ordered printed in the Journal.

Expression of Personal Interest

Senator JACKSON rose for an Expression of Personal Interest.

Remarks by Senator JACKSON

Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT. Members of the Senate, I stand to talk about hate crimes once again. I will take, hopefully, the five minutes but would like to end with a very special presentation. There are two handouts that I've put on your desk. One is a wonderful quote by Elie Wiesel who is the 1986 Nobel Peace Prize winner, Chairman of the President's Commission on Holocaust Survivors. Someone that I'm sure we all have heard. His quote I think is very relevant to where we are on hate crimes. As I said earlier, this issue is not going away. Next year I hope to be back here again trying in the same manner to at least get a vote on hate crimes. But let me read to you Mr. Wiesel's quote. It says "The opposite of love is not hate, it's indifference." The opposite -- it says the opposite of -- "The opposite of art is not ugliness, it is indifference. The opposite of faith is not heresy, it's indifference. The opposite of life is not death, it is indifference." I think that that's important on this day which may or may not be our last day of the session to understand that indifference is action, and it is action toward doing absolutely nothing.

Again, I want to remind you South Carolina is one of only two states without hate crimes. The other is the state of Wyoming. The last handout is a picture of all the nine victims who lost their lives tragically with the Emmanuel Nine. I did not realize my great friend pastor Clementa

Pinckney's daughter would be here today. But perhaps it is appropriate because this Saturday will mark another anniversary of the Emmanuel Nine, June 17, 2015, and so I often say that when we pass Legislation, we do it without faces. I just wanted you to see the faces of those that we're trying to represent when we talk about hate crimes.

Mr. PRESIDENT, finally, I would like to conclude by showing a presentation from our former colleague, Senator and Pastor Reverend Clementa Pinckney who was a dear, dear friend. In fact, I've said this before. Senator Pinckney and I, on that day, were in Senate Finance sitting next to each other. Senator PEELER, he told me he was going back to Charleston for a special meeting. I leaned over and said to him, "Clem, why do you have to drive back there?" He says, "There are some young people whose lives I'm trying to change", and he looked at me and the very last words he said to me were, "I will see you in the morning." I will see you in the morning -- very last words I heard from Senator Pinckney as he grabbed his bag, and he left out of the door. I want to leave you with his words on converting those who are doubters. He talks about doubting Thomas and how Thomas was converted and I hope that if there are any of us that are doubting whether we need to have hate crimes -- I hope after hearing and seeing these iconic words from our colleagues that you, too, like Thomas would be converted. Reverend Thomas said, "I am converted because I have felt it and now, I have seen it for myself." Thank you, members. I hope you have a great summer and I do hope at least -- at least we get to debate and vote on hate crimes, and my prayer is next year this time there will only perhaps be one state without hate crimes and maybe that state would be Wyoming, but it certainly will not be South Carolina. Thank you. I'd like for the presentation to conclude my Point of Personal Interest.

On motion of Senator McELVEEN, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator JACKSON were ordered printed in the Journal.

Remarks by Senator SHEALY

Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT. You all just received a few minutes ago the Committee on Children's report for 2023 which is filled with a lot of important information, so I hope that you will review this. But, I'm going to give you a quick overview about the committee's work, the positive highlights and some things we need to work on.

The Joint Citizens and Legislative Committee on Children was enacted to research and report on children's issues, make recommendations to the Governor and to the General Assembly. This children's data reference book contains four years of state data, as well as the county and national data, including key indicators on safety, child welfare, health, juvenile justice and education. Positive things are happening in child welfare. Investments in child welfare really are working. I hope you all are listening -- it looks like we've had a recess here -- there is a steady increase in the number of children being placed in kinship care instead of foster care -- if you all remember, we passed Legislation for people who take their children into kinship placements, so that they can be paid and can afford to take the children into kinship care -- from two hundred eighty-two children in January 2019 to eight hundred eighty-six children in December 2022, so fewer children are going into foster care and are being able to stay with family members. Congregate care placements are trending down. From eight hundred eighty-three in January 2019, to four hundred sixty in December 2022. Childcare centers continue to rebound from the COVID-19 pandemic with a substantial drop in facility closures and an increase in the number of facility openings. Investment in children's mental health seems to be paying off. Suicide rates are trending down from a high of thirty-nine suicides in 2019, twenty-eight each in 2020 and 2021, down to twenty in 2022 -- that's still too many. Investments in juvenile justice are showing some progress. While referrals to DJJ were up in 2022, the number of youths committed was down fifteen percent from 2021.

Now here are some of the negative things: In 2022, six hundred forty-seven children died in our State. DHEC's updated 2022 data reflects an alarming increase in infant mortality rates. While provisional infant mortality rates for 2022 are slightly below the 2021 rates, far too many South Carolina children die before their first birthday. Homicides increased over the last two years to their highest rates since 2009. Homicide is the top cause of deaths for ages fifteen to seventeen for the second straight year. Homicide is the second most common cause of death for children ages ten to fourteen. Gun injuries were the number one cause of death for South Carolina children ages one to seventeen for 2020, 2021 and 2022. Guns were involved in fifty-two child homicides and fourteen suicides in 2022. Non-fatal gun injuries to children have steadily increased from two hundred ten in 2019, to three hundred fifty-six in 2022 for children ages birth to seventeen years. The waiting list -- and this to me -- you need to listen to this because we're trying to change it. We have a stopping point on the other side of the hall. The waiting list for DDSN waivers is too large and the wait for services is too long. Individuals are waiting years, years and many of them are children. For the intellectually -- for intellectual disabilities and related disabilities waivers, there are seventeen thousand one hundred twenty-one total on the wait list as of April 30, 2023. An estimated eleven thousand two hundred three of these individuals are children under the age of twenty-one. For the community support waiver, thirteen thousand one hundred nine total are on the wait list as of April 30, 2023. An estimated nine thousand one hundred twenty-six of these individuals are children under the age of twenty-one.

What are the next steps we take? These numbers highlight what we need to do to improve children's well-being in our State. We encourage you to put the information in this book to good use and to partner with the children's committee to make our State safer and healthier, so that our children in our State can flourish. There are a lot of things that we can do to make South Carolina a better State for our children. We can make the laws in our State better. We can help our children. We can make our agencies better. We can change what happens at DDSN. We can change what happens at the Department of Juvenile Justice, and nobody can do that but us. So, when you look in the mirror, look at what we're doing to make those differences. Thank you.

On motion of Senator DAVIS, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator SHEALY were ordered printed in the Journal.

Motion to Ratify Adopted

At 12:31 P.M., Senator PEELER asked unanimous consent to make a motion to invite the House of Representatives to attend the Senate Chamber for the purpose of ratifying Acts at a mutually convenient time.

There was no objection and a message was sent to the House accordingly.

Senator FANNING spoke on the Resolution.

Read the first time and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Remarks by Senator FANNING

Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, this comprehensive tax reform proposal is a Bill aimed at tackling our state's high tax rates. South Carolina's tax rate is the 11th highest in the Nation, as percentage of income, 17th highest in our sales tax. Our income taxes are coming down, but not as much as the Finance Chairman originally wanted them to. And the reason is special interests. We got there because we used to have a three-legged stool that was the foundation of our tax system: property taxes, income taxes and sales taxes.

In 2006, we chopped a leg off of that stool and, as a result, our businesses and industries pay among the highest property taxes in the Nation. In fact, today, businesses pay 48% of the property taxes in the State. Other state's businesses only pay 33% of their state's property taxes. Our tax on second homes is also among the highest in the Nation. Second homes in other states typically tax 50% more than on primary residences -- in South Carolina, 100% to 150% more than on your primary residence. The second leg of the stool is income taxes that I talked about earlier. The third leg of the stool is sales tax. Our 6% sales tax, 17th highest in the country, brings in over $3 billion in revenue but we exempt almost $4 billion in revenue -- meaning our sales tax rate is twice what it needs to be to raise the same amount of revenue.

Who benefits? Not the taxpayers who are paying the highest rate -- not our businesses paying insane rates (highest in the country) -- only the special interests -- over two hundred special interests. We don't have time to go over all of them. You know about the car sales tax caps? If you buy a used Hyundai, you are paying the same in sales tax as someone buying a $50,000 truck. But we may not know that this also applies to Winnebagos, leer jets and yachts. Additionally, we tax supplies for laundry mats, but not dry cleaners. We tax the sale of an FM radio station but not an AM radio station. When I fix my carburetor in Ole Yella, I'll pay $12 in taxes for that carburetor; but leer jet parts are tax free. We tax 30% of the rental of a portable toilet but not the other 70% of the portable toilet. And no one knows why. The big reason why is that we have an archaic tax system which was written in the 1940's when we taxed things -- tangible goods -- then 68% of the goods were tangible. Today, we are in a service economy where two out of every three things bought and sold are services. We have never refined our tax code and as a result we only tax thirty-five out of one hundred sixty-eight services. Other states have reformed their tax code. Nebraska taxes 74 services; we tax 35 -- Florida -- 64 -- Tennessee -- 67 -- West Virginia -- 110. What is the commonality with all those states? They have lower tax rates than we do. We tax cell phones, but we don't tax dating services and private massages. We tax diaper services but not pet grooming. We tax your funeral -- tax you into the grave, but we don't tax you when you go to jail and get out on bond, tax free. We tax photo copying and printing but not telemarketing and taxidermy. And we give huge tax incentives to bring big industries to South Carolina -- which we have to do because our rates are so high; but, our rates are so high because we give out all of these special interest exemptions.

And so, what this Bill does -- it is a comprehensive tax reform Bill that does four things:

1. significantly reduces rates for all;
2. restores the stability of the three-legged stool;
3. makes South Carolina tax rates, every one of them, among the lowest in the country; and
4. is fair and transparent -- treating our small businesses the same way we treat our large industries.

This Bill, if passed, will immediately reduce the sales tax rate from $0.06 to $0.04 and eventually moving it to $0.03. We keep the exemptions that benefit everyone -- drugs, food and electricity. We keep the exemptions for inputs -- business inputs -- only taxing outputs and uses that $2.7 billion, not as one-tax rebates, but to permanently lower tax rates for all citizens. Secondly, we take the Chairman's original proposal for income tax rates and accelerate the plan that is now at 6.4% down to 5.5% on income tax rates. Finally, for property taxes, we allow our locals to balance property taxes between businesses and homeowners.

Mr. PRESIDENT, I thank you for the opportunity to introduce this Bill. I hope you all will read this Bill in the off season -- as it is only four hundred pages -- and that you will join with me in January in tackling the real issue of tax reform that we have not tackled one time since the TRAC Commission Report was issued back in 2010. Thank you.

SOUTH CAROLINA CODE OF LAWS BY ADDING SECTION 17-15-270 SO AS TO PROVIDE SENTENCING ENHANCEMENTS FOR PERSONS WHO COMMIT CERTAIN ADDITIONAL CRIMES WHILE ON PRETRIAL RELEASE ON BOND; BY ADDING SECTION 17-15-280 SO AS TO PROHIBIT PRETRIAL RELEASE ON BOND FOR PERSONS CHARGED WITH COMMITTING CERTAIN ADDITIONAL CRIMES AND TO PROVIDE APPROPRIATE PROCEDURES FOR DETERMINING IF ADDITIONAL CHARGES ARE PENDING; AND BY AMENDING SECTION 17-15-15, RELATING TO THE DEPOSIT OF A CASH PERCENTAGE IN LIEU OF BOND, SO AS TO REQUIRE A FULL CASH BOND FOR PERSONS CHARGED WITH CERTAIN CRIMES.

Beg leave to report that they have duly and carefully considered the same and recommend:

That the same do pass with the following amendments:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

SECTION 1. Chapter 15, Title 17 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 17-15-270. (A) It is unlawful for a person to commit a violent crime while under a bond order or other pretrial release order for a previous violent crime. If the person is convicted of the subsequent violent crime, and is thereafter convicted of a violation of this section, the person is guilty of a felony and must be imprisoned not more than five years. The sentence may be imposed concurrently or consecutively to the punishment for the principal offense.

(B) For purposes of this section:

(1) a violent crime is defined as those contained in Section 16-1-60;

(2) a subsequent violent crime is one that occurs at a later date and time than the offense that resulted in the imposition of the bond order or other pretrial release order.

SECTION 2. Section 17-15-15 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 17-15-15. (A) Except as provided in subsection (D), in lieu of requiring actual posting of bond as provided in ~~subsection (A) of~~ Section 17-15-10(A), the court setting bond may permit the defendant to deposit in cash with the clerk of court an amount not to exceed ten percent of the amount of bond set, which amount, when the defendant fulfills the condition of the bond, ~~shall~~ must be returned to the defendant by the clerk except as provided in subsection (C).

(B) The cash deposit provided for in subsection (A) ~~shall~~ must be assignable at any time after it is posted with the clerk of court by written assignment executed by the defendant and delivered to the clerk. After assignment and after the defendant fulfills the condition of his bond, the clerk shall return the cash deposit to the assignee ~~thereof~~.

(C) In the event the cash deposit is not assigned but the defendant is required by the court to make restitution to the victim of his crime, ~~such~~ the deposit may be used for the purpose of ~~such~~ restitution.

(D) The provisions of this section do not apply if the defendant is charged with a violent offense, as defined by Section 16-1-60, or any felony offense involving a firearm while out on bond or other pretrial release. If the court, pursuant to the limitations of Section 17-15-30, finds that such defendant may be released pending trial, bond must be set at the full United States currency cash bond to the exclusion of all other forms of bond whether the bond is posted by the defendant or with a bondsman. After the defendant fulfills the conditions of the bond, the clerk shall return the cash bond amount paid to the defendant. However, in the event the defendant is required by the court to make restitution to the victim of his crime, the cash bond may be used for the purpose of such restitution.

Any currency cash bond must be conditioned on the person charged personally appearing before the court specified to answer the charge or indictment and to do and receive what is enjoined by the court, and not to leave the State, and be of good behavior toward all the citizens of the State, or especially toward a person or persons specified by the court. Additionally, the court may impose any other conditions allowed under Chapter 15 , Title 17, and any other provision of law.

SECTION 3. Section 17-15-30 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 17-15-30. (A) In determining conditions of release that will reasonably assure appearance, or if release would constitute an unreasonable danger to the community or an individual, a court may, on the basis of the following information, consider the nature and circumstances of an offense charged and the charged person's:

- (1) family ties;
- (2) employment;
- (3) financial resources;
- (4) character and mental condition;
- (5) length of residence in the community;
- (6) record of convictions; and
- (7) record of flight to avoid prosecution or failure to appear at other court proceedings.

(B) A court ~~shall~~ must consider:

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 14, 2023

- (1) a person's criminal record;
- (2) any current charges pending against a person and any prior charges against a person at the time release is requested;
- (3) all incident reports generated as a result of an offense charged;
- (4) whether a person is an alien unlawfully present in the United States, and poses a substantial flight risk due to this status;~~and~~
- (5) whether the charged person appears in the state gang database maintained at the State Law Enforcement Division; and
- (6) whether a person is currently out on bond for another offense.

(C)(1) Prior to or at the time of a hearing, the arresting law enforcement agency ~~shall~~ must provide the court with the following information:

- (a) a person's criminal record;
- (b) any charges pending against a person at the time release is requested;
- (c) all incident reports generated as a result of the offense charged; and
- (d) any other information that will assist the court in determining conditions of release to include, but not be limited to, notification of any existing bonds for another offense.

(2) The arresting law enforcement agency shall inform the court if any of the information is not available at the time of the hearing and the reason the information is not available. Failure on the part of the law enforcement agency to provide the court with the information does not constitute grounds for the postponement or delay of the person's hearing. Notwithstanding the provisions of this item, when a person is charged with a violation of Chapter 25, Title 16, the bond hearing may not proceed without the person's criminal record and incident report or the presence of the arresting officer. The bond hearing for a violation of Chapter 25, Title 16 must occur within twenty-four hours after the arrest.

(D) A court hearing these matters has contempt powers to enforce the provisions of this section.

SECTION 4. Chapter 15, Title 17 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 17-15-35. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Approved active electronic monitoring device" and "monitoring device" means a body worn or non-body worn device or mobile phone application approved by the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division which records or transmits oral or wire communications or an auditory sound, visual images, or information regarding the person's location and activities, that must verify live biometric, photographic, or videographic identification information, and that timely records and reports the person's location.

(2) "Approved electronic monitoring agency" means a law enforcement agency, licensed bondsman or bonding company, or electronic monitoring company that is certified by the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division to supply, maintain, and monitor electronic monitoring devices to participants ordered by the court to wear electronic monitoring devices under the provisions of this section.

(3) "SLED" means the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division.

(4) "Monitoring agency" or "agency" means an approved electronic monitoring agency.

(5) "Participant" means a person, ordered by the court or as a condition of bond to wear or possess an approved electronic monitoring device.

(B)(1) The court, in its discretion, may, for a person charged with a violation of criminal offense under the jurisdiction of the court of general sessions or any offense where the court finds sufficient evidence of a concern for the victim's safety or the safety of any member of the public, order that the person be placed on surveillance via an approved active electronic monitoring device which must be worn or possessed at all times for the duration specified by the court, either in lieu of setting or requiring the posting of bond or as an additional condition of the release on bond.

(2) For pretrial bond consideration, the judge is not limited to nonviolent offenses, but must take into consideration all concerns relating to the setting of an appropriate bond under Section 22-5-510, Sections 17-15-10, et seq., and Section 16-25-120. The device must be capable of recording the person's location at all times. If the court orders a device, before the participant is allowed to leave custody, the detention facility where the defendant is located, in coordination with the approved monitoring agency, must ensure the participant is fitted with an approved active electronic monitoring device, and that all appropriate bond paperwork, including the agreement with the bonding and electronic monitoring companies acknowledging the terms and restrictions of the bond, is completed.

(3) The participant who is ordered on supervision must:

(a) wear an approved device at all times to verify his compliance with the conditions of his detention or if the device is not body worn, must maintain possession of his approved device on or near his person at all times for the duration of the detention and must verify his identity and location at any time required by the order of the court and must maintain the monitoring device on or near his person at all times for the duration of the detention, subject to the order of the court and reasonable orders of an agent or employee of the monitoring agency in order to effectuate the conditions of the monitoring order. For purposes of this subsection, “near” means within hearing distance of the device’s notification or call alerts but not farther than thirty feet. In areas of the State where cellular coverage requires the use of an alternate device, the approved electronic monitoring company may use an alternate approved device with approval of the court;

(b) charge and maintain the monitoring device in working order and must report any damage, destruction, or noticeable malfunction of the active monitoring device, whether the incident was accidental or intentional, and including the device having a dead battery, to at least one of the following parties within two hours of the incident: the monitoring agency, the appropriate law enforcement agency with jurisdiction over the underlying offense, or any other party specified in the order;

(c) abide by other terms and conditions set forth by the approved electronic monitoring agency with regard to the monitoring device and electronic monitoring program;

(d) turn himself in to custody of the appropriate detention facility upon the order of the monitoring agency, or the appropriate law enforcement agency with jurisdiction over the offense; and

(e) pay for the cost of the approved active electronic monitoring device and the operation of the monitoring device for the duration of the time the person is required to be electronically monitored, subject to an order of indigency by the court. The summary court or circuit court has jurisdiction upon motion of the defendant to consider exempting a person from the payment of a part or all of the cost during a part or all of the duration of the time the person is required to be electronically monitored, if it is determined that exceptional circumstances exist such that these payments cause a severe hardship to the person who is deemed indigent. If the indigency hearing is held at a time and date separate from the initial bond hearing, the defense must notify the prosecutor, the bondsman, and the monitoring agency of the date, time, and location of the hearing subject to the notice requirements of the court.

The payment of the cost must be a condition of supervision of the person and a delinquency of two weeks or more in making payments may operate as a violation of a term or condition of the electronic monitoring and bond. No person shall be denied the privilege of electronic monitoring under this statute based on inability to pay upon a finding by the court that the defendant meets the qualifications for indigency. The State shall allocate funds to be housed in an indigency fund under the control of the Department of Public Safety to be distributed to the monitoring companies as appropriate to cover the cost of indigent participants.

(C) A participant ordered by the court to be monitored under the provisions of this section, who fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section or who fails to comply with any additional condition of the court order including location restrictions, may have his bond revoked or may be punished for contempt at the discretion of the court.

(D) It is unlawful for any person, knowingly and without authority, to remove, tamper with, damage, destroy, shield the signal from, or otherwise circumvent an active electronic monitoring device, or to aid or assist a person ordered by the court to be electronically monitored under the provisions of this section to remove, tamper with, damage, destroy, shield the signal from, or otherwise circumvent a monitoring device and, upon conviction, the person must be punished under the provisions of Section 24-13-425. This subsection does not apply to a person or agent of the electronic monitoring agency or bonding company, or a member of law enforcement acting under the authority of and with compliance to the court order.

(E)(1) Upon violation of any of these requirements and a showing by affidavit and supporting records by the electronic monitoring company on a domestic violence bond or general sessions bond or where emergency circumstances exist on any other bond, the approved electronic monitoring company may approach a summary court judge for a bench warrant if one is not already provided for in the bond paperwork or other court order. Law enforcement shall immediately attempt to locate and incarcerate the defendant upon notice of the bench warrant. After incarceration, the prosecutor must be notified and the defendant must be brought before a summary court judge within three calendar days or before a circuit court judge within three business days, whichever has jurisdiction of the underlying charge, to determine whether the bond is to be reconsidered or bond conditions amended. The prosecution must provide the defense with any relevant evidence regarding the alleged violation within a reasonable time before the hearing and the hearing may be continued for cause.

(2) Nothing in this section shall reduce any duty of the bondsman to pick up the offending bailee and immediately incarcerate him for violation of bond conditions. Failure to do so may lead to bond estreatment for failure to enforce bond conditions by the bondsman and possible other administrative or criminal action.

(3) Nothing in this section may be used to hold the electronic monitoring agency civilly liable for any criminal acts of the defendant committed while being monitored.

SECTION 5. Chapter 15, Title 17 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 17-15-37. (A) The South Carolina Law Enforcement Division may promulgate regulations to effectuate the intent of Section 17-15-35 and this section, develop standards for the use and approval of active electronic monitoring devices, and shall certify electronic monitoring agencies, including law enforcement agencies, electronic monitoring companies, and bondsmen and bonding companies. SLED must keep a public list of those companies that are certified.

(B) The approved electronic monitoring agency must:

(1) provide active electronic monitoring devices or mobile phone applications approved by SLED that must provide verifiable identity and location information at regular and random intervals throughout the day, and that timely record and report the person's presence near or within a prohibited area or the person's departure from a specified geographic location;

(2) allow any law enforcement agency, including the prosecutor's office, to have access to real-time monitoring, if possible, and any reports requested by law enforcement or the prosecution must be provided within twenty-four hours of the request;

(3) notify the solicitor having jurisdiction over the participant and the bondsman within forty-eight hours when he becomes aware or should have become aware that the participant has violated any provision of the court's order for electronic monitoring, or the participant has been surrendered to the custody of law enforcement; and

(4) immediately notify local law enforcement and make reasonable attempts to immediately notify the victim if the participant violates any exclusion zones related to the victim.

(C) Failure of the electronic monitoring agency to maintain compliance with regulations established by SLED, the order of the court, or any applicable statute shall be reported to SLED by the solicitor for administrative action. SLED may impose a fine, or suspend or revoke the certification for any approved agency who demonstrates a failure to maintain the standards and reporting requirements set forth under the regulations and appropriate statutes.

SECTION 6. Section 17-15-55 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 17-15-55. (A)(1) The circuit courts, at their discretion, may review and reconsider bond for general sessions offenses set by summary court judges. Also, the circuit courts may consider motions regarding reconsideration of bond for general sessions offenses set by summary court judges upon motions filed with the clerks of court. Hearings on these motions must be scheduled. The rules of evidence do not apply to bond hearings.

(2) After a circuit court judge has heard and ruled upon a defendant's motion to reconsider a bond set by a summary court judge, further defense motions to reconsider may be heard by the circuit court only upon the defendant's prima facie showing of a material change in circumstances which relate to the factors provided in Section 17-15-30, and which have arisen since the prior motion to reconsider. In addition, the circuit court may hear further defense motions to reconsider based on the length of time the defendant has been held for trial after six months. The chief judge shall schedule a hearing or if such showing is not set forth in the written motion, deny the motion for failure to make a prima facie showing of a material change in circumstances. A defendant shall be advised of his right to a speedy trial. Information regarding the defendant's guilt or innocence does not qualify as a change in circumstances for purposes of reconsidering bond absent the solicitor's consent. Notwithstanding another provision of law, nothing prevents a solicitor or the defendant from filing a motion for a speedy trial or requesting the court to set a date certain for trial based on the facts and circumstances in the case. If either party fails to comply with the terms of an order granting a speedy trial, the court may reconsider the terms of the defendant's bond, may consider sanctions and may grant other just and proper relief as the court determines.

(B)(1) Motions by the State to revoke or modify a bond must be made in writing, state with particularity the grounds for revocation or modification, and set forth the relief or order sought. The motions must be filed with the clerks of court, and a copy must be served on the chief judge, defense counsel of record, and bond surety, if any. The court must have a hearing and rule on the state's motion within thirty days of the filing.

(2) After a circuit court judge has heard and ruled upon the state's motion to reconsider a bond set by a summary court judge, further state motions to reconsider may be heard by the circuit court only upon the state's prima facie showing of a material change in circumstances which have arisen since the prior motion to reconsider. The chief judge shall schedule a hearing or if such showing is not set forth in the written motion, deny the motion for failure to make a prima facie showing of a material change in circumstances.

(3) If the state's motion to revoke or modify bond includes a prima facie showing of imminent danger to the community, imminent danger to the defendant, or flight by the defendant, the chief judge or presiding judge shall conduct or order an emergency bond hearing to be conducted by the circuit court judge within forty-eight hours of receiving service of the state's motion or as soon as practical. The chief judge shall order the solicitor to notify the defense counsel of record and bond surety of the time and date of the hearing, and the solicitor shall provide proof that reasonable efforts were made to affect the notice. Upon notice by the State, the defense counsel of record and bond surety shall make reasonable efforts to notify the defendant of the emergency hearing. The court may proceed with the hearing despite the absence of the defendant or bond surety. The court may not proceed with the hearing if the defense counsel of record is not present. If an emergency bond hearing is held without the presence of the defendant and bond is revoked, the judge having heard the matter may conduct the hearing on the defendant's motion to reconsider the revocation. Defense motions to reconsider revocation must be filed with the clerk of court and served on the solicitor and bond surety.

(C) If a person commits a violent ~~crime~~ offense, as defined in Section 16-1-60, or any felony offense involving a firearm, which was committed when the person was already out on bond for a previous violent ~~crime~~ offense or any felony offense involving a firearm and the subsequent ~~violent crime~~ offense did not arise out of the same series of events as the previous ~~violent crime~~ offense, then:

(1) the bond hearing for the subsequent violent crime original offense must be revoked by operation of law and a hearing for the subsequent violent offense or any felony offense involving a firearm must be held in the circuit court within thirty days;

(2) during the bond hearing for the subsequent violent offense or felony offense involving a firearm, the court must issue findings of fact and conclusions of law addressing the revocation of bond for the original offense, whether a new bond is issued for the previous offense as well as if bond is appropriate for the subsequent violent offense or felony offense involving a firearm;

(3) If the court finds that certain conditions of release on bond will ensure that the person is unlikely to flee or pose a danger to any other person or the community and the person will abide by the terms of release on bond, the judge shall consider bond in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and set or amend bond accordingly.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 14, 2023

Notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 17-15-15, any bond set for a violent offense or felony offense involving a firearm committed when the person was already out on bond for a previous violent offense or felony offense involving a firearm must be deposited to the court in cash or its equivalent in full, notwithstanding if posted by the person, his representative, or by a bond surety;

(4) If the court finds no such conditions will ensure that the person is unlikely to flee or not pose a danger to the community, the court shall not set a bond for the instant offense and must revoke all previously set bonds; and

~~(D)-(5)~~ If a person commits a violent ~~crime~~ offense, as defined in Section 16-1-60, or felony offense involving a firearm which was committed when the person was already out on bond for a previous violent ~~crime~~ offense or felony offense involving a firearm, and the subsequent violent ~~crime~~ offense did not arise out of the same series of events as the previous violent ~~crime~~ offense, then the arresting law enforcement agency must transmit notice of the second arrest, implicating ~~this subsection (C)~~, to the solicitor of the circuit in which the ~~crime~~ offense was committed and the administrative chief judge of the circuit in which the ~~crime~~ offense was committed. The prosecuting agency must notify any victims of the initial or subsequent ~~crimes~~ offenses pursuant to Chapter 3, Title 16 of any bond hearings.

(D) If a person commits a violent offense, as defined in Section 16-1-60, or felony offense involving a firearm which was committed when the person was already out on bond for two or more previous separate violent offenses or felony offenses involving a firearm for which separate bonds were set, and the subsequent offense did not arise out of the same series of events as the two or more previous separate offenses, and the court determines that under the totality of the circumstances the previous bonds should not be revoked and another bond should be set, any bond set by the court must be deposited in full and may not be posted by any bond surety company.

(E) Notwithstanding subsection (C)(2), if the original bond was set in another judicial circuit, that prosecution agency shall be notified of the revocation and any finding the court makes pursuant to this subsection. The prosecution agency having jurisdiction over the subsequent charge must make the notification required in this subsection within forty-eight hours of the conclusion of the preceding. The presiding judge has jurisdiction to make a finding on record to deny a new bond on the original charge or may order a new bond hearing to be scheduled on the original charge in the judicial circuit where the charges are pending. This hearing must be scheduled within thirty days by the prosecution agency having jurisdiction over the original charges.

—(F) For the purpose of bond revocation only, a summary court has concurrent jurisdiction with the circuit court for ~~ten~~ thirty days from the date bond is first set on a charge by the summary court or the date of the grand jury indictment whichever occurs first to determine if bond should be revoked.

SECTION 7. Section 22-5-510 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 22-5-510. (A) Magistrates may admit to bail a person charged with an offense, the punishment of which is not death or imprisonment for life; provided, however, with respect to violent offenses as defined by the General Assembly pursuant to Section 15, Article I of the Constitution of South Carolina, 1895, magistrates may deny bail giving due weight to the evidence and to the nature and circumstances of the event, including, but not limited to, any charges pending against the person requesting bail. "Violent offenses" as used in this section means the offenses contained in Section 16-1-60. If a person under lawful arrest on a charge not bailable is brought before a magistrate, the magistrate shall commit the person to jail. If the offense charged is bailable, the magistrate shall take recognizance with sufficient surety, if it is offered, in default whereof the person must be incarcerated.

(B) A person charged with a bailable offense must have a bond hearing within twenty-four hours of his arrest and must be released within a reasonable time, not to exceed four hours, after the bond is delivered to the incarcerating facility.

(C) In determining conditions of release that will reasonably assure appearance, or if release would constitute an unreasonable danger to the community or an individual, a court, on the basis of the following information, may consider the nature and circumstances of an offense charged and the charged person's:

- (1) family ties;
- (2) employment;
- (3) financial resources;
- (4) character and mental condition;
- (5) length of residence in the community;
- (6) record of convictions; and
- (7) record of flight to avoid prosecution or failure to appear at other court proceedings.

(D) A court ~~shall~~ must consider:

- (1) a person's criminal record;
- (2) any charges pending against a person at the time release is requested;

(3) all incident reports generated as a result of an offense charged;

(4) whether a person is an alien unlawfully present in the United States, and poses a substantial flight risk due to this status; ~~and~~

(5) whether the charged person appears in the state gang database maintained at the State Law Enforcement Division; and

(6) whether a person is currently out on bond for another offense.

(E) Prior to or at the time of the bond hearing, the arresting law enforcement agency ~~shall~~ must provide the court with the following information:

(1) the person's criminal record;

(2) any charges pending against the person at the time release is requested;

(3) all incident reports generated as a result of the offense charged; and

(4) any other information that will assist the court in determining conditions of release to include, but not be limited to, notification of any existing bonds for another offense.

(F) The arresting law enforcement agency shall inform the court if any of the information required in subsections (C), (D), and (E) is not available at the time of the hearing and the reason the information is not available. Failure on the part of the law enforcement agency to provide the court with the information does not constitute grounds for the postponement or delay of the person's bond hearing. Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection, when a person is charged with a violation of Chapter 25, Title 16, the bond hearing may not proceed without the person's criminal record and incident report or the presence of the arresting officer. The bond hearing for a violation of Chapter 25, Title 16 must occur within twenty-four hours after the arrest.

(G) A court hearing this matter has contempt powers to enforce these provisions.

SECTION 8. Section 24-13-40 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 24-13-40. The computation of the time served by prisoners under sentences imposed by the courts of this State must be calculated from the date of the imposition of the sentence. However, when (a) a prisoner shall have given notice of intention to appeal, (b) the commencement of the service of the sentence follows the revocation of probation, or (c) the court shall have designated a specific time for the commencement of the service of the sentence, the computation of the time served must be calculated from the date of the commencement of the service of the sentence. In every case in computing the time served by a prisoner, full credit against the sentence must be given for time served prior to trial and sentencing, and may be given for any time spent under monitored house arrest. Provided, however, that credit for time served prior to trial and sentencing shall not be given: (1) when the prisoner at the time he was imprisoned prior to trial was an escapee from another penal institution; ~~or~~ (2) when the prisoner is serving a sentence for one offense and is awaiting trial and sentence for a second offense in which case he shall not receive credit for time served prior to trial in a reduction of his sentence for the second offense; (3) when the prisoner commits a subsequent crime while out on bond; or (4) has bond revoked on any charge prior to trial or plea.

SECTION 9. Section 24-13-425 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

(E) Any person who violates the provisions of this section shall be guilty of the misdemeanor offense of tampering with the operation of an electronic monitoring device and shall be imprisoned for not more than three years, or fined up to three thousand dollars, or both.

SECTION 10. Chapter 15, Title 17 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

(B) The members of the commission may begin meeting when at least a quorum has been appointed and shall elect one member to serve as chairman. A quorum shall consist of at least eight members.

(C) The primary duty of the South Carolina Pretrial Reform Commission is to prepare a comprehensive report that reviews and recommends:

(1) appropriate changes to the current pretrial system for all criminal offenses;

(2) maintaining, amending, or abolishing the current system for determining pretrial release or detention; and

(3) guidelines for legislation to improve the processing of cases in the court of general sessions, community safety, and court appearance outcomes.

(D) The purpose of the report is to enable the General Assembly to consider the Pretrial Reform Commission's findings and determine whether state laws should be amended.

(E) In making its recommendations, the commission must consider current case processing and correctional resources including, but not limited to, the capacities of local jails, community-based service providers, and state courts.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 14, 2023

(F) The Pretrial Reform Commission must deliver its report and recommendations to the Chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee and the Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee no later than July 1, 2024, and the commission shall terminate when the report is made.

(G) The Supreme Court shall provide appropriate staff for the commission. The Chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee may provide additional staff for the Senate members, and the Chairman of the House Judiciary Committee may provide additional staff for the House members.

(H) Members of the Pretrial Reform Commission may receive per diem, subsistence, and mileage as provided by law for members of state boards, committees, and commissions.

SECTION 11. Section 38-53-10(12) of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

(12) "Surety bondsman" means any person who is approved by and licensed by the director or his designee as ~~an~~ a property and casualty insurance agent, appointed by an insurer by power of attorney to execute or countersign bail bonds for the insurer in connection with judicial proceedings, and receives or is promised money or other things of value for the execution or countersignature.

SECTION 12. Section 38-53-10 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

(15) "Electronic monitoring" means monitoring a person by the use of a device which records or transmits oral or wire communications or an auditory sound, visual images, or information regarding the person's activities.

SECTION 13. Section 38-53-50(B) of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

(B) If the circumstances warrant immediate incarceration of the defendant to prevent imminent violation of one of the specific terms of the bail bond, or if the defendant has violated one of the specific terms of the bond, the surety may take the defendant to the appropriate detention facility for holding until the court orders that the surety be relieved. The surety, within three business days following recommitment, must file with the detention facility and the court an affidavit clocked in with the clerk of court on a form provided by the Division of Court Administration stating the facts to support the surrender of the defendant for good cause. Nonpayment of premium fees alone is not sufficient cause to warrant immediate incarceration of the defendant. When the defendant and the affidavit are presented at the appropriate detention facility, the facility shall take custody of the defendant. When the affidavit is filed with the court, the surety also shall file a motion to be relieved on the bond pursuant to subsection (A). A surety who surrenders a defendant and files an affidavit which does not show good cause is subject to penalties imposed for perjury as provided for in Article 1, Chapter 9, Title 16.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 14, 2023

SECTION 14. Section 38-53-70 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 38-53-70. If a defendant ~~fails to appear at a court proceeding to which he has been summoned~~ violates the conditions of release on bond, the court shall issue a bench warrant for the defendant. The court ~~shall must make available for pickup by the surety or the representative of the surety who executed the bond on their behalf, a true copy provide written or electronic notice of the issuance of the bench warrant within seven~~ thirty days of its issuance ~~at the clerk of court's office to every party bound in the recognizance~~. If the surety fails to surrender the defendant or place a hold on the defendant's release from incarceration, commitment, or institutionalization within ninety days of the issuance of the bench warrant, the bond is forfeited. At any time before execution is issued on a judgment of forfeiture against a defendant or his surety, the court may direct that the judgment be remitted in whole or in part, upon conditions as the court may impose, if it appears that justice requires the remission of part or all of the judgment. In making a determination as to remission of the judgment, the court shall consider the costs to the State or a county or municipality resulting from the necessity to continue or terminate the defendant's trial and the efforts of law enforcement officers or agencies to locate the defendant. The court, in its discretion, may permit the surety to pay the estreatment in installments for a period of up to six months; however, the surety shall pay a handling fee to the court in an amount equal to four percent of the value of the bond. If at any time during the period in which installments are to be paid the defendant is surrendered to the appropriate detention facility and the surety complies with the recommitment procedures, the surety is relieved of further liability.

SECTION 15. Chapter 53, Title 38 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 38-53-84. (A) A person engaged in electronic monitoring of a defendant must, within forty-eight hours, notify the solicitor having jurisdiction over the defendant when he becomes aware or should have become aware that the defendant has violated any provision of the court's order for electronic monitoring. Failure of a defendant to timely pay the bondsman the full monthly electronic monitoring fee associated with the cost of the electronic monitoring device and the associated cost of the monitoring service shall, in and of itself, constitute good cause for the

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 14, 2023

bondsman to file a motion to be relieved on the bond and to surrender the defendant to the custody of the appropriate detention facility pursuant to Section 38-53-50.

(B) Failure of the bondsman to maintain compliance with the reporting requirement of subsection (A) shall be reported to the South Carolina Department of Insurance by the solicitor for administrative action whereby the bondsman's license may be fined, suspended, or revoked.

SECTION 16. Section 38-53-170(e) and (f) of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

(e) accept anything of value from a principal except the premium, which may not exceed fifteen percent of the face amount of the bond, with a minimum fee of ~~twenty-five~~ one hundred dollars ~~or ten percent of the bond, whichever is greater, that must be charged and collected by the bondsman before the execution of the bond. Conditions of the bond which expressly or implicitly require payment of monies in excess of the premium, as a cost of satisfying the condition of the bond, shall not be considered part of the bondsman's premium, and are not affected by this code provision. The bondsman may collect these fees from the defendant and is not limited by any language requirements of this code provision.~~

-However, the bondsman is permitted to enter into a payment agreement by attaching a statement of bondsman to the bond proceeding form and this agreement shall require the principal on the bail bond or any indemnitor to make a minimum down payment of one hundred dollars. This payment agreement may not be altered and must not exceed eighteen months after the date on which the bond was executed. If the payment has not been made for two consecutive months, the bondsman must send a certified notice to the last known address of the principal and indemnitor demanding payment be made within ten days to bring the agreement current. If no payment is received by the end of the notice period, the bondsman must surrender the principal to the proper detention facility for holding and file a motion to be relieved as provided in Section 38-53-50(A) or (B), at which time the agreement must be accelerated, and the balance paid in full, before or at the motion hearing for the principal to be rereleased on bond. The bondsman may accept collateral security or other indemnity from the principal which must be returned ~~upon~~ within ten days after final termination of liability on the bond unless a bench warrant has been issued. The bondsman shall identify who is paying the premium and shall represent that the collateral security or other indemnity has not been obtained from any person who has a greater interest in the principal's disappearance than appearance for trial. The collateral security or other indemnity required by the bondsman

must be reasonable in relation to the amount of the bond. If the bond is forfeited, a bondsman may not convert collateral described in the collateral receipt to cash until he has provided a ten-day notice of this pending conversion to the depositor. This notice must be sent by certified mail to the last known address of the depositor. After the conversion, the bondsman must disclose the actual amount received to the depositor and must return any amount received that exceeds the final judgement or consent amount, less any reasonable expenses. These reasonable expenses include apprehension and legal costs incurred as a result of the violation of the bond. The bondsman must provide the depositor copies of all receipts and, if applicable, the overage money within three days after settlement;

(f) solicit business in any of the courts or on the premises of any of the courts of this State, in the office of any magistrate, or in or about any place where prisoners are confined. Law enforcement officers and jailers shall report any violations of this provision to the court. Any action taken pursuant to this provision resulting in a conviction, guilty plea, or plea of nolo contendere pursuant to Section 38-53-340 must be reported to the director or his designee by the court within thirty days; or

SECTION 17. Section 38-53-310 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 38-53-310. (A) Each professional bondsman shall by the fifteenth of each month file with the clerk of court of the county of his principal place of business and any other county where he is doing business a written report in a form prescribed by the director or his designee regarding all bail bonds on which he is liable as of the first day of each month showing:

(B) Each surety bondsman shall, within thirty days of executing a bail bond, file with their respective insurance provider a written or electronic report in a form approved by the director or his designee detailing all bail bonds on which he has cause to be executed.

(C) The reports referenced in subsections (A) and (B) shall include the following:

- (a)(1) each individual bonded;
- (b)(2) the date the bond was given;
- (c)(3) the principal sum of the bond;
- (d)(4) the state or local official with whom the bond was filed;
- (e)(5) the fee charged for the bonding service in each instance; ~~and~~
- (f)(6) all pending bonds; and
- (7) any current data on monies to be collected and retained as an express condition of the bond, whether for electronic monitoring or otherwise.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 14, 2023

(D) In lieu of the monthly submission of a written report to the clerk of court, the bondsman may utilize a data management software system, which contains the above required current information, and is capable of providing the appropriate clerk of court or his designee with real-time access to the data management system through a portal, website, or other data access system through which the clerk of court can confirm he has access to the required information.

SECTION 18. Chapter 53, Title 38 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 38-53-55. When a person engaged in electronic monitoring of a defendant charged with a violent offense as defined by Section 16-1-60 becomes aware that the defendant has had contact with the alleged victim of the violent offense or with the immediate family of the alleged victim of the violent offense, he must immediately or within twenty-four hours, notify law enforcement, the solicitor, and the court having jurisdiction over the defendant of the contact.

SECTION 19. This act takes effect upon approval by the Governor; however, the provisions of Sections 17-15-35 and 17-15-37 take effect six months after approval by the Governor, and the provisions of Section 38-53-10(12) take effect July 1, 2024.
