Indicates New Matter

The House assembled at 12:00 noon.

Deliberations were opened with prayer by Rev. Charles E. Seastrunk Jr. as follows:

Our thought for today is from Matthew 7:24: “Everyone then who hears these words of mine and acts of them.”

Let us pray. Merciful God, help us to live with our heart and mind caught up in Your love. One of our concerns is for many of us is struggling to live by faith. Lord, grant us the possibility of living our faith. We ask for Your blessings on our defenders of freedom and first responders. Keep them in Your love and care. Bless our World, Nation, President, State, Governor Speaker, Staff, and all who live and work in this vineyard. Bless and protect our men and women in the service of our Country. For those with hidden wounds, keep them in Your care. Lord, in Your mercy, hear our prayers. Amen.

Pursuant to Rule 6.3, the House of Representatives was led in the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America by the SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE.

After corrections to the Journal of the proceedings of Friday, the SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE ordered it confirmed.

MOTION ADOPTED

STATEMENT BY REP. MCDANIEL

Rep. MCDANIEL made a statement relative to the life and legacy of her mother, Mary Lucille Kennedy McDaniel.

Ms. Mary Lucille Kennedy McDaniel

This Black History Month, I pay tribute to the individual who has profoundly shaped the person I am today. She embodies the values and love for her community which define a virtuous woman, as described in Proverbs 31:10. She represents the ideal of what a women should be, having selflessly sacrificed her education and career to care for her siblings after her mother passed away at the young age of 38, leaving behind nine children, the youngest just nine months. She never put her own desires above the needs of her siblings and her own children. Her devotion to God was evident in her over 55 years of service as the church secretary and financial steward. Her faith was also shown through her commitment to reading inspirational messages and engaging in daily conversation with God.

The chair of her church deacon board affectionately referred to her as “the Google before Google” because of her extensive knowledge of her church’s history and traditions. Today, I honor my mother, who passed away on July 22, 2024, leaving behind a legacy of hard work, devotion to God, and a shining example of a virtuous woman for family and friends alike.

Rep. Annie McDaniel
