The Senate assembled at 12:00 Noon, the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Ezekiel 36:26a

We read in Ezekiel that the Lord God says: "A new heart I will give you, and a new spirit I will put within you. . ."

My friends, please bow with me in prayer. Gracious and most glorious God, we have gathered here in this historic Senate Chamber to commence the first Regular Session of the 125th South Carolina General Assembly. And on this occasion it seems to me imperative, Lord, that we invoke Your blessed name and call upon You to embrace each leader in this place within Your loving arms and care. Each Senator, every staff aide, each support person wants so very much for this to be a session which makes clear to all South Carolinians that the needs of each one of them will indeed be the focus of this Body's work during these incredibly challenging days. May it be so, O God. Now, to that end fill the hearts of these servants with renewed determination to strive always to show how much they genuinely and truly care for the well-being of all. And of course, Lord, we continue to hold in our thoughts and prayers Senator Brian Adams and his family in the death of the Senator's father just several weeks ago. All of this we pray in Your loving name, O Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

Expression of Personal Interest

Senator KIMPSON rose for an Expression of Personal Interest.

Remarks by Senator KIMPSON

There's a hymn we sang in church when I was growing up as a little boy -- "May the work I've done, speak for me." The work David Aylor did while he was here on this earth speaks volumes. I think he deserves a round of applause and a standing ovation for his works.

As a city, a county, and a State we are much better off because he lived. How can we say thank you for his unselfish giving in our community -- to those in need, feeding thousands of people, coordinating hundreds of clothes drives, bike give-a-ways, and sponsoring sports teams? How can we say thank you for his zealous advocacy for those needing a defense, championing the cause of the underdog -- those who through no fault of their own were sick, poor and needy? How can we say thank you for his commitment to family and friends? David Aylor was charismatic, gregarious and personable. As the poet, Rudyard Kipling, said, "To walk with kings but not lose the common touch." That is just the type of man he was.

On a lighter note, I just got back from the White House -- I had the opportunity to be invited to the White House Christmas party. I saw many leaders from across the country -- some representing their cities, some representing their states. There were many South Carolina citizens in attendance -- including Senator DICK HARPOOTLIAN. I wasn't able to get a word in as he talked most of the time -- touting his ability in the courtroom. Of course, our President Joe Biden was there -- the President who was elected with the most votes in our history. He has passed true bipartisan legislation -- we have received infrastructure dollars and COVID relief funds. I think he would expect me to wish us a good year in South Carolina. He has proven that he has set the tone for true bipartisanship. Just a few weeks ago, he and U.S. Senator Mitch McConnell made a trip to Kentucky to discuss infrastructure needs that have been needed for decades. Similarly, I have extended the right hand of fellowship to Senator RICHARD CASH for us to let the tone of Washington D.C., under the leadership of this President, be the same tone that we have in the South Carolina General Assembly.

On motion of Senator SABB, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator KIMPSON, were ordered printed in the Journal.

Indicates New Matter

The Senate assembled at 10:30 A.M., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Psalm 111:10

The Psalmist reminds us that: "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; all who follow his precepts have good understanding. To him belongs eternal praise."

Let us pray: Indeed, dear Lord, this is truly a time for new beginnings here at the State House of South Carolina. During this week of the bold new year of 2023 we find ourselves initiating the first session of this 125th General Assembly, today our Governor and other State Constitutional Officers are soon to be sworn in, and this Senate itself stands once more poised to do what hopefully will enhance life for the people of South Carolina. So truly, O God, we fervently call upon You to bestow Your richest blessings upon not only our Governor, but upon all women and men serving in this place, as they do what is required to accomplish good for all. And through it all, O Lord, may the collective efforts of these leaders truly bring You eternal praise. In Your wondrous name we pray, Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

RECESS

At 10:45 A.M., on motion of Senator MASSEY, the Senate receded from business for the purpose of attending the Inaugural Ceremony and following the ceremony, the Senate would stand adjourned.

Inaugural Address The Honorable Henry Dargan McMaster
His Excellency, Governor of South Carolina

Ladies and gentlemen, I am happy to welcome you to your magnificent State House on another beautiful South Carolina day. Your presence expresses your confidence in our bright future. The people of our great State have given me the honor and privilege of serving as your Governor for another four years. My family and I thank you.

If we were at the famous Darlington raceway, these early days of 2023 would be the moment we hold our breath just before the green flag is dropped. Much history has been made here, and we are about to make some more.

I have in my office a framed drawing of the City of Charleston, dated 1739, accompanied by a report inscribed upon it and addressed to "His Excellency James Glen Esq. Capt. General, Governor and Commander in Chief in and over his Majesty's province of South Carolina, and Vice Admiral within the same" and "humbly inscrib'd by his much Obligated humble Servant B. Roberts." It was "Published according to Act of Parliament by B. Roberts & W.H. Toms, June 9, 1739." It reads, in part: "CHARLES-TOWN the METROPOLIS of the Province of South Carolina is pleasantly situated between Cooper & Ashley Rivers... The Climate of Carolina... is extremely agreeable & wholesome &... may well be looked upon as the most temperate part of the habitable Earth... (I)t is the fairest & most fruitful Province belonging to Great Britain... Its Silk is preferable to any, & its Rice is the best in the world. ... So that it is no wonder of Charles Town... be now a very great and flourishing Town, adorned with handsome & commodious buildings... amongst which the Church of St. Phillip, may justly be reckoned the finest structure in America. ... (T)his Town and Province may justly be esteemed the most flourishing of any of His Majesty's Dominions in America."

I believe that Mr. B. Roberts' estimation of the remarkable nature of South Carolina was accurate. It was shared by the French and Spanish explorers and their sovereigns before him, and by the Native Americans before them. And I believe it still is true today, with the notable exception that South Carolina no longer belongs to King George, but to us.

Unmentioned but implicit in the success observed by Mr. B. Roberts is the character, nature and circumstances of the inhabitants of the Province of South Carolina, that is, the people. According to the historian Walter Edgar, our early inhabitants had arrived at different times under a variety of conditions from eight European countries, as many as twenty-five West African cultures, today comprising four countries, and over twenty-five Native American nations, bearing such familiar names as Congaree, Combahee, Kiawah, Catawba, Waccamaw, Pee Dee and Edisto.

Through those years and centuries long ago up to our living memories, our people have seen it all: hurricanes, fires, floods, tornadoes, earthquakes, piracy, Indian Wars, indentured servitude, slavery, a Revolutionary War, a Civil War, World Wars and all the others. No state has a more fascinating, momentous history than our own. And through it all -- and perhaps because of it -- we have grown, endured and prospered. The greatest asset we have is each other -- the people -- the great, unique people of South Carolina.

Today, when business leaders from around the world measure the assets of our State, they remark on our people -- the character and nature of the people themselves. Visitors do the same. They sense their loyalty, patriotism, kindness and steadfastness. They see the natural paradise in which we work and live. They see the historic confluence of our Judeo-Christian and military traditions. And they like what they see, sometimes more clearly than we do ourselves.

For these reasons and more, our economy is flourishing and opportunities abound. I view our foundations for great prosperity and happiness as resting on three pillars: economic strength, education and our natural environment.

Today our economy is as strong as it has ever been in modern times. South Carolina's booming economy has once again created a record budget surplus. So, it should come as no surprise that 2022 was the most successful year for economic development in our state's history. In fact, we broke the record for the largest economic development project announcement -- not once, but twice -- in the same year. State government is in superior fiscal shape, we have the largest rainy day reserve fund balance and lowest amount of debt than at any other time in recent memory.

Until recently, South Carolina had the highest personal income tax rate in the southeast and the 12th highest in the Nation. No more. Last year, I was honored to sign into law the largest income tax cut in state history. We have made -- and will continue to make -- transformative investments in our state's infrastructure. From widening interstates, repairing, and replacing roads, bridges, and highways -- to over a billion and a half dollars for new water, sewer and stormwater in our rural communities -- we are setting our State on an accelerated path to compete globally for new jobs and future investment. We dredged our Charleston Harbor to fifty-two feet, the deepest on the Atlantic coast and able to handle the biggest ships "any day, any time, any tide."

We relied on common sense and the Constitution during the pandemic, and while other states faltered, we flew, with some of our businesses having their best years ever.

So, what is our plan? As once all roads led to Rome, today all quests for prosperity lead to education. Education has been described as a footrace in which the baton of knowledge is passed from one generation to the next. The historian Barbara Tuchman wrote, "Books are the carriers of civilization. Without books, history is silent, literature dumb, science crippled, thought and speculation at a standstill. Without books, the development of civilization would have been impossible."

We must do whatever it takes to see that every child in our State has the opportunity to receive an excellent education. Albert Einstein said, "A problem can never be solved by thinking on the same level that produced it." He was right; we must think big and be bold, and we will. Standing here four years ago I said, "Being perceived as weak in education is not good. But, being perceived as not committed to fixing it is disastrous."

Six years ago, the minimum starting salary of a teacher in South Carolina was $30,113. Today, it is $40,000. My goal by 2026 is that we have a minimum starting salary of at least $50,000. Until last year, South Carolina's system for funding K-12 education was archaic and confusing, a piecemeal system consisting of 29 separate line-item appropriations. Now, a consolidated formula makes sure that funding follows the child and provides transparency for parents.

To increase the percentage of children who enter our public schools ready to learn, we expanded full day four-year-old kindergarten to all at-risk children in the State. Today, we are serving 16,103 children in the program, which is an all-time high. And we have placed an armed, certified school resource officer -- an SRO -- in 90% of our state's public schools. We will not stop until there is an officer in every school, in every county, all day, every day.

We know that access to an affordable degree or skilled trade certificate is essential to ensure that our State has the trained and educated workforce to compete for jobs and investment in the future. To that end, we have frozen college tuition for four straight years and provided a record amount of financial aid and scholarships to students in need. To address the historic labor shortage, our workforce scholarships have allowed over 10,000 South Carolinians to earn an industry credential in high demand careers like manufacturing, healthcare, computer science, information technology, transportation, logistics and construction.

Remember -- major businesses in the United States and abroad have clearly demonstrated their desire to bring their fortunes and facilities to South Carolina and to employ our people. They are "putting their money where our people are." What we must do now is double down. We must continue investing in our people to ensure that they are prepared to reap the benefits of our future prosperity.

This brings us to the third pillar of our prosperity: our natural and cultural heritage. Few states, if any, can match the natural beauty, bounty and variety of South Carolina, from the mountains to the sea. And few can match the elegance and craftsmanship of the historic homes, churches, synagogues and other structures found in our land, including Beaufort, Charleston, Georgetown and Camden, built during the times when Mother Nature herself was the fount of our prosperity. I truly believe that if we cannot find peace and comfort in the pine forests and tidal creeks of South Carolina, we'll just have to wait until we get to Heaven.

Numerous scholars recognize that the Revolutionary War was won here, with over two hundred battles and skirmishes in Britain's unsuccessful southern campaign, notably the Battles of Kings Mountain and Cowpens. Many historical sites still need markers today, including the camp of General Francis Marion and his patriots in the Pee Dee swamps; the British could not find it and neither can we. Our Gullah-Geechee culture in the low country survives as a living link to our past. Our magnificent live oaks have seen more history than any of us. This natural and cultural heritage is an integral part of our quality of life.

It is why we stay here, and why others come, many as tourists, some as investors. And with them comes money, sometimes millions, even billions, and from that comes jobs and careers which, in turn produce funds for schools and educations, which in turn produce a deep appreciation of our natural and cultural heritage. As so the cycle goes, 'round and 'round, up and up.

We recently created a new cabinet agency, the Office of Resilience, which adopted findings of our Floodwater Commission. Its purposes include measuring our strengths and weaknesses concerning flooding, erosion and the conditions of our rivers, coast and barrier islands, and to mitigate, accommodate and respond to flooding, and also to coordinate efforts of economic and natural resilience with governmental and non-governmental entities.

Vigorous economic growth and the preservation of our shared natural heritage and environment are not opposing objectives which must be balanced as in a competition, one against the other. Instead, they are complementary, intertwined, and inseparable, each dependent on the other. Each can be accomplished to the fullest if we plan now and be bold.

The question today is will anyone recognize South Carolina in 100 years? Will we allow our state's culturally and environmentally significant structures, monuments, lands, islands, and waterways to be lost forever to overdevelopment, mismanagement, flooding, erosion or from storm damage? Or will we preserve and protect our history and our environment, and the public's access to them? This is our moment to act, while we still can. And of course, to preserve these great resources and to realize our full economic and educational potentials, the first duty of government is to keep South Carolinians safe. To do that we must maintain a robust law enforcement presence -- and properly "fund the police" -- while closing the revolving door for career criminals -- keeping them behind bars and not out on bail. And this includes stronger laws to keep illegal guns out of the hands of criminals and juveniles.

We must also ensure that the public has confidence in whom and how all our judges are selected -- by making the processes more transparent and accountable; so that every South Carolinian, born and unborn, may enjoy life, liberty and happiness.

In closing, to the members of the General Assembly: The State of South Carolina is richly blessed with a hardworking and talented people. I have faith in our people, and I have faith in those whom they have elected to represent them in this State House. Let us continue our successful partnership, one that has been based on communication, collaboration, and cooperation, and let us set our State on a course that will provide the opportunity for prosperity, success, and happiness for generations of South Carolinians. The best is yet to come. May God continue to bless America, and our Great State of South Carolina.

Dear Members of the General Assembly:

Enclosed is the Judicial Merit Selection Commission’s Report of Candidate Qualifications. This Report is designed to assist you in determining how to cast your vote. The Commission is charged by law with ascertaining whether judicial candidates are qualified for service on the bench. In accordance with this mandate, the Commission has thoroughly investigated all judicial candidates for their suitability for judicial service.

The Commission’s finding that a candidate is qualified means that the candidate satisfies both the constitutional criteria for judicial office and the Commission’s evaluative criteria. The attached Report details each candidate’s qualifications as they relate to the Commission’s evaluative criteria.

Judicial candidates are prohibited from asking for your commitment until 12:00 Noon on Tuesday, January 17, 2023. Further, members of the General Assembly are not permitted to issue letters of introduction, announcements of candidacy, statements detailing a candidate’s qualifications, or commitments to vote for a candidate until 12:00 Noon on Tuesday, January 17, 2023. In summary, no member of the General Assembly should, orally or in writing, communicate about a candidate's candidacy until this designated time after the release of the Judicial Merit Selection Commission's Report of Candidate Qualifications. If you find a candidate violating the pledging prohibitions or if you have questions about this report, please contact Erin B. Crawford, Chief Counsel to the Commission, at (803) 212-6689.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Senator Luke A. Rankin

Dear Fellow Members of the General Assembly:

This letter is written to call your attention to issues raised during the December 2003, Judicial Merit Selection hearings concerning a judicial candidate's contact with members of the General Assembly, as well as third parties contacting members on a candidate's behalf. It is also to remind you of these issues for the current screening.

Section 2-19-70(C) of the South Carolina Code contains strict prohibitions concerning candidates seeking or legislators giving their pledges of support or implied endorsement through an introduction prior to 48 hours after the release of the final report of the Judicial Merit Selection Commission (“Commission”). The purpose of this section is to ensure that members of the General Assembly have full access to the report prior to being asked by a candidate to pledge his or her support. The final sentence of Section 2-19-70(C) provides that “the prohibitions of this section do not extend to an announcement of candidacy by the candidate and statements by the candidate detailing the candidate’s qualifications” (emphasis added). Candidates may not, however, contact members of the Commission regarding their candidacy. Please note that six members of the Commission are also legislators.

In April 2000, the Commission determined that Section 2-19-70(C) means no member of the General Assembly should engage in any form of communication, written or verbal, concerning a judicial candidate before the 48-hour period expires following the release of the Commission’s report. The Commission would like to clarify and reiterate that until at least 48 hours have expired after the Commission has released its final report of candidate qualifications to the General Assembly, only candidates, and not members of the General Assembly, are permitted to issue letters of introduction, announcements of candidacy, or statements detailing the candidates’ qualifications.

The Commission would again like to remind members of the General Assembly that a violation of the screening law is likely a disqualifying offense and must be considered when determining a candidate’s fitness for judicial office. Further, the law requires the Commission to report any violations of the pledging rules by members of the General Assembly to the House or Senate Ethics Committee, as may be applicable.

Should you have any questions regarding this letter or any other matter pertaining to the judicial screening process, please do not hesitate to call Erin B. Crawford, Chief Counsel to the Commission, at (803) 212-6689.

Sincerely,
Senator Luke A. Rankin
Chairman

INTRODUCTION

The Judicial Merit Selection Commission is charged by law to consider the qualifications of candidates for the judiciary. This report details the reasons for the Commission’s findings, as well as each candidate’s qualifications as they relate to the Commission’s evaluative criteria. The Commission operates under the law that went into effect on July 1, 1997, as amended, and which dramatically changed the powers and duties of the Commission. One component of this law is that the Commission's finding of "qualified" or "not qualified" is binding on the General Assembly. The Commission is also cognizant of the need for members of the General Assembly to be able to differentiate between candidates and, therefore, has attempted to provide as detailed a report as possible.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

The Judicial Merit Selection Commission is composed of ten members, four of whom are non-legislators. The Commission has continued the more in-depth screening format started in 1997. The Commission has asked candidates their views on issues peculiar to service on the court to which they seek election. These questions were posed in an effort to provide members of the General Assembly with more information about candidates and the candidates' thought processes on issues relevant to their candidacies. The Commission has also engaged in a more probing inquiry into the depth of a candidate's experience in areas of practice that are germane to the office he or she is seeking. The Commission feels that candidates should have familiarity with the subject matter of the courts for which they offer, and feels that candidates' responses should indicate their familiarity with most major areas of the law with which they will be confronted.

The Commission also used the Citizens Committees on Judicial Qualifications as an adjunct of the Commission. Since the decisions of our judiciary play such an important role in people's personal and professional lives, the Commission believes that all South Carolinians should have a voice in the selection of the state's judges. It was this desire for broad-based grassroots participation that led the Commission to create the Citizens Committees on Judicial Qualifications. These committees are composed of individuals who are both racially and gender diverse, and who also have a broad range of professional experiences (i.e., lawyers, teachers, businessmen, bankers, and advocates for various organizations). The committees were asked to advise the Commission on the judicial candidates in their regions. Each regional committee interviewed the candidates from its assigned area and also interviewed other individuals in that region who were familiar with the candidate either personally or professionally. Based on those interviews and its own investigation, each committee provided the Commission with a report on their assigned candidates based on the Commission's evaluative criteria. The Commission then used these reports as a tool for further investigation of the candidate if the committee's report so warranted. Summaries of these reports have also been included in the Commission's report for your review.

The Commission conducts a thorough investigation of each candidate's professional, personal, and financial affairs, and holds public hearings during which each candidate is questioned on a wide variety of issues. The Commission's investigation focuses on the following evaluative criteria: constitutional qualifications, ethical fitness, professional and academic ability, character, reputation, physical health, mental health, experience, and judicial temperament. The Commission's investigation includes the following:

- (1) survey of the bench and bar through BallotBox online;
- (2) SLED and FBI investigation;
- (3) credit investigation;
- (4) grievance investigation;
- (5) study of application materials;
- (6) verification of ethics compliance;
- (7) search of newspaper articles;
- (8) conflict of interest investigation;
- (9) court schedule study;
- (10) study of appellate record;
- (11) court observation; and
- (12) investigation of complaints.

While the law provides that the Commission must make findings as to qualifications, the Commission views its role as also including an obligation to consider candidates in the context of the judiciary on which they would serve and, to some degree, govern. To that end, the Commission inquires as to the quality of justice delivered in the courtrooms of South Carolina and seeks to impart, through its questioning, the view of the public as to matters of legal knowledge and ability, judicial temperament, and the absoluteness of the Judicial Canons of Conduct as to recusal for conflict of interest, prohibition of ex parte communication, and the disallowance of the acceptance of gifts. However, the Commission is not a forum for reviewing the individual decisions of the state's judicial system absent credible allegations of a candidate's violations of the Judicial Canons of Conduct, the Rules of Professional Conduct, or any of the Commission's nine evaluative criteria that would impact a candidate's fitness for judicial service.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

The Commission expects each candidate to possess a basic level of legal knowledge and ability, to have experience that would be applicable to the office sought, and to exhibit a strong adherence to codes of ethical behavior. These expectations are all important, and excellence in one category does not make up for deficiencies in another.

Routine questions related to compliance with ethical Canons governing ethics and financial interests are now administered through a written questionnaire mailed to candidates and completed by them in advance of each candidate's staff interview. These issues are no longer automatically made a part of the public hearing process unless a concern or question was raised during the investigation of the candidate. The necessary public record of a candidate's pledge to uphold the Canons is his or her completed and sworn questionnaire.

This report is the culmination of lengthy, detailed investigatory work and public hearings. The Commission takes its responsibilities seriously, believing that the quality of justice delivered in South Carolina's courtrooms is directly affected by the thoroughness of its screening process. Please carefully consider the contents of this report, which we believe will help you make a more informed decision.

Please note that the candidates' responses included herein are restated verbatim from the documents that the candidates submitted as part of their application to the Judicial Merit Selection Commission. All candidates were informed that the Commission does not revise or alter the candidates' submissions, and thus, any errors or omissions in the information contained in this draft report existed in the original documents that the candidate submitted to the Commission.

This report conveys the Commission's findings as to the qualifications of all candidates currently offering for election to the South Carolina Court of Appeals, Circuit Court, Family Court, and Administrative Law Court.

SUPREME COURT
QUALIFIED AND NOMINATED

The Honorable David Garrison “Gary” Hill
Supreme Court, Seat 4

Commission’s Findings: QUALIFIED AND NOMINATED

(1) Constitutional Qualifications:

Based on the Commission’s investigation, Judge Hill meets the qualifications prescribed by law for judicial service as a Supreme Court Justice.

Judge Hill was born in 1964. He is 58 years old and a resident of Greenville, South Carolina. Judge Hill provided in his application that he has been a resident of South Carolina for at least the immediate past five years and has been a licensed attorney in South Carolina since 1990.

(2) Ethical Fitness:

The Commission’s investigation did not reveal any evidence of unethical conduct by Judge Hill.

Judge Hill demonstrated an understanding of the Canons of Judicial Conduct and other ethical considerations important to judges, particularly in the areas of ex parte communications, acceptance of gifts and ordinary hospitality, and recusal.

Judge Hill reported that he has made $429.95 in campaign expenditures for:

Postage - $70

Stationary - $109.95

Clerical Assistance - $250

Judge Hill testified he has not:

- (a) sought or received the pledge of any legislator prior to screening;
- (b) sought or been offered a conditional pledge of support by a legislator;
- (c) asked third persons to contact members of the General Assembly prior to screening.

Judge Hill testified that he is aware of the Commission’s 48-hour rule regarding the formal and informal release of the Screening Report.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

(3) Professional and Academic Ability:

The Commission found Judge Hill to be intelligent and knowledgeable.

Judge Hill reported that he has taught the following law-related courses:

- (a) I have appeared on panels at SC Bar Ethics CLEs.
- (b) I have appeared on panels at the Solicitors' conference.
- (c) I have spoken on trial advocacy at CLEs held at the Southeastern Asbestos Conference.
- (d) I have spoken on Crawford v. Washington and the Confrontation Clause at a conference held by the Greenville Bar, Batson v. Kentucky at a SCAJ conference, Ethics to the SCDTAA Trial Academy, given a caselaw update at a conference sponsored by the Colleton County Bar Association, spoken at the York County Bar Association, and presented at "Super CLEs" sponsored by the Greenville Bar and the Hilton Head Island Bar. In February 2020 I moderated a panel discussion on State constitutional law at the USC School of Law.
- (e) As a member of the Circuit Judges Advisory Committee, I gave annual presentations on "Judicial Ethics" and "Inherent Powers of Courts" to the New Judges' Orientation School sponsored by S.C. Court Administration.
- (f) I have taught a January Interim course at Wofford College entitled "The Bill of Rights and Modern Citizenship." This course involves intensive study of the origins and development of the Bill of Rights, and also provides the students the opportunity to be exposed to volunteer community service as they in turn teach what they have learned to students of a local literacy association who are preparing for the civics portion of the GED exam or the Naturalized Citizenship exam.
- (g) "Doing Business with S.C. Local Governments," S.C. Bar CLE, 2001.
- (h) "Construction Contracting for Public Entities," Lorman, 2001.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

- (j) "Representing a Public Body," S.C. Bar 1997
- (k) "Freedom of Information Act Update" S.C. Ass'n of counties CLE, 1999.
- (l) I have spoken on the Freedom Information Act at a seminar for employees of the S.C. Department of Revenue and at conferences held by the S.C. Ass'n of Public Service Districts.
- (m) I have spoken on Trial Advocacy to the Construction Law section of the S.C. Bar, the S.C. Ass'n of Counties, and the SCDTAA.
- (n) I have taught the Ethics class at the LEAPP program presented by the S.C. Bar

Judge Hill reported that he has published the following:

- (a) "Back to the Future: United States v. Jones and the search for Fourth Amendment Coherence," May 2012 South Carolina Lawyer
- (b) "Celebrate the Bill of Rights and act as its Guardian," December 12, 2010 Op-Ed column in The Greenville News (article also published in The State)
- (c) "Celebrate That We're a Nation of Laws, Not Men," May 2, 2008 Op-Ed column in The Greenville News.
- (d) "Lay Witness Opinions," September 2007 South Carolina Lawyer at 34.
- (e) "Rule 30(j), Charlie McCarthy and The Potted Plant," September 2005 South Carolina Lawyer at 26.
- (f) Doing the Public's Business, (2001) (book authored with Leo H. Hill).
- (g) "Recent Changes to the South Carolina Freedom of Information Act," South Carolina Lawyer May/June 1999.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

- (h) "The Fourth Amendment, Substance Abuse and Drug Testing in the Public Sector," South Carolina Lawyer, May/June 1997
- (i) "Mayhem," 7 S.C. Juris. 213 (1991)
- (j) "Direct Criminal Contempt," South Carolina Lawyer, Sept/Oct 1992

From approximately 1994 to 1998 I served on the editorial board of the South Carolina Lawyer magazine published by the S.C. Bar. I served as editor-in-chief for three of these years.

I also published three student Notes in volume 40 of the South Carolina Law Review (1988). These Notes examined recent state supreme court and U.S. Court of Appeals cases dealing with post-conviction relief, the 6th amendment right to counsel, and federal civil procedure.

(4) Character:

The Commission's investigation of Judge Hill did not reveal evidence of any founded grievances or criminal allegations made against him.

The Commission's investigation of Judge Hill did not indicate any evidence of a troubled financial status. Judge Hill has handled his financial affairs responsibly.

The Commission also noted that Judge Hill was punctual and attentive in his dealings with the Commission, and the Commission's investigation did not reveal any problems with his diligence and industry.

(5) Reputation:

Judge Hill reported his last rating as of 2004 was AV by Martindale-Hubbell. He was also listed in the Martindale-Hubbell Register of Preeminent Lawyers.

Judge Hill reported that he has not served in the military.

Judge Hill reported that he has never held public office other than judicial office.

(6) Physical Health:

Judge Hill appears to be physically capable of performing the duties of the office he seeks.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

(7) Mental Stability:

Judge Hill appears to be mentally capable of performing the duties of the office he seeks.

(8) Experience:

Judge Hill was admitted to the South Carolina Bar in 1990.

He gave the following account of his legal experience since graduation from law school:

From 1989-90 I was a law clerk to Judge Billy Wilkins on the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit. In 1990, I joined the law firm of Hill, Wyatt & Bannister. I became a partner in the firm in 1994. I had a general practice that included civil and criminal cases and appeals in all courts. In 2000, I started the law firm of Hill & Hill, LLC with my late father, Leo H. Hill. We enjoyed a wide client base and practice area, concentrating in business litigation and representation of governmental bodies including municipalities and special purpose districts. I also handled numerous civil and criminal appeals. We were fortunate to be listed in the Martindale-Hubbell Register of Pre-Eminent Lawyers. I was the managing partner and responsible for the trust accounts.

Judge Hill reported the frequency of his court appearances prior to his service on the bench as follows:

- (a) Federal: From 1999-2004 I appeared in federal court on civil and criminal matters several times each month.
- (b) State: Once or more each week.

Judge Hill reported the percentage of his practice involving civil, criminal, domestic and other matters prior to his service on the bench as follows:

- (a) Civil: 65%
- (b) Criminal: 15%
- (c) Domestic: 20%
- (d) Other:

Judge Hill reported the percentage of his practice in trial court prior to his service on the bench as follows:

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

- (a) Jury: Not more than 10%. Like most trial attorneys, most of my litigation cases began as potential jury trials but settled before trial;
- (b) Non-jury: The remaining 90% of my practice in trial court consisted of motion practice and bench trials

Judge Hill provided that during the past five years prior to his service on the bench he most often served as sole counsel.

The following is Judge Hill's account of his five most significant litigated matters:

- (a) American Heart Association, et al. v. County of Greenville, et al., 331 S.C. 498, 489 S.E.2d 921 (1997). In this case I represented pro bono the American Heart Association and the American Cancer Society. These two charities were the residuary beneficiaries under the Will of Mrs. Kate Jackson, the widow of Baseball Legend Joseph "Shoeless Joe" Jackson. The charities sought possession and ownership of Mr. Jackson's original Last Will and Testament, on the ground that it was an asset that passed to Mrs. Jackson at her husband's death. The original was extremely valuable, as it contained one of the few known genuine signatures of "Shoeless Joe," who rarely gave autographs. Experts contend that an original "Shoeless Joe" signature is the third most valuable signature in the world, outranked only by that of Martin Luther and Button Gwinnett, a Georgia signer of the Declaration of Independence. The charities wanted to auction the original Will and use the proceeds for medical research.

Although we lost the case, it was significant to me because of the uniqueness of the parties, the subject matter and the legal principles involved.

- (b) WCRSA v. DHEC, et al.

Our firm was general counsel to Western Carolina Regional Sewer Authority (WCRSA) (n/k/a REWA), the largest sewer treatment facility in Upstate South Carolina. WCRSA brought this action challenging numerous actions of DHEC as arbitrary, unlawful rulemaking in excess of DHEC's regulatory authority. The case was eventually settled but involved important issues of administrative law and rulemaking under our state Administrative Procedures Act and the S.C. Constitution.

- (c) Gardner v. S.C. Dep't of Revenue, 353 S.C. 1 (2003)

Although I was by no means lead counsel, I represented the City of Seneca as a class defendant in this case where the plaintiffs challenged the constitutionality of the Setoff Debt Collection Act, Act 474 of 1988.

- (d) SCDOT v. Antonakos. I represented the Landowner in this condemnation case that arose out of construction of the "Southern Connector" toll road in Greenville County. The case was significant because the jury returned a sizeable verdict in favor of the Landowner, and the trial also involved some novel issues under the Eminent Domain Procedures Act, S.C. Code section 28-2-10 et seq.

- (e) In Re: Safety Kleen Litigation. This was a class action case litigated in federal district court for the District of South Carolina. It involved allegations of securities fraud, corporate wrongdoing, and other causes of action on behalf of certain Safety Kleen shareholders. I served as local counsel to one of the lead Plaintiffs.

The following is Judge Hill's account of five civil appeals he has personally handled:

- (a) Poole v. Incentives Unlimited, Inc., 338 S.C. 271, 525 S.E.2d 898 (S.C. Supreme Court June 4, 2001).

This employment law case presented the issue of whether continued at-will employment constitutes sufficient consideration for a covenant not to compete.

- (b) Nedrow v. Pruitt, 336 S.C. 668, 521 S.E.2d 755 (S.C. Court of Appeals September 13, 1999).

This appeal from a jury verdict involved a challenge to the trial court's jury instructions and rulings on the admissibility of impeachment evidence.

- (c) Nalley v. Nalley, 53 F.3d 649 (4th Cir. 1995).

This appeal concerned the appropriate measure of damages for violations of the federal

- (d) Medlock v. 6.18 Acres of Real Property (S.C. Sup. Ct. 1992)

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

This arose out of and was the companion case to Medlock v. 1985 Ford F-150, 308 S.C. 68, 417 S.E.2d 85 (1992), which established the right to a jury trial under the civil forfeiture statute, S.C. Code section 44-53-30.

- (e) Bradley v. Cherokee School District, 322 S.C. 181, 470 S.E.2d 570 (S.C. Supreme Court May 2, 1996).

This appeal addressed the constitutionality of Act No. 588 of 1994, specifically whether the Act constituted special legislation, amounted to taxation without representation, and unlawfully delegated taxing power.

The following is Judge Hill's account of five criminal appeals he has personally handled:

- (a) United States v. Holmes, et al., 2002 WL 440225 (4th Cir. 2002).

This appeal raised Bruton issues, and challenged the admissibility of expert testimony and juror conduct.

- (b) State v. Anders, 331 S.C. 474, 503 S.E.2d 443 (S.C. Supreme Court July 20, 1998).

This appeal involved whether a defendant's statement was admissible under the co-conspirator exception to the hearsay rule, SCRE 801, or as a statement against penal interest, SCRE 804.

- (c) State v. Harry, 321 S.C. 273, 468 S.E.2d 76 (S.C. Court of Appeals February 5, 1996).

This appeal raised issues related to circumstantial evidence, impeachment evidence, and severance.

- (d) State v. Thrift, 312 S.C. 282, 440 S.E.2d 341 (S.C. Supreme Court January 17, 1994) (on brief).

This appeal from a State Grand Jury prosecution decided important questions concerning enforceability of plea agreements and immunity from prosecution.

- (e) United States v. Winchester, 993 F.2d 229 (4th Cir.1993).

This appeal presented the issue of whether the offense of entering a bank with the intent to commit a felony constituted a "crime of violence" sufficient to support a conviction under 18 U.S.C. section 924(c).

Judge Hill reported that he has held the following judicial offices:

- (a) Resident Circuit Judge for the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit, Seat No. 4, 2004-2017

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

- (b) Judge, South Carolina Court of Appeals, Seat 9, 2017-present

Judge Hill provided the following list of his most significant orders or opinions:

- (a) Cornelius v. Oconee County, 369 S.C. 531, 633 S.E.2d 492 (2006)

I was invited to sit as an acting Associate Justice of the S.C. supreme court, and wrote this opinion for the unanimous court concerning whether a 1976 voter referendum and the S.C. Constitution precluded Oconee County from expanding its sewerage system using certain financing sources.

- (b) Hackworth v. Greenville County, 371 S.C. 99, 637 S.E.2d 320 (2006)

This was a claim by the Hackworths against the Greenville County Sheriff's office for return of monies forfeited under the gambling laws. The Court of Appeals affirmed dismissal of the claim based on the Statute of Limitations.

- (c) State v. Jeffrey Motts

I wrote the trial court order granting Mr. Motts' request to waive his right to appeal his death sentence. The supreme court affirmed. State v. Motts, 391 S.C. 635, 707 S.E.2d 804 (2011).

- (d) In Re South Carolina Asbestos Docket

While a circuit judge, I was assigned by the supreme court to handle the asbestos trial docket throughout the state, which consists of hundreds of civil lawsuits claiming personal injury due to asbestos exposure. I wrote several significant orders in this capacity, involving such issues as product identification, proximate cause, product liability, and the sophisticated user defense.

- (e) In Re ITG Merger Litigation

This case, which I was assigned through the complex case procedure, was a shareholder and derivative class action related to the merger of two Upstate textile companies. The plaintiffs alleged hundreds of millions of dollars in damages. During the pre-trial phase, I wrote opinions dealing with Rule 23 class certification, civil conspiracy, fiduciary duty, discovery, damages and numerous other issues arising under both South Carolina and Delaware law.

Judge Konduros provided that during the past five years prior to her service on the bench she most often served as sole counsel, and sometimes chief counsel.

The following is Judge Konduros' account of her five most significant litigated matters:

- (a) SCDSS v Elizabeth Rochelle Maddox, et al. Termination of parental rights case concerning mother and father's rights to remaining siblings of murdered sibling. Parents had been convicted of murdering their child and the case raised whether termination their rights to their other children was premature while the convictions were on appeal.
- (b) SCDSS v Partridge, Harris, et al. Children were sexually abused but too young to testify. The parents, boyfriend and grandparents were all suspects.
- (c) SCDSS v Walker, Thompson, et al. Complicated neglect and custody case where father of all the children and both mothers were all individuals with mental retardation. Each litigant had a lawyer and a guardian and each case was tried carefully to ensure the defendants understood the proceedings against them.
- (d) SCDSS v Plunkett, Sullivan, et al. Contested four-day termination of parental rights case between the natural parents, who were also full siblings and their mother versus the foster/adoptive parents. The parents relinquished their rights, and then changed their minds forcing a two-day trial on the voluntariness of their relinquishments, followed by a two-day trial between the grandmother and the foster parents.
- (e) Hooper v Rockwell, SCDSS, et al. 334 S.C. 281, 513 S.E.2d 358 (1999) Mother appealed termination of her rights which the Court upheld. This case still stands for what matters in family court are interlocutory and which are final.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

The following is Judge Konduros' account of three civil appeals she has personally handled:

- (a) SCDSS v Beeks, et al. 325 S.C. 243, 481 S.E.2d 703 (1997)-joined in another's brief.

- (a) Co-author, Recent Developments in Government Operations and Liability Law: Annual Update on Public Official Immunities, The Urban Lawyer, 1997.
- (b) Author, Clerkships: A Foundation for Successful Private Practice, After the Bar (an ABA Young Lawyers Division Publication), 2020.

(4) Character:

The Commission’s investigation of Judge McDonald did not reveal evidence of any founded grievances or criminal allegations made against her.

The Commission’s investigation of Judge McDonald did not indicate any evidence of a troubled financial status. Judge McDonald has handled her financial affairs responsibly.

The Commission also noted that Judge McDonald was punctual and attentive in her dealings with the Commission, and the Commission’s investigation did not reveal any problems with her diligence and industry.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

(5) Reputation:

Judge McDonald reported that her last available rating by a legal rating organization, Martindale Hubbell, was AV.

Judge McDonald reported that she has not served in the military.

Judge McDonald further reported: I have not held public office other than judicial office, but in the past, I have been appointed by the Supreme Court to positions affiliated with the Office of Disciplinary Counsel. From 1999-2002, I served as an Attorney to Assist Disciplinary Counsel. From 2003-2011, I was an attorney member of the Judicial Conduct Commission. No such Ethics Commission reports were required until my election to the bench, and I have filed my Rule 501, SCACR, disclosure statement each year.

(6) Physical Health:

Judge McDonald appears to be physically capable of performing the duties of the office she seeks.

(7) Mental Stability:

Judge McDonald appears to be mentally capable of performing the duties of the office she seeks.

(8) Experience:

Judge McDonald was admitted to the South Carolina Bar in 1994.

She gave the following account of her legal experience since graduation from law school:

Prior to my election to the Circuit Court in 2011, my legal experience included:

- (a) Associate, Stuckey & Kobrovsky, which later became Stuckey & Senn

(Aug. 1994-June 1997)

Approximately 70% of this practice included civil defense work in state and federal courts, primarily involving constitutional and governmental issues. The remainder of my work included probate administration/estate representation, non-complex family court work and the firm's DSS appointments, property/business litigation, plaintiff's work, and appellate work in state and federal courts. My first three solo trials involved constitutional claims in United States District Court.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

I was not involved in the financial management of the firm.
Administrative work included timekeeping and reviewing bills.
I did not handle or have access to the firm's trust account.

(b) Solo practitioner (1998-2003)

In June 1997, I became quite ill while pregnant with my only child and took a two-month leave of absence for home intravenous treatments. I attempted to return to part-time work in August, 1997; however, when my doctor prescribed bedrest a few weeks later, I made the decision to leave the law firm.

In early 1998, I started my own practice in order to stay home with my daughter as much as possible. My practice focused on appellate work and a variety of research, writing, and editing for other attorneys. I also continued some trial work for other attorneys in state and federal court during this time period.

During this time, I handled appellate matters for:

Stuckey Law Firm

Sandra J. Senn, P.A.

Clawson and Staubes

Rhoad Law Firm (Bamberg)

Padgett Law Firm (Bennettsville)

Jennings and Harris (Bennettsville)

Jay Ervin (Darlington)

I did other litigation research, writing, or editing for:

E. Bart Daniel

J. Brady Hair

Larry Kobrovsky

Joye Law Firm

David Whittington

Robert Gailliard

John Price Law Firm

Stanley Feldman

I handled all billing and administrative matters. I did not maintain a trust account as all of my work during this time period was billed hourly to other attorneys or firms.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

(c) Senn, McDonald, and Leinbach, LLC (2003-2011)

Once my daughter was in school, I joined Senn, McDonald, and Leinbach. By this time, approximately 50% of my practice consisted of appellate matters for other firms (for plaintiffs, defendants, and family court litigants). The remainder of my practice focused primarily on civil defense work for public officials, law enforcement officials and agencies, state agencies, and local governments. This work included frequent appearances in state and federal courts. I handled some trial level work for plaintiffs as well, primarily in the area of employment discrimination and harassment.

From 2010-2011, I served as a volunteer prosecutor for the South Carolina Attorney General's Criminal Domestic Violence Task Force. Most of this work took place in Orangeburg County. Prior to 2010, our firm also assisted with the prosecution of cases for the Attorney General's Dogfighting Task Force.

I was not involved in the financial management of the firm. Administrative work included timekeeping, reviewing bills, and addressing personnel matters as needed.

I did not handle or have access to the firm's trust account.

Judge McDonald reported the frequency of her court appearances prior to her service on the bench as follows:

- (a) Federal: 1-2 times per month, more when in trial
- (b) State: 5-7 times per month, more when in trial

Judge McDonald reported the percentage of her practice involving civil, criminal, domestic and other matters prior to her service on the bench as follows:

- (a) Civil: 70%
- (b) Criminal: 10%
- (c) Domestic: 15%
- (d) Other: 5%

Judge McDonald reported the percentage of her practice in trial court prior to her service on the bench as follows:

- (a) Jury: 85% (this figure includes matters in which summary judgment or directed verdict was granted)
- (b) Non-jury: 15%

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

Judge McDonald provided that during the past five years prior to her service on the bench she most often served as sole counsel, and sometimes co-counsel.

The following is Judge McDonald's account of her five most significant litigated matters:

- (a) Erickson v. Winner, Charleston County Court of Common Pleas (March 2006). This case arose from the Domestic Court Reform Movement that took place in South Carolina in the 1990s. The plaintiff, a former Dorchester County guardian ad litem, sued several defendants for defamation and other torts following the issuance of "The Winner Report," which offered a scathing view of South Carolina's private guardian system. A lengthy article in the Charleston City Paper followed the report. Our firm represented the Governor's GAL Office and a county office supervisor. After three weeks of trial, the Honorable Buddy Nicholson directed a verdict for our clients on all causes of action. Following a fourth week of trial, the jury returned a verdict of 6.5 million dollars against some of the remaining co-defendants. After the appeal involving our trial clients was dismissed, two of the private defendants hired me to argue their case before the South Carolina Supreme Court. The Supreme Court affirmed the Circuit Court's reformation of the actual damages verdict to $243,540.82 and vacated "the punitive damages verdict in its entirety." See Erickson v. Winter, 2010-MO-006, 2010 WL 10097768 (S.C. March 1, 2010).
- (b) Jamison v. Ford Motor Company, 373 S.C. 248, 644 S.E.2d 755 (Ct. App. 2007), cert. dismissed as improvidently granted, 385 S.C. 238 (S.C. Sept. 28, 2009). Although I was not involved with this case at trial, I handled the plaintiffs' appeals before the South Carolina Court of Appeals and Supreme Court. This case involved complex issues of products liability, federal pre-emption, and discovery abuse following the tragic death of a young driver after her 1993 Ford Escort seatbelt lacerated her liver in a frontal, angular automobile collision.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

- (c) Pelaccio v. Charleston County Sheriff's Office, Berkeley County Court of Common Pleas (April 2005). This wrongful death action arose after a father held his infant hostage, threatening to kill the child and detonate explosives in the family home. He also threatened several members of law enforcement responding to the domestic incident. After an all-night standoff, the father emerged from the house, holding a knife to the baby's neck. When he refused to release the child and remain in a location safe enough for the Charleston County SWAT team to retrieve the baby from the porch, a police sniper shot him in order to ensure the safety of the baby and the on-scene officers. We represented the Charleston County Sheriff's Office, and the jury returned a defense verdict after a four-day trial.
- (d) Cowsert v. Brown, Charleston County Court of Common Pleas (April 2006). Our firm represented the plaintiffs in this matter, which arose after Mrs. Cowsert fell from the elevated second-story porch of her Folly Beach home. The contractor who built the home had failed to secure a portion of the porch railing in any way—it was not nailed, glued, or otherwise secured to the main railing area. When the railing gave way, Mrs. Cowsert fell, suffering serious, permanent injuries. Following the four-day trial, the jury returned a significant verdict for the plaintiffs.
- (e) The City of Charleston "Sofa Super Fire" aftermath (2007-2010)

We represented the City of Charleston in the investigations and litigation arising from this tragic fire, which took the lives of nine Charleston firefighters. The work involved numerous related matters, including representation during the SC-OSHA investigation, before the OSHA hearing officer, and throughout the series of investigations conducted by federal agencies and law enforcement entities. The subsequent civil action involved several private co-defendants and issues of Worker's Compensation Act exclusivity, exemptions under the South Carolina Tort Claims Act, and considerations related to the South Carolina Contribution Among Tortfeasors Act.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

The following is Judge McDonald's account of five civil appeals she has personally handled:

- (a) Henry v. Horry County, 334 S.C. 461, 514 S.E.2d 122 (1999).
- (b) Brown v. Daniel, 230 F.3d 1351, 2000 WL 1455443 (4th Cir. Sept. 9, 2000) (unpublished per curiam opinion).
- (c) Mentavlos v. Anderson, 249 F.3d 301 (4th Cir. 2001), cert denied, 534 U.S. 952 (Oct. 9, 2001).
- (d) Sunset Cay v. City of Folly Beach, 357 S.C. 414, 593 S.E.2d 462 (2004).
- (e) Eargle v. Horry County, 335 S.C. 425, 517 S.E.2d 3 (Ct. App. 1999) (en banc) and Eargle v. Horry County, 344 S.C. 449, 545 S.E.2d 276 (2001).

The following is Judge McDonald's account of three criminal appeals she has personally handled:

- (a) United States v. Luther Ray Cyrus, 132 Fed. Appx. 441 (4th Cir. May 24, 2005). (I wrote the 4th Circuit brief and prepared the Joint Appendix for attorney Jay Ervin).
- (b) United State v. Dalton, 477 F.3d 195 (4th Cir. 2007). (I assisted the late Stanley Feldman with his brief and with his preparation for oral argument).
- (c) Michau v. Charleston County, 434 F.3d 725 (4th Cir. 2006). This was a civil appeal in an action filed under 42 U.S.C. §1983, but the appeal involved construction of South Carolina's Sexually Violent Predator Act and whether a county detainee held pending evaluation under the SVPA is a "prisoner" for purposes of the Prison Litigation Reform Act.

Judge McDonald reported that she has held the following judicial office(s):

On February 2, 2011, I was elected by the General Assembly to the position of Circuit Judge, At-Large, Seat 9. I was sworn in on June 30, 2011, and served continuously until I began at the Court of Appeals on July 1, 2014. The Circuit Court is South Carolina's Court of general jurisdiction. It consists of the Court of General Sessions (criminal court) and the Court of Common Pleas (civil court). The Circuit Court also serves as a court of limited appellate jurisdiction, handling appeals from Probate Court, Magistrate's Court, and Municipal Court. Article 5 of Title 14 sets forth additional provisions relating to the operation of the Circuit Court.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

I was Chief Administrative Judge for Common Pleas in the Ninth Circuit. (January 2014 – June 2014). For eighteen months prior to that, I was Chief Administrative Judge for General Sessions matters in the Ninth Circuit. (July 2012 – December 2013).

On May 28, 2014, I was elected by the General Assembly to Seat 7 of the South Carolina Court of Appeals. I began work at the Court of Appeals on July 1, 2014, and have served continuously since that time. I was elected to a second term in February 2020.

The Court of Appeals is a statutorily created court; § 14-8-200(a) sets forth its jurisdiction. Generally, the Court of Appeals has jurisdiction when an appeal is taken from an order or judgment of the Circuit Court, Family Court, Administrative Law Court, or Appellate Panel of the Worker's Compensation Commission. This section also authorizes the Supreme Court to provide by rule for the Court of Appeals to consider petitions for writs of certiorari in PCR matters.

Limitations upon the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeals are set forth in § 14-8-200(b). The Court does not consider appeals which include a death sentence; final rate-setting decisions of the Public Service Commission; the constitutionality of state laws or county or municipal ordinances, unless the Supreme Court determines the constitutional question is not a significant one and transfers the case; certain general obligation debt, revenue, and bonding matters; Circuit Court judgments addressing elections or election procedure; orders limiting an investigation by the State grand jury; or any order of the Family Court relating to an abortion sought by a minor.

Judge McDonald provided the following list of her most significant orders or opinions:

- (a) Stoney v. Stoney, 425 S.C. 47, 819 S.E.2d 201 (Ct. App. 2018), cert. denied, June 28, 2019.
- (b) Nero v. South Carolina Dept. of Transp., 427 S.C. 392, 831 S.E.2d 143 (Ct. App. 2019), cert. denied, Feb. 12, 2020.
- (c) State v. Daise, 421 S.C. 442, 807 S.E.2d 710 (Ct. App. 2017). No petition for a writ of certiorari was filed; the remittitur was sent on January 22, 2018.
- (d) Pickens County v. SCDHEC, 429 S.C. 92, 837 S.E.2d 743 (Ct. App. 2020), aff'd in part, vacated in part, 435 S.C. 99 (Dec. 8, 2021).

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

(e) State v. Dinkins, 435 S.C. 541, 868 S.E.2d 181 (Ct. App. 2021).
No petition for a writ of certiorari was filed; the remittitur was sent on January 7, 2022.

Judge McDonald reported no other employment while serving as a judge.

Judge McDonald further reported the following regarding unsuccessful candidacies:

In 2009, I was found to be qualified, but was not nominated, for the position of Circuit Court Judge, At-Large, Seat 8.

(9) Judicial Temperament:

The Commission believes that Judge McDonald's temperament has been, and would continue to be, excellent.

(10) Miscellaneous:

The Lowcountry Citizens Committee on Judicial Qualifications found Judge McDonald to be "Qualified" in the evaluative criteria of constitutional qualifications, physical health, and mental stability; and "Well Qualified" in the evaluative criteria of ethical fitness, professional and academic ability, character, reputation, experience, and judicial temperament. The Committee noted: "Superb judge, hard worker, conscientious, personable, knowledgeable, straight shooter... would be a very, very good Sup. Ct. Justice."

Judge McDonald is not married. She has one child.

Judge McDonald reported that she was a member of the following Bar and professional associations:

Judge McDonald further reported:

It has been my honor and privilege to serve on the Circuit Court and the Court of Appeals, and I hope the Commission and General Assembly will allow me to continue this service with the Supreme Court. While in private practice, I tried over forty (40) cases as either lead counsel or co-counsel, and I personally handled at least forty-five (45) appeals. I assisted other attorneys and firms with over twenty (20) others. I know what it means to be a practicing courtroom lawyer and a trial judge, and I believe this allows me to bring additional understanding to my judicial role with respect to my temperament, decision-making, and continuing study. Treating others with fairness, impartiality, integrity, and dignity—in life and in the courtroom—is critical to the practice of law and our judicial system. I hope I have demonstrated such characteristics during my time on the bench. Good temperament, patience, scholarship, and the willingness to make difficult decisions are important traits for any judge, and I am always working to try to improve in these areas.

I also believe my experiences as a working mother and trial lawyer have provided me with a perspective that has enhanced my ability as a judge to understand some of the issues attorney parents must face as they seek to balance a law practice with the demands of raising children. The challenges attorneys and trial judges face daily were heightened during the pandemic as the working parents of pre-school and school-aged children struggled to deal with the stress of home and online school and other childcare-related issues. Most of our trial and appellate judges understand the balancing act required and are able to work with attorneys to address their needs in conjunction with docket efficiency. But some do not, and this is a constant source of stress for lawyers. One of my goals as a judge is to remain open to communication about such issues and to never forget what it was like to be an attorney or to work as a trial judge.

(11) Commission Members' Comments:

The Commission recognizes and appreciates Judge McDonald's active involvement in Bar and other legal activities in the community over the years. Judge McDonald is known for her intellect as well as her approachability, qualities that would continue to serve her well on the Supreme Court.

(12) Conclusion:

The Commission found Judge McDonald qualified, and nominated her for election to Supreme Court, Seat 4.

COURT OF APPEALS
QUALIFIED AND NOMINATED

The Honorable Blake A. Hewitt
Court of Appeals, Seat 1

Commission's Findings: QUALIFIED AND NOMINATED

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

(1) Constitutional Qualifications:

Based on the Commission's investigation, Judge Hewitt meets the qualifications prescribed by law for judicial service as a Court of Appeals judge.

Judge Hewitt was born in 1978. He is 44 years old and a resident of Conway, South Carolina. Judge Hewitt provided in his application that he has been a resident of South Carolina for at least the immediate past five years and has been a licensed attorney in South Carolina since 2005.

(2) Ethical Fitness:

The Commission's investigation did not reveal any evidence of unethical conduct by Judge Hewitt.

Judge Hewitt demonstrated an understanding of the Canons of Judicial Conduct and other ethical considerations important to judges, particularly in the areas of ex parte communications, acceptance of gifts and ordinary hospitality, and recusal.

Judge Hewitt reported that he has not made any campaign expenditures.

Judge Hewitt testified he has not:

- (a) sought or received the pledge of any legislator prior to screening;
- (b) sought or been offered a conditional pledge of support by a legislator;
- (c) asked third persons to contact members of the General Assembly prior to screening.

Judge Hewitt testified that he is aware of the Commission's 48-hour rule regarding the formal and informal release of the Screening Report.

(3) Professional and Academic Ability:

The Commission found Judge Hewitt to be intelligent and knowledgeable.

Judge Hewitt reported that he has taught the following law-related courses:

- (a) From January of 2018 to May of 2018 I was employed by the University of South Carolina Law School as an Adjunct Professor teaching Appellate Advocacy.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

- (b) I lectured on techniques of oral advocacy at the 2016 “Prosecution Bootcamp” for new prosecutors, hosted by the Prosecution Coordination Commission. I delivered the same presentation at the Solicitor’s Association’s Annual Convention later that same year.
- (c) I presented on the topic of appellate practice at the Bridge the Gap programs in 2015 and 2016.
- (d) I lectured on oral advocacy at the 2016 SC Bar “SC Lawyer’s Guide to Appellate Practice” Program.
- (e) I gave “case law update” presentations to all attendees at the Injured Workers’ Advocates organization’s Annual Conventions in 2010, 2011, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, and 2017. During the same 2016 and 2017 Annual Conventions I moderated a discussion about appellate practice with the appellate judges attending the conference.
- (f) In 2015 I gave a presentation that dealt with issues surrounding the admission of forensic interviews in criminal sexual conduct cases as part of the SC Bar’s annual “It’s All A Game” seminar. I updated this presentation for the same seminar in 2021.
- (g) I shared presentations on special filing procedures in professional negligence cases as a part of the annual Tort Law Update hosted by the SC Bar in 2014 and 2015.
- (h) I lectured on error preservation and techniques of developing a record for an eventual appeal at the 2013 SC Bar Program “Introduction to Birth Injury Litigation.”
- (i) I was a member of a panel discussion on indigent defense funding at the Charleston School of Law’s symposium celebrating the 50th anniversary of the U.S. Supreme Court’s decision in Gideon v. Wainwright.
- (j) I gave speeches on effective legal writing at a local CLE Program, “What Every Lawyer should know to Enjoy (or Survive) the Practice of Law” in 2012 and 2013.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

- (k) I lectured on handling appeals effectively at the South Carolina Association for Justice's 2012 Annual Convention.
- (l) I gave a "case law update" at the South Carolina Association for Justice's 2016 Annual Convention.
- (m) I spoke about the strategy and method of working an appellate case as part of the "2018-2019 Appellate Practice Project" in November of 2018.
- (n) I gave a family court "case law update" as part of the Horry County Family Court Bar's "Family Law Seminar" in February of 2020.
- (o) I participated in a panel discussion explaining the process of running for a judicial position as part of the 2021 SC Bar Convention.
- (p) I participated in a Q & A about the appellate process for the SC Workers' Compensation Educational Association's Annual Conference in 2021.
- (q) I participated in a panel discussion about the appellate process as part of the Injured Workers' Advocates Annual Convention in 2021.
- (r) I participated in a panel discussion about the appellate process for the Coastal American Inn of Court in February of 2021.
- (s) I participated in a panel discussion about written and oral advocacy for the SC School Board Association's Council of School Attorneys in May of 2022.

Judge Hewitt reported that he has published the following:

Appellate Practice in South Carolina Jean Hoefer Toal et al. (SC Bar CLE 2016), Editorial Board.

(4) Character:

The Commission's investigation of Judge Hewitt did not reveal evidence of any founded grievances or criminal allegations made against him.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

The Commission's investigation of Judge Hewitt did not indicate any evidence of a troubled financial status. Judge Hewitt has handled his financial affairs responsibly.

The Commission also noted that Judge Hewitt was punctual and attentive in his dealings with the Commission, and the Commission's investigation did not reveal any problems with his diligence and industry.

(5) Reputation:

Judge Hewitt reported that his last available rating by a legal rating organization, Best Lawyers, was Best Lawyers in the areas of both Appellate Practice and Personal Injury Litigation - Plaintiffs.

Judge Hewitt reported the following military service:

From June of 2001 to August of 2001, I was an officer candidate in the United States Marine Corps. A week before the end of Officer Candidate School, I declined a commission as a Second Lieutenant and was released from my orders. To my knowledge, I did not have a rank or a serial number. The character of my discharge was "dropping on request."

Judge Hewitt reported that he has never held public office other than judicial office.

(6) Physical Health:

Judge Hewitt appears to be physically capable of performing the duties of the office he seeks.

(7) Mental Stability:

Judge Hewitt appears to be mentally capable of performing the duties of the office he seeks.

(8) Experience:

Judge Hewitt was admitted to the South Carolina Bar in 2005.

He gave the following account of his legal experience since graduation from law school:

- (a) From August of 2005 to July of 2008, I served as a judicial law clerk and legislative liaison to the Honorable Jean H. Toal, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of South Carolina.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

- (b) From July of 2008 to August of 2009, I served as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Joseph F. Anderson, Jr., United States District Judge for the District of South Carolina.
- (c) From August of 2009 until November of 2019, I was in private practice with the same law firm. When I joined the firm it was Bluestein Nichols Thompson & Delgado. When I left, it was Bluestein Thompson Sullivan. My primary area of practice was appellate litigation but I was routinely involved in work at the Circuit Court and District Court level as either lead counsel or consulting counsel.
- (d) From January of 2018 to May of 2018 I was employed by the University of South Carolina Law School as an Adjunct Professor teaching Appellate Advocacy.
- (e) From January of 2020 to the present time I have been honored to serve the people of South Carolina as a judge on the Court of Appeals.

Judge Hewitt reported that he has held the following judicial office(s):

I was elected by the General Assembly to the Court of Appeals in February of 2019. I did not begin serving until after the Honorable Paul Short retired the following December. My service began in January of 2020. I have served continuously since that time.

The Court of Appeals predominantly has appellate jurisdiction and performs the first stage of appellate review for the vast majority of appeals that are filed in the unified judicial system. The only exceptions are the seven categories of cases that skip the Court of Appeals and proceed directly to the Supreme Court. In addition to its appellate jurisdiction, the Court of Appeals hears pretrial motions to suppress wire, oral, or electronic communications under the “South Carolina Homeland Security Act” if there is a claim the communications were illegally intercepted.

Judge Hewitt provided the following list of his most significant orders or opinions:

Every case I handled in private practice was significant to me because every client’s case is supremely important to them. The same has been true as a judge – every case is the most important case to the people involved. We do our best to give every case a full and complete review because they are all significant. With that qualification, some of the cases that I believe to have broader significance are described below:

- (a) Fairfield Waverly, LLC v. Dorchester Cnty. Assessor, 432 S.C. 287, 852 S.E.2d 739 (Ct. App. 2020) (cert. petition pending)
- (b) Arcadia Lakes v. S.C. Dep't of Health & Env't Control, 433 S.C. 47, 855 S.E.2d 325 (Ct. App. 2021)
- (c) Est. of Jane Doe 202 v. City of N. Charleston, 433 S.C. 444, 858 S.E.2d 814 (Ct. App. 2021) (cert. petition pending)
- (d) Encore Tech. Grp., LLC v. Trask, 436 S.C. 289, 871 S.E.2d 608 (Ct. App. 2021) (cert. petition pending)
- (e) State v. Williams, Op. No. 5918 (S.C. Ct. App. filed June 15, 2022) (Howard Adv. Sh. No. 21 at 45)

Judge Hewitt reported no other employment while serving as a judge.

Judge Hewitt further reported the following regarding unsuccessful candidacies:

In 2012 I ran unsuccessfully for the South Carolina House of Representatives, District #105. For a brief period in May, I was the Republican nominee for this office, however I was disqualified as a candidate as a result of the Supreme Court of South Carolina's decision in Florence County Democratic Party v. Florence County Republican Party, which invalidated the filing directions that the South Carolina Election Commission issued to all candidates. I pursued a petition candidacy following this decision and was certified by the Election Commission as a petition candidate for the November 2012 general election. I did not win the general election. I filed my final financial report in April of 2013.

In 2014 I ran unsuccessfully for the Court of Appeals, seat 7. This vacancy was created when Judge Danny Pieper retired. I was deeply honored to be found qualified and nominated by the JMSC. I withdrew from the race a week before the election, which Judge Stephanie McDonald won.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

In 2017 I ran unsuccessfully for the Court of Appeals, seat 9. This vacancy was created by Judge James Lockemy's elevation to Chief Judge. I was deeply honored to again be found qualified and nominated by the JMSC. I withdrew from the race the morning of the election, which Judge Gary Hill won.

(9) Judicial Temperament:

The Commission believes that Judge Hewitt's temperament has been, and would continue to be, excellent.

(10) Miscellaneous:

The Pee Dee Citizens Committee on Judicial Qualifications found Judge Hewitt to be "Qualified" in the evaluative criteria of constitutional qualifications, physical health, and mental stability; and "Well Qualified" in the evaluative criteria of ethical fitness, professional and academic ability, character, reputation, experience, and judicial temperament.

Judge Hewitt is married to Emma Catherine (Brown) Hewitt. He has one child.

Judge Hewitt reported that he was a member of the following Bar and professional associations:

- (a) South Carolina Bar: Trial & Appellate Advocacy Section, Council Member (July 2010 - July 2013); Judicial Qualifications Committee, Committee Member (March 2011 - August 2012); Young Lawyers Division, Long-Range Planning Committee, Committee Member (July 2010 - July 2012); Young Lawyers Division, 15th Circuit Representative (July 2013 - July 2015); Young Lawyers Foundation Board, Board Member (November 2013 - July 2015).
- (b) Horry County Bar Association.
- (c) South Carolina Supreme Court Historical Society.
- (d) Injured Workers Advocates: Judicial Affairs Committee, Committee Member (March 2010 - Feb. 2019).

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

- (e) South Carolina Association for Justice: Legislative Steering Committee, Committee Member (November 2010 - Feb. 2019).
- (f) Coastal Inn of Court: Community Service Chair (Jan. 2014 - Sept. 2019), Judicial Officer (Sept. 2019 - present).

Judge Hewitt provided that he was a member of the following civic, charitable, educational, social, or fraternal organizations:

- (a) Waccamaw Sertoma Club. Board Member (July 2013 - Aug. 2019), President (August 2016 - July 2017);
- (b) City of Conway Board of Zoning Appeals (April 2013 - Feb. 2019);
- (c) City of Conway Downtown Alive;
- (d) Compleat Lawyer Award (Silver), USC Law School.

Judge Hewitt further reported:

I have written this before, but it remains true that any good qualities I possess are the result of the many strong and positive influences in my life. I was blessed to have parents who loved me and invested in me heavily. I was also fortunate to have several people outside of my immediate family show interest in me and help shape my development by serving as mentors. My greatest professional goal has always been to honor these wonderful individuals. I know that any success I experience will be the result of them lifting me on their shoulders.

I have known for some time that I wanted to devote my career to public service. My passion as a lawyer has always been the desire to help the court system be the best that it can be – to treat people decently, to treat everyone's case as important, and to help the court make the right decision for the right reasons. I gravitated towards appellate work in particular because I enjoyed it, because I felt that it provided a platform for fulfilling these goals, and because I felt it brought out the best lawyer in me.

I believe true success is not about serving yourself, but serving others. I loved litigating cases, and I loved my colleagues in private practice. Even so, the opportunity to serve the appellate court system was so attractive that I had to pursue it. In private practice, my obligations were to produce results for my clients and produce revenue for my law firm. Public service allows me to leverage my experience and abilities for the benefit of my fellow citizens and my State. It has been, and continues to be the greatest honor of my professional life to devote my energy and my affection for appellate work to helping the Court of Appeals succeed in its essential mission to produce high-quality decisions, in a timely manner, that follow the rule of law. It has been hard work, but I enjoy it tremendously.

(11) Commission Members' Comments:

The Commission commented that Judge Hewitt has an outstanding reputation as an appellate jurist. They noted that his great intellect and appellate experience have ably served him in discharging his responsibilities on the Court of Appeals.

(12) Conclusion:

The Commission found Judge Hewitt qualified, and nominated him for re-election to Court of Appeals, Seat 1.

Whitney B. Harrison
Court of Appeals, Seat 2

Commission's Findings: QUALIFIED AND NOMINATED

(1) Constitutional Qualifications:

Based on the Commission's investigation, Ms. Harrison meets the qualifications prescribed by law for judicial service as a Court of Appeals judge.

Ms. Harrison was born in 1985. She is 37 years old and a resident of Columbia, South Carolina. Ms. Harrison provided in her application that she has been a resident of South Carolina for at least the immediate past five years and has been a licensed attorney in South Carolina since 2011.

(2) Ethical Fitness:

The Commission's investigation did not reveal any evidence of unethical conduct by Ms. Harrison.

Ms. Harrison demonstrated an understanding of the Canons of Judicial Conduct and other ethical considerations important to judges, particularly in the areas of ex parte communications, acceptance of gifts and ordinary hospitality, and recusal.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

Ms. Harrison reported that she has made $264.82 in campaign expenditures for metered postage, paper and envelopes for introduction letters, palm cards, and a name tag.

Ms. Harrison testified she has not:

- (a) sought or received the pledge of any legislator prior to screening;
- (b) sought or been offered a conditional pledge of support by a legislator;
- (c) asked third persons to contact members of the General Assembly prior to screening.

Ms. Harrison testified that she is aware of the Commission's 48-hour rule regarding the formal and informal release of the Screening Report.

(3) Professional and Academic Ability:

The Commission found Ms. Harrison to be intelligent and knowledgeable.

Ms. Harrison reported that she has taught the following law-related courses:

- (a) September 19, 2017: I delivered Presbyterian College's Constitution Day speech, where I discussed the toolbox of rights and protections found in our constitution; afterwards I had Q&A with faculty and staff;
- (b) June 14, 2018: I spoke at Palmetto Girls State about my experience with the practice of law;
- (c) September 24, 2018; I spoke at the Honorable Michelle Child's Federal Court Mentoring Lunch regarding appellate practice—including briefing, motions practice, and oral argument preparation—with the Deputy Staff Attorney of the Court of Appeals and a fellow appellate practitioner;
- (d) August 3, 2019: I was on a panel at the South Carolina Association for Justice (SCAJ) convention for the Consumer Protection Section CLE with co-counsel, an attorney from Office of Regulatory Staff, and a reporter from The State to discuss the VC Summer Litigation;
- (e) November 20, 2019: I spoke again at Judge Child's Federal Court Mentoring Lunch regarding appellate practice.
- (f) From January 2020 through May 2020, I was part of Cornell Law School's Clinical Program in connection with Moore v. Stirling. This weekly class was a hybrid of legal course work for law students and counsel meetings with Cornell faculty and students, fellows and staff attorneys from Justice 360, and other criminal practitioners;

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

(g) November 7, 2021: I spoke on a panel about civil litigation and appellate practice with two fellow practitioners and former appellate clerks for the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals' mentoring program;

(h) March 28, 2022: I taught a three-hour class on appellate practice and procedure in a South Carolina law survey course at Presbyterian College, which stemmed from the weekly constitutional law course I taught at Presbyterian College in Spring 2013;

(i) In June 2022, I spoke at Palmetto Girls State with the practice of law.

(j) *August 5, 2022: I will be presenting at the SCAJ convention for the Family Law Section—on supersedeas filings at the Court of Appeals and issue preservation;

(k) *November 4-5, 2022: I will be moderating a panel for the South Carolina Bar entitled "Importance of Oral Argument," as well as serving as a judge during the Oral Argument Workshop.

Ms. Harrison reported that she has published the following:

(a) Incorporating Service Work Into Your Practice, South Carolina Young Lawyer, February 2011, Volume 2, Issue 2, p. 15. (Co-authored with Professor Amy Milligan of University of South Carolina School of Law).

(b) A Best Friend to All: A Tribute to the Honorable Tanya A. Gee; South Carolina Young Lawyer, December 2016, Volume 9, Issue 2, p. 3; The Docket, December 2016, Volume 10, Issue 10, p. 2; RICHBARNEWS, November/December 2016, p. 6.

(c) Inspired to Dream: Inspired to Give, PC Annual Report, July 2020, p. 19.

(4) Character:

The Commission's investigation of Ms. Harrison did not reveal evidence of any founded grievances or criminal allegations made against her.

The Commission's investigation of Ms. Harrison did not indicate any evidence of a troubled financial status. Ms. Harrison has handled her financial affairs responsibly.

The Commission also noted that Ms. Harrison was punctual and attentive in her dealings with the Commission, and the Commission's investigation did not reveal any problems with her diligence and industry.

(5) Reputation:

Ms. Harrison reported her rating by legal rating organizations:

- Super Lawyers: Rising Star.
- National Trial Lawyers: 40 under 40 Civil Plaintiff List.

Ms. Harrison reported that she has not served in the military.

Ms. Harrison reported that she has never held public office.

(6) Physical Health:

Ms. Harrison appears to be physically capable of performing the duties of the office she seeks.

(7) Mental Stability:

Ms. Harrison appears to be mentally capable of performing the duties of the office she seeks.

(8) Experience:

Ms. Harrison was admitted to the South Carolina Bar in 2011.

She gave the following account of her legal experience since graduation from law school:

Upon graduating from law school, I clerked for the Honorable Aphrodite K. Konduros, on the South Carolina Court of Appeals. While working for Judge Konduros, I reviewed briefs and records in criminal, civil, family, workers' compensation, and administrative law cases; researched legal issues raised and wrote bench memoranda to assist the judges; presented my analysis and recommendations on my assigned cases to the appellate panel to help prepare them for oral argument; and assisted with the drafting of opinions.

In March 2013, I accepted a job in private practice, working for McGowan, Hood, Felder & Phillips, LLC (MHFP) on anti-trust litigation, along with an agreement that I could establish an appellate practice overtime. During my first year, I worked primarily on class action litigation brought on behalf of the State through parens patriae, where I served as the primary associate for the team. Over the course of that year, I started handling my firm's appeals at the Supreme Court of South Carolina and South Carolina Court of Appeals.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

From March 2014 to July 2015, I continued handling MHFP's appeals to the South Carolina appellate courts and assisted with appeals to the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit and drafting a writ of certiorari to the United States Supreme Court. In total, I served as lead counsel on nine appeals and argued five times before our appellate courts during this period. Additionally, I worked with the named partners on medical malpractice cases and personal injury cases—assisting at every stage of litigation by drafting pleadings, arguing motions, taking depositions, and handling motions, jury charges, and witnesses at trial.

In Spring 2015, the Honorable Kaye G. Hearn invited me to clerk in her chambers at Supreme Court of South Carolina. While unexpected, the opportunity to sharpen my appellate skills was significant, and I accepted the position with the conditions that before leaving private practice I could complete two milestones, already calendared: (1) try my first medical malpractice case; and (2) argue for the first time before the Supreme Court.

With both conditions met, in August 2015 I began clerking for Justice Hearn. At the Supreme Court, I worked on novel issues in every area of the law. I also had exposure to original jurisdiction cases, which provided an opportunity to work on cases involving elections, death penalty, utilities, and constitutional issues.

In August 2016, I returned to MHFP with a heightened desire to firmly establish myself as a name in appellate practice. As part of those efforts, I placed an emphasis on gaining as much courtroom experience as possible through motions practice and trial work to master procedural and discovery issues that are often addressed on appeal, while also increasing my appellate work. These matters included: medical malpractice, personal injury, civil rights, first amendment claims, and probate. During 2017, I began taking on appeals and trial work from other law firms while continuing to work with MHFP's trial teams for larger cases and complex appeals. Today, I continue to work under this rubric, which gives me the incredible ability to continually work on fascinating issues at trial and on appeal.

Ms. Harrison reported the frequency of her court appearances during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Federal: 5%;
- (b) State: 95%.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

Ms. Harrison reported the percentage of her practice involving civil, criminal, domestic and other matters during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Civil: 75%;
- (b) Criminal: 5%;
- (c) Domestic: 15%;
- (d) Other: 5% administrative.

Ms. Harrison reported the percentage of her practice in trial court during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Jury: 25%;
- (b) Non-jury: 75%.

My practice is unique. Generally, I am associated as co-counsel in trial court for two reasons: (1) a case is certain to go to trial or (2) a case includes a novel issue that will likely require an appeal. I have tried multiple cases to verdict in circuit court and have arbitrated a case.

Ms. Harrison provided that during the past five years she served as co-counsel and chief counsel:

For trial matters, I served as co-counsel, where I typically handled motions and legal strategy, and during trial I handled motions, record preservation, and occasional examination of witnesses. In appellate matters, I served as chief counsel—regardless of whether I was co-counsel in the underlying matter or retained to handle the appeal.

The following is Ms. Harrison's account of her five most significant litigated matters:

- (a) VC Summer Litigation (Lightsey v. S.C. Elec. & Gas Co., et al., Case No. 2017-CP-25-00335 & Cook v. S.C. Pub. Serv. Auth., et al., Case No. 2019-CP-23-06675)

This litigation stemmed from the abandonment of the VC Summer Nuclear Project (the Project) on July 31, 2017, by South Carolina Electric & Gas Company (SCE&G) and South Carolina Public Service Authority (Santee Cooper). Class counsel filed a lawsuit against the utility companies for their negligence and mismanagement of the Project.

In stark contrast to traditional utility law, the Base Load Review Act (BLRA), allowed SCE&G to charge customers for construction costs prior to service, i.e. providing electricity to be used by customers, from the new units. In total, SCE&G customers advanced over $2 billion in financing costs at the time of abandonment. The determinative legal issue in this matter was the BLRA's constitutionality. At the hearing, I argued the BLRA was unconstitutional because it violated Article I, Section 22 of the South Carolina Constitution, which contains an express protection of the right of notice and an opportunity to be heard in administrative agency cases, as well violating the Fifth and Fourteenth amendments of the United States Constitution and the delegation doctrine.

Months after I argued this constitutional challenge, the circuit court issued instructions regarding anticipated rulings on the Class's constitutional arguments. These instructions provided the impetus for SCE&G to begin settlement negotiation. This case settled for almost $2.2 billion—$178 million in cash and $2 billion in rate relief administered through the Public Service Commission.

As to Santee Cooper, the determinative legal issues were defining the duties owed to these customers. Generally, a utility company does not owe a duty to its customers regarding rates. Articulating a duty between the company and the customers was heightened because Santee Cooper is a state entity. Additionally, because of the Project's nature as a joint venture with SCE&G, it was necessary to craft a separate and distinct duty between SCE&G and Santee Cooper's customers. By arguing that Santee Cooper's customers were financing the project for Santee Cooper and in turn SCE&G, it provided an avenue to satisfy elements of both negligence theories.

In the weeks leading up to trial, where a jury would determine whether a duty existed, Santee Cooper moved to strike future damages, valued at nearly $4 billion, as a means of limiting liability/recovery at trial. Santee Cooper and SCE&G argued that the future damages were speculative. Following my argument that the damages were ascertainable, the Court agreed and found $4 billion could be requested at trial. The case settled shortly thereafter. In total, the settlement provided for $520 million in cash and $510 million in rate relief.

(b) Kosciusko v. Parham, 428 S.C. 481, 836 S.E.2d 362 (Ct. App. 2019).

This appeal addressed whether South Carolina law permits issues relating to child custody and visitation to be submitted to binding arbitration without oversight from the family court or appellate review. I represented the mother, who argued that the family court did not have jurisdiction to enforce a custody arrangement decided in arbitration because allowing an arbitrator to decide custody violated multiple state laws—specifically, ones in which the General Assembly vested exclusive jurisdiction in the family court to determine issues with children—as well as court rules. This was a case of first impression and the Court of Appeals found that child custody may not be arbitrated. Two years later, the Supreme Court in Singh v. Singh, agreed and relied on this case’s reasoning and the mother’s arguments. 434 S.C. 223, 225, 863 S.E.2d 330, 331 (2021) (“[O]ur reading of the statutes and court rules is consistent with the analysis of the court of appeals in Kosciusko.”).

(c) Moore v. Stirling, 436 S.C. 207, 871 S.E.2d 423 (2022).

For the first time in almost thirty years, the Supreme Court granted oral argument to a habeas corpus petition in a death penalty case to address an issue of first impression. This case challenged the Court’s methodology for conducting a proportionality review on direct appeal. By way of background, following a death sentence in circuit court, the case is appealed directly to the Supreme Court. While addressing any merit issue raised by the defendant, the Court separately conducts a proportionality review as mandated by the General Assembly—a review vested solely with the Supreme Court. Practically, the Court is charged with confirming the sentence is proportionate to the crime based on prior cases in the State. In interpreting this mandate, the Court previously decided it would only compare the case before it to cases where the death sentences were upheld.

My client challenged the Court’s limited comparison pool arguing that the pool invited only one outcome because of the pool’s limited size. The pool failed to account for cases with similar facts in which: a death sentence was not sought, a death notice was withdrawn, or a death sentence was not imposed—including consideration of the lesser sentences. In the absence of a rule change, my client contended that the Court was failing to carry out its statutory directive from the General Assembly. The Supreme Court agreed and modified its rule to allow a defendant to submit comparison cases that should be taken into consideration during its proportionality review.

(d) Gartrell v. Aiken Regional Medical Center, Court of Common Pleas, Aiken County, Civil Action No: 15-CP-02-0794.

My client became a triple-amputee as a result of medical negligence. After a two-week trial alongside MHFP partners, an Aiken County jury awarded a $13.75 million verdict. In anticipation of a large verdict, I was invited to the trial team to preserve the record for appeal, handle motions and jury charges, and prepare for post-trial motions to sustain the verdict, including constitutional challenges to any reduction. In preparation for those constitutional challenges, I utilized primary documents from the 1700 and 1800s, and worked with historians and research librarians in the months leading up to trial. While this matter settled prior to an appeal, this was the first case that blended my passion for complexity and novel law into the circuit court in anticipation of an appeal to the Supreme Court through original jurisdiction. Following this experience, I saw an avenue to practice in my own unique way.

- (e) Shareholder Dispute (Andrews v. Broom, Op. No. 2018-002223, 2022 WL 539073, at *1 (S.C. Ct. App. filed Feb. 9, 2022) Broom v. Ten State St., LLP, Op. No. 2015-MO-057 (S.C. Sup. Ct. filed Sept. 30, 2015) (reversing Broom v. Ten State St. LLP, Op. No. 2015-UP-030 (S.C. Ct. App. filed January 14, 2015)).

This business dispute, spanning seventeen years of litigation and counting, involves a partnership dissolution with an assertion of a novel issue surrounding a minority shareholder, along with numerous issues involving preservation, statutes of limitations, and civil procedure. I have been involved with the case's two appeals to the Court of Appeals, two writs of certiorari to the Supreme Court, and a bench trial. Included within this lengthy litigation are a series of firsts for me: first appellate brief—Broom v. Ten State St. LLP, Op. No. 2015-UP-030 (S.C. Ct. App. filed January 14, 2015); first win at the Supreme Court—Broom v. Ten State St., LLP, Op. No. 2015-MO-057 (S.C. Sup. Ct. filed Sept. 30, 2015), and my first bench trial.

Without getting too far into the procedural weeds or business disagreements, Mr. Broom has asserted since 2016 that the case was moot following his 2015 favorable Supreme Court ruling and remittitur. In 2018, Mr. Broom raised these arguments in a motion to dismiss before the trial court. The trial court disagreed and allowed the matter to proceed to a bench trial. At trial, Mr. Broom was successful on all but one claim, which he appealed. In 2022, the Court of Appeals agreed with Mr. Broom that it was an error of law for the trial to have occurred because the issues were moot on procedural grounds. A petition for certiorari is pending.

For me, this case highlights the importance of preserving a record on appeal and continually renewing arguments for appeal.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

The following is Ms. Harrison's account of five civil appeals she has personally handled:

- (a) Rainey v. S.C. Dep't of Soc. Servs., 434 S.C. 342, 344, 863 S.E.2d 470, 471 (Ct. App. 2021);
- (b) Broom v. Ten State St., LLP, Op. No. 2015-MO-057 (S.C. Sup. Ct. filed Sept. 30, 2015); Andrews v. Broom, Op. No. 2018-002223, 2022 WL 539073, at *1 (S.C. Ct. App. filed Feb. 9, 2022);

- (e) William Plumer Jacobs Society Member.

Ms. Harrison further reported:

I love a courtroom podium. It's where I have always felt most at home in this profession. The law comes alive during an argument when I am peppered with hypotheticals and nuanced questions to test the strength and veracity of my arguments. It's in those moments that the courtroom becomes my stage as I am pushed by the ticking appellate clock to prioritize and persuade seamlessly while balancing the bench's questions. I generally dislike discussing myself and resist a spotlight—a truth I felt with force as I answered the last fifty-seven questions. But in a courtroom, it's never about me. I stand front and center, giving voice to issues that need to be squarely addressed. When I leave court, I know I have given it my all, using my time and talents to make a difference—living out my definition of service.

I grew up with parents who made service an organic part of our family. From hosting Cub Scout meetings in our living room every Monday night for nearly six years to volunteering with every clean-up project, ticket table, or random event that needed more hands, we were there ready to serve. It was instilled in me that when you care about your community you show up—wherever and however you can.

This emphasis on making service a daily practice is what drew me to Presbyterian College, whose motto “while we live, we serve” continues to inspire me twenty-years later. There, my mentor, former President Dr. John V. Griffith, often brought our conversations about life and my future back to a paraphrased verse in Deuteronomy, stating: “we are heirs of cities we did not build.” His point being that with our grand inheritances comes a responsibility to serve our communities using our unique gifts to ensure that those who follow us will receive not only the same, but better. I left college anticipating that the law would be my vocation and my path to serve.

As you read in my application, however, my path became unexpected when I had to take the bar exam three times. There were moments when I questioned if I would ever practice law. And even after I was admitted, I was certain my bar failures would be a shameful embarrassment that would follow my career—a blemish used to size up my intellect and talent. Yet, with the passing of time, I have come to see that blemish for what it really is: a sign of my strength and determination.

During the fall of my 3L year, I was diagnosed with cancer. I underwent surgery to prevent melanoma from spreading, which involved the removal of a grapefruit-size mass. I declined doctors' advice to take leave from school and returned to law school hooked to a machine with tubes coming out of my clothes. There was nothing normal about the rest of that school year (or the year that followed). But I adapted because I had three goals I was determined to accomplish: finish school, deliver our class speech at graduation as planned, and pass the bar exam that October—almost a year from the date of my diagnosis.

I achieved the first two goals—walking across the graduation stage with my classmates and delivering a speech on service. But it took an extra year of studying when I was not working, as well as healing, to pass the bar exam.

Trusting my inner voice that reminded me “I am strong enough to try” was the most significant decision I will likely ever make. There is no question there were challenging, humbling, and down-right awful days that occurred as I faced set-backs both personally and professionally. Yet, those are the days that profoundly shaped me, giving me the perspective that I want a lifetime of days filled with purpose and meaningful service. This, in turn, sharpened my drive and forced me to try harder, embracing late nights and early mornings to fully commit to a task at hand. I learned I am not afraid to be an outlier or to trust my own instinct. I found the value of following my own compass and its passions. Those two years of choosing to try rather than accepting defeat made me a better lawyer and a better servant.

It is still that inner voice that boldly guides me in all aspects of life. In the law, it has encouraged me to take on challenging novel issues and remain unwavering in my advocacy. In so doing, I have represented South Carolinians from all walks of life including: a businessman, an injured DSS worker, a single mother fighting for her kids, a child abandoned by his family, a utility customer, a triple amputee, a man on death row, and so many others. My vocation has become my service—with an unassailable conviction and stronger confidence than I could have anticipated. As I look forward and consider my responsibility as an heir of our State, I believe my legal talents and experiences have uniquely prepared me to serve on the Court of Appeals. Although I will undoubtedly miss my beloved podium, I know serving on the bench offers more opportunity to build on our jurisprudence for the betterment of our heirs, which after everything remains my ultimate goal.

(11) Commission Members' Comments:

The Commission noted Ms. Harrison has a wonderful reputation as an appellate practitioner. She was engaging and poised. They noted she has focused her professional experience on appellate practice, which will serve her well should she be elected to the Court of Appeals.

(12) Conclusion:

The Commission found Ms. Harrison qualified, and nominated her for election to Court of Appeals, Seat 2.

(8) Experience:

Judge Knie was admitted to the South Carolina Bar in 1989.

She gave the following account of her legal experience since graduation from law school:

- (a) Kermit S. King, Attorney, Columbia, South Carolina,

Clerkship August 1988-June 1989;

Upon graduating from law school in the Summer of 1989, while studying to take the bar exam in August, I continued to work for Kermit S. King, Attorney at Law, in Columbia. Mr. King's practice primarily focused on domestic litigation. My job responsibilities were to research aspects of the law as instructed, to assist in organizing files and accompanying him and other lawyers in the firm to court, when necessary. In addition, I performed general clerkship duties. The position ended at the conclusion of the bar exam preparation and upon my taking a position as Law Clerk to The Honorable James B. Stephen, Circuit Court Judge.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

- (b) The Honorable James B. Stephen, Circuit Court Judge, Spartanburg, South Carolina, Law Clerk, August 1989-August 1990;

I obtained the position of Law Clerk to The Honorable James B. Stephen, Circuit Court Judge for the Seventh Judicial Circuit, Spartanburg, SC, in August 1989. I had the opportunity to shadow Judge Stephen in his court room and in his office for one year. I traveled with him while he rotated throughout the state when he held court in Beaufort, Charleston, Columbia, Aiken, Cherokee, Spartanburg and other counties. I had a unique and distinct career opportunity which was priceless in gaining valuable experience and insight into the practice of law and in being a Circuit Court Judge. During that year, I sat beside Judge Stephen on the bench, in the courtroom, daily and was able to observe first-hand General Sessions Court and Common Pleas Court. He had me research legal issues, assist in writing decisions and had me serve as the conduit of information between him and counsel appearing before him concerning decisions, calendaring, and scheduling.

- (c) Bruce Foster, P.A., Spartanburg, South Carolina,

Associate, 1990-1992;

In August of 1990 I became an associate of Bruce Foster, P.A. in Spartanburg. The practice was a general litigation practice with a focus on domestic litigation, and plaintiff's personal injury. As an associate attorney, I initially served as co-counsel with Mr. Foster in on-going, pending litigation. I then accumulated my own clients, representing them in both family court and civil litigation, and some criminal defense, as well as, employment discrimination and sexual harassment litigation. At the conclusion of two years, I continued to share office space with Mr. Foster but, formed my own firm as Grace Gilchrist Dunbar, P.A.

- (d) Grace Gilchrist Dunbar, PA, Spartanburg, South Carolina,

Attorney, 1992-2004;

In 1992 through 2004, I had a general litigation practice handling domestic litigation, plaintiff's personal injury, workers' compensation, employment discrimination and criminal defense work. During this time, Mr. Foster's health began to deteriorate, and he retired. I purchased and renovated an office building in Spartanburg and moved my practice to a location approximately one block from Mr. Foster's office. I was a sole practitioner and solely handled the administrative and financial management of the law firm which required that I was in charge of payroll, payroll tax deposits, quarterly and annual tax returns, and I was in charge of the management of the law firm's trust account/s. A CPA firm calculated payroll, tax deposits, and withholding amounts.

(e) City of Spartanburg, Spartanburg, South Carolina,

City Prosecutor, 1995-2010; part-time position;

In 1995, I took the position as the City Prosecutor for the City of Spartanburg. I held that position until 2010. It was part-time. My job responsibilities included the prosecution of all criminal jury trials for the City of Spartanburg. The cases ranged from minor traffic citations to more serious charges of Criminal Domestic Violence, Driving Under the Influence 1st offense and Driving Under Suspension. There were multi-day terms of court on a monthly basis. I dealt with attorneys representing defendants, as well as, pro-se litigants on a regular basis. Additionally, I served as legal counsel at City Council meetings when the City Attorney could not be present. I handled most of the appeals from the Spartanburg County Municipal Court to the Circuit Court.

(f) Grace Gilchrist Knie, PA, Spartanburg, South Carolina,

Attorney, 2004 – February 23, 2017.

In 2004, although the nature of my practice remained the same, after my marriage, I changed the name of my law practice and professional association to Grace Gilchrist Knie, P.A. Approximately 6-8 years later I transitioned the nature of my practice from contested domestic litigation to Social Security Disability in addition to personal injury. I was a sole practitioner and solely handled the administrative and financial management of the law firm which required that I was in charge of payroll, payroll tax deposits, quarterly and annual tax returns, and I was in charge of the management of the law firm's trust account/s. A CPA firm calculated payroll, tax deposits, and withholding amounts.

Judge Knie reported the frequency of her court appearances prior to her service on the bench as follows:

- (a) Federal: several times a month;
- (b) State: several times a month.

Judge Knie reported the percentage of her practice involving civil, criminal, domestic and other matters prior to her service on the bench as follows:

- (a) civil: Personal injury/ Workers Compensation 40%;
- (b) criminal: Defense 2%;

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

- (c) domestic: 8%;
- (d) other: Social Security disability 50%; City Prosecutor of criminal jury trials approximately four days a month as a part-time position from 1995- 2010.

Judge Knie reported the percentage of her practice in trial court prior to her service on the bench as follows:

- (a) jury: 40% including City Prosecutor position 1995-2010;
- (b) non-jury: 60%;

Judge Knie provided that during the past five years prior to her service on the bench she most often served as sole counsel.

The following is Judge Knie's account of her five most significant litigated matters:

- (a) Laura B. Steagall v. Freightliner L.L.C., et. al, CA 2007-CP-11-655 later removed to federal court 7:07-cv-03877. This lawsuit involved the alleged sexual harassment of the plaintiff by a supervisor of Freightliner. It was somewhat unique because the plaintiff was employed by a staffing company which supplied the plaintiff to Freightliner. Issues arose as to whether Freightliner fell within Title VII because the plaintiff and her alleged assailant did not work for the same company. There were also reporting and notice issues. In addition, her assailant allegedly harassed her both at work and after hours at her home and elsewhere.

The complaint included alleged causes of action for a hostile work environment (Title VII), sexual harassment (Title VII), retaliatory discharge, negligent supervision and retention, and assault and battery. This was removed to federal court due to diversity jurisdiction issues. The causes of action for negligent supervision and retention and for assault and battery, are state causes of action.

Many practitioners have not been exposed to this area of the law; however, I have handled at least five other such lawsuits during my years of practice. It is important as a state court jurist to have some knowledge of federal statutory law as it can apply to state proceedings in several different areas.

(b) Gumaro Gonzalez-Bravo v. Krishna Patel Kandel, d/b/a Citgo Food Mart;

WCC File No. 0918192

In this tragic circumstance and case, Mr. Bravo was working at the Citgo Food Mart located in Spartanburg, South Carolina in the capacity of stocker and clean up personnel. He had been working at the Citgo Food Mart for less than a month and, on the night of September 30, 2009, he and one of the co-owners of the food mart were the only two persons working. Mr. Bravo was in the back-storage room, sweeping the floor. The food mart was robbed and both Mr. Bravo and the co-owner were killed. Mr. Bravo had moved to the United States from Mexico. He was earning $5.00 per hour, which he was paid in cash at the time of his death. I view this case as one of the most significant litigated matters that I have handled in my twenty-seven years of practicing law for several reasons. The unique issues involved in the case included whether the store owner was a statutory employer pursuant to S.C. law and if Mr. Bravo was actually an employee of the food mart, and if so if death benefits were payable, what was his average weekly wage and compensation rate, and who were Mr. Bravo's dependents pursuant to S.C. law. In this case, the owner of the store did not have workers' compensation insurance and the argument was that he was not required to have workers' compensation insurance because he did not have four or more employees or, he did not have the minimum number of employees required of him to mandate carrying workers' compensation insurance. I was successful in proving that there were more than the minimum number of employees employed and, in the end, I was also successful in proving that the decedent's family was entitled to 500 weeks of benefits. This case involved contact with the Probate Court in Spartanburg County, documents from the Spartanburg County Coroner's Office, witnesses and documents from the Spartanburg County Sheriff's Office and obtaining documents from the S.C. Department of Revenue. I felt a deep commitment and obligation to represent the interests of this deceased party for the financial benefit of his wife and children, and to honor his senseless murder.

(c) Helen Owens v. Freddy Lee Johnson, 2014-CP-30-185

This lawsuit involved a serious motor vehicle collision in which the plaintiff suffered a fractured femur which required multiple surgeries. The plaintiff was traveling to work early in the morning when the defendant, a third shift employee of BMW Manufacturing, traveling in the opposite direction on a two-lane road, fell asleep and crossed the center line hitting the plaintiff's vehicle head on. Early on, an issue arose as to whether the plaintiff had crossed the center line because of tread marks just left of center from the direction in which plaintiff was traveling. I employed an accident reconstruction expert who established that the tread marks were from a different vehicle than that of the plaintiff. The defendant driver leased the BMW which he was driving from his employer, and BMW had substantial liability coverage on the vehicle. The vehicle also had an emergency response system which detected that there had been a collision and a dispatcher engaged the defendant driver in a conversation. I subpoenaed the recording of that conversation which revealed that the driver had fallen asleep at the wheel and did not realize that the collision involved another vehicle. The combination of the expert witness and the recording of the defendant's conversation with the emergency response dispatcher were enough to overcome liability concerns. Ultimately, I was able to secure a significant confidential settlement at mediation. This case was significant because it involved an expert witness and the role of scientific evidence.

(d) Joseph Brown as PR of the Estate of Lillie Ruth Brown v. Spartanburg Urology Surgery Center Partners, L.P., et. al.,
CA 2015-CP-42-867

In this tragic but interesting case, I was hired by Mr. Brown whose wife, in otherwise perfect health, had elected to undergo outpatient carpal tunnel release surgery. Within 15 minutes of her otherwise successful surgery, she went into cardiac arrest. Efforts to revive her at the for-profit outpatient surgery center were unsuccessful and she was transferred to Spartanburg Medical Center which was ironically across the street. Although she was ultimately revived, she had suffered irreversible brain damage. She remained at the hospital and later at hospice in a vegetative state for more than a month before she passed away.

It was established through expert witnesses that her cardiac arrest resulted from the improper and untimely release of the tourniquet used in conjunction with her local anesthesia. Moreover, the outpatient surgery center was not equipped with the proper "crash cart" to deal with this type of event.

The case had a number of challenging legal issues, among them being the relationship of the surgery center, the surgeons who also owned the surgery center, the anesthesia group which supplied the nurse anesthetist, and the R.N. who released the tourniquet. In addition, the Non-Economic Damages Act of 2005 came into play in determining the amount of potential non-economic damages allowable. I took the position that Mr. Brown could recover $425,000 in non-economic damages in his wrongful death, survival, and loss of consortium actions, plus the economic damages suffered which were substantial. After significant discovery and mediation, the case was ultimately settled for a confidential seven figure amount.

The significance of having handled this case for a judicial candidate is that it required a working knowledge of the statutory and common law surrounding medical malpractice cases including the caps. This body of law is very specific and unique. Nonetheless, while mediation has greatly reduced the number of civil cases tried, medical malpractice cases continue to be tried on a regular basis and a jurist must be aware of the nuances of this area of the law.

- (e) Tinsley v. Tinsley, 326 S.C. 374, 483 S.E. 2d 198 (Ct. App. 1997)

This family court action involved issues of divorce on the fault ground of physical cruelty, custody and visitation, and equitable distribution of assets and debts. I represented the Wife. The primary issue presented was whether Husband's South Carolina state disability retirement benefits were property and therefore a marital asset to be divided in equitable distribution, or were those benefits income. On appeal the Court of Appeals held that the payments were replacement for current and future income, and therefore not subject to equitable distribution. The case is significant because it is often cited by attorneys during litigation and it is referred to in trial argument on the income versus asset issue.

The following is Judge Knie's account of five civil appeals she has personally handled:

- (a) Stoney G. Allison v. State, Appellate Case No. 2006-035039; *
- (b) Hazell Stoudemire, III v. State, Case No. 2012-CP-42-2779; *
- (c) Stephens v. Integrated Electrical Services, et.al., SCWCC #0915846;
- (d) Blanton v. Blanton, 2007 -UP-129 (S.C. Ct. App.);
- (e) Siegfried v. SSA, xxx-xx-xxxx;

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

* Both of these cases are criminal cases in which the criminal defendant petitioned the SC Circuit Court for post-conviction relief (PCR). PCR actions are considered civil in nature. I represented both in the PCR actions and then filed the appeals to the SC Supreme Court.

The following is Judge Knie's account of criminal appeals she has personally handled:

As the City Prosecutor at the City of Spartanburg from 1995-2010, in addition to prosecuting all jury trials, I routinely handled the City of Spartanburg Municipal Court appeals to the Circuit Court of the Seventh Judicial Circuit. These cases normally involved the appeal of Criminal Domestic Violence Charges, Driving Under the Influence, other traffic violations, and other municipal level offenses.

Judge Knie reported that she has held the following judicial office(s): I was elected on February 1, 2017, by the SC General Assembly and took the oath on February 24th, 2017, for the position of Circuit Court Judge for the Seventh Judicial Circuit, Seat 2. The Circuit Court is a court of general trial jurisdiction and limited appellate jurisdiction from the Probate Court, Magistrate's Court and Municipal Court in South Carolina. I was re-elected to the same position on February 7th, 2018.

Judge Knie provided the following list of her most significant orders or opinions:

(a) Farr v. Wan, et.al., 2013-CP-42-02404

This action was brought as a medical negligence case in which it was alleged that the physician, a pulmonologist due to a failure to diagnose breached the standard of care when she failed to identify an abnormal density in the decedent's right lung. Suit was brought against the physician and her employer medical group. The case was tried by jury trial for one week in the fall of 2020. There were several expert witnesses from various parts of the United States called by both parties. The trial was challenging due to the constraints of the COVID pandemic. There were challenges and complications regarding jury selection, jury management, and travel restrictions for witnesses. Ultimately it was agreed that several expert witnesses would be allowed to testify virtually. The jury trial verdict was for the Defendants.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

(b) State v. Mark Anthony Gilbert, 2019-GS-42-1035

This criminal jury trial involved allegations by the victim, a daughter against her biological father of criminal sexual conduct. The Defendant was charged with four counts of Criminal Sexual Conduct with a Minor in the Second Degree. The evidence presented by the State included the testimony of the victim, and other family members. The State presented no physical evidence. The case was tried for four days. The jury found the Defendant guilty on all charges. He was sentenced to 25 years in the SC Department of Corrections and was required to register as a Sex Offender.

(c) Keith Bookman v. Jason Brian Buffkin, 2018-CP-40-6147

The parties in this action were involved in a motor vehicle collision on Interstate 77 North in 2018. Plaintiff was working in an interstate construction zone, driving a message board truck, and Defendant, driving under the influence, collided with the attenuator on the back of Plaintiff's truck. Plaintiff suffered personal injuries. Plaintiff brought a claim for negligence and sought actual and punitive damages. Plaintiff resolved his case against the at-fault insurance carrier on a covenant not to execute and proceeded at trial against the UIM carrier. Plaintiff's demand had been for the limits of coverage. In September of 2021, the case was tried for four days. At trial, Defendant admitted negligence but disputed that Plaintiff was injured or suffered any damages as a result of the collision. The parties presented expert testimony via video conference and in person from an orthopedic surgeon, a toxicologist, and a biomechanical expert. The jury returned a verdict in favor of the Plaintiff for $12.5 million dollars, $3.5 million dollars in actual damages and $9 million dollars in punitive damages.

(d) State v. Christian Thomas McCall, 2018-GS-46-03262, 2018-GS-46-03265,

2018-GS-46-03267 and 2018-GS-46-03269

This action arose in 2018 from a domestic dispute between husband and wife in which a 911 call was made from the residence of the victim and the Defendant. The Defendant fled the scene on foot and to apprehend him, a chase ensued by law enforcement. When cornered, the Defendant killed one officer and wounded three others. The Defendant pled guilty to Murder and three counts of Attempted Murder. He received a life sentence, three consecutive thirty-year sentences and a consecutive five-year sentence. This case was further complicated due to the significant public and press interest in this case, and the press coverage of the plea and sentencing hearing which lasted for several hours.

- (e) Carnell Davis v. The State of South Carolina, 1991-GS-42-1126 and 1991-GS-42-1723

This matter came before the Court for a bench trial on resentencing pursuant to Aiken v. Byars, 410 S.C. 534, 765 S.E.2d 572 (2014). Petitioner filed his petition and the Circuit Court of Spartanburg County was vested with exclusive jurisdiction to hear the petition by Order of the Chief Justice of the South Carolina Supreme Court. A hearing on the petition was conducted in August 2018. In 1991, the Petitioner committed murder and shot a Spartanburg City Police Officer. Petitioner was indicted and pled guilty to Murder and Assault and Battery with Intent to Kill. The Petitioner received a life sentence with parole on the Murder charge and he received a twenty-year consecutive sentence on the Assault and Battery with Intent to Kill charge. At the time of the commission of the crimes, the Petitioner was seventeen years old. Petitioner sought relief pursuant to Aiken v. Byars, 410 S.C. 534, 765 S.E.2d 572 (2014). However, the law of South Carolina at the time of Petitioner's conviction provided for possibility of parole being granted for persons sentenced to life terms. Based on information obtained from the South Carolina Department of Probation, Parole, and Pardon Services, since first becoming eligible for parole in 2011, Petitioner had at least four prior parole hearings and subsequent to the time of the resentencing hearing the Defendant would again be eligible for parole consideration. Because the Petitioner's original life sentence made him eligible for parole pursuant to South Carolina law, he was not entitled to resentencing pursuant to Aiken v. Byars, 410 S.C. 534, 765 S.E.2d 572 (2014).

Judge Knie reported no other employment while serving as a judge.

- (9) Judicial Temperament:

The Commission believes that Judge Knie's temperament has been, and would continue to be, excellent.

- (10) Miscellaneous:

The Upstate Citizens Committee on Judicial Qualifications found Judge Knie to be "Qualified" as to the evaluative criteria of constitutional qualifications, physical health, and mental stability; and "Well-

Judge Knie provided that she was a member of the following civic, charitable, educational, social, or fraternal organizations:

(a) First Presbyterian Church;

(b) The YMCA;

(c) The Piedmont Club;

(d) The Spartanburg County Library.

Judge Knie further reported:

As a young person, it was always my goal to complete college and law school. Out of necessity in order to pay the tuition and the necessary costs involved, I worked multiple jobs at the same time while attending school and was able to pay my way through undergraduate school and law school. I believe that I have a strong work ethic that has carried over to my professional practice. I was always willing to put in the long hours necessary to be fully prepared in every case which I handled. As a circuit court judge, I brought that work ethic with me every day to ensure that whatever tasks were assigned to me were fully and timely completed. My work ethic has also made me very independent and I believe that such independence is very important to be a good and ethical jurist.

(11) Commission Members' Comments:

The Commission commented that Judge Knie has an exceptional judicial temperament. Judge Knie also has had a diverse legal background that would serve her well on the Court of Appeals.

(12) Conclusion:

The Commission found Judge Knie qualified, and nominated her for election to Court of Appeals, Seat 2.

The Honorable Letitia H. Verdin
Court of Appeals, Seat 2

Commission's Findings: QUALIFIED AND NOMINATED

(1) Constitutional Qualifications:

Based on the Commission's investigation, Judge Verdin meets the qualifications prescribed by law for judicial service as a Court of Appeals judge.

Judge Verdin was born in 1970. She is 52 years old and a resident of Greenville, South Carolina. Judge Verdin provided in her application that she has been a resident of South Carolina for at least the immediate past five years and has been a licensed attorney in South Carolina since 1997.

(2) Ethical Fitness:

The Commission's investigation did not reveal any evidence of unethical conduct by Judge Verdin.

Judge Verdin demonstrated an understanding of the Canons of Judicial Conduct and other ethical considerations important to judges, particularly in the areas of ex parte communications, acceptance of gifts and ordinary hospitality, and recusal.

Judge Verdin testified she has not:

- (a) sought or received the pledge of any legislator prior to screening;

(6) Physical Health:

Judge Verdin appears to be physically capable of performing the duties of the office she seeks.

(7) Mental Stability:

Judge Verdin appears to be mentally capable of performing the duties of the office she seeks.

(8) Experience:

Judge Verdin was admitted to the South Carolina Bar in 1997.

She gave the following account of her legal experience since graduation from law school:

- (a) Office of the Thirteenth Circuit Solicitor, Assistant Solicitor, 1997-1998

Prosecuted cases in the Traffic Unit and General Crimes Unit

- (b) Office of the Eighth Circuit Solicitor, Assistant Solicitor, 1998

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

Prosecuted all juvenile cases in Family Court and prosecuted all General Sessions child abuse and neglect cases in Greenwood, Abbeville, Newberry, and Laurens Counties

(c) Office of the Thirteenth Circuit Solicitor, Assistant Solicitor, 1999-2000

Prosecuted violent crimes, criminal domestic violence cases, and criminal child abuse and neglect cases; served as the Family Court Unit Head

(d) Clarkson, Walsh, Rheney & Turner, P.A., Associate Attorney, 2000-2005

Litigated cases in areas of government liability defense, insurance defense, and commercial litigation, criminal defense, and family law

(e) Office of the Thirteenth Circuit Solicitor, Assistant Solicitor, 2005-2008

Prosecuted violent crimes, criminal domestic violence cases, and criminal child abuse and neglect cases

Judge Verdin reported the frequency of her court appearances prior to her service on the bench:

- (a) Federal: Occasionally
- (b) State: 1-2 times per week.

Judge Verdin reported the percentage of her practice involving civil, criminal, domestic and other matters prior to her service on the bench as follows:

- (a) Civil: 35%;
- (b) Criminal: 50%;
- (c) Domestic: 10%;
- (d) Other: 5%.

Judge Verdin reported the percentage of her practice in trial court prior to her service on the bench as follows:

- (a) Jury: 5%;
- (b) Non-jury: 95%.

Judge Verdin provided that prior to her service on the bench she most often served as sole counsel.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

The following is Judge Verdin's account of her five most significant litigated matters:

- (a) State of South Carolina v. Patel and the companion divorce action, Patel v. Patel - This was a criminal defense matter in which I was involved while in private practice and its companion divorce action. The wife was charged with Arson and Assault and Battery with Intent to Kill for setting fire to her husband's hotel room while he was inside. I assisted in the criminal defense of the wife and represented her in the divorce action. She was sued for divorce on the ground of a single act of extreme physical cruelty. It was necessary that I protect her rights in the divorce action while ensuring that she did not jeopardize her criminal defense.
- (b) State of South Carolina v. Ricky Sanders – This defendant was charged with Criminal Sexual Conduct with a Minor 1st Degree for sexually abusing his girlfriend's daughter. This case was significant for me because it was the first time our office was successful in having a Forensic Interviewer qualified as an expert witness in the Court of General Sessions. The interviewer's testimony, coupled with the testimony of the child, was instrumental in securing a guilty plea from the defendant during trial.
- (c) Barnes v. Kevin Matheson, Anderson County Sheriff's Department, the City of Clayton Police Department, and the Rabun County Sheriff's Department – This was a case while I was in private practice. The case involved allegations of excessive use of force and other Section 1983 claims against law enforcement officials. I represented Deputy Kevin Matheson and the Anderson County Sheriff's Department. The case involved an escapee, who when eventually surrounded by officers, attempted to run over an officer. Deputy Matheson shot and killed the woman in order to save the officer's life. The case involved numerous constitutional law issues, including that of extra-jurisdictional pursuits. Our motion for summary judgment was granted as to all claims against Deputy Matheson and the Anderson County Sheriff's Department.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

- (d) In re: R.M. – This was a case in which a juvenile shot and killed her uncle with whom she resided. Our office had a policy at that time of petitioning the Family Court for waiver to General Sessions in every murder case in order for full evaluation by the court. The juvenile had been abandoned by her mother, her father was deceased, and defense experts testified that they believed the child was the victim of sexual abuse by the uncle, a fact much later confirmed. The judge in this matter applied the Kent factors and determined that the juvenile was not appropriate for waiver to General Sessions Court. This case is significant to me because it was at the beginning of my Family Court career and it illustrates the integrative and rehabilitative goals of juvenile justice. Though technically a loss for the prosecution, it was a win for the system. While the juvenile's crime was horrific, she spent the remainder of her adolescence and early adulthood in the Department of Juvenile Justice receiving intensive services, and after a transition period, it is my understanding that she has become a productive, law-abiding adult.
- (e) State of South Carolina v. Shad Shepherd – This was a case that I prosecuted in which the young father shook his four month old baby violently causing permanent brain damage and partial blindness. This matter was not only significant because of its facts, but also because it was one of the earlier shaken baby syndrome cases successfully prosecuted by our office. The case also necessitated very sophisticated medical evidence and expert testimony in order to establish that the child had not been accidentally dropped thereby causing her injuries.

The following is Judge Verdin's account of three civil appeals she has personally handled:

- (a) Cox and Rider v. City of Charleston, Rueben Greenberg, Joseph Riley, Captain Chin, Charleston Police Department, Officer Davis, City of Travelers Rest, Mann Batson, and Timothy Christy, Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals, July 26, 2005, 416 F.3d 281.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

- (b) North Greenville Fitness v. Daimler Chrysler, South Carolina Court of Appeals, Jan. 2, 2004, 2003-UP-00737.
- (c) State Auto Property v. Wild Turkey Holdings, South Carolina Court of Appeals, dismissed on June 3, 2004 after briefs were filed pursuant to settlement.

Judge Verdin reported that she has not personally handled any criminal appeals.

Judge Verdin reported that she has held the following judicial office(s):

- (a) Elected to the Family Court, Thirteenth Judicial Circuit, 2008-2011
- (b) Elected to the Circuit Court, Thirteenth Judicial Circuit, 2011-present

Judge Verdin provided the following list of her most significant orders or opinions:

- (a) Hidria, USA, Inc. v. Delo, d.d., d/b/a Slovenske Novice, 415 S.C. 533 (Ct. App. 2016). Hidria, U.S.A., Inc. filed suit against a Slovenian publisher of an online and print newspaper alleging that it maliciously published articles containing falsities concerning a Slovenian citizen associated with Hidria. The matter came before me on Delo's Motion to Dismiss. I granted the motion to dismiss for lack of personal jurisdiction. The Court of Appeals affirmed my decision.
- (b) Precision Wall, Inc. v. Liberty Mutual Fire Insurance Co., 410 S.C. 170 (Ct. App. 2016). Precision Wall, Inc. brought an action against Liberty Mutual, its commercial general liability insurer for a declaratory judgement that its CGL policy covered liability for the cost to tear down and rebuild a brick veneer and seal joints. I entered judgment in favor of the insurer, and on appeal, the Court of Appeals affirmed my decision holding that the "your work" exclusion applied to bar coverage.
- (c) Woodruff Road SC, LLC v. S.C. Greenville Hwy 146, LLC, 2017 WL 74856 (Ct. App. 2017). This matter was before me on a declaratory judgment action to determine the scope of an easement granted to S.C. Greenville Hwy 146, LLC. I determined that S.C. Greenville Hwy. 146, LLC could use the easement as part of a drive-thru for one of its tenants, Starbucks. Woodruff Road SC, LLC appealed my decision, and the Court of Appeals affirmed my decision in an unpublished opinion.

- (d) Proctor v. Whitlark & Whitlark, Inc., 414 S.C 318 (2015). I sat as an Acting Justice with the South Carolina Supreme Court in this matter. We held that gambling statutes, and not the South Carolina Unfair Trade Practices Act, provide the exclusive remedy for a gambler seeking recovery of losses sustained by illegal gambling.
- (e) In re: Campbell, 379 S.C. 593 (2008). I sat as an Acting Justice with the South Carolina Supreme Court in this matter. This was an appeal that originated in the Probate Court wherein a daughter challenged the dismissal of a petition she filed for appointment as conservator of her mother's assets. We held that the statute governing court appointment of a physician to examine a person subject to a conservatorship action does not require that the physician be disinterested, only unbiased. We further held that the Court-appointed physicians who acted as the mother's expert witnesses were not unbiased.

Judge Verdin reported the following regarding her employment while serving as a judge:

I taught a course at the Charleston School of Law each summer during the years 2013-2017. My employment as an Adjunct Professor was part-time and contractual. My supervisor was Andy Abrams, Dean of the Law School.

(9) Judicial Temperament:

The Commission believes that Judge Verdin's temperament has been, and will continue to be, excellent.

(10) Miscellaneous:

The Upstate Citizens Committee on Judicial Qualifications found Judge Verdin to be "Qualified" in the evaluative criteria of constitutional qualifications, physical health, and mental stability; and "Well-Qualified" in the evaluative criteria of ethical fitness, professional and academic ability, character, reputation, experience, and judicial temperament. There were no summary or related statements.

Judge Verdin is married to Charles S. Verdin IV. She has two children.

Judge Verdin reported that she was a member of the following Bar and professional associations:

- (a) South Carolina Bar Association
- (b) Greenville County Bar Association
- (c) Haynsworth Inn of Court
- (d) Liberty Fellowship
- (e) Circuit Judges' Advisory Committee
- (f) Advisory Committee on Standards of Judicial Conduct

Member, 2012-2021

Chairperson, 2019-2021

- (g) Circuit Judges' Association

Vice-President, 2019-2022

President, 2022-present

Judge Verdin provided that she was a member of the following civic, charitable, educational, social, or fraternal organizations:

- (a) Trinity Presbyterian Church
 - 1) Elder
 - 2) Co-Chair of Personnel Committee
 - 3) Interim Youth Director
- (b) Green Valley Country Club
- (c) Liberty Fellowship

Judge Verdin further reported:

I have thoroughly enjoyed serving as a Family Court Judge and Circuit Court Judge for the past 14 years. I have found both positions challenging and rewarding. I was honored to serve as the Chairperson of the Advisory Committee on Standards of Judicial Conduct, on the Circuit

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

Judges Advisory Committee, and most recently, as President of the Circuit Judges' Association. I have also had the opportunity to sit as an Acting Associate Justice of the South Carolina Supreme Court on two occasions.

When I was elected to the Circuit Court, I had mixed emotions. I was honored and excited to serve on the Circuit Court, but I knew that I would miss the Family Court greatly. If I were elected to the Court of Appeals, I know I would miss the Circuit Court. However, I would hope to bring to that new position the experience I have gained in both trial courts. I would approach the Court of Appeals with the same enthusiasm I have had when serving on the Family Court and Circuit Court and would always be mindful of the enormous trust the Legislature had placed in me.

(11) Commission Members' Comments:

The Commission commented that Judge Verdin has an outstanding reputation as a jurist and her judicial temperament and demeanor is beyond reproach. The BallotBox survey responses were unanimous in this characterization as well. The Commission stated that Judge Verdin's work ethic, intellect and temperament would ably serve her should she be elected to the Court of Appeals.

She gave the following account of her legal experience since graduation from law school:

- (a) Judicial Law Clerk to the Honorable Kaye G. Hearn, August 2003 to May 2005: In my capacity as judicial law clerk to the Honorable Kaye G. Hearn, then Chief Judge of the South Carolina Court of Appeals, I prepared draft legal opinions, preliminary reports, and cases assessments regarding criminal, civil, family, workers compensation and administrative appellate cases. I read appellate briefs and records, researched legal issues, wrote bench memoranda, orally presented and fielded questions regarding cases from appellate judges, and assisted in drafting opinions.
- (b) Burr & Forman, LLP f/k/a the McNair Law Firm, P.A., May 2005 to the present.
 - May 2005 to December 2010, Associate, general litigation practice. During this time period, I primarily practiced business litigation, representing both Plaintiffs and Defendants, but often handled non-business related general litigation including personal injury, probate court litigation, employment litigation, and general counsel representation. I primarily served as co-counsel or second-chair in litigation matters. I was not generally involved in the administrative or financial management of the firm.
 - January 2011 to January 2017, Partner, general litigation practice. During this time period, I continued my primary practice in business litigation, representing both Plaintiffs and Defendants. I continued to handle other non-business related general litigation, including personal injury, probate court litigation, employment litigation, and general counsel representation. I primarily served as lead counsel in litigation matters. As a partner, I was involved in some administrative and financial management of the firm, and served on the associate development committee, strategic planning committee, and as co-chair of the litigation practice group.

- January 2017 to December 2018, Unit Manager and Partner, general litigation practice. During this time period, I continued my primary practice set forth above and served as lead counsel in litigation matters. As Unit Manager of the Grand Strand Unit, I was involved in administrative and financial management of the firm, and served on the compensation committee and as co-chair of the litigation practice group. In my role as Unit Manager, with the supervision of the firm managing shareholder, I was responsible for the Grand Strand Unit personnel, equipment, and facility matters; file opening and conflict approvals; recruiting; office budgeting and financials; timekeeper budgeting, productivity, assignments, and work performance; and, overseeing of local trust accounts. In addition, as a member of the firm compensation committee, I assisted in evaluating, advising, and voting on firm shareholder and timekeeper compensation.
- January 2019 to January 2020, Office Managing Partner, general litigation practice. During this time period, I continued my primary practice as set forth above and served as lead counsel in litigation matters. As the Office Managing Shareholder for the Myrtle Beach office, I was involved in the administrative and financial management of the firm, in particular the Myrtle Beach office. In addition, I was involved in undertaking and supervising local firm combination efforts in the Myrtle Beach office as a result of the combination of the McNair Law Firm, P.A. with Burr & Forman, LLP effective January 1, 2019.

- January 2020 to present, Partner, commercial litigation. During this time period, I have continued my primary practice in litigation, representing both Plaintiffs and Defendants. I handle other non-business related general litigation, including personal injury, probate court litigation, employment litigation, and outside general counsel representation. I primarily serve as lead counsel in litigation matters. As a partner, I am involved in limited financial and administrative matters of the firm, and serve on the firm ethics and pro bono committees.

Ms. Bailey further reported regarding her experience with the Circuit Court practice area:

Criminal Experience: My experience in criminal matters began while working as a law clerk for then Chief Judge Kaye Hearn at the Court of Appeals. As a law clerk, I was involved in numerous criminal appeals, including guilty pleas, trials, post-conviction relief, and Anders appeals. My involvement included reviewing appellate briefs, guilty pleas, or trial transcripts, research and writing bench memoranda and opinions, and presenting cases to judges. Following my clerkship, I served on the Editorial Board for the South Carolina Post-Conviction Relief Manual, Second Edition, published in 2008. In private practice, I have been involved in pro bono matters and as defense counsel in a few criminal matters at the magistrate level and federal level. I have also represented several criminal victims in their corresponding civil matters. In the context of such representation, I have closely followed the criminal proceedings in two murder trials in Horry County General Sessions and a guilty plea for conspiracy in the United States District Court, Florence Division.

Civil Experience: My experience in civil matters has included a broad general litigation practice based primarily out of Horry County, South Carolina, but appearing in Circuit Courts throughout South Carolina, federal courts in both South and North Carolina, and occasionally state courts in North Carolina. I especially enjoy complex business litigation matters, but I represent both Plaintiffs and Defendants in a variety of types of litigation, including personal injury, real property, contract, probate litigation, insurance coverage, construction, employment, shareholder/member, class actions, and municipal disputes. I have handled litigation as lead counsel, assuming the primary responsibility for preparing strategy, supervising associates and staff, preparing pleadings, preparing and arguing motions, serving and answering discovery, taking and defending depositions, and trial. In addition to serving as lead counsel, I also continue serve as sole counsel or co-counsel as the case or client may dictate.

Ms. Bailey reported the frequency of her court appearances during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Federal: I regularly appear in federal court, typically with two to five cases pending in federal court per year. I have appeared in-person and tried one federal case in South Carolina, and appeared in-persons for motions and trial of one federal case in North Carolina. The remaining appearances in federal court have been by way of briefs and electronic filing.
- (b) State: I regularly appear in state court, primarily in Horry and Georgetown Counties, but also throughout South Carolina and occasionally in North Carolina state court. I typically argue motions in state court at least once a month, and typically try cases in state court one to three times per year, jury and/or non-jury.

Ms. Bailey reported the percentage of her practice involving civil, criminal, domestic and other matters during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Civil: 80%;
- (b) Criminal: less than 2%;
- (c) Domestic: 0%;
- (d) Other: 18%.

Ms. Bailey further reported:

I am the only lawyer in my family and I strive to be the type of lawyer that I would recommend to my own parents, my brother, my in-laws, or my daughters.

I was a candidate for a circuit court seat in 2019 and withdrew just before the start of the COVID pandemic. I am excited now to be a candidate for a circuit court seat in 2022 at a pivotal time and during, what we all hope to be, the conclusion of the pandemic.

As with most everyone, I have grappled with growing socially and professionally during COVID operations. In the past three years, lawyers have continued to represent their clients during court shutdowns, outbreaks, remote operations, with masks, without masks, and with an unprecedented amount of flexibility. During this time, I tried jury and/or nonjury cases both inside the State of South Carolina and outside. I even served as a citizen in the first jury pool summoned for General Sessions in Horry County since COVID began.

I have learned more about what I find valuable in a person, a juror, a lawyer, and a judge in the last three years than I had prior to COVID. Among what I value the most are humanity, efficiency, procedure, and respect.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

If I am elected to the circuit court bench, I will use the court's time and procedures sensibly to promote efficient and fair justice.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

Mr. Hyman further reported regarding his experience with the Circuit Court practice area:

I began my legal career as a solo general practitioner. My practice was probably what you would expect from a smaller community general practitioner. I have handled everything from mechanic lien foreclosures, property disputes, auto accidents, real estate closings as well as a multitude of criminal cases ranging from drug offenses to murder. Additionally, I have served extensively as a mediator and arbitrator.

My criminal experience has allowed me to spend an extraordinary amount of time in the courtroom. Over the past 15 years I have defended clients in over forty murders or attempted murders and hundreds of other criminal matters in both State and Federal Courts. I have argued to a jury verdict numerous cases where my client could have received a punishment of life in prison. Generally, I appear before a Circuit Judge for criminal court 6-10 times a month.

My civil experience has ranged from all across the spectrum. In the majority of my civil cases, I have represented the plaintiff, but I have also, on occasion, defended local businesses. The bulk of my civil practice has generally been related to auto accidents, but I have also tried to a verdict cases arising out of property disputes, construction defects, breach of contract, as well as other causes of action. In the past six years I have been blessed enough to hire two associates, allowing me to concentrate more on my criminal litigation practice. I still handle ten to twenty civil cases a year, but the majority of my time is now spent on criminal matters.

Mr. Hyman reported the frequency of his court appearances during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Federal: Depending on my case load it ranged from just a couple of times a year to monthly;
- (b) State: Weekly.

Mr. Hyman reported the percentage of his practice involving civil, criminal, domestic and other matters during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Civil: 20%;
- (b) Criminal: 75%;
- (c) Domestic: 0%;

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

- (d) Other: 5% (wills, real estate, etc.)

Mr. Hyman reported the percentage of his practice in trial court during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Jury: 20%;
(b) Non-jury: 80%.

Mr. Hyman provided that during the past five years he most often served as sole counsel.

The following is Mr. Hyman's account of his five most significant litigated matters:

- (a) State of South Carolina v. Bridgett Lamon Moore – Criminal – I served as sole counsel on this case, and my client was charged with murder, in the killing of a local drug dealer. The case was never a “who done it” but instead was a question of whether he acted in self-defense. Prior to trial he was offered to plea to Voluntary Manslaughter with a negotiated sentence of 25 years. After a four-day trial, the jury found him not guilty of Murder but guilty of Voluntary Manslaughter and he was sentenced to 12 years. He was recently released from the Department of Corrections and is doing well.
- (b) State of South Carolina v. Heather Causey Sims – Criminal – I served as co-counsel on this case. Our client was charged with murdering her husband. After a four-day stand your ground hearing and a five-day trial the jury found her not guilty of Murder and guilty of Manslaughter. She was sentenced to 10 years. The case was appealed, and the Court of Appeals overturned her conviction.
- (c) State of South Carolina v. James Richard Rosenbaum – Criminal – I served as sole counsel on this case and my client was charged with the murder of a man, he believed to be an intruder in his home. It was discovered in trial that the victim was a guest of his girlfriend. We argued that he was unaware of this and that he was acting upon a reasonable belief and should be protected by not only the “castle doctrine” but also the theory of self defense. He was given a 25-year plea offer but turned it down. We tried a multi-day stand your ground hearing and then a five-day trial. The jury found him not guilty of Murder but guilty of Voluntary Manslaughter. He was sentenced to 15 years and his case has been appealed.

- (d) Johnny Anderson, et al. v Southeastern Investors Associates Limited Partnership et al. 2008CP2601514 – Civil – I served as sole counsel on this case, and it was originally brought as a mechanics lien foreclosure. By the time the pleadings had been answered the case had morphed into an extremely technical construction litigation involving out of state experts and attorneys. Pursuant to the contract the case was transferred to an arbitrator and we spent four days arguing the case. My client was awarded a judgment in his favor.
- (e) David Rankine v. Cox Equipment Repair LLC et al. 2013CP2606632 – Civil – I served as solo counsel on this case. My client bought a CNC machine, and had it shipped from Ohio to his home. He contracted with a man claiming to work for Cox Equipment Repair LLC to move the CNC machine from the shipping trailer into his shop. The defendant dropped the machine rendering it a total loss. The defendant, Cox Equipment Repair LLC then claimed that the defendant did not work for them. It was shown at trial that while the man did not in fact work for the company, they were aware of him and allowed him to use their equipment. A jury awarded my client judgments against both of the defendants.

The following is Mr. Hyman's account of the civil appeal he has personally handled:

I am currently handling Jimmy A. Richardson v. Travis Green Case No. 2017-CP-26-07411 Appellate Case No. 2020-000092

Mr. Hyman reported that has not personally handled any criminal appeals.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

Mr. Hyman further reported the following regarding unsuccessful candidacies:

I previously ran for Circuit Court Judge at Large Seat 12 in 2020. I was found qualified and nominated by the Judicial Merit Selection Commission but lost the election.

(9) Judicial Temperament:

The Commission believes that Mr. Hyman's temperament would be excellent.

(10) Miscellaneous:

The Pee Dee Citizens Committee on Judicial Qualifications found Mr. Hyman to be "Well-Qualified" as to the evaluative criteria of ethical fitness, professional and academic ability, character, reputation, experience, and judicial temperament; and "Qualified" in the evaluative criteria of constitutional qualifications, physical health, and mental stability. The Committee had no related or summary comment.

Mr. Hyman is married to Tammi Leigh Hyman. He has two children.

Mr. Hyman reported that he was a member of the following Bar and professional associations:

- (a) SC Bar
- (b) Horry County Bar
- (c) SC Association for Justice
- (d) SC Association for Criminal Defense Lawyers
- (e) National College for DUI Defense

Mr. Hyman provided that he was a member of the following civic, charitable, educational, social, or fraternal organizations:

- (a) Waccamaw Sertoma Club President 2014 and 2020
Sertoman of the Year 2015
- (b) Trinity United Methodist Church – Church Council 2018-
2021 Board of Trustees 2021-Present
- (c) Coastal Carolina Chrysalis – Lay Director 2013
- (d) City of Conway Board of Zoning Appeals 2009-2017
Chairman

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

- (e) City of Conway Downtown Alive
- (f) Conway Chamber of Commerce
- (g) Conway Planning Commission 2017- 2019 Chairman

Mr. Hyman further reported:

I have been extremely blessed in my life to have parents and grandparents that pushed me to be the very best person that I can be. I was told that assets can come and go but the relationships that you cultivate are what lasts. Any positive character traits that I have developed are a direct result of the nurturing that I received. Patience, kindness, and the “golden rule” were instilled in me at a very early age, and I have always tried my best to treat my fellow man with respect and dignity.

I was taught that there is no substitution for hard work. I have built my practice and my life around that sentiment, and I try to raise my children with a similar work ethic. I often tell clients when they first meet me that “I can’t promise you that I will always be the smartest guy in the room, but I can promise you that I will not be outworked.” I will always go out of my way to be available to litigants, lawyers, court staff, and the law enforcement community in an effort to always keep cases moving. If elected I believe that I will be the kind of judge that goes the extra mile to ensure that our Judicial System is the best that it can be.

(11) Commission Members’ Comments:

The Commission commented that Mr. Hyman has an abundance of experience and great judicial temperament. The Commission further commented that Mr. Hyman has extensive knowledge of the law.

(12) Conclusion:

The Commission found Mr. Hyman qualified, and nominated him for election to Circuit Court, Fifteenth Judicial Circuit, Seat 1.

These cases were tried before Judge Gary Clary, Judge Stephens, and Judge Costa M. Pleicones, respectively. I also had the privilege of being a law clerk for the Honorable C. Victor Pyle and observed civil and criminal trials for one year. Workers' Compensation appeals have allowed me to argue non-jury appeals before the Circuit Court prior to July 1, 2007. I have also had the opportunity to try many Workers' Compensation cases. These are evidentiary hearings and involve direct and cross-examination of witnesses. Workers' Compensation also involves medical issues/causation which is an aspect of personal injury/medical malpractice claims in the civil court. I have also served as a mediator for both civil and workers' compensation matters

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

I read the Advanced Sheets to try and keep up with criminal and civil law. I recently attended the Criminal Law Breakout session for the Greenville County Bar "Year End" CLE, as I have in the past. I observed a criminal trial in Oconee County during 2020 and watched pleas and HIP violation hearings on several occasions. I have also assisted a local criminal attorney prepare for two criminal trials (DV 2nd Degree and Murder), and met with the Defendant in the DV 2nd Degree matter.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

The following is Mr. Fant's account of his most significant litigated matters:

Numerous cases before the Workers' Compensation Commission (state agency). These cases range from simple permanency cases to complex brain injury cases. I have argued numerous Workers' Compensation appeals before the Circuit Court prior to July 1, 2007. I have not appealed any cases, except one, to the Court of Appeals. This settled and was never briefed.

Mr. Fant reported he has not personally handled any civil or criminal appeals.

Mr. Fant further reported the following regarding unsuccessful candidacies:

Withdrew from Judicial (Resident Circuit Judge) 2008.

Withdrew from Judicial (13th Circuit Resident Judge) 2020-2021

(9) Judicial Temperament:

The Commission believes that Mr. Fant's temperament would be excellent.

Mr. Fant further reported:

I would love the opportunity to be a public servant. Serving in this capacity has been on my heart for a long time. I believe my life, and practice of law, have been characterized by adherence to high ethical principles. I have a solid work ethic, including the exercise of self-discipline in my practice of law. I hope that I am seen as a man of integrity who is trustworthy. I am patient, open minded, compassionate, and try my best to be humble. I would be objective and impartial, just as I am as a Certified Mediator. I think the members of the Bar with whom I practice would have no doubt that I have the temperament required to be a judicial officer. While my practice has been primarily focused on workers' compensation defense, and not before the Circuit Court (except for appeals), I have the utmost confidence that I would serve South Carolina well as a trial judge. This has provided me a wealth of experience involving discovery, litigation, constant interaction with other attorneys due to volume of workers' compensation cases, and the ability to negotiate.

(11) Commission Members' Comments:

The Commission commented that Mr. Fant has an excellent reputation and demonstrated an impressive demeanor exhibiting temperance, authority, and respect. They noted that he has an intellect and work ethic that will serve him well should he be elected to the circuit court.

Mr. Harvin appears to be mentally capable of performing the duties of the office he seeks.

(8) Experience:

Mr. Harvin was admitted to the South Carolina Bar in 2009.

He gave the following account of his legal experience since graduation from law school:

1. 2008-2009 I worked as a Hearing Officer III for the State of South Carolina. This position required me to travel throughout the state and hold hearings. In these hearings, I would gather evidence, make evidentiary rulings, and write orders that articulated my decision.

2. 2009-2011 I worked as an Assistant Solicitor for the Third Judicial Circuit. I handled prosecuting cases in General Sessions Court and Juvenile Court. At the same time, I worked as a plaintiff's attorney for the Law Office of Ronnie A. Sabb. In this capacity, I handled civil litigation matters related to car accidents, slip and falls, and wrongful death cases.

3. 2011-2021 I worked as a Public Defender for the Third Judicial Circuit. I handled defending citizens in General Sessions, Magistrate, Municipal, and Juvenile Courts. In addition, I owned and operated the Law Office of Doward Keith Harvin. In this capacity, I handled civil litigation matters related to car accidents, wrongful arrests, and medical malpractice. I also handled divorce, child support, and child custody cases in Family Court. In 2016, I was certified as a Family Court Mediator.

4. 2021-2022 I worked as a plaintiff's attorney for the Sabb Law Group. I was responsible primarily for handling civil litigation related to wrongful arrests, car accidents, truck accidents, wrongful deaths, slip and falls, civil rights violations, and workers compensation. I also handled criminal defense, family court, and probate court matters.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

Mr. Harvin further reported regarding his experience with the Circuit Court practice area:

- (a) Over the past five years, I have handled many criminal matters that include defending individuals charged with murder, sexual assault, and drug charges. These cases have required me to deal with issues related to suggestive identification, chain of custody regarding evidence, discovery regarding evidence, bolstering , voir dire examinations of expert witnesses, challenges to jury selections, witness competency, and defendant competency or insanity issues.
- (b) Over the past five years, I have also handled many civil matters as mainly a plaintiff's attorney. In this capacity, I have dealt with issues regarding discovery, motions for summary judgment, motions to compel, wrongful death approvals, minor settlement approvals, expert witness issues, evidentiary matters, service of process, and collateral matters associated with civil litigation.

Mr. Harvin reported the frequency of his court appearances during the past five years as follows:

- (a) federal: 5%
- (b) state: 95%

Mr. Harvin reported the percentage of his practice involving civil, criminal, domestic and other matters during the past five years as follows:

- (a) civil: 40%
- (b) criminal: 40%
- (c) domestic: 10%
- (d) other: 10%

Mr. Harvin reported the percentage of his practice in trial court during the past five years as follows:

- (a) jury: 80%
- (b) non-jury: 20%

Mr. Harvin provided that during the past five years he most often served as sole counsel.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

The following is Mr. Harvin's account of his five most significant litigated matters:

(a) Cooper vs. Mcleod Physicians, 2020-CP-21-00246

This case was significant because an African American mother was denied adequate healthcare by her treating physicians that led to her child dying at birth.

(b) Shaw vs. Freshstart, 2018-CP-45-00382

This was case significant because an African American man was severely injured when he slipped and fell down a flight of stairs at an apartment complex. The owners of the complex filed the claim with their insurance company, but the insurance company failed to respond to the claim.

(c) State vs. Robert Swinton, 2010-GS-45-00204

This case was significant because an African American man was wrongfully accused of committing a Burglary in the First Degree. He was found not guilty at trial.

(d) State vs. Kenya Priest, 2016-GS-45-0076

This case was significant because an African American man was wrongfully accused and he was found not guilty at trial.

(e) State vs. Satwaun Henryhand, 2019-GS-21-02335

This case was significant because an African American man was charged with Murder and three counts of Armed Robbery, and the police misplaced the video footage that allegedly showed the defendant committing the crime. Although I objected, the Court allowed police officers to testify as to what they saw on the video recording. This matter is currently being reviewed by the Court of Appeals under case 2022-000975.

The following is Mr. Harvin's account of a civil appeal he has personally handled:

- Civil appeal of an eviction from Magistrate Court to Common Pleas Court

The following is Mr. Harvin's account of a criminal appeal he has personally handled:

- State vs Rasheed Bell, appeal from Magistrate Court to Common Pleas Court, Pending

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

Mr. Harvin further reported the following regarding unsuccessful candidacies:

In 2020, I was an unsuccessful candidate for a Circuit Court judicial position. I withdrew because of personal reasons.

(9) Judicial Temperament:

The Commission believes that Mr. Harvin's temperament would be excellent.

(10) Miscellaneous:

The Pee Dee Citizens Committee on Judicial Qualifications found Mr. Harvin "Qualified" as to the evaluative criteria of constitutional qualification, physical health, and mental stability; and "Well-Qualified" as to the evaluative criteria of ethical fitness, professional and academic ability, character, reputation, experience, and judicial temperament.

Mr. Harvin is married to Charlene Eugenia Harvin. He does not have any children.

Mr. Harvin reported that he was a member of the following Bar and professional associations:

- (b) South Carolina Association of Justice
- (c) South Carolina Black Trial Lawyers Association

Mr. Harvin provided that he was a member of the following civic, charitable, educational, social, or fraternal organizations:

- (a) Lions Club
- (b) NAACP

Mr. Harvin further reported:

Over the past fourteen years, I have been proud to call myself a lawyer here in South Carolina. I have had the opportunity to help citizens during difficult times and volunteer in a myriad of capacity all around South Carolina. This would not have been possible without the great legal community that exist here. I love our legal profession and I humbly present myself to serve as a member of the judiciary.

I have served on the South Carolina Bar Association's Board of Governors, House of Delegates, Diversity Committee, Wellness Committee, and Civil Rights Committee.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

I have volunteered for Mock Trial, Protect our Youth Summits, Boys and Girls Club Leadership Summits, Constitutional Law Day, and the USC Palmetto Leader Pro Bono Wills Clinic.

(11) Commission Members' Comments:

The Commission commented that Mr. Harvin exhibited a great temperament that, along with his experience handling civil and criminal matters, would serve him well should he be elected to the Circuit Court.

(12) Conclusion:

The Commission found Mr. Harvin qualified, and nominated him for election to Circuit Court, At-Large, Seat 3

S. Boyd Young
Circuit Court, At-Large, Seat 3

Commission's Findings: QUALIFIED AND NOMINATED

(1) Constitutional Qualifications:

Based on the Commission's investigation, Mr. Young meets the qualifications prescribed by law for judicial service as a Circuit Court judge.

Mr. Young was born in 1974. He is 48 years old and a resident of Columbia, South Carolina. Mr. Young provided in his application that he has been a resident of South Carolina for at least the immediate past five years and has been a licensed attorney in South Carolina since 1999.

(2) Ethical Fitness:

The Commission's investigation did not reveal any evidence of unethical conduct by Mr. Young.

Mr. Young demonstrated an understanding of the Canons of Judicial Conduct and other ethical considerations important to judges, particularly in the areas of ex parte communications, acceptance of gifts and ordinary hospitality, and recusal.

Mr. Young reported that he has not made any campaign expenditures.

Mr. Young testified he has not:

- (a) sought or received the pledge of any legislator prior to screening;

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

(b) sought or been offered a conditional pledge of support by a legislator;

(c) asked third persons to contact members of the General Assembly prior to screening.

Mr. Young testified that he is aware of the Commission's 48-hour rule regarding the formal and informal release of the Screening Report.

(3) Professional and Academic Ability:

The Commission found Mr. Young to be intelligent and knowledgeable.

Mr. Young reported that he has taught the following law-related courses:

(a) I have lectured and taught at the National Criminal Defense College annually since 2009. It is a two-week trial advocacy program for criminal defense attorneys with various levels of experience.

(b) I have lectured and taught at the National College of Capital Voir Dire annually since 2007. It is a program dedicated to teaching constitutional voir dire requirements to attorneys.

(c) In 2010 I founded a public defender training program for South Carolina, and it has since been turned into a mandated training program for all new public defenders. I continue to teach and lecture in the program.

(d) I am on the National Association of Criminal Defense Attorneys, Capital Committee where I serve as Co-Chair. I put on an annual continuing legal education seminar regarding capital defense.

(e) I participate annually in the South Carolina Bar Mock Trial competition.

(f) In 2009 South Carolina Solicitors and defense lawyers received a joint grant to host training programs for capital cases. I managed the defense lawyer training and over the course of three years held multiple training events around the state. This was a joint effort to combat South Carolina's near 80% reversal rate in capital cases.

Mr. Young reported that he has not published any books or articles.

(4) Character:

The Commission's investigation of Mr. Young did not reveal evidence of any founded grievances or criminal allegations made against him.

The Commission's investigation of Mr. Young did not indicate any evidence of a troubled financial status. Mr. Young has handled his financial affairs responsibly.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

The Commission also noted that Mr. Young was punctual and attentive in his dealings with the Commission, and the Commission's investigation did not reveal any problems with his diligence and industry.

(5) Reputation:

Mr. Young reported that he is not rated by any legal rating organization.

Mr. Young reported the following military service:

May 1993 – February 5, 1996. United States Navy, Midshipman.
Honorable Discharge, February 5, 1996.

Mr. Young reported that he has never held public office.

(6) Physical Health:

Mr. Young appears to be physically capable of performing the duties of the office he seeks.

(7) Mental Stability:

Mr. Young appears to be mentally capable of performing the duties of the office he seeks.

(8) Experience:

Mr. Young was admitted to the South Carolina Bar in 1999.

He gave the following account of his legal experience since graduation from law school:

(a) 1999-2000 I was hired as a law clerk to A. Victor Rawl, Circuit Court Judge in Charleston, SC. My duties included assisting Judge Rawl with both criminal and civil matters throughout South Carolina.

(b) 2000-2005 I was hired at the Charleston County Public Defender's Office. I was an assistant public defender for five years and promoted to senior trial attorney. I handled all levels of criminal cases.

(c) 2005-2008 I joined the newly formed Georgia Capital Defender Office in Atlanta where I handled trial level capital cases throughout the state of Georgia.

(d) 2008-2017 I returned to South Carolina to help form the Capital Trial Division for the South Carolina Commission on Indigent Defense. I was initially hired as the Deputy Attorney of the office.

(e) 2017-Present I have served as the Chief Attorney of the Capital Trial Division. I supervise two other attorneys, a paralegal, and numerous interns and externs. We handle trial level death penalty cases throughout the state and have been directly responsible for saving South Carolina over $1 Million annually.

Mr. Young further reported regarding his experience with the Circuit Court practice area:

As the Deputy and Chief Attorney for the Capital Trial Division for the South Carolina Commission on Indigent Defense, I have been involved in every death penalty trial conducted in South Carolina in the past five years. I appeared before a Circuit Court Judge at least once a month during the past five years. Recently I was lead counsel on the longest capital trial ever held in South Carolina, State v. Timothy R. Jones, Jr. in Lexington County. This case involved numerous forensic and legal issues. It included everything from DNA to serious mental health claims, and Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, and Eighth Amendment Constitutional issues. In preparation for the trial there were over one hundred pretrial motions litigated and a multi-state investigation conducted over the course of several years. Witnesses from all over the country had to be coordinated and brought to Court by the State and Defense for the trial. The central issue was whether Mr. Jones suffered from a mental illness, and if so, was it to the extent that he could not form the criminal intent necessary to be found guilty of murder. It was an extraordinarily complicated case that involved hundreds of witnesses and lasted for almost eight weeks including several weeks of jury selection.

Throughout my 20 year career as a trial lawyer, I have handled every type of criminal case at all court levels, from parking tickets in Municipal Court to death penalty cases in General Sessions Court. I have also handled cases involving every possible defense, from mistaken identification to insanity. I have dealt with every type of forensic issue from multi-source DNA statistics to tire track comparisons.

My civil court experience is limited to quasi-civil matters such as PCR and appeals from Magistrate Court. While my direct experience with Common Pleas Court is limited, capital cases often involve ancillary matters that must be dealt with, both for clients and their family members. I have dealt with these matters throughout my legal career and I am always quick to review the rules of civil procedure and help guide people through the process. Putting together a mitigation case for a capital case is not all that different from a civil case in which you are seeking a “but – for” causation. I feel that my extensive capital trial background makes me well suited for constantly learning and staying up to date on the law and its many changes. I would bring this same dedication to civil matters. Being a good capital trial attorney means that you have to be knowledgeable and well-versed in all aspects of the law – civil, criminal, appellate, domestic, and administrative.

Mr. Young reported the frequency of his court appearances during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Federal: None;
- (b) State: Monthly.

Mr. Young reported the percentage of his practice involving civil, criminal, domestic and other matters during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Civil: 1%;
- (b) Criminal: 97%;
- (c) Domestic: 1%;
- (d) Other: 1%.

Mr. Young reported the percentage of his practice in trial court during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Jury: 50%;
- (b) Non-jury: 50%.

Mr. Young provided that during the past five years he most often served as chief counsel.

The following is Mr. Young's account of his five most significant litigated matters:

- (a) State v. Timothy R. Jones, Jr. This was a death penalty trial in Lexington, SC in 2019. The case is currently pending in the South Carolina Supreme Court for direct review. This was the longest, most complicated death penalty case in recent history. This case was significant for a multitude of reasons, but I think it was an important example of how our mental health facilities and social institutions fail to protect our most vulnerable citizens. While there were several open Department of Social Services investigations, Mr. Jones continued to spiral out of control and it eventually resulted in the killing of five innocent children. I was lead counsel for Mr. Jones. The trial was tremendously impactful on me, both as a person and a lawyer.

- (b) Kenneth Simmons v. State, 416 S.C. 584, 788 S.E.2d 220 (2016). A Post Conviction Relief case in which I became involved based on my knowledge and experience with DNA evidence. My representation at Mr. Simmons' PCR resulted in a reversal of his conviction, and ultimately Mr. Simmons pleaded guilty for a reduced sentence. The Solicitor in the case had presented false DNA results implicating Mr. Simmons. The case demonstrates the necessity of attorneys and judges being well educated on the forensic issues that impact jury trials.
- (c) State v. Todd Kohlhepp. A 2017 case involving a serial killer from Spartanburg. Mr. Kohlhepp was charged with seven murders and the kidnapping and sexual assault of a woman found chained in a storage container on his property. This case demonstrated that early and adequate representation for the accused leads to better outcomes for all involved. Because of my early involvement I was able to ensure that all of Mr. Kohlhepp's personal property went into receivership, resulting in the victims' ability to recover, monetarily, some small part of their losses. Through the early cooperation of Mr. Kohlhepp, and with the consent of the victims, we were able to negotiate life without parole sentences for Mr. Kohlhepp - saving the State significant expense and the victims the emotional impact of a long, drawn out process. I was lead counsel for Mr. Kohlhepp.
- (d) State v. Crystal Johnson. A murder case out of Spartanburg in 2016. Ms. Johnson was already in prison serving a sentence for child neglect when the Sheriff identified her as a suspect in a double murder that occurred several years prior. The State's intention to seek the death penalty was announced at a press conference. Once warrants were drafted I was able to get involved and conduct a thorough investigation. I was able to prove that Ms. Johnson was not involved in the murders. Additionally, I was able to uncover the identity of the actual murderer which I forwarded to the Solicitor's Office. This case is important to show why a thorough investigation is necessary, how devastating a rush to judgement can be, and why attention to detail is crucial in the administration of justice.

- (e) State v. John Edward Weik. This was a 2016 death penalty retrial in Dorchester County. Mr. Weik was tried, convicted, and given the death penalty. His sentence was affirmed in 2004. The PCR Judge found that his counsel was deficient for failing to investigate and present Mr. Weik's extensive mental health history to the jury. Weik v. State, 409 S.C. 214, S.E.2d 757 (2014). I was able to provide the Solicitor with proof that Mr. Weik was schizophrenic. He then received an offer to plead to life without parole which he accepted. The case is significant because it demonstrates the value of the appointment of qualified counsel in complicated cases to avoid costly retrials.

Mr. Young reported he has not personally handled any civil or criminal appeals.

Mr. Young further reported the following regarding unsuccessful candidacies:

In 2020 I was screened as a candidate for Circuit Court, At Large, Seat 12. I was found to be well qualified but was not selected as a final candidate by the Committee.

In 2021 I was screened out as a candidate for Circuit Court, Fifth Circuit, Seat 2. I was submitted to the legislature as one of 3 well qualified candidates but withdrew prior to the election.

(9) Judicial Temperament:

The Commission believes that Mr. Young's temperament would be excellent.

(10) Miscellaneous:

The Midlands Citizens Committee on Judicial Qualifications found Mr. Young to be "Qualified" in the evaluative criteria of constitutional qualifications, physical health, and mental stability; and "Well-Qualified" in the evaluative criteria of ethical fitness, professional and academic ability, character, reputation, experience, and judicial temperament. The Committee stated in summary, “Exceptionally Qualified!”

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

Mr. Young is married to Laura W. Young. He has two children.

Mr. Young reported that he was a member of the following Bar and professional associations:

- (a) South Carolina Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers - Member
- (b) National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers – Capital Trial Committee – Co-chair
- (c) South Carolina Public Defender Association – Board Member
- (d) Richland County Bar Association - Member

Mr. Young provided that he was a member of the following civic, charitable, educational, social, or fraternal organizations:

- (a) Recognized by the Red Cross as a Platelet Donor
- (b) I run an annual charity yard sale at my house to support children with an incarcerated parent at Christmas.
- (c) My wife worked with Achieve Columbia – a group dedicated to providing support services to at risk youth in local schools – which resulted in us getting an educational guardianship for a minor and having her live with us for her last two years of High School, there was a recognition by Achieve Columbia.

Mr. Young further reported:

I had the great fortune of clerking for a Judge that was respected by all parties that came before him. He taught me how to maintain poise even when others could not, the value of always being prepared, and treating others with dignity and respect no matter the circumstances. I have spent my career as a trial lawyer in courtrooms across South Carolina applying these lessons. I have appeared in front of great jurists, and some not so great, but we have always managed to get along and get the work done. I have managed some of the most complex cases in South Carolina and maintained a case budget that saves the citizens of South Carolina money. At the same time, I have maintained good relationships with not only opposing counsel, but also with many of the victims in cases that I was defending. If selected, I will make a good addition to the South Carolina Judiciary.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

(11) Commission Members' Comments:

The Commission commented that Mr. Young has an outstanding reputation and has had an impressive career. The Commission noted the respect he has earned among his colleagues, including opposing counsel, while discharging his duties.

(12) Conclusion:

The Commission found Mr. Young qualified, and nominated him for election to Circuit Court, At-Large, Seat 3.

FAMILY COURT
QUALIFIED AND NOMINATED

Mandy W. Kimmons
Family Court, First Judicial Circuit, Seat 3

Commission's Findings: QUALIFIED AND NOMINATED

Pursuant to § 2-19-80(A), if fewer than three persons apply to fill a vacancy or if the Commission concludes that there are fewer than three candidates qualified for a vacancy, it shall submit only the names and qualifications of those who are considered to be qualified, with a written explanation for submitting fewer than three names.

(6) Physical Health:

Ms. Kimmons appears to be physically capable of performing the duties of the office she seeks.

(7) Mental Stability:

Ms. Kimmons appears to be mentally capable of performing the duties of the office she seeks.

(8) Experience:

Ms. Kimmons was admitted to the South Carolina Bar in 2008.

She gave the following account of her legal experience since graduation from law school:

- (a) First Judicial Circuit Solicitor's Office, Assistant Solicitor 2008-2016. From 2008-2014, I prosecuted adult General Sessions cases. I mostly prosecuted drug cases, but I also prosecuted other cases including but not limited to domestic violence cases and cases involving child victims. From 2014 until 2016, I prosecuted all the juvenile cases for Orangeburg and Calhoun Counties.
- (b) Mandy W. Kimmons, Attorney at Law, LLC, Member/Owner, 2015-present. The vast majority of my practice has been domestic cases, although I also defend criminal cases. I have been the person that manages the administration and financial management of the office. I exclusively manage the trust account. I run payroll and make the appropriate tax deposits.

Ms. Kimmons further reported regarding her experience with the Family Court practice area:

- (a) Divorce and equitable division of property: Since 2015, I have handled about two hundred domestic cases, a large portion of which involved divorce and equitable division of property. I have handled divorces filed based on one-year's continuous separation, adultery, physical cruelty, and habitual drunkenness/intoxication. I have handled cases involving issues including valuation of assets, division of assets, division of retirement accounts including military, railroad, state, and federal retirement, and cases contesting whether an asset is marital or nonmarital.
- (b) Child Custody: Since 2016, I have handled about two hundred domestic cases, a large portion of which included child custody cases. I have dealt with cases involving the UCCJEA on several occasions. I have participated in a UCCJEA Conference with a judge from South Carolina and a judge from California. I have handled cases involving psychological parents, de facto custodians, grandparent visitation, and parental alienation. I have served as guardian ad litem in multiple cases. I recently tried a custody case in which my client was an unwed father and was awarded sole custody of the child.
- (c) Adoption: I have handled multiple private adoptions and termination of parental rights cases to include relative and nonrelative adoptions and adoption cases with and without a Consent and Relinquishment signed.
- (d) Abuse and Neglect: I have represented several clients who had DSS involvement. I have handled multiple private actions in which a parent was alleged to have abused or neglected a child. I have also served as guardian ad litem in cases involving allegations of abuse and neglect.
- (e) Juvenile Justice: From 2014 until 2016, I was the Assistant Solicitor that managed the juvenile docket for Orangeburg and Calhoun Counties. During that time, I prosecuted all juvenile cases in Orangeburg and Calhoun Counties and tried approximately twenty juvenile cases in Family Court. I have represented a small number of juveniles while in private practice. I participated as outside counsel in a remand to Family Court from General Sessions of a case involving a raise the age issue.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

- (f) Appearance before a Family Court judge within the past five years: With the exception of during the COVID-19 pandemic, I have appeared before a Family Court judge almost weekly or several times weekly for the past eight years. I have handled trials and other types of hearings including evidentiary hearings, UCCJEA hearings, temporary hearings, petitions for order of protection, emergency hearings, rules to show cause, and juvenile hearings.

Ms. Kimmons reported the frequency of her court appearances during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Federal: none;
(b) State: usually weekly or several times weekly with the exception of during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Ms. Kimmons reported the percentage of her practice involving civil, criminal, domestic and other matters during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Civil: 2%;
(b) Criminal: 15%;
(c) Domestic: 82%;
(d) Other: 1%.

Ms. Kimmons reported the percentage of her practice in trial court during the past five years as follows:

For the past five years, 12% of my cases involved matters in which a jury trial was an option. None of the matters went to a jury, nor was a jury selected.

Ms. Kimmons provided that during the past five years she most often served as sole counsel.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

The following is Ms. Kimmons's account of her five most significant litigated matters:

(a) Trotter Case (2020-DR-07-0166): My client, an unwed father initiated a custody action in 2019. The initial summons and complaint requested sole custody despite allegations of mother having substance abuse issues. I was substituted as counsel in 2020 and amended the summons and complaint to seek sole custody. I then deposed Mother. After a week of trial, testimony of sixteen witnesses, and the admission of sixty exhibits in evidence, my client was awarded sole custody, and Mother was ordered to pay a portion of Father's attorney's fees. Mother had historically been the child's primary caretaker and was alleged to be abusing a substance for which she had a prescription. I could not rely on a positive drug test as she had a legitimate prescription for the substance. Instead, I had to rely on prescription records, medical records, and testimony of several witnesses regarding Mother's conduct, and I requested the guardian ad litem do a pill audit which showed Mother was not taking the pills as prescribed. This case is significant to me because I know that my diligence and my clients devotion to his son has forever changed the child's life for the better.

(b) DSS v. [Redacted Name]. This was a case set for trial on the DSS docket in 2018. My client came to me after just having given birth to a child. While she was pregnant, she had developed a condition which sometimes corrects itself during pregnancy. My client had extensively researched this condition and premature delivery and wanted to carry the child to term and have a natural delivery. When she had carried the child full term, her doctor wanted to do a caesarian section, but my client wanted to wait and try to deliver naturally. When my client was about one week overdue and still wanted to wait, law enforcement and DSS were notified, and my client was placed into emergency protective because she would not voluntarily have a caesarian section at approximately one week past her due date. My client was not informed she had been placed in emergency protective custody. After further discussion with her doctor and learning there was no benefit to waiting any longer, she voluntarily agreed to have a caesarian section. After her child was born, law enforcement placed my client's newborn baby in emergency protective custody. It was DSS's position that she had placed the minor child at substantial risk of harm for not having the caesarian section. DSS also alleged Mother had mental health issues occurring before the child was conceived. I prepared this case for trial, but after DSS stipulated to the facts, the judge dismissed the case. This case is significant to me because of the constitutional and parental autonomy issues involved.

(c) Brown Case (2017-DR-10-1410): This divorce action involved complex equitable distribution, alimony, custody, visitation, child support, and attorney's fees. I represented Defendant/Mother in this case which was initiated by Plaintiff/Father alleging Mother was habitually intoxicated which I was able to prove she was not. The parties had two children in common. This case was complex in several different aspects. As for equitable distribution, the parties owned a business which had to be valued. There was credit card debt which was a mixture of company and personal debt. After valuation, the parties sold the business and equitably divided the proceeds. The parties also had student loans which would ordinarily remain with the individual that incurred them. In this case, however, the parties had refinanced their individual student loans into one student loan. The one large student loan was equitably divided by determining the percentage of the loan attributable to each party. With regards to alimony, Mother had become a stay-at-home mother to care for the parties' disabled son. We settled with Father paying an amount of rehabilitative alimony for two years and paying an amount for permanent, periodic alimony. With regards to child-related issues, this case was also complex. Both children had been born healthy, but when the oldest son was about two years old, he contracted meningitis and became severely disabled requiring extensive medical care. At the Temporary Hearing, different visitation arrangements had to be made for each child. During the pendency of the litigation, the oldest son unfortunately passed away. An issue then became funeral service and cremation costs and restraints regarding moving the child's ashes from the cemetery niche where he had been laid to rest. The significance of this case is not only the complex equitable distribution, alimony, and child related issues, but also the grief these parents went through and matters that had to be settled regarding their son's death.

(d) State v. Juvenile: I prosecuted and tried this case in which a juvenile (hereinafter referred to as "Juvenile") was charged with Burglary, 1st Degree. Juvenile and three other juveniles went into the victim's home while the victim's stepson was home. The stepson heard a noise and went to get a gun, but when he went to get the gun, it was gone as the juveniles had already stolen it. The victim returned home shortly after the burglary and saw a dog in the yard which he followed back to Juvenile's home. He saw the dog go in and out of the residence. The victim located one of his stolen long guns in the woods near his home. Several days later, law enforcement responded to another incident location in reference to two teenagers having guns. Those guns were some of the guns stolen from the victim's residence. One of the teenagers having possession of the guns gave a written statement that "the twins" were the ones that brought those guns over. Juvenile was a twin. During trial, I was able to tie the juvenile to the burglary through the distribution of the stolen guns and by mapping the victim's house and Juvenile's house, having the victim identify the home to which the dog returned, and having law enforcement identify that home as the home of Juvenile. This case is significant because it dealt with a juvenile committing a serious Burglary, 1st Degree while someone was in the home. That person went to look for a gun. This case could have ended very differently if the gun had been there.

(e) Leming v. Jenkins (2017-DR-10-3076): I served as the Guardian ad Litem in this custody modification action. The parties were previously married and had two children in common. After the divorce in 2011, the parties had joint custody with a 50/50 schedule. Father later married Mother's sister and had two other children. Father successfully sought a custody modification in 2015 due to Mother having mental health issues. Mother's time was reduced to every other weekend and one weekday overnight every other week. In 2016, Mother filed this action based on a material and substantial change in circumstance. I investigated approximately fourteen different allegations and interviewed approximately twenty-five witnesses in this matter. During the pendency of this litigation, DSS also became involved. At trial, the Court found that Mother's mental status had improved, and the parties should return to the initial 50/50 schedule. The Court found exceptional circumstances existed not to award sole custody to one party because the reason the second order was in place was due to Mother's 2015 psychotic episode which was no longer an issue and absent the psychotic break, the children would still be on a 50/50 schedule with their parents. This case is significant in that I really had the opportunity to observe how the parents' actions, decisions, and disagreements impact children.

The following is Ms. Kimmons's account of the civil appeal she has personally handled:

Kathleen Fetters vs Dale Karg (2016-CP-18-2220), First Judicial Circuit Court of Common Pleas, Date of Decision: November 29, 2016 (appeal from Dorchester County Magistrate Court).

Ms. Kimmons reported that she has not personally handled any criminal appeals.

(9) Judicial Temperament:

The Commission believes that Ms. Kimmons's temperament would be excellent.

(10) Miscellaneous:

The Lowcountry Citizens Committee on Judicial Qualifications found Ms. Kimmons to be "Well-Qualified" as to the evaluative criteria of ethical fitness, professional and academic ability, character, reputation, experience, and judicial temperament; and "Qualified" in the evaluative criteria of constitutional qualifications, physical health, and mental stability. The Committee stated in summary, "Good experience, bright, personable, dedicated, good ideas, well qualified."

Ms. Kimmons is married to Charles Edward Kimmons. She has one child.

Ms. Kimmons reported that she was a member of the following Bar and professional associations:

- (a) South Carolina Bar
- (b) Dorchester County Bar: Vice President 2016-2017;
CLE Chair 2015-2016

Ms. Kimmons provided that she was a member of the following civic, charitable, educational, social, or fraternal organizations:

- (a) Phi Beta Kappa
- (b) National Society of Collegiate Scholars
- (c) Sigma Delta Pi (National Collegiate Hispanic Honor Society)
- (d) Pi Sigma Alpha (National Political Science Honor Society)
- (e) Frances R. Willis SPCA (now Dorchester Paws) Fundraising Committee

Ms. Kimmons further reported:

I grew up in Dorchester County, South Carolina. I served as an Assistant Solicitor and State Representative for Dorchester County. I have always put public service at the forefront of my career. I have extensive experience in different areas of family and criminal law. One of the things that has shaped my adult life more than anything was the birth of my son. When I was expecting my son, I had life-threatening medical issues resulting in a premature delivery and requiring extensive medical care for us both. Thankfully, we both made a full recovery. Now as I reflect on that experience, I am grateful. I was 27 years old when that happened, and now I realize how fleeting life can be. Since that experience, I have learned the importance of letting the small things go. I have made it my goal in life to try to leave people in a better place than I found them. I believe so many situations in Family Court need peace and equity more than anything. I hope to be the kind of Family Court Judge that makes everyone feel heard and respected even if they do not prevail on an issue. I hope to set juveniles up to be successful adults. Most of all, I want to serve my community and make a difference. It would be the honor of my lifetime to serve as a Family Court Judge.

(11) Commission Members' Comments:

The Commission noted that Ms. Kimmons's experience and her commitment to making a difference for juveniles are commendable.

(12) Conclusion:

The Commission found Ms. Kimmons qualified, and nominated her for election to Family Court, First Judicial Circuit, Seat 3.

Margie A. Pizarro
Family Court, First Judicial Circuit, Seat 3

Commission's Findings: QUALIFIED AND NOMINATED

Pursuant to § 2-19-80(A), if fewer than three persons apply to fill a vacancy or if the Commission concludes that there are fewer than three candidates qualified for a vacancy, it shall submit only the names and qualifications of those who are considered to be qualified, with a written explanation for submitting fewer than three names.

For the vacancy for Family Court, First Judicial Circuit, Seat 3, 3 candidates applied for this vacancy, and 1 candidate withdrew before the Commission voted. Accordingly, the names and qualifications of 2 candidates are hereby submitted in this report.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

(1) Constitutional Qualifications:

Based on the Commission's investigation, Ms. Pizarro meets the qualifications prescribed by law for judicial service as a Family Court judge.

Ms. Pizarro was born in 1969. She is 53 years old and a resident of Summerville, South Carolina. Ms. Pizarro provided in her application that she has been a resident of South Carolina for at least the immediate past five years and has been a licensed attorney in South Carolina since 2008.

(2) Ethical Fitness:

The Commission's investigation did not reveal any evidence of unethical conduct by Ms. Pizarro.

Ms. Pizarro demonstrated an understanding of the Canons of Judicial Conduct and other ethical considerations important to judges, particularly in the areas of ex parte communications, acceptance of gifts and ordinary hospitality, and recusal.

Ms. Pizarro reported that she has made $824.77 in campaign expenditures for an announcement video sent by email, business cards, 5 x 7 cards, postage for mailing cards, postage for mailing copies of her autobiography, and postage for notecards.

Ms. Pizarro testified she has not:

- (a) sought or received the pledge of any legislator prior to screening;
- (b) sought or been offered a conditional pledge of support by a legislator;
- (c) asked third persons to contact members of the General Assembly prior to screening.

Ms. Pizarro testified that she is aware of the Commission's 48-hour rule regarding the formal and informal release of the Screening Report.

(3) Professional and Academic Ability:

The Commission found Ms. Pizarro to be intelligent and knowledgeable.

Ms. Pizarro reported that she has published the following:

- (a) How I Got from There to Here, a memoir, date of publication 2017.
- (b) I have been asked by the Honorable C. Vance Stricklin, Jr., Editor of Marital Litigation in South Carolina to assist in the revisions to the child support section of the manual for 2022.

(4) Character:

The Commission’s investigation of Ms. Pizarro did not reveal evidence of any founded grievances or criminal allegations made against her.

The Commission noted that the federal tax liens for individual income taxes filed against Ms. Pizarro for the years of 2010-2015, 2016, and 2018-2019 have been satisfied, released, and withdrawn by the Internal Revenue Service. The Commission further noted that the state tax liens filed for 2017, 2018, and 2019 have been satisfied and expunged. The Commission further found that, outside of a brief period of default on her undergraduate student loans while she was attending law school, Ms. Pizarro’s loans are all currently paid as agreed.

The Commission also noted that Ms. Pizarro was punctual and attentive in her dealings with the Commission, and the Commission’s investigation did not reveal any problems with her diligence and industry.

(5) Reputation:

Ms. Pizarro reported that her rating by a legal rating organization, Black Lawyers, is Top 100 for the years of 2020, 2021, and 2022

Ms. Pizarro reported that she has not served in the military.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

Ms. Pizarro reported that she has held the following public office:
Planning Commissioner Town of Summerville—2015-2018; Appointed position; I was not required to file a report with the State Ethics Commission.

(6) Physical Health:

Ms. Pizarro appears to be physically capable of performing the duties of the office she seeks.

(7) Mental Stability:

Ms. Pizarro appears to be mentally capable of performing the duties of the office she seeks.

(8) Experience:

Ms. Pizarro was admitted to the South Carolina Bar in 2008.

She gave the following account of her legal experience since graduation from law school:

- (a) Savage & Savage, P.A. (currently Savage Law Firm), Associate Attorney, 2007-2008: The general character of my practice was representing criminal defendants in South Carolina State and Federal Courts. I was not involved in any administrative and/or financial management of the firm.
- (b) The Pizarro Law Firm, LLC, Attorney/Owner, 2008-present: The general character of my practice is that I am a sole practitioner in a general litigation law firm focusing on Family Law and Criminal Defense. I manage day-to-day operations of the law firm including supervision of employees. I am solely involved in the administrative and financial management of the office including the management of trust accounts.

Ms. Pizarro further reported regarding her experience with the Family Court practice area:

Divorce and Equitable Division of Property:

I have been representing clients as Plaintiff or Defendant in domestic actions involving divorce and equitable division since 2008. I represent clients in marriages involving parties of the opposite sex as well as marriages involving parties of the same sex. My representation of clients includes actions based on the fault-based divorce grounds of adultery, physical cruelty, and habitual drunkenness as well as the no-fault ground of one year's continuous separation. I have not represented any parties in an action for divorce on the ground of abandonment. Over the years, I have become well-versed in the evidence needed to prove each ground for divorce, and I take great care in articulating the facts that prove the ground in my pleadings. With regard to equitable division of property, I have represented parties in long-term marriages who owned many assets and/or have incurred many liabilities as well as those in short-term marriages where no real assets or debts were accumulated. In each case, I have learned how to identify each asset or debt as marital or non-marital property. I have also learned how to determine the value of assets by doing my own research and by contracting with experts such as CPAs and property appraisers to assist with the valuation of property for purposes of equitable division. I regularly appear before Family Court judges in matters involving divorce and equitable division of property.

Child Custody:

I have represented both Plaintiffs and Defendants in actions where child custody was one of many issues, and I have represented Plaintiffs and Defendants in actions where child custody was the only issue. During the course of my practice, I have represented single parents seeking an initial custody determination as well as married parents who were seeking custody as a part of divorce proceedings. I have also represented parties seeking modifications of custody orders. I have had experience representing families with parents of the opposite sex as well as parents of the same sex. I have advocated for parties who are characterized as psychological parents and/or de facto custodians. I am well-versed in the requirements of the Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act as the first step in child custody actions. I apply the best interest considerations when advocating for my clients in child custody actions where allegations of abuse, neglect, and alienation are made. I have utilized experts such as therapists, counselors, forensic and psychological evaluators, and the like in articulating client concerns in child custody matters. I regularly appear before Family Court judges in matters involving child custody.

Adoption:

I have represented clients in adoption actions involving blood-relatives, step-parents, and unrelated parties who seek to become a parent(s) to a child. I believe adoption is one of the most important roles in our family court system as it gives a new life to a child. I have only represented parties in uncontested adoptions as lead attorney, but I have served as guardian ad Litem on at least one contested adoption. I have also assisted pro se litigants in uncontested adoptions by explaining and witnessing acknowledgements for termination of parental rights. I have appeared before Family Court judges on several occasions to handle adoptions.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

Abuse and Neglect:

I have experience representing Defendants in DSS Abuse and Neglect cases in which the party was accused of perpetrating abuse and neglect of a child and in cases in which the party was only named as a Defendant due to his/her relation to the child and/or the other party. I have also been involved in private cases in which the judge has ordered that DSS commence an investigation due to allegations of abuse and neglect of minor children. I have made appearances during merits hearing, review hearings, settlement conferences, and in final hearings which were the result of negotiations. I have not had an opportunity to try a contested abuse and neglect action, but I am familiar with the relevant statutes, regulations, and procedures related to abuse and neglect. I regularly appear before Family Court judges to handle matters involving abuse and neglect.

Juvenile Justice:

I have experience representing juveniles in family court actions. My clients have been accused of crimes ranging from possession of a weapon on school property to truancy to simple assault to grand larceny to burglary to sex crimes. I have made appearances at initial and ten-day detention hearings, adjudications, and disposition hearings. I have visited my clients while being housed at various facilities, and I have worked with outside agencies to ensure that my clients received counseling and treatment necessary to effectuate an appropriate resolution of their charges. I regularly appear before Family Court judges to handle matters involving juvenile justice.

Ms. Pizarro reported the frequency of her court appearances during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Federal: 1%;
- (b) State: 99%.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

Ms. Pizarro reported the percentage of her practice involving civil, criminal, domestic and other matters during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Civil: 5%;
- (b) Criminal: 10%;
- (c) Domestic: 80%;
- (d) Other: 5%.

Ms. Pizarro reported the percentage of her practice in trial court during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Jury: 0%;
- (b) Non-jury: 100%.

Ms. Pizarro provided that during the past five years she most often served as sole counsel but has also served periodically as co-counsel on other matters.

The following is Ms. Pizarro's account of her five most significant litigated matters:

- (a) State of South Carolina v. Sametta Heyward; Charleston County Sessions—For a week after I took the South Carolina Bar Exam in July 2007, I volunteered with Savage & Savage, P.A., on this case. Sametta Heyward was charged with two counts of Homicide by Child Abuse and two counts of Unlawful Conduct Towards a Child for allegedly leaving her two minor children in a hot car for hours while she worked inside of a home for adults with special needs. I volunteered on this case because during that time in my life, I had experienced homelessness with three children. When I heard about the story, I wanted to help because I believed that there were mitigating circumstances that were important for the court and the community to consider. After my week of volunteering ended, I was offered a position as an Associate Attorney with the firm. This case was one of my main priorities.

My assignments in the case included but were not limited to visiting the Defendant while she was in jail awaiting trial, requesting and reviewing Discovery, working with private investigators as they interviewed witnesses, researching the law, speaking with experts about the defense position, and learning all about the Defendant's past life experiences to determine how those experiences contributed to her actions.

After one year in custody, I assisted in preparing a Motion for Bond and in coordinating living and work arrangements for the Defendant in anticipation of her release from custody. We were successful on the Motion for Bond, and the Defendant was released to a relative's home where she would wait for her case to be called for trial.

I left the firm in September 2008, but I returned in March 2010 to assist in the bench trial of the Defendant. I worked along the lead counsel and other associates in the firm to formulate questions for witnesses and the Defendant testified at trial. After a four-day bench trial, the Defendant was found guilty of all charges. She was sentenced to nine years in prison, and she was given credit for the year she spent in pre-trial custody. The case is significant to me as it showed me the desperate actions that people will take when they lack the most basic of necessities. In this instance, the Defendant did not consistent, reliable childcare so she left her children in a car that she had set up like a "daycare sitter." She had snacks, water, toys, even a fan in the car for the children. She was forced to choose between missing her shift at work and possibly losing her job or taking her children to work with her and leaving them in the car until she would be able to bring them inside. Her choice of the latter resulted in a horrible tragedy that no one involved in the case would ever forget. This was also my first experience with a criminal defendant choosing a bench trial instead of a jury trial. I believe that choice was a brilliant strategy in allowing the Court to make the determination of guilt and also allowing him to consider the mitigation for purposes of sentencing.

- (b) State v. J. S., a minor under the age of 17 years old; Charleston County Family Court—I served as co-counsel on a case in which the juvenile defendant was accused of a sexual battery on a minor relative. The victim made the disclosure about the alleged occurrence, and he also stated that the juvenile had recorded the alleged encounter on his cell phone and/or computer.

After the juvenile was taken into custody, we immediately began to investigate the allegations through interviews with our client and his mother. We provided the investigating agency with the juvenile's cell phone and computer. In the meantime, we made appearances at the juvenile's detention hearing. Each time we appeared at a detention hearing, we provided the Court with information concerning the veracity of the allegations and the fact that the juvenile appeared to be caught in the midst of an ongoing dispute between the mother of the victim and the juvenile's brother who was the father of the victim. Again, there was no independent corroboration of the victim's story, and there was no evidence of the event on the juvenile's electronics as the victim had indicated. We provided the Court with information about our client who, prior to these allegations, was an Honor Roll Student and well-respected among his teachers and peers. Nevertheless, I believe that out of an abundance of caution, the Court denied our requests for release on three (3) separate occasions.

The Assistant Solicitor assigned to the case offered our client a negotiated plea to ABHAN with a detained evaluation. We discussed the offer with our client and his mother, and it was rejected. As we were unable to negotiate a resolution with the Assistant Solicitor on the case, we scheduled a contested trial on the allegations. Prior to the date for the trial, we met with the Assistant Solicitor and with the Solicitor to discuss our view of the case, the lack of evidence, and the fact that the victim had made prior accusations that were unsubstantiated.

After our meetings, we were heading to our car when I got a call on my cell phone from the Assistant Solicitor. She wanted to let us know that the charges against our client would be dropped. Talk about a moment of elation! This case was a rare moment when we felt that it was necessary to advocate outside of the courtroom for a resolution. I believe that the Assistant Solicitor understood the weaknesses in her case, but due to the allegations, she was unable to consider our requests for a dismissal. When we brought our concerns to the attention of the Solicitor, I believe she consulted with the Assistant Solicitor about the allegations. This case is significant to me because I feel that if we had not chosen this unconventional route to resolve this case, this young man would have very likely been adjudicated delinquent. I am happy to say that this young man put this incident behind him. He graduated high school and joined the military. To my knowledge, he has had further contact with law enforcement.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

- (c) K.A. v. K.M.; Beaufort County Family Court—I represented the Plaintiff in this action which was commenced as an initial custody determination by psychological parent. My client was the maternal step-grandmother of the minor child, and the Defendant was the paternal aunt. The father of the child died one year prior to the filing of the action, and the mother died about five months before I filed the action. Both causes of death were due to drug and alcohol abuse. Prior to the death of the mother, my client had physical custody of the minor child for long stretches of time as the mother was in the throes of her addiction. My client and her family tended to all the needs of the minor child; they had a room in their home for the minor child; they took the minor child on vacations; and they had a strong, bonded relationship with the minor child. All of this occurred with the permission of the mother.

My client and the mother had a “falling out” after my client voiced concerns about the mother driving with the minor child while intoxicated. As such, the mother stopped allowing my client to visit with the minor child. A few months later, the mother was dead, and the minor child was living with the paternal aunt. Prior to commencing this action, the Plaintiff attempted to restart the visitation with the paternal aunt, but her efforts were consistently rebuffed. We filed this action a few months later.

We served the pleadings, and the Defendant retained counsel. I attempted to negotiate a temporary resolution of the issues, but I was unsuccessful as my clients were unwilling to agree to the time-sharing offer. They opted to “roll the dice” and take their chances with the judge. That choice proved to be fatal in this instance as the judge did not make a custody determination at the initial hearing. Instead, a guardian ad litem was appointed, and he was ordered to perform an investigation after which either party could seek relief. The court’s failure to determine custody collaterally gave the Defendant custody, to the detriment of the Plaintiff and our position. As such, we remained behind the eight ball throughout the litigation which eroded the relationship between the minor child and the Plaintiff and her family.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

We participated in mediation, and the case was resolved with Defendant being given sole custody, and my client being given periods of visitation. I will add that the resolution was less than the offer made prior to the temporary hearing. This case was significant to me as it was another reminder of the importance and power of the temporary hearing in family court. In all honesty, I wished that the parties had accepted the initial offer for visitation, but I am immediately reminded that I am required to follow my clients wishes as it relates to offers of settlement.

- (d) Carillo v. Michael Pierano; Dorchester County Family Court—I served as co-counsel in this matter involving divorce, custody/visitation, and equitable distribution. My colleague and I represented the Plaintiff, a native of Spain who relocated to Dorchester County after getting married to her husband who was an American citizen. The parties began a courtship while Plaintiff was living in Spain and Defendant was working there. Shortly before the parties were married, they purchased a home in Spain. The home was solely titled in the name of the Plaintiff. The parties got married and had two children in Spain. After the birth of the second child, Plaintiff did not work outside of the home, with the advice and permission of the Defendant. The parties moved to South Carolina in order for the Defendant to obtain a better job opportunity. The parties purchased real property in Houston, Texas, for residual income and Summerville, South Carolina, as the marital residence. The Plaintiff contended that a house that the Defendant purchased in Virginia for residual income was marital property. The matters before the Court at trial were divorce, alimony, custody/visitation/child support, and equitable distribution.

Prior to the trial of the matter, the parties agreed to resolve the issues related to child custody, visitation, and support. The parties agreed to share custody with Plaintiff as primary custodial parent and with Defendant receiving Standard Visitation. Defendant was ordered to pay child support and to contribute to the uncovered medical expenses for the minor children. As these were the only issues that the parties were able to resolve, the other issues were addressed as trial.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

In support of Plaintiff's request for permanent, periodic alimony, we attempted to show the Court that the future earning potential of the Plaintiff was greatly limited. She had worked in the computer field while in Spain, but her absence from the workforce for at least 10 years without any intervening skill-building and education prevented her from returning to the field. Further, Plaintiff sustained an injury to her back which also limited her options. Lastly, Plaintiff spoke English as a second language, and her advanced age would be a deterrent to her being able to contribute in any meaningful way to her expenses. We retained an employment expert who provided the Court with information concerning these factors.

Plaintiff offered that all real property was marital property, and we attempted to show the Court that the properties in Spain and Virginia had transmuted. Defendant did not contest the designation of the home in Spain as marital property, but he vehemently argued that the home in Virginia was his separate property. We attempted to show that the Plaintiff was instrumental in identifying the property and helping the Defendant make it suitable for tenants. Plaintiff frequently qualified and communicated with tenants about the property, and she did so at the direction of and with the permission of the Defendant. Defendant offered that the Virginia home was separate property, and his mother testified as such. Defendant noted that he never intended for the home to be marital property and that Plaintiff did not engage in efforts to increase the value of the property to even grant her a special equity interest.

After 3 ½ days of trial, the Court ordered that the Virginia property was the separate property of the Defendant, and the other assets were divided 50% to Plaintiff and 50% to Defendant. The Court only awarded Plaintiff alimony for 3 years despite the evidence that I believed supported an award of permanent periodic alimony. This case was significant to me as I tried to put myself in the shoes of the Court to try to see what he saw in the case. I viewed my client as having developed a standard of living based on the contributions of the Defendant, but the Court saw her a woman who should be able to get back on her feet in a very short period of time.

- (e) Miller v. Prash; Berkeley County Family Court—I was hired by the Defendant/Father in this action to modify custody. The parties were formerly married, and they had joint custody of their minor daughters with Plaintiff/Mother being primary custodial parent.

At some point after the original case ended, Defendant/Father married a man. He continued to exercise his custodial time with the minor children until Plaintiff/Mother learned of the courtship and remarriage of Defendant/Father. She then stopped his visitation using the excuse that the minor children did not want to visit with Defendant/Father. She also filed a criminal complaint against the husband of Defendant/Father alleging that he had assaulted one of the minor children.

Prior to a new action or enforcement action being filed, the parties were required to participate in mediation. I attended mediation with Defendant/Father, and his primary goal was to maintain the visitation that had previously been ordered. We were unable to resolve the matter through mediation so Plaintiff/Mother filed an action for a modification of custody. She posited that change in circumstance as the fact that Defendant/Father was now married to a man and that his husband had a pending criminal charge related to the minor children.

I prepared and appeared for a hearing on Plaintiff/Mother's Motion for Temporary Relief and my client's Return to Motion. I am always open to discussing a possible resolution before going in front of the Court so I briefly chatted with opposing counsel before the case was called. Opposing counsel used those precious moments to try to remind me of the conservative nature of the venue and to convince me that the Court was going to give his client sole custody because my client was married to a man. I believe that he had so little faith in the system that he was certain that the Court would overlook the evidence that his client had filed false affidavits with law enforcement about my client's husband; that the children were tardy and/or absent from school on numerous occasions while in the care of his client; and that his client was destroying the bond between the minor children and their father, to the detriment of the children.

We put the case up, and the Court took the matter under advisement. A few days later, the Court ruled in my favor for Defendant/Father. My client was given sole custody; his child support obligation to Plaintiff/Mother was terminated; she was ordered to pay child support to him; and we were also awarded attorney's fees.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

A guardian ad litem was appointed, and the children participated in counseling during the pendency of the case. We exchanged Discovery and worked towards a resolution of the case based on the observations of both the guardian ad litem and the children's counselor.

The case was resolved the weekend before trial. The parties agreed that they would have joint custody of the minor children with my client, Defendant/Father being the primary custodial parent. Plaintiff/Mother agreed to a graduated visitation schedule wherein she would be given more time with the children so long as she ensured that the children attended school on time and regularly and that she did not disparage my client and/or his husband in the presence.

This case was significant to me as it showed that the Court is a place where a party can receive justice despite what one might perceive to be the personal feelings and beliefs of a judge. The law governs, and a good judge follows the law. This case was about the best interests of the children and the detriment that the actions of the mother was causing to the children. It was a proud moment for me as I was able to successfully articulate the best interests of the children despite the potential for distractions based on life choices of the parties.

Ms. Pizarro reported she has not personally handled any civil or criminal appeals.

Ms. Pizarro further reported:

As I researched my background and looked over my life while considering applying for this judgeship, I posed the question, "Would YOU even pick YOU to be a judge? Are you smart enough? Will you be able to make a difference?” Whenever I considered pursuing a higher calling in the past, I always stopped myself as I let my mind defeat me when I wondered about those possibilities. The Bible says that the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom. I can paraphrase that and say that the fear of or uncertainty about what lies ahead can be the beginning of charting a positive path forward towards success and even miracles. It is with that mantra that I put my fears aside. I stop being defeated before I even started. I take a leap of faith, and I boldly and proudly stand as a Judicial Candidate for the Family Court First Judicial Circuit Seat #3.

In alphabetical order, I am an attorney, author, bonus mom, daughter, educator, friend, grandmother, mother, motivational speaker, sister, and wife. I was born to a single mother in Walterboro, and I was raised by my mother and grandmother, both domestic workers. I grew up in poverty. My family never owned a car so we walked everywhere! We depended on food stamps to buy groceries, and Medicaid for healthcare. My mother made the best sandwiches with government cheese, and on many Christmases, social workers brought gifts to our home. What we might have missed in material possessions was made up in the faith, hope, and love that was abounding in our home.

I was always a smart girl, and I did really well in high school. I graduated near the top of my class, and I got several scholarships to attend college. Clemson was my one and only choice. After my first year at Clemson, I got pregnant. I went back home to Walterboro and started working in Winn Dixie again. I felt so defeated as I went from being a college freshman to being a college dropout in one year!

I licked my wounds and started working on a plan to get back into college. My mom agreed to keep my son while I went back to college and that was indeed a blessing. I reenrolled at Clemson, and I did not miss a beat, graduating in December 1991, only one semester late!

I began my career as a teacher in the Greenville County School District in 1992. I spent 12 years as a classroom teacher before enrolling in law school in 2004. After graduating from law school in 2007, I spent my first year in practice as an associate attorney at a criminal defense firm in Charleston. In September 2008, I started my own firm, and my practice focuses on Family Court cases. I am proud to be able to use my personal experiences as well as those I gained as a classroom teacher to assist my clients in navigating domestic and juvenile matters and to help them forge new paths forward in life. I believe that those skills will transfer greatly as a member of the Family Court Bench.

Having been raised in poverty, I appreciate the opportunities afforded to me. As such, I have used my practice and my law degree to give back. In addition to serving on numerous boards and commissions, I have put “boots on the ground,” providing assistance in real-time to those in need. From turkey drives to coat drives to supplying groceries to the needy, I believe in paying it forward, and that “to whom much is given, much is required.” My motto is, “act justly, love mercy, and walk humbly in every interaction.” I believe that everything we do should begin with the realization that we are dealing with human beings whose lives we have the power to affect. To that end, I am committed to upholding the mandates of the law while helping my clients move to the next phase of their lives in the best way possible. I plan to carry that same level of commitment to the judiciary where I would be dedicated to ensuring that litigants are treated fairly in the eyes of the law and that justice is obtained by those seeking it.

I believe that my personal experiences will allow me to be provide a broader perspective on the bench. The record of my life will show that I made mistakes as all humans do, but I put in the hard work to learn from my mistakes such that they would not be repeated. I understand that the standards that members of the judiciary are held to are necessarily high. The love, respect, and honor that I have for the law and for the Court cannot be understated. I also understand, though, that the lessons from second chances and overcoming obstacles are also necessary if we are to ever be able to encourage the least among us that they, too, can make it. I am more than happy to share those personal experiences from the bench with juvenile defendants and other litigants who need to know that mistakes can be “blips” on their radar of lives if they learn from them and do better!

I want the world to see that there is a place in the judiciary for someone who can use their past experiences, good, bad, and ugly, as a testimony to others who come to the Court that it doesn’t matter how you start, it’s how you progress and how you finish! I believe that my knowledge of the law and my legal experiences coupled with the real-world experiences that I have faced, stared down, and overcame will make me a relatable, inspiring, and effective jurist.

Mr. Atkinson reported that he has not served in the military.

Mr. Atkinson reported that he has not held an elected public office, but that he currently serves as the Chair for the City Of Marion's Zoning Board. He was appointed by the City Council and would resign if elected to avoid conflicts.

(6) Physical Health:

Mr. Atkinson appears to be physically capable of performing the duties of the office he seeks.

(7) Mental Stability:

Mr. Atkinson appears to be mentally capable of performing the duties of the office he seeks.

(8) Experience:

Mr. Atkinson was admitted to the South Carolina Bar in 1999.

He gave the following account of his legal experience since graduation from law school:

(a) Geoly at Law in Greenwood, SC.

Associate Attorney from February 2000 through July 1, 2001

I litigated and managed the entire civil caseload in a two lawyer firm with the owner practicing primarily criminal law. My practice areas were Family Court cases, Personal Injury Actions, Worker's Compensation filings and even some Trademark and Entertainment Law projects. During this time, I contracted to perform the Public Defender Attorney Services in the Family Court for the Department of Juvenile Justice with cases against prosecutor Libby Smithdeal. I had extensive weekly court appearances in Newberry, Greenwood, Laurens and Abbeville. I also instituted a new data-base file management system with the firm and directly supervised the paralegal in implementing it. I was heavily involved in the community and served as the stadium announcer for Greenwood High School for two straight State Championship Football Seasons. I only left this position for a great opportunity to move back to my cherished hometown of Marion, SC- purchasing my grandfather's homestead and joining the highly respected Folkens Law Firm (f/k/a Folkens and Jernigan, P.A.).

(b) Folkens Law Firm, P.A. in Florence, SC

Associate Attorney from July 2001 through May 31st, 2019

Having the opportunity to join one of the preeminent firms in the Pee Dee region for matrimonial litigation and mediation practice (mentored and guided by the owner, Karl Folkens), I began to devote the heart of my practice over the next 18 years to Family Court actions and Domestic Law practice. My other practice areas expanded as well to include: probate actions, larger civil litigation and injury cases, copyright filings, interstate adoption domestication, and a Criminal practice when my Worker's Compensation work began to diminish. During this time, I completed 16 annual trainings and certification renewals as a Guardian Ad Litem (litigating and protecting the interests of minor children from South Carolina to Texas, Virginia, Alabama, New York and Ontario). I trained at the National Institute for Trial Advocacy (NITA) in their Southeastern Regional Office in Chapel Hill, NC to receive my diploma in Trial Advocacy Skills. I attended a week-long seminar with nightly immersion studies to become certified by The South Carolina Board of Arbitrator and Mediator Certification as a Family Court Mediator. I have renewed my training to remain licensed to this day- conducting over 429 mediations. I lead the firm's staff in the early adoption and teaching of many administrative, organizational programs like: TimeMatters, Many Moon, Trello, LawPay, and Harvest Billing software.

(c) The Atkinson Law Firm, LLC

Owner and Attorney from June 1, 2019 to present date.

In May 2019, the Folkens Law Firm's owner made the business decision to switch to a single member practice for mediation services only. I was invited by Mr. Folkens to stay in the same building, open my own firm, and become a tenant. Thirty days' notice was not long to prepare for such a gargantuan task and I am very proud of the efforts I undertook (along with a former intern I hired as my office manager) to grow a successful and thriving practice over the last three years. It has been nothing short of amazing and professionally rewarding in my desire to serve the great people and families of the State of South Carolina.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

After 19 years as the trusted associate attorney, I had an even greater respect for my former boss as I now became the one to order supplies, cut paychecks, plan advertising strategies, order software and furniture, and manage the Trust and General bank accounts.

My practice is now heavily devoted to Family Court cases with the occasional overlapping Probate, Civil, or General Sessions issue stemming from former clients that trust me to handle all of their legal needs. I have continued my streak of 19 yearly certification and training renewals as a Guardian Ad Litem to protect the interests of children. My mediation practice volume increased as well. In addition, I have developed valuable insight and experience as a contract attorney in all Dillon County DSS cases for the volunteer lay guardian program. This contract has added even more court experiences to my historical repertoire as I am now in a Family Court of some sort almost weekly while using other times to intake new clients, work on pleadings, perform Guardian home studies, and manage the firm finances through Quickbooks. I now have twenty two years of substantial experience in all areas of Family Law: from mediations to Guardian ad Litem work, divorces, custody, DJJ trials for children, DSS trials with complicated abuse issues, and adoptions.

Mr. Atkinson further reported regarding his experience with the Family Court practice area:

As mentioned, my current practice over the last twenty years has been primarily devoted to Family Court cases. My initial passion for all of the practice areas inquired of above was ignited in my first job when I was asked to serve as a guardian ad litem prior to any statutory training mandates. Since the mandatory training statute was passed, I have completed 19 straight yearly certification and training renewals as a guardian Ad Litem to protect the interests of children. This has required and resulted in substantial “boots on the ground” experience in interviewing every litigant and child in over 370 Guardian cases in the areas of abuse and neglect, child custody factors, relocation cases, and adoptions.

Of course, I also have served as an attorney for my own clients with 22 years of experience in filing complaints for divorce actions and the equitable division of marital property (now under our guiding statute of SC Code § 20-3-620 for Equitable Apportionment factors). Between my own practice with over 392 cases in the last five years where I personally either filed or worked the cases to conclusion. Added to over 429 mediation sessions throughout my career, I have also had to counsel my own clients on difficult issues like child custody factors, grounds for divorce, and equitable apportionment of the marital assets. Admittedly, many of these cases in my area do not reach marital property sums higher than one million dollars though there have been some exceptions.

Early in my career, I was often appointed as counsel to parents facing abuse and neglect charges in DSS cases in Marion, Florence, Dillon and Darlington counties. However, in addition, I have added valuable insight and experience in this area over the last 2 years as the contract attorney in all Dillon County DSS cases for the volunteer lay guardian program. This contract has added even more court experiences to my historical repertoire as I am now in a Family Court in some county almost weekly while using other times to intake new clients, work on pleadings, perform Guardian home studies, and manage my firm's finances.

My earliest experiences in the family court were also in fulfilling a contract for the criminal defense of juveniles on a bi-weekly basis in Greenwood, South Carolina while working at the Geoly Law Firm. I practiced against worthy prosecutors and attorneys like Libby Smithdeal, Adam Bacote, and William Townes Jones IV. I continued these types of cases when I moved back home to Marion for a brief time in support of counties like Marlboro and Darlington under the urging and appointment of Judges like the Honorable Roger E. Henderson, and Jamie Murdock, Jr.

In summary, I have now accumulated twenty two years of substantial experience in all these areas of Family Law. I appear in family court almost weekly in some capacity whether it is: a motion, a DSS hearing, an agreement approval, testifying as a guardian ad litem, trying a divorce action, or initiating such actions with a temporary hearing.

Satisfying the request for a brief history of some of these cases I offer the following sampler from 22 years of family practice. I have had the pleasure of defending a juvenile accused of breaking into a Circuit Judge's home and watched the tearful reconciliation in the hallway as victim and the accused talked about rehabilitation and forgiveness. I have tried a tense SCDSS case where a mother stood accused of shooting her own infant child because she was scared to death to testify against her violent boyfriend who had actually committed the crime. I have fought for an aging wife to keep her alimony benefits (both at trial and returning to solidify this issue after an appeal). The husband alleged he retired but not before taking on lucrative consulting contracts. I have traveled as far as Wheeler, Texas to ensure proper placement of a child after his mother murdered his father and flew to Mississauga, Ontario, Canada on a few days' notice to protect the interests of a child who was being improperly withheld from his father. I have represented several spouses against the evils of their own partner's drug addiction to secure emergency and restrictive custodies in their children's best interest.

I am so thankful my chosen profession has given me these and many other experiences that have rewarded me far beyond any fee I may have received. I thoroughly believe they have given me the needed insight, wisdom and training to serve as the next Family Court Judge of the Twelfth Judicial Circuit.

Mr. Atkinson reported the frequency of his court appearances during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Federal: no appearances.
- (b) State: I have appeared in the State's Family Courts almost weekly in some capacity over the last five years.

Mr. Atkinson reported the percentage of his practice involving civil, criminal, domestic and other matters during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Civil: 5%;
- (b) Criminal: 5%;
- (c) Domestic: 80% with trials, hearings, guardian work, and mediations.
- (d) Other: 10% comprised of Probate estate work, wills, and powers of attorney.

Mr. Atkinson reported the percentage of his practice in trial court during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Jury: 5%
- (b) Non-jury: 95%

Mr. Atkinson provided that during the past five years he most often served as sole counsel.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

The following is Mr. Atkinson's account of his five most significant litigated matters:

(a) State of South Carolina vs. James Johnson.

2001-GS-21-1394; Charge Code 0139 (Armed Robbery and Related Charges).

I discussed this case in Question One of my Judicial Merit Selection Sworn Statement. It was the first high stakes criminal case I had ever handled. All four co-conspirators testified against my client. Against overwhelming odds, I began to develop and elicit testimony that helped exonerate my client and even showed his complete innocence. I won the case and was offered a job by the Solicitor's office just a week later. This case had been passed along to me as a Junior Associate and it sent notice to my employer that I was a competent and dedicated litigator. This was a serious endeavor as my client was still a teenager facing the rest of his life in jail. Because of my dedication, his life improved drastically and my new local colleagues began to recognize my skill and reliability.

(b) Rolfe v. Rolfe.

Op. No. 2008-UP-197 (S.C. App. filed March 20, 2008)

I likewise discussed this case in my Sworn Statement. I tried this case to a complete conclusion in the Darlington County Family Courts against a very worthy adversary in Attorney Rob Gardner. Mr. Gardener's client, the husband, alleged that his health conditions had changed and he was no longer able to pay alimony to my client, the wife. I was able to expose some discovery delays on the part of the husband alone. Mr. Gardner had difficulty with his client in that area and was not to blame. I still managed to introduce enough evidence regarding his higher rate of pay as a contractor doing the same job he had previously performed. I lost at the trial level and worked with Attorney Missy Nettles to appeal the matter to the Court of Appeals as referenced above. There, the justices found ample evidence in the record from my hard work to show the error of the lower court decision. The matter was returned to the lower court for reinstatement of alimony and to decide the issue of my attorney's fees and costs. Once again, the life of a South Carolina citizen was improved when justice was finally done even though it took three different arenas to make her whole again. I offer this as proof of my trial skills to prepare for unfavorable outcomes by laying a foundation for relief and also of my unrelenting spirit to find justice.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

(c) Chastain v. Chastain,

381 S.C. 295, 672 S.E.2d 108 (S.C. App. 2009)

I offer this next case as an example of my thorough service to the children of the state of South Carolina in my Guardian ad litem work. This was a matter wherein the judge made a decision based on flagrant promiscuity in removing custody of the children from the mother. She appealed the decision. While the court disagreed with the judge as to the application of that standard (since the children had not been directly exposed to the paramours), there was still ample evidence gathered by me as the guardian to sustain the overall ruling of the court that was in the best interests of the children. I was honored to attend the arguments before the court and specific questions were asked of me by Justice Konduras. The court then extended their thanks to me and compliments on the content and thoroughness of my report.

(d) Randall W. Goodrich and Samantha Goodrich vs Texas Department of Family and Protective Services

Docket No. 2019-DR-21-944, Florence SC

Nothing can be more satisfying for a lawyer than to have a lifelong business relationship with a client because they trust you with all of the legal matters in their life. I don't believe this fine gentleman will mind me sharing that, when I first met him, it was under very negative circumstances. He had been accused of an abusive relationship and was going through a divorce. In his personal life, he had lost a very young child. That is reason enough for any of us to be angry with the world and begin experiencing problems in our other relationships. However, after assisting him with that divorce and becoming his friend, he underwent a major change in his life. He became a born again Christian and he married again. When his own brother failed to get off of the path he had been on, this gentleman decided to adopt his nephew. That took place over the course of many proceedings (both in Texas and here in South Carolina). I offer this case as an example of my skills applied in the area of adoptions and in the rare area of domestication of foreign adoption decrees. Moreover, this client represents many others that came to me with simple initial problems and continue to trust me to this day with all of their legal needs. I am extremely blessed and honored by people like Randy.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

(e) Zachery A. Quick v. Angela M. Quick
Docket No. 2017-DR-16-0936

I offer this final example as indication of evidentiary and cost issues our modern courts are being faced with each day in the pursuit of justice. To begin with, the young man I represented did not believe that he could find a lawyer to fight against the perceived notion in our communities that there is a “tender years” doctrine for young children which favors mothers over fathers. I restored his faith in our judicial system and assured him that the Court would stand solid against this fallacy. I strongly believed in his claim for custody.

However, the mother in this case was ultimately caught by me in providing false information to the court. She was so savvy with technical advancements that she had even fabricated a website that looked like her Women's Care Center. She produced falsified records to the court and even convinced the father that she was again pregnant with his child. All of these tactics were being used to delay the cause of justice and to cripple my client financially in fighting against them. She had even taken out student loans in his name.

It was a sacrifice to work the painstaking hours needed to stay ahead of such a vicious litigant while trying to be cognizant of my client's budget as well. I reduced my billing rate, worked even harder to protect him, and earned his trust throughout this process. He remains a good friend to this day. Of course, he ultimately received custody of the child and an Order was put in place to have her reimburse him for the economic damage caused. I'm informed and believe through local attorneys that her behavior has continued and that she fabricated an email from an attorney in an attempt to avoid contempt fines and punishment.

I offer this to say I will always be cognizant of the need for swift and economical justice for all that come before me. I now have substantial experience in this area to spot such problems and handle them efficiently from the bench. The record is clear that Judge Baker-Brigman did a fantastic job in this case of spotting the forgeries and I learned so much from her keen example.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

The following is Mr. Atkinson's account of two criminal appeals he has personally handled:

(1) Johnell Richardson vs. State of South Carolina

South Carolina Supreme Court

Filed May 5th, 2022

Habeas Corpus relief denied

Mr. Atkinson further reported:

In the interest of brevity, I believe the questions above and my responses to the JMSC Sworn Statement have thoroughly allowed me to share my life experiences and studies that have culminated in my aspiration to become a Family Court Judge based on the devotion of my daily practice and continuing education requirements to these areas exclusively over the past 18 years. I would ask to incorporate the Sworn Statement mentioned herein by reference and would call attention to my specific answers for questions 1 (my desire to serve), 11 (my charitable pursuits) and 17 (my desire for service to the Bar). I thank the Committee and affiliated decision makers for taking time to explore my candidacy.

(11) Commission Members' Comments:

The Commission commented Mr. Atkinson has a long career practicing in the family court. Mr. Atkinson also demonstrated to the Commission a calm, respectful temperament. The Commission commented that these two attributes would serve Mr. Atkinson well should he be elected to the SC Family Court.

(12) Conclusion:

The Commission found Mr. Atkinson qualified, and nominated him for election to Family Court, Twelfth Judicial Circuit, Seat 1.

Alicia A. Richardson
Family Court, Twelfth Judicial Circuit, Seat 1

Commission's Findings: QUALIFIED AND NOMINATED

Pursuant to § 2-19-80(A), if fewer than three persons apply to fill a vacancy or if the Commission concludes that there are fewer than three candidates qualified for a vacancy, it shall submit only the names and qualifications of those who are considered to be qualified, with a written explanation for submitting fewer than three names.

For the vacancy for Family Court, Twelfth Judicial Circuit, Seat 1, 4 candidates applied for this vacancy, and 2 candidates withdrew before the Commission voted. Accordingly, the names and qualifications of 2 candidates are hereby submitted in this report.

(1) Constitutional Qualifications:

Based on the Commission's investigation, Ms. Richardson meets the qualifications prescribed by law for judicial service as a Family Court judge.

Ms. Richardson was born in 1970. She is 52 years old and a resident of Britton's Neck, South Carolina. Ms. Richardson provided in her application that she has been a resident of South Carolina for at least the immediate past five years and has been a licensed attorney in South Carolina since 1995.

(2) Ethical Fitness:

The Commission's investigation did not reveal any evidence of unethical conduct by Ms. Richardson.

Ms. Richardson demonstrated an understanding of the Canons of Judicial Conduct and other ethical considerations important to judges, particularly in the areas of ex parte communications, acceptance of gifts and ordinary hospitality, and recusal.

Ms. Richardson reported that she has made $233.82 in campaign expenditures for postage, stationary, printing cards, and a name tag.

Ms. Richardson testified she has not:

- (a) sought or received the pledge of any legislator prior to screening;
- (b) sought or been offered a conditional pledge of support by a legislator;
- (c) asked third persons to contact members of the General Assembly prior to screening.

Ms. Richardson testified that she is aware of the Commission's 48-hour rule regarding the formal and informal release of the Screening Report.

(3) Professional and Academic Ability:

The Commission found Ms. Richardson to be intelligent and knowledgeable.

Ms. Richardson reported that she has taught the following law-related courses:

- (a) I have taught numerous law enforcement in-service training classes on juvenile and Family Court issues from 2001 – 2011 when I was the Senior Assistant Solicitor in the Family Court division. I do not have an accurate list of the dates and courses, but I did participate in the following: Horry County Police In-service training on multiple occasions, Loris Police Department, Myrtle Beach Police Department on multiple occasions.

- (b) I taught and presented for multiple years at the Juvenile Officers Association Annual meeting held each year in Myrtle Beach, including as recently as 2018-19. - (g) December 5, 2007 and December 3, 2008, Fifteenth Circuit Solicitors Office Annual Law Enforcement Training Program. I taught a section on Juvenile Issues and Family Court and prepared materials which were included in a binder provided to all participants.
- (h) Presented and participated in round-table discussions in Family Court continuing education courses presented at the South Carolina Solicitors' Association Annual Conference on multiple occasions prior to 2011
- (i) In service training with the Georgetown Police Department and Georgetown Sheriff's Office as Deputy Solicitor
- (j) I have presented a section on juvenile issues at the Horry County Family Court CLE, (year unknown)

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

- (k) Participated in training for Volunteers with the Juvenile Diversion Program, Youth Mentor Program, and Juvenile Arbitration Program on multiple occasions (years unknown)
- (l) Taught some classes for Project Lead at McDonald Elementary School, Georgetown, SC. This is a program providing law related education to elementary school students.
- (m) I have spoken on topics of law related education and career days at multiple elementary, middle, and high schools throughout my legal career.

Ms. Richardson reported that she has not published any books or articles; however, she has prepared materials for Continuing Legal Education Trainings and Law Enforcement training.

(4) Character:

The Commission's investigation of Ms. Richardson did not reveal evidence of any founded grievances or criminal allegations made against her.

The Commission noted that the state tax lien for individual income taxes filed against Ms. Richardson for environmental service fees has been satisfied. The Commission also noted that the lien for employment taxes in 2001 has been satisfied.

The Commission also noted that Ms. Richardson was punctual and attentive in her dealings with the Commission, and the Commission's investigation did not reveal any problems with her diligence and industry.

(5) Reputation:

Ms. Richardson reported that she is not rated by any legal rating organization.

Ms. Richardson reported that she has not served in the military.

Ms. Richardson reported that she has never held public office.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

(6) Physical Health:

Ms. Richardson appears to be physically capable of performing the duties of the office she seeks.

(7) Mental Stability:

Ms. Richardson appears to be mentally capable of performing the duties of the office she seeks.

(8) Experience:

Ms. Richardson was admitted to the South Carolina Bar in 1995.

She gave the following account of her legal experience since graduation from law school:

- (a) Law Office of Edward Whittington, Mullins, South Carolina 1995-1995. Worked as an associate in the primary areas of family law and real estate. I had my own trust account.
- (b) Marion County Public Defender, Juvenile contract attorney, 1995-2000. I served as public defender for juvenile offenders in Marion County. This was a part-time contract position with the Marion County Public Defender.
- (c) Law Office of Alicia A. Richardson, Marion, South Carolina 1999-2000. Sole practitioner in the primary areas of family law and real estate. I handled the financial management of the practice including bank accounts and trust accounts.
- (d) Assistant Solicitor, Family Court. Fifteenth Circuit Solicitor's Office. January-March 2001. Worked with two other attorneys prosecuting juvenile cases in Family Court and then was promoted to Senior Assistant Solicitor.
- (e) Senior Assistant Solicitor, Family Court, Fifteenth Judicial Circuit Solicitor's Office, Horry County, March 2001 – 2012. I was Senior Assistant Solicitor for the Family Court division of the Solicitor's Office in Horry County. I supervised the division and was responsible for the prosecution of juvenile cases in Family Court. I also occasionally handled child support extradition cases for the Solicitor's Office.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

- (f) Senior Assistant Solicitor, General Sessions, Sexual Assault and child abuse cases, Horry County, Fifteenth Judicial Circuit. I was one of two attorneys prosecuting sexual assault and child abuse cases.
- (g) Deputy Solicitor Georgetown County, Fifteenth Judicial Circuit Solicitor's Office, January 2013 – present. I prosecute cases in the Georgetown County Solicitor's office in General Sessions Court. I also supervise the Georgetown office including General Sessions, Family Court, and Magistrates Court attorneys.

Ms. Richardson further reported regarding her experience with the Family Court practice area:

- (a) Divorce and equitable division of property: I represented clients in divorce and equitable division cases in my first five years as an attorney from 1995-2000. My practice included uncontested divorces and contested cases. I handled both fault and no-fault divorces and handled at least cases on every statutory ground, except desertion. I represented clients in temporary hearings, emergency hearings, contempt hearings, settlement negotiations, alimony modification, and in trials. I had cases with some unusual issues such as annulment, allegations of bigamy, common law marriages, and second divorce or separate support and maintenance from the same spouse. I practiced primarily in Marion County but also represented clients in Horry, Florence, Dillon, and Darlington counties. Additionally, I was certified as a mediator in 1999-2000, and mediated a few cases.
- (b) Child custody: When in private practice from 1995-2000, I represented parents and other parties in child custody cases, visitation, determination of paternity, modification of custody, and child support actions. I served as guardian ad litem in cases as well. As guardian ad litem, I prepared reports, met with parents, children, and other relatives, I made home visits, and in contested matters testified to my findings. Additionally, I was certified as a mediator in 1999-2000, and mediated a few cases.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

In over twenty years at the Solicitor's office, I have dealt with issues regarding child custody and visitation. In cases involving domestic violence or crimes against children, bond issues regarding custody and visitation of the minor children often need to be addressed. I have also provided legal advice to law enforcement regarding child custody and visitation disputes, including cases with out of state orders.

- (c) Adoption: When I was in private practice, I did not handle any adoption cases for the adoptive parents. However, I was appointed as guardian ad litem in some adoption cases, and I represented some biological parents in relinquishing parental rights for adoption. On one such occasion, the attorneys asked that I appear at the hospital to assist in releasing the newborn to the parents which was an amazing experience. Also, I have had personal experience with adoption as I have an adopted sibling.
- (d) Abuse and Neglect: When I first began practicing law in Marion County the County Bar was small and there was not a limit on the number of appointments. I was routinely and regularly appointed to abuse and neglect cases. I was usually in DSS hearings about once a months during that period of time. While I have not represented a party in a DSS action since joining the Solicitor's office, prosecution of juvenile and some General Sessions criminal cases, often have an abuse and neglect component. A DSS case worker attended all juvenile hearings in Horry County, and juvenile truancy cases often resulted in DSS investigations. Also, since prosecuting in General Sessions Court, there are cases involving abuse and neglect proceedings, including sexual abuse, child abuse, unlawful conduct toward a child, domestic violence with children present, prenatal substance abuse, exposure to parental substance abuse, and even the murder of one parent by the other. I often confer with DSS on these cases. I have also attended DSS hearings to give the status of the criminal case to the Family Court.

On a more personal level, my parents were foster parents for many years, and we had foster children in our home from the time I was in elementary school until I married. We welcomed children as a family, and often siblings were placed together in our home. I have witnessed the frightened look on a child's face when they are brought to live with people who are strangers to them. I have watched children flourish with love and support, and others who have struggled with all of the changes. I witnessed families that were reunified with success, and unfortunately children who ended up in the revolving door of the system and then repeated the cycle with their own children.

- (e) Juvenile Justice: I have handled thousands of juvenile cases in Family Court. I represented juveniles in Family Court as public defender from 1996 to 2000 in Marion County. In 2001, I joined the Solicitor's office in Horry County as a juvenile prosecutor and served there from 2001 to 2012. I have handled every sort of juvenile prosecution from truancy, runaway, criminal sexual conduct, attempted murder, and murder. Because Horry County is a tourist area, we had a pretty significant number of out of state juveniles charged with crimes or located as runaways. I became very familiar with the Interstate Compact on Juveniles. During my time in Horry County, our office began assisting the Department of Juvenile Justice in prosecuting violations of probation. We also handled cases against parents for truancy of their children. I have toured several of the Department of Juvenile Justice secure facilities. I handled several Waiver hearings in Family Court where the State sought to transfer jurisdiction of serious crimes to General Sessions Court. Since 2013, I have not actively appeared in Family Court in the prosecution of juvenile cases but have supervised our Family Court attorney and attended some hearings that were connected to General Sessions cases. As a General Sessions prosecutor, I find that my background in juvenile prosecution is invaluable. I often pull juvenile records and files when making prosecutorial decisions on a case. It is often helpful for the court and defense attorneys to have juvenile evaluation records. Additionally, there are cases where General Sessions Defendants have juvenile co-defendants or where a young defendant in General Sessions court may have a pending juvenile case or be on probation with the Department of Juvenile Justice.
- (f) Appearances in Family Court: I have not appeared as an attorney for a party participant in a Family Court case in the past 5 years. However, I have supervised our juvenile court prosecutor. I have also attended hearings as needed to advise the court of the status of a General Sessions matter including abuse and neglect proceedings, juvenile proceedings, and a grandparent visitation action where there was a pending General Sessions case against the parent. I am currently prosecuting a juvenile case involving a violent crime in Family Court.

Ms. Richardson reported the frequency of her court appearances during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Federal: None except as observer in a case with a Defendant that also had state charges;
- (b) State: I average about two weeks per month in General Sessions Court. I am occasionally in Magistrate's court for preliminary hearings and bond hearings.

Ms. Richardson reported the percentage of her practice involving civil, criminal, domestic and other matters during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Civil: 0%;
- (b) Criminal: 100%;
- (c) Domestic: 0%;
- (d) Other: 0%.

Ms. Richardson reported the percentage of her practice in trial court during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Jury: In nearly 100% of my cases in the past 5 years, the defendant had the right to a jury trial. The majority of cases resolve without a jury trial. I have tried approximately 11 jury trials to a jury decision in General Sessions Court in the past five years and have prepared for jury trials in numerous cases which were resolved prior to trial.
- (b) Non-jury:

Ms. Richardson provided that during the past five years she most often served as sole counsel and/chief counsel.

The following is Ms. Richardson's account of her five most significant litigated matters:

- (a) In re Christian H. and State v. Christian Helms – I prosecuted this case in both Horry County Family

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

Court and Horry County General Sessions Court. I was the Senior Assistant Solicitor in Family Court and represented the State in a waiver hearing on the charge of Attempted Murder, Weapons charges, and Possession of an Incendiary Device. The case involved a 14-year-old student who brought a loaded handgun to school and attempted to take the School Resource Officers service weapon at gunpoint. The officer tackled the defendant, and the Defendant fired a shot at the officer, grazing the officer's head. The Defendant had functional pipe bombs in his backpack as well as a video recording prepared for this family detailing his plans to take the Officers gun for additional firepower, to kill multiple students at random, and then killing himself. The Defendant also had a journal detailing plans for a mass school shooting, including a list of intended targets. The writings demonstrated that he idolized past school shooters particularly from Columbine. I represented the State in the waiver hearing where I called between twenty and thirty witnesses, including students, teachers, administrators, DJJ employees, psychologist, firearms experts, an expert in explosives, and law enforcement officers. The Defendant was waived to General Sessions Court. I then assisted in the prosecution of the case in General Sessions Court. The Defendant pleaded guilty after a jury was selected for his General Sessions trial. This case garnered significant media attention not just because of the nature of the case but also because the defendant's family gave media interviews portraying him as a victim of bullying. The case involved issues with school safety, mental health, confidentiality of records of minor, the Freedom of Information Act, and media coverage of juvenile proceedings. Many of the proceedings were recorded by media outlets. Mr. Helms has completed his sentence, including probation and parole. Since completing his sentence, he has attempted to contact some of the participants.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

- (b) State v. Alexander Rhue, Sr., Alexander Rhue, Jr., and Tiesh Rhue. - I along with an Assistant Solicitor prosecuted this case in Georgetown General Sessions Court. The three co-defendants were tried together in a week and a half long trial in October, 2021. The case involved the murder of Leon Harrison, Jr. Mr. Harrison's partially decomposed body was discovered in the river with his hands and feet bound. It was estimated that his death occurred two weeks prior, and a cause of death could not be determined. Mr. Harrison's wife, her father, and her brother were charged in his murder, and the motive was believed to be domestic in nature. This was a circumstantial evidence case with multiple expert witnesses including serology, DNA, cell phone data, cell site tower location and mapping, as well as the emerging technology of Google geo-fencing and location data. The admissibility of evidence collected by search warrants was a crucial issue in the prosecution of the case. Tiesh Rhue and Alexander Rhue, Jr. were convicted of Murder and related charges, and have appealed their convictions. Their father Alexander Rhue, Sr. was acquitted of murder but convicted of Obstruction of Justice. This case was significant not just because of the seriousness of the charges but also because of the logistical challenges of conducting a three co-defendant trial while following COVID protocols. Additionally, because of the family relationship of the victim and defendants, emotions ran high both in and out of the courtroom. There were significant concerns regarding reported threats of violence at the courthouse, particularly with the verdict being reached late in the evening. This case demonstrated how the Judge, attorneys, courthouse staff, and law enforcement all worked together to maintain public access to judicial proceedings and successfully ensuring the safety of all participants.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

- (c) State v. Marissa Cohen and State v. Randy Collins, (State v. Collins, 435 S.C. 31, 864 S.E.2d 914 (Ct. App. 2021), cert granted), State v. Devon Coombs. - These Georgetown County General Sessions cases involve co-defendants charged in the tragic arson death of a 12-year-old child and the subsequent shooting death of one of the arson defendants by the deceased child's brother.

Firefighters discovered the body of a 12-year-old boy after extinguishing a fire in what was believed to be a vacant mobile home. The child's mother, Marissa Cohen, and Randy Collins and his nephew James Miller were charged with Arson First Degree after Randy Collins gave statements that Ms. Cohen had enlisted Collins and Miller to burn the mobile home for insurance proceeds. He declined to cooperate with the state without the assurance of leniency. His case was tried in November 2018. I prosecuted the case along with an Assistant Solicitor. The primary issues were his competency to stand trial and the voluntariness of his confession. The Defendant was found competent after a contested hearing, and the statements were found to be admissible in pre-trial hearings Mr. Collins was convicted by a jury and sentenced to 30 years in prison. His conviction was overturned by the Court of Appeals in 2021. The Court held that his confession was not voluntary. The State has appealed to the Supreme Court and the appeal is pending. While his appeal was pending, Mr. Collins testified in the trial of co-defendant Marissa Cohen. I along with another Assistant Solicitor tried Ms. Cohen's case in January 2020 prior to the COVID pandemic. Ms. Cohen had a protracted process to determine competency but was found competent to stand trial after a contested hearing. Ms. Cohen was convicted and sentenced to thirty-five years in prison.

The tragedy of this case was compounded when James Miller was shot and killed by Devon Coombs, the 17-year-old brother of the deceased child and the son of Defendant Marissa Cohen. Evidence gathered in the investigation of Mr. Miller's death was used in the Arson trials. I was the prosecuting attorney in Mr. Coombs trial in August, 2017. Mr. Coombs pleaded guilty to Voluntary Manslaughter midway through his trial.

- (d) State v. Frederick Willaims – I along with an Assistant Solicitor tried this Criminal Sexual Conduct with a Minor case in Georgetown County Sessions Court. The participants were related which made prosecution even more difficult for the family. In this case the minor victim and another minor witness testified, and I had to prepare them to testify not just with the perpetrator present but also with a room full of strangers. The victim and victim's family expressed significant fear of the Defendant during the trial of the case. This was exacerbated by the Defendant's use of "roots." This case demonstrates the conflicting emotions when family members are on opposing sides of a courtroom. It also demonstrates the importance of understanding how cultural and religious beliefs can impact the parties.

- (e) State v. Damonte Rivera Georgetown General Sessions court. - I was the prosecuting attorney for the trial of this case in 2015. It involved a home invasion, burglary, and armed robbery of a family in the city of Georgetown with five co-defendants involved. Later in the night after the home invasion, one of the co-defendants was shot and killed by two other co-defendants. Because much of the same evidence was needed to prove both crimes, the charges were joined. Mr. Rivera was tried for both the home invasion and the murder of the co-defendant. The case involved testimony of a minor victim, multiple out of state witnesses with Interstate Compact proceedings to secure witness attendance, a Federal Writ to secure the attendance of a federal cooperating inmate, DNA evidence, co-defendant testimony, cell phone data and mapping involving multiple cellular devices and multiple cellular providers, lost evidence, and Giglio issues. Mr. Rivera was convicted of all charges and sentenced to life in prison with, consecutive sentences for each additional charge. The Defendant actually asked the Judge to sentence him to consecutive maximum penalties. The Defendant died in prison during the riot at Lee Correctional Institute and the appeal was dismissed. This case was significant because it was actually two crimes, with two crime scenes, and with separate victims. There was a massive amount of discovery and multiple attorneys involved between all the co-defendants and witnesses with pending charges.

Ms. Richardson reported she has not personally handled any civil appeals.

The following is Ms. Richardson's account of the criminal appeal she has personally handled:

Sate v. Diquan Johnson – This was an appeal to Circuit Court of a Family Court Order denying the State's Motion to transfer/waive jurisdiction to General Sessions Court of a Murder charge against the 15-year-old defendant. I was not involved in the Family Court waiver hearing but was asked by the Solicitor to handle the appeal and assist the juvenile court prosecutor. This was the first time I was aware of our office appealing a Family Court order to Circuit Court. I prepared a "Record on Appeal" and was able to introduce it as an exhibit in the Circuit Court hearing, I argued the case in Circuit Court. The appeal was successful, and jurisdiction was transferred to General Sessions Court. He later pleaded guilty to Voluntary Manslaughter in General Sessions Court.

(9) Judicial Temperament:

The Commission believes that Ms. Richardson's temperament would be excellent.

(10) Miscellaneous:

The Pee Dee Citizens Committee on Judicial Qualifications reported Ms. Richardson to be "Well-Qualified" as to the evaluative criteria of ethical fitness, professional and academic ability, character, reputation, experience, and judicial temperament; and "Qualified" in the evaluative criteria of constitutional qualifications, physical health, and mental stability.

Ms. Richardson is married to Charles Thomas Richardson. She has three children.

Ms. Richardson reported that she was a member of the following Bar and professional associations:

- (a) South Carolina Bar Association 1995-present
- (b) Georgetown County Bar Association, approximately 2014 - present

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

- (c) former member, Horry County Bar Association
- (d) former member, Marion County Bar, Secretary-Treasurer for a few years approximately 1996-2000

Ms. Richardson provided that she was a member of the following civic, charitable, educational, social, or fraternal organizations, and was involved in the following professional activities:

- (a) Ernest F. Hollings Award for Excellence in State Prosecution, Family Court 2009
- (b) South Carolina Supreme Court Docket Management Task Force, Family Court 2011-12
- (c) Completed Leadership Challenge Workshop, 2021
- (d) Completed, What You Do Matters Lessons from the Holocaust 2021
- (e) Completed, South Carolina Coalition Against Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault "Helping Juries Understand Sexual Assault," 2012
- (f) Attended, Public Agency Training Council, "Rape and Sex Crimes Investigation," 2005
- (g) Completed, American Prosecutors Research Institute Prosecutorial Leadership Course, 2003
- (h) Completed, South Carolina Council for Conflict Resolution Family/Divorce Mediation Training, March 8, 1999
- (i) Attended, Twelfth International Conference of Shaken Baby Syndrome/Abusive Head Trauma, Boston, MA, September 29 – October 1, 2012

Ms. Richardson further reported:

In preparing this application packet, I miraculously found drafts of my law school application essay I wrote over half of my lifetime ago. It was a humbling reminder of why I became a lawyer, why I have spent the majority of my career in public service, and why I am applying for the position of Family Court Judge. It is who I am and who I have always been.

This is some of what I wrote over 30 years ago:

The unique circumstances and experiences of my life have instilled in me the qualities that I feel are necessary for a legal career. Much of who I am is derived from my family. I am the daughter of a Southern Baptist Minister. My mother suffered from severe rheumatoid arthritis since her teens, but she never let her physical disabilities stop her from helping others. At the age of fifteen, I lost my older brother in an automobile accident. From that moment on, I realized that life itself is the most precious gift we have, and that family should never be taken for granted.

My parents were foster parents from the time I was eight years old. I have witnessed firsthand how the wrongdoings of one individual can nearly destroy the life of another. I have also witnessed the power of rehabilitation. I have seen frightened and withdrawn children become happy and outgoing once they were placed in a safe and loving environment. I have watched families that faced insurmountable odds become whole again.

I sincerely feel that I can make a difference. Some may feel that I am idealistic and not realistic, but I am determined to use my abilities to help others and our State. I have high goals that I am determined to reach. I want to work in the Family Court and with the Department of Social Services. I am aspiring to one day be Solicitor of my county and eventually to be a Judge.

I felt that way then and feel even stronger now. Since drafting that essay in hopes of beginning a legal career, I have added a vast array of personal and professional experience and life lessons that have prepared me for this position. I have been married for twenty-eight years and have three wonderful children. I have balanced a demanding legal career with the demands of motherhood.

While my legal career has not just been in Family Court, I feel that the experience I gained in prosecuting General Sessions Cases would be a benefit if I became a Family Court Judge. I want to be the type of Judge who is fair, honest, decisive, and sees the big picture. Safety, security, happiness, and being a productive citizen begin in the home. When disputes and problems arise with families and children, when children are abused or neglected, and when juveniles begin down the wrong path, there must be clear, fair, and decisive resolutions and guidance to ensure to help individuals become whole again.

He gave the following account of his legal experience since graduation from law school:

- (a) I graduated from law school in May 1987
- (b) Haynsworth, Baldwin, Miles, Johnson, Greaves and Edwards. Associate from August 1987 to December 1994. Partner from 1994 to May 2003. The firm was a labor and employment firm representing employers exclusively. The scope of my work ranged from legal research in the early years to appearing before various State and Federal agencies and courts representing clients in labor disputes in later years. I was not involved in any financial management of the firm.
- (c) Robertson Hodges and Coleman. Partner from October 2003 to 2005. In October 2003 Marsh Robertson (now Judge Robertson), Anne Coleman and I formed Robertson Hodges and Coleman. Our practice was limited to Family Court matters exclusively. Coleman left the practice in 2005. Each of us maintained separate trust and operating accounts. We had one combined operating account that was used to pay joint expenses.

- (d) Robertson and Hodges 2005 to February 2010. After Anne Coleman's departure, Marsh Robertson and I formed Robertson and Hodges, LLC. We continued to practice exclusively in Family Court and continued our same financial arrangement of having separate operating and trust accounts. This partnership was dissolved when Robertson was elected to the Family Court bench in 2010.
- (e) Thomas T. Hodges, P.A. February 2010 to May 2017. During this period, I was a solo practitioner. I continued to limit my practice to Family Court matters. I practiced until my election to the Family Court bench. I was solely responsible for administrative and financial matters.

Judge Hodges reported that he has held the following judicial office(s): I was elected to the Family Court bench in February 2017. I took office on July 3, 2017 and continue in that position today. The Family Court has exclusive jurisdiction in all matters concerning family or domestic relationships, including, divorce, separation, alimony, equitable distribution, custody, child support, adoptions, abuse and neglect, termination of parental rights, and juvenile delinquency.

Judge Hodges provided the following list of his most significant orders or opinions:

- (a) State v. A.W., 2016-JU-23-503 and 504; 2017-JU-23-978 and 979. This matter involved a motion to waive a juvenile's charges for murder, armed robbery and possession of a weapon during the commission of a violent crime to the Court of General Sessions so that the juvenile could be tried as an adult. In summary the State alleged that the defendant, along with another juvenile, chased an innocent man into a cemetery and shot him four times in the mistaken belief that he was someone else. After a full day of testimony from various witnesses, including psychologists and other professionals, I found that it was appropriate that the case be transferred to General Sessions.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

- (b) DSS v. Savannah Ann Spoon and Earl Wayne Hitt, 2016-DR-39-0897, Appellate Case Number: 2017-002484. This matter was a multi-day termination of parental rights case. There were numerous allegations against both parents. After careful consideration I found that the best interests of the children would be served by terminating the parents' parental rights. My decision was affirmed on appeal by the Court of Appeals.
- (c) Kravets v. Kravets, 2016-DR-39-0904. This was a divorce case that included issues of alimony, equitable division and attorney fees. Complicating this case was the existence of a closely held business, the value of which was highly disputed. The case included testimony from expert witnesses concerning the value the business and the existence of undisclosed income.
- (d) Nunn v. Nunn, 2019-DR-23-2215. This case involved a request to modify an alimony award based on the subsequent retirement of the supporting spouse. After considering all testimony and exhibits, I found that while the plaintiff had retired and had less income, his retirement was voluntary; he had not proven that his former spouse needed less support and, most importantly, he still had the ability to pay since he had amassed an estate in excess of one million dollars since the prior order was issued.
- (e) Kearns v. Odom, 2017-DR-23-2201, 2022-UP-191. This was a multi-day trial involving a father's attempt to modify a preexisting custody order granting the parents equal time with their child. After considering all the evidence and testimony, I found that he had not proven a change of circumstances warranting a modification. This finding was affirmed by the Court of Appeals. I also ordered the plaintiff to pay a significant amount of attorney fees. This was also affirmed on appeal. Additionally, I ordered the plaintiff to pay a substantial increase in child support. This issue was not appealed.

Judge Hodges reported no other employment while serving as a judge.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

Judge Hodges further reported the following regarding unsuccessful candidacies:

- (a) I was a candidate for Judge of the Family Court, At-Large Seat 6 in the fall of 2012. I was found qualified and nominated but withdrew my name from consideration prior to the election.
- (b) I was a candidate for Judge of the Family Court, Thirteenth Judicial Circuit, Seat 5 in the fall of 2013. I was found qualified but not nominated.
- (c) I was a candidate for Judge of the Family Court, Thirteenth Judicial Circuit, Seat 3 in the Spring of 2016. I was found qualified and nominated but withdrew my name from consideration prior to the election.

(9) Judicial Temperament:

The Commission believes that Judge Hodges's temperament has been, and would continue to be, excellent.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

- (b) I am a member of Hogskin Hunt Club and have served as the Vice President.
- (c) I am a member of the Greenville Gun Club.

Judge Hodges further reported:

I have been a lawyer for almost 35 years. In my career I have seen and dealt with people from every financial, educational and social background. What I have learned is that almost everyone, regardless of their educational, financial or social background, will at one time or another enter a Family Court courtroom and when they do, they hope to be treated respectfully and fairly regardless of their status. I believe that my time on the bench has shown that I am capable of providing that respect and giving each person a fair hearing while honorably representing the State of South Carolina. Each day I try to improve my job performance so that each person leaves the courthouse feeling like they were important enough for me to care about them and their circumstances.

(11) Commission Members' Comments:

The Commission is impressed with Judge Hodges's intellect as well as his sense of humor. Further, the Commission noted how impressive the BallotBox comments are and that his judicial temperament is well suited for service on the family court bench.

(12) Conclusion:

The Commission found Judge Hodges qualified, and nominated him for re-election to Family Court, At-Large, Seat 7.

Ms. Lawrence further reported regarding her experience with the Administrative Law Court practice area:

I was second chair in a couple of matters before the Administrative Law Court while employed with Boykin & Davis LLC. These entailed prosecuting OSHA citations on behalf of the South Carolina Department of Labor Licensing and Regulation. The issues discussed were analysis of serious versus other than serious violations relating to excavation and proper slope calculations. I have had no appearances within the last five years as my practice was focused solely before the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission and then presiding over matters as a hearing officer for the State Department of Education.

Ms. Lawrence reported the frequency of her court appearances during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Federal: None;
- (b) State: 149 matters before the South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission; Presiding over 15 matters serving as a hearing officer with the State Department of Education.

Ms. Lawrence reported the percentage of her practice involving civil, criminal, domestic and other matters during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Civil: 0%;
- (b) Criminal: 0%;
- (c) Domestic: 0%;
- (d) Other: 96% Workers' Compensation Matters; 4% Education Law Matters.

Ms. Lawrence reported the percentage of her practice in trial court during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Jury: 0%;
- (b) Non-jury: 100% before a South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commissioner or Panel.

Ms. Lawrence provided that during the past five years she most often served as sole counsel.

The following is Ms. Lawrence's account of her five most significant litigated matters:

- (a) Karen Wilson, individually and as Personal Representative of the Estate of John Paul Taylor v. Horry Georgetown Technical College, et al.

This was a wrongful death and survival action involving a 14-year-old student who drowned in a hotel swimming pool during a field trip to Ashville, North Carolina. The issues were many, but the most salient I recall was identification of the proper beneficiaries, recoverable damages, negligence standards in student supervision (Tort Claims Act), and evidence supporting conscious pain and suffering. There were also informal parenting designations and relationships that considerably impacted the case dynamics.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

This case was significant for me because it was my first death case and because of the decedent's age. Also, the impact of the application of the Tort Claims Act on limitation of liability, evidentiary requirements, and damages.

(b) Strickland v. J. Frank Baker, et. al

This was an employment discrimination action filed under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. The claim was brought against multiple defendants including two school districts, and several named employees. The matter was initially filed with the South Carolina Human Affairs Commission and the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. After the EEOC issued a Dismissal and Notice of Rights, the Plaintiff filed suit in the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina

The case hinged on timeliness of the claim. The merits, though many, were never really addressed by the Courts. This case was significant for me because of the experience in litigating a claim beginning at a state level agency up to the United State Supreme Court.

(c) Donte Riddick v. Carolina Cannery

This was a denied, then later admitted back claim which ultimately morphed into a denied death claim before the Workers' Compensation Commission. The Claimant received some initial conservative treatment and was returned to work light duty, while awaiting a pending orthopedic evaluation. The Claimant engaged in light duty activities for half a day before complaints, which resulted in his return to out of work status the same day. The next day he died. The cause of death listed on the death certificate was diabetes mellitus. The issue was whether the half day of light duty work activities aggravated the Claimant's diabetic condition thereby causing or contributing to his death.

This case hinged on the medical evidence and expert endocrinologist testimony, which ultimately supported long-term noncompliance with diabetic treatment and a completely different non-work-related cause of death – cardiac arrest with hypercholesterolemia. The case was significant for me because of the details involved in establishing whether a death is related or unrelated under the Workers' Compensation Statute. It was also a great lesson in medical expert strategy.

(d) Travis L. Severson v. Pactiv Corporation

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

This matter started out as what seemed like a standard admitted back claim where the Claimant sustained a T-spine fracture when he was using a pry bar to remove a gear box to repair a seal. The Claimant received orthopedic treatment and was eventually referred for oncological evaluation in response to his delayed healing and oncological history. He was ultimately diagnosed with multiple myeloma (bone cancer) and a tumor was identified in the fracture. The issue became one of obligation for continued medical treatment as the Claimant required pain management for his back but was pending a stem cell transplant for the cancer. The case turned on the medical reports and testimony of the oncologist and orthopedic specialists. They were unable to opine to a reasonable degree of medical certainty that the Claimant's continued pain management needs were caused by the work injury versus the underlying cancer condition, which causes bone pain.

Unfortunately, the Claimant's condition progressed rather quickly forcing him and his family to make difficult choices concerning the continued litigation of his claim. The case was ultimately worked out through an agreement of the parties concerning continued treatment obligation and permanency for back injury. This case was significant to me because of the underlying cancer issues which permeated the case. This required more robust discovery, substantial research on the subject matter, and a good amount of coordination across medical specialties in different states. That said, most noteworthy was witnessing the impact of life changing health conditions on litigation.

(e) Joseph Black v. Miles Road Paint & Body, Inc.

This was initially a right knee injury with a later included back claim that was straight forward in terms of acceptance and causally related medical care. The Claimant ultimately required surgery for his knee and physical therapy for the back. The prevalent issue concerned temporary disability payments. Defendants issued required weekly payments, but later requested a credit covering a four-month period when it was discovered the Claimant was also receiving wages from his employer.

The Claimant alleged he never received the temporary disability checks. After Defendants produced evidence showing the checks were cashed, then Claimant maintained the checks were stolen from his mailbox by his ex-wife who suffered a drug addiction. Ultimately, the credit issue was determined in favor of Defendants as there was no evidence to support the Claimant's allegations outside of his own testimony. The Commissioner also concluded the allegation of the Claimant's stolen checks should be pursued in a criminal court setting as the Commission lacked subject matter jurisdiction over such matters. This case is significant to me because it was the first time in a hearing where I had to actively work to manage my frustration with a witness in the midst of the hearing testimony.

The following is Ms. Lawrence's account of two civil appeals she has personally handled:

- (a) Sheila Hogan v. Culp, Inc. D/B/A Culp Woven Velvets, Inc., and Farming Casualty Company C/O Travelers (W.C. C. File No: 1021103)

South Carolina Workers' Compensation Commission Appellate Panel,
October 24, 2011

- (b) Strickland v. J. Frank Baker, et. al

United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit, April 27, 2010

Ms. Lawrence reported she has not personally handled any criminal appeals.

Ms. Lawrence further reported the following regarding unsuccessful candidacies:

I was a candidate for the Administrative Law Court, Seat 3 during the July 2020 – February 2021 judicial cycle. I was found "Well Qualified" and screened out of committee as one of three final candidates. I ultimately withdrew from the race a day or two before election as I lacked enough support in our House of Representatives to win the seat.

- (9) Judicial Temperament:

The Commission believes that Ms. Lawrence's temperament would be excellent.

- (10) Miscellaneous:

The Midlands Citizens Committee on Judicial Qualifications found Ms. Lawrence to be "Qualified" in the evaluative criteria of constitutional qualifications, physical health, and mental stability; and "Well-Qualified" in the evaluative criteria of ethical fitness, professional and academic ability, character, reputation, experience, and judicial temperament. The Citizens Committee noted: "Very well versed in admin law. Would make a great asset to the bench!"

Ms. Lawrence is married to Anthony T. Lawrence. She has two children.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

Ms. Lawrence reported that she was a member of the following Bar and professional associations:

- (a) South Carolina Bar Association;
- (b) Richland County Bar Association;
- (c) South Carolina Counsel of School Attorneys;
- (d) South Carolina Black Lawyers Association;
- (e) South Carolina Women Lawyers Association.

Ms. Lawrence provided that she was a member of the following civic, charitable, educational, social, or fraternal organizations:

- (a) Gamma Nu Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

(Parliamentarian 2016 – 2018)

- (b) Ridgeview High School Improve Council

(Vice Chair 2018 -2019)

- (c) 2022 South Carolina Education Policy Fellow

Ms. Lawrence further reported:

It would be my honor and privilege to serve on the South Carolina Administrative Law Court. I see my service as a member of our judiciary to be the pinnacle of my legal career and how I wish to continue my contributions to our community until retirement. I feel my personality and temperament is well suited to the bench. My legal background evidences my ability to transition across practice areas, which will be necessary to successfully maneuver the learning curve of the Administrative Law Court given the scope of its jurisdiction. I am also confident I have the drive and work ethic to efficiently manage a docket and return decisions in a timely manner.

(11) Commission Members' Comments:

The Commission commented that Ms. Lawrence is well qualified to be an Administrative Law Court judge and that her wealth of experience would serve her well on the bench.

(12) Conclusion:

The Commission found Ms. Lawrence qualified, and nominated her for election to Administrative Law Court, Seat 5.

Judge Rookard further reported regarding her experience with the Administrative Law Court practice area:

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

For over twenty-three years, I have served as a state government attorney in South Carolina. In this capacity, I have handled a variety of legal issues such as but not limited to: review of policy and procedures, business transactions, easements, complex employment matters and civil lawsuits including investigation, case preparation, and appeals before state personal grievance committee, defended inmate litigation before the Administrative Law Court and in circuit court, higher education law, privacy and records management, student conduct, transactional matters involving copyright and technology transfer, contributor to strategic administrative and management initiatives, drafting, reviewing, and negotiating complex agreements for the procurement of goods and services, drafted, reviewed and negotiated agreements with local hospitals and healthcare facilities, regulatory compliance, review of criminal background checks, developed and presented training and development programs to employees on various areas of the law affecting the organization. I believe my extensive legal experience in state government has uniquely prepared me to be an Administrative Law Judge.

During my tenure at the Department of Corrections, I appeared in court numerous times to defend the Department in litigation filed by inmates. In addition, I argued and defended SCDC in employee grievance hearings before the South Carolina Office of Human Resources. Throughout my legal career, I have written numerous legal memoranda defending my client before the South Carolina Human Affairs Commission and the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission involving allegations of discrimination and harassment. I humbly state that I have prevailed on behalf of my client in every SHAC/EEOC complaint that I handled.

I believe that my experiences as an associate municipal court judge, my human resources and legal background have prepared me to preside over matters that come before an Administrative Law Judge. For over ten years, I have served as a Human Resource Director and a Chief Human Resources. Thus, I possess extensive experience and knowledge of state human resources' regulations and laws. Also, I have working knowledge of the state employee grievance process.

Throughout my legal career, I have had to quickly learn new areas of law and I have become adept at applying legal principles and procedures to legal matters. I would compare being an in-house counsel for a large government agency to being a sole practitioner in private practice. Almost daily or weekly a novel issue has been brought to my attention that required that I research and provide legal advice. In addition, as in-house counsel there is an intense amount of people contact. My “client” does not have to make an appointment to see me they simply drop by my office if they have an issue that needs attention.

As in-house counsel I learned the art of negotiation and resolving issues. Many times, I addressed matters before litigation was filed against my client. My years of experience as a Human Resources Director taught me the ability to intervene and negotiate a solution.

While I have not appeared before the Administrative Law Court within the past five years, since 2015 I have served as an associate municipal court judge. In this capacity I conduct hearings and adjudicate cases in criminal, domestic violence, quality of life and traffic court, preside over bond court, rule on motions, draft orders and conduct legal research, as necessary. In municipal court, there are bench trials in which I listen to testimony and review evidence presented by both parties, then make the decision. I have interacted extensively with pro se litigants and those represented by legal counsel.

Judge Rookard reported the frequency of her court appearances during the past five years as follows:

I have served as an associate municipal court judge since 2015. From 2015--beginning of 2020, I presided over hundreds of contested cases in criminal, traffic, domestic violence, and quality of life court, bond court and preliminary hearings. Since 2021--present, I primarily preside over bond court and preliminary hearings.

From 2000--2017, I handled various employee grievances pursuant to the State Employee Grievance Procedures.

From 2000--2005, I handled inmate litigation including appeals, before the Richland County Circuit Court and the Administrative Law Court.
The conservative estimate is that I handled around 1,000 inmate appeals before the Administrative Law Court.

- (a) Federal: 0%
- (b) State: 0%
- (c) From 2015 -- present, preside as a part-time judge in municipal court

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

Judge Rookard reported the percentage of her practice involving civil, criminal, domestic and other matters during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Civil: 60%;
- (b) Criminal: 35%;
- (c) Domestic: 5%;
- (d) Other: 0%.

Judge Rookard reported the percentage of her practice in trial court during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Jury: 20%;
- (b) Non-jury: 40%*.

*Since 2015 I have served as an associate (substitute) municipal court judge. In this capacity I conduct hearings and adjudicate cases in criminal court, domestic violence court, homeless court, quality of life court and traffic court, preside over bond court, rule on motions, draft orders and conduct legal research, as necessary. In municipal court, there are bench trials in which I listen to testimony and review evidence presented by both parties, then make the decision. I have interacted extensively with attorneys, law enforcement, pro se litigants, those represented by legal counsel and victims.

Since 2000--present, I have served as legal counsel for three state government agencies. I possess extensive state government legal experience applicable to the SC Administrative Procedures Act to include: auditing issues, contract review, drafted and negotiated agreements with local hospitals and healthcare facilities, employee grievances, including arbitrations, mediations and hearings before the State Employee Grievance Committee, budget issues, law enforcement issues, easements/real estate issues, ethics/compliance, freedom of information, governance, healthcare/nursing issues, review/draft legislation, privacy and records management, transactional matters involving copyright and technology transfer, policies and procedures, and publications as needed, higher education law, human resource management: benefits, class/compensation, criminal background checks, disability, leave, payroll, recruitment, retirement, temporary employment, unemployment issues, and providing legal advice to supervisors, board members, and executive-level management.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

*From 2000--2005, 50% of my practice involved serving as the Deputy General Counsel for the SC Department of Corrections (SCDC). I defended the Department against inmate litigation. The inmate litigation was appealed to the Administrative Law Court. I drafted and filed briefs, prepared documents to be submitted into the record and interacted with staff members of the Administrative Law Court. The conservative estimate is that handled around 1,000 inmate appeals before the Administrative Law Court. I handled inmate cases involving prison disciplinary appeals, sentence calculations, custody, and liberty interests. Handled appeals pursuant to the Administrative Procedures Act as needed. Also, I represented SCDC against inmate litigation filed in circuit court in Richland County, SC.

Also, I have working knowledge of the state employee grievance process. I have handled employee grievance hearings before the state employee grievance committee. I conducted employee grievance investigations, handled employee mediations/arbitration and hearings this included hearing preparation: oral arguments, legal document prep, witness preparation, opening/closing arguments, and questioning witnesses on direct/cross-examination.

Throughout my legal career in state government, I have handled legal matters involving the SC Department of Employment and Workforce, SC Procurement Services, State Accident Fund, Worker's Compensation Commission, Division State of Human Resources, Office of Insurance Reserve Fund, Public Employee Benefit Authority. Additionally, I have handled legal matters involving the South Carolina Human Affairs Commission, the SC Technical College System, State Board of Education, Commission on Higher Education, the Department of Probation Parole and Pardon, DSS, DHEC, LLR, etc.

Judge Rookard provided that during the past five years she most often served as chief counsel in her role as General Counsel for Lander University and Midlands Technical College.

The following is Judge Rookard's account of her most significant litigated matters:

- (a) Ralph Porcher v. SCDC, I handled the initial grievance, the investigation, and the subsequent hearing before the SC Office of Human Resource. This case involved a former employee testing positive for drugs. The primary issues of the case involved the use of a urine analysis vs. a hair analysis and the chain of custody of the urine analysis.

- (b) I handled employee cases in which I was responsible for the initial grievance, the investigation, and the subsequent hearing before the State Employee Grievance Committee. However, I do not recall the specific names of the cases.

The following is Judge Rookard's account of civil appeals she has personally handled:

From 2000-2005, I handled inmate litigation including appeals, before the Richland County Circuit Court and the Administrative Law Court. The conservative estimate is that I handled around 1,000 inmate appeals before the Administrative Law Court. The inmate appeals to the Administrative Law Court involved civil related matters. However, I do not recall the specific names of the cases.

The following is Judge Rookard's account of criminal appeals she has personally handled:

From 2000-2005, I handled inmate litigation including appeals, before the Richland County Circuit Court and the Administrative Law Court. The conservative estimate is that I handled around 1,000 inmate appeals before the Administrative Law Court. These inmate appeals involved criminal related matters. However, I do not recall the specific names of the cases.

Judge Rookard further reported the following regarding unsuccessful candidacies:

- (a) In 2012, I submitted an application for an Administrative Law Judge vacancy however, I withdrew my application before it was considered by the Judicial Merit Selection Commission.
- (b) In 2016, I submitted an application for an Administrative Law Judge vacancy however, I withdrew my application after the public hearing.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

- (c) In 2017 and 2019, I requested an application, but I did not proceed with the process.
- (d) In 2020, I was found qualified but not nominated for election to the Administrative Law Court.

(9) Judicial Temperament:

The Commission believes that Judge Rookard's temperament has been, and would continue to be, excellent.

(10) Miscellaneous:

The Midlands Citizens Committee on Judicial Qualifications found Judge Rookard to be "Well-Qualified" as to the evaluative criteria of ethical fitness, character, reputation, and judicial temperament; and "Qualified" in the evaluative criteria of constitutional qualifications, professional and academic ability, physical health, mental stability, and experience. There were no related comments by the Committee.

Judge Rookard is not married. She does not have any children.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

The Commission also noted that Judge Anderson was punctual and attentive in his dealings with the Commission, and the Commission's investigation did not reveal any problems with his diligence and industry.

(5) Reputation:

Judge Anderson reported that his last available rating by a legal rating organization, Martindale-Hubbell, was AV Preeminent.

Judge Anderson reported that he has not served in the military.

Judge Anderson reported that he has held the following public office: He was appointed and served as an Assistant Attorney General 1985 to January 1995. He was not required to file with the State Ethics Commission in that capacity.

(6) Physical Health:

Judge Anderson appears to be physically capable of performing the duties of the office he seeks.

(7) Mental Stability:

Judge Anderson appears to be mentally capable of performing the duties of the office he seeks.

(8) Experience:

Judge Anderson was admitted to the South Carolina Bar in 1984.

He gave the following account of his legal experience since graduation from law school:

I began my legal career at the South Carolina Attorney General's Office in September 1984. During my career at the AG's office, I prosecuted numerous criminal cases of all types and handled a wide variety of civil litigation. My duties included:

- (a) Statewide criminal prosecutor
- (b) Assisted in the implementation of the Statewide Grand Jury
- (c) Extradition hearing officer on behalf of the Governor of South Carolina
- (d) Counsel to the State Ethics Commission
- (e) Represented the State in a variety of civil litigation matters

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

(f) Represented the State in post-conviction relief matters

(g) Committee Attorney for the State Employee Grievance Committee

(h) Prosecutor for the Engineering and Land Surveyor's Board

I also prosecuted Medical Board cases, wrote Attorney General Opinions and handled Criminal Appeals.

On May 25, 1994, I was elected to Administrative Law Judge Seat No. 6 and re-elected to that position in 1996, 2001 and 2006. Administrative Law Judges hear appellate, injunctive and trial cases in a broad range of administrative matters involving governmental agencies and private parties.

On May 13, 2009, I was elected Chief Administrative Law Judge and re-elected to this position February 5, 2014 and February 6, 2019.

As an Assistant Attorney General, I did not have any significant administrative and financial management. As an Administrative Law Judge, I did not have any legal obligation regarding administrative and financial management but was occasionally assigned those duties by the Chief Judge. As Chief Administrative Law Judge, I am responsible for the administration of the court, including budgetary matters, assignment of cases, and the administrative duties and responsibilities of the support staff. See S.C. Code Ann. § 1-23-570. Also, section 1-23-660 of the South Carolina Code (Supp. 2017) provides "The chief judge is solely responsible for the administration of the [Office of Motor Vehicle Hearings], the assignment of cases, and the administrative duties and responsibilities of the hearing officers and staff.

Judge Anderson reported the frequency of his court appearances prior to his service on the bench as follows:

- (a) Federal Infrequently
- (b) State: At least 100 times during a five-year period.

Judge Anderson reported the percentage of his practice involving civil, criminal, domestic and other matters prior to his service on the bench as follows:

- (a) Civil: 70%
- (b) Criminal: 30%;
- (c) Domestic: 0%;
- (d) Other: 0%.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

Judge Anderson reported the percentage of his practice in trial court prior to his service on the bench as follows:

- (a) Jury: 30%
- (b) Non-jury: 70%.

Judge Anderson provided that during the past five years prior to his service on the bench he most often served as sole counsel.

The following is Judge Anderson's account of his five most significant litigated matters:

- (a) State v. Dwight L. Bennett - This was a felony DUI case in which the victim lost the baby she was carrying and suffered horrible injuries. Although the defendant was convicted, this case was used as a legislative example as the need to increase the maximum felony DUI punishment.
- (b) Georgia v. Richard Daniel Starrett, aff'd., Richard Daniel Starrett v. William C. Wallace, - Starrett was convicted of several crimes in South Carolina. Afterwards, Georgia sought his extradition in an attempt to convict him under the death penalty. Starrett's challenge to the Attorney General's Office authority to hold extradition hearings was denied.
- (c) State v. Michael Goings - Goings was a notorious City of Cayce police officer charged with assault and battery of a high and aggravated nature.
- (d) State v. Herbert Pearson and Terrance Singleton - The Defendants in this case were accomplices in the armed robbery, attempted murder and murder of attendants at a gas station in Sumter, S.C.
- (e) State v. William Keith Victor - After the Defendant was convicted of murder and kidnapping, he was given the death penalty. His case was later reversed on appeal and I assumed the prosecution. The prosecution, under difficult circumstances, resulted in the Defendant's plea to murder, and the aggravating circumstance of kidnapping.

The following is Judge Anderson's account of five civil appeals he has personally handled:

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

- (a) Bergin Moses Mosteller v. James R. Metts, S.C. Supreme Court, Not known when this case was decided.
- (b) Dennis G. Mitchell v. State of S.C., S.C. Supreme Court, Not known when this case was decided.
- (c) Ex Parte, Bobby M. Stichert v. Carroll Heath, S.C. Supreme Court, Decided August 29, 1985 (286 S.C. 456, 334 S.E. 2d 282).
- (d) Patrick C. Lynn, et al. State of S.C., Supreme Court, Not known when this case was decided.
- (e) Paul David Tasker v. M.L. Brown, Jr., S.C. Supreme Court, Not known when this case was decided.

The following is Judge Anderson's account of criminal appeals he has personally handled:

I handled several criminal appeals while serving as an Assistant Attorney General. However, my service with the Attorney General's Office ended in February 1995, when I began serving as an Administrative Law Judge. As a result of the passage of time since that date, the briefs and specific case captions are no longer available.

Judge Anderson reported that he has held the following judicial office(s):

I was elected by the General Assembly to serve as an Administrative Law Judge beginning February 1, 1995. On May 13, 2009, I was elected Chief Administrative Law Judge and have been serving continuously since that date.

Administrative Law Judges hear appellate, injunctive, and trial cases in a broad range of administrative matters involving governmental agencies and private parties.

The Administrative Law Court's appellate jurisdiction includes appeals involving Medicaid; driver's license revocations and suspensions; licensing decisions from boards/commissions under the Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation; Budget and Control Board's Employee Insurance Program; AFDC benefits; operation of day care facilities and foster home licensing; food stamps; and revocations or suspensions of teachers' certificates. The Administrative Law Court also hears appeals from final decisions of the Department of Employment and Workforce; the Department of Corrections in "non-collateral" matters; and appeals from

- (b) From July 1997 to June 2007, I ventured out and opened my own law firm, Jan B. Bromell, P.A. Seventy five (75%) of my practice consisted of domestic matters. I prosecuted and defended child support and child custody cases, divorce, alimony, separate maintenance and support, adoption and termination of parental rights, appointed and retained on juvenile cases, appointed and retained on abuse and neglect matters, name change, annulment, equitable distribution, and orders of protection. Twenty-four percent (24%) of my practice consists of civil matters. I handled real estate transactions, performed title searches, handle social security disability cases, personal injury cases, prepared power of attorney, contracts, wills and deeds. One percent (1%) of my practice consisted of criminal cases.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

- (c) Elected as Family Court Judge Seat 1, Fifteenth Judicial Circuit on February 7, 2007. Began work July 2, 2007 and working continuously since.

Judge Bromell Holmes reported the frequency of her court appearances prior to her service on the bench as follows:

- (a) federal: Only once in 2006. Case scheduled for trial on 09/20/06, but settled.
(b) state: 5 to 10 times per month for domestic hearings/trials, roster meetings for civil matters, civil trials, roll call for criminal matters, criminal trials, probate court chemical dependency or estate hearings, master in equity hearings.

Judge Bromell Holmes reported the percentage of her practice involving civil, criminal, domestic and other matters prior to her service on the bench as follows:

- | | | |
|-----|-----------|-----|
| (a) | Civil: | 24% |
| (b) | Criminal: | 1% |
| (c) | Domestic: | 75% |
| (d) | Other: | |

Judge Bromell Holmes reported the percentage of her practice in trial court prior to her service on the bench as follows:

- | | | |
|-----|-----------|-----|
| (a) | Jury: | 2% |
| (b) | Non-jury: | 98% |

Judge Bromell Holmes provided that during the past five years prior to her service on the bench she most often served as sole counsel.

The following is Judge Bromell Holmes's account of her five most significant litigated matters:

- (a) Gallant-Taylor vs. Taylor, 2002 DR 22 156 was an annulment action based on non-consummation of marriage and fraud. The parties met in 1995 and never engaged in sexual intercourse while dating. Plaintiff Wife was a Christian and Defendant Husband was a Minister. The parties believed that sexual intercourse was an act reserved for married couples. Thus, the couple agreed not to engage in intercourse until married. The parties were married on December 29, 2001 in Georgetown County. Throughout the marriage, Defendant Husband offered excuses as to why he could not engage in sexual intercourse with Plaintiff Wife. Defendant Husband's continuous refusal to engage in sexual intercourse with Plaintiff Wife led to the parties' separation on May 3, 2002 in Columbia, SC. Plaintiff Wife filed an action for annulment. The court found based on the testimony of Plaintiff Wife that: (1) the parties agreed that intimacy was appropriate when two parties were married; (2) the Plaintiff Wife expected that the parties would consummate their relationship once they were married; (3) the Plaintiff Wife was reasonable in expecting that the parties would consummate their relationship once they were married; (4) the parties never engaged in sexual relations during marriage; (5) the Plaintiff is entitled to have her marriage annulled based on non-consummation of marriage and (6) the Plaintiff is entitled to have her marriage annulled based on fraud.

- (b) Stephens, Respondent vs. Stephens, Appellant Unpublished Opinion No. 2002-UP 077 was significant because the Court of Appeals agreed with my position that the trial court erred in apportioning the marital debts of the parties. At the time of the commencement of marital litigation, the total credit card debt of the parties was $24,927.30. Of this total debt, the trial court ordered Husband to pay $22,065.07 and ordered Wife to pay $2,862.23. The trial court, in its order, failed to address any of the factors as they relate to apportionment of marital debt. The Court found the Husband at fault in the break up of the marriage and Wife was granted a divorce on the grounds of physical cruelty. Although fault is one factor for the court to address in equitably dividing marital property, it does not justify a severe penalty. Morris vs. Morris 335 S.C. 525, 517 S.E.2d 720 (Ct. App. 1999). The Wife argued that because she was given the marital home by the Husband and there exists a mortgage of $13,000.00 on the home, the award is fair. However, the Wife received the marital home as part of the settlement agreement. There was no indication that the Court considered this debt in apportioning the debt. The Court of Appeals was unable to discern from the record the family court's basis for its apportionment of the credit card debt. The case was remanded for further consideration and discussion of the factors set forth in S.C. Code of Laws Ann. § 20-7-472 (Supp). The Court of Appeals further stated that the court may adjust the apportionment of the debt if it deems such an adjustment is appropriate.

- (c) Moore vs. Moore 2002 DR 22 156 was a two day contested trial concerning custody of the parties' minor children, alimony and attorney fees. A guardian was appointed to represent the interests of the minor children. I represented the Defendant Father. The Court awarded custody of the parties two minor children to the Father. In determining custody, the Family Court considered the character, fitness, attitude and inclination on the part of each parent as they impact or relate to the child. Paparella v. Paparella 340 S.C. 186, 531 S.E.2d 297 (Ct. App. 2000). The Court found the Father to be more actively involved in the children's daily life. The Court also found the Father to be the primary caretaker of the minor children. The Court was guided in awarding custody to the primary caretaker by the cases of Smith v. Smith 294 S.C. 194, 363 S.E.2d 404 (Ct. App. 1987) and Epperly v. Epperly 312 S.C. 411, 440 S.E.2d 884 (1994). Mother was denied alimony. The factors were not proven. Mother was also ordered to pay a portion of Father's attorneys fees based on the factors in Glasscock vs. Glasscock , 304 S.C. 158, 403 S.E. 2d 313 (1991) and clarified in EDM v. TAM 307S.C. 471, 415 S.E.2d 812 (1992): the difficulty of the matter, favorable results obtained, reasonableness of time and costs incurred, ability of the Mother to pay attorney fees and inability of the Father to pay attorney fees if no assistance is provided.
- (d) Harrell vs. Gubicza 2004 DR 26 2251 was a two day contested trial concerning custody of the parties' minor child. A guardian was appointed to represent the interests of the minor child. I represented the Plaintiff Father. The Father brought this action to save his daughter from the immoral environment of the Defendant and Defendant's Mother home. The parties were never married and the child was born out of wedlock. The law states that custody of a child born out of wedlock is with the mother. However, an acknowledged father may petition the court for custody or visitation. At such proceeding, the best interest of the minor child is the determining factor S.C. Code of Laws Ann. § 20-7-953 (B) (1976). Absent an agreement or court order regarding child custody, both parties are equally entitled to the custody of the minor child. S.C. Code of Laws Ann. § 20-7-100 (Supp). In this case we had a child born out of wedlock to young parents who had not had the issue of custody decided between them. At the temporary hearing, custody of the minor child was awarded to the Plaintiff because of the affidavits submitted on his behalf as well as the fact that the Defendant did not appear. At the conclusion of the merits hearing, the Court undertook the awesome task of looking into the past of each party and predicting which of the two available environments would advance the best interest of the child and bring about the best adjusted mature individual. Cook v. Cobb 271 S.C. 136, 142, 245 S.E.2d 612, 615 (1978). The Court awarded custody of the minor child to the Father.

- (e) Pushia vs. Pushia 2005 DR 22 470 was a divorce matter wherein the Plaintiff Wife sought alimony. The parties were married for twenty years. For most of the marriage, the Plaintiff Wife was a homemaker. The Defendant Husband's monthly income was $5869. The Plaintiff Wife's imputed monthly income was $893. The Defendant Husband was ordered to pay child support for the parties' two minor children in a semi-monthly amount of $392.50 plus the 5% court costs. The Court found that although the Plaintiff Wife was a homemaker, she had a high school education, nursing degree, was very computer literate, skilled in word processing and had the probability of good opportunity. The court considered the following in awarding rehabilitative alimony: (1) the duration of the marriage; (2) the age, health, and education of the supported spouse; (3) the parties' accustomed standard of living; (4) the ability of the supporting spouse to meet his needs while meeting the needs of the supported spouse; (5) the time necessary for the supported spouse to acquire job training or skills; (6) the likelihood that the supported spouse will successfully complete retraining; and (7) the supported spouse's likelihood of success in the job market. Plaintiff testified that she desired to go back to school to obtain a dual degree in Medical Office Clerical Assistant and Office Systems Technology at Horry Georgetown Technical College. While pursuing this career, Plaintiff Wife would need financial support to assist her with the college expenses and the household expenses. The Court further considered the additional schooling required by the Plaintiff Wife as well as the time necessary for the Plaintiff Wife to look for and obtain employment after school to sufficiently support herself. The Court awarded the sum of $1000 per month for 5 years, beginning June 15, 2006 and continuing the 15th of each month thereafter. The Court believed this amount to be sufficient rehabilitative alimony for the Defendant Husband to pay and for the Plaintiff Wife to receive. The amount would allow the Plaintiff Wife to meet her expenses at approximately the same level during the marriage. The Defendant Husband was the principal wage earner and provided the family with a comfortable standard of living. Defendant Husband earned $60,000 per year most of which was earned at his principal employment with International Paper Company. The Court found that Defendant Husband would have no difficulty maintaining his standard of living by payment of $1000.00 to Plaintiff Wife on a monthly basis. The award was intended to encourage Plaintiff Wife to become self-supporting after the divorce from Defendant Husband. I believe this to be the trend of the court in these type cases.

The following is Judge Bromell Holmes's account of two civil appeals she has personally handled:

- (a) Sheryl L. Stephens, Respondent v. Michael Anthony Stephens, Appellant. Appeal from Georgetown County Haskell T. Abbott, III, Family Court Judge. Unpublished Opinion No. 2002-UP-077. submitted November 14, 2001-

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

Filed February 11, 2002. Affirmed in Part; Remanded in Part. In this case, I represented the Appellant.

- (b) Ralph Hoffman, Appellant vs. Lola Watts, Respondent, Appeal from Georgetown County Master in Equity, Benjamin H. Culbertson. Affirmed. Unpublished Opinion. In this case, I represented the Respondent.

Judge Bromell Holmes reported that she has not personally handled any criminal appeals.

Judge Bromell Holmes reported that she has held the following judicial office(s):

Elected by SC General Assembly February 7, 2007 as Family Court Judge, Fifteenth Judicial Circuit, Seat 1. Re-elected February 2013 and February 2019 to same position.

Judge Bromell Holmes provided the following list of her most significant orders or opinions:

- (a) High v. High, S.C. Court of Appeals Published Opinion # 4717. Filed July 28, 2010

This was a divorce action with an agreement on equitable distribution of marital property and debt. The contested issues were child custody and attorney fees. The matter was appealed. The Father appealed my order granting Mother sole custody of the couple's two children, arguing the family court erred in: (1) refusing to qualify Teressa Harrington, LPC as an expert witness; (2) prohibiting the introduction of statements made by the couple's minor daughter to Harrington; (3) refusing to admit Harrington's records into evidence; (4) making certain findings of fact relevant to the issue of custody which were not supported by the record; (5) failing to consider important factors contained in the record in its award of primary custody to Mother; (6) awarding Mother sole custody based on the fact that Mother was historically the caregiver of the minor children; and (7) granting Mother custody based on the primary caretaker factor. The Mother cross-appealed arguing that the family court erred in (1) hearing Father's untimely motion to alter or amend, and (2) failing to award her attorney's fees and costs. The Court of Appeals affirmed my ruling.

(b) In the Interest of Spencer R., S.C. Court of Appeals, Published Opinion #4668. Filed April 25, 2010.

This was a juvenile delinquency matter in which Spencer R. was charged with pointing and presenting a firearm. This case was my first juvenile trial as a family court judge. What was difficult about this case is that the State charged the juvenile in one petition for pointing and presenting a firearm at three different people. I didn't understand why the State didn't file three petitions, one for each person. It was clear to me that the juvenile intended to point and present a firearm at one of the individuals, but not the other two. However, because of how the petition was filed, I thought that I had to find the juvenile delinquent on the petition. The juvenile appealed his conviction for presenting a firearm, alleging the family court erred in finding sufficient evidence to support his conviction. The Court of Appeals affirmed the conviction of one of the individuals and reversed the conviction of the other two individuals. I am particularly proud of this case because prior to my ruling, there was no case law in the State of South Carolina which defined presenting a firearm.

(c) Simmons vs. Simmons, Supreme Court Opinion
#26970. Filed May 9, 2011.

This was a difficult case for me. The parties divorced in 1990 and entered into a family court-approved settlement agreement that was determined to be void in part. A central part of the parties' agreement required Husband to give Wife one-third of his Social Security benefits if he began receiving them at age 62 or one-half of those benefits if he began receiving them at age 65. The Social Security benefits were to "be construed only as a property settlement, and shall not in any way be considered or construed as alimony." Husband attained the age of 62 in 1994 and 65 in 1997, but he failed to pay Wife any portion of his Social Security benefits. In December of 2003, Wife filed a petition for a rule to show cause, seeking to compel compliance with the agreement. Husband responded by filing a Rule 60(b)(4), SCRCP,[2] motion, asserting that the family court lacked subject matter jurisdiction to order division of his Social Security benefits. The family court dismissed Husband's subject matter jurisdiction challenge, and Husband appealed. The court of appeals reversed. Simmons v. Simmons, 370 S.C. 109, 634 S.E.2d 1 (Ct. App. 2006). The court found that the Social Security Act, specifically 42 U.S.C. § 407(a) (2010), preempted and expressly precluded the parties' agreement to divide Husband's Social Security benefits. As a result, the court voided that portion the agreement. The appeal presented the question of whether the family court may revisit, in whole or in part, the now partially voided agreement. I ruled in 2008 that I lacked subject matter jurisdiction to reconsider the 1990 court-approved agreement. The Supreme Court reversed and remanded for reconsideration of the court-approved agreement.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

(d) Scott Meyers v. SCDSS 2022–UP-141 filed March 17, 2022

Scott and Catherine Meyers appealed my order dismissing their petition to adopt their niece based on the fact that they did not satisfy the requirements of the ICPC. On appeal, they argued the family court erred in finding the Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children (ICPC) applied to the action because they are related to minor child. The Court of Appeals found that the ICPC applies and statutorily bars the Meyers from adopting the minor child. My ruling was affirmed.

(e) In the Interest of Justin B., a Juvenile Under the Age of Seventeen, Opinion No. 27306 (S.C. Sup. Ct. filed August 28, 2013)

This case was also significant to me in that it involved sexual abuse committed between siblings. On May 3, 2009, Justin B's adoptive mother witnessed him sexually molest his adoptive sister and notified police. In August 2009, he was indicted for CSC–First in violation of section 16-3-655(A)(1) of the South Carolina Code. S.C. Code Ann. § 16-3-655(A) (Supp. 2012). Pursuant to a negotiated plea deal in which the juvenile agreed to plead guilty if allowed to do so in family court, the juvenile was brought before me on a juvenile petition in November 2009. He admitted guilt and was subsequently adjudicated delinquent. I committed the juvenile for an indeterminate period to the Department of Juvenile Justice, not to exceed his twenty-first birthday, and required him to undergo counseling. He was also ordered to register as a sex offender as required by section 23-3-460 of the South Carolina Code, and to comply with section 23-3-540's electronic monitoring requirements. Id. §§ 23-3-460, -540. The Juvenile appealed challenging the active electronic monitoring requirements of section 23-3-540 of the South Carolina Code Section 23-3-540 that individuals convicted of certain sex-related offenses, including criminal sexual conduct with a minor in the first degree (CSC–First), submit to electronic monitoring for the duration of the time the individual is required to remain on the sex offender registry. S.C. Code Ann. § 23-3-540(A)–(H) (Supp.2012). An individual found guilty of CSC–First is required to register as a sex offender bi-annually for life. Id. §§ 23-3-430, -460 (Supp. 2012). Section 23-3-540 also provides that ten years from the date electronic monitoring begins, an individual may petition the chief administrative judge of the general sessions court for the county in which the offender resides for an order of release from the monitoring requirements. Id. § 23-3-540(H). However, those persons convicted of CSC–First may not petition for this review. Id. Thus, these sex offenders must submit to monitoring for the duration of their lives.

Justin B argued that, because he is a juvenile, this imposition constitutes cruel and unusual punishment in violation of the federal and state constitutions. The Supreme Court found that electronic monitoring is not a punishment, and rejected Justin B’s claim. However, the Supreme Court allowed the juvenile to have periodic judicial review to determine the necessity of continued electronic monitoring. My decision was affirmed as modified.

Judge Bromell Holmes reported no other employment while serving as a judge:

(9) Judicial Temperament:

The Commission believes that Judge Bromell Holmes’s temperament has been, and would continue to be, excellent.

(10) Miscellaneous:

The Pee Dee Citizens Committee on Judicial Qualifications found Judge Bromell Holmes to be “Well Qualified” as to the evaluative criteria of ethical fitness, professional and academic ability, character, reputation, experience, and judicial temperament; and “Qualified” in the evaluative criteria of constitutional qualifications, physical health, and mental stability. The Committee had no related or summary comments.

Judge Bromell Holmes is married to Cleveland Bernard Holmes. She has two children.

Judge Bromell Holmes reported that she was a member of the following Bar and professional associations:

- (a) South Carolina Conference of Family Court Judges (Vice President, 2021-2022) and (Secretary/Treasurer, 2020-2021)

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

Judge Bromell Holmes further reported:

I have come into contact with thousands of people over the past fifteen years as a Family Court Judge as well as the preceding twelve years prior to my judgeship as an attorney. Throughout my life, I have lived by the golden rule "do unto others as you would have them do unto you". I have treated all individuals with the utmost respect. These individuals came from many walks of life. I am naturally inclined to attentively and objectively listen to all parties in a dispute. I am inherently fair, courteous, diligent, patient, humble and compassionate. I possess the intellectual capacity to interpret legal principles, apply them to the facts of each case and clearly and logically communicate the reasoning leading to my conclusions. I have been patient, dignified, open-minded and diligent in disposing of my cases. I have handled the pressure of a rigorous schedule. I have maneuvered the uncertainties of returning to our new normal by being flexible in accommodating a different courtroom format such as continuing the use of virtual hearings when warranted. The totality of my life experiences has equipped me to

Mr. McCutchen reported that he has not served in the military.

Mr. McCutchen reported that he has never held public office.

(6) Physical Health:

Mr. McCutchen appears to be physically capable of performing the duties of the office he seeks.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

(7) Mental Stability:

Mr. McCutchen appears to be mentally capable of performing the duties of the office he seeks.

(8) Experience:

Mr. McCutchen was admitted to the South Carolina Bar in 2002.

He gave the following account of his legal experience since graduation from law school:

- (a) Hood Law Firm, LLC, Charleston, SC. Associate. September 2002 – January 2004. My primary area of practice was general civil litigation defense, beginning with initial pleadings and conducting discovery, all the way through mediation, as well as trial preparation/trial. I was not involved in any management position in this role, including management of trust accounts.
- (b) Lanier & Burroughs, LLC, Orangeburg, SC. Non-equity member. February 2004 – Present. My areas of practice have always included personal injury litigation practice, including pretrial, trial preparation and trial, domestic litigation, criminal defense, workers compensation, as well as Social Security disability appeals and magistrate's Court civil and criminal litigation practice. Although I never managed the firm nor the trust accounts, I do oversee the trust account disbursements in cases that I personally handle.

Mr. McCutchen further reported regarding his experience with the Circuit Court practice area:

Over the past 5 years, and even prior, I have handled DUI/DUS cases, cases involving burglary and stolen goods, assault and battery, criminal domestic violence, various drug and firearm related charges, and also numerous traffic offenses. The usual issues presented in these cases pertained to probable cause or lack thereof, Miranda violations, failure of law enforcement to comply with South Carolina law, as well as mitigating facts and circumstances to be considered beyond just the charge(s) alone. The vast majority of my criminal cases concluded in negotiated plea agreements after concluding the rule 5 discovery process.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

As far as civil matters, I frequently and routinely handle an array of cases including automobile accidents and premises liability cases, primarily. These typically involve issues of proximate causation, damages and especially on the premises liability side, foreseeability issues and issues of actual and constructive notice, in addition to the proximate cause and damages issues. Again, the vast majority of my civil cases ended in an agreed upon settlement, whether it be at mediation or before; however, a few cases that included issues of causation/liability coupled with issues of causally connected damages, ended up proceeding to trial. Most of my practice is spent representing Plaintiffs, but from time to time I do represent individual defendants who have been sued.

I certainly am aware that my practice has been primarily on the civil side; however, I believe that the Rules of Evidence apply across the board, in any type of case, and the practice of one type of law familiarizes you with those same rules to be applied in other areas. I believe there would be a swift learning curve on the criminal side if I were elected, as there are usually more General Sessions terms of court compared to Common Pleas terms. As criminal matters involve the potential loss of rights most sacred to our State and US Constitutions, I would most certainly ensure that I was well versed, by way of research and independent study, on any unfamiliar issue that may arise in a case before me. That would also hold true with civil matters, as I am a firm believer in proper preparation in all areas of the law, and beyond.

Mr. McCutchen reported the frequency of his court appearances prior to his service on the bench as follows:

- (a) Federal: 5, or on average about 1 per year
- (b) State: 191 total, or on average about 38 times per year

Mr. McCutchen reported the percentage of his practice involving civil, criminal, domestic and other matters prior to his service on the bench as follows:

- (a) Civil: including pre-suit civil matters, 5%. Including only filed civil matters 43%
- (b) Criminal: including pre-suit civil matters, 5%. Including only filed civil matters, 6%
- (c) Domestic: including pre-suit civil matters, 25%; including only filed civil matters, 33%
- (d) Other: Including pre-suit civil matters, 13%; Including only filed civil matters, 18%

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

Mr. McCutchen reported the percentage of his practice in trial court prior to his service on the bench as follows:

- (a) Jury: 97%
- (b) Non-jury: 3%

Mr. McCutchen provided that during the past five years prior to his service on the bench he most often served as sole counsel.

The following is Mr. McCutchen's account of his five most significant litigated matters:

- (a) Sandra Canty, indiv. and as Guardian of Andrea Gulley, an Incapacitated Adult v. Orangeburg County EMS; Case # 2018-CP-38-01354

This matter involved alleged breaches of the standard of care by EMS personnel in responding to a 911 call from the Plaintiff's daughter, which resulted in an anoxic brain injury. The case involved multiple experts in the areas of causation and damages, as well as issues surrounding protections under the SC Tort Claims Act. After discovery and expert preparation, the case was successfully mediated, wherein a substantial, yet limited recovery was obtained to assist in Ms. Gulley's lifelong care.

- (b) Shawn Hale v. Locals Pub of Orangeburg, SC, et al.,; Case # 2017-CP-38-00005

This premises liability case involved injuries sustained by the owner of a security company who was shot while checking on staff at a night club providing security services. The Plaintiff had extensive medical treatment requiring a month long hospitalization, multiple skin grafts and was permanently limited in function as a result of his injuries. The issues litigated were the duties owed by the landowner, and imputed notice from tenant to the landlord, assumption of the risk doctrines, and criminal acts of third parties. After extensive investigation, numerous depositions and surviving a defense motion for summary judgment, the case was successfully mediated.

- (c) William Rutland v. Hazel H. Fogle; Case # 2016-CP-38-01449

This automobile accident case was one where liability was admitted, partly because the Defendant later became incapacitated due to age. Also, the case contained issues of pre-existing medical problems, exacerbation of a prior condition, causally connected medical expenses, and UIM offset due to failure to exhaust liability limits. After lengthy discovery, treating physician deposition(s), and subsequent consulting independent medical examiner testimony, the case was mediated twice (liability and UIM) and ultimately resolved prior to trial.

(d) Shayeata Taylor v. Wal-Mart Stores East, LP, etal.,; Case # 2013-CP-38-0650

Suit was commenced in this matter due to the wrongful arrest and subsequent prosecution of the Plaintiff for shoplifting. Plaintiff was a single mother who lost her job because of her detention and arrest. Significantly, the case involved issues of computer forensics and data stored on a gaming console which assisted in proving the allegations of wrongful arrest and malicious prosecution. Further, past economic loss was a substantial portion of the damages in the case. After multiple pretrial motions hearings, requiring amendment of the complaint itself, the matter settled prior to trial, after it was previously mediated unsuccessfully.

(e) Walter Proctor v. Admon Louis Moran d/b/a Moran Stumping Company, etal.,; Case # 2010-CP-14-124

This case, along with the companion loss of consortium case, arose out of an accident between a private vehicle and a tractor trailer hauling pine tree stumps. From the beginning, this matter contained issues and violations of the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration regulations, conspicuity analysis, accident reconstruction, comparative negligence, as well as substantial physical injuries sustained by the Plaintiff and his wife. The case was unsuccessfully mediated, yet settled prior to trial

Mr. McCutchen reported he has not personally handled any civil or criminal appeals.

Mr. McCutchen reported that he has never held public office.

Mr. McCutchen further reported the following regarding unsuccessful candidacies:

In 2021, I was a candidate for the Circuit Court, First Judicial Circuit, Seat One position. I was found Qualified and Nominated by the Judicial Merit Selection Commission in the Media Release dated November 23, 2021. I ultimately withdrew my candidacy on January 20, 2022.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

(9) Judicial Temperament:

The Commission believes that Mr. McCutchen's temperament would be excellent.

(10) Miscellaneous:

The Lowcountry Citizens Committee on Judicial Qualifications found Mr. McCutchen to be "Well-Qualified" as to the evaluative criteria of ethical fitness, professional and academic ability, character, reputation, experience, and judicial temperament; and "Qualified" in the evaluative criteria of constitutional qualifications, physical health, and mental stability. The Committee commented: "Energetic, pragmatic, resourceful, good ideas, personable, smart, great qualities—all of the qualities of a good circuit judge."

Mr. McCutchen is married to Tara Lovelace McCutchen. He has two children.

Mr. McCutchen reported that he was a member of the following Bar and professional associations:

- (a) South Carolina Bar Association
- (b) Orangeburg County Bar Association, Treasurer 2008-Present
- (c) First Judicial Circuit Fee Dispute Resolutions Board
- (d) South Carolina Association of Justice, Member

Mr. McCutchen provided that he was a member of the following civic, charitable, educational, social, or fraternal organizations:

- (a) Orangeburg County Community of Character, Board of Directors, 2014-Present
- (b) 2018 Lawyer of the Year, as voted on by readers of the Times & Democrat Newspaper
- (c) City of Orangeburg Dixie Youth Baseball Coach, 2012-2020

Mr. McCutchen further reported:

I was born and raised in a small community a few miles north of Kingstree, South Carolina. Growing up, my parents and grandparents taught me the importance of diligence and hard work. More importantly, they taught me how to be a person of good character, which includes how to treat people. I never once witnessed my parents mistreat another human being, not so much as to raise their voice at them. The opposite was more true: my parents would inconvenience themselves and go out of their way to help their peers, indiscriminately. At age twelve, my father passed away, and I watched my mother work tirelessly to ensure our needs were met. Growing up, I held every job a teenager in rural Williamsburg County could possibly have: from country store clerk to farming or working the tobacco and gladiola fields, I did it all. I consider myself fortunate to have met so many people from various walks of life at such a young age. It keeps me grounded to this day. I have walked many miles in many different persons' shoes, and I believe this is extremely important when one day I may be asked to adjudicate matters involving those same people.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

My humble beginnings in life have stayed with me throughout my career, and I believe that is partially what has prepared me to be a Judge. I pray that if I am ever fortunate enough to wear a black robe, I will be no different of a man then as I am today. No person is bigger than the system in which they operate, including the law. I have realized over my eighteen years of practice that any case I have handled, although all important regardless of size and type, is the most important case to 1 person: the client that hired you. When an individual places that much trust in another individual, it is a very humbling experience. It is even more humbling to fathom that one day I may have to preside over matters where there are two sides having their most important, and sometimes only experience, within the judicial system. That is a responsibility that I do not, and will not take lightly. Having to preside and render judgment over an individual's life or livelihood is a sobering, serious responsibility, and that is a responsibility that I will gladly and humbly assume.

(11) Commission Members' Comments:

The Commission commented that Mr. McCutchen is a personable, well-respected attorney with years of experience.

(12) Conclusion:

The Commission found Mr. McCutchen qualified, but did not nominate him for election to Circuit Court, At-Large, Seat 3.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

William K. Witherspoon
Circuit Court, At-Large, Seat 3

Commission's Findings: QUALIFIED, BUT NOT NOMINATED

(1) Constitutional Qualifications:

Based on the Commission's investigation, Mr. Witherspoon meets the qualifications prescribed by law for judicial service as a Circuit Court judge.

Mr. Witherspoon was born in 1959. He is 63 years old and a resident of Columbia, South Carolina. Mr. Witherspoon provided in his application that he has been a resident of South Carolina for at least the immediate past five years and has been a licensed attorney in South Carolina since 1991.

(2) Ethical Fitness:

The Commission's investigation did not reveal any evidence of unethical conduct by Mr. Witherspoon.

Mr. Witherspoon demonstrated an understanding of the Canons of Judicial Conduct and other ethical considerations important to judges, particularly in the areas of ex parte communications, acceptance of gifts and ordinary hospitality, and recusal.

Mr. Witherspoon reported that he has not made any campaign expenditures.

Mr. Witherspoon testified he has not:

- (a) sought or received the pledge of any legislator prior to screening;
- (b) sought or been offered a conditional pledge of support by a legislator;
- (c) asked third persons to contact members of the General Assembly prior to screening.

Mr. Witherspoon testified that he is aware of the Commission's 48-hour rule regarding the formal and informal release of the Screening Report.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

(3) Professional and Academic Ability:

The Commission found Mr. Witherspoon to be intelligent and knowledgeable.

Mr. Witherspoon reported that he has taught the following law-related courses:

- (a) I have lectured at the SC Bar Program “Bridge the Gap” for new lawyers.
- (b) I have made presentations on the topics of appellate advocacy and domestic relations to lawyers attending the Annual SC Bar Meeting
- (c) I have taught an upper-level Business Law class at Benedict college.
- (d) I have taught a Trial Advocacy class at the U.S.C. School of Law.
- (e) I have lectured at the SC Bar CLE program “20/20: An Optimal View of Significant Developments”.
- (f) I have lectured at the Richland County Bar Association’s annual ethics seminar.
- (g) I have lectured to federal paralegals on “Pretrial Discovery” issues.
- (h) I have lectured to federal paralegals on “Fifth Amendment” issues.
- (i) I have lectured to federal paralegals on “Witness Immunity” issues.
- (j) I have lectured to new federal employees on federal criminal procedure.
- (k) I have lectured to law students on criminal conspiracy issues.
- (l) I have lectured to several classes at USC on mental health issues in criminal matters.
- (m) I have lectured at Narcotics Commanders School on “Preparing Search Warrants” to law enforcement officers attending the school.
- (n) I have made presentations to students at the Charleston School of Law and UofSC School of Law.

Mr. Witherspoon reported that he has published the following:

- (a) S.C. Appellate Practice Handbook (S.C. Bar CLE 1995), Contributing Author;
- (b) Marital Litigation in S.C., Roy T. Stuckey and F. Glenn Smith (S.C. Bar CLE 1997), Editorial Board.

(4) Character:

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

The Commission's investigation of Mr. Witherspoon did not reveal evidence of any founded grievances or criminal allegations made against him.

The Commission's investigation of Mr. Witherspoon did not indicate any evidence of a troubled financial status. Mr. Witherspoon has handled his financial affairs responsibly.

The Commission also noted that Mr. Witherspoon was punctual and attentive in his dealings with the Commission, and the Commission's investigation did not reveal any problems with his diligence and industry.

(5) Reputation:

Mr. Witherspoon reported that his rating by a legal rating organization, Martindale-Hubbell, is AV.

Mr. Witherspoon reported that he has held the following public office: I was appointed a Municipal Court judge for the City of Columbia in August 1998. I served in this position until May 2000.

(6) Physical Health:

Mr. Witherspoon appears to be physically capable of performing the duties of the office he seeks.

(7) Mental Stability:

Mr. Witherspoon appears to be mentally capable of performing the duties of the office he seeks.

(8) Experience:

Mr. Witherspoon was admitted to the South Carolina Bar in 1991.

He gave the following account of his legal experience since graduation from law school:

(a) August 1991 – July 1992 Law clerk to the Honorable Randall T. Bell, S.C. Court of Appeals

(b) August 1992 – August 1993 Law clerk to the Honorable Matthew J. Perry, Jr., United States District Court for the District of South Carolina

(c) September 1993 – November 1995 Berry, Dunbar, Daniel, O'Connor, Jordan & Eslinger. My practice was a general civil plaintiff's-oriented practice. I was involved in contract matters, automobile accidents and other personal injury cases.

(d) November 1995 – August 1996 Law clerk to the Honorable Matthew J. Perry, Jr., United States District Court for the District of South Carolina

(e) September 1996 – July 1998 Berry, Adams, Quackenbush & Stuart. My practice was a general practice with both plaintiff's and defense cases. Cases included employment matters, contract matters, criminal defense, automobile accidents and other personal injury cases.

(f) July 1998 – May 2000 Associate General Counsel, South Carolina Budget & Control Board. As a member of the General Counsel's Office, I served as legal advisor, provided legal advice, and representation to different Board offices and staff. I reviewed contracts, proposed legislation, and represented the Board offices in legal disputes.

(g) May 2000 – present United States Attorney's Office. I am involved in the prosecution of federal narcotics and firearms crimes. I have held several positions in the US Attorney's Office including, Anti-Terrorism Coordinator, interim Violent Crimes Section chief, First Assistant United States Attorney and currently serve as Senior Litigation Counsel.

Mr. Witherspoon further reported regarding his experience with the Circuit Court practice area:

Criminal Experience

Over the last five (5) years, my practice has been exclusively in criminal matters. I have handled cases involving violations of federal narcotics and firearms statutes, immigration laws, armed robbery matters and narcotics related murders. I was the leader prosecutor in a case involving the prosecution of a former federal agent. As part of my criminal practice, I have handled some appeals and responded to post-conviction matters which are civil in nature.

Civil Experience

Over the course of my career, I have represented both plaintiffs and defendants in civil matters. My civil practice included personal injury cases and other intentional torts. I have handled automobile accident cases, contract disputes and employment matters. In addition, I have continued to review reported civil cases from both the state and federal courts. I would continue to study the Rules of Civil Procedure and the reported civil cases to overcome any deficiency in my experience. I have viewed civil CLEs through online training courses and read South Carolina Advance Sheets in this area.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

Mr. Witherspoon reported the frequency of his court appearances during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Federal: 100%;
- (b) State: 0%.

Mr. Witherspoon reported the percentage of his practice involving civil, criminal, domestic and other matters during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Civil: 5%;
- (b) Criminal: 95%;
- (c) Domestic: 0%;
- (d) Other: 0%.

Mr. Witherspoon reported the percentage of his practice in trial court during the past five years as follows:

- (a) Jury: 30%;
- (b) Non-jury: 70%.

Mr. Witherspoon provided that during the past five years he most often served as sole counsel.

The following is Mr. Witherspoon's account of his five most significant litigated matters:

- (a) Tobias, et al. v. The Sports Club, et al., 332 S.C. 90, 504 S.E.2d 318 (1998). I served as co-counsel in this case. This was a first party cause of action against the defendants for serving alcohol to an intoxicated plaintiff under the theory of Christiansen v. Campbell, 328 S.E.2d 351 (Ct. App. 1985). After the jury returned a verdict for the defendants, my firm appealed on behalf of the plaintiffs. The jury verdict was upheld but the Supreme Court overruled Christiansen.
- (b) United States of America v. Jorge Gonzalez-Vasquez, et al., 77 Fed. Appx. (4th Cir. (S.C.) October 20, 2003). I served as co-counsel in this case. This case was tried in federal court. This case arose from the discovery of an organized drug smuggling and sports betting ring in the federal prison in Edgefield, South Carolina. A total of 22 defendants, including inmates and their family members, were charged. Four of the defendants went to trial and were convicted. The remaining eighteen (18) defendants pled guilty to several different charges. Because several of the defendants did not speak English, this case involved the use of Spanish interpreters for the defendants, the use of translated recorded prison telephone calls and the use of historical evidence of drug smuggling from other federal prisons.

(c) United States v. David Michael Woodward, et al., 430 F.3d 681 (4th Cir. 2005). I served as co-counsel in this case. This case arose out of a pain management clinic in Myrtle Beach. The clinic was dispensing powerful narcotic pain medication to its patients. We alleged that the doctors were over prescribing and illegally prescribing these medications to patients who were not in need of the medication. In some cases, the doctors did not perform any physical examination of the patients or the patients were intoxicated when they came to the clinic. Patients, allegedly in severe pain, were traveling more than three (3) hours to visit the clinic. The doctors alleged that they were in a better position to diagnose and treat the patients. After a two (2) week trial, the doctors were convicted. This case was the first of its kind in South Carolina.

(d) United States v. Kenneth Reid, et al., 523 F.3d 310 (4th Cir 2008). I served as co-counsel in this case. This case arose out of an undercover drug deal in Rock Hill, South Carolina. After Mr. Reid determined who the undercover informant was, he hired another drug dealer to kill the informant. They were successful in killing the informant. The local police sought federal help in investigating and prosecution of this case. After the shooter was located in Texas and brought back to South Carolina, he then faked being mentally ill which required a mental evaluation and hearing to determine his competency. Only Mr. Reid went to trial. At trial, we tried Mr. Reid on several different charges, including using a firearm during a violent crime. He was convicted of several charges and sentenced to life imprisonment. This case is significant based upon the request from the victim's family.

(e) United States v. Darryl Hemphill, et al. I served as lead counsel in this case. This case arose out of a drug organization located in the Rock Hill, South Carolina area. I indicted approximately 19 defendants as a result of a wiretap. The defendants were flying to California to meet with the source of supply for cocaine, methamphetamine, marijuana, heroin and fentanyl. Once they met with the source of supply, they would ship packages containing the illegal substances back to different locations in Charlotte, North Carolina. Eventually, the defendants began making counterfeit pain pills using fentanyl. This case is ongoing. This case is significant because after the arrest of the individuals the local law enforcement noticed a significant decrease in the number of counterfeit pills in the area.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

The following is Mr. Witherspoon's account of two civil appeals he has personally handled:

- (a) Walker v. South Carolina Department of Health and Environmental Control, 1998 WL 637298 (4th Cir. (S.C.) August 31, 1998).
- (b) Heyward v. Monroe, 1998 WL 841494 (4th Cir. (S.C.) December 7, 1998).

The following is Mr. Witherspoon's account of five criminal appeals he has personally handled:

- (a) United States v. Anderson, 773 Fed. App'x. 127 (4th Cir. 2019).
- (b) United States v. Cannon, 740 Fed. App'x. 785 (4th Cir. 2018).
- (c) United States v. Cash, 2008 WL 4699771 (4th Cir. (S.C.) October 27, 2008).
- (d) United States v. Hallman, 2007 WL 1423758 (4th Cir. (S.C.) May 10, 2007).
- (e) United States v. Charley, 2006 WL 521735 (4th Cir. (S.C.) March 03, 2006).

Mr. Witherspoon further reported the following regarding unsuccessful candidacies:

I ran for the Circuit Court, At-Large, Seat No. 9 in September 2002. I was found qualified but not nominated by the Judicial Merit Screening Committee. I ran for the Circuit Court, At-Large, Seat No. 9 in May 2006. I was found qualified and nominated by the Judicial Merit Screening Committee. I was not elected. I ran for the Circuit Court, At-Large, Seat No. 8 in 2009. I was found qualified but not nominated. I was one of five (5) finalists for a Federal Magistrate Judge position in August 2008.

(9) Judicial Temperament:

The Commission believes that Mr. Witherspoon's temperament would be excellent.

(10) Miscellaneous:

The Midlands Citizens Committee on Judicial Qualifications found Mr. Witherspoon to be "Qualified" in the evaluative criteria of constitutional qualifications, physical health, and mental stability; and "Well-Qualified" in the evaluative criteria of ethical fitness, professional and academic ability, character, reputation, experience, and judicial temperament. Additionally, the Committee noted: “Made a great impression on the committee, especially the attorneys.”

Mr. Witherspoon is married to Maggie Sythiner Bracey. He has two children.

Mr. Witherspoon reported that he was a member of the following Bar and professional associations:

- (a) President, S.C. Bar 2016-2017
- (b) President-elect, S.C. Bar 2015-2016
- (c) Treasurer, S.C. Bar 2014-2015
- (d) Member, S.C. Bar Board of Governors 2010 – 2018
- (e) Member, S.C. Bar House of Delegates 1998 – present
- (f) Chair, S.C. Bar House of Delegates 2013-2014
- (g) Past Chair, S.C. Bar Long Range Planning Committee
- (h) Past Member, S.C. Bar Nominating Committee
- (i) Past Member, S.C. Judicial Qualifications Committee
- (j) Past Member, Supreme Court Board of Grievances and Discipline
- (k) Past Member, S.C. Bar Continuing Legal Education Committee
- (l) Past Member, S.C. Bar Publications Committee
- (m) Past Member, S. C. Bar Diversity in Profession Committee
- (n) Past Member, S.C. Bar Professionalism Committee
- (o) Past Member, Richland County Bar Long Range Committee
- (p) Past Member, Palmetto Legal Aide Board of Directors

Mr. Witherspoon provided that he was a member of the following civic, charitable, educational, social, or fraternal organizations:

- (a) Salvation Army Board of Directors
- (b) Child Evangelism Board of Directors
- (c) Omega Psi Phi Fraternity

Mr. Witherspoon further reported:

I believe that my diverse legal background would benefit me as a Circuit Court judge. I have worked as a law enforcement officer, in private practice, in public service and over my legal career gained valuable courtroom experience as a federal prosecutor. I believe these experiences would be an attribute to me if I am selected as a Circuit Court judge.

I have also tried to continue my involvement in civic and professional activities in addition to practicing law. I have served on several committees and boards in the South Carolina Bar including the

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 2023

Board of Grievances and Discipline, CLE, Diversity, Professional Responsibility, Long Range Planning and the Nominating Committee. As a result of my bar and community service, I was awarded the Compleat Lawyer Silver Medallion by USC School of Law. The Silver Medallion is awarded to lawyers practicing less than fourteen (14) years for service to the legal profession and the community at large. The recipients of the award are chosen by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals, the Dean of the Law School, the Executive Director of the SC Bar and the President of the Law School Alumni Board. I have also received the South Carolina Lawyers' Weekly Leadership in the Law award.

These activities are important and beneficial to me in that they have provided an opportunity to improve both the legal profession and the community at large. I believe that it is important that judges come from varied backgrounds and perspectives. Being involved in professional and civic activities is a way of achieving that diversity of experience and allow me to gain valuable insight into other ideas and perspectives.

(11) Commission Members' Comments:

The Commission was impressed with Mr. Witherspoon's continued involvement with the South Carolina Bar and his commitment to improving the legal profession. The Commission noted Mr. Witherspoon has had impressive mentors throughout his legal career and is well regarded in the legal community.

(12) Conclusion:

The Commission found Mr. Witherspoon qualified, but did not nominate him for election to Circuit Court, At-Large, Seat 3.

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The Senate assembled at 12:00 Noon, the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Isaiah 40:36

In the writings of Isaiah we read:

“ . . .but those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint.”

Bow with me as we pray: O glorious Lord, we come to this Chamber today seeking to honor You, taking seriously the roles bestowed upon us as Your servants, desiring indeed to be the faithful leaders who want more than anything else to provide for the needs of the people of this State. To that end, dear God, grant to each Senator and every staff member the caring spirit of the late Martin Luther King, Jr. May these leaders, as did King typically, strive to do what they can to bring Your blessings upon each woman, man, and child here in South Carolina -- thereby doing all that they can do to keep the dream alive for everyone. All this, dear Lord, we humbly pray in Your loving and gracious name. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

Remarks by Senator STEPHENS

Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. As you all know, today we will start the debate on vouchers in South Carolina. Let me just say, that I am proud to be a proponent of public education in South Carolina. I served approximately 19 years with the Orangeburg County School Board and Orangeburg County School District.

I've learned that we need to educate students so that we can enable them to become well-rounded individuals focusing on the whole child, not just a mastery of academic content, and to prepare students to live a productive life and become good citizens. I understand that there are ten major challenges to a good public education. Those challenges are classroom size, poverty, family factors, technology, bullying, students, attitude and behavior, no child left behind, and parent involvement. However, this list is critical to the world-class education experience that we should be giving -- the opportunity for our children to have.

I'm hoping that when we start the debate on this issue, we will take these things into consideration. We talk about the possibility of $90 million going to the Voucher Bill. My belief is that if we take that $90 million and we look at the number of teachers we have in our system -- that is just at the minimum amount -- the minimum pay scale, if we look at that comprehensively, and use part of that $90 million to get our teachers up to a $45,000-$46,000 pay scale, I believe you can and will attract good quality teachers in our system. If you take part of that same $90 million and put into academics, those programs that will enhance that delivery of a world class education, we will produce children who are competitive as it relates to the job market. If we take some of that $90 million and we put it toward facilities especially in rural South Carolina, we will put our children in an environment that is conducive to learning.

Now ladies and gentlemen, it is upon us as elected officials, members of the General Assembly, to ensure that public education is given what it needs to adequately and effectively do its job. Over the years, that has not been the case. I agree with the Governor in his budget proposal -- and he is listing education as one of his priorities. There is a lot to be done and I applaud him for taking a stance that education is a priority in South Carolina -- public education, I stress public education -- is a priority in South Carolina. I am asking members of this Body to continue to give public education an opportunity to educate our children so that they can be competitive here and abroad.

On motion of Senator FANNING, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator STEPHENS were ordered printed in the Journal.

Expression of Personal Interest

Senator GROOMS rose for an Expression of Personal Interest.

CANDIDATES IN CARRY OVER STATUS

TRANSCRIPT OF PUBLIC HEARINGS

Date: Tuesday, January 10, 2023
Time: 3:39 P.M.
Location: Blatt Building
1101 Pendleton Street
Columbia, South Carolina 29201

Committee Members Present:

Representative William R. Whitmire, Chairman
Senator Thomas C. Alexander, Vice-Chairman
Senator John L. Scott, Jr.
Senator Daniel B. "Danny" Verdin, III
Senator Richard A. "Dick" Harpootlian
Representative John King
Representative Seth Rose
Representative Timothy A. "Tim" McGinnis

Also Present:

Macey Webb, Staff Counsel

MR. CHAIRMAN: This is the January 10, 2023, Screening Committee for Colleges and Universities. At this time I would like to call on my good friend, President ALEXANDER, for a brief prayer.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Let us pray. Dear Heavenly Father, we just give you thanks for the opportunity to serve you and serve the people of this great state of South Carolina. Just be with us this afternoon in the deliberations and the opportunities that you provide. Be with us throughout this new year and in this new legislative session. In Thy holy name we pray. Amen.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT. I'd like to introduce the Commission members. On my right, you've already met -- of course everybody knows PRESIDENT Alexander. Senator SCOTT to his right. Then Senator VERDIN. So welcome -- oh, sorry. Senator HARPOOTLIAN. How did I forget him? Don't be mad at me. Now, on my left, is -- we have Representative John R. King, who is with us in the last few sessions. And we've got two new members, Representative Tim McGinnis, from the Myrtle Beach area and Representative Seth Rose, who is from the Columbia area. And I will now challenge the Senate to a tennis match sometime in the spring. Because I think we've got a real chance. For our meeting today, our Commission's goal is to take a vote to ratify the previous Commission's work that we completed last session, in 2022. We'll take a vote to approve all of the trustee candidates that our Commission screened last session and found qualified and nominated. This way, those trustees will not have to be rescreened this session and can instead go to the floor, to be voted on in a Joint Assembly. We will also take a vote on the five University of South Carolina trustee members that we have in carry-over status. We're going to vote to approve last session's screening work so I would defer to our staff member, Macey Webb.

MS. WEBB: Good afternoon. So, bear with me. We have long list of candidates that I'm going to read through that we screened and gave a favorable report to last session. So, please be patient with me as we go thorough that. So, the College and University Trustee Screening Commission found the following individuals qualified and nominated for the Trustee seats to which they applied. For the Citadel: Benjamin D. Dixon, Dylan W. Goff, Kara Irvin. For Clemson University: Patricia H. McAbee, John N. "Nicky" McCarter, Sharka Marie Prokes, Joseph D. Swann. For Lander University: Robert A. Barber, Jr., James C. Shubert, Peggy Makins, Donald H. Scott, DeWitt B. Stone, Jr., Raymond D. Hunt, Sr., Marcia T. Hydrick, John E. Craig, Jr. For Wil Lou Gray Opportunity School: J. Blake Lindsey, Marilyn E. Taylor.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Any comments by members of the Commission? (No replies are heard.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Hearing none, do I hear a motion to adopt.

SENATOR VERDIN: Mr. Chairman?

MR. CHAIRMAN: Yes, sir. VOTE:

SENATOR VERDIN: I would move adoption of the Commission's report from the previous committee meeting.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Second.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All right. All those in favor, please signify by raising your right hand. (Hands are raised.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: And it's unanimous, eight to zero. Okay. Thank you. All right. Next, we'll take up the five University of South Carolina Trustee candidates in carry-over status. But first, before we vote on them, I would like to let Senator HARPOOTLIAN make some remarks.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Thank you, Mr. Chairman. As everyone knows, I have been deeply involved examining the Board of Trustees. I had legislation last year that just didn't quite make it on the last day, of the legislation structure of the board. And let me say, sort of the good news/bad news. I have since then met with the new chairman of the board, Thad Westbrook. I'm impressed with his efforts to make sure the Board acts like a board. I've met with the new president. I'm impressed with his understanding that it's his job to talk to department heads, that board members talk to him, and not to department heads directly. I'm also impressed with their follow-through on a couple of issues that they got back to me on. So, not that you have to make me happy, but what does concern me is that, in my opinion, some members of this board -- I see Charles Williams out here. I have no problem with him whatsoever. I think he is a good board member. I know that he objected to the process by which they picked President Caslen. I know he objected to the borrowing of general fund money -- or to use to buy off -- or pay off the contract for football coach, twelve million dollars. And I think he's been a good steward of the State's money and has acted in a responsible fashion. By contrast, I've spent since that last vote, looking -- serving FOIs on the University of South Carolina for emails and texts between the board members and department heads. I've done some additional searching in terms of residences. And as to the former chairman, Dorn Smith, I've determined a couple of things. He routinely bypassed the President of the University and talked to department heads, specifically on numerous occasions, the head of the athletic department, without going through the President, about matters that he had no business discussing. Secondly, I have huge questions about where he lives. His wife's residence is in Florence County. He claims to live in Lake City, in a different county, to qualify to be on the board. I've got to tell you -- and I'm going to vote no on him today. And if I'm able to, I'll vote no on him when he comes to the floor of the Joint Assembly. The last thing I'd say, one of the board members has been on that board since 1998. Another one of the board members has been on there not that long but thirty years. And I seriously hope that this legislation has been introduced by Senator HEMBREE that we come up with some restructuring, term limits, something, to insure that the board is the board and not twenty-something different presidents that communicate with department heads as to what they want, not what the majority of board wants. This is a problem that has plagued USC. Again, we have somebody here, Charles Williams, who has not done that. So it's not every board member. But a number of them have done this. So, Mr. Chairman, I appreciate the opportunity to express why I'm going to vote no on Dorn Smith today. And while I would do so again, I'm sure he's got the votes to get to the floor. And I will do so again, when it comes to the floor.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 17, 2023

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you, Senator. Are there any other members of the Commission that would like to make remarks at this time. If not, we will proceed to the University of South Carolina candidates. First, we're going to take up the candidates that were found qualified last fall. And I will refer to Macey for that.

MR. WEBB: Yeah, so just for clarification of the record, I'm now going to read the University of South Carolina candidates that the Commission found as qualified and nominated last session and then we will move on to the other five USC candidates that we have in carry over status. So please bear with me as I read the names of the five University of South Carolina candidates that our Commission found qualified and nominated in 2022, and then we will take the vote on them. For the University of South Carolina: Alexander English, D. Benjamin Graves, Henry L. Jolly, Jr., J. Patrick Anderson, D. Hollis Felkel, C. Brody Glenn, and Reid T. Sherard. All received a favorable report from our Commission last session and were found qualified and nominated. VOTE:

MR. CHAIRMAN: Do I have a motion?

SENATOR SCOTT: I'd make a motion, Mr. Chairman.

MR. CHAIRMAN: And a second. All those in favor signify by raising your right hand. (Hands are raised.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: And it's unanimous. All right. On the other five, we're going to vote on each candidate individually, of course. And I will need a motion by a sitting member to insert the name of the candidate. And we will either vote to qualify or we will not vote qualified or if you don't want to, you don't have to vote at all.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: Mr. Chairman, I would move to find Charles Williams qualified and nominated.

MR. CHAIRMAN: There's a motion to find Charles Williams qualified and nominated.

SENATOR SCOTT: And a second.

MR. CHAIRMAN: And a second. All those in favor, signify by raising your right hand. (Hands are raised.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: It's unanimous, eight/zero. All right, next.

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Mr. Chairman, I would move that on the Third Judicial Circuit, that C. Dorn Smith, III be found qualified and nominated.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Is there a second?

SENATOR VERDIN: Second.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All those in favor of C. Dorn Smith, please raise your right hand. (Hands are raised.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: All those opposed? (A hand is raised.)

TUESDAY, JANUARY 17, 2023

MR. CHAIRMAN: One? Okay. Seven to one. Thank you, Mr. President. All right.

SENATOR SCOTT: Mr. Chairman?

MR. CHAIRMAN: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: The Ninth Judicial Circuit, John C. von Lehe in Mt. Pleasant, to find him qualified and nominated.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Second?

REPRESENTATIVE McGINNIS: Second.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All those in favor, signify by raising your right hand. (Hands are raised.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: It's eight/zero. Thank you, Senator SCOTT. All right, next. We have Thad Westbrook.

SENATOR SCOTT: Mr. Chairman?

MR. CHAIRMAN: Yes, sir.

SENATOR SCOTT: For the 11th Judicial Circuit I would like to nominate Thad H. Westbrook, from Lexington, qualified and nominated.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Second?

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Second.

MR. CHAIRMAN: All of those in favor signify by raising your right hand. And it's eight/zero. All right last is Dr. C. Edward Floyd. Do I have someone making that nomination. Mr. PRESIDENT?

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Mr. Chairman, I would move that for the Twelfth Judicial Circuit that Dr. C. Edward Floyd be found qualified and nominated.

MR. CHAIRMAN: There's a second. All those in favor signify by raising your right hand. (Hands are raised.)

MR. CHAIRMAN: Unanimous. I'm sorry, seven and one no.

MS. WEBB: To clarify, on the record and for the court reporter, for the Twelfth Judicial Circuit, C. Edward Floyd, by a vote of seven to one, with Representative John King voting no.

SENATOR HARPOOTLIAN: And I'd like to change my vote to no.

MS. WEBB: Okay. All right. By a vote of six to two, for the clarification of the record, with Representative King and Senator HARPOOTLIAN voting no on Dr. Floyd.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Okay. Our Commission will set a date and time for the Joint Assembly. We're going to try to hold a Joint Assembly on February 1, 2023, along with the judges. That should be a nice long day. The hope is that we can vote on all the candidates as well trustee candidates in the Joint Assembly. Does anyone have anything else to say? That it? I'm sorry, Mr. PRESIDENT.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 17, 2023

PRESIDENT ALEXANDER: Before you do, I just want to thank you, Mr. Chairman, and the work of all of the Commission members to get us to this point. I thank everyone for their service and their time and energy from that standpoint.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT. I have to say, this has been the most difficult year we've had as far screening out candidates and I've been on here a long time. So, hopefully we can get the votes with a yay or nay with the General Assembly and we'll see where it goes from there. And also, Macey, do you have any timetable when we will - I guess it depends on court decisions, on the

MS. WEBB: Yeah, so as far as where the Commission will proceed from here, I'll be working in close contact with Chairman Whitmire, PRESIDENT Alexander's office and Speaker Smith's office to determine where we will go from here. The next step from here will be getting all of these trustees that did receive a favorable report today, getting them included in the Joint Assembly for February 1st. That's going to be the goal so they can be elected on the floor in that Joint Assembly. And then from there we still have, I believe, eight At-Large 2022 candidates that still need to be screened from 2022 as well several other 2022 congressional district seats, which we have not officially decided on the congressional districts. But the next goal will be to get the eight At-Large 2022 candidates screened, at the very least.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Senator SCOTT.

SENATOR SCOTT: I know this process took a little longer than folks would like. But I think what's most important in all of that is to understand that this Committee will be doing checks and balances. Those days of rubber stamping and cutting through this process are long passed and gone. And I think that because of that time frame, folk have had to regather their behavior and their management practices back at the board. Although it may have one particular board that had had a lot of conversation, trust me, other boards have gone back and taken a look at their behavior and some of what's going on in these boards of trustees. Managing these boards, managing schools is big business. We want to make sure we're putting on boards of trustees who understand their responsibility and the separation between management and policy. Thank you, Mr. Chairman.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Representative Rose.

REPRESENTATIVE ROSE: Just briefly. I just want to say that I, too, favor and I supported the Bill to restructure the USC board. I went to undergrad at USC. I also went to law school. I live very close to the campus and so obviously some of the things that have transpired have been very troubling. But I also recognize that there are a lot of good things that happen as well. But I think the way the board is made up, I think the size of the board, the lack of diversity on the board, are all things that trouble me. And that is also why I supported the Bill that Senator HARPOOTLIAN referenced that unfortunately died in the Senate and I hope that there will be a push to have that come forward again. Thank you.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Any other members? First off, let me thank all of you, both Senators and Representatives for your hard work on this. And Macey, you did yeoman's work. Thank you for volunteering for this job. And I wish both the House and the Senate have very productive years this year. With that, we're adjourned. (There being nothing further, the proceeding concluded at 3:56 p.m.)

MOTION ADOPTED

On motion of Senators SETZLER, ADAMS, ALEXANDER, ALLEN, BENNETT, CAMPSER, CASH, CLIMER, CORBIN, CROMER, DAVIS, FANNING, GAMBRELL, GARRETT, GOLDFINCH, GROOMS, GUSTAFSON, HARPOOTLIAN, HEMBREE, HUTTO, JACKSON, KEVIN JOHNSON, MICHAEL JOHNSON, KIMBRELL, KIMPSON, LOFTIS, MALLOY, MARTIN, MASSEY, MATTHEWS, McELVEEN, McLEOD, PEELER, RANKIN, REICHENBACH, RICE, SABB, SCOTT, SENN, SHEALY, STEPHENS, TALLEY, TURNER, VERDIN and WILLIAMS, with unanimous consent, the Senate stood adjourned out of respect to the memory of Mr. Thomas Roy "Tom" Young, Sr. of Aiken, S.C. Tom was the father of our beloved Senator Tom Young. Tom attended Anderson College and the University of South Carolina. He served eight years in the South Carolina National Guard. Tom opened an Allstate Insurance Agency in 1982 and was inducted into the Allstate Insurance Company Hall of Fame in 2007. He served in many business, faith-based and civic organizations including the Aiken County Gamecock Club, Anderson University Board of Trustees, Aiken County Transportation Committee and Rotary Club to mention a few. Tom was a member of Millbrook Baptist Church where he faithfully served for fifty years on various committees. Tom was a passionate Gamecock fan and enjoyed spending time with family and friends. Tom was a loving husband, devoted father and doting grandfather who will be dearly missed.

MOTION ADOPTED

On motion of Senators GROOMS, ADAMS, ALEXANDER, ALLEN, BENNETT, CAMPSER, CASH, CLIMER, CORBIN, CROMER, DAVIS, FANNING, GAMBRELL, GARRETT, GOLDFINCH, GUSTAFSON, HARPOOTLIAN, HEMBREE, HUTTO, JACKSON, KEVIN JOHNSON, MICHAEL JOHNSON, KIMBRELL, KIMPSON, LOFTIS, MALLOY, MARTIN, MASSEY, MATTHEWS, McELVEEN, McLEOD, PEELER, RANKIN, REICHENBACH, RICE, SABB, SCOTT, SENN, SETZLER, SHEALY, STEPHENS, TALLEY, TURNER, VERDIN, WILLIAMS and YOUNG, with unanimous consent, the Senate stood adjourned out of respect to the memory of Mr. Arthur Ravenel, Jr. of Charleston, S.C. Arthur represented Charleston, Georgetown and Horry Counties in the South Carolina House of Representatives from 1953-1958 and in the Senate from 1981-1986. He then served in South Carolina's First Congressional District from 1987-1995 before serving as a state Senator from 1997-2003. He served in the United States Marine Corp and graduated from the College of Charleston in 1950. Arthur was a loving husband, devoted father and doting grandfather who served our State well and will be dearly missed.

ADJOURNMENT

At 2:16 P.M., on motion of Senator MALLOY, the Senate adjourned to meet tomorrow at 1:00 P.M.

The Senate assembled at 1:00 P.M., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Matthew 4:1

Matthew's Gospel tells us: "Then Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert to be tempted by the devil."

Let us join our hearts together and pray: The story of Your Son's temptation in the wilderness, O God, brings us up sharply. After all, it is virtually commonplace to recognize that even in our own world of state government temptations confront us multiple times daily; seemingly there is no escaping from them. All the more, dear Lord, do we in this Senate call upon You to lead us away from life's tempting moments -- giving in to special interests, allowing ourselves to be lured off the beaten path by seductive voices, caving in to calls to cut corners. The list of examples can go on and on. Rather, Lord, strengthen all who serve here that we might all be individuals who steadfastly stand for what is appropriate and honorable, for what is right and just. In addition, O God, we lift up to You Senator Tom Young, Jr., and ask that You embrace him and his family in Your care in the recent death of the Senator's father. In Your hopeful name we pray, dear Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

(4) “IDEA” means the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act found in 20 U.S.C. Section 1400, et seq.

(5) “Parent” means a resident of this State who is the natural or adoptive parent, legal guardian, custodian, or other person with legal authority to act on behalf of an eligible student.

(6) “Education service provider” means a person or organization approved by the department that receives payments from ESTF to provide educational goods and services to scholarship students.

(7) “Program” means the ESTF program created by this chapter.

(8) “Resident school district” means the public school district in which the student is domiciled.

(9) “Scholarship” means education funding allocated from an account established pursuant to this chapter.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 18, 2023

(10) “Scholarship student” means an eligible student who is participating in the Education Scholarship Trust Fund program.

(11) “Substantial misuse” means willfully and knowingly receiving or spending any portion of a scholarship for any purpose other than a qualifying expense.

(12) “Qualifying expense” means:

(a) tuition and fees of an education service provider;
(b) textbooks, curriculum, or other instructional materials including, but not limited to, any supplemental materials or associated online instruction required by either a curriculum or an education service provider;

(c) tutoring services approved by the department;

(d) computer hardware or other technological devices that are used primarily for a scholarship student’s educational needs and approved by the department or a licensed physician;

(e) tuition and fees for an approved nonpublic online education service provider or course;

(f) fees for approved:

(1) national norm-referenced examinations, advanced placement examinations, or similar assessments;

(2) industry certification exams; or

(3) examinations related to college or university admission;

(g) educational services for pupils with disabilities from a licensed or accredited practitioner or provider including, but not limited to, occupational, behavioral, physical, and speech-language therapies;

(h) approved contracted services from a public school district, including individual classes, after school tutoring services, transportation, or fees or costs associated with participation in extracurricular activities;

(i) contracted teaching services and education classes approved by the department;

(j) fees for transportation paid to a fee-for-service transportation provider for the scholarship student to travel to and from an eligible provider as defined in this section, but not to exceed seven hundred fifty dollars for each school year;

(k) fees for ESTF account management by private financial management firms approved by the department; or

(l) any other educational expense approved by the department.

Section 59-8-115. (A) The department shall create a standard application process and establish the timeline for parents to establish the eligibility of their student for the Education Scholarship Trust Fund program. The application window established shall last at least forty-five days, opening no earlier than January fifteenth and closing no later than March fifteenth each calendar year.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 18, 2023

(B) Pursuant to the timeline established pursuant to subsection (A), the department shall:

(1) process applications in the order in which they are received, after a preference has been extended to all prior-year participants and their respective siblings; and

(2) enroll and issue award letters within thirty days of the deadline for receipt of completed applications and all required documentation.

(C) Before awarding a scholarship, the department shall have obtained evidence of the student's eligibility through the card issued in the student's name from the Department of Health and Human Services for Medicaid eligibility included as applicable with application documentation.

(D) The department shall approve an application for scholarship if:

(1) the parent submits an annual application for an scholarship in accordance with the application and procedures established by the department;

(2) the student on whose behalf the parent is applying is an eligible student;

(3) funds are available for the ESTF; and

(4) the parent signs an annual agreement with the department:

(a) to provide, at a minimum, a program of academic instruction for the eligible student in at least the subjects of English/language arts to include writing, mathematics, social studies, and science;

(b) to acknowledge and agree to comply with the education service provider's prescribed curriculum, dress code, and other requirements of enrolled students;

(c) to ensure the scholarship student takes assessments as referenced in Section 59-8-150 or provides assessments in a similar manner through other means if the scholarship student does not receive full-time instruction from an education service provider;

(d) to use program funds for qualifying expenses only for an approved provider to educate the scholarship student, subject to penalty;

(e) not to enroll their scholarship student in a public school as a full-time student in the resident school district, as defined in this chapter;

(f) not to participate in a home instruction program under Sections 59-65-40, 59-65-45, or 59-65-47;

(g) that includes documentation of the consultation process between the parent, the resident school district, the education service provider, and any school district that the education service provider contracts with under an IEP or services plan, for each scholarship student with a disability regarding the special education and related services, and the manner by which these services as listed in the student's IEP or services plan, will be provided to a scholarship student with a disability.

(h) to confirm that, if the parent's child is a student with disabilities, the parent has received notice from the department that participation in the ESTF program is a parental placement of the scholarship student under IDEA, along with an explanation of the rights that parentally placed students possess under IDEA and any applicable state laws and regulations, including the consultation process provided for in 20 U.S.C. Section 1412(a)(10) and the Individual Education Program requirements described in Section 1414(d) of IDEA.

(E) The department shall make available on its website in a conspicuous location information in conformity with 34 C.F.R Sections 300.130 through 300.144, Assistance to States for the Education of Children with Disabilities, explaining to parents the rights of children with disabilities under IDEA both in public schools and as parentally placed students in private schools.

(F) A parent will be allowed to make payments for the cost of educational goods and services not covered by the funds in their student's ESTF; however, personal deposits into an ESTF account are prohibited.

(G) Funds received pursuant to this section do not constitute taxable income to the parent of the scholarship student or to the student.

(H) A parent's signed agreement under subsection (D)(4) satisfies the state's compulsory attendance law pursuant to Section 59-65-10.

(I) The State Board of Education shall promulgate regulations for the administration of the program as may be applicable.

(J) The department may contract with qualified organizations to administer the program application process or specific functions, maintenance, and monitoring of the program application process as required above.

Section 59-8-120. (A) There is established at the department, the "South Carolina Education Scholarship Trust Fund" that is separate and distinct from the general fund, consisting of monies appropriated to the department to provide scholarships to eligible students for qualifying expenses. The fund must receive and hold all monies allocated for it as well as all earnings until disbursed as provided in this section.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 18, 2023

(B) The department shall administer the fund and is responsible for keeping records, managing accounts, and disbursing scholarships awarded pursuant to this section and as directed by the parent.

(C) Upon request of the parent and approval of an eligible student's application by the department, the State Treasurer shall transfer six thousand dollars per scholarship student to the Education Scholarship Trust Fund as directed by the General Assembly. Each year this amount shall be adjusted to reflect the percentage increase in the actual state allocated revenue per pupil as calculated by the Revenue and Fiscal Affairs Office pursuant to the annual appropriations act.

(D) The department shall create an individual online ESTF account for each scholarship student.

(1) The parent must be able to access the individual online account for the scholarship student using a secure portal.

(2) The individual scholarship student's account must be created within thirty days of the application approval.

(E) The department shall make payments to an individual scholarship student's account from the ETSF on a quarterly basis with the first payment being distributed by July thirty-first of each year.

(F) By September first of each school year and again on January fifteenth and March fifteenth of the school year, the department shall compare the list of scholarship students with the public school enrollment lists to avoid duplicate payments.

(G) Education service providers may not refund, rebate, or share a student's scholarship funds directly with a parent or the scholarship student. The funds in an account may only be used for qualifying expenses as defined in this chapter and provided by the department.

(H) The department may contract with qualified organizations to administer the program.

Section 59-8-125. (A) The department shall develop an online electronic system for payment for services authorized by participating parents pursuant to this chapter and the guidelines provided by the department. Parents may not be reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses.

(B) The General Assembly shall appropriate funds to the department for initial costs to create the program. Thereafter, the department shall deduct an amount from the ESTF to cover the costs of overseeing the accounts and administering the program up to a limit of three percent. Annually, on or before December thirty-first, the department shall notify the respective chairmen of the Senate Finance Committee and House of Representatives Ways and Means Committee regarding the amount deducted for administrative costs and an itemization of the costs incurred to administer the program for the previous school year.

(C) The department may contract with qualified vendors to manage accounts and shall establish reasonable fees for private financial management firms participating in the program based upon market rates.

(D) The department may contract with qualified organizations to administer the program or specific functions of the program.

(E) Payments made by the department must remain in force until a parent or scholarship student is proven to have participated in a prohibited activity specified in this chapter, a scholarship student returns to a public school in his resident public school district, or a scholarship student graduates from high school or attains twenty-two years of age, whichever occurs first. A scholarship student who enrolls in his resident public school district is considered to have returned to a public school for the purpose of determining the end of the term.

(F) The department may suspend or deactivate an account for substantial misuse or the scholarship student leaves the program for any reason, at which time any remaining funds must revert to the ESTF.

(G) Unused funds must be rolled over to the following school year for a scholarship student who applies and continues to meet eligibility requirements to participate in the program.

(H) A scholarship terminates automatically if the student is no longer domiciled in this State, and any money remaining in the account reverts to the ESTF.

(I) Only one account may be established for a scholarship student.

Section 59-8-130. If a scholarship student's program of academic instruction is terminated for any reason before the end of the semester or school year and the student does not resume instruction within thirty days, then the parent shall notify the department and remaining funds in the account reverts to the ESTF.

Section 59-8-135. (A) Beginning with the 2023-2024 School Year, the annual number of ESTF students is limited by the following capacity:

(1) in School Year 2023-2024, the program is limited to five thousand scholarship students;

(2) in School Year 2024-2025, the program is limited to ten thousand scholarship students; and

(3) in School Year 2025-2026, and for all subsequent school years, the program is limited to fifteen thousand scholarship students.

(B) In 2026, and every five years thereafter, the department shall conduct an eligibility and use review of the program and shall make recommendations to the General Assembly to improve the program.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 18, 2023

Section 59-8-140. (A)(1) The department must develop an application approval process for participation in the ESTF program for education service providers.

(2) The department must require an independent school that applies to be an education service provider to be located in the State, to have an educational curriculum that includes courses set forth in the state's diploma requirements and to meet the compulsory attendance and State Board of Education approval requirements in Section 59-65-10.

(3) An education service provider that participated in the program in the previous school year and desires to participate in the program in the current school year shall reapply to the department. The education service provider reapplying shall certify to the department that it continues to meet all program requirements. An education service provider required to administer academic testing shall provide to the department test score data from the previous school year. If individual student test score data is not submitted, then the department shall remove the education service provider from the program.

(4) By February first of each year, the department will certify the list of approved education service providers for participation in the program that meet all program requirements. The department may waive the deadline requirement upon good cause shown by an education service provider.

(5) An education service provider that is denied approval pursuant to this section may seek review by filing a request for a contested case hearing with the Administrative Law Court in accordance with the court's rules of procedure.

(6) By February fifteenth of each year, the department shall publish on its website a comprehensive list of approved education service providers. The list must include the name, address, telephone number, and website address for each education service provider.

(B) If approved by the department, new education service providers may be added to the list of approved providers on a rolling basis. The providers will be added to the comprehensive list available on the department's website.

(C) The department may bar an education service provider from the program if the department establishes that the education service provider has:

(1) failed to comply with the accountability standards established in this section; or

(2) failed to provide the scholarship student with the educational services funded by the account.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 18, 2023

(D) The department shall create procedures to ensure that a fair process exists to determine whether an education service provider should be barred from receiving payments from accounts.

(1) If the department decides to bar an education service provider from the program, it shall notify affected students and their parents of this decision as quickly as possible.

(2) Education service providers may appeal the department's decision to bar the education service provider from receiving payments from accounts pursuant to the Administrative Procedures Act.

(E) The State Board of Education shall promulgate regulations to allow scholarship students to return to their resident school districts during the course of their participation in the program.

Section 59-8-145. (A) The department shall adopt procedures to inform students and their parents annually of their eligibility for the program.

(B) The department shall adopt procedures to annually inform scholarship students and their parents of the approved education service providers.

(C) The department shall provide to parents of a scholarship student written instructions for the allowable uses of an account and the responsibilities of parents and the duties of the department.

(D) The department may declare that a parent is ineligible for continuation in the program due to substantial misuse of their account funds.

(E) The department may conduct or contract for the auditing of accounts, and shall, at a minimum, conduct random audits of accounts on an annual basis.

(F) The department may refer cases of substantial misuse of funds to law enforcement agencies for investigation.

(G) The department may contract with one or more qualified organizations to administer some or all portions of this program.

(H) The department shall maintain a record of the number of applications received annually for the program, the number of students accepted into the program each year, and the number of students not accepted into the program each year with a corresponding explanation as to why the student was not accepted into the program. The department shall compile this information and provide a report to the General Assembly by December thirty-first of each year.

Section 59-8-150. (A) To ensure equitable treatment and personal safety of all scholarship students, all education service providers shall:

(1) comply with all applicable health and safety laws or codes;

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 18, 2023

(2) hold a valid occupancy permit if required by the municipality in which the education service provider is located;

(3) not unlawfully discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, or national origin; and

(4) conduct criminal background checks on employees and exclude from employment anyone who:

(a) is not permitted by state law to work in a school;

(b) reasonably might pose a threat to the safety of students; or

(c) is listed on federal, state, or other central child abuse registries.

(B) To ensure that funds are spent appropriately, all education service providers shall:

(1) provide parents with a receipt for all qualifying expenses; and

(2) demonstrate their financial viability by filing a surety bond with the department prior to the start of the school year if they are to receive fifty thousand dollars or more during the school year.

(C) In order to allow parents and the public to measure the achievements of the program, academic progress must be documented annually for each scholarship student. Students with an Individualized Education Plan that cannot be accommodated with standardized testing are excluded from the requirements of item (1). Education service providers that provide academic instruction must monitor the progress of students with significant cognitive disabilities through alternative assessments including portfolios.

(1) Education service providers that provide full-time academic instruction shall:

(a) ensure that each scholarship student in grades three through eight takes the SC Ready or SC Ready alternative summative assessment required of students in public schools in this State;

(b) ensure that each scholarship student in grades four and six takes the SC Pass or SC Pass alternative summative assessment required of students in public schools in this State;

(c) ensure that each scholarship student in grades nine through twelve takes a nationally norm-referenced or formative assessment approved by the department. Students with disabilities for whom standardized testing is not appropriate are exempt from this requirement; and

(d) measure academic performance and annual learning gains of its scholarship students by:

(i) requiring that each scholarship student takes either an approved nationally norm-referenced assessment annually, or an

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 18, 2023

approved formative assessment in the fall and spring, to measure learning gains in math and reading; and

(ii) collecting high school graduation information of scholarship students for reporting to the department as required in this section.

(2) The department shall ensure that the education service provider has access to and is trained in administering the state assessments required in subitems (1)(a) and (b). The department shall assume any costs associated with training, administering, or taking assessments with no charges to the provider or ESTF students.

(3) For the purpose of evaluating program effectiveness, education service providers that provide full-time academic instruction shall ensure that results in item (1) are:

(a) provided to the parent of a scholarship student and must be provided to the department on an annual basis, beginning with the first year of program implementation; and

(b) disaggregated by grade level, gender, family income level, race, and English learner status.

(4) The department, or the appropriate organization chosen by the department, if any, must be informed of the scholarship student's graduation from high school.

(D) The department shall:

(1) comply with all student privacy laws;

(2) collect all test results;

(3) annually provide individual student assessment results and information to the Education Oversight Committee. The transmission of the information must be made in a manner that safeguards the data to ensure student privacy.

(E) The Education Oversight Committee shall:

(1) comply with all student privacy laws;

(2) report on and publish associated learning gains and graduation rates to the public by means of a state website with data aggregated by grade level, gender, family income level, number of years participating in the program, and race and a report for any participating school if at least fifty-one percent of the total enrolled students in the private school participated in the ESTF program in the prior school year or if there are at least thirty participating students who have scores for tests administered. If the Education Oversight Committee determines that the thirty participating-student cell size may be reduced without disclosing the personally identifiable information of a participating student, the Education Oversight Committee may reduce the participating-student cell size, but the cell size may not be reduced to fewer than ten participating students;

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 18, 2023

(3) evaluate and report the academic performance of scholarship students compared to similar public school populations; and

(4) collaborate with the department to develop and administer an annual parental satisfaction survey for all parents of scholarship students on issues relevant to the ESTF program, to include effectiveness and length of the program participation. Results of this survey must be provided to the General Assembly by December thirty-first of each year.

(F) An education service provider, not a public school, is autonomous and not an agent of the state or federal government, therefore:

(1) the department or any other state agency may not regulate the educational program of an approved education provider that accepts funds from an account;

(2) the creation of the program does not expand the regulatory authority of the State, its officers, or a school district to impose regulation of education service providers beyond those necessary to enforce the requirements of the program;

(3) the freedom of education service providers to provide for the educational needs of scholarship students without governmental control must not be abridged;

(4) an education service provider that accepts payment by a parent from an ESTF account pursuant to this chapter is not an agent of the state or federal government; and

(5) education service providers shall not be required to alter their creeds, practices, admissions policy, or curriculum in order to accept payments by a parent from an ESTF account.

Section 59-8-155. The scholarship student's resident school district shall provide a parent and the education service providers designated by the parent with a complete copy of the student's school records, while complying with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, 20 U.S.C. Section 1232(g).

Section 59-8-160. (A) There is created the "ESTF Review Panel" that shall serve as an advisory panel to the department.

(B) The review panel shall consist of ten members, pursuant to the following:

(1) the Governor, or his designee, who shall serve as the chair of the panel;

(2) three members to be appointed by the Governor;

(3) one member appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives;

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 18, 2023

(4) one member appointed by the President of the Senate;

(5) one member appointed by the Chairman of the House of Representatives Education and Public Works Committee;

(6) one member appointed by the Chairman of the Senate Education Committee; and

(7) two parents of scholarship students to be appointed by the Governor.

(C) The review panel may advise the department on whether certain expenses meet the requirements to be considered a qualified expense under this chapter when requested by the department. The review panel periodically may make recommendations to the General Assembly about improving the program.

(D) Members shall serve at the pleasure of their appointing authority. In making appointments to the panel, the appointing authorities, as appropriate, shall consider legal, financial, accounting, and marketing experience and race, gender, and other demographic factors to ensure nondiscrimination, inclusion, and representation of all segments of the State to the greatest extent possible.

(E) Members may not receive mileage or per diem.

Section 59-8-165. The provisions of the chapter do not restrict a school district's ability to enact or enforce a district's student transfer policy.

Section 59-8-170. A scholarship student transferring from one public school to another public school pursuant to this program is not subject to any prohibition by the South Carolina High School League on a transfer student from participating in a sport immediately upon transfer.

SECTION 2. If any section, subsection, paragraph, subparagraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional or invalid, then such holding shall not affect the constitutionality or validity of the remaining portions of this act, the General Assembly hereby declaring that it would have passed this act, and each and every section, subsection, paragraph, subparagraph, sentence, clause, phrase, and word thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more other sections, subsections, paragraphs, subparagraphs, sentences, clauses, phrases, or words hereof may be declared to be unconstitutional, invalid, or otherwise ineffective.

SECTION 3. This act takes effect thirty days after approval by the Governor, provided that upon approval of this act by the Governor, the Department of Education shall begin undertaking and executing responsibilities incidental to the implementation of this act so that the provisions of this act may be fully implemented thirty days after approval by the Governor.

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The Senate assembled at 11:00 A.M., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Micah 6:8b

In powerful phrases Micah brings us up short, saying: “. . .what does the Lord require of you, but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?”

Please bow in prayer with me: How fervently do we pray indeed, dear Lord, that each person serving here in the Senate of South Carolina takes these words of the prophet Micah to heart. Such a powerful, hopeful, and blessed difference our doing so would make for the work of this Body, for the people of this State, even for all in generations yet to come. Truly, dear God, by Your grace allow that these simple words and phrases will indeed touch the hearts of all who hear them, that each individual serving here will do all she or he can to bring to life the realities of doing justice, of loving kindness, and of walking hand in hand with You, O God, all their days. And may the resulting blessings to the people of this State abound! In Your name we pray, dear Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

Statement by Senator YOUNG

I am not attending session today because I am assisting my family after my father's recent death.

Renumber sections to conform.

Amend title to conform.

Senator HUTTO explained the amendment.

On motion of Senator CORBIN, the amendment was carried over.

Amendment No. 9

Senators FANNING, MARTIN and CORBIN proposed the following amendment (LC-39.DG0003S), which was tabled:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

SECTION 1. Article 25, Chapter 6, Title 12 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 12-6-3791. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Eligible School" means an independent school including those religious in nature, other than a public school, at which the compulsory attendance requirements of Section 59-65-10 may be met, that:

(a) offers a general education to primary or secondary school students;

(b) does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, or national origin;

(c) is located in this State;

(d) has an educational curriculum that includes courses set forth in the state's diploma requirements;

(e) has school facilities that are subject to applicable federal, state, and local laws; and

(f) is a member in good standing of the South Carolina Association of Christian Schools, the South Carolina Independent Schools Association, the Palmetto Association of Independent Schools, the American Montessori Society, the International Montessori Council, or the National Association of Private Schools or alternatively accredited by Cognia or the National Council for Private School Accreditation.

(2) "Exceptional needs child" means a child:

(a)(i) who has been evaluated in accordance with this state's evaluation criteria, as set forth in S.C. Code Ann. Regs. 43 243.1, and determined eligible as a child with a disability who needs special education and related services, in accordance with the requirements of Section 300.8 of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act; or

THURSDAY, JANUARY 19, 2023

(ii) who has been diagnosed as either permanently or within the last three years by a licensed speech-language pathologist, psychiatrist, or medical, mental health, psychoeducational, or other comparable licensed health care provider as having a neurodevelopmental disorder, a substantial sensory or physical impairment such as deaf, blind, or orthopedic disability, or some other disability or acute or chronic condition that significantly impedes the student's ability to learn and succeed in school without specialized instructional and associated supports and services tailored to the child's unique needs; and

(b) the child's parents or legal guardian believes that the services provided by the school district of legal residence do not sufficiently meet the needs of the child.

(3) "Disadvantaged child" means a child who is eligible for the federal free or reduced lunch program and whose family meets the qualifications for federal Medicaid benefits.

(4) "PACE Scholarship child" means a child who is a South Carolina resident who, immediately before receiving a scholarship or tuition grant under this section and enrolling in an eligible school or program, was enrolled in a South Carolina secondary or primary public school or who is eligible to enroll in a qualified first grade, kindergarten, or prekindergarten program; provided, however, that if a student is considered to be an eligible student pursuant to this item, he shall continue to qualify as such until he graduates, reaches the age of twenty, or returns to a public school, whichever occurs first; and provided, further, that the enrollment requirement must be waived in the case of a student who, based on the school attendance zone of his primary residence, is or would be assigned to a public school that the South Carolina Department of Education determines to be a low performing priority school, or who is the subject of an officially documented case of school based physical or psychological violence or student related verbal abuse threatening physical harm immediately before receiving a scholarship or tuition grant under this section.

(5) "Nonprofit scholarship funding organization" means a charitable organization that:

(a) is exempt from federal tax pursuant to Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code by being listed as an exempt organization in Section 501(c)(3) of the tax code;

(b) allocates at least ninety-five percent of its annual contributions received during a particular year to provide grants for tuition to children enrolled in an eligible school meeting the criteria of this section and grants for home school curriculum fees, and incurs administrative expenses annually of not more than five percent of its annual contributions for a particular year to cover operational costs;

THURSDAY, JANUARY 19, 2023

(c) allocates all of its funds used for grants on an annual basis to children who are exceptional needs, disadvantaged, PACE Scholarship children, or for home school curriculum fees;

(d) does not provide grants only for the benefit of one school, and if the Treasurer determines that the nonprofit scholarship funding organization is providing grants to one particular school, the tax credit allowed by this section may be disallowed;

(e) does not have as a volunteer, contractor, consultant, fundraiser, or member of its governing board, any parent, legal guardian, or member of their immediate family who has a child or ward who is currently receiving or has received a scholarship grant authorized by this section from the organization within one year of the date the parent, legal guardian, or member of their immediate family became a board member;

(f) does not have as a member of its governing board or an employee, volunteer, contractor, consultant, or fundraiser who has been convicted of a felony;

(g) does not release personally identifiable information pertaining to students or donors or use information collected about donors, students, or schools for financial gain; and

(h) does not place conditions on schools enrolling students receiving scholarships to limit the ability of the schools to enroll students accepting grants from other nonprofit scholarship funding organizations.

(6) "Parent" means the natural or adoptive parent or legal guardian of a child.

(7) "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, or other similar entity.

(8) "Qualifying student" means a student who is either (i) an exceptional needs child, (ii) a disadvantaged child, or (iii) a PACE Scholarship child, a South Carolina resident, and who is eligible to be enrolled in a South Carolina secondary or elementary public school at the prekindergarten or later year level for the applicable school year.

(9) "Resident public school district" means the public school district in which a student resides.

(10) "Transportation" means transportation to and from school only.

(11) "Tuition" means the total amount of money charged for the cost of a qualifying student to attend an eligible school including, but not limited to, fees for attending the school, textbook fees, and school related transportation.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 19, 2023

(12) "School year" means July first through June thirtieth each year.

(13) "Home school" means a home, residence, or location where a parent or legal guardian teaches one or more children as authorized pursuant to Section 59-65-40, 59-65-45, or 59-65-47.

(14) "Home school child" means any child attending an eligible home school.

(15) "Treasurer" means the Office of the State Treasurer.

(16) "Home school curriculum fees" means the total amount of money charged for instruction-related expenditures of a home school child to attend an eligible home school including, but not limited to, curriculum packages, textbooks, digital education, and testing materials.

(B)(1) A person is entitled to a tax credit against income taxes imposed pursuant to this chapter, or bank taxes imposed pursuant to Chapter 11 of this title for the amount of cash and the monetary value of any publicly traded securities the person contributes to a nonprofit scholarship funding organization up to the limits of this section if:

(a) the contribution is used to provide grants for tuition to exceptional needs children enrolled in eligible schools who qualify for these grants under the provisions of this section; and

(b) the person does not designate a specific child or school as the beneficiary of the contribution.

(2) A person is entitled to a tax credit against income taxes imposed pursuant to this chapter, or bank taxes imposed pursuant to Chapter 11 of this title for the amount of cash and the monetary value of any publicly traded securities the taxpayer contributes to a nonprofit scholarship funding organization up to the limits of this section if:

(a) the contribution is used to provide grants for tuition to disadvantaged children enrolled in eligible schools who qualify for these grants under the provisions of this section; and

(b) the taxpayer does not designate a specific child or school as the beneficiary of the contribution.

(3) A person is entitled to a tax credit against income taxes imposed pursuant to this chapter, or bank taxes imposed pursuant to Chapter 11 of this title for the amount of cash and the monetary value of any publicly traded securities the taxpayer contributes to a nonprofit scholarship funding organization up to the limits of this section if:

(a) the contribution is used to provide grants for tuition to PACE Scholarship children enrolled in eligible schools who qualify for these grants under the provisions of this section; and

THURSDAY, JANUARY 19, 2023

(b) the taxpayer does not designate a specific child or school as the beneficiary of the contribution.

(4) A person is entitled to a tax credit against income taxes imposed pursuant to this chapter, or bank taxes imposed pursuant to Chapter 11 of this title for the amount of cash and the monetary value of any publicly traded securities the person contributes to a nonprofit scholarship funding organization up to the limits of this section if:

(a) the contribution is used to provide grants for home school curriculum fees to home school children attending a home school who qualify for these grants under the provisions of this section; and

(b) the person does not designate a specific child or home school as the beneficiary of the contribution.

(C)(1) Grants may be awarded by a scholarship funding organization for a school year in an amount not exceeding eleven thousand dollars or the total cost of tuition, whichever is less, for qualifying students who are either (i) exceptional needs or (ii) disadvantaged at an eligible school. Before awarding any grant, a scholarship funding organization must receive written documentation from the parent documenting that the qualifying student is an exceptional needs or disadvantaged child. Upon approving the application, the scholarship funding organization shall issue a paper check payable to the parent or guardian of the qualifying student and deliver it to the eligible school. If the qualifying student leaves or withdraws from the school for any reason before the end of the semester or school year and does not reenroll within thirty days, then the eligible school shall return a prorated amount of the grant to the scholarship funding organization based on the number of days the qualifying student was enrolled in the school during the semester or school year within sixty days of the qualifying student's departure.

(2) Grants may be awarded by a scholarship funding organization for a school year in an amount not exceeding the average state expenditures for each student in fall enrollment in public elementary and secondary education for this State or the total cost of tuition, whichever is less, for qualifying students who are PACE Scholarship children at an eligible school. The Treasurer shall determine and publish such amount annually, no later than January first. Upon approving the application, the scholarship funding organization shall issue a paper check payable to the parent or guardian of the qualifying student and deliver it to the eligible school. If the qualifying student leaves or withdraws from the school for any reason before the end of the semester or school year and does not reenroll within thirty days, then the eligible school shall return a prorated amount of the grant to the scholarship funding organization based on the number of days the qualifying student was enrolled in the school during the semester or school year within sixty days of the qualifying student's departure.

(3) Grants may be awarded by a scholarship funding organization for a school year in an amount not exceeding one thousand dollars or the total cost of home school curriculum fees, whichever is less, for a qualifying home school child attending a home school. Before awarding any grant, a scholarship funding organization shall receive written documentation from the parent documenting that the student is a home school child. A scholarship funding organization may reimburse a parent directly for expenditures actually paid for home school curriculum fees, or pay vendors directly for home school curriculum fees on behalf of the home school child.

(D)(1)(a) The tax credits authorized by subsection (B)(1) may not exceed cumulatively a total of twenty-five million dollars each calendar year for contributions made on behalf of exceptional needs students.

(b) The tax credits authorized pursuant to subsection (B)(2) may not exceed cumulatively a total of twenty-five million dollars each calendar year for contributions on behalf of disadvantaged children.

(c) The tax credits authorized pursuant to subsection (B)(3) may not exceed cumulatively a total of forty million dollars each calendar year for contributions on behalf of PACE Scholarship children.

(d) The tax credits authorized pursuant to subsection (B)(4) may not exceed cumulatively a total of ten million dollars each calendar year for contributions on behalf of home school children.

(e) If the department determines that the total of the credits claimed in this subsection by all taxpayers exceeds the limit amount, it shall allow credits only up to those amounts on a first come, first served basis.

(f) The tax credits authorized pursuant to subsection (B)(1), (2), (3), or (4) are automatically and permanently increased by twenty-five percent in the succeeding calendar year whenever the total of the specific individual credit claimed meets the limit amount.

(g) The department, in coordination with the Treasurer, shall establish an application process to determine the amount of credit available to be claimed. The receipt of the application by the department shall determine priority for the credit. The credit must be claimed on the return for the tax year that the contribution is made.

(2) A taxpayer may not claim more than one hundred percent of his total tax liability for the tax year in contributions toward the tax credits authorized by subsection (B). This credit is not refundable. If the credit exceeds the taxpayer's tax liability for the taxable year, the excess amount may be carried forward for credit against income or bank taxes in the next ten succeeding taxable years.

(3) If a taxpayer deducts the amount of the contribution on the taxpayer's federal return and claims the credit allowed by this section, then the taxpayer shall add back the amount of the deduction for purposes of South Carolina income or bank taxes.

(4) The department shall prescribe the form and manner of proof required to obtain the credits authorized by subsection (B). Also, the department, in coordination with the Treasurer, shall develop a method of informing taxpayers if the credit limit is met at any time during the year.

(E) A corporation or entity entitled to a credit under subsection (B) may not convey, assign, or transfer the credit authorized by this section to another entity unless all of the assets of the entity are conveyed, assigned, or transferred in the same transaction.

(F) Except as otherwise provided, the Department of Education, the Department of Revenue, the Treasurer, or any other state agency may not regulate the educational programs of an eligible school that accepts students receiving scholarship grants pursuant to this section.

(G)(1) The Treasurer shall approve and oversee the scholarship funding organizations and address any citizen concerns about the programs' administration at eligible schools or with the scholarship funding organizations.

(2) By August first of each year, each nonprofit scholarship funding organization shall apply with the Treasurer to be considered an eligible organization for the succeeding calendar year for which its contributors are allowed the tax credit provided by this section. If a nonprofit scholarship funding organization does not apply, the organization may not be published as an approved organization, and contributions to that organization must not be allowed for purposes of the credit allowed by this section. A nonprofit scholarship funding organization's application must contain:

(a) the number and total amount of grants issued to eligible schools in the preceding school year;

(b) for each grant issued to an eligible school in the preceding school year, the identity of the school and the amount of the grant;

(c) an itemization and detailed explanation of any fees or other revenues obtained from or on behalf of any eligible schools;

(d) a copy of the organization's Form 990 or other comparable federal submission that indicates the provisions of the Internal Revenue

THURSDAY, JANUARY 19, 2023

Code under which the organization has been granted exempt status for purposes of federal taxation;

(e) a copy of a compilation, review, or audit of the organization's financial statements, conducted by a certified public accounting firm;

(f) the criteria and eligibility requirements for scholarship awards; and

(g) a certification by the organization that it meets the definition of a nonprofit scholarship funding organization as that term is defined in subsection (A)(5) and that the report is true, accurate, and complete under penalty of perjury in accordance with Section 16-9-10.

(3) The Treasurer shall disclose on its website the names of qualifying nonprofit scholarship funding organizations and eligible schools. The Treasurer also may disclose the names of nonprofit scholarship funding organizations that applied but were not qualified by the Treasurer and those organizations whose eligibility has been revoked in accordance with subsection (H)(2), as well as the reason the application of the organization was not accepted or the reason its qualification was revoked.

(4) By September first of each year, the Treasurer shall publish on its website a list of all qualifying nonprofit scholarship funding organizations for the succeeding calendar year, to include their names, addresses, telephone numbers, and, if available, website addresses. Also, the results of the audit required by item (2)(e) must be published with the list.

(5) By January fifteenth of each year, the Treasurer shall report to the Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, the Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, and the Governor:

(a) the number and total amount of grants issued to eligible schools by each scholarship funding organization in the prior school year;

(b) the identity of the school and the amount of each grant issued to an eligible school in the prior school year by each scholarship funding organization;

(c) an itemization and detailed explanation of fees or other revenues obtained from or on behalf of an eligible school by any scholarship funding organization;

(d) a copy of each scholarship funding organization's Form 990 or other comparable federal submission that indicates the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code under which the organization has been granted exempt status for purposes of federal taxation;

THURSDAY, JANUARY 19, 2023

(e) a copy of a compilation, review, or audit of each scholarship funding organization conducted by a certified public accounting firm as provided to the Treasurer by each scholarship funding organization in their application to participate in the program; and

(f) the criteria and eligibility requirements for scholarship awards of each scholarship funding organization as provided to the Treasurer by each scholarship funding organization in their application to participate in the program.

(6) The Treasurer may request an audit of a scholarship funding organization by the department if the Treasurer believes an organization is in violation of the provisions of this section.

(H)(1) The department has authority to examine and audit the nonprofit scholarship funding organizations when requested by the Treasurer, including determining whether the nonprofit scholarship funding organization is being operated in a manner consistent with the requirements for an IRC Section 501(c)(3) organization or is in compliance with any other provision of this section.

(2)(a) If during a requested audit the department acquires evidence that a nonprofit scholarship funding organization is not being operated in a manner consistent with the requirements for operating an IRC Section 501(c)(3) organization or is not in compliance with any other substantial provision of this section, the department immediately may revoke the organization's participation in the program and shall notify the organization and the Treasurer in writing of the revocation.

(b) Actual notice of revocation may be provided to the organization by personal delivery to the organization, by certified return receipt mail to the last known address of the organization, or by other means reasonably designed to provide actual notice to the organization.

(c) Any donations made following the date the actual notice of revocation are received by the organization do not qualify for the credit and the donated funds must be returned to the donor by the organization.

(d)(i) Within thirty days after the day on which the organization is provided actual notice of the revocation, the organization may request a contested hearing before the Administrative Law Court. Within seven days after a request for a contested case hearing is received by the Administrative Law Court, an administrative law judge shall hold the contested case hearing and determine whether the revocation was reasonable under the circumstances. The department has the burden of proof of showing that the revocation was reasonable under the circumstances. The revocation is "reasonable" if the department has substantial credible evidence that the organization is not being operated in a manner consistent with the requirements for operating an IRC Section 501(c)(3) organization or is not in compliance with other substantial provisions of this section. If the organization does not request a contested case hearing within thirty days of the immediate revocation, the revocation is permanent.

(ii) If the administrative law judge determines that the immediate revocation was reasonable, the administrative law judge shall remand the case to the department to issue a department determination for permanent revocation within the time period determined by the judge. The organization may appeal this department determination in accordance with Section 12-60-460. At the contested case hearing on the department determination, the parties may raise new issues and arguments in addition to those issues and arguments previously presented at the immediate revocation hearing.

(iii) If the administrative law judge determines that immediate revocation is not reasonable, the revocation must be lifted and the organization may resume accepting donations and award scholarships hereunder. The department may still issue a department determination in accordance with Section 12-60-450(E)(2).

(iv) If at any time during the process, the department believes the organization is in compliance, the department may reinstate the organization and notify the Treasurer.

(v) Following the permanent revocation of a nonprofit scholarship funding organization, the department has the authority to oversee the transfer of donated funds of the revoked organization to other nonprofit scholarship funding organizations.

(l) A nonprofit scholarship funding organization may transfer funds to another nonprofit scholarship funding organization, especially if the organization cannot distribute the funds in a timely manner or if the organization ceases to exist. The funds that are transferred by one nonprofit scholarship funding organization to another only may be considered by one organization when calculating its administrative expenses.

SECTION 2. Section 12-6-3790 of the S.C. Code is repealed.

SECTION 3. This act takes effect upon approval by the Governor and applies to income tax years beginning after 2022. All tax credits earned as a result of a contribution made to a scholarship funding organization in 2023 apply to the cumulative total of twenty-five million dollars for exceptional needs children, twenty-five million dollars for disadvantaged children, forty million dollars to PACE Scholarship children, and ten million dollars for home school children, regardless of

Amendment No. 10A

Senators DAVIS, KIMBRELL, CAMPSEN, BENNETT, RICE, CASH and GROOMS proposed the following amendment (SR-39.JG0203S):

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by adding appropriately numbered SECTIONS to read:

SECTION X.A. Article 25, Chapter 6, Title 12 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 12-6-3791. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Eligible School" means an independent school including those religious in nature, other than a public school, at which the compulsory attendance requirements of Section 59-65-10 may be met, that:

(a) offers a general education to primary or secondary school students;

(b) does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, or national origin;

(c) is located in this State;

(d) has an educational curriculum that includes courses set forth in the state's diploma requirements;

(e) has school facilities that are subject to applicable federal, state, and local laws; and

(f) is a member in good standing of the South Carolina Association of Christian Schools, the South Carolina Independent Schools Association, the Palmetto Association of Independent Schools, the American Montessori Society, the International Montessori Council, or the National Association of Private Schools or alternatively accredited by Cognia or the National Council for Private School Accreditation.

(2) "Exceptional needs child" means a child:

(a)(i) who has been evaluated in accordance with this state's evaluation criteria, as set forth in S.C. Code Ann. Regs. 43-243.1, and determined eligible as a child with a disability who needs special education and related services, in accordance with the requirements of Section 300.8 of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act; or

THURSDAY, JANUARY 19, 2023

(ii) who has been diagnosed as either permanently or within the last three years by a licensed speech language pathologist, psychiatrist, or medical, mental health, psychoeducational, or other comparable licensed health care provider as having a neurodevelopmental disorder, a substantial sensory or physical impairment such as deaf, blind, or orthopedic disability, or some other disability or acute or chronic condition that significantly impedes the student's ability to learn and succeed in school without specialized instructional and associated supports and services tailored to the child's unique needs; and

(b) the child's parents or legal guardian believes that the services provided by the school district of legal residence do not sufficiently meet the needs of the child.

(3) "Disadvantaged child" means a child who is eligible for the federal free or reduced lunch program and whose family meets the qualifications for federal Medicaid benefits, or whose family has an annual adjusted gross income of two hundred percent or less of the federal poverty guidelines as promulgated annually by the United States Department of Health and Human Services.

(4) "PACE Scholarship child" means a child who is a South Carolina resident who, immediately before receiving a scholarship or tuition grant under this section and enrolling in an eligible school or program, was enrolled in a South Carolina secondary or primary public school or who is eligible to enroll in a qualified first grade, kindergarten, or prekindergarten program; provided, however, that if a student is considered to be an eligible student pursuant to this item, he shall continue to qualify as such until he graduates, reaches the age of twenty, or returns to a public school, whichever occurs first; and provided, further, that the enrollment requirement must be waived in the case of a student who, based on the school attendance zone of his primary residence, is or would be assigned to a public school that the South Carolina Department of Education determines to be a low performing priority school, or who is the subject of an officially documented case of school based physical or psychological violence or student related verbal abuse threatening physical harm immediately before receiving a scholarship or tuition grant under this section.

(5) "Nonprofit scholarship funding organization" means a charitable organization that:

(a) is exempt from federal tax pursuant to Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code by being listed as an exempt organization in Section 501(c)(3) of the tax code;

THURSDAY, JANUARY 19, 2023

(b) allocates at least ninety-five percent of its annual contributions received during a particular year to provide grants for tuition to children enrolled in an eligible school meeting the criteria of this section and grants for home school curriculum fees, and incurs administrative expenses annually of not more than five percent of its annual contributions for a particular year to cover operational costs;

(c) allocates all of its funds used for grants on an annual basis to children who are exceptional needs, disadvantaged, PACE Scholarship children, or for home school curriculum fees;

(d) does not provide grants only for the benefit of one school, and if the Treasurer determines that the nonprofit scholarship funding organization is providing grants to one particular school, the tax credit allowed by this section may be disallowed;

(e) does not have as a volunteer, contractor, consultant, fundraiser, or member of its governing board, any parent, legal guardian, or member of their immediate family who has a child or ward who is currently receiving or has received a scholarship grant authorized by this section from the organization within one year of the date the parent, legal guardian, or member of their immediate family became a board member;

(f) does not have as a member of its governing board or an employee, volunteer, contractor, consultant, or fundraiser who has been convicted of a felony;

(g) does not release personally identifiable information pertaining to students or donors or use information collected about donors, students, or schools for financial gain;

(h) does not place conditions on schools enrolling students receiving scholarships to limit the ability of the schools to enroll students accepting grants from other nonprofit scholarship funding organizations; and

(i) does not incur administrative fees for annual contributions raised in excess of ten percent of the cumulative total of the tax credits authorized under Subsection (D).

(6) "Parent" means the natural or adoptive parent or legal guardian of a child.

(7) "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, or other similar entity.

(8) "Qualifying student" means a student who is either (i) an exceptional needs child, (ii) a disadvantaged child, or (iii) a PACE Scholarship child, a South Carolina resident, and who is eligible to be enrolled in a South Carolina secondary or elementary public school at the prekindergarten or later year level for the applicable school year. A qualifying student does not include students participating in the Education Scholarship Trust Fund Program, as provided in Section 59-8-110 et. seq.

(9) “Resident public school district” means the public school district in which a student resides.

(10) “Transportation” means transportation to and from school only.

(11) “Tuition” means the total amount of money charged for the cost of a qualifying student to attend an eligible school including, but not limited to, fees for attending the school, textbook fees, and school related transportation.

(12) “School year” means July first through June thirtieth each year.

(13) “Home school” means a home, residence, or location where a parent or legal guardian teaches one or more children as authorized pursuant to Section 59-65-40, 59-65-45, or 59-65-47.

(14) “Home school child” means any child attending an eligible home school.

(15) “Treasurer” means the Office of the State Treasurer.

(16) “Home school curriculum fees” means the total amount of money charged for instruction related expenditures of a home school child to attend an eligible home school including, but not limited to, curriculum packages, textbooks, digital education, and testing materials.

(B)(1) A person is entitled to a tax credit against income taxes imposed pursuant to this chapter, or bank taxes imposed pursuant to Chapter 11 of this title for the amount of cash and the monetary value of any publicly traded securities the person contributes to a nonprofit scholarship funding organization up to the limits of this section if:

(a) the contribution is used to provide grants for tuition to exceptional needs children enrolled in eligible schools who qualify for these grants under the provisions of this section; and

(b) the person does not designate a specific child or school as the beneficiary of the contribution.

(2) A person is entitled to a tax credit against income taxes imposed pursuant to this chapter, or bank taxes imposed pursuant to Chapter 11 of this title for the amount of cash and the monetary value of any publicly traded securities the taxpayer contributes to a nonprofit scholarship funding organization up to the limits of this section if:

(a) the contribution is used to provide grants for tuition to disadvantaged children enrolled in eligible schools who qualify for these grants under the provisions of this section; and

THURSDAY, JANUARY 19, 2023

(b) the taxpayer does not designate a specific child or school as the beneficiary of the contribution.

(3) A person is entitled to a tax credit against income taxes imposed pursuant to this chapter, or bank taxes imposed pursuant to Chapter 11 of this title for the amount of cash and the monetary value of any publicly traded securities the taxpayer contributes to a nonprofit scholarship funding organization up to the limits of this section if:

(a) the contribution is used to provide grants for tuition to PACE Scholarship children enrolled in eligible schools who qualify for these grants under the provisions of this section; and

(b) the taxpayer does not designate a specific child or school as the beneficiary of the contribution.

(4) A person is entitled to a tax credit against income taxes imposed pursuant to this chapter, or bank taxes imposed pursuant to Chapter 11 of this title for the amount of cash and the monetary value of any publicly traded securities the person contributes to a nonprofit scholarship funding organization up to the limits of this section if:

(a) the contribution is used to provide grants for home school curriculum fees to home school children attending a home school who qualify for these grants under the provisions of this section; and

(b) the person does not designate a specific child or home school as the beneficiary of the contribution.

(C)(1) Grants may be awarded by a scholarship funding organization for a school year in an amount not exceeding eleven thousand dollars or the total cost of tuition, whichever is less, for qualifying students who are either (i) exceptional needs or (ii) disadvantaged at an eligible school. Before awarding any grant, a scholarship funding organization must receive written documentation from the parent documenting that the qualifying student is an exceptional needs or disadvantaged child. Upon approving the application, the scholarship funding organization shall issue a paper check payable to the parent or guardian of the qualifying student and deliver it to the eligible school. If the qualifying student leaves or withdraws from the school for any reason before the end of the semester or school year and does not reenroll within thirty days, then the eligible school shall return a prorated amount of the grant to the scholarship funding organization based on the number of days the qualifying student was enrolled in the school during the semester or school year within sixty days of the qualifying student's departure.

(2) Grants may be awarded by a scholarship funding organization for a school year in an amount not exceeding the average state expenditures for each student in fall enrollment in public elementary and secondary education for this State or the total cost of tuition, whichever is less, for qualifying students who are PACE Scholarship children at an eligible school. The Treasurer shall determine and publish such amount annually, no later than January first. Upon approving the application, the scholarship funding organization shall issue a paper check payable to the parent or guardian of the qualifying student and deliver it to the eligible school. If the qualifying student leaves or withdraws from the school for any reason before the end of the semester or school year and does not reenroll within thirty days, then the eligible school shall return a prorated amount of the grant to the scholarship funding organization based on the number of days the qualifying student was enrolled in the school during the semester or school year within sixty days of the qualifying student's departure.

(3) Grants may be awarded by a scholarship funding organization for a school year in an amount not exceeding one thousand dollars or the total cost of home school curriculum fees, whichever is less, for a qualifying home school child attending a home school. Before awarding any grant, a scholarship funding organization shall receive written documentation from the parent documenting that the student is a home school child. A scholarship funding organization may reimburse a parent directly for expenditures actually paid for home school curriculum fees, or pay vendors directly for home school curriculum fees on behalf of the home school child.

(D)(1)(a) The tax credits authorized by subsection (B)(1) may not exceed cumulatively a total of twenty-five million dollars each calendar year for contributions made on behalf of exceptional needs students.

(b) The tax credits authorized pursuant to subsection (B)(2) may not exceed cumulatively a total of twenty five million dollars each calendar year for contributions on behalf of disadvantaged children.

(c) The tax credits authorized pursuant to subsection (B)(3) may not exceed cumulatively a total of forty million dollars each calendar year for contributions on behalf of PACE Scholarship children.

(d) The tax credits authorized pursuant to subsection (B)(4) may not exceed cumulatively a total of ten million dollars each calendar year for contributions on behalf of home school children.

(e) If the department determines that the total of the credits claimed in this subsection by all taxpayers exceeds the limit amount, it shall allow credits only up to those amounts on a first come, first served basis.

(f) The tax credits authorized pursuant to subsection (B)(1), (2), (3), or (4) are automatically and permanently increased by twenty-five percent in the succeeding calendar year whenever the total of the specific individual credit claimed meets the limit amount.

(g) The department, in coordination with the Treasurer, shall establish an application process to determine the amount of credit available to be claimed. The receipt of the application by the department shall determine priority for the credit. The credit must be claimed on the return for the tax year that the contribution is made.

(2) A taxpayer may not claim more than one hundred percent of his total tax liability for the tax year in contributions toward the tax credits authorized by subsection (B). This credit is not refundable. If the credit exceeds the taxpayer's tax liability for the taxable year, the excess amount may be carried forward for credit against income or bank taxes in the next ten succeeding taxable years.

(3) If a taxpayer deducts the amount of the contribution on the taxpayer's federal return and claims the credit allowed by this section, then the taxpayer shall add back the amount of the deduction for purposes of South Carolina income or bank taxes.

(4) The department shall prescribe the form and manner of proof required to obtain the credits authorized by subsection (B). Also, the department, in coordination with the Treasurer, shall develop a method of informing taxpayers if the credit limit is met at any time during the year.

(E) A corporation or entity entitled to a credit under subsection (B) may not convey, assign, or transfer the credit authorized by this section to another entity unless all of the assets of the entity are conveyed, assigned, or transferred in the same transaction.

(F) Except as otherwise provided, the Department of Education, the Department of Revenue, the Treasurer, or any other state agency may not regulate the educational programs of an eligible school that accepts students receiving scholarship grants pursuant to this section.

(G)(1) The Treasurer shall approve and oversee the scholarship funding organizations and address any citizen concerns about the programs' administration at eligible schools or with the scholarship funding organizations. The Treasurer shall consider a scholarship funding organization's organizational structure, financial condition, ability to fulfill the requirements of the program, and other factors he determines to be relevant when making a decision concerning whether to approve an applicant. The Treasurer shall hold at least one public hearing concerning an application if citizen concerns are raised about an applicant.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 19, 2023

(2) By August first of each year, each nonprofit scholarship funding organization shall apply with the Treasurer to be considered an eligible organization for the succeeding calendar year for which its contributors are allowed the tax credit provided by this section. If a nonprofit scholarship funding organization does not apply, the organization may not be published as an approved organization, and contributions to that organization must not be allowed for purposes of the credit allowed by this section. A nonprofit scholarship funding organization's application must contain:

(a) the number and total amount of grants issued to eligible schools in the preceding school year;

(b) for each grant issued to an eligible school in the preceding school year, the identity of the school and the amount of the grant;

(c) an itemization and detailed explanation of any fees or other revenues obtained from or on behalf of any eligible schools;

(d) a copy of the organization's Form 990 or other comparable federal submission that indicates the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code under which the organization has been granted exempt status for purposes of federal taxation;

(e) a copy of a compilation, review, or audit of the organization's financial statements, conducted by a certified public accounting firm;

(f) the criteria and eligibility requirements for scholarship awards; and

(g) a certification by the organization that it meets the definition of a nonprofit scholarship funding organization as that term is defined in subsection (A)(5) and that the report is true, accurate, and complete under penalty of perjury in accordance with Section 16-9-10.

(3) The Treasurer shall disclose on its website the names of qualifying nonprofit scholarship funding organizations and eligible schools. The Treasurer also may disclose the names of nonprofit scholarship funding organizations that applied but were not qualified by the Treasurer and those organizations whose eligibility has been revoked in accordance with subsection (H)(2), as well as the reason the application of the organization was not accepted or the reason its qualification was revoked.

(4) By September first of each year, the Treasurer shall publish on its website a list of all qualifying nonprofit scholarship funding organizations for the succeeding calendar year, to include their names, addresses, telephone numbers, and, if available, website addresses. Also, the results of the audit required by item (2)(e) must be published with the list.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 19, 2023

(5) By January fifteenth of each year, the Treasurer shall report to the Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, the Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, and the Governor:

(a) the number and total amount of grants issued to eligible schools by each scholarship funding organization in the prior school year;

(b) the identity of the school and the amount of each grant issued to an eligible school in the prior school year by each scholarship funding organization;

(c) an itemization and detailed explanation of fees or other revenues obtained from or on behalf of an eligible school by any scholarship funding organization;

(d) a copy of each scholarship funding organization's Form 990 or other comparable federal submission that indicates the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code under which the organization has been granted exempt status for purposes of federal taxation;

(e) a copy of a compilation, review, or audit of each scholarship funding organization conducted by a certified public accounting firm as provided to the Treasurer by each scholarship funding organization in their application to participate in the program;

(f) the criteria and eligibility requirements for scholarship awards of each scholarship funding organization as provided to the Treasurer by each scholarship funding organization in their application to participate in the program; and

(g) any report required by this section shall specifically not include the name, amount, or any other personally identifiable information of scholarship recipients.

(6) The Treasurer may request an audit of a scholarship funding organization by the department if the Treasurer believes an organization is in violation of the provisions of this section.

(H)(1) The department has authority to examine and audit the nonprofit scholarship funding organizations when requested by the Treasurer, including determining whether the nonprofit scholarship funding organization is being operated in a manner consistent with the requirements for an IRC Section 501(c)(3) organization or is in compliance with any other provision of this section.

(2)(a) If during a requested audit the department acquires evidence that a nonprofit scholarship funding organization is not being operated in a manner consistent with the requirements for operating an IRC Section 501(c)(3) organization or is not in compliance with any other substantial provision of this section, the department immediately may revoke the organization's participation in the program and shall notify the organization and the Treasurer in writing of the revocation.

(b) Actual notice of revocation may be provided to the organization by personal delivery to the organization, by certified return receipt mail to the last known address of the organization, or by other means reasonably designed to provide actual notice to the organization.

(c) Any donations made following the date the actual notice of revocation are received by the organization do not qualify for the credit and the donated funds must be returned to the donor by the organization.

(d)(i) Within thirty days after the day on which the organization is provided actual notice of the revocation, the organization may request a contested hearing before the Administrative Law Court. Within seven days after a request for a contested case hearing is received by the Administrative Law Court, an administrative law judge shall hold the contested case hearing and determine whether the revocation was reasonable under the circumstances. The department has the burden of proof of showing that the revocation was reasonable under the circumstances. The revocation is "reasonable" if the department has substantial credible evidence that the organization is not being operated in a manner consistent with the requirements for operating an IRC Section 501(c)(3) organization or is not in compliance with other substantial provisions of this section. If the organization does not request a contested case hearing within thirty days of the immediate revocation, the revocation is permanent.

(ii) If the administrative law judge determines that the immediate revocation was reasonable, the administrative law judge shall remand the case to the department to issue a department determination for permanent revocation within the time period determined by the judge. The organization may appeal this department determination in accordance with Section 12-60-460. At the contested case hearing on the department determination, the parties may raise new issues and arguments in addition to those issues and arguments previously presented at the immediate revocation hearing.

(iii) If the administrative law judge determines that immediate revocation is not reasonable, the revocation must be lifted and the organization may resume accepting donations and award scholarships hereunder. The department may still issue a department determination in accordance with Section 12-60-450(E)(2).

(iv) If at any time during the process, the department believes the organization is in compliance, the department may reinstate the organization and notify the Treasurer.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 19, 2023

(v) Following the permanent revocation of a nonprofit scholarship funding organization, the department has the authority to oversee the transfer of donated funds of the revoked organization to other nonprofit scholarship funding organizations.

(I) A nonprofit scholarship funding organization may transfer funds to another nonprofit scholarship funding organization, especially if the organization cannot distribute the funds in a timely manner or if the organization ceases to exist. The funds that are transferred by one nonprofit scholarship funding organization to another only may be considered by one organization when calculating its administrative expenses.

B. This SECTION takes effect upon approval by the Governor and applies to income tax years beginning after 2022. All tax credits earned as a result of a contribution made to a scholarship funding organization in 2022 apply to the cumulative total of twenty-five million dollars for exceptional needs children, twenty-five million dollars for disadvantaged children, forty million dollars to PACE Scholarship children, and ten million dollars for home school children, regardless of when in 2022 the contribution is made. All necessary reports and forms must be submitted as soon as practicable upon the enactment of this act.

The Senate assembled at 12:00 Noon, the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Psalm 136:1

The Psalmist declares: "O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever."

Let us pray: It is an easy trap to fall into, O God: feeling overwhelmed by all the issues that loom before this Body, the challenges that have to be resolved, the struggles which clearly need to be faced. So in recognition of all of those things, how reassuring it is that Your love, dear Lord, is a steadying, comforting power. And by Your grace may each Senator and every staff member who trusts in You come to feel genuinely positive about the future for our State, ever thankful for the blessings which are all around us, and more determined than ever to do his or her very best for the good people they serve. And as always, dear God, we ask that You will continue to bless our women and men in uniform. In Your loving name we pray, Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

Point of Quorum

At 12:06 P.M., Senator SETZLER made the point that a quorum was not present. It was ascertained that a quorum was not present.

The Senate Resolution was adopted.

Senator JACKSON spoke on the Resolution.

Remarks by Senator JACKSON

Mr. PRESIDENT, members of the Senate, this is a very special Resolution for a very special person that we want to recognize today. The Clerk will read the Resolution and you will see that after he reads--we hope we could put the roll of the Senate on this Resolution. I would like if Senator SETZLER would join us here at the well.

First of all, I think this award should be given to Ada Jane! But let me say that I have certainly enjoyed and do enjoy serving with Senator

TUESDAY, JANUARY 24, 2023

SETZLER. I learned something early on. In fact, the former Senator from Clarendon, Senator John Land, once told me something. When I was a young Senator, I had to work on a project with Senator SETZLER. I said, "I hope that I don't forget the details. I want to remember to be there." John Land looked at me and said, "Who are you working with?" I said, "SETZLER." He said, "Son, you will never forget because SETZLER will aggravate you -- he will call you 20 times and text you. He will make sure that you are there; you would never forget." John Land was right!

If you have ever worked with NIKKI SETZLER, you will know that NIKKI will never let you drop the ball. Senator SETZLER is a friend. There are two things I learned from Senator SETZLER. The first is the heavy lifting is done behind closed doors and secondly, you don't brag about what you've done. I will never forget that. I will always remember that from my good friend and my wonderful colleague, Senator SETZLER.

On motion of Senator CLIMER, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator JACKSON were ordered printed in the Journal.

Senator SHEALY spoke on the Resolution.

Remarks by Senator SHEALY

I haven't served with Senator SETZLER that long. I've been here ten years and it has been a joy to serve with him and I will tell you we have the distinct honor of being the only resident Senators in Lexington County. So, we get to fight over -- not really -- who is going to be the chairman of the delegation every two years. This year we're fighting over who's not going to be the chairman of the delegation and he keeps saying he's not and I keep saying I'm not; because, we all know what's going on over there so nobody really wants to be the chairman.

I have a story about Senator SETZLER and the telephone because yours is about the telephone -- mine is too. When I see my phone ringing, Senator SETZLER's face pops up on my phone. It's kind of scary sometimes, but it will pop up and I answer it and he says, "Senator SHEALY, I've got something to tell you and don't you tell anybody else. This is just between us, nobody else knows," and you listen intently. You get off the phone and about five minutes later, the phone will ring. It will be Senator CROMER, he'll say, "Now I'm not supposed to tell anybody because Senator SETZLER just called me, but I'm going to tell you, okay". Well, he tells me and then about 20 minutes later the phone will ring, it will be Senator MASSEY and he'll say, "Now don't tell anybody because Senator CROMER just called me and he said Senator SETZLER said..." but anyway, we love you, and I have enjoyed working with you, and I hope you are here a lot longer. I'll never make it as long as you have because I started too late. Thank you for everything. Thank you for being a great Senator, great role model, and for everything you do for Lexington County. Thank you.

On motion of Senator CLIMER, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator SHEALY were ordered printed in the Journal.

Senator SENN spoke on the Resolution.

Remarks by Senator SENN

Thank you. I had the good fortune of being one of Senator SETZLER's first pages. I was 18 years old and had no lines on my face. He sent me around -- we got to go knock on doors. Of course, I didn't get paid for that, even though I think we were getting paid $2 an hour or something and it's not much better now for the pages. But I agreed and we'd go around to all of these neighborhoods and since I was still in high school, I knew half of the people answering the door. So, we're chit chatting and he's at the end of the street saying, "Hurry up, hurry up, we got to go." I said, "I'm promising them you're going to fix these potholes." And he's like -- what? Anyway, it's been a pleasure, Senator, not only when I was your page but also thank you so much for helping guide me even from here in this office.

On motion of Senator CLIMER, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator SENN were ordered printed in the Journal.

Senator PEELER spoke on the Resolution.

Remarks by Senator PEELER

I'm not going to let him off this easy. Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT, members of the Senate, it is an honor for me to be here to recognize my good friend NIKKI SETZLER. I told this story the other night -- it is a true story. As I was getting out of my truck in the garage, Senator MASSEY was leaving his car. He said, "Senator PEELER, I was up late last night and didn't get much sleep." I replied, "Really?" "Yes," he said, "Somebody told me how to access YouTube and I got to see all the inaugurals back from 1970 and on. I got to sit and watch you age overnight.” Senator SETZLER, you sat here and watched me age in real time!

I have to thank Senator SETZLER, he was a semi-freshman when I was a sure enough freshman. He took me under his wing and gave me some advice. He said, “Let me give you some advice.” The other award, Senator SETZLER, we can give you is he is the best dressed Senator in the Nation. He gets that award, but I’ll take credit for it. I asked, “Senator SETZLER, you ever thought about getting contacts?” He replied, “Ada Jane said I ought to get contacts.” I added, “While you’re at it, a silk tie doesn’t cost much more than those polyester ties.” He took my advice. He is the best dressed Senator I think in the Nation.

On a serious note, I was the Majority Leader for a period of time when Senator SETZLER was the Minority Leader. It was an absolute joy working with him. Everything that you’ve heard is absolutely true! He is easy to work with. When he wants to do something, it’s for the betterment of this State. I am honored and privileged to know Senator SETZLER, Ada Jane and his family. My favorite one is attending Clemson today. Thank you.

On motion of Senator CLIMER, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator PEELER were ordered printed in the Journal.

Senator SETZLER spoke on the Resolution.

Remarks by Senator SETZLER

Mr. PRESIDENT, ladies, and gentlemen of the Senate, I will probably get emotional about this which you’ve known me to do before at this podium. But each one of us are who we are by the grace of God. And by the grace of God, I have been able to serve in this Senate.

You know, the two most important words in the English language that are not used often enough are the words “thank you.” First, I want to say thank you to God for giving me the ability and the energy and the health to be able to serve in this Body -- doing this job we call public service. Public service is a great calling and a noble calling. Do not let anybody ever convince you otherwise.

I will be short, but I want to say thank you to the people of Senate District 26 who, regardless of their political party or their views on issues, have entrusted me with the responsibility of representing them.

I want to say thank you to the members of this Body, Current members and past members of this Body -- to the staff, all of the staff, from the

TUESDAY, JANUARY 24, 2023

Clerk to the custodians. And particularly to Alisa Painter and Jane Fallaw who are incredible.

And I want to say thank you to this institution of the South Carolina Senate. This is, as you have heard me say from this podium, the greatest deliberative Body in the United States. And as Senator PEELER reminded us one day, we are privileged to be one of forty-six people who populate the State of South Carolina -- that have the privilege and the opportunity to walk through those doors and to be here representing the rest of this State.

I want to thank the institution of the Senate for its traditions, its customs, its precedence -- the way we conduct our business. It is important that we do it in the way that this Senate has always done, on behalf of the people of South Carolina.

I want to thank all the people who have supported me throughout, my law partners, who work while I am allowed to be here, all the people who work for me and help me. Two of them are sitting here, Randy and Huck, and have been here since day one.

And last but not least, I want to thank my family. They have grown up in a public servant's house. To my deceased parents who worked twelve to fourteen hours a day in our hamburger/hotdog business and put me through college and law school -- to my wife of fifty-three plus years, Ada Jane, who has been a rock. She walked the streets, election after election, on one side of the street with me on the other. She made telephone calls and put up with the pressure and the things that you, as a candidate and public servant, have to do. To our four incredible daughters who are the joy of our lives -- and who were raised very independent women. I will tell you they are not bashful about what they think, what they believe, and their politics are not always the same as each other's. And to our nine grandchildren who are the joy of our lives, and to the four sons-in-law who have supported me throughout.

We have, in this Body, worked together to make great changes for South Carolina. I pledge to you that I will in good faith continue to do that. Because I believe in bipartisanship, and I believe in people working together. And I will continue to work with each one of you -- continue to work with each one of you regardless of our views on issues to see that we address the needs of the people of this State.

There is something to be said for that in today's political world where people are encouraged not to work together.

My dear friend, Senator JACKSON, who has sat beside me and drove me crazy to do this -- I keep telling him no, but I say thank you, you are a true friend. And a friend is defined as someone who advocates for you, when you are not there, and defends you every day. Senator JACKSON, you are my true friend. I am honored and humbled by this Resolution and by your support.

I say to you, do not read anything into this. This is not a farewell comment, okay? It is not an indication of anything in the future. It is simply an acknowledgment that what I have accomplished has not been by myself, but it has been by the help of a world of people who help each one of us accomplish what we accomplish in public service. We do it with those who are around us and support us.

And now, let's get to the business that we were sent here to do, and do the state's work. Thank you.

On motion of Senator CLIMER, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator SETZLER were ordered printed in the Journal.

Senator KIMBRELL spoke on the Resolution.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 24, 2023

Remarks by Senator KIMBRELL

Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT and colleagues. I'm sure you all are aware that ATF -- alcohol, tobacco, and firearms -- just last week finalized an agency regulation with no congressional authorization, and frankly without even presidential executive order, that would essentially make about ten to forty million -- that's a large range according to the Congressional Research Service, but ten to forty million weapons in this country would be made illegal within one hundred twenty days. Now, a lot of people in South Carolina -- we're one of the larger states in terms of per capita firearm ownership -- and according to ATF and the Biden administration, they said this would only affect three million gun owners. Then it was revised to ten million, now we're saying ten to forty million -- no one knows how many would be affected. What it essentially does is ban stabilizing braces. Now, this is a nonlethal addition to the gun. It has nothing to do with magazine capacity, has nothing to do with size of rounds, or calibers of ammunition. It is simply a stabilizing brace that uses pistols against the forearm that can stabilize a gun for firing purposes. The ATF has taken the position under the National Firearms Act, that because of a stabilizing brace being added to a pistol, it now qualifies as a short rifle that needs to be registered under the National Firearms Act. You have one hundred twenty days to register. If they don't register the gun within one hundred twenty days, they can surrender the weapon to ATF or have the weapon modified. The problem is, in most cases, a stabilizing brace is built into the weapons you buy, so having it modified isn't really an option. You're talking about two choices: within one hundred twenty days you can register your gun, or you can surrender it to the federal government. If not, ATF is prescribing that these individuals be charged under the National Firearms Act and be faced with up to ten years in a federal prison for a change of a law from the 1980's that hasn't been updated or debated in congress and hasn't even been addressed by the President.

So, I'm calling the Attorney General of this State to join other states in suing the Biden administration and ATF for a significant overreach on the Second Amendment that would turn potentially millions of Americans into would-be felons in three to four months' time. I think that's a violation of not only the Second Amendment, but the Fourth Amendment, and your protection against unreasonable search and seizure. So, Mr. PRESIDENT that is the purpose of the Resolution.

Amendment No. 10A

Senators DAVIS, KIMBRELL, CAMPSSEN, BENNETT, RICE, CASH and GROOMS proposed the following amendment (SR-39.JG0203S), which was withdrawn:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by adding appropriately numbered SECTIONS to read:

SECTION X.A. Article 25, Chapter 6, Title 12 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 12-6-3791. (A) As used in this section:

(1) "Eligible School" means an independent school including those religious in nature, other than a public school, at which the compulsory attendance requirements of Section 59-65-10 may be met, that:

(a) offers a general education to primary or secondary school students;

(b) does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, or national origin;

(c) is located in this State;

(d) has an educational curriculum that includes courses set forth in the state's diploma requirements;

(e) has school facilities that are subject to applicable federal, state, and local laws; and

(f) is a member in good standing of the South Carolina Association of Christian Schools, the South Carolina Independent Schools Association, the Palmetto Association of Independent Schools, the American Montessori Society, the International Montessori Council, or the National Association of Private Schools or alternatively accredited by Cognia or the National Council for Private School Accreditation.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 24, 2023

(2) “Exceptional needs child” means a child:

(a)(i) who has been evaluated in accordance with this state’s evaluation criteria, as set forth in S.C. Code Ann. Regs. 43-243.1, and determined eligible as a child with a disability who needs special education and related services, in accordance with the requirements of Section 300.8 of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act; or

(ii) who has been diagnosed as either permanently or within the last three years by a licensed speech language pathologist, psychiatrist, or medical, mental health, psychoeducational, or other comparable licensed health care provider as having a neurodevelopmental disorder, a substantial sensory or physical impairment such as deaf, blind, or orthopedic disability, or some other disability or acute or chronic condition that significantly impedes the student’s ability to learn and succeed in school without specialized instructional and associated supports and services tailored to the child’s unique needs; and

(b) the child’s parents or legal guardian believes that the services provided by the school district of legal residence do not sufficiently meet the needs of the child.

(3) “Disadvantaged child” means a child who is eligible for the federal free or reduced lunch program and whose family meets the qualifications for federal Medicaid benefits, or whose family has an annual adjusted gross income of two hundred percent or less of the federal poverty guidelines as promulgated annually by the United States Department of Health and Human Services.

(4) “PACE Scholarship child” means a child who is a South Carolina resident who, immediately before receiving a scholarship or tuition grant under this section and enrolling in an eligible school or program, was enrolled in a South Carolina secondary or primary public school or who is eligible to enroll in a qualified first grade, kindergarten, or prekindergarten program; provided, however, that if a student is considered to be an eligible student pursuant to this item, he shall continue to qualify as such until he graduates, reaches the age of twenty, or returns to a public school, whichever occurs first; and provided, further, that the enrollment requirement must be waived in the case of a student who, based on the school attendance zone of his primary residence, is or would be assigned to a public school that the South Carolina Department of Education determines to be a low performing priority school, or who is the subject of an officially documented case of school based physical or psychological violence or student related verbal abuse threatening physical harm immediately before receiving a scholarship or tuition grant under this section.

(5) “Nonprofit scholarship funding organization” means a charitable organization that:

(a) is exempt from federal tax pursuant to Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code by being listed as an exempt organization in Section 501(c)(3) of the tax code;

(b) allocates at least ninety-five percent of its annual contributions received during a particular year to provide grants for tuition to children enrolled in an eligible school meeting the criteria of this section and grants for home school curriculum fees, and incurs administrative expenses annually of not more than five percent of its annual contributions for a particular year to cover operational costs;

(c) allocates all of its funds used for grants on an annual basis to children who are exceptional needs, disadvantaged, PACE Scholarship children, or for home school curriculum fees;

(d) does not provide grants only for the benefit of one school, and if the Treasurer determines that the nonprofit scholarship funding organization is providing grants to one particular school, the tax credit allowed by this section may be disallowed;

(e) does not have as a volunteer, contractor, consultant, fundraiser, or member of its governing board, any parent, legal guardian, or member of their immediate family who has a child or ward who is currently receiving or has received a scholarship grant authorized by this section from the organization within one year of the date the parent, legal guardian, or member of their immediate family became a board member;

(f) does not have as a member of its governing board or an employee, volunteer, contractor, consultant, or fundraiser who has been convicted of a felony;

(g) does not release personally identifiable information pertaining to students or donors or use information collected about donors, students, or schools for financial gain;

(h) does not place conditions on schools enrolling students receiving scholarships to limit the ability of the schools to enroll students accepting grants from other nonprofit scholarship funding organizations; and

(i) does not incur administrative fees for annual contributions raised in excess of ten percent of the cumulative total of the tax credits authorized under subsection (D).

(6) “Parent” means the natural or adoptive parent or legal guardian of a child.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 24, 2023

(7) “Person” means an individual, partnership, corporation, or other similar entity.

(8) “Qualifying student” means a student who is either (i) an exceptional needs child, (ii) a disadvantaged child, or (iii) a PACE Scholarship child, a South Carolina resident, and who is eligible to be enrolled in a South Carolina secondary or elementary public school at the prekindergarten or later year level for the applicable school year. A qualifying student does not include students participating in the Education Scholarship Trust Fund Program, as provided in Section 59-8-110 et. seq.

(9) “Resident public school district” means the public school district in which a student resides.

(10) “Transportation” means transportation to and from school only.

(11) “Tuition” means the total amount of money charged for the cost of a qualifying student to attend an eligible school including, but not limited to, fees for attending the school, textbook fees, and school related transportation.

(12) “School year” means July first through June thirtieth each year.

(13) “Home school” means a home, residence, or location where a parent or legal guardian teaches one or more children as authorized pursuant to Section 59-65-40, 59-65-45, or 59-65-47.

(14) “Home school child” means any child attending an eligible home school.

(15) “Treasurer” means the Office of the State Treasurer.

(16) “Home school curriculum fees” means the total amount of money charged for instruction related expenditures of a home school child to attend an eligible home school including, but not limited to, curriculum packages, textbooks, digital education, and testing materials.

(B)(1) A person is entitled to a tax credit against income taxes imposed pursuant to this chapter, or bank taxes imposed pursuant to Chapter 11 of this title for the amount of cash and the monetary value of any publicly traded securities the person contributes to a nonprofit scholarship funding organization up to the limits of this section if:

(a) the contribution is used to provide grants for tuition to exceptional needs children enrolled in eligible schools who qualify for these grants under the provisions of this section; and

(b) the person does not designate a specific child or school as the beneficiary of the contribution.

(2) A person is entitled to a tax credit against income taxes imposed pursuant to this chapter, or bank taxes imposed pursuant to Chapter 11

of this title for the amount of cash and the monetary value of any publicly traded securities the taxpayer contributes to a nonprofit scholarship funding organization up to the limits of this section if:

(a) the contribution is used to provide grants for tuition to disadvantaged children enrolled in eligible schools who qualify for these grants under the provisions of this section; and

(b) the taxpayer does not designate a specific child or school as the beneficiary of the contribution.

(3) A person is entitled to a tax credit against income taxes imposed pursuant to this chapter, or bank taxes imposed pursuant to Chapter 11 of this title for the amount of cash and the monetary value of any publicly traded securities the taxpayer contributes to a nonprofit scholarship funding organization up to the limits of this section if:

(a) the contribution is used to provide grants for tuition to PACE Scholarship children enrolled in eligible schools who qualify for these grants under the provisions of this section; and

(b) the taxpayer does not designate a specific child or school as the beneficiary of the contribution.

(4) A person is entitled to a tax credit against income taxes imposed pursuant to this chapter, or bank taxes imposed pursuant to Chapter 11 of this title for the amount of cash and the monetary value of any publicly traded securities the person contributes to a nonprofit scholarship funding organization up to the limits of this section if:

(a) the contribution is used to provide grants for home school curriculum fees to home school children attending a home school who qualify for these grants under the provisions of this section; and

(b) the person does not designate a specific child or home school as the beneficiary of the contribution.

(C)(1) Grants may be awarded by a scholarship funding organization for a school year in an amount not exceeding eleven thousand dollars or the total cost of tuition, whichever is less, for qualifying students who are either (i) exceptional needs or (ii) disadvantaged at an eligible school. Before awarding any grant, a scholarship funding organization must receive written documentation from the parent documenting that the qualifying student is an exceptional needs or disadvantaged child. Upon approving the application, the scholarship funding organization shall issue a paper check payable to the parent or guardian of the qualifying student and deliver it to the eligible school. If the qualifying student leaves or withdraws from the school for any reason before the end of the semester or school year and does not reenroll within thirty days, then the eligible school shall return a prorated amount of the grant to the scholarship funding organization based on the number of days the qualifying student was enrolled in the school during the semester or school year within sixty days of the qualifying student's departure.

(2) Grants may be awarded by a scholarship funding organization for a school year in an amount not exceeding the average state expenditures for each student in fall enrollment in public elementary and secondary education for this State or the total cost of tuition, whichever is less, for qualifying students who are PACE Scholarship children at an eligible school. The Treasurer shall determine and publish such amount annually, no later than January first. Upon approving the application, the scholarship funding organization shall issue a paper check payable to the parent or guardian of the qualifying student and deliver it to the eligible school. If the qualifying student leaves or withdraws from the school for any reason before the end of the semester or school year and does not reenroll within thirty days, then the eligible school shall return a prorated amount of the grant to the scholarship funding organization based on the number of days the qualifying student was enrolled in the school during the semester or school year within sixty days of the qualifying student's departure.

(3) Grants may be awarded by a scholarship funding organization for a school year in an amount not exceeding one thousand dollars or the total cost of home school curriculum fees, whichever is less, for a qualifying home school child attending a home school. Before awarding any grant, a scholarship funding organization shall receive written documentation from the parent documenting that the student is a home school child. A scholarship funding organization may reimburse a parent directly for expenditures actually paid for home school curriculum fees, or pay vendors directly for home school curriculum fees on behalf of the home school child.

(D)(1)(a) The tax credits authorized by subsection (B)(1) may not exceed cumulatively a total of twenty-five million dollars each calendar year for contributions made on behalf of exceptional needs students.

(b) The tax credits authorized pursuant to subsection (B)(2) may not exceed cumulatively a total of twenty-five million dollars each calendar year for contributions on behalf of disadvantaged children.

(c) The tax credits authorized pursuant to subsection (B)(3) may not exceed cumulatively a total of forty million dollars each calendar year for contributions on behalf of PACE Scholarship children.

(d) The tax credits authorized pursuant to subsection (B)(4) may not exceed cumulatively a total of ten million dollars each calendar year for contributions on behalf of home school children.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 24, 2023

(e) If the department determines that the total of the credits claimed in this subsection by all taxpayers exceeds the limit amount, it shall allow credits only up to those amounts on a first come, first served basis.

(f) The tax credits authorized pursuant to subsection (B)(1), (2), (3), or (4) are automatically and permanently increased by twenty-five percent in the succeeding calendar year whenever the total of the specific individual credit claimed meets the limit amount.

(g) The department, in coordination with the Treasurer, shall establish an application process to determine the amount of credit available to be claimed. The receipt of the application by the department shall determine priority for the credit. The credit must be claimed on the return for the tax year that the contribution is made.

(2) A taxpayer may not claim more than one hundred percent of his total tax liability for the tax year in contributions toward the tax credits authorized by subsection (B). This credit is not refundable. If the credit exceeds the taxpayer's tax liability for the taxable year, the excess amount may be carried forward for credit against income or bank taxes in the next ten succeeding taxable years.

(3) If a taxpayer deducts the amount of the contribution on the taxpayer's federal return and claims the credit allowed by this section, then the taxpayer shall add back the amount of the deduction for purposes of South Carolina income or bank taxes.

(4) The department shall prescribe the form and manner of proof required to obtain the credits authorized by subsection (B). Also, the department, in coordination with the Treasurer, shall develop a method of informing taxpayers if the credit limit is met at any time during the year.

(E) A corporation or entity entitled to a credit under subsection (B) may not convey, assign, or transfer the credit authorized by this section to another entity unless all of the assets of the entity are conveyed, assigned, or transferred in the same transaction.

(F) Except as otherwise provided, the Department of Education, the Department of Revenue, the Treasurer, or any other state agency may not regulate the educational programs of an eligible school that accepts students receiving scholarship grants pursuant to this section.

(G)(1) The Treasurer shall approve and oversee the scholarship funding organizations and address any citizen concerns about the programs' administration at eligible schools or with the scholarship funding organizations. The Treasurer shall consider a scholarship funding organization's organizational structure, financial condition, ability to fulfill the requirements of the program, and other factors he determines to be relevant when making a decision concerning whether to approve an applicant. The Treasurer shall hold at least one public hearing concerning an application if citizen concerns are raised about an applicant.

(2) By August first of each year, each nonprofit scholarship funding organization shall apply with the Treasurer to be considered an eligible organization for the succeeding calendar year for which its contributors are allowed the tax credit provided by this section. If a nonprofit scholarship funding organization does not apply, the organization may not be published as an approved organization, and contributions to that organization must not be allowed for purposes of the credit allowed by this section. A nonprofit scholarship funding organization's application must contain:

(a) the number and total amount of grants issued to eligible schools in the preceding school year;

(b) for each grant issued to an eligible school in the preceding school year, the identity of the school and the amount of the grant;

(c) an itemization and detailed explanation of any fees or other revenues obtained from or on behalf of any eligible schools;

(d) a copy of the organization's Form 990 or other comparable federal submission that indicates the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code under which the organization has been granted exempt status for purposes of federal taxation;

(e) a copy of a compilation, review, or audit of the organization's financial statements, conducted by a certified public accounting firm;

(f) the criteria and eligibility requirements for scholarship awards; and

(g) a certification by the organization that it meets the definition of a nonprofit scholarship funding organization as that term is defined in subsection (A)(5) and that the report is true, accurate, and complete under penalty of perjury in accordance with Section 16-9-10.

(3) The Treasurer shall disclose on its website the names of qualifying nonprofit scholarship funding organizations and eligible schools. The Treasurer also may disclose the names of nonprofit scholarship funding organizations that applied but were not qualified by the Treasurer and those organizations whose eligibility has been revoked in accordance with subsection (H)(2), as well as the reason the application of the organization was not accepted or the reason its qualification was revoked.

(4) By September first of each year, the Treasurer shall publish on its website a list of all qualifying nonprofit scholarship funding organizations for the succeeding calendar year, to include their names, addresses, telephone numbers, and, if available, website addresses. Also, the results of the audit required by item (2)(e) must be published with the list.

(5) By January fifteenth of each year, the Treasurer shall report to the Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, the Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, and the Governor:

(a) the number and total amount of grants issued to eligible schools by each scholarship funding organization in the prior school year;

(b) the identity of the school and the amount of each grant issued to an eligible school in the prior school year by each scholarship funding organization;

(c) an itemization and detailed explanation of fees or other revenues obtained from or on behalf of an eligible school by any scholarship funding organization;

(d) a copy of each scholarship funding organization's Form 990 or other comparable federal submission that indicates the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code under which the organization has been granted exempt status for purposes of federal taxation;

(e) a copy of a compilation, review, or audit of each scholarship funding organization conducted by a certified public accounting firm as provided to the Treasurer by each scholarship funding organization in their application to participate in the program;

(f) the criteria and eligibility requirements for scholarship awards of each scholarship funding organization as provided to the Treasurer by each scholarship funding organization in their application to participate in the program; and

(g) any report required by this section shall specifically not include the name, amount, or any other personally identifiable information of scholarship recipients.

(6) The Treasurer may request an audit of a scholarship funding organization by the department if the Treasurer believes an organization is in violation of the provisions of this section.

(H)(1) The department has authority to examine and audit the nonprofit scholarship funding organizations when requested by the Treasurer, including determining whether the nonprofit scholarship funding organization is being operated in a manner consistent with the requirements for an IRC Section 501(c)(3) organization or is in compliance with any other provision of this section.

(2)(a) If during a requested audit the department acquires evidence that a nonprofit scholarship funding organization is not being operated in a manner consistent with the requirements for operating an IRC Section 501(c)(3) organization or is not in compliance with any other substantial provision of this section, the department immediately may revoke the organization's participation in the program and shall notify the organization and the Treasurer in writing of the revocation.

(b) Actual notice of revocation may be provided to the organization by personal delivery to the organization, by certified return receipt mail to the last known address of the organization, or by other means reasonably designed to provide actual notice to the organization.

(c) Any donations made following the date the actual notice of revocation are received by the organization do not qualify for the credit and the donated funds must be returned to the donor by the organization.

(d)(i) Within thirty days after the day on which the organization is provided actual notice of the revocation, the organization may request a contested hearing before the Administrative Law Court. Within seven days after a request for a contested case hearing is received by the Administrative Law Court, an administrative law judge shall hold the contested case hearing and determine whether the revocation was reasonable under the circumstances. The department has the burden of proof of showing that the revocation was reasonable under the circumstances. The revocation is "reasonable" if the department has substantial credible evidence that the organization is not being operated in a manner consistent with the requirements for operating an IRC Section 501(c)(3) organization or is not in compliance with other substantial provisions of this section. If the organization does not request a contested case hearing within thirty days of the immediate revocation, the revocation is permanent.

(ii) If the administrative law judge determines that the immediate revocation was reasonable, the administrative law judge shall remand the case to the department to issue a department determination for permanent revocation within the time period determined by the judge. The organization may appeal this department determination in accordance with Section 12-60-460. At the contested case hearing on the department determination, the parties may raise new issues and arguments in addition to those issues and arguments previously presented at the immediate revocation hearing.

(iii) If the administrative law judge determines that immediate revocation is not reasonable, the revocation must be lifted and the organization may resume accepting donations and award scholarships hereunder. The department may still issue a department determination in accordance with Section 12-60-450(E)(2).

(iv) If at any time during the process, the department believes the organization is in compliance, the department may reinstate the organization and notify the Treasurer.

(v) Following the permanent revocation of a nonprofit scholarship funding organization, the department has the authority to oversee the transfer of donated funds of the revoked organization to other nonprofit scholarship funding organizations.

(I) A nonprofit scholarship funding organization may transfer funds to another nonprofit scholarship funding organization, especially if the organization cannot distribute the funds in a timely manner or if the organization ceases to exist. The funds that are transferred by one nonprofit scholarship funding organization to another only may be considered by one organization when calculating its administrative expenses.

B. This SECTION takes effect upon approval by the Governor and applies to income tax years beginning after 2022. All tax credits earned as a result of a contribution made to a scholarship funding organization in 2022 apply to the cumulative total of twenty-five million dollars for exceptional needs children, twenty-five million dollars for disadvantaged children, forty million dollars to PACE Scholarship children, and ten million dollars for home school children, regardless of when in 2022 the contribution is made. All necessary reports and forms must be submitted as soon as practicable upon the enactment of this act.

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The Senate assembled at 11:00 A.M., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

I Kings 19:11-12

We read in I Kings that after a great wind and an earthquake came “a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire, and after the fire, a sound of sheer silence.” And then it was that Elijah heard the voice of the Lord.

Let us pray: Most Holy God, we call upon You this day to speak to us directly, as You once spoke to Elijah. Indeed, help each of us to hear clearly as to how this Body is indeed to lead the people of South Carolina here in this troubled, divisive period we find ourselves living through. So by Your grace may these Senators grasp Your intent, O Lord, for the people these leaders serve. And may even Governor McMaster in his address this evening share a message of genuine hope and promise. Together may the boldness and clarity of all that we hear open the way to a bright future for all, with the final result being rich and promising blessings for every woman, man, and child. So we pray in Your hopeful and loving name, dear Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

Point of Quorum

At 11:07 A.M., Senator PEELER made the point that a quorum was not present. It was ascertained that a quorum was not present.

S. 374 -- Senators Rankin, Sabb and Talley: A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION TO FIX 12:00 NOON ON WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 2023, AS THE TIME TO ELECT A SUCCESSOR TO A CERTAIN JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT, SEAT 4, TO FILL THE UNEXPIRED TERM OF THAT OFFICE WHICH WILL EXPIRE JULY 31, 2032; TO ELECT A SUCCESSOR TO A CERTAIN JUDGE OF THE COURT OF APPEALS, SEAT 1, WHOSE TERM WILL EXPIRE JUNE 30, 2023; TO ELECT A SUCCESSOR TO A CERTAIN JUDGE OF THE COURT OF APPEALS, SEAT 2, AND THE SUCCESSOR WILL SERVE A NEW TERM OF THAT OFFICE WHICH WILL EXPIRE JUNE 30, 2029; TO ELECT A SUCCESSOR TO A CERTAIN JUDGE OF THE CIRCUIT COURT, FIFTEENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, SEAT 1, TO FILL THE UNEXPIRED TERM OF THAT OFFICE WHICH WILL EXPIRE JUNE 30, 2028; TO ELECT A SUCCESSOR TO A CERTAIN JUDGE OF THE CIRCUIT COURT, AT-LARGE, SEAT 3, UPON HIS RETIREMENT ON OR BEFORE DECEMBER 31, 2023, AND THE SUCCESSOR WILL FILL THE UNEXPIRED TERM OF THAT OFFICE WHICH WILL EXPIRE JUNE 30, 2027; TO ELECT A SUCCESSOR TO A CERTAIN JUDGE OF THE FAMILY COURT, FIRST JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, SEAT 3, TO FILL THE UNEXPIRED TERM OF THAT OFFICE WHICH EXPIRES JUNE 30, 2028; TO ELECT A SUCCESSOR TO A CERTAIN JUDGE OF THE FAMILY COURT, TWELFTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, SEAT 1, UPON HIS RETIREMENT ON OR BEFORE DECEMBER 31, 2023, AND THE SUCCESSOR WILL FILL THE UNEXPIRED TERM OF THAT OFFICE WHICH WILL EXPIRE JUNE 30, 2025; TO ELECT A SUCCESSOR TO A CERTAIN JUDGE OF THE FAMILY COURT, AT-LARGE, SEAT 7, WHICH WILL EXPIRE JUNE 30, 2023; TO ELECT A SUCCESSOR TO A CERTAIN JUDGE OF THE FAMILY COURT, AT-LARGE, SEAT 8, WHICH WILL EXPIRE JUNE 30, 2023; AND TO ELECT A SUCCESSOR TO A CERTAIN JUDGE OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE LAW COURT,

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 25, 2023

SEAT 5, UPON HER RETIREMENT ON OR BEFORE JUNE 30, 2023, AND THE SUCCESSOR WILL SERVE A NEW TERM OF THAT OFFICE WHICH WILL EXPIRE JUNE 30, 2028.

The Senate proceeded to the consideration of the Resolution.

Senator CASH proposed the following amendment (SR-374.JG0001S):

Amend the concurrent resolution, as and if amended, by striking the second undesignated paragraph and inserting:

That the Senate and the House of Representatives shall meet in joint assembly in the Hall of the House of Representatives on Wednesday, February 1, 2023, at noon, to elect a successor to the Honorable Blake A. Hewitt, Judge of the Court of Appeals, Seat 1, whose term will expire June 30, 2023; to elect a successor to the Honorable H. Bruce Williams, Judge of the Court of Appeals, Seat 2, and the successor will serve a new term of that office, which will expire June 30, 2029; to elect a successor to the Honorable Steven H. John, Judge of the Circuit Court, Fifteenth Judicial Circuit, Seat 1, and the successor will serve the remainder of the unexpired term, which will expire June 30, 2028; to elect a successor to the Honorable Clifton Newman, Judge of the Circuit Court, At-Large, Seat 3, upon his retirement on or before December 31, 2023, and the successor will serve the remainder of the unexpired term, which will expire June 30, 2027; to elect a successor to the Honorable Nancy Chapman McLin, Judge of the Family Court, First Judicial Circuit, Seat 3, and the successor will serve the remainder of the unexpired term, which will expire, June 30, 2028; to elect a successor to the Honorable Timothy H. Pogue, Judge of the Family Court, Twelfth Judicial Circuit, Seat 1, upon his retirement on or before December 31, 2023, and the successor will serve the remainder of the unexpired term, which will expire June 30, 2025; to elect a successor to the Honorable Thomas Tredway Hodges, Judge of the Family Court, At-Large, Seat 7, whose term will expire June 30, 2023; to elect a successor to the Honorable Rosalyn W. Frierson-Smith, Judge of the Family Court, At-Large, Seat 8, whose term will expire June 30, 2023; and to elect a successor to the Honorable Shirley C. Robinson, Judge of the Administrative Law Court, Seat 5, upon her retirement on or before June 30, 2023, and the successor will serve a new term of that office, which will expire June 30, 2028.

Be it further resolved that the General Assembly agrees that all nominations must be made by the Chairman or Vice-Chairman of the Judicial Merit Selection Commission and that pursuant to Section 2-19-

Senator CASH spoke on the amendment.

Remarks by Senator CASH

Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT. The gist of this amendment is to remove the Supreme Court election from the elections that will be scheduled for next Wednesday, February 1st. By delaying this election, it would give us time to pass Senator MASSEY's Bill, which many of us just co-sponsored when it was read across the desk. If you weren't in the Chamber or weren't listening when Senator MASSEY introduced his Bill -- his Bill would remove the limitation that we currently have of only having three candidates available on a ballot. Once Senator MASSEY's Bill passes, the JMSC could provide a slate of candidates that included all qualified candidates according to that Bill and I believe hopefully this could allow us to have a Supreme Court election within a few months at the most. I understand that delaying a Supreme Court election would be an unusual step, but we are dealing with what many people have said to me in private conversations -- what many of us believe to be a constitutional crisis -- judicial activism, legislating from the bench. There's quite a bit of background to those phrases.

This past Sunday, January 22nd was the 50th anniversary of Roe v. Wade. Probably the most egregious example of legislating from the bench of the Supreme Court creating the policy for the Nation out of thin air that I know of. As a result of that decision, over 64 million unborn children have been killed by abortion. Thankfully, Roe v. Wade was overturned this past summer, but what I'm talking about happened in Roe v. Wade recently happened in South Carolina. The Heartbeat Law in South Carolina was struck down. I have talked with numerous people who say this is no different than what happened in Roe v. Wade including attorneys who have assured me that the state decision is just as bad if not worse than what the Supreme Court gave us in Roe v. Wade. If the state decision was just as bad if not worse, in my book that qualifies as a constitutional crisis in South Carolina. The same era of Roe v. Wade has been repeated in South Carolina.

How do we respond though? What is a proper response to that? Our judicial elections have come under a bright spotlight. We all realize that. Judicial philosophy of a candidate has become, if it wasn't already the number one criteria for many legislators. Not geography, not race, not gender -- judicial philosophy has rightfully become the number one criteria for many legislators. I'm not saying that those other criteria aren't of some secondary importance. I believe that we would all agree that they are. The heightened scrutiny I'm talking about has been most noticeable in the Supreme Court election. I recently sat in on a screening of the three candidates that lasted almost four hours. I took ten pages of notes of what these candidates had to say to us as they answered various questions. They all assured us they understood separation of powers and believed in judicial restraint. In essence and quite frankly even verbatim they said to us, if legislation says the sky is green, well, then the sky is green. If you can believe it, not just in this race but in every race, all of a sudden every candidate is a strict constructionist. Not only have the candidates themselves been scrutinized but the process of selecting the candidates has received a lot of attention.

Judicial reform is in vogue. I believe there's going to be a lot of talk about various aspects of judicial reform, both in the House and in the Senate I've heard enough of the ideas, and I'm sure I've not heard all of them, just enough to know there's going to be a wide variance of opinion on what judicial reform should include, and whether we can agree on these different things. I'm not sure just because there's so many various ways that you could change the process if that's what we're trying to do. But I will say this. Of the legislators I've talked with, I haven't talked with any who didn't think that removing the limitation of three candidates for a race -- I haven't talked with any who didn't think that was a good idea. Give us all the qualified candidates on the slate and let us choose from all. Whether it be one or two or three or five or seven. I don't think that's too difficult for us to then decide which candidate we want to support and to vote accordingly. But the current process whereby a select committee prescreens and only gives us at most three candidates is broken.

I was not here whenever that rule or law was made. I'm just saying I don't think it's a good one and think Senator MASSEY's Bill should be passed. We should have a slate of candidates of all qualified before we vote on the next Supreme Court Justice. Supreme Court Justices in South Carolina serve for ten years -- just had a three-two decision I believe was legislating from the bench. Who we put on the bench is going to be occupying a pretty important spot. I'm not saying we do have a candidate. I'm not saying we don't. Do we have the best candidate if you agree with what I believe which is -- do we have the best candidate. I have no way of knowing that because all the candidates who applied are not on the ballot. And if it was known more than three could be qualified, you might have some additional candidates out there who would run for the seat. I have been through three elections -- third election I was elected to the Senate. Every election I was in up to then had between six and eight candidates in it. In which case it was not unusual to be involved in a runoff.

If I had to go through a prescreening process in my races or you had to go through a prescreening process in your races I would not be here and some of y'all may not be here. Some committee was going to say, we're only going to let three people in this race and here they are, that's not right. Anyone qualified to run can be signed up on the ballot, right? I believe this needs to change and I believe it needs to change before we elect someone who is going to serve for ten years. I don't know about you, but I really don't think I'm going to be sitting in this Chamber ten years from now. If we put someone on the bench and they're not what you think they are, you might not be around in ten years to vote against them when they're up for re-election.

I believe it's important we have confidence to try to choose the best candidate we have, and I don't know that we can do that. By the law itself we can only have three candidates. So, I'm suggesting a delay in this election, and I will think there's a couple of advantages to this. One advantage is this -- I believe that having any kind of judicial reform is going to be contentious and difficult to achieve because we have different ideas, for instance, about who should be on the right. There's going to be various competing ideas as to how that committee is comprised. I believe if we can take the most fundamental things in Senator MASSEY's Bill and limit it to that and bring it before this Body quickly, I believe it could be passed. I will tell you this -- if we can't pass a Bill to remove that limitation of three, if we can't pass that Bill in the Senate, then I definitely don't want to go forward with an election, because that will show that things are really broken, if we can't pass Senator MASSEY's Bill.

However, this Body and the Chamber across the aisle can do about anything they want to in short order if they want to do it, right? So, we all know that Senator MASSEY's Bill could probably be passed in both Chambers in a matter of weeks if that's what the leadership wants to do. We could then proceed on that basis to have a slate of candidates that was open to additional people and as I said in my introductory comments, I believe the whole process of election could take place within a few months. If we just go ahead, forge ahead with this election of this Supreme Court Justice, well, now, that takes the heat off passing that

Bill, doesn't it? There's no real pressure to pass that Bill. You know, I've been in the Chamber long enough to know that a lot of good ideas around here just never get done, because once you can find a way to delay them and stall them, they just don't get what they need to get across the finish line. If we delay this election that Bill will be in the spotlight, and I believe the Bill can and should be moved and passed quickly -- very, very simple idea.

So, the first thing is, I believe delaying this election will allow us to get that Bill passed and I'm determined if that's going to be the minimum of judicial reform in this State that all qualified candidates be on the ballot. Everything else, who gets to be on the committee, all these other ideas there we're going to fight over endlessly are not so important to me as that one. Because whether that committee is controlled by conservatives, liberals, or moderates, if we can get all the qualified candidates on the ballot, then that means who is on that committee and how it's selected doesn't become quite so important as it is right now. So, number one, I think it would help us to pass Senator MASSEY's Bill and as soon as we pass that Bill, I believe we could then have an election and maybe we would end up with the same person we have here. I'm not saying we won. But we would have a choice. Those who might want to run for the Supreme Court would have a choice to go before the Screening Committee and find out if they're qualified or not, and then we could do our job from there. Say, well, you know, that would be leaving an empty spot for a couple of months. Well, I've been told, because I've talked with the Majority Leader, that when we have this election next year for -- for replacing the Chief Justice, that the way that all works we're likely to have an opening on the Supreme Court there that's not filled for several months. Maybe even as long as a year because you have to elect -- you have to choose the person who is going to be the next Chief Justice and then once that happens then you have to have the judicial screening for who is going to fill that seat that's become empty. So, the fact that we could have a seat empty for a few months, I'm not going to consider to be a great distraction or reason not to -- not to do what I'm asking this Body to do. So that's it. I'm not going to try to hold up this election. I'm not going to talk unnecessarily. This is what I believe is a judicious thing to do given the fact that we are in a constitutional crisis and it's very important as to who goes on to our Supreme Court.

Remarks by Senator GARRETT

I wish I could hear some wa wa wa, a little baby crying. The United States Supreme Court came down and told us that we needed to balance the rights of an unborn child, and his or her right to life as against a woman's right of choice. Of course, the United States Supreme Court found that there was no such right, and then sent it back to the states to determine whether or not there was this right of privacy. What did it mean in the State of South Carolina? All this question of judicial activism -- one must read to know that we have rampant judicial activism in this State. It's only one opinion in this matter. So much so, that there were questions of what can the Legislator do, what can our Legislature do, when a Supreme Court Justice goes rogue? What do I mean by going rogue? By saying the Legislature didn't know what it was doing, the Legislature passed an act that was arbitrary. Many usually use the word capricious, they didn't. They just said it was arbitrary. The passage of law that we worked on for many years. We passed Fetal Heartbeat way before the Dobbs decision. So, we didn't know what the United States Supreme Court was going to do with Dobbs; we had no idea. The United States Supreme Court passes upon laws in the sense of upholds and then sends them down to the states or they reject laws and tell the states that you no longer have to follow that. South Carolina in reliance upon those passed laws consistent with the federal law which has now been declared improper. The United States Supreme Court in Dobbs said there is no constitutional right to an abortion. It went through many pages of analysis and then we got this decision. There are some opinions based on Roe v. Wade that thought we had no absolute right to abortion. They automatically said well, obviously that decision is going to be unconstitutional. But guess what? That law was passed prior to the Dobbs decision, so what do we do? We go ahead and go forward. We allow that case to be heard because it already enjoined us. Many people knew that they were going to enjoin us just like they did in Dobbs. The Supreme Court enforced it because the United States Supreme Court said there is no right to kill babies. When you do the balance, there is no right to kill babies. When we are faced with this, this creates the necessary discussion. I'm sorry we are even having this discussion. I love the South Carolina Supreme Court. I love this institution they call the Senate. I love the institution called the House of Representatives. I even like our

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 25, 2023

Governor. We passed the Fetal Heartbeat Bill after many years. There were twenty plus years Senator GROOMS worked on that. The Legislature has the plenary power to make decisions in this case. I want you all to go through that one hundred fifty pages and show me where there was some analysis of the balance of the rights of a woman to have a choice and the balance of rights of the unborn child. You won't find it. So, we did exactly what the United States Supreme Court told us not to do. We allowed jurists in this case, one jurist in particular, to make what I call a super Legislator. One of the Justices, Kitteridge called him out for this. If you have somebody that is a super Legislator who is dividing the separation of power and crossing the lane, one Senator referred to it as crabs in a pot. Those crabs are trying to crawl out and others are pulling them back in. Well, I hate to tell you all this, but we had a Justice that got completely out of the pot and went on down the road. Until we reel him in, we have problems.

I want to talk a little bit about judicial reform. What right do we have as Legislators to control somebody that gets out of the pot, so to speak, or gets out of their lane? I looked at the Constitution, and I couldn't find anything of any substance, so the only thing we really can do, is in our appointment process. That process must be done in such a way that we are comfortable. There are many ways to do that, but I was more interested in not necessarily the appointive side of it but what happens if one goes rogue, what do you do? We need to be able to determine the ideology of a Judge before they come on the bench. I believe that the best Judge is a moderate, in the middle, not one way or the other, but could be swayed one way or the other without any preconceived notions. South Carolina Constitution Judicial Department Article V, Section 16 provides disqualification of Judges, Justices and temporary appointments. It says that the General Assembly shall specify the grounds for disqualification, of Justices and Judges to sit on certain cases. It also says the General Assembly shall also provide for the temporary appointment of men who are learned in the law. This is a set of special Justices and Judges when the necessity for an appointment shall arise. Should we not reflect when our own Justice of the Supreme Court calls out a fellow Justice for going off the reservation, should we not have some method that the General Assembly can call them into question? Or at least bring them before to have some discussion about getting outside the lanes? The United States Supreme Court advises there is no federal right to an abortion. Article III, Section 1 of the United States Constitution establishes that the Supreme Court is the Supreme Court. All Legislators, and all State Supreme Courts must follow their rules as they find them. Article I, Section 8 of the South Carolina Constitution is the separation of powers. It provides the government of this State, the legislative, executive, and judicial powers of the government shall forever be separate and distinct from each other. No person or persons exercising the functions of one of the said departments shall assume or discharge the duties of the other. We have a case where the United States Supreme Court sent it back to the State Legislature, but before the State Legislature had a chance to rule on it, or even debate it, then our Supreme Court looked at our law and decided what our rights of privacy were. If you go and look at this analysis it is frightening. It is absolutely frightening what a Justice alone, one person, can do in an opinion -- for instance privacy. The word privacy in this opinion got morphed into meaning many more things than just privacy. What do I mean? It goes to the point of saying that the right of privacy is not just the right of privacy; it is a clear right of privacy. Show me in the Constitution where it says it was a clear right of privacy or what that means, and did the Legislature discuss it? It then, took the right of privacy further, and went to the point of saying that privacy right and privacy interest are processes of deliberation. I don't see that in the Constitution. Although I think it is a good thing, I don't think there's anything in our Constitution saying that before a woman can exercise a right of privacy, she has to have a right of prayer, a discussion with her husband, a discussion with her boyfriend, a discussion with her minister, a discussion with a professional counselor, a discussion with her doctor, other loved ones or friends, she might turn to guidance and advice in making informed consent about whether to continue the pregnancy, and whether to end the life of the child. I would rather they ask whether to allow the child to live. Again, I saw no balancing in that analysis of the child whatsoever. If you are a strict constructionist and you read the Constitution you're supposed to stay within the bounds of the Constitution. At the end of this thing, it was said that the privacy right includes informed consent along with a private choice, and I looked in the Constitution and I still can't find those words. I've been looking at it, I've read it three times, I am trying to find it and it's not there. When he gets through with that, this Justice goes on, and then said if we the Legislature found certain facts, that we would have had to enforce them. We didn't even consider what facts he had in his head that he thought that the Legislature should have thought about, and then responded to. Senator McELVEEN got up and made the point maybe a woman doesn't have enough time between learning of her pregnancy and the decision to make an informed choice.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 25, 2023

Senator McELVEEN said it, then Senator MATTHEWS said it. If we had a discussion about it, I hate to tell you, but we've already ruled on that subject. That topic was discussed by this Body. If we made the decision after discussion of that topic, then the plenary power of this Legislature is superior to anything or any interpretation that our State Supreme Court may try to do. It was said that our actions were arbitrary. Maybe you're okay with that, maybe some of you are okay with our Supreme Court telling us that our actions are arbitrary. I'm not, our actions were thought out and thought through. They may disagree with our position, but our position was stated. It was in the Heartbeat Bill, and in the Heartbeat Bill there are certain responsibilities. From the time you're pregnant, until the time you are expecting, until the time we hear the fetal heartbeat a woman has the right to have an abortion. That's what the law allows for. If she decides to have unprotected sex, there is the morning after pill. Whose responsibility is it -- in a balancing? Why wouldn't the Court have looked at that and said well there's four weeks potential, six weeks potential that they could have known that they were pregnant and then made the decision before the fetal heartbeat. That was a decision this Legislature made. We said six weeks, and the Supreme Court interpreted it to mean four weeks. It doesn't matter, we've set a time that we as the Legislature felt was proper. Now, many of you know I disagree with that. Personally, I think it goes back to conception. This Body, unrelated to my opinion, made that decision after many years of hard work. So, for it to be said that our work was arbitrary concerns me. I go back to Justice Kitteridge; he is talking about the United States Supreme Court but he's talking about the Supreme Courts as a whole. The Supreme Court cautioned restraint in the recognition of unexpressed rights being fundamental in a constitutional sense. Now, we are using the word privacy. Once a claimed right is deemed a constitutional right, society, through its citizens, loses the ability to debate the issue and effect change to the democratic legislative process. Every one of the Justices said that there's no constitutional right to an abortion in South Carolina. This was a consequence of the Roe decision as for half a century. Only the opinion of the Judges mattered in defining the scope to the right of an abortion. Sixty-three million children died. Ladies and gentlemen, maybe there wasn't much crime, but there were sixty-three million children killed. So, the people here in South Carolina have a right to discuss this issue after Dobbs. It said excluding the people and leaving important policy issues in the hands of only Judges is anathema to the design of our constitutional republic and the democratic process. It is for this reason cases have cautioned that courts are to exercise the utmost care whenever we are asked to break new ground in this field. How many times in the Dobbs decision did it say, in every case, abortion is different? Why is abortion different? Because it also involves the balancing of an unborn child which I did not see in this analysis. The liberty protected by the due process clause can be subtly transformed into the policy preference from a member of the judiciary. It is important that our Supreme Court told us we had to be careful about this, and if we weren't careful about this, we could have a problem. I thank my colleague through his years of experience, and I thank you all for listening for my ramblings. As a practicing lawyer for forty years and an advocate for children I make no apologies for making these statements here today. It is imperative that we choose Justices that understand the constitutional right to life as a fundamental right. It is imperative that we have Justices who know what the opinion is and are capable of doing a balancing test. None of them did a balancing test, and a strict constructionist Mr. Kitteridge as well as Justice James did not. It was necessary because the claim on its face was unconstitutional. Again, if the General Assembly decides to give people nineteen weeks or two trimesters, if this Body decides that then that's the law of the case. The Supreme Court does not need to do a whole lot of background work once that decision is made but, that is not what we did here. The offending Justice of the Court must defer to the legislative judgement unless a legislative judgment is unlawful per se. He found the reasoning was unreasonable. Having said that, somehow the right of privacy in our State Supreme Court got morphed into a lot more than was set forth in our Constitution. We need strict constructionists; we don't need people making law especially Justices of the Supreme Court. Any questions?

Remarks by Senator SENN

So gentleman, one of the things I'm not sure that a lot of you may realize and that is that women make up 51.4% of South Carolina's population, so we really are not in the minority. Women make up 37.4% of the South Carolina Bar. At the two law schools in our State, women make up 52% of the student body at USC School of Law and 62% at the Charleston School of Law. What you may not know is that South Carolina is about to become the only State in the entire Nation to not have a female Supreme Court judge and that is embarrassing. It is more embarrassing to me than us being at the bottom of the State with education or having lawyers that don't even understand the separation of powers. That's ridiculous.

Right now, the five members of the Supreme Court are four male and one female. As we know that's going to change -- four white and one black. The black is going to come up next. And let me guess, I know what this Legislature is going to want to do. Let's get a black female -- check, check -- two boxes -- and then we'll be nice and balanced. The Court of Appeals -- nine members, one vacancy, five males, three females. A little more balanced there, right? Seven white and one black -- not quite balanced. Then we look at the Circuit Court -- 49 seats; one vacancy and that one is getting ready to go to a male. So, it's going to be 36 males and 13 females. Why is that when we are 37.4% of the Bar? It's because we are not anywhere near balanced in this Legislature. And I may not get to see a change. I'm one of five. Half the time I feel invisible to y'all. I had a colleague yesterday say right in front of my face, that he felt like that Supreme Court race went how it was supposed to go. Was I not standing right there? I had another colleague when we were in the elevator the other day surrounded by a bunch of Democratic males -- I'm the only female in the elevator -- and what does he say, "Let's circle the wagons boys, we're out numbered." Was I there? I want to know, was I there? Then let's look at Family Court. Family Court -- 60 seats; there are three vacancies, 27 males and 30 females. Thank y'all. Thank y'all. Y'all think we're capable only of dealing with Family Court bull crap? Really? That's just embarrassing. It really is.

And then let's look at the makeup of this Body. We have one chairwoman, one chairwoman and what is she over? Family and Veterans' Services. Now, that's by virtue of our rules, so I'm not going to complain about that. Part of the problem is you don't get women that are going to run for the Senate until after they have done their maternal responsibility usually and stayed home and raised all their babies. But we're not so dumb that babies are all that we know. Look across the hall. There is one -- one female chairwoman. Guess what she's over? Education. She runs a preschool, so actually she's probably suited for it, but the only chairwoman ever in the House has been -- there have been two -- two females both over Education. Why is that? I just don't get it. And like I said, I'm probably never going to see a change in how this Body is made up, but my daughter is around, and our daughters are coming, including yours. And I know for a fact that a lot of your wives and your daughters do not agree with you on this issue of abortion. And here we are on the issue of abortion and we're going to disguise it as rogue justices -- rogue justices -- that makes no sense to me whatsoever.

But I can tell you last Wednesday, the smartest candidate in the whole race dropped out 15 minutes before 12:00, before she could even gather votes. And she, in my opinion, would have been neck and neck right now had she stayed in that race. Because the optics of this, it just -- it is not good. Y'all would be getting heat from all groups around the State had the two women in the race stayed in the race. Because there is nothing, nothing embarrassing about losing. But now what about quitting? And y'all know, I never did lobby a single one of y'all -- not one. But y'all know that the smartest candidate, I believe, would have been a judge who left my partnership 12 years ago. Y'all know this. I never lobbied it. I never mentioned it. I never asked any one of y'all to vote for her because she was my partner. But I fear that her loss is partly my fault because she got painted with a brush that I guess I set forth; because, y'all know my opinion on at least giving a woman through first trimester to make up her mind and to hopefully get her life in order so that she can raise these babies.

But what you didn't look at is that we are defense lawyers. We represent police and first responders. We're conservative. But oh no, y'all did not think her capable of making the decision on her own whether it comported with mine or not. She's her own person, but I fear I caused her to lose. Why? Because I did my job. I told y'all in September what I felt about the issues, and I did my job and now she's prevented from doing hers. But is she prevented? I can't even fuss at this Body for that. She and I have been at each other's throats since she quit last week. Why? Because when she did, 51.4% of the population was let down -- let down. But why did she do it? She's smart and she's tough. She did it because a man told her to -- a man across the street -- he knows who he is. And why she listened to him I will never know because I honestly believe that she could have won this race. And if she didn't, even if she didn't, there would have been no shame in her numbers. But what can I do now? Now we're looking at years with no female justice. And I do appreciate the fact that y'all are turning this into an abortion discussion because at least now we know it really isn't about the smartest judge or the best candidate. It is about who you think it is going to demand forced birth. That's what this is.

I just -- I really -- I don't even know what to say beyond the fact that you should all be embarrassed. We should be embarrassed, me too, that we have allowed this to happen. We have allowed it to happen and why? What's the real reason we allowed it to happen? Because somebody over in the House is scared of seventeen clowns that are basically yanking his chain. Seventeen clowns are what this is about. And it ends up impacting one of the most serious judicial races -- the most serious that I've been a part of. And everybody keeps talking to me about down ballots and stuff. I don't even care about the down ballots at this point. I just really don't, but for y'all to sit here and say we need to change up the elections and you want to have every qualified person come out and be a candidate. If we're going to do that can we please make some type of rule that they don't have to slink about in the lobby and suck up to us at the ropes and beg for appointments with us? Because we're going to have so many more candidates. My gosh, I run up these back stairs whenever the judicial races are going on because it is just too much. And also, while I'm ranting, please don't give judicial candidates my cell phone number. I mean why? That infuriates me. If they know me, they're going to have my number. If they don't, I don't want anybody giving it to them.

There is nothing wrong with the way our system is. I know that this is a good point for everybody to say JMSC is bad, but the reality is lawyers know the other lawyers who are running, and lawyers know the best lawyers for the job. We usually know their temperament. We usually know what they're thinking or what their thought process might be. But for this Legislature, supermajority Republican Party, super-supermajority men to sit here and say, oh, we had a judge who was the swing judge and therefore he is rogue, and we need to implement some type of procedure to rope him in and while we're at it, hey, the right thing happened -- when it happened that our two female candidates backed out. I'm ashamed of that and I'm ashamed about a lot. But one of the things I'm most ashamed about is the next two years with no women and we remain invisible.

On motion of Senator RICE with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator SENN were ordered printed in the Journal.

Senator RANKIN spoke on the amendment.

Senator MALLOY spoke on the amendment.

MOTION ADOPTED

On motion of Senator MASSEY, the Senate agreed that, when the Senate completed its business today, the Senate would stand in recess until 6:45 P.M. for the purpose of attending the Joint Assembly and at the conclusion of the Joint Assembly, the Senate would stand adjourned to meet at 11:00 A.M. tomorrow.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 25, 2023

RECESS

At 5:41 P.M., on motion of Senator MASSEY, the Senate recessed from business until 6:45 P.M.

NIGHT SESSION

The Senate reassembled at 6:45 P.M. and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

Committee to Escort

The PRESIDENT appointed Senators PEELER, SETZLER, BENNETT, MALLOY and SHEALY to escort the Honorable Henry D. McMaster, Governor of South Carolina, and members of his party to the House Chamber for the Joint Assembly.

At 6:50 P.M., the Senate recessed for the purpose of attending the Joint Assembly.

JOINT ASSEMBLY

Address by the Governor

At 7:00 o'clock P.M., the Senate appeared in the Hall of the House.

The PRESIDENT of the Senate called the Joint Assembly to order and announced that it had convened under the terms of a Concurrent Resolution adopted by both Houses.

H. 3603 -- Rep. G.M. Smith: A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION INVITING HIS EXCELLENCY, HENRY DARGAN MCMASTER, GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, TO ADDRESS THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN JOINT SESSION AT 7:00 P.M. ON WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 25, 2023, IN THE CHAMBER OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The Honorable Henry Dargan McMaster, and members of his party, were escorted to the rostrum by Senators PEELER, SETZLER, BENNETT, MALLOY and SHEALY and Representatives Brittain, Erickson, Hiott, Jones, Leber and Thigpen.

The PRESIDENT of the Senate introduced the Honorable Henry Dargan McMaster, Governor of the State of South Carolina.

The Governor addressed the Joint Assembly as follows:

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 25, 2023

State of the State Address

Mr. Speaker, Mr. PRESIDENT, ladies and gentlemen of the General Assembly, my fellow South Carolinians. We are here tonight to address challenges and opportunities.

But first, as in prior years, I'd like to recognize those in uniform whom we lost in the line of duty in 2022. Officer Roy Andrew Barr of the Cayce Police Department; Deputy Austin Derek Aldridge of the Spartanburg County Sheriff's Office; Corporal Sara K. Weaver of Florence County Emergency Medical Services, and Master Police Officer Tyrell Owens-Riley of the Columbia Police Department. To the families and loved ones of these brave South Carolinians, with all our hearts, we offer our condolences. We are eternally grateful for their service.

I am delighted to have with us once again tonight our First Lady, my bride Peggy, our son Henry, Jr., whose wife Virginia is home with their three-month-old daughter, Margot Gray. Also, our daughter Mary Rogers, whose husband Sam is home with their six-month-old son, James Dargan. Please stand and be recognized.

Also, our Lieutenant Governor Pamela Evette, and her husband David are here tonight. Please stand and be recognized. Our state constitutional officeholders are here with us tonight, including our new Superintendent of Education Ellen Weaver. Please stand and be recognized.

Finally, will the members of the best cabinet in the Nation please stand and be recognized. Thank you.

The people of the great State of South Carolina have given me the honor and privilege of serving as your Governor for another four years. My family and I thank you.

My pledge to all is that we will not squander this opportunity; we will continue to act boldly, think big and continue building on our successes. South Carolina is richly blessed with a hardworking and talented people. Our quality of life and cultural heritage, abundant natural resources and prosperous economy make us unique and attractive to all. In fact, South Carolina is the third fastest growing state in the Nation according to the U.S. Census Bureau. People want to be here.

Our booming economy has once again created a record budget surplus, this year totaling over $3.5 billion in unexpected revenue. State government is in superior fiscal shape. Today, we have the largest rainy day reserve fund balance and lowest amount of debt than at any other time in recent memory. So, it should come as no surprise that 2022 was the most successful year for economic growth in our state's history, with the record for the largest capital investment project broken twice in the same year.

In 2022, we announced 120 projects which will create over 14,000 new jobs with $10.27 billion in new capital investment. This is almost two and a half times as much as 2021.

As another sign of our economic strength, last year we almost quadrupled our foreign direct investment from the previous year. Every day, employers are creating new jobs, entrepreneurs are opening new businesses, and companies are deciding to locate in South Carolina.

The Palmetto State has one of the nation's fastest-growing container ports, two innovative inland ports, thirty-three airports, 2,300 miles of rail lines and more than 41,000 miles of state-maintained highways. The Port of Charleston has the deepest harbor -- 52 feet -- on the East Coast and its volume will grow exponentially this year.

There are 208 million people -- two-thirds of the U.S. population -- within two days' drive of South Carolina. Our thriving tourism industry continues to break records. Compared to pre-pandemic levels in 2019, in the 2021-22 fiscal year, accommodations tax collections were up almost 50 percent, our state park system revenues were up 46 percent, and admissions tax collections were up 28 percent. Not only did we drive our way through a debilitating pandemic, with our decisions based on common sense and the Constitution, we thrived.

Tonight, we will recognize several of the businesses which announced new capital investment in South Carolina during the record-breaking year of 2022. As you will notice, the automotive industry continues moving towards electric vehicles, and South Carolina is moving along with it. Last year, I issued an executive order prioritizing the recruitment of these manufacturers to ensure that our State will continue to be seen as the ideal place for manufacturers and suppliers to do business. South Carolina will continue to adapt as the industry innovates and grows.

In Berkeley County, Redwood Materials will invest $3.5 billion -- the single largest announcement in the history of South Carolina -- and create 1,500 jobs for a new battery materials recycling facility.

In the Upstate, BMW will invest $1.7 billion -- the second largest investment in state history: $1 billion of which will prepare Plant Spartanburg to produce electric vehicles and $700 million to build a new, high-voltage battery assembly facility in Woodruff, which will create 300 new jobs.

Envision AESC will invest $810 million in Florence to build a new, state-of-the-art battery cell gigafactory and employ over 1,000 residents to supply technology-leading battery cells to power the next generation of electric vehicles.

In Colleton County, Kontrolmatik Pomega will build a 3 gigawatt-hour capacity lithium-ion battery factory that will produce grid-scale energy storage. The company's $279 million investment will create approximately 575 new jobs.

Bosch made two announcements in 2022 that continue to develop the company's nearly 50-year history in the State of South Carolina.

In Anderson County, Bosch plans to invest $200 million and create up to 350 new jobs to expand operations to become the company's first production operation of fuel cell technology in the United States.

And in Dorchester County, Bosch launched the production of electric motors to support the U.S. market demand for electrified vehicles, with plans for future growth. Bosch plans to invest $260 million and create 350 jobs at its site in North Charleston.

With a combined investment of $625 million and 50 new jobs, Nucor Steel is expanding in Berkeley County to include a new galvanizing line to meet the increased demand for steel, and an air separation unit to modernize the mill.

E.A. Sween, a leading supplier in the "ready-to-eat" sandwich industry, will invest $38 million and create 300 new jobs in Greenwood County.

In Greenville County, Health Supply U.S. is investing $150 million and creating 600 new jobs for a new manufacturing facility that will produce American-made personal protective equipment.

KION North America will invest $40 million and create 450 jobs to reshore the manufacturing of core components for industrial lift trucks from China to Summerville.

Will the leaders from these companies here with us tonight please stand and be recognized when I call your name? We will hold our applause until all are standing. Mr. Jason Thompson, the Chief Financial Officer of Redwood Materials; Ms. Sherry McCraw, the Vice President of Human Resources of BMW; Mr. Jeff Deaton, the Managing Director for North America of Envision AESC; Mr. Bahadir Yetki, the Chief Executive Officer of Kontrolmatik Pomega; Mr. Mike Mansuetti, the President of Bosch North America; Mr. Nathan Pranger, the Vice President and General Manager of Nucor Steel; Ms. Kristi Broadwater, the Senior Vice President of Human Resources for E.A. Sween; Mr. Chris Garcia, the Chief Executive Officer of Health Supply U.S.; Mr. Jonathan Dawley, the President and Chief Executive Officer of KION North America.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 25, 2023

And finally, our Secretary of Commerce, Harry Lightsey, and his remarkable team which worked around the clock to produce these successes, are here tonight. Ladies and gentlemen, thank you all for making 2022 a record-breaking year in South Carolina. And this year, let's do it again.

Last year presented numerous challenges for the people of South Carolina, including those resulting from the misguided and unconstitutional policies of the Biden Administration, such as dramatic inflation and sharp interest rate hikes. Left unchecked, run-away federal spending has created the specter of a recession on the horizon.

Yet, I remain confident about the future of our State because I have faith in our people and in those, they elected to represent them in the General Assembly. And I am excited to renew our successful partnership -- one based on working together through collaboration, communication, and cooperation.

Today, we are presented with an opportunity to take bold, transformative actions that will build prosperity for generations to come. The foundations of our successes rest on three pillars: economic strength, education, and our natural environment.

This past November, South Carolinians overwhelmingly approved a constitutional amendment increasing the minimum required balance in the rainy-day reserve fund. It was increased from 5 percent to 7 percent of the total amount of General Appropriations Act funds available to be appropriated in any year. I now ask the General Assembly to set aside an additional $500 million to voluntarily increase the rainy-day reserve fund minimum balance from 7 percent to 10 percent. By saving this money instead of spending it, we will once again be prepared for any future economic uncertainties, should they arise.

Until recently, South Carolina had the highest personal income tax rate in the southeast and the 12th highest in the Nation. No more. Last year, we worked together to pass the largest income tax cut in state history. This made South Carolina even more competitive with other states for new jobs and capital investment. A tax cut has the impact of a pay raise, letting people keep and spend more of their hard-earned money, which itself is a catalyst for even more economic growth and prosperity.

In February, the state Board of Economic Advisors is scheduled to issue an updated revenue forecast. Should an increase in future revenues allow, I ask the General Assembly to use additional funds to speed up the income tax cut schedule, so taxpayers can keep even more of their hard-earned money.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 25, 2023

In addition, I recommend setting aside a significant amount of funds to re-invest in our state's record-breaking economic development efforts, rather than borrowing it through the issuance of bonds, which increases our state's debt. A one-time appropriation of $500 million will allow the Department of Commerce to satisfy all outstanding obligations and incentives without borrowing money. The House recently approved this appropriation, and it is my hope that the Senate will follow suit.

An additional one-time appropriation of $200 million will allow the department to identify and secure properties for future mega-site development.

Rural South Carolina has everything it needs for beauty and tranquility. But what it needs for good public and economic health is water and sewer. The right water and sewer systems in a county can transform a tax base. That means jobs, good schools, strong families, and a safe and vibrant community. In 2022, the state Rural Infrastructure Authority received $800 million in American Rescue Plan Act funds. Their purpose: to replace, repair, and consolidate our state's aging and outdated rural water, sewer, and stormwater infrastructure, through competitive grants. The demand exceeded the supply, and RIA received grant applications in 2022 for almost $2 billion. This year, I am recommending that a minimum of $380 million in remaining ARPA funds be used to continue making these transformative water and sewer grants in our rural communities.

There is no infrastructure more in need of big, bold, and continued investment than our state's roads, bridges, highways, and interstates. Our successes are outrunning our infrastructure.

Last year, the Department of Transportation got almost $1 billion to accelerate and jump start construction, expansion, and improvements to our state-owned roads, bridges, highways, and to widen interstates. However, in the immortal words of Jerry Reed, "we've got a long way to go and a short time to get there." So we must invest more.

This year, my Executive Budget provides an additional $850 million to continue speeding up the completion of projects which will relieve traffic congestion on interstates and highways, repair or repave local roads and fix over 400 bridges across the State.

Working together, we have taken bold steps to improve the education our children receive in the classroom. Until last year, South Carolina's system for funding K-12 education was archaic and confusing, a piecemeal system consisting of 29 separate line-item appropriations. Now, a consolidated formula makes sure that funding follows the child.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 25, 2023

It keeps pace with student enrollments and provides financial resources to support a state average student-teacher ratio of 11.2 students per teacher, with an average teacher salary, including fringe benefits, of $72,991. My Executive Budget also increases State Aid to Classrooms by $254 million.

To increase the percentage of children who enter our public schools ready to learn, we unleashed the free market and expanded full-day, four-year-old kindergarten to all at-risk children in the State. Parents may now choose the public, private, or for-profit childcare provider that best suits their child's educational needs.

Today, we are serving 16,103 "at-risk" children in the program, which is an all-time high. Last year, there were 18 children eligible to participate in the state-funded, full-day 4K program at St. Martin de Porres Catholic School, located in Columbia. St. Martin is a private school participating in the full day 4K program. This year, parents of nine of those children wanted to enroll their children in five-year-old kindergarten at the school but could not afford to pay the tuition. Thanks to the generosity of the Catholic Church, they were able to continue their education at St. Martin at no cost to the families.

Jonathan McMillan is one of those children. He participated in the full-day 4K program last year and is now enrolled in five-year-old kindergarten at St. Martin. According to his mother and teachers, Jonathan has been saved from further struggle and challenge by staying at St. Martin. "He had challenges upon his arrival. He had different social skills that required the intentionality of our educational team. Jonathan is not shy; he is brilliant and a determined leader." His teacher, Ms. Hare, says that her goal is to help him find his light so he can brightly shine to the world around him. Jonathan is here tonight accompanied by his mother Ms. Djenabou along with the principal of St. Martin, Ms. Delores Gilliard. Ms. Gilliard has served as principal for five years. She completed a 40-year career in the public schools in Richland One school district, spending 22 years as a principal. Jonathan and ladies, please stand and be recognized.

My Executive Budget also provides $25 million in lottery dollars for the creation of education scholarship accounts, or ESAs, pending a change in the law by the General Assembly. These funds will allow lower-income parents to choose the type of education environment and instruction that best suits their child's unique needs.

My Executive Budget also proposes to continue the remarkable progress we have made in raising teacher pay. And we must do more. New teaching positions are being created every year at new schools constructed to keep up with our growing population.

Six years ago, the minimum starting salary of a teacher in South Carolina was $30,113 and the average teacher salary was below the southeastern average. Today, the minimum starting salary of a teacher in South Carolina is $40,000 and the average teacher salary now exceeds the southeastern average. My Executive Budget proposes increasing teacher salaries by $2,500 at every step of the state salary schedule, making the new minimum starting teacher salary $42,500. My goal by 2026 is a minimum starting salary of at least -- at least -- $50,000. In addition, my Executive Budget provides every eligible public-school teacher for the upcoming school year, with a one-time $2,500 retention supplement, half in December and the other half in May.

Miss MyKenna Blankenship is a first-year teacher at Bay Road Elementary School in the Darlington County School District. She teaches first grade. Miss Blankenship was a Teaching Fellow at Francis Marion University where she completed her bachelor's degree. She is the daughter of Ms. Jennifer Blankenship, also a teacher in the Darlington County School District. She teaches English and the Teacher Cadet Program at the Mayo High School for Math, Science and Technology. The Teacher Cadet Program is a high school course which encourages academically talented high school students to consider teaching as a career. MyKenna always wanted to be a teacher. As she said, "my mom was a lot of inspiration for my journey. . . I enjoy seeing students make connections with their life and what they are learning in school, but also the 'Ah-Ha' moment when they truly understand a concept. My first year is going awesome and I could not have been more blessed with the community I chose. These students are bright and always begin the day with a surprise. I learn more as a teacher and person every day. This career and opportunity with the students fulfill my life in more than one way." MyKenna and her mother are here with us tonight. Ladies, please stand and be recognized.

Placing an armed, certified school resource officer -- SRO -- in every school, in every county, all day, every day, has been one of my top priorities. At my request, the General Assembly began funding a grant program administered by the Department of Public Safety (DPS) to provide school districts with funds to hire more resource officers for our 1,283 public schools.

The grant program has been very successful and has more than doubled the number of officers assigned to a school, going from 406 to 982 in just four years. This year I am recommending an additional $27.3 million to provide an additional 188 schools with an SRO. With this appropriation, 90 percent of South Carolina's public schools will have an SRO assigned to their campus.

In July of 2021 Michael Tucker was named Program Manager for the School Resource Officer (SRO) Program at DPS. During Mr. Tucker's first year as the SRO Program Manager, working with school districts and local law enforcement agencies, the number of state-funded School Resource Officers increased by 74 percent. For his exemplary work to improve school safety in our State, Mr. Tucker was recognized in October as the DPS's Public Servant of the Year. Joining Michael tonight is the Director of the Department of Public Safety Rob Woods and Chief of Staff Michael Oliver. Gentlemen, please stand and be recognized.

To train our state's SROs, I recommend providing the State Law Enforcement Division with $3.5 million to create the Center for School Safety and Targeted Violence. Located at the old Gilbert Elementary School, this partnership with Lexington School District One will provide a state-of-the-art training center in a real life setting for law enforcement and school personnel.

Last year, we expanded the investigative jurisdiction of the state Inspector General to reflect concerns that South Carolinians have regarding the management of our public schools, especially the management of taxpayer funds by school boards. It was a good first step toward restoring the public's confidence in the actions of school boards. We should expand this transparency.

To this end, the public should also know who is getting paid to influence decisions made by county, municipal, or school board officials. These "lobbyists" should be required to register with the State Ethics Commission, just like those who are paid to lobby the legislature. What's good for the State House -- is good for the Schoolhouse. Members of the General Assembly, send me this legislation and I will sign it into law.

We know that access to an affordable degree or skilled trade certificate is essential to ensure that our State has the trained and educated workforce to compete for jobs and investment in the future. Manufacturers in particular view the availability of skilled labor as critical to their decision to invest here.

To address the critical labor shortage affecting key sectors of our economy, I am asking the General Assembly to invest an additional $78 million in lottery funds to expand Workforce Scholarships for the Future through the South Carolina Technical College System.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 25, 2023

In the last two years, this highly successful program has empowered over 10,000 South Carolinians to earn an industry credential in high-demand careers like manufacturing, healthcare, computer science, information technology, transportation, logistics, or construction.

Geena Rocanella, a graduate of Airport High School in Lexington School District Two, is pursuing an Associate Degree in Early Childhood and Elementary Education from Midlands Technical College. In the afternoons, she works in an after-school program, caring for preschool and elementary-age students. After-school programs provide activities for students and allow mothers and fathers to work. After completing her Associate Degree, Ms. Rocanella plans to transfer to a four-year college to complete her teacher certification requirements and become a teacher. She received a Workforce Scholarship to attend Midlands Technical College because all regions of our State face a critical shortage of child-care workers. According to the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, there are 100,000 fewer child-care workers today in America than before the pandemic. They are in high demand. Ms. Rocanella is joining us tonight, and with her is Dr. Ron Rhames, President of Midlands Technical College. And this would not have been possible without the tremendous leadership of Dr. Tim Hardee, President of the State Technical College System, who is also here tonight. Will you all please stand and be recognized.

My Executive Budget marks the fourth consecutive year that I have asked the General Assembly to freeze college tuition for in-state students, with an appropriation to our institutions of higher education of $43 million. This represents the 5.2 percent increase in the Higher Education Price Index for 2022 and is based on the number of in-state students enrolled at each public institution.

We are also providing a record amount of financial aid and scholarships for students in need. I propose providing $80 million so that every South Carolinian who qualifies for federal need-based financial aid -- as measured by federal Pell Grants -- receives sufficient state financial assistance to attend any in-state public college, university, or technical college.

And students at private, independent, and historically black colleges and universities will receive an additional $20 million for tuition grants and assistance.

In just two years, the University of South Carolina (USC) has almost doubled the number of in-state students receiving need-based grants from 2,000 students to more than 3,900 students from every county in the state.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 25, 2023

With us tonight is Jazmine Lara Guerrero, a junior at the University of South Carolina majoring in Political Science. Upon graduating, she plans to pursue a Ph.D. in Political Science. For the past three years, she has received a need-based grant. Miss Guerrero is a first-generation college student. She is an Opportunity Scholar, a Ronald E. McNair Scholar, and a Magellan Scholar. She is part of the Gamecock Guarantee Program, which provides financial and academic support to first-generation college students. And she will graduate having no student loan debt. Before entering USC, Miss Guerrero attended the Academy for the Arts, Science and Technology, a public magnet high school in Myrtle Beach. Jazmine, please stand and be recognized.

We must continue to address the repairs needed at the aging, state-owned buildings, and infrastructure on the campuses of our four-year colleges, technical colleges, and universities. I ask the General Assembly to join me in paying down the state's deferred maintenance liability with $209 million in Capital Reserve funds to be distributed pro-rata based on each institution's in-state enrollment. Let's pay for this right now, rather than borrowing it and creating more debt.

In addition, I ask that the General Assembly complete the funding of the Battelle Alliance, a collaborative nuclear sciences research partnership between the University of South Carolina, Clemson University, South Carolina State University, and the Savannah River National Laboratory. With an appropriation of $100 million in addition to the $20 million appropriated last year, the alliance will develop workforce training programs designed to develop a pipeline of new talent to fill engineering, science, research, and management positions for private industry and nuclear facilities, including those operated by the Department of Energy. The impact on our research campuses will be far-reaching and dramatic.

It's clear that a mental health crisis exists in South Carolina following the COVID-19 pandemic, especially among our young people. Many are still struggling with the effects of disruptions, virtual instruction, isolation, and constant changes to normal routines. South Carolinians in crisis must have access to professional mental health counseling and services. To meet the growing demand for mental and behavioral health services, I am recommending an allocation of nearly $45 million to the Department of Mental Health. These funds will support the agency's ability to recruit and retain mental health professionals, provide inpatient services, increase access to crisis services such as suicide prevention hotlines -- including one specifically for veterans -- and community-based treatment services.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 25, 2023

Last year, I directed Health and Human Services Director Robbie Kerr to initiate an immediate review of our state's behavioral health funding and delivery system. It became clear from Director Kerr's efforts that the time has come to modernize and restructure South Carolina's siloed healthcare delivery agencies: the Department of Mental Health, the Department of Health and Human Services, the Department of Health, and Environmental Control, among others.

My Executive Budget includes a $5 million appropriation to the Department of Administration for the purpose of procuring the professional expertise necessary to analyze and provide the General Assembly, by June 30, 2024, with a comprehensive plan to restructure these agencies, consolidating and privatizing services where possible.

Our booming economy sometimes puts our state agencies at a disadvantage with the private sector in recruiting and retaining good employees. My Executive Budget provides $78 million for recruitment and retention salary increases for state employees; $2 million for a one-time $2,500 "sign on bonus" for new, first-time state government hires; and $2 million to the Department of Administration so they may assist smaller state agencies with marketing and advertising efforts to fill those "hard to hire" positions.

I am also recommending there be no increase in employee-paid premiums for State Health Plan participants and that we add -- at no cost to state employees -- an annual OBGYN exam for all females, similar to the existing no-cost adult wellness visit which was added two years ago.

Finally, the South Carolina Retirement System, often called the "state pension plan," has one of the largest unfunded liabilities in the Nation, at nearly $24 billion. The system only has assets equal to 64 percent of what is required to pay beneficiaries, which places our pension system fifth worst in the Nation. Once again, I ask that the state plan be closed to new beneficiaries as of December 31, 2023, and that new state employees prospectively enrolled in the State Optional Retirement Program, which is a defined contribution 401(k) plan. Another year of inaction is another year in which the unfunded liability in the pension plan will increase. We cannot "kick this can down the road" any further.

To keep South Carolinians safe, we must maintain a robust law enforcement presence -- and properly "fund the police." Our state law enforcement agencies continue to lose valuable and experienced people because they are unable to remain competitive with pay and benefits.

Thanks to the compensation review conducted by Ms. Marcia Adams, Director of the Department of Administration, our state law enforcement, and criminal justice agencies have begun to stem the tide of personnel loss with $40 million in recruitment and retention pay raises provided in last year's General Appropriations Act.

I am proposing that we continue to build on this momentum, by providing an additional $21.5 million for recruitment and retention pay raises this year with the understanding that we will continue doing it. I am also proposing a $2,000 state income tax credit for every active-duty law enforcement officer, firefighter, first responder, and emergency medical technician. This nonrefundable tax credit will provide a total of $38.4 million in income tax relief for those who put their lives on the line each day to protect and serve our people.

Additionally, I recommend that we maintain a proviso suspending the $10,000 retirement cap for anyone enrolled in the Police Officers Retirement System. This will allow retired officers to return to work and fill existing vacancies and make our State safer.

Our law enforcement officers know who the repeat criminals are. They commit over 80 percent of the crimes. Sixteenth Solicitor Kevin Brackett shared a shocking example of how bad this problem has become. On September 30, 2018, a repeat criminal, whose name I shall not repeat, who had a prior record of drugs, assault and battery, burglary, and illegal gun possession, was arrested and charged with possession of two stolen pistols, possession with intent to distribute crack and fentanyl -- and to distribute it near a park or school - resisting arrest and possession of a stolen M16A4 machine gun. He was released on a $10,000 bond. Less than four months later, he was charged with domestic violence of a high and aggravated nature for violently assaulting his pregnant girlfriend. Once again, he was released on bond.

Then, a few weeks after that, this repeat criminal, out on bond, shot two people, killing one. The surviving gunshot victim was the same pregnant girlfriend he assaulted weeks earlier. He also held four people at gunpoint, assaulting three of them with a hammer. He fled and then shot a third victim later that same day. She survived. After all that, he was finally arrested, convicted, and was eventually sentenced to life in prison. Unfortunately, this is happening every day. How long are we going to let this happen?

Law enforcement needs our help. They need stronger laws to keep illegal guns out of the hands of criminals and juveniles, and new laws to "close the revolving door" and keep career criminals behind bars and not out on bond. That means no bond for repeat criminals. Those who commit a crime while out on bond will receive an automatic mandatory five-year felony sentence with no early release or parole -- on top of the sentence for their previous crimes.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 25, 2023

Currently, there are no graduated criminal penalties for illegal gun possession in state law. That means the penalty is the same no matter how many times the criminal gets caught, which provides no deterrent. Graduated felony penalties, with no bond, will help keep repeat criminals behind bars and not out on bail where they can commit more crimes.

We also need to stop on shady bail bond practices. Last October, I directed the Department of Insurance to crack down on these practices within its authority. Today I propose the establishment of minimum standards for court-ordered GPS or electronic monitoring, and the imposition of penalties on bondsmen who fail to maintain electronic monitoring or fail report to violations of bond conditions to court.

We have no means to carry out a death sentence in South Carolina -- and the murderers know it. The families and loved ones of these murderers' victims know it, too.

The Department of Corrections has been unable to carry out the death penalty by lethal injection since 2011 because the companies which make the drugs will not sell them unless their identities are shielded by state law from anti-death penalty activists. Fourteen states have enacted such a shield law. Director Bryan Stirling and I have asked the General Assembly to address this for over five years. In an effort to solve this problem, we amended the death penalty law to make the electric chair the default method if lethal injection was unavailable and added the firing squad as a new means of execution. It was immediately challenged in court, scheduled executions were halted, and we now -- once again -- await a decision by our state Supreme Court.

Ladies and gentlemen, we cannot keep waiting. I ask the General Assembly again: pass a shield law. We must give these grieving families and loved ones the justice and closure they are owed by law and tell the people of South Carolina that their government believes in the rule of law -- just like they do.

We must also re-examine those issues, practices, and laws that make our State less competitive and make it difficult for families, businesses, and entrepreneurs to invest, grow, and thrive. One issue in need of re-examination is in the area of civil litigation known as "joint and several liability." Nobody, including business owners should be penalized for the actions of others, simply because they have more money. Nor should anyone be absolved of responsibility for their own actions. I am confident that we can find a commonsense formula which will provide accountability and just compensation without damaging our economy.

In addition, I suggest that it's time for members of the General Assembly who are attorneys -- to stop suing the bodies in which they serve, stop suing state agencies in plaintiff actions, and stop suing elected officials. This is absurd. It diminishes the public's confidence not only in the lawyer legislators -- but the rest of state government as well.

We must also ensure that the public has confidence in whom and how all our state's judges are selected, by making the processes more transparent and accountable. South Carolina is one of two states in which the General Assembly selects the members of the judiciary. It appears that the public's confidence in this arrangement is waning. Too often, the people's business is unattended. "Justice delayed is justice denied." I suggest that our Founding Fathers prescribed a method for judicial selection that has served our federal government well and with which the public is quite familiar. Gubernatorial appointment of all judges, with the advice and consent of the state Senate, requires no "re-invention of the wheel," will inspire the confidence of our people, and will encourage more excellent attorneys to seek public service.

Last year, the U.S. Supreme Court's ruling in Dobbs v. Jackson Women's Health Organization gave us cause for confidence when it recognized that Roe v. Wade was "egregiously wrong" on "the day it was decided" and that the U.S. Constitution does not prohibit states from regulating or prohibiting abortion. Unfortunately, the South Carolina Supreme Court delivered a temporary setback earlier this month. In a 3-2 decision, the court struck down the Fetal Heartbeat and Protection from Abortion Act, concluding that it violated a constitutional provision that was proposed and adopted before Roe v. Wade, at a time when nearly all abortions were illegal in South Carolina. Respectfully, the court's decision is at odds with the law and the facts, and the lead opinion's results-oriented reasoning threatens to disrupt our constitutional separation of powers.

When I signed the Heartbeat Act into law, I was confident that it was constitutional. I still am. Therefore, I will be filing a petition for rehearing next week, along with other state officials, and I remain optimistic that we will prevail in our historic fight to protect and defend the right to, and the sanctity of life.

Finally, our shared cultural and natural heritage, abundant natural resources and prosperous economy make us the envy of others and attractive to all. Explorers for kings and queens marveled at our mountains, beaches, sea islands, and marshes. They reported back that the land was lush, fertile, and brimming with abundance. And I have no doubt that they would have the same reaction today. When the French, Spanish, and English settlers began arriving in South Carolina over 450 years ago, there were around two dozen groups or “tribes” of indigenous peoples, or Native Americans, residing in the Lowcountry.

The Ashepoo, Bohicket, Combahee, Edisto, Kiawah, Sewee, St. Helena, Wando, among others lived and thrived here and their names live on today as majestic rivers, sea islands, towns, and entities. Currently, a number of tribes are officially recognized. The Catawba Indian Nation, the Beaver Creek Indians, the Edisto Natchez-Kusso Tribe of South Carolina, the Pee Dee Indian Nation of Upper South Carolina, the Pee Dee Indian Tribe, the Piedmont American Indian Association, the Santee Indian Organization, the Sumter Tribe of Cheraw Indians, the Waccamaw Indian People, and the Wassamasaw Tribe of Varnertown Indians. Many of the leaders of South Carolina’s tribes are here with us tonight. Please stand and be recognized.

By the time the English established the permanent settlement of Charles Towne on the banks of the Ashley River in 1670, a global network for trading and selling West Africans into slavery was well established by European nations, sending enslaved people to Brazil, the West Indies, and the American colonies. Between 1700 and 1775, forty percent of enslaved West Africans entering the colonies did so through Gadsden’s Warf in Charleston, which today is the location of the new International African American Museum.

They came from the Winward Coast, the Ivory Coast, and the Gold Coast areas of Western Africa, known today as Senegal, Sierra Leone, the Republic of Congo, and Ghana. The importation of enslaved persons was criminalized in the United States in 1808. Descendants of these people are proudly represented today by the Gullah Geechee Nation, some living on the sea island properties owned by their ancestors. The Penn Center, on St. Helena Island, with its national landmark designation, serves as the cultural “capitol” and historical repository for the preservation of our Gullah heritage. Queen Quet Marquette L. Goodwine, Chieftess of the Gullah Geechee Nation, is with us tonight. Please stand and be recognized.

It is believed that the first European Jewish settlers arrived in Charleston around 1700 to take advantage of the civil and religious liberty afforded in the colony of South Carolina. The congregation Kahal Kadosh Beth Elohim has the oldest synagogue in continuous use in North America and is known as the cornerstone of American Reform Judaism. By 1800, South Carolina had the largest Jewish population of any state in the United States.

More battles and skirmishes were fought during the Revolutionary War in South Carolina than in any other state. The victory at Cowpens over the British Army turned the tide of the American Revolution and secured life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness for a new Nation. And the term “Sandlapper” was born as a colloquial nickname bestowed upon South Carolinians by retreating British troops. Efforts are underway now to preserve the stories and places of these historic events.

Clearly, South Carolina has an incomparable cultural and natural heritage which distinguishes our State and people from all others. We must honor, preserve and be good stewards of that which we have been given.

Economic growth and the preservation of our shared heritage are not opposing objectives which must be balanced as in a competition, one against the other. Instead, they are complementary, intertwined, and inseparable, each dependent on the other. To strengthen one is to strengthen the other.

The question today is: Will anyone recognize South Carolina in 100 years? Will we allow our state’s culturally and environmentally significant structures, monuments, lands, islands, and waters to be lost -- to over-development, mismanagement, flooding, erosion, or storm damage? Or will we preserve and protect our history, our culture and our environment, and the public’s access to them, before they are lost forever. This is our moment to act while we still can. To that end, I am recommending that a total of $266 million be appropriated to the Conservation Land Bank, the Department of Natural Resources, and the Office of Resilience, for the purpose of identifying and preserving culturally or environmentally significant properties and tracts in which public access is in jeopardy of being lost forever.

In closing, to the members of the General Assembly, I say let us continue our successful partnership, one that has been based on communication, collaboration, and cooperation.

Let us embrace civility and comity through our thoughts, our actions, and our words -- and urge our people, especially the young people, to be proud of their State.

And let us set our State on a course that will provide the opportunity for prosperity, success, and happiness for generations of South Carolinians. The best is yet to come. May God continue to bless America, and our great State of South Carolina.

MOTION ADOPTED

On motion of Senator GROOMS, with unanimous consent, the Senate stood adjourned out of respect to the memory of Mr. Ronald “Ron” Calhoun Fulmer, Sr. of Columbia, S.C. Ron served in the Army as first lieutenant in the Vietnam War. He was a Citadel graduate and loved his home church St. John’s Lutheran Church. Ron served in the House of Representatives in the late 1980s representing District 119 in Charleston County. He started Fulmer Public Relations, Inc. and later worked with State Capitol Group, LLC. Ron received many awards and accolades including the Order of the Palmetto. Ron was a loving husband, devoted father and doting grandfather who will be dearly missed.

ADJOURNMENT

At 8:07 P.M., on motion of Senator MASSEY, the Senate adjourned to meet tomorrow at 11:00 A.M.

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The Senate assembled at 11:00 A.M., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Joshua 22:5b

Joshua gave this commandment to his people: “. . . to love the Lord your God, to walk in all his ways, to obey his commands, to hold fast to him and to serve him with all your heart and all your soul.”

Please join me as we bow in prayer: Holy God, today we pray more pointedly than ever for each and every person who works here in the South Carolina Senate. The duties, the pressures, the responsibilities upon our Senate President, on each of the other Senators, on each staff aide and every support person really are significant. So as these servants labor on behalf of the people of our State, Lord, may each individual trust in You with all their heart and soul, continually striving to do their absolute best. And may the end results not just reflect upon them or upon this Senate, but may they illustrate this Senate’s desire, O God, to honor You. So we humbly pray in Your loving name, dear Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

Doctor of the Day

Senator GARRETT introduced Dr. Gregory Tarasidis of Greenwood, S.C., Doctor of the Day.

Indicates New Matter

The Senate assembled at 12:00 Noon, the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

I Chronicles 29:17a

Before passing along the mantle of leadership to his son, David said:

“ ‘I know, my God, that you test the heart and are pleased with integrity.’ ”

Good friends, join me as we bow in prayer: It’s not at all unusual, O Lord, for us to find that we are being personally tested, over and over. Indeed, the pressures of daily life so often seem to work against each one of us in unrelenting fashion. Consequently, this reality brings us today to ask, dear God, that You grant to everyone serving here in the Senate of South Carolina the wisdom, patience and courage to meet the many challenges before them, and to do so with unfailing integrity. And consequently might each of these leaders unflinchingly tackle and resolve every issue before them, ultimately bringing about good for all of the people of our State. We so pray in Your loving name, dear Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

Doctor of the Day

Senator GOLDFINCH introduced Dr. Gerald Harmon of Georgetown, S.C., Doctor of the Day.

Leave of Absence

On motion of Senator CASH, at 12:49 P.M., Senator RICE was granted a leave of absence for today.

Expression of Personal Interest

Senator MALLOY rose for an Expression of Personal Interest.

Remarks by Senator MALLOY

Thank you PRESIDENT ALEXANDER and members of the Senate. I rise today to speak briefly before we have the next call in this Body. The next call is on S. 39, which is the Education Scholarship Trust Fund, and it is a very critical call. This is a matter that has been before us, Senator GROOMS, for the better part of twenty years. This Bill is very much desired by many members of our Body and some people in our State. Before we move forward, let us recognize that this Bill was discussed last year and ended up in conference committee -- we had a product that we were almost there on, and we did not come to a resolution. This year we've been on this Bill for the better part of two weeks, and I realize that the Senate needed to move forward.

The reason that I stand before you though, is that I thought about it after Thursday, and I have to pay respect and tribute to Senator MASSEY, the Majority leader. Senator MASSEY and I have been working on these rules for a period of time, and he has done a magnificent job shepherding the Senate and in giving voice to the Minority party. I think that it is important to understand that we have forty-six members, thirty in the Majority, sixteen in the Minority, and attempting to balance that is challenging. But in our attempt to try to balance what was going to happen in this Body last week, during the cloture motion, I think that there are some things that we probably need to pay attention to. As I understand it, there are eight amendments from each side that you can get five minutes for and five minutes against that are being shepherded by the Education committee chair, Senator HEMBREE on the Majority side. It is being shepherded by Senator HUTTO from the Minority side, and generally for those that were in on that position, it seems as though that it's going to work out. There is not much conflict in exactly what is going to go on the desk. But I want to caution us as we move forward, and to tell the Senate, we're not just voting in teams over here. We're voting to protect the Senate and the institution. Suppose that someone on this side is in total opposition with the Minority position and they have to get it approved from the Minority leader and vice versa. I realize that we appeal to the conscience of the people, and we say, "Guess what, we're going to let most of these things in." While this issue may work out, I think that we must be careful not to disenfranchise any member of the Body with opposing views.

I know that it has been a long-standing push from my friend, Senator MASSEY, that he doesn't want this Body to become another Washington, D.C., and I applaud him for that. As I observe this Body, we are sometimes quick on the trigger, so I applaud the folks that want to make certain that the voices are heard. And I also get it when folks say, "You know we're two weeks in, we got to move on." But I know this: the rules are the rules. Rule 15A is rarely used over here, in fact, I just confirmed it was used only one time last year. We don't want to have to end up overusing the privilege.

I remember a time when we would not put a member of the Body into this situation. My next point is: are there Bills on the desk? And if Bills are not on the desk, should we not wait to see what else is done to put up one of your eight to be able to end up making the change if you will.

I know that people are watching, wanting to get all the amendments on the desk beforehand because we want to make certain that it's fair. I think there's been an attempt to try and do that. In fact I'm told that from one perspective, that all the amendments may not be used for the eight amendments that we voted on. Now I do recognize this: we do a lot of things by unanimous consent, but this issue that I'm talking about and cautioning us on as we go forward was voted on by the entire Senate. That means that it is the way that we're going to operate. We also do it by unanimous consent. I'm just cautioning that if we have this happen in the future, there could be unforeseen difficulties. So we learn from what we are having now to go forward, to make certain that even though we have to move the process along, the rules are the rules. This particular motion could be, except for the goodwill of the people that have been working on it, a disaster for the lack of specificity in it. There are rules in the Minority party to allow them to do a cleanup piece and a piece from the Majority to have a cleanup piece, and of course you could also fix it on third reading.

I would hope as we go forward that obviously we get up here and when it is time for the Senate to act, the Senate needs to act. And Rule 15 would be the rule that we would end up using. My last point is that I think we're fortunate to have Rule 15. So many general assemblies don't have it. It's easy to end up not having it now until you think that you're going to need it. But keep in mind, the Majority makes the policy, the Minority makes the comments, so if we don't get the comments, not party-wise, not just the Minority view, that is the Federalist Papers issue, Senator CAMPSSEN. I would ask that as we move forward we remain cautious as to how we end up invoking cloture and putting the approval of a Bill or amendment by another member of the Senate by another member of the Senate; that part is not acceptable.

I think it would be a difficult situation because the person representing the Minority may object to the amendment, and if you went to the Majority and they said, "I don't want you to put up the amendment in support", then in my view it disenfranchises the member by not being able to put up their amendment. Conversely, your amendment could already be deserving and still taken back. This is not a total criticism. I think this is just a matter to consider as we go forward, as to how cloture should be invoked. I know it could be even harsher if we just invoke Rule 15A. There is an attempt to have every side heard, that was what I was trying to applaud.

On motion of Senator WILLIAMS, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator MALLOY were ordered printed in the Journal.

The Bill, as amended, was read the second time, passed and ordered to a third reading.

Statement by Senator SETZLER

I believe that S. 39 violates the State Constitution's prohibition against public money going to private and religious schools. Section 4, Article XI of the South Carolina Constitution prohibits public funds from being used for the direct benefit of any religious or other private schools. S. 39 diverts money from the State Treasury -- public funds -- to pay for tuition at religious and private schools. For that reason I voted against the Bill.

Motion Adopted

On motion of Senator MASSEY, the Senate agreed to stand adjourned.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 31, 2023

MOTION ADOPTED

On motion of Senator BENNETT, with unanimous consent, the Senate stood adjourned out of respect to the memory of Mr. Jerry Stoots of Goose Creek, S.C. Jerry was a graduate of Appalachian State University where he played baseball. He was a beloved coach in the Lowcountry for 50 years and taught P.E. and driver's education while serving as athletic director. Jerry was inducted into the S.C. Athletic Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 2008, S. C. Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in 2017 and also the Charleston Baseball Hall of Fame. Jerry loved country music, fishing, watching the Dodgers play and spending time with family. He was a member of Summerville Baptist Church. Jerry was a loving husband, devoted father and doting grandfather who will be dearly missed.

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The Senate assembled at 1:00 P.M., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Deuteronomy 26:5b

In Deuteronomy the people are urged to declare before God that: “ ‘A wandering Aramean was my ancestor; he went down into Egypt and lived there as an alien, few in number, and there he became a great nation.’ ”

Let us pray: O Gracious God, You have bestowed such wondrous blessings upon South Carolina. For in addition to the manifold natural resources we celebrate here in our State, we also give heartfelt thanksgiving for the rich diversity of our citizenry, for the incredible promise they offer for the decades ahead. From those earliest humans who roamed throughout this region to the most recent residents who have moved here from Ohio and New York and so many other places, we have grown to be a populous and relatively prosperous people. So with thankful hearts, O God, we ask that You be with our Senators as they continue to wrestle wisely with ways to meet the needs of all of our citizens. In Your loving name we pray, Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

Point of Quorum

At 1:04 P.M., Senator SETZLER made the point that a quorum was not present. It was ascertained that a quorum was not present.

S. 304 -- Senators Turner, Climer and Verdin: A BILL TO AMEND THE SOUTH CAROLINA CODE OF LAWS BY AMENDING SECTION 56-5-1885, RELATING TO OVERTAKING AND PASSING ANOTHER VEHICLE IN THE FARTHEST LEFT-HAND LANE, SO AS TO INCREASE THE FINE FROM TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS TO ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS AND TO PROVIDE THAT SEVENTY-FIVE DOLLARS FROM EACH FINE COLLECTED MUST BE CREDITED TO THE HIGHWAY PATROL.

The Senate proceeded to the consideration of the Bill.

The Committee on Transportation proposed the following amendment (SR-304.JG0001S), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 1, by striking Section 56-5-1885(E)(1) and inserting:

(1) A person who is adjudicated to be in violation of the provisions of this section must be fined not more than ~~twenty-five~~ one hundred dollars, no part of which may be suspended. No court costs, assessments, or surcharges may be assessed against a person who violates a provision of this section. A custodial arrest for a violation of this section must not be made, except upon a warrant issued for a failure to appear in court when summoned or for a failure to pay an imposed fine. A violation of this section does not constitute a criminal offense. Seventy-five percent of each fine collected pursuant to this section shall be credited to State Highway Patrol. Notwithstanding Section 56-1-640, a violation of this section must not be:

(a) included in the offender's motor vehicle records maintained by the Department of Motor Vehicles;

(b) included in the criminal records maintained by SLED; or

(c) reported to the offender's motor vehicle insurer.

Recorded Vote

Senator MALLOY desired to be recorded as voting against the third reading of the Bill.

Statement by Senator MALLOY

S. 39, while touted as a major piece of education reform legislation, may not make the substantive changes needed to improve our state's schools. To my mind, any such change measure worth the Body's valuable time and its considered debate must answer a key question: what are we doing for children? From the debate in the Body, it would seem that the emphasis of this Bill has become what we are not doing for children. We are not ensuring that the children most in need are able to access a new and potentially greatly improved academic setting; the Bill now allows families with six-figure incomes to use state dollars to supplement their incomes. Second, we are not ensuring that vulnerable children have the ability to leave what might be a personally challenging public school environment; the Bill does not include basic nondiscrimination provisions. This means children who have been raised differently, live differently or worship differently can be turned away at schoolhouse doors. Finally, we are not guaranteeing our children a high-quality educational experience. The Bill lacks basic academic accountability measures that would ensure that the General Assembly can fully and regularly evaluate the schools we are now subsidizing.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 2023

Over the next three years, S. 39 will cost over $190 million to the taxpayers of South Carolina. How many high-quality teachers could we hire with $190 million? How many hours of tutoring could be provided to students who need extra time and assistance with $190 million? How many support services such as mental health counseling, social work, afterschool programs, or specialized career counseling could we provide -- all proven interventions -- instead of underwriting private schools to the tune of $190 million?

I do not see S. 39 as the systemic change needed to provide students in our State a better chance at a successful life via improved education outcomes. We are largely doing something not to better the outcomes of students, but to better the bottom lines of private schools. Further, the research and data outcomes from similar voucher programs in other states does not support the investment our State is about to make in this untested, largely unaccountable program. I am uncomfortable with the notion that students' rights are not unambiguously and explicitly enumerated in the Bill and foresee myriad situations where parents and students are turned away from private schools on pretext to maintain homogenous classrooms. Private schools with private revenue, selective admissions policies and freedom from any regulatory oversight will continue to thrive without the public dollars we are committing to them today. I much prefer pursuing ways we can support students to excel in our public schools. There are teachers and leaders and families who are working tirelessly to help children. I believe our priorities have become diverted. We need to focus our attention, energy, resources and best ideas on making sure all public schools are excellent in our State.

For these reasons, I voted against the Bill.

AMENDED, READ THE SECOND TIME

S. 164 -- Senators Climer, Gustafson, Kimbrell, Senn, Loftis, Peeler, Grooms, Garrett and Campsen: A BILL TO AMEND THE SOUTH CAROLINA CODE OF LAWS BY RENAMING ARTICLE 3, CHAPTER 7, TITLE 44 AS THE "STATE HEALTH FACILITY LICENSURE ACT"; BY AMENDING SECTIONS 44-7-110, 44-7-120, 44-7-130, 44-7-140, 44-7-150, AND 44-7-320, ALL RELATING TO THE REGULATION OF HEALTH CARE FACILITIES IN THE STATE, SO AS TO ELIMINATE REFERENCES TO CERTIFICATE OF NEED REQUIREMENTS; BY AMENDING SECTION 44-7-160, SO AS TO PROVIDE THAT THE CERTIFICATE OF NEED

PROGRAM ONLY APPLIES TO NURSING HOMES; BY ADDING SECTION 44-7-161, TO PROVIDE THAT MUSC MUST APPEAR BEFORE THE JBRC AND OBTAIN APPROVAL FROM THE SFAA PRIOR TO TAKING CERTAIN ACTIONS; AND TO ESTABLISH THE CERTIFICATE OF NEED STUDY COMMITTEE TO ASSESS HEALTH CARE IN RURAL SOUTH CAROLINA.

The Senate proceeded to the consideration of the Bill.

Senator VERDIN proposed the following amendment (SR-164.KM0008S), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 3, by striking Section 44-7-130(1) through (7) and inserting:

(1) "Affected person" means the applicant, a person residing within the geographic area served or to be served by the applicant, persons located in the health service area in which the project is to be located and who provide similar services to the proposed project, persons who before receipt by the department of the proposal being reviewed have formally indicated an intention to provide similar services in the future, persons who pay for health services in the health service area in which the project is to be located and who have notified the department of their interest in Certificate of Need applications, the State Consumer Advocate, and the State Ombudsman. Persons from another state who would otherwise be considered "affected persons" are not included unless that state provides for similar involvement of persons from South Carolina in its Certificate of Need process.

(2) "Ambulatory surgical facility" means a facility organized and administered for the purpose of performing surgical procedures for which patients are scheduled to arrive, receive surgery, and be discharged on the same day. The owner or operator makes the facility available to other providers who comprise an organized professional staff.

(3) "Birthing center" means a facility or other place where human births are planned to occur. This does not include the usual residence of a mother, any facility that is licensed as a hospital, or the private practice of a physician who attends a birth.

~~(3)~~(4) "Board" means the State Board of Health and Environmental Control.

~~(4)~~(5) ~~Reserved.~~ "Children, adolescents, or young adults in need of mental health treatment" in a residential treatment facility means a child, adolescent, or young adult under the age of twenty-one who manifests a substantial disorder of cognitive or emotional process that lessens or impairs to a marked degree that child's, adolescent's, or young adult's capacity either to develop or to exercise age-appropriate or age-adequate behavior, including, but not limited to, marked disorders of mood or thought processes; severe difficulties with self-control or judgment, including behavior dangerous to himself or others; and serious disturbances in a child's, adolescent's, or young adult's ability to care for or relate to others.

~~(5)(6)~~ “Competing applicants” means two or more persons or health care facilities as defined in this article who apply for Certificates of Need to provide similar services or facilities in the same service area within a time frame as established by departmental regulations and whose applications, if approved, would exceed the need for services or facilities.

~~(7)~~ “Community residential care facility” means a facility which offers room and board and provides a degree of personal assistance for two or more persons eighteen years old or older.

~~(7)(8)~~ “~~Day care~~ Daycare facility for adults” means a facility for adults eighteen years or older ~~which that:~~

~~(a)~~ offers in a group setting a program of individual and group activities and therapies; ~~The program~~

~~(b)~~ is directed toward providing community-based care for those in need of a supportive setting for less than twenty-four hours a day, ~~thereby preventing in order to prevent unnecessary institutionalization;~~ and

Amend the bill further, SECTION 3, by striking Section 44-7-130~~(8)~~ through 13 and inserting:

~~(8)(9)~~ “Department” means the Department of Health and Environmental Control.

~~(9)(10)~~ “~~The federal act~~” means ~~Title VI of the United States Public Health Service Act (the Hill Burton Construction Program); Title XVI of the United States Public Health Service Act (National Health Planning and Resources Development Act of 1974 — Public Law 93-641); grants for all center and facility construction under Public Law 91-211 (community mental health centers’ amendments to Title II, Public Law 88-164, Community Mental Health Centers Act); grants for all facility construction under Public Law 91-517 (developmental disabilities services and facilities construction amendments of 1970 to Part C, Title I, grants for construction of facilities for persons with intellectual disability Public Law 88-164); and other federal programs as may exist or be enacted which provide for the construction of hospitals or related health facilities.~~ ‘Facility for chemically dependent or addicted persons’

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 2023

means a facility organized to provide outpatient or residential services to chemically dependent or addicted persons and their families based on an individual treatment plan including diagnostic treatment, individual and group counseling, family therapy, vocational and educational development counseling, and referral services.

(11) “Facility wherein abortions are performed” means a facility, other than a hospital, in which any second-trimester or any five or more first-trimester abortions are performed in a month.

(12) “Freestanding emergency service” or “off-campus emergency service” means an extension of an existing hospital emergency department that is intended to provide comprehensive emergency service but does not include a service that does not provide twenty-four hour, seven day per week operations or that is not capable of providing basic services as defined for hospital emergency departments. A service that does not qualify as a freestanding emergency service must not be classified as a freestanding emergency service and must not advertise, or display or exhibit any signs or symbols, that would identify the service as a freestanding emergency service.

~~(10)~~(13) “Health care facility” means, at a minimum, acute care hospitals, psychiatric hospitals, alcohol and substance abuse hospitals, nursing homes, ambulatory surgical facilities, hospice facilities, radiation therapy facilities, rehabilitation facilities, residential treatment facilities for children and adolescents, intermediate care facilities for persons with intellectual disability, or narcotic treatment programs, and any other facility for which Certificate of Need review is required by federal law.

~~(11)~~(14) “Health service” means clinically related, diagnostic, treatment, or rehabilitative services and includes alcohol, drug abuse, and mental health services for which specific standards or criteria are prescribed in the State Health Plan.

~~(12)~~(15) “Hospital” means a facility that is organized and administered to provide overnight medical or surgical care or nursing care of for an illness, injury, or infirmity and must provide on-campus emergency services; that and may provide obstetrical care; and in which all diagnoses, treatment, or care is administered by or under the direction of persons currently licensed to practice medicine, surgery, or osteopathy. Hospital “Hospital” may include a residential treatment facilities facility for children, and adolescents, or young adults in need of mental health treatment which are that is physically a part of a licensed psychiatric hospital. This definition does not include facilities which that are licensed by the Department of Social Services. A residential treatment facility for children, adolescents, or young adults in need of mental health treatment that is physically a part of a licensed psychiatric hospital is not required to provide on-campus emergency services.

(16) “Intermediate care facility for persons with an intellectual disability” means a facility that serves four or more persons with an intellectual disability or persons with related conditions and that provides health or rehabilitative services on a regular basis to individuals whose mental and physical conditions require services including room, board, and active treatment for their intellectual disability or related conditions.

~~(13)~~(17) “Nursing home” means a facility with an organized nursing staff to maintain and operate organized facilities and services to accommodate two or more unrelated persons over a period exceeding twenty-four hours which is operated either in connection with a hospital or as a freestanding facility for the express or implied purpose of providing intermediate or skilled nursing care for persons who are not in need of hospital care.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 3, by striking Section 44-7-130~~(15)~~ and ~~(16)~~ and inserting:

~~(15)~~(18) “Person” means an individual, a trust or estate, a partnership, a corporation including an association, joint stock company, insurance company, and a health maintenance organization, a health care facility, a state, a political subdivision, or an instrumentality including a municipal corporation of a state, or any legal entity recognized by the State.

(19) “Radiation therapy facility” means a person or a health care facility that provides or seeks to provide mega-voltage therapeutic services to patients through the use of high energy radiation.

~~(16)~~(20) “Residential treatment facility for children and adolescents” means a facility operated for the assessment, diagnosis, treatment, and care of two or more “children and adolescents in need of mental health treatment” which provides:

(a) a special education program with a minimum program defined by the South Carolina Department of Education;

(b) recreational facilities with an organized youth development program; and

Amend the bill further, SECTION 3, by striking Section 44-7-130~~(17)~~ and inserting:

~~(17)~~(21) “Solely for research” means a service, procedure, or equipment which has not been approved by the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) but which is currently undergoing review by the FDA as an investigational device. FDA research protocol and any applicable Investigational Device Exemption (IDE) policies and regulations must be followed by a facility proposing a project “solely for research”.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 2023

Amend the bill further, SECTION 3, by striking Section 44-7-130~~(20)~~ and ~~(21)~~ and inserting:

~~(20)~~(22) “Freestanding or mobile technology” means medical equipment owned or operated by a person other than a health care facility for which the total cost is in excess of that prescribed by regulation and for which specific standards or criteria are prescribed in the State Health Plan.

~~(21)~~(23) “Like equipment with similar capabilities” means medical equipment in which functional and technological capabilities are identical to the equipment to be replaced; and the replacement equipment is to be used for the same or similar diagnostic, therapeutic, or treatment purposes as currently in use; and does not constitute a material change in service or a new service.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 3, by striking Section 44-7-130~~(26)~~ and inserting:

~~(26)~~(24) “Crisis stabilization unit facility” means a facility, other than a health care facility, operated by the Department of Mental Health or operated in partnership with the Department of Mental Health that provides a short-term residential program, offering psychiatric stabilization services and brief, intensive crisis services to individuals eighteen and older, twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week.

Amend the bill further, by deleting SECTION 4.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 5.A., by striking Section 44-7-150(B) and inserting:

(B) Fee schedules authorized by Article 3, Chapter 7, Title 44 that are in effect as of January 1, 2023, shall remain in effect until further regulations are promulgated pursuant to Section 44-7-150(5), as amended by this act.

(Statewide Session)

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The Senate assembled at 11:00 A.M., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Psalm 36:7

The Psalmist tells us: "How precious is your steadfast love, O God! All people may take refuge in the shadow of your wings."

Bow with me as we pray, please: More than ever, O Lord, we find ourselves conscious of -- and wary of -- the shadows and the darkness that define so much of life: rebellion in the streets, warfare that keeps on going, the sad reality of poverty, and so much more. There is so very much that reminds us of the shadowy aspects of life and more aware than ever, dear God, how much we all need the gift of Your steadfast love. So, truly, bless these Senators and their aides as they work diligently on behalf of the people of our State. Indeed, wrap every single one of us in Your loving embrace and drive away the darkness which unsettles us. And by Your grace grant us all full awareness of the promises of the hope You offer. In Your loving name we pray, Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

Remarks by Senator GUSTAFSON

Please welcome to the Senate the U.S. Global Leadership Coalition, also known as USCGLC. More than 150 USCGLC leaders are here in South Carolina. The U.S. Global Leadership Coalition works to strengthen America's civilian-led tools including development, diplomacy, and defense. By advocating for strong U.S. International Affairs programs, the USGLC brings together more than 500 American businesses, non-profits, and faith organizations.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 2023

Today we have Jeremy Tolbert, the Deputy National Outreach Director from Greenville, S.C., and former staffer to Senator Tim Scott and Allison Love, a member of The Citadel's Board of Visitors, from Columbia, S.C.

I am also a proud member of the U.S. Global Leadership Coalition in the State and started my personal advocacy in 2017. I support the U.S. International Affairs budget to support our embassies worldwide.

South Carolina is a globally engaged State as highlighted by the following points. South Carolina's exports totaled $30 billion worth of goods in 2021, and our coastal location and ports help to fuel export growth and international business opportunities. 20% of jobs in South Carolina are supported by international trade, creating new jobs daily. South Carolina's agricultural exports are $812 million annually, and my Senate District 27 is especially thriving in agri-business. Thousands of our South Carolina students study abroad each year, and in 2020, nearly 6,500 international students were enrolled in South Carolina colleges and universities, contributing almost $200 million to South Carolina's economy. Finally, our equine industry, also very important in my district, contributes nearly $2 billion (which includes some international dollars) annually to the state's economy.

This introduction serves to remind us how deeply connected South Carolina is to the rest of the world! Thank you.

On motion of Senator BENNETT, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator GUSTAFSON were ordered printed in the Journal.

The Senate proceeded to the consideration of the Bill.

Senator DAVIS proposed the following amendment (SR-164.JG0020S), which was ruled out of order:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by adding appropriately numbered SECTIONS to read:

SECTION X. Article 3, Chapter 7, Title 44 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 44-7-266. (A) In order to be licensed by the department, a hospital is prohibited from including any clauses that restrict the right of a physician to practice after termination of the relationship in any contract or agreement which creates or establishes an employment or any other form of professional relationship with a physician; provided, however, that the hospital may require a physician who has worked for the hospital three years or less to repay all or a portion of the actual costs of the following: relocation expenses, a signing bonus or other renumeration to induce the physician to relocate or establish a health care practice in a specified geographic area, or recruiting, education or training expenses, if the specific items and value of each item the hospital seeks in repayment must be outlined within the agreement at the time of signing; provided further, however, that the hospital may not in any contract or agreement prevent a physician from complying with his ethical duties to the patient upon departure as set forth in regulations which shall be promulgated by the Board of Medical Examiners, and may be fined for each violation in an amount set forth in such regulations. The requirements of this section shall apply only to new contracts or renewals of contracts entered into on or after the effective date of this section.

(B) The prohibitions as to contract or agreements set forth in subparagraph (A) shall apply only to the clauses that restrict the right of a physician to practice after termination of the relationship, and shall not apply to any other clause including, without limitation, those pertaining to the protection of medical trade secrets.

(C) In order to be licensed by the department, a hospital is prohibited from using economic criteria unrelated to quality of care or professional competency in determining an individual's qualifications for initial or continuing hospital medical staff membership or privileges.

SECTION X. Chapter 47, Title 40 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 40-47-60. (A) In order to be licensed to practice medicine in this State, a physician is prohibited from offering or making a partnership, shareholders, operating, employment, or other similar type of agreement that restricts the right of a physician to practice after termination of the relationship or prevents another physician from complying with his ethical duties to the patient upon departure as set forth in regulations which shall be promulgated by the Board of Medical Examiners, and may be fined for each violation in an amount set forth in such regulations; provided, however, nothing in this section prevents such agreements from containing the following:

(1) Physicians who are employees and have been employed three years or less may be required to repay all or a portion of the actual costs of the following: a loan, relocation expenses, a signing bonus or other renumeration to induce the physician to relocate or establish a health care practice in a specified geographic area, or recruiting, education or training expenses. To be enforceable, the specific items and value of each item that may be sought in repayment must be outlined within the agreement at the time of signing.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 2023

(2) Physicians who are partners or owners of a practice may be required to repay the practice upon his departure damages in an amount that are reasonably related to injury, if any, suffered by reason of such departure. To be enforceable, the specific monetary value of such anticipated damages or the formula by which such anticipated damages will be calculated must be outlined within the agreement at the time of signing and agreed upon as reasonably related to any injury that may occur.

(B) The requirements of this section shall apply to new contracts or renewals of contracts entered into on or after the effective date of this section.

Renumber sections to conform.

Amend title to conform.

Senator DAVIS explained the amendment.

SECTION X. Article 3, Chapter 7, Title 44 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 44-7-266. (A) In order to be licensed by the department, a hospital is prohibited from including any clauses that restrict the right of a physician to practice after termination of the relationship in any contract or agreement which creates or establishes an employment or any other form of professional relationship with a physician; provided, however, that the hospital may require a physician who has worked for the hospital three years or less to repay all or a portion of the actual costs of the following: relocation expenses, a signing bonus or other renumeration to induce the physician to relocate or establish a health care practice in a specified geographic area, or recruiting, education or training expenses, if the specific items and value of each item the hospital seeks in repayment must be outlined within the agreement at the time of signing; provided further, however, that the hospital may not in any contract or agreement prevent a physician from complying with his ethical duties to the patient upon departure as set forth in regulations which shall be promulgated by the Board of Medical Examiners, and may be fined for each violation in an amount set forth in such regulations. The requirements of this section shall apply only to new contracts or renewals of contracts entered into on or after the effective date of this section.

(B) The prohibitions as to contract or agreements set forth in subparagraph (A) shall apply only to the clauses that restrict the right of a physician to practice after termination of the relationship, and shall not apply to any other clause including, without limitation, those pertaining to the protection of medical trade secrets.

(C) In order to be licensed by the department, a hospital is prohibited from using economic criteria unrelated to quality of care or professional competency in determining an individual's qualifications for initial or continuing hospital medical staff membership or privileges.

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The Senate assembled at 12:00 Noon, the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Isaiah 9:2

The prophet Isaiah reminds us that: "The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness -- on them light has shined."

Bow with me, if you will: Glorious God, during this still fresh year of 2023 we continue to find ourselves unsettled by dark moods and feelings, by powers seemingly beyond our control. In the face of such apparent realities, dear Lord, we ask that You by Your grace -- here in this Black History Month -- guide these women and men in the Senate of South Carolina as they in turn lead the people of our State into the steady and bold light of promise and of hopefulness. Truly, allow these servants to bring about a genuinely bright future for every woman, man, and child in this State, and to You be the glory. All this we pray in Your loving name, dear Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

Point of Quorum

At 12:06 P.M., Senator CROMER made the point that a quorum was not present. It was ascertained that a quorum was not present.

Senator MALLOY objected to consideration of the Bill.

Point of Personal Privilege

Senator MATTHEWS rose for a Point of Personal Privilege.

Remarks by Senator MATTHEWS

Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT. For those of you who wondered why I am making this as a Point of Personal Privilege, I draw your attention to Rule 13, Points of Personal Privilege. This is not an Expression of Personal Interest. I had to think hard and long about this. I wrote down my statement so that it would be clear on why I am making this a Point of Personal Privilege.

I read with much interest last week and over the weekend about Rule 15. This bothered me in last year's session when we took up the rule change. I thought about how I felt as a new Senator -- only the second female Senator -- coming into this Chamber in 2015. I thought about the role and how I felt about the democratic process and what we were able to accomplish. We had a lot of failures, but we did have the opportunity to have our voices heard. And so why is this a Point of Personal Privilege? Because I had the sinking feeling last year when the rules were changed as to why they were changed. But I could not grasp it. I didn't get a full grasp of it until I heard it during the medical marijuana debate. I heard it again during the abortion debate. I remember us filibustering on the issue and I remember standing at this podium until my ankles swelled on the issue of women's rights in the abortion issue. I remember some of the Senators being so tired -- we took shifts. But I remember how we worked together. That wasn't Republican, it wasn't Democrat-- we were working together in a democratic process on a particular issue.

Now, why am I offended by Rule 15? Because this last voting cycle, our numbers went down to 16. What else happened? In Washington, we had the Senate Minority Leader Mitch McConnell -- complaining and going on the air waves about the issue of filibuster in preserving the democratic process. In this State, though we didn't call it stripping of the filibuster, Rule 15 did that when you got the numbers. So, what do you get? We get what we had last week and with the Voucher Bill -- that we don't have to listen to the other side. We don't have to worry about the democracy and diversity. Why is it offensive? Because we live in the United States of America. The first thing I remember as a young Senator when I came here because I was taking over the spot of Senator Clemente Pinckney -- I remember meeting with folks and they said, "The Senate is not like other bodies, we are a deliberative body." I am offended that deliberation has left the door. And the irony is -- I read it last night and in high school -- the 1957 Civil Rights Act was argued by Senator Strom Thurmond, the late Strom Thurmond. He was once a Republican and a Democrat. He was against the Civil Rights Act. He was called the segregationist at the time. But you know what, Senator Strom Thurmond filibustered, and they allowed him to filibuster for twenty-four hours and nineteen or seventeen minutes -- or something like that. They allowed him to filibuster for twenty-four hours and eighteen minutes. Senator Thurmond -- when I read the story and you can do likewise -- prepared his body for that filibuster. That's how much he believed in the democratic process and that's how much he prepared for that filibuster. And they listened to him. They had the votes, but they listened to him. I will not get into what he ate beforehand, but he didn't leave that Chamber for twenty-four hours. He only had one break to use the restroom and at that time, he had to keep his foot on the floor. They talked about him having to use bottles. Now, why is that important? Because the irony is -- and I'm just going to be honest -- I sit in my chair and I look at our State Senator, Senator MASSEY, because he's the leader and gets to call, pursuant to Rule 15, to sit you down. Not this Body, generally, but he gets to invoke Rule 15. I want you to read it and you tell me. It doesn't say we strip the Senate of filibuster. It just says fixing of time. Fixing of time certainly is fixing to take your democratic rights away. It's fixing to take away the deliberation of this Senate. I ask you to read it and you tell me if this rule conforms to the Jeffersonian Rules -- that some of them, I do not understand. Tell me whether or not it continues to keep this Body as a deliberative Body; or should we remove that label? And I submit to my brothers and sisters on both sides just because you can do something, just because you have the votes and the power, that doesn't make it right. I sat back there, and it didn't feel very deliberative when Senator FANNING would basically be ignored when he knows more about education than all of us. He's trying to forget some of the stuff we need to learn. But we don't want to listen to him because we have the numbers to do what we want. I remember serving this Body as a law clerk in the 80's. This is when Democrats had the majority. I find it interesting that committee chairs were determined by seniority, not by party seniority. This changed when Republicans took majority. And I've always heard that the pendulum, though you may not feel it, swings both ways. What do we have here? When the numbers in the majority went down to sixteen, then the filibuster in the Senate left. Twenty-six is the magic number -- read Rule 15.

Why is this message a personal privilege? This S. 374 on Wednesday was contemplated and calculated well in advance to be on the Calendar this week. You remember we sat in perfunctory on Friday and you remember I asked questions about it. This Bill is titled and labeled many things, but let's not mistake, it is reaction by this Body to our Supreme Court's decision to protect a woman's rights to privacy. It's a reaction to rein another body in. What about the democracy we are supposed to be in? Let's ponder the title of the Fetal Heartbeat Bill. How many committee meetings or testimonies from doctors have we heard during this legislative session? None. No doctors have come before us to tell us when a fetal heartbeat can be detected, none. Why?

Other issues that have been rushed, and I get it -- a School Voucher Bill personally concerned me because it essentially stole from poor school districts and gave the middle class and private and parochial schools their money. I wondered, in my concern, is this really caring for our children? Then we move to the next measure taken up by the Senate, the CON Bill. The irony of this State passing a CON Bill is that South Carolina is only one of five states with high poverty levels that has not expanded Medicare. If we are going to be honest about the fetal mortality rates in our State, our rural hospitals that are closing, and the mass exodus of OBGYNs from this State, we must first deal with Medicare expansion. It's not right that our mothers have to die trying to have a baby.

"The heavy hand of government" kept being said last week. I heard this statement over and over as it relates to non-compete clauses in business dealings. Well, that sounded good, and I get it Senator BENNETT, that the heavy hand of government is not good. It will be present in this State when the Senate takes up a Bill that will decide how a woman and her family deals with her pregnancies in her household. It sickens me to hear, "We're tired of you women using abortion as birth control." Really? I dare one of you men to have a menstrual cycle. Who would willingly subject themselves to Mifepristone? It causes cramps; it makes the stomach feel like you have an ulcer. Yet we hear, "We don't understand why you would have an abortion when birth control cost you $25 to $50. Mifepristone and going in the hospital will cost you $500 to $3,000."

The other shocking statements I have heard as a Legislator and to the 100,000 constituents that I represent, "A woman should know she is pregnant at six weeks." The other shocking statement that I have felt personally offended by is -- I am going to repeat because I wrote it down when it was said -- "A woman should know she's pregnant at six weeks." I've had four children and didn't know I was pregnant at six weeks with any of them. Doctors tell a different story about it, that it varies -- it is usually somewhere around seven and a half weeks. That tells me that ill-informed men that are speaking know nothing about a woman's body. Nor does he know that all women do not have menstrual cycles. Yes, I said it, menstrual cycles. The same folks that want to control the abortion issues don't want us to say those womanly words -- the things that bring babies into the world like menstrual cycle. They don't want to us say the word vagina. Get over it. I and several other Senators have filed statewide Bills to make sure that we have a statewide referendum on this issue. Why? Because statistics show Republican and Democratic women do not support this Bill. Why are the men pushing it through? Because they can and because they have the votes. They have the power and control. I reject the idea that women are killing babies. Women are nurturers. We support those around us, and we love our babies. I find it quiet striking that the same people that are promoting fleecing of women's privacy Bills are the same ones that will not support other issues.

And finally, women, I plan to stand with you for you. Even those women that have been made to believe that you should listen -- that this is a human rights issue. I am standing here because of the process. I believe that this process that has been presented to us as it relates to such a critical issue to me and to my four children is flawed. It's undemocratic and it has stripped the filibuster rights from this Senate, and it no longer makes us a deliberative Body. Women, we represent 51.4% of this State -- we must let our voices be heard. There should be a referendum. This Senate should stand on its ability to deliberate in a democratic way. The heavy hand of government exists but only as it relates to my body. Thank you.

On motion of Senator WILLIAMS, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator MATTHEWS, were ordered printed in the Journal.

SECTION 1. This act may be cited as the “Human Life Protection Act”.

SECTION 2. The General Assembly hereby finds that:

(1) Article I, Section 1 of the South Carolina Constitution recognizes that all political power is vested in the people of this State, and it has long been recognized that the will of the people is expressed in the legislative enactments of the people’s elected representatives.

(2) Article I, Section 3 of the South Carolina Constitution guarantees that no person shall be “deprived of life...without due process of law” and that the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution guarantees that no person shall be “deprived of life...without the due process of law.”

(3) It is undisputed that the life of every human being begins at conception.

(4) South Carolina has a compelling interest in protecting the life of human beings at all stages of development and decline, and this right to life is superior to all other rights.

(5) Article I, Section 8 of the South Carolina Constitution provides that the legislative, executive, and judicial powers of the government “shall be forever separate and distinct from each other, and no person or persons exercising the functions of one of said departments shall assume or discharge the duties of any other.”

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 2023

(6) Article III, Section 1 of the South Carolina Constitution vests the “legislative power of this State” with the General Assembly.

(7) In Dobbs v. Jackson Women’s Health Organization, the United States Supreme Court held that the federal constitution does not provide a right to an abortion, and that the authority to regulate abortion must be returned to the people and their elected representatives.

(8) Pursuant to Article I, Section 1 of the South Carolina Constitution, the people of this State are exercising their political power through the General Assembly’s exercise of its Article III, Section 1 sole authority to legislate to secure the rights to life for unborn children as guaranteed by Article I, Section 3 of the South Carolina Constitution and the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

(9) Any attempt by a coequal branch of government to limit or prevent the General Assembly from exercising its Article I, Section 3 power is an unconstitutional usurpation of that power and is a violation of the separation of powers enshrined in Article I, Section 8 of the South Carolina Constitution and the United States Supreme Court’s holding in Dobbs v. Jackson Women’s Health Organization.

SECTION 3. Chapter 41, Title 44 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Article 7

Human Life Protection Act

Section 44-41-810. For the purposes of this article:

(1) “Abortion” means the act of using or prescribing any instrument, medicine, drug, or any other substance, device, or means with the intent to terminate the clinically diagnosable pregnancy of a woman with knowledge that the termination by those means will, with reasonable likelihood, cause the death of the unborn human being. Such use, prescription, or means is not an abortion if done with the intent to save the life or preserve the health of the unborn human being, or to remove a dead unborn human being.

(2) “Clinically diagnosable pregnancy” means the point in time when it is possible to determine that a woman is pregnant due to the detectable presence of human chorionic gonadotropin (hCG).

(3) “Female” means a biological female assigned at the time of birth or an intersexed person capable of producing an ovum at birth.

(4) “Physician” means any person licensed in this State to practice medicine and surgery, or licensed osteopathic medicine and surgery.

(5) “Pregnant woman” means the human biological female reproductive condition of having a living unborn child within her body, whether or not she has reached the age of majority.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 2023

(6) “Selective reduction” means, in the context of assisted reproductive technology, a procedure to stop the development of one or more unborn children in utero.

(7) “Reasonable medical judgement” means a medical judgement that would be made by a reasonably prudent physician, knowledgeable about the case and treatment possibilities with respect to the medical condition involved.

(8) “Unborn child” means an individual organism of the species homo sapiens from conception until live birth.

Section 44-41-820. (A) No person shall knowingly administer to, prescribe for, deliver to, or sell to any pregnant woman any medicine, drug, or other substance with the specific intent of causing an abortion.

(B) No person may knowingly use or employ any instrument, device, means, or procedure upon a pregnant woman with the specific intent of causing an abortion.

Section 44-41-830. (A)(1) It is not a violation of Section 44-41-820 for a physician to perform a medical procedure necessary in his reasonable medical judgment to prevent the death of a pregnant woman, a substantial risk of death of a pregnant woman due to a physical condition, or the substantial physical impairment of a major bodily function of the pregnant woman, not including psychological or emotional conditions.

(2) It is presumed that the following medical conditions constitute a substantial risk of death or substantial risk of physical impairment of a major bodily function of a pregnant woman: molar pregnancy, partial molar pregnancy, blighted ovum, ectopic pregnancy, severe preeclampsia, HELLP syndrome, abruptio placentae, severe physical maternal trauma, uterine rupture, intrauterine fetal demise, and miscarriage. However, when an unborn child is alive in utero, the physician must make all reasonable efforts to deliver and save the life of an unborn child during the process of separating the unborn child from the pregnant woman, to the extent that it does not adversely affect the life or physical health of the pregnant woman, and in a manner that is consistent with reasonable medical practice. The enumeration of the medical conditions in this item is not intended to exclude or abrogate other conditions that satisfy the exclusions contained in item (1) or prevent other procedures that are not included in the definition of abortion.

(3) A physician performing a medical procedure pursuant to item (1) shall make reasonable medical efforts under the circumstances to preserve the life of the pregnant woman’s unborn child, to the extent that it does not substantially risk the death or physical impairment of a major bodily function of the pregnant woman, not including psychological or emotional conditions and in a manner consistent with reasonable medical practices. A medical procedure shall not be considered necessary if it is performed based upon a claim or diagnosis that the woman will engage in conduct that she intends to result in her death or in a substantial physical impairment of a major bodily function.

(4) A physician who performs a medical procedure pursuant to item (1) shall declare, in a written document maintained with the woman's medical records, that the medical procedure was necessary, the woman's medical condition necessitating the procedure, the physician's rationale for his conclusion that the procedure was necessary, and that all reasonable efforts were made to save the unborn child in the event it was living prior to the procedure. The declaration required by this item must be placed in the woman's medical records not later than thirty days after the procedure was completed. A physician's exercise of reasonable medical judgment in relation to a medical procedure undertaken pursuant to this subsection is presumed to be within the applicable standard of care.

(B) Medical treatment provided to a pregnant woman by a physician which results in the accidental or unintentional injury or death of her unborn child is not a violation of Section 44-41-820.

(C)(1) It is not a violation of Section 44-41-820 to use, sell, or administer a contraceptive measure, drug, chemical, or device if the contraceptive measure, drug, chemical, or device is used, sold, prescribed or administered in accordance with manufacturer's instructions and is not used, sold, prescribed or administered to cause or induce an abortion.

(2) It is not a violation of Section 44 41 820 to use, sell, prescribe, and insert an intrauterine device if the intrauterine device is used, sold, inserted, and prescribed within the reasonable medical judgment of a physician and is not used, sold, prescribed, or administered to cause or induce an abortion of an unborn human being.

(3) It is not a violation of Section 44-41-820 to use, sell, prescribe, and administer an emergency contraceptive drug designed to be taken within five days of unprotected sex and used according to the manufacturer's instructions. For purposes of this item, an emergency contraceptive drug does not include mifepristone or misoprostol.

(D)(1) Except as provided in item (2), it is not a violation of Section 44-41-820 to perform or undergo assistive reproductive technology, including but not limited to in vitro fertilization, within the accepted standards of care by the reproductive medical community.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 2023

(2) Performing selective reduction is a violation of Section 44-41-820 unless it is necessary within reasonable medical judgment to prevent a substantial risk of death or a substantial and irreversible physical impairment of a major bodily function of another unborn child.

Section 44-41-840. (A) A person who violates Section 44-41-820 is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, must be fined ten thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than two years, or both.

(B) A person who uses force, or the threat of force, to intentionally injure or intimidate another person for the purpose of coercing an abortion in violation of Section 44-41-820 is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, must be fined ten thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than two years, or both.

(C) A person who is not a physician as defined in this article and who prescribes any means of abortion for the purpose of facilitating an abortion within this State violates Section 44-41-820 and, upon conviction, is guilty of a felony and must be fined ten thousand dollars or imprisoned for two years, or both.

Section 44-41-850. (A) In addition to all other remedies available under common or statutory law, failure to comply with the requirements of this article shall provide the basis for a civil action further described in this section.

(B) A pregnant woman upon whom an abortion has been performed, induced, or coerced in violation of this article may maintain an action against the person who violated this article for actual and punitive damages. In addition to all other damages, and separate and distinct from all other damages, a plaintiff is entitled to statutory damages of ten thousand dollars for each violation of this article to be imposed on each defendant found to have violated this article.

(C) A separate and distinct cause of action for injunctive relief against any person who has violated this article may be maintained by:

(1) the woman upon whom the abortion was performed or induced in violation of this article;

(2) the parent or guardian of the pregnant woman if she had not attained the age of eighteen years at the time of the abortion or died as a result of the abortion;

(3) a Solicitor or prosecuting attorney with proper jurisdiction; or

(4) the Attorney General.

(D) If a plaintiff prevails in an action initiated pursuant to this section the court shall award the plaintiff reasonable costs and attorney's fees.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 2023

(E) No damages, costs, or attorney's fees may be assessed against the woman upon whom an abortion was performed or induced.

(F) Under no circumstances may civil damages be awarded to a plaintiff if the pregnancy resulted from the plaintiff's criminal conduct.

(G) A civil cause of action pursuant to this section must be brought within three years of the date of the abortion and is not subject to the limitations and requirements contained in Chapter 79, Title 15.

Section 44-41-860. A pregnant woman upon whom an abortion is performed or induced in violation of this article may not be criminally prosecuted or found civilly liable for violating any of the provisions of this article or for attempting to commit, conspiring to commit, or acting complicity in committing a violation of any of the provisions for this article.

Section 44-41-870. In addition to any other penalties imposed by law, a physician or any other professionally licensed person who intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly violates the prohibition on abortion contained in this article commits an act of unprofessional conduct. A physician's license to practice in this State immediately shall be revoked by the State Board of Medical Examiners, after due process according to the board's rules and procedures. Any other licensed person's professional license shall be immediately revoked by the appropriate licensing board, after due process according to that board's rules and procedures. A complaint may be originated by any person or by the board sua sponte. A licensing board acting pursuant to this section may assess costs of the investigation, fines, and other disciplinary actions as it may deem appropriate.

Section 44-41-880. In every civil or criminal proceeding or other action brought pursuant to this article, the court shall rule whether the anonymity of any woman upon whom an abortion has been performed or induced shall be preserved from public disclosure if the woman does not give consent to disclosure. The court, by motion or sua sponte, shall make a ruling and, upon determining that the woman's anonymity should be preserved, shall issue orders to the parties, witnesses, and counsel shall direct the sealing of the record and exclusion of individuals from courtrooms or hearing rooms to the extent necessary to safeguard her identity from public disclosure. Each such order shall be accompanied by specific written findings that explain why the woman's anonymity is being preserved from public disclosure, why the order is essential to that end, how the order is narrowly tailored to serve that interest, and why no reasonable least restrictive alternative exists. In the absence of the woman's written consent, any person, other than a public official, who brings an action pursuant to Section 44-41-820 shall do so under a pseudonym. This section may not be construed to conceal the identity of the plaintiff or of witnesses from the defendant or from attorneys for the defendant.

Section 44-41-890. If some or all of the provisions of this article are ever temporarily or permanently restrained or enjoined by judicial order, all other provisions of South Carolina law regulating or restricting abortion must be enforced as though such restrained or enjoined provisions had not been adopted; provided, however, that whenever such temporary or permanent restraining order or injunction is stayed, lifted, dissolved, or otherwise ceases to have effect, the provisions of this article shall have full force and effect.

SECTION 4. Article 1, Chapter 41, Title 44 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 44-41-90. (A) No funds appropriated by the State for employer contributions to the State Health Insurance Plan may be expended to reimburse the expenses of an abortion, except as provided in Sections 44-41-830, 44-41-840, and 44-41-850.

(B) No funds appropriated or authorized by the State may be used by any political subdivision of the State to purchase fetal tissue obtained from an abortion or fetal remains, nor may any political subdivision of the State accept donated fetal remains.

(C) No state funds may, directly or indirectly, be utilized by Planned Parenthood for abortions, abortion services or procedures, or administrative functions related to abortions.

SECTION 5. Article 3, Chapter 17, Title 63 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 63-17-325. A biological father of a child has a duty to pay the mother of the child the following financial obligations beginning with the date of conception:

(1) child support payment obligations in an amount determined pursuant to Section 63-17-470;

(2) fifty percent of the mother's pregnancy expenses.

(a) Any portion of a mother's pregnancy expenses paid by the mother or the biological father reduces that parent's fifty percent obligation regardless of when the mother or biological father pays the pregnancy expenses.

(b) Pregnancy expenses must include fifty percent of the mother's insurance premiums that are not paid by her employer or governmental program beginning from the date of conception and before the pregnancy ends, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 2023

(c) Item (2) does not apply if a court apportions pregnancy expenses as part of an award of child support in item (1).

(B) In the case of a mother who becomes pregnant as a result of rape or incest, the biological father, in addition to the duties imposed by subsection (A), also is responsible for the full cost of any expenses incurred by the mother for mental health counseling arising out of the rape or incest.

(C) The duties imposed by this section accrue at the time of conception and must be applied retroactively when paternity is contested and medical evidence establishes the paternity of the child. Interest accrues on any retroactive obligations beginning with conception until either the obligations are brought current or paid in full whichever happens first. The rate of interest must be calculated based on the applicable interest rate for money decrees and judgments in this State established annually by the South Carolina Supreme Court.

SECTION 6. Article 1, Chapter 71, Title 38 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 38-71-146. All individual and group health insurance and health maintenance organization policies in this State shall include coverage for contraceptives. For purposes of this Section, "contraceptive" means any drug, device, or medication to prevent pregnancy. A contraceptive may prevent ovulation, fertilization, or implantation in the uterus. A contraceptive does not include any drug, device, or medication used with the intent of terminating a pregnancy of a woman known to be pregnant. This section does not apply if an individual or entity asserts a sincerely held religious belief regarding the use of contraception.

SECTION 7. The Public Employee Benefit Authority and the State Health Plan shall cover prescribed contraceptives for dependents under the same terms and conditions that the Plan provides contraceptive coverage for employees and spouses. The State Health Plan shall not apply patient cost sharing provisions to covered contraceptives.

SECTION 8. Section 44-41-710 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

~~Section 44-41-710. This article must not be construed to repeal, by implication or otherwise, Section 44-41-20 or any otherwise applicable provision of South Carolina law regulating or restricting abortion. An abortion that complies with this article but violates the provisions of Section 44-41-20 or any otherwise applicable provision of South Carolina law must be considered unlawful as provided in such provision. ~~restricting abortion but violates this article must be considered unlawful as provided in this article.~~ If some or all of the provisions of this article are ever temporarily or permanently restrained or enjoined by judicial order, all other provisions of South Carolina law regulating or restricting abortion must be enforced as though such restrained or enjoined provisions had not been adopted; provided, however, that whenever such temporary or permanent restraining order or injunction is stayed or dissolved, or otherwise ceases to have effect, such provisions shall have full force and effect.

SECTION 9. Section 44-41-480 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

~~Section 44-41-480. This article must not be construed to repeal, by implication or otherwise, Section 44-41-20 or any otherwise applicable provision of South Carolina law regulating or restricting abortion. An abortion that complies with this article but violates the provisions of Section 44-41-20 or any otherwise applicable provision of South Carolina law must be considered unlawful as provided in such provision. An abortion that complies with the provisions of Section 44-41-20 or any otherwise applicable provision of South Carolina law regulating or restricting abortion but violates this article must be considered unlawful as provided in this article.~~ If some or all of the provisions of this article are ever temporarily or permanently restrained or enjoined by judicial order, all other provisions of South Carolina law regulating or restricting abortion must be enforced as though such restrained or enjoined provisions had not been adopted; provided, however, that whenever such temporary or permanent restraining order of injunction is stayed or dissolved, or otherwise ceases to have effect, such provisions shall have full force and effect.

SECTION 10. Section 44-41-20 of the S.C. Code is repealed.

SECTION 11. Section 44-41-70(b) of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

(b) The department shall promulgate and enforce regulations for the licensing and certification of facilities other than hospitals as defined in Section 44-41-10(d) wherein abortions are to be performed ~~as provided for in Section 44-41-20(a) and (b).~~

SECTION 12. The President of the Senate, on behalf of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, on behalf of the House of Representatives have an unconditional right to intervene on behalf of their respective bodies in a state court action and may provide evidence or argument, written or oral, if a party to that court action challenges the constitutionality of this act. In a federal court action that challenges the constitutionality of this act the legislature may seek to intervene, to file an amicus brief, or to present arguments in accordance with federal rules of procedure. Intervention by the legislature pursuant to this provision does not limit the duty of the Attorney General to appear and prosecute legal actions or defend state agencies, officers, or employees as otherwise provided. In any action in which the legislature intervenes or participates, the Senate and the House of Representatives shall function independently from each other in the representation of their respective clients.

SECTION 13. If any section, subsection, paragraph, subparagraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional or invalid, such holding shall not affect the constitutionality or validity of the remaining portions of this act, the General Assembly hereby declaring that it would have passed this act, and each and every section, subsection, paragraph, subparagraph, sentence, clause, phrase, and word thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more other sections, subsections, paragraphs, subparagraphs, sentences, clauses, phrases, or words hereof may be declared to be unconstitutional, invalid, or otherwise ineffective.

SECTION 14. This act takes effect upon approval by the Governor.

Remarks by Senator SABB

Members, I just wanted to make a couple of comments as it relates both to the amendment and to the underlying legislation. I listened to my colleague and his comments as it relates to back in 1970 prior to the Roe v. Wade decision. I think it's important from a contextual standpoint at least for me to talk just a bit about what was going on in South Carolina and in the country during that span of time, and the reality is, what you had was common law notions that there ought not be abortions under any circumstances. I mean that was essentially where we were as a State; you don't have to trust me on this. There's a law review article -- 1972 -- a gentleman by the name of Gerald E. Berendt of the John Marshall Law School publishing this law review article as it relates to abortion law in South Carolina. What the author shares, I believe is worth me sharing, and that is, that it's clear that there was a trend not only in our State but in our Nation where questions were raised about whether or not there were circumstances upon which the whole idea of what goes on in a family's household -- in a family's bedroom -- were questions asked to what role the State had in it. My reading tells me that back in those days the zone of privacy was contemplated, and it was contemplated on this very issue that we're talking about today. So, I would respectfully disagree with the notion that privacy rights were not critical to the debate and the decision-making process in those days.

So, from a contextual standpoint, it's key in my mind that the Supreme Court does not ignore jurisprudence of old when they're analyzing the issues of this present point in time. So, it was not surprising to me -- legal scholars -- that the issue of privacy would find itself not only as it relates to the heartbeat law, but any laws relating to this kind of an issue. It is not shocking to the legal world, nor should it be shocking to this Body that the court would examine the privacy issue when it comes to a matter relating to what I consider to be the more intimate and personal aspects of our society. When we look at the law and how it evolved, what we found was that there was a large percentage of South Carolinians who opposed the idea of abortions in South Carolina and there were trends associated with how we should legislate this issue. It was as challenging then as it is now. Can we legislate morality? All those issues are nothing new to this Body, nor is it new to the notion of jurisprudence.

I want to hit on two points and then I am going to take my seat. These are, you know, nineteenth century tendencies that I am referring to, but one thing that was shared from the podium I think is where we ought to be, and that's on the question of what happened when the issue of privacy was placed before the voters of South Carolina. My colleague has made it clear that in his view, which I respect, that there's no way that 77% of the voters in South Carolina would vote one way or another as it relates to the privacy issue if they knew this was what was being contemplated. I'm going to say that again, just case anybody is interested in hearing it. The idea is, that if the issue were placed before the voters of the State of South Carolina, there's absolutely no way I've heard, that 77% of South Carolinians would decide the issue and that the only reason why they decided the way they did then was because they didn't know. Well, news flash -- breaking news -- we all know now what we're talking about. So, if you really want to know, if you really want to take the notion of debate out of the question as to what South Carolinians would do, give them the opportunity. Give them the same opportunity that we're saying that if they had in 1970, they wouldn't do A, B, C, D, E, F, and G, but here we are sunshine, clear skies -- everybody understands how important this issue is to South Carolinians and the rural areas, and the other areas in every nook and cranny of our State. People are paying attention to this issue. I would submit it's simply wrong for us in this Chamber to ignore their opinions and their views if we're in a position to stand here boldly and say if the people of South Carolina knew in 1970 what they know now, there's no way they would have voted the way they did.

Well, here we are 52 years later, and we know, and so if we really want to know, I'm not talking about guessing, I'm not talking about speculating. I'm talking about absolutely knowing. They know, they know, everybody knows. The youngest of our girls, they know. They pay attention to what they hear, what they see and what they read. Why, in a Democracy would we not give them the opportunity to have a conversation with momma? A conversation with daddy? Why are we taking that away from families in South Carolina? Why are we saying that they should not have the right to weigh in? Think about it, don't we want to know? Or do we? Do we want to know where South Carolinians really stand, or are we afraid because we want to insert our own judgment in the place of voters of South Carolina? I submit it's wrong. We have said repeatedly in this Chamber that we trust South Carolinians. That they get it right just like when I'm in court. I'm on one side of the table, and as Paul Harvey says, after I say what I've got to say now, for the rest of the story, and I'm always wondering what ultimately happened but guess what? I trusted jurors. I trusted them to listen to my arguments when I was on the plaintiff's side and trusted them to listen my colleagues on the defense side, and ultimately I trusted them to render a verdict that speaks the truth -- that I get the opportunity to present my case, to give my opening statement and to give my closing arguments just as the other side does and the playing field is level because Lady Justice is blind. Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT.

Remarks by Senator K. JOHNSON

Mr. PRESIDENT, I appreciate it. Members, I think I have made my position on this issue known every time that I have been given the opportunity. As I have said before and I will say it again, it would suit me just fine if there were never another abortion performed in South Carolina, or anywhere, but I'm one of those people that thinks there are times when the government is too involved in people's private business.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 2023

I just think that as much as I am not for or against abortion. I'm just a pro-choice person. I've been involved in this abortion debate long enough to know that a lot of people who have abortions or are contemplating having abortions -- that all their situations are different and a lot of their situations and choices make sense to them even if it doesn't make sense to us. We would have to walk in their shoes to know what they are up against -- the stress and everything that comes with a decision such as that. I think that most of the people who have abortions do it because they, not me, and not us, but they, think it's the right decision for them and for the baby.

I just want to make my position clear that, above anything else, I am pro-choice. I don't think that's my decision to make, and I don't think that we would like people making those types of decisions for us. I've heard repeatedly in this Body and when I was across the hall that the government should not be too involved in people's lives. Government should not be involved in what they call "kitchen table issues," but here we are involved in one of the most private, personal and important life-changing decisions that some people choose to make.

There is a twist I want to put on this argument, and I've said it before; I'm hearing over and over again, pro-life, pro-life, pro-life, now we're talking about human life protection, and I think it's ironic that most of the members in this Body and across the hall who just march to the drum beat of "I'm pro-life," voted overwhelmingly in favor of the death penalty. Most of the members who say, "I want to protect life and I want to protect innocent life", voted last year to use the firing squad as a means of execution, knowing that we have data to show that some people who were put to death because of crimes that they allegedly committed ended up being innocent; but, we have already put them to death. So how do you make up for that? I just never could understand, and I'm not asking for an understanding right now; but, how could we be pro-life and be for the death penalty and even say that we can put you before the firing squad? If you are truly pro-life, then you would be 100% against the death penalty. I don't like people committing violent and heinous crimes, but I would not want it on me to vote for the death penalty to put that person in front of a firing squad or to inject some type of chemical in their arm and then find out a little while later, that person was innocent, and we just put them to death. So, I say how can you be pro-life and not do anything to try to preserve and protect the lives of these same babies we are talking about? When they're born, what do we do for them? We don't want to provide childcare for them so they go from place to place where anybody would sit with them -- most of them being abused -- we don't want to expand Medicaid -- we want to be with Wyoming and be the only two states who don't have a Hate Crime Bill in place, whereby if we had Hate Crime Legislation, maybe some folks would not commit these crimes that take people's lives because they would be afraid of the consequences. We say we're pro-life, but we won't expand Medicaid, which is a known fact, that we lose a lot of people in South Carolina and across the country because of the lack of quality affordable health care yet we're pro-life. It just doesn't add up to me. We are pro-life but we want to let people work in South Carolina for $7.25 an hour and I wouldn't be a bit surprised if we have lost some lives because they don't have the means or the income for what they need. Although they work hard, forty-six hours a week, they don't have the means and the income to buy medicine, go to doctors, and do those types of things. I think Senator McLEOD, termed it as we are pro-birth but not pro-life, and I agree with her. We want all these babies to be born, and that's good, but then as we stand here and try to propose legislation that would help them have the quality of life that they deserve -- we vote against it time and time again.

So, I just want to leave with us that pro-life means pro-life. If we're pro-life, we're going to make sure that if these people have the children, then the families have life, and as the Bible says, have it more abundantly.

Statement by Senators ADAMS, GROOMS, KIMBRELL, and M. JOHNSON

Over the past two years the number of abortions have nearly doubled in our State. Abortions will continue to increase until the legislature takes actions to protect the lives of these precious unborn children.

In January, in a split 3 to 2 decision, the Supreme Court of South Carolina found the Fetal Heartbeat and Protection Act of 2021 to be in violation of the South Carolina Constitution. In response to this decision, S. 474, a Heartbeat Bill addressing the issues raised by the court, was introduced. We must reestablish firm constitutional footing before considering further protections. This amendment is nearly identical to H. 3774, the Human Life Protection Act. While we support the legislation, we strongly believe that it should be debated as a stand-alone Bill and not in place of S. 474. There will be a time to debate H. 3774, but not while we consider this Bill. For these reasons, we voted to table this amendment.

Statement by Senator MASSEY

I agree with the statement above. However, I write separately to point out that despite comments to the contrary, Senator CASH's amendment does not include exceptions for rape, incest, and fatal fetal anomalies. I support a ban from conception with exceptions for rape and incest. I will not support a ban without exceptions for rape and incest.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 2023

Statement by Senator YOUNG

I voted to table the amendment because the Bill, as filed, has a better chance to pass the Senate this session.

At 3:41 P.M., debate was interrupted by adjournment.

Motion Adopted

On motion of Senator MASSEY, with unanimous consent, the Senate agreed that, when the Senate adjourns today, it stand adjourned to meet at 11:45 A.M. tomorrow for the purpose of attending the Joint Assembly, and the Senate will reconvene one hour after the conclusion of the Joint Assembly.

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The Senate assembled at 11:45 A.M., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Colossians 3:12

Paul wrote to the Colossians:

“As God’s chosen ones, holy and beloved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, and patience.”

Pray with me, please: O Most Gracious Lord, throughout your many holy texts -- such as today’s words from the Apostle Paul -- You give us insights as to how it is that we should live out our days as your followers. May it indeed be, O God, that each one of Your servants in this Senate will take all of Your teachings seriously. Moreover, help us all not just to hear Your words, but lead us faithfully as we choose to follow Your guidance in all that we say and do. Also, Lord, today we pray yet again that You continue to embrace in love and care all of our women and men in uniform, as well as everyone in Turkey and Syria who have so recently experienced the horror of devastating earthquakes. All this we pray in Your holy name, dear Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

RECESS

At 11:55 A.M., the Senate recessed from business for the purpose of attending the Joint Assembly.

Remarks by Senator STEPHENS

Good afternoon, thank you Mr. PRESIDENT. Ladies and gentlemen, I stand before you this afternoon to voice my opinion on what we will be debating probably for the next few days. I believe in the oath that I took some two years ago, to defend the Constitution of this State and the United States, and I said, "I do." That meant a lot to me as well as for the individuals that entrusted me to be here in Columbia to voice their concerns. I've learned from a great mentor, that people will forget what you did for them, but they will never forget how you treated them.

Now, the recent decision Roe v. Wade was overturned by the United States Supreme Court practically placed the decisions of abortion in the hands of the states. The states are there now, to practically craft laws, and laws that are not unconstitutional. We are in a state of emergency ladies and gentlemen. I believe wholeheartedly that the views and concerns of women in this State are not taken seriously. I believe here in this Body it appears that contentious debates and decisions are becoming too intense, as well as leaning towards one group or one set of individuals. Now ladies and gentlemen, laws that deny access to abortion, whatever the stated objectives, have discriminatory tendencies for both undermining woman's capacity to make responsible decisions about their lives. Yes, indeed government may find the potential consequences of allowing women to make such decisions threatening in some consequences.

Ladies and gentlemen, this is 2023, and in many instances, we fail to recognize the right of women as being equal. It's been noted from generation to generation, recognizing a woman's sexual and reproductive autonomy contradicts with the social norm. Now, that renders women subordinate in some cultures to men in their families and communities. My colleagues, it's not surprising that unwillingness to allow women to make decisions about their own bodies often coincide with their tendencies to deny women's decision making roles in their lives and especially in the political arena -- economically, and socially. A woman has a right to make decisions regarding her own body. Now, support for this right is found in several human rights instruments which assures freedom in decision making -- that private matters really matter. Such provisions include protection of the right of physical integrity, the right to decide freely and responsively, a number and spacing of one's children and the right to privacy. Banning abortion care will not stop abortions -- but it will stop safe, legal abortions. Truly, we are in a state of emergency for women's health.

Thank you, Mr. PRESIDENT, thank you Senator FANNING. Barriers to reproductive care will only work if health outcomes exacerbate disparities and inequities in women's health. Fighting to make sure women have access to reproductive health care is now more important than ever. So, I beg you, I appeal to you, to respect the rights and privacy of women here in South Carolina, and in this Nation.

On motion of Senator FANNING, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator STEPHENS were ordered printed in the Journal.

S. 471 -- Senator Shealy: A SENATE RESOLUTION TO RECOGNIZE MAY 1-7, 2023, AS "TARDIVE DYSKINESIA AWARENESS WEEK" IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

The Resolution was adopted.

THE CALL OF THE UNCONTESTED CALENDAR HAVING BEEN COMPLETED, THE SENATE PROCEEDED TO THE MOTION PERIOD.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2023

MOTION ADOPTED

At 3:50 P.M., on motion of Senator MASSEY, the Senate agreed to dispense with the balance of the Motion Period.

THE SENATE PROCEEDED TO THE INTERRUPTED DEBATE.

AMENDED, READ THE SECOND TIME

S. 474 -- Senators Grooms, Massey, Kimbrell and Adams: A BILL TO AMEND ARTICLE 6, CHAPTER 41, TITLE 44 OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA CODE OF LAWS, RELATING TO THE FETAL HEARTBEAT AND PROTECTION FROM ABORTION ACT, SO AS TO PROVIDE THAT ABORTIONS MAY NOT BE PERFORMED IN THIS STATE AFTER A FETAL HEARTBEAT HAS BEEN DETECTED EXCEPT IN CASES OF RAPE OR INCEST DURING THE FIRST TWELVE WEEKS OF PREGNANCY, IN MEDICAL EMERGENCIES, OR IN LIGHT OF A FATAL FETAL ANOMALY; TO DEFINE NECESSARY TERMS; TO REPEAL SECTION 2 OF ACT 1 OF 2021; TO REPEAL SECTIONS 44-41-10 AND 44-41-20 OF THE S.C. CODE; AND TO REPEAL ARTICLE 5, CHAPTER 41, TITLE 44 OF THE S.C. CODE SUBJECT TO CERTAIN CONDITIONS.

The Senate proceeded to a consideration of the Bill, the question being the second reading of the Bill.

Amendment No. 1A

Senator CASH proposed the following amendment (SR-474.KM0003S), which was tabled:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by striking all after the enacting words and inserting:

SECTION 1. This act may be cited as the “Human Life Protection Act”.

SECTION 2. The General Assembly hereby finds that:

(1) Article I, Section 1 of the South Carolina Constitution recognizes that all political power is vested in the people of this State, and it has long been recognized that the will of the people is expressed in the legislative enactments of the people’s elected representatives.

(2) Article I, Section 3 of the South Carolina Constitution guarantees that no person shall be “deprived of life...without due process of law” and that the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution guarantees that no person shall be “deprived of life...without the due process of law.”

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2023

(3) It is undisputed that the life of every human being begins at conception.

(4) South Carolina has a compelling interest in protecting the life of human beings at all stages of development and decline, and this right to life is superior to all other rights.

(5) Article I, Section 8 of the South Carolina Constitution provides that the legislative, executive, and judicial powers of the government “shall be forever separate and distinct from each other, and no person or persons exercising the functions of one of said departments shall assume or discharge the duties of any other.”

(6) Article III, Section 1 of the South Carolina Constitution vests the “legislative power of this State” with the General Assembly.

(7) In Dobbs v. Jackson Women’s Health Organization, the United States Supreme Court held that the federal constitution does not provide a right to an abortion, and that the authority to regulate abortion must be returned to the people and their elected representatives.

(8) Pursuant to Article I, Section 1 of the South Carolina Constitution, the people of this State are exercising their political power through the General Assembly’s exercise of its Article III, Section 1 sole authority to legislate to secure the rights to life for unborn children as guaranteed by Article I, Section 3 of the South Carolina Constitution and the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

(9) Any attempt by a coequal branch of government to limit or prevent the General Assembly from exercising its Article I, Section 3 power is an unconstitutional usurpation of that power and is a violation of the separation of powers enshrined in Article I, Section 8 of the South Carolina Constitution and the United States Supreme Court’s holding in Dobbs v. Jackson Women’s Health Organization.

SECTION 3. Chapter 41, Title 44 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Article 7

Human Life Protection Act

Section 44-41-810. For the purposes of this article:

(1) “Abortion” means the act of using or prescribing any instrument, medicine, drug, or any other substance, device, or means with the intent to terminate the clinically diagnosable pregnancy of a woman with knowledge that the termination by those means will, with reasonable likelihood, cause the death of the unborn human being. Such use, prescription, or means is not an abortion if done with the intent to save the life or preserve the health of the unborn human being, or to remove a dead unborn human being.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2023

(2) “Clinically diagnosable pregnancy” means the point in time when it is possible to determine that a woman is pregnant due to the detectable presence of human chorionic gonadotropin (hCG).

(3) “Female” means a biological female assigned at the time of birth or an intersexed person capable of producing an ovum at birth.

(4) “Physician” means any person licensed in this State to practice medicine and surgery, or licensed osteopathic medicine and surgery.

(5) “Pregnant woman” means the human biological female reproductive condition of having a living unborn child within her body, whether or not she has reached the age of majority.

(6) “Selective reduction” means, in the context of assisted reproductive technology, a procedure to stop the development of one or more unborn children in utero.

(7) “Reasonable medical judgement” means a medical judgement that would be made by a reasonably prudent physician, knowledgeable about the case and treatment possibilities with respect to the medical condition involved.

(8) “Unborn child” means an individual organism of the species homo sapiens from conception until live birth.

Section 44-41-820. (A) No person shall knowingly administer to, prescribe for, deliver to, or sell to any pregnant woman any medicine, drug, or other substance with the specific intent of causing an abortion.

(B) No person may knowingly use or employ any instrument, device, means, or procedure upon a pregnant woman with the specific intent of causing an abortion.

Section 44-41-830. (A)(1) It is not a violation of Section 44-41-820 for a physician to perform a medical procedure necessary in his reasonable medical judgment to prevent the death of a pregnant woman, a substantial risk of death of a pregnant woman due to a physical condition, or the substantial physical impairment of a major bodily function of the pregnant woman, not including psychological or emotional conditions.

(2) It is presumed that the following medical conditions constitute a substantial risk of death or substantial risk of substantial physical impairment of a major bodily function of a pregnant woman: molar pregnancy, partial molar pregnancy, blighted ovum, ectopic pregnancy, severe preeclampsia, HELLP syndrome, abruptio placentae, severe physical maternal trauma, uterine rupture, intrauterine fetal demise, and miscarriage. However, when an unborn child is alive in utero, the physician must make all reasonable efforts to deliver and save the life of an unborn child during the process of separating the unborn child from the pregnant woman, to the extent that it does not adversely affect the life or physical health of the pregnant woman, and in a manner that is consistent with reasonable medical practice. The enumeration of the medical conditions in this item is not intended to exclude or abrogate other conditions that satisfy the exclusions contained in item (1) or prevent other procedures that are not included in the definition of abortion.

(3) A physician performing a medical procedure pursuant to item (1) shall make reasonable medical efforts under the circumstances to preserve the life of the pregnant woman's unborn child, to the extent that it does not substantially risk the death or physical impairment of a major bodily function of the pregnant woman, not including psychological or emotional conditions and in a manner consistent with reasonable medical practices. A medical procedure shall not be considered necessary if it is performed based upon a claim or diagnosis that the woman will engage in conduct that she intends to result in her death or in a substantial physical impairment of a major bodily function.

(4) A physician who performs a medical procedure pursuant to item (1) shall declare, in a written document maintained with the woman's medical records, that the medical procedure was necessary, the woman's medical condition necessitating the procedure, the physician's rationale for his conclusion that the procedure was necessary, and that all reasonable efforts were made to save the unborn child in the event it was living prior to the procedure. The declaration required by this item must be placed in the woman's medical records not later than thirty days after the procedure was completed. A physician's exercise of reasonable medical judgment in relation to a medical procedure undertaken pursuant to this subsection is presumed to be within the applicable standard of care.

(B) Medical treatment provided to a pregnant woman by a physician which results in the accidental or unintentional injury or death of her unborn child is not a violation of Section 44-41-820.

(C)(1) It is not a violation of Section 44-41-820 to use, sell, or administer a contraceptive measure, drug, chemical, or device if the contraceptive measure, drug, chemical, or device is used, sold, prescribed or administered in accordance with manufacturer's instructions and is not used, sold, prescribed or administered to cause or induce an abortion.

(2) It is not a violation of Section 44-41-820 to use, sell, prescribe, and insert an intrauterine device if the intrauterine device is used, sold, inserted, and prescribed within the reasonable medical judgment of a physician and is not used, sold, prescribed, or administered to cause or induce an abortion of an unborn human being.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2023

(3) It is not a violation of Section 44-41-820 to use, sell, prescribe, and administer an emergency contraceptive drug designed to be taken within five days of unprotected sex and used according to the manufacturer's instructions. For purposes of this item, an emergency contraceptive drug does not include mifepristone or misoprostol.

(D)(1) Except as provided in item (2), it is not a violation of Section 44-41-820 perform or undergo assistive reproductive technology, including but not limited to in vitro fertilization, within the accepted standards of care by the reproductive medical community.

(2) Performing selective reduction is a violation of Section 44-41-820 unless it is necessary within reasonable medical judgment to prevent a substantial risk of death or a substantial and irreversible physical impairment of a major bodily function of another unborn child.

Section 44-41-840. (A) A person who violates Section 44-41-820 is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, must be fined ten thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than two years, or both.

(B) A person who uses force, or the threat of force, to intentionally injure or intimidate another person for the purpose of coercing an abortion in violation of Section 44-41-820 is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, must be fined ten thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than two years, or both.

(C) A person who is not a physician as defined in this article and who prescribes any means of abortion for the purpose of facilitating an abortion within this State violates Section 44-41-820 and, upon conviction, is guilty of a felony and must be fined ten thousand dollars or imprisoned for two years, or both.

Section 44-41-850. (A) In addition to all other remedies available under common or statutory law, failure to comply with the requirements of this article shall provide the basis for a civil action further described in this section.

(B) A pregnant woman upon whom an abortion has been performed, induced, or coerced in violation of this article may maintain an action against the person who violated this article for actual and punitive damages. In addition to all other damages, and separate and distinct from all other damages, a plaintiff is entitled to statutory damages of ten thousand dollars for each violation of this article to be imposed on each defendant found to have violated this article.

(C) A separate and distinct cause of action for injunctive relief against any person who has violated this article may be maintained by:

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2023

(1) the woman upon whom the abortion was performed or induced in violation of this article;

(2) the parent or guardian of the pregnant woman if she had not attained the age of eighteen years at the time of the abortion or died as a result of the abortion;

(3) a Solicitor or prosecuting attorney with proper jurisdiction; or

(4) the Attorney General.

(D) If a plaintiff prevails in an action initiated pursuant to this section the court shall award the plaintiff reasonable costs and attorney's fees.

(E) No damages, costs, or attorney's fees may be assessed against the woman upon whom an abortion was performed or induced.

(F) Under no circumstances may civil damages be awarded to a plaintiff if the pregnancy resulted from the plaintiff's criminal conduct.

(G) A civil cause of action pursuant to this section must be brought within three years of the date of the abortion and is not subject to the limitations and requirements contained in Chapter 79, Title 15.

Section 44-41-860. A pregnant woman upon whom an abortion is performed or induced in violation of this article may not be criminally prosecuted or found civilly liable for violating any of the provisions of this article or for attempting to commit, conspiring to commit, or acting complicity in committing a violation of any of the provisions for this article.

Section 44-41-870. In addition to any other penalties imposed by law, a physician or any other professionally licensed person who intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly violates the prohibition on abortion contained in this article commits an act of unprofessional conduct. A physician's license to practice in this State immediately shall be revoked by the State Board of Medical Examiners, after due process according to the board's rules and procedures. Any other licensed person's professional license shall be immediately revoked by the appropriate licensing board, after due process according to that board's rules and procedures. A complaint may be originated by any person or by the board sua sponte. A licensing board acting pursuant to this section may assess costs of the investigation, fines, and other disciplinary actions as it may deem appropriate.

Section 44-41-880. In every civil or criminal proceeding or other action brought pursuant to this article, the court shall rule whether the anonymity of any woman upon whom an abortion has been performed or induced shall be preserved from public disclosure if the woman does not give consent to disclosure. The court, by motion or sua sponte, shall make a ruling and, upon determining that the woman's anonymity should be preserved, shall issue orders to the parties, witnesses, and counsel shall direct the sealing of the record and exclusion of individuals from courtrooms or hearing rooms to the extent necessary to safeguard her identity from public disclosure. Each such order shall be accompanied by specific written findings that explain why the woman's anonymity is being preserved from public disclosure, why the order is essential to that end, how the order is narrowly tailored to serve that interest, and why no reasonable least restrictive alternative exists. In the absence of the woman's written consent, any person, other than a public official, who brings an action pursuant to Section 44-41-820 shall do so under a pseudonym. This section may not be construed to conceal the identity of the plaintiff or of witnesses from the defendant or from attorneys for the defendant.

Section 44-41-890. If some or all of the provisions of this article are ever temporarily or permanently restrained or enjoined by judicial order, all other provisions of South Carolina law regulating or restricting abortion must be enforced as though such restrained or enjoined provisions had not been adopted; provided, however, that whenever such temporary or permanent restraining order or injunction is stayed, lifted, dissolved, or otherwise ceases to have effect, the provisions of this article shall have full force and effect.

SECTION 4. Article 1, Chapter 41, Title 44 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 44-41-90. (A) No funds appropriated by the State for employer contributions to the State Health Insurance Plan may be expended to reimburse the expenses of an abortion, except as provided in Sections 44-41-830, 44-41-840, and 44-41-850.

(B) No funds appropriated or authorized by the State may be used by any political subdivision of the State to purchase fetal tissue obtained from an abortion or fetal remains, nor may any political subdivision of the State accept donated fetal remains.

(C) No state funds may, directly or indirectly, be utilized by Planned Parenthood for abortions, abortion services or procedures, or administrative functions related to abortions.

SECTION 5. Article 3, Chapter 17, Title 63 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 63-17-325. A biological father of a child has a duty to pay the mother of the child the following financial obligations beginning with the date of conception:

(1) child support payment obligations in an amount determined pursuant to Section 63-17-470;

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2023

(2) fifty percent of the mother's pregnancy expenses.

(a) Any portion of a mother's pregnancy expenses paid by the mother or the biological father reduces that parent's fifty percent obligation regardless of when the mother or biological father pays the pregnancy expenses.

(b) Pregnancy expenses must include fifty percent of the mother's insurance premiums that are not paid by her employer or governmental program beginning from the date of conception and before the pregnancy ends, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(c) Item (2) does not apply if a court apportions pregnancy expenses as part of an award of child support in item (1).

(B) In the case of a mother who becomes pregnant as a result of rape or incest, the biological father, in addition to the duties imposed by subsection (A), also is responsible for the full cost of any expenses incurred by the mother for mental health counseling arising out of the rape or incest.

(C) The duties imposed by this section accrue at the time of conception and must be applied retroactively when paternity is contested and medical evidence establishes the paternity of the child. Interest accrues on any retroactive obligations beginning with conception until either the obligations are brought current or paid in full whichever happens first. The rate of interest must be calculated based on the applicable interest rate for money decrees and judgments in this State established annually by the South Carolina Supreme Court.

SECTION 6. Article 1, Chapter 71, Title 38 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 38-71-146. All individual and group health insurance and health maintenance organization policies in this State shall include coverage for contraceptives. For purposes of this Section, "contraceptive" means any drug, device, or medication to prevent pregnancy. A contraceptive may prevent ovulation, fertilization, or implantation in the uterus. A contraceptive does not include any drug, device, or medication used with the intent of terminating a pregnancy of a woman known to be pregnant. This section does not apply if an individual or entity asserts a sincerely held religious belief regarding the use of contraception.

SECTION 7. The Public Employee Benefit Authority and the State Health Plan shall cover prescribed contraceptives for dependents under the same terms and conditions that the Plan provides contraceptive coverage for employees and spouses. The State Health Plan shall not apply patient cost sharing provisions to covered contraceptives.

SECTION 8. Section 44-41-710 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

~~Section 44-41-710. This article must not be construed to repeal, by implication or otherwise, Section 44-41-20 or any otherwise applicable provision of South Carolina law regulating or restricting abortion. An abortion that complies with this article but violates the provisions of Section 44-41-20 or any otherwise applicable provision of South Carolina law must be considered unlawful as provided in such provision. An abortion that complies with the provisions of Section 44-41-20 or any otherwise applicable provision of South Carolina law regulating or restricting abortion but violates this article must be considered unlawful as provided in this article. If some or all of the provisions of this article are ever temporarily or permanently restrained or enjoined by judicial order, all other provisions of South Carolina law regulating or restricting abortion must be enforced as though such restrained or enjoined provisions had not been adopted; provided, however, that whenever such temporary or permanent restraining order or injunction is stayed or dissolved, or otherwise ceases to have effect, such provisions shall have full force and effect.~~

SECTION 9. Section 44-41-480 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

~~Section 44-41-480. This article must not be construed to repeal, by implication or otherwise, Section 44-41-20 or any otherwise applicable provision of South Carolina law regulating or restricting abortion. An abortion that complies with this article but violates the provisions of Section 44-41-20 or any otherwise applicable provision of South Carolina law must be considered unlawful as provided in such provision. An abortion that complies with the provisions of Section 44-41-20 or any otherwise applicable provision of South Carolina law regulating or restricting abortion but violates this article must be considered unlawful as provided in this article. If some or all of the provisions of this article are ever temporarily or permanently restrained or enjoined by judicial order, all other provisions of South Carolina law regulating or restricting abortion must be enforced as though such restrained or enjoined provisions had not been adopted; provided, however, that whenever such temporary or permanent restraining order of injunction is stayed or dissolved, or otherwise ceases to have effect, such provisions shall have full force and effect.~~

SECTION 10. Section 44-41-20 of the S.C. Code is repealed.

SECTION 11. Section 44-41-70(b) of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

(b) The department shall promulgate and enforce regulations for the licensing and certification of facilities other than hospitals as defined in

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2023

Section 44-41-10(d) wherein abortions are to be performed ~~as provided for in Section 44-41-20(a) and (b).~~

SECTION 12. The President of the Senate, on behalf of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, on behalf of the House of Representatives have an unconditional right to intervene on behalf of their respective bodies in a state court action and may provide evidence or argument, written or oral, if a party to that court action challenges the constitutionality of this act. In a federal court action that challenges the constitutionality of this act the Legislature may seek to intervene, to file an amicus brief, or to present arguments in accordance with federal rules of procedure. Intervention by the Legislature pursuant to this provision does not limit the duty of the Attorney General to appear and prosecute legal actions or defend state agencies, officers or employees as otherwise provided. In any action in which the Legislature intervenes or participates, the Senate and the House of Representatives shall function independently from each other in the representation of their respective clients.

SECTION 13. If any section, subsection, paragraph, subparagraph, sentence, clause, phrase, or word of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional or invalid, such holding shall not affect the constitutionality or validity of the remaining portions of this act, the General Assembly hereby declaring that it would have passed this act, and each and every section, subsection, paragraph, subparagraph, sentence, clause, phrase, and word thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more other sections, subsections, paragraphs, subparagraphs, sentences, clauses, phrases, or words hereof may be declared to be unconstitutional, invalid, or otherwise ineffective.

SECTION 14. This act takes effect upon approval by the Governor.

Amendment No. 3

Senator SENN proposed the following amendment (SR-474.JG0029S), which was tabled:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 1, by striking Section 44-41-630(3)(B) and inserting:

(B) Except as provided in Section 44-41-650 or 44-41-660, no person shall perform, induce, or attempt to perform or induce an abortion on a pregnant woman when the probable gestational age of the unborn child is more than twelve weeks. A person who violates this subsection is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, must be fined ten thousand dollars, imprisoned for not more than two years, or both.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 1, by striking Section 44-41-640 and inserting:

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2023

~~Section 44-41-640. If a pregnancy is at least eight weeks after fertilization, then the abortion provider who is to perform or induce an abortion, or an agent of the abortion provider, shall tell the woman that it may be possible to make the embryonic or fetal heartbeat of the unborn child audible for the pregnant woman to hear and shall ask the woman if she would like to hear the heartbeat. If the woman would like to hear the heartbeat, then the abortion provider shall, using whichever method the physician and patient agree is best under the circumstances, make the fetal heartbeat of the unborn child audible for the pregnant woman to hear.~~(A) Except as provided in subsection (B), Section 44-41-650, and Section 44-41-660, no person shall perform or induce an abortion on a pregnant woman with the specific intent of causing or abetting the termination of the life of the unborn child the pregnant woman is carrying if the probable gestational age of the unborn child is more than twelve weeks.

(B) A physician may perform, induce, or attempt to perform or induce an abortion on a pregnant woman after the probable gestational age of the unborn child is more than twelve weeks if:

(1) the pregnancy is the result of rape, and the probable gestational age of the unborn child is not more than fifteen weeks; or

(2) the pregnancy is the result of incest, and the probable gestational age of the unborn child is not more than fifteen weeks.

(C) A physician who performs or induces an abortion on a pregnant woman based on an exception contained in subsection (B) must report the allegation of rape or incest to the sheriff in the county in which the abortion was performed. The report must be made no later than twenty-four hours after performing or inducing the abortion, may be made orally or otherwise, and shall include the name and contact information of the pregnant woman making the allegation. Prior to performing or inducing an abortion, the physician who performs or induces an abortion based on an allegation of rape or incest must notify the pregnant woman that the physician will report the allegation of rape or incest to the sheriff. The physician shall make written notations in the pregnant woman's medical records that the abortion was performed pursuant to the applicable exception, that the doctor notified the sheriff of the allegation of rape or incest in a timely manner, and that the woman was notified prior to the abortion that the physician would notify the sheriff of the allegation of rape or incest.

(D) A person who violates this section is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, must be fined ten thousand dollars, imprisoned for not more than two years, or both.

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 1, by striking Section 44-41-640(C) and inserting:

(C) A physician who performs or induces an abortion on a pregnant woman based on an exception contained in subsection (B) must report the allegation of rape or incest to the sheriff in the county in which the abortion was performed. The report must be made no later than twenty-four hours after performing or inducing the abortion, may be made orally or otherwise, and shall not include the name and contact information of the pregnant woman making the allegation unless the pregnant woman consents. Prior to performing or inducing an abortion, the physician who performs or induces an abortion based on an allegation of rape or incest must notify the pregnant woman that the physician will report the allegation of rape or incest to the sheriff. The physician shall make written notations in the pregnant woman's medical records that the abortion was performed pursuant to the applicable exception, that the doctor notified the sheriff of the allegation of rape or incest in a timely manner, and that the woman was notified prior to the abortion that the physician would notify the sheriff of the allegation of rape or incest.

consent was obtained, or circumstances waiving consent, and must include:

- (1) Gestational age;
- (2) Method of abortion, of which the following was employed:
 - (a) medication abortion such as, but not limited to, mifepristone/misoprostol or methotrexate/misoprostol;
 - (b) manual vacuum aspiration;
 - (c) electrical vacuum aspiration;
 - (d) dilation and evacuation;
 - (e) combined induction abortion and dilation and evacuation;
 - (f) induction abortion with prostaglandins;
 - (g) induction abortion with intra-amniotic instillation such as, but not limited to, saline or urea;
 - (h) induction abortion; and
 - (i) intact dilation and extraction (partial-birth);
- (3) Whether an intrafetal injection was used in an attempt to induce fetal demise such as, but not limited to, intrafetal potassium chloride or digoxin;
- (4) Age of the patient; and
- (5) If an exception under this article applies, the applicable exception.

(B) Reports required by this section shall not contain the name or the address of the patient whose pregnancy was terminated, nor shall the report contain any other information identifying the patient, except that each report shall contain a unique medical record identifying number, to enable matching the report to the patient's medical records. Such reports must be maintained in strict confidence by the department, must not be available for public inspection, and must not be made available except:

- (1) to the Attorney General or solicitor with appropriate jurisdiction pursuant to a criminal investigation; or
- (2) pursuant to court order in an action under 44-41-690.

(C) By June thirtieth of each year, the department shall issue a public report providing statistics for the previous calendar year compiled from all of the reports covering that year submitted in accordance with this section for each of the items listed in subsection (A). Each such report also shall provide the statistics for all previous calendar years during which this section was in effect, adjusted to reflect any additional information from late or corrected reports. The department shall take care to ensure that none of the information included in the public reports could reasonably lead to the identification of any pregnant woman upon whom an abortion was performed, induced, or attempted.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2023

(D) Any facility that fails to submit a report by the end of thirty days following the due date must be subject to a late fee of one thousand dollars for each additional thirty-day period or portion of a thirty-day period the report is overdue. Any facility required to report in accordance with this article that has not submitted a report, or has submitted only an incomplete report, more than six months following the due date, may, in an action brought by the department, be directed by a court of competent jurisdiction to submit a complete report within a period stated by court order or be subject to civil contempt. Intentional or reckless falsification of any report required under this section is a misdemeanor punishable by not more than one year in prison.

B. The department must update the standard form for reporting abortions in accordance with Section 44-41-695, as added in this act, within ninety days of the effective date of this act. Until the standard form is updated, the standard form in use immediately preceding the effective date of this act must continue to be used.

SECTION X. Section 44-41-10 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 44-41-10. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Abortion" means the use of an instrument, medicine, drug, or other substance or device with intent to terminate the pregnancy of a woman known to be pregnant for reasons other than to increase the probability of a live birth, to preserve the life or health of the child after live birth, or to remove a dead fetus.

(b) "Physician" means ~~any~~ any person licensed to practice medicine and surgery, or osteopathic medicine and surgery, in this State.

(c) "Department" means the South Carolina Department of Health and Environmental Control.

(d) "Hospital" means those institutions licensed for hospital operation by the department in accordance with Article 3, Chapter 7 of this title and which have also been certified by the department to be suitable facilities for the performance of abortions.

(e) "Clinic" shall mean any facility other than a hospital as defined in subsection (d) which has been licensed by the Department, and which has also been certified by the Department to be suitable for the performance of abortions.

(f) "~~Pregnancy~~Pregnant" means the condition of a woman after conception until the termination of gestation. Pregnancy begins when a fertilized ovum implants in a woman's uterine wall ~~carrying a fetus or embryo within her body as the result of conception.~~

(g) "Conception" means ~~the fecundation of the~~ fertilization of an ovum by ~~the spermatozoasperm.~~

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2023

(h) “Consent” means a signed and witnessed voluntary agreement to the performance of an abortion.

(i) “First trimester of pregnancy” means the first twelve weeks of pregnancy commencing with conception rather than computed on the basis of the menstrual cycle.

(j) “Second trimester of pregnancy” means that portion of a pregnancy following the twelfth week and extending through the twenty-fourth week of gestation.

(k) “Third trimester of pregnancy” means that portion of a pregnancy beginning with the twenty-fifth week of gestation.

~~(l) “Viability” means that stage of human development when the fetus is potentially able to live outside of the mother's womb with or without the aid of artificial life support systems. For the purposes of this chapter, a legal presumption is hereby created that viability occurs no sooner than the twenty-fourth week of pregnancy.~~

~~—(m)~~ “Minor” means a female under the age of seventeen.

~~(n)~~(m) “Emancipated minor” means a minor who is or has been married or has by court order been freed from the care, custody, and control of her parents.

~~(o)~~(n) “In loco parentis” means any person over the age of eighteen who has placed himself or herself in the position of a lawful parent by assuming obligations which are incidental to the parental relationship and has so served for a period of sixty days.

SECTION X. Section 44-41-70(b) of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

(b) The department shall promulgate and enforce regulations for the licensing and certification of facilities other than hospitals as defined in Section 44-41-10(d) wherein abortions are to be performed ~~as provided for in Section 44-41-20(a) and (b).~~

Amend the bill further, by striking SECTION 6 and inserting:

SECTION 6. From Article 1, Chapter 41, Title 44, related to Abortions Generally, Section 44-41-20, Section 44-41-60, and Section 44-41-80 are repealed.

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The Senate assembled at 11:00 A.M., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Proverbs 16:3

The author of Proverbs declares: "Commit your work to the Lord, and your plans will be established."

Join your heart with mine as we pray: Glorious God, we know that it is Your desire for us to commit ourselves to laboring as Your servants in everything we undertake to accomplish. May it ever be so, dear Lord. So, to that end, we ask that You fill the hearts and minds of these Senators -- each and every one of them -- with a fervent desire to abide by Your teachings. And as a result of that zeal, may it be that each decision and every action these leaders and their aides pursue this year clearly reflects Your boundless love for absolutely every woman, man, and child here in South Carolina. In Your name do we pray this, blessed Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

RECESS

At 11:49 A.M., on motion of Senator MALLOY, the Senate recessed from business subject to the Call of the Chair.

At 11:55 A.M., the Senate resumed.

Senator SENN proposed the following amendment (SR-474.JG0010S), which was carried over:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 1, by striking Section 44-41-630(3)(B) and inserting:

(B) Except as provided in Section 44-41-650 or 44-41-660, no physician shall perform, induce, or attempt to perform or induce an abortion on a pregnant woman before the determination is made pursuant to subsection (A) whether the unborn child the pregnant woman is carrying has a detectable heartbeat. It is not a violation of this subsection if the requirements contained in subsection (A) have been satisfied and the method used to test for the presence of a fetal heartbeat does not reveal a fetal heartbeat. A physician who violates this subsection is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, must be fined ten thousand dollars, imprisoned for not more than two years, or both.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 1, by striking Section 44-41-640 and inserting:

~~Section 44-41-640. If a pregnancy is at least eight weeks after fertilization, then the abortion provider who is to perform or induce an abortion, or an agent of the abortion provider, shall tell the woman that it may be possible to make the embryonic or fetal heartbeat of the unborn child audible for the pregnant woman to hear and shall ask the woman if she would like to hear the heartbeat. If the woman would like to hear the heartbeat, then the abortion provider shall, using whichever method the physician and patient agree is best under the circumstances, make the fetal heartbeat of the unborn child audible for the pregnant woman to hear.~~(A) Except as provided in subsection (B), Section 44-41-650, and

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2023

Section 44-41-660, no physician shall perform or induce an abortion on a pregnant woman with the specific intent of causing or abetting the termination of the life of the unborn child the pregnant woman is carrying if the unborn child's fetal heartbeat has been detected in accordance with Section 44-41-630.

(B) A physician may perform, induce, or attempt to perform or induce an abortion on a pregnant woman after the fetal heartbeat has been detected in accordance with Section 44-41-630 if:

(1) the pregnancy is the result of rape, and the probable gestational age of the unborn child is fewer than twelve weeks; or

(2) the pregnancy is the result of incest, and the probable gestational age of the unborn child is fewer than twelve weeks.

(C) A physician who performs or induces an abortion on a pregnant woman based on an exception contained in subsection (B) must report the allegation of rape or incest to the sheriff in the county in which the abortion was performed. The report must be made no later than twenty-four hours after performing or inducing the abortion, may be made orally or otherwise, and shall include the name and contact information of the pregnant woman making the allegation. Prior to performing or inducing an abortion, the physician who performs or induces an abortion based on an allegation of rape or incest must notify the pregnant woman that the physician will report the allegation of rape or incest to the sheriff. The physician shall make written notations in the pregnant woman's medical records that the abortion was performed pursuant to the applicable exception, that the doctor notified the sheriff of the allegation of rape or incest in a timely manner, and that the woman was notified prior to the abortion that the physician would notify the sheriff of the allegation of rape or incest.

(D) A physician who violates this section is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, must be fined ten thousand dollars, imprisoned for not more than two years, or both.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2023

Senator HUTTO proposed the following amendment (SMIN-474.MW0022S), which was carried over:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by adding an appropriately numbered SECTION to read:

SECTION X. From Article 1, Chapter 41, Title 44, related to Abortions Generally, Section 44-41-80(b) is repealed.

Renumber sections to conform.

Amend title to conform.

Senator HUTTO explained the amendment.

On motion of Senator HUTTO, the amendment was carried over.

Senators CAMPSER, GROOMS and MASSEY proposed the following amendment (SFGF-474.BC0036S):

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 1, by striking Section 44-41-610(8) and inserting:

(8) "Medical emergency" means ~~a condition that, by any~~in reasonable medical judgment, a condition exists that has complicated the pregnant woman's medical condition and necessitates an abortion to prevent death or a so complicates the medical condition of a pregnant woman that it necessitates the immediate abortion of her pregnancy to avert her death without first determining whether there is a detectable fetal heartbeat or for which the delay necessary to determine whether there is a detectable fetal heartbeat will create serious risk of a substantial and irreversible physical impairment of a major bodily function, not including psychological or emotional conditions. A condition must not be considered a medical emergency if based on a claim or diagnosis that a woman will engage in conduct that she intends to result in her death or in a substantial and irreversible physical impairment of a major bodily function.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 1, by striking Section 44-41-620(A) and inserting:

~~(A) A court judgment or order suspending enforcement of any provision of this chapter is not to be regarded as tantamount to repeal of that provision.~~Nothing in this article prohibits the sale, use, prescription, or administration of a contraceptive.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 1, by striking Section 44-41-650(C) and (D) and inserting:

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2023

(C) For at least seven years from the date the notations are made in the woman's medical records, the owner of the pregnant woman's medical records shall maintain a copy of the notations.

(D) A person, if he is the owner of the pregnant woman's medical records, who violates subsection (B) or (C) is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, must be fined up to ten thousand dollars, imprisoned for not more than two years, or both.

(E) An entity with ownership of the pregnant woman's medical records that violates subsection (C) must be fined up to fifty thousand dollars.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 1, by striking Section 44-41-660(B)(3) and inserting:

(3) the medical rationale to support the physician's conclusion that ~~the pregnant woman's medical condition necessitated the immediate abortion of her pregnancy to avert her death~~ a medical emergency necessitating the abortion existed.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 1, by striking Section 44-41-660(C) and (D) and inserting:

(C) For at least seven years from the date the notations are made in the pregnant woman's medical records, the ~~physician~~ owner of the pregnant woman's medical records shall maintain a copy of the notations ~~in his own records a copy of the notations.~~

(D) A person, if he is the owner of the pregnant woman's medical records, who violates subsection (B) or (C) is guilty of a felony and must be fined up to ten thousand dollars, imprisoned for not more than two years, or both.

(E) An entity with ownership of the pregnant woman's medical records that violates subsection (C) must be fined up to fifty thousand dollars.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 1, by striking Section 44-41-690(A) and inserting:

(A) Section ~~44-41-680~~ 44-41-640 does not apply to a physician who performs a medical procedure that, ~~by any~~ in reasonable medical judgment, is designed or intended to prevent the death of the pregnant woman or to prevent the serious risk of a substantial and irreversible impairment of a major bodily function of the pregnant woman.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 1, by striking Section 44-41-690(C) and (D) and inserting:

(C) A physician who performs a medical procedure as described in subsection (A) shall place the written document required by subsection (B) in the pregnant woman's medical records. For at least seven years from the date the document is created, the physician owner of the pregnant woman's medical records shall maintain a copy of the document ~~in his own records~~.

(D) A person, if he is the owner of the pregnant woman's medical records, who violates subsection (B) or (C) is guilty of a felony and must be fined up to ten thousand dollars, imprisoned for not more than two years, or both.

(E) An entity with ownership of the pregnant woman's medical records that violates subsection (C) must be fined up to fifty thousand dollars.

Amend the bill further, by adding appropriately numbered SECTIONS to read:

SECTION X.A. Chapter 41, Title 44 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 44-41-695. (A) Any abortion performed in this State must be reported by the licensed facility on the standard form for reporting abortions to the state registrar, Department of Health and Environmental Control, within seven days after the abortion is performed. The names of the patient and physician may not be reported on the form or otherwise disclosed to the state registrar. The form must indicate from whom consent was obtained, or circumstances waiving consent, and must include:

- (1) Gestational age;
- (2) Method of abortion, of which the following was employed:
 - (a) medication abortion such as, but not limited to, mifepristone/misoprostol or methotrexate/misoprostol;
 - (b) manual vacuum aspiration;
 - (c) electrical vacuum aspiration;
 - (d) dilation and evacuation;
 - (e) combined induction abortion and dilation and evacuation;
 - (f) induction abortion with prostaglandins;
 - (g) induction abortion with intra-amniotic instillation such as, but not limited to, saline or urea;
 - (h) induction abortion; and
 - (i) intact dilation and extraction (partial-birth);
- (3) Whether an intrafetal injection was used in an attempt to induce fetal demise such as, but not limited to, intrafetal potassium chloride or digoxin;
- (4) Age of the patient; and
- (5) If an exception under this article applies, the applicable exception.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2023

(B) Reports required by this section shall not contain the name or the address of the patient whose pregnancy was terminated, nor shall the report contain any other information identifying the patient, except that each report shall contain a unique medical record identifying number, to enable matching the report to the patient's medical records. Such reports must be maintained in strict confidence by the department, must not be available for public inspection, and must not be made available except:

(1) to the Attorney General or solicitor with appropriate jurisdiction pursuant to a criminal investigation; or

(2) pursuant to court order in an action under 44-41-690.

(C) By June thirtieth of each year, the department shall issue a public report providing statistics for the previous calendar year compiled from all of the reports covering that year submitted in accordance with this section for each of the items listed in subsection (A). Each such report also shall provide the statistics for all previous calendar years during which this section was in effect, adjusted to reflect any additional information from late or corrected reports. The department shall take care to ensure that none of the information included in the public reports could reasonably lead to the identification of any pregnant woman upon whom an abortion was performed, induced, or attempted.

(D) Any facility that fails to submit a report by the end of thirty days following the due date must be subject to a late fee of one thousand dollars for each additional thirty-day period or portion of a thirty-day period the report is overdue. Any facility required to report in accordance with this article that has not submitted a report, or has submitted only an incomplete report, more than six months following the due date, may, in an action brought by the department, be directed by a court of competent jurisdiction to submit a complete report within a period stated by court order or be subject to civil contempt. Intentional or reckless falsification of any report required under this section is a misdemeanor punishable by not more than one year in prison.

B. The department must update the standard form for reporting abortions in accordance with Section 44-41-695, as added in this act, within ninety days of the effective date of this act. Until the standard form is updated, the standard form in use immediately preceding the effective date of this act must continue to be used.

SECTION X. Section 44-41-10 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

Section 44-41-10. As used in this chapter:

(a) "Abortion" means the use of an instrument, medicine, drug, or other substance or device with intent to terminate the pregnancy of a woman known to be pregnant for reasons other than to increase the probability of a live birth, to preserve the life or health of the child after live birth, or to remove a dead fetus.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2023

(b) “Physician” means ~~any~~ any person licensed to practice medicine and surgery, or osteopathic medicine and surgery, in this State.

(c) “Department” means the South Carolina Department of Health and Environmental Control.

(d) “Hospital” means those institutions licensed for hospital operation by the department in accordance with Article 3, Chapter 7 of this title and which have also been certified by the department to be suitable facilities for the performance of abortions.

(e) “Clinic” shall mean any facility other than a hospital as defined in subsection (d) which has been licensed by the department, and which has also been certified by the department to be suitable for the performance of abortions.

(f) ~~“PregnancyPregnant”~~ means the condition of a woman after conception until the termination of gestation. Pregnancy begins when a fertilized ovum implants in a woman’s uterine wall ~~carrying a fetus or embryo within her body as the result of conception.~~

(g) “Conception” means ~~the fecundation of the~~ fertilization of an ovum ~~by the spermatozoasperm.~~

(h) “Consent” means a signed and witnessed voluntary agreement to the performance of an abortion.

(i) “First trimester of pregnancy” means the first twelve weeks of pregnancy commencing with conception rather than computed on the basis of the menstrual cycle.

(j) “Second trimester of pregnancy” means that portion of a pregnancy following the twelfth week and extending through the twenty-fourth week of gestation.

(k) “Third trimester of pregnancy” means that portion of a pregnancy beginning with the twenty-fifth week of gestation.

~~(l) “Viability” means that stage of human development when the fetus is potentially able to live outside of the mother’s womb with or without the aid of artificial life support systems. For the purposes of this chapter, a legal presumption is hereby created that viability occurs no sooner than the twenty-fourth week of pregnancy.~~

~~—(m)~~ “Minor” means a female under the age of seventeen.

~~(n)~~ (m) “Emancipated minor” means a minor who is or has been married or has by court order been freed from the care, custody, and control of her parents.

~~(o)~~ (n) “In loco parentis” means any person over the age of eighteen who has placed himself or herself in the position of a lawful parent by assuming obligations which are incidental to the parental relationship and has so served for a period of sixty days.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2023

SECTION X. Section 44-41-70(b) of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

(b) The department shall promulgate and enforce regulations for the licensing and certification of facilities other than hospitals as defined in Section 44-41-10(d) wherein abortions are to be performed ~~as provided for in Section 44-41-20(a) and (b).~~

Amend the bill further, by striking SECTION 6 and inserting:

SECTION 6. From Article 1, Chapter 41, Title 44, related to Abortions Generally, Section 44-41-20 and Section 44-41-60 are repealed.

Renumber sections to conform.

Amend title to conform.

(1) the pregnancy is the result of rape, and the probable gestational age of the unborn child is fewer than twelve weeks; or

(2) the pregnancy is the result of incest, and the probable gestational age of the unborn child is fewer than twelve weeks.

(C) A physician who performs or induces an abortion on a pregnant woman based on an exception contained in subsection (B) must report the allegation of rape or incest to the sheriff in the county in which the abortion was performed. The report must be made no later than twenty-four hours after performing or inducing the abortion, may be made orally or otherwise, and shall include the name and contact information of the pregnant woman making the allegation. Prior to performing or inducing an abortion, the physician who performs or induces an abortion based on an allegation of rape or incest must notify the pregnant woman that the physician will report the allegation of rape or incest to the sheriff. The physician shall make written notations in the pregnant woman's medical records that the abortion was performed pursuant to the applicable exception, that the doctor notified the sheriff of the allegation of rape or incest in a timely manner, and that the woman was notified prior to the

The Senate refused to lay the amendment on the table.

The question then being the adoption of the amendment.

The amendment was adopted.

Senators CAMPSSEN, GROOMS and MASSEY proposed the following amendment (SFGF-474.BC0041S), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 1, by striking Section 44-41-610(8) and (9) and inserting:

(8) “Medical emergency” means ~~a condition that, by any in~~ reasonable medical judgment, a condition exists that has complicated the pregnant woman’s medical condition and necessitates an abortion to prevent death or a so complicates the medical condition of a pregnant woman that it necessitates the immediate abortion of her pregnancy to avert her death without first determining whether there is a detectable fetal heartbeat or for which the delay necessary to determine whether there is a detectable fetal heartbeat will create serious risk of a substantial and irreversible physical impairment of a major bodily function, not including psychological or emotional conditions. A condition must not be considered a medical emergency if based on a claim or diagnosis that a woman will engage in conduct that she intends to result in her death or in a substantial and irreversible physical impairment of a major bodily function.

(9) “Physician” means ~~any a~~ person licensed to practice medicine ~~and surgery, or osteopathic medicine and surgery,~~ in this State.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 1, by striking Section 44-41-620(A) and inserting:

~~(A) A court judgment or order suspending enforcement of any provision of this chapter is not to be regarded as tantamount to repeal of~~

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2023

~~that provision.~~Nothing in this article prohibits the sale, use, prescription, or administration of a contraceptive.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 1, by striking Section 44-41-630(1) and inserting:

(1) perform an obstetric ultrasound on the pregnant woman, using whichever method the physician or person and pregnant woman agree is best under the circumstances;

Amend the bill further, SECTION 1, by striking Section 44-41-650(A), (B), (C), and (D) and inserting:

(A) ~~Except as provided in Section 44-41-660, no person shall perform, induce, or attempt to perform or induce an abortion on a pregnant woman before a physician determines in accordance with Section 44-41-630 whether the human fetus the pregnant woman is carrying has a detectable fetal heartbeat.~~It is not a violation of Section 44-41-640 if an abortion is performed or induced on a pregnant woman due to the existence of a fatal fetal anomaly. Section 44-41-630(B) does not apply to a physician or person who performs or induces an abortion if the physician or person determines according to standard medical practice that there exists a fatal fetal anomaly.

(B) ~~A person who violates subsection (A) is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, must be fined ten thousand dollars, imprisoned not more than two years, or both.~~A physician or person who performs or induces an abortion based upon the existence of a fatal fetal anomaly shall make written notations in the pregnant woman's medical records of:

(1) the presence of a fatal fetal anomaly;

(2) the nature of the fatal fetal anomaly;

(3) the medical rationale for making the determination that with or without the provision of life-preserving treatment life after birth would be unsustainable.

(C) For at least seven years from the date the notations are made in the woman's medical records, the owner of the pregnant woman's medical records shall maintain a record of the notations.

(D) A person, if he is the owner of the pregnant woman's medical records, who violates subsection (B) or (C) is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, must be fined up to ten thousand dollars, imprisoned for not more than two years, or both.

(E) An entity with ownership of the pregnant woman's medical records that violates subsection (C) must be fined up to fifty thousand dollars.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2023

Amend the bill further, SECTION 1, by striking Section 44-41-660(A), (B), (C), and (D) and inserting:

(A) It is not a violation of Section 44-41-640 if an abortion is performed or induced on a pregnant woman due to a medical emergency. Section 44-41-65044-41-630(B) does not apply to a physician or person who performs or induces an abortion if the physician or person determines according to standard medical practice that a medical emergency exists that prevents compliance with the section.

(B) A physician or person who performs or induces an abortion on a pregnant woman based on the exception in subsection (A) shall make written notations in the pregnant woman's medical records of the following:

(1) the physician's or person's belief that a medical emergency necessitating the abortion existed;

(2) the medical condition of the pregnant woman that assertedly prevented compliance with Section ~~44-41-650~~44-41-630(B); and

(3) the medical rationale to support the physician's or person's conclusion that ~~the pregnant woman's medical condition necessitated the immediate abortion of her pregnancy to avert her death~~ a medical emergency necessitating the abortion existed.

(C) For at least seven years from the date the notations are made in the pregnant woman's medical records, the ~~physician~~ owner of the pregnant woman's medical records shall maintain a record of the notations ~~in his own records a copy of the notations.~~

(D) A person, if he is the owner of the pregnant woman's medical records, who violates subsection (B) or (C) is guilty of a felony and must be fined up to ten thousand dollars, imprisoned for not more than two years, or both.

(E) An entity with ownership of the pregnant woman's medical records that violates subsection (C) must be fined up to fifty thousand dollars.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 1, by striking Section 44-41-690(A) and inserting:

(A) Section ~~44-41-680~~44-41-640 does not apply to a physician who performs a medical procedure that, ~~by any~~ in reasonable medical judgment, is designed or intended to prevent the death of the pregnant woman or to prevent the serious risk of a substantial and irreversible impairment of a major bodily function of the pregnant woman.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 1, by striking Section 44-41-690(C) and (D) and inserting:

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2023

(C) A physician who performs a medical procedure as described in subsection (A) shall place the written document required by subsection (B) in the pregnant woman's medical records. For at least seven years from the date the document is created, the physician owner of the pregnant woman's medical records shall maintain a copy record of the document ~~in his own records~~.

(D) A person, if he is the owner of the pregnant woman's medical records, who violates subsection (B) or (C) is guilty of a felony and must be fined up to ten thousand dollars, imprisoned for not more than two years, or both.

(E) An entity with ownership of the pregnant woman's medical records that violates subsection (C) must be fined up to fifty thousand dollars.

Amend the bill further, by adding appropriately numbered SECTIONS to read:

SECTION X.A. Chapter 41, Title 44 of the S.C. Code is amended by adding:

Section 44-41-695. (A) Any abortion performed in this State must be reported by the licensed facility on the standard form for reporting abortions to the state registrar, Department of Health and Environmental Control, within seven days after the abortion is performed. The names of the patient and physician may not be reported on the form or otherwise disclosed to the state registrar. The form must indicate from whom consent was obtained, or circumstances waiving consent, and must include:

- (1) Gestational age;
- (2) Method of abortion, of which the following was employed:
 - (a) medication abortion such as, but not limited to, mifepristone/misoprostol or methotrexate/misoprostol;
 - (b) manual vacuum aspiration;
 - (c) electrical vacuum aspiration;
 - (d) dilation and evacuation;
 - (e) combined induction abortion and dilation and evacuation;
 - (f) induction abortion with prostaglandins;
 - (g) induction abortion with intra-amniotic instillation such as, but not limited to, saline or urea;
 - (h) induction abortion; and
 - (i) intact dilation and extraction (partial-birth);
- (3) Whether an intrafetal injection was used in an attempt to induce fetal demise such as, but not limited to, intrafetal potassium chloride or digoxin;

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2023

(4) Age of the patient; and

(5) If an exception under this article applies, the applicable exception.

(B) Reports required by this section shall not contain the name or the address of the patient whose pregnancy was terminated, nor shall the report contain any other information identifying the patient, except that each report shall contain a unique medical record identifying number, to enable matching the report to the patient's medical records. Such reports must be maintained in strict confidence by the department, must not be available for public inspection, and must not be made available except:

(1) to the Attorney General or solicitor with appropriate jurisdiction pursuant to a criminal investigation; or

(2) pursuant to court order in an action under 44-41-690.

(C) By June thirtieth of each year, the department shall issue a public report providing statistics for the previous calendar year compiled from all of the reports covering that year submitted in accordance with this section for each of the items listed in subsection (A). Each such report also shall provide the statistics for all previous calendar years during which this section was in effect, adjusted to reflect any additional information from late or corrected reports. The department shall take care to ensure that none of the information included in the public reports could reasonably lead to the identification of any pregnant woman upon whom an abortion was performed, induced, or attempted.

(D) Any facility that fails to submit a report by the end of thirty days following the due date must be subject to a late fee of one thousand dollars for each additional thirty-day period or portion of a thirty-day period the report is overdue. Any facility required to report in accordance with this article that has not submitted a report, or has submitted only an incomplete report, more than six months following the due date, may, in an action brought by the department, be directed by a court of competent jurisdiction to submit a complete report within a period stated by court order or be subject to civil contempt. Intentional or reckless falsification of any report required under this section is a misdemeanor punishable by not more than one year in prison.

B. The department must update the standard form for reporting abortions in accordance with Section 44-41-695, as added in this act, within ninety days of the effective date of this act. Until the standard form is updated, the standard form in use immediately preceding the effective date of this act must continue to be used.

SECTION X. Section 44-41-10 of the S.C. Code is amended to read:
Section 44-41-10. As used in this chapter:

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2023

(a) “Abortion” means the use of an instrument, medicine, drug, or other substance or device with intent to terminate the pregnancy of a woman known to be pregnant for reasons other than to increase the probability of a live birth, to preserve the life or health of the child after live birth, or to remove a dead fetus.

(b) “Physician” means a person licensed to practice medicine in this State.

(c) “Department” means the South Carolina Department of Health and Environmental Control.

(d) “Hospital” means those institutions licensed for hospital operation by the department in accordance with Article 3, Chapter 7 of this title and which have also been certified by the department to be suitable facilities for the performance of abortions.

(e) “Clinic” shall mean any facility other than a hospital as defined in subsection (d) which has been licensed by the department, and which has also been certified by the department to be suitable for the performance of abortions.

(f) ~~“PregnancyPregnant”~~ means the condition of a woman after conception until the termination of gestation. Pregnancy begins when a fertilized ovum implants in a woman’s uterine wall ~~carrying a fetus or embryo within her body as the result of conception.~~

(g) “Conception” means ~~the fecundation of the~~ fertilization of an ovum by ~~the spermatozoasperm.~~

(h) “Consent” means a signed and witnessed voluntary agreement to the performance of an abortion.

(i) “First trimester of pregnancy” means the first twelve weeks of pregnancy commencing with conception rather than computed on the basis of the menstrual cycle.

(j) “Second trimester of pregnancy” means that portion of a pregnancy following the twelfth week and extending through the twenty-fourth week of gestation.

(k) “Third trimester of pregnancy” means that portion of a pregnancy beginning with the twenty-fifth week of gestation.

~~(l) “Viability” means that stage of human development when the fetus is potentially able to live outside of the mother’s womb with or without the aid of artificial life support systems. For the purposes of this chapter, a legal presumption is hereby created that viability occurs no sooner than the twenty-fourth week of pregnancy.~~

~~(m)~~ “Minor” means a female under the age of seventeen.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2023

~~(n)~~(m) “Emancipated minor” means a minor who is or has been married or has by court order been freed from the care, custody, and control of her parents.

~~(e)~~(n) “In loco parentis” means any person over the age of eighteen who has placed himself or herself in the position of a lawful parent by assuming obligations which are incidental to the parental relationship and has so served for a period of sixty days.

SECTION X. Section 44-41-70(b) of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

(b) The department shall promulgate and enforce regulations for the licensing and certification of facilities other than hospitals as defined in Section 44-41-10(d) wherein abortions are to be performed ~~as provided for in Section 44-41-20(a) and (b).~~

Amend the bill further, by striking SECTION 6 and inserting:
SECTION 6. From Article 1, Chapter 41, Title 44, related to Abortions Generally, Section 44-41-20 and Section 44-41-60 are repealed.

Renumber sections to conform.

Amend title to conform.

Senator CAMPSSEN explained the amendment.

The amendment was adopted.

Senator SENN proposed the following amendment (SR-474.JG0010S), which was withdrawn:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 1, by striking Section 44-41-630(3)(B) and inserting:

(B) Except as provided in Section 44-41-650 or Section 44-41-660, no physician shall perform, induce, or attempt to perform or induce an abortion on a pregnant woman before the determination is made pursuant to subsection (A) whether the unborn child the pregnant woman is carrying has a detectable heartbeat. It is not a violation of this subsection if the requirements contained in subsection (A) have been satisfied and the method used to test for the presence of a fetal heartbeat does not reveal a fetal heartbeat. A physician who violates this subsection is guilty of a felony and, upon conviction, must be fined ten thousand dollars, imprisoned for not more than two years, or both.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 1, by striking Section 44-41-640 and inserting:

~~Section 44-41-640. If a pregnancy is at least eight weeks after fertilization, then the abortion provider who is to perform or induce an~~

~~abortion, or an agent of the abortion provider, shall tell the woman that it may be possible to make the embryonic or fetal heartbeat of the unborn child audible for the pregnant woman to hear and shall ask the woman if she would like to hear the heartbeat. If the woman would like to hear the heartbeat, then the abortion provider shall, using whichever method the physician and patient agree is best under the circumstances, make the fetal heartbeat of the unborn child audible for the pregnant woman to hear.~~(A) Except as provided in subsection (B), Section 44-41-650, and Section 44-41-660, no physician shall perform or induce an abortion on a pregnant woman with the specific intent of causing or abetting the termination of the life of the unborn child the pregnant woman is carrying if the unborn child's fetal heartbeat has been detected in accordance with Section 44-41-630.

(B) A physician may perform, induce, or attempt to perform or induce an abortion on a pregnant woman after the fetal heartbeat has been detected in accordance with Section 44-41-630 if:

(1) the pregnancy is the result of rape, and the probable gestational age of the unborn child is fewer than twelve weeks; or

(2) the pregnancy is the result of incest, and the probable gestational age of the unborn child is fewer than twelve weeks.

(C) A physician who performs or induces an abortion on a pregnant woman based on an exception contained in subsection (B) must report the allegation of rape or incest to the sheriff in the county in which the abortion was performed. The report must be made no later than twenty-four hours after performing or inducing the abortion, may be made orally or otherwise, and shall include the name and contact information of the pregnant woman making the allegation. Prior to performing or inducing an abortion, the physician who performs or induces an abortion based on an allegation of rape or incest must notify the pregnant woman that the physician will report the allegation of rape or incest to the sheriff. The physician shall make written notations in the pregnant woman's medical records that the abortion was performed pursuant to the applicable exception, that the doctor notified the sheriff of the allegation of rape or incest in a timely manner, and that the woman was notified prior to the abortion that the physician would notify the sheriff of the allegation of rape or incest.

Remarks by Senator MATTHEWS

If you'll give me a little bit of leeway, as I sometimes do, I asked the Reverend Doctor James St. John to give me a copy of his scripture. I just want to say this scripture for you. I've had to read it myself several times today "as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, clothe yourself with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience" Colossians 3:12.

And God knows I need to read that and adhere to it. But I think it's important that we think about this now. We're here on what you call legislative Friday. Every one of us wants to go home. We do not have a lot of patience and I think we should at least consider compassion, kindness, and humility. On Tuesday at the beginning of the legislative week, I made a Point of Personal Privilege that I want to apologize to the Body for if that Point of Personal Privilege was not necessarily understood. And maybe, Senator GUSTAFSON, I am guilty of the same thing in reading Rule 13.

Let me tell you a little bit of what I was going through. When I left the Chamber last Wednesday, I had a sinking feeling because of the Bill that had just been read across the desk. I inquired about why we were having a perfunctory session on Friday. That's when I figured out that there were some shenanigans -- and that's how I felt -- to get this Bill read across the desk on Wednesday, to fast track it, and have it heard. Quite frankly, I didn't think that was possible because it hadn't happened before in my time here in the Senate. I know a lot of you -- who sit in front of me and have been here longer -- have seen it happen. But I didn't even know it was possible. I didn't realize that the intention from the beginning was to read this Bill across the desk -- a Bill that could have been pre-filed a long time ago -- and to have it fast tracked for this week in front of the other matters that have already come out of committee. Well, here it is. And so, I thought about this over the weekend and about how I felt. I read the rule book and I found Rule 13. I thought I was adhering to this rule where it says, Point of Personal Privilege, provided that a Point of Personal Privilege shall be defined as questions affecting rights, reputation, and conduct of members of the Body in their representative capacity.

If you recall, Senator MASSEY was very gracious in allowing me to continue to talk. Specifically, I was only responding to what I considered to be the cavalier shenanigans and how this was bungled. Being the deliberative Body it's supposed to be, I got further flabbergasted because this Body sat and listened while the Bill was explained. This is an issue so critical to more than half of South Carolina's women and men. When

Senator MASSEY said, "I'm not going to answer any questions about the Bill," we accepted it and were okay with it. I felt that was an affront to me and to the other fifty percent of women in the State of South Carolina. If nothing else, if we can't agree on something, we should at least ask for explanation when you're the author of a Bill. There were four authors on that Bill and none of them asked questions. Yet, my sister Senator from Charleston, Senator SENN, who studied this Bill and proposed amendment after amendment, was regaled with many questions. She accepted questions and allowed people to question her. What is wrong with us? What are you afraid of? After asking Senator MASSEY whether or not this Bill will affect victim's rights, I specifically put up an amendment. He responded, "No, nothing in here would violate the Constitution," that it would not affect a victim's rights. So, what did staff do? Prepared an amendment for me that said nothing in this Bill will affect the victims' rights. And just like cattle walking in line, this Body ignored everything that was said and went straight along the lines of the votes. Same thing with this vote in reference to what Senator GUSTAFSON was talking about.

We have not done what we're supposed to on this vote. I know you have a national agenda -- I know -- I get that. But the women of South Carolina, the people of South Carolina, the doctors and everybody, deserve better. I don't understand why it is so important to do a knee jerk. This Body should not do that. If this Bill is good now, it will be good when it comes out of committee after we've heard doctors' testimony. If this Bill is good, we need to hear the other side of this story from women. We need to hear about the fertility IVF. We need to hear from normal people. You said you have heard it, but this Bill is not the same Bill that was in committee before. So that's an unfair propagation. We talk about heavy-handed government -- well, it's a heavy hand of a bunch of men and that's not fair. I know you don't want to hear it and you think I am just a woman complaining -- I'm not. I get it from all sides of the aisle. Most Republicans and most women are calling and they're saying, thank you for speaking up, because you won't listen. You won't hear anything. It's just like me trying to tell my husband to do a chore -- he doesn't even hear it. Listen, there are things that people have brought to my attention, Republicans and Democrats, men and women. This Bill doesn't even talk about the rights of midwives and what happens if they do an abortion. What happens? Nobody even wants to talk about ectopic pregnancies -- things like that. With that, Mr. PRESIDENT, I move to recommit.

The reasons why I am asking that this Bill be recommitted are because we have debated the amendments, but the sponsor has failed to explain and accept questions on the Bill. That was specifically said on Tuesday. There's no explanation. None of the Senators who sponsored this Bill have allowed questions from the floor. I also believe that the Bill needs to be recommitted because there are no specifics on whether a woman who reports a rape will have to divulge the perpetrator with no testimony or statements from her. In addition, the reason why I seek to recommit this Bill is that we have not heard from the Sheriff's Association on the impact of this Bill, the reporting of it, and how it will affect their workload. Another reason I wish to recommit this Bill, it impacts rule record holders without any reference to intent. This Bill doesn't even talk about whether or not we have jurisdiction over those folks that are out-of-state. Every time my office seeks records from hospitals it's usually some out-of-state entity. We still need to recommit so that we can study poverty. How will these women who are forced to have children -- what happens to them when they carry these children into an impoverished household? Few decisions in life are more private than the decision on whether to terminate a pregnancy. So, if our Supreme Court has said that this is one of the most important rights, shouldn't we deliberate and give this due consideration in the committee process? Our privacy rights deserve this to be heard in committee. Those are my reasons. Thank you.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2023

On motion of Senator STEPHENS, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator MATTHEWS were ordered printed in the Journal.

Senator GARRETT spoke on the Bill.

Remarks by Senator GARRETT

Members, I'll be brief. I know this has been a long debate for all of us. I'd like to thank Senator MASSEY. I'd like to thank all of the pro-life folks who have been working very hard. I'd like to thank Senator CORBIN and Senator RICE. I would sincerely like to thank Senator CASH, for negotiating and working in good faith in order to try to get something that we could get done.

I want to say this about abortion. All of the court cases have said abortion is different. The reason it is different is because it involves human life. The right to life is from God and is an unalienable right. The right to life is the first and most fundamental of all rights, and other rights are simply secondary to the right to life. Government's belief that it can take life after given the human due process of law has been debated for time immemorial. Grant of life to human beings by God cannot be ungranted by man or by man's government. This Bill, though disappointing, appears to be the best the Senate can do today. The Bill limits execution of babies to about 3,000 babies per year. Right now, after our Supreme Court ruling, we are not saving any babies. Our home, the beautiful State of South Carolina has become an abortionist's haven. A destination for abortion. If we do nothing, we will have 12,000 abortions before the end of this year at the current time because we have people coming from other states. We have to do something.

Another problem that we have -- though, innocent babies' lives have and will be ended -- they have not been and will not be granted the same due process of law that even a guilty or confessed criminal who gets the death penalty receives. They are allowed due process, yet this innocent baby in the womb is never given due process. The unborn child or children as a class have not been given legal status as necessary and indispensable parties in the dispute of their own lives.

Until we in South Carolina give them that right, at least their right to be heard, to give them due process, then we are not following the law. We are not following our own fundamental concepts in my estimation. Our South Carolina system of justice demands that children receive better. There are an estimated 3,000 aborted children per year, that this Bill will allow to die. They are all being denied their fundamental due process. It's repulsive to think our government once allowed slavery of our fellow human beings. I find it equally repulsive to think that our government allows for murder of innocent unborn children. Just as slavery was finally ended by the abolitionists -- they entirely desired to make sure their fellow human beings were treated equally. This fight for life is not over. In South Carolina it will never be over. I promise you that it will not be over until every South Carolina baby is free from these abortionists' killing grasp.

On motion of Senator MARTIN, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator GARRETT were ordered printed in the Journal.

Remarks by Senator SHEALY

Senator, did you know that I am really sad and I'm embarrassed about a lot of things that have happened in this Chamber. In the last year, we probably spent the last three to four years, talking about the same subject. We get stuck on a subject and we just don't know how to get off of it. I love you Senator FANNING, but we get stuck here and you talk a lot, and I love it, but I get tired of it. We have talked about abortion, or what we want to call right to life, or personhood, or whatever the new name of it is this year. We call it something different every year, but, did you know, we are the South Carolina Senate and we have a huge Republican majority, did you know that? We should be able to get something passed, did you know, or not get something passed. But we have spent the last four years going over and over and over the same thing. What are we doing? I think in this Republican creed it says something about don't cower before any master, save my God. Well, it seems to me like we're cowering before the House of Representatives quite often, right? I mean, there is one or five or twenty-seven House members that the Republican -- the real Republican -- Caucus is cowering to. We're not listening to our constituents, we're not listening to anybody else, but we're listening to the Freedom Caucus. We just listen to what they tell us because that's what we're supposed to do. But I've been told that I'm not a real Republican and I don't understand the Republican creed. Did you know that I had somebody ask me the other day if I needed them to send me a copy of the Republican creed? And, did you know, I'm tired of being insulted and saying I'm not pro-life.

I don't like to have another fellow Senator stand up here and tell me or tell this Body, call out other Senators' names and say, this is a pro-life Senator, this is a pro-life Senator, and this is a pro-life Senator. There is not a woman in here that's a pro-life Senator because I never hear my name called out. And I probably work harder for children and pro-life issues for born children than anybody else in here. I raised $50,000 last night to help children and I'm going to get more because she just told me I would, so I'll be waiting for your check. But I'm going to tell you, just because they don't think we are pro-life doesn't mean we are not pro-life, because we are. But I've heard some Senators around here standing in the hall and saying you know when we stop abortions this year, did you know, when we stop every abortion this year, we're going to have more babies to put up for adoption. So I'm going to write an adoption Bill, so we will have more babies to adopt. We're going to have more babies to adopt. I said we have plenty of children to adopt. I know this because I work with DSS, and I work with DJJ, and I work with DDSN, and I work with all of these agencies. If they worked with them, then they would know this, did you know? They put these 5,774 children out there that are waiting to be adopted. Well, they're not babies. Nobody wants to adopt them. They're disposable. Don't worry about them. We just want babies, so we want all of these women, you know, to have babies. We want them to have more babies, so we can adopt them out. We don't want to get on that because I thought about wearing teal all week. You all could wear, you all that are of childbearing age, could wear garnet. I'm not of childbearing age. I just don't understand what the objective is here, when we've got so many children already in the State of South Carolina that are up for adoption, and they don't want to adopt these children, they just want babies. They want women to have babies, that can't have babies, that don't want or don't need to have babies, or there is some reason that women don't just get pregnant to have abortions. In fact, most people that get pregnant really want to have a baby. Since I was thirty-something I had to have a hysterectomy because of issues with cancer and those types of things. People do not just get pregnant, you know. So, I just want to know, all of those people that are working on these adoption Bills, there are 5,000 children out there that need a home. How about call DSS tomorrow and see if you can take one of these children home with you. Thank you.

On motion of Senator FANNING, with unanimous consent, the remarks of Senator SHEALY were ordered printed in the Journal.

The question then being third reading of the Bill, as amended.

Statement by Senators MASSEY, CAMPSER and GROOMS

The South Carolina Supreme Court struck down the Fetal Heartbeat and Protection from Abortion Act in a rambling 3-2 decision in January. The court's decision in that case left the General Assembly with no choice but to take action to correct the misguided decision and reestablish the ban on abortions after a fetal heartbeat is detected. That is why we voted in favor of S. 474. The Bill that is leaving the Senate prohibits abortion on demand after a fetal heartbeat is detected unless the pregnancy is the result of rape or incest, in which case the abortion must be performed prior to the twelfth week of pregnancy, or in instances where the abortion terminates a pregnancy to preserve the life or health of the mother or if a fatal fetal anomaly exists.

The court's decision in Planned Parenthood of the South Atlantic v. the State of South Carolina struck down the Fetal Heartbeat Act but it did not establish that Article I, Section 10 of our state's Constitution contains a right to an abortion. Justices Kittridge and James are very clear on this point. In his controlling (and swing) opinion, Justice Few unequivocally stated that "there is no constitutional right to an abortion." Nevertheless, Justice Few provided the crucial third vote to hold the Fetal Heartbeat Act unconstitutional because of "the General Assembly's failure to consider the necessary factual question (of when a woman can know she is pregnant) as a necessary predicate to its policy judgement was arbitrary." We strongly disagree with that statement and further believe that the decision and analysis undertaken by Justice Few violated the separation of powers.

The Senate's debate during consideration of S. 474 very clearly established that there is nothing arbitrary about banning abortions after a fetal heartbeat is detected with certain limited exceptions. In fact, we very clearly articulated the basis for making that determination and specifically addressed the fact that a pregnant woman can know within 10 to 14 days after conception whether she is pregnant. According to the Cleveland Clinic, as early as 10 days after conception (but within 14 days) a home pregnancy test will detect the presence of human chorionic gonadotropin, a special hormone that developed only upon implantation. A blood test can confirm the presence of that hormone as early as 7 to 10 days after conception. According to the American Pregnancy Association the heartbeat of an unborn child can be detected between 6 ½ to 7 weeks of pregnancy though it is possible, though much less likely, that a heartbeat can be detected a week earlier -- about 5 ½ weeks. That means that a woman can find out that she is pregnant two weeks after conception and has another 4 ½ to 5 weeks to make her decision and have an abortion. It is our reasoned judgement that a month is enough time for a pregnant woman to decide whether to have an abortion and undertake the procedure to follow through with her decision.

The Senate took into consideration the interests of the pregnant woman and balanced them against the legitimate interest of the State to protect the life of the unborn. The Senate looked to experts in the field -- such as the Cleveland Clinic and the American Pregnancy Association (among others) -- for guidance concerning the scientific understanding of the development of the unborn early in pregnancy. Finally, the Senate decided that the proper balance should be struck at the point of a fetal heartbeat -- that is, at the point where a fetal heartbeat is detectable a woman could have known that she was pregnant for a little more than a month and that she had ample time to make a decision about whether to terminate her pregnancy. There is nothing arbitrary about that. Far from it. In fact, DHEC's statistics demonstrate that a "substantial number of women" (using Justice Few's standard) know that they are pregnant and have an abortion within the first six weeks of pregnancy: in 2021 47.9% of abortions occurred during the first six weeks of pregnancy, in 2020 it was 44.5% and in 2019 it was 45.5%. Enacting S. 474 will advance the General Assembly's legitimate interest in protecting life by reducing the number of abortions in this State by a little more than half. There is nothing arbitrary about that -- there is nothing unconstitutional about that.

Statement by Senator SENN

I and others plan to submit more information that would have been shared publicly with my colleagues and by the public for inclusion in the journal. Our submissions need to be in the journal in the event there is another appeal so that they can hear our concerns as well. We are thankful that we have until next Tuesday for the submissions and that the journal will be updated at that time.

Statement by Senator McLEOD

If allowed the time on 3rd reading, I would have talked about procedural due process so that the concerns of my constituents could have been heard and included on this extremely important issue. Their voices were silenced by the rules and procedures that this Body strategically invoked to push this Bill through quickly and bypass the committee process. Consequently, there was very little deliberation. The time allowed for the floor debate was cut considerably and therefore, grossly inadequate.

Statement by Senator HUTTO

Women in South Carolina have a statutory right to an abortion that has been embodied in our Code of Laws for decades. On several occasions, a woman's right to an abortion in South Carolina has been limited by actions of the legislature. Such limitations have included the establishment of a waiting period, the requirement for an ultrasound, and the requirement to be advised of certain information. However, every attempt by the General Assembly to eliminate this right has failed.

Today the Senate again recognized that women in South Carolina have a statutory right to an abortion. Today's action attempts to arbitrarily limit this statutory right of South Carolina women to have an abortion. This newest attempt to impede the privacy rights of over half of our state's citizens will most assuredly be found unconstitutional once again. The Bill that passed the Senate today is not grounded in facts or law. No medical testimony was received and no legislative findings were expressed in the Bill. The Bill had no subcommittee or full committee hearing. In fact, the Bill, in unprecedented fashion, passed the Senate a mere seven days after being introduced. The speed with which the majority forced this Bill through exhibits the arbitrariness of the restrictions attempted in the Bill.

Despite the efforts of the majority to wish the untrue true, our State Supreme Court has clearly stated that there is a right to have an abortion in this State. This is not surprising as the General Assembly has repeatedly voted to recognize this right over the past several decades. Once a right such as a woman's right to an abortion is established and recognized in law, such a right belongs to the persons to whom it is granted. For a person to exercise a right, the ability to exercise her right must be meaningful and allow a woman to take the steps necessary to pursue the object of the right extended to her. Under the rule of law, the power granted to lawmakers by the people is limited to making laws that are not capricious. Furthermore, statutes are to apply uniformly to all including those who enact and enforce the law. S. 474 fails those standards by attempting to set some random temporal limit on the right to abortion without any evidence to support such a limit. Such an arbitrarily set limitation effectively takes the right completely away from some citizens who by no fault of their own may not have had the opportunity to access medical information or other input to assist in making an informed decision to have an abortion. In fact, because of the setting of this unconstitutional time limit on abortion, some women will not even recognize that they are pregnant before their right to an abortion is extinguished.

The court correctly cites their preference for deferring to the actions of the legislature, again with appropriate limits. But in this case, as Justice Few stated, "If the General Assembly's factual determinations are clearly erroneous, or if there is no evidence to support them, then the policy determinations and statutory enactments based on those factual determinations are not entitled to the deference we ordinarily give them." These fatal flaws exist in this Bill just as they did in prior attempts to undermine our State Constitution.

The truncated legislative process -- filing a Bill one day, polling it out of its assigned committee the next and undertaking the debate the following day obviated any opportunity to consider any evidence or engage in further fact-finding in support of this edict to the women of our State. There was absolutely no due diligence or careful deliberation given to this piece of legislation, which would render the statutory right to an abortion meaningless.

This Bill has the effect of unreasonably limiting a woman in this State from enjoying one of the most significant rights of a person: to have bodily autonomy and privacy from intrusion into medical decision-making. The Senate has completely ignored the balancing required between this right to an abortion with other state interests. S. 474 gives all authority to the State to set arbitrary time limits and no autonomy to the women to make an informed choice about her own body. Finally, debate and the opportunity to offer amendments was so truncated as to deprive the Senate from performing its duty to avoid passing arbitrary and capricious statutes. Individually Senators are required to take an oath to preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution of our State as well as that of the U.S. Constitution. My statement here for the written record reflects my commitment to that oath.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2023

Statement by Senator FANNING

Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I rise before you today to share my disappointment with the lack of willingness to debate this Bill. This is a critical issue of great concern to the citizens of South Carolina. Yet, our South Carolina Senate repeatedly refused to respect the deliberative process. A body which prides itself in not rushing Bills through; instead, being willing to debate, listen, offer amendments, deliberate -- to insure that we listened to the public -- and presented their concerns to the Body. To make sure that we only pass something of this magnitude after careful, thoughtful debate.

Yet, at every single turn, we did the opposite on this Bill. Bypassing our very own rules and processes -- designed to insure an inclusive, thoughtful deliberative process.

The beginning point of any Bill is the subcommittee hearing. This is the only time -- yes, I said the only time -- that the public is allowed to participate in the process. At our Senate subcommittee hearings, we allow anyone and everyone with a concern or who is interested in a Bill -- to come before us and share their views. It is at these subcommittee hearings that we come together -- listen together -- all in the same room with the interested South Carolina citizens -- telling all of us, at the same time, what they want us to know about the Bill. Often times, when a Bill might be controversial, our Senate holds multiple subcommittee hearings on a Bill.

This is the fundamental process of our representative democracy that I taught in my 12th grade American Government class, when I taught High School Social Studies. Yet, the South Carolina Senate held zero subcommittee hearings on the Bill.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2023

The next step in our own Senate process is the full committee meeting. At this meeting, we take the public's input from the subcommittee hearing and debate the merits of the Bill. Members offer and debate possible amendments. Errors are caught in this process. Consensus and/or compromise is reached. And the full committee then reports the full Bill out favorably, with amendments to the Senate floor. This historic committee process is fundamental to ensuring a Bill has been properly vetted, mistakes addressed, compromise reached, public heard -- before it reaches the Senate floor.

Yet, this entire Senate committee process was bypassed on this Bill. Instead, we "polled out" the Bill directly to the Senate floor with no debate nor public input. None at all.

Once a Bill hits the floor, our Senate Rules require that a Bill sit on the Senate Calendar for twenty-four hours before a Bill can be taken up for debate. This is to ensure that every Senator (especially those not on the committee) get a chance to read the Bill -- talk to their constituents - - and come ready for debate with possible amendments.

Since the Senate bypassed the entire subcommittee and committee process on this Bill, this twenty-four hour rule is even more critical -- to allow for Senators to conduct research before debate occurs on the Bill.

Yet, the Senate created a make-believe day -- "going perfunctory" on an off-day -- specifically in order to get around the twenty-four hour rule.

The very next day that the Senate was physically in the body we began debate on the Bill.

And the Senate debated this Bill (a Bill that skipped both the subcommittee hearings and full committee processes) in just ten hours on February 7, 8, and 9, 2023.

Forget the topic of the Bill for a second. Who is the Senate? Are we truly a deliberative body anymore? A body that really respects and adheres to the spirit and letter of the rules. A body that listens to the public -- listens to each other. Debates and amends -- taking our time to get it right?

Or are we the House? In the Senate it used to be "better to do it right, than to do it right now."

Have we now become a body that will run things through right now -- rather than taking the time to do it right?

And it is not like we are nearing the end of a session and are rushing to get things done in the closing days. Today is February 9, 2023, just five weeks into the session. There is plenty of time. Time to hold hearings and listen to the public -- a public that cares passionately on BOTH sides of this issue. Time to listen to each other -- debate and amend. Instead, we move to cloture debate after only ten hours of debate on a critical issue of this magnitude.

Are we no longer the safe harbor for our Democracy? Are we no longer the deliberative body? Or are we the House?

Statement by Senator GUSTAFSON

As I stated on the South Carolina Senate floor, I support S. 474 and want to pass it. Based on the most recent data, South Carolina is quickly becoming an “abortion destination state.” The U.S. Supreme Court returned our state sovereignty, and our job is to determine restrictions on abortion in South Carolina.

Whereas there were committee and subcommittee meetings on this topic in 2021 when the S. 1, Fetal Heartbeat Bill was established as law, this current legislative session has not held similar hearings. There were no medical committee meetings to my knowledge and no opportunity for medical professionals or women to testify about additional exceptions. The few days available for floor debate in the past week were not sufficient to cover additional medical issues that might have arisen since 2021. The brevity of the debate and the swiftness of procedure did not fully allow me to bring an amendment to the Body regarding selective multifetal reduction. S. 474 does not seem to cover this specific exception, and we had a second opportunity to refine the original Heartbeat Bill. Furthermore, the set number of amendments presented a problem for me, as I sought outside sources for medical information and came to additional conclusions.

Fertility treatments have contributed significantly to the increase of multifetal pregnancies. Selective multifetal reductions are sometimes necessary to protect the lives of other fetuses in the uterus. The need for this procedure arises during the first or second trimester, but the lack of language in S. 474 may put fertility treatments and subsequent procedures in jeopardy. Traveling to another state for IVF would be practically impossible for many women seeking to be pregnant. The medical risks of multifetal pregnancies and complex ethical issues ingrained in the related decision making require us to closely scrutinize S. 474. Decisions to selectively reduce a twin or higher-order multifetal pregnancies should be between the obstetrician-gynecologist and the patient.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2023

Statement by Senator SENN

S. 474 is another six-week ban on abortion Bill. This one is aimed at getting a new and differing decision from the Supreme Court of South Carolina than the one handed down barely five weeks ago in a 3-2 split decision. See Planned Parenthood v. The State of South Carolina et al. Op. 28127 (Jan. 5, 2023).

By way of background, South Carolina enjoys a nearly all-male and nearly all Republican Legislature. Outraged that the Supreme Court dared to strike down an unconstitutional abortion law, the Legislature flexed its muscle and made short work of changing the membership on the Supreme Court in a little over a month. Now, South Carolina enjoys being the only State in the Nation with an all-male Supreme Court as well.

In addition, the South Carolina Senate advanced a hastily prepared, a flawed six-week abortion Bill the same week the new judge was elected. The House of Representatives is now chasing the Senate hoping to pass an even more restrictive abortion ban. Should either be signed into law, another appeal will undoubtedly be taken. Yet the same issues that were presented in the first six-week ban on abortion case will also need to be addressed in the second.

The new six-week abortion ban is S. 474. It was filed on February 1, 2023, read over the desk and referred to the Senate Medical Affairs Committee. The Bill contained significant differences from any other abortion Bill that the Senate had previously confronted, to include new medical definitions. It also excluded factual findings or stated interests of state, although that omission does make sense considering that the Senate never had a fact-finding session with doctors and experts on the new Bill. Instead, the Senate Medical Affairs Chairman exercised his authority to not require a fact-finding subcommittee. The Senate received no medical evidence at all. A full Medical Affairs Committee was likewise avoided because the Bill was polled out of the full committee placing this controversial Bill on the floor and in a position to be debated with no evidence in record time.

Once the Bill was on the floor of the Senate for debate, it was insufficiently “explained” to the Senate Body by the Senate Majority Leader, who was a co-author of the Bill. That Senator took the well and spent most of his thirty-nine minutes on stage lambasting the Supreme Court’s decision in the first six-week ban case. He gave little or no medical explanation of the new Bill itself. Rather, he conducted a “hit” by slamming Supreme Court Justices on their decisions then he “ran” from answering questions by his colleagues. No sponsor or Senator ever fully explained the Bill which screamed for medical support, but they also were not in a position to adequately explain the Bill due to the Senate's failure to seek medical advice.

Because of what I see as procedural violations and the need for the court to take up whether South Carolina Senate Rule 15 has become defunct and is unconstitutionally applied, I will also file an attachment containing a detailed timeline spent by the Senate regarding S. 474 as well as caselaw allowing this court to examine South Carolina Senate Rule 15. Suffice it to say that the new six-week abortion ban flew through the Senate in a mere six hours, seventeen minutes and twenty seconds. Most of that time was spent on necessary amendments. By way of comparison, the state's Bill allowing public funds to go to private schools lasted eight legislative days.

Therefore, Senate members could not possibly attempt to relay to the Body what their constituents wanted when two hours as defined in the Senate Rule 15 means that each Senator would get only two point six minutes of talk time should forty-six Senators want to be heard on behalf of their constituents. That amount of time should be deemed insufficient as a matter of law since it gave Senators very little time debating the Bill itself.

A cloture vote was made and passed after I had spoken only twenty-nine point five minutes. I was thus silenced on the Senate floor and other Senate members who also wanted to be heard on the new abortion Bill were silenced as well. We all had to file journal entries to set the record straight. Inasmuch as I was not able to finish my prepared remarks, and because I refuse to be silenced, I now write.

During the short S. 474 debate, Senators were left without any explanation of how the rights of the embryo were outweighed by the rights of a pregnant woman at week six of "pregnancy." In addition, the term pregnancy is facially flawed because the first sentence conflicts with the second. Finally, neither the Bill nor the definitions were supported with medical evidence.

It is true that Senator MASSEY and others attempted to explain the Bill, but they did so too late and only in a journal filing after the Senate had passed the Bill. In his journal entry Senator MASSEY and others admitted that according to the medical articles, a heartbeat can sometimes be detected at week five. That late admission, while appreciated, was also not supported by medical evidence. If true, it certainly should have been presented to the full Senate because some of my colleagues might have been convinced that denying some women an abortion at week five goes even further against the rights of the mother vs. the embryo. It also presents an equal protection argument because some women would be allowed an abortion up to six weeks, while other women would be denied an abortion at week five.

As a non-physician, Senator MASSEY went outside the scope of his qualifications during his short speech on the Senate floor and again in this Senate Journal. He belatedly cited to certain hospital journals on pregnancy while giving not a single salute to the true OBGYN standards set forth by the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG). Written authorities aside, had medical testimony been taken, the Senators and then the court could then more easily make an informed decision, but the Senate chose a shortcut.

I was unable to ask Senator MASSEY if anyone spent the time necessary to consult with live medical professionals and not just online journals about the language in the Bill. If so, did they learn of any implications or possible everyday concerns the new law may cause for both the doctor and patient in actual practice. If so, with whom did they consult?

If passed, S. 474 will dramatically change the law in South Carolina regarding a woman's right to privacy in her health care decisions. Yet the pivotal questions will remain unanswered as they were when the Supreme Court revealed its first opinion striking down the six-week ban just five weeks ago. Those questions are -- Does a woman have a constitutional right to privacy in her health care decisions? Is an abortion considered health care, and if it is, whether a woman's medical decisions can be adequately made in a mere six weeks (or week five) if she does not even know she is pregnant? When should a woman reasonably know she is pregnant?

The Senate heard no evidence of why week six (or five) is not arbitrary in the new Bill when what the woman carries in her body is not even considered a fetus by medical experts at that time. Nor did the Senate address what the Bill and the politicians call a "heartbeat" may not be. Doctors in prior Bills did contest that what can be heard at week six (or five) is not a true heartbeat. These questions and others need to be weighed, balanced, and answered against state action giving the embryo a superior right of existence as compared to the pregnant woman -- and that is before the court even gets to the clearly arbitrary provisions in regarding disclosure of the woman's abortion and medical records to third parties. These issues should be decided under South Carolina's Article I, Section 10 or even Article I, Section 3 of the South Carolina Constitution as well as other federal and state constitutional provisions discussed infra.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2023

I wanted to bring to the Senate's attention what I learned through reading the full January 5th Planned Parenthood opinion (twice) but was unable to do so. I learned that the State refused to provide the court the data it requested. Justices wanted to know approximately how many women actually know that they are pregnant by week six (or five) in order to make an informed decision and act on their decision. I was unable to ask that question and get an answer to that question during the proceedings or why the State objected to providing the requested data being sent to the court. I thought ignoring the state's highest court's request for medical evidence was arrogant given that one hundred seventy legislators equal five Supreme Court Justices as far as a balance of power is concerned.

Given that the Legislature is a co-equal branch of government, do not we owe it to the court to provide what at least three justices expressed they needed just five weeks ago before wasting their time and the state's money again?

As for wasting the state's resources, I am unable to advise my colleagues of the cost to the State as related to recent abortion legislation and the Planned Parenthood case. My request for a cost breakdown paid by agencies and prior defendants revealed that in the past two years South Carolina has spent:

- Senate PRESIDENT Thomas Alexander - $144,564.01
- House of Representatives, Former Speaker Jay Lucas, Speaker Murrell Smith and Dr. Maureen L. Condit - $153,874.83
- SC Board of Medical Examiners (SC LLR) - Reported use of in-house lawyers, no extra costs
- Director Edward Simmer (SC DHEC) - Reported use of in-house lawyers, no extra costs
- Solicitor Scarlett Wilson - Reported no expenditures
- Solicitor Gipson - $12,833
- Solicitor William W. Wilkins III - Reported costs absorbed by Attorney General
- Attorney General - Reported use of in-house lawyers, $63.74 court filing fees
- Governor's Office - $182,000 outside legal fees plus $84,289.61 court filing fees, printing costs and attorney's fees
- Special Sessions House and Senate 2022 - $175,000
- Senate costs February 7-9, 2023 related to S. 474 - $34,802.42
- House of Representatives costs February 14-16, 2023, related to H. 3774 - $96,362.23

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2023

- South Carolina Law Enforcement Division (security) - $34,502.91
- SC Department of Natural Resources (security) - $31,688
- SC Department of Public Safety (security) - $240,260.24
- SC Department of Probation, Parole and Pardon (security) - Report pending

Total: $1,190,240.24

Some expenditures have not been reported yet. This list will soon be updated and amended and made available for inspection to anyone asking for the final tally.

Because of the costs related to abortion matters (which has the Legislature obsessed) the current Bill should have been made to go through proper legislative channels and vetting. Rather, we have set up yet another costly appeal which is, of course, NOT fiscally conservative.

Only in this journal and written after the Bill had passed did Senator MASSEY and others reveal that DHEC records show that less than half of the women who get an abortion in South Carolina do so before six weeks. I find the DHEC data useful, and I wish it had been adequately relayed during debate and not just in this journal because the flip side of the data is that MOST women do not get abortions before six weeks. This data supports that most women do not know they are pregnant at week six (or five) or if they do, they have not had time to arrange the medical procedure. In fact, the DHEC data shows that in 2019, 53.9% of abortions were performed between 7-13 weeks. In 2020, the results in the 7-13 week category was that 55% of abortions were conducted and again in 2021, where 51.3% of abortions were performed between weeks 7-13. Therefore, if data presented outside of the Senate floor and after debate is considered, this DHEC data weighs in favor of a determination that MOST women need more time to determine that they are pregnant and then reasonable time to make life-altering decisions thereafter.

I now cry foul that Senator MASSEY's journal filings are too late and still do not contain reliable medical evidence. But aren't I doing the same? The addition of "evidence" not considered by the full Senate falls outside of materials that should be considered by a court upon review. This problem of haste and neglect will remain so even if the House takes up the Bill and provides at least some medical evidence to its' body because the Senate has already voted without having sufficient information to do so.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2023

Before being seated, I was able to briefly discuss the West Committee Report and why a mere study committee should not be even reflected upon much less relied upon by the court. The language in Article I, Section 10 itself (both in the title and in the body of the Resolution) was clear. Yet I was not allowed due to time constraints to point out to the Senate that the two dissenting justices were misguided in concluding that the West Report was reliable evidence as to what the voters thought in the early 1970's. According to the dissent, the voters likely believed they were passing only a right to privacy, only in electronics a half century ago. We know that dissenting judges were wrong, because if true, their conclusions would lead to the absurd result that a woman would have more privacy rights to the data in her cell phone than the data in her medical records. A female would have more privacy rights to what is contained in her computer than to what is contained within her own body.

Moreover, despite Senator GARRETT's statement to the contrary, we simply cannot dig up fifty years' worth of dead voters and ask what they really thought they were passing via referendum a half century ago. What those voters might have thought they were voting on is wholly irrelevant in 2023 as is the West "study" Committee Report. We must now look to the actual language in the Constitutional Amendment as passed and that language is clear, despite every justice presenting arguments on punctuation. In reality the court needed to have looked no further than the word "and" which is a coordinating conjunction connecting statements or clauses of equal import. It is well-settled what "and" means in our jurisprudence. See e.g. the Oxford Dictionary, which defines a coordinating conjunction thus: "a conjunction placed between words, phrases, clauses or sentences of equal rank."

I was able to partially express concerns that as drafted, the new Supreme Court would necessarily have to go outside of the scant Senate record to piece together fact from fiction. I explained to my colleagues how even after reading the latest six-week ban Bill, I was confused as to the definitions and implications. I had to call an ACOG certified OBGYN, who is not an abortion doctor, but a practicing OBGYN. She told me of her concerns that the definition of pregnancy in the new Bill is conflicting and we cannot have it both ways. The first sentence is contrary to the second. We discussed other definitional problems and probable life-threatening issues that will likely arise in her practice as a result of the latest language in the Bill. One thing the doctor told me was crystal clear. She said, "Most women I deal with in my busy practice do not know they are pregnant until the 8th week." I should not have had to call a medical professional to ask her to explain the Bill and the definitions and how the Bill will impact her quite typical OBGYN practice (not abortion practice). Thus, a reviewing court will necessarily have to go on a similar fact-finding mission or will need to send the case back down for proper consideration by all of the elected officials.

I raised the point that there was not a fiscal impact statement attached to the Bill and the ruling of timeliness was incorrect. The request for a fiscal impact study was timely and needed both then and now because citizens and Legislators deserve answers to the questions of how much the abortion ban will cost if it is upheld. For instance, how many investigators will be needed for DHEC to verify that the law is followed? How many local dollars will need to be spent in law enforcement hours to investigate alleged rapes? How many state dollars or private dollars will medical professionals have to spend to comply with reporting requirements in both state and privately owned hospitals and practices?

Also left not fully debated due to Rule 15's unduly harsh halt to amendments during the debate was the issue of selective reduction options for a woman who is heavily pregnant with many babies which often happens as a result of in vitro fertilization (IVF). This Bill would disallow women needing to have some of the embryos reduced in order to preserve the health and safety of at least some of her babies. This issue is clearly a problem and was not amended. By the time I thought about it, I was not allowed any more amendments. Should the House take up the Bill, I hope they will fix the Senate's error lest every woman who is pregnant with multiple babies as a result of IVF risks losing them all and risks her own life as well.

Turning to women who claim to be raped, I was not able to argue that the Bill demands that doctors not only provide information about an alleged rape to the sheriff, but demands that doctors scare the pregnant woman by telling her that law enforcement will be called in to investigate. That provision is in the Bill only because my colleagues think that women may lie to get an abortion and I do not doubt that a few desperate women will do just that. Any woman determined to have an abortion will get one, even if it is an unsavory way to get herself out of what she perceives is not tenable in her current life situation. A woman who feels a desperate need to have an abortion cannot be understood by forty-one male Senators or any of the members of the current Supreme Court. But surely no one believes that all women lie, do they? I can think of no state interest in forcing a doctor to commit a federal and state privacy violation by calling in police. Said provision should be stricken from the Bill.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2023

Rape is another reality that the forty-one of my male colleagues cannot fully understand because rape is far less common on men than on women. Because men have no womb, even when raped, men cannot get pregnant. Regardless, would a raped man appreciate the insinuation that he was lying about an assault and then being told via legislation that the sheriff will be called even if the man wanted no one to know what had happened to him and was only seeking medical aid?

A rape victim would know and realize that providing such personal information to third parties indeed discloses the very personal and often humiliating circumstances of precisely how she or he got raped. As for females, they often get pregnant by date rape. If men are date raped, their secrets can stay safe with their doctors but the same does not hold true for a pregnant woman should this Bill stand. How does such disparate treatment comport with equal protection of the laws?

If law enforcement were to truly investigate whether a pregnant patient was raped by someone she knows, the investigation would necessarily involve disclosure to the offending male whom the female accused of raping even if she wanted no legal action taken, even if she just wanted to be left alone. The fact that a woman who dated the wrong guy and who raped her causing her to become pregnant could then be made known to the assailant according to S. 474. Her abortion would then be discovered by her assailant/acquaintance after-the-fact so what is the point and what is the state interest?

S. 474 forces doctors to disclose a rape and forces the criminalization of doctors if they do not follow the law which conflicts with other federal privacy laws. If a woman does not have a right to tell only whomever she is comfortable telling about her rape, how is that any privacy at all? Moreover, how does telling the police, and by extension the rapist, help “save babies?” And exactly how far are law enforcement officers allowed to go when investigating rapes and date rapes? How many witnesses can be interviewed about the woman’s most intimate secrets of the assault?

Regarding investigating and researching medical records of the doctors, it is not far-fetched that the state’s only abortion provider, Planned Parenthood, will be under heavy scrutiny from those who would prefer they leave the State. Abortion foes frequently demonstrate in front of abortion facilities. There is no doubt heavy surveillance and scrutiny of abortion providers will continue even if/when this ill-conceived Bill becomes law. The call for regular examination of abortion providers’ records will no doubt be made and be made often. Investigative requests will be arbitrary and harassing.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2023

So, the question becomes: Who, then, gets to look at the patient's medical records during an investigation of the doctor's record-keeping practices? How far can the investigation into just a records violation go? How will it be limited only to what the law prohibits? If a records violation is suspected, won't the patient's abortion records be confiscated as evidence and reviewed? By whom? Can abortion patients be called as a witness to disclose their secrets because her doctor may have made documentary errors?

I wish men could imagine having been violently raped, and after seeking medical treatment, he learns that his deepest darkest secret must be revealed by his own doctor to the police even if he does not want the disclosure. Worse yet, imagine that the records are to be kept for up to seven years lest the doctors can be forced to defend felony charges. Thus, his rape may be discoverable up to seven years later. And what if the sad secret is discovered by an officer whom he knows personally or who knows him by reputation? How terrible would it be for anyone who is raped, male or female, to learn that seven years later the embarrassing details of one of the worst nights of his or her life have been outed by his or her own doctor pursuant to over-reaching legislation with no adequate state interest in such revelation? In that instance, would the men think their privacy had been breached?

I was not able to ask for the co-sponsors of the Bill to explain why there had been no attempt to appeal the three or four state cases cited by the Supreme Court wherein Article I, Section 10 was examined. All five justices dissected those cases and came to differing conclusions on all but one wherein Article I, Section 10 was utilized to have upheld a privacy right. Again, Rule 15 as well as the author's own refusal to answer questions about the intent of their Bill was denied. This denial, if upheld, could easily be repeated forcing guesswork on both Senators who are needing information on the Bill and any reviewing court as well.

My sister Senators and I know that it is NOT true that if we object to language in abortion Bills that we should be considered "pro-abortion" rather than "pro-life." All five females in the Senate are what people have termed pro-life. I have said before and will say again, I believe that I can be pro-life, yet also give a woman through first trimester to determine her own fate. I hope she finds the strength and the necessary support to have the baby.

On the other hand, I support shutting down abortion options after the first trimester (with exceptions) and that is a full eight weeks shorter than the law currently allows. That DOES NOT make me pro-abortion. That makes me have common sense.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2023

Interestingly, post the Senate's vote, a constituent told me that her college professor stated that people who define abortion with only two words are ignorant of the issues. I agree with the professor.

Finally, when my own colleagues try to turn social and religious issues into state issues, it always ends up violating the separation between church and state. One colleague has already publicly said that "alphabet soup" will be addressed another day (referencing the LGBTQ+ community issues). No doubt some anti-gay Bill will be considered soon and will take less than a week before debate ends.

This Bill is arbitrary, not supported by medical evidence and violative of a pregnant female's constitutional rights.

Enclosure: Rule 15 1997-2021 and timeline/caselaw.

The court can and should take up whether the Senate's Rules are unconstitutional as applied -- a link of rule changes over the years to South Carolina Senate Rule 15. Rule 15 is akin to United States Senate Rule 22 and is commonly known as the cloture rule. The list represents the period of time since Democrats lost power in the South Carolina Senate from 2001 to present. It was not until 2021, however, that the rules were amended by the overwhelmingly Republican Legislature to the point that elected officials could not be heard and relay the concerns of their constituency and where minority party members have no voice at all.

To be sure, the Senate is entitled to create its own rules, yet when those rules violate the constitution, it is the court's responsibility to review whether the application of the rules should be stricken.

See e.g. Citizens United v. Federal Election Comm'n, 558 U.S. 310 (2010); Yellin v. United States, 374 U.S. 109 (1963); Christoffel v. United States, 338 U.S. 84 (1949); United States v. Ballin, 144 U.S. 1 (1892).

Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission, 558 U.S. 310 (2010), was a 5-4 split decision of the United States Supreme Court involving the first amendment and election laws. Chief Justice Roberts and Justice Alito wrote separately "to address the important principles of judicial restraint and stare decisis implicated in this case." C.J. Roberts explained that "there is a difference between judicial restraint and judicial abdication." Roberts opined that it was necessary for the court to sometimes overrule prior precedent because in years past, if they had not re-examined the law: "segregation would be legal, minimum wage laws would be unconstitutional, and the Government could wiretap ordinary criminal suspects without first obtaining warrants." Roberts' concurrence argued that "stare decisis ... counsels deference to past mistakes, but provides no justification for making new ones." The same wisdom should apply here.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2023

A timeline of the Senate's short work in handling S. 474 is as follows:

February 1, 2023, S. 474 was read over the desk. It was an all-new and evidently hastily prepared Bill with unusual and unexplained medical definitions and no findings of fact.

On February 2, 2023, the Chair of Medical Affairs exercised his authority not to refer the new Bill to a subcommittee and he polled this controversial abortion Bill out of full committee as well. In addition, the Senate majority leader moved for perfunctory session to be held on Friday, February 3, 2023, and the contested motion carried. This parliamentary move was made to get S. 474 onto the Senate Calendar when no one was present on Friday, February 3rd and thus, it would avoid Senate Rule 39 (known as the 24-hour Rule). The rule requires Bills to be placed on the Senate Calendar a minimum of 24 legislative hours before debate so that Senators know what will be before them. It is often invoked to prevent the body from taking up a Bill that had just reached the calendar.

On February 3, 2024, S. 474 was indeed placed on the Senate Calendar, though it was not timely filed with the Clerk, rendering it violative of the 24-hour Rule.

On February 7, 2023, the 24-hour motion was made by the minority leader, which he lost when it was argued that the 24-hour Rule meant only that a "vote" could not be had, but debate could begin. To my recollection, which could be flawed, the Bill proceeded to debate over the Rule 39 objection. This has rarely, if ever, happened without unanimous consent since my election in 2016. Therefore, on February 7, 2023, debate began over the Rule 39 objection.

On February 7th, we were in session from 12:00 P.M.-3:39 P.M. total which included time not spent on Bill S. 474. S. 474 at 1:16 P.M. started when the Bill's co-sponsor, Senator MASSEY, ostensibly rose to explain the Bill from 1:16 P.M.-1:53 P.M. He spoke for approximately thirty-seven minutes. The Senator devoted most of the time to further berating the judicial decision in the overruled Bill, while exalting the dissenting opinions. Senator MASSEY then proceeded to be seated without taking questions on anything, to include the Bill itself and the medical questions it presented. After the Senator was seated, the Senate began the debate on the amendments. After subtracting time for court recesses, the full amount of time spent on S. 474 on February 7th was one hour, twenty-six minutes, forty-seven seconds.

On Wednesday, February 8th -- caucus meetings -- judicial elections and session debates were conducted on S. 474. After Justice Hill's election, the Senate convened from 3:50-7:12 P.M. and continued debating amendments to S. 474, although breaks were taken. The full time spent on S. 474 on February 8th was two hours, fifty-four minutes forty-six seconds.

On Thursday, February 9th, debate on S. 474 began for the final day. Amendments were argued from 11:32 A.M. until approximately 1:55 P.M. There were only sixteen total amendments, and none were dilatory. Of those amendments, six passed, three were withdrawn, and seven were tabled. Those amendments were necessary, as the Bill was hastily presented and in need of amendment. S. 474 was not truly debated apart from amendments from 1:55 P.M. until 3:17 P.M., whereupon cloture was invoked, ending the debate. I made a parliamentary inquiry about allowing the journal to be updated by any Senator who did not get time to speak or who had concerns. Said journal updates were allowed. Thereafter, the measure passed twenty-eight to twelve. The total time spent in true debate on S. 474 on February 9th was one hour, fifty-five minutes, forty-seven seconds.

Thus, as applied, the people could not be heard through their elected representatives in such a short amount of time. This application of the rules not only is capable of repeating itself, it most definitely will repeat itself with such a supermajority of Republicans in the Senate. It operates to silence the minority too quickly so as to violate the First Amendment as well as Due Process.

RULE 15.

Fixing a Time Certain to Vote

A.

Except for any Reapportionment Bill, the debate on any Bill, motion, or other matter which has been pending before the Senate for a minimum of four (4) hours and the time such Bill, motion, or other matter pending shall be voted upon may be fixed by a vote of twenty-eight (28) members of the Senate. Notwithstanding the provisions of Rule 14 or any other rule, such motion may be made after the time period provided for herein has elapsed and may be made by any member and shall not be subject to amendment or debate.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2023

Except as otherwise provided by a motion adopted under the provisions of Section C of this rule, when the time for a vote arrives, as set under this rule, the Senate shall proceed to a consideration (seriatim) of the amendments on the desk and upon disposition of all amendments, proceed immediately to a vote on the main question. Opponents and proponents of an amendment shall be granted an equal amount of time in the discretion of the presiding officer, not to exceed twenty (20) minutes.

Except as otherwise provided by a motion adopted under the provisions of Section C of this rule, when a motion to fix a date or time certain has been agreed to, the Clerk of the Senate, at that time, is prohibited from receiving any future or further amendments to the pending matter unless the Clerk certifies that an amendment is necessary to correct some technical error or omission or conform the language of an amendment to an action of the Senate taken previous to the consideration of the amendment.

RULE 15.

A.

Fixing a Time Certain to Vote

Except for any Reapportionment Bill, the debate on the question of third reading of a Bill or Resolution may be brought to a close by the lesser of twenty-six (26) Senators or three-fifths (3/5) of the Senators present and voting, if such Bill or Resolution has been under debate for two (2) hours on the current legislative day. The debate on any other matter pending before the Senate, except as otherwise provided in these Rules, may be brought to a close by a majority of the membership of the Senate after one (1) hour of debate on the current legislative day.

Notwithstanding the provisions of Rule 14 or any other rule, such motion may be made after the time period provided for herein has elapsed and may be made by any member and shall not be subject to amendment or debate. Such motion shall include a fixed time for the vote that must be at least fifteen (15) minutes after the motion is made. However, notwithstanding the provisions of Rule 14, during the final three (3) statewide legislative days prior to the date set for sine die adjournment, the time periods provided above may be waived by three-fifths (3/5) of the Senators present and voting.

Except as otherwise provided by a motion adopted under the provisions of Section C of this rule, when the time for a vote arrives, as set under this rule, the Senate shall proceed to a consideration (seriatim) of the amendments on the desk and upon disposition of all amendments, proceed immediately to a vote on the main question. Opponents and proponents of an amendment shall be granted an equal amount of time in the discretion of the presiding officer, not to exceed twenty (20) minutes.

Except as otherwise provided by a motion adopted under the provisions of Section C of this rule, when a motion to fix a date or time certain has been agreed to, the Clerk of the Senate, at that time, is prohibited from receiving any future or further amendments to the pending matter unless the Clerk certifies that an amendment is necessary to correct some technical error or omission or conform the language of an amendment to an action of the Senate taken previous to the consideration of the amendment.

RULE 15.

A.

Fixing a Time Certain to Vote

Except for any Reapportionment Bill, the debate on the question of third reading of a Bill or Resolution may be brought to a close by the lesser of twenty-six (26) Senators or three-fifths (3/5) of the Senators present and voting, if such Bill or Resolution has been under debate for two (2) hours on the current legislative day. The debate on any other matter pending before the Senate, except as otherwise provided in these Rules, may be brought to a close by a majority of the membership of the Senate after one (1) hour of debate on the current legislative day.

Notwithstanding the provisions of Rule 14 or any other rule, such motion may be made after the time period provided for herein has elapsed and may be made by any member and shall not be subject to amendment or debate. Such motion shall include a fixed time for the vote. Any Senator may request a call of the Senate prior to the vote being ordered.

However, notwithstanding the provisions of Rule 14, during the final three (3) statewide legislative days prior to the date set for sine die adjournment, the time periods provided above may be waived by three-fifths (3/5) of the Senators present and voting.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 2023

Except as otherwise provided by a motion adopted under the provisions of Section C of this rule, when the time for a vote arrives, as set under this rule, the Senate shall proceed to a consideration (seriatim) of the amendments on the desk and upon disposition of all amendments, proceed immediately to a vote on the main question. Motion Adopted

On motion of Senator MASSEY, the Senate agreed to stand adjourned.

MOTION ADOPTED

On motion of Senator MATTHEWS, with unanimous consent, the Senate stood adjourned out of respect to the memory of Mr. Arthur Arnold Murphy of Estill, S.C. Arthur was the owner and operator of Repo Graphics Printing for over twenty years. He was a civic leader who was a member of the NAACP and served as Chairman of the Jasper County Democratic Party. Arthur received the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Garden of Light Award, the NAACP Service Award, and a dedicated service award at Bethel Baptist Church where he was a faithful member. Arthur was a loving husband, devoted father and doting grandfather who will be dearly missed.

John 15:17

Our Lord Himself declared so pointedly: "This is my command: Love each other."

Bow in prayer with me, my friends: Holy and gracious Lord, how appropriate is our scripture text today about "love." We all readily acknowledge that, of course. But that itself is the point of this particular prayer: that this Body itself embrace a sense of honest-to-goodness loving and caring, that these Senate leaders do all that is possible to make certain the people of South Carolina know that they are all genuinely "loved." And there's nothing shallow or naive about this prayer. Indeed, Lord, how marvelous and meaningful would such a spirit of love bring to all of the debates, each resolution, and every action this Senate might take on behalf of our citizens. And what great honor would come to each of these leaders -- if only. We so pray in Your loving name, dear Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.

COMMITTEE AMENDMENT ADOPTED

READ THE SECOND TIME

S. 33 -- Senators Hutto and Kimpson: A BILL TO AMEND THE SOUTH CAROLINA CODE OF LAWS BY ADDING SECTION 50-21-107 SO AS TO PROVIDE THAT OWNERS OF WATERCRAFT OF MORE THAN SEVENTY HORSEPOWER MUST CARRY LIABILITY INSURANCE OF AT LEAST FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS OF COVERAGE PER OCCURRENCE, TO PROVIDE PENALTIES, AND TO PROVIDE FOR THE COLLECTION OF FINES; BY AMENDING SECTION 50-21-10, RELATING TO DEFINITIONS, SO AS TO DEFINE TERMS; AND BY AMENDING SECTIONS 50-23-20 AND 50-23-35, BOTH RELATING TO WATERCRAFT TITLES, SO AS TO PROVIDE FOR THE DUAL TITLING OF A WATERCRAFT AND OUTBOARD MOTOR.

The Senate proceeded to the consideration of the Bill.

The Committee on Fish, Game and Forestry proposed the following amendment (SFGF-33.BC0005S), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, by deleting SECTIONS 2, 3, and 4.

Amend the bill further, by adding an appropriately numbered SECTION to read:

SECTION X. Section 50-21-10 (20) through (29) of the S.C. Code are amended to read:

(20) “Personal watercraft” means a vessel, usually less than sixteen feet in length, that uses an inboard, internal combustion engine powering a water jet pump as its primary source of propulsion and that is intended to be operated by a person sitting, standing, or kneeling on the vessel, rather than within the confines of the hull. Personal watercraft include a vessel commonly known as a “jet ski”.

(21) “Reportable boating accident” means an accident, collision, or other casualty involving a vessel subject to this chapter which results in loss of life, injury which results in loss of consciousness, necessity for medical treatment, necessity to carry a person from the scene, disability which prevents the discharge of normal duties beyond the day of casualty, or actual physical damage to property including vessels in excess of the minimum amount set by the United States Coast Guard for reportable accidents.

(21)(22) “Serial number” means the identifying manufacturer's number affixed to a watercraft before November 2, 1972, and to outboard motors before, on, and after that date. The serial number of watercraft manufactured after November 1, 1972, is part of the hull identification number.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 2023

(23) “Specialty propcraft” means a vessel that is similar in appearance and operation to a personal watercraft but is powered by an outboard or propeller-driven motor.

~~(22)~~(24) “Temporary certificate of number” is a temporary registration assigned to a vessel to allow operation for a limited purpose.

~~(23)~~(25) “Tender” means a small watercraft attendant to a larger vessel that meets United States Coast Guard requirements and is used solely for ferrying supplies or passengers and crew between its parent vessel and shore.

~~(24)~~(26) “Use” means operate, navigate, or employ.

~~(25)~~(27) “Vessel” means every description of watercraft, other than a seaplane regulated by the federal government, used or capable of being used as a means of transportation on water.

~~(26)~~(28) “Water device” means a motorboat, boat, personal watercraft or vessel, water skis, an aquaplane, surfboard, or other similar device.

~~(27)~~(29) “Waters of the State” means waters within the territorial limits of the State but not private lakes or ponds.

~~(28)~~(30) “Watercraft” means any thing used or capable of being used as a means of transportation on the water but does not include: a seaplane regulated by the federal government, water skis, aquaplanes, surfboards, windsurfers, tubes, rafts, and similar devices or any thing that does not meet construction or operational requirements of the state or federal government for watercraft.

~~(29)~~(31) “Wake surf” means to operate a vessel that is ballasted in the stern so as to create a wake that is, or is intended to be, surfed by another person.

Renumber sections to conform.

Amend title to conform.

Senator CAMPSSEN explained the amendment.

The amendment was adopted.

~~(27)~~(29) "Waters of the State" means waters within the territorial limits of the State but not private lakes or ponds.

~~(28)~~(30) "Watercraft" means anything used or capable of being used as a means of transportation on the water but does not include: a seaplane regulated by the federal government, water skis, aquaplanes, surfboards, windsurfers, tubes, rafts, and similar devices or anything that does not meet construction or operational requirements of the state or federal government for watercraft.

~~(29)~~(31) "Wake surf" means to operate a vessel that is ballasted in the stern so as to create a wake that is, or is intended to be, surfed by another person.

Amend the bill further, by striking SECTION 4 and inserting:

SECTION X. Section 50-21-870(A) of the S.C. Code is amended to read:

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 2023

(A) As used in this section:

(1)(a) ~~“Personal watercraft” means a boat less than sixteen feet in length which:~~

~~—— (i) has an outboard motor or an inboard motor which uses an internal combustion engine powering a water jet pump as its primary source of motive propulsion;~~

~~—— (ii) is designed with the concept that the operator and passenger ride on the outside surfaces of the vessel as opposed to riding inside the vessel;~~

~~—— (iii) has the probability that the operator and passenger, in the normal course of use, may fall overboard.~~

~~—— (b) Personal watercraft includes, without limitation, a vessel where the operator and passenger ride on the outside surfaces of the vessel, even if the primary source of motive propulsion is a propeller, and a vessel commonly known as a “jet ski”.~~

~~(2) “Specialty propercraft” means a vessel which is similar in appearance and operation to a personal watercraft but is powered by an outboard or propeller driven motor.~~

~~—— (3) “Class ‘A’ boat” means a motorboat which is less than sixteen feet in length.~~

~~(4)(2) “Floating device” includes kneeboards, aqua planes, surfboards, saucers, inner tubes, and other similar equipment.~~

SECTION X. Section 50-21-870(B)(9) and (10) of the S.C. Code are amended to read:

~~(9)(a) operate a personal watercraft, specialty propercraft, or vessel if he is younger than sixteen years of age, unless accompanied by an adult, eighteen years or older, who is not under the influence of alcohol, drugs, or a combination of them. However, a person younger than sixteen years of age may operate a personal watercraft, specialty propercraft, or vessel without being accompanied by an adult if one or more of the following applies:~~

~~—— (i) the person completes a boating safety program as administered by the Department of Natural Resources; or~~

~~—— (ii) the person completes a boating safety program approved by the Department of Natural Resources;~~

~~—— (iii) anyone operating a vessel with less than fifteen horsepower engine will not be required to take the boating safety program.~~

~~—— (b) It is unlawful for a person who has temporary or permanent responsibility for a child to knowingly or wilfully violate item (9) of subsection (B).~~

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 2023

~~—(e) The Department of Natural Resources shall promulgate regulations relating to boating safety programs administered by the department or subject to its approval.~~

~~—(10) wake surf in excess of idle speed within two hundred feet of a moored vessel, wharf, dock, bulkhead, pier, or person in the water.~~

Senator CAMPSSEN explained the amendment.

The amendment was adopted.

Senators CAMPSSEN and DAVIS proposed the following amendment (SFGF-96.BC0007S), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 1, by striking Section 50-21-10(20) and inserting:

(20) “Personal watercraft” means a vessel, usually less than sixteen feet in length, that uses an inboard, internal combustion engine powering a water jet pump as its primary source of propulsion and that is intended to be operated by a person sitting, standing, or kneeling on the vessel, rather than within the confines of the hull.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 2, Section 50-21-90, by adding a subsection to read:

(C) The department must approve of one or more boat rental safety education courses to be taken by persons renting a vessel, personal watercraft, or specialty propcraft from businesses engaged in the renting of vessels, personal watercrafts, or specialty propcrafts. A person who completes a boat rental safety education course approved by the department must be issued a boat rental safety certificate in either electronic or physical form in the person’s name. A boat rental safety certificate is valid for thirty days from the date of issuance and only while operating a vessel, personal watercraft, or specialty propcraft from a business engaged in the renting of vessels, personal watercrafts, or specialty propcrafts.

Amend the bill further, SECTION 3, by striking Section 50-21-95(A)(5) and inserting:

(5) is operating a vessel, personal watercraft, or specialty propcraft from a business engaged in the renting of vessels, personal watercrafts, or specialty propcrafts and is in possession of a valid boat rental safety certificate issued in the person’s name; or

COMMITTEE AMENDMENT ADOPTED

READ THE SECOND TIME

S. 317 -- Senator Shealy: A BILL TO AMEND THE SOUTH CAROLINA CODE OF LAWS BY AMENDING SECTION 25-21-20,

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 2023

RELATING TO ESTABLISHMENT OF BOARD OF TRUSTEES, MEMBERSHIP REQUIREMENTS, TERM AND COMPENSATION, AND ANNUAL REPORTS, SO AS TO REDUCE THE NUMBER OF BOARD MEMBERS FROM NINETEEN TO ELEVEN, TO PROVIDE FOR APPOINTMENT OF THOSE MEMBERS BY THE GOVERNOR WITH THE ADVICE AND CONSENT OF THE SENATE, TO PROVIDE REQUIREMENTS FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF THE MEMBERS, AND TO ESTABLISH A FOUR-YEAR TERM.

The Senate proceeded to the consideration of the Bill.

The Committee on Family and Veterans' Services proposed the following amendment (SR-317.JG0002S), which was adopted:

Amend the bill, as and if amended, SECTION 1, by striking Section 25-21-20(A) and (B) and inserting:

(A) There is created the Board of Trustees for the Veterans' Trust Fund of South Carolina composed of ~~nineteen~~ eleven voting members. The Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint the board consisting of seven members selected at large, two members currently serving as county veterans' affairs officers, and two members who represent veterans' service organizations. Of the eleven appointed members, at least six must be United States Armed Forces veterans. Any veteran who serves on the board, must have been honorably discharged from the armed services. The Secretary of the Department of Veterans' Affairs shall serve as the Executive Director of the Trust Fund and an ex officio non-voting member of the board. The board shall utilize the staff of the Veterans' Affairs Department in order to carry out its duties, as provided in Section 25-21-30. One member of the board of trustees must be the Director of the Department of Veterans' Affairs. The Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint individuals to fill the remaining positions on the board of trustees. Of the eighteen remaining positions filled by gubernatorial appointment, four must be county veterans' affairs officers and five must represent veterans' service organizations. At least eleven of the members of the board of trustees must be United States Armed Forces veterans who were honorably discharged; the remaining members are not required to be veterans; however, if any are veterans, they also must have been honorably discharged from the armed services. The members of the board shall elect officers from among themselves as necessary and shall utilize the staff of the Veterans' Affairs Department in order to carry out its duties, as provided in Section 25-21-30.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 2023

(B) Individuals appointed at large by the Governor shall serve four-year terms, and the remaining initial appointees shall serve two-year terms. Upon the expiration of the terms of those members initially appointed, the term of office for the members of the board is four years, and until their successors are appointed and qualify. Members may succeed themselves; however, no member may serve more than two consecutive terms or eight continuous years, whichever is greater. A member shall not serve on the board in a hold-over capacity at the conclusion of his term for more than 180 days. Vacancies on the board must be filled in the same manner as the initial appointment for the unexpired term, at the pleasure of the Governor and may be removed by the Governor at any time.

Renumber sections to conform.

Amend title to conform.

Senator McELVEEN explained the amendment.

~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~
Indicates New Matter

The Senate assembled at 1:00 P.M., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Exodus 14:21

We read in Exodus: "Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and all that night the Lord drove the sea back with a strong east wind and turned it into dry land."

Let us pray: Dear God, through the centuries You have unfailingly done what had to be done for Your people. And today we also are aware that -- as others have done -- we likewise are to trust completely in You. So we fervently pray that You will once again use Your powers for good on behalf of these servants of the people, O Lord. By Your grace bless each Senator and every staff aide. Allow them to clearly sense Your presence while You lead them as they accomplish great good for South Carolina during this period of ongoing hardships and struggles. And may we all remember to give You the glory. In Your name we pray, Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.
