~~Indicates Matter Stricken~~

Indicates New Matter

The Senate assembled at 11:45 A.M., the hour to which it stood adjourned, and was called to order by the PRESIDENT.

A quorum being present, the proceedings were opened with a devotion by the Chaplain as follows:

Isaiah 12:5

Isaiah the prophet reminds us that we should: “Sing praises to the Lord, for he has done gloriously; let this be known in all the earth.”

Pray with me: How good it is to sing Your praises boldly, dear Lord. And it is right that we do so here in South Carolina, for You, O God, have truly granted us boundless gifts and blessings. Among some of the greatest of those blessings are certainly the children and the youth of our State, those to whom this Senate commits its very best efforts toward preparing them for the world that will be theirs. Thus, the clear importance of this task underlines the need for our State to celebrate having the absolute best teachers, administrators and programs imaginable. Indeed, Lord, may these Senators and their aides unfailingly continue doing all they can to enhance educational opportunities for everyone. In Your loving name we pray, dear Lord. Amen.

The PRESIDENT called for Petitions, Memorials, Presentments of Grand Juries and such like papers.
