The Senate assembled at 12:00 Noon, the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Psalm 119:165

The Psalmist proclaims: “Great peace have they who love your law, and nothing can make them stumble.”

Please join me as we bow in prayer: Holy God, we feel a need to pause and pray today for our sisters and brothers all around the globe. For indeed, our world’s trouble spots are so numerous: Ukraine, Gaza and the West Bank, Yemen, Myanmar, Haiti and many other places as well, including here in our own country. All around us are people desperate for hope, for a violence-free future, for a new and better day. So we ask, O Lord, that you touch the heart of each leader here in the Senate of South Carolina. Guide them as they work together to make hope real for all of our citizens, and for others in far off places as well. Truly, may the Psalmist’s call for a “great peace” be embraced by all of us. In Your hopeful name we pray, dear Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.
